

Throwing away all of their pride and ego, they kneeled before Ouyang Feng and pleaded with him.

However, they were only met with the disdainful gaze of Wang Yunqian and the hateful gazes of the Ouyang family.

Such behavior of leeching on the wealth of their family while sucking up to other people would definitely incite the wrath of others.

Ouyang Feng kicked both of them with his foot and said coldly, "There's no use begging me for mercy. You should beg Chairman Lin instead!"

Although they took advantage of their family while buttering up other people, they were by no means stupid even though they had such a horrible personality. Immediately, they understood what Ouyang Feng meant by that and scuttled over to Lin Wenjing.

Kneeling before him, they begged, "Chairman Lin! We were wrong to speak like that just now! Due to our ignorance, we underestimated and even insulted you! Please, Chairman Lin. Have mercy on us and let us go!"

"Chairman Lin, please be generous and forgive us!”

As they groveled at his feet and begged, the pride and arrogance that they had before had disappeared without a trace. They had no other choice because they were terrified of being kicked out from the Ouyang family. As rich second generation young masters, being kicked out of the family would be similar to being thrown out of heaven. How could they, who had already experienced such lavish lifestyles, be able to take it?

Lin Wenjing was not moved by their cries at all. The one thing that he hated the most was this sort of behavior, and he viewed such people as the trash of society.

However, these were Ouyang Feng's grandsons who had the same Chinese blood flowing through their veins. He knew it wasn't his place to interfere so he languidly waved his hand and said, “Just leave.”

They were not clear with Lin Wenjing's ways, so they continued to beg pitifully before they turned to look at Ouyang Feng.

Ouyang Feng let loose a heavy sigh. His grandsons were clearly about the same age as Lin Wenjing. How was he so outstanding whereas his own grandchildren were such fools?!

They had only studied abroad for just a few years but they had already forgotten their roots and were even fawning over the foreigners! Ouyang Feng really wanted to whack them for they had embarrassed him so much!

However, Ouyang Feng could tell that Lin Wenjing did not want to waste his time with the likes of them any longer. Glaring at his grandsons, he scolded, "Hurry up and show your gratitude toward Chairman Lin and then get out of here!"

"Y-Y-Yes! Thank you for having mercy on us, Chairman Lin!"

"Thank you, Chairman Lin! We wish you good health and prosperity!"

After they hurriedly thanked Lin Wenjing, they ran from the room and quickly became the laughing stock of the people present.

The events that had just transpired made each and every member of the Ouyang family feel embarrassed. Even Ouyang Feng, who had already experienced all sorts of situations in his lifetime, couldn't prevent the blush from blooming on his face.

In the end, Ouyang Xuehai was the one who broke the silence. "Chairman Lin, as for what happened previously, we, the Ouyang family, admit that we were in the wrong. We shouldn't have left you just because Wu Meizi made a few threats! Chairman Lin, could you please be gracious and forgive us for our mistakes this time? We will use ten billion to buy ten percent of the shares of Shield Service Group as a peace offering. Would that be agreeable with you?"

Ouyang Xuehai was really humbling himself right then. By using ten billion to buy ten percent of the shares of Shield Service Group, he was basically giving away that sum of money to Lin Wenjing!

It should be known that Shield Service Group had just been newly established, and its market value did not even exceed five hundred million!

In an instant, Wang Yunqian and the few others who were also in the room felt their hearts race. They worshipped and revered Lin Wenjing even more than they already did.

However, Lin Wenjing's expression did not waver at all. Ten billion was just a number to him, and he did not care for the money at all.

He waved his hand and said, "Ouyang Feng, Ouyang Xuehai, for old time's sake, I'll let you guys off. As for forming an alliance, I think we should let that matter rest. As long as the Ouyang family does not cross the line and offend my people, I won't treat you as my enemy."

Ouyang Feng gritted his teeth and said, "Chairman Lin, Xuehai made a mistake with the amount of money. We are willing to spend twenty billion, not ten billion, to buy eight percent of the shares of Shield Service Group! Moreover, we will not interfere with the company's management. All that we wish is for you to come over to our residence for a meal each month."

Instantly, everyone froze in shock at his words! Wang Yunqian and the rest of the staff had their eyes opened wide and their breathing quickened as they took in what he had just said.

Twenty billion! They were going to spend twenty billion to buy eight percent of the shares of Shield Service Group! How was that any different from just giving away that amount of cash to Lin Wenjing?!

Even though Wang Yunqian was a man who had experienced much of the harsh realities of the world, his still heart raced and his breath hitched as his face grew red.

As for the rest of the Ouyang family, their expressions also changed. However, when they thought about it more carefully, if they could establish an alliance with Lin Wenjing with twenty billion, it would turn out to be a good investment on their part.

Instantly, everyone's gazes fell on Lin Wenjing as they anticipated his reaction.

Many people from the Ouyang family, including Ouyang Feng, firmly believed that if Lin Wenjing had even a little bit of common sense, he would not refuse their deal.

However, to their dismay, Lin Wenjing chuckled in a mocking manner and shook his head. "Ouyang Feng, it's best if you and your family take your leave. Yunqian, please see them out. I'm tired."

As soon as he said that, he stood up and walked to his bedroom.

Ouyang Feng was thoroughly shocked. He had assumed that since he had offered such a large sum of money, Lin Wenjing would surely agree to the alliance. After all, was there a person in the world who did not value money? Yet Lin Wenjing's response left him dumbfounded as it was beyond his imagination.

Wang Yuqian was also in a daze. However, he quickly came back to his senses and hurriedly asked Lin Wenjing, "Chairman Lin, won't you consider it once more? It's twenty billion after all..."

Immediately, before he could finish his sentence, Lin Wenjing gave him an intense stare that made his entire body grow cold. Quickly, he responded, "Alright, I understand. I'll see the guest out."

The rest of the Ouyang family were also so surprised that they remained in a daze for a while. Of course, that included Ouyang Yanran as well. In her eyes, Lin Wenjing was becoming more and more mysterious.

Twenty billion! Even if she was born with a golden spoon in her mouth, she would never be able to react so indifferently if she was offered twenty billion! There were many large corporations in the country but their market value was not even close to twenty billion!

According to her understanding, the total market value of Lin Wenjing's three companies only came to roughly ten billion. However, he wasn't moved at all when someone was practically giving away twenty billion to him!

Unwilling to accept the outcome, she cried out, "Lin Wenjing! Why?! Is twenty billion not enough to move your heart?!"

She had asked the question that was nagging at the back of everyone's minds, and everyone turned to fix their gazes on Lin Wenjing.

Lin Wenjing paused and turned around with a profound smile when he heard her question. "I went to Yuan City a couple of days ago and met Jiang Liqun who surrendered all of his assets in order to flatter me. The total net worth of his assets comes up to about sixty billion. Do you think that twenty billion of yours would be enough to make me waver?"

Everyone stared at Lin Wenjing with wide eyes and gaping mouths.

The reactions of both Ouyang Feng and Ouyang Xuehai were especially intense. They knew who Jiang Liqun was so they knew just what Lin Wenjing had meant when he said that.

As for Wang Yunqian, he was so excited to hear that piece of information that his body shook uncontrollably as he looked at Lin Wenjing with even more awe and worship.

The amazement and shock could be clearly seen in the eyes of Ouyang Feng and Ouyang Xuehai as they knew who Jiang Liqun was. It was not an exaggeration to call him the Big Brother of Yuan City, as the estimation of the value of his assets ranged from sixty to seventy billion. If one threw his privately owned assets into the mix, the number could reach up to hundreds of billions! Yet, the fact that all of his assets had been yielded to Lin Wenjing was unthinkable!

Moreover, the most important thing to be noted was that Jiang Liqun was someone from the Pinnacle Realm, but he still surrendered to the likes of Lin Wenjing! That clearly showed that Lin Wenjing's value was beyond their imagination, thus making them view Lin Wenjing in a completely different light.

If that was the case, the twenty billion they had offered really amounted to nothing in the eyes of Lin Wenjing.

Ouyang Feng thought for a while before he said, "Chairman Lin, we apologize for not being mindful enough to take everything into consideration, and we were being presumptuous for coming here to disturb you. Since you want to rest, we will bid you farewell and take our leave.”

Lin Wenjing nodded without saying anything and went straight into his bedroom.

Ouyang Xuehai sighed and felt an immense regret well up from deep within his heart. Had they not chosen to draw the line between themselves and Lin Wenjing at the start, the outcome for the current situation would have certainly been completely different, but alas!

Ouyang Yanran who had not spoken a word all this while continued to purse her lips. She lingered and stared at Lin Wenjing's retreating back instead of following Ouyang Feng and the rest of her family. Gritting her teeth, she walked into his room.

Wang Yunqian was taken aback and quickly shouted, “Hey, what are you doing?! Stop right there!”

The Ouyang family who were just about to leave were stunned as well.

Pursing her lips, Ouyang Yanran said with a firm look in her eyes, “I have something to say to Lin Wenjing!”

Chapter 436 Sorry, I'm Not Interested In You

Wang Yunqian responded coldly, "How presumptuous of you! Who are you to address Chairman Lin by his given name?!"

Ouyang Xuehai quickly grabbed Ouyang Yanran and said quietly, "Yanran, what are you doing? Don't be disrespectful to Chairman Lin!"

Ouyang Yanran replied in a serious manner, "No, I am not disrespecting him at all. I just want to talk to him alone."

"This..." Ouyang Xuehai was dumbfounded and did not know how to react.

Just as Wang Yunqian was about to rebuke her, Lin Wenjing's voice rang out from within the bedroom, "Let her in."

"Yes, Chairman Lin." Wang Yunqian immediately nodded and didn't dare to say anything else. Stepping aside, he let Ouyang Yanran into the room.

Soon, everyone else had left the office, and Ouyang Yanran was the only one that remained.

"Speak," Lin Wenjing said calmly.

Chapter 436 Sorry, I'm Not Interested In You

Ouyang Yanran looked at Lin Wenjing like he was a stranger, feeling as though she didn't know him at all.

When she recalled how she had looked down on him when she first met him, her emotions became conflicted. However, she had begun to look up to Lin Wenjing.

Ouyang Yanran took a deep breath and said, "I'm sorry for what happened in the past. The Ouyang family has let you down. But, I hope that you will give us a chance to make up for our mistakes. Will you give us the chance, please?"

When she saw that Lin Wenjing's facial expression did not change, Ouyang Yanran took a couple of steps forward and bowed. Humbling herself, she pleaded, "Wenjing, for old time's sake..."

"Are you done?" Lin Wenjing didn't allow her to continue and interrupted her. The expression on Ouyang Yanran's face immediately stiffened. "If you've said all that you've wanted to say, please leave. I want to rest."

The entire time, Lin Wenjing's attitude was cold toward the Ouyang family because he didn't hold them in high regard. It was not that he purposefully wanted to treat them in such a harsh manner, but the actions that they had taken in the past had disappointed him greatly.

Chapter 436 Sorry, I'm Not Interested In You

As the Ouyang family had seen how powerful he had gotten, they began to fawn over him and came to curry favor with him. Why would he care about them? He certainly was not a cheap person who could easily be bought over!

Seeing how Lin Wenjing was treating her coldly and not taking her seriously at all, Ouyang Yanran felt terrible.

"In that case... What if I say I'm willing to be your woman?" Ouyang Yanran continued to purse her lips tightly as she uttered those words. She was surprised that she could come up with words like that. Ever since she was a little girl, she had always behaved in a snobbish manner and had treated everybody coldly. For the first time in her life, she had given in to Lin Wenjing!

Lin Wenjing was caught off guard and he finally directed his attention to Ouyang Yanran. When he caught sight of her arrogant and assuming expression, he smiled and said, "Sorry, but I am not interested in you."

Chapter 436 Sorry, I'm Not Interested In You

"You!"

Ouyang Yanran fumed because she had already let go of all of her dignity and pride. The fact that Lin Wenjing continued to ignore her was a big slap in her face.

Never before had she felt such humiliation engulf her. No longer able to control herself, tears finally flowed down her face.

She stomped her feet on the floor and glared at Lin Wenjing as she shouted, "Lin Wenjing, you b*stard!"

After she yelled at him, she turned around and ran out of the room.

Lin Wenjing was a little bit stunned by her yelling because he hadn't expected to get such a large reaction from Ouyang Yanran. He then shook his head and smiled; he didn't take it to heart and saw her as an immature child.

After he shut the door, he rested in his bedroom for a while and took a nap. When he woke up again, he was full of energy.

Chapter 436 Sorry, I'm Not Interested In You

The next day, the people from the Grand Skylight Pavilion came to apologize to Lin Wenjing and were also willing to compensate him in order to make up for their mistakes, hoping that it would help repair the relationship between them.

As the people of the Grand Skylight Pavilion were sincere and genuine, Lin Wenjing didn't make things difficult for them. Rather, he expressed his goodwill toward them.

In the next few days, Lin Wenjing didn't turn away anyone who came to pay him a visit. Through his actions, he showed the general public that he would let bygones be bygones, but he also had certain conditions. For Lin Wenjing to forgive them, they had to bring plenty of gifts and assure him that something like that would not happen again. If a similar incident were to occur in the future, he definitely wouldn't be as kind and generous anymore!

As for the Ouyang family, Lin Wenjing did not continue to make things difficult for them. After all, the Ouyang family was still considered a large and influential family in G Province and if he were to go against them, it would not bring him any benefit at all.

Chapter 436 Sorry, I'm Not Interested In You

After a week, Lin Wenjing took the initiative to bury the hatchet with the Ouyang family. Of course, it was based on the premise that he would get the twenty billion from the Ouyang family.

At that point, the total net worth of Lin Wenjing's assets had increased to a hundred and fifty billion! What was more, that number did not take into account the assets that Jiang Liqun had given to him. If they were all added in, then Lin Wenjing's personal net worth would have exceeded two hundred billion, making him one of the richest men in China!

Of course, Lin Wenjing didn't pay too much heed on that matter because to him, money was just a number and was no longer meaningful to him.

Not long after that, Jiang Liqun took a trip to Hua City and prepared a grade-A Soul Cleansing Pill in order to help him ascend to the Heavenly Realm.

As he had Lin Wenjing's help this time, he felt more confident than ever before.

In fact, it was indeed true that Lin Wenjing personally helped him for ten days. Each time when he felt like he couldn't hold on any longer, Lin Wenjing interfered and helped him to digest the medicinal effect of the Soul Cleansing Pill. After ten days, Jiang Liqun finally managed to break through into the Heavenly Realm!

Chapter 436 Sorry, I'm Not Interested In You

However, though he had finally ascended to the very same Heavenly Realm that Lin Wenjing was on, he was still far from Lin Wenjing for he was certainly not on the same level.

In the past, when Jiang Liqun was still in the Pinnacle Realm, he only knew that Lin Wenjing was powerful, but he could never truly get a feel for just how powerful he really was. Only once he had broken through into the Heavenly Realm himself did he finally realize how powerful Lin Wenjing actually was!

Hence, he was even more in awe of Lin Wenjing.

Lin Wenjing's life had finally begun to calm down once more. During the following month, Lin Wenjing's days were idyllic, and he spent his time cultivating daily without any major incident.

Chapter 436 Sorry, I'm Not Interested In You

That sort of life made him feel very comfortable, but he knew that with his current status and reputation, his peaceful days would not last long.

Sure enough, something happened a short while later, cutting short his peaceful days of relaxation.

In a certain secluded place in China.

Winter had come. However, there were still thousands of flowers in full bloom in that place, and they were especially abundant in the courtyard which was full of cherry blossoms. It seemed rather weird that the beautiful cherry blossoms bloomed when they were not in season.

The courtyard had a very old and nostalgic look to it. It looked like it would appear in historical movies, filled with nature and tranquility.

The people who lived there were dressed in cheongsams, hanfus and other traditional Chinese clothing.

Qin Yizhi—Lin Wenjing's mother—lived in that place.

Her complexion was rather pale and it seemed like her body was weak. She sat cross-legged in front of a guzheng and played it with her fingers, as melodious and despondent melody bloomed from her hands. It was truly a beautiful scene.

A graceful woman walked in from outside and saw the tiredness and sadness on Qin

Yizhi's face. Immediately, she hastened over to her and took her hand in her own before asking with concern, "Aunt Yizhi, are you alright?"

Qin Yizhi raised her head and smiled when she saw the other person before she said happily, "Qing Shu, it's you. Have you eaten? Let me cook something for you."

The woman that came was indeed Qing Shu. She usually visited Qin Yizhi rather frequently. When she saw how Qin Yizhi looked haggard and desolate, her heart ached for her.

At the same time, she couldn't suppress her anger toward the King. He was far too evil, for even though such a long time had already passed, he still refused to forgive Qin Yizhi. At fixed intervals, he would punish her repeatedly and say it was baptism. However, it was essentially just him torturing her and extracting her life force!

"Aunt, have you been summoned to go through the baptisms again? This can't go on any longer. I am going to plead with the King and ask him to stop this madness!" Qing Shu spoke through gritted teeth as she stood up to go look for the King.

Qin Yizhi immediately grabbed her hand and shook her head. "Qing Shu, don't go."

"But Aunt..."

Qin Yizhi smiled and said to her, "Qing Shu, I know that you are worried about me, and I am very grateful for that. However, I don't want you to go looking for the King. Don't worry about me. I'm fine."

"But Aunt, your body has already deteriorated so much! If you continue with the baptisms, you will die!" Qing Shu seethed with anger as she gritted her teeth. "How many years has it been?! No matter how serious the crime, you should be forgiven at this point! Besides, you were just pursuing your true love which shouldn't be considered a sin at all! The King is just too..."

When Qin Yizhi heard Qing Shu say such things, she immediately became worried and she quickly placed her hand over Qing Shu's mouth, saying, "Qing Shu, how many times do I have to tell you that you shouldn't speak badly of the King?"

At that moment, somebody sneered from outside the courtyard, "Oh, my dearest Qing Shu. What did I hear? You dare speak ill of the King behind his back? You must have a death wish!"

As the voice rang in the air, another person suddenly appeared in the courtyard. He was a long-haired man who was dressed in blue traditional Chinese menswear.

The man was so handsome that he looked ethereal. His facial features were so intricate and exquisite it was as though his face had been specially carved by the gods. He also had a tall figure and was the epitome of how a perfect man would look. Compared to the other 'handsome' men in the entertainment industry, it was clear that he far surpassed them.

It was definitely not an exaggeration to say that even a handsome guy like Wu Fanyi would be crushed to smithereens if he were to be compared to him.

Moreover, the thing that made him stand out the most was certainly not his appearance, for that part of him was the least worth mentioning.

After he showed up, the air in the yard seemed to have stopped circulating as though time had stood still for him.

That was because he was a cultivator of the Heavenly Realm. He was very powerful indeed, for he had already reached the highest tier of the Heavenly Realm!

When Qing Shu saw him, her facial expression immediately morphed from an originally calm and composed look into a nervous one as she yelled his name, “Ye Xingchen!”

Obviously, this man was Ye Xingchen. At the same time, he was also known by his nickname, Erlang Shen—the name of a Chinese deity who had a third truth-seeing-eye on his forehead—within his organization.

Sumeru Heaven was a theological organization, and everyone within the organization had a unique Immortal name to identify each other easily.

“What are you doing here at my aunt’s place? This place is not under your jurisdiction!” Qing Shu glared at Ye Xingchen with hostility and disgust.

Ye Xingchen smiled meaningfully at her and paid no mind to her hostility. “Of course, I came here because I have some business to attend to. Qing Shu, I’ve heard what you said about the King.”

Qing Shu frowned and said coldly, “If you want to report me, please, by all means, go ahead and do so. You don’t have to put on a show in front of me because I will never believe a thing you say or do!”

Qin Yizhi hurriedly intervened and said, “Lord Xingchen, Qing Shu was simply joking and fooling around with me just now. She certainly has no intention of offending the King! Please be benevolent and forgive Qing Shu, alright?”

Qing Shu immediately reached out and grabbed Qin Yizhi’s hand. “Aunt, you don’t have to beg on my behalf. Let him go and tattle to the King. I haven’t done anything wrong so I’m not scared at all! I never had the intention to disrespect the King!”

After Qing Shu said that, she coldly waited for Ye Xingchen’s response. Her eyes were filled with disdain for that man and she regarded him as a stray dog.

Ye Xingchen was annoyed with the way she looked at him and snorted, “Qing Shu, you don’t have to be so arrogant. I let this matter slide because the Saint pleaded with me on your behalf.”

Qin Yizhi’s facial expression relaxed and just as she was about to express her thanks, Ye Xingchen continued, “Oh shucks, curse my bad memory. I forgot that you are no longer a Saint but just an ordinary member of the organization. Tsk, tsk.”

He shook his head after he said that, and he had a scornful expression on his face.

The smile on Qin Yizhi’s face instantly stiffened.

Qing Shu had never liked Ye Xingchen. When she saw how that bastard had just ridiculed Qin Yizhi, how could she stand to it? Her facial expression morphed into a chilling expression and an intense murderous aura erupted from her being like shards of ice, shooting toward him. “Ye Xingchen, if you have the guts to do it, I dare you to say it one more time!”

Ye Xingchen could feel Qing Shu’s murderous aura, and an expression of fear slipped out on his face. He snorted coldly and shut his mouth. He did not say anything else lest he angered Qing Shu further.

He was well aware of Qing Shu's stubborn character, and he knew that if he continued to speak, that mad woman would really come at him and fight him until one of them gave up or died.

Taking a good look at Qing Shu's exquisite figure, a wicked fire began to spread in his heart, and he wanted to vent his anger on the lower half of her body. He had already set his sights on Qing Shu a long time ago, but he didn't dare to make a move on her because of who she was as well as how high her cultivation level was.

There would come a day when he would have the opportunity to conquer Qing Shu and ravage her body like a beast.

"Qing Shu, seeing that you are a woman, I won't waste my time arguing with you and I will forgive you." Ye Xingchen huffed before he continued, "I'm here to ask you about your frequent absences from the organization in the past three months. What exactly were you up to in G Province?!"

When Qin Yizhi heard what he had said, her heart skipped a beat and she became nervous.

Chapter 437 A Lawless Man

Qing Shu also frowned when she heard what he had said. Of course, the reason why she went to G Province so frequently during the last three months was because she wanted to guard and protect Lin Wenjing. But that piece of information was something that she could never let the organization find out.

Ye Xingchen glared at Qingshu and could tell her unusualness by a glance. Although it was just a glimpse, he managed to capture it.

Qingshu said coldly, "Ye Xingchen, don't you think you are caring too much? Do I have to report to you what I'm doing in G Province?"

Seeing Qingshu's reaction, Ye Xingchen was certain that she was going to G Province and that there were some unspeakable secrets. He stepped forward and spoke. "I am the law enforcer and am a rank higher than you. Due to the abnormality of your whereabouts for the past three months, I came to ask you on purpose. But not only did you not cooperate, you acted rude toward me. Could it be that you are feeling guilty and have betrayal thoughts?"

With that, Ye Xingchen's eyes widened, and a fierce aura erupted from him. It was so strong that wind blew from nowhere, making everyone pressurized.

Qingshu's gaze turned cold. She originally held some grudges against Ye Xingchen, but now, he purposely came over to make things difficult for her.

“Ye Xingchen, since when have you, a law enforcer of the east region, had control over the matters in the west? You are clearly disrespecting the organization’s rules and the King!” Qingshu released her aura that was not weak as well and went against Ye Xingchen. “How dare you!”

With that, a sound rang in the distance. “Ye Xingchen, who gave you the authority to control things in the west region?”

A woman in her mid thirties appeared in the courtyard. She looked beautiful and graceful dressed in a robe, and the aura she let out was terrifying. She was a Heavenly Realm upper-tier master.

Ye Xingchen’s face turned gloomy, and fear glinted in his eyes. The middle-aged woman before him was the law enforcer of the west region who had the same ranking as he.

Qingshu bowed when she saw the middle-aged woman and greeted her. “My Lady.”

The law enforcer of the west region nodded at Qingshu before nodding at Qin Yizhi respectfully with a smile. She was obviously respectful toward Qin Yizhi.

Seeing that the law enforcer of the west appeared, Ye Xingchen knew he couldn't continue making it difficult for Qingshu. Hence, he sneered and left after giving Qingshu a threatening glare.

After he left, the law enforcer of the west said to Qin Yizhi, "It's an honor to meet you, my Saint. I'm Qing Xuan."

"Qing Xuan, you don't have to greet me. I'm no longer the Saint, so just call me sister." Qin Yizhi smiled bitterly.

The law enforcer of the west shook her head and replied seriously, "In my heart, you are forever the Saint."

Being called 'The Saint' made Qin Yizhi drift away and recall her glorious past. However, ever since she left Sumeru Heaven and married into the Lin's family, all these became history.

After chatting for a while, the law enforcer of the west warned Qingshu seriously, "Qingshu, you have to be careful from now on. I think Ye Xingchen will come back for you."

Her words were vague, but Qingshu wasn't dumb, so she immediately understood what she meant. Therefore, she nodded, indicating that she understood.

After leaving, Ye Xingchen sneered as he muttered to himself, "Qingshu, I was just testing you, yet your reaction was huge; you clearly are hiding something! You have been visiting the G Province quite a lot for the past three months, so there must be something you are hiding. You'd better hope I don't find out your secret, or you won't be able to escape from me. By then, I will own you!"

Thinking of that scene made Ye Xingchen smile wider. "I heard that Qingshu has a Pure Yin Physique, which is rare in the world. If I get her, my cultivation will definitely grow much stronger, and it'll be possible for me to break through to the Immortal Realm!"

Having a Pure Yin Physique would not only enable a woman to cultivate faster than other females; it also had another miraculous effect, which was increasing the male's cultivation speed through certain methods.

In the entire world, it was rare to find a woman with a Pure Yin Physique. Ever since Ye Xingchen learned that Qingshu was one, he had been thinking of getting her.

He was at the upper-tier in the Heavenly Realm, and once he cultivated with Qingshu, he would definitely be able to breakthrough and reach the Immortal Realm! By then, he would be one of the greatest men in Sumeru Heaven!

However, Qingshu's cultivation wasn't bad as well, so he couldn't guarantee that he could defeat her. Therefore, he couldn't force it, and the best way was to obtain it using smarter methods.

That was why he turned his focus onto G Province. He believed that there must be some secret there, because Qingshu kept going!

At Lin Wenjing's side, he was using some of his time to train the new batch of bodyguards at Shield Service Group.

These new bodyguards were all pretty strong and famous. They'd never heard about Lin Wenjing and were unconvinced by his ability at first, but soon, they let go of their ego and contempt after they witnessed his scary strength. They became respectful toward him and learned from him attentively.

Lin Wenjing was used to things like this.

However, being the Chairman of Shield Service Group, he was often responsible for training the new bodyguards. Nevertheless, it wasn't a suitable plan in the long run, so he decided to train a chief instructor to take over his job.

Just then, two people dashed in from the outside, and they looked panicked as they strode toward Lin Wenjing.

Lin Wenjing noticed them right away. His ears moved a little, and before the two subordinates could speak, he stopped and told the new bodyguards to continue practicing while he walked out.

"Chairman..."

"Yeah, I know."

The two subordinates were stunned. We haven't even reported yet, but the Chairman knew? That is miraculous.

Lin Wenjing's hearing was beyond ordinary people's imagination. He just had to calm down and listen, and he could immediately hear the two strong breathing sounds outside. He could also feel their strong aura.

It was clearly the two masters he met previously.

As expected, Lin Wenjing saw a man and a woman dressed in grey uniforms standing in the hall when he walked out.

As Lin Wenjing saw them, they were also looking at him. Their eyes met.

Lin Wenjing already knew that they were the ones who followed him when he was fighting against Smith and Connor back then. The two of them were likely to be from the officials.

"May I know who you—"

Before Lin Wenjing could finish his sentence, one of the men cut him off and glared at him fiercely. "Lin Wenjing, you are suspected to be involved in a huge murder case. Please come with us!"

Everyone in the hall was shocked when they heard this.

The most severe crime in their country was murder, and once one was caught, they would be sentenced to death!

Any ordinary person would've been so scared that they wet their pants, but there was no panic on Lin Wenjing's face at all. Instead, he was still smiling. "There's no hurry. Since you are here, why don't you come in and have some tea? I have the best Longjing tea from Hang Town."

He looked calm, and there wasn't a trace of fear or panic on his face as he looked at them smilingly. Those who didn't know better would have thought that he was greeting his friends.
