

It was a 14 inches wide, square box.

A jade toad was fitted nicely into the box, the depth of the emerald green of the jade was breath-taking, it was exuding a brilliance aura.

This was definitely one of the priceless jades that could not be found on the market.

Bai An Xiang was even hesitant to touch the precious ornament.

In hindsight, her being able to tell that it was a highly valuable item despite her amnesia was an evidence of how precious the ornament looked.

Cheng Yuan was left speechless for a moment.

Bai An Xiang cautiously slid the jade toad toward Cheng Yuan, then said in an unsettling manner, "I... Don't dare to accept this."

She thought it was a gift from Cheng Yuan.

Cheng Yuan wiped his hand with a napkin, then cautiously lifted the jade toad and inspected it closely.

Suddenly, he noticed a dazzling reflection of its mouth.

The reflection caught his eyes and he realized there was something else inside.

Thus, he pulled out a blue diamond ring from the jade toad's mouth.

The Blue Angel!

Right, this was the blue diamond ring which he drove up the prices of during the auction and ended up being acquired by Meng Da Qian.

When the ring was presented during the auction, the first thought that came to Cheng Yuan's mind was to bid for it as a gift for Bai An Xiang.

But he later learned that the ring was not that valuable, he wanted the best for An Xiang, so he did not end up buying it.

Song Yu was present at the auction, he thought Cheng Yuan was eager to purchase it.

When Cheng Yuan held the ring in his hand, the illuminating reflection of the blue diamond resembled the countless dazzling stars in the middle of the night.

Bai An Xiang was gawking at it.

Cheng Yuan noticed her expression, so he brought the ring to her, then asked with a smile, "Do you like it?"

Without thinking twice, Bai An Xiang nodded repeatedly.

But when Cheng Yuan grabbed Bai An Xiang's fair, delicate hand, Bai An Xiang instinctively tried to withdraw her hand, but this time, Cheng Yuan held it firmly.

She struggled briefly before giving in but was perturbed at this point. She kept her head lowered and peeked at Cheng Yuan, while he held her hand.

Cheng Yuan gradually slid the Blue Angel into Bai An Xiang's ring finger.

At this moment, another scene from the past flashed before her eyes.

Over two years ago, during their wedding ceremony, the host announced the exchange of rings before Cheng Yuan put a cheap diamond ring onto her ring finger.

However, Bai An Xiang's face was filled with disdain and hopelessness at the time.

Cheng Yuan was also dejected to see her expression.

The wedding was held in a hasty and gloomy fashion.

Until today, Cheng Yuan still felt that was their biggest regret, he wanted to make up for it.

The moment he slid the ring into her ring finger, the timorousness in her eyes no longer existed, her charming eyes were filled with perplexity and curiosity, also...

A glimmer of realization!

"I wish to give you another wedding." Cheng Yuan gazed at her gently, then said sincerely.

Bai An Xiang did not know how to react, she lowered her head and pouted her lips firmly.

Before leaving home to go to Jun Feng, Cheng Yuan turned around and glanced at his villa, he suddenly felt sorry and remorseful.

'How lonely could Bai An Xiang be to stay in such a huge villa alone everyday?'

However, with all the issues Jun Feng was facing, he had to attend to them.

'What now?'

Cheng Yuan pondered briefly, then gave Mu Ru Zhen a call.

"Hello, where are you?"

"Nonsense, where else can I be? Of course I'm at work." Mu Ru Zhen maintained her usual peevish tone with Cheng Yuan.

Previously, Cheng Yuan tricked Bai Yong Ming into throwing the helve after the hatchet and managed to acquire a renovation company. He intended to let Bai An Xiang manage the company, but due to her condition, he could only let Mu Ru Zhen take over for the time being.

Closely after, Bai An Xiang suffered from memory loss, hence although the owner of the company was changed to Bai An Xiang, Mu Ru Zhen was actually the one running the show.

"Come pick up my wife." Cheng Yuan said.

Upon hearing this, Mu Ru Zhen asked delightfully, "Has An Xiang recovered from amnesia?"

"No, I just think she's too lonely at home, so I figure you could get her to familiarize herself with the company's operations, doesn't matter what she does, as long as she's happy."

"..."

Cheng Yuan arrived at Jun Feng and found out that Li Tian You had been expecting him in the waiting area.

"How long have you been waiting for?"
Cheng Yuan shook his hands.

Li Tian You smiled, "Not for long."

"Zi Yan, please serve Mr. Li some tea." Cheng Yuan shouted.

"That's alright, I have gastric issues." Li Tian You swiftly put up his hands and declined.

"Red tea is good for your stomach."

After a series of small talking, Cheng Yuan went to the main topic.

"Have you gone through the documents I handed in? I hope President Li could expedite the loan for the redevelopment of the lands, as for the interest, there's no need to waive it, we shall go by the books."

Li Tian You smiled, "Mr. Cheng, you're standing on ceremony here, who would charge interest when lending money to a friend?"

"Friend?" Cheng Yuan startled lightly.

"What is it? Does Mr. Cheng not want to be friends with me?"

"Hehe, friends don't address each other as misters, call me Cheng Yuan."

"Haha..." Li Tian You laughed, "Cheng Yuan, seeing as you trust me, don't worry about the funds, I'll make sure you receive them in three days."

"Erm..." Cheng Yuan paused briefly, then said, "Tian You, are you familiar with Zhong Shang?"

"Zhong Shang? Guess so." Li Tian You smiled, "The Zhong Shang Bank is a subsidiary of The Zhong Shang Construction Group of Companies, the group has been managing their finances pretty well, but after what happened yesterday, I'm guessing Song Yu is being reprimanded at this point."

The reason Cheng Yuan asked about Zhong Shang Group was because he accepted Song Yu gift. He thought, since there was no significant grudges between them and he was willing to repent, Cheng Yuan could give him a second chance.

Of course, with the condition that he would not plot against the people around him anymore.

After the ordeal, Cheng Yuan expected him to learn his lessons.

In reality, Li Tian You's guess was right, Song Yu was actually being reprimanded at this moment, he was being heavily scolded.

The chairman of Zhong Shang Group, Song An, flew into the city from the southern states after learning the news.

Song Yu picked him up at the airport. As soon as he saw Song Yu, Song An thrustured his fingers on Song Yu's head repeatedly and said in an uncontrollably furious manner, "You fool! Fool! You're nothing but a bloody foolish pig!"

Song Yu kept ducking while being poked at publicly in the airport like a tortoise.

After entering the car, Song An did not stop scolding Song Yu for a moment.

"Over 100 billion, are you joking with me? If everything is withdrawn, what's going to happen to our construction in the south?"

"Did you fucking grow up eating shit? Here, here and here, are they filled with shit?" He poked at Song Yu's head and belly continuously.

Although Song An and Song Yu came from the same city, Song An was his boss, hence he would not refute even after the series of scolding.

He knew Song An was heated up right now, if he tried to find an excuse, he would only add fuel to the fire. Hence he could only remain silent as he was being rebuked.

After Song An settled down, Song Yu said, "Chairman, don't worry, I'll settle it, since the main culprit, Cheng Yuan is just a young man, let me sweet-talk him, I'll make sure everything will be fine."
