

Cheng Yuan arrived at the ward the moment Bai Yong Ming muttered this sentence.

Upon noticing Cheng Yuan's sudden appearance with a grim expression, Bai Yong Ming scoffed and stayed silent.

In this instance, Cheng Yuan could not be bothered by him at all, he walked straight up Li Ning Juan and asked, "Mom, how are An Xiang and dad?"

Li Ning Juan saw Cheng Yuan and became even angrier, she asked, "What are you doing here now? Are you too early?"

"?"

"They haven't been buried yet, why don't you come when that happens?"

"No, mom, I..."

"Shut up!" Li Ning Juan glared at him, then said listlessly, "I seriously regret letting An Xiang marry a conscienceless guy like you."

Li Nan Di and Mu Ru Zhen came out of the ward when they heard the clamouring outside.

Mu Ru Zhen glanced at Cheng Yuan and ignored him, she comforted Li Ning Juan,

"Aunty, calm down, An Xiang will be alright."

"Stay outside and reflect on yourself!" Li Ning Juan rebuked Cheng Yuan.

Following this, she entered Bai An Xiang's ward with Mu Ru Zhen.

While Li Nan Di approached Cheng Yuan with her head down, she glanced at him, then recollected the entire incident to Cheng Yuan.

Cheng Yuan's emotion was starting to get agitated upon hearing the recollection, but he was trying his best to control himself.

"Cheng Yuan, you must have crossed someone you shouldn't have, that your wife got involved, right?" At this moment, Bai Yong Ming suddenly chuckled, "Aren't you a capable man? Didn't you trick me into giving a company to you? What is it? Why do you tug your tail like a dog in front of your mother in law?"

"I heard that Bai Shi Ju was covered in blood from the crash, how can he possibly survive?"

"Bai An Xiang received a bat to the back of the head, can she survive?"

"Do you know what this is?"

"This is karma!"

Cheng Yuan was dejected to hear Bai An Xiang and Bai Shi Ju's condition, but he was forced to control himself.

Not long after, a cheer came from the ward, "An Xiang is awake!"

"She's awake, she's awake..." Mu Ru Zhen dashed out of the room jovially and called for the doctor, "Doctor, doctor..."

A group of doctors showed up and swarmed the room again.

Everyone was waiting anxiously.

After a brief moment, a doctor came out and told Li Ning Juan, "Madam, you can be relieved now, Mr. Bai and Miss Bai are safe right now."

Upon hearing the news, Li Ning Juan folded her hands together, "Amitabha, Amitabha..."

Wang Zi Yan managed to rush to the hospital at this point.

She was relieved to know that both Bai An Xiang and Bai Shi Ju were fine, then asked

Cheng Yuan, "Chairman, should we arrange for a transfer to a private hospital, the conditions over there are better after all."

Cheng Yuan shook his head, "Let's talk about this later."

"Later?"

Cheng Yuan was finally reassured to know that both of them were safe.

With his eyes fixed at Bai Yong Ming, he said to Wang Zi Yan, "Let me take care of some business."

Bai Yong Ming startled as he noticed Cheng Yuan was staring at him. He started shuffling backwards, then pointed at Cheng Yuan and said nervously, "Cheng Yuan, I warn you, don't do anything stupid... This is a hospital, even if Bai Shi Ju and Bai An Xiang get lucky this time, if you continue to sin, karma will..."

"Bloody hell!" Before Bai Yong Ming could finish his words, Cheng Yuan threw a punch toward him.

"Thud!"

Bai Yong Ming received a punch on his jaw and stumbled to the ground.

Cheng Yuan pinned him down and launched multiple punches at him.

"Ah... Murder!"

"Help!"

Bai Yong Ming threw his hands around in attempts to block the punches, while yelling like he was a pig being slaughtered.

Everyone was stunned at this sight.

The doctors surrounded Cheng Yuan to calm him down, but Cheng Yuan shouted, "Bai Long, anyone who comes forward gets beaten up!"

Bai Long stood right next to Cheng Yuan like a steel tower, nobody else dared to approach Cheng Yuan anymore.

The doctors and nurses were frightened to see Bai Yong Ming getting beaten up violently by Cheng Yuan, all of their faces turned pale.

"Help!" Bai Yong Ming continued to yelp.

Cheng Yuan continued to throw punches on his face, "I will bloody kill you no matter how much you scream today!"

"Nobody can save you!"

"Nobody can stop me!"

Mu Ru Zhen was astonished, so was Wang Zi Yan and Li Nan Di, meanwhile Li Ning Juan was befuddled to see this.

Was that appeasing?

To Li Ning Juan, it was extremely appeasing, but there should at least be a boundary. At this rate, Cheng Yuan might actually kill Bai Yong Ming.

"Stop!" At this moment, a voice suddenly arose.

A group of men shoved the heavily crowded alley of the hospital away, Li Wei brought his men to stop Cheng Yuan.

Bai Yong rammed his shoulder into him.

Li Wei did not expect Bai Yong to attack him, he startled and tilted his body, then blocked Bai Yong's arm with his palm.

With the redirection of forces, Bai Long's momentum actually got neutralized by Li Wei, he stared at Li Wei in surprise.

Li Wei ignored Bai Long, he shouted at Cheng Yuan, "Cheng Yuan, stop it, you will kill him if you keep going!"

Cheng Yuan was panting heavily at this point from all the punches he threw, while Bai Yong Ming's voice was getting increasingly meeker. In the end, he stopped flailing his arms around like he was dead.

"That's the point, I just want to beat this bloody imbecile to death today!" Cheng Yuan insisted in a vicious tone.

Li Wei's men pulled out their guns and aimed at Cheng Yuan.

But Li Wei waved his hand, gesturing for his men to calm down, he shouted at Cheng Yuan again, "You ought to know that you need to pay if you really killed him!"

"Shut up!" Cheng Yuan did not listen to Li Wei, he continued to throw punches at Bai Yong Ming.

In reality, if it weren't for the toxin that weakened him, Bai Yong Ming would have at least received brain damage at this point.

Regardless, Bai Yong Ming still passed out from the violent thrashing.

"Sir, what do we do? Shoot him?" One of Li

Wei's man said anxiously.

"Nobody shoots him without my order!" Li Wei shouted.

"But..."

"But what, this is the hospital!"

There were kidnappers who tried to abduct Bai An Xiang and Li Nan Di, Bai Shi Ju knocked one of them dead with his car, hence this was considered a huge case. Upon receiving the notification, Li Wei rushed to the hospital with his men, but little did he expect that he would see Cheng Yuan going berserk.

Li Wei could not go pass Bai Long, but he did not seem to have the intention to. He gave up stopping Cheng Yuan because he was reminded that they were friends.

Sometimes, if you do not stop your friend from committing a mistake, people would say that you are not a true friend.

This was common sense. However, since taking off his uniform and beating Li Chang Yi and Long Chen Yu for Cheng Yuan, the common sense was starting to fade away in his mind.

As of this moment, he felt that friends should make foolish mistakes together, then bear the consequences together.

Thus, he stared at Cheng Yuan listlessly.

After throwing the last two punches, Cheng Yuan prostrated on the ground, then tried to help himself up with his trembling arms.

He did not manage to stagger to his balance, but he turned around and stared at the crowd while panting heavily.

He noticed Li Ning Juan's pale face, with tears rolling in her eyes.

He noticed Li Nan Di, Mu Ru Zhen and Wang Zi Yan completely stunned.

He noticed Li Wei smiling at him lightly.

With a wry laugh, Cheng Yuan said, "I've used up my strength, what a satisfying exercise!"

Then blacked out and fainted again.

The doctors were flabbergasted at this point, even when Cheng Yuan passed out, they seemed to have forgotten to rescue these men.

'He laughed just like the devil!' The nurses thought to themselves.

The bloodstain all of over Bai Shi Ju's body had darkened in colour while the ward was filled with the foul smell of blood.

Master dipped a hand towel into the water and cleaned Bai Shi Ju meticulously.

Despite the flurry of clamouring outside, it was as if he did not hear anything at all.

In reality, although he was an elderly with issues on his legs, his ears and eyes remained relatively sharp.

How could he not hear anything?

"I've been fixated on reputation and wealth throughout my entire life."

"I decided to ruthlessly disregard you and your mom as I was afraid of being frowned upon and worried that it would bring negative impacts to my growing business."

"Which is why I have always been afraid to see the two of you."

"Although times are different now, the values that were deeply rooted within me caused me to be burdened throughout my life and made your family suffer for decades."

"I'm sorry."

"Sigh, people say that fifty years is all it takes for a man to learn of the values of life, but it took me eighty years, when my legs are starting to give in, to understand that family is of utmost importance, reputation and wealth are just temporary."

"Shi Ju, don't worry, when you've recovered, I will put your mother's name into the ancestral hall."

Bai Shi Ju was unconscious now, although he responded to master's words earlier, master could not be sure if Bai Shi Ju could hear his words.

Master also did not know that if Bai Shi Ju was fully conscious, he would still say these words.

Both Cheng Yuan and Bai Yong Ming were sent to a ward.

Bai Yong Ming was heavily injured from the thrashing, but he was not in critical condition. Although, by the looks of his injury, it was surely going to leave a few scars on his face.

He was asking for troubles himself.

After learning that Bai An Xiang and Bai Shi Ju were in critical conditions from Bai Shi

Pan, he was reminded how of Cheng Yuan 'tricked' him into giving a company for free. Bai Yong Ming instantly got delighted and could not hold himself back from coming to the hospital to check them out for himself.

Well, checking them out was one thing, his jeering was another.

Now great.

"Sergeant Li, you must bring justice to me, I have never been beaten up in this manner in my life." Bai Yong Ming lamented after waking up.

As the matter of fact, this was not the first time he got beaten up by Cheng Yuan, but he somehow deserved it for insisting to provoke Cheng Yuan.

Li Wei stared at Bai Yong Ming apathetically, then said, "The root cause of the incident stemmed from a kidnapping attempt on Bai An Xiang."

"They deserve it, Cheng Yuan must have crossed someone." Bai Yong Ming responded.

Li Wei scoffed, "So, we suspect the man behind the abducting is you."

"Huh?" Bai Yong Ming was jaw-dropped, his expression was exaggerated by the heavily swollen lips resembling sausages.

"Of course, we are only alleging at this point, we don't have the evidence and we'll need to take a deposition first." Li Wei said listlessly, "So, whether or not you'd like to settle your disputes personally or on the court, I suggest you to make a decision now."

"..." Bai Yong Ming could not process the information, but his instincts told him that he must have been beaten for free again this time.

Cheng Yuan woke up in the middle of the night.

Li Wei was standing right next to him, along with Li Nan Di, Wang Zi Yan and Bai Long.

After cracking his eyes open, Cheng Yuan asked Li Wei right away, "Who did it?"

Li Wei pulled a photo of the scene out of his pocket and tossed it in Cheng Yuan's direction, "One was killed by your father in law, one was captured, from what my men said, these are Old Cat's people, as to whether or not Old Cat did it, the one who got captured would not bulge."

Cheng Yuan struggled to sit up, so Li Nan Di and Wang Zi Yan quickly stepped forward to help him up.

"So you're suspecting Old Cat, but without evidence, there will not be an outcome to the investigation, right?" Cheng Yuan asked.

Li Wei shook his head and said adamantly, "Of course there'll be an outcome, please trust me."

Cheng Yuan sighed, then nodded.

After Li Wei left, Cheng Yuan said softly, "I can trust you for sure but trusting you won't satisfy my rage right now."

Wang Zi Yan and Li Nan Di glanced at each other, as if they could see a raging fire from Cheng Yuan's eyes.

A feeling of terror for Cheng Yuan started to form in their hearts for the first time ever.

Cheng Yuan rang Bald Man Xu, "Gather all of your men."

Over their last few deals and saving his sister, Bald Man Xu did not even ask for the price or what it was for.

"Got it, boss."

Then, Cheng Yuan turned to Bai Long, "I want to see Blackie from the east, find a way to bring him here."

Bai Long nodded, then left the ward.

As for Dading from the south...

Due to the previous incident, Bai Long inflicted a serious damage on his manpower. Cheng Yuan guessed that he must have been hiding somewhere right now, as Bald Man Xu was in the midst of searching for him all over the city.

"What are you planning to do?" Wang Zi Yan asked Cheng Yuan out of concern.

Cheng Yuan said with a gloomy expression, "Revenge!"

Not long after, Bald Man Xu arrived at the hospital.

"Boss, my men are waiting outside right now, we're at your disposal."

Then, Bai Long came back with a huge sack on his shoulder.

"Thud!" He tossed the sack on the toss as if it was a bag of potatoes.

"Bloody hell! It hurts."

A voice of scolding came from the sack.

As Bai Long was untying the sack, the few man in the room stared at him in surprise, especially Cheng Yuan, who was stroking his forehead helplessly.

"Brother, I told you to invite him here, why would you capture him?"

Bai Long said indifferently, "Same thing."

Blackie lived up to his nickname, he was heavily tanned, if it weren't for his fluent mandarin, anyone else would have thought that he was from Africa.

He was captured by Bai Long while sleeping on a lady's belly.

As for how Bai Long located Blackie, with his tracking and investigating abilities, it was not an issue for him at all.

"Bloody hell, who the heck are you guys? What did you bring me here for..." Blackie was infuriated, he scanned around the room to see the unfamiliar faces.

Suddenly, he spotted Bald Man Xu, "Bald Man Xu, what is this? I've never crossed you before, is this a declaration of war?"

Bald Man Xu swiftly shook his head, "No, no, no, this isn't me, it's all instructed by my boss."

"Boss?" Blackie squinted upon hearing this.

He was curious, how could a man like Bald Man Xu receive orders from others? So he started scanning around the room again.

In the end, his gaze fell on Cheng Yuan.

However, he was deeply disappointed after noticing Cheng Yuan's young appearance, "Bald Man Xu, what the hell happened to you? Why is a little brad ordering you around now?"

Bald Man Xu remained silent, he curved his lips upward and did not respond to blackie.

"10 million."

Cheng Yuan did not waste his time on Blackie, he reached out his fingers and said.

"What 10 million?" Blackie said in astonishment, "10... Million?"

"Yes, 10 million, I'm offering you 10 million!" Cheng Yuan reiterated.

"Huh..." Blackie was puzzled, "Why?"
