

When His Eyes Opened Chapter 2533

Chapter 2533

“Oh... Lucas, which university are you going to take? If you go to University of Thopiavelle, then we will be alumni!” Piper said enthusiastically.

Lucas: “Did you pass the exam?”

Siena told him that the score line for University of Thopiavelle was quite high.

Lucas’s question froze the smile on Piper’s face.

Master Hogan was so angry that his heart ached.

Lucas might as well be a mute.

“No, I’m not good at studying. My dad donated a library to University of Thopiavelle, so I went to school.” Piper said, picked up the red wine glass, sipped the wine, “What about you? How about studying?”

Lucas: “It’s the same as you. I can’t go to University of Thopiavelle. Our family is relatively poor and we can’t donate to the library.”

Piper laughed loudly: “Is your family poor? No way.”

Master Hogan: “Hahaha! Lucas just returned to Hogan’s house, and he doesn’t know much about our family’s situation.”

“If our family is not poor, do you need to please the Gagnon family the day before yesterday, and the Lawson family today?” Lucas dismantled his father face to face.

This time, without waiting for Master Hogan to speak, Piper laughed first: “You have a bad temper, I really like it hahaha! After eating, let’s chat alone! I think we will have a lot of the same hobbies.”

“Just say it here. You treat them as air.” Lucas’s entertainment only lasted until the end of the dinner.

It was impossible for Lucas to spend any more time to please this young lady.

“Okay! You should be at home during the winter vacation, right? Let’s exchange contact information, and we can go out often in the future.” Piper said, taking out his mobile phone.

“Ahem!” Seeing that Lucas seemed indifferent, Master Hogan immediately coughed and reminded him.

After Lucas raised his eyes and stared at his father, he took Piper’s mobile phone and entered his number.

“Shall we chat in Whatsapp?” After saving his number, Piper continued to ask.

“I don’t have Whatsapp.” Lucas said without thinking.

“Huh?” Piper looked at his profile in surprise.

“Won’t you register one now? You can register if you have a mobile phone number.” Master Hogan quickly got angry, “If you don’t know how, let Piper register for you.”

Lucas: “You are so anxious, come and talk to her.”

Master Hogan: “...”

Piper: “Hahaha, it’s okay if you don’t. If I’m looking for you, it’s the same to call and send you a message.”

Piper’s laughter made Master Hogan hold back the anger in his heart.

“Piper, you have such a good temper.” Master Hogan boasted, “He’s like a wild horse that has run wild. I can’t do anything about him. I beat him and scolded him, but he’s not afraid at all. Maybe he is currently in a rebellious period! I hope you can forgive me a lot and don’t care about him like him.”

“Uncle, you shouldn’t beat him. He beat Austin, and it was Austin who wanted to beat him. You punished him because you were afraid of offending the Gagnon family. It’s no wonder he gave you a good face.” Piper said, “I’ll come here Just wanted to chat with him, you don’t have to interrupt all the time.”

Master Hogan: “...”

After a while, Master Hogan gave his wife, son and daughter a wink, told them to leave the table, and left Piper and Lucas alone.

After they left, only Lucas and Piper were left in the dining room.

“I’m full.” Lucas immediately put down the bowl and chopsticks after his father left.

Piper: “Are you not interested in me? You haven’t even looked at me.”

Lucas: “I’m not interested in girls. But thank you for letting me be free.”

Piper: "Haha! Then can I ask you out to play in the future?"

Lucas: "Yes."

Piper made an appointment with him, but whether Lucas would go or not was another matter.

He was not stupid enough to anger the distinguished guests at Hogan's house.

Otherwise, when Piper left, his father might have to beat him up again.
