

Chu Tianqi remained at the top of the Skytree.

From afar, his skinny figure looked like a sharp blade above the horizon.

Behind him, a four-winged animal flapped its wings and suspended in the air.

Beneath the Skytree, countless of citizens were staring at him.

Chu Tianqi had lost his patience.

“You still refuse to show yourselves, huh? Let's see how long you can last.”

Chu Tianqi waited for a long time, but no martial artists from Japan came to accept his challenge.

Shaking his head, he lifted his palm and waved his hand in the direction of Tokyo.

Swoosh!

His Qi was as sharp as a blade.

Countless auras formed daggers and charged toward the land.

Chu Tianqi was powerful and could wipe out Tokyo in the blink of an eye.

Before his attack could land on the people, a white flash of light rose at the end of the horizon.

It charged toward Chu Tianqi's attack and crashed into it.

Boom!

Following the deafening explosion, both attacks were destroyed at almost the same time.

“Who was that? Get into position!”

Shocked, the Chu Sect experts put their guards up and got prepared to start a battle anytime.

Chu Tianqi was the only one who remained unfazed.

He didn't panic. On the contrary, an unnatural smile flitted across his lips.

He looked like a general who had finally met his enemy!

Swoosh!

A gust of chilly wind blew across the Skytree.

The next moment, a gorgeous figure came toward the Skytree on a cloud.

She soon came to a stop before Chu Tianqi.

“Oh, it's Lady Shou!”

“Lady Shou is here!”

Some people beneath the Skytree instantly recognized her.

They screamed her name and got on their feet excitedly.

“You have finally shown yourself, Yukiteru Shou. I thought you'd remain in hiding and ignore the fact that your people are going to die.”

Chu Tianqi's lips curved as he looked at the woman standing before him.

He glanced behind her and asked in surprise, “Oh? Did you come alone? Where is the mightiest god in Japan, the Moon God?”

After a pause, he asked sarcastically, “Was she terrified after our previous fight and immediately fled Japan?”

A mocking look danced past his eyes.

Yukiteru Shou remained composed.

After years of protecting Sanshin Organization, she experienced many incidents.

Chu Tianqi's mocking words did nothing to faze her.

She lifted her head and looked at him.

“Is Chu Tianfan an older family member of yours?”

“Shut up!” Chu Tianqi promptly lost his composure and flew into a rage. "Chu Tianfan is just an abandoned child. What right does he have to be my family member?" he demanded furiously.

Yukiteru Shou shook her head. "Judging from your disposition alone, you're not his match. He is the most excellent man I've ever met in the world."

"You have a death wish!" Failing to tamp his anger, Chu Tianqi delivered a punch in Yukiteru Shou's direction.

Yukiteru Shou ducked and avoided his attack quickly. She shook her head and said slowly, "Why? Don't you agree with me? I've met him previously. We fought on the top of the Skytree. He gave off the vibes of an imperious king. You, on the other hand, look like a spoiled scion. Without your family and your father's help, do you think you can achieve half of his achievements?"

Her cool voice rang around the area.

For years, Yukiteru Shou rarely showed herself as she lived in Sanshin Organization.

She would ignore worldly affairs unless they concerned her country's survival.

Back when Chu Tianfan threatened to destroy Japan, she went to fight against him.

After that fight, Chu Tianfan left a deep impression on her.

From that day onward, Yukiteru Shou knew that Chu Tianfan would someday terrify the world.

In truth, that was exactly the case.

Ye Fan defeated Tang Yun and Chu Sect to rank first in the Sky Ranking.

Even the mightiest god in Japan, Tsukuyomi, fell in love with Ye Fan.

"It was a pity that he wasn't as lucky as you. You were protected and aided by a strong family and clan. You have a Grandpa in the god realm and relatives who spoiled you. However, your brother had no one else but himself to rely on," Yukiteru Shou said solemnly.

Chu Tianqi's rage intensified.

He roared viciously, "Shut up! Shut the f*ck up! Chu Tianfan was a lowly b*stard. He was no match for me! He got lucky to be killed by my grandpa. I would have slain him and burned him into ashes if he were still alive! I shall prove to the entire world that I, Chu Tianqi, am the best descendant of the Chu Sect!"

His voice was full of jealousy and malice.

Yukiteru Shou merely let out a light chuckle.

"You'll never be his match. Even if you enter the god realm and become the strongest person in the entire world, you won't be as charming as your brother. Chu Tianfan was undoubtedly a man full of charms.”

Staring at the man who resembled Chu Tianfan, Yukiteru Shou couldn't help but recall the night years ago.

She would never forget the fight, for it was the most enjoyable fight she had ever had.

Before that, Yukiteru Shou never thought a young man in his twenties could defeat her.

Over the years, she had encountered her fair share of deception and scheming. In short, she had seen it all.

Chu Tianfan, however, was pure and sincere.

No one knew that Chu Tianfan swept through Japan and attacked the country single-handedly to fulfil a promise he made to a woman.

The woman behind Chu Tianfan's decision was now the mightiest god in Japan, Tsukuyomi!

Many couldn't understand why Tsukuyomi kept helping Ye Fan even though Japan had been in a feud with China.

Only Yukiteru Shou knew the reason.

Back when Moon God was at the darkest and most hopeless moment in her life, it was Chu Tianfan who gave her hope.

He was a man capable of winning the heart of a god realm master. This useless but merciless scion was no match for him.

A wave of fury crashed through Chu Tianqi when he heard her words.

A menacing flash appeared in his gaze.

His aura increased at a horrifying speed.

“How dare you say I'm no match for that abandoned son? I shall let you see how capable I am today! You'll soon find out the extent of my strength! You said he defeated you here years ago. Today, I am capable of defeating you, too. I'll make sure you die right here!” he declared.

Boom!

Right after Chu Tianqi made that announcement, a wave of aura exploded from his body.

His body glowed brilliantly as a dragon's roar echoed in the air.

Chu Tianqi's body emitted a magnificent glow.

It felt like a divine being had just descended onto the earth.

Flames of anger licked through him as he charged toward Yukiteru Tenshin.

Yukiteru Shou didn't back down, for she had nowhere to hide.

Behind her were millions of citizens of Japan.

Moon God was still in seclusion, so she was the only one capable of stopping the Chu Sect's massacre.

Holding the Seven Foot Green Blade, she made her way toward Chu Tianqi without hesitation.

The sword reflected the light as it slashed ahead ferociously.

Rumble!

A thunderous explosion sounded.

Hidden underneath Sanshin Organization, Mochizuki Kawa and the like stared at the duel worriedly. They couldn't help but clench their fists.

"Sword God, do you think Lady Shou can win the fight?"

The stars dimmed across the horizon.

In Tokyo, everyone saw two blinding flashes of lights attacking each other ferociously on top of the Skytree.

The explosion blew the clouds in the sky away.

Even the stars weren't shining as bright as before.

The martial artists in Japan couldn't help but hold their breaths. They wanted nothing more than to be assured that Yukiteru Shou would win the fight.

Alas, Mochizuki Kawa shook his head. "I can't be sure. Previously, Lady Shou should be able to rank among the top twenty martial artists on the Sky Ranking. Under Moon God's lead, she improved tremendously. Currently, she only managed to rank at most the top ten martial artists on the Sky Ranking. Chu Tianqi might've started late, but no one knew how powerful he was. He had withstood several moves from Moon God. I can't be sure who will end up victorious this time."

Mochizuki Kawa furrowed his brows as worry overwhelmed his heart.

He had experienced Chu Tianqi's ability and even saw how Chu Tianqi fought with Moon God above the sea.

Even after witnessing various fights involving Chu Tianqi, he still failed to determine the extent of Chu Tianqi's power.

When Chu Tianqi fought against Moon God, he only unleashed a few attacks before resorting to a sneak attack that injured Moon God.

Hence, no one knew Chu Tianqi's true power.

Boom!

Another blow was exchanged above the Skytree.

Yukiteru Shou's sword aura came crashing down, but Chu Tianqi punched it forcefully to disperse it.

As Chu Tianqi stuck his fist out, Yukiteru Shou inched nearer and gave his chest a kick.

Chu Tianqi was sent crashing to the ground.

"Nice one!" Mochizuki Kawa and the rest were delighted. "Good job!"

"Lady Shou first used her sword to divert Chu Tianqi's attention before sneaking closer to him to catch him off guard! Her sword attack was just a ruse, but her following attack was dangerous."

Mochizuki Kawa and the like were impressed by Yukiteru Shou's ability.

That is what a powerhouse looks like. Not only is she an excellent swordsman, but her experience in battle and the tricks up her sleeve are beyond our imagination.

On the other hand, Chu Tianqi was only a man who came to fame later on. He lacked experience in fights and wasn't as competent as Yukiteru Shou.

"Mr. Chu!"

"Are you all right?"

"We shall help you!"

Seeing Chu Tianqi's momentary setback, the elders from the Chu Sect blanched and hurried over to check him out.

"Get lost!" Chu Tianqi roared, and they quickly retreated. "This fight is between Yukiteru Shou and me. No one is allowed to butt in! Those who go against my order will die!"

Chu Tianqi was upset at having suffered a setback.

After that yell, he stomped the ground and charged toward Yukiteru Shou again.

I don't believe it! If Chu Tianfan can do this, so can I. I can defeat those who he defeated previously!

His anger was mounting along with his aura.

He unleashed the Chu Sect Fatal Moves!

“Heavenly Wolf!”

Aided by his Dragon God Body, Chu Tianqi unleashed the Chu Sect Fatal Moves!

Unfazed, Yukiteru Shou swung her sword at him.

The sword auras tainted green danced in the sky. From afar, it looked like a flower blooming daintily.

Just like that, Chu Tianqi and Yukiteru Shou got involved in the most vicious fight in their lives.

That night, the sound of metal clanging sounded on the top of the Skytree.

When nighttime fell, the sky was still as bright as day.

It was a sleepless night for many citizens in Tokyo.

Staring at the sky, they paid full attention to the fight that would determine their country's fate.

Mochizuki Kawa and the rest couldn't keep their eyes away from the sky. They prayed fervently and cheered for Yukiteru Shou's victory.

This fight, which could be one of the most amazing duels in the martial arts world's history, lasted for the entire night.

The frightening force generated by their fight caused the skies to twist and turn.

When dawn approached, the noise finally died down.

"Is it over?"

"Who is the victor? Is it Lady Shou or Chu Tianqi?"

Within Sanshin Organization, Mochizuki Kawa and the rest were tense as they waited with bated breaths.

Waiting for the results was far more unnerving than watching the fight itself.

Alas, Sanshin Organization was too far away from the scene.

Thus, they had no idea about the results of the fight.

Mochizuki Kawa decided to send his men to the Skytree to check things out.

Thud!

Without warning, a figure fell to the ground with a thud, kicking up clouds of dust in its wake.

Mochizuki Kawa and the rest were shocked when they got a good look at the figure.

“It's Lady Shou!”

“What happened?”

“Please wake up!”

Shocked, they ran over to check her condition.

Yukiteru Shou was covered in blood, on the verge of death.

Her previous imperious aura and elegance were all gone.

She had never been in such a wretched state.

She looked like a capable general who had reached the end of the rope.

Hearing their voices, she slowly opened her eyes. In a weak voice, she uttered, “I-I'm sorry. I failed to protect you.”

Mochizuki Kawa and his men felt tears pricking at their eyes. Some were already sobbing.

"Lady Shou, please stop talking. We shall treat you now. We will save your life..." they expressed sadly.

A burst of raucous laughter was heard. "Save her? Dream on! Those who lost to me are fated to die!"

No one knew the exact moment Chu Tianqi arrived outside Sanshin Organization. He was standing with his arms folded behind his back.

His gaze was fixed on Sanshin Organization's building before him as he burst out laughing.

With a wave of his hand, he picked up Yukiteru Shou's sword lying on the ground and flung it out.

Swish!

The blade sliced through the air and pierced through the horizon.

Under Mochizuki Kawa and the others' mournful gazes, the sword penetrated Yukiteru Shou's chest.

Its force dragged Yukiteru Shou back several feet and pinned her body to the hall of Sanshin Organization.

Blood splattered everywhere in the hall.

"Lady Shou, no!"

That very day, all martial artists in Japan were in shock and anguish.

Mochizuki Kawa got so mad that his tears were tinged with blood.

“B*stard! How dare you kill Lady Shou? I'm going to kill you!” Mochizuki Kawa roared angrily.

Behind him, hundreds of Japanese martial artists charged toward Chu Tianqi in a frenzy.

All the while, it was Yukiteru Tenshin who protected Japan before Moon God's revival.

Chu Tianqi had slaughtered their guardian angel. One could imagine how wretched and infuriated the martial arts world in Japan felt.

They went all out to try and kill Chu Tianqi.

Chu Tianqi merely glanced at them and snorted in disdain. “Insolent fools. Do they think they can defeat me?”

As his lips curled slightly, he casually waved his arm and directed a few strikes.

Before Chu Tianqi's attack could land on the Japanese martial artists, a strong gust of wind emerged.

An unprecedented force swept out from the depths of Sanshin Organization.

Chu Tianqi's attack crumbled bit by bit.

At once, Chu Tianqi narrowed his eyes.

He lifted his head and stared ahead.

From afar, a gorgeous figure came toward him slowly.

She was stunning beyond words.

“Tsukuyomi, you've finally shown yourself. I heard that you previously admitted that Chu Tianfan was your master. From today onward, I, Chu Tianqi, shall be your new master.”

Chu Tianqi became even smugger when he saw Moon God appear.

Every word he spoke was laced with the arrogance of a man who was sure about his victory.

It was as if Tsukuyomi had already lost to him and become one of his toys.

Indeed, Chu Tianqi had been envious of Ye Fan's good life for every waking moment all these years.

*How? How can a son abandoned by his family reach the top of the Sky Ranking? How can a b*stard like him make so many women fall for him? Angie, Moon God, and even my master, Tang Yun, all seem to have feelings for Chu Tianfan. On the other hand, I, Chu Tianqi, come from a wealthy noble family, but why aren't they attracted to me?*

From the moment he had gotten Angie's Jade Eyes, he had sworn to himself that he was going to get everything that used to belong to Chu Tianfan back—his power, his people, and his woman.

If he could not get them back, then he was going to destroy them all.

Moon God ignored Chu Tianqi.

There were few people in the world who could get Moon God's full attention.

Chu Yuan was one of those people, for his power made Moon God wary of him.

Ye Fan was another, for he was her master—the one she worried about the most.

On the other hand, Chu Tianqi meant nothing to her. He was all but a scoundrel.

Even if he had stolen Angie's Jade Eyes, Moon God still looked down on him.

After Moon God came out, she first inspected Yukiteru Shou's injury.

Yukiteru Shou's chest had a through-and-through injury, and blood kept flowing out of her chest.

Her usually somber face was now completely colorless.

“Moon... Moon God.”

Yukiteru Shou reached out toward Moon God, her trembling voice barely audible.

Two streaks of blood flowed down from her eyes.

Moon God held her hand and transferred some Internal Energy to her in an attempt to prolong her life.

However, Moon God was not an omnipotent god.

Yukiteru Shou's injury was too grievous; Chu Tianqi's attack had sliced her most vital part.

It was close to impossible for her to survive.

Even if she did, she would lose her cultivation and become an ordinary person.

After transferring the Internal Energy, Moon God turned to Chu Tianqi and icily uttered, "Were you the one who hurt her?"

Chu Tianqi snorted. "Mood God, I think it's best for you to be worried about yourself first. Otherwise, you'll end up just like her."

Despite the faint smile on Chu Tianqi's face, the gaze he had fixed on Moon God was a burning one.

He had to admit that Moon God was the only woman who was as beautiful as his master, Tang Yun.

They were equally graceful and alluring.

Yet, her demeanor was slightly different from Tang Yun's elegant demeanor.

What Moon God had was a divine and ethereal feel to her.

She was like a divine being above all people and worshiped by the people.

"I'm getting more and more jealous of Chu Tianfan. He must feel accomplished to have a woman like you as his slave in the streets and in the sheets. One really does look forward to the sensation of conquering a divine being.”

The more Chu Tianqi spoke, the more vulgar his words became.

When Mochizuki Kawa and the others heard him, they became livid.

“Shut up!”

“Her Highness is a holy noble being. How can she be humiliated by your nonsense?”

Moon God was the faith of the Japanese martial artists—she was the most sacred being to Mochizuki Kawa and the others.

Therefore, Chu Tianqi's obscene words toward Moon God were certainly humiliating in the eyes of Mochizuki Kawa and the others.

In fact, they were even more offended and furious than when they saw Chu Tianqi kiss Moon God back then.

Nevertheless, Mochizuki Kawa and the rest were not the ones in power, so they could only fume helplessly.

“What's the matter? Are you feeling humiliated? Did you not feel this way when your Moon God called that illegitimate child her Master? I've only made a few comments today, but you can't take it anymore?" Chu Tianqi sneered, his tone tinged with mockery and envy.

Moon God remained expressionless as if ice had spread across her face and concealed all her joy and misery away from the rest of the world.

The only response Moon God gave to Chu Tianqi was, "Do you think you're worthy to mention his name? You will never have the right to compare yourself to him."

"Shut up!" Chu Tianqi snapped.

*This again? Why are these stupid women always saying this? Yukiteru Shou once said that I would never be on Ye Fan's level, and now, Moon God is saying that I'll never have the right to compare myself with Chu Tianfan. These d*mn women! Are they blind? Can't they see that I'm the one with the last laugh? Moreover, Chu Tianfan is dead. He's already six feet under as a loser. How can he possibly be compared to me?*

Moon God shook her head and continued in a calm manner, "I know what you're thinking about. You think that you're the victor who has the last laugh because you're living a good life while he's dead. However, you'll learn something soon. You'll find out that there's a gap between you and him that you can never close. It doesn't matter if my life ends here today. I'll still tell you with no exaggeration that it'll be your time and even Chu Sect's time to die when he returns."

Her low voice was akin to the gentle breeze that caressed the land, but Chu Tianqi was no longer patient toward her.

He bellowed, "B*tch, are you still so in love with Chu Tianfan even though you're at this point now? Since you can't seem to live without him, I'll send you to hell to meet him!"

Immediately after, Chu Tianqi's eyes turned red as a murderous aura began swirling in him.

In the next second, Dragon God Body activated, and Chu Tianqi's power began to visibly increase.

Finally, Chu Tianqi threw a punch at Moon God.

Nevertheless, Moon God simply swung her hand and shattered Chu Tianqi's attack.

"Invoke the Celestial Sky. Cloud Sun Kick!"

Instead of feeling despair at the failure of his first move, Chu Tianqi used the Chu family's most powerful technique, Invoke the Celestial Sky.

He had no choice, for he knew that god realm masters were no easy opponents.

If he did not use Invoke the Celestial Sky, he would not be able to block even an attack from Moon God.

It had to be said that Invoke the Celestial Sky was the most insane martial technique in the world.

Even the Chu family's simplified version allowed Chu Tianqi to be on par with Moon God for a moment.

Once the Cloud Sun Kick was launched, Moon God stopped counterattacking with nonchalance.

The power from her elixir field exploded outward, and in the next second, Moon God did a set of sword moves to counter Chu Tianqi's attack.

Without missing a beat, the sword flash Moon God released slashed Chu Tianqi.

Chu Tianqi groaned before stumbling backward. Then, he retched up a mouthful of blood.

“Mr. Chu!”

The elders of Chu Sect gasped and hastily stepped forward to protect him.

After all, Chu Tianqi was the head of the Chu family and the heir to the Chu Sect. Furthermore, he was Chu Yuan's favorite grandson.

If Moon God were to slay him there, the elders who had accompanied him there would be apologizing to Chu Yuan with their lives.

"I'm fine!"

Once Chu Tianqi regained his balance, he spat out the remaining blood in his mouth.

He then cast a gloomy look at Moon God. "The power difference between a Supreme and a god realm master is truly a big one."

Moon God remained still and expressionless, the sword still in her hand.

"It would be best for you to summon that creature out if you do not wish to die. Even if you use Invoke the Celestial Sky, you're still as threatening as a speck of dust to me," Moon God uttered apathetically, looking down on him.

Indeed, Moon God had never seen the Chu Sect fighter in front of her as a threat.

The only one she was wary of was the four-winged flying beast behind Chu Tianqi.

Moon God had no idea what was the monster behind Chu Tianqi.

It looked so threatening that even Moon God was terrified of it.

Moon God was once injured by this monster around the sea area of Japan when she wanted to kill Chu Tianqi but was distracted for a moment.

It was only after that battle that Moon God knew that among all the powerhouses of the Chu Sect who besieged Japan this time, the most threatening creature was the flying pet behind Chu Tianqi.

“Can't wait to die? If that's the case, I'll make your wish come true!” With a sneer on his face, a hint of viciousness flashed across Chu Tianqi's eyes.

Chu Tianqi led the Chu Sect's fighters and retreated for more than a thousand meters.

Then, he ordered, “Blaze, I'll leave this woman to you! Defeat her! But remember to keep her alive. I want her to kneel in front of me and call me 'Master' before she dies!”

Chu Tianqi laughed maniacally.

He started imagining the scene of Tsukuyomi Tenshin kneeling in front of him as he said that.

Roar!

Following Chu Tianqi's command, the four-winged flying creature that was originally the size of a young eagle looked up at the sky and let out a deafening roar.

There was the sound of excitement that could not be hidden in its loud roar.

It was like a bloody and impatient sword that finally had the chance to be unsheathed.

Amid the sharp roaring, Blaze's figure grew suddenly.

The four wings, which had been as thin as cicada wings, had grown into unusually enormous wings that could block out the sun.

Its red eyes were also as big as lanterns.

No one would have thought that a little flying pet would grow almost ten million times bigger in an instant.

It was like an ancient Sacred Beast that could travel between heaven and earth.

Scorching air waves radiated from its body in all directions like a storm.

“Oh my goodness!”

“W-What monster is this?”

“Is that Godzilla?”

After the transformation, Blaze became so huge that it almost obstructed the sun.

It had a huge body, a pair of red eyes, two pairs of sword-like gigantic wings, and black scales all over its body.

Its horrifying aura was enough to terrify everyone.

Seeing such a scene, the citizens of Tokyo were full of fear.

Even Mochizuki Kawa and the others were overwhelmed with shock.

All of their faces turned pale in the blink of an eye.

They had never seen such a scary creature in their entire lives.

Although they had seen something like this on TV, those fictional monsters on TV were not as terrifying as the one in front of them.

It very much resembled the Sacred Beast that was mentioned in ancient China myths that roamed the ocean.

However, the one in front of them had four terrifying wings, and its figure was as huge as a hill.

It was the second time that Yukiteru Shou had seen such a sight. Hence, she was not as shocked as the others.

Instead, her expression was rather serious.

Roar!

Blaze let out a loud roar again after the transformation.

Meanwhile, Chu Tianqi was behind Blaze, and his eyes started gleaming with green glints.

There were even golden petals turning in his pupils.

Those were the Jade Eyes!

Back then, the Jones family used this pair of Jade Eyes to summon this Sacred Beast of the Chu Sect.

At the moment, this skill was in Chu Tianqi's hands.

Therefore, this Sacred Beast, Blaze, was also under his control!

“Blaze, go!”

Under the command of Chu Tianqi, Blaze spread its wings and swooped down toward Moon God so fast that the movement made a sharp whistling sound.

Everything happened too quickly.

Moon God was unable to avoid it at all.

With a long sword in her hand, she swung it out in an attempt to block Blaze's incoming figure.

However, Moon God's sword was immediately knocked out of the way when Blaze waved and slammed its wings toward it.

Next, Blaze landed a hard kick on Moon God with its sharp claws.

Moon God tried to withstand Blaze's attack with her arms, but she was thrown far away due to the intense collision with Blaze.

"Moon God!" Mochizuki Kawa and the others were shocked.

No one had expected this monster to be so powerful.

With just a few moves, Moon God had been put at a disadvantage.

Nevertheless, Moon God was a god realm master, after all. She would not be defeated so easily.

After stabilizing herself, Moon God leaped and shot into the air.

She lifted her sword again with one hand and formed a hand seal with the other while muttering under her breath.

Almost instantly, a powerful sword attack started.

Moon God slashed her sword a thousand times continuously.

Countless rays of sword light were formed in the sky, which looked like a vast sword net enveloping the monster.

Blaze waved its wings, trying to break free of the sword cage.

Nonetheless, there were so many rays of sword light that they covered the entire sky.

As soon as Blaze slashed one of them, it would immediately be filled up in the next second.

For a moment, Blaze was trapped in a cage that it could not break through.

However, this scene did not last long.

After the sword net was formed, Moon God swung her long sword and stabbed it into the air.

Swoosh!

The thousands of arrays of sword light seemed to be under her command.

The sword net turned into thousands of light spots before flying toward Blaze almost at the same time.

Unable to escape as it was trapped in the sword net, Blaze could only forcibly withstand the attack.

As a result, countless shots of sword energy slashed all over Blaze's body.

Boom! Boom! Boom!

The sword's energy slashed on its scales, and countless sparks shot out as if the sword's energy had struck some kind of metal.

The hard scales on Blaze's body were able to withstand most of the damage caused by Moon God.

But even so, Blaze could not help but let out a roar of excruciating pain due to the countless slashes on its body.

Blaze's cry was full of anger.

Its red lantern-sized eyes looked like they were about to burst into flames.

Under such an attack from Moon God, Blaze rushed forward as if it was out of control.

With its jaw wide open, fire spurted out of its mouth, like a flaming sword hitting Moon God directly.

This time, Moon God was well prepared.

She jumped up, dodging the fire attack.

Then, she charged toward Blaze and slashed downward at Blaze with her long sword.

Blaze immediately waved its tail as if it had eyes on its back. Its tail collided with Moon God's sword like a long whip.

Just like that, a fierce fight broke out between Blaze and Moon God in the sky above Tokyo.

For every collision that happened, there was a burst of sparks.

An angry roar, accompanied by the loud sound of a flying sword, resounded throughout the earth.

"I-It's so powerful!"

"This monster can actually reach a stalemate with Moon God."

"W-What is that thing?"

All the Japanese martial artists were flabbergasted.

They always thought that with the protection of Moon God, no one would be able to hurt them unless Chu Yuan came in person.

However, now it seemed that they had underestimated the Chu Sect.

To everyone's surprise, the ancient sect even had such a terrifying monster.

The fight was getting fiercer.

After a long stalemate, there was no victory yet.

“Mr. Chu, should we take action to help Blaze?”

“If they keep fighting like this, I'm afraid it will take a very long time to have anyone emerge victorious,” said the elders of the Chu Sect.

They did not want to waste too much time in Japan.

However, Chu Tianqi shook his head and smiled confidently. “Don't worry. The fight will come to an end soon. Blaze is a lot more powerful than this. Soon, you'll see the real power of Blaze.”

As soon as Chu Tianqi finished his words, an opportunity arose for Moon God. She broke through Blaze's defense and jumped toward Blaze's head.

In a flash, Moon God stretched out her long sword and stabbed it toward Blaze's head.

Seeing that, Chu Tianqi shook his head contemptuously. “The scales on Blaze's head are the hardest, and even my grandfather is unable to pierce through them. Does the little Moon God really think she's able to hurt its head?”

In the midst of Chu Tianqi's laughter, Moon God's sword that was heading toward Blaze's head suddenly took a turn and moved straight into Blaze's eyes!

What?

“Blaze, watch out!” Chu Tianqi was terrified.

No one would have thought that Moon God's target was not actually Blaze's head but somewhere else.

Chu Tianqi was shocked by the sudden change of movement of the sword.

He immediately warned Blaze, but it was too late.

The long sword of Moon God had stabbed into Blaze's eye.

Green blood began gushing out of Blaze's eye immediately.

Roar!

A shrill cry followed.

The cry was filled with pain and anger.

“You d*mn woman! You are despicable! How shameless can you be!” Seeing that Blaze was hurt, Chu Tianqi was so enraged that his eyes turned bloodshot, and he scolded Moon God furiously.

While the powerhouses of the Chu Sect were feeling angry, the Japanese martial artists burst into laughter.

“Nice one! Moon God is truly the guardian of Japan. She's able to find the enemy's weakness in the short battle and is able to strike at the heart of the enemy's stronghold. The monster is blinded in one eye now. Its strength will definitely be greatly reduced due to its damaged eyesight. Victory will be ours!" expressed Mochizuki Kawa happily.

The eyes of other Japanese martial artists, previously filled with hopelessness, were now lit up with hope.

After the monster is defeated, Moon God will be able to take down the remaining powerhouses of the Chu Sect. By then, the Chu Sect's dream of destroying Japan's martial arts world will be completely shattered. On the other hand, Japan will be the first country in the world that can stop the massacre of the Chu Sect.

Mochizuki Kawa was confident that after winning this battle, Japan's martial arts world would become famous worldwide and could dominate the whole world.

It would also become the only force in the world that could compete with Chu Sect.

Unfortunately, what happened next would completely destroy Mochizuki Kawa's beautiful dream.

The moment Moon God stabbed her long sword into Blaze's eye, Blaze became furious as it felt a heart-piercing pain.

When it closed its eyes, the force was so strong that Moon God could no longer move her sword, and she could not penetrate it any further.

When Blaze exerted more force at the end, the sword in Moon God's hand was broken in half by Blaze's eyelids.

Immediately afterward, Blaze swung its tail, slapping toward Moon God's body like a long whip.

Left with no choice, Moon God tried to escape as far as she could.

Roar!

After forcing Moon God to retreat, Blaze roared into the sky again.

Its pupils contracted and forced the broken sword out of its eye.

Half of its head was stained with green blood from its eye.

It continued to roar. Everyone was unsure whether it was a roar of anger or pain.

However, the gradually expanding scales on Blaze's body and the violent aura emanating from it were enough to make everyone feel the infinite rage coming from this monster at that moment.

Blaze roared again.

Its voice was hoarse this time, and its huge body expanded again.

The black scales all over its body turned red gradually.

Eventually, it seemed to have turned into a demon in red armor.

The wings behind it were like clouds hanging from the sky.

Its body was so huge that it spread across at least a thousand miles.

At that moment, everyone looked at the monster, and they were scared out of their wits.

It felt as if the entire sky was blocked by Blaze.

“This... This...”

“Did it just transform again?”

Mochizuki Kawa and the others were petrified.

When they thought that they were about to win, Blaze transformed again, and its strength increased drastically in an instant.

“A bunch of useless things. Blaze is a Sacred Beast of the Chu Sect. It is not something that anyone can defeat. However, since you can bring out the second transformation of Blaze, even if you die under its claws, you should be proud of yourself.” Chu Tianqi sneered, and there was not much patience left in his cold

The colossal force sent Moon God flying for thousands of meters and caused her to knock through several buildings along the way.

After that attack, it did not seem like Blaze was going to let her off.

Blaze trembled slightly, and the scales on its body flew out like flying swords.

Thousands of red scales flew over a thousand meters to slash Moon God. Moon God waved her long sword to fight back, and the sword collided with the flying scales.

Despite Moon God using all of her strength to fight back, there were still some scales that successfully broke through her defense and slid across her body.

Soon, several wounds were left on her delicate body.

“Moon God!”

Seeing that the situation of the battle took a turn for the worse, Mochizuki Kawa and the others were worried and clenched their fists tightly as cold sweat broke out.

The attacks continued.

Moon God's previous attack had indeed damaged Blaze's eye, affecting its eyesight. Nevertheless, Blaze was also angered by that attack.

eyes.

After Blaze went into its second transformation, Chu Tianqi immediately gave it the order to end the battle as soon as possible.

Swoosh!

The next moment, Blaze waved its wings, and a gust of wind blew across the sky.

Afterward, Blaze's body turned into a bolt of lightning and charged toward Moon God.

Who would believe that a monster with such a huge body could move at such a high speed?

Moon God was shocked too, and she quickly dodged sideways.

Nonetheless, Blaze's body was so enormous that before Moon God could run away, she sensed a shadow appearing within her sight.

After catching up with Moon God, Blaze slashed her again with its tail.

Moon God tried to block with her sword but to no avail.

The force from Blaze's tail was so strong that it penetrated through Moon God's sword and slammed her body.

With a loud thump, Moon God fell from the sky and smashed hard into the ground.

Blaze, which had gone berserk, quickly gained the upper hand.

Moon God could barely escape the attacks of Blaze with the agility of her body. She even successfully grabbed a few opportunities to launch counterattacks against Blaze.

Nonetheless, Blaze's body was too strong!

Besides that, Moon God's sword could no longer cause any substantial damage to Blaze other than bringing out a few sparks.

On the other hand, Blaze's attack could easily leave wounds on Moon God's body.

The situation was slowly getting out of hand.

Everyone knew that Moon God would not last long.

As expected, after fighting for a long time, Blaze seized the opportunity and kicked Moon God's hand with its claws to send the broken sword in her hand flying.

Moon God tried to dodge out of shock, but Blaze's wings moved toward Moon God's body like flying knives.

Right away, her clothes were dyed with blood.

A terrifying wound immediately appeared on Moon God's back.

After this injury, Moon God became very weak. Blaze once again stretched out its claws and slammed them on Moon God's chest.

This time, Moon God was unable to avoid it at all.

She could only let the claws pierce her shoulder, and blood immediately stained her long dress.

Eventually, Moon God was defeated by Blaze at the edge of the horizon under the desperate gazes of countless people in Japan.

Even when Moon God was severely injured, Blaze did not plan to spare her. It stabbed its tail through her abdomen.

Then, it lifted her up and smacked her down to the ground with great force.

"Blaze, that's enough. I told you to leave her alive."

Seeing that the aura of Moon God was rapidly withering, Chu Tianqi finally ordered Blaze to stop, leaving Moon God alive.
