

Chu Tianqi's order prompted Blaze to stop the attack unwillingly.

Blaze wanted to consume the human that wounded its eye, but it could not go against its master's commands.

It swung its tail, drawing a deadly arch in the air with its sharp tail. After that, it tossed Moon God right by Chu Tianqi's feet.

“Moon God!”

“You assh*le! How dare you hurt our country's Guardian Angel?”

Mochizuki Kawa and the others felt as though they had fallen to hell when they saw Moon God in such a state.

With the people in tears, hopelessness and sorrow overwhelmed them as they ran forward to try to rescue Moon God.

Unfortunately, Blaze roared into the sky.

The terrifying sound it created sent a shockwave into the air.

The ground shook and broke apart, causing buildings to topple.

Those who were closer to Blaze had the bones in their bodies pulverized by the shockwave.

Everyone else was either dead or wounded.

Even someone as strong as Mochizuki Kawa was forced to back a few hundred meters away.

One roar was all it took to do that much damage.

That showed just how frighteningly powerful the beast before them was.

No one cared about Japan's martial artists shouting and protesting.

As far as members of the Chu Sect were concerned, Mochizuki Kawa and the others were nothing more than maggots.

Of all the martial artists in Japan, Moon God was the only one they were concerned about.

Moon God was lying on the ground at that moment, and her sword was no longer with her.

The regal aura of the beautiful woman had since faded. All that was left was unending weakness and fragility.

Crimson-red blood kept oozing out of her wounds, causing the purple outfit she had on to be tainted.

“So, what do you think, Tsukuyomi? You claim that I am not as powerful as Chu Tianfan, but look at how things have turned out. Blaze is my subordinate, whereas you are Chu Tianfan's. Now that Blaze has defeated you, it is as though I have defeated Chu Tianfan. So, do you still think I, Chu Tianqi, am a lesser being than that b*stard, Chu Tianfan?"

Chu Tianqi put his hands behind his back and hovered over the lady as he looked down at Japan's Guardian Angel, who was worshipped.

A look of arrogance and glee showed on the man's handsome face.

It was as though he were the ruler of all, and everyone in front of him was his slave.

Moon God didn't reply.

Her entire body trembled a little before spewing the blood that was accumulating in her mouth.

She then wiped the blood off of her lips. Her beautiful eyes shone with serenity as she looked at Chu Tianqi and replied, "As far as I am concerned, no one on Earth is as great as he is."

The smile on Chu Tianqi's face instantly disappeared after those words were uttered.

He dashed ahead and mercilessly reached for her throat to choke her while lifting her and forcing her off her feet.

"What the f*ck did you just say? I dare you to repeat what you just said. Do you have a death wish?"

Rage burned wildly in Chu Tianqi's eyes.

All he wanted was to be recognized, so why was that so hard?

*This woman is at death's door. Yet, she is still loyal to that b*stard.*

Fury overwhelmed Chu Tianqi, which made him squeeze harder and harder.

Unfortunately, it didn't matter how much he hurt Moon God. She remained calm and showed no signs of bowing down to him.

"You useless piece of sh*t!"

Chu Tianqi threw a fist at her.

Moon God glid on the ground for quite some time from the force, tainting the ground beneath her with crimson-red blood.

"You're really not going to give up until the very last second, huh? I will give you one last chance. Bow down to me and take me as your leader. All you have to do is kneel and call me your master, and not only will I show mercy to all of Japan's martial artists, but I will also spare your life. You can even serve your master every day and night. However, if you turn my offer down, I will take you by force. I'm sure messing with someone holy will be an enjoyable experience for me anyway."

Chu Tianqi's eyes glowed with lust and madness as he kept his gaze on Moon God's stunning face and her virtually perfect figure.

Mochizuki Kawa and the others were furious when they heard that.

"You b*stard. Don't you dare!"

"If you hurt her, we will destroy you."

"Every martial artist in Japan will drag you to hell if that is what it takes!"

The martial artists howled angrily. They were so angry that their eyes had turned bloodshot.

"Shut up!"

Chu Tianqi waved his arm and sent a wave into the air, causing Mochizuki Kawa and the others to spew blood while flying backward.

Suddenly, the entire place turned quiet.

"So what's it going to be, Moon God? Choose. Will you accept the deal willingly or be forced into it? It's not like it's your first time, anyway. You used to be Chu Tianfan's plaything, right? So it'd make no difference to you. After all, you'll still be doing the same thing, just with a different man."

Chu Tianqi laughed boisterously.

As far as he was concerned, Moon God was nothing more than just a wild animal that was at his mercy.

He would not suffer any consequences, even if he were to strip her naked and push her onto his bed, as there was nothing she could do to defend herself.

Blaze's previous assault had already destroyed almost every bit of Moon God's strength.

In fact, it was a miracle that she was still conscious.

Moon God never answered Chu Tianqi's question.

There was no need for her to do that, either.

There was no way she would bow down to Chu Tianqi.

She was Japan's Guardian Angel and had her own pride.

There was no way she'd be anybody's slave.

As for Ye Fan... Moon God regarded their past as a beautiful accident.

She didn't think it was blasphemy to refer to Ye Fan as her master. In fact, she felt it was a beautiful and happy thing to do.

Perhaps that was because the impression Ye Fan left in Suzumiya Eigetsu's heart was simply too deep.

Unfortunately, it didn't matter how beautiful the past was. It would inevitably be nothing more than a memory.

Moon God, who was barely hanging on to her life, forced herself to stand up despite the pain from her wounds.

Her dress was drenched in blood, and the beautiful woman looked disheveled.

The powerful aura she exuded in the past had devolved into nothing but weakness and sorrow.

Now that the aura had dissipated, her regal stance dissipated as well.

At that moment, Moon God was nothing more than a weak woman who prayed that she could see her lover one last time before she died.

She turned around and looked into the distance. There, the age-old eastern country resided.

Tears of sorrow slowly rolled down her stunning face.

No one knew what Moon God was doing. Just as everyone was getting curious, the woman used every bit of energy that was left in her to shout into the distance, "Master, if reincarnation is possible, I will serve you again in the future. I will only ever do so for you."

That statement was like the most beautiful and heartbreaking song in the world.

As soon as she finished speaking, Chu Tianqi realized that something was off.

The smile on him faded, and he bellowed, "F*ck! She's going to kill herself. Quick. Stop her! Do not let her die. Stop her at all costs!"

Chu Tianqi's angry roar filled the sky and parted the clouds.

Countless men ran forward at that moment. Everyone wanted to stop Moon God from committing suicide, but they were too late.

She had used every bit of the power that remained in her to send out a terrifying wave to prevent anyone from getting close to her.

After that, she unsheathed the sword she had had for years and threw it in the air.

She closed her eyes and opened her arms to expose her chest as she waited for the sword to drop.

Serenity filled her in her last moments.

No one could ever understand the hopelessness and sorrow Moon God felt.

Her pride would never let her fall into Chu Tianqi's hands or allow him to commit blasphemy.

She would rather die to keep her honor.

Still, she had so many regrets.

Her initial plan was to go to Ye Fan after the Chu Sect was defeated. She wanted to go to her master.

It had been years since she last saw him, and she had so much to say to him.

The short encounter in India wasn't enough. She simply had too much to say, and she didn't have the time to say them.

That was why she had planned to wait until everything was over. Once peace returned, she and her master would sit on the Skytree and pour their hearts out as they admired the most beautiful sunrise.

To her dismay, that was no longer an option.

She couldn't have any of that.

At the end of the day, she couldn't survive the war.

Heck, she couldn't even bid her master goodbye.

The beautiful woman simply cried as blood tainted her dress.

When her sword dug through her heart, she thought about so many things.

Every moment she spent with Ye Fan played out in front of her as though she were watching the best film on repeat.

Even at that moment, she still remembered the poem Ye Fan asked his subordinate to recite to her.

The clouds in the sky and the stars in the night represent my sorrow and desolation.

Your love is soft and gentle like water; yet, it always sparks my innermost desires.

Though I wake up every day yearning for our reunion, I know this is a test that will make our love burn brighter.

The evening sun was as red as blood.

With a smile on her face and tears in her eyes, Moon God let out a soft groan as she calmly slipped into the eternal darkness.

Right as her body was about to hit the floor, a green light appeared on the horizon.

An angry voice boomed in the background.

“Eigetsu! How dare you die without my permission?”

Whoosh!

A gust of cold wind swept through the area, sending the leaves fluttering and the sand flying wildly.

That voice sounded anxious and furious at the same time.

Everyone looked up in unison upon hearing that, only to see a slender figure running through the air.

The figure was moving so fast that all they saw were afterimages of it.

Eventually, the figure reached Moon God and pulled her into his arms.

“M-Master?”

Moon God, who had decided to accept her death, couldn't believe her eyes when she felt the warmth of his firm chest.

I must be hallucinating or something. How is it possible for Ye Fan to be here? Shouldn't he be having solitary training in India right now? Even if he has completed his training, he should be rushing to protect his family in China instead! I wasn't expecting him to show up in Japan at all!

“Am I dead? Is that why I'm able to see you, Master?” Moon God asked with a smile as she nuzzled against Ye Fan's chest and took a whiff of his familiar scent.

The sight of her lying weakly in his embrace with her face all pale hit Ye Fan like a sledgehammer in the chest.

He gently wiped the blood off the corner of her mouth and gave her a tight hug.

“You're not dead, silly! Don't worry, your master is here to help you out,” Ye Fan whispered into her ear.

*D*mn, I should've known. Chu Yuan is aware of* my relationship with Moon God, so Chu Sect would surely come after her when attacking China. I was so worried about Jiangdong that I completely forgot about her!

"A-Are you really my master? Am I still alive?"

Moon God's vision was starting to get blurry as her eyelids grew increasingly heavier.

However, her body shuddered when she heard what Ye Fan said.

She then looked up and saw Ye Fan staring at her with tears in his eyes.

"I won't let you die," he replied softly.

He then fed her a few pills, including the ones that Duanmu Wan'er made to help replenish his elemental force as well as the ones he made in Chu Sect to heal his wounds.

Sure enough, Moon God's condition stabilized after consuming those pills.

"You silly girl! How could you do something so foolish? I won't forgive you if you do this again, you hear?" Ye Fan scolded her as he carefully removed the sword from her chest.

Instead of getting mad at Ye Fan or apologizing to him, Moon God simply flashed him a sweet and content smile in response.

She really liked the feeling of being cared for and protected.

Suzumiya Eigetsu felt content in knowing that her master was still thinking about her.

However, that sweet sensation only lasted for a few seconds as Moon God suddenly recalled something.

Her pale face was instantly filled with panic and horror as she shouted, "Get out of here, Master! I'll hold that monster off! Hurry up and leave!"

Having regained some of her strength after consuming those pills, Moon God broke free from Ye Fan's embrace and began shoving him out of there.

Given how terrifying that monster was, it was only natural that she would be afraid of him getting hurt.

Blaze was so tough that even a god realm master like Moon God couldn't do any damage to it, so she was doomed to lose that fight right from the start.

After all, she couldn't even break through its defenses, let alone defeat it.

Blaze could simply drag the battle out and Moon God would die of exhaustion.

Having experienced Blaze's power firsthand, Moon God feared Ye Fan would get hurt if he tried to fight it.

Mochizuki Kawa and the others were green with jealousy when they saw how much Moon God cared about Ye Fan.

Oh, Moon God... You're the representation of Japan, for goodness' sake! Our people put their faith in you! Even if you don't care about your own pride and honor, at least think about the reputation of Japan's martial arts world!

Of course, Mochizuki Kawa kept those thoughts to himself.

With Moon God's defeat in battle, the fate of Japan's martial arts world was in Ye Fan's hands.

"Leave? That monster hurt you, Eigetsu. I can't possibly leave without killing it first! Wait here for me, okay? I'll go avenge you right now," Ye Fan said as he got to his feet.

The look on Ye Fan's face was icy-cold as he shot Mochizuki Kawa and the others a glare, sending shivers down their spines.

"Take good care of Moon God. I will annihilate all of Japan's martial arts world if she gets hurt again."

Mochizuki Kawa's eyelids twitched when he heard Ye Fan's threat, but he didn't dare talk back to him at all.

Having made sure that Moon God was in good hands, Ye Fan slowly turned around to face Chu Tianqi.

The two brothers were finally looking each other in the eye again after so many years.

“A-Are you really Chu Tianfan?”

Chu Tianqi was still in shock and disbelief even though Ye Fan had been standing in front of him for quite a while.

He couldn't bring himself to accept the fact that a dead man was alive and well right before his eyes.

“But, didn't you die back then? How are you still alive?” Chu Tianqi asked with his eyes wide.

The members of Chu Sect standing behind him were just as shocked, especially the elders who nearly died at Chu Tianfan's hand back then.

They were so terrified to see him that they began trembling uncontrollably.

“How could I be dead when you b*stards are still alive? Chu Tianqi, I haven't punished you for what you did to Angie, and now you have the audacity to hurt Eigetsu? I'll settle our score once and for all today!” Ye Fan replied coldly.

The look in his eyes grew increasingly colder as his aura came surging out of his body like a huge flame.

Boom!

At that very moment, Ye Fan looked like a demon who was about to destroy the entire world.

Sensing the huge threat that Ye Fan posed, Blaze knew its master was in danger and decided to take action.

It then let out a roar, spread its wings, and launched a deadly attack at Chu Lin.

“All members of Chu Sect, concentrate your energy to create a formation! We must work together to kill this man!”

The elders of Chu Sect quickly created a formation in an attempt to surround and kill Ye Fan.

Chu Tianqi, who had been silent the whole time, held his hand up and stopped them right as they were about to launch an unimaginably devastating attack.

“Stand down, all of you! This battle is between me and him, so I don't want any of you to interfere. I can kill him all by myself!” he shouted arrogantly.

"I can kill him all by myself!"

Chu Tianqi's words echoed in everyone's ears as he stepped forward to face Ye Fan alone.

"Please don't act rashly, Mr. Chu!"

"Chu Tianfan is an incredibly cunning man! Most of us have fallen victim to his trickery in the past!"

"Yeah! I think we should all team up against him!"

The elders of Chu Sect were shocked and worried when they heard what Chu Tianqi said.

Unforeseen accidents could easily result in defeat in a time of war, so they all preferred to take the safest option possible in every scenario.

Why would Mr. Chu want to take Ye Fan on? Does he think this is a game? It'd be great if he wins, but what if he loses? What will we do if Ye Fan ends up killing him?

"Huh? Are you guys disobeying my direct orders? Stand down, all of you! Anyone who dares interfere will die!" Chu Tianqi shouted angrily.

Realizing that he had made up his mind, the elders had no choice but to step aside.

As none of them were able to take Chu Tianqi on, they could only leave him be.

The Chu Sect elder leading the group said worriedly, "Huh... I want you all to pay close attention when the two of them are fighting. We need to step in the moment things start going south for Mr. Chu. We're all screwed if anything happens to him!"

With everyone else out of the way, Ye Fan and Chu Tianqi were the only ones standing before each other.

There wasn't a single trace of emotion on Ye Fan's face as he stared Chu Tianqi down.

The look in his eyes was as calm as still water.

Chu Tianqi, on the other hand, had his fists tightly clenched. In his eyes was a mix of excitement, arrogance, and his blazing fighting spirit.

"I'll be honest with you, Chu Tianfan. I don't feel disappointed or angry that you're still alive today. If anything, I feel glad because I finally get to defeat you myself! I get to show everyone that I, Chu Tianqi, am the best heir of the Chu family! You're nothing but a lowly abandoned child! I've been thinking about having this battle with you for almost three years, Chu Tianfan! Thank you for helping me fulfill this dream!" he shouted with a vicious smile as he activated his elixir field.

As Chu Tianqi's Invoke the Celestial Cloud reached its peak level, his aura burned brightly like a huge flame.

However, Ye Fan seemed to be completely unaffected by his words.

He simply shot Chu Tianqi a glance before shifting his attention toward Blaze, which had shrunk in size.

This is probably Chu Sect's Sacred Beast, huh? I saw a huge monster while I was escaping Mount Chumen back then. This is the first time I've seen it up close.

“Hey, I'm talking to you! Are you f*cking listening?”

Angered by Ye Fan ignoring him, Chu Tianqi screamed as he threw a punch at Ye Fan.

“I suggest you send that beast after me instead. You're no match for me,” Ye Fan said coldly as he stepped aside to dodge that punch.

Chu Tianqi burst out laughing like he had heard the funniest joke ever.

“Oh, Chu Tianfan... Why are you still so insolent and arrogant even after so many years? I would've believed those words if they came from Moon God because she's a god realm master and the guardian of Japan's martial arts world. Who the he*I do you think you are? How dare you underestimate me? I'll make you pay for your attitude in blood!”

With a condescending sneer on his face, Chu Tianqi stomped on the ground and launched himself at Ye Fan like an arrow.

He then threw a punch at Ye Fan's chest, officially initiating the battle between the two brothers.

Ye Fan simply reached an arm out to block the incoming punch.

“Ha! Do you really think you can block it?” Chu Tianqi asked as he activated Dragon God Body.

With his strength increased tenfold, he sent Ye Fan through the ground beneath them.

A huge shockwave tore through the mountain Sanshin Organization was built on, reducing its height by a couple of meters in an instant.

“Die, Chu Tianfan!”

Having landed a successful blow, Chu Tianqi quickly followed up by launching dozens of projectiles at the crater Ye Fan was in.

Boom! Boom! Boom!

Deafening booms rang out as those gigantic, palm-shaped projectiles hit the ground.

The rubble around the crater was instantly turned to dust as web-like cracks formed in all directions.

“H-He's that powerful?”

Chu Tianqi's sudden display of destructive power shocked everyone at the scene.

Mochizuki Kawa and the others were all staring wide-eyed in shock.

They knew Chu Tianqi had reached the Supreme state, but they didn't think he was this powerful.

Even Ye Fan, who used to rank first on the Sky Ranking, isn't able to fight back at all! Heck, Ye Fan once defeated Tang Yun, the head of Chu Sect! Sure, Tang Yun's strength had decreased a little due to her circumstances back then, but she was still a force to be reckoned with. Even a Supreme would've struggled to take her down!

“I thought Chu Tianqi was nothing but an arrogant playboy, but he's actually ridiculously powerful!

“The Chu family sure are a bunch of freaks!”

“Chu Yuan, Demon King Chu, and the Chu brothers are all terrifying!”

“What kind of scary family is this?”

“Do they really have mortal blood running through their veins?”

Mochizuki Kawa and the others couldn't help but shudder in fear after witnessing the power of the Chu family members.

That family has managed to produce ridiculously powerful individuals in every generation! What the heck are those odds?

"Now I see why so many women in the martial arts world want to be a part of the Chu family and continue its bloodline!" Mochizuki Kawa exclaimed with a gloomy look on his face.

Of course, Moon God couldn't care less about that. Ye Fan's safety was all she could think of at the moment.

"Please be okay, Master..." Suzumiya Eigetsu mumbled repeatedly as she continued praying.

"Come out and face me, Chu Tianfan! I know you're not dead! There's no way you'd die that easily!" Chu Tianqi shouted as he stared at the rubble beneath him.

With his body surrounded by a golden glow from Dragon God Body, Chu Tianqi looked like a god that had descended from the heavens above.

Boom!

Those words had barely left Chu Tianqi's mouth when Ye Fan came charging out of the rubble with his hair and clothes billowing in the wind.

“What? That piece of sh*t is perfectly fine?”

The members of Chu Sect were shocked.

They knew Ye Fan wouldn't be defeated so easily, but how he came out unscathed after taking Chu Tianqi's devastating attacks left them speechless.

The Chu Sect elder leading the group tried to sound wise as he said, “That's perfectly normal. Don't forget, this kid can use Dragon God Body too. He won't get hurt that easily with the move protecting him.”

Ye Fan ignored their comments as he stared at the golden dragon silhouette on Chu Tianqi's body and asked coldly, “You received some power after taking Angie's eyes, didn't you? There's no way someone like you could possibly become this strong in just a few years. Chu Tianqi, aren't you ashamed of relying on others to become stronger?”

"Hahaha! Ashamed? Why should I be ashamed? It was her fault for possessing the said power! A weak woman like her isn't worthy of Jade Eyes! In fact, the Jones family should be thanking me for helping Jade Eyes see the light of day! Besides, Jade Eyes were a gift from Chu Yunyang, an ancestor of the Chu family! Why should I be ashamed of taking back what belongs to my family? You, on the other hand, are a traitorous, illegitimate child who sealed your uncle at the peak of Mount Chumen, all for the sake of a woman! How dare you betray your ancestor and ancient master? You are unworthy of having the Chu family's blood running through your veins!" Chu Tianqi snapped back at him while laughing maniacally.

He felt no guilt whatsoever for taking Angie's eyes and leaving her in a comatose state. If anything, Chu Tianqi actually believed his actions were perfectly justified.

He acted as though he and his father were doing the Jones family a huge favor.

Ye Fan was well and truly enraged when he heard that.

He had never seen such a shameless person in his entire life.

"My ancestor and ancient master? I'm surprised you b*stards have the audacity to say his name! You in particular are especially unworthy, Chu Tianqi!" Ye Fan yelled furiously as he stomped on the ground and launched himself at Chu Tianqi like an arrow.

*I'll beat this b*stard's face into a pulp!*

With that in mind, Ye Fan delivered a palm strike to Chu Tianqi's face.

Instead of dodging Ye Fan's attack, Chu Tianqi simply reached out and caught it with his hand.

"It's no use. Your strength isn't even enough to break through my defenses," Chu Tianqi said arrogantly while shaking his head.

He was incredibly confident in his power since he had the support of Dragon God Body.

To his surprise, Ye Fan snorted defiantly in response. "Is that so?"

The next thing they knew, a golden light erupted from Ye Fan's body as well.

By activating his Dragon God Body, Ye Fan was able to increase his strength several times in an instant.

"Bring it on, Chu Tianfan! I've `spent all those years waiting for this day! Let us have an epic battle to the death!" Chu Tianqi yelled excitedly when he saw Ye Fan get serious.

In contrast to Chu Tianqi's excitement and battle spirit, Ye Fan was calm and showed no emotion as he threw another punch with the support of Dragon God Body.

Chu Tianqi's punch was so fast that it nearly broke the sound barrier, and the power of the punch created shockwaves as it traveled through the air.

Naturally, Chu Tianfan wasn't about to back down either.

Like a bow that was fully drawn, he unleashed the energy he had channeled through his fists with a terrifying explosive force.

Like two unstoppable forces coming at each other, Chu Tianqi and Ye Fan had the fiercest clash of all time.

Boom!

Their fists collided like meteors.

A powerful shockwave erupted from the center of that clash and tore through the land like an apocalyptic storm.

All buildings within a thousand meter radius were reduced to rubble, and the people standing near the clash coughed up blood on the spot.

“That destructive power is so terrifying! I doubt even a Supreme could deliver such a devastating blow!”

Mochizuki Kawa and the others were petrified by the sight before them.

They had never thought two punches clashing could result in such catastrophic levels of destruction.

Is this what they mean when they say we should always return to our roots? It seems the strongest of fighters often prefer to rely on simple techniques to deliver their most powerful attacks.

Horried by the destructive power of the shockwave, the elders of Chu Sect quickly stepped back a few thousand meters.

Even from that distance, they could still clearly feel the terrifying energy coming from the two brothers.

“As expected of the Dragon God Body! This is truly the most powerful technique ever! Supreme grandmasters could boost their power exponentially with this technique! I wonder whose Dragon God Body is superior? Mr. Chu's, or Chu Tianfan's?”

The members of Chu Sect were still waiting to see the outcome of the clash earlier.

They believed the two brothers would be evenly matched for quite a while before one of them could deliver a decisive blow.

However, what they saw next shocked them all to the core.

Seconds after their fists made contact, the sound of bones cracking echoed throughout the area.

Ye Fan's punch had shattered Chu Tianqi's knuckles and bent his wrist a hundred and eighty degrees backward.

"Aaaaaaarghhhhhhhh!" Chu Tianqi let out an ear-piercing scream in pain. "D*mn it! How is this even possible? This can't be happening!"

He gritted his teeth as he endured the intense pain and threw yet another punch at Ye Fan.

Ye Fan responded by delivering a knife-hand strike at Chu Tianqi's arm to deflect his attack.

Noticing that Chu Tianqi's guard was wide open, Ye Fan decided to make full use of that golden opportunity. He charged forward and bombarded Chu Tianqi's face with a barrage of slaps.

Smack!

The first slap caused some blood to gush out of Chu Tianqi's nose and cracked most of his teeth.

"This is for my ancestor and ancient master, Mr. Yunyang! You and your men have gone against your ancestor's teachings by stealing Angie's eyes and harming your sect members!" Ye Fan shouted furiously as he slapped Chu Tianqi again with the back of his hand.

Chu Tianqi groaned in pain as his body went crashing into the ground like a meteor.

The impact created a huge shockwave and left a gigantic crater in the ground.

“This slap is for Angie! She's a kind and pure-hearted woman who wouldn't even hurt a fly, and yet, you b*stards had the audacity to take her eyes! Since you like her Jade Eyes so much, I'll hit you so hard you won't even be able to see!”

Ye Fan's raging voice echoed through the skies like thunder.

“You b*stard! How dare you hit me in the face? I'll kill you! I'll f*cking kill you!” Chu Tianqi roared with his face covered in blood.

He leaped right out of the crater in the ground and charged at Ye Fan.

Boom!

With a powerful slap, Ye Fan sent Chu Tianqi crashing back into the crater.

“This slap is for Eigetsu! She belongs to me! No one can lay a finger on her without my permission! I'll kill you for hurting her, you son of a b*tch!” Ye Fan yelled angrily as he delivered multiple slaps in a row.

Boom!Boom!Boom!

Each of those slaps came crashing down with the weight of mountains.

A hundred-meter tall building, which happened to be within range of the impact, was reduced to a pile of rubble in an instant.

Ye Fan had created such a deep crater that water came pouring out from under the ground, turning the mountain they were on into an ocean.

“W-What the...”

Everyone was stunned, especially Mochizuki Kawa and the members of Chu Sect.

Even Blaze went wide-eyed with shock when it saw what happened.

It wasn't expecting its master to be completely dominated by a couple of slaps.

Ye Fan's display of power shocked every single person in the area to their core.

“H-How is he so powerful?”

“H-How can Chu Tianfan still be so strong?”

The outcome of the ongoing fight undoubtedly shocked the members of Chu Sect.

Although Ye Fan is already a well-known powerful fighter for many years having defeated many Supremes in Chu Sect back then—starting with Chu Zhengliang and followed by the current head of the Sect, Tang Yun, no matter how strong Chu Tianfan is, it's merely the glory of the past. He killed himself with a sword in front of everyone back then. Even if he was lucky enough to survive, he shouldn't have been able to regain the peak of his strength due to the extent of his injuries. However, I can't believe our young master, Chu Tianqi, can't stop his attack at all now.

“This shouldn't be happening. He was using Dragon God Body, and so was Mr. Chu, but why is there such a huge difference between them?”

The powerful fighters of Chu Sect could not wrap their heads around it, and neither could Chu Tianqi.

After getting hit by several palm strikes from Ye Fan, the latter crawled out of the ruins in a wretched state.

Even though he was wounded, Ye Fan's previous attacks were not enough to kill him, given that he had cultivated Dragon God Body.

However, how many people would have any idea of the fury and madness brewing within him?

“Why? Why did this happen? Tell me!” Chu Tianqi growled indignantly with bloodshot eyes.

He initially thought that even if he could not subdue Ye Fan with the power he possessed at that very moment, he would surely still be on par with the latter.

However, reality hit him like a ton of bricks.

It never occurred to him that even if he practiced hard for many years and mastered the power of Jade Eyes, he was still no match for Ye Fan.

He truly could not figure out the reason behind it.

How exactly is Chu Tianfan better than me?

Ye Fan looked down at the blood-covered figure, and there was an aura of contempt on his indifferent face.

“You want to know why? I don't mind telling you. The Dragon God Body that you, your father, and even that old b*astard Chu Yuan mastered is not the complete version. There are only two people who have cultivated the complete version of Dragon God Body in this world. One is me, and the other is your master, Tang Yun. As for the one you cultivated, it is merely a joke before the true Dragon God Body,” he said proudly, and those powerful words echoed in everyone's ears for a long time.

Others might be shocked by the outcome, but Ye Fan was not the least bit surprised.

His and Tang Yun's Dragon God Bodies were the product of Joint Cultivation. In short, they were the true Yin Yang Dragon God Bodies.

What Chu Qitian mastered was nothing but the Yang part of it, so naturally, his could not be compared to the complete version in terms of strength and formidability.

“Shut up, you outcast! What rights do you have to compare yourself to my master? You're not worthy! You'll meet your end today! Even if I can't defeat you with Dragon God Body, I, Chu Tianqi, will unleash Invoke the Celestial Sky to kill you!”

Chu Tianqi did not wish to accept his defeat.

After bursting out of the ruins, he let out a roar of anger before stomping on the ground and leaping to the sky once more as terrifying power burst forth from his body again.

The overwhelming chill and murderous intent he emitted were like those of a demon crawling out of the abyss.

He charged toward Ye Fan while letting out a battle roar, throwing out a combination of palm strikes and punches as the power within his body flowed out freely.

After that, he unleashed the supreme martial technique of Chu Sect—Invoke the Celestial Sky.

A palm strike was followed by a punch, then a kick and a flick.

Invoke the Celestial Sky encompassed all moves, integrating them to form a world-famous martial technique.

The overwhelming attack Chu Tianqi unleashed covered the entire horizon, its terrifying power made countless people shudder.

From her position below, Moon God instinctively clenched her fists, her palms sweating due to worry.

Having witnessed Chu Tianqi's ability and the formidable power of Invoke the Celestial Sky, she certainly was not afraid of him because of her god realm cultivation.

However, Ye Fan was not a god realm master, so Moon God was worried that her master would get hurt.

Despite her worries, Ye Fan was exceptionally calm when faced with Chu Tianqi's latest maniacal attack.

He merely stood there, under the horizon, with contempt in his icy eyes.

“Chu Tianqi, even at this stage, you're still not giving up? Still deluding yourself into thinking that you can beat me on your own?”

Ye Fan shook his head as his monotonous voice rang through the area.

“Shut up and die!”

Chu Tianqi's bellow echoed in all directions.

His terrifying power closed in from all directions like the raging sea and crashed toward Ye Fan's position.

Even then, Ye Fan stood tall and proud in the middle of the storm, his face devoid of emotion, like a lofty mountain in the ravine.

No matter how harsh the wind and rain were, they could not shake him at all!

It was not until Chu Tianqi's attack approached that Ye Fan's figure disappeared.

All the onlookers saw was that Ye Fan had appeared several meters away in a flash.

Faced with Chu Tianqi's powerful attack, Ye Fan did not run away but chose to fight head-on.

He was covered in golden light, his dragon tattoos surging as a golden dragon enveloped his body.

The muscles on his body twitched like a boa constrictor, and his physique also greatly strengthened in an instant.

At that moment, Ye Fan had completely unleashed the Yin Yang Dragon Body, releasing the terrifying explosive power from his body.

From afar, he looked like a golden giant.

The earth shook when he threw a punch, and the sky trembled when he released a palm strike.

Chu Tianqi's attack fell on Ye Fan like an egg hitting a stone.

Be it the Cloud Sun Kick or the Earthshaking Palm, none could counter the might of Ye Fan's punch.

The latter broke through all his attacks and offensive restraints.

All that he was proud of was shattered under Ye Fan's hands.

Just like that, the strongest trump card that Chu Tianqi was proud of was still unable to last for a moment against Ye Fan.

In just a blink of an eye, they were all blown to pieces by the latter.

After destroying Chu Tianqi's attack, Ye Fan launched himself toward the former again with full force while sending out a hard punch.

Chu Tianqi was shocked and reached out to block the incoming punch.

However, there was no way he could block the attack.

Boom!

Accompanied by the deafening boom, the arm Chu Tianqi flung up to block off the attack was broken as the hard punch landed squarely on his chest.

His ribs cracked, and blood sprayed across the sky.

“Mr. Chu!”

“Stop it, b*stard!”

The members of Chu Sect were alarmed and shouted in anger.

Ye Fan paid no heed to their cries and aimed a swift kick at Chu Tianqi's abdomen, sending him flying.

Immediately after that, Ye Fan leaped a thousand meters into the sky before allowing gravity to pull him down.

With the crushing pressure of a mountain, an elbow strike hit Chu Tianqi's back ruthlessly.

Spurt!

Blood spewed from the man's mouth.

This time, Chu Tianqi nearly vomited out all his bile, and his screams of agony rang across Tokyo.

“Mr. Chu!”

“You b*stard. How dare you kill our young master?”

The powerful fighters of Chu Sect were enraged. They charged forward with a roar to save their young master, but a casual sweep of Ye Fan's hand sent them flying thousands of meters away.

“U-Uh...”

The Japanese martial artists were stunned by what they had just witnessed.

So powerful! Chu Tianfan is way too strong! It's truly an act of cruelty.

Before all this happened, they thought they would witness a shocking final showdown before their very eyes.

They did not expect the battle to be a one-sided control.

Ye Fan emerged victorious with his tremendous power.

Under the weight of his might, Chu Qitian simply could not fight back at all.

Be it the Dragon God Body or Invoke the Celestial Sky, they were rendered completely useless by Ye Fan.

Bam!

Chu Tianqi fell heavily to the ground with yet another deafening thud, spewing blood all over the floor.
