

“Of course, if you have to put it your way, I wouldn’t mind it.”

“That said, I believe you’re a smart man.”

“Why go against the Bauer family when you already have what you want?”

“After all, there’s no grudge between us!”

“Besides, the Bauer family and Longmen are different entities. However, the master of both had always been the same since ancient times.”

“Even if you don’t respect me, at least think of that person as well.”

“Can you only be satisfied by going against the Bauer family?”

Harold showed a faint smile; an unspeakably grim yet insulting look could be seen on his face.

Unlike Jeff and Joseph, Harold seemed more like the wolf in sheep’s clothing.

Not only was he hard to deal with, but he was also quite the cunning and sinister man.

--	--

Girl From Accra Blew Everyone Away With Her $100 Investment

Check Out Our List Of 30 Most Beautiful Women In The World

Harvey narrowed his eyes at him for a while before revealing a faint smile.

“You’re right about that.”

“I can hand Jeff to you...”

“But I have a few conditions.”

“I’ll do everything I can, as long as it’s in my power!” Harold replied with a faint smile.

“The properties belonging to me must be transferred under my name tomorrow.”

“Of course!”

Harold nodded.

“I also want a report of Jeff’s results.”

“Deal.”

Harold obliged without hesitation.

Harvey stared deeply into Harold’s eyes before pointing at Elanor, who was behind him.

“I want this woman with me.”

“No problem!”

Harold kept his smile; he didn’t seem like he wanted to go against Harvey’s conditions at all.

If it weren’t for the mercenaries he brought, he would’ve been mistaken for a people pleaser.

After seeing Harold being so cooperative, Harvey showed a profound look on his face before turning around.

“Fine. Since you’re being this respectful…”

“I’ll have to pay you my respects as well.”

“I hope you’ll do everything as you said.”

Harold chuckled lightly.

“Don’t worry, I’m not like Jeff or Joseph. I wouldn’t do anything stupid…”

“Just wait for the good news to come, Sir York!”

When Harvey, Rachel, and the others went away, Harold’s smile was gradually replaced by a harsh look.

On the next day, after Harvey and Harold met.

The properties of Flutwell's business alliance were all transferred under the Martial Hall.

Kayden and the others were shocked, and went to receive the properties.

Elanor cleared up her mood and helped organize Harvey's assets as well.

Finally, she made sure that the properties were all transferred without fail.

Jeff's reports were sent to Harvey as well.

- Harvey's expression changed instantly after reading the testimony.

"What is it, Sir York?" Rachel instinctively asked.

Harvey's face was cold.

"No wonder Harold didn't want Jeff in my hands!"

"This guy sold out Longmen!"

"He sold all of the participants of the Longmen Summit's information to the Indians!"

"Axel Garcia led eighteen experts from India to challenge all of the provincial champions from the tournament!"

"Other than me, everyone else was defeated!"

