“We have known each other for many years. These years, I have been busy with work, and she is also busy with her career.. ...

By the way, I can tell you that she is a doctor.” Having said this, Eric turned sideways and gestured to the staff. Suddenly, the prelude to B sounded slowly.

Avery looked at his daughter anxiously.

Layla was completely dumbfounded. She frowned and looked at the stage with a puzzled expression.

“Honey, who is Eric’s girlfriend?” Elliot had never heard that Eric had found a partner.

Avery: “I don’t know! He didn’t tell me.”

Elliot: “Oh... Layla, what’s wrong with you?”

Elliot found that Layla’s expression was not right.

“Don’t ask.” After Avery replied to Elliot, she immediately held her daughter’s hand and said, “Layla, why don’t we go back!”

Layla was very confused, but she knew the environment she was in.

Not only parents were there, but so many elders were also there.

If she lose her composure too much, not only will she lose face, but she will also lose face to her parents.

“Mom, I’m fine. There’s only one last song left, listen to it before leaving.” Layla lowered her head, opened her bag, and found her thermos inside.

Avery looked up at the stage.

Eric closed his eyes, held the mic in both hands, and performed the last song of his acting career attentively.

Time passed quickly, and soon the song ended. Eric opened his eyes, took a deep look at the audience, and bowed to all the fans.

“Let’s go!” Avery knew that her daughter was feeling uncomfortable, so she stood up from her seat first.

Elliot immediately stood up.

“Mom, isn’t there a dinner party? Let’s go to the dinner party to see his girlfriend!” Layla had already adjusted her mood, at least she could maintain her superficial calm.

“I don’t know if his girlfriend came to the scene.”

Avery couldn’t imagine who Eric’s girlfriend would be.

“It’s okay if you didn’t come to the scene! He must have photos on his phone!” Layla said, pulling her mother to the backstage of the stage.

Tammy and the others followed behind.

Before today, they had never heard of Eric having a relationship.

Eric had been in the entertainment industry for so many years, and he had never tied up with any female celebrity, but there were many female celebrities who liked to rub his popularity.

Anyone who was familiar with Eric knew that he had always been obsessed with work, and had no idea or time to find a girlfriend at all.

After arriving backstage, Layla walked directly towards Eric.

Avery wanted to pull Layla, but she didn't.

“Who is your girlfriend? Didn't you look for it a few days ago? Didn't you say that you are very busy with rehearsals every day?”

You are so amazing that you can find a girlfriend when you are so busy!” Layla said. She was not a three-year-old anymore.

Eric's behavior was really bullying.

If Layla hadn't confessed to Eric before, Eric certainly wouldn't have found a girlfriend in such a hurry to make Layla give up.

What was it called? This was called trying to cover up. Eric had already rejected Layla, so there was no need to do it again.

“I’ve known her for many years. We had a blind date before.” Eric looked at Layla’s flushed face, and his tone was as usual, very gentle, “Your mother may still remember her. She was the one I used to have in B. We know each other from Aryadelle.”

When Eric said this, he looked from the backstage entrance.

Eric’s girlfriend was coming.

Tonight Eric officially announced his relationship, how could his girlfriend not come to the scene?

She sat in the second row with Eric’s parents tonight.

“Hi everyone, I’m Eric’s girlfriend, and my name is Maggie Emond.” Maggie walked quickly to Eric, glanced at everyone, and finally stopped on Avery, “Miss Tate, I don’t know if you still remember me.”

Avery raised the corner of her mouth and nodded: “Of course I remember. It’s just that I never heard of you from Eric. I didn’t expect you to have confirmed the relationship. Bless you!”
