

The grudges Ye Fan held against Japan were no less than what Chu Sect had for it.

Back then, Mochizuki Kawa and the others had allied with various master fighters of Japan to besiege Ye Fan.

The Chu family went as far as joining forces with the Japanese army forces and nearly sent Ye Fan to the bottom of the ocean.

With all those past scrimmages, it was not surprising that Ye Fan would wish to obliterate Japan.

The fact remained that Ye Fan knew better than to act on his impulses.

He had to consider Eigetsu.

These were Eigetsu's people who were under her protection.

If he were to destroy them, even if she did not blame him, she would be very hurt.

After hearing Ye Fan's words, the master fighters from Japan were frightened into silence.

Each of them turned pale, and not even one of them uttered a word.

Indeed, it was only now that they realized how harsh Chu Tianfan's methods were compared to the Chu Sect.

When infuriated, this man was even more terrifying than the Chu Sect.

According to many, the massacre outside the rainforest was carried out by Chu Tianfan's very own hands.

The very thought of that was enough to make the master fighters of Japan shiver. Though they were reluctant, they had no other choice but to let Ye Fan take their Guardian Angel away without attempting to stop him.

Very quickly, Ye Fan's figure disappeared from their sight.

As they watched the figures leaving and disappearing from sight, the martial artists of Japan shed tears of sadness.

"Oh..."

"I guess our country only has Moon God to depend on now."

"Even so, Chu Tianfan has abducted her to China!"

"From now on, who will protect our country, Japan?"

Many of the people were filled with grief, and they shed tears of despair.

Untold sorrow filled their hearts.

They were filled with resentment!

“Moon God, we are your people.”

“Why do you willingly abandon your people for the embrace of a foreign man?”

At this point in time, the hearts of those living in Tokyo turned cold.

This was especially true of the martial artists of Japan.

Just now, when Ye Fan wanted to kill Mochizuki Kawa, Moon God did not stop him.

Even when Ye Fan declared that he would kill all of Japan's master fighters, Moon God did not attempt to stop him either.

It was very obvious from Moon God's actions that to her, Ye Fan's position was above these people.

Japan's strongest fighter and Guardian Angel, who had protected Japan for innumerable years, was just taken away by a man from China.

It was similar to the tale of a goddess of China who married someone from Japan and became a part of Japan.

No one would feel good about this happening to oneself.

Whoosh...

On the vast Pacific Ocean, a figure was galloping across the surface of the waters like a white dragon hurtling across the sea.

He cut through the oncoming wind at a speed so fast that he churned up white waves underfoot, which splashed into the air and broke up into frothing fragments like snow in the air.

This person was none other than Ye Fan, who had left Japan and was on the way to China.

In his arms was a girl who looked as beautiful as someone from a painting.

Her long dress was stained with blood, but the stains could not conceal her pure and ethereal temperament.

Her silken tresses were blowing in the wind.

Under her long dress, her exposed long and fair legs looked like a sculpture of jade.

Who was this girl? She gave the impression that her beauty was out of this world.

Her beauty was so ethereal that it was like a lotus blossoming in the snow on the peak of Sky Mountain.

Unfortunately, for this exquisite beauty, her life was fading away with time.

Even though Moon God had a soul of the god realm, her physical body was mortal as it belonged to Suzumiya Eigetsu.

After a serious injury, it was only natural that she could not hang on to life for long.

It was likely that Suzumiya Eigetsu felt her life ebbing away and knew that she did not have much time left on earth. That was because, in Ye Fan's embrace, she did not behave herself at all.

She twisted her feminine body, trying to bury herself deeper in his arms.

Like a little kitten begging for her owner's caresses, she greedily breathed in the odor of the man's body.

She knew that these were the last moments she could spend alone with her master.

Possibly, there would be no more such opportunities in the future.

At this moment in time, in the middle of the ocean, an island came into view.

Suddenly, Suzumiya Eigetsu spoke in a low voice. "M-Master, please... Take me to that island to watch the sunset, just for a moment. Then, after admiring the sunset, please leave me on the island. Can you let me leave this world quietly and peacefully? Master, I do not want you to see how I look when I pass on."

Suzumiya Eigetsu spoke in a weak voice.

The consciousness that belonged to Moon God seemed to have been seriously injured and fallen asleep.

At this point, it was only Suzumiya Eigetsu who dominated the body.

“What nonsense are you talking about?” Ye Fan got angry immediately.

“I've said that without my permission, no one can take you away, not even Hades, the ruler of the underworld. Eigetsu, I will save your life. I'm bringing you to Jiangdong to see my great-grandma. My great-grandma's healing knowledge is as vast as the skies. She can certainly heal you.” Ye Fan spoke with conviction.

However, Suzumiya Eigetsu shook her head. “There is no need, Master. You mustn't waste any more time on me. The people in Jiangdong are waiting for you. They are still in danger. You must leave me alone and should hurry up to save them. In fact, I am already content to be able to see you one last time.”

Ye Fan was heartbroken at these words.

You little rascal! You are always like this—you only think about me and never about yourself. Eigetsu, you know that I want the family and friends in Jiangdong to live, but you don't know that more than that, I do not want to see you die!

From when he was little, Ye Fan met many types of women like Xu Lei, Mucheng, Chen Nan, and Tang Yun.

They were all very good women—independent, strong, and having their own pursuits and dreams.

Xu Lei guarded Yanjing, wanting to develop the Xu family.

Mucheng started from scratch, trying to start her own business.

Chen Nan loved her father to the extent of being willing to be the fall guy for his crimes.

As for Tang Yun, she had often confronted Ye Fan for the sake of her sect.

Among all of them, Eigetsu was the most skilled in martial arts.

However, she was the silliest of them all.

Whether he was right or wrong, this rascal would take his side without reservation.

If he wanted to kill someone, Eigetsu would never try to stop him, and she would do anything to help.

She would even abandon her people and betray her country.

This woman right in front of him now was the silliest that she had ever seen.

It seemed as if she existed only for him.

Ye Fan was her world.

He owed her too much, so he could not ignore her now that she was facing a situation of life and death.

Before, he had thought of going to Jiangdong and leaving Moon God to her own fate.

Nonetheless, he had not the heart to do that, and so he had turned back for her.

This time, he would naturally elect to save Eigetsu first.

As for the Jiangdong situation, there was a large array of protection, the four Dragon Slayers were lending their support, and there was even Huangniu to help out.

Ye Fan reckoned that even if Chu Tianqi and the others went there, they could do no harm at Jiangdong.

In the end, despite Suzumiya Eigetsu's dissuasion, Ye Fan did not go straight to Yunzhou after returning to China.

Instead, he went to Fenghai.

The Chu residence was there.

It was already mid-autumn, and so outside the residence, the willows were turning yellow.

This was Ye Fan's revisit after many years.

Gingerly, he put Moon God down.

Then, he went to the door and knelt down.

"Great-grandma, I'm your great-grandson, Chu Tianfan. I'm here to see you. Please open the door for me."

Ye Fan knelt in front of the door, calling out with a remorseful heart.

In this whole world, the person that he respected most was this old woman who had gone through a lot of suffering in life.

Whenever Ye Fan faced a challenge he could not overcome, his great-grandma was able to help him through it.

Years ago, this was also where he met Tang Yun.

At the Chu residence, an old lady was gardening at her vegetable patch.

She was busy weeding, fertilizing, ploughing, and watering.

It had been a long time since someone came to visit. She was like someone lost in the sands of time.

She had been living the same life with the same routine for a very long time, and she would continue living like this for the rest of her life.

The only living creature staying by her side was the charmingly naive big black dog.

Strangely, this black dog looked the same as when Ye Fan lived in the Chu residence ten years ago.

After so many years, there were no signs of aging on this dog, and it looked almost the same as ten years ago.

Time seemed to leave no trace on the dog.

It was early in the morning.

The black dog was still asleep. It lay on the stone steps at the main entrance, its ears drooping down to cover its eyes.

Old Madam Chu looked at the black dog and shook her head, smiling. "You're lazier than my great-grandson! What time is it now? Are you still sleeping? This bad habit of sleeping in late has never changed after so many years.”

Looking at the black dog in front of her, Old Madam Chu thought about her great-grandson again. The great-grandson whom she loved the most.

Suddenly, she felt a tingling pain in her heart, and a look of sadness crossed her wrinkled face.

She was over a hundred years old now and had survived the vicissitudes of life.

She should be used to seeing sickness and death by now.

However, when she received the news of Ye Fan's death, she could not help but feel extremely sad.

Every time she thought about that, her eyes would get teary.

“Sigh... Those b*stards still killed my great-grandson in the end. He was such a good child. If he were still alive, his achievements in the future would have been greater than Mr. Yunyang's.” Old Madam Chu's heart was filled with sorrow.

Even after so many years, the fall of Ye Fan was a pain in her heart that she could never get rid of.

When Old Madam Chu was immersed in sadness, the big black dog that was sleeping on the stone steps suddenly straightened its drooping ears.

The next moment, it jumped up abruptly and rushed to the door like crazy. It barked loudly and excitedly at the door, and its tail began to wag like a spinning windmill.

"Hey! Why are you going crazy?" Old Madam Chu was startled by the black dog's movements.

Then, she heard some noises coming from the door, and a familiar voice drifted into her ears.

"Great-grandma, I'm your great-grandson, Chu Tianfan. I'm here to see you. Please open the door for me."

Silence ensued.

"Great-grandma, I'm your great-grandson, Chu Tianfan..."

A low and respectful voice sounded outside.

Thud!

The hoe in Old Madam Chu's hand fell to the ground and hit the black dog's leg.

The dog immediately let out a painful bark, but Old Madam Chu could not care less about that.

She stood rooted to her spot for a long time before she rushed toward the door. She moved so fast that she did not look like an old lady who was over a hundred years old at all.

The moment the door was opened, a skinny figure appeared in front of her. She finally saw the face that she had been thinking about day and night. This elder, already in her twilight years, could no longer hold back her emotions.

Her body started trembling, and her eyes turned red. She looked at the man kneeling in front of the door and queried carefully, "Ye... Ye Fan?"

Ye Fan raised his head. His dignified and domineering face in the past was now full of guilt and vulnerability.

After all, he was still a child in front of his great-grandmother—a child who longed for someone to lean on and to care about him.

The people in Jiangdong and Eigetsu could rely on Ye Fan. Even Xu Lei and Qiu Mucheng relied on Ye Fan to protect them.

However, who could Ye Fan rely on when he was tired and hurt?

Evidently, this old lady in front of him was the only person he could rely on.

Ye Fan stood up and fell directly into her arms.

Burying his face in Old Madam Chu's arms, Ye

Fan uttered chokingly, "Great-grandma, I'm sorry. I shouldn't have let you worry about me."

Old Madam Chu patted his back with a smile and teary eyes. "It's okay. I'm glad you've come home. I thought I would never get to see you again."

Under the aged tree next to the old residence, the two finally reunited.

For an elder like Old Madam Chu, the happiest thing in her life was to see her children and grandchildren safe and sound.

Woof! Woof! Woof!

The big black dog circled them, barking nonstop.

It even licked Ye Fan's face a few times as if it was trying to wipe off the tears on his face.

Not far away, Suzumiya Eigetsu, who was leaning against the wall, saw the scene and put on a gratified smile.

For so many years, she had never seen her master like this.

This man had always been so tough, like a rock that felt no pain.

However, no matter how tough a person was, there was always a vulnerable side.

He just had to meet the right person to reveal his vulnerability.

After a short reunion, Ye Fan took Suzumiya Eigetsu into the Chu residence.

“Great-grandma, how is Eigetsu?” asked Ye Fan anxiously after showing Eigetsu's injury to Old Madam Chu.

Old Madam Chu replied, “Her injury is pretty serious, especially the penetrating injury to the abdomen, which hurts her internal organs. She's a mortal. There's no way that she could survive this kind of injury if not for her strong spiritual energy. If it weren't for the support of this powerful spiritual energy, she probably wouldn't be able to survive until now.”

“Great-grandma, can you save her?” Ye Fan asked again.

Old Madam Chu smiled. “Calm down, my dear. Go get a bucket of water. Then, take off her clothes and let her sit in the water. I'm going to prepare some herbal solution for her.”

After giving her instructions, Old Madam Chu went to prepare the solution, leaving Ye Fan and Suzumiya Eigetsu in the room.

Although Ye Fan was Eigetsu's master, he had always treated her as his little sister.

After all, she was a woman, so he did not feel comfortable undressing her.

While Ye Fan was in a dilemma, the big black dog in the yard rushed in and kicked Ye Fan away. Then, the dog jumped on the bed and started undressing Suzumiya Eigetsu with its paws. For some parts that could not be untied with its paws, it bit them off with its mouth.

While undressing Suzumiya Eigetsu, it turned its head and grinned at Ye Fan.

It seemed as if it was telling Ye Fan that it was helping him, and there was no need to thank it.

Ye Fan, who was thrown far away by its kick, saw the scene in front of him, and his eyes were instantly filled with rage.

“Go away, stupid dog!” scolded Ye Fan.

At the same time, he rushed forward, picked up the black dog, and threw it outside the door. Then, he slammed the door shut.

Are you kidding me? Eigetsu is mine! How can I let anyone see her body? Even a dog is not allowed!

“Eigetsu, I...” Ye Fan was still a little shy and felt sorry for Suzumiya Eigetsu.

Suzumiya Eigetsu blushed and looked away timidly. “My body is yours...”

The meaning of her words was obvious.

Since she belonged to Ye Fan, there was nothing wrong with him looking at her body.

Even if Ye Fan wanted her to help him to give birth to a son, she would be willing to do so.

"I'm sorry, Eightsu. I'm going to undress you now."

Ye Fan understood that treating her wound was what was more important now and nothing else.

He carefully took off the blood-stained dress for Eightsu and wiped the blood and dirt off her skin with a towel.

After the clothes were removed and the blood stains were wiped away, Moon God's naked body was exposed before Ye Fan's eyes.

This was the first time Ye Fan had seen a woman's body so closely.

He could not deny that Eightsu's shapely figure was extremely attractive.

She looked like an angel from heaven with snow-white skin, without the slightest unwanted fat.

She was so perfectly beautiful that she looked like a painting.

Her beauty was enough to make any man fall for her.

Ye Fan was probably the only person who could resist such temptation. Except for the inevitable touch in helping her to wipe off the blood, he had never gone overboard during the whole process.

Outside the door, the big black dog peeking through the crack of the door drooled with envy.

An hour later, Old Madam Chu came to Suzumiya Eigetsu again after she had prepared everything needed.

The big black dog was still drooling and peeking through the crack of the door.

Old Madam Chu stretched out her hand and knocked on the dog's head. "Just stay here obediently. Don't you dare have any dirty thoughts in your mind! Otherwise, I'll pluck all of your hair!" Old Madam Chu let out a meaningful smile and took a glance at Ye Fan.

Woof! Woof! Woof!

The black dog barked a few times as if it was telling Old Madam Chu that it promised to only take a peek outside and would not go in.

"Great-grandma, what's wrong with the dog? I remember it being very innocent before this." Ye Fan looked at the drooling black dog and felt disgusted. It looked like a perverted old man who had never seen a woman before.

Old Madam Chu shook her head and sighed. "Don't mention it. A yellow calf came to the village some time ago. Blackie ran out to play with it for a few days. After it came back, it became like this. It was probably influenced by that bad friend." Old Madam Chu repeatedly sighed as she said that.

Hearing that, the corners of Ye Fan's eye twitched. "No wonder I feel that Blackie's perverted look is kind of familiar. It learned that from the stupid calf!"

Ye Fan's face darkened, and he secretly scolded it in his heart.

Blackie used to be a very innocent dog. Look at what he's turned into now! I have to teach that stupid animal a lesson after this!

"Let's not talk about that anymore. Where have you been all these years? I didn't get your news at all. Did you know how worried I was?" Old Madam Chu led Ye Fan to sit in the yard, and she questioned him about his whereabouts in the past few years.

Ye Fan told his great-grandmother about his recuperation at Great North.

Old Madam Chu was shocked. "Did you see your father? That b*stard is just like you, always making people worry! He has not come to see me for more than ten years already. If you see him next time, please break his legs and bring him to see me. I have to make him kneel in front of his ancestors for seven days!" huffed Old Madam Chu.

In the entire Chu family, there were not many whom she had a liking for.

Ye Fan was one of them, while his father was another.

Ye Fan smiled bitterly. "Great-grandma, didn't you order him not to step foot in the Chu residence? Of course, he dared not come.”

Old Madam Chu suddenly remembered that.

After Ye Fan was kicked out of the Chu family back then, in a fit of anger, she forbade the entire Chu family from entering the Chu residence.

Chu Zhenghong, Ye Fan's father, got the most scolding from Old Madam Chu.

She told him not to enter the Chu residence for the rest of his life unless Chu Tianfan was found.

“That's right. But what has your b*stard dad been doing all these years? I haven't heard from him for a long time,” asked Old Madam Chu concernedly.

Ye Fan shook his head. “I'm not sure. He just said that what he's doing now is something beyond this world.”

Hearing that, Old Madam Chu frowned. “It seems that your dad has found that place.”

Ye Fan was stunned. “Huh? What place?”

Old Madam Chu smiled. “You'll know one day. The universe is vast, and the earth is just a tiny place in the universe. When your power reaches a certain level, you'll come into contact with the larger world.”

In fact, this was not the first time Ye Fan heard such words. Although he was curious about it, he thought it was not something that he should be concerned about now. So, he did not ask further.

Later, Ye Fan told Old Madam Chu about the recent Chu Sect's attack on the world and the arrival of Chu Yuan and his army in Jiangdong.

Old Madam Chu nodded. "I've sensed that. There're a lot of strong auras gathered at Yunzhou. The most powerful one should be your dad. If it weren't for me being trapped here, I would go to Yunzhou to end his life myself!" As she said that, a hint of coldness flashed across her eyes.

"By the way, there's another strange thing. Previously, I entered the Chu Sect's ancestral land and found a strange stone door and many tombs. One of them is Chu Yuan's. Don't you think that's strange?"

Hearing that, Old Madam Chu was utterly shocked. "A stone door? Is it covered with dragon patterns and it's all black?"

Ye Fan nodded continuously. "That stone door was very creepy. It seemed as if something was calling me back then. When I walked closer, the door opened. I wasn't sure what was inside, so I didn't go in."

"What did you say? The door opened?" Old Madam Chu's face turned pale instantly. "That b*stard has activated the forbidden door!"

"Great-grandma, what's going on?" Ye Fan was even more puzzled.

"Ye Fan, it's hard to explain everything to you right now. You just have to know that the stone door is a forbidden door. I'm glad that you didn't go in. Otherwise, your mind would have been manipulated! You might gain some power there, but you'll also lose your soul. It seems that your grandpa's soul has been devoured by the stone door. If that's the case, you don't need to show him mercy anymore. Ye Fan, I now grant you the position of the head of the Chu family. You'll now have the power to perform housecleaning on behalf of the Chu family's ancestors and ancient masters. If you meet your grandpa, Chu Yuan, don't hold back and do your best to take his life! Otherwise, I don't know what kind of disaster will befall Jiangdong. Even the entire earth will suffer the same fate too. Since he activated the forbidden door for his own benefit and caused disaster for the whole world, he deserves to die!" Old Madam Chu was extremely furious, and her words sounded solemn.

As she said that, she took out a jade pendant and handed it to Ye Fan.

"This is a jade passed down by Mr. Yunyang, called Thunder Jade. It is said that this Thunder Jade can attract thunder and accumulate the Power of Lightning. When this jade is activated, it can attract thousands of lightning strikes.

This Thunder Jade contributed a lot to Mr. Yunyang's great achievements. However, thousands of years have passed. When Mr. Yunyang passed on this jade, he dissipated its power to attract lightning, fearing that his descendants would rely too much on this treasure. Therefore, this Thunder Jade is just a token now. Anyone who is in possession of this token will officially be the legitimate head of the Chu family. It may not be of much use, but everyone in the Chu family who respects Mr. Yunyang will also respect you as the master when they see this jade."

Ye Fan was a little hesitant to accept it.

"Great-grandma, I'm still young. I'm afraid that I can't take on such a big family responsibility. Since this jade represents the legitimate descendant of the Chu family, it's better for you to keep it."

"Take it! Men in the Chu family should have the traits of real men and be willing to shoulder responsibility. Be a man!" After Old Madam Chu gave Ye Fan a lesson, Ye Fan had no choice but to accept it.

"There's one more thing, Ye Fan. I'm afraid that it's still difficult for you to fight against the Chu Sect alone. Take this Thunder Jade to the Jones family. The Jones family has been the caretaker of the Chu family for generations and respects Mr. Yunyang as their master. You show this Thunder Jade to the head of the Jones family. When he sees it, he will listen to you. Then, you need to ask them to use the Jade Eyes inherited from their family to awaken Blaze, which has been sleeping at Mount Chumen. Blaze has the bloodline of a Sacred Beast, and it's extremely powerful. With the help of Blaze, it'll be easy for you to destroy the Chu Sect.” Old Madam Chu suggested an idea to maximize his chances of winning the battle.

Much to Ye Fan's great-grandmother's surprise, the man's expression gradually turned despondent as he listened to her.

"What's wrong? Why are you still unhappy? I'm not asking you to go and seek the Jones family out because I don't have faith in your capabilities. It's just that you'll have someone to help you, increasing your chances of victory. I can't help you much in this battle. This is all I can do for you. I don't want the tragedy back then to repeat itself on you. It's best that you go all out to integrate all forces available to you. Make more friends and fewer enemies. Then, things will go without a hitch."

Ultimately, she was a person who had been through great trials and tribulations.

Thus, she knew that a battle was definitely not fought alone by rushing into it recklessly.

Instead, there had to be a plan and strategy.

It was best to strengthen oneself and weaken one's opponent, just like her plan earlier.

She proposed that Ye Fan use Thunder Jade to split the forces of the Chu Sect and weaken the Chu family.

Then, he would be appointed as the legitimate head of the family, giving him a valid reason to battle. That would place him on the moral high ground.

Subsequently, the final move would nip the problem right in the bud—subjugate the Jones family of the Three Families of the Chu Sect and awaken the Chu Sect's Sacred Beast.

With the help of the Sacred Beast, she felt that the victory of this battle would basically be secure.

On the contrary, sorrow washed over Ye Fan.

“It's too late, Great-grandma. The Chu family's Sacred Beast has been awakened by Uncle Zhengliang's son, Chu Tianqi.”

What?

Hearing that, his great-grandmother was utterly shocked.

“That's impossible! Back then, Mr. Yunyang bestowed the power of summoning the Sacred Beast to the Jones family. A major part of the reason is his worry that some of the descendants of the Chu family might turn out to be evil, and no one would be able to go against them. Therefore, he granted the power of summoning the Sacred Beast to the Jones family. When necessary, they could use the Sacred Beast to keep the descendants of the Chu family in check. Such an ability is the Jones family's foundation in gaining a foothold as the Three Families of the Chu Sect. How could the head of the Jones family hand such a crucial ability over to someone from the Chu family? They're simply destroying their own foundation and future!”

She didn't believe it at all.

Verily, she couldn't believe that the Jones family would be so foolish.

Sigh!

“You might not know this, Great-grandma, but too many things have happened in the past few years. Uncle Zhengliang and the others had been blinded by power and influence that they had lost all conscience. In the present generation of the Jones family, only the daughter of the Jones family, Angie, had the Jade Eyes of the Jones family. Uncle Zhengliang and the others went as far as kidnapping her and gouging her eyes out before transplanting them into Chu Tianqi...”

Ye Fan told his great-grandmother about everything Chu Zhengliang and his son had done.

Every time he spoke of those matters, grief inundated him.

Whenever he thought of it all, he felt exceedingly guilty.

After all, Angie was kidnapped while on her way to China to look for him.

If she hadn't gone to China to seek me out, such misfortune wouldn't have befallen her.

"Right now, Angie is in a coma. She can't talk or speak, merely sleeping perpetually. Even her father died at the hands of the Chu Sect a few days ago in a bid to protect his family. If I hadn't arrived in time, the Jones family would have been wiped out."

His words were somber.

Meanwhile, his great-grandmother's expression grew all the darker. As he spoke, her entire body shook with rage. In the end, she slammed her cane onto the ground.

"How despicable! What a bunch of animals! How could such wicked people exist among the Chu family's descendants? They've let Mr. Yunyang down! They deserve to die for their sins!"

She was so livid that her eyes blazed scarlet. In her towering rage, the ground shook incessantly. It was as though there was an earthquake. Frightened, the big black dog circled the courtyard non-stop.

"Ye Fan, the Chu family has wronged the Jones family and Angie. With the existence of such evildoers among the descendants of the Chu family, I wouldn't be able to face the Chu family's ancestors after my demise!"

As she had gone through the vicissitudes of life, few things in the world could affect her emotions anymore.

Only someone like Ye Fan, her great-grandson whom she watched growing up, could have an effect on her emotionally.

However, after learning from the man that the Chu family had actually done such a ruthless thing to the Jones family, even she couldn't remain calm despite having experienced countless hardships.

While she was in high dudgeon, tears escaped her eyes.

"The ancestors of the Jones family were initially Mr. Yunyang's servants. They were loyal to him all their lives. At first, they merely kept guard over Blaze. Later, they retired to Mount Chumen and protected the descendants of the Chu family. Every generation of the Jones family sacrificed much for the Chu family. Even in the past few hundred years, most of the expenses of the Chu family had been provided by the Jones family. It's no exaggeration to say that the Jones family had supported the Chu family for generations. Yet, that bunch of animals wasn't grateful for such kindness. Instead, they repaid kindness with evil, gouging out Angie's eyes. How could they have done such a thing when she is still so young?"

Her hands clenched into fists, and her eyes blazed scarlet. She had steam coming out of her ears.

The previous matriarch of the Jones family was Bill's mother. Not only was she a good friend of hers, but she also saved her life once.

Before she passed away, she even implored Old Madam Chu to take care of the Jones family.

Yet, Old Madam Chu's descendants ended up bringing about their destruction.

That had her feeling inexorably ashamed.

“What a bunch of evildoers! Ye Fan, I order you to capture those two animals. Retrieve the Jade Eyes they stole and return them to the Jones family. Even if it means destroying it, it can't be allowed to remain in their hands. Also, Ye Fan, the Chu family is at fault in this matter. We betrayed the Jones family. As compensation, you have to marry the daughter of the Jones family after this battle ends. Don't worry, for I'll try my best to treat her at that time. Even if she can't regain her supernatural physique, she should have no problems living as an ordinary person.”

Upon hearing that, Ye Fan paled and shook his head vigorously.

“That won't work, Great-grandma. How could I marry Angie when I'm already married? That wouldn't be fair to her, no?”

Alas, his great-grandmother promptly waved a dismissive hand.

“It's okay. The Chu family has never been bound by secular rules. Back then, even Mr. Yunyang had several wives. It's nothing uncommon for a man of great accomplishment to have a few women by his side. It's decided, then. At that time, I'll personally plan the wedding for the two of you. The Chu family owes the Jones family a debt of gratitude. Now that Angie's father is no longer here, and she herself has been beset by misfortune, it's only right that the Chu family compensate her."

"But... But..."

Still, Ye Fan couldn't quite accept it.

*D*mn it! Why should I be the one to make amends for the wrongs Chu Tianqi committed?*

"Why, you don't want to marry her? Does that daughter of the Jones family look unsightly?"

A frown marred his great-grandmother's countenance.

In response, Ye Fan shook his head. "No, Angie is a very beautiful and docile girl."

"So, why are you objecting? What a brat, acting all righteous when you'll be benefitting from this arrangement! The daughter of the Tang family married you, and now, the daughter of the Jones family will also be doing the same. Consequently, two of the Three Families of the Chu Sect will be related to you in marriage. In the future, your power and status in the Chu Sect will be unparalleled. How nice! Oh yes, I forgot to ask you—have you bedded Tang Yun?"

Is she pregnant yet?”

At that, Ye Fan shook his head.

“How incompetent! In this aspect, you're still lagging far behind your father. If it were your father, he would've already had a son old enough to take care of himself. Make haste and work at getting the head of the Chu Sect pregnant. After the Chu family has done housecleaning, the most urgent task would be to beget children,” his great-grandmother urged in a huff.

As the elder of the Chu family, she was very much concerned about the issue of the family line's continuation.

While Ye Fan's great-grandmother said nothing, she was inwardly a touch disappointed.

It looks like Yun hasn't told him about it.

She had known long ago that Tang Yun once gave birth to a son for Ye Fan.

Back when his great-grandson brought her back for treatment, she had already perceived it.

At that time, the two of them seemed to have had a fight, so Tang Yun didn't tell Ye Fan about the matter.

She initially thought that the man would have likely known after so many years, so she felt him out with such a question earlier.

Unexpectedly, he was still in the dark.

Of course, she wasn't sure whether he was embarrassed and deliberately lied to her or Tang Yun had been keeping it a secret from him.

Anyhow, she wasn't at liberty to interfere too much in the matters of the younger generation.

That was doubly true as both Ye Fan and Tang Yun were from the Three Families of the Chu Sect, and there was a status gap between them.

There would undoubtedly be colossal aftermath once their relationship was made public.

Ye Fan was a man, so it wouldn't affect him that much.

Conversely, Tang Yun wouldn't be so lucky.

Her reputation was bound to suffer greatly.

For that reason, she naturally couldn't bring light to that matter when Tang Yun herself hadn't said anything.

Although Ye Fan was her great-grandson, she still held fast to her principles.

She still had to consider Tang Yun's feelings.

Perhaps she really wants to keep it a secret forever.

"Got it, Great-grandma. I'll keep that in mind. When this battle ends, I'll bring Yun back to the Chu residence and have her give birth to a great-great-grandson for you," Ye Fan promised with a grin.

His great-grandmother nodded in approval.

"This is more like it! But Ye Fan, be mindful of your ways and methods. She's the head of a sect, after all, and she has her own career.

Before doing anything, consider her reputation and authority. If she's reluctant to publicize her relationship with you, respect her decision.

Allow her to be the high and mighty head of the Chu Sect in the day as long as she's willing to be intimate with you at night.”

She was indeed a perceptive person, for she took everything into consideration.

At the end of the day, there's still a status gap between them. To a certain degree, such a relationship is considered inappropriate. Thus, criticism is inevitable when it's public knowledge.

Hearing that, Ye Fan nodded fervently. “Don't worry, Great-grandma. I'll respect her decision.”

After the long conversation, Ye Fan went to check on Eigetsu before taking his leave from his great-grandmother to head to Yunzhou.

“Great-grandma, the Chu Sect has gathered great forces in wait, so I must rush back as soon as possible. When this battle ends, I'll be back to visit you with my wife.”

His great-grandmother nodded. “Okay, go ahead, Ye Fan. This time, be careful in everything you do. That b*stard, Chu Yuan, has activated the forbidden door, so his capabilities must have skyrocketed. You've got to brace yourself for that. Besides, the Sacred Beast of the Chu Sect is also exceedingly terrifying. You must deal with it appropriately.”

Speaking of that Sacred Beast, Ye Fan admitted, “I've fought with that beast already, Great-grandma. It's indeed difficult to defeat. Worse still, it can transform thrice. Even if I were to go all out, I couldn't say for sure that I'd be able to kill it."

Then, he fired question after question at her.

"How much do you know about Blaze, Great-grandma? Does it have any weaknesses? Or is there any way to put it out of commission?"

Initially, he had high chances of winning that battle.

His plan had been to deal with Chu Yuan and leave the rest to Dragon God Hall.

However, Blaze's appearance placed tremendous pressure upon him.

The scales of victory had heavily tipped over to the Chu Sect.

Regretfully, his great-grandmother shook her head. "Blaze's ancestor is a Sacred Beast Mr. Yunyang kept by his side. Do you think a Sacred Beast that could remain by his side would have any weaknesses? Even if it had any shortcomings, he would've probably perfected them."

Ye Fan's heart lurched.

"So, there's no way of putting it out of commission, and I can only battle it head-on?"

Disappointment swamped him.

It's so strong that not even Moon God has any way of penetrating its defenses except for my Raijin Thunderdrake.

Regardless, Blaze could transform thrice in a row, so he wasn't sure whether it could continue growing stronger.

Therefore, he really had no confidence that he could defeat that beast.

Of course, he wouldn't be afraid if he merely had to deal with Blaze.

Alas, there was still Chu Yuan within the Chu Sect, who posed a great threat.

Both their fearsome combat prowess unquestionably gave him a headache.

His great-grandmother nodded emphatically. "The blood of the ancient Sacred Beast flows through Blaze's veins. I can tell you that if it is fully grown, no one in this whole world will be its match. Even if you were to team up with Chu Yuan, the two of you wouldn't be able to defeat it. And even if it's still not fully grown, it'll still be exceedingly difficult for you to defeat it. I don't really have a good solution for you, but I can provide you with some assistance."

Something seemingly occurred to her while she was speaking.

Delight flooded Ye Fan when he heard that.

Great-grandma is an elder of the Chu family, knowledgeable and well-versed about the many secrets of the family!

Hence, he was undoubtedly looking forward to the assistance she mentioned.

However, when his great-grandmother led the perverted dog over, his face abruptly darkened.

"Why did you bring this perverted dog over, Great-grandma? Don't tell me it was the assistance you mentioned?" Ye Fan queried worriedly.

His great-grandmother chuckled. "I was speaking about it all right."

Turning her gaze to the dog, she murmured, "Go with Ye Fan, Blackie. Help him for a bit when necessary."

At once, Ye Fan flashed her a wry smile.

"Is it even reliable, Great-grandma? I'm afraid that it'll end up dead. Let's just forget about it. Have Blackie stay and keep you company instead."

He didn't quite believe that the black dog could be Blaze's match.

"He seems to be doubtful of you, Blackie. Show him a few moves," his great-grandmother urged while grinning from ear to ear.

Following that, Blackie barked before lunging over to Ye Fan.

Snapping around, it shot out its hind legs.

Caught unaware, Ye Fan took a kick to the face.

With a cry, he was sent flying right out of the Chu residence.

Whoosh!

Ye Fan swiftly ran back in, his face stained with blood.

Surprisingly, he wasn't at all furious that he had been kicked by the dog. Instead, he was over the moon.

"I'm counting on you this time, Blackie!"

Scooping the black dog up, he strode right out.

It was as though he was afraid that Blackie wouldn't leave with him.

Indeed, Blackie was seemingly reluctant to leave.

Breaking free from the man's arms, it ran back to the room where Eigetsu was recuperating and peeked through the gap in the door.

Once more, drool escaped its mouth and puddled on the floor.

His eyes twitching, Ye Fan chased after it at once. Grabbing its tail, he dragged it out. "Come, let's go, doggy. Don't look anymore. There are plenty of beautiful ladies in Yunzhou. There are even beautiful men. At that time, I'll get you two and let you have your fill of them!"

As soon as the black dog heard that, it perked up.

Even its ears were raised.

Jerking its head back, it panted and stuck its tongue out at the man, seemingly clamoring for him to bring it there posthaste.

Ye Fan promptly gave a bitter chuckle.

*Sure enough, it's Huangniu's apprentice.
Their perverted looks are exactly the same!*

"We're leaving, Great-grandma. Please take care of Eigetsu."

Picking up the big black dog, he waved and took his leave from his great-grandmother.

Then, man and animal rushed toward Yunzhou at lightning speed.

In the distant sky, wind and clouds condensed in the air.

The black clouds descended from the horizon far away like a solid curtain, blanketing the whole sky in Jiangdong.

All that heralded an imminent gathering storm in that area.

Yunzhou was originally a small, insignificant town in Jiangdong.

The people there had lived ordinary, peaceful lives for generations.

Much like Ye Fan's hometown, Jingzhou, Jiangdong's presence was very weak.

However, after a certain Mr. Chu appeared in Yunzhou so many years ago, the development sped up very rapidly, as though it had hitched a hike on a rocket.

A lot of rich and powerful people in the state started building their company headquarters in Yunzhou.

Why wouldn't they when someone powerful was supporting the city?

Chu Group had a near-total monopoly in Jiangdong. So many people formed connections with some people in the company hoping to get a piece of that juicy pie.

As time went by, Yunzhou's reputation subtly surpassed Jianghai's.

When Ye Fan's reputation was at its peak, everyone in Jiangdong believed that Yunzhou, the place he was living in, was the center of power in Jiangdong.

Of course, the reputation of Yunzhou, Ye Fan's hometown, also grew because of him.

At the moment, it had practically developed into a tourist city. The massive development involved the entire city, making it the third richest city in Jiangdong.

However, peace didn't last long in those two cities.

In the third year after Ye Fan disappeared, a large number of foreigners poured into the country.

First, they went to Jingzhou and burned Ye Fan's hometown to the ground.

Yeyang, the place Ye Fan grew up in, had almost been decimated.

As a result, countless residents of the village became homeless.

A lot of the villagers lost their lives as well.

Of course, that was only the start of the bloody rampage.

Chu Group's branch company in Jingzhou suffered a similar fate.

The whole building was brought down by those people.

Nearly everyone who had a relationship with the Chu family and its businesses was dragged into the mess.

Even though most people were able to avoid the disaster when they got the news in advance, some people were not so lucky.

After all, there were so many people. Hence, some were bound to be caught up in the conflict.

Ye Fan's childhood best friend's parents were those who couldn't escape the calamity.

Before that, many people wouldn't have thought that the Mr. Chu they were proud of would one day be the cause of their deaths.

Yunzhou was under attack as well.

Many citizens in the city died, and Chu Group's headquarters building was reduced to ruins in the conflict.

In order to deal with the uninvited guests, the Commander In Chief of the Jiangdong military base personally led an army to chase them out.

Before the army was deployed, Lu Tianhe, the former Commander In Chief and Ye Fan's best friend, called the current Commander In Chief many times. He desperately tried to stop the army from getting involved, but the new Commander In Chief ignored his warnings.

He stubbornly led the army into the city to wipe out the intruders.

The result wasn't difficult to imagine.

Jiangdong's army was completely decimated by the warriors of Chu Sect.

The Commander In Chief also died in the line of duty.

After learning the news, the command center really regretted the decision.

With no other choice, the higher-ups in the military allowed Lu Tianhe to clean up the mess in Jiangdong.

Upon arriving at Jiangdong, Lu Tianhe reorganized the soldiers who managed to escape the slaughter.

He ordered the soldiers to retreat instead of fighting Chu Sect.

His plan was to withdraw from the fight altogether because there was no chance of success.

After all, Chu Sect, the most powerful family in the world, was the one who invaded Jiangdong.

There were many Supreme warriors and even a god realm master in the sect.

Even the most powerful martial arts institution in China was brought to ruin by Chu Sect.

Unless nuclear weapons were deployed, there was no way Lu Tianhe and his ordinary soldiers, who were only equipped with machine guns, could win against Chu Sect.

“Are we just going to sit here and watch those invaders do as they please, General Lu?” a subordinate asked with resentment.

Lu Tianhe sighed. “This crisis has far exceeded our capabilities to handle it. It's not a fight any of you can join as we wish. However, as powerful as Chu Sect's army is, it seems like they're only targeting Chu Tianfan and everything related to him. At the moment, they haven't killed innocent citizens.”

Therefore, the military generally refrained from getting involved in conflicts between the factions in the martial arts world for a good reason.

After all, there was an unwritten rule in the martial arts world that no matter how deep someone or some group's grudge was, they mustn't kill ordinary folks.

However, it would appear that Chu Sect had gone overboard with their most recent invasion.

Not only were they attacking martial artists in Jiangdong, but they were also harming many ordinary people who had a connection with Ye Fan.

“I'm sorry, my friend. I want to help protect your family too, but I don't have the power to do it,” Lu Tianhe muttered to himself as he stood at the top of a mountain with a sense of helplessness.

His gaze was fixed on Chu Sect's army as they gathered at Mount Yunding. There was nothing he could do to help.

At that moment, he had already received news that Ye Fan's friends and family were brought to Mount Yunding by Li Er and the others.

Truthfully, he was shocked when he heard the news.

He had no idea what Li Er and Lei San were thinking because they knew the people from Chu Sect would kill anyone who had connection with Ye Fan.

The best option that he could think of for those people was to scatter and escape the city.

If they left Jiangdong and even China that way, they stood a better chance of surviving.

Yet, Li Er and the others gathered all of them in a single place as though they were waiting for the enemy to take them all out in one go.

"Even though General Chu was brilliant when he was alive, he had asked the wrong people to protect his loved ones before he died. It seems like his friends and family will be buried in the mountain tonight." Sorrow filled Lu Tianhe's heart.

Who could've thought that after the unrivaled

Mr. Chu died, his friends and family would suffer a terrible fate like that?

Even his hometown was destroyed.

Once he was gone, there was no one left to protect the place from his enemies.

"According to the scouts' reports, Chu Sect's army has arrived at Mount Yunding, General Lu. The final attack will begin at any moment. However, no one is protecting the foot of the mountain," a subordinate reported.

The agony in Lu Tianhe's heart intensified when he heard that.

"It seems like Li Er as well as the others have given up resisting Chu Sect's army and are waiting for their end to come. It sounds ridiculous that no one is even protecting the foot of the mountain, but it's possible that Li Er knew it'd make no difference even if there were guards protecting the entrance. Even War God Castle had been crushed under the mighty Chu Sect. Without General Chu's protection, Jiangdong is but a fish lying helplessly on the chopping board." Lu Tianhe sighed.

It was as though he could already see the blood of Ye Fan's friends and families painting Mount Yunding red.

At eight in the evening, Chu Sect's army launched its attack on Mount Yunding.

At that moment, a lot of people in Jiangdong stared in the direction of Mount Yunding with sadness.

Pity and sympathy swelled in their hearts as they watched.

However, just as they thought Mount Yunding was about to be destroyed by Chu Sect's army, a large explosion was heard.

A pillar of green light was seen shooting into the sky as it roared like thunder.

Then, the green light spread out and enveloped the entire Mount Yunding like a golden bell.

Even people from thousands of kilometers away could see the bright green light.

“W-What is this? Is this a technique Chu Sect is using to destroy the mountain?” Lu Tianhe, who was standing hundreds of kilometers away, was shocked by the sudden appearance of the light.

Without any delay, he sent dozens of scouts to investigate the situation.

After a while, he received a call from the front lines.

“What's going on? How's the situation at Mount Yunding? Is anyone alive?” he asked anxiously.

“The pillar of green light was shot out from inside Mount Yunding, General Lu! It had completely covered the entire mountain. Chu Sect's army had launched multiple assaults, but they couldn't break through the barrier. Li Er and all the other people on the mountain are still alive! Chu Sect can't break into the mountain!" his subordinate informed excitedly.

Joy and surprise were seen on Lu Tianhe's face when he heard that. "This must be a technique left by General Chu! General Chu's power really is unrivaled. Even though he had been dead for years, he's still protecting Jiangdong."

Inside Yunzhou, a barrier stretched across thousands of meters to protect Mount Yunding.

The warriors of Chu Sect launched multiple attacks on the barrier but couldn't put a scratch on it at all.

"What do we do, Mr. Anderson? We can't go into the mountain at all!" The Chu Sect's warriors couldn't advance past the foot of the mountain.

As the crowd stared at the formation, despair colored the look in their eyes.

"Stop whining and keep attacking! I want you all to attack this place through day and night! I don't believe Chu Sect can't destroy this little formation!" Anderson ordered.

Initially, he didn't give much thought to the barrier.

From his perspective, it was just a last attempt at resistance by Ye Fan's people.

However, after Chu Sect's army attacked the barrier relentlessly for three days and three nights, despair settled in his heart.

Because none of the attacks put even a scratch on the formation.

In the end, Anderson decided to take down the formation himself. He gathered all his strength and tried to smash the barrier into pieces, but it was useless. The barrier remained in perfect condition while he was nearly exhausted.

Breaking the barrier was starting to seem like an insurmountable task.

"D*mmit! Can someone tell me what the f*ck this formation is?" Anderson roared furiously as he stood before the formation.

He felt like he was going crazy.

When he attacked War God Castle earlier, he actually lost pretty badly.

If not for Chu Yuan's help, the people Anderson was leading would've probably perished in Mount Chumen.

That was why he wanted to make up for his mistakes in Jiangdong.

He basically slaughtered his way from Jingzhou to Yunzhou with no resistance.

After paying the Ye residence a visit, he arrived at Mount Yunding.

Anderson thought he was going to wipe out the people dear to Ye Fan at Mount Yunding.

Despite the fact that he had arrived at his target's doorstep, he couldn't kick the door open and that crushed his spirit.

He tried attacking for a few more days, but the formation was too strong. It was perhaps even stronger than Chu Sect's defensive formation.

No matter what attacks were lobbed in the direction of the barrier, the formation continued to stand in pristine condition as though they were throwing rocks into the sea, unable to cause even a ripple.

With no other choice, Anderson asked for Chu Yuan's help once more.

"You can't even take out those remaining survivors? How useless!" Chu Yuan uttered as he arrived at Mount Yunding.

Rage swirled in his aged eyes.

When Anderson came delivering a report, he thought he would be receiving news that Mount Yunding had been razed to the ground.

Yet, his people had failed to even enter the mountain.

"What a bunch of incompetent trash. How can Chu Sect conquer the world if it's made up of people like you?" His furious, thunderous roar was heard throughout the entire area.

Anderson and the others kneeled in front of him, not even having the nerve to raise their heads.

"All of you, take a good look at how I'm going to destroy this little trick." As Chu Yuan levitated into the air and arrived above the mountain peak, his clothing fluttered in the wind.

There was an authoritative expression on his serious face, as though he could control someone's lives and deaths.

Then, Anderson and the others saw Chu Yuan slowly stretching his palm toward Mount Yunding and pressing on it.

Inside Mount Yunding, Li Er and the others were overwhelmed with fear.

When the War God Ye Qingtian saw Chu Yuan appearing once more, despair was scribbled on his expression. "Everyone, prepare for battle. This may be the last battle for the martial arts world of China."

Chu Yuan was still a god realm master with high-divine power, after all.

Ye Qingtian didn't believe the formation could withstand the attack of a god realm master.

As for Li Er and the others, they sighed as despair consumed their hearts. "It seems like we can't change the outcome in the end."

Raising his head, Chu Lin stared at Ye Yuyan. "Are we going to die, Aunt Yuyan?"

Suddenly, the atmosphere on Mount Yunding became somber.

Children's cries could be heard in the background.

At that moment, many people gathered on Mount Yunding.

Ye Fan's uncles and aunts were all there.

A gloomy, hopeless expression appeared on all their faces after they heard what Ye Qingtian said.

However, inside the courtyard, Huangniu was wearing a pair of sunglasses and lying on the recliner casually as it bathed in the sunlight.

Even though so many people were crying in anguish, Huangniu casually turned its body around on the recliner.

"Hey, how are you still in the mood to sleep right now? Can't you help us come up with a plan? Ye Fan asked you to protect Jiangdong when he was still alive! He didn't let you come here to sleep!" Fatty uttered furiously before kicking Huangniu's recliner.

As a result of falling to the ground, Huangniu was woken up. "Who the he*! disturb my sleep? Do you have a death wish?"

Fury burned in its eyes as it stood.

"This isn't the time for sleeping! We're near our last leg here, can't you just come up with a plan already?" Li Er was hoping Huangniu could help out, too.

Similarly, Ye Qingtian turned to the talking calf, hoping the creature had some ideas.

To their surprise, Huangniu simply glanced at the condition outside the mountain, grabbed its recliner, and lay down on it to sleep again.

“What are you all panicking for? You’re all acting like someone just died! Just relax and leave them be.”

It didn’t give a crap about anyone else and returned to its slumber.

“D*mmit! I knew this calf was unreliable! It’s just here for free meals!” Fatty cursed furiously.

As Ye Fan’s childhood friend, it had been a few days since he was taken to Mount Yunding.

Initially, he thought Huangniu was Ye Fan’s secret ace in the hole when he first met the talking calf.

Thus, he spent the past few days observing it.

To his utter disappointment, he only saw the calf either sleeping or eating the whole day. Besides, he even caught the calf peeping at his wife taking a bath once.

Seeing how useless the calf was, he had completely lost hope in it.

In the end, everyone shifted their focus away from the calf and continued to hope that the barrier could stop Chu Yuan’s attack.

"I want to sleep too, Uncle Niu."

It was quite true that youngsters hardly have any worries.

Just as everyone was deep in despair, Chu Lin broke out of Ye Yuyan's grip, grabbed Huangniu's tail, lay on the calf's stomach and slept.

She didn't stop him from doing it.

After all, she had no idea if her nephew would still have the chance to sleep in such a carefree manner in the future.

Boom!

Finally, Chu Yuan's attacks landed.

Everyone held their hands tightly and anxiously as they waited for their doom under the barrier.

Following a loud bang, they felt the entire area shaking under Chu Yuan's strike.

The green barrier was rippling violently, as though a huge rock had landed in the water.

Just as everyone was prepared for the barrier to shatter, everything went back to normal after the violent shaking ended to their surprise.

The formation remained intact.

It was as though the green barrier protecting

Mount Yunding was an undying flame.

“What is this formation? How can it withstand my attack?” Chu Yuan was confounded by what he saw.

Disbelief was reflected in his eyes.

The warriors of Chu Sect were similarly shocked.

Even Li Er and the others were widening their eyes in bewilderment.

After a long while, cheers of joy were heard from the mountain.
