

Chapter 318 Do what I say

"Do you think you can see Mr. Lee whenever you want?" Xavier said with disdain.

Xavier can hardly see the big boss behind Topyuan Group, not to mention Drew.

In a trance, Xavier realized that he hadn't seen Maximilian for a while. He didn't know what the big boss thought. Such a big investment had not yet been implemented. Wasn't he afraid of something going wrong?

Shaking his head, Xavier put aside his distracting thoughts. As a professional manager for many years, he understood that he must never question the actions and decisions of his boss.

Drew pleaded bitterly, "If we don't see Mr. Lee, all the personnel and equipment we contact will have to be dismissed. We can't afford to support so many people and equipment."

"That's your business. It is clearly stated in the contract that we have the final say on the starting date. If we don't set it, you can't enter the construction site." Xavier said very perfunctorily.

Drew was going crazy, "Mr. Xavier, you can at least give a rough timeline. Otherwise, if you suddenly tell us to start, we have no time to find the manpower and equipment."

"Then what do you want? I can't even see my boss. If you have the ability, just go to him. "

Drew calmed down, looked at the phone on the desk and said, "Can you call Mr. Lee and talk about our situation? It is really urgent."

"The boss is not in the company. Who do I call? I don't have the boss's private number either. If you don't believe me, I will ask someone to take you to the door of the chairman's office. You can wait there for my boss. "

Xavier shook his head, closed the document he was reading, and threw it aside.

Considering the boring situation recently, Xavier also wanted to complain.

"Let me tell you. Our boss has huge assets and business. Investing in the Topyuan Group is just like playing make-believe games. He didn't take it into his heart at all, and might have forgotten it. No one knows when he can think of it, and the construction time depends entirely on it."

The three of Drew were shocked. In their eyes, the Topyuan Group, with an investment over two billion dollars, was already a huge investment. Why was it like a toy in the hands of Mr. Lee?

That was two billion dollars, real money! Was it just thrown aside and forgotten?

How much money did his family have? Rich people with tens of billion dollars of assets have to take two billion seriously.

Even families with hundreds of billions of assets would not treat two billion as a trifle!

"Mr. Xavier, what can we do? Just wait like this?" Drew asked blankly.

"Just wait. I'm waiting too. I'm in charge of such a large piece of land, but I can't do anything. I think I seem to be an old man guarding the farm. You can go back if you have nothing else to tell me."

Alfie leaned into Drew's ear and said, "Drew, how about asking Mr. Xavier if Maximilian and Victoria really know his boss?"

Drew hesitated for a while, feeling that this was the last hope.

"Mr. Xavier, I want to know whether your boss knows Victoria or Maximilian."

"I don't know. How could I know who our boss knows? Do you find the wrong person and are cheated? Few people in H City know our boss." Xavier said casually.

Xavier didn't know Maximilian's situation at all, thinking that his boss might fly somewhere for pleasure. So he didn't even pay attention to what Drew said.

"Fuck! I knew the trash was useless, and I must teach him a lesson later." Alfie said fiercely.

Drew was completely helpless, so he could only say goodbye to Xavier and walked out of his office dejectedly.

"Drew, what should we do? According to Mr. Xavier, Maximilian lied to us. He did not know the boss of the Topyuan Group. Aunt must be deceiving for the sake of face, and finally had to let her waste son-in-law take the blame."

Alfie was stirring up enmity, and Drew transferred the irritation in his heart to Maximilian.

"Didn't the trash follow? It seems that he is very self-aware. Let's go to him and ask him! "

They walked out of the office building with anger, walked to the car and opened the door on Maximilian's side.

"You fucking still play mobile phone? Didn't you say that you can arrange for us to meet the boss of Topyuan Group? But Mr. Xavier said that the boss didn't even know you! "

"I shouldn't have believed you and brought you here. What a shame!" Alfie and Tommy scolded Maximilian, rolled up the sleeves and was about to beat him.

Drew lit a cigarette and took two sips, and expelled a white smoke at Maximilian.

"Worthless wretch, what do you think we should do now? If we don't see the boss of Topyuan Group today, we will take you to aunt's house to ask for an explanation. We can't be deceived like this. "

Maximilian smiled and looked at the three helplessly, "You are such an asshole, wise in your own conceit, self-righteous, and arrogant."

"Are you courting death? How dare you talk to my brother like this?" Alfie clenched his fists, and his eyes could already burst out with anger.

Drew waved his hand at Alfie, stared at Maximilian and said, "If you can take us to see the boss of Topyuan Group, I don't care about what you just said. If we don't see him, you will be dead soon."

Maximilian smiled and said, "You have to do what I said, and I promise you will see him."

"Just say how to do it."

"You should go to the door of the chairman's office and wait. As long as you can wait patiently, I guarantee that you can meet the boss of Topyuan Group."

After Maximilian finished speaking, he raised his brows and looked at Drew.

Drew thought for a while. It didn't matter that they waited at the door of the chairman, and he had already planned on not leaving.

"How about you? You mean you are not going with us." Drew's eyes narrowed slightly.

"Why should I wait with you? After contacting him later, I will definitely go in advance. You can wait at the door without worry. You had better wait now and show your sincerity."

Alfie said irritably, "Drew, he must be deceiving us!"

"Deceiving? Don't worry about him lying to us. He can't run away. Do as he said for now. If we can't see the boss, we can fix him later." Drew said coldly.

"How can you believe this rubbish? He must be unreliable!" Alfie said angrily.

Chapter 319 Be Rude? !

Regardless of Alfie's persuasion, Drew chose to wait at the door of the chairman's office. He did this not because he believed in Maximilian, but because he had no other choice.

If he couldn't meet Topyuan Group's boss and start construction as soon as possible, Drew would be unable to hold it. He had already contacted the equipment and personnel required. If the work could not be started after the agreed time, the Wright family would have to pay a large sum of money as penalty.

By then, it meant that Drew messed things up. Not only did he have no credit, he had to be cast aside, and even became a laughing stock in the business circle.

"Follow me. Wait outside the chairman's office."

Drew took Alfie and Tommy back to the Topyuan Group. They took the elevator to the top floor and went straight to the chairman's office.

The door of the chairman's office was tightly closed, and there was no one around it. It looked like it hadn't been opened for a long time.

Rat-a-tat. Drew plucked up the courage to knock on the door, and then listened carefully to the sounds in the office. However, he was extremely disappointed in the end, for there was no sound.

"There's really no one here. Is it useful for us to wait here? If the mysterious rich man does not show up, can we wait here every day?" Tommy complained.

"Ah ha. Don't think about it so much. The Topyuan Group's boss is not here at all. Maximilian, that idiot, dares to talk nonsense. We can fix him later and see how he lies." Alfie said eagerly.

Drew leaned his back against the wall at the door, feeling that there was no hope in his life. If he really didn't see the boss of the Topyuan Group today, his reputation would be completely ruined.

"Shut up and wait quietly."

Alfie and Tommy stopped talking, and they realized that Drew was not in a good mood.

Maximilian played with the phone for a while and felt that time was almost up. He then left the car and walked into the Topyuan Group.

Without entering the ordinary elevator, Maximilian walked to the private elevator.

Maximilian just walked to the private elevator door and someone stretched out a hand behind him to help him press the elevator button.

The security captain gasped and looked at Maximilian, "Chairman, you, you are here. I'm Harrison, a member of the security team."

Harrison's main responsibility every day was to check the monitoring to see if Maximilian came to the company. If he came, Harrison would rush to the private elevator as soon as possible to provide him with various services.

Maximilian did not come to the Topyuan Group to work often, so there was no secretary assigned to him. He assigned the work of assistants and other auxiliary personnel to Harrison.

Harrison had not seen Maximilian for a long time, and he was extremely excited, "Chairman, you have not been here for a long time. I miss you so much."

"Stop. You have so much nonsense. Call me Mr. Lee later instead of chairman."

Maximilian ordered.

"Understand. Chair... Mr. Lee."

Harrison pressed the elevator button of the top floor, and then stood in front of the elevator door with a serious face.

DING!

The elevator door opened. Harrison got out of the elevator first, looking around vigilantly.

When he saw the three men standing at the door of the chairman's office, Harrison held the rubber stick in his left hand and the walkie-talkie in his right hand.

"What are you doing? Why are you standing here? "Harrison shouted loudly.

A smile immediately appeared on Drew's face, and he said cautiously, "We are waiting for your chairman."

Maximilian walked out from behind Harrison and said in a low voice, "Let them wait outside. Don't be polite if they dare to mess around."

Harrison immediately understood Maximilian's intentions and followed him to the chairman's office.

The three looked at the security guard of the Topyuan Group, who followed Maximilian like a bodyguard. They were all dumbfounded.

What was going on?

Why did the security guard of Topyuan Group be so respectful to Maximilian? It seemed so strange.

"You trash! You..." Alfie was about to yell, but Harrison had already pulled out the rubber stick and pointed it at him. Alfie shut up instantly and did not dare to speak.

"The chairman's office is not a place where you can make a lot of noise. Shut up." Harrison snapped.

Maximilian looked at the three with a smile, and then walked to the door of the chairman's office.

Harrison immediately opened the door with his access card and let Maximilian walk into the office.

Drew's eyes widened, and he wanted to go in with Maximilian. But Harrison turned around and kicked his belly, throwing him far away.

"Ah! My stomach." Drew was lying on the ground, holding his stomach, and felt he was almost kicked to death just now.

Harrison closed the door of the chairman's office and said with a cold face, "You dare to trespass into our chairman's office. Are you courting death?"

"You! That waste can go in. Why can't my brother go in?" Alfie assisted Drew and asked sternly.

"Who are you? How could you compare yourself with him? You are comparing the light of fireflies with the glory of the bright moon.."

Harrison felt that his metaphor was very elegant, so he was extremely proud of himself.

Alfie wanted to say something more, but Drew waved his hand and said reluctantly, "Help me dial Maximilian's phone. I want to talk to him."

"This damn trash! He could go in, but he didn't take us. He is really courting death! "

Alfie cursed, took out his cell phone and dialed Maximilian's number, "Do you fucking want to die? Why don't you take us with you?"

"You have a bad attitude. Why should I take you? Just wait outside. I will give you time later." Maximilian said calmly.

"Give me the phone. Don't you know how to talk in this situation?"

Drew felt that he was going to be pissed off. Obviously, Maximilian could meet Topyuan Group's boss, but his stupid younger brother was still disrespectful to Maximilian.

Alfie handed the phone to Drew, and he was dissatisfied. Drew picked up the phone and smiled, "Maximilian, I'm sorry. Just now, Alfie, Tommy and I had a bad attitude towards you, and I hope you can forgive us."

"Ah, don't talk about forgiving. You just need to wait and I will definitely let you achieve what you want." Maximilian smiled.

"Thank you. It would be better for us to see Topyuan Group's boss sooner, as the construction can't be delayed. If you can help us start construction as soon as possible, I will definitely praise you in front of my grandfather." Drew said empty words. Maximilian smiled disdainfully and said, "Wait."

Chapter 320 Admit Mistake

Drew hung up the phone and sighed heavily. He regretted offending Maximilian at first; otherwise he should have entered the office by now.

"Drew, what did that trash say?" Alfie asked angrily.

Slap! Drew severely slapped Alfie.

"Brother, why are you slapping me!" Alfie covered his face and looked at Drew incredulously.

"Are you stupid? Maximilian was inside! You are still calling him a trash. I think you are a waste! Could you think about it? Our hope lies in Maximilian!"

Drew scolded Alfie angrily.

Alfie lowered his head aggrievedly. After hesitating for a moment, he said, "There is no one in the office just now."

Will Maximilian bribe the security guard here to cheat us?"

Drew was taken aback for a moment, and recalled what Xavier had just said. He made it clear that the chairman was absent.

Moreover, Drew knocked on the door just now, and there was no sound from the office. It could confirm that there was no one in the office.

Did Maximilian really bribe the security guard ?

Drew looked at Harrison who was standing at the door, feeling increasingly suspicious. Under normal circumstances, a security guard would never stand in front of the chairman's office.

"Help me over and ask the security guard." Drew said in a low voice.

Alfie and Tommy walked over with Drew. Harrison looked at the two warily, "What do you want to do? The chairman's office is not allowed to enter."

"I want to know when your chairman came." Drew forced a smile and asked.

Harrison looked at the three contemptuously, thinking in his heart that our chairman had just entered, but unfortunately I wouldn't tell you.

"It's none of your business when our chairman comes. Who do you think you are?"

Drew's eyes narrowed, and he determined that there was something wrong.

"What is the relationship between Maximilian and your chairman? We came together, Maximilian is my brother-in-law. I'm very curious, so I want to inquire." Drew continued to ask.

Harrison looked at Drew for a while, and curled his lips disdainfully, "I don't know anything. If you want to inquire, just ask others.

Drew nodded with a smile, and said in a low voice, "Help me to see Mr. Xavier."

Alfie and Tommy immediately turned around and helped Drew to leave quickly.

"Drew, I said there was something wrong earlier. That trash is really damn careful to figure out such a way to fool us. Later we will expose him and kill him directly." Alfie said viciously.

"Let's ask Mr. Xavier first. Don't talk nonsense."

Drew was helped into Xavier's office. When Xavier saw the miserable Drew, he was a little surprised and said,

"What's wrong with you? Do you come to blackmail me? "

"Mr. Xavier, stop joking. How could I blackmail you? We waited at the door of the chairman's office and saw the security guard lead someone in. When I wanted to follow up, I was kicked by your security guard." Drew first stated the facts, and Xavier's brows instantly squeezed.

"Then I thought about it. Mr. Xavier, you personally said that the chairman was not there. But why did that person get in? I know that person too, who is definitely not your chairman. I thought it was strange, so I came to you to report."

Xavier thought in confusion, as if something was really wrong.

"Wait a minute, I'll call and ask."

Xavier was about to pick up the phone when the landline on the desk rang suddenly. So he answered the phone.

"Hello, this is Xavier."

After Xavier said his name, the voice from the phone made his expression serious and respectful instantly.

"Okay, I see. I will do it right away."

Xavier put down the phone, picked up the folder and walked out, "You need to go out first. I have to report the recent progress to the chairman."

"Is your chairman really there?" Drew was stunned for a moment, and could not help thinking of Maximilian.

Was Maximilian really so powerful? But how did this waste know the boss of Topyuan Group?

When Drew was stunned, Xavier was already far away. A secretary came in and said politely, "Please leave Mr. Xavier's office. I have to lock the door."

Drew came back to his senses and patted his forehead heavily, "I forgot to entrust Mr. Xavier. Hurry up and help me go back. We must see the boss of Topyuan Group today."

Drew was helped to run again, and Xavier had entered the chairman's office at this moment.

"Hello, Chairman. I'll report to you about the current operations of the company." Xavier looked at Maximilian in a respectful manner.

"What can you report? All constructions have not started yet. Did Drew look for you just now?" Maximilian raised his eyebrows and asked with a smile.

Xavier hesitated for a moment, nodding and said, "Yes. He often comes to me recently, and wants to confirm the time to start construction."

"Well, you don't need to care about this. Just put down the documents and go back. Wait for my arrangement." Maximilian thought for a while and said.

"Ok." Xavier put down the documents and turned around, and he felt that Maximilian looked unhappy. Was it because of Drew?

After leaving the office, Xavier ran into the three who hurried over.

Drew grabbed Xavier's arm and said, "Mr. Xavier, you have to help me. Please introduce us and let us meet the chairman."

"I don't have the ability. I came out as soon as I went in, and the chairman was very dissatisfied with my performance. It was all your fault! Just wait." Xavier said and was about to leave.

Drew was almost scared to death, and clutched to Xavier's arm tightly, "Mr. Xavier, don't rush to leave. What's the matter?"

"I don't know! Let me go. I wanted to perform well in front of my boss, but it was ruined by you. Damn!" Xavier turned his anger at Drew, shook off his hand fiercely, and left quickly.

Drew leaned against the wall in despair, unable to figure out what was going on. He hadn't met the chairman of the Topyuan Group. So how could he upset him?

"Drew, what's going on?" Alfie asked nervously.

Who the hell knew? We can only rely on Maximilian now, but we have already offended him before. What can we do?" Drew murmured blankly.

Alfie curled his lips, trying to scold Maximilian for being incompetent, but he couldn't say it.

"Drew, would you like to call Maximilian again? If it doesn't work, we can ask our aunt for help. "

Chapter 321 Come in

Drew waited for a moment and thought Alfie's suggestion was reliable. However, calling Maximilian would make him embarrassed, so he chose to call Laura.

"I don't want to call Maximilian. I am calling Laura."

Drew took his phone out and dialed Laura's number. When the phone call was picked up, Drew smiled and said, "Hello, aunt."

"Drew, how is it going? Have Maximilian introduced the boss of Topyuan Group to you?" Laura said nervously.

"No, we have not met him."

Laura stood up, anger filling her head and she was raining down curses on Maximilian in her heart. She murmured, "What's wrong with Maximilian? What happened on earth?"

"Take it easy, aunt. The situation is we have come into conflict with Maximilian. Now, Maximilian has entered into the chairman's office, but we don't."

Laura gave a great sigh of relief and calmed down. She said, "I see. The crap just doesn't know how to deal with things properly. He should not have left you outside. What does he mean?"

Drew went blank for a moment. He didn't know it, either. But he thought Maximilian was giving them a lesson.

"I think he is paying me off, but I can do nothing with him. Aunt, could you call Maximilian and tell him to help us? Ask him not to play a trick on us," Drew said with grievance.

At the moment, Drew wanted help from Maximilian, so he could not say bad words about Maximilian. He had no choice but to say so.

Laura considered for a while, and figured out what had happened. As long as Maximilian didn't lie, she would not lose her face. As for the personal hatred between Maximilian and Drew, Laura didn't care.

"I get you. I will call Maximilian. But I have to say that though Maximilian is good-for-nothing, this time, in order to help you meet the boss of Topyuan Group, he has asked help from Mr. Wilfred. You shouldn't have quarreled with him. Everyone has his temper, and Maximilian is not an exception."

Laura felt proud and elated. Given that she had almost driven crazy by the Wrights, she was able to vent her anger by taking the chance to warn offspring of the Wrights. Drew smiled with awkwardness with his waist bent. "Aunt, do not get angry. I didn't know Maximilian has owed such a deep debt of gratitude in order to help us. We will apologize to him later."

"No, you don't need to apologize. I mean you should not have quarreled with him," Laura said fretfully. She thought her nephew looked smart but actually he was so dull that he even wanted to make an apology to Maximilian.

There was no need to apologize to Maximilian but to me, Laura thought.

The more Laura thought, the more she was fretful. She said bitterly, "I'm hanging up and I will talk to Maximilian."

When the call ended, Laura threw her phone away and muttered, "You are so disrespectful. I will never call Maximilian. Just let him teach you a lesson.”

Listening to the busy tone from the phone, Drew smiled with bitterness. He backed against the wall, took out a cigarette and put it in his mouth. When he was about to light the cigarette, Harrison shouted, “What are you doing? This is a non-smoking area. You can’t smoke here.”

Drew felt he was stuck by jinx. He put his cigarette away and smiled, “Sorry, I didn’t know. I won’t smoke anymore.”

“Brother, what did aunt say? Can we get entered?” Alfie said anxiously.

“Aunt said Maximilian asked for Mr. Wilfred’s help to make an appointment with the boss of Topyuan Group. What’s a fucking life!” said Drew bitterly.

That crap was in deep friendship with Wilfred, which made Drew full of envy and hatred. He could not help imagine that if he had a close friendship with Mr. Wilfred, how successful his life would be.

Then, he would not be like a beggar, waiting for the boss of Topyuan group. It was a pity that Maximilian had such good personal connections but didn't know how to use them. It's a waste."

As Drew contemplated, he became increasingly furious and thought that the fate was so unfair that he, a good and capable man didn't have such good social connections.

Alfie and Tommy were in a trance and thought the moment when they were forced to kneel down in front of Maximilian at the end of Hugo's birthday feast.

It was the most ashamed moment in their lives. Thinking of it, they held their hands tightly and wished to rush to Maximilian and beat him up.

Alfie and Tommy said with resentment, "Fuck! That crap really gained Wilfred's help. Wilfred must treat him as a dog. However, now he even wants to teach us a lesson."

"We must give him a lesson to stop his aggressiveness. It is not a big deal to know Wilfred."

Drew gestured with eyes closed and said, "Put up with it until we address issues related to the development contract. If you offend Maximilian, causing the contract to be destroyed, I will tell grandfather."

"Are you mad, brother? It is not necessary. Do you think that provoking Maximilian will destroy our contract with Topyuan Group?” Alfie said discontentedly.

“Details make differences. Do you understand? Now this moment is critical. We should not act carelessly. Don’t you see my unobtrusive behavior outside? Do you really think you are still the master outside your home?” Drew scolded his two younger brothers fiercely. Alfie and Tommy bent their heads in silence.

How Drew acted modestly just now was clearly seen by them. They dared not to argue with Drew but made continuous complaints in silence about Drew’s over carefulness.

In the chairman’s office in Topyuan Group, Maximilian stared at the three through a piece of monitor device.

After finishing another round of mobile phone game, Maximilian turned around his luxurious chair that was imported overseas and turned his back to the door so that the man who entered would only see his back, not his face.

“It is possible that their patience is going to run out. Ask Drew to come in later on when I finish the game.” Maximilian said and then continued to play the game on his mobile phone.

Another hour went by. Drew was anxious to hit the wall with his head. When his patience was almost running out, Harrison yelled, “Drew, please come in.”

Chapter 322 Apologize to You

Drew went blank for a moment and pointed at himself. He asked, "Are you calling me?"

"Are you Drew? If you are, I am calling you," Harrison said lazily.

"Yes, its me."

Drew walked fast and then stopped to clear up his suit carefully. Then he looked at Alfie and said, "Do I look OK? I don't want to be disrespectful at the first meeting."

"Everything is fine. Take it easy, brother. Look at you. You are like a bridegroom urging to have sex with your bride." Alfie joked.

"You don't understand." After Drew said these words, he walked to the door of the chairman's office.

Alfie and Tommy were about to follow Drew, but stopped by Harrison. "The chairman only asked to meet Drew, and others should not come into the office."

"We are not 'others'. Drew is my elder brother. I should come in."

Drew looked back and waved his hand to Alfie. "You stay outside and mind yourselves."

Alfie looked Drew entering into the office with his mouth twisted hopelessly.

Once in the office, Drew was shocked by the luxurious decoration with high-end materials imported from other countries. He estimated that each meter's materials would cost 10 thousand dollars.

Then a set of bookcase, table and chairs made of rosewood came into his view and made his eyes pop out.

Finally, Drew's eyes were fixed on the executive chair behind the office table, which was also made of rosewood. He looked at the back of Maximilian's head in fear and trembling.

What was happening? Why the chairman turned his back on me? Did he have any dissatisfaction with me?

The more Drew thought, the more perturbed he was. He even trembled slightly.

"Mr., Mr. Lee. Nice to meet you. I am Drew here for the development contract." Drew made a self-introduction nervously.

Maximilian was playing with his mobile phone and still kept silence.

Due to the dead silence, Drew felt his heart was about to jump out of his body.

“Mr. Lee, could you hear my words?”

“Stand there and wait. Don’t you see that I’m playing games?”

Hearing the answer, Drew felt calm and stood there waiting for Maximilian to finish his games.

Maximilian played another two rounds of games and then put down his mobile phone, and asked, “What are you doing here?”

“I’m here to make clear the commencement day. We cannot wait. If the construction is postponed again, the staff and equipment will be discharged then. We cannot afford the expenditure of long-time stop.

Maximilian must have told you this.”

After finishing his talk, Drew got a fright. It seemed that he didn’t see Maximilian since he entered the office.

Looking around, he was sure that he didn't see Maximilian in the office. Suddenly, Drew felt his hair stand on end.

Maximilian Lee, Mr. Lee.

Drew talked in whispers and looked at the back of Maximilian's head with fear. He thought to himself that perhaps Maximilian was Mr. Lee.

Before Maximilian entered the office, there was nobody in the office. But after he came into the room, the chairman of Topyuan Group appeared.

Drew thought he grasped the true fact and his body shook more violently. If Maximilian was the boss, the contract would be destroyed.

"Do you know Maximilian? He has come into the office but isn't here now," Drew asked in a low and nervous tone.

“Just guess why he disappeared?”

Maximilian said with smile.

Maximilian didn't change his voice but spoke in normal voice. At that moment, hearing the familiar voice, Drew was sure that the boss was Maximilian. But why Maximilian was the hidden boss of the Topyuan Group?

It was said that he was a crap who depended on her wife to support his daily spending.

How such a man could spend 2 billion dollars on investment? A man who had 2 billion dollars would be a famous rich in H City. He could be everyone but a crap.

Drew was frozen with confusion and felt terrible.

Maximilian turned around his chair slowly, looking at Drew with a smile. He said, “Is it a surprise?”

“Surprise? I am too scared to stand.”

Drew felt sluggish and fell down to the floor with the clothes of his back drenched in sweat.

“How could you be the chairman of Topyuan Group? I don’t understand. Now that you have such power, why are you still willing to be called a crap? What are you doing this for? Are you kidding me along with the chairman?”

Drew still couldn’t believe the fact. Though he had seen Maximilian sitting on the chair behind the table, he wasn’t willing to believe it.

“As for the reason, I don’t need to explain it to you and you don’t have the qualification to know. The only thing that you should know is that for me, wiping out the Wrights is a piece of cake,” said Maximilian without any facial expression.

There was an iciness in Drew's heart. He figured out the threat in Maximilian's words.

Wipe out the Wrights. Thinking about the words, Drew believed that Maximilian was absolutely able to do it. It was barely a threat and warning.

"Why don't you speak?" Maximilian asked, smiling.

Drew shuddered all over. He came to his senses immediately and said in a hurry, "Bother-in-law, I..."

"Don't pretend to be close to me. I didn't wipe out the Wrights because of Victoria, which is benevolent enough. Do you think the contract can be signed only by you? The top 10 enterprises in the country all wanted to win the contract. Have you ever thought about why you can get the windfall?" Maximilian said slightly.

Cold sweat ran down from Drew's forehead instantly. Even a fool was able to figure it out.

"Yes. I understand that it is because of your help. We fail to recognize a great person and to understand what you do." said Drew with his waist bent.

Maximilian who could afford 2 billion dollars in creating a group was heavier than Mountain Tai in Drew's heart. Maximilian was definitely a rich protector, which was not recognized by Drew and the whole Wright Family.

Thinking about the things the Wrights had done to Maximilian at Hugo's birthday party, Drew was bitterly remorseful. At the same time, he also learned that the contract was one of the birthday gifts that Maximilian gave to Hugo.

Drew said through gritted teeth,

“Brother, I would like to slap myself to apologize to you.”
