

Chapter 2759

Constantine laughed as he said to Zoey, " Sect Master Jenn, you are really decisive, but I do not want to hurt you as you are so beautiful. Let's compete on something else!"

Constantine's vision made Zoey feel unhappy, but she still opened her mouth and said, " What do you want to compete on?"

The corner of Constantine's lips lifted with a sense of evil. " Since this is related to the Crystal Fairy Grass, let's have a competition in elixir production," Constantine looked confident when he said the last sentence.

The Longevity Sect, apart from cultivation, were excellent in elixir production too. One could say that all their past sect masters were Elixir Masters, and Constantine was no exception.

Even though he had never met anyone from the Jade Sect, Constantine knew they did not specialize in elixir production. That was why he intentionally invited Zoey to compete in elixir production; he wanted to scare her away

That ...

As expected, Zoey's beautiful brows furrowed when she heard that. She hesitated

' If this is a normal battle, I will not be worried at all. However, in terms of elixir production, I can only produce some ordinary healing medicine. How can I compete with Constantine? I will lose if I agree to that

At the same time, Reddy and the other female disciples were worried; they were furious too.

' That Longevity Sect's Sect Master, Constantine, is so despicable. Everyone knows that the Longevity Sect is the second-best in elixir production, after the Elixir Sect from the Great East, amongst the sects in the Nine Mainland, Constantine means to bully our master when he wants a duel in elixir production

" Sect Master Jenn!"

When he saw the spontaneous changes in Zoey's facial expression, Constantine smiled even wider. He even mocked her. " Don't tell me you don't dare to do it!"

The Longevity Sect disciples broke into laughter.

Zoey's face blushed. Just as she was about to open her mouth to speak, a figure stood in front of her. There was a calm smile on his face.

It was Darryl.

" You want to compete in elixir production? I shall compete with you!" Darryl looked at Constantine and spoke casually; he seemed really calm. What?

At that moment, everyone's vision gathered on Darryl.

" Who are you?" Constantine furrowed his brows tightly; he was irritated. If it were three years ago, Constantine would have recognized the person as Darryl Darby, the Elysium Gate Sect's Sect Master. However, there were three thick scars on Darryl's face, and his aura had changed too. Constantine could not recognize him at all.

At the same time, Reddy and the other female disciples were worried.

' What does he intend to do? The other party is the Longevity Sect's Sect Master. His elixir production skill is extraordinary; will he be able to compete with him? Even if his medical skills are fantastic, that is an entirely different matter than elixir production
" You

Zoey bit her lips. She pulled Darryl aside and said softly, " Junior Brother, please don't act so recklessly!"
Just like Reddy and the rest, Zoey felt Darryl was somewhat reckless. No matter what, the other party was the Longevity Sect's Sect Master. Ordinary people in the community would not be able to compete with him.
Darryl smiled and told Zoey not to worry. " Trust me, Senior Sister!"
Sigh!

When she saw the confidence on Darryl's face, Zoey calmed down for unknown reasons.
The next second, Zoey looked at Constantine. " Sect Master Gibbis, this is my junior brother. I shall let him compete with you."

What?

Constantine was stunned when he heard that. He looked at Zoey and furrowed his brows as he gazed at Darryl; he was in disbelief.

' Doesn't the Jade Sect only accept female disciples? Since when do they accept men too?'

" And the guy's position is not low too; he is Zoey's junior brother?'

" Hey!"

Suddenly, a man walked out from behind Constantine; his face was filled with contempt. " Sect Master Jenn, my master wants to battle with you, but you're letting this person take your place? What is that?" Although his voice was not loud, it was compelling

That was Constantine's most senior disciple, Rex Coldman.

Chapter 2760

When she heard that, Zoey furrowed her brows.

Reddy and the rest were upset, too; they were about to retort.

" Hey!"

At that moment, Darryl took a step forward and stared at Rex. " I am Sect Master Jenn's junior brother. I am of the same generation as your master, so why can't I take her place?

" On the other hand, you belonged to the lower generation, and you are shouting and yelling here. Didn't your master teach you any manners? "

Those few words sounded firm.

" You-!"

Rex blushed; he felt awkward, but he could not find the words to retort.

Tsk, tsk, tsk ...

Reddy and the female disciples covered their mouths and laughed when they saw that.

Reddy looked at Darryl with unusual brightness. She finally started to have a good impression of her senior uncle.

Sh * t!

Constantine's face darkened as he looked at Darryl.

This young man is quite good at talking.'

Darryl did not worry at all when he felt

Constantine's gaze on him. He did not waste time but said, " So? Are we still competing, Sect Master Gibbis?"

Constantine laughed.

Then, he smiled coldly; his eyes looked deviant. " Sure, why not?"

Constantine turned to Zoey and said, Sect Master Jenn, before we compete, I would like to add a condition to the bet. I'm not sure if you'd dare to take it? " Zoey gave it a thought." What do you want to bet on? "

Constantine took a deep breath as he nodded. He pointed at Darryl." If he loses, the Crystal Fairy Grass is ours, and he must kneel and apologize to me! Constantine was a vindictive person; he was irritated when Darryl told off his disciple in front of everyone,

Zoey's facial expression changed. '

Where is our dignity if my junior brother has to kneel to them?'

However, Darryl smiled as he looked at Constantine. " That's fine, of course, but what if I win? You must kneel and apologize to me too!"

Wow!

All the people from the Longevity Sect were shocked and furious.

' This man is blindly confident.'

Constantine's face darkened as the anger in his heart rose further.

However, he did not show it instantly as he still considered his identity. He smiled coldly and said, " Fine!"

Rex said coldly to Darryl, " You shall kneel to my master later!"

' Sh * t, this person is too arrogant; how dare he speak to Master in such a way.'

Then, Rex took a big step forward and looked around. " Let's talk about the rules first. The duration is one stick of incense. We shall use the Crystal Fairy Grass to produce the elixir. The person who produces the rarest pill is the winner. If the person did not have a pill when the incense finished burning, then the person shall be declared the loser."

When he said the final sentence, Rex glared at Darryl.

He knew that no one could compare with his master's talent in elixir production; the other party would definitely lose!

Constantine walked forward. He took out a small cauldron used for elixir production. Then he gathered two stems of Crystal Fairy Grass, retrieved some other ingredients from his body, and put everything into the small cauldron.

As the Longevity Sect's Sect Master, elixir production was just a regular activity. As such, Constantine had always carried a small cauldron for elixir production with him.

Soon, Constantine mixed all the ingredients in the pot. He started to light the fire for the brew; everything had started smoothly.

Wow!

When they saw that, all the Longevity Sect disciples were extremely excited; they were all smiling!

On the other hand, Zoey, Reddy, and the rest were worried. ' That Constantine is really the Longevity Sect's Sect Master. His talent in elixir production skills is excellent. Everything looked so casual and natural.

At that moment, Darryl gave it a thought and walked forward to pluck a stem of Crystal Fairy Grass.

Then, he requested a porcelain pot from Zoey to be used as the container for the elixir production. The Jade Sect did not specialize in elixir production, so Zoey did not have any special containers. However, a porcelain pot would serve the same purpose, When they saw that, Rex and the other Longevity Sect disciples laughed.

Chapter 2761

Rex's face was filled with contempt as he said, " Don't even have a decent container for elixir production but dares to compete with my master? I really don't know where you get your courage!"

After he said that, everyone behind him pointed at Darryl.

Reddy and the few disciples, who stood opposite them, were distraught.

" Senior Uncle, are you alright?"

Reddy's fingers clenched tightly; her palms sweated profusely as she said, " That's ridiculous!"

" Reddy!"

Zoey was confident; she said softly, " Don't talk nonsense! "

She stared at Darryl. She was worried, but when she saw how confident Darryl seemed, she decided to trust him.

Everyone else continued to make comments, but Darryl was unconcerned.

The ingredients were the most important criteria in the elixir production technique, followed by fire or heat management, and the last item was the container used. The container would not matter if the fire was appropriately managed

Time passed by, each minute and second,
Constantine's cauldron burned intensely; the entire cauldron was red from the burning heat.

Soon, a pleasant elixir scent started to emerge from the cauldron. It filled the air in the valley
At that moment, Rex and the other Longevity Sect disciples were very excited.

' Master's pill is almost done. It looks like it's definitely a rare pill!'

On the other hand, there was no movement at all at Darryl's end.

Bang!

A sudden vibration was heard, followed by five different colored clouds that floated toward them to form a nice pool of clouds in the valley's atmosphere. It came to a halt directly above Constantine's head!
Wow!

Rex and the rest were extremely emotional.

' Master is so powerful; he even attracted the Five-color Elixir Cloud!

" Congratulations, Master, your elixir production skill has been upgraded again; you have attracted the Five color Elixir Cloud. That must be an extremely rare pill! "

The Longevity Sect disciples shouted in celebration. Zoey, Reddy, and the rest must have felt conflicted about the situation as their facial expressions continued to change.

Zoey even regretted that she agreed to the bet with Constantine.

The other party has such strong skills and talent in elixir production. He even attracted the Five-color Elixir Cloud.

Junior Brother will definitely lose in this competition.

Sigh!

Darryl smiled but did not say anything about that.

He felt amazed in his heart. That Constantine could even attract the Five-color Elixir Cloud, he deserves to be the Longevity Sect's Sect Master. His talent in elixir production is quite good. No wonder he was so confident and challenged Zoey to a competition. '

Wow!

At that moment, Rex and the rest had gathered together; each of them was extremely emotional

" Master, open and take a look quickly. "

" Yes, what rare pill is that ?! "

Constantine smiled when he heard them; he opened the small cauldron, and instantly a bright shiny pill flew out. It landed in the middle of Constantine's palm,

Everyone's attention was focused on the pill; they were stunned.

They saw a five-colored pill in Constantine's palm. It looked so attractive under the sun!

" It's the Marrow Cleanse Pill!"

Constantine held the pill; he was really emotional as he said, " This Marrow Cleanse Pill can change a person completely. I never imagined that I would be able to produce it in my life."

He laughed.

What?

When she heard that, Zoey trembled, and she was utterly stunned. She felt incredibly amazed.

Marrow Cleanse Pill. The pill was said to have been lost through the generations. Not only did it have the power to transform a person completely, but it could also help a person to cultivate successfully if they lacked the innate qualities for cultivation. Furthermore, the Marrow Cleanse Pill would extend one's life. One would agree it was an extremely rare pill.

Zoey was amazed; she was disappointed when she looked at Darryl.

That's it; the Jade Sect will definitely lose in this elixir competition. '

Chapter 2762

At that moment, many people's gazes were drawn to Darryl, and they seemed conflicted

They saw that Darryl's porcelain pot was all quiet; there was not a single aura movement, not to mention elixir clouds!

Sigh!

At that moment, many of the Longevity Sect disciples laughed.

' With such a little ability, he dared to compete with our master in elixir production

Sigh!

Rex could not hide the arrogance in his heart; he walked forward slowly and stared at Darryl. " Did you see that? My master had attracted the Five-color Cloud. I think you don't have to compete anymore. Just admit defeat!"

" Also, you have only used one stalk of Crystal Fairy Grass. What can you produce out of it?"

Darryl smiled. He raised his head and glanced at Rex. " Who told you that the more ingredients used would mean the pill produced will be better? Even though I only used one stalk of Crystal Fairy Grass and your master used two stalks, he will never win!"

" The most important key to elixir production is one's calmness, understand?"

Sh * t!

Rex felt angry when he heard Darryl's humiliating words. He pointed at Darryl and shouted angrily, " You! Are you asking for death?"

This guy is too arrogant; how dare he look down on master !!

' Master Constantine has over 30 years of experience in elixir production, but it meant nothing in his eyes. That is too arrogant.'

" Rex, stand back."

At that moment, Constantine shook his head and then looked at Darryl. " You are right. Elixir production depends on one's calmness, but it requires authentic ingredients too, and not as simple as only one's words! My pill is done, and it attracted the Five color Cloud. Are you sure you still want to continue to compete?"

The man laughed.

Darryl smiled. " Of course, why not? One stick of incense has not finished burning yet; why are you worried?"

Darryl looked relaxed as he continued to manage the heat!

Constantine smiled coldly. " Fine, I shall wait then. If you can't produce anything by then, you must kneel three times and bow nine times!"

' I'm trying to save your face, yet you do not appreciate it, so don't blame me !! Darryl did not waste time; he looked at the temperature and then lifted the cover. At an instant, a burning hot aura emerged.

What?

Zoey, Reddy, and the rest were stunned. They looked disappointed.

' The cover is opened before the pill is done; does that mean he gave up?'

At that moment, the Longevity Sect disciples laughed.

This guy is about to give up; at least he knows what is going on. '

" Hey! "

Rex walked forward and looked at Darryl with contempt." Admitting defeat now? "

' I thought he had some talent; it looks like those were only empty words, With such an ability, he had dared to compete with Master in elixir production, this is just an insult to Master's status.

That ... that ...

However, no one noticed that ever confident Constantine trembled when he looked at Darryl. He was so shocked that he looked like he would go insane. Constantine was an Elixir Master. At that moment, he realized that the man did not give up on the competition. He was merely cleansing the elixir pot! Cleansing the elixir pot was the most profound and secretive method of ancient elixir production techniques.

The technique had been lost for the longest time -- for generations! It was only recorded in certain ancient scripture, but the records were all different.

One could cleanse the elixir pot of unwanted substance with the spiritual grass ingredient's spiritual aura. That way, the pot would be able to produce purer pills.

Of course, pills made from that technique were extremely rare! Constantine was the Longevity Sect's Sect Master, and he had produced elixir for tens of years. He knew that the elixir pot cleansing technique had been lost for generations. However, he never imagined that Zoey's junior brother would use that technique in such a manner.

Chapter 2763

Amazed, Constantine looked at Darryl closely; he could barely open his eyes because they were so hot. That elixir-making technique has been lost for generations; how would he know about it? '

That was correct. Darryl had been cleaning the elixir pot earlier. That was because he was using Zoey's porcelain pot, which was not comparable to Constantine's cauldron, and thus needed to be cleansed.

Darryl was unaffected by the comments made by the people around him. After adjusting the heat, he added the stalk of Crystal Fairy Grass to the elixir pot and vigorously increased the heat.

The incense had only a quarter of its length remaining at the time
There was not much time left, but Darryl remained composed

The Longevity Sect disciples could not stop laughing when they saw that. In their opinion, Darryl's earlier action of opening the cover of the elixir pot was due to his inexperience. As a result, he needed to restart the production, and he would not complete it in time!
" Master-"

At that moment, Reddy said to Zoey, Why don't ... why don't we surrender. Senior Uncle, he- "
Zoey shook her head without waiting for her to finish speaking
Even if Junior Brother can't beat Constantine, we must never surrender. No matter what, the Jade Sect is the top sect in Mistloren; our reputation must be upheld.

At the time, Zoey, like Reddy, believed Darryl would not be able to win. She must, however, persevere until the end to defend Jade Sect's dignity.
Bang!
Suddenly, a loud vibration echoed from the sky!
Everyone immediately raised their heads and looked. They noticed that dark clouds had obscured the sky. The previously sunny sky darkened dramatically. Then, in between the clouds, thunder and lightning appeared and gathered right on top of Darryl's head!
It was obvious that it was a natural occurrence caused by Darryl's elixir production

That ...

Everyone, whether it was Zoey or the members of the Longevity Sect, was stunned at that moment!

It was amazing that Constantine's elixir production had previously produced the Five-color Clouds. They had no idea Darryl could cause such a natural occurrence. If they had not seen it for themselves, no one would believe it.

Wow!

The arrogant smile on Rex's face froze, He stared blankly at the thunders that did not stop shining on top of his head, He felt as if his brain was spinning and ringing!

' How is that even possible?'

That person looked so ordinary. Even if he is a Jade Sect elder and Zoey's junior brother, how could he be stronger than our master in elixir production skill? '

Constantine, who was at the side, was utterly stunned.

A natural phenomenon? Only a few people in the entire history of elixir production could have caused a natural phenomenon. How did that person pull it off?'

Besides, I have been in the elixir production for many years; how did I not hear about someone of such capability? '

Bang!

Just as everyone was stunned, the porcelain pot in front of Darryl's eyes exploded violently. An eye-catching and shining pill flew out next, accompanied by a strong vibrating aura.

Darryl appeared relaxed; a smile appeared on his face as he raised his hand to grab the pill.

Whoosh!

Everyone's attention was drawn to Darryl's hand at that precise moment! Darryl was holding a black pill in his hand, which they noticed. The pill did not appear to be anything special, but its surface was encrusted with electric charges Silence!

The entire valley was deafeningly quiet at the time. It was so quiet that the drop of a needle could be clearly heard. That ... what is that pill? It has such strong spiritual energy! '

" Junior Brother! "

Zoey was the first to regain her composure a few seconds later. She took a step forward and smiled as she looked at Darryl." What kind of pill is that? It appears to be very special and unique! "

Chapter 2764

Darryl smiled but did not respond directly. He took a close look at Constantine and said," Sect Master Gibbis is an Elixir Master. You should be able to figure out what pill that is! "

" What?" Constantine was stunned. He could not collect his thoughts.

No one knew if Darryl was smiling when he said, " Sect Master Gibbis, have you heard of the Thousand Years Pill?"

What?

When Constantine heard that, his heart trembled. He was utterly taken aback. His voice began to shake as he said, " You said it's the Thousand Years Pill? That's not possible-impossible!"

All the ancient emperors desired immortality and long life. Qin Shi Huang was the most obstinate of the group. According to legend, Qin Shi Huang had a large number of Elixir Masters with him. In the end, they were unable to create the Immortal Longevity Pill for him. Instead, they invented the Thousand Years Pill, the greatest pill of all time!

The Thousand Years Pill, as recorded in the scriptures, was a type of pill that could extend one's life. It would add a year to the life of an ordinary person who consumed it. A cultivator's power would be significantly increased with numerous benefits after they consumed it.

However, that pill was already lost by the time the Qin Dynasty came to an end. Nobody would believe there was still someone who could produce it. At the time, Constantine was unaware Darryl had inherited the Infinite Elixir Scripture, which passed down from the Qin Dynasty.

Sigh!

Everyone was taken aback when they saw Constantine's reaction!

If the pill could so deeply impress Constantine, it must be extraordinary,
" Senior Sister!"

Darryl smiled as he handed the pill to Zoey. He said, " Keep this pill; it may be useful to you in the future!"

Yes!

Zoey took the pill and smiled; she was really emotional.

Even though Constantine did not open his mouth and admit his defeat, the situation was obvious — her junior brother had won.

" How?"

Darryl looked at Constantine; no one knew if he was smiling or otherwise. " Sect Master Gibbis, the competition is over. What do you think?"

That ...

Constantine blushed; he felt really awkward, and he was speechless. At the same time, all those people from the Longevity Sect were utterly silent!

A few seconds later, Constantine clenched his teeth and leaned down toward Darryl, and said, " Your elixir making ability is incredible and extraordinary, and you deserve my respect. I admit my defeat!"

Although he had admitted that he had lost, Constantine thought it was unjust. The truth was that Constantine did not want to admit defeat. Darryl's Thousand Years Pill, on the other hand, had been lost for a long time, Furthermore, when the natural phenomenon occurred, anyone could tell who was the stronger opponent. It would not be right if he did not admit defeat.

Darryl nodded when Constantine admitted his defeat voluntarily. Then, he smiled and said, " What about our bet?"

Sigh!

Constantine's face was ashen at the time. He clenched his fist and remained silent.

They had bet that the loser had to kneel and apologize to the victor, but he was the Longevity Sect's Sect Master; how could Darryl humiliate him so?

" Hey!"

Rex could not help himself at that point; he looked at Darryl with a conflicted expression and shouted, "8 What else do you want now that my master has admitted defeat? Don't cross the line!

' Sh * t, this guy is only Zoey's junior brother. He is not even the Jade Sect's Sect Master; Master does not need to kneel and apologize to him.'

Right after he spoke, Reddy retorted, " You were the ones who wanted to raise the bet earlier. Now that you have lost, you want to deny it? Is that how the Longevity Sect members behave? Going back against your own words?"

" You—" Rex blushed, but he could not find the words to retort.

Sigh.

At that precise moment, Constantine said as he clenched his teeth, " I will kneel."

" I apologize for my earlier act; please accept my apology," Constantine said as he bent his knees and kneeled in front of Darryl.

Constantine's face was tense as he said that. ' Just wait and see, those from the Jade Sect. I will get you to repay me for that humiliation when we meet again at the Supreme Conference.'

Constantine did not wait for Darryl's reply. He stood up quickly and waved his hand. " Let's go!"

Whoosh!

At an instant, Rex and the other

Longevity Sect disciples left with Constantine.
Wow!

Chapter 2765

After Constantine and the others had left, Reddy and the female disciples finally regained their thoughts. They were happy and excited, and they were all cheering

" Senior Uncle is fantastic!"

" That's great. Those Crystal Fairy Grass belong to us now!"

" They were supposed to be ours from the beginning ..."

A smile appeared on Zoey's face, and at the same time, she looked at Darryl with conflicted feelings.

Not only did he have exceptional medical skills, but he was also gifted in elixir production. Her junior brother's skills were becoming increasingly unexpected.

Reddy and the female disciples soon gathered all of the Crystal Fairy Grass and resumed their journey, Darryl, Zoey, and the others arrived at the North Moana Royal City a few hours later.

Sigh!

Darryl took a deep breath as they approached the city entrance and saw the busy streets in front of him. He was overcome with an unfathomable sadness.

Due to the Supreme Conference, all the streets in North Moana Royal City were packed with people, as he could see. All the Nine Mainland's sects, large and small, were present

The North Moana Palace had organized the Supreme Conference. As a result, all the sects that received the invitation were arranged to rest in the palace's side garden

Darryl, Zoey, and the rest walked through the streets and headed toward the direction of the royal palace.

" Please show your invitation letter!"

Darryl and the others were stopped at the palace entrance by two palace maids.

The two palace maids were in their twenties. Their hair was tied in a bun, they were dressed in long palace dresses, their bodies were slim, and their aura was alluring!

Darryl could tell the two palace maids were also very powerful. They were level one Martial Emperors!

That was the North Moana royal palace; even the palace maids who greeted guests at the palace door were level one Martial Emperors!

Darryl was still stunned when Zoey handed over the invitation letter.

" Oh, it's Sect Master Jenn from the Jade Sect. Welcome to the Supreme Conference!" the maid smiled and spoke.

Then the two maids escorted Darryl and the rest into the palace. " Sect Master Jenn, Lady Chang Er had already arranged the resting place for you. As for the Supreme Conference, it will start tomorrow. Please follow me!"
Sigh!

Zoey sighed softly and nodded. Then, she led Darryl and the others into the side garden, where two other palace maids met them.

The two palace maids left a few minutes later when they arrived in front of a unique pavilion
Wow!

Reddy and the other female disciples were overcome with emotion when they saw the beautiful surroundings and the grand pavilion

"The Supreme Conference will convene tomorrow! Everyone, please take a good rest. Don't forget that that is the royal palace's side garden. Don't venture around if you have no business there," Zoey said as she looked around. After she spoke, Zoey returned to her room to rest!

Reddy and the others felt a little disappointed, but they followed Zoey's orders and returned to their respective rooms!

Sigh!

Darryl also pretended to return to his room. However, when he noticed the sky had darkened, he slipped out discreetly.

When Darryl told Zoey that he wanted to join the Jade Sect to attend the Supreme Conference was merely an excuse. His real intention was to enter the North Moana Royal City to investigate Zhang Jue's condition. How could he spend his time resting since he had already made it into the city?

Sh * t!

Darryl was astounded after he went out. 'Sh * t, the North Moana royal palace is huge. Honestly, I have come here many times, but I still get lost in that side garden

Darryl could clearly see that the palace's side garden had a unique setting, with hundreds of sections.

Each hall had signage indicating the name of the participating sect, for example, the World Universe's Shaolin Sect, the Elixir Sect from the Great East, the Famed Sword Manor from the Yellow Sea Continent, and others. Darryl also discovered the Endless Sky Organization's resting place!

Sh * t!

' I heard Chang Er appointed Zhang Jue as the North Moana Lord, Chang Er knew that the imposter was Zhang Jue's follower. Why did she still give him a position?

' Besides, the Endless Sky Organization has always been secretive. Why would they join the Supreme Conference so openly? '

When he thought of that, countless questions and doubts appeared in Darryl's c mind
