

Chapter 351

"Grandpa, come and take away these, we will have money to eat." The little boy picked up the rose petals everywhere and waved his hand behind him.

A rickety old man, also dressed in tattered and dirty, still holding a snakeskin sack in his hand, walked out of the crowd.

The little boy packed the rose petals in the snake skin bag.

In an instant, the rose petals in one place disappeared completely.

"Uncle, can I get the money?" The little boy opened his eyes wide and looked at Henry with anticipation.

"Go!" Henry rubbed the little boy's head, "Lead one hundred thousand, I said!"

"Yeah!" The little boy cheered again, took his grandfather's hand, and ran to the Lin group to collect the money.

Ke Bin stood aside and looked at his carefully prepared confession, which was so ruined, his face somber as if he could drip water.

"Do you know who I am? Do you know that you have angered me!" Ke Bin stared at Henry.

"Huh? Haven't you left yet?" Henry looked at Ke Bin curiously, "Why do you stand here, waiting for me to leave you for lunch?"

Henry's words made Ke Bin's face even more ugly. In front of so many people, he couldn't even come to Taiwan!

Ke Bin reached out to Henry, "Boy, well, you are fine, I drive you crazy! When you cry, let's go!"

Ke Bin waved his hand and turned to leave.

"Wait! Wait a minute!" Henry suddenly yelled and stopped Ke Bin.

Ke Bin paused and turned around, looking at Henry, "Why, you want to understand?"

"No, I just want to show you affection." Henry smiled, and then hugged Sylvia. Sylvia still hadn't responded to the matter. The cherry mouth was blocked by a big mouth.

Henry's strong kiss made a scream on the Lin's building.

Ke Bin's face was already black with yin.

"Boy, are you waiting for him to die!" Ke Bin shouted, turned around, and walked without looking back.

Henry didn't pay attention to Ke Bin. Now his thoughts are all on the woman in front of him. Henry's kiss is not that kind of dripping, but full of affection.

Sylvia subconsciously wanted to push away, but found that the body of the man in front of him was as hard as steel, and he couldn't shake it at all. The screams around made the woman's face blush.

Under Henry's offensive slowly, Sylvia's hands slowly embraced Henry's tiger waist.

The screams kept ringing. When Henry felt that the woman's breathing was a little quick, he moved his mouth reluctantly. Then, the woman's beautiful face, like a ripe apple Can't help but want to take a bite.

"It seems that I came back in time." Henrychong woman smiled and blinked her eyes.

"You just die outside!" The woman's powder fist hammer was on Henry's chest.

"Haha!" Henry laughed twice, "I'm going to die outside, who will help you run away these nasty flies."

Sylvia's pretty blush is so strong that he dare not raise his head.

"Kiss another one, kiss another one!" A sound of coax sounded from the crowd.

As soon as Sylvia heard the voice, he pushed away Henry and ran into the company door.

There was a burst of laughter in the crowd.

Like a movie star on the red carpet, Henry waved at the crowd and then chased into the company.

In the scene just now, Lin's employees were all in the eyes. When Sylvia ran in, everyone looked away intentionally or unintentionally, when they did not see the same thing.

"Wife, wait for me, wait for me." Henry shouted while chasing. He didn't shout. It was fine. With this call, Sylvia walked faster.

Fortunately, the elevator did not stop on the first floor, Henry caught up with Sylvia in front of the elevator.

"Wife, don't you miss me these days?" Henry looked, with a hippie smile.

Sylvia still looked at Henry with a blushing face, "I didn't think about it."

With the sound of "ding", the elevator door opened, Sylvia entered the elevator for the first time, and Henry also licked his face and followed.

Those who had planned to take this elevator upstairs all waited outside with consciousness.

"Why don't you go?" Sylvia asked the staff standing in the elevator door strangely.

The employee made an excuse, "Mr. Lin, please go first. I'll wait for customers in this building."

The elevator was unobstructed all the way to the top floor.

Sylvia took a stride toward the office, Henry followed Sylvia.

Outside the president 's office is the secretary 's office.

When Henry passed by Li Na's office, he shouted deliberately: "Secretary Li, help me throw this divorce agreement into the shredder and stir it for three hours."

Sylvia, who was striding in large steps, subconsciously slowed down when he heard the four words of the divorce agreement, and then quickly walked into the office.

Such small movements of Sylvia naturally didn't escape Henry's sight. He smiled, followed up with the office, and locked the door of the office.

"Why do you lock the door?" Back to this space where no one else was, Sylvia looked much more normal, and the blush on Qiao's face disappeared.

"I don't want our two world to be disturbed."

"Who has a two-person world with you!" Sylvia snorted, "Please go out, I want to work!"

"Remove the misunderstanding before you work." Henrymin went to the desk. "Wife, is there anything unclear between us?"

"No." Sylvia's expression changed and shook his head.

Sylvia had to admit that Henry's sudden appearance made her very happy today, but what happened that day still made her feel angry.

"Really?" Henry didn't believe it.

"No, you go." Sylvia shook his head decisively.

"Hey, okay." Henry sighed. "Then I'll go shopping and make something you like."

After Henry finished speaking, he walked to the door of the office.

When Henry's hand was about to touch the door handle, Sylvia's voice sounded, "Wait, I suddenly thought of something, you may know."

Henry turned around, "Wife, you say."

"The Amity in the business department, hasn't it been a good relationship with you? She suddenly disappeared during this time, no one can contact, the company found someone to go to her house, no one at home, do you know where she went? ?" Sylvia deliberately revealed a casual look.

Henry sighed, it was really angry because of this.

He waved his hand and said to Sylvia: "Amity's girl is gone and will not come back."

"Leave? Where are you going?"

Henry said with regret, "Going to take her dad to see a doctor, didn't I say go to the hospital that day, just to see Uncle Amity, last time about Amity's family, you also know that Uncle Amity drank pesticide ...

Chapter 352

Henry's words made Lin invite Han into a moment of silence. She apparently didn't expect that Amity's departure was the reason. She even wondered whether it was Henry's reason to keep Amity from staying in the company.

Now hearing Henry's explanation, Lin Linhan feels like a bad person.

"Henry, I ..." Lin invited Han opened his mouth and unconsciously apologized on Qiao's face.

"Wife, I know why you are angry. You saw me and Amity coming home that day, right?" Henry walked to Sylvia's desk. "That day, I wanted to contact a friend of Fa Guo and let Amity take When Uncle Amity went there for treatment, he accompanied Amity to go home and pack up his luggage. Who knows that you have seen it, and you will not give me the opportunity to explain it. "

Sylvia pouted and grumbled: "Then I asked you that day, you didn't tell me the truth, only that you went to the hospital, you told me can I not understand you?"

"I'm not afraid that you don't understand. It's you who is cold outside and hot inside. If I told you, wouldn't it bother you too? I have read the situation of Uncle Amity and want to wake up. I can only rely on him. "Henry's face was worried," you say, this man is too fragile. What happened last time was to defeat Uncle Amity's hope for life. "

Sylvia looked out the window, "I don't know what happened to Amity's girl. She is still in the internship stage. She didn't even get a college graduation certificate. Now she went to the field again, and her father is responsible for the medical expenses. It's bitter. "

"Yeah." Henry sighed, "She is a person with strong self-esteem, do not want to trouble us, hope that life can treat her kindly."

Thinking of Amity's plight, the two men sighed.

Henry once wandered by himself, and he knew very well how difficult it was to be alone, not to mention a girl, but also with a sick father. Fortunately, Amity had some deposits, which made Henry feel relieved.

"My wife, our misunderstanding has been lifted. Don't get divorced. You said I have no relatives and no reason in Yinzhou. You have to push me out of the house. Where do I live!" Henry deliberately showed a bitter face.

Sylvia listened to this and sneered, "I'm sorry to be here, I don't know who you are and what identity you are, but don't lie to me as a fool, your brother, the one who calls your brother Ferris, in one sentence, he can let those big bosses who are worth hundreds of billions in the world succeed in their own right. In your capacity, after divorcing me, there are too many women to choose from! "

"My wife." Henry rubbed his hands. "You hear me explain. I didn't tell you before. There is a reason."

Now, Henry has solved the potential threat of the Su family, and it is not necessary to hide his identity or anything.

Sylvia waved his hand directly and interrupted Henry's words, "You do n't need to explain to me, what identity you Henry has at all, and I have nothing to do with Sylvia, let alone I climbed up to your big tree."

Henry smiled bitterly, this is really a strong woman.

"Yes, my wife, since you do n't want to listen, I wo n't say it. Anyway, the two of us are together. It's a strong alliance. You have your ability. As for me, I made a fortune and need investment. You In spite of the opening, we have made money and we will split the money between us and we will never let you take advantage of me! "

Henry said with a big wave of his hand.

Sylvia raised his eyebrows, "What do you mean? Share it so clearly with me?"

"No, no, no." Henrylian waved his hand. "Aren't you kidding me? You're my wife, not mine."

"Humph, this is almost the same." Sylvia nodded with satisfaction.

Henry shook his head helplessly, this woman's heart, submarine needle, was elusive.

Henry chatted in Lin's office for a while, then left first, went to the market to buy vegetables, and prepared to prepare a big meal for Lin.

Although Lin Xuanhan didn't say anything about Henry's cooking skills, she couldn't think of it anymore. She was a petty cat. If it wasn't for the company, she still wanted to go shopping with Henry and want to eat herself. I bought all of them.

Henry relieved the misunderstanding between Sylvia and hummed a little song in a cheerful mood, leaving the Lin's Building.

Henry had just left Lin's forefoot, one man, one woman and two young men, stepping into the door of the Lin Group.

The woman looked at the Lin group hall with a disgusted face, "I can't figure out what this place is. The woman with the surname Lin let her survive here. Why did the head of the family want to find her? come back?"

"Let's see someone first, and bring the meaning of the owner." The young man said.

The woman glanced at her mouth, her eyes were full of envy that could not be concealed. They were all juniors of the Su family. As a sideline, they could enter the Su family group and become a senior executive, they could take off happily, and this The woman surnamed Lin was just the old man who exiled an illegitimate girl, a wild seed left by the illegitimate girl. To put it bluntly, if it were n't for Su Su's paper, the Su family would not recognize such a person Not to mention taking over Su's business.

"Two, who are you looking for?" Lin's front desk beauty came over and asked politely.

"You guys have a name called Sylvia, right?" The young woman said proudly.

"Ma'am, do you have anything to do with Mr. Lin? If you want to see Mr. Lin, you need to make an appointment in advance." The company's front desk asked.

"Make an appointment? Just see her and make an appointment?" The young woman glanced at her mouth. "Tell her that the Su family are here!"

The words Su's family passed through the company's front desk to Li Na's ears and through Li Na to Sylvia.

Sylvia, who was busy with the work at hand, shivered when he heard the word Su.

"Su family ..." Sylvia kept mumbling these two words.

"Mr. Lin, how are you going to see these two people?" Li Na asked.

"See, let them get on ... No, I'll go down." Sylvia quickly got up, sorted out the broken hair on his forehead, and quickly walked towards the elevator.

Li Na was surprised when she saw Sylvia's attitude. She didn't understand why the words Su's family made Lin always have such a big reaction.

Sylvia took the elevator downstairs. Her mood was extremely complicated. What her mother told her when she was a child. She still remembers it very well till now.

Long ago, Sylvia knew that her mother belonged to a big family in Yanjing. Only because of some things in that family, her mother was kicked out of the family. By the day her mother died, she was not reconciled, her biggest wish. That is, he can write his name in the genealogy, and that family is the Su family.

Episode 353

After Lin Yuhan took over the Lin, she put a lot of effort and worked hard, even in the eyes of others, she was already a workman's image, all in all, just because, Lin Yuhan wanted to make herself and be able to work with that The existence of the family is shoulder to shoulder, and wants to make herself fulfill her mother's unfulfilled wish to death, she thought, taking her mother home.

Lin Yuhan has always had a very vague idea about the existence of the Su family.

Today, the people of the Su family took the initiative to come to the door, which made Lin Yuhan never think of it.

With the sound of "ding", the elevator fell to the first floor and the door opened.

Before Lin Yuhan left the elevator, he noticed the man and the woman standing in the hall. Similarly, the man and the woman saw Lin Yuhan.

At the first sight of Sylvia, the young man had a stunning feeling, even in the place where the beauty of Yanjing was vertical, it was difficult to find the existence comparable to the woman in front of him. Stand together so you do n't lose your color.

Young women also have some jealousy in their eyes. When women meet women, they will make a comparison the first time.

While these two men looked at Sylvia, Sylvia was also looking at them. The first two people gave Lin Hanhan the feeling of arrogance, not the kind of deliberate performance, but a kind of pride in his bones.

Sylvia walked slowly in front of the two, and took a gesture of asking, "Both will rest here first."

"No need." The young woman smiled. "Introduce you first. My name is Su Cai. This is my brother Su Yiran. If I remember correctly, you should call me a sister."

Sylvia nodded, "Sister Su is good."

Sylvia finished calling, and looked at Su Yiran again, "Su Ge is good."

Su Cai nodded with satisfaction, glanced at the company lobby, and asked, "Do you know, where is the Su family?"

Sylvia shook his head slightly.

"Grand." Su Cai held out two fingers. "The Su family has hundreds of years of history, and it is not comparable to some upstarts. Do you think that you, a foreigner, are eligible to return to the Su family?"

Sylvia's face changed, but she didn't expect that the first sentence of the Su family's arrival was actually this.

Five p.m.

Henry prepared a good table, waiting for Sylvia to return home from work, and opened a bottle of red wine, lit two candles, and wanted a romantic candlelight dinner.

Henry took the apron and stood in the kitchen, exquisitely displaying some dishes.

The door made a noise.

"Husband, are you at home?" Sylvia's voice came from the door.

"Returned so early?" Henry asked in a surprise, while accelerating the swinging movement of his hand.

"Two friends came and came back earlier." Sylvia explained.

"Friend?" Henry was a little disappointed in his heart. He was thinking about a romantic two-person world with Sylvia tonight.

Henry said in the kitchen: "Then let your friends sit first, dinner and so on."

As soon as Henry's voice fell, he heard a disgusting voice in the living room, "I said Sylvia, would you give us these things?"

Su Cai looked unpleasantly at the table prepared by Henry, not a big meal, but some home-cooked food.

Su Yiran also seemed very upset. He had thought that he had come as the Su family. How could this surnamed Lin have to be respectful and use the best hospitality?

"This ..." Sylvia didn't know how to explain it. Henry's cooking skills are better than the top chefs in Yinzhou. I don't know how many times it is.

Henry frowned on a plate of pastries in the kitchen and walked out of the kitchen to see Su Cai and Su Yiran. Henry didn't know about the two Su families.

As for Henry, Su Cai and Su Yiran, I don't know.

As a sideline, some things happened to the Su family, they could not be touched at all. For example, Su Wu sent people to assassinate Sylvia. For example, the crisis encountered by the Su family yesterday. Su Yu would not tell the two about hellwalkers. Sideline.

Henry looked at the Su family and was displeased. As a guest, it was very impolite to dismiss this as soon as he arrived at the host's house.

"Wife, who are these two?" Henry endured the anger in his heart, which was Sylvia's friend. If he changed to someone else, Henry would let him know why Huaer was so red.

"You don't deserve to know." Su Cai proudly glanced at Henry, and then said to Sylvia, "Do you think that we came here on behalf of the Su family, is this your right attitude?"

Su family?

Henry's face changed, and the people of the Su family dare to be so arrogant?

Sylvia looked at Henry apologetically, "Husband, otherwise we will go out to eat tonight, you made these, I ..."

"Go out? Why go out to eat?" Henry interrupted Sylvia.

"Otherwise, you let us eat these rubbish?" Su Cai's mouth sneered, "Sylvia, do you think our Su family is bullying, or what's going on?"

"What is your Su's family?" Henrymu exposed Han Hanman, glancing at Su Cai and Su Yiran.

Su Cai and Su Yiran changed their faces, "What are you talking about!"

"I said." Henry took off the apron in front of him, squeezed into a ball and fell to the side, and walked towards Su Cai. "Your Su family, what is it?"

"Dare you say that our Su family!" Su Cai screamed, this is her biggest confidence in Yinzhou, but now she is dismissed.

Henry walked in front of the two and directly reached out to grab Su Cai's hair. Su Cai shouted in pain and wanted to remove Henry's hand, but he couldn't do it at all.

Su Yiran's expression changed, "Boy, how dare you, give me a hand!"

Su Yiran said, punching Henry in the face.

"Huh!" Henry sneered, holding back the fist Su Yiran hit, and twisted hard.

Su Yiran only felt a huge force that made him unable to contend from his arm, with a sharp pain, making him yell unconsciously.

Henry's palm became a claw, and he grabbed it, and also grabbed Su Yiran's hair.

In this way, Henry grabbed one person, dragged the two lives to the door of the room, and threw it out directly.

The two who were thrown out by Henry felt that their scalp was almost taken off.

Standing in front of the door, Henry stared at Su Cai and Su Yiran with a cold eye, "This is Lao Tzu's home, not where you spread the wild, get out!"

After Henry finished speaking, he closed the door.

Outside the door, Su Cai and Su Yiran both got up from the ground, and looked at the locked door with a hateful look in their eyes.

"A wild man in a remote place, dare to provoke our Su family, I will let you know, what is regret!" Su Cai clenched his teeth and clenched his fists.

Chapter 354 Gift

Inside the villa, Sylvia watched Henry throw the people from the Su family out of the door. At this moment, Sylvia raised a strange feeling in her heart. With Henry's closing motion, she seemed to feel that the whole person was relaxed. The same, but at the same time, there are also concerns.

Henry saw the worried look on Sylvia's face and said, "Wife, what is the Su family they said, is that Yanjing?"

"Hmm." Sylvia nodded his head, a little puzzled in his beautiful eyes, "You know?"

"Know that, wife, what is your connection with them?" Henry asked deliberately.

Henry is very clear that the woman in front of him is a person with a very strong self-esteem. If Sylvia is willing to tell himself things, Henry will help her openly. If the woman does not want to say, Henry will also respect her ideas.

Sylvia sighed, "My mother is the Su family ..."

"Speak while eating, you are hungry too." Henry led Sylvia to the dining table and poured a glass of red wine to Lin Han.

Just after the wine was poured into the glass, Sylvia drank it.

The arrival of the Su family today is also a contradiction for Sylvia. After a glass of wine, Sylvia opened the conversation box.

Henry was quietly in front of a listener. What Sylvia said was exactly the same as what Henry investigated.

Sylvia's mother, Su Siyue, is the illegitimate daughter of Grandpa Su. In his early years, because of family reasons, Grandpa Su did not admit that this illegitimate daughter, Su Siyue's mother, was just a servant of the Su family.

From the day of his birth, Su Siyue was also put on the name of a wild breed, and then was driven out of the Su's family with his mother.

Sylvia said that her mother's biggest wish before she died was to return to Su's house. This was also the wish of Su Siyue's mother, all of which was entrusted to Sylvia. Now Sylvia does not know that Grandpa Su has left, nor I know that Grandpa Su left his will and asked Lin to invite Han to take over the Su family.

Sylvia said all these things after a few glasses of wine. These things have been buried in Sylvia's heart since his mother left. Even his dad, Sylvia did not tell.

"Husband, do you think that I'm a troublesome elder, the old one will add chaos to you ..." Sylvia pretty blushed.

"What are you talking about?" Henry scraped Sylvia's tall nose bridge hard. "You are my wife, how come I think you are in trouble, just your wife, do you want to go back to Su's?"

"I don't know." Sylvia shook his head. "For the Su family, I never had a concept. Husband, do you know that the two of you came today and told me that the Su family is a rich man, a rich man!"

Sylvia repeated the two words Su Cai said today. These two words caused a great impact on her.

Henry smiled dumbly, even the Su family is considered a giant?

"Wife, don't forget, you are also a rich man." Henry put a chopstick dish in Sylvia's bowl.

"Me?" Sylvia smiled self-deprecatingly. "We Lin, compared with the rich like the Su family, at most it is just an upstart."

Henry looked at the woman's appearance, and his heart was sour.

Everyone else thinks that Lin Lin's Lin, the proud daughter of heaven, knows nothing about the bitterness in Sylvia's heart. In front of the Su, Sylvia felt only inferiority.

Henry touched his pocket and took out a gift box less than the size of a slap and put it on the table. "Wife, we have been married for such a long time. I have never given you any gifts. Now, this is for you."

Henry pushed the gift box in front of Sylvia.

Sylvia, who was originally a bit bitter face, was a little more surprised, "Send me?"

"Well." Henry nodded.

Sylvia at this moment, only felt a sweet surge in his heart, there is no woman, do not like such a surprise, especially in the face of the man in his heart.

Open the gift box happily. The gift box is a silver-white ring. The surface of the ring is covered with a layer of dark light. This ring is not too exaggerated. At first glance, it looks like an ordinary ring. .

The surface of the ring is engraved with four words to accompany you to old age.

These four words are as simple as the ring itself.

"This is the first time I have seen such an ugly ring." Sylvia said disgusted, but his hand was not slow at all. Put this ring on his ring finger of his right hand and look left and right. .

Henry looked at Sylvia's movements, and he was stunned. When he prepared the ring, he did not use it as a wedding ring. Sylvia himself, actively put it on his ring finger.

"Husband, thank you." Sylvia said with a pair of big eyes narrowed into a crescent, with a happy face.

After a supper, the two were extremely happy to eat. Just after the Su family had made it unpleasant, Sylvia was just like forgetting it, never mentioned it again.

After dinner, Henrygang prepared to clean up the tableware, and the phone rang.

Henry looked at it, and the caller was President Ma. At the same time, Henry suddenly sounded something. He seemed to have promised to President Ma before he went to Yanjing for training.

After answering the phone, Henry felt embarrassed, "Chairman Ma ..."

"Little God Doctor, you finally turned on!" President Ma's voice on the phone, with an unspeakable excitement.

"Aha, President Ma, I'm sorry. I was in a hurry for the first two days, so I forgot to train." Henry scratched his head.

"It's okay, it's okay, little doctor, you see when you have time, everyone is still in Yinzhou, waiting for your training." President Ma said repeatedly.

"Then tomorrow morning."

"Okay, then I'll let everyone know." President Ma rejoiced.

Henry hung up President Ma's phone, and within a few minutes, the phone rang again, it was Xu Wan's girl.

"Brother-in-law, I heard that you are going to do training tomorrow? Can you let us follow along?"

"Come on, you Nizi is still very out of sight." Henry was a little speechless.

"It's not that I saw you, you are too famous now, and you want to listen to your training. Then you have to go through rigorous selection. You don't know, the sky is out of the sky now. Your class is worth 50,000! Now students in our school's medical department want to listen to your training this time. "

"You go directly to the Chinese Medicine Museum tomorrow. Let's meet at the door of the Chinese Medicine Museum." Henry confessed to Xu Wan, hung up the phone, and then frowned, a class of fifty thousand? Henry believes that it is necessary for him to talk to President Ma tomorrow.

One night passed quietly.

Chapter 355

Solving the Su family's affairs, Henry was a lot easier for the whole person. He didn't have to worry about Sylvia's danger all the time, and he didn't have to hide his identity everywhere.

Early in the morning, Henry told Lin Zhaohan that he was going to train, and went directly to the Chinese Medicine Museum.

At this moment, in front of the Chinese Medicine Museum, there are countless luxury cars parked, the crowd is dense and noisy.

Xu Wan and Sun Lan stood in front of the Chinese Medicine Hall, waiting for Henry.

"Xiao Wan, brother-in-law, his reputation is a little too big. Look, there are so many doctors. Some of them are usually seen on TV, and now they come to study." Sun Lan looked at the crowd around him, feeling To some shock.

"Or how can I get 50,000 yuan per class." Xu Wan is also a bit unrealistic. I remember when I first heard about my brother-in-law, the family didn't bother to say anything, they said nothing, they ate soft meals. If it's a category, but it doesn't matter if it's a good deal, who can get a good deal?

Xu Wan and Sun Lan stood at the place agreed with Henry and waited. If Henry did not take them in, they would not even be qualified to stand by the door.

"Ye, aren't this Xu Wan and Sun Lan? Why, you two poor ghosts, can you buy a place?" A fashionable girl came over and looked at Xu Wan lightly.

"Shang Qiaoshan, you have all the time. What does it matter for us to come here? If you have money, go to other places and don't show up here!" Sun Lan glanced at the person in disgust.

This Shang Qiaoshan, a classmate of two, has only one hobby, that is to show off wealth, and she loves to show off in front of Xu Wan, which makes Sun Lan look down. Xu Wan is in school, especially low-key, If it was not the last thing, even Sun Lan did not know that Xu Wan was from the Lin family.

"Why, poor still won't let me say it?" Shang Qiaoshan squinted at Xu Wan. "Look at you, look around, who is as shabby as you, you are really giving away our school!"

"I'm here to attend the class, and it's not a beauty contest. Is there anything to do with your dress?" Xu Wan's good temper was also impatient by Shang Qiaoshan.

"Listen to the class? It's you?" Shang Qiaoshan sneered, "Can you get it for fifty thousand yuan?"

"Who said I need to buy a place?" Xu Wan asked back.

Sun Lan also said on the side, "That is, we don't need to buy places at all, and the brother-in-law takes us in."

"Joke, who do you think your brother-in-law is?" Shang Qiaoshan apparently didn't believe Sun Lan's words. The quota she came to attend the class this time was because of the relationship between the trustees. It's gold-plated.

I don't know where the news came from. It is said that in school, as long as anyone has attended the class today, and what will be assigned after graduation, absolutely don't have to worry about it. If you are lucky, you can go directly to Lin's hospital.

Lin's reputation in Yinzhou is that everyone who is a Yinzhou is like a man who is in the ears, and corporate treatment is the best choice for most people.

"Xiao Wan, Huh, Sun Lan is also here?" Henry came over from the side, he had just arrived.

"Brother-in-law!" Xu Wan.

"Good brother-in-law." Sun Lan also screamed sweetly, and at the same time subconsciously looked at Henry. Today Henry is wearing a casual outfit.

Sun Lan couldn't help but think that although the Lin family is the first person in Yinzhou, the people of the Lin family are really a low-key. Xu Wan, as Sylvia's younger sister, has never said of his family in school, and his brother-in-law is more Mr. Lin, the husband of the Lin Group, wears ordinary clothes, which are like those people who have a little money, I hope the whole world knows the same.

Shang Qiaoshan was also looking at Henry. When he saw that Henry was not a famous brand of casual clothes, the contempt in his eyes became stronger. "Xu Wan, this is your brother-in-law. "

Before Henry gave a lecture at the Silver University, not everyone went.

Xu Wan glanced at Shang Qiaoshan, too lazy to explain to her.

"This your friends?" Henry asked Xu Wan curiously.

Before Xu Wan spoke, Shang Qiaoshan proudly said: "Friend? I make friends, but not everyone makes them!"

"Oh." Henry nodded. Looking at Shang Qiaoshan, Henry could also think of who this person was. He didn't tell Shang Qiaoshan more, "Xiao Wan, Sun Lan, let's go first."

"Good." Xu Wan and Sun Lan nodded at the same time, followed Henrychao in front of the Chinese Medicine Hall.

"Things that are not astonishing!" Shang Qiaoshan hugged his chest with both hands and looked at the front with cold eyes.

A sound of doubt sounded from behind Shang Qiaoshan.

"Eh, Qiaoshan, haven't you entered yet? The doctor is coming soon." A middle-aged man came from behind Shang Qiaoshan.

When Shang Qiaoshan saw the middle-aged man, the arrogance on his face suddenly turned into grievances, "Goddaddy, why are you here, people are almost bullied to death?"

"Bullying?" The middle-aged man was shocked, and then showed a look of concern, "Who dares to bully you, tell the godfather, the godfather cleans them up!"

"It's them!" Shang Qiaoshan stomped his feet and pointed his finger to the front.

There are too many people coming to the Chinese Medicine Museum today, and the three of Henry are still in a long queue.

The middle-aged man glanced at Henry and found that they were three strange faces, not a famous doctor or something, and he was quite relieved. He was proud of Shang Qiaoshan and said: "Good baby, what are they doing? The godfather gave you Make the call. "

"Goddaddy ..." Shang Qiaoshan's tone sighed, "Don't you say that this time the class, at least 50,000 yuan per person?"

Shang Qiaoshan's whispered tone almost shouted the bones of middle-aged men. "Yeah, indeed it is fifty thousand places."

"Then why the three of them can enter, two of them are my classmates, they don't seem to be able to take out 50,000 yuan, godfather, who can enter the door this time, isn't it your responsibility to control it, you all I do n't know how arrogant they were just now, so they said that their brother-in-law could bring them in without putting me in the eye!" Shang Qiaoshan was squeamish and he was very dissatisfied.

This time, although Shang Qiaoshan always hangs 50,000 places in her mouth, in fact, she did not spend a penny this time, but she also paid a certain price. If you really look at Xu Wan and Sun Lan She could listen to the class so easily, and she could not accept it in her heart.

As soon as the middle-aged man heard Shang Qiaoshan's words, he understood what was going on. He patted Shang Qiaoshan's shoulder, and then walked to the long line, pointing at Xu Wan and three people and said, "The three! Yes, It 's you, what did you do? Who made you line up? Are you qualified to go in? "

The middle-aged man drank loudly, and all of the people around him turned their gaze to focus on the three of them.

Shang Qiaoshan stood aside, watching this scene with satisfaction.

356 Buying places

There are many people waiting in line in front of the Chinese medicine hall, and now they all look at the lively look and look at Henry and others.

Henry frowned, looking at the middle-aged man, "What are you doing? Are we qualified to go in, is it related to you?"

"What am I doing?" The middle-aged man sneered. "Here, who can enter, who can't enter, what I say, what do you say I do? What are the three of you? Who made you queue here?" ? "

The middle-aged man has a loud voice. With so many people present, he deliberately prevented Henry from coming to Taiwan.

It can be seen that the onlookers have reached out and pointed at the three people, saying something, and some people still sneered.

Xu Wan pulled Henry's sleeves, "Brother-in-law, this is the one who sells places in school."

"Just him?" Henry looked at the middle-aged man in front of him. He wanted to ask President Ma what is going on today. Whoever wants to be the Lord will come to his eyes.

"Are you from the Medical Association?" Henry asked.

The middle-aged man was proud and looked up, "Of course."

Henry asked again, "Who can listen to the class this time, and who can't listen to it, what are you talking about?"

The middle-aged man smiled and nodded, not speaking.

Henry looked puzzled, "How can I believe you?"

"Oh." The middle-aged man chuckled and took out an ID and put it in front of Henry.

Henry saw that the other party's certificate read the title of Vice President of the Ning Provincial Medical Association, but for this middle-aged man, Henry had never seen it.

Similarly, Henry has never seen each other, nor has the other party seen Henry.

"How about, do you need me to explain what the vice president means?" The middle-aged man sneered.

Henry smiled and took the initiative to hug the other person's shoulders, and whispered: "Oh, Vice President, don't be angry, don't be angry, just because I don't know Taishan, just listen to my little aunt say, do you have a place to sell? "

The middle-aged man looked at Henry's pleasing face, and the arrogance on his face was even heavier. "Why?"

"Look ..." Henry rubbed his hands. "I bought three this time. Can you give me a cheaper price?"

Hearing Henry said he wanted to buy three places, the middle-aged man's face showed a moving look.

But soon, the middle-aged man converged his emotions and put on a high posture, "Cheap? Do you think I can't sell this quota? Look around, how many people want to go to the class and have no way! If you want to listen, listen, if you do n't, I 'm not short of you two. "

Henry looked embarrassed, "But these fifty-one people are a bit too expensive, and are you sure you can hear it, what if you can't?"

"Fifty thousand yuan is expensive? You have to learn one or two hands from the Divine Doctor, enough for you to eat for a lifetime, don't worry about being incapable of hearing, really can't hear, I will pay you ten times!" The middle-aged man waved his hand, Say confidently.

Henry gritted his teeth, "Come on, then I'll buy three places and transfer you 150,000 lines directly?"

"OK." The middle-aged man rejoiced in his heart, but his face was light and took out the two-dimensional code of the collection, let Henry scan the code.

Soon, 150,000 was transferred to the other party's mobile phone by Henry.

"How about brother, can I go in here?" Henry asked excitedly.

"Let's go in." The middle-aged man waved his hand and gave Henry three plastic signs. "When you enter, take this out and show it to people."

"Okay." Henrylian nodded and accepted the plastic sign.

The middle-aged man walked away proudly. After the other party left, Henry's face suddenly darkened, looking at the brand in his hand. If so, this time, more than one person is selling the quota, the horse club Don't know anything about being serious?

Henry returned to the long line.

Xu Wan asked curiously what happened to Henry, and Henry waved his hand carelessly, "Nothing."

On the other side, Shang Qiaoshan watched Xu Wan's three people still standing in the line, waiting for the line to enter the field, unhappy, and said to the middle-aged man: "God, why are they still standing there."

"My good baby." The middle-aged man happily touched Shang Qiaoshan's face. "Today you can bring a lot of benefits to the godfather. Don't you like a 50,000 bag, wait for it Dad will buy it for you, these people, but send us money, see what this is. "

The middle-aged man showed Shang Qiaoshan a receipt of 150,000.

Shang Qiaoshan looked at the long list of zeros and opened his mouth wide, "Goddaddy, did they give them all?"

"Well." The middle-aged man nodded. "That kid has a swollen face and becomes fat, and takes out all his savings."

The middle-aged man was funny when he thought of Henry's painful appearance.

"Haha!" Shang Qiaoshan looked very happy. "Let that Xu Wan still pretend to me, saying that her brother-in-law can bring her in. In the end, she still has to pay for it. When the school is over, I have to preach this thing , See where the face surnamed Xu goes! "

Henry, Xu Wan and Sun Lan came to the Chinese Medicine Museum.

Outside the Chinese Medicine Museum, Xu Wan and Sun Lan thought that there would be a lot of people. After they came in, they realized that their thoughts were still not enough. The whole Chinese Medicine Museum was full of people, and it was not convenient to walk.

"Brother-in-law, your influence is too great!" Xu Wan looked at Henry with admiration. The biggest goal of them studying medicine was to be a magician. Now, the magician is standing beside him.

Henry touched his nose, he didn't expect that he just exposed a few hands of acupuncture, and so many people came.

He bought a quota of fifty thousand and could only stand here, even without a seat.

Henry and Xu Wan found a relatively few places, stood there, and waited.

In the past of one minute and one second, more and more people are in the Chinese medicine hall.

Henry and Chairman Ma agreed that the time is ten o'clock in the morning, and now it's ten o'clock.

In the middle position of the Chinese Medicine Museum, Yan Li looked at his watch and said to President Chong Ma: "Chairman Ma, hasn't the little doctor yet arrived?"

President Ma shook his head, "Not yet, wait."

Yan Li glanced back and frowned, "Chairman Ma, this person is too much."

President Ma sighed, "The reputation of Little Doctor Shen is too great, and Lao Xiao told me that many people are not far away to study, and he can't refuse, just let everyone listen. Positive, we can't splash cold water either. "

Yan Li nodded his head, and Chairman Ma's words were justified. This is also a trend of the rise of Chinese medicine. For his older generation of Chinese medicine, he is also very happy to see the scene.

Chapter 357: Fifty One?

At 11 o'clock noon, some noisy voices gradually appeared in the Chinese Medicine Museum.

"Chairman Ma, would you rather call Xiao Shenyi?" Yan Li was anxious as he listened to the various sounds ringing around him.

This time, many doctors were specially invited from all over the country. The disappearance of Henry that day made many people unhappy.

This time, Yan Li wanted to use Henry's momentum to let Chinese medicine rise completely.

President Ma looked at the faces of many people, already showing an impatient look, nodded, and called Henry.

After a few calls, Henry picked it up.

Chairman Ma heard that the phone appeared very noisy.

"That little doctor, where are you?" President Ma asked over the phone.

"Oh, President Ma, I'm already in the Traditional Chinese Medicine Museum. It's almost an hour." Henry's doubtful voice rang on the phone.

Henry said to Chairman Ma that it was an hour?

"Little God Doctor, why don't you let me know when you come, everyone is still waiting for you to lecture." President Ma lost a smile on the phone.

"Lecturing? I'm giving a lecture? I paid 150,000 to attend the lecture. Will you let me lecture?" Henry asked very puzzled.

Chairman Ma was shocked, 150,000 came in? What do you mean?

Take another look, the phone has been hung up by Henry.

After seeing Chairman Ma finished the call, Yan Li asked, "How is it, Xiao Shen doctor has arrived?"

President Ma's face was bitter, "Master Yan, it seems, something went wrong."

"What's the problem?" Yan Li asked with a frown, wouldn't Xiaoyao come again today?

President Ma shook his head, not knowing how to explain to Yan Li, he got up.

In the Chinese Medicine Museum, a podium has been set up for Henry and other training.

President Ma walked to the podium, picked up the microphone, "Hey, everyone, be quiet, be quiet."

As soon as President Ma made a noise, the original noisy Chinese medicine hall immediately became quiet, and everyone looked towards President Ma.

At the same time, President Ma stood on the rostrum, glanced under the stage, and saw Henry in the crowd.

President Ma came down from the podium and walked towards where Henry was.

The eyes of the people in the hall moved with President Ma's figure.

President Ma came to Henry and asked cautiously, "What happened to the little doctor?"

"No." Henry shook his head. "What can I do, I'm waiting for the class."

"Little doctor, don't talk madly." President Ma smiled with a pleased face. "What do you mean by saying that 150,000 people entered the battlefield?"

"What do you mean?" Henry looked strange, "Isn't your medical association clearly priced? The entrance fee is fifty thousand one."

"What!" President Ma was shocked. "The charges clearly priced? Who dares to do this."

"Oh?" Henry's mouth hung a hint of interest, and looked at President Ma. "Everyone knows this well. President Ma, don't you know that?"

President Ma's face suddenly panicked, and he waved his hands again and again, "Little Doctor, my surnamed Ma swears in honor. I don't know anything about this matter! My Medical Association will never do anything like this.

Henry patted Xu Wan's shoulder, "Xiao Wan, tell President Ma what's going on."

Xu Wan nodded and said: "Chairman Ma is the vice chairman of your medical association, responsible for collecting money. This matter has already been spread in our school. My brother-in-law's class is fifty thousand one class. Bit. "

"What's the point!" President Ma screamed angrily, which made everyone in the hall startle. Everyone didn't understand why President Ma was so angry.

President Ma glanced through the entire Chinese medicine hall, and finally saw the figure of Vice President Xiao at the door of the Chinese medicine hall.

At the moment, Vice President Xiao was talking with Shang Qiaoshan in a whisper, and from time to time a smirk appeared on his face. Shang Qiaoshan also looked sullen, completely unaware of President Ma who was already angry there.

Henry strode over to Vice President Xiao, "That Vice President, I want to ask, do you still want to talk about this lesson?"

"What's the hurry?" Vice President Xiao glanced at Henry, "If you are too slow, go first!"

"But I have paid all the money. I'm going to lose a little bit now, can't you refund the money to me?"

"Refund?" Vice President Xiao smiled. "You are going to leave, why should I refund your money?"

"You said, if you can't listen to class, you will refund my money." Henry shrugged.

"The joke, you don't listen, it's not the little doctor who doesn't tell me. If the little doctor doesn't tell me, I will retreat you ten times!" Vice President Xiao waved impatiently. Just go, do n't bother me. "

Shang Qiaoshan hugged his chest with both hands and sneered. "Some people, without that ability, don't come to swollen faces and become fat, why, now regret it?"

"Come on." Henry raised his hand and walked aside.

Watching Henry leave, Shang Qiaoshan glanced at his mouth, thinking what was this?

"Xiao Hua, I hope you can give me a reasonable explanation." President Ma came over from the side with a black face.

"Lao Ma, what's wrong with you? A serious look?" Vice President Xiao asked puzzled.

"What's wrong with me? Xiao Hua, what have you done, don't you know?" Chairman Ma's face was particularly ugly.

Vice President Xiao jumped in his heart and said, "What's the matter? Lao Ma, just say something, don't make it mysterious."

"Okay, let me say yes, then I ask you ..."

As soon as President Ma was about to speak, he was interrupted by a voice.

"Hey, hello." Henry's voice came from the sound.

Vice President Xiao looked at Henry standing on the stage, his face changed, and shouted at someone beside him: "What is that for? Whoever asked him to come on stage, grab him!"

Vice President Xiao Sheng was afraid that Henry would come to power and say what he should not say.

"He doesn't come to power, who comes to power?" President Ma stopped the people around Vice President Xiao.

"Lao Ma, this time the little doctor of medicine lectures, how to get an unrelated person to come on stage, quickly, let him come down!" Vice President Xiao was full of anxiety.

President Ma looked at Vice President Xiao and said one line after another, saying: "He is the little doctor you said."

"What? He's a little magician!" Vice President Xiao's eyes widened, and his eyes were full of unbelievable. This person turned out to be a little magician?

"Why, surprised?" President Ma sneered.

Vice President Xiao, with a dumbfounded expression, stared blankly at the stage, and his heart was already chaotic at this time.

This time the money collection was secretly made by Xiao Hua in collaboration with some people. It was only aimed at some school students. He even compiled a matter that he could enter the Lin family as long as he could attend the class and Xiao Hua collected money. It is also very cautious and must dare to accept the knowledge.

But now, Xiao Hua found out that he was in trouble, and he was in trouble!

358 The Plan Has Changed

Many of you are here, and you have attended Henry's lecture last time to know Henry.

"Master Yan, is this the little magician?" A man sitting beside Yan Li asked curiously.

"Exactly." Yan Li nodded with a smile. He was afraid that Henry wouldn't come today. This time, they are all invited by Taishan Beidou of the Chinese medicine community. Although they are not as good as Henry in medicine, they are all in reputation Stomping the feet, the Chinese people in the Chinese medicine community will be shocked.

The arrival of Henry now makes Yan Li feel relieved.

He looked at the stage, waiting for Henry's next speech.

Henry stood on the stage, holding a microphone in his hand, glanced around, and said: "Everyone here is a predecessor of the Chinese medicine community. , May be subject to change. "

When Henry said the plan had changed, there was a loud noise from the audience.

Master Yan frowned and turned his head to look at President Ma standing at the entrance of the clubhouse. It is inevitable that this matter is related to what President Ma just said?

Listening to the noise from the audience, Henry continued to say, "Chinese medicine in the world is originally a family, but today, I encountered something that made me angry."

Henry said that at this time, the noise from the audience was gradually reduced. Everyone was waiting for Henry's following, and they could all hear it. Henry's plan has changed, which is related to the following thing.

"An hour ago, I came to the door of the Chinese Medicine Hall, but was told that I would not be allowed to enter without permission. If I want to come in, I have to pay 50,000 yuan for the tuition fee. I am really puzzled. This class is for me. Speaking, I have n't even heard of the fee, which is 50,000 yuan per person! Actually, I was still a little ecstatic at the time. I did n't expect my name to be so valuable. "Henry intentionally smiled.

People under the stage, look at me, I look at you, there is a little disbelief in my eyes.

"Maybe you are invited, I don't know what the charges say, but now I want to count, how many people in the entire Chinese medicine museum are paid for?"

Henry glanced around in the Chinese medicine hall. He clearly observed that some young people who had no seats and stood on the periphery appeared a struggle, but they seemed to be afraid of something.

Henry smiled slightly and continued to say: "It doesn't matter if you dare not say it. I just want to ask if there are more or fewer people, it won't affect my decision. I don't know how the people who sell your places give you Promised, what he said to me is, if you ca n't listen to class, you will pay me ten times. "

Henry paused and glanced at Vice President Xiao standing in front of the hall.

At this time, Vice President Xiao had a pale face and no blood, and he looked at the stage dully.

Henry snapped his fingers, "I paid three people's money, a total of 150,000 came in to attend the class. Now, I want to invite Vice President Xiao to invite the lecturer up. If you can't, please pay the loss Pay me your money. "

After Henry finished speaking, he walked off the stage.

At this moment, everyone in the hall focused their attention on Vice President Xiao. Among them, there were anger, confusion, and gloating.

"What's the matter! What's the matter!" Yan Li roared loudly at the table in front of him, "Chairman Ma, if you don't give me a reasonable explanation of this matter today, I think, you Ning Provincial Medical Association, also There is no need to exist! "

An old man beside Yan Li shook his head regretfully, and was very disappointed. I didn't know if he didn't attend the class, or he was dissatisfied with the Ningxia Medical Association.

"Xiao Hua, this time, you really made our Ning Provincial Medical Association well ranked second!" President Ma pointed to Vice President Xiao, his fingers kept shaking, obviously the anger in his heart had climbed to the extreme Too.

After Henry stepped down from the rostrum, he went directly to the door. "That Vice President Xiao, when will you give me ten times the compensation, when will you give me?"

"This little doctor ..." Vice President Xiao's expression pleased.

"I just saw that Vice President Xiao's car key is the Mercedes-Benz S-Class, right. Vice President Xiao drove a million cars, and the compensation of 1.5 million should still be available." Henry Laughed.

Vice Chairman Xiao didn't know what to say.

The compensation of 1.5 million is really for him to take, and it can be brought out, but the key issue now is not this one and a half million, but something else.

This incident revealed that if an unidentified person proposed it, Vice President Xiao would simply ignore it. He was confident that the matter would be smoothed out, but he would be the only one who raised the matter. Speaking in front of so many senior medical professionals.

Vice President Xiao has already thought about his own consequences. The compensation is small. Whether he can spend it freely in the rest of his life is a problem.

Shang Qiaoshan, who was standing next to Vice Chairman Xiao, had long since disappeared the arrogance.

"Xiao Wan, Sun Lan, let's go." Henrychong and Xu Wan's two women waved, and the two women immediately trot over.

When passing by Shang Qiaoshan, Xu Wan sighed, shook her head, and said nothing.

Sun Lan stood in front of Shang Qiaoshan, "There are some things, but Xiaowan is not willing to care about you. Her brother-in-law is not only a doctor, but also the husband of the president of the Lin Group, and Xu Wan is the president of the Lin Group. Cousin, I really can't figure it out. What capital do you have to show off your wealth in front of Xiao Wan? "

Shang Qiaoshan listened to Sun Lan's words, and the boss who stared at him couldn't believe it.

The cousin of President Lin? Xu Wan's mother is the biological daughter of Lin Zhengnan, the former president of Lin!

At this moment, Shang Qiaoshan feels that he is a leapfrog clown, has been leaping in front of others, and still feels very superior, think about what she did before, think about what she said before Xu Wan, Shang Qiaoshan I wish I could find a hole in it.

Henry did not stay in the Chinese Medicine Museum. Today, he said no, not just, not only because of anger, but more importantly, Henry also had to teach Chairman Ma a lesson.

Although President Ma didn't know about the incident this time, in the final analysis, it was only because he had a problem with his management methods that his own people did not know about this kind of thing under his nose. Who was the one who suffered in the end? Not the students who were blinded.

Fifty thousand yuan is very important for an ordinary family. Just being scammed by a scumbag?

Henry didn't even bother to deal with the latter matter. If President Ma didn't handle it well, he wouldn't mind switching to a medical association. As for the 150,000 paid to Vice President Xiao today, Henry believed that this person would spit it out intact. As for the ten-fold compensation, Henry didn't care much. He didn't lack more than one million. At the same time, he was also thinking that this Vice President Xiao, there is no chance to compensate, I am afraid this time Once out, most of his assets will be blocked and frozen.

Chapter 359

After leaving the Chinese Medicine Museum, Xu Wan followed Henry with regret, and sighed.

"Xiao Wan, what's your sigh at your young age." Henry felt a little funny. Those who don't know, thought that this girl had just experienced the hardships of life.

"Of course it's lost." Xu Wan shook her head. "Brother, you don't know how much people in our school adore you after you gave the lecture last time at school. Look at your awesome acupuncture, I thought I had a chance today, and I was completely stunned. "

Henry covered his forehead, "You said this, you really want to learn, I won't teach you alone."

"Teach me alone? Really?" Xu Wan's eyes widened, and some could not believe it.

"What's wrong with this." Henry looked at Xu Wan's exaggerated appearance, and was a little depressed. "We are all a family. If Sun Lan wants to learn, chant together."

"Can I ... can I?" Sun Lan pointed at himself with a surprised expression.

In Sun Lan's eyes, Henry's awe-inspiring acupuncture technique is absolutely priceless. I have been able to see it a few times. It is an honour to learn and observe, but now I can learn it myself?

Not to mention Sun Lan's thoughts, even Xu Wan never thought of learning this acupuncture technique from Henry.

Traditional Chinese medicine has been handed down since ancient times, and some methods have been passed down from men to women, even from their families.

"Find a place, I will teach you two, it is better to be fully equipped." Henry waved his hand directly.

"Sister-in-law, you're too good!" Xu Wan exclaimed, "My sister can find you, it is her greatest happiness."

Xu Wan's words made Henry particularly satisfied. "If you can say this in front of your sister, I'll be happy."

"Must, no matter who I am in front of me, I have this sentence." Xu Wan patted her chest. "Brother-in-law, let's go to our school. There are silver needles and models in the classroom."

"Row."

After the decision was made, the three went directly to Yinda. Xu Wan and Sun Lan did not say anything and took Henry to the classroom.

Together with traditional Chinese medicine, they are profound and profound. In the morning, Xu Xuan and Sun Lan benefited a lot from Henry's theories. They did n't have much contact with these things in school. There is a sense of initiation, and some problems that I didn't want to understand before, after Henry's point, can already make a difference.

"It is still that sentence, although traditional Chinese medicine has been handed down since ancient times, but in our generation, we must learn to be flexible and not to die. Only in this way can we cure all diseases, cure all diseases, about the acupuncture, you two If you can't understand it, let's understand the basic skills first. "

"Brother-in-law, I really admire you more and more, you are just my idol!" Xu Wan looked at Henry's eyes, almost staring.

Sun Lan is also a face-worship. She thinks about it. The so-called school bullies and geniuses in the school are not much different from Henry's age, but the amount of knowledge is comparable to Henry.

Although they haven't touched the acupuncture this time, the two are already very satisfied. Even if Henry wants to teach them the acupuncture, they will not learn it. They still understand the truth.

Seeing noon, the three did not stay in the classroom, Xu Wan shouted and invited Henry to eat in the cafeteria.

"Brother-in-law, you have to see which girl in our school tells me, I promise not to tell my sister!" Xu Wan was still excited, and kept offering to Henry.

"Come on you." Henry glanced at his mouth. "Don't try me, I'm single-minded for your sister."

"Xiaowan, you can save yourself. Such a good man as the brother-in-law, so your sister can deserve it." Sun Lan smiled.

"Cut, men are all flowery." Xu Wan rolled her eyes. "Don't be afraid, brother-in-law. From today, we are a group. You can rest assured that I will be on your side."

Henry slapped his head and quickly changed the topic, "That's right, Zhang Jie's girl, did not see her today, isn't she the most active?"

Xu Wan rolled her eyes. "The dead Ni Zi took a long vacation and said that something was wrong with her family. As a result, in the past few days, the circle of friends sent pictures of going out every day. They were having fun.

"Come on, let's go and have a meal, I'm hungry." Henry began to discuss the topic, and quickly engaged in eating.

In the canteen of the university, in the eyes of Henry, it feels no different from the cafeterias in the mall. It has everything to eat, and it is also cheap. You can eat three dishes and soup for less than ten dollars.

When Henry was having dinner, he heard many students complaining about the bad eating in the cafeteria.

Henry then wanted to tell them that when he was out of school and stepped into the society, when the egg noodles were all 18 yuan and a bowl, you knew how good the university cafeteria was.

Sitting in the canteen of the school gave Henry a very different feeling, as if full of youthful energy everywhere.

Several students sat at the table next to Henry, with a gossip saying something, and the voice spread into the ears of Henry and the three others.

"Have you heard? After Zhang Cheng was beaten and had a swollen nose in the morning, he just went to challenge the president of Guwu She, but he was still beaten up."

"Hey, you said Zhang Cheng was fine to challenge Guwushe?"

"Actually, you can't blame Zhang Cheng on this matter. It is said that the president of the ancient martial society provoked it first."

The gossip of the next table was still talking, and Henry heard a bad voice coming from behind him.

"Yo, isn't this Xu Wan? Why, the eldest lady of the Lin family, also came to the cafeteria."

Listening to the voice, Henry turned his head and saw a young man in a white martial arts uniform, standing behind him, beside the young man, and following a lot of people, two of them, Henry noticed it at once. A man and a woman are Su Cai and Su Yiran who were thrown out of the house by Henry yesterday.

In the same way, Su Cai and Su Yiran also saw Henry, and suddenly hatred in their eyes.

Yesterday he was thrown out of the house by Henry. Su Cai and Su Yiran prepared their plan of revenge. Their plan was simple. They first investigated the situation of Sylvia's family and planned to humiliate the entire Lin family, otherwise they Can't swallow the breath last night.

It happened that Su Yiran had a friend, and his family was a very small family of ancient Wu, just in Yinzhou. His friend was still going to school at Yin Da, and he was the president of Yin Da Gu Wu.

Su Yiran found out that Sylvia's cousin was also studying at Yinda University, and he found his friend, Liao Sheng, the president of Yinda Guwushe.

The people of the Su family come to the door to help, and Liao Sheng will naturally give Su Yiran the face, so, starting this morning, Liao Sheng will be ready to start against Xu Wan.

Chapter 360 Liao Sheng

In the university, one person wants to target another person. Unlike so many intestines in the society, Liao Sheng's approach is very straightforward, just two words, smeared.

To discredit Xu Wan, Liao Sheng will say anything if there is nothing.

Others are afraid of the Lin family, and Liao Sheng is not afraid. In Liao Sheng's view, the Lin family is just a group of ordinary people who practice ancient martial arts by themselves.

So, Liao Sheng compiled a bunch of things to spread out, all of which were not good for girls' reputation.

Originally, Liao Sheng was aimed at Xu Wan. As a result, after hearing this, Zhang Cheng went to Liao Sheng to settle his account. He was beaten and had a swollen nose and a swollen face. the reason.

Just now, Liao Sheng heard that he saw Xu Wan's figure in the cafeteria and found it as soon as possible.

"Liao's surname, if you are a man, don't use so many tricks, have the ability to come to Lao Tzu!" Zhang Cheng's shouting sounded at the entrance of the cafeteria.

Let's say Zhang Cheng is also a celebrity at Yinda University. Normally, who is bullied by silver college students in the society, Zhang Cheng will help out, and it is also a good relationship at school.

The students who were eating in the cafeteria looked in the direction of the sound, and they saw Zhang Cheng's swollen nose and blue face swollen and walked towards this side.

"Oh." Liao Sheng chuckled. "Who did I think it was? I didn't expect it to be your defeat. Why, do you want to fight again?"

"I'm going to you. If you have the ability, don't leave the school, or I will let you know what cruelty is!" Zhang Cheng squeezed his fist and yelled, but he didn't mention the fight again. Obviously he also understood that Not at all Liao Sheng's opponent.

Liao Sheng crossed Zhang Cheng's middle finger, "Social trash."

"Aren't you ..." Zhang Cheng swore again.

"Yes, let go of breath." Henry walked from the side and patted Zhang Cheng's shoulder.

"Brother-in-law!" Upon seeing Henry, Zhang Cheng's face was full of surprise, and at the same time he felt emboldened in his heart. How can you Liao Sheng's president compare with her brother-in-law?

For Henry, Zhang Cheng can be said to be 100% trust, whether it was at the time of the Zhou family's casino that used dozens of thugs in one person, or defeated the black thunder master in the underground boxing field, it was invincible, that foot The scene of kicking off several steel bars is still vivid in Zhang Cheng's mind.

Henry glanced over Liao Sheng and locked on the Su family. "Do you, Su family, like playing this kind of childish game?"

After Su Cai and Su Yiran were thrown out of Henry's house last night, they specifically checked Henry's surname.

Su Cai sneered, "Are you surnamed Zhang, weren't you very arrogant yesterday? Why, let's take another look today?"

Su Yiran spoke to Liao Sheng: "Brother Liao, this time I have to trouble you to educate this ignorant boy."

Although Su Yiran comes from the Su family, he is a sideline, and he has little contact with the Su family's traditional ancient martial arts. Although the Liao family is small, Liao Sheng is the elder son of the Liao family. go with.

"Brother Su, rest assured, this man, just leave it to me." Liao Sheng smiled confidently.

"You're so arrogant that you are far worse than your brother-in-law!" Zhang Cheng raised a middle finger to Liao Sheng with his backhand.

In the face of Liao Sheng, although Zhang Cheng could n't beat it, he was still able to make two punches. However, Henry and Zhang Cheng had fantasized that if the brother-in-law is his own opponent, he would not even have the courage to stand in front of him Have.

Liao Sheng looked at Henry with a playful face, "buddy, why not play with us?"

Henry could not be soft-hearted to the people the Su family found. He smiled and looked at Liao Sheng, "OK, how do you want to play?"

"It's very simple, fight, whoever loses, kneels down to call his father." Liao Sheng's tone, with a chill.

"What's it called?" Henry looked puzzled.

Liao Sheng sternly replied, "Dad."

"Ugh!"

Almost at the same time, Henry and Zhang Cheng responded.

The students eating in the cafeteria couldn't help laughing.

Liao Sheng instantly realized that he was being tricked. "Boy, don't he play a word game with me. If you dare to play, come to Guwushe!"

Liao Sheng waved his hand and left the cafeteria with people.

Before leaving, Su Cai showed a provocative look to Henry and said, "The surnamed Zhang, offended us, and the surnamed Lin, don't even want to return to the Su family!"

After Liao Sheng and others left, Zhang Cheng stood in front of Henry and quickly asked, "Brother, do you want to beat him?"

"Of course." Henry squeezed his fist.

The fact that Liao Sheng and people were fighting at the Guwushe soon spread to almost every student's ear through the internal forum.

Liao Sheng relies on himself to be a member of the school, and Henry is the difference between the staff outside the school and has received many supporters.

Including Liao Sheng himself, at Yinda, he also has many supporters. He has a good family background, looks handsome, and has excellent skills. He is a dream lover for many girls.

When Zhang Cheng brought Henry, Xu Wan and Sun Lan to the Guwu Club, there were already many people in the Guwu Club.

Henry glanced at the ancient martial arts society. The entire ancient martial arts society was covered with light yellow wooden floors and the surrounding walls were covered with various honor certificates of Yinda Ancient Martial Art Society.

When Henry and others stepped into the ancient martial arts society, they immediately attracted a mocking look.

"Fight with our President Liao, who gives him courage?"

"In other words, where is his confidence?"

A girl holding the nameplate of Liao Sheng looked at Henry, squinted, and dismissed: "Looking at his cock-like pattern, he can't compare with our president Liao in terms of temperament. "

A series of sarcasm spread into Henry's ears, Henry didn't care.

At this moment, Liao Sheng has stood there, ready to wait for Henry's arrival.

After seeing Henry, Liao Sheng stretched out his hands and pressed down in the void, the original noise in the ancient Wushe, because Liao Sheng's movement was completely quiet.

Liao Sheng rushed to Henry and said: "I admire your courage, did you expect you to dare to come?"

"What's not to dare?" Henry looked strange, "You are not honored with the honor certificates hanging on the wall, even one champion."

"Hehe." Liao Sheng sneered, with contempt in his eyes, "when the champion is not the champion, when do I keep in mind, there are some things, tell you like you, you can't understand, after all, many things, not you Such people can understand, I can only tell you that the so-called champions, in my eyes, are not even garbage! "

When Liao Sheng spoke, he exuded a strong sense of pride.

"Cut." Henry glanced at his mouth. "If you can't win the championship, you won't. There are many excuses."

"Oh, ignorance!" Liao Sheng mocked.

361 Crushing

In most ancient martial arts families, there is a transcendental psychology, thinking that they should be superior, knowing what others do not know.

In Liao Sheng's mind, he also had this idea. Because of the rules, Liao Fan could not participate in various Sanshou competitions. In his heart, he also looked down on the so-called Sanda champions, thinking that this was just the reason he did not participate. Over time, the arrogance in people's hearts would become Growing up.

When he heard Henry mentioned the title, Liao Sheng was disdainful.

Henry pulled out his ear and deliberately said: "Who wouldn't talk big words, I won't be able to win the championship, and I am sour."

"Too lazy to talk to you nonsense, believe me, today you will definitely kneel here!" Liao Sheng reached out his finger and pointed to the opposite side.

Aside, Su Cai and Su Yiran both sneered, waiting to see Henry ugly.

Liao Sheng wears a white martial arts uniform and stands there with outstanding temperament.

"Liao's surname, don't fart there, wait for me to be afraid that you will not fulfill your gamble!" Zhang Cheng shouted.

"Oh, noisy!" Liao Sheng pretended to be cold, then stepped forward and rushed to where Henry was.

Liao Sheng's movements were very chic. After he rushed to Henry, he got up and jumped, kicking Henry on one leg, the movement was as chic as in the martial arts movie, which attracted a whole scream.

"So handsome!"

"So handsome!"

These screams spread into Liao Sheng's ears, making him particularly proud. He even thought of the scene where Henry was kicked in the head by himself and fell down.

Liao Shengshu, who was proud, didn't know that his action was like a two-man in Henry's eyes.

Those who practice martial arts, when confronting the enemy, the most taboo is the instability of the center of gravity. Now Liao Sheng's kick in the volley can be said to let him have no retreat. Unless the strength can absolutely crush the opponent, such a shot, follow Dead is no different.

Facing Liao Sheng's foot, Henry's movement was not as gorgeous as he was, but he was more practical. He raised his fist, aimed at the emptiness in Liao Sheng's chest, and punched it hard.

Liao Sheng jumped in the air, without any focus, in the face of Henry's fist, he couldn't avoid it at all, and was hit in the chest by Henry's fist.

This scene is a long story, but it only happens in a flash.

The girls who were screaming for Liao Sheng had just shouted to be handsome. I saw that Liao Sheng, who was kicking his legs in the air, seemed to be hit on the body with a heavy hammer, and was knocked to the ground from the air. .

This scene is very visually striking. For the people watching the game, a few words can't help but appear in the mind.

Ten drops in one force!

"What is Liao Sheng's stuff? The bells and whistles!" A boy sneered.

"He still kicks in the air, shows a hammer, and is knocked over with a punch."

Originally, many people thought that this might be a unilateral slaughter belonging to Liao Sheng, or even a little evenly matched, even Zhang Cheng thought Henry would have done a few tricks with Liao Sheng, but did not expect it to end like this. Anymore?

The scene of Henry punching the enemy with one punch is too shocking.

Henry looked at Liao Sheng who was lying on the ground with a pained face, and glanced at his mouth. "I just said a lot of words for a long time, what do I think I have the ability to do?"

Liao Sheng was lying on the ground, how much he wanted to get up now, to find the place back, but the severe pain in his chest made him unable to do it at all.

Henry's fist just broke Liao Sheng's sternum.

"Yo, what did someone just say? What does the champion say in his eyes are nothing, saying that others are ignorant? What is going on now? You asked for the battle, did you touch the porcelain?" Zhang? Cheng's sarcasm sounded.

The touch of porcelain caused a burst of laughter.

Liao Sheng, as the president of Guwu Society, relies on his superb strength, usually in school, that has never shown his proud side, has long made many people uncomfortable, but it is only because of his skill All dare to speak out, and now this opportunity to fall into the trap, naturally everyone will not let go.

Those laughter sounds so harsh in Liao Sheng's ears.

He has always had the feeling of playing invincible all the time in school. This is the first time he has been defeated, and in such a direct way in front of so many people.

Henry raised his head and glanced at the people from the ancient Wushe community standing beside him. "Is there a referee for this competition? Should I win?"

"This is also a win? Our president did not concede defeat!" A member of the ancient Wushe stood up, he was actually the referee of this competition. If it was Henry who fell to the ground, he would rush out and announce the first time As a result, but now, the facts are not as he thought, so he never spoke.

"Don't admit defeat?" Henry raised his eyebrows, then reached out to grab Liao Sheng's waist, and raised Liao Sheng with one hand. In the shocked eyes of many people, he lifted Liao Sheng with one hand above his head.

Then, accompanied by a scream of girls, Henry threw Liao Sheng heavily on the ground. The "bang" made people subconsciously close their eyes.

Liao Sheng, who had a broken sternum, was spitting blood from this falling mouth.

Henry looked at the member of the ancient martial society, "How about it, haven't you announced yet?"

The member of the ancient martial arts society clenched his teeth. Everyone could see that Liao Sheng had lost his fighting power, but he just didn't want to admit the fact that the president had lost.

Henry smiled and mentioned Liao Sheng again.

"Enough, are you still an individual? Our president clearly has no combat ability, you are foul!" The member of the ancient Wushe shouted.

"Then you admit defeat?" Henry narrowed his eyes.

"Of course not, we didn't lose. This time you got the foul first!" The members of the ancient Wushe club had a stubborn neck. "If you lose, you will score again next time."

This shameless approach immediately attracted a sneer.

"Your ancient martial arts society is really fair!"

"I saw it, I learned it."

Henry nodded, "Okay, since I don't want to fight this time, I can do it again next time. If the contest is over, next, it's me and his personal grievances!"

After Henry finished speaking, there was a cold awn in his eyes, and he threw Liao Sheng on the ground, raised his feet, and stepped hard on Liao Sheng's palm.

"Ah!" A heartbreaking roar came from Liao Sheng's mouth.

Listening to Liao Sheng's roar alone made people feel a pain.

Liao Sheng deliberately spreads those words that are not conducive to Xu Wan's reputation at school. Henry also heard some things on the way. For those who hurt his family, if Henry can easily let go of him, Satan's name, it's all It was called in vain.

Henry squeezed Liao Sheng's palm hard. When it was clearly felt that Liao Sheng's fingers had been stepped on by himself, Henry raised his foot and stepped on Liao Sheng's other hand.

"Boy, stop!" There was a stern cry from the door of Guwushe.

Chapter 362 Revenge

At the door of the ancient Wushe, a middle-aged man was standing. At this moment, the middle-aged man was striding toward Henry.

Henry looked at the middle-aged man and raised his eyebrows. He originally stopped in the air because of the other person's feet, and stepped on it again.

Liao Sheng's screaming sounded again.

The middle-aged man's face changed because of Henry's action.

"Boy, you wanton!"

Liao Shenghong made a painful cry for help from a middle-aged man: "Uncle, save me ..."

"Small, did the old one give the head?" Henry's mouth sneered, and his feet were harder.

"Ah!" Liao Sheng opened his mouth wide and screamed.

The middle-aged man rushed towards Henry, and when he rushed to Henry, he suddenly punched Henry in the face.

Henry coldly looked at the other party, watching the other party's fist magnify in his pupils. When Henry was about to take the shot and scrap the other party's arm, the other party's fist stopped.

The fist face is ten centimeters away from Henry's face.

Except for Henry, no matter who seemed to him, Henry even failed to respond. If the other party kept their hands, this punch would have to hit Henry's face.

In fact, as long as Henry is willing, at this short distance of ten centimeters, he can make a stop, and before the opponent's fist hits himself, first discard the opponent's arms.

The middle-aged man gasped and glared at Henry with a strong struggle in his eyes.

Henry smiled slightly, he knew that the other party was bound by the ancient martial world, and he dared not directly attack himself.

The middle-aged man looked at the smile on Henry's face and hated his teeth, but he was indeed afraid to do it. Once this fist was punched out, the consequences would not be tolerable for him and would affect the entire Liao family.

The middle-aged man stared at Henry and lowered his voice and said, "Boy, I don't know what you are coming from, but I advise you not to be wrong!"

"Huh." Henry chuckled and asked, "I'm wrong myself? Isn't it your Liao family who picked it up first?"

"Your approach is out of bounds!"

"If it was me who lay here now, would you stand up and say that kind of thing?" Henry laughed.

Henry raised the foot on Liao Sheng's hand, and Liao Sheng's palms were completely deformed at this moment. Ten fingers were all stolen by Henry. Liao Sheng himself was also very weak and could pass out at any time.

"You are arrogant, I hope you have arrogant capital, don't let me down!" The middle-aged man let out a ruthless voice, bent over to embrace Liao Sheng, and the members of Chonggu Wushe shouted to call an ambulance.

Facing the threat of a middle-aged man, Henry's face didn't matter. He threatened him. He saw too much, but no one could do it.

Su Cai and Su Yiran stood aside, their faces were very unsightly, they did not expect that Liao Sheng would be defeated in this way, who is this Sylvia's husband!

When Su Cai and Su Yiran looked at Henry, Henry's eyes happened.

In Henry's eyes, Su Cai and Su Yiran saw a kind of sarcasm, a kind of contempt. Such a look made them very uncomfortable.

Since coming to Yinzhou, the two have a superior mind. The identity of the Su family has made them look down on any one. Now they are treated like this by Henry, making them extremely angry. This kind of psychology is like being alone. Just as the ant provoked them, they couldn't wait to stamp this ant to death.

A fight, ended in this way, made many people sigh.

Liao Sheng has been arrogant for a long time in Yin Da. This time he was defeated by thunder, which also made many people feel comfortable.

Henry talked with Xu Wan for a few days. The three of them had classes in the afternoon. Henry left first.

Just out of the silver university, five Audi A6s stopped in front of Henry.

Henry glanced at one of the cars and saw the middle-aged man who was just now, that is, Liao Sheng's uncle.

The door of the Audi A6 opened, and two black men in black came down from each car, blocking him in front of Henry.

Henry shrugged and said indifferently, "Come on."

Henry had thought that the other party would retaliate, but he didn't expect it to come so fast. It just happened that this matter had to be resolved sooner or later.

The two strong men put Henry on an Audi A6, and then flew away.

Henry was put on a headgear as soon as he got into the car. For such tricks, Henry had been used to it for a long time. Even if he put on the headgear, he could clearly know how long the car drove and at which intersection he turned. In his mind, there has been a whole map of Yinzhou.

When Henry counted silently for 1,736 seconds, the vehicle stopped, and at the same time, the headgear on his head was also removed.

Henry glanced at it, and the car was already in a manor.

According to the route, Henry concluded that this is a Zaozhuang not far from the city.

"Go on!" A strong man shoved Henry and pushed Henry out of the car.

After getting out of the car, Henry saw that more than a dozen strong men were standing sideways with their straight bodies, and that uncle Liao Sheng was also not far away.

Inside the manor, there is a stone chess table, and two gray-haired old men are sitting at the chess table to play against each other. They did not look at Henry who was caught.

"Hey, I put this black spot here, but you don't move." An old man sighed.

Another old man smiled, "Although your sunspots are tempting, they are not what I want to eat. If you put this sunspot here, I can continue to develop. If you eat these sunspots, you will face your counterattack. I may not be able to bear it."

Liao Sheng's uncle walked in front of the two old men and said to the old man who held the sunspot: "Homeowner, the man brought."

"Well." The old man holding Heizi nodded, glanced at Henry, and then said to the old man holding Baizi in front of him, "You all know the importance of this piece of black man to me, my last hope in this game, pitiful My eldest son left early, and my Liao family has inherited it for so long, and now it is still a single pass, but my poor grandson was interrupted by the sternum, and his hands were discarded. You said, this matter, I do n't care? "

The old man Bai Zi chuckled, "The pipe is to be managed, but pay attention to the methods, you know, as the manager of this piece, don't make me difficult to do."

The old man nodded, got up, patted the dust on his leg, looked at Henry, and asked, "Where are you from, kid? Don't pretend to be silly with me. Although I am old, my eyes are not mixed. "

Old man Bai Zi also got up and took out a wooden token. "Young man, old Liao asked your question, you answered truthfully, otherwise I won't be able to protect you."

Chapter 363 Law Enforcer

Henry looked at the token that Old Man Bai took out, frowning, "Law enforcer?"

"Good." Old Man Baizi nodded. "Since the token is recognized, it means that you don't know nothing."

Henry still knows a little about law enforcement.

In this world, there are many aspects that ordinary people do not understand, such as Gu Wu, which is one of them.

The ancient martial arts have great power, and the people who learn the ancient martial arts are subject to certain controls.

The Guwu family has many rules, such as not being able to be revealed in front of ordinary people, and not being able to participate in various fighting competitions. These rules are all managed by the law enforcers.

In every region, there will be a law enforcer who is directly dispatched by the official and responsible for management.

In Ning province, there are two ancient Wu families, a quadrupole gate, and the other is the Liao family.

Henrychong said to law enforcement, "I know some, but as a law enforcer, you should understand that they have arrested me like this and it has broken rules."

"Joke!" The head of the Liao family shouted. "You have scrapped my grandson's hands. I won't catch you, can I let you go unpunished?"

Henry ignored the head of the Liao family and continued to urge the law enforcers: "You can go and find out that today's affairs are purely the provocation of the other party.

Before the law enforcer had spoken, the head of the Liao family immediately asked: "Provocation? If it were not for you to offend the Su family, would my grandson provoke you?"

Henry asked. "Your grandson provoked me, and my hands were abolished. He blamed himself. Gu Wu should have this rule. The two sides fight. Even if the provocative side loses their lives, they will ask for it."

"Fart!" The head of the Liao family slammed the stone table in front of him. The stone table cracked from the place taken by the head of the Liao family, and radiated a crack.

Henry didn't seem to see the anger of the head of the Liao family, and continued to say: "As a law enforcer, I said these things, you should know that no matter what aspect I look at, I'm not wrong at all, but they caught me. At this point, the rules are broken. "

The law enforcement officer chuckled, "Young people, the rules are dead, people are alive, today Liao Sheng is wrong, but you start, it is too ruthless, Liao family single pass, you scrap Liao Sheng , Just broke the hope of the Liao family. "

"So, as a law enforcer, are you partial to them?" Henry asked.

The law enforcer shook his head slightly, "It's not a matter of favoritism. It's just young people. You are too arrogant. This is not good for anyone. When appropriate, you should also be soft. If you scrap Liao Sheng today, you will be honest. I apologize to the Liao family and have a more correct attitude. I can keep you safe. "

"Oh." Henry sneered. "A good one will keep me safe. Is that what your law enforcers do?"

The law enforcement officer's grinning face suddenly changed, staring at Henry, "Young man, how do I do things, it is not your turn to teach me!"

Henry shook his head, "I'm not teaching you, but I heard that every law enforcer upholds the principle of fairness and justice. It seems that what I heard is not accurate. On your body, I have no Seeing the four words fairness and justice, do you mean that today the Liao family made a mistake, but I will bear the consequences? "

The law enforcement face turned black, "In ancient martial arts, power is the most important. Since you have not contended with the capital of the Liao family, in the face of the provocation of Liao Sheng, you should suffer well and resist. ! "

The head of the Liao family waved his hand, "I will give you a chance to call your elders to come to my grandson, kneel and knock a few heads, and then waste my hands, I can spare you a life."

Henry looked at the two old men. When they were talking, their faces were arrogant and they didn't put everything in their eyes. Looking at them, Henry suddenly laughed.

"Young man, what are you laughing at?" The law enforcer frowned. "Couldn't you think that we are joking with you?"

Henry shook his head and nodded again, "You two are really joking with me, looking for my family elders? I have no family, no elders."

"You are from the Lin family. Your wife Sylvia is in charge of the Lin family. If you are willing to let your wife give half of the shares to my grandson, and then let your wife inherit the generations of my Liao family, I will consider forgiving you once. When the head of the family spoke, a strong covetous look appeared on his face.

No one in Yinzhou knows the Lin family.

Although the Liao family is an ancient Wu family, they consider themselves superb, but their economic situation is not as carefree as that of the Su family.

Sylvia's famous name is even more popular in Yinzhou. Everyone knows this beautiful iceberg female president.

If relying on normal channels, Liao's Baganzi can't get along with the Lin's family. This time the owner of the Liao's family said so much. The most important point is that he fell in love with the Lin's family. The Lin family.

The words of the head of the Liao family made Henry's faint smile floating on his face suddenly disappear.

"Liao Family Master, right? It seems that you have made me come here this time. You have already figured out what you want, but unfortunately, you made a mistake." Henry's voice suddenly became very flat.

"Oh?" The head of the Liao family looked at Henry with interest, "I made a mistake? Come and listen?"

The law enforcement officer laughed loudly, "Young man, put away your arrogant look."

Henry looked around, "You can catch me, I can take revenge, but you shouldn't, you shouldn't, you should hit my wife."

Henry said at this time, he raised his right hand and waved in the void.

As Henry waved his hand, the dozen or so black men in the original standing straight aside, all at this time, all planted together on the ground.

This sudden change made the head of the Liao family, as well as the law enforcers, suddenly startled, not understanding what happened.

Henry continued to say, "The ancient Wu family, the emphasis is on inheritance. The official ban on you is revealed in front of ordinary people, not to fear you, but to protect you, but, after so long, you people seem to have misunderstood something. This kind of arrogant psychology will only make you greet the destruction. "

When Henry's voice fell, screams rang out from all corners of the manor, and a strong bloody smell drifted over the manor.

Henry turned around, facing the law enforcer, and slowly walked toward the law enforcer. "As a law enforcer, you don't remember your mission at all, and help you as a torture. There is no need for you like this."

Henry's footsteps are very slow. Every time he takes a step, a strange figure will appear beside the head of the Liao family and the law enforcers. This figure is full of killings, with a chill, even in the summer, it will make people's hairs explode. These people, holding sharp blades in their hands, dripped slowly with blood above them. The blood hit the ground and splashed open.

Chapter 364 Uncle?

Henry slowly walked in the direction of law enforcement.

Law enforcement officers and people around the Liao family are also growing.

Liao Sheng's uncle stood next to him, his eyes wide, with deep fear in his eyes. The masks with ghost faces seemed to come from the abyss beneath the Nine Serenities. It brought despair.

"Hell ... Hellwalker ..."

The law enforcer trembles his lips and looks at the person who appears beside him.

The name of the hellwalker is echoed throughout the world, everyone knows that where the hellwalker appears, there is only death.

"Full kill." Henry spit out these two words lightly. His voice, from Jiu You, rang in the ears of the law enforcer and the head of the Liao family.

In the eyes of the two, in addition to the deep fear, there is nothing to believe that the young man in front of him is actually related to the hellwalker.

Bai Mang flashed over, bringing up blood.

Henry turned around while spraying blood and walked outside the manor.

Behind Henry, the sound of the blade chopping on the flesh continued to sound.

When Henry stepped out of the manor in the first step, a fire ignited behind him. The entire Zaozhuang will become a ruin in just ten minutes. When the fire comes, there will only be charred corpses.

Yinzhou People's Hospital.

Liao Sheng was lying on the hospital bed weakly, waiting to enter the operating room at any time, and his comminuted fracture of his ten fingers was doomed to use his hands.

Su Cai and Su Yiran accompanied the bed and comforted: "Brother Liao, you can rest assured that the surnamed Zhang will definitely not end well. When you come out of the operating room, we will find him to settle the account."

"I want him to die!" Liao Sheng's eyes gave a hatred look, "I want my grandfather to kill him, I want to press his wife under me, I want to peel his skin, and take his muscles ! "

Several nurses came and pushed Liao Sheng into the operating room. One of the nurses concealed a needle in his hand. During the process of pushing Liao Sheng, he inserted the needle into Liao Sheng's chest.

Before waiting for Liao Sheng to enter the operating room, the nurse sighed. "The patient died of a heartbeat because of the large amount of powdery objects."

Su Cai and Su Yiran were unaware of the death of Liao Sheng, and the two strode away from the hospital to the Lin Group.

After Henry left Zaozhuang, he also went to the Lin Group.

Standing downstairs in the Lin Group, Henry glanced impatiently at his phone.

"Mr. Zhang, Mr. Zhang." An anxious voice came from the side.

Listening to this voice, Henry frowned, "You are too slow."

"I'm sorry, something unexpected happened on the way." The person apologized repeatedly, for fear of Henry's dissatisfaction.

"Yes, my wife is upstairs. What should I say, you tell her face to face." Henry glanced at each other, and the person came, it was Su's current head, Su Yu.

After seeing Su Cai and Su Yiran's attitude yesterday, Henry asked people to call Su Yu. Of course, Su Yu did not dare to have a bit of hesitation. Today, he took a plane to Yinzhou.

Su Yu followed Henry to the Lin Mansion.

Looking at the active efforts of these Lin employees, Su Yu was a little curious, what kind of person was this niece he had never met?

In the office on the top floor of the Lin Group, Sylvia was sitting there, holding an old photo album, and the photos on it all looked blurred.

The woman gently touched the cover of the album with her hand, "Mom, my daughter is not filial, maybe you can't take you back to Su's home in a short time."

The door of the office was knocked.

"Go." Sylvia put away the album, and at the same time, he calmed his emotions.

The office door opened, and Li Na stood in front of the company with an itinerary.

"Mr. Lin, could I meet with Mr. Zhao this afternoon and put it at ten o'clock tomorrow morning?"

"Huh?" Sylvia wondered, "Why should it be cancelled suddenly? Is Mr. Zhao there?"

"Uh ..." Li Na was a little embarrassed, "Mr. Lin, this is what Mr. Zhang asked me to cancel, don't you know?"

"He asked you to cancel? Why did he cancel my trip?" Sylvia frowned.

"Mr. Zhang said that you have something important in the afternoon, so let me cancel the itinerary." Li Na replied, "Now that Mr. Zhang has been waiting in the reception room, he said to let you prepare for the past, and brought me over."

"Okay, I know." Sylvia was suspicious, slightly adjusted his clothes, and walked toward the reception room.

Important matter? Sylvia was thinking about what would be important.

Standing in front of the reception room, Sylvia pushed open the door and saw Henryzheng sitting there, chatting with a strange man.

At the moment when he saw this strange man, Sylvia felt a throbbing heart, which was a connection from the blood.

At the same time, Su Yu, who was sitting in the reception room, also saw Sylvia. Although he had already seen a photo of Sylvia, this was the first time he saw a real person. Su Yu was surprised by this niece, whether it was because of Sylvia's appearance is still her unique temperament, the aura that has been developed, if placed elsewhere, Su Yu will also look at this girl more.

Looking at Su Yu, Sylvia had a strong intuition in her heart, and a bold guess came to her mind.

"Her husband, this is ..."

"Wife, this is Su Yu." Henry got up, walked to Sylvia's side, grabbed Sylvia's little hand, "He should be, your ... Uncle ..."

Sylvia's body flickered slightly like an electric shock. She looked at Su Yu with her eyes softly: "Uncle ... Uncle."

Since childhood, Sylvia did not have the concept of uncle in her heart. The relatives of her mother were so out of reach for her.

Su Yu got up and smiled slightly at Sylvia, "Qinghan, I finally saw you, and I have been suffering for you for so many years."

Henry saw that the woman's eyes were covered with a layer of mist and tears, and Henry could feel it. The woman's tears were filled with excitement, grievance, and unspeakable complexity.

This is the first time Sylvia has seen her mother's family in more than two decades.

Henry reached out his hand and wiped the tears from Sylvia's eyes. "Well, my wife, your uncle came to see you, isn't it a happy thing, come, sit down first."

"Hmm." Sylvia nodded vigorously, his mouth wide open.

Looking at Sylvia's smile, Su Yu's face also showed a relief.

The door of the reception room was closed.

Downstairs Lin Su, Su Cai and Su Yiran broke into the company door.

"Sylvia? Let that surnamed Lin come out, and I must give me an explanation today!" Su Cai yelled as soon as he entered the company.

Many unknown Lin employees looked at Su Cai and guessed what happened.

"Two, please don't make trouble here." The company's security guard immediately came over.

365 Su Yu Arrives

"Provoking trouble?" Su Cai looked at the security guard. "This is something about you watchdogs. Let Lin please come down! Today, she will tell me this clearly, even if it's a family, I'm welcome to her. !"

When the security guard heard Su Cai's words, he quickly closed his mouth. These two are Mr. Lin's family?

"What about Lin?" Su Yiran shouted and asked.

"Mr. Lin is upstairs." The security guard answered truthfully.

Su Cai pulls her sleeves, and Su Yiran walks towards the elevator.

"Sylvia! Sylvia! You get out of here!" Su Cai scolded all the way, attracting Lin's employees to stare frequently.

"Two, what's the matter?" Li Na heard someone report the matter here, and quickly came over.

"Sylvia?" Su Cai asked.

"Mr. Lin is in the reception room." Li Na remembers these two people. Mr. Lin went downstairs yesterday to receive them and took them home. "If the two have something, you can wait a moment. Mr. Lin is now See guests. "

"Guest? What guests are more important than us!" Su Cai pushed Li Na away and strode toward the reception room.

The door of the reception room is closed.

Before Su Cai entered the room, he shouted loudly in the reception room: "Lin's surname, your husband treats us like that, and hit our friends again today, if you don't give me a reasonable explanation, this Su family, you Don't go back! "

Su Caigang was about to push the door of the meeting room, and the door in front of him was first opened a little from inside.

Henry came out of the gap and frowned, looking at Su Cai and Su Yiran in front of him, "You two are quiet, my wife is chatting with someone."

"Whisper? Why whisper?" Su Cai put her hands on her hips, "I'll explain to you today, if you don't take your attitude and apologize to me, your wife, Su family, don't need to return!"

Henry looked strange, "My wife's return to Su's home, what does it have to do with you, are you talking?"

"Oh!" Su Cai chuckled, "You just told me a joke, I don't mean it, who said it?"

A strange appearance appeared on Henry's face, and he shook his head, "I don't believe it."

"Don't believe me? Let me see if you don't believe me!" Su Cai said, took out the phone, dialed a number in front of Henry, and waited for the other party to connect, Su Cai said aloud, "Dad, you can give the house owner Just to say, the Lin surname did n't even take our Su family into our eyes. We came over to talk to her and she let us get out of the way, let alone the Su family was in her eyes, it's nothing. The owner said well, a wild seed, dare to be so presumptuous! "

After Su Cai finished speaking, he hung up the phone and glanced at Henry proudly.

Henry narrowed his eyes, "What do you say does not match the facts?"

"I'm talking about facts!" Su Cai embraced his chest with both hands. "The surname Zhang, what do you think you are, in front of our Su family, you are nothing!"

"Come on." Henry nodded, turned around, and yelled into the living room, "Su Family Master, you also heard that every time you from the Su Family actively provoke me."

Henry waved his hand and opened the door of the guest room.

Su Yu stood at the door of the reception room, his face filled with anger that could not be concealed. Last time, because of the mischief of the juniors of the Su family, he almost destroyed the Su family. Exceeded my expectations.

Su Cai and Su Yiran saw Su Yu through the open door of the reception room. Su Yu's appearance made them unresponsive.

"Home ... Homeowner?" Su Cai's expression was demented, and he was stuttering when he spoke.

"I wanton, I just wanton!" Su Yuqi's face flushed red. "I let you come to Yinzhou and invite Qinghan back. What are you doing! Is this the attitude you should ask to go back! To act arrogantly, to reverse right and wrong, if it were not for me to stand here, I really could not imagine that our Su family's children were so rampant outside that they simply lost Su's face! "

Su Cai and Su Yi didn't even think that Su Yu would visit Yinzhou in person, let alone Su Yu's arrival, just because Henry had someone to tell him, he came at the fastest speed.

"Mr. Zhang, Qing Han, I apologize for the behavior of these two unscrupulous descendants." Su Yu very solemnly addressed to Henrydao. He knew that as long as this person wanted, he could destroy the Su family at any time. Through the chat just now He also learned that this big man is his niece's husband. In this way, Sylvia returned to the Su family, not because of the benefits of the Su family.

Among the family, the biggest wish of every head of the family is to carry forward the family.

Originally, Su Yu wanted Lin to ask Han to choose for herself. If she was willing to be the head of the house, she would give the Su family to her. If she was not willing to be, she would divide half of the Su family's property according to the will of the old man.

Su Yu is very clear that his father, the person he loves most, is not his mother, but the grandmother of Lin Yuhan. If the Su family encountered a crisis at that time, Lin Yuhan's mother would not be expelled from Su. Home.

Now knowing the relationship between Sylvia and Henry, Su Yu's most hope is that Sylvia will take over the Su family, so that the Su family can directly establish a relationship with Guangming Island.

Su Yu's apology, Henry didn't speak, Sylvia immediately said, "Uncle, you don't have to do this, we are not angry."

Su Yu heard Sylvia's words and subconsciously glanced at Henry.

Henry glanced at his mouth. "What my wife said is what it is, it's just that your juniors should be in charge."

"That's for sure." Su Yu nodded and walked outside the door of the reception room, watching Su Cai and Su Yiran. "You two, go home and mark your name. Starting today, you are not allowed to use it again. Surname Su! "

In the family, the biggest punishment is to draw a person out of the genealogy, especially a family like the Su family, who draws out the genealogy will be treated as a joke.

Moreover, the Su family has been serving the Su family all their lives, like Su Cai and Su Yiran. After they graduated, they worked in the Su family group, including the house they lived in and the cars they drove. Being drawn out of the genealogy is equivalent to depriving them of everything.

Su Cai and Su Yiran's faces instantly became very ugly, and they wanted to explain in panic.

Su Yu didn't even give them a chance to explain, turned to enter the reception room, and closed the door.

With a bang, Su Cai and Su Yiran stared blankly at the bottom of the closed reception room door in front of them.

"No, I can't be drawn out of the family. I want my dad to plead with the housekeeper. Su Yiran, you can also call your dad to talk!" Su Cai took out his phone anxiously.

Chapter 366

Before Su Cai dialed the phone, the phone rang first. Su Cai's father called.

"Hey, Dad, I just wanted to call you, I ..."

Before Su Cai's words were finished, there was a burst of swearing at the end of the phone, "What did you do? Ah! I just received news from my family that our family has all been marked out of the Su family, what have you done!"

Su Cai listened to the voice on the phone, and the last hope in her heart shattered.

Su Yu in the conference room didn't even care what happened to the two unscrupulous descendants when they left Su's home. Such people stayed in the Su's home, and they just lost their face.

In the afternoon, Sylvia took Su Yu to his mother's stele. This was the first time that the Su family came over so many years after his mother left.

"Siyue, after so many years, your family has been wronged. When the Su family encountered a crisis, our dad and he drove you out of the Su family. It was also a helpless move. This matter, even on the day his dad left, he couldn't forgive himself. From now on, you can rest assured that Qing Han will return to the Su family completely. According to her father's will, she will take charge of the Su family, which is also our dad's compensation for you because of that year. "

Su Yu bowed deeply to Su Siyue's stele.

Just because of Su Yu's bowing action, the tears in Lin Yuhan's eyes could no longer stop and flowed out like crazy.

Henry embraced Sylvia's fragrant shoulders, "wife, what are you crying for, your uncle came to see you, it should be a happy thing, look at you, like a slug."

Henry reached out and helped the woman dry her tears.

Sylvia took the initiative to take Henry's big hand and put his little hand on Henry's palm. "Her husband, thank you."

Sylvia looked at the man in front of him, and his mother remembered things before leaving, but now it is finally realized. Everything is because of the man in front of him. If it is not him, he may still be angry with Su Cai and Su Yiran. .

After going out of the cemetery, the three casually found a place to eat. Sylvia asked Su Yu curiously how he knew Henry.

Henry had explained to Su Yu before. Sylvia had feelings for the Su family. On the mother's side, Sylvia needed a kind of affection, not just wanting compensation.

Su Yu told Sylvia that he and Henry had previously cooperated in business and the relationship was not bad. Yesterday Henry called him and he came.

As for someone in the Su's family who wanted to kill Sylvia, Henry and Su Yu were ready to rot in their stomachs.

For Su Yu, this matter is disgraceful, it is a scandal in the family, and Sylvia will be the Su family's head in the future.

For Henry, he can carry and bear Sylvia's everything. He can keep all the suffering in front of him, just to see Sylvia's happy smile, it is enough.

After eating, Su Yu quit and left, even though Sylvia stayed again and again, he was in a hurry to go back to Su's house, staying here, for Su Yu, it was a psychologically harsh test, for fear of his own sentence Words, or which action made the big man dissatisfied.

Sylvia insisted on sending Su Yu to the airport. After watching Su Yu boarding, her entire talent seemed a lot easier.

"Her husband, I'm really nervous." Sylvia exhaled.

"What are you nervous about?"

Sylvia put out his tongue playfully, "Afraid, I'm afraid I'm not doing well."

Henry smiled dumbly, watching Sylvia make the appearance of this little woman, he rubbed Sylvia's head, "Don't be afraid, don't forget, your uncle said, you will go to the Su family to take over as the head of the family. Small things are up to you. "

Sylvia shook his head. "I feel like dreaming now. Yesterday, I was still worried about the Su family. Today, I was even asked to be the Su family owner. Isn't this all a dream?"

"You pinch yourself to see if it hurts."

"Okay." Sylvia's eyes narrowed into a crescent shape, reaching towards Henry's waist and twisting hard.

Henry grinned for a while, "wife, why are you pinching me?"

"You treat me stupid." Sylvia rolled his eyes. "I'll hurt by pinching myself, giggling."

The woman strode away with a silver bell-like laughter.

Henry stood at the back, looking at the woman's back, showing a conscientious smile.

By the time the two returned home, it was already more than five in the afternoon.

"Husband, change clothes quickly and go to a party with me at night."

As soon as he arrived home, Sylvia urged.

"Ah? Have another party?" Henry lay on the sofa with carelessness.

"It's a party, it's actually about a bidding, but this time the situation is a little special. Change your clothes, or it's too late." Sylvia walked over, squeezed Henry's nose, and then brought a fragrant wind towards the building Go up.

Henry touched his nose, he found that Sylvia really changed, from the former iceberg beauty, became playful.

Henry spent two minutes changing clothes and twenty minutes waiting for Sylvia.

Today's Sylvia deliberately wore a black evening dress with a long hair behind his head, like a proud black swan.

The platinum necklace in front of the jade neck exudes a brilliance all the time. Today Sylvia painted light makeup. She was already dazzling, and now she is more beautiful.

The perfect S-shaped figure couldn't pick out any flaws, she stood there, exuding a strong aura.

Rao is Henry who has seen too many beauties.

"Look what, let's go." Sylvia smiled Yan Yan and grabbed Henry's arm.

"Wife, you are so beautiful." Henry sincerely admired.

Sylvia smiled blushing, covered her mouth and snickered, "You're stubborn."

"What I said is true." Henry nodded hard.

Henry drove and took Sylvia to the party of the party, Xinkai Hotel.

As the best hotel in Yinzhou, almost all large parties will be selected here, and this time is no exception.

Many luxury cars have been parked outside the door of Xinkai Hotel, as well as many people in formal clothes, all gathered in twos and threes in front of the hotel, talking about something.

When the car stopped and the door opened, the woman in the black evening dress stepped out of the door and attracted too much attention. She appeared as if she became the protagonist in a flash.

Unhappy, Henry parked the car and walked out of the car.

"Husband, why are you unhappy." Sylvia asked Henry's arm with a concerned expression, "Is it uncomfortable?"

"Yes!" Henry nodded hard, "I feel uncomfortable, so many people are staring at my wife, I am not happy."

Chapter 367 Pilot Project

Sylvia, who was originally uncomfortable and worried about Henry, smiled and said, "Puff", "If your wife is an ugly and ugly person, no one wants to see it, are you happy?"

"That's not happy." Henry hugged Sylvia's thin waist, "I think my wife will show me alone."

The movement of Henry's arm around made Lin invite Han to dodge subconsciously, but soon she recovered her calmness, let Henry's big hand around her waist, and gave Henry a glance, "Rogue!"

Henry didn't hear Sylvia's words. The hand on the waist of the woman silently enjoyed the softness.

"Mr. Lin, you are here."

Henry saw that Secretary Li Na was also standing in front of Xinkai Hotel.

After Li Na came, she asked Henry well.

Sylvia looked at the hotel door and asked, "What is the situation now?"

"The situation is not optimistic. Originally, in our opinion, this time the powerful competitors were nothing more than Zhou and Zhao, but ..." Li Na said at this time, subconsciously looked at Henry and continued to speak, "but Qize Group also Here comes the person brought by Ke Bin. "

Ke Bin, the day Henry returned from the Su family, saw the person who confessed to Sylvia downstairs in Lin's house. The heart-shaped rose prepared by Ke Bin was kicked in half by Henry.

"How did he come?" Sylvia frowned.

Qize Group is by no means comparable to Lin in terms of financial resources, but the other party's network is more than that of Lin. If Qize also wants to get involved in it, Lin will be very uncomfortable.

"Mr. Lin, according to the rumored news, Qi Ze came this time to make trouble, as if it was because of the last thing." Li Na said this and glanced at Henry again.

Henry showed an indifferent appearance from beginning to end. In his eyes, no matter who he was, he was just a jumping clown.

Sylvia frowned, "Go ahead and talk about it."

Li Na nodded and led the way for Sylvia.

The three came to the banquet hall on the top floor of Xinkai. You can see that there are already many people in the banquet hall. Many people are standing together in groups and communicating.

For this project, many people knew that they had no chance. They came to participate, but they just made more friends and really competed. There are just a few.

Zhou's Shadong family Zhou Xu stood in the banquet hall, surrounded by many people, including men and women.

The emergence of Zhao's changed Zhou's from Yinzhou's second-ranked company into third, but this did not affect Zhou's influence in Yinzhou. After all, in the eyes of many people, there is no difference between second and third, You need to look up to yourself.

The person in charge of the Zhao family, named Zhao Xiu, is also a young man. Although the Zhao family has just emerged in Yinzhou, there are too many people who want to make friends with the Zhao family. Some people even say in private In another year or two, the leading enterprise in Yinzhou will not necessarily be Lin.

Originally, the form in the banquet hall, due to the existence of Zhou Xu and Zhao Xiu, was a two-powered hegemony. The arrival of Sylvia made this kind of scene directly become a tripod. Many people came up and greeted Sylvia.

In such a scene, Sylvia sees too much, and has been coping with it for a long time, smiling and responding to everyone.

Henry walked to the side of the banquet hall, sat on a sofa, and picked up some self-service pastries.

While Henry was eating, he looked at the people in the banquet hall and listened to the soothing music in the banquet hall. After about forty minutes, Henry saw Sylvia walking towards him with a tired face.

Henry had experienced this kind of scene before, knowing that he was tired.

"Wife, finished talking?" Henry got up from the sofa, asked Lin to ask Han to sit down, and then pinched his shoulder for Sylvia.

Sylvia nodded.

"Wife, what project are you doing this time? I see how many posters about technology have been posted here?" Henrychao's poster in front of him twitched his mouth. It was a spaceship.

"Isn't this a state-supported project, Yinzhou has been vigorously developing recently? As the capital city of Ning province, Yinzhou is lagging behind in science and technology. This time, it is mainly to develop a large science and technology museum on the outskirts of the city. Pavilion, to be a technology-based fully automatic residential area, whether it is the construction of a science and technology museum or a pilot residential area, is a piece of fat and a profitable business." Sylvia explained to Henry.

Henryruo nodded thoughtfully and asked again: "What did you see in this bidding?"

"It's not easy to say." Sylvia smiled bitterly, "Who can bid this time, even the official is not sure, it depends on the choice of experts, this time it is said that the experts from Beijing, if we can provide the other with the biggest Support, and the other party will cooperate with which one of us. This is the time to test every financial resource. Of course, it depends on the mood of the expert. "

Henry nodded, "Got it."

If it is another bidding, Henry can also give Lin Hanhan an idea, but if it depends on the mood of a single person, Henry is also the same, unless he makes a phone call to let the future say hello to the official, with future influence, She wants to say that she is willing to help the official to carry out construction. It is estimated that the official can cry with excitement.

Henry glanced around, "Wife, what about experts?"

"I don't know." Sylvia shook his head. "We haven't even met the expert. We only heard that the expert likes to play. This evening party was specially prepared for that expert."

"I like to play?" Henry guessed, this is estimated to be a person with outstanding ability, otherwise who would have the temperament of this expert.

Henry patted his chest, "wife, when we wait for the bid, we will spend money, I will sponsor you!"

"Your money is your money. I have the ability to make money. Why should I use your money?" Sylvia refused.

"Uh ..." Henry touched his nose. Sure enough, his wife still had to be strong.

Henry simply didn't mention this topic, took a piece of pastry to Lin Zhaohan, and the two sat down to chat.

"Yoyo, isn't that Qinghan? Are you also bidding?" Ke Bin walked from the side with a group of people, beside Ke Bin, followed by a gorgeously dressed beauty, watching Ke Bin's appearance and tone , It is undoubtedly to find fault.

Lin Hanhan smiled, "You Ke Bin can come, should I not be worse?"

Ke Bin nodded, "Lin's is not bad, just ..."

Ke Bin gave a deliberate meal and looked at Henry, "It's just that some people make me very angry. This time, I'm afraid Lin will be a lot worse."

After Ke Bin finished speaking, he looked at the beautiful woman beside him, and the beautiful woman understood, took a step forward, looked at Sylvia, and said: "You are Sylvia, not too good!"

Chapter 368 This Is Your Wedding Ring?

The woman next to Ke Bin came up and aimed directly at Sylvia. It seemed that Ke Bin wanted to find the last place.

Sylvia glanced at the beauty, Liu Mei frowned slightly, wondering: "Who are you? Do I know you?"

When the woman heard Sylvia's words, her face suddenly changed.

"Oh, let me introduce you, this is Cheng Jiaxin." Ke Bin smiled, with a deep compliment on his face.

Cheng Jiaxin hugged his arms to his chest. The Cheng family is in the entire Ning province. That is definitely a super high status. The three disciples of Master Cheng are the leaders of the three major areas of Ning province. Although Ning Changhe has fallen, this does not hinder the Cheng family Influence.

Sylvia shook his head, "I haven't seen it, I don't know it."

Ke Bin spoke again, "Cheng Jiaxin has just returned from studying abroad in magnesium country, it is normal that you haven't seen it before."

Cheng Jiaxin squinted at Sylvia and said, "I have always heard people say how great and excellent Lin Linhan is from the Lin family. It seems that it is just that. Yinzhou is too small and there is no one with skill. There is no way to compare with the place in our magnesium country. Look at you, you are dressed like a dog, but there is a nouveau-like atmosphere everywhere. "

Facing Cheng Jiaxin's sarcasm, Sylvia didn't hear it.

"That Cheng Jiaxin, right." Henry squeezed his fist in his right hand, and Jia Xin waved in the stroke of his left hand. "Come over and show you a baby."

Sylvia pulled Henry's sleeves, "Her husband, forget it, don't cause trouble."

Sylvia knew Henry's character. Looking at Henry, he knew that Henry wanted to start and quickly stopped.

Henry nodded, looking at Cheng Jiaxin with a warning look, and released his fist.

Cheng Jiaxin looked at Henry again and said, "Are you the son-in-law of the Lin family? Entering the Lin family? No wonder he is so anxious to show his loyalty in front of his surname Lin, isn't he the next person!"

Henry looked at Cheng Jiaxin and shook his head. This was definitely a fool, and he was just used by others, and he looked proud.

Cheng Jiaxin saw that Henry and Sylvia didn't care about themselves. Of course, she wouldn't just do that. Her eyes kept looking at Lin Hanhan, looking for some thorny places.

Today, Sylvia is wearing a decent black dress, with infinite charm, uplifted hair, and dazzling glory, and his body is perfect. If there is a lack of beauty, that is the ring on Sylvia's right ring finger.

The silver-white ring, shaped like an aluminum alloy circle, destroys the overall beauty. This ring was given to Sylvia by Henry.

Cheng Jiaxin's eyes, naturally, locked on the ring in Sylvia's hands.

"Yo, is this your wedding ring? It's so chic, which factory picked the scrap." Cheng Jiaxin smiled, and in the process of covering her mouth, she deliberately exposed the ten-carat diamond ring on her right index finger. come out.

This ten-carat diamond ring is extremely dazzling under the lights, exuding a colorful brilliance.

"Oh, I'm so sorry." Cheng Jiaxin deliberately leaked the ring from his hand for a while, and then quickly took it back. "This ring was sent to me by Ke Bin. If it hits you, it is my fault. I will give it. You apologize. "

Ke Bin stood aside, sneered, and shouted: "The surname is Zhang, this is the wedding ring you gave to Qing Han? It really fits your identity as your son-in-law, this layer of silver plating, I am afraid it cost a lot of money Right? "

As soon as Ke Bin's voice fell, those brought by him gave a burst of laughter.

"Tang Tang Lin's president, the wedding ring turned out to be an aluminum alloy ring, still silver-plated, ha ha ha, it would be laughed to death."

"It's so funny, look, this is the end of finding a son-in-law."

"If I serve as a son-in-law, I am embarrassed to send this thing. You talk about how stingy this person is. The husband-in-law recruited by Lin's, the monthly salary is not low? Can't afford the ten carats? Would n't it be possible to buy a real gold ring? "

The bursts of laughter attracted many people to watch.

Zhao Xiu, the person in charge of the Zhao Group, came over and said, "Aluminum alloy rings are wedding rings? I have to take a look at such interesting things. Gee, Lin, as a leading enterprise in Yinzhou, is really extraordinary, President Lin, you If my husband ca n't afford it, why do n't I give you one for him? One million or ten million, you say. "

As soon as Zhao Xiu's voice fell, the people he brought also made a laugh.

"We give Mr. Zhao a ring, do you have to say anything, have a supper with us Mr. Zhao?"

Soon, the noise here attracted a lot of people's attention, and made everyone in the banquet hall come together.

The wedding ring on Sylvia's right hand immediately became a topic of discussion.

After all, Lin 's total assets have now exceeded ten billion yuan. As Sylvia, as president, even an ordinary piece of jewelry should not be such a cheap thing, let alone a wedding ring.

Many people are sorry for Sylvia, and at the same time they are also counting Henry. Even if Lin 's house-in-law, Lin 's family is not thin for him. Sylvia takes him everywhere, instead of himself, let alone marry Lin's president is a woman with no identity, like Sylvia, and he has to take care of himself.

Compared with Henry, Ke Bin is simply too good, just to pursue Cheng Jiaxin, he sent a ring of more than 3 million, which Cheng Jiaxin still can't look down on, wearing it on his index finger, I really don't understand, That Henry, an aluminum alloy ring, what face did he take out.

Sylvia and Henry were sitting in the crowd and were pointed at. This feeling made Lin invited Han particularly uncomfortable. She never cared about whether Henry gave her this ring is expensive or cheap, as long as it was given to her by Henry. , She likes it.

Sylvia also had a wedding ring. Lin Jianyu prepared it at the time. Although it was not as exaggerated as ten carats, but three carats was not too small, but Sylvia never brought it, because in her heart, the wedding ring always has to be meaningful. If it is not the so-called meaning, the diamond is not worth gold.

"Her husband, let's go." Sylvia generously took Henry's hand, even if today's bid has not been competed, she doesn't matter anymore. She was said to be fine with two sentences. The key is that she didn't want to see Henry. This became the target.

The number of people around him fell silent, and Henry didn't go to his heart at all. He let Sylvia take his hand and walked out of the crowd.

Just as the two were about to leave, there was a voice in the crowd.

"Give up! Give up, come on!"

I saw that a woman in her thirties, wearing a pair of black-framed glasses, turned away from the crowd and walked in front of Sylvia. , From doubt, into unbelievable, and finally into shock.

Chapter 369

Sylvia was so grabbed by a woman in her hand that she felt awkward and wanted to pull her hand back, only to find that the other party was extremely deadly.

"It turned out to be true! Unbelievable, really incredible, how could such a thing be made into a ring?" The woman stared at Sylvia's hand, to be precise, staring at the ring worn by Sylvia's hand Sigh.

The woman looked up sharply and looked at Sylvia, "Where did you come from this ring?"

"My husband gave it." Sylvia looked at Henry.

At the same time, the woman also looked at Henry and nodded non-stop, "Great! Really great! This kind of thing can be made into a ring and given away? How much did you spend on this mantechnetium? Ten billion magnesium gold ? Twenty billion magnesium magnesium? "

The woman said that the people around her were confused.

"Zhang's name, what tricks did you do, where did you hire such an actor? Acting is too exaggerated?" Ke Bin sneered, "On this aluminum alloy ring, 10 billion US dollars? You laughed and I got it!"

The woman wearing black-framed glasses turned around and glared at Ke Bin. "You don't understand I don't blame you. Please don't mislead everyone here. Compare Manktech gold to aluminum alloy. ! "

Ke Bin glanced at his mouth. "What to pretend, but also to gold, I have never heard of it."

"Of course you haven't heard of it." The woman took it for granted. "Not everyone can hear this kind of thing!"

Ke Bin was so frustrated for a few words, his face was very unsightly, just to yell, just heard a sound.

"Professor Liu! Professor Liu!"

The voice came from outside the crowd and seemed anxious.

"Here, stop calling." The woman wearing black-frame glasses waved her hand.

The crowd was pushed away, and a middle-aged man stood in front of the woman with anxiety, "Professor Liu, you suddenly disappeared, but it scared me!"

When I saw a middle-aged man, a lot of people onlookers shouted that Mr. Wang is good.

This Mr. Wang brought experts from Beijing to choose partners. Everyone was kind to him.

Mr. Wang waved his hands at the people around him, and then said to the woman: "Professor Liu, all of them are entrepreneurs in Yinzhou. You can chat with them and choose your intended partner."

Mr. Wang's words changed Ke Bin's face. This woman turned out to be an expert from Beijing this time? The super genius who claims to be only thirty years old and has four PhD degrees?

Professor Liu ignored Mr. Wang, and looked back at the ring on Sylvia's hand. "Can you show me this thing?"

Sylvia did not expect that this woman was actually an expert in Beijing. Whether she could bid this time or not was entirely up to others. After Professor Liu made this request, Sylvia took off the ring and gave it to the other party.

Professor Liu is like a treasure, holding this ring in his hands and sighing, "Sure enough, it is mantechnetium! Mantechnetium is made into a ring. How big is this handwriting! Wait! What is there on this? The character was also engraved by your husband? "

Professor Liu's eyes widened, and he looked at Sylvia in shock.

Sylvia nodded, "Yeah, he is a man who doesn't understand the amorous feelings, and he can inscribe these four words."

Professor Liu shook his head, "If you don't understand the style, there will be no romantic men in the world! Man Tak gold lettering! In this world, your husband is the first person to do such a thing."

The people watching around, listening to Professor Liu, only felt confused.

"Professor Liu, what is this mantechnetium you mean?"

"Rare metals." Professor Liu said these four words heavily. "Note that the rare metals I am talking about do not refer to the rotten streets like gold. The world's known mantechnetium adds up to less than one cubic meter. Rice, its preciousness, is not imaginable. "

As soon as Professor Liu's words fell, there was an uproar around him, and there was only one cubic meter in the world. How precious is this? No wonder Professor Liu just asked Henry how much the ring was bought. If it is as rare as Professor Liu said, such a small piece should be worth the price of 10 billion magnesium.

Ke Bin's face was extremely ugly. He just said aloud that this was the actor Henry had found. Unexpectedly, he was an expert in Beijing. He also said that this was an aluminum alloy ring. In the end, it became all the world. One cubic meter of mantechnetium gold.

Professor Liu took the ring, "Mantechnetium is the hardest metal known in the world. Almost every country wants to have a piece for research, but the whole world has so much output. Many countries want to have it. There is no way. Huaxia once used a piece of mantechnetium that is about the size of this ring for rent. The cost for one year is one billion magnesium. "

Professor Liu 's words once again made everyone express a shocked expression. In such a small piece, the country rents out, and the rent is one billion magnesium dollars a year? The rent alone covers the entire net worth of most people present!

Including Sylvia, all because of this price staggering.

Cheng Jiaxin's face was particularly ugly. She was just showing off her 10-carat diamond ring, worth more than three million yuan, but now she found that this diamond ring is not as good as rubbish compared to the ring on Sylvia's hand.

Professor Liu once again said: "I am just talking about the rental price. If you want to buy such a piece of mantechnetium, you can't buy it unless you have a special channel. This metal, even with a laser, cannot be cut completely. Using laser to grind and grind such a ring, it is impossible to imagine the manpower and material resources it consumes. The most important thing is that someone is still lettering on it! "

When Professor Liu talked about the lettering, she couldn't believe it. If she had seen it with her own eyes, if someone told Professor Liu that Man Keith could do the lettering, Professor Liu must think that the other party was crazy.

Rao is now, Professor Liu feels whether she is crazy, she looks at Henry, "Can you tell me, how do you engrave the words on this?"

"It's very simple, just grind slowly." Henry shrugged.

Professor Liu listened to Henry's words and stared at him with a pair of eyes. It took a long time to spit out two words, "... Night!"

Professor Liu's remarks completely refreshed the awareness of the people present. Those who just ridiculed Henry at the moment were ashamed to even raise their heads, and used their own ignorance to ridicule others.

In particular, Ke Bin and Cheng Jiaxin, including Zhao Xiu, who was still talking about sending a diamond ring, felt only a bluish complexion at the moment, and it was hard to see the extreme.

Sylvia was pretty blushing, but she never thought that Henry's own gift was so expensive. At first, she thought it was just an ordinary aluminum alloy ring. At this moment, she felt that she was the best in the world. Happy woman.

Chapter 370 Suppression

Professor Liu repeatedly gave Sylvia the ring made of this technetium gold.

Sylvia took the ring in his hand, but he didn't wear it.

"Wife, why don't you wear it?"

"It's a bit too expensive." Sylvia looked at the ring in his hand, worth ten billion magnesium gold, which is more expensive than the entire Lin's!

Henry took the ring on his own initiative, then grabbed Sylvia's catkins and put the ring on Sylvia's ring finger, "My wife, this is a gift from me, you don't need to be expensive, you just need to treat it as a gift. An ordinary ring will do."

Sylvia looked at his ring finger. "That's what I said, but how can I use it as an ordinary ring."

"Haha, this is your business." Henry tapped Sylvia's forehead lightly.

Sylvia reached out and stroked the words "accompany you till old" on the surface of the ring. His heart was full of sweetness.

Ke Bin took his people and walked quietly to the side and continued to stay here, it was just a shame.

Soon, it was the theme of this dinner, and it was still bidding, and many companies had their own cards.

Every project with an official background and a pilot word has been profitable since ancient times, and it has been full of money. For this project, everyone has worked hard.

It's just that the support that small businesses can give is far worse than that of a large company like Lin.

Sylvia promised that she could spend one billion yuan as a separate research fund. All the laboratories and research materials were provided by Lin.

Lin's one-billion-dollar figure said that 99% of the people present retreated.

One billion! Lin's handwriting this time is big and scary.

Professor Liu nodded, listening to the conditions given by Lin, she was quite satisfied. This scientific research needs a lot of money to support, of course, the more the better.

Many people who came to bid for the project meditated on it. It is estimated that this time, the Lin has not run away. How much money can this project make in the end? One billion? 1.2 billion? It may not even reach one billion. Lin's approach is a huge risk. If he invests one billion, he won't earn much if he makes a profit. If he loses money, it's really nowhere to lose.

"This woman is indeed courageous."

"If I were to be in charge of Lin, I dare not say the number one billion today."

Some people discuss it in private.

Sylvia looked at Professor Liu and said the number of one billion. She also thought about it for a long time. According to Lin's professional team evaluation, this project is full of money, including the surrounding land price increase, official subsidies, etc., but it is only eight million. The profit, one billion, is a gamble.

Sylvia this time, not only to make money, but more importantly, to consolidate Lin's name. The appearance of Zhao has brought great pressure to Lin. In this way, Lin's prestige will slowly disappear.

Sylvia was right. As soon as her figure of one billion came out, many people saw that Lin's gaze had changed. Zhao's sudden rise and the suppression of Lin's made most of the people present had a Lin's at any time. The image that will collapse, but now, Sylvia's approach tells everyone that Lin's will not collapse, compared with Lin's, there is still a gap between Zhao's and Lin's!

Some people have even thought of the congratulatory message now, and are ready to congratulate Lin please Han, congratulations to her for winning this project.

"My Zhao Group is willing to take 2 billion." Zhao Xiu's voice suddenly sounded.

Two billion!

The eyes of all the people present at this moment are locked in Zhao Xiu. This is deliberately unable to get along with Lin!

Two billion yuan to invest in this project, it will definitely lose money!

Zhao Xiu looked at Sylvia and cast a provocative look.

The person in charge of those small enterprises felt the atmosphere between Zhao Xiu and Sylvia, and they were so eloquent. This is the battle between the bigwigs, with billions of billions in one shot, just for breath.

Sylvia's face was not good-looking, she didn't expect that Zhao's even took out 2 billion yuan, even if the project was completed, it would have to lose 1 billion yuan. These 1 billion yuan, in order to suppress themselves?

Zhao Xiu's approach once again made everyone feel that Zhao's strong capital.

"The funds have arrived, about the research ..." Mr. Wang glanced at Zhao Xiu. This project not only requires funds, but also requires the cooperation of professional talents.

"We are responsible for the research on Qize Group." Ke Bin suddenly stood up. "We, Qize Group, will be tied together with the Zhao Group and jointly responsible for this project."

Ke Bin finished and looked at Sylvia proudly.

Such a thing made the people present uproar.

At first, everyone thought that in this bidding, Qize Group and Zhao's, including Zhou's and Lin's, would be competing for life and death, but now it is found that Zhao's and Qize have reached an agreement long ago. Squeeze Lin's together!

If these two groups are really determined to suppress Lin, then Lin's building is in jeopardy.

Even Sylvia didn't expect that Zhao's and Qize would unite together. This is completely reckless play, and only wants Lin to survive.

For Sylvia, the two billion yuan of funds will definitely not be available.

"Mr. Lin, what shall we do?" Li Na stood beside Sylvia and asked anxiously.

Sylvia shook his head, "Let's go, it doesn't make sense to fight."

"This ..." Li Na's face was unwilling.

Zhao Xiu looked at the expression on Sylvia's face and smiled: "Lin's surname Lin, don't give up. How much is the ring in your hand? How about asking your husband to invest more money? How?"

The practice of Zhao Xiu seems to be nothing for ordinary people, but it is actually pushing Sylvia to a desperate situation, whether it is Sylvia opening 1 billion or Zhao's 2 billion suppressing, these two groups have not made money by this project, but Liwei. Now, the effect of Zhao's Liwei has been achieved. If Lin continues to make additional investments, the investment amount exceeds 2 billion. In the eyes of outsiders, it is difficult to play the role of Liwei. After all, Zhao's suppression is Directly doubled, Lin would like to continue to stand up, and he has to add another billion to the two billion, otherwise it will not have the effect of standing up.

But Lin really wants to win this project at 3 billion, and everyone will only feel that Lin is holding on, and in order to stand up for the prestige, he will pay a full 2 billion. This is a fool's job.

Zhao Xiu's two billion number can be said to be just right, not much.

Zhao Xiuchong raised Sylvia's eyebrows, "How is it, Mr. Lin, I doubled the price you offered, do you dare to double the price I offered? I put Zhao Xiu's words here, you dare to turn me Dare to follow! "

Chapter 371

Zhao Xiu's remarks were to push Sylvia to the desperate situation. Now all his words are released. If Sylvia dares to double, he will dare to follow. Such words have already revealed Zhao's full confidence.

Sylvia wanted to really follow him. Zhao Xiu laughed casually and said that he admits to counseling. No one thinks that Zhao's is really counseling. After all, Sylvia has doubled, and he will lose 3 billion.

But now, Sylvia does not follow, that is, he is afraid of Zhao, which has had an influence on Lin's status in Yinzhou.

Zhao Xiu's simple approach directly put Lin Zhaohan in a passive position with a dilemma.

Going on, Lin's pays 3 billion, buys a prestige, and others say Sylvia is a fool.

Withdrawal, Lin's will be completely overwhelmed by Zhao's from today.

"Mr. Lin, how about it, follow or not?" Zhao Xiu smiled at Sylvia.

"Follow!" A decisive voice sounded.

The master of this voice surprised all present, not Sylvia, Secretary Li Na, or Henry, but Zhou Xu!

Zhou's young owner!

"My Zhou's, willing to invest 2 billion to invest in Lin's!"

The emergence of Zhou Xu, his words, made everyone present open his mouth, everyone looked at Sylvia, admired in his heart, did not expect that this woman, even kept such a hand, when did they join Zhou?

The smile on Zhao Xiu's face disappeared suddenly.

In such a situation, even Sylvia himself was confused, and Zhou Xu's attitude changed a lot from earlier. At that time, Zhou Xu threatened himself with a piece of land. As a result, he gave away all the land and gave it to him the next day. I have several real estate projects, and many of the projects behind me have not competed with myself. Today, I suddenly proposed to invest 2 billion yuan for myself?

For Zhou, 2 billion is equivalent to a quarter of the entire Zhou!

"Are you surnamed Zhou, is there something wrong with your brain? You Zhou has been crushed by Lin for so many years?" Ke Bin couldn't help but scolded directly.

Zhou Xu sneered, "It's up to you to fight Lin, it's still far away!"

After talking, Zhou Xu walked in front of Henry and smiled, "Mr. Zhang, are you still satisfied with my approach?"

"Yes," Henry nodded with satisfaction.

Recognized by Henry, Zhou Xu's happy face, such an attitude, once again shocked everyone's attention.

Sylvia was so smart, looking at Zhou Xu's attitude towards Henry, many things came to light at once. No wonder Zhou Xu and his father suddenly went to the Lin's door to admit their mistakes and sent so many plots and real estate to themselves. , All because of Henry!

When Sylvia thought of his attitude towards Henry at that time, he was full of apologies. It turned out that he had paid for himself silently from the beginning.

Sylvia settled his mind and looked at Zhao Xiu again, "Zhao Zhao, our Lin, now the investment has increased to 3 billion. Look, do you follow?"

Zhao Xiu's face changed. Now, his situation has become the same as that of Sylvia just now. He will lose 3 billion yuan. If he doesn't, Li Wei, who he just did, will become a laughing stock if he just said it. This is no doubt. He lifted a stone and hit his own foot.

Zhou's sudden appearance disrupted all of Zhao Xiu's plans.

After more than ten seconds of meditation, Zhao Xiu laughed loudly, "Mr. Lin, this is really a good method. We Zhao soon established a foothold in Yinzhou. It was when we made friends with Guangzhou. This project will give you Lin. Now, how about the place where everyone gets along in the future. "

Zhao Xiu made everyone understand that Zhao's defeat in this game.

Lin joined the original Yinzhou No. 2 Group Zhou Shi, and its current position will be unshakable unless Zhao Shi can make another fund beyond Zhou Shi.

Ke Bin stood aside, his face gloomy was about to drip water, he made two preparations for revenge Henry and Sylvia today, the first hand was humiliated, but because of his ignorance, instead he became a laughing stock. When they beat Lin together, they ended up being pressed back by Lin.

Ke Bin stared at Henry and Sylvia, and suddenly said, "Some people know that relying on the elder Fuze, they have no ability at all. This kind of person is now arrogant, but how long can it be rampant in the future. In order to fight for a few billions of dollars, I really love face. "

Ke Bin made an excuse for himself.

However, although everyone can hear him as an excuse, but the reason is really not rough.

It is conceivable that after this storm passed, Ke Bin fanned the flames again, and outside would spread today's events up and down, even in various versions.

Henry hugged Sylvia's shoulder, "The more unskilled the person, the more fierce the call."

"Jokes!" Ke Bin sneered. "Don't you dare to compare with me?"

"You don't deserve it." Henry gave Ke Bin a contemptuous look, hugged Sylvia, and walked outside the banquet hall.

Ke Bin only felt that he had a powerful punch on cotton, which made him feel very uncomfortable.

Sylvia and Henry did not spend much time at the Xinkai Hotel. When they left the hotel, they drove directly to their home. As for the project, Li Na was responsible, and Sylvia was absolutely relieved.

Overnight quietly passed.

Early the next morning, Henry had just got up and walked into the courtyard to punch the old tree.

Jiang Jing dragged a suitcase and came out of the house, standing behind Henry, "Mr. Zhang."

Henry glanced back and wondered: "Are you going to go far?"

Jiang Jing smiled slightly, "I'm here to resign. During this time, President Lin has no danger anymore, and I have received news that the people who wanted to harm President Lin before have no tasks to release, which means My mission is over. "

After Jiang Jing finished speaking, he looked at the tree in front of Henry and continued: "And, you have Mr. Zhang to protect Mr. Lin, and I will be the same without me."

Henry nodded. He was still very fond of Jiang Jing. The woman was willing to work hard and was very responsible. "Have you taken the next task?"

"It has been accepted. The employer is waiting for me to take office. Mr. Lin, please ask Mr. Zhang to talk about it."

"Okay, do you need me to send you?" Henry pointed to the car next to it.

"No." Jiang Jingyang raised the car key in his hand. "I still like to drive by myself. You know, we have no freedom in our business, no vacations, and we usually go on a journey when we are traveling."

"Then wish you ..." Henrychong Jiang Jing smiled slightly, "Happy journey."

"Thank you." Jiang Jing opened the door and sat up.

Chapter 372

After Sylvia got up, he learned that Jiang Jing had already gone, and sighed. In the past two months, people will have some feelings when they get along. Jiang Jing has been protecting Sylvia. This sudden departure left Lin to ask Lin Han felt something was missing.

Henry has long been accustomed to this kind of separation, and he is very open-minded.

Henry prepared breakfast for Sylvia. After Sylvia finished eating, Henry packed up his chopsticks and said, "Wife, I have something to do today. Go to the company yourself."

"Well, good." Sylvia nodded.

Now to Henry, Sylvia has a bit of an attitude towards the head of the family. Many things, she subconsciously will listen to Henry.

Watching Sylvia leave, Henry stood at the door of his courtyard and said coldly: "I haven't been tired after spending more than two hours?"

"Oh, I still think it's well hidden." A figure slowly walked to the courtyard door.

This is a middle-aged man with a bearded beard, no frills, and casual clothes, with only a pair of slippers on his feet.

"Introduce yourself, my name is Yuan Jin, and I belong to the Sharp Blade unit." The middle-aged man took the initiative to reach Henry.

Henry didn't look at the hand from the other side. "Why are you looking for me, the sharp edged man?"

"Oh." Yuan Jin chuckled, "Mr. Zhang really likes to ask, I want to talk to Mr. Zhang about the fire in Liao's Manor."

"Then stop talking here." Henry went to the courtyard door.

Yuan Jin looked startled, and then smiled: "I thought Mr. Zhang would invite me to have a cup of tea."

"I will only invite my friends to drink tea, so just talk about it."

Yuan Jin nodded, "Then I will not sell Guanzi anymore. I believe, Mr. Zhang, you are also from the ancient martial arts world. That day you were taken away by the people of the Liao family. When you left, the Liao family started a fire. Do you have anything to explain about this? "

"No." Henry shook his head. "What happened to me when his family caught fire?"

"Mr. Zhang, you were taken to Liao's house. What happened that day, why did Liao's house suddenly catch fire?" Yuan Jin's eyes were fixed on Henry. "I hope Mr. Zhang tells me the truth."

"Oh." Henry nodded. "The Liao family was destroyed by the door, and the fire was also released by the other party. I saw it with my own eyes. If you don't want to catch the murderer, why come to me?"

Yuan Jin apparently did not expect Henry to bluntly say that the Liao family was destroyed. The Liao family is an antiques family. The family died of a fire, which naturally attracted the attention of the police. The police specially sent someone to perform a post-mortem. The entire family of Liao's family was killed, and almost everyone left no corpses.

With the sharp edge method, it was easy to learn that Henry was taken to the Liao family that day, and finally he was safe. Yuan Jin put his goal to Henry and used him as a breakthrough.

Yuan Jin's idea was to find some evidence in the line between Henry's words and then imprisoned him for interrogation, but he never expected that he would get such an answer, which made him feel incapable of starting.

Yuan Jin looked at Henry and remained silent for a long time, and said, "Are you watching someone kill all the Liao family?"

"Yeah." Henry nodded. "Not even the whole body, especially cruel, but I didn't pay attention to the photos and videos."

Yuan Jin asked again: "Since the Liao family was killed, why are you all right?"

"You are really funny." Henry looked at Yuan Jin as a fool. "Those people who killed Liao's family have any connection to kill me? I want to kill a fish today. All the fish in a pond was killed? "

Facing Henry, Yuan Jin felt that he couldn't get started for a while. The opponent's words seemed to be flawed everywhere, but he didn't have a place where he could use it.

Yuan Jin thought for a long time and could only say one sentence, "I suspect you are related to the murder of Liao's family. Please follow me."

"Wait a moment, I will pour the flowers at home." Henry lightly responded, turned to enter the house, sipped a cup of tea, and lay there for more than half an hour before going out.

Yuan Jin drove an Accord with a yellow card and took Henry towards the city center.

"Sir, where are you going to push me?" Henry leaned leisurely on the back seat of the car. "I have to go to work today."

Yuan Jin parked the car at the door of a coffee shop. The co-pilot opened the door. A beautiful woman in a long dress and a beautiful appearance sat on the car. She glanced at Henry and asked Yuan Jin, "Is this the one?"

"Well." Yuan Jin nodded.

The beauty turned around, holding a cup of coffee in her hand, "Let's talk, why do you want to kill Liao's family?"

Henry looked at this beautiful woman strangely, "Why don't you wear underwear?"

The woman's face was angry, "You fart!"

"You are farting." Henry shrugged. "You saw me killing the Liao family?"

The beautiful woman listened to Henry's words, and her chest was upset. "I'm not in the mood to play this kind of word game with you. Our sharp blade task is very heavy. You are delaying our time. The responsibility is that you can take on? How did you die! "

Henry asked. "Don't I tell you all your colleagues? The slain, the family was all dismembered. Why, is there a problem?"

The beauty stunned in front of her and turned to look at Yuan Jin.

Yuan Jin laughed bitterly, "He told me that."

The beauty's face changed continuously, and she turned to stare at Henry again, "You saw the Liao family killed?"

"Yes." Henry nodded.

"What about law enforcers!"

"It was also killed." Henry said of course, "I watched them die, the blood-splattered old man was high, and the thieves were irritated."

The beauties stretched out their hands and snapped them on the center console. "It's lawless! We're law enforcement. I'm not in a mood to joke with you. If you don't tell the truth, don't blame us for taking coercive measures!"

"I'm telling the truth." Henry wondered. Now in this world, nobody tells the truth.

The beautiful woman turned her head, looked at Yuan Jin, and shouted: "Turn around, go and grab all the Lin family, I will see if he can tell the truth!"

A bit of tangle appeared on Yuan Jin's face, "I'm afraid it's not in compliance."

"What is not in compliance!" The beauty looked ugly. "My family of Liao is dead. You still tell me the rules now!"

The beautiful woman said, and she grabbed her hand on the steering wheel.

Yuan Jin quickly pushed away the other party, "Hongdan, calm down, don't be impulsive."

"What makes me calm down, if your family is dead, can you calm down!" The beauty shouted again, glaring at Henry again, the eyes could not hide the hatred, "I tell you, my Liao Hongdan, will definitely let you eye for eye!"

After finishing talking, Liao Hongdan directly dragged a black box on the roof of the car, and this action made Yuan Jin's face change drastically.

"Hong Dan, what are you doing!"

"The car overturned and the law enforcement instrument broke!" Liao Hongdan sneered.

Chapter 373 Special Gambling Approval

Henry looked at Liao Hongdan, but he did not expect that there was a person from the Liao family among the sharp blades.

Yuan Jin made a sudden brake and parked the car in the middle of the road. "Hong Dan, are you sure you want to do this?"

"Otherwise?" Liao Hongdan asked back, "The people of my Liao family cannot die in vain."

"Okay." Yuan Jin nodded and squeezed his fist. "What do you say, I listen to you."

After Yuan Jin finished speaking, he stared at Henry with a bad face.

Henry chuckled, "What kind of people are your Liao family, you know very well in your own heart, Liao Sheng bullied men and women in school, your homeowners joint law enforcement, openly tied me to Liao family Is it a violation of the rules? "

"How can our Liao family do things? It's still not your turn to talk about things! You are just an ordinary warrior. Even if our Liao family bullies you, you should suffer!" Liao Hongdan stared at Henry, "I finally I ask you, does the death of our family have anything to do with you!"

Henry glanced at the law enforcement instrument detained by Liao Hongdan and grinned, "Yes."

"You!" Liao Hongdan's face changed, and she knew that she was overcast.

Just when Liao Hongdan wanted to say something, a violent impact struck.

A pickup truck slammed into the back of the Accord.

The airbag exploded the first time.

Immediately afterwards, several cars hit the Accord serially, and the violent impact dared Yuan Jin and Liao Hongdan to faint.

"You like to roll over, just show it to you." Henry sat steadily in the back seat. "As a sharp-edged official, the official uses privately, and publicizes private enmity. You, a person like you, staying at the sharp knife is also a scourge to others. Just die. "

Henry's voice rang coldly in their ears.

When the shaking of the vehicle stopped, the two of them turned to look at the back seat as soon as possible. In their sight, Henry slowly put a grimace mask on his face.

At the same time, the main driver and co-pilot doors of the Accord were opened.

Several figures wearing grimace masks also appeared in the sight of Yuan Jin and Liao Hongdan.

Henry opened the rear seat door and went out. "Make a false appearance of rollover. How much do you give the Blade a little face? Also, solve all the things that can be solved. I don't want the Blade to bother me again.

Liao Hongdan looked at the masked figures in front of him, and his heart was filled with deep fear. No wonder his home was destroyed by someone, and what caused him was that hellwalker ...

Yuan Jin's face was full of regret, "Liao Hongdan, this time, you can hurt me!"

After Henry got out of the car, he took off his mask and threw it into a pickup truck next to him. He put his hands in his pockets and walked up the streets of the city center.

As Henry left, an explosion sounded.

An hour later, Henry sat in a coffee shop and looked at his mobile phone. The headline of Yinzhou News has been occupied by an official car with a yellow card on the road, which caused emergency news. The driver of the official car and a female sitting on the car both died, and two passers-by were slightly injured.

Henrygang was about to put away his phone, and the phone rang, Qin Rou, who was called by the caller.

Henrygang answered the phone, and Qin Rou's voice hurriedly sounded, "Henry, do you know how to gamble stones?"

Henry thought for a while and said, "Understand a little."

"That is to understand, our company has expanded a new trade, which is gambling. I am not very knowledgeable about these things. Please help me to see it." Qin Rou said on the phone.

"Engage in gambling?" Henry was full of doubts, and went to Hengyuan Trade.

At the moment, Qin Rou's desk is full of documents, all about stone gambling.

"General Qin, sign it."

"Yes, Mr. Qin, this is a once-in-a-lifetime opportunity. The profit of the gambling stone is huge. Everyone wants to do it. It is one thing for the official to approve or not to approve. The key is no way!"

"For Hengyuan, this is an opportunity to keep pace with Lin!"

In Qin Rou's office, many project managers are persuading Qin Rou.

"Wait." Qin Rou looked at the document on the table and waited for Henry to come over.

"What are you waiting for, Mr. Qin? Everyone said, just give us half an hour to think about it!" A project manager was worried.

Qin Rou looked out the window and then the phone again, just preparing to call Henry again, and saw that the office door was pushed open, and Henry Fengchen appeared in the office.

Looking at Henry's clothes with a messy appearance, Qin Rou was very happy. It seems that this man still has his own.

"How did you touch the gambling stone, how deep is the water inside, you should have heard of it?" Henry asked when he entered the door.

The project managers of Hengyuan looked at Henry with a puzzled face, not knowing who this was.

Qin Rou stood up from her boss chair and smiled sweetly at Henry, "So I just asked you to come and see. I don't understand. Is there a man who understands it?"

Hearing Qin Rou, these project managers of Hengyuan all looked at Henry with an ambiguous look.

Qin Rou took the document on the table to Henry, "This is the project this time, look at it."

"Don't look at it." Henry shook his head. "Since gambling on stones, someone should have shipped you a batch of raw materials? Where are the materials?"

"Warehouse."

As a trading company, Hengyuan can be said to be the most important place for the entire company. It covers a huge area, and each warehouse is clearly separated.

Three containers measuring 21 meters in length and 7 meters in height are placed outside the warehouse.

Qin Rou came here with Henry and a group of Hengyuan project managers.

Qin Rou pointed to the three containers and urged Henrydao: "The materials are all inside."

Henry nodded and asked, "What is the other party's request?"

Qin Rou waved his hand, and a project manager came up and said to Henry: "The other party asked us to take at least 300 tons of goods per month and sell them to us at a price of 200 yuan per kilogram. This is the first batch of goods. If we think the goods are good, we must sign a contract for at least one year. "

Henry frowned, "Two hundred dollars per kilogram? This price is higher than the market price. Three hundred tons in January. In the market of Yinzhou, do you think you can eat it?"

"Now the market situation is still uncertain, this is a gamble." Qin Rou came up, "This time, because of the reason why our Hengyuan bombed the mountain, we received an official special approval. If we can get it, it is Hengyuan. An opportunity. "

Henry walked to the container and opened the door of the container. The eyes were full of stones, dense and dense, ranging from large to small, but the size of the stone was as large as the height of a person.

Henry opened all three containers in a row and glanced, then shook his head at Qin Rou, "No."

Chapter 374 This Is Not Local?

"What's wrong?" Qin Rou asked, looking at Henry.

Henry pointed at the stones in the three warehouses, and said to Qin Rou: "It is important to engage in stone gambling. Word of mouth is very important. At the very least, it is necessary to be able to open shipments in the stones. If you can't even sell a single item on the first day, this gambling stone can't be carried on. "

Listening to Henry, Qin Rou nodded thoughtfully.

A project manager from Hengyuan said, "Mr Qin, IMHO, this friend said that this batch of stones is not good, and it is purely speculation. Gambling on stones depends on luck, and who can see the appearance of stones, Dare to say that this stone is out of stock? "

After the project manager finished speaking, he stared at Henry with a hostile look.

"Who said there is a problem with our stone?" A scream, sounded from the side.

When Henry looked back, he saw a middle-aged man, with three strong men all over his face, walking towards this side.

The three strong men had fierce faces, and while walking, they crackled their fists.

The middle-aged man was wearing a suit, but he didn't look so fierce. It was just that this man felt a bad feeling.

"Boy, you said we have a problem with the stone?" The middle-aged man walked to Henry. At the same time, the three strong men beside him stood in front of Henry and looked at Henry.

Henry frowned. "This batch of stone belongs to you?"

"Do you have an opinion?" The middle-aged man looked at Henry, his eyes full of threat.

Henry nodded, "We don't want your batch of stones."

"Okay, we are doing business. You don't want it. We won't force it." The middle-aged man laughed. "Since the business can't be done, then we'll go."

The middle-aged man finished speaking, turned around, and made a wink at the Hengyuan project manager who had just spoken.

The project manager of Hengyuan gritted his teeth and said: "Mr Qin, this is an opportunity, you can't miss it in vain. You must not listen to other people's remarks and miss such a good opportunity!

Henry sneered and looked at the project manager, "You are a person from Hengyuan, how much benefit did they give you, so that you can pit your boss Qin so much, these three boxes of waste rock, Qin Rou bought 200 yuan per kilogram, How much can you make? 670 million, how can you get 100 million? "

The project manager's face changed, and he scolded: "You fart! What do you call me to take advantage of it?"

Henry glanced at these stones and said, "According to the normal market price, each kilogram of stone should be between 60 and 80, now it is sold to 200?"

"Aren't you the freight?" The middle-aged man opened his eyes and said, "How much is the logistics cost of a few hundred tons of goods?"

"Logistics cost?" Henry looked puzzled. "Do you have logistics costs for these stones? Didn't you pull Hengyuan from the mountain some time ago?"

"You!" The middle-aged man's complexion changed dramatically.

Qin Rouliu frowned, "Henry, do you mean ..."

Henry walked to the container and picked up a stone, "Our rock group is Neo-Archaic, with complex rock types, mainly biotite diorite and diorite diorite. It is a mica granite and a mica feldspar granite. The alteration is relatively strong. The rock is gray and light gray-green. Some of them have a spot-like structure. The clear edges, worms, and sutures are obvious. It 's from the mountains around us. Look at these three boxes of stones, and they all match the characteristics I just said. This is not a stone for gambling, it 's just ordinary stones! "

As soon as Henry's words fell, Qin Rou immediately looked at the project manager, "Don't you tell me that this is the stone shipped from Yunsheng!"

"I ... this ..." The project manager opened his mouth wide, not knowing what to say for a while.

The middle-aged man's face changed a few times, and then shouted, "It's funny! The stones I shipped from Yunshen, you even said these are the waste stones around!"

Henry shook his head, "I didn't say that it was all waste stones around, there are still normal stones."

Hearing Henry say that, the project manager was relieved.

The middle-aged man also has a lot of looks, and he has some ecstasy in his heart. He just thought that this kid is likely to defraud himself, so he drank himself and bluffed this kid.

Henry stepped forward. Among the three containers, a total of nine stones with the size of a fist were picked out. "These nine stones are indeed not the surrounding stones. The texture is from Yunxing, but unfortunately, this Of the nine pieces, none of them can cut green. "

Henry shook his head and threw the nine stones at will.

The so-called cutting out green means cutting out the original stone from the stone among the gambling stones.

Between the project manager and Henry, Qin Rou obviously believed Henry completely. She looked at the project manager, "I need a reasonable explanation."

The project manager looked at the middle-aged man for help.

The middle-aged man's eyes flickered. After a few seconds, he waved his hand. "You don't do this business, some people do it. Now you want to buy it, I don't sell it, let's go!"

After the middle-aged man finished speaking, he would take someone away with a big wave.

"Go?" Henry chuckled lightly. "If the scam is unsuccessful, you want to go? These hundreds of millions are enough for you to sit through, Qin Rou, call the police."

"Fart! Laozi scam? Is there any evidence?" The middle-aged man had a stalk on his neck. The three brawny men beside him didn't have that arrogant expression on their faces anymore, and all stood in fear Aside, I was afraid that I might be implicated in myself. Obviously, the brutal appearance was just pretended.

"What about the contract?" Henrychong Qin Rou reached out.

"Contract ..." Qin Rou looked at the project manager.

The project manager was agitated, and with a fierce look in his eyes, he ran away.

The project manager ran fast, but how could he pass Henry quickly, Henry stepped forward, kicked the project manager with one foot, and grabbed the contract from the other party.

After glancing at it, the contract stated that all the stones were shipped from Yunsheng. This alone was enough to judge these people.

Middle-aged men also want to run when they see that something is exposed.

"Come on, let's go!" The middle-aged man sipped next to the three strong men.

The three strong men shook their bodies and covered the middle-aged man toward the warehouse.

"No one can run!" Henry stood in front of the warehouse door one step ahead.

"Boy, I advise you not to ask yourself for bitterness!" A strong man threatened with his fists squeezed.

"Oh." Henry nodded blankly, three consecutive punches, and knocked down the three strong men.

Chapter 375: The Cheng Family Again

The three strong men were overthrown in a face-to-face, and the middle-aged man's final cards were gone. He wanted to break out, but Henry punched a strong man in a scene, which made him unable to courage.

The project manager's face was pale, and he had a basic salary of 8,000 in January. His life was moist, but he could not stand the temptation. If he wanted to make a big vote, he would leave. As a result, things would be exposed.

Soon, the Yinzhou police arrived, and Henry simply accompanied Qin Rou to the police station to make notes.

Henryzao was a celebrity in the police station. Whether it was the ambiguity between him and Han Wenrou before, or the last incident where the prince insulted the hero, he became a celebrity in the Yinzhou police station.

There was Henryzai, the confession was recorded very quickly, Qin Rou filed an appeal request, and the police quickly implemented the process, and the court could be heard in a few days.

"What about Zheng Chu? Has it been sentenced?" Henry asked curiously. Since Zheng Chu was arrested, he has never cared about this matter.

"It hasn't been sentenced yet, still in detention. Zheng Chu's verdict is that the rape was attempted. How to sentence it depends on how ..." A police officer answered, pointing to the top of his head.

Henry understood what the other party meant and smiled, saying nothing.

The Zheng family wanted to find someone, so they asked them to find out what kind of waves they could make.

Out of the police station.

"Henry, you helped me again today. I really can't think of any other way to repay you except to express my body." Qin Rou looked at Henry sideways.

Henrylian waved his hand, "No need to repay me, I like to do good deeds."

Qin Rou rolled his eyes. "I just hate you like that? Don't even post it? Then please have a meal. It's almost noon."

"Dine." Henry nodded.

Qin Rou drove and took Henry all the way out of the city.

Henry wondered, "Where are you going to eat?"

A hint of cunning flashed in Qin Roumei's eyes, "There is a good farmhouse. Take you to try it. This game is very difficult to eat now."

Qin Rou said, in a direction, the car got on the high speed around the city.

Henry nodded.

Until Qin Rou turned directly from the roundabout to Yinzhou to Luohe, Henry realized that something was wrong.

"Are you going to the farmhouse?"

"Yeah." Qin Rou smiled. "It's just a small party."

Henry looked at the woman's flower-like smiley face and didn't know what to say. He could only let Qin Rou go helplessly.

After forty minutes, the vehicle left the highway.

Henry saw that Qin Rou did bring him to a farmhouse, but this place, where Henry had come before, was Chengjia Manor.

In front of the Chengjia Manor, countless luxury cars are parked. Qin Rou's BMW, placed in these luxury cars, looks very cheap.

Qin Rouyan smiled, "An elder came back today and everyone came to congratulate me. I don't know a few people. It seems too lonely to come by myself."

Qin Rou parked the car and led Henry towards the Chengjia Manor.

More than ten tables of banquets have been set up in the Chengjia Hall. The hall is full of people, all of them are older generations with heads and faces.

Qin Rou, Henry, and Yi Xuan's lobby, heard someone greet him.

"Qin Rou, you are here!"

Henry saw a handsome young man approaching Qin Rou with a surprised look.

"Xiao Bo, hello." Qin Rou nodded slightly at this handsome young man, then put Henry's arm on his face, and said sweetly, "Introduce you, this is my boyfriend, Henry."

"Boy ... boyfriend?" Xiao Bo, who was originally ecstatic, heard a loss from Qin Rou's words, and his expression was a bit dull.

"Dude, don't listen to her nonsense, I'm not her boyfriend." Henry hurriedly said, "I'm already married."

Upon hearing this, Xiao Bo swept away the loss in his heart and smiled at Qin Rou: "Qin Rou, you can really open ..."

Before Xiao Bo's final joke came out, he was interrupted by Qin Rou's voice.

Qin Rou stretched out his pink fist and hammered on Henry's chest. "You hate you. When you were with other people last night, that was not the case. You said you were going to divorce. Now you say you have a wife. You are so annoying! "

Qin Rou, whoever looks at it, feels that she is spoiling Henry.

Xiao Bo looked embarrassed for a while and greeted himself for a long time. As a result, the woman he liked was lying in the arms of others? And still a married man?

Xiao Bo's original enthusiasm calmed down at once, "Qin Rou, this time, it was mainly an elder who came back from convalescence. Everyone sat together and chatted. You come with an outsider, I'm afraid it's not appropriate?"

"Why is it inappropriate?" Qin Rou only embraced Henry's arm, letting this arm stand before him, "My boyfriend is not an outsider."

Xiao Bo looked at Qin Ruan and Henry's intimate appearance, and his heart was extremely uncomfortable, but it was not easy to express directly.

Qin Rou took Henry's arm and sat at a round table. This table, all young people, greeted Qin Rou, all in Qin Rou's circle.

Henry glanced, but no one knew it.

Although the province of Ning is not big, it is still divided into many circles. Henry and Sylvia are generally together, and they are in contact with the top circles.

Although Hengyuan Trade has great prospects, it is still unable to compare with Lin's. The circle of contact is naturally worse. It is normal for Henry not to know.

Just like last time I came to Luohe Chengzhuang, the Lin family had a separate table, and its status was detached. Now, Henry is sitting at a table where a few juniors are mixed, obviously not the same grade as the last time he came.

"Look, that is the commercial giant in Ning province, Du Hua."

"That, that is the official leader of Ning Province, Xiao Sheng."

The young man sitting at the table with Henry, pointing at the table on the throne, was full of envy.

"Hey, I can sit on that table anytime."

"Not to mention sitting at that table and waiting for the banquet, it would be nice to let me toast with wine in the past."

"It's not easy to toast?" Xiao Bo glanced at his mouth. "Wait for me to say hello to my uncle."

When Xiao Bo spoke, his face was mostly proud.

When everyone heard Xiao Bo's words, their eyes lit up, "Yes, Xiao Bo, you and Xiao Sheng are related by blood."

"Yes, yes, if you can say hello to your uncle in the past, let's toast a toast too, that's too long face, my dad went back, it is estimated that the company can be directly handed over to me."

"Xiao Bo, wait for you."

Listening to the compliments of everyone, Xiao Bo was full of pride and looked at Qin Rou deliberately, only to find that Qin Rou didn't pay attention to him at all, his eyes were all on Henry.

Chapter 376 Who Are You?

Xiao Bo looked at Qin Rou's sweet appearance, and hated it in his heart, so he had to find some face, and it was better to let that surnamed Zhang be ashamed!

Someone from the Cheng family came out and said a few words of thanks, and the meal began.

Henry learned from this table chat that this time, Mr. Cheng came back from convalescence. The situation is very good. Everyone congratulates.

"Mr. Xiao, Mr. Du, by this opportunity, I respect two glasses!" A middle-aged man laughed, holding a wine glass, and walked towards the Lord.

Many people, looking at the toasted people with envious eyes, can go to the throne to toast a glass of wine, which is also a representative of identity.

Henry didn't care about these things. He was more concerned about the food on the table. As Qin Rou said when he came, many game dishes are not seen now.

Henry's big piece of duoshuo drew a lot of glances from their table.

Many people do n't understand why Qin Rou would like such a man. Although Hengyuan did n't enter this circle long before, everyone knows Hengyuan 's potential and will certainly have a place in Ning province in the future. Qin Rou is young and beautiful. , In charge of Hengyuan, the man she was looking for, it should be a dragon and a phoenix.

A young man with a good relationship with Xiao Bo couldn't help but say, "Qin Rou, can't you let your boyfriend converge a little bit, there are so many people present here, he's so good at eating, our table is not good.

As soon as the man spoke, there was a lot of echoes.

"Yeah, you're so humiliated, it's a shame to our table."

"Did you see what other people looked at us with?"

A sarcasm sounded.

Qin Rougang was about to speak, and Henrybian was the first to speak out. He had a chicken leg in his hand, and he looked puzzled. "Strange, isn't the food for eating? Can you watch enough?"

"You haven't eaten like a starving dead ghost? Look at other tables, who ate like you?" Xiao Bo glanced at his mouth.

"It's hilarious." Henry smiled. "Children will hoe on the day of the hoe, and sweat will fall on the soil. When will waste become glorious?"

"You!" Xiao Bo still wanted to speak and was stopped by a young man.

"Forget Xiao Bo, he didn't know clearly about this kind of person. What he didn't understand was not an identity. He didn't understand some things." The young man pulled La Xiaobo's sleeve and then glared at Henry. , "The shameful thing!"

Qin Rou looked at Xiao Bo with a disgruntled face. In the welfare home, Qin Rou had seen too many children not eating enough. Sometimes a roast duck can make those children extremely happy. These people are now But it is unreasonable to regard eating as a shame.

Qin Rou sandwiched a chicken leg with Henry, "You eat more, just ignore them."

Henry rushed to Qin Rou without a polite smile, and tucked the chicken legs into his mouth.

Everyone on the table looked at this scene and really couldn't understand how Qin Rou fell in love with such a person.

In the Chengjia Hall, people frequently walked to the main table to toast the people on the main table. You can see that everyone who came back from the toast had a trace of pride on their faces. The wine on the main table was not Anyone who wants to be respected will be able to pay tribute, just change a person in the past, others will not take care of you.

"Xiao Bo, why are you still here, go, go and give me your uncle to toast them." A middle-aged man walked over to Xiao Bo and said.

Xiao Bo's face was filled with joy, and he picked up his glass, "Okay, Dad."

Xiao Bo finished, and walked to the main table with his dad.

Henry The rest of them at this table looked at Xiao Bo with an envious eye.

They saw Xiao Bo walk to the main table and toast the big figures on the main table.

"See? This is strength. It represents the network and the future life." The young man who had a good relationship with Xiao Bo spoke again and deliberately told Qin Rou to listen.

"So envious."

"Really, I just want to be able to go. Unfortunately, my family doesn't have that strength yet."

People at their table sighed.

Soon, Xiao Bo walked back with a smug look. Although he just toasted in the past, he did n't even have the qualification to chat, but he was stronger than too many people, enjoying the envious eyes of his desk, Xiao Bo felt like he had face.

"Xiao Bo, you are too good, look at our younger generation, you are the first to go toast."

"That is, I just saw that the next table looked at us enviously."

"Of course, which of our generation can go up to toast."

A greeted voice sounded, and Xiao Bo's expression on his face grew stronger, and he waved his hand. "It's nothing. My uncle, they have important things to discuss now. Wait, wait until they're done talking. I take everyone to have a toast. "

As soon as Xiao Bo's words came out, there was a burst of cheers from the people on the table, and he really wanted to be able to toast a glass of wine. In this circle, he would have to hold his head up while walking!

Xiao Bote looked at Qin Rou and said, "Qin Rou, wait for you to go with me. Let me introduce you to Uncle Du. He is the leading enterprise in Ning province. If you can cooperate with him I believe you Hengyuan will soon catch up with the Lin. "

Qin Rou shook his head with a smile, "I'm not going."

"What's the matter? Your career is now on the rise. Since finding a useless boyfriend can't help you ..." Xiao Bo said of this, revealing an unhappy look, "I ..."

"Grass, did you walk without eyes? Do you know me when you meet me?" A shout suddenly sounded beside Henry's table, interrupting Xiao Bo's words.

When everyone looked at it subconsciously, they saw the young man who had been helping Xiao Bo to speak and had a good relationship with him. At this time, his head was lowered, and he stood in front of another person with an apologetic expression. Shouted from the other person's mouth.

If you dare to curse such people directly in the Cheng family hall, that identity is certainly not simple.

Henry narrowed his eyes at the man and whispered the other person's name in his mouth, "Cheng Guang."

Cheng Guang, the second generation Cheng Cheng's second child, was Cheng Guang, if Henry had not brought out a pack of golden gourd tea.

At this time, Cheng Guangzheng stared at Xiao Bo's friend with an angry face.

Xiao Bo's friend didn't dare to put one fart at this time, he didn't even dare to raise his head. This was the second son of the Cheng family, which he couldn't afford.

The people sitting at their table at Xiao Bo were silent at the moment, and even the sound of breathing was lowered a lot, for fear that Cheng Guang would be dissatisfied.

After a few seconds of silence, everyone looked at Xiao Bo tacitly. The friend of Xiao Bo also turned to Xiao Bo for help.

Xiao Bo swallowed hard. Although he did n't want to face it, he just put on such a big force, and now he ca n't be counseled. He stood up and stroked widely: "Brother Cheng, this is my friend, give me Face."

"Who the hell are you!" Cheng Guang turned his head and scolded.

377 Don't talk nonsense

Cheng Guang, who are you? Who made Xiao Bo's face look ugly, so many people have looked at it, and the woman she loves is still sitting here.

Xiao Bo would like to curse back now, but he dare not, with his five guts, he did not dare to disrespect Cheng Guang.

Xiao Bo lost a smiley face and looked at Cheng Guang, "Brother Cheng, I am Xiao Bo and Xiao Sheng is my uncle."

"Who is he and you are brothers, what kind of thing are you?" Cheng Guang looked at Xiao Bo with a disgruntled look. He was a full-fledged dude, "Xiao Sheng is your uncle? His son came, did he have to Looking at Lao Tzu's face, do you think you are amazing? "

"This ..." Xiao Bo's face was ugly, and he scanned his table subconsciously, and found that everyone looked at himself with a strange eye, which made him burn a face.

"Why, I'm teaching people here, do you want to be the first bird? Don't look at what you are, give you face, what face do you have?" Cheng Guang looked at Xiao Bo with a sneering expression.

Xiao Bo was scolded by Cheng Guang and he dared not say a word.

Two people at the table heard Cheng Guang's scolding, turned his head to look at Cheng Guang, and immediately looked away.

Many people have heard of Cheng Guang's second ancestor. He has offended Cheng Guang, and some have suffered.

Xiao Bo, who was scolded by Cheng Guang, didn't even dare to reply. His confidence just now disappeared.

"He's yours, just like you, with a face coming to our Cheng family for dinner, yuck!" Cheng Guang said, spitting saliva on the table, "Let you eat!"

After that, Cheng Guangbu left.

Henry also chewed the chicken leg in his hand. When he was about to take a dish, he saw a thick sputum falling in the plate in front of him. This scene made Henry's face cold.

Seeing Cheng Guang leaving, Xiao Bo, and friends of Xiao Bo, as well as the people at their table, were all relieved. Everyone was just worried about being stared at by Cheng Guang. Well, the son of the Cheng family didn't care about himself.

Looking at the back of Cheng Guang's departure, everyone felt a little lucky.

"Stop, who made you go?" A low voice sounded from their table.

At the same time as this low-pitched sound, everyone's heart jumped abruptly, who, his, wasn't it death?

The crowd looked at the speaker.

"Henry, don't you bother us if you want to die!" One stared at Henry fiercely.

"That's what you are doing!"

A person sitting next to Henry moved the stool hard, a little further from Henry.

Cheng Guang walked away and then turned around slowly.

Watching Cheng Guang turn around, Xiao Bo and others almost mentioned his throat in one heart.

Everyone looked at Henry with a neuropathic look and provoked Cheng Guang. Isn't this a fool!

"Lao Tzu wants to go, who dare he ..." Cheng Guang turned around and scolded, before he had finished speaking, he swallowed into his stomach, and he saw Henry sitting on the table.

Just now, Cheng Guang did n't even look at this table. He did n't see Henry, but now he sees it, and all his angry expression disappears at once. Brother, it's you, why don't you say hello to me when you say you're here. "

Before, Mr. Cheng had a long life, and after the Cheng family chose the heir, Mr. Cheng called Cheng Guang specifically and told him that he must not provoke the son-in-law of the Lin family.

Cheng Guang was arrogant again. That was in front of others. In front of Master Cheng, he was just like a good baby.

Moreover, the Cheng family is now the master of Cheng Qing. At that time, Wang Wei gave the shares of Cheng Guanglin's family. Cheng Guangdu was honest and returned intact.

Ning Changhe, the leader of the Ning Provincial Military Command, suddenly fell off a while ago. Many people did not know the inside story, but Cheng Guang, as the second son of the Cheng family, naturally knew that Ning provoked the son-in-law of the Lin family for a week and was directly investigated by the highest-ranking person in China After learning of these, Cheng Guang was frightened with cold sweat. Fortunately, he did n't offend the Lin family too much, otherwise his grandfather could not keep himself.

For Henry, Cheng Guang did not dare to offend him.

Xiao Bo and others, seeing Cheng Guang's attitude towards Henry turned them into wide-eyed eyes. Some people couldn't believe it, and someone who could make Cheng Guang take the initiative to be called a brother, what kind of identity is this?

Henry stood up from his seat and stroked broadly.

Cheng Guang also quickly lost a smile.

Henry, who was smiling, suddenly lost his smile on his face, and slapped Cheng Guang's face with a slap.

Half of Cheng Guang was slapped on the table by Henry, his face covered with food.

Xiao Bo and others who thought Henry and Cheng Guang had a good relationship were all taken aback by Henry's action. What happened? Cheng Guang?

Just when Xiao Bo and others thought that Cheng Guang would be angry, he found that Cheng Guang still lost a smiley face, "Brother Zhang, where did I offend you? You say yes, I apologize."

Cheng Guang's attitude once again made Xiao Bo and others stare. Just now they thought that Henry's identity was the same as Cheng Guang, but now they found that they still underestimated Henry. This is a person that Cheng Guang dare not offend. !

Henry grabbed Cheng Guang's hair and pressed Cheng Guang's head on the table, expressing blankly: "You spit on the table, then you can eat the whole table, there is no leftover, quick . "

Although Henry's expression was calm and without waves, his words, like the cold wind of the twelfth lunar month, caused Cheng Guang to blow up.

Cheng Guang looked at the table in front of him with eighteen dishes, and his face was bitter, "Brother Zhang, I ..."

What Cheng Guang wanted to say, Henry directly picked up a porcelain plate, shattered it on the table, picked up a piece of debris, and slammed Cheng Guang back with his hands.

The debris sharply cut through Cheng Guang's skin, penetrated Cheng Guang's back of his hand, and stuck on the desktop.

"Ah! Ah!"

Cheng Guang made a painful cry.

Xiao Bo and others looked at Henry's movements and couldn't help but shudder. This is the second son of Cheng's family. He said he would hit it, and he didn't keep his hands at all!

The person sitting at the same table with Henry looked at Henry's movements, and thought of his own mockery, and felt afraid for a while.

"I let you eat, you eat." Henry spoke again, his voice with a strong sense of oppression.

King of the underground world, Lord Satan, his gentleness, will only give the people he loves. In addition, no one can provoke him at will, otherwise, he will not stand on the top of the underground world, making people in awe.

Cheng Guang trembles with pain, and his tears can't stop flowing. Henry's voice makes him tremble with one heart. He is afraid, he is really afraid, not directly facing Henry, can't feel what Henry brings Stock pressure.

Chapter 378 You will not teach, I will teach!

The pain from the palm of his hand spread to Cheng Guang's whole body. He reached out the other hand with difficulty, grabbed the food on the table obediently, and stuffed it into his mouth.

Looking at this scene, Xiao Bo and others were full of shock. Is this the Cheng family dude they knew?

The restlessness on Henry's side attracted the attention of the entire hall at once. The people who were eating, whether it was the guest table or the main table, looked towards this side. When they saw Cheng Guang being pressed on the table by someone, And when piercing the palm with fragments of porcelain plates, I doubted whether I had misread it for the first time.

This is the Cheng family! Ning province deserved the first giant! The second son was treated like this.

Qin Rou looked at this scene. Although surprised, he could understand that although the Cheng family is strong, it is almost comparable to Henry. The title of Henry's former Wall Street god is enough for him to crush the Cheng family.

The servant of the Cheng family rushed over for the first time, and some guests wanted to show their favor to the Cheng family and gave a cry.

"What the hell! Let's release Cheng Cheng quickly!"

In the face of the eyes locked on him and those who drink, Henry turned a blind eye. He pressed Cheng Guang's head hard, and Cheng Guang's face had been deformed on the desktop.

"Hurry up." Henry still said blankly.

Cheng Guangli accelerated his hand movements, and before he swallowed anything in his mouth, he grabbed another dish and stuffed it into his mouth.

"Let me let it all go!"

"Cheng Qing is here."

"The eldest son of the Cheng family, the future heir."

"This matter depends on how Cheng Qing handles it. I dare to insult the Cheng family so much. I have lived for more than fifty years, and this is the first time I have seen it." An entrepreneur stared here and said.

Xiao Bo and others also saw Cheng Qing coming and offered to make way for Cheng Qing. This is the helm of the Cheng family in the future. It can even be said that from now, until they are old, as long as they want to be in the three acres in Ning province If you want to mix the land, you have to pay Cheng Qing.

Xiao Bo and others suspected that this Henry dare to play Cheng Guang, but he didn't dare to deal with Cheng Qing. After all, in terms of identity, Cheng Qing had to be higher than Cheng Guang and didn't know how many grades.

Cheng Qing was originally accompanied by Grandpa Cheng in the other room. When he heard Cheng Guang being beaten, Cheng Qing rushed out for the first time, although he did not have any affection for his younger brother. When he was beaten by someone in his own home, it was the face of Cheng Jia.

Cheng Qing pushed away the crowd angrily, but when he saw Henry who was pressing Cheng Qing, the anger on his face disappeared in an instant. Cheng Qing was the first person to have seen Henry's energy.

Henry casually took out a gift and made him Cheng Qing's successor.

"Brother Henry ..." Cheng Qing called out to Henry, and then stood there at this table without any words or any movement.

Henry glanced at Cheng Qing without a word, and turned his gaze back to Cheng Guang, "Quickly eat."

Cheng Qing's attitude towards Henry, and Henry's attitude towards Cheng Qing, let the people present see clearly.

The future heir of the Cheng family was polite to this young man, but instead the young man loved and ignored the heir of the Cheng family. Moreover, the heir of the Cheng family now dared not do anything, and could only watch his brother be humiliated.

What is this young man's identity!

Such doubts filled everyone's minds.

Xiao Bo and others swallowed saliva fiercely.

The entire Chengjia hall became strangely silent at this moment, and no one spoke. Everyone looked at Henry. Among the halls, only Cheng Guang kept swallowing food.

"My Sun Chengguang, who offended the big one?" An old voice broke the silence of the hall.

The people around them also made a murky discussion sound because of this voice.

"Grandpa, it's Grandpa."

"Give way to Master Cheng."

"Look at Master Cheng how to deal with it. It is estimated which young master, Cheng Qing does not dare to provoke casually, but the face of the master, he has to sell everything."

"Yes, no matter who it is, in Ning province, you have to give the old man a face."

Hearing Master Cheng's voice, Xiao Bo and others felt a burst of rapture in their hearts. They were still mocking Henry before, saying various arrogant and unpleasant words.

But it turned out that Henry's overbearing status, Henry's identity that made Cheng Guang and Cheng Qing dared not offend, so that what they just did became a joke. This feeling made them extremely uncomfortable. I really want to see Henry deflated, especially Xiao Bo. He has lost such a big face in front of the woman he likes. If the surname Zhang can also lose people, this is nothing.

Xiao Bo, they don't think that Henry really can even give Mr. Cheng's face.

The crowd dispersed again, and Master Cheng walked over on crutches.

Henry looked up at the same time and looked towards Master Cheng.

Henry was expressionless. His eyes were cold. Just a glance at him gave Master Cheng a feeling of falling into an ice cellar.

"It's you?" Master Cheng never thought that the person who offended Cheng Guang was Henry.

The last time Ning Changhe fell down, eight people came from the top of China. This matter, Master Cheng was very clear.

When Henry took out the golden melon tribute tea, Mr. Cheng was guessing, which son of the Lin family is most likely a red child. Ning Changhe fell into the horse, and Mr. Cheng knew very clearly that in the future, this province will not be no longer It's the Cheng family that counts, it's the Lin family who decides!

Henry's background is that Mr. Cheng didn't dare to offend.

Henry looked at Master Cheng and said coldly, "Do you know how to educate your juniors?"

Henry spoke in a tone of questioning.

"Brother Zhang, if Cheng Guang offends you, I will apologize to you on his behalf." Mr. Cheng said sincerely. This kind of attitude made everyone in the hall feel unbelievable.

Grandpa Cheng, even took the initiative to befriend this young man, and apologized to him?

"What I asked is, do you know how to educate the juniors?" Henry said again.

Grandpa Cheng is the most powerful person in Ning province in the eyes of others, but in the eyes of Henry, he has seen too many powerful people. Grandpa Cheng puts them in front of those people, fart is not counted And those who are powerful and powerful, respect Henrydu respectfully, and wish to be his servant.

Mr. Cheng was questioned by Henry in the face of so many people, and his face couldn't be hung, but he didn't dare to say much, so he had to answer honestly, "I'm teaching nothing."

"If you don't know how to teach, I'll help you teach." Henry grabbed Cheng Guang's hair and picked him up. "The dishes on the table, you Cheng's family come over and eat it, there is no leftover, there is Whoever vomits this thick sputum on my plate, who licks me clean! "

Chapter 379

Henry's words let the people present fully understand his domineering.

Facing the Cheng family, facing the old man Cheng, still doing his own thing!

Master Cheng looked at the food that had been scattered around the table, and was silent for more than ten seconds, then sighed, "eat it."

The word "eat it" made everyone's eyes wide open, which was tantamount to compromise and tossing the majesty of the Cheng family for decades without being shaken.

After saying the word "eat it", Mr. Cheng seemed to have lost all his strength, and the whole person seemed depressed.

Cheng Qing, who was closest to the table, glanced at Old Man Cheng and then Guang Cheng. He took the food on the table and stuffed it into his mouth.

Cheng Qingdu took the lead to eat, and the Cheng family who came behind came to the table and ate.

"You two have to eat too." Master Cheng glanced at his two disciples and waved his hand.

Du Hua, the leader of the business community in Ning province, and Xiao Sheng, the leader of the political circles, came over and grabbed the food on the table.

Such an eating action represents too many things.

Mr. Cheng sighed, and also went to the table, grabbed a handful of food, and stuffed it into his mouth.

Since then, there is no Luohe Chengzhuang in Yinzhou.

The Cheng family will also slowly withdraw from the stage, and everything will be slowly replaced by Lin.

Xiao Bo and others do not know how to describe their moods at this moment. If they now tell others that they have just ridiculed this Henry, others will definitely not believe it. It is really too bold to think about their previous behavior.

Henry looked at this scene. The existence of the Cheng family, for the Lin family, will be stepped on sooner or later. Henry also took this opportunity to directly help Sylvia solve the trouble.

After all, there are still sentiments between the Lin family and the Cheng family, but Henry did not have so many scruples. Instead of letting Lin invite Han to tear his face with Cheng family, he did it first.

The best way to make someone surrender is to fear him.

Henry has now feared the Cheng family, Du Hua and Xiao Sheng.

Henry reached out his hand and beat on the table three times, "Remember, don't spit saliva when others eat, Qin Rou, let's go."

"Oh ... OK." Qin Rou responded dumbly.

Not only Qin Rou, but the whole hall looked at the scene of Cheng Jia eating around the table.

Everyone understands people and knows what the Cheng family is doing. What they represent is that they just do n't know the specific identity of Henry and who will replace the Cheng family.

Henry and Qin Rou left the Chengjia hall.

A family member of the Cheng family took a long breath and spit out the stuff that had just been stuffed in her mouth before she was ready to speak.

"Eat! Eat all these things!"

After Master Cheng finished, he grabbed a handful of vegetables and stuffed it into his mouth.

The female Cheng family shrank her neck, embarrassedly stuffed the freshly spit food into her mouth, and swallowed hard.

Master Cheng's approach once again let everyone in the hall appreciate Henry's horror. They worked hard to remember Henry's appearance. Seeing later, they can only make good friends and never provoke them!

Leaving the hall, Qin Rouxiang regained a glimpse of the individual and looked at Henry up and down.

"You look a little weird." Henry spit out.

"You really love your wife, for her, today is such a small thing, you are so big?" Qin Rou's face appeared vinegar.

"You all see it?" Henry looked at Qin Rou unexpectedly.

Qin Rou rolled his eyes, "You think I'm a fool, you just want to see Cheng's attitude today, let Cheng's admit it, so that your wife will be smooth sailing in the future, otherwise such a small thing, you As for having such a big temper, I still see blood. "

Henry nodded and shook his head again, "It's for my wife, but this is not a trivial matter. For me, the act of wasting food is a waste of life."

Hearing Henry's words, Qin Rou suddenly thought of what the director Cui of the Welfare Institute had told himself. Henry used to be dependent on his mother before, picking up garbage, eating garbage, and food for him.

At that time, the child who was helpless and helpless had grown to such a state, and the sadness in it was not easily imaginable.

Qin Rou looked at Henry's eyes unconsciously, and showed some more compassion, even if he is now a man who can overwhelm the Cheng family with his momentum, but it does not mean that he is indestructible. Often this kind of person, the heart is The weakest.

"Qin Rou, I found your eyes more and more strange!" Henry looked at Qin Rou with a terrified expression.

"I'm thinking about the domineering look you just had." Qin Rou squinted and strongly embraced Henry's shoulder. "That look really made me love you!"

"Don't love me." Henry quickly pulled his arm out of Qin Rou's soft arms. "You know, I have a wife."

"Then what is it, in ancient China, we have men who are capable, they are all three wives and four concubines!" Qin Rou has long been immune to Henry's wife's excuse, "I'm staring at you anyway, one day you were injured by Sylvia After that, I will wait for you with open arms and give Lin Hanhan a chance to enter. Let her cry when the time comes! "

Henryqian laughed and did not answer.

Qin Rou drove Henry back to Yinzhou, it was already two o'clock in the afternoon.

"Henry, you said gambling on stones, whether I can do it or not, this is an official official approval, although there are risks, but it is indeed an opportunity." Qin Rou is still a little emotional about the gambling stone project. Putting it in Yinzhou is an absolute monopoly industry.

Henry thought for a while and replied: "In fact, it is not impossible, but the premise is that you have to find a good source of supply, and there are risks. These transportation channels are all costs. Like now, you have to build a transportation channel. No one signed with you at all. If you do n't get a fire in us, your money will have to go in full. I have n't studied the market research in this area, so it 's not good for you to conclude.

"I did some market research." Qin Rou stopped the car at a traffic light and turned to take a document from the back seat. "In our case, there should still be a market for gambling stones."

Henry glanced at the document that Qin Rou took out and nodded. "This report is also detailed and okay. Since you want to do it, then I will introduce you to a dealer. You go to the field to inspect it. If you can purchase, what price, he will give you the lowest price in the market. "

"Haha, I know you're the best." Qin Rou laughed, stretched his hands around Henry's neck, and kissed hard on Henry's face.

Before Henry responded, Qin Rou had regained the steering wheel and started the car.

Henry touched his face, there was a sense of humiliation to be molested.

Chapter 380

Henry asked Qin Rou to get off at any place. He was afraid that the female gangster would have any wrongdoing attempts on himself.

Qin Rou looked at Henry, who was just domineering in the Cheng family, and now looks like a young wife, and laughed.

After being separated from Qin Rou, Henry called Baichi.

"Boss, I'm about to call you, your phone will come." Bai Chi's voice rang.

"What's wrong?" Henry asked.

"Boss, let's talk about your business first. I'm going to say something more complicated."

"You look for Yunshan Shiwang's phone number, and I have something to do with him." Henry said Yunyun Shiwang is the one who is the biggest player in the stone industry in Yunnan Province. Wang's phone, which was stored in the mobile phone, was not at all reliable, and it had to be kept in mind. At that time, Shiwang Yunyun gave Henry his phone, and Henry didn't look at it.

"Boss, what do you want him to call? If you go to gamble again, the old boy probably cried!" Bai Chi said, he still remembers the scene when Henry went to Yunsheng to gamble stone that year, sweeping the quarries, and the stone king opened. After a billion handicap, Henry won it cleanly, and swears that as long as Henry goes to bet on stones, there will be absolutely no him.

Henry listened to Bai Chi's words and thought of himself before. At that time, he was full of enthusiasm. In a few days, all the biggest gambling yards in Yun province were closed. He smiled and said: "Introduce a business partner to him Just call it. "

"Oh, well, I will send it to you, boss, you are fine, I have something to tell you."

As soon as Baichi's voice fell, Henry heard a prompt sound from his mobile phone. It was a message from Baichi, above which was Shiwang's phone.

"You say it."

"Boss, I wish the old man told you when Yanjing met you before?" Bai Chi asked first.

"Say a little." Henry heard Bai Chi mention this, his face dignified a little, "What's wrong?"

"Recently I got news that some people want to destroy Zhu's family. It is said that Zhu's family knows some great secrets. Some people want to destroy their mouths. Zhu Zhu sent us a rescue request. Do you want to ..." Bai Chi said at this time, No more.

"Book a ticket, I'm going to Zhujia." Henry didn't think about it, so he said.

What Zhu Yuanjiu said to him that day had always been on his mind. He had planned to go to Zhu's house after the misunderstanding with Sylvia was resolved.

"it is good."

"Oh, whereabouts are kept secret." Henry reminded.

"understand."

Hanging up the phone, Henry sent the call of King Shi to Qin Rou. Qin Rou returned with a kissed expression, making Henry cry and laugh.

Within a few minutes, Bai Chi sent a message to Henry again, a ticket for Henryding, a flight at seven in the evening.

Henry hit a car, came to the Lin's Building, went directly to the top floor, and went to Sylvia's office.

The name Henry hangs in the business department has long since existed.

In the office of Sylvia, a young and beautiful woman is sitting on the sofa opposite Sylvia's desk, "Miss Lin, you are the future head of the house. I may tell you these things that you may not understand yet, but you have to take charge. The Su family, these things are always faced. Our Su family, in the ancient Wu family, also occupies a certain position. "

Sylvia did not work. She listened quietly to the other party. The other party had just told her something about the Su family. What ancient martial arts and all major families were beyond Sylvia's cognition.

"Miss Lin, I told you this, and I hope you keep it secret. You are already married, but this kind of thing, even the one you love the most, you can't tell him easily that Gu Wu was hidden by the official, Except for a few people, the rest are not in contact at all. You do n't tell your lover that you are hiding something from him, but that you are protecting him. Do you understand? "The young woman emphasized again and again.

Sylvia nodded and tried to digest what the other party said.

"Your husband is a business friend with the family owner. Their business dealings will not involve Gu Wu. I tell you this. It is a vaccination in advance. If you really want to understand the Su family, you still have to Go to Yanjing with me, go to Su's house, the owner told me, I came here not only to take you back, but also to take Aunt Su Siyue together, take Auntie, and go home! "

"Go home ..." Sylvia murmured the words, and his heart was beating wildly. The mother's greatest wish before she died was to return to the Su family.

The word home, how far away was Sylvia before, how much she hoped to wait until this day, and now, when these two words are in front of her, Sylvia is a little scared.

"Yes, go home, only you and Aunt Su will go back. This time, I will give you contact with Gu Wu. Your husband is not suitable to be together. I hope you can understand this."

At that time, Henry did not want Lin Yuhan to know his relationship with the Su family, as well as the previous contradictions, so he lied to Lin Yuhan that he had business dealings with Su Yu before.

This time Su Yu sent someone to Yinzhou to pick Lin and ask Han to go home, and he didn't say much. He only said that he and Henry were business friends. Now at the Su family, no one knows Henry's true identity except Su Yu himself Those who knew Henry's identity were long gone.

Lin invited Han to take a deep breath and nodded. "When will I go back with you?"

"Nowadays."

Just after the young woman finished speaking, Henry pushed the door and came in.

Seeing Henry, the young woman immediately closed her mouth, afraid that Henry would hear something that should not be heard.

Henry glanced at the young woman sitting in the office, and asked Chong Sylvia: "Wife, there are friends, then I will tell you later."

"No." Sylvia waved his hand. "This is Su Mi."

"The Su family?" Henry set his eyes on the woman.

Su Mi got up, walked in front of Henry, reached out to Henry, "Hello, Mr. Zhang."

"Hello." Henry shook his hand politely.

Sylvia said to Henry: "Her husband, Su Mi came this time to pick me and my mother home and set off today."

Henry nodded, "How long will he go back."

"I don't know." Sylvia shook his head. Su Mi said that about the ancient martial arts, she was full of doubts now. When she went back this time, she didn't know how long to stay, maybe a few days, maybe For half a month.

"Pay attention to safety on the road." Henry didn't say much and didn't ask too much. Since Sylvia didn't take the initiative to let him keep up, it was her idea, which Henry could understand. After all, Sylvia returned to Su's house and there were many Things to do at home.

381 Duhai Zhujia

Sylvia listened to Henry's words and smiled, Henry was the one who knew her so well.

"At what time do you want me to help you pack your luggage?" Henry asked.

"No." Sylvia shook his head. "You accompany me to get Mom out."

"it is good."

When Sylvia and Henry came out of the cemetery, it was almost four o'clock.

Sylvia holding his mother's ashes box in his hand, looked at the mausoleum behind him, and murmured: "Mom, I can finally take you home."

"Wife, it's a good thing to go home, be happy." Henry patted Sylvia on the shoulder.

Sylvia smiled a little, "Her husband, then I will go first."

At the entrance of the cemetery, listening to an Audi A8, responsible for Sylvia's pick-up.

"Take care of yourself." Henry took Sylvia in his arms.

In the embrace of Henry, Sylvia didn't resist anything, with a sweet face, and whispered in Henry's ear: "Remember to miss me."

"Thinking all the time."

"Poor you." Sylvia pretty blushed, "Then I'm gone, you too, take care of yourself."

The driver helped Sylvia open the car door, Sylvia sat in the back row and waved at Henry.

Audi A8 left with a burst of roar, Henry sighed, drove Sylvia's Mercedes-Benz GT, and went to the city.

Coming to an ordinary residential area, Henry took the key out of his pocket and opened a door.

The room was very tidy and there was no dust. The only thing missing was anger.

The two pots of forget-me-not on the balcony have sprouted, and buds have grown, and when they fall into autumn, they can fully bloom.

In Henry's mind, the figure of the female tyrannosaurus emerged, and with her character, she would definitely work hard for training.

Henry picked up the shower and sprayed water droplets on the forget-me-not flower bone. He sat quietly in this house and waited until the time to go to the airport and board the plane.

The underground king has been silent for too long, and even some people doubt whether he is still alive.

The moment Henry embarked on the plane and went to Zhu's house, his name was destined to be heard again in the ears of others.

Zhujia, in Duhai, although they do n't have much reputation, they ca n't even compare with some large enterprise groups, but their power is not small at all.

The top tycoons in Duhai are all aware of the existence of such a family as the Zhu family. Even behind many tycoons, there is the support of the Zhu family. The Zhu family did not go to the front desk like the Su family.

When Henry arrived in Duhai, it was too late and he found a place where he was ready to go to the door the next morning.

One night passed away quietly, and the next morning, Henry walked out of the hotel. Unlike Yinzhou, where the sun was shrouded in the morning, the early morning of Duhai was so gray that people felt depressed.

Like the Su family, the Zhu family did not live in the urban area. The entire Zhu family lived in a large manor on the outskirts of the city. This manor occupies an extremely large area and has its own Yanwu field, farmland, and even animal husbandry areas. If you want to have such a large manor in the suburbs of Duhai, it is not only necessary to have money, but an official special approval is required.

Although the Zhu family is not well-known in Duhai, its status is quite impressive.

Almost every day, in front of Zhu's house, there were a lot of people visiting.

Ordinary people do not know the name of Zhu Jiazhu's grandfather, but those high-ranking officials, business crocodiles, are very stern about Zhu Yuanjiu's name.

Everyone knows that the owner of Zhujiazhuang can speak at the most central leadership in Huaxia. Such an identity can be said that if you stomp your foot, Duhai will be shocked.

After all, speaking at the central level of Huaxia, and being able to contact the central level, are two completely different concepts, that is, it has real power!

Ordinary people do n't know what to expect from the family. When they hear the surname, they do n't feel anything, but those who are all sea-red children, those who have three generations and two rich generations, and those who hear the surname wish, ca n't help but look tight. Home, if they are, they must be treated with care.

There are many people standing in front of the gate of Zhujiazhuang. These people, if ordinary citizens stand here, they will be surprised. These are people who usually appear on TV news. They are usually rare to see at this moment. Looking around, there are so many.

Although there were many people in front of the Zhu family, there were not many vehicles parked. Everyone parked the car elsewhere and walked over. This shows how high the prestige of Zhu family is.

Henry came to Zhu's house once, and based on the route he remembered, hit a car and showed the driver the way.

The taxi driver stared at both sides of the road when he was one kilometer away from Zhujia Manor.

"My mother, what are you doing, all are luxury cars, more luxurious than the auto show, and they are all licensed, look at that, it is the official license, and there are five, eight."

The driver looked at the cars on both sides of the road, and the hands holding the steering wheel were shaking. If you accidentally touched one, it would be unclear in this life.

These luxury cars lined up in a row, more than 30 meters in length, and further forward, the road was empty on both sides, there was no car.

When the taxi drove here, it was stopped.

This is a middle-aged man in a police uniform. After stopping the taxi, he knocked on the car glass.

"Hello, police officer." The taxi driver shook the glass down and smiled.

The middle-aged policeman looked impatiently at the taxi driver, "Who told you to drive here? Back!"

The taxi driver's face was bitter and he kept saying, "Police officer, there is no prohibition sign. I'll drive over, and then I will go back. This will go back."

The taxi driver didn't say anything, so he put on the reverse gear.

"Master, I'll get off the handlebar first, and scan the QR code for you." Henry opened the door, walked down, and glanced.

Zhujia Manor has an active and wide area, and the courtyard wall alone is tens of meters long.

The vermilion door itself represents a kind of status.

Henry raised his leg and walked to the door of Zhu's house. After only two steps, he was stopped by the middle-aged policeman who had just stopped the taxi.

"Stop, what are you doing?"

The middle-aged police looked at Henry with a vigilant look.

"Come on the door, what's wrong." Henry pouted in the direction of Zhujia's door.

"Crossing the door?" The middle-aged policeman looked at Henry's empty hands, and felt a little funny. Who would wish to wish the family home? what is the place?

"Go and register first." The middle-aged policeman reached out and pointed aside.

Henry glanced at it, there was a registration desk, and many people with hand gifts were standing there to register.

"Are you a family member of Zhu?" Henry asked curiously. He can't remember coming to Zhujia and this part.

"Mr. Ping arranged, let you register you go!" The middle-aged policeman said a little displeased.

Chapter 382

Mr. Ping?

Henry frowned as he listened to the middle-aged policeman. He had never heard of this man.

"I'm sorry, I come to Zhujia, never register." Henry bypassed the middle-aged policeman and walked towards the door of Zhujia.

"Stop!" The middle-aged policeman stepped in front of Henry. "You said you wouldn't register if you didn't register? Who do you think you are?"

"I'm here, why should I register?" Henry wondered.

"I really will put gold on my face!" The middle-aged policeman looked at Henry with disdain, "Still coming home? I also heard for the first time, I have come to wish my family come together!"

The middle-aged policeman said this to be true. I wish the family's detached status in Duhai, even if Duhai came first, they all said that they wouldn't dare to use the word "crossing the door."

People who come to the door and talk about their peers are the leaders of the sea, and those who have the same real power do not dare to talk to Zhu's peers.

Henry was a little impatient, "What do I say, it is my own business, what does it have to do with you."

After Henry finished speaking, he bypassed the middle-aged police again and walked to Zhujia Manor.

"Stop!" The middle-aged policeman grabbed Henry's arm.

Henry threw it away, and Henry was polite to those who enforced the law impartially, but he had no good face for such unreasonable people who used public rights for private purposes.

"I let you stop!" The middle-aged policeman screamed. This scream was like a huge stone thrown into the calm lake, and a huge wave was set off.

Those who waited in line quietly in front of the door of Zhujia Manor all looked towards this side.

"What's going on, what's the noise?" Said a middle-aged man with gold glasses, looking displeased.

The middle-aged policeman hurriedly bowed his head, "Mr. Ping, this man came to wish the family to come home and not cooperate with the registration."

"Come on the door?" Mr. Ping heard these words, a smile on his lips, "Interesting, come to the house to come to the door, dare to ask this little brother, are you a family member?"

"No, what's wrong?" Henry was already slightly angry.

Mr. Ping nodded and asked again: "Do you have any relatives with Zhu Jia?"

"No, does this have anything to do with you?" Henry suppressed the anger in his heart, and his temper now has already calmed down a lot. He has to put it in his face in the underground world.

Seeing Henry deny both of these questions, Mr. Ping sneered, and suddenly shouted: "Since it is not a wish for the family, it does not matter if it is for the family, then register!"

Mr. Ping's words were powerful and the tone of speech was as if he was commanding.

"Are you a family member? Or is it related to the family?" Henry asked back.

"No, but if I let you register, you have to register!" Mr. Ping pulled out a business card from his pocket and proudly took it to Henry.

Henry glanced at the identity of the other party's business card.

Henry said with a smile: "Who is going to wish the family to come together, should not be under the official jurisdiction?"

"If you let you register, you register, where there is so much nonsense, leave without registering!" Mr. Ping waved impatiently.

This registration was made by Mr. Ping himself.

Duhai is an international metropolis, called Crouching Tiger, Hidden Dragon. A piece of registration information allows Mr. Ping to collect a lot of useful things. He borrowed his position to make such an appearance.

The registration of Mr. Ping is not a day or two. I wish my family knows this and has always maintained an acquiescence. After all, someone is willing to be a doorman, which is not a bad thing for Zhu 's family. .

Over time, an attitude appeared in Mr. Ping 's heart. Anyone who wishes to come home must register. If you do not register, you will not be eligible to enter the family. Even to some extent, Mr. Ping regards himself as the door Butler.

When he was the doorkeeper of Zhujia, Mr. Ping didn't feel ashamed at all, but he still had a sense of pride. The doorkeeper of Zhujia was not just anyone who wanted to be.

Looking at the proud look of Mr. Ping, Henry shook his head and said, "It's not a coincidence that I am a person who has never had the habit of registering."

After Henry finished speaking, he strode toward the door of Zhu's house.

"Stop him!" Mr. Ping changed his face and shouted at the middle-aged policeman.

The middle-aged policeman stepped forward and grabbed Henry's shoulders. As a result, Henry pushed it and fell to the ground. Henry's push contained many things, even if it was a Sanda master, he had to fall. .

The conversations of Mr. Henryheping, including what Henry did, were seen in the eyes of those waiting in front of the Zhujiashuang gate, and almost everyone was wondering, where did this come from? Mr. Heping was right. The old saying is good. Even Jianglong can't overwhelm the head snake, not to mention Mr. Ping's local dragon. Who dares to mess with it?

In particular, Henry had just entered the two words, and everyone heard them in his ears. They didn't know how to count the four words, and they naturally settled on Henry's head.

Come to wish the family come together? Understand what rules are! Visiting and visiting are two concepts!

The middle-aged policeman was pushed to the ground by Henry, and his face was very unsightly. He got up and shouted, "Dare you attack the police!"

"Oh!" Henry took a step and turned his head. "The duty of the police is to maintain national security, protect the personal safety of citizens, personal freedom, and legal rights. What you just did is not the duty of a policeman. How can I do this? What about calling the police? "

"Boy, your mouth is stiff!" Mr. Ping drank. Of course he knew that his behavior was an abuse of power, but who dare to say himself, who dare to fight against himself.

Those who waited in front of Zhujiashuang shook their heads. The young man said that it was nice, that the newborn calf was not afraid of tigers, and that it was unpleasant, that it was a fool. Without the tempering and whipping of society, he dare to say this Come.

Henry glanced at Mr. Ping and ignored it. He had reached the door of Zhu's door, reached out his hand, and smashed it against the vermilion door. He did it for Li Wei.

The vermilion door made a muffled noise.

Henry's action of smashing the door scared everyone, and even Mr. Ping was startled.

Smashing the door of Zhu's house? How dare he smash the door of the house? Even Duhai took the lead and dared to buckle the door lightly. How dare he hit his fist?

Those who stood in front of Zhu's house backed subconsciously for more than ten meters, afraid they would wait for their family to come out and connect themselves with this kid.

The vermilion door creaked, and the door opened, and a young man looked out of his head with unhappy face, and asked, "Who smashed the door!"

Those outside the door all focused on Henry.

The young man inside the door looked up and down at Henry and asked with a bad face: "Is the door you smashed?"

Chapter 383

Someone once said that it would be better to work in the official unit as a bottom-level employee with a monthly salary of 3,000. They are more comfortable than earning 8,000 yuan a month. Many people hear this at first glance, but they do not understand it, but the fact is in this way.

The siblings of Zhu's family are just staying at the door of Zhu's family, so that they can make countless big people smile and please. These characters, if they are put in other places, he may not be in contact.

This is the case with this door-opening Zhu's family. He has been guarding the Zhu's door for more than a year. Over the past year, people have come to visit almost every day. Everyone comes here with constant gifts and a humble attitude. Even some people even added his contact information to give him some benefits, just for him to let those people enter the door of the family's home. For more than a year, he has long been used to being so crowded and pleased.

Today, Henry's action of smashing the door was something he had never experienced in more than a year.

"It was me who smashed it." Henry nodded. He glanced at the thick door of Zhujia's house.

I used to come to Zhujia and Zhu Yuanjiu to greet them one kilometer away.

Zhu Family Youth has looked at Henry again. Over the past year, he has developed a pair of "fire-eyed gold eyes". At a glance, he can see whether people are rich or not.

Obviously, the clothes that Henry wore were not wealthy, and Henry's empty hands made the young wishing family uncomfortable.

Zhu Jiaqing glanced at his mouth, "You are something, and dare to knock on the door of our Zhujia, go!"

After the young man finished speaking, he closed the door.

When the door closed, it brought up a dust and raised Henry's face.

A young man standing outside couldn't hold back and laughed out loud, "Boy, that's what you said to wish the family come together? In the end, even the door can't enter!"

Mr. Ping sneered, "Dare to smash the door of Zhu's house, and thought that you are a character, at the end, hum."

Although Mr. Ping's remarks were not clear, the meaning was already obvious.

Henry frowned, and wished his family's attitude, which really dissatisfied him. When did Zhu's junior become so proud?

Henry took out his mobile phone and dialed a number to go out, "Hey, I was stopped at your door, and someone came to pick me up."

Henry finished the call and stood waiting at the door of Zhu's house, but beside him, there was a burst of laughter, "What's wrong? Feel embarrassed, make a phone call to hide embarrassment?"

"Let the family members come to pick you up, what do you think you are?"

"Hahaha, who did you call?"

A burst of sarcasm sounded, these people, all standing in front of the door of Zhu's house, could not enter the gate. At this moment, Henry's appearance became the object of their transfer, and secondly, they became the target of their sense of existence. I can't go to the door of the house, but it's not as shameful as this one.

Henry ignored the laughter of these people and stood quietly in front of Zhu's house.

A minute later, the door of Zhu's house opened.

"Wish the old man!"

"It turned out to be a wish to the old man!"

"Look, Grandpa, are you going out?"

When everyone saw Grandpa Zhu, there was a little excitement on his face, and he didn't associate it with Henry at all.

Mr. Ping shouted to Henry, "That boy, get away, don't stop the way to wish the old man!"

After Mr. Ping dropped, he immediately gave Zhu a good smile.

"I wish old man, you family members, it is time to manage!" Henry stood in front of the door of Zhu family, said with a disgruntled look.

Zhu Yuanjiu heard Henry's words, and his complexion changed immediately. He thought that it was his own junior who caused Henry. He twisted his head and shouted to the young man in the door, "Apologize!"

"It's not necessary to apologize. It's useless to wish you to keep this kind of person at home. Just let it go." Henry said lightly.

"Homeowner, I ..." The young man in the door was about to speak, and Zhu Yuanjiu slapped his face in the face.

Zhu Yuanjiu said displeasedly, "Go!"

I wish the family is very big, powerful, and have connections. For the reason, I wish the old man better understand Henry's terrible, the island owner of the bright island.

Although Zhu Yuanjiu doesn't know how this younger generation caused Henry, but as long as he provokes, Henry let go, then go.

Zhu Yuanjiu has lived for decades, and he is very mature. He seems to be old, but he is sober than anyone else. Although his family is big, he is not on the same level as Guangming Island. He sent a rescue request to Guangming Island. Today, Henry came to give him a big face, and it was for the sake of that person. Otherwise, he did not have such a great ability. Please move this Satan Master!

Zhu Yuanjiu's attitude towards Henry made all the people standing outside the door have their eyes widened.

This young man, and I wish the old man know? More importantly, the young man let the wishing family get away, wishing the grandfather just listen? Who is he?

Mr. Ping, who was still proud, immediately shrank into the crowd. He just yelled at such a person just now?

I wish the young man of the family never imagined that the person he had just reprimanded knew the owner and asked the owner to welcome him personally!

As a family member, he knows how big the identity of the head of the family is. Even if the leader of the city comes as a junior, he will be greeted by the head of the family himself.

Henry looked at Zhu Yuanjiu's approach and nodded. For this young man, Henry didn't care too much. After all, the identity gap was too big.

Zhu Yuanjiu saw that his junior was still standing here, and once again slapped to the other party's face, "Let you go, didn't you hear?"

The young man shivered and knelt to the ground when his legs were soft. "Homeowner, I was wrong. Forgive me this time."

Facing this young man's begging for mercy, Zhu Yuanjiu didn't even look at it, turned to look inside the manor, LANXESS smiled and said: "Go to people, take out my best wine!"

The words of Zhu Yuanjiu, no matter whether it is the young man of Zhu's family, Mr. Ping and others outside the door, are shocked again.

Everyone knows that Zhujia is a very traditional family. The best wine is the highest etiquette. Only the most important guests will do this!

The young man of the Zhu family slowly stood up from the ground, looked out of the gate, and found that the outsiders were looking at themselves with a sarcasm.

These people outside the door have actually been fed up with the young man, Zhu Family, but they haven't dared to vent. Today, when they see this person deflated, they are also extraordinarily happy and have a sense of unspeakable coolness.

Henry followed Zhu Yuanjiu and entered the Zhu family.

"Old man Zhu, you have left this rockery for many years, and it should be repaired, otherwise I don't know which day it will collapse." Henry glanced at Zhujia Manor and made a decisive comment.

The Zhu family and the Su family are both ancient Wu families, but the size of the Zhu family is much larger than that of the Su family.

In the manor, there is a small rockery lake, the lake is covered with lotus flowers, and there is a pavilion in the heart of the lake.

Throughout the manor, many houses were built, including bungalows and buildings.

The manor is actually similar to a small residential area, but this residential area belongs to the surname Zhu.

Inside the manor, there are shops, there are vegetable baskets, everything that should be outside.

The so-called defensiveness is not stubborn. There are conditions for using electric lamps. Who wants to use kerosene lamps again?

The whole manor is roughly divided into three areas.

The largest piece is the residential area. Henry saw that the tallest building has a total of eight floors. There are people living in it, and each house is clearly divided. Some small second floors are small villas. Ah, it is for those who have a higher status as Zhu Family. Only those who have made significant contributions to Zhu Family can live here.

In addition to residential areas, there is also a livestock area where some people are planted and some are bred.

The third area is the Yanwu District. A huge square Yanwu platform is about half the size of a football field. It is filled with wooden pegs. Around the Yanwutai, swords and other weapons are placed.

In the Zhujia Manor, there are a lot of people, men and women, old and young, not counting them at home. There are more than 100 people who are active in the mansion. Seniors, practicing under the guidance of an older generation wishing the family.

Henry nodded and said with a smile: "I wish old man, you are counted as children and grandchildren, and live a nourishing life."

Zhu Yuanjiu gave birth to a lonely face, "The children and grandchildren are good, but none of them have any good fortune. If one of my children and grandchildren can catch up to one-tenth of your achievements, even if I die, I can laugh at Jiuquan Now. "

Henry smiled and did not speak. He was not humble, because his achievements were indeed beyond the reach of others.

Henry followed Zhu Yuanjiu two steps and asked, "Old man Zhu, do you know who is going to wish you home?"

When Zhu Xuanjiu heard Henry mention this topic, he looked a little serious and shook his head. "I just heard the news, I'm afraid it's related to that matter."

Henry guessed: "Is that the thing you told me last time?"

"Exactly." Zhu Yuanjiu nodded. "I'll show you something else first."

Zhu Yuanjiu took Henry to a study room. The study room was totally independent. There were no other houses before and after. The layout of the whole study room was the same as the library's collection area. Several shelves were filled with books.

Henry glanced at the books on the bookshelf, not the famous books, but some explanations and the history of the Su family.

Zhu Yuanjiu walked to a shelf at the corner of the study, and the shelves were all grayed out.

Zhu Yuanjiu picked up a yellowed paper book, and the entire book was stitched with needles and threads.

Zhu Yuanjiu dusted the dust from the book and handed it to Henry, "Look at it, this is something my grandfather had recorded."

Henry took the book with a strange expression, Zhu Yuanjiu's grandfather? This must be traced back to the middle of the Qing Dynasty.

Henry turned a page casually. The Qing Dynasty's own text was Manchu, but it was not used extensively. The text at that time was mostly Chinese, but some writing methods were different, and the format was from top to bottom, from right to left, and stored So far, some handwriting has been vague, but Henry can still understand it.

"Today, Chen Cheng punched me in my heart, breathing into my heart, unable to expel it for a long time, wandering in my heart, within seven days, not to use force."

Henry turned the page again.

"The Central Plains swordsman is good enough to challenge the masters of all major factions, without any defeat. It is really the first master of martial arts. The qi has reached the peak. I broke through the original state today. I thought I could compete with Yu Chuo. Big idea. "

Henry turned a few more pages, all of which were recorded in the form of a first-person diary. In these records, Henry caught a keyword, angry!

Zhu Yuanjiu's uncle, on almost every page, mentions qi, and the strength of qi represents a person's strength.

Zhu Yuanjiu looked at Henry's complexion and said, "Do you know about Qi?"

Henry returned the book to Zhu Yuanjiu and pondered for a few seconds. "I should have seen it. Someone mentioned it to me at the time, but he was not talking about qi, but another way of speaking."

Zhu Yuanjiu laughed self-deprecatingly, "I said, it's just our collective name for Huaxia, and other places have their own names. I wish my family to be self-proclaimed as the ancient Wu family. My grandpa's record completely refreshed my knowledge. At that time, Qi was something that anyone who had martial arts would have. "

"When did you see this record?" Henry wondered.

"Ashamed." Zhu Yuanjiu shook his head. "This record has always been stored in this study. I also saw it some time ago, and what I want to show you is also recorded in this record. of."

"Take me to see what you said." Henry frowned.

At the beginning of going to the European King's Association, Henry and President Wang said it was a battle. In fact, more talked about something. Between President Wang and Henry, there was only one trick, that is, that trick. Henry suffered a wrist injury and has not recovered.

For a long time, Henry has felt that there is something that exists in his wrist, and he doesn't know what it is.

Now, Henry already has a guess in his mind, that is, Qi!

According to Grandpa Zhu Yuanjiu's records in the book, Qi entered the body and could not be discharged for a long time, unable to use force.

Although Henry hasn't said it to anyone, but his wrist is indeed a little weaker than before.

In fact, Henry, there is no way to completely eliminate this strange feeling in the hand bowl. Although it takes a longer time, he can still do it with his medical skills, but Henry has never done it because he is very Want to figure out what this is! What comes from!

The more powerful one is, the more he can realize the greatness of this world.

Henry and Zhu Yuanjiu walked out of the study and got on a special car. What Zhu Yuanjiu wanted to show Henry was not at Zhu's house.

The car drove out of Zhujia Manor and went further away from the city.

Chapter 385 Don't Forget Your Identity

The vehicle drove to the suburbs, a cemetery.

Except for the driver, there are only Zhu Yuanjiu and Henry.

Zhu Yuanjiu asked the driver to wait outside the cemetery, and he and Henry entered the cemetery.

"I wish you old man, is this the ancestral tomb of your family?" Henry swept around, and all the names on the tombstone were named Zhu.

Zhu Yuanjiu nodded, "I will live here again in a few years."

Zhu Yuanjiu took Henry to the deepest part of the cemetery.

There, a tombstone stood with the words "Zhu Jian" written on it.

There was no nonsense in Zhu Yuanjiu. When he walked to the tombstone, he pushed the tombstone with his hands and listened to the "creep". The tombstone gradually moved away. In front of Zhuyuanjiu, a secret passage to the underground also appeared.

Zhu Yuanjiu looked back at Henry and walked into the secret road first.

Henry did not hesitate, but also followed.

The secret road is very narrow, and the width can only be passed by one person. Moss is on the stone steps, walking on it, and slipping on the soles of the feet.

Zhu Yuanjiu turned on the flashlight on his phone and walked and said, "This place is also known from the records of my grandfather."

The secret was not deep, Henry felt that he had probably descended about 13 meters.

At the end of the secret road is a stone cave.

The stone cave is not big. Looking through the light, the length and width are not more than ten meters.

Zhu Yuanjiu stood in the stone cave and said, "The things I want to show you are on the stone wall. See for yourself."

Doubts appeared on Henry's face, on the stone wall? He took out his phone, turned on the flashlight light, and shot it against the stone wall beside him.

Henry saw a sharp sword piercing himself at the moment when the lamp was shining on the stone wall. This scene changed Henry's face. He retreated back and forth to avoid the sword mandrel, but suddenly discovered that this was not a real enemy. It's a mural.

"What happened!" Henry frowned and looked at the wall again.

On the wall, the posture of a person holding a sword stabbed is vividly depicted. This picture is not very vivid, and does not give a three-dimensional feeling, but where did the sharp edge just come from.

Zhu Yuanjiu seemed to see the doubt in Henry's heart and said, "When I first saw this mural, I was also taken aback."

Henry wondered, "What is this?"

Zhu Yuanjiu replied: "An ancient sword technique, the entire stone wall, records this ancient sword technique. The kind of sharp edge you just felt should be the gas contained in this sword technique."

"What!" Henry was shocked by Zhu Yuanjiu's words.

A kind of swordsmanship carved on the wall, the qi formed even makes you feel a sense of crisis!

Zhu Yuanjiu shook his head with a sad face, "We always think that we have surpassed our predecessors and can explore space and explore the ocean of thousands of miles. As everyone knows, the strength of the predecessors is not what we can imagine. I can't believe that something carved on the wall alone can give me a sense of crisis, and I can't believe that this thing, Qi, actually exists. "

Henry was silent for a long time before he said, "In terms of technology, we surpassed our predecessors, but in terms of the development of the human body's own potential, we are inferior to our predecessors. The fastest running speed of the cheetah can reach 100 meters and 5.8 seconds. The speed can reach 120 kilometers per hour, which proves that the creatures on the earth are not beyond the limit and beyond the limit, but that humans have not mastered the methods and methods, or that they have not yet developed their potential to the extreme. "

There have been news reports that a mother's child was crushed under the car. At that time, the mother alone overturned a car. At that moment, the potential of the human body exploded, and the energy exerted was unimaginable.

There has always been a speculation in the scientific community that people's potential is now less than one percent of the human body.

This speculation, Henry has never doubted, because he is one of the few people who has tapped his own potential, and he also understands how much potential in his body has not been tapped.

Henry illuminated the lamp on the wall, and revisited the ancient sword art depicting the wall.

Henry noticed that the way in which this ancient sword technique was used was different from what he is familiar with in many ways.

Ordinary people practice swords, paying attention to how they can exert the power of the sword, and the pictures on the wall pay more attention to how to let the sword cooperate with themselves. This is a conceptual problem.

People today think that the lethality of swords is greater than that of themselves, while people in ancient times think that their lethality far exceeds that of swords.

"You show me this, but you just want to tell me the truth of the existence of Qi." Henry turned off the flashlight of his mobile phone. "The people who want to destroy your Su family only appeared after you found this ancient sword. Is it? "

"Yes." Zhu Yuanjiu nodded, "According to normal circumstances, my grandfather and me, although there are a few generations apart, but I can't always know about such an important inheritance, like I wish my descendants, even if After two lifetimes, you should know the ancient martial arts, so I guess ... "

When Zhu Yuanjiu said this, he deliberately glanced at Henry.

Henry took Zhu Yuanjiu's words, "The gas was deliberately hidden by people."

"Yes." Zhu Yuanjiu said, "Now I have discovered the existence of Qi, so someone will destroy our Zhujia, they don't want to let this thing spread."

Henry suddenly smiled, "Wish you old man, you said you wanted to show me this thing, I am afraid it is more than just want me to know that it is so simple."

"Yes." Zhu Yuanjiu said bluntly, "I want to ask you to open Mr. Lu's grave."

"Pay attention to your words!" Henry disappeared at the moment Zhu Yuanjiu's words fell, staring at Zhu Yuanjiu, "Do you know what you are talking about!"

"I know." Zhu Yuanjiu sighed, "I know what I said, it's a big deal, but now things have exceeded our cognition, who is hiding the gas, what the ancestor left behind can make himself Powerful things are completely hidden, why? "

While talking, Zhu Yuanjiu walked in front of Henry, "If you follow the rules of the underground world, I should call you Master Satan, but according to Huaxia's seniority, Mr. Lu and my generation, you are his apprentice, I It 's not an exaggeration to call you Henry. Nowadays, the underground world is in chaos. Someone behind you is specifically messing up the stable situation. As the only disciple of Mr. Lu, you have reason to stand up! You are his disciple and want to inherit his mantle. As early as the day Mr. Lu left, you ... was the patron saint of Chinese ancient Wu Wu! "

"Don't wear this high hat for me!" Henry shouted, "No one can open the tomb of Old Man Lu!"

Chapter 386

Zhu Yuanjiu looked excited and reached out to grab Henry's shoulders. "Did you want to see the destruction of the ancient Chinese martial arts? Everyone's qi is now a legend. Is it going to be a legend after a hundred years? ! "

Henry shook his shoulders and opened Zhu Yuanjiu's hand, striding toward the entrance of the stone cave. "There will not be such a day."

Zhu Yuanjiu chased towards Henry in a big step, just before opening, Henry stared again.

Henry's eyes, like a sharp blade, pierced Zhu Yuanjiu's heart, letting him swallow back what he was about to export.

In the dim tunnel, Henry looked directly at Zhu Yuanjiu, "Do you know, if it was not for me to understand your relationship with Old Man Lu, as you just said, I have reason to kill you!"

Zhu Yuanjiu's stunned, as if he had thought of something, his head was lowered, "It's my abruptness."

"Okay, let's go." Henry waved his hand. "First figure out who the people behind are and what their purpose is."

Henry finished speaking, followed the tunnel and returned to the ground.

After leaving the cemetery, Zhu Yuanjiu said nothing, and the two returned to Zhu's house first, and arrived at the meal. Zhu Yuanjiu ordered people to prepare wine and vegetables, with a large variety of vegetables and a small amount, a bottle of good wine , Two people eat, it will not look simple, nor waste.

Zhu Yuanjiu did not call his juniors to accompany him. Zhu Yuanjiu knew very well that he had dinner with Henry, and he wished that his juniors would not have that qualification.

Henry's arrival did not disturb too many people who wished the family. Except for a few people who knew that the family was a distinguished guest of the famous master, most of the others did not know about this matter.

Before the meal was over, a sibling from Zhu's family walked to Zhu Yuanjiu and asked carefully, "The owner, everyone is here, is it beginning?"

Zhu Yuanjiu nodded, "Go ahead."

The child of the Zhu family bowed back, and immediately, Henry heard a shout from outside.

"Start!"

The first two words fell, and there was a sound of gongs and drums.

Henry saw that many children of the Zhu family came out of the residential area and came to Yanwutai. There were more than fifty young faces.

Zhu Yuanjiu said: "The Zhu family is facing a catastrophe this time, and the children who are still outside are also called back. Take this opportunity to test their skills."

Henry nodded his head. This is plainly a family comparison. If this kind of whole-family comparison can achieve excellent results, it will inevitably attract the attention of the family. These young people who wish to family are all Fist.

The world will always belong to the younger generation. This time I wish my family more than anyone else who participated.

Zhu Yuanjiu wiped his mouth, and when Henry was almost eating, he invited, "Would you like to go with me to see? Your position is too high, so many years, I have also separated from the younger generation. Right? "

Henry nodded with a smile, "Alright, then take a look."

Henry and Zhu Yuanjiu came to the Yanwuchang together. The children of the Zhu family saw a lot of subconscious correction when they saw the arrival of Zhu Yuanjiu, and they were also curious. Who.

Before the performance of Wutai, there was a seat for watching.

Henry and Zhu Yuanjiu were sitting in the middle of the viewing seat. This seated place made many people speculate that this might be a child of a big family who came on behalf of their fathers and had a connection with the center of the capital. Otherwise, it is absolutely impossible to sit with the owner.

Zhu Family's performance of martial arts will begin soon, and there will be dedicated people to preside over it.

"Son, come on, you need to be able to win three rounds today. I will pay you the house you said!"

"Girl, earn a little gas, if you can win a game, you can choose a car under 500,000!"

Around Yanwutai, there was a lot of cheering.

The Guwu family, advocating martial arts, the most important thing in the family is to practice martial arts. In Zhuji, a genius with a double doctorate, there is absolutely no one who has a greater sense of glory than the champion. This has been the concept that has been in everyone's mind since ancient times. Too.

Soon, the competition on the stage began. Those younger generations were punching with one punch and hitting the sky with heat. Some women, even more so, did not let their eyebrows go, and some males beat back.

Zhu Yuanjiu looked at the vigorous spirit of these younger generations on the stage and unconsciously smiled on his face.

"How do you feel?" Zhu Yuanjiu looked at Henry.

Henry nodded, "Strong, the strength is much stronger than when we were fighting, but the family is bigger, there is less fierceness, and there will be many more hardships in the future."

Zhu Yuanjiu took it for granted, "Yeah, they are always in the family. They have never been out, nor have they actually been in contact with the underground world. That is where people eat people. I really don't know how they should spend it."

Henry patted Zhu Yuanjiu's shoulder, "Old man, don't worry about this kind of thing. Your grandchildren have their own grandchildren. When you first came into contact with the underground world, didn't you understand anything? Take it slowly by yourself. "

"That's what I said, but ..." Zhu Yuanjiu thought for a long time, and finally just sighed heavily, "Hey!"

The competition is very fast. This is not the kind of ring boxing. It requires scoring and several rounds. The real competition will end in almost two minutes.

Fighting is a physically exhausting thing. An ordinary person will be tired after punching a sandbag for a minute, not to mention actual combat, even if the children of the Zhu family are all practicing children, it will be physical for a few minutes. The wear and tear is so severe that it doesn't take much time.

A young man drew the attention of Zhu Yuanjiu, and his strength completely surpassed all the children of the Zhu family, winning all the way with a crushing posture.

"Great!"

"I heard that Zhu Zhongge was devoted to practice, and it turned out to be true, he was too powerful."

"No one is Zhu's opponent at all."

"It seems that only the older generation can do the trick with Brother Zhong."

"It's hard to say, even the older generation is not necessarily the opponent of the loyal brother."

The younger generation beside Yanwutai looked at the man standing on the stage and couldn't help but sigh.

I wish Dajia, there are not so many rules, winning people, wanting to rest, and wanting to continue to play, are random.

Generally speaking, after one game is played, the physical exertion is severe, and they will choose to take a rest and then play the next one. This Zhu Zhong has played seven games in a row, and each opponent is defeated by one move.

"The shot is decisive and the timing is accurate. It's a good seedling." Henry looked at Zhu Zhong on the stage and nodded. "This person, you can cultivate it. He is very talented in fighting enemies."

Zhu Yuanjiu nodded with a smile, he was also very happy to have such a talented family.

Chapter 387

Zhu Yuanjiu waved his hand and temporarily stopped the competition on Yanwutai.

"Homeowner!"

Everyone, at this moment, Zhu Yuanjiu bowed his fists and saluted.

Zhu Yuanjiu looked at the stage with a smile, "Zhu Zhong, your performance is really beyond my expectations."

Upon hearing this, Zhu Zhong said with a look of joy and clenched his fists: "Thank you, Master, for your praise."

Zhu Yuanjiu said with a smile: "How do you practice, I watch your fist skills, and slightly changed from the Zhu Family Tradition."

When Zhu Zhong listened to Zhu Yuanjiu's mention of his boxing skills, he was a little more arrogantly subconscious. In the past year, I have challenged 564 times and won 563 times. The only time I lost, I am completely correct before I go home this time! "

Zhu Zhong's words made the people around Yanwutai uproar.

"Challenge for two years, five hundred and sixty-four times!"

"Almost every day against people!"

"And I lost a set, and finally won back!"

"It's hard to say that, Zhu Zhongge has become the strongest person in our young generation?" One asked.

"That's for sure! Challenge more than 500 people. Which young man can challenge more than 500 people without losing?"

The voices around Yanwutai made Zhu Zhong quite proud. In fact, this is indeed an proud record.

Zhu Yuanjiu frowned slightly, Zhu Zhong's skill, he was indeed very satisfied, but Zhu Zhong is too proud, this arrogance is a good thing, but also a bad thing.

Zhu Yuanjiu has lived for so many years, and has seen many geniuses. A large number of people have finally lost their own arrogance. Zhu family has such a talent. Zhu Yuanjiu cannot see Zhu Zhong himself destroyed in this arrogance. Above the word.

"Zhu Zhong, what level do you think your current strength is?" Zhu Yuanjiu asked.

"The Lord's words." Zhu Zhong replied, "I challenged this time, not the nameless and the surname, but all the leaders of the major families. Sometimes I can have more than one enemy. I think that excessive humility is pride. , My strength, placed in the younger generation of China, is invincible! "

When speaking the word invincible, Zhu Zhong exudes a strong confidence.

Zhu Yuanjiu shouted, "arrogant! Do you think that you challenge the younger generations of various families and you are really invincible in China? China has a long history of inheritance, there are too many terrible existences you do n't know. Self-destruction! "

Faced with Zhu Yuanjiu's scolding, Zhu Zhong replied: "Homeowner, I think that those of us who practice martial arts should have absolute confidence in ourselves and have the courage to move forward, fearing shrinking, not martial arts, this At the end of the second Dabi, I will continue to challenge the Chinese masters, from the younger generation to the older generation. "

Zhu Zhong's bold words made many people infected, and even had an impulse to fight the sword immediately.

Zhu Yuanjiu shook his head, "Your strength is indeed good, but it is too far to challenge the masters of China! If you think you are qualified to challenge the masters, you can try with me. If you can I have gone through three tricks under my hands, I will not say anything, let you go out to challenge. "

Zhu Yuanjiu wanted to rub down Zhu Zhong's courage.

"Homeowner, although I am younger and invincible than the younger generation, there is still a big gap compared with you. I know that three strokes cannot be achieved." Zhu Zhong held his fist and did not suffer any influence from Zhu Yuanjiu's words.

Zhu Yuanjiu looked at Zhu Zhong. He knew that if he wanted Zhu Zhong to conquer his arrogance, he must be defeated by his peers, and he could only use thunder. The older generation could not cause any frustration to Zhu Zhong. However, no one in the family, younger generation, can compete with Zhu Zhong.

Zhu Yuanjiu remained silent for a few seconds, and looked at Henry with a pleasurable look on his face.

Henry shook his head and whispered to Zhu Yuanjiu: "Old man, you are a little too used to your junior. His character, frustration is only a matter of time."

Zhu Yuanjiu sighed, "We wish home, now that such a talent has finally emerged, how can I have the patience to watch him go out like this? Frustrated at home, it's nothing but a shame, closed doors and thought about it, but it really went outside Frustrated and lost, it may be life. "

Zhu Yuanjiu knows the cruelty of the underground world.

Henry shook his head, "Come on, help you once."

"Thank you." Zhu Yuanjiu punched Henry and fought in rivers and lakes.

Henry nodded, got up, walked down to the stand, slowly walked to the stand, looked at Zhu Zhong, and asked, "Do you think you are invincible in your young generation?"

"Of course." Zhu Zhong put his hands behind his back. When facing Zhu Yuanjiu, Zhu Zhong looked respectfully, but treated his peers, Zhu Zhong's face was proud.

Henry smiled, "You have challenged 564 times in two years and lost once. Coincidentally, I also did countless challenges that year. In two years, I fought a total of 1,219 times, Without a defeat. "

Henry said this, not to mention Zhu Zhong, but the younger generation who wished a family at home, and none believed.

How many days are there in two years? Even if you challenge a person every day, it won't reach more than 1,200 times! This is obviously an uncountable data.

Zhu Zhong smiled, "Who wouldn't talk!"

In the past two years, Zhu Zhong has challenged 564 times. The bitterness of it is very clear to him. It can be said that he has not had a good rest in these two years, and he is fighting with people almost every day. The injury is not good, and the next competition has already begun. In this way, only two hundred and sixty-four years of records have been completed, 1,200 times? This is not a joke!

Henry shrugged. "You can't believe me, but I just want to say that you are not invincible."

"Oh?" Zhu Zhong raised an eyebrow and looked at Henry. "You mean, are you stronger than me?"

"Good." Henry nodded and said truthfully.

"Joke!" Zhu Zhong showed a sneer. Anyone who has been in two years, more than five hundred battles, almost won, will be filled with strong self-confidence. Zhu Zhong's heart has long been my invincible realm. When a person of the same generation said that he was better than himself, Zhu Zhong's first reaction was disbelief.

The younger generations of Zhujia's audience, who heard Henry's words, also whispered. Whether it was Zhu Zhong's just demonstrated strength or the status of the same family, they made them more inclined to Zhu Zhong.

"This man is really talkative."

"I don't know which family children, so confident."

"The people who usually fight are all based on his identity. Lose it intentionally!"

As soon as these words came out, a burst of laughter sounded. Just now everyone guessed that Henryeng and Zhu Yuanjiu were sitting together because of Henry's unknown identity.

Zhu Zhong looked at Henry who was standing opposite him, and said, "You came to the stage, you want to show me the results of these casual talk?"

Henry smiled and shook his head. "Just want to tell you that people who practice martial arts should always maintain a humble heart and the word invincible. From ancient times to the present, only the losers dare to say."

"Hehe!" Zhu Zhong sneered. "So, do you want to do two tricks with me?"

Henry stretched out a finger and shook left and right. "It's not two strokes, but tells you that your skill is placed in the same generation, and it's still far away, and so on. You have to guard against it. "

"Crazy!" Zhu Zhong snorted.

What Henry did before the duel was to despise it thoroughly. Anyone who is confident will feel angry when he is despised by the other party.

The audience whispered, "This person is really too much to be let in. Usually, tell the opponent what he wants to do before he makes a move. Will this still win?"

"So, those who usually fight him are intentionally lost."

"Look at how Zhu Zhongge taught him."

Various voices were heard from the audience.

Henry squeezed his fist and looked at Zhu Zhong, "How is it, are you ready? I'll count three times and I'm going to move."

"Boy, you will pay for your arrogance!" Zhu Zhong was angry.

"One." Henry stepped back slightly and made a forceful posture.

Zhu Zhong put his hands on his chest, one after another, one by one, to make a posture to prepare for fighting.

"Two!" Henry smiled slightly, bowed his body, and tipped his toes.

Zhu Zhong stared closely at Henry.

"Three!" Henry shouted loudly. At this time, his whole person burst out like an arrow from the string, and quickly became a phantom.

Zhu Zhong only felt a flower in front of him, and then a strong wind hit his face. At this moment, he felt like he was suppressed by something, even his limbs were stiff, and he did not listen to his call.

After the strong wind passed, Zhu Zhong saw that Henry's fist was stopping in front of his eyes, less than a centimeter away, and he still maintained the posture he had just prepared for the fight at the moment.

"I said, I punched right and hit you."

Henry's voice sounded in Zhu Zhong's ear.

A sweat dripped down Zhu Zhong's ears, Zhu Zhong swallowed saliva fiercely, and couldn't believe it in his eyes.

The people under the stage didn't even see what was happening. They only saw the phantom flashing, and then, the other party's fist stopped in front of Zhu Zhong's face.

"So strong!"

"Great!"

The two elders of the Zhu family marveled, let alone Zhu Zhong, even Henry's actions. Put them up and there would be no second result.

Henry put his fists up, put his hands behind his back, and looked at Zhu Zhong, "Remember, those who practice martial arts, always keep a humble heart, the world is big, there are many things you do n't know, things to learn ,More!"

After Henry finished speaking, he turned and walked toward the stage. His remarks were not only for Zhu Zhong, but also for himself.

At the moment when Henry turned around, Zhu Zhong collapsed to the ground as if he had lost all his strength. The invincible name of his peers was like a joke.

Henry returned to the stands and asked Zhu Yuanjiu, "I'm a little bit of a crush. You younger generations may not be able to come back."

"If he is not ruthless, he will not understand the greatness of this world. This time, I owe you a favor." Zhu Yuanjiu once again fisted to Henry.

Henry didn't speak, sat on the seat, and continued to look at Zhu's Dabi.

Originally, I wished the younger generation of the family to compete for men. Although some people were not as good as Zhu Zhong, they also wanted to show their talents. However, Henry's just shot made them all frustrated and couldn't help it.

This is a good thing and a bad thing, but on the whole, the advantages outweigh the disadvantages. Henry's suppression has made Zhu's family calm down and has more respect for Gu Wu in his heart.

After the end of the Dabi, Henryxian came to nothing, a person was idle in Zhujia Manor, those who wished to see his family, look at Henry's expression, and they are all very different from the previous ones. .

Henry didn't have a certain number of people who wanted to start the Zhu family. He said hello to Zhu Yuanjiu. Henry left Zhujia Manor. He now has another thing to understand.

Anger, what is it!

Compared with the normal family of ancient martial arts, Guangming Island has strengths and weaknesses, and strength is in strength. In this respect, Guangming Island can be said to be the world's first, and weakness is weak.

The ancient Wu family, such as the Zhu family, had notes and relics left by their ancestors, and Henry had nothing. All he could rely on was himself, Henry himself, who also assumed the identity of the pioneer of Guangming Island.

Therefore, if Henry wants to understand something, he has to rely on himself, to explore and explore.

There are many monuments and museums in Duhai, which are all Henry's next goals. This kind of exploration is undoubtedly huge in scope, and it may not find anything useful. .

Henry didn't take the car. He walked towards the urban area of Duhai. He kept thinking about the scene that he saw in the cave today, the gas contained in the ancient sword art.

Qi, what is it?

Unlike simple momentum, Qi is a real existence. Henry can clearly feel it through his wrist.

How is qi formed? When the speed is fast to a certain level, or the power is strong to a certain level, can qi be formed?

Henry's mind was filled with doubts, he was thinking about these issues.

How strong are those with anger?

Henry recalled the mural on the wall. If it was a real person, how to face it with a sword stab at him, just a mural, let yourself feel like a sharp edge!

Henry walked on the road, and suddenly stopped. In his mind, a picture appeared, standing on the spot, the person on the mural, as if alive, stabbed at himself.

The different ways of exerting force, the self-centered effort, the kind of sharp edge, approaching himself, Henry thought of several methods in succession, and could not avoid that sword.

"The ancient swordsmanship of the ancients is really so terrible, I can't even avoid a sword?"

Henry sighed secretly.

Suddenly, a light flashed over Henry's heart.

"The ancients are stronger by themselves. If I am stronger than him, why should I be afraid of his qi? He can use his qi to penetrate a wall. I can use my fist as well!"

Henry twisted subconsciously, punching forward with a punch.

"boom!"

There was a muffled noise, and if someone stood by to see this scene, they would definitely open their mouths.

Henry's fist clearly hit the air, but made such a sonic boom!

Henry punched this punch as if he had penetrated a layer of mist.

Looking at the punch he made, Henry muttered to himself.

"I was caught in a misunderstanding. After seeing the mural, I always thought that the existence of qi is related to the way of exerting force. In fact, it has nothing to do with it. The reason why the ancient sword technique is that way of exerting force is because Can better match the sword to yourself, instead of hacking with the sword, but when you throw a punch and kick a leg, the sword can help you swing or cut! "

Jing Xuan gleamed in Henry's eyes.

"Although I don't know how to practice Qi, the people who practice Qi are not necessarily invincible!"

At this moment, Henry seems to have come out of some kind of bondage. This bondage lasted from the day he went to the European Royal Society.

The unknown breath, like a big rock, pressed against Henry's heart, making him feel breathless.

But today, seeing that ancient sword technique allowed Henry to find an opportunity to break away from this layer of shackles.

There are thousands of avenues, and they all go the same way.

Whether the ancients rely on themselves or the moderns rely on external forces, with the help of technology, there is only one source for everything, and that is stronger.

To understand this, Henry felt that the whole person was a lot easier. Although he still had to figure out where the qi came from, now he does not have that kind of pressure on him. Sometimes, people's epiphany is only for a moment. .

Henry recalled how he had just punched that punch.

A punch out of thin air caused a strong sonic boom.

When Henryhuang came to the urban area of Duhai, it was already five o'clock in the afternoon. During this peak period of work, he could thoroughly understand the gap between large cities and small cities.

During the peak hours of work in Yinzhou, many people shouted about traffic jams, but on the road of 14-5 kilometers, it takes only half an hour to drive, and it can be reached in at most 40 minutes. In a city like Duhai, it takes about two hours. .

Henry noticed that the drivers sitting in the car had no irritability on their faces at all, and were obviously used to such things.

"It's you?" Henryzheng was walking, and there was a suspicious voice behind him.

Henry turned his head and saw a man and a woman standing behind him.

This man and a woman, Henry had the impression that they were Jin Xin and Tian Rui of the Razor Squad, and they had seen it in Yinzhou before.

"Why, you two were surprised to see me?" Henry tilted his head.

"It's not." Jin Xin smiled bitterly. "I just think that this may be arranged by God. Last time we encountered a crisis, you helped us. This time, we encountered difficulties and met you again."

Henry chuckled lightly and said strangely: "Why do you think that if you encounter difficulties, I will help you?"

Tian Rui replied: "It's not that we encountered difficulties, it was Han Wenrou, her team, who encountered difficulties."

"Gentleness ..." Henry's head was full of heroic beauty.

Jin Xin stretched his finger over the top of his head, beside him, was a KTV.

"What's wrong with gentleness?" Henry glanced at the KTV.

Tian Rui sighed, "Hey, you are a gentle boyfriend, you should know that tenderness is hot, and the task they perform this time is to protect He Jiayang, son of He Dong, should you know He Dong?"

Henry nodded, "The rich man in Hong Kong City claims that for every five cargo ships sailing in the Pacific Ocean, one of them is his."

"Yes." Tian Rui said, "The He family is very powerful throughout China. This time, he originally wanted He Jiayang as a representative to discuss an event on the high seas, but the person of He Jiayang is a full-fledged dude, I do n't know. He said something to Gentle, but he was beaten by Gentle, and now people are on this KTV. "

Jin Xin came up and said, "Henry, although I don't know what your identity is, but with your skill, the power behind you is definitely not small. We sharply understand that although the He family is big, but some ancient Wu Wu Compared with the family, it is still a lot worse. Tian Rui and I thought about contacting the superior to see if we could only give a punishment to the gentle, and then exposed it. Now that I have met you, if you have the ability, help the gentle Solve it. After all, punishment on the back has a great influence on gentleness. "

Without any hesitation, Henry nodded directly, "Tell me the box number."

After Jin Xin and Tian Rui said the box number, Henry turned and walked towards the KTV.

Jin Xin looked at Henry's back and shook his head with a wry smile. "I hope gentle boyfriend can solve the problem. Although gentleness is not the best seedling in this batch, she is the hardest one, I am very optimistic about her, really not I hope this incident will affect her. "

Tian Rui shook his head, "This time, it's not strange to be gentle, just because He Jiayang's mouth is changed to me, I can't help but want to smoke him."

"Thinking is one thing, really done, it's another thing. To know, in our business, patience is also a required course. Call the leaders. This time, we can't put all hope on Henry." Jin Xin Take out the phone.

Henry walked into the KTV that Jin Xin said. The eye-catching luxury decoration, imported audio, and genuine wine all symbolize the expensive consumption here.

Henry followed the box number that Jin Xin just said and looked for it. Before reaching the door of the box, Henry heard the scolding from the box.

"His, what do you think you are? Dare to beat Lao Tzu? Do you know how much tax the Lao Tzu will spend on a year? Enough to feed you all your life! Are you just serving Lao Tzu, Lao Tzu let you do it, you just Why, what do you think you are? Grass! "

In the box, He Jiayang took a microphone and obviously drank a lot.

In the box, Han Wenrou in a black casual dress stood there, squeezing her fists tightly, and if it was not stopped by someone around her, she would definitely rush up and tear this He Jiayang's mouth.

He Jiayang stretched his finger to Han Wenrou, "Laozi let you sleep with him, is he worthy of you, otherwise you think you are something, but just a dog! Remember, this time you have something to ask Laozi, not Laozi begging you , Making Lao Tzu angry, Lao Tzu depends on how you end! "

"He Shao, you first get rid of your breath." A man who looked about thirty years old, picked up a glass of wine and walked to He Jiayang. "Tender, she is young, full of gas, and ignorant. I will blame her on your behalf I'll dry the glass of wine first. "

The man said that he would drink the wine.

"Who would he let you drink!" He Jiayang snatched the glass from the opponent's hand.

The man lost a smiley face, "Yes, what He Shao said is that I did something wrong."

"Isn't it wrong, is it you and him, without this qualification, you know?" He Jiayang raised the glass and tilted his wrist.

The wine flowed down the top of the glass and poured over the man's head.

Chapter 390 Infighting

Drinks flowed down the middle-aged man's head.

The middle-aged man squeezed his fist behind him tightly, but still had a smile on his face.

He Jiayang emptied the glass, then tossed it, and then patted the middle-aged man's face insultingly. "Look at you, you are so cheap, it is even cheaper than my dog!"

"He Jiayang, you have something to do with me, don't worry about the Sun team!" Han Wenrou flicked away the person beside him, his eyes full of anger, a beautiful face flushed.

"Han Wen Rou, you're enough!" A young woman also dressed in black screamed, "Do you think you have harmed us enough? This is our last mission, as long as we can complete it successfully, everyone You can get into the blade, because of your will, it hurts us all! "

"What do you say!" Han Wenrou turned back and glared at the young woman, her eyes full of puzzlement.

"I am not clear enough?" The woman stood in front of Han Wenrou and pointed to Han Wenrou's forehead. "What do you think you are and what you pretend to be tall? Dare to say you haven't slept with the man? Now it's just to accompany He Shao just slept, is it difficult? I think you are just acting like a gesture! "

"You bullshit!" Han Wen fought furiously at the young woman.

The young woman easily avoided Han Wenrou's fist, disdainful: "Look at you like this, you can't do anything, you can't have a good personality, why do you think you should get into the blade?"

"Enough!" The middle-aged man known as the Sun team screamed and glared at the young woman. "We are a collective, and I don't want to hear that again!"

Sun team finished, looked at He Jiayang, "He Shao, today we are indeed hands-on. If you want to complain to us, you have the contact information of the superior. The superior will be punished. We apologize and pay compensation, and we accept it, but our team members are definitely not insulted if you want to insult! "

Sun team finished, waved his hand, "Let's go!"

In the box, there are several candidate players with sharp blades. At this time, you look at me, I look at you, and follow the Sun team, ready to walk out of the box.

"I don't accept it!" The young woman screamed with an unconvinced expression on her face, "Sun team, you should know that this is our last assessment task. If we are complained, we all have no chance Towards the edge, I have paid too much for this opportunity and must not be destroyed by a bitch! "

After the woman finished, she quickly looked to He Jiayang, "He Shao, I beg you, do n't complain about us, if you want compensation, everything is this bitch woman, you only have to complain to her alone, she will definitely She will be expelled and she will return to her original post when the time comes. When she is a small criminal police officer, in her capacity, you can play as much as you want.

The woman's face is full of prayers.

"Enough!" Sun team shouted, "We are here to complete the task, not begging, this matter will naturally come to a conclusion! Gentle, go!"

Sun team finished, gave Han Wenrou an eye, let Han Wenrou leave first.

"Let's go first."

"Stay here will only intensify things."

The two beside Han Wenrou persuaded in a low voice.

Han Wenrou squeezes his fists tightly, and his pretty face changes constantly. If this time does not involve others, it is only her Han Wenrou who swears that she will definitely make this He Jiayang a pig's head.

"Go? Do you want to go like this?" He Jiayang picked up a wine glass and smashed it hard on the ground. The wine glass shattered and the debris was scattered everywhere. "Who shouldn't he leave!"

"Yes, He Shao is not allowed to leave, and no one is allowed to leave!" The young woman quickly helped He Jiayang to speak, and the words fell behind, and He Jiayang showed a good smile.

He Jiayang was very satisfied with the young woman's approach. He nodded, "Very well, being a dog, you should be as good as you. Come, now listen to me, you go, slap with the surname Han, this time I won't complain to you about it. If you slap her, I'll give you 500,000. For every slap, I'll give you 500,000 more!"

When the young woman heard He Jiayang's words, she couldn't believe it, "He ... He Shao, what you said is true? Give me a slap in half a million?"

"Grass!" He Jiayang scolded in his mouth, "Do you think Lao Tzu is short of this money?"

The young woman took a deep breath, and there was a strong emotion in her eyes. She looked at Han Gentle and sneered: "Don't blame me for the surname Han. Whoever makes you uninteresting and provokes He Shao, I'll do it for He Shao Learn from you!"

He Jiayang lay on the sofa, picked up a slice of watermelon and put it in his mouth, laughing: "It's interesting, dogs bite dogs, I like to watch."

The Sun team stood between the young woman and Han Wenrou, looking at the young woman, "What do you want to do?"

"Team Sun, I'm doing it for the sake of our team, He Shaodu said, as long as we let him be satisfied today, and teach this surnamed Han, this time there will be no business for us. I did all this for the sake of Everyone, since you are both unwilling, let me be the wicked one!" The woman squeezed her fist.

"You fart!" Shouted a female candidate standing next to Han Wenrou. "You are just for money!"

"Money? Yes, I just slap half a million dollars for money!" The young woman sneered. "You cheap, and that surnamed Han, is the same raccoon dog. If it weren't for you, how could a slut with the last name Han endure? You can't stop, is it just that He Shao pressed it a few times, you're just like the whole family, you're actually very happy, right?"

The female candidate was angry, "You talk nonsense."

"Am I talking nonsense, you know it yourself." The young woman glanced at her mouth disdainfully. "When I finish cleaning up the surname Han, I will clean up your cheap!"

The young woman said, walking gently towards Korea.

The Sun team, who was between the two, took a deep breath, reached out and stopped in front of the young woman, and said in a cold voice: "Listen, as the captain of the team, I have the right to decide everyone to stay, now, you have Fired."

"Go to you!" The young woman yelled, "I surnamed Sun, I gave you a face, shouted to you Sun team, otherwise you think you are a thing, the strength is not as good as me, the head is dull, the old lady is now playing With a slap of the surname Han, there are half a million, who is rare as a bladed player? Get out of the old lady!"

As soon as the middle-aged woman's voice fell, she punched the Sun team.

Sun team flashed quickly, just evaded a punch, the young woman kicked again, Sun team was too late to dodge, was kicked in the chest.

Chapter 391

The Sun team was kicked in the chest by a middle-aged woman and stepped back several times.

He Jiayang lay aside, his face laid back, as if watching a play.

In this team where Han Wenrou is, this young woman has the highest strength, and the rest are far behind her.

A small team is a gathering of various talents, not all of them are combat talents.

After kicking over the Sun team, the young woman had few opponents. Two men came up to stop her, but she was easily overturned.

"Just like you trash, I also deserve to be my teammate. Do you know that I have been sickening to vomit during this time!" The young woman spit out saliva contemptuously and finally put her eyes on Han Wenrou. Ready to enjoy, bitch! "

Han Wenrou was originally a hot temper, and he would not bear it at this moment, so he punched at the young woman.

"Soft punch!" Han Wen's fist was easily held by the young woman. "Is it too long to roll the bed with the man last night?"

Han Wen's soft and beautiful eyes were angry and kicked towards the other side, which was easily blocked by the other side. "Eh, there is no power."

The middle-aged woman deliberately humiliated Han Wenrui just to give He Jiayang a good impression.

"Good." He Jiayang lay on the sofa and clapped his hands happily. "I'm more and more like your dog."

The young woman received He Jiayang's "commendation", her face was filled with joy, but her eyes looked coldly at Han Wenrou. "The surnamed Han is called a fist!"

The moment the young woman's voice fell, she punched Han Wenrou with a punch.

Han Wenrou felt the speed and power of the opponent's punch. His pretty face changed and he quickly stretched his fist to resist. Although he blocked the opponent's fist, his body was unstable and he stepped back a few steps in a row.

The young woman bullied herself and punched Han Wenrou again with a punch.

He Jiayang looked at this scene and showed a happy smile.

Han Wenrou has retreated from the side and faced the fist of the young woman. She couldn't even stop it. She could only watch the opponent's fist gradually enlarge in her pupils.

Seeing that the fist was getting closer and closer to her, Han Wenrou closed her eyes and waited for the opponent's fist to admit her fate. She was even ready, and she would be prepared to be humiliated by the opponent's fist and words.

One second passed ...

Two seconds passed ...

Three seconds passed ...

In the master match, many things can happen in just one second.

But for three seconds, Han Genrou's imaginary pain did not come.

She slowly opened her eyes and saw that the young woman was standing in front of her. Her fist had been punched, but she stopped at less than twenty centimeters in front of her head and could no longer move forward. Only a big hand, tightly holding the opponent's fist.

"Remember, you can't give up even when you are at the last moment of fighting with people. Just now, you have no less than five ways to stop her from punching. At your speed, if you fully play it, you can hide. "

A voice came from behind Han Wenrou's body to her ears.

At the moment when he heard this voice, Han Wenrou had a delicate body and a kind of unbelievable expression on her face. Since she left Yinzhou, she had appeared in her dreams countless times. The master who can see this voice, but understands in his heart, this is just his wishful thinking. In the end, he already has a family.

Han Wenrou left Yinzhou with deep reluctance, but more of it was a kind of resignation. She knew that Henry had already established a family, and his own existence was just a mistake between him and him. It's broken.

But today, when he heard his voice again, Han Wenrou wondered whether it was true.

The Sun team and others looked at the strange young man who suddenly appeared behind Han Wenrou, and did not know his identity.

Henry squeezed the fist of the young woman in one hand, and gently hugged Han Wen's fragrant shoulder in one hand, and said again, "Okay, I have learned from you, and leave the rest to me."

Sun team and others were surprised to find that Han Wenrou, who was originally hot, was like a good girl in front of this strange young man. After the youth finished speaking, Han Wenrou actually nodded obediently, even the anger on his face. , A lot less.

Han Wenrou stood behind Henry. At this moment, Han Wenrou felt as if there was a big mountain, helping himself resist everything. Standing behind him, he was unprecedentedly at ease.

"Boy, I advise you not to be the first bird!" The young woman stared at Henry ferociously.

When the woman speaks, she obviously has a bit of stubborn taste. Just after she punched her fist and was easily blocked by the young man in front of her, she can see the difference in strength between herself and the other party.

"The first bird?" Henry's face was filled with doubts. Suddenly, there was a sneer on the corner of his mouth, and he slapped it hard on the young woman's face.

Henry's slap was so fast that no one responded in the box, and didn't even see clearly. He heard a snapping sound of "snap", and the young woman's face gave birth to red fingerprints.

Henry's decisive shot made everyone a little bit unrecovered. Anyway, when men beat women, there is still some psychological pressure. However, this psychological pressure does not exist for Henry. In his eyes, there is no distinction between men and women, only friends and enemies.

The young woman stretched her hand to cover her cheek. She didn't respond at all. When she wanted to come, this man would at least say something cruel to himself, or even move his hands, just say a few words, but no I thought, this man said to fight.

"You ..." The young woman was about to speak, Henry slapped again.

A "slap" sounded again in the box. When the young woman just reached her mouth, she was swallowed back by Henryda.

"Dare to move my woman, do you think about the consequences?" Henry stepped forward and looked down at the young woman.

Being stared at by Henry, the young woman felt as if she was being stared at by an ancient fierce beast, her hair could not help but explode, her heartbeat began to speed up, panic.

Henry grabbed the young woman's hair, and then kicked out, kicking on the young woman's abdomen. The young woman was kicked out by Henry's foot and hit the glass table in the box.

With a clatter, the glass table shattered.

Henry's hands-on, the Sun team and others who were watching were dumbfounded. They asked themselves that they could not do this to a woman. But this strange young man has no burden at all!

The young woman fell to the ground, holding her abdomen with both hands, her face twisted, and she groaned painfully, and some parts of her body had been scratched by broken glass.

392 Mr. Ping's Arrival

Henry did not look at the young woman again, and walked towards He Jiayang who was still sitting on the sofa.

When Henry beat the young woman, He Jiayang saw clearly that when he saw this mob coming towards himself, He Jiayang shrank subconsciously into the corner. "You ... what do you want to do?"

"You are He Jiayang?" Henry's lips sneered.

He Jiayang swallowed his saliva fiercely, forcibly calming down: "Since you know my identity, you should understand, if you move me, what will happen!"

"Is it?" Henry raised an eyebrow. "I was just outside, and I heard your mouth. It's amazing."

He Jiayang raised his breath and said, choking his neck, "Why, my mouth grows on me, what I say, what matters to you."

"Of course it's my business!" Henry stepped on He Jiayang's chest with one foot and pressed He Jiayang there with his foot, unable to move. The other hand grabbed the fruit knife on the table with his backhand.

Ming Xuanhao's blade was taken by Henry less than a centimeter from the corner of He Jiayang's mouth. He Jiayang shivered all over, feeling that the blade could be scratched on his face at any time.

"You said." Henry shook the fruit knife in his hand, making non-stop gestures at the corner of He Jiayang's mouth. "Should I cut your mouth first, or cut your tongue first? Your voice is really unpleasant."
."

"I ... I ..." He Jiayang was flabbergasted by the chill that Henry exuded from his body. "I'm ... but He Dong's son, you have to move me, and you don't end well."

"Oh." Henry chuckled, suddenly squeezed the knife handle, aimed at He Jiayang's shoulder socket, and stabbed hard with a knife.

The sound of "poo" is the sound of the blade piercing into the body.

He Jiayang uttered a scream.

The Sun team and others standing at the door of the box couldn't help swallowing saliva at this moment. This buddy is too fierce. It's absolutely no taboo.

The candidate female player who was also scolded by the young woman before pulled the soft sleeve of Lahan, "Gentle, he just said you are his woman, this is your boyfriend."

boyfriend?

Han Wenrou thought about it and replied: "It's true."

Henry plunged into He Jiayang's shoulder socket with a knife, but did not take it out.

He Jiayang's voice was like killing a pig, and he kept crying.

"If you call again, I will cut off your tongue." Henry said coldly.

As soon as Henry said this, He Jiayang's original screaming came to an abrupt end, and he looked at Henry with fear in his eyes, "Big ... Brother, yes, sorry."

He Jiayang was really scared. He just thought that this person would not dare to do anything to himself because of his identity, but now he found that he was wrong and wrong, the other side's knife was clearly told. For himself, he doesn't care about his identity at all.

Outside the box.

The KTV boss is waiting anxiously at the gate.

A middle-aged man wearing gold-colored glasses strode into KTV, and as soon as he entered the door, he loudly challenged the KTV boss and asked, "What happened, Mr. He?"

When the KTV boss saw the middle-aged man coming, he was relieved. "Mr. Ping, He Gongzi is in the box of 888, he ... he ..."

The KTV boss stopped talking.

"Say!" Mr. Ping glared at the KTV boss.

"He Young Master, he was beaten ..."

"What!" Mr. Ping's face changed drastically.

Who is He Jiayang, and He Dong's only son was beaten in his own realm. If the secretary knows this, he will blame himself. After all, the secretary and He Jiayang's father He Dong are friends for many years!

"What about the beating people!" Mr. Ping asked immediately.

The KTV boss pointed to the direction of the lower box, "still in the box."

"Let's go and see who is so brave!" Mr. Ping walked angrily towards the box.

In the box, He Jiayang trembled, and Henry's eyes were full of fear.

Sun team and others want to step forward to stop Henry, but they don't know what to say. He Jiayang teases others' girlfriends, and others start to teach He Jiayang. As a man, if his girlfriend is molested, it is estimated that he will also be angry and beat.

The box door was suddenly pushed open from the outside.

At the door of the box, there was a loud shout: "Courageous and courageous, it is courageously courageous! I dare to beat people here, and there is no other way!"

Before he even entered the door, Mr. Ping shouted.

The team of Sun and others suddenly changed their face when they saw them. As a blade player, they naturally knew the secretary of Duhai.

"Mr. Ping, why are you here?" Sun team quickly gave Han Wenrou an eye and asked her to stop Henry. She stood in front of Mr. Ping with a smile on her face.

Mr. Ping sneered, "I'm not coming, I'm not coming. You haven't turned this over! You even dare to slap He Gongzi, who is it!"

"It's me!" Han Wenrou, who was about to persuade Henry to hear this, immediately walked over and resisted the matter, "I hit it."

"You?" Mr. Ping looked at Han Genrou up and down. "What a boldness! You are here to protect Mr. He Jiayang He. How dare you do it to Mr. He, there is no way in this eyes!"

"Mr. Ping, this is not what you think, listen to me explain to you." Sun team walked up anxiously.

Mr. Ping pushed away the Sun team with a wave of his hand, "Explain what? What is there to explain, I tell you, this time, you alone can't get rid of the relationship, I will tell the secretary truthfully, you wait for the prison. ! "

As soon as Mr. Ping's voice fell, a surprise sound came from the corner of the box.

"Uncle Ping, save me, save me, kill!"

He Jiayang, who was originally full of fear, showed a delighted look on his face after Mr. Ping arrived, and at the same time filled with a bit of pride, looking at Henry, "Boy, do I want you to die!"

Mr. Ping looked around the corner of the box and saw that He Jiayang was being stomped on the chest by one person, pressed on the sofa, and came out of He Jiayang's shoulder socket, and also inserted a fruit knife dangle!

Mr. Ping's complexion changed greatly. He looked at the man who stepped on He Jiayang, his back was familiar, but he couldn't remember who he was.

"Put your feet down and hear no!"

Mr. Ping shouted at Henry as he strode forward.

"Boy, please let go, haven't you heard him!" He Jiayang looked at Henry with a fierce face, "Do you want to die, continue to step on Laozi!"

"Huh." Henry chuckled, raised his hand, and slapped on He Jiayang's face.

This slap pumping force not only caused a crisp sound, but also killed two of He Jiayang's teeth, allowing blood to flow out of the corner of He Jiayang's mouth.

This movement of Henry made Mr. Ping's face change again. He did not expect that this man was so rampant that he dared to hit people in his own face.

Chapter 393 I Know

Sun team and others looked at Henry's movements, and secretly impulsively, who is Mr. Ping, the secretary who is the leader of the entire sea! In front of him, dare to do it, this is not to trouble yourself!

If you hit someone before, even if Mr. Ping knows, everyone has reason to say that in the past, strangling was a punishment, but now, the nature has completely changed. This Mr. Ping really wants to pursue it.

Team Sun and others looked at Henry nervously.

He Jiayang was slapped in the face by Henry with a slap in his face. He couldn't believe it. He didn't expect that this person, even after Mr. Ping came, would dare to do it himself.

"Is there any Wang Fa in your eyes? Give me a hand." Mr. Ping shouted, stepped forward and grabbed Henry's shoulder, pulling hard.

Henry's figure, which Mr. Ping can pull, Mr. Ping only feels that he is pulling a boulder without moving.

However, under the pull of Mr. Ping, Henry turned around slowly to look at Mr. Ping.

Mr. Ping, who was originally angry, looked away from Henry.

For Henry, although he only saw one side, he was too impressed!

Mr. Ping had been registering for so long before the door of Zhujiazhuang, and it was the first time he saw someone dare to smash the door of Zhujia and let Grandpa Zhu greet him personally, shouting for someone who prepared good wine.

Mr. Ping did n't even dare to think about Henry's identity. He only knew that this was someone he could n't afford, and someone he could n't afford!

It was this big man who hit the people.

Mr. Ping looked at He Jiayang dumbfounded, and said in his heart, surnamed He, what ain't you guilty of daring to mess with this big man!

He Jiayang, who was proud of himself, hadn't seen anything wrong with Mr. Ping. He kept roaring and said: "Uncle Ping, hurry, calling people, I want to kill him! Hurry!"

"Shut up!" Mr. Ping slammed suddenly and gave He Jiayang a disgusted look.

Mr. Ping shouted so that everyone present was unable to recover. What happened? Did n't Mr. Ping come to help He Jiayang? Why is this happening now?

He Jiayang's complacent look was startled, and a bad hunch flashed in his heart.

Mr. Ping lowered his head to Henry and whispered: "Sir, I'm sorry, I don't know you are here."

Mr. Ping's action made the people present and opened his eyes wide. What happened, Mr. Ping was confessing?

Not to mention the Sun team and others, even Han Wenruo's eyes widened. Somewhat unbelievable. At this moment, Han Wenruo suddenly thought of the things Henry told himself before, what underground forces are divided into many levels, and himself When asked what level he belongs to, he said the highest one.

At that time, Han Wenrou only smiled at Henry's words and didn't believe it. But now, she somewhat believes that the identity of Du Hai's first secretary can be treated politely by someone who can be imagined!

He Jiayang looked at Mr. Ping dumbly, shocked and speechless.

Henry gave Mr. Ping a cold look, "Why are you all here?"

When asked by Henry, Mr. Ping immediately apologized, "I'm sorry, sir, I'm sorry!"

"Go away." Henry said gently.

Mr. Ping didn't dare to have any hesitation, turned around and left the box without saying a word.

Mr. Ping is very clear about the interests of this. He Jiayang is nothing more than relying on his father, He Dong, to discuss with the secretary and his peers, and the relationship is not bad.

And Zhu Zhu wished Grandpa, that even the secretary had to be treated with care, and the young man who lived as a junior, the young man inside, was regarded as a distinguished guest by Grandpa Zhu and went out to receive himself. , What I did today is absolutely right.

The people in the box watched dumbly as Mr. Ping rushed in, because Henry rolled away and left sullenly.

He Jiayang opened his mouth wide and looked at Mr. Ping's back, speechless.

"You just said, you're going to kill me?" Henry looked at He Jiayang with a playful look.

He Jiayang showed bitterness on his face and shook his head vigorously, even daring to speak.

Henry turned his head, looked at Han Wenrou, and said: "From today, I have something to explain to you. Be my woman, no one can bully you casually, you have the strength, do what you do , People like this! "

Henry extended his hand to He Jiayang, "If it should be discarded, it will be discarded. I have something for you!"

After Henry finished speaking, he grabbed He Jiayang's two arms and twisted hard.

He Jiayang's two arms were twisted into a twist by Henry without any hindrance. His screams rang through the box.

Hearing the screams of He Jiayang, and what Henry just said, the Sun team and others can only feel two words, overbearing!

What's the matter with that sentence, I'll give it to you, for a woman, it is the harbor that gives her the most peace of mind!

Han Wenrou was blushing and fluttering with a heart.

Henry turned a deaf ear to He Jiayang's screams, walked to Han Wenrou and hugged Han Wenrou's shoulders, "The matter has been resolved, let's go."

Han Wenrou nodded and let Henry hug him and walked out of the box.

Team Sun and others looked at each other, looked back and forth for a few moments, and then walked out of the box.

"Why are you here?" Han Wenrou blushed and asked Henry.

"I miss you." Henry said a rare word to Han Wenrou.

"Go away." Han Wen rolled his eyes.

Henry covered her forehead. This female tyrannosaurus was the same as the original female tyrannosaurus.

Henry asked: "I just heard your captain say that you are going to negotiate on the high seas this time, what can He Jiayang talk about?"

Han Wenrou pondered for a while and asked, "Have you heard of the Poseidon in the underground world?"

"Well." Henry nodded. "I know."

Han Wenrou continued: "If you want to know Poseidon, you should know what position he has on the high seas. On the edge of the China Sea, where he meets the high seas, he has discovered a sunken ship. It has a history of at least four hundred years and can be explored very high. However, because half of it is located in the high seas, it is difficult to salvage. The He family pays a lot of taxes to Poseidon every year and has some dealings with Poseidon. Talk about salvage. "

"This matter, no need to congratulate the family." Henry waved at will, "I also know them, when you negotiate, just take me over."

"You know?" Han Wenrou heard Henry's words, and was a little surprised. She still had concerns about Jiajia Yang this time. She didn't worry about what punishment she would receive, but what she should do about this task. Henry's words dispelled all her concerns.

"Yeah, when you set off, just tell me, I have been in Duhai these days." Henry patted his chest.

"That's great. I'll be in Duhai these days and tell you when I set off."

Chapter 394

After Sun team and others left KTV, they contacted Jin Xin and Tian Rui for the first time. When Jin Xin and Tian Rui heard Henry abolish He Jiayang and Mr. Ping paid respect to Henrybi, they finally felt relieved.

Henry has an identity that allows Mr. Ping to be respectful, so this punishment will not fall on Han Wenrou.

As for the task, Tian Rui and Jin Xin applied to their superiors and the superiors replied that they would wait in Duhai and would dispatch a person to negotiate with Poseidon.

In the KTV box, the young woman climbed up from the ground with a painful and difficult face. She covered her abdomen and Henry's foot, so that she had not been relieved until now.

She just looked at Henry's attitude just now, and she saw it in her eyes. She never thought that this gentle boyfriend of Han had such great energy that it could make Du Hai's top secretary treat like this.

Look at He Jiayang who has fainted on the couch because of pain. The young woman gritted her teeth and carried He Jiayang out of the box. Now she has no choice but the blade can't go back, except to hug the big tree. , No choice.

As for whether the big tree can be carried, the young woman herself is not sure.

Henry and Han Wenrou met, and the two had a dinner together. Jin Xin specially approved to give Han Wenrou a two-day holiday and did not have to return to the team at night. What does this mean? Every adult knows it well.

After dinner, Henry and Han Wenrou walked side by side on the streets of the bustling city.

"Where do you want to go?" Henry looked at Han Wenrou with a smile, seeking her opinion.

"Go practice!" Han Wenrou took Henry's collar and walked to the next hotel.

Overnight.

The next morning, Henry opened his eyes and saw that the woman beside him was still asleep. This was Henry's first time. When he opened his eyes, he saw Han Wenrou lying beside him. Henry knew that the woman was too tired during this time. There was also a lot of pressure in my heart. The crazy release last night made her relax completely, and the whole person was immersed in a deep sleep.

Henry got up carefully and didn't want to disturb the woman. She just left the bed. Henry found that her wrist was clenched by a catkin and turned her head to look. The woman forcibly opened her sleepy eyes and was looking at herself.

"Where to go." Han Wenrou's voice with a touch of nostalgia.

Henry smiled slightly, "Go and buy you some breakfast."

When Han Wenrou heard Henry say this, his eyes showed peace of mind, nodded, and loosened Henry's wrist reluctantly, and fell asleep again.

Looking at Han Wenrou's appearance, Henry felt a soft touch in his heart, bent down, kissed gently on the woman's clean forehead, and then walked out of the door.

The next day, Henry and Han Wenrou spent together, Han Wenrou did not pick, wherever Henry went, she followed, Henry and Han Wenrou went to some places of interest, while taking Han Wenrou to play, but also looking for some clues about qi, but this clueless search, it is really difficult to find clues.

Henry told Zhu Yuanjiu that if there were any problems with Zhu's family, he would contact him at any time. At the same time, Henry also made Bai Chi aware of any news outside. He immediately informed himself that Henry would stay in Duhai during this time. In the end, who is going to destroy Zhu's family and the people who want to destroy Zhu's family?

Duhai, Metropolis International Hotel.

A middle-aged man, almost sixty years old, full of an upper-class breath, is sitting in the largest presidential suite in the hotel. With this suite alone, the amount of accommodation for one night is only 30,000 yuan.

In front of the middle-aged man, stood several bodyguards in black, each with a breath that no one should enter.

The middle-aged man's face is very unsightly, his son He Jiayang, in Duhai, his hands were discarded! His huge family business is waiting for this son to inherit.

He Dong galloped the business world for so many years and never thought that one day, his son would be abandoned.

There were several knocks on the door of the presidential suite.

He Dong winked, and a bodyguard stepped forward to open the door.

Standing in front of the suite is also a middle-aged man, dressed in ordinary casual clothes.

"Mr. Yin." The bodyguard in black asked the man standing outside the door.

The person standing outside the door waved his hand and asked, "How about Lao He."

"Mr. He is inside." The black bodyguard moved slightly to make way for the outsiders.

The person called Mr. Yin, named Yin Guo'an, is the leader of this city and has real power.

Yin Guoan walked into the door hurriedly and shouted: "Lao He, I have been meeting in Beijing this time, and my phone has little time to turn on the phone. Knowing this, I hurried back. How is Xiao He now? ? "

"His hands were completely abolished and could not be saved." He Dong's face looked very ugly.

Hearing this, Yin Guoan stunned and immediately apologized. "Lao He, it is my responsibility to have this incident in my place this time, Xiao He ..."

"He said." He Dong stood up. "When he was beaten, your secretary surnamed Ping was present, but he did not control him, but let the other party do evil."

"What!" Yin Guoan's face changed drastically. "Lao He, don't worry, I will definitely give you an account of this matter."

After Yin Guoan finished speaking, a call was made to Mr. Ping.

Mr. Ping was sitting at Zhujia with excitement at the moment. Taking the opportunity of yesterday, he reported to Zhu 's family and said that the distinguished guests of Grandpa Zhu had beaten people to see if they could talk to Zhujia. words.

Mr. Ping had originally thought that it would be nice if he could enter Zhu Family and make some connections this time. But he did not expect that he would be personally received by Zhu Zhu! This made Mr. Ping excited and difficult to recover. When he told Master Zhu what happened yesterday, he wished Grandpa praised himself, and said that he did well, and more importantly, I wish Grandpa, even Actively gave his phone to himself!

Zhu Yuanjiu's attitude made Mr. Ping understand that he made the most important choice in his life yesterday. If the secretary knows this, he will definitely be ecstatic!

You must know that the secretary wants to be promoted again. The first level is to wish the old man. Only if the old man agrees and says the last sentence, the secretary is likely to be promoted. It is estimated that the secretary can't keep this position.

Now just because he showed his attitude, he was personally given personal contact information and told him that if anything happens, he can be called at any time. What is this? This is power! This is the biggest network in my life!

395 The Secretary is Back

Mr. Ping was sitting in front of Zhu Yuanjiu, and his whole body shivered involuntarily.

Suddenly, the phone rang.

Mr. Ping saw that the call was from the secretary.

"Zhu Lao, is the secretary's phone."

"He?" Zhu Yuanjiu frowned. "Shouldn't he be meeting in Beijing now? Take it."

With Zhu Yuanjiu's permission, Mr. Ping dared to answer the phone.

"Hey, secretary."

"Tell me, what happened to He Jiayang!" Mr. Ping just picked up the phone, and there was an angry voice from Yin Guoan on the phone, "I will give you half an hour to let that sharp squad Everyone, come to the hotel immediately! I will send you the address and I want a reasonable explanation. "

"Secretary, this thing ..." Mr. Ping's face appeared embarrassed, and the phone was hung up as soon as he spoke.

"What's wrong?" Zhu Yuanjiu sat on his seat, drank a cup of tea, and asked.

Mr. Ping asked Mr. Zhu to take the initiative to ask, but he did not dare to say it. He replied cautiously: "The secretary is back. It was just yesterday. He wants me to pass by now."

"I'm back?" Zhu Yuanjiu's face showed a trace of dissatisfaction, "I'm meeting in Beijing, and I'll come back when I come back? What he wants to do!"

Seeing that Mr. Ping was angry, Mr. Ping quickly lowered his head and dared not say anything.

Zhu Yuanjiu snorted coldly, got up, and reached over to sweep the shirt, "Come on, let's go together."

Mr. Ping nodded nervously.

Han Wenrou is accompanying Henry to stay in the Duhai Museum. Henry's goals are mostly placed on some ancient armor and weapons.

Henry wants to find some clues through these ancient things.

Looking at the records of these armored weapons, the average weight is 30 pounds and upwards, carrying such a heavy thing and marching for a hundred miles, Henry envisioned it and did it by himself, although it is said to be easy, it can be placed in ancient times It is something all soldiers can do.

For these armor weapons, Han Wenrou, a violent man, also showed a lot of interest. Staying here with Henry did not seem boring. For some things, he was more enthusiastic than Henry.

The two were seeing a rise, Han Wenrou's phone rang, and after picking up the hangup, Han Wenrou had some uncomfortable face to Henrydao: "Gang Sun team called and said Du Hai's seal secretary, let's go there.

When Henry and Han Wenrou left the museum and came to the Metropolis International Hotel, they saw Sun team and others standing at the door of the hotel.

Yesterday, the candidate female player saw Han Wenrou and immediately came up, and said to Han with a nervous face: "Gentle, this time things are not easy to deal with, I heard that He Jiayang and his dad have also come, specially for the seal secretary Pressure, if you can't, let your boyfriend go first. "

"Yes." Sun team also stepped forward and said, "Gentle, in any case, we are all candidates for the Blade. The seal secretary will not treat us like that. At most, I will be reprimanded. Whether the punishment can be given is not necessarily, Your boyfriend he ... "

Speaking of which, Sun team looked at Henry.

Henry stood there indifferently.

Listening to the words of the two, Han Wenrou shook his head, "It's okay, this matter Henry can handle, let's go up and talk."

When she came, Han Wenrou was also worried about this matter. She also suggested that Henry should not follow, but Henry did not care about this matter. If the secretary of Haiyin really angered himself, then do n't Dry.

Han Wenrou saw Henry's confident appearance, so he didn't say much.

Sun team and the female player sighed when they heard Han Wenrou say this.

"Gentleness, they have already reported to the gold team on this matter, they will deal with it, and so on. You must not be impulsive. If you hit the seal secretary, it is not a trivial matter." Sun team reminded.

"I know." Han Wen nodded softly.

Several people negotiated downstairs, then called Henry, who didn't care, and walked upstairs.

Standing in front of that presidential suite, the Sun team took a deep breath and knocked on the door.

"Enter." There was a strong dissatisfaction in the room.

The door was not closed, it was a cover-up. Sun team gently pushed the door. As soon as the door opened, he saw several black bodyguards staring at himself and others with a bad look.

Sun team followed these bodyguards and finally saw He Dong and Yin Guoan sitting in the innermost.

"Seal Secretary, Mr. He." Sun team nodded and said hello.

"Oh!" Yin Guoan sneered. "So you still know my secretary, I thought, this is the sea, it's your world!"

Yin Guoan looked at Sun team and others with a bad look.

Team Sun smiled bitterly and did not speak.

Yin Guoan took a sip of tea and leaned on the seat. "Speak, who moves?"

Team Sun stood there with his head down, without a word.

"Why? Don't say, you want to shield each other?" Yin Guoan raised an eyebrow. "Since you don't say it, it's only me who will recognize me!"

After Yin Guoan finished speaking, he looked at He Dong and said, "Lao He, you let someone come out."

He Dong nodded and waved his hand.

From this small room in the same suite, a young woman emerged from the man who had just been expelled from the blade yesterday.

As soon as the young woman came out, say hello to He Dong and Yin Guoan.

He Dong said, "Yesterday, these scoundrels hit my son, leaving them unattended, and leaving happily. If it was not for her to take my son to the hospital, I am afraid that at this time, my son would have been away in one breath."

What happened yesterday, the young woman deliberately said the situation was very critical. Even after Henry and his wife left, they deliberately pulled out the fruit knife inserted in the shoulder nest of He Jiayang. She waited until he lost too much blood before she took him to the hospital. .

Yin Guoan listened to He Dong's words, and his face was extremely ugly. If He Jiayang really lost his life in Duhai, he would be useless to remedy himself. He Dong's commercial status would be of great benefit to his future promotion.

Yin Guoan looked at the young woman and said, "Come on, what happened yesterday."

The young woman nodded and replied: "Secretary of the Seal, I was originally a candidate for the Blade. This time the task was to protect Mr. He Jiayang from going to the high seas to discuss something. In the process of protecting Mr. He Jiayang, due to the team member Han Wenrou himself Because of the verbal conflict with Mr. He, Han Wenrou took the initiative to beat Mr. He. During Mr. He 's reasoning, Han Wenrou 's boyfriend showed up, and beat me and Mr. He again, and bought the secretary.

The young woman's words have long been thought of, in which he portrayed himself as a justice character, Han Wenrou et al., He was innocent.

What kind of person He Jiayang is, Yin Guoan knew very well that he understood what the young woman said about the conflict of words, but he did n't go into details. What he wanted now was a reason to blame Han Wenrou and others.

After listening to the young woman's words, Yin Guoan looked at Han Wenrou and others, "What else do you have to say? The candidate of the Blade, the country trains you, is it that you are beating the taxpayer?"

Team Sun quickly explained, "Secretary, there is a reason for this."

"Fart!" Yin Guoan slapped on the table with a loud bang, he looked majestic and looked at the Sun team, "You are only the captain of a candidate team, how about your leader? He is so managed, I Look at you, no one will be selected, all eliminated! "

As soon as Yin Guoan said this, Sun team and others looked pale.

The young woman stood behind and looked at Sun team and others with complacent eyes.

Suddenly, a sneer sounded, and Henry walked over, "Secretary of the Seal, so big an official, you are the secretary of Duhai City, can't you control the sharp blade?"

When Henry came out, the Sun team and others repeatedly gave Han Wenrou an eye, let Han Wenrou stop Henry, don't say more.

Yin Guoan looked at this young man who dared to hit himself, frowned, "Who are you?"

"Seal Secretary, he is Han Wenrou's boyfriend. Yesterday, Mr. He Jiayang was scrapped by him." The young woman quickly said.

"It's you!" Yin Guoan's pupils shrunk abruptly. "You hit someone, you are free from law, and you dare to take the initiative to appear. Is it like the law is like nothing!"

"I see the law as a person with nothing, it's you!" Henry stared at Yin Guoan, "Yesterday He Jiayang, molested a woman, I took action to punish you, even if you don't give me a good citizen award, I will be held accountable Are you deliberately covering up? "

"You fart!" He Dong, who was sitting next to him, screamed. "You said my son is molesting women, what about the evidence?"

"Good." Yin Guoan nodded, "What about the evidence?"

Henry pointed to the Sun team and others. "Everyone present is watching, is this evidence?"

"Joke!" Yin Guoan dismissed, "You snakes and rats nest, of course, whatever you want to say, only certification, no physical evidence, why should I believe you."

"That's great." Henry smiled, "You said I beat He Jiayang, what about the evidence?"

"The evidence is what I saw!" The young woman said aloud.

"You snakes and rats have only one witness, no material evidence, and cannot be counted!" Henry will return what was said by Guoan just intact.

Yin Guoan's brow furrowed and his eyes became colder. "Boy, your words are very sharp, but you have to make sure that these are all seas. It's me who Yin Guoan said, not yours!"

Henry looked puzzled, "You are just a city official, and you regard Duhai as your place? Do you still have this country in your eyes?"

"This is not something you should worry about." Yin Guoan sneered. "In Duhai, what I said, that's what. You deliberately beat He Jiayang, conspired with He Jia property, attempted kidnapping, all must be heavy!"

Yin Guoan buckled up a few big hats that he didn't need on the spot. It was too easy for him to do such a thing.

The Sun team and others suddenly became very ugly. They really did not expect that Yin Guoan had actually done such a thing, and fabricated all the processes and directly convicted himself! Faced with this leader of the sea, what is your own way, the other party can crush themselves with just one finger!

Henry squeezed his fist. In the face of this kind of person, he had nothing to say, just slaughter it.

Just as Henry was about to start, he shouted loudly, and sounded from outside the suite door.

"Seal the secretary, it's such a great official prestige. You can slander others at will and treat Duhai as your own territory. Do you want to betray your country?"

Along with this loud shout, the door of the suite was pushed open from the outside.

An old man over seventy years old, with his spirit shining and shimmering, walked in from the doorway, and Mr. Ping followed him with a pleased look.

At the moment when he saw the old man, Yin Guoan, who was still arrogant and arrogant, suddenly changed his face, and quickly put on a ridiculous smile, "Wish you old, how come you come."

"Why am I here?" Zhu Yuanjiu smiled and asked, "I want to ask you, you Yin Guoan, this time, you should meet in Beijing, why are you here!"

Faced with the question of Zhu Yuanjiu, Yin Guoan opened his mouth and did not answer. This time, he sneaked back by himself.

Zhu Yuanjiu only questioned, and did not intend to listen to Yin Guoan's answer at all. He looked at Henry with an apology on his face, "I'm sorry, this time, because of my own management problems, let me handle it."

I'm sorry for Zhu Yuanjiu's sentence. I heard that Yin Guoan was tumbling in his heart.

Grandpa, I'm sorry to this young man? How is this going!

Yin Guoan looked at Mr. Ping who was standing behind Zhu Yuanjiu. Yin Guoan never thought of the arrival of Grandpa Zhu.

"Secretary." Mr. Ping walked to Yin Guoan and whispered, "Secretary, this matter is not easy to deal with, this ..."

At this point, Mr. Ping pointed his finger at Henry, and then continued: "This honorable guest who wished the old man, when he went to the home, I wish the old man greeted him personally."

"What!" Yin Guoan's eyes widened, wishing the old man to meet him personally? What identity is worthy of wishing the old man personally greet!

"Secretary, yesterday that He Jiayang offended this big man, I certainly do n't dare to control it. Today I went to wish my family early this morning. Because of this big man's relationship, I wish the grandfather specifically praised me for doing well yesterday and gave me back Way, this is definitely not the one to provoke! "

"This ..." Listening to Mr. Ping, the expression on Yin Guoan's face was sluggish, and a sense of fear that could not be described by words appeared on Mr. Ping's face.

"Why didn't you say it early!" Yin Guoan blamed, if he knew that He Jiayang had been a good guest wishing the old man, this time, he would not care what he said.

"Secretary, you have been in Beijing this time, the phone has been shut down, I can't contact you. I wanted to explain to you today, and you didn't listen to me." Mr. Ping shook his head helplessly, he I probably knew in my heart that the seal secretary was probably here, just as he said, this career would not be able to proceed, and even wishing the old man a anger, he might be imprisoned.

"I wish you old man, let's see this for yourself. If you want me to deal with it, I guess you are embarrassed." Henry looked at Guoan indifferently.

Zhu Yuanjiu nodded thoughtfully, and really wanted the master Satan to handle the matter personally. That would be troublesome. With the means of the master Satan, the handling of this matter must be full of blood.

397 of 470

Zhu Yuanjiu glanced around the suite, and finally focused on He Dong.

"who are you?"

Of course, He Dong knew who the old man was in front of him, his business was so big, and he knew some secrets that ordinary people did not know, such as some real-power families. Seeing the old man Zhu Zhu asked himself, He Dong quickly said, "Hello old man, I It's called He Dong.

"He family?" I wish the old man puzzled, "What is He Qihong's relationship with you?"

"It's my father." He Dong answered honestly.

"Oh, I gave him a way, but he started the business."

He Dong nodded again and again, "Yes, my father often said that you are the benefactor of our He family."

"Fine." Zhu Yuanjiu waved his hand. "It's no longer your business here, leave."

Zhu Yuanjiu said, He Dong didn't dare to hesitate a moment, and immediately took the people away. As for the young woman, he didn't even take another look.

Yin Guoan lowered his head and stood aside, the atmosphere did not dare to come out.

"Okay, I wish old man, you can do this, I will go first." Henry hugged Han Wenrou's shoulder, "Call me if you have something."

After Henry finished speaking, he took Han Genrou and left the suite.

The Sun team and others, with wide eyes, listened to Henry and Zhu Yuanjiu's chat, and they all felt unreal.

As candidates for the Blade, their first lesson before training was to familiarize themselves with the ancient Chinese martial arts families.

What kind of status the Zhu family has in the ancient Chinese martial arts, they can't know more clearly. That is definitely the top five ancient Chinese martial arts families in China. Except for the few in Beijing, all Chinese nations wish the family the most power.

I wish the prestige of the old man, even when the instructor of the blade mentioned the four words of the old man, they all looked respectful.

But now, Han Wenrou's boyfriend's name for Mr. Zhu is an old man?

Moreover, the most important thing is, I wish the old man's attitude towards him also very polite!

Han Wenrou, what is her boyfriend's identity!

After leaving the hotel, Han Wenrou couldn't believe what had just happened. She looked at Henry, her face was full of surprise, "Unexpectedly, you even knew the old man Zhu, and wish the old man, but Taishan Beidou of the ancient martial arts circle in China! "

Henry hugged Han Wenrou, "Gu Wu also belongs to the underground forces. I have said that I am the top type of underground forces. Is it strange to know him?"

"You'll be proud of you." Han Wenrui covered her lips and chuckled, her man had such a skill, she was also very happy.

There is Zhu Yuanjiu coming forward, this time things are completely settled.

Henry and Han Wenrou had dinner together, watched a movie, and enjoyed the warmth of the night.

Early the next morning, as soon as I woke up, the news of the city's current affairs on my mobile phone released the issue of the stamped down secretary.

Han Wenrou didn't expect that the efficiency of Grandpa Zhu was so amazing. Yesterday, he gave the seal to the horse. He has a deeper understanding of Henry's identity and importance.

The two lingered in bed for a while.

"Yesterday you accompany me, today I accompany you, where do you want to go?" Henry hugged Han Genrou's shoulder.

Han Wenrou thought about it for a long time, and said with strong emotion in his eyes, "Why don't we go to Zhujia, I've long wanted to see what the ancient Wu family is like."

"OK." Henry nodded.

When she heard Henry agree, Han Wenrou seemed excited. She was very interested in Gu Wu. After coming to the Blade, she heard the news about Gu Wu's family, and she was already curious, but she understood, I have no chance at all, and I have no identity to go to the ancient Wu family, even the most common ancient Wu family.

Now, she can even go home, this is something she did not dare to think before.

Henry took Han Wenrou to Zhujiazhuang. On the day of Zhujia's comparison, Henry was already famous in Zhujiazhuang. He entered Zhujiazhuang without any hindrance.

Han Wenrou looked at the residential area of the manor, Yanwutai, and as soon as he entered the gate, he felt the difference from the outside world. Although he used high technology, there was always an antiquity.

Watching those younger generations on the Yanwutai who are struggling with their fists, some people specialize in teaching, and everyone is based on improving their own strength.

That day, Henry defeated Zhu Zhong in boxing. It can be said that it hit a lot of people, making the younger generation of Zhu's family work harder.

Under Yanwutai, several sweaty young generations of Zhujia were gathered around and drinking iced beverages.

"Brother Zhu Zhong, I heard that you have a force outside, is it true?" A young woman from the Zhu family looked at Zhu Zhong with admiration.

Zhu Zhong nodded, "It's a force, but it's just getting started, it's no big deal."

"God I wish Brother Zhong!" Another younger generation exclaimed with a look of amazement, "How old are you, and you are only twenty-three years old today. At this age, you will create your own power. Which younger generation can do it. "

"That is to say."

"Compared to you, we are almost like a waste person."

The sound of admiration sounded.

Zhu Zhong waved his hand. "It's not as good as what you said. I'm relatively young. There is no prestige. Even if you create a force, it is not easy to manage."

When Zhu Zhong said, there was a sad look on his face, obviously this problem was really hard for him.

"Actually, the management power is not as difficult as you think." Henry walked over with Han Wenrou to see that for Zhu Yuanjiu's sake, Henry also actively taught Zhu Zhong his experience, "You have to learn more about yourself People, what they need, and satisfying everyone's desires, they can be well managed. Of course, they can't be too kind. A qualified leader should make your people afraid of you and respect you. "

At first glance, these younger generations of Zhujia said Henry talked, glanced at their mouths.

A young man said: "Dude, I know you have great skills, but management power is not the same as personal skills. You should not look at any management experience. Just educate Zhu Zhongge here."

"That is, you think that the management of your own forces is a family, that is the ancient martial arts, one by one with arrogance and arrogance, who wants to listen to other people's words, and not face the elders of their own family."

"Yes, you don't want to talk big things here. When you have the ability to build your own power, you know how difficult it is."

A young person from the Zhujia family said, these people, born in Zhujia, are more or less arrogant. Last time, the entire younger generation was crushed by others, which made them uncomfortable enough. May Henry be pressed everywhere.

Zhu Zhongchong said to Henry, "Everyone understands the truth about what you said, but it can be done. There is nothing so simple. You don't have experience in this area and don't understand the sadness inside."

398 Ancient Wujie Gossip

"It's not sad, it's responsibility." Henry looked at Zhu Zhong and said in an educational tone, "Since you have formed your own power, you must be responsible for it. You are a leader, and you should do what the leader has to do. Knowing everyone and discovering everyone is your business."

Henry's words drew a laugh.

"Dude, don't you justify it here, will you? Are you our life mentor?"

"That's it! Who wouldn't talk about this kind of truth, wait until you can do it."

"Some people don't do it, they think they can do everything, and they can educate others. When they do it themselves, this is not the case."

There were sounds.

Henry shook his head. If these people couldn't listen, he couldn't help it.

There are tall buildings in Zhujiazhuang, standing on the top of the building, you can look down on everything around you and have a panoramic view of the entire Zhujiazhuang.

Zhu Yuanjiu was dressed in a Tang suit, standing in front of the floor-to-ceiling glass on the top floor, looking down on the entire Zhujiazhuang, his face full of sadness.

"Dad." A 50-year-old middle-aged man stood beside Zhu Yuanjiu. "You are interested today, it seems that it is not high."

Zhu Yuanjiu looked out the window, "Since last night, I have been restless and always feel that something is going to happen."

"What can happen." The middle-aged man said indifferently.

"You don't understand." Zhu Yuanjiu shook his head. This time someone wanted to destroy Zhu's family. Only he knew it. He didn't tell anyone. He didn't want to cause panic in vain. Is it thick? "

Over the entire Zhujiashuang, there was a thick fog.

"Aren't we just like that, when the sun comes out, the fog will disperse."

Zhu Yuanjiu shook his head, "Fog, will not go away today."

Zhu Yuanjiu looked at the thick fog and panicked in his heart. He always felt that something might happen today.

On the other side, Henry stood at Zhu Zhong with Han Wen Rou. For those younger generations, Henry smiled and said nothing more. He kindly wanted to show Zhu Zhong a clear way. However, since they didn't believe it, they naturally wouldn't take the initiative to say anything. The reason why he still stayed here with Han Wenrou was that Henry wanted Han Wenrou to learn more about the underground world.

Henry's status is too high, and all the things he touches are not touched by Han Genou, even with a sharp blade, he can't reach it.

Some things Han Wenrou will face in the future are also out of reach of Henry. After all, there are too many differences in level. On the contrary, it is the gossip that the younger generations of the family talk about. it works.

"You know, last time there was an ancient Wu family called Fengshalou, which was born out of the blue. A young man challenged several masters of the family and lost in 13 games."

"I heard about this. It is said that the history of this sandstorm building has been more than three hundred years, but everyone has never known it."

"Hey, there are still many powerful people in this world. Do you know the Liao family in Yinzhou? The whole family was killed. The fire was clean. It is said that even the law enforcers died together!"

"Really? Was it wiped out? Even the law enforcer had an accident?"

"So, don't be too arrogant in the future."

A group of people chatted, and finally looked at Zhu Zhong, and said: "Zhu Zhong brother, you have been rushing outside in recent years, you must have more knowledge than us, or will you tell us about it?"

"That is, Zhu Zhongge, you also let us know, so as not to go out and be ashamed."

Zhu Zhong chuckled, "What do you want to hear?"

"Zhu Zhongge, why don't you talk about who is more powerful, those who are a little older than us." One said excitedly.

"It's better?" Zhu Zhong made a reflection and spoke a few seconds later. "If it's strength, the current head of the Ji family in the capital, Ji Shouyi, is probably the first master of the ancient Wu family."

Henry pinched Han Genrou's little hand and whispered in Han Genrou's ear: "You remember what he said, these things you will come into contact with sooner or later."

"Well." Han Wen nodded softly and listened carefully.

"Brother Zhu Zhong, you said that the Ji family is currently the head of the family, isn't it young?" One asked.

Zhu Zhong nodded and responded, "At the age of about thirty, I just took over the throne of the Ji family for three years. It can be said that they are the top genius of their generation. Everywhere, you can hear someone talking about the prestige of Ji Shouyi. "

"This is too great, then, he was the owner of the Ji family at the age of 27?"

"The Ji family is the largest ancient martial family in Beijing."

"What about the second?" Someone asked again.

"Second." Zhu Zhong extended two fingers, "Jingcheng Jiang Family, Jiang Qing."

When Zhu Zhong said the name, many people were puzzled.

"Jiang Qing? Zhu Zhongge, why have you never heard of this person."

"Yeah, I haven't heard the Jiang family mention it."

Zhu Zhong shook his head and said, "You haven't heard it. It's normal. This person Jiang Qing is a martial arts lover. He is indifferent to everything except the things related to Gu Wu. He is looked at by Ji Shou. Is the biggest opponent. "

"Brother Zhu Zhong, do you tell us about the foreign countries?"

"Foreign?" Zhu Zhong pondered for a while, and said, "I don't know about the major foreign forces, but there is a power. I have heard that the leader of this power is recognized as the strongest man in the world."

Zhu Zhong said that at this time, there was a look of worship on his face, and he asked Wu Wu wholeheartedly, that the title of the world's strongest man was beyond his reach in his life.

"The strongest in the world!"

These five words make Zhu Jia's younger generation wide-eyed.

Someone could not wait to ask: "Zhu Zhongge, what is the force you are talking about?"

Zhu Zhong looked around, "Have you heard of, Bright Island?"

"Guangming Island?" Hearing these three words, almost everyone showed a doubt.

"Yes, Bright Island!" Zhu Zhong nodded, "That island is not subject to the jurisdiction of any country, beyond the world, the island's owner, known as Satan, hell leader! Satan's name, almost To say that any organization resounds means invincibility! "

When Zhu Zhong said these things, he was also a face of worship.

Although the young generations of Zhujia do not know how strong the hell leaders Zhu Zhong said, the island is not subject to the jurisdiction of any country, which has made them feel domineering.

Invincible and the strongest title in the world, not everyone can call it.

"Zhu Zhongge, how old are you Satan? How is he compared to Ji Shouyi?" Someone asked.

Zhu Zhong shook his head, "I don't know the age, but he is definitely stronger than Ji Shouyi. You know, the world's strongest title, the gold content is very sufficient. Ji Shouyi is not Satan's opponent."

Chapter 399

Regarding the name of Satan, Zhu Zhong talked about it, and he talked a lot, and said a lot of deeds, some things, even Henry had not heard of himself, and was placed on his head.

"Hell leader, this person's name is said to be able to scare children abroad. Some people say that he is a demon that kills people without blinking. He walks in the world. As long as he goes, there will be death. "

"And I heard that this person is horny, and almost every month, he will find dozens of girls on the island to serve him. These women on the island not only do not feel wronged, but are also very happy."

Henry touched his nose, he really wanted to go up and give Zhu Zhong a set of punches.

Henry could understand the crying child. When Zhu Yuanjiu was a child, he used his name to scare the girl. Henry also recognized it if he did n't blink, but what do the dozens of girls mean every month? Are you King Shan?

While these younger generations wishing to discuss the various gossips enthusiastically, a breeze blew the mist everywhere.

Zhu Yuanjiu stood on the highest floor of Zhu's house. He saw a yellow leaf floating in the air, swirling and slowly falling towards the ground.

Zhu Yuanjiu stared at the leaf. After a few seconds, his face changed drastically, and the people behind shouted, "Come on! Let everyone gather on the Yanwu Terrace, hurry!"

"Dad, this ..." The person behind Zhu Yuanjiu was taken aback by the sudden appearance of Zhu Yuanjiu, and was a little confused.

"Quick! Let everyone gather!" Zhu Yuanjiu roared, strode forward, and ran out of the room.

The man saw Zhu Yuanjiu so nervous, and he no longer hesitated, immediately notified.

The Zhu family is a well-regulated family, and it is absolutely a ban on orders. Zhu Yuanjiu ordered this. The family, no matter what they are doing, came to Yanwutai as soon as possible.

The air was filled with fog, and everyone stood on the Yanwutai, feeling that everything in front of them was hazy.

Everyone got together and looked back and forth, all eyes puzzled, and did not understand why the head of the family suddenly let everyone gather.

Henry also took Han Wenrou to Yanwutai. On Henry's face, he rarely showed a serious look.

The strong sixth sense allows Henry to feel that there is a restless factor in the air. This feeling is just like when he was about to usher in a war.

"Follow me closely." Henry grabbed Han Wenrou's little hand and looked around.

"Is everyone here? Let everyone come, everyone!" Zhu Yuanjiu took a big step in Wutai.

"Dad, it's all here." The middle-aged man who came up before replied to Zhu Yuanjiu.

Zhu Yuanjiu nodded. When he saw Henry in the crowd, he was relieved in his heart. Henry's existence seemed like a Dinghaishen needle.

In the sky, the fog is not dispersed, but the drifting dry leaves are increasing.

I wish everyone in the family looked over the top of their heads, it was strange, this upright summer, where the dead leaves come from.

Zhu Yuanjiu shouted, "Women and children stand on the inside, men stand on the outside!"

Zhu Yuanjiu's voice came out, and I wish everyone in the family was shocked. Such an order made everyone feel a different place. Some people who were still laughing at the moment, all smiles converged at this moment. His face looked around seriously.

There are more and more dead leaves floating in the sky, falling to the top of everyone's head and to the ground. When the feet step on the dead leaves, a "click" will occur.

The entire Yanwu stage fell into silence. Almost everyone looked closely at him.

With a crunch, Zhujiazhuang's vermilion door was pushed open.

A group of people in Tsing Yi costumes appeared in front of everyone in the Zhu family.

Watching these people slowly appear in the thick fog, Zhu Yuanjiu's expression was solemn and he murmured, "Come."

Henry, who was standing in the crowd, also set his sights on these people. On these people, Henry smelled a dangerous breath.

This group of Tsing Yi people, no more, no less than 20 people.

They walked slowly in front of the Zhujia Yanwutai, forming a row without making any unnecessary noise.

"I wish the ancestor Zhu Lie, the founder Zhu family in 1437 AD, has been inherited for nearly 600 years." A female voice sounded in the thick fog.

A whole row of Tsing Yi people spread out on both sides when this female voice sounded.

I saw that a fiery red figure appeared in the thick white fog, giving a sense of hazy and erratic.

This flaming figure walked slowly to the Zhu Jiayan Wutai and locked his eyes on Zhu Yuanjiu.

"Wish the contemporary owner, you know, you have already committed taboos?"

Henry didn't see the other party's appearance until the woman arrived at Yanwutai. The other party was wearing a red han suit, with a cloud like a high bun, and a hollow orchid bead was inserted diagonally above the head. Fiery mark.

"Who is your Excellency?" Zhu Yuanjiu approached the woman and asked solemnly.

"You are a dead person, you don't need to know too much." The other side glanced indifferently, "kill it."

Twenty Tsing Yi people standing behind the woman, at this moment, came to the Zhuji Yanwu platform, they did not have any weapons in their hands, but with a strong sense of oppression.

"Kill us and wish my family? It's a big breath!" A senior man who wished his family snorted, took the lead and grabbed the man in black who walked in front.

Faced with the catch of the Zhu family, Tsing Yi people's face remained unchanged, and the backhand punched out. With this punch, the Zhu family's person was beaten and flew out.

Everyone in the Zhu family looked at such a scene, and there was some disbelief in their eyes. The person who had just shot and put it in the Zhu family was also a master, but it was so easily blasted.

Zhu Yuanjiu looked at Henry in the crowd subconsciously after seeing the Tsing Yi man shot.

Henry also looked at Zhu Yuanjiu at this time and nodded at Zhu Yuanjiu.

The two of them saw clearly that when the Tsing Yi man just shot, he was breathing! Although it is weak, it really exists!

The defeat of the enemy by the Tsing Yi people made everyone in the Zhu family feel the pressure.

Apparently there are only 20 people in the other party, but they feel like they are facing thousands of troops.

"Wish the family belongs to the enemy!" Zhu Yuanjiu shouted.

All Zhu family members, with the wish of Zhu Yuanjiu, all set the offensive.

The woman in red stood in front of Yanwutai and chuckled. "A group of ignorance who do not know what to do is also worthy of competing with us. It is ridiculous!"

Zhu Yuanjiu looked at the woman in red, "Sure enough, you know the existence of Qi, Qi is deliberately hidden by you!"

The woman in red looked at Zhu Yuanjiu without a word.

Chapter 400

As these people in Tsing Yi gradually approached, some people at home finally couldn't help it again, and took the initiative to shoot at people in Tsing Yi.

These family members rushed in front of the Tsing Yi people, almost no accident, all defeated by one move.

These people in Tsing Yi's complexion have no waves, as if what they are doing now is as simple as eating and drinking.

I wish everyone in the family horrified, the other party's strength, so that they have an irresistible feeling, too strong, this is what they have never felt, even if it is the largest ancient martial arts family Ji family in China The strong, these twenty Tsing Yi people, have the power to sweep the entire family.

Zhu Yuanjiu watched his family's juniors retreat, and his face turned green, shouted, and rushed towards one of the Tsing Yi people.

In the face of Zhu Yuanjiu, this man in Tsing Yi was not as destructive as before, fighting with Zhu Yuanjiu.

Zhu Yuanjiu only made a few moves. He found that the opponent's strength was not strong and the speed was not fast, but every time he made a move, he felt a sense of uncertainty.

"Is this anger!" Zhu Yuanjiu faced this opponent for the first time.

Henry narrowed his eyes and watched Zhu Yuanjiu's duel with Tsing Yi people. After a few strokes, Henry stepped forward and rushed between Zhu Yuan Jiu and Tsing Yi people. Tsing Yi people.

In the face of Henry's fist, Zhu Yuanjiu did not dare to take it hard and quickly backed away.

Tsing Yiren's face, Gu Jing Wu Bo, finally changed, and took two steps back to escape Henry's fist.

"What are you doing!" Zhu family screamed when they saw Henrychong take action.

Henry ignored the people who wished the family, but looked at the woman in the red hanfu, "Do you wish the family love to kill each other?"

As soon as Henry said this, Hong Yi's eyes were light.

Zhu Yuanjiu was also shocked, and looked at Henry, mouth wide open: "You mean ..."

"I wish old man, take a closer look, the boxing skills of these people are similar to those used by you, or in other words, the boxing skills you use have many moves, derived from their use. "" Henry glanced at the group of Tsing Yi people.

"What!" Zhu Yuanjiu's eyes widened.

"Don't talk nonsense!" One Zhu family yelled, "We wish the family inherited hundreds of years, the family ancient martial arts from ancient times to today, how could it be derived from other people's fist."

"Don't discredit our family!"

There was a sound of cheering among the crowd at home. Apparently Henry's words angered them.

"Shut up!" Zhu Yuanjiu shouted. Zhu Yuanjiu scolded his juniors and looked back at Henry.

Henry smiled slightly, "I have a question, and I have been wondering why the old man Zhu found the existence of qi, and there will be news that someone wants to destroy Zhu's family. As far as I know, there is no force that can stare. I wish the ancient martial family like the family, pay attention to their every move, and have not been noticed by them. If you can really do this, it will be impossible to be nameless. "

After Henry finished speaking, his eyes were put on the woman in red again. "Your dressing style continues the style of the Ming Dynasty Wanli years, that is, the era when Zhujia's ancestors founded Zhujia. Will hang his own name tag on his waist, am I right, Zhu Junlian? "

After Henry finished speaking, looking at the woman's waist, there was indeed a wooden sign hanging there.

"You!" The woman in red has always been a dull complexion, and now finally changed.

"It seems that I said it right. You stared at Zhujia. When Zhu Yuanjiu discovered the stone cave, you uttered a voice in the entire underground world to destroy Zhujia and create a kind of everything you know and nowhere. The purpose of the illusion of absence is to make you fear. "Henry took two steps forward." A powerful organization, if you really want to be afraid, there is no need to create such an illusion. Method, but refused to let the gas leak a minute, you are hiding these things, it is awkward to say, you are afraid, in fear, and outside strength! "

The woman in red took a deep breath and slowly exhaled, "You think you have seen everything?"

Henry shook his head, "I dare not say that I see through everything. I only see that you and Zhu's family are inextricably linked. Zhu's family is a surname in the Ming Dynasty and has the habit of cultivating the dead, if I guess Not bad, these twenty people are all the deceased who you cultivated. You gave them the surname, the deceased is nameless, divided by number, then he! "

Henry suddenly turned his head, looked at the man in Tsing Yi who was closest to him, and grabbed him at the other side.

Seeing Henrychao arrested himself, the Tsing Yi man did not retreat, but went to Henry.

Henry's actions didn't mean to hurt the opponent, but reached out and grabbed a wooden sign that was less than the size of the palm from the opponent's waist.

Henry glanced at the wooden sign, sneered, and threw the wooden sign back to Zhu Yuanjiu.

Zhu Yuanjiu took over the wooden sign. At the moment he saw the wooden sign, his pupils contracted. On the wooden sign, there was awe-inspiring words like Zhu Sanjiu, just as Henry expected. These people, With Zhu as the last name, the first name is the number.

Zhu Yuanjiu pinched the wooden sign and looked at the woman in red. "You wish my family too!"

The woman in red chuckled, "Put up the word, I wish my family, and you are not."

"Fart!" A shout rang out from the crowd.

At Zhujia, there is a strong sense of family honor. Some people insult themselves and wish the family to bear it, but they can't bear to insult the family.

"We wish the family to inherit 600 years from ancient times, do you say that we do not wish the family?"

"It's ridiculous that only a group of foreigners dare to call themselves Zhu Family!" The woman in red stared at Zhu Family, "Zhu Family Orthodoxy, there is only one vein, based on your messy blood, the surname Zhu is all for the surname An insult! "

The woman in red shouted, her figure flashed, her long skirt fluttered up, and she grabbed Henry.

"Kill you first!" The woman in red stared at Henry, her eyes full of murderous intention.

At the moment when the woman in red shot, Henry felt a familiar feeling, which was exactly the same as it was in the European royal meeting.

Henry murmured in his heart. Sure enough, he used to be angry.

The anger is indescribable. The woman in red punched with a punch, as if a thin wall of air was placed on the fist.

Henry found that this woman's use of qi is far more than that of the president, but its power is much worse.

At the beginning, the president of the Wang Hui made Henry only able to resist, and the feeling of oppression at that moment made Henry feel a kind of breathlessness, but now this woman can't do that.

Faced with the woman's moves in red, Henry does not fight back, but only resists and dodges. He wants to take this opportunity to take a good look at what this qi is.
