

Chapter 1986

However, the commoners wouldn't know what the love knot bracelet meant to Moon God.

Once they'd met each other, they were bound to be together in their next lives.

Back then, she was still a puny Suzumiya Eigetsu when she gave the love knot bracelet to Ye Fan.

In China's culture, that was deemed as a token of love between Ye Fan and her.

However, fate was cruel.

When she became Moon God, Ye Fan had charged right into Chu Sect.

Evidently, fate had always been in their way.

No matter how many times Moon God tried to forget about that man, she'd failed.

Not only did time not help her forget about Ye Fan, but it had made it worse. Like wine, her longing for him had only gotten more intense over time.

"Have you not moved on from him yet?" Moon God's voice rang out in her mind.

"I'm sorry, Moon God. I-I just feel like I've let Master down."

After over two years, the martial arts world had gone through a series of changes. It was safe to assume that people like King of Fighters and Sword Saint had already forgotten about Ye Fan.

However, Suzumiya Eigetsu was not one of them.

In fact, every time she closed her eyes, she could still see the scene in her mind whereby the martial arts world from all the countries had gathered up around Ye Fan.

Although she didn't see Ye Fan committing suicide with her own eyes, she knew he'd descended into hopelessness at that time.

"As I've said before, I'll be there whenever Master needs me, be it dead or alive. However, I wasn't there when Master needed me the most. If I was by Master's side that day, he wouldn't have died." Although it had been two years, Suzumiya Eigetsu would still weep every time she thought about the past.

Ultimately, she still thought she was responsible for Ye Fan's death. What happened to Master is my fault.

"I'm sorry, Eigetsu. It's all my fault. I was the one who insisted on going back to Japan. I hope you can understand my point of view. As Japan's mightiest god, I can't risk my countrymen for an outsider," Tsukuyomi apologized.

As a matter of fact, Tsukuyomi had seen it coming. She knew Chu Sect was threatening her with the lives of the Japanese people. She knew it was just a trick by Chu Yuan. However, she still had to head back because it was her mission and duty to protect her people.

As she expected, the moment Demonic Duo of Chu Sect saw Tsukuyomi heading back, they left right away.

After all, Chu Sect's main purpose was to kill Ye Fan.

"Moon God, I understand. I don't blame you. It's just that I feel like I've let Master down." The more Suzumiya Eigetsu thought about what happened, the worse she felt. It was so bad that her guilt had affected Tsukuyomi's emotional intelligence.

Since the body had two souls in it, they could affect each other.

"Why don't we pay India a visit? If you don't go look for him, I doubt you'd ever have closure." Helpless, Tsukuyomi could only decide to look for Ye Fan in India.

Indeed, there were rumors of Ye Fan being alive in the past two years.

At first, martial arts worlds from all over the world were paying attention to these rumors. After a while, everyone had gotten too used to the rumors and just ignored them.

However, there was an exception.

And that was Moon God.

Regardless of rumors or not, she'd always visit the scene to investigate whenever she heard such news.

Within the past two years, Moon God had visited the foreign countries more than a dozen times to look for Ye Fan.

Although most of the time these rumors were baseless, Moon God would still look for him.

That was because she was unwilling to give up on any opportunity to look for him. So what if those were just rumors? So what if I've been fooled over a thousand times? No matter how slim of a chance it is, I'd still grab them as they come.

Just like that, they set out for India that night. Once again, she was on a journey to look for Ye Fan.

Meanwhile, in Folo Palace, King Folo, Haibu, and Bapei had been healing themselves for days. By then, they'd healed up to seventy percent of the injuries caused by Ye Fan.

Haibu looked at his scarred body and uttered in despair, "Chu Tianfan was ruthless! We've already used the healing oil passed down to us by our ancestors, and yet, we haven't recovered fully after more than ten days."

"Be grateful, will you? You're lucky enough to still be alive!" Bapei exclaimed.

Prior to that, they'd always seek revenge even if they'd been defeated by their counterparts. That was just how they were.

This time around, however, the three of them had admitted defeat after having fought with Ye Fan.

For Bapei, he felt as though it was a blessing to have been beaten up by Ye Fan, so he wasn't holding any grudges whatsoever.

Since Ye Fan had let them live and decided not to kill them, Bapei and the others felt grateful to him for sparing their lives.

In other words, the three of them dared not to think of ways to seek revenge against Ye Fan.

As they were chatting away, someone arrived outside the castle and reported, "Kings, we have powerful incomers coming to India."

King Folo waved his hands dismissively. "I bet they're here for what happened on Fen Tian's wedding day. Let them investigate if they want. These are all nobodies, so I doubt they could cause any trouble."

Recently, India had seen plenty of martial artists from different countries' martial arts world going in. Hence, King Folo and the rest were used to it.

King Folo allowed them to do whatever they wanted as long as they abided by India's laws.

However, King Folo wouldn't help them with their investigations. In fact, he treated all martial artists from foreign countries the same. He wouldn't stand in their way, nor would he help them.

In other words, he'd just not involve himself entirely.

"But she'd requested to see three of you at once, King Folo. She wants to ask about Chu Tianfan," the subordinate remarked.

"What's there to ask? Just tell them we're busy and ask them to buzz off!" Haibu fumed. We were almost killed by Ye Fan, and now someone wants to involve us in his matters again? Are they trying to cause trouble for us?

Boom!

As soon as Haibu finished talking, a bright ray of light was seen approaching from a few thousand meters away.

Those rays of light arrived like destructive thunders and sent the newly rebuilt Folo Palace crumbling down.

As the castle was collapsing, a saintly entity was seen descending from above and appeared in front of King Folo and the others.

“Who did you guys ask to buzz off?” The female entity looked down at them with her glowing face.

“M-Moon God?” King Folo and the others were stumped. What the f*ck? Have we offended the Gods or something? We've just been visited by a murderous god, and here comes another one? Although Ye Fan was scary, the one in front of us now is just as hard to handle as him! After all, no matter how strong Ye Fan was, he was still only ranked first in Sky Ranking. As for the entity before us, she's from the god realm! She's mightier than all the people in Sky Ranking! Over two years ago, we almost died when they charged into Folo Palace.

“T-this is a misunderstanding! T-this really is just a misunderstanding!”

“We didn't know you'd arrived, Moon God! You've honored us with your presence! Please forgive us!”

King Folo and the others were in distress.

Prior to that, Ye Fan had destroyed their castle, and yet, not only did they dare not utter a word in retaliation, but they'd even acknowledged Ye Fan as their master.

This time around, someone had demolished their castle again, and they dared not to say a single word to protest as well. Instead, they had to apologize.

It was a world where the mightiest fighter trumped all.

“I've heard about Chu Tianfan showing up in India. If you wish to live, tell me everything you know about him!” Unlike the other martial artists from foreign countries, Moon God didn't need to investigate the matter on her own. Indeed, she didn't need to put in the extra effort. Whatever she needed to know, she could just ask the three of them in Folo Palace because she assumed that if Chu Tianfan were to appear, they'd surely know about it. If they decided to keep their mouths shut, she intended to beat the information out of them.

Unhesitatingly, King Folo and the others smiled wryly and said, "We don't know anything! Surely those are just rumors, like the ones we've heard before this."

Thud!

When King Folo wanted to approach her, Moon God delivered him a tight slap across the face. He ended up bleeding because of the powerful slap.

"Moon God, why would you..." Haibu and the others were slightly infuriated with her violent act, they protested, "We—" Before they could finish their sentence, Moon God slapped them as well.

Slap!

"Regarding Chu Tianfan—"

Slap!

In the end, Moon God would just slap King Folo and the others every time they opened their mouths. She didn't even give them a chance to talk.

Chapter 1986

King Folo and the others were on the verge of crying. Is she here to investigate, or is she here to beat people up? If she won't let us talk, how is she going to find out about anything?

Rate the Translation to Get 2 Pearls.

Wait! I Have Something to Say!

Send a Gift to the Writer!

At that point, Moon God didn't like those three very much.

If it wasn't for the fear of consequences, Moon God would've killed three of them when Ye Fan was being forced to commit suicide because, after all, the three of them played their parts in Ye Fan's death.

Hence, the beatings were just a way of getting back at them.

Of course, Moon God was just taking the opportunity to let out her anger. She couldn't have killed King Folo and the others, even if she wanted to.

There were certain things only Ye Fan could do because he was alone, and he had no one to be responsible for. He didn't need to worry about the consequences of his actions.

Moon God, on the other hand, didn't have that luxury. As the guardian of the martial arts world in her country, her actions could directly reflect her country's stance.

Even if she were to beat them up, there was nothing much they could do in retaliation. After all, they knew how big of a difference in strength they had compared to her. Hence, they had no choice but to accept the beatings quietly.

However, things might get dicey if she were to kill them.

During the second world war back then, Japan knew it was going down for sure. Yet, its people refused to surrender and fought till the end.

If Moon God were to demolish Folo Palace there and then, India would definitely go berserk and declare war on Japan.

Indeed, there were skills to bullying as well.

Back then, the nuclear bomb wasn't dropped on Tokyo because everyone knew how sacred and important Tokyo was to the local community. If Tokyo was bombed, its people would definitely seek revenge.

Similarly, those three people were the symbols and faith of the martial arts world in India.

Unless absolutely necessary, Moon God wouldn't kill them.

However, Moon God could still bear the consequences of crippling them.

"P-Please stop beating us up. We beg of you! W-We'll talk, okay? We'll talk." King Folo and the others were already weeping at that point.

They had no idea why they were always getting beaten up. They hadn't even healed after getting beaten up by Ye Fan prior to that. And now Moon God is beating us up again! Our injuries are all back again after those days of healing!

King Folo and the others knew there was no way they could fool Moon God. Hence, they'd rather just spill everything out.

Finally, Moon God stopped beating them up. She then looked down at the three Supremes covered in blood.

As a matter of fact, Moon God knew the three of them were hiding something from the beginning.

After all, Moon God was a reincarnated god. After a few reincarnations, she'd undoubtedly seen it all.

From the moment she entered Folo Palace, she already knew the place had just gone through a world-shattering battle. Judging by the damage done to this place, the destroyer was definitely not an ordinary Supreme. Besides, even the holy mountain of India, Folo Mountain, had been crumbled! By right, a battle of this magnitude should've sent shock waves through all the martial arts worlds worldwide. Yet, I've never heard about it. Furthermore, King Folo and the others seem weakened. They're definitely still recovering from serious injuries.

Moon God had noticed all the telltale signs. She knew the three of them were hiding something.

However, she had no idea what they were hiding.

“So, Fen Tian had perished. He was killed by his own peers. He'd betrayed his own people and—”

Thud!

As King Folo was talking, Moon God had once again given him a slap across the face because that wasn't the news she was after.

She then glanced at Haibu.

The corners of Haibu's lips twitched slightly, and he stammered, “O-Oh! M-My senior, Duolun, didn't die. H-He'd returned and—”

Thud!

Another slap had been delivered.

Indeed, Haibu wasn't spared.

Moon God sent his bulky body rolling on the floor toward the distance because again, that wasn't the news she was after.

Ultimately, it was Bapei's turn.

Upon seeing what had happened to the other two before him, Bapei was on the verge of crying. He was contemplating on telling the truth. If I tell the truth, Ye Fan might kill me! If I don't, the woman before my eyes will surely punish me as well.

Thud!

The sound of a slap rang loud once again.

Bapei immediately spurted blood from his mouth, and he was sent flying toward a pond far away.

What the f*ck! This is so unfair! I haven't even spoken yet! Why did she hit me? Sh*t! She's such a bully! Bapei crawled out of the muddy pond, and his heart was filled with grievance.

Obviously, he was upset because, unlike him, at least King Folo and Haibu were given the chance to talk before getting beaten up.

While ignoring Bapei's misfortune, Moon God asked coldly, "You guys should know who I'm asking about, right?"

Moon God's patience was running thin, and she walked toward them once again.

When they saw her walking toward them, they knew they were going to get tortured again.

In the end, the cunning King Folo immediately shouted in despair, "O-Okay! We'll tell you the truth, okay? Frankly, we've received news of Chu Tianfan's appearances, and we've already sent people to investigate the matter. After investigating, our leads are pointing toward Elysian Faction and the Vias family. That's all we know. As for the rest of the information, we couldn't tell you even if you were to kill us now. We can't possibly make up stories to fool you, can we?" After that, King Folo slumped on the ground weakly.

"You guys should know the consequences of lying to me, right?" With that, Moon God left.

After she left, King Folo and the others desperately gasped for air as they slumped on the ground.

"W-We're safe..." Haibu uttered happily.

Bapei, however, was in no mood to smile. "King Folo, did you just reveal where Chu Tianfan could be? If he finds out about this, we're doomed!"

The color drained out of King Folo's face. "I didn't have a choice! Besides, we've only exposed Elysian Faction and the Vias family. I didn't say anything about Chu Tianfan, did I? Hence, why should I be blamed? Also, Moon God is a strong figure from the god realm. Let's see how Chu Tianfan is going to get through it this time around, shall we?"

In fact, everyone knew about the conflict between Ye Fan and the martial arts world in Japan.

Back then, Chu Tianfan had made his way toward Japan and killed its Supremes and Grandmasters. That was indeed an earth-shattering battle.

To put it simply, if it wasn't for the emergence of Moon God, the martial arts world in Japan would've become irrelevant compared to the other countries in the world.

Hence, the martial artists from Japan hated Ye Fan a lot.

In fact, everyone in the martial arts world knew Moon God hated Ye Fan the most.

As far as they were concerned, she hated him so much that she wanted to kill him herself. In fact, everyone thought Moon God would still be dissatisfied if he was killed by anyone other than her.

That was because Moon God had stopped Chu

Yuan when he wanted to kill Ye Fan on the shores of Eastsea.

She told them she wanted to bring Ye Fan back to Japan so that she could kill him herself. Only then, Ye Fan's sinful acts against the country could be atoned.

After that, the people forced Ye Fan to take his own life. Since Moon God didn't get the chance to kill him herself to avenge her people, she was so angry that she'd beaten up the Supremes that had rounded Ye Fan up. That was what everyone thought, at least.

Now, even a few years after Ye Fan's death, Moon God's determination to kill him remained. She'd come so many times hoping that she could find him and kill him. Luckily, his body was gone. Otherwise, judging by how much Moon God hates Ye Fan, she'd surely drag his body out of his grave and abuse it. King Folo and the others thought Moon God really hated Ye Fan that much.

"Yikes... Frankly, Chu Tianfan is quite something to be able to get on the nerves of such a strong figure from the god realm. He better look after himself, then." As King Folo and the others were watching Moon God leave, they couldn't help but feel bad for Ye Fan. Back then, he'd already died once in the hands of Chu Yuan, another strong figure in the god realm.

Chapter 1987

Will he suffer the same fate now that he's up against another figure from the god realm?

"Let's go. We should go there secretly as well," King Folo suddenly uttered.

"What for? We don't want to die!" Bapei was so scared that he just wanted to stay as far away from Ye Fan as possible.

"You're such a coward! Why are you so scared? We're Supremes, no? Even if we can't afford to fight against Chu Tianfan, we can still escape and run back here, no? Furthermore, it's not like we're going there to fight! We'll just watch from afar. Let's watch how Moon God is going to beat Chu Tianfan up!"

Rate the Translation to Get 2 Pearls.

Wait! I Have Something to Say!

Send a Gift to the Writer!

Meanwhile, in Elysian Hall, an assessment for Novice was being held.

Junie wanted to strengthen Elysian Hall. Hence, she had to bring in recruits. After the ceremony, Elysian Hall announced to the world that they were in the process of recruiting.

The Vias family was to provide financial support while Folo Palace was responsible for providing a safety guarantee.

With that, India's martial artists began flocking to the recruiting process.

Within days, there were countless of them who were applying to become a Novice.

Indeed, Elysian Hall was on the crest of a wave. Upon asking, they'd received financial support, manpower support, and backers.

Not only that, but Junie also promoted four seniors to be Elysian Masters of Elysian Hall.

Including her, there were a total of five Elysian Masters. Together, they had the highest authority over Elysian Hall.

Hence, they were required to have a discussion among themselves before handling major matters.

Chapter 1988

Of course, Junie was still the one making the final decisions because she was the first Elysian Master.

Nevertheless, Elysian Hall hadn't been peaceful at all.

From time to time, they'd have foreign powerful figures paying them a visit.

These visitors were mostly there to investigate Fen Tian's wedding.

Junie was well-prepared, though. She'd already ordered her people to keep their mouths shut and tell those visitors that they had no idea what happened.

Apart from Elysian Hall, all the martial artists from India's martial arts world were also instructed by King Folo to not reveal anything.

Since they didn't want to end up like Fen Tian, everyone knew to keep their opinions and knowledge to themselves.

That was why all the investigators from foreign countries hadn't gotten any useful information out of them over the past half a month.

However, although the investigators didn't find anything useful, the elders and Elysian Master of Elysian Hall had discovered something shocking.

They found out that the person who killed Fen Tian and ascended the throne with Junie was actually Chu Tianfan.

The elders of Elysian Hall didn't know much about Chu Tianfan because they'd been hiding in the mountains to avoid Fen Tian for the past decades.

Not only did they not know when Ye Fan became famous, but they also had no clue regarding the fall of Ye Fan.

However, they recently found out that Chu Tianfan was once a powerful figure in Sky Ranking, but he'd been listed as an enemy of the world after the evil deeds he'd committed.

When they found out about the truth, Elysian Hall's head of elders, the four newly appointed Elysian Masters, and elders went to see Junie together.

"Ms. Junie, you're making a mistake! Here at Elysian Hall, we'd only get involved with honorable people. Over the past centuries, our sect had always been righteous and transparent, and that's why everyone knows how fair and proper we are. You, as the leader, have the responsibility to uphold the sect's identity. You mustn't get involved with an evil person like him. Why are you asking us to hide his tracks and protect a despicable person like him now? When we get exposed, Elysian Hall's reputation of being upright would be tarnished! Besides, if we keep our mouths shut now, we'd be considered accomplices. Fortunately, we still have time to correct the mistakes made. Our suggestion is to tell the whole world that Chu Tianfan is hiding with the Vias family. After that, we should link up with the strong fighters from the other countries and restore justice by taking him down! If we do that, Elysian Hall will surely get respected by the martial arts world. In fact, we could even get famous overnight!" the elders of Elysian Hall suggested.

However, Junie rejected them sternly. "Not only I, but Elysian Hall too owe Ye Fan that much! If it wasn't for him, would Fen Tian be dead? Would we be able to have our revenge? If it wasn't for him, I would've died in Fen Tian's hands instead of being in this position today!"

"Ms. Junie, I remember you've healed someone back in China. The person you healed was Chu Tianfan, wasn't it? Since you've already saved his life once, the score is settled, no? Why do you feel like you're still owing him a favor? Of course, we know how kind you are. Fine, then. We won't attack Chu Tianfan ourselves. However, we must tell the whole world where Chu Tianfan is. That's the only way we can distance ourselves from him. Otherwise, all our hard work in building Elysian Hall will be in vain once we're labeled as his accomplices! By then, we're doomed! Please see the bigger picture, Ms. Junie. Although you're a woman, don't be so emotional!" the four Elysian Masters urged assertively.

Chapter 1988

In fact, there was a hint of displeasure in their words, and they sounded like they were threatening her.

Hearing that, the sect's elders advised as well, "Please see the bigger picture, Ms. Junie. Don't be so emotional! Otherwise, Elysian Hall will be done for!"

"Please focus on the big picture, Ms. Junie!" everyone in the hall shouted in unison.

They were so stern that they sounded like there was no way they could accept Junie saying no to them.

Upon hearing that, Junie was infuriated because she found their words degrading. Did they just call me emotional? That's an insult!

"Atrocious! What are you guys trying to do? Are you guys trying to usurp me?" Junie stood up and thundered.

However, Junie was undoubtedly weaker than them, and she wasn't as experienced. Hence, none of the Grandmasters took her statement seriously. "Ms. Junie, we're just taking the bigger picture into consideration. We don't harbor other intentions. At times, some things are to be sacrificed for the fate of the sect! That's your responsibility, Ms. Junie! We urge you to consider our suggestion. Otherwise, you'd be considered irresponsible, Ms. Junie," some Elysian Masters uttered coldly.

Junie's lips curled into a smile. "It seems like you guys have discussed beforehand and came to force me into submission. However, let me be clear. Ye Fan is my friend, and he's also a friend of Elysian Faction. As long as I'm still alive and kicking, Elysian Faction will be on friendly terms with Ye Fan. If you dare, you can kill me and take my position as the head!"

Junie was so angry that she'd put her life on the line.

Upon hearing that, the expressions on the four Elysian Masters and the elders' faces changed.

Initially, they thought Junie was just a weak rascal despite being the head of the sect. Hence, they thought she'd cave in and give up on Chu Tianfan if they were to be stern with her.

To their surprise, Junie managed to stand her ground despite her tender age. Did she just ask us to kill her instead?

Suddenly, the elders of the sect felt helpless.

Due to Junie's lack of prestige, most of the elders were not fond of their young head of the sect.

However, they wouldn't dare to usurp Junie because her position was endorsed by King Folo and the other Supremes.

If they were to either kill or usurp her, they couldn't afford to deal with the response from Folo Palace. In fact, King Folo and the others might get so angry that Elysian Hall could be destroyed as a consequence.

Although the Elysian Masters knew there was nothing they could do, they couldn't hide their anger, either. "Friend? Ms. Junie, have you fallen for him?" they asked coldly.

Their words were outright disrespectful toward the head of the sect. However, they couldn't care less.

After all, they were older and more experienced than Junie. In fact, they were all stronger than her. Naturally, they didn't feel the need to respect her.

What's the worst-case scenario? They can kill me and usurp me if they want. Since her counterparts had shown such disrespect, Junie decided to return the favor. "So what if I like him? So what if I don't? If I were to bear his child, what can you do in retaliation?"

When Junie wasn't even afraid of what was the worst outcome for her, she had nothing to lose. Furious, she disregarded all the consequences and didn't hold back on her words.

The elders of Elysian Faction were infuriated. "Y-You... You're the head of Elysian Faction! How could you say such nonsense?"

The elders were trembling with anger. She's ridiculous! Is that something the head of a faction should say? Shouldn't she think of ways to strengthen the sect? Why would she think about having a child with an outsider? That was exactly what the ancient president of India did! Instead of strengthening the country, he kept thinking about marrying into China and becoming a live-in son-in-law. In the end, he'd brought shame to the whole of India! If the head of Elysian Hall really ends up having a child with an outsider, Elysian Faction would be so embarrassed! In fact, that would make us a laughingstock!

Junie had enough. "There, I said it. What are you going to do about it? Overthrow me as head of the sect if you can!"

Who do they think they are to drive a wedge between me and Ye Fan? It's ludicrous that they would expect me to give up a decade-long friendship with him over a few words!

Despite how indignant she was, Junie could not do much beyond angering the elders of the Elysian Faction with her words.

She knew the old men valued the sect's reputation even more than their own lives. Their faces turning purple with rage felt more satisfying to Junie than beating them.

As angry as they were, the elders of the Elysian Faction could not do anything to reverse the decision of their volatile and unpredictable leader.

As much as the elders wanted to, they could not overthrow Junie and would not dare to kill her. It had never been something the Elysian Faction elders have felt the need to resort to.

After all, Junie was the predecessor chosen by the old Elysian Master. At most, they did not have much faith and respect for Junie, but they never dared conspire to hurt Junie.

“Ms. Junie, you will suffer the consequences if you insist on going your own way. It won't be long before the Elysian Faction will be in trouble because of your actions. I hope for your sake that you would have a proper explanation for the spirits of the past Elysian Masters! Let's go!”

By that point, Junie had arrived at an impasse with the rest of the sect. Driven insolent by desperation, the elders shouted angrily at Junie before turning on their heels and stalking off.

Junie paid their disobedience no mind.

She had her own plan to carry out to rectify the sect by training new recruits.

Although the sect elders often opposed Junie when it came to matters regarding Ye Fan, they still fulfilled their duties in aiding their leader with due diligence.

After all, like Junie, they shared the common goal of restoring the sect's former glory.

However, the quiet barely lasted a few days before it was disrupted again when an uninvited guest arrived outside the gates of the Elysian Faction.

The large number of new recruits were amazed at the sight of the beautiful woman who looked out of place in their midst like she was an exiled angel from heaven. All at once, they flocked around her to chat.

“My, what a beautiful girl! I say, miss, are you also here to join our sect? I'm afraid to disappoint you with the news that the Elysian Faction does not accept female disciples. However, do not despair! Perhaps you can be the wife of one. What do you say, eh?”

To their unpleasant surprise, the beautiful woman before them was obviously not as meek as they initially assumed. “Get lost!” she snapped in response to the frivolous attempts at courting her.

Hum!

Accompanying her retort was a sound like muffled thunder which swept across the entire courtyard in a fierce gust of wind and sent the prospective disciples flying in every direction as they coughed up blood amidst groans of pain.

However, the woman spared one of them.

The lucky one fell to his knees in his extreme fright at such a bizarre phenomenon.

Just the sound of her voice is capable of such damage! Is this what Supremes are capable of? This must be none other than the head of the Chu Sect.

The one left almost wet his pants in fear at that very thought.

There were not many female Supremes. The two most famous ones were Tang Yun, the head of the Chu Sect, and the other, Moryana, who had been missing from China for many years.

It is most likely that this ruthless woman before me is Tang Yun, the head of the Chu Sect.

"Please," the man begged, "spare me!"

The woman only replied, "Have the head of your sect come out to meet me. I have something to ask him."

"Y-Yes, right away." Sweating profusely with relief, the man leaped to his feet and bolted into the hall like a rabbit.

Soon after, Junie appeared with the elders of the Elysian Faction.

"Who amongst you is the head of the Elysian Faction?" The woman asked in a low voice as she surveyed the old men.

Though her tone was cold, it was at least considered civil.

However, the look of the newcomer suddenly changed when a young and beautiful woman stood up and claimed to be the head of the Elysian Faction.

Traces of hostility and anger appeared in her eyes. "You are the Elysian Master?" she asked coldly.

"That's me," Junie replied. "What can we do for you? We have only rebuilt the Elysian Faction a few days ago. I hope we haven't had any mishaps that have offended you?"

The woman ignored her remark and delved straight to the point of her visit. "Where is Chu Tianfan?" she asked with a hint of anger in her voice. "Have him come out!"

An uproar commenced as soon as her words fell.

Everybody present could see the hatred and resentment that the woman had for Chu Tianfan.

He's getting what's coming for him.

Upon learning that the woman was here for Chu Tianfan, the elders of the Elysian Faction turned their attention to Junie.

"Didn't we tell you, Ms. Junie? You refused to listen. Look at where that got us! Catastrophe is imminent, we hope you're satisfied. Are you still insisting on your own way? Are you still intent on bearing his child?"

The sect elders took the opportunity to vent their long-held frustration against Junie, who remained impassive and silent.

"Nothing to say, have you?" the elders snorted. "We've always known that women are unfit to lead. I really don't know what the old Elysian Master was thinking to hand over the sect to a woman. Look at that the state of our once glorious sect!"

As angry as they were, it was not the time to hold Junie accountable. The most urgent task was to get that terrifying woman to leave.

Therefore, the elders did not hesitate to act in the best interest of the sect.

Faced with the woman, most likely a Supreme, they addressed her in a carefully measured tone. "So you're here for Chu Tianfan, Madam. We know someone of that very name, but we're not sure if it is the same person you are looking for."

"I'll verify that myself," the woman said. "Just tell me, where is he?"

"We'll tell you," the elders replied, "but you have to promise that after we do, you will not make things difficult for our sect! We wish to declare that the Elysian Faction has no affiliation whatsoever with Chu Tianfan. We will not interfere with whatever you wish to do to him."

The woman agreed.

"That's all we can do, Ms. Junie," the elders said, turning back to their leader. "The rest is up to you. Just tell her where Chu Tianfan is and the Elysian Faction will be spared of her wrath."

Junie merely smiled. "I know you want to protect the sect, but it shouldn't be at a cost of deceiving others. The Elysian Faction has prided itself on being a beacon of truth. We took an oath to never be untruthful. We obviously have not seen anyone named Chu Tianfan. Why are you lying to the lady? Could you possibly believe that this dignified Supreme can be fooled by such a clumsy lie?"

"Why are you still protecting him at this point, Ms. Junie?" the elders shouted as they pointed their trembling fingers at her. "Have you forgotten your role? You are the head of the Elysian Faction! Are you going to disregard the lives of our disciples for that wild man? If you insist on carrying out your reckless intents, you might as well step down as the head of the Elysian Faction!"

Chapter 1989

Junie ignored them as she met the steady gaze of the woman before her. “I can tell you without hesitation that we do not know Chu Tianfan, let alone where he is. I would say the same even if you killed me.”

Rate the Translation to Get 2 Pearls.

Wait! I Have Something to Say!

Send a Gift to the Writer!

“What a strong woman! I didn't expect that the women around Chu Tianfan would go to such lengths for him for all the heinous crimes he had committed. What a despicable yet enviable man.”

King Folo, Haibu, and the others have arrived. The three of them hid in the distance, secretly observing everything that was happening at the gates of the Elysian Faction. To their satisfaction, everything was going according to plan.

As expected, Moon God showed up at the Elysian Faction ready to turn the place upside down. She really has a bone to pick with Chu Tianfan.

“Get ready for something spectacular, boys!” King Folo and the others were visibly excited at the prospect of the imminent confrontation between the women.

Junie's no match for Moon God. If she loses her life, Chu Tianfan will undoubtedly demand retribution.

It did not matter to King Folo whether it was Moon God or Chu Tianfan who survives their altercation as either scenario was to his benefit.

The martial arts world of Japan will not recover from Moon God's death. By then, the Indians would have an easier time extending their sphere of influence into East Aploth. If Ye Fan dies, on the other hand, then the agreement made with him before will naturally be voided.

"You are really in love with him to protect him even under threat of death," Moon God said coldly. "I wonder if he has ever felt the same way about you?"

Despite trying her best to suppress her emotions, the crowd heard an unmistakable quaver in Moon God's voice.

"Did you hear that? Why did she sound like that?"

King Folo and his companions were equally stunned.

I don't know what goes through the minds of these women. Weren't they about to fight to the death? Who cares how lovey-dovey they have been to Chu Tianfan? If I didn't know better, I would have thought they were jealous of each other.

"Women," King Folo and the others muttered as they shook their heads resignedly.

Junie was equally confused.

Chapter 1990

I'm sensing that this powerful woman is missing the point.

"I do not know what you're talking about," Junie repeated stubbornly. "As I said, we don't know any Chu Tianfan."

Moon God saw through Junie's deception at once.

"Do you really think I wouldn't dare to kill you?" Moon God whispered, the hostility in her eyes more pronounced than ever.

Junie was not afraid. "Whatever you want."

The elders of the Elysian Faction were visibly frightened by that point.

"Don't you care about the survival of our sect, Ms. Junie?" they demanded, near tears with despair. "Please, just tell her where he is!"

Though the elders were not afraid of death, they were most unwilling to die for an outsider.

As before, Junie turned a deaf ear and faced Moon God with grim reticence.

"So be it."

Moon God had enough. With a wave of her arms, a cold wind blew.

Chapter 1990

The unnatural power caused the air around them to surge. The blue silk of her long skirt swayed wildly with the gale.

Without warning, a long sword appeared in her hand. Just when she was about to bring it down upon Junie, a voice rang.

“Stop!” shouted the angry voice from behind. Immediately afterward, another crowd came marching from the end of the road.

“By my order,” Noa declared, “surround her!”

The armed guards of the Vias family, numbering in the hundreds, promptly had Moon God surrounded so tightly that it would have been impossible for her to squeeze through. Everywhere she looked, Moon God stared down barrels of guns.

After securing the threat, Noa immediately ran to Junie. “I’m here to help, Junie.”

Junie did not take kindly to the intrusion. “What are you doing here? Go back! You have no business being here.”

As Noa was a civilian and only a young girl at that, Junie did not wish to implicate her in the often bloodthirsty disputes in the martial arts world.

Noa, however, set her jaw determinedly. "I won't. You are someone he values, Junie. I won't allow anyone to hurt you."

As if to prove a point, she turned around to glare at Moon God.

"Who are you?" Noa demanded. "What are you doing here? Please leave, you are not welcome here. Don't blame me for bringing the full force of the Vias family down on you if you won't comply!"

"The Vias family?" Moon God let out a small scoff as she studied the charming young girl before her.

Another woman? That b*stard! Despite being worried sick for him, he's off picking up women all over the place!

The longer Moon God stared at her rivals who kept increasing in number, the angrier she became.

"Show me the full force of the Vias family, then!" she roared as she stomped the ground.

Centered on the place where Moon God stood, a powerful ripple of energy spread rapidly in all directions.

Whoosh!

Chapter 1990

The gust sent the guards of the Vias family flying back like sand caught up in the wind.

Noa's pretty face turned pale. With a sudden trepidation, she sensed that the woman before her was even more powerful than Ye Fan.

"Moon God is furious now," King Folo said gleefully as they rejoiced. "Somebody's going to die really soon!"

The show is finally about to begin!

Sure enough, Moon God disappeared in a flash and reappeared before Noa before the latter could react.

Startled by the inhuman speed, the girl fell to the ground as her legs gave way.

"Noa!" Junie hurried over to stand between the girl and Moon God. "If you've come for blood, come at me," Junie said firmly. "The girl has nothing to do with this."

"Don't worry," Moon God replied expressionlessly. "Neither of you will survive today."

Once more, she waved her long sleeves and sent forth a burst of energy.

With grunts of pain, Noa and Junie were sent flying backward by the force of the assault.

Falling to the ground with two consecutive thuds, the women coughed as they spat out mouthfuls of blood.

“Ms. Junie!”

“Quick, protect Ms. Junie!”

Though the elders of the Elysian Faction thought that Junie's injury was well-deserved and self-inflicted, they nevertheless rushed to their leader's aid.

Haibu and the others in the distance shook their heads with broad smiles on their faces. “What a way to die. There's no use in putting up a defense against her.”

Sure enough, the elders could not even get close to Moon God before being repelled by the mere flick of her palm.

The ones closest to the impact flew the furthest, sustaining several broken ribs as they coughed up blood.

Within a few breaths, the might of a single Supreme had thoroughly neutralized the combined forces of the Elysian Faction and the Vias family guards.

Chapter 1990

With their respective forces unable to defend them, Junie and Noa were left vulnerable to Moon God's wrath.

Dragging her sword on the ground behind her, Moon God sauntered toward Junie and Noa until her divine silhouette stood tall and imposing before the two women.

Holding her sword steadily, she aimed the tip at the throats of Junie and Noa. They were at the mercy of a single stroke of the cruel hand.

"No!" wailed the elders of the Elysian Faction. "How dare you kill our sect leader?"

Moon God ignored them. Her indifferent gaze swept across the two women under her feet.

The long sword in her hand glinted icily under the light of the scorching sun.

Just when King Folo thought that Moon God was going to let her sword fall, she suddenly raised her head slowly and gazed out. The resentment and anger in her voice echoed into the distance.

"Are you still hiding from me? It's been two years. How long more are you going to hide? Are you that cowardly to let these two confidantes of yours die to keep you safe?"

The cold wind sent the fallen green leaves up to the sky.

The crowd looked suspiciously at the holy and noble woman before them. For some reason, those present heard a strong sense of resentment and longing from the words of Moon God.

Even from a distance. King Folo could not help but feel a bad premonition.

"impossible..." he muttered to himself while shaking his head. "I must have overthought. Being of the realm of the gods, Moon God is strong, extraordinary, and refined after having her earthly desires cut off long ago. Furthermore, Chu Tianfan is but a child who has emerged in recent years compared to Moon God, who is a Supreme of no equal. The difference between them is too great. It is impossible."

Haibu and Bapei looked at King Folo in confusion, not knowing what the latter was muttering about.

"It seems like Moon God is out for Chu Tianfan's blood," Haibu said in a low voice. "She's using the women to force his appearance."

The whole world fell silent as they gazed expectantly in the direction Moon God was looking at and found no one.

Junie wiped the trickle of blood from the corner of her mouth and gazed fearlessly at Moon God. "Stop wasting your time. I've already told you we don't know Chu Tianfan at all. Even if you scream or kill us, he won't appear."

"Is that so? If that's the case, there would be no reason to keep you in the world."

Moon God's words were as cold as ice. The long sword in her hand was raised and slashed at Junie's throat.

"Junie!" Noa cried with tears in her eyes.

"No!" The disciples of the Elysian Faction disciple were even more shocked.

In the distance, King Folo and the others shook their heads and sighed.

They were thinking about how Junie had ascended to the position of sect leader just a few days before with Ye Fan's help and how glorious it was. After a reign lasting only several days, she would meet her end.

King Folo showed a look of pity. "One must be willing to bear the weight of one's crown. Though spirited, this girl does not have the ability to lead a sect. Her demise had been set in stone from the start. Chu Tianfan was the one to push her to the throne. Though it had seemed good for her, it turned out to be the cause of her demise. Chu Tianfan is the only one to be blamed for this girl's misfortune."

Just when everybody thought that Junie was going to succumb beneath the sword, a red glow suddenly flashed from the distant horizon. It streaked across the sky like fire.

With a deafening clang, it collided into the long sword in Moon God's hand and sent its blade down into the ground.

"Scarlet Flame!"

Junie was startled at the sight of the sword while Noa squealed with joy.

King Folo and his companions were visibly stunned as well. As one, they retreated further into the surrounding vegetation as they knew that he had arrived.

The bitter wind blew again sending the leaves fluttering and the sand flying wildly.

Suddenly, a thin figure appeared noiselessly where heaven and the earth met.

He had a handsome face. His thin body was upright like a spear. With the resolute tread of the dragon stepping over Eastsea, he approached the crowd.

From the very first instance of his appearance, the figure was still far away. When the bystanders blinked, he had already appeared several steps before Moon God.

“Ye Fan!”

“Chu Tianfan?”

“Is he really here?”

Some people, like Ye Fan at that moment, were born kings. Without needing to say a word, let alone make a gesture, the eyes of the entire world heralded his arrival.

Noa whooped while Junie appeared shocked and worried.

The elders of the Elysian Faction, on the other hand, looked grim.

This devil who was once besieged by and killed the whole world has finally appeared! It's out of our hands now!

“Two years ago,” King Folo said gravely as the trio gaped at Ye Fan, “Chu Yuan, the head of Chu Sect, destroyed you on the shore of Eastsea. Although you'd managed to escape by luck then, another god-realm warrior has come for your blood today. Who knows if you'll have the same fortune to escape as you did that year?"

Gazing at the man from a distance, they tried to guess Ye Fan's fate by weighing his chances.

One is the strongest fighter in the Sky Ranking, while the other is a god-realm warrior. The two combatants before us would demonstrate a battle that is unprecedented in the eyes of the world.

King Folo and the two were brimming with excitement, to say the least.

For Supremes such as themselves, the most exciting thing they could witness was a battle between fighters more powerful than themselves.

However, King Folo and his companions did not know that the intensity of Ye Fan and Moon God's emotions was no less than theirs.

When Ye Fan appeared, Moon God had forgotten all about Noa and Junie. Her entire being was held to attention by the man who had disappeared from her life for two whole years.

For a long time, Ye Fan and Moon God just stood staring at each other without exchanging a word. The silence between them spoke volumes.

“Hey, why aren't you fighting? What are you doing just standing there?”

After several minutes had passed, the battle that King Folo and the others thought was about to come did not happen. The trio gazed anxiously at the silent scene before them.

“I understand now!” Haibu exclaimed suddenly as he slapped his thigh. “They are fighting each other with their spiritual power! I have once read from ancient books that real Supremes, in addition to possessing extraordinary martial power, are also competent at spiritual combat. They are capable of killing without moving a muscle! As soon as the intent materializes, their prey would already have lost their soul. Look at them standing so still without taking their eyes off each other. They must be engaged in an intense mental battle!”

Bapei nodded, thinking it made sense.

Only King Folo remained unconvinced. Doubting Haibu's theory very much, he felt that something else was amiss.

Could that really be the case? That they are really doing battle with their minds?

The silence ensued interminably.

Ye Fan opened his mouth several times to call out the long-lost name. Even when the words came, he could not utter them at all.

Two years had been a long enough time for familiarity to become a luxury of the past.

Ye Fan could not bring himself to say the name that used to come so easily to his lips.

When the silence was eventually broken, he did not call out her name. "Long time, no see," he said stiffly instead.

A familiar voice and a familiar face.

The words fell into his opponent's heart like the key to a floodgate. The suppressed emotions hidden in her heart for many years poured out of her at the sound of his voice.

Finally, Moon God moved. She rushed toward Ye Fan in a mad dash.

"The fight's starting, King Folo!" Haibu shouted excitedly. "The battle of the gods is a once-in-a-lifetime event. Keep your eyes peeled, boys. Such a battle is bound to benefit our cultivation greatly!"

Chapter 1991

King Folo and Bapei tensed up at their comrade's shout as they nervously awaited the battle.

The elders of the Elysian Faction also realized that war was imminent.

"Take cover!" they yelled as they scrambled to safety.

Gods are doing battle here. Casualties will occur if we get too close.

Within minutes, disciples of the Elysian Faction and the guards of the Vias family fled in all directions in their panic to place themselves at a safe distance.

Only Noa and Junie gazed at Ye Fan anxiously.

"Be careful, Ye Fan!" Noa cried at the sight of the armed Moon God arriving inches from Ye Fan, while Junie made to get up to aid him. "Get out of the way!"

Just when the crowd steeled themselves for the destructive battle about to break out, Moon God cast her long sword aside before throwing herself into Ye Fan's arms under the shocked gaze of the bystanders.

"Master," she sobbed, longing and nostalgia ringing in every syllable. "I've missed you so much.”

Chapter 1991

Her sadness also penetrated the hearts of everyone present.

Rate the Translation to Get 2 Pearls.

Wait! I Have Something to Say!

Send a Gift to the Writer!

Despite the tenderness felt, the sudden turn of events undoubtedly stunned everyone. "What the hell's going on?"

Noa and the others were not aware of Moon God's true identity. They assumed that she was an enemy of Ye Fan, who had come to seek revenge.

King Folo and his companions were different. They knew exactly who she was.

She is the highest authority in Japan's martial arts scene and the only god-realm fighter in the world who is equal to the old sect leader of the Chu Sect, Chu Yuan.

It stands to reason that Moon God would be Ye Fan's mortal enemy, given the status she embodied and the power at her fingertips. Somehow, the deity of Japan, worshipped by millions, has thrown herself into a mortal man's arms.

King Folo and the others stared with wide-eyed disbelief as everything they believed in crumbled into dust of skepticism the moment Moon God cast her sword aside.

"Can anybody tell me what the hell is going on?" King Folo demanded. The recent developments had wholly exceeded his expectations.

The three old men exchanged looks of a blank shock, unable to offer an answer.

Ye Fan and Moon God did not notice the effect they had produced. They were not even paying attention.

At that moment, Ye Fan was all Moon God could think of. Similarly, Ye Fan only had eyes for her.

"Why didn't you come to me?" she cried with resentment. "You are obviously still alive! Why did you hide from me for the past two years? If I didn't get the news and came to look for you, would you have hidden forever and kept up your charade? Do you even care about how much I have grieved for you?"

Moon God had sensed Ye Fan's aura from the moment she arrived.

That was when she became sure that Ye Fan was still alive and that he was nearby.

Initially, the news of Ye Fan's survival brought her joy. However, after seeing Junie and Noa appear one after another, Moon God's joy turned sour.

D*mn him! Despite making me so sad and worried all these years, he has been happy in the company of other women all along.

“You'd rather be in their company than come to me, wouldn't you? Do you not find me attractive anymore, Master?”

With all traces of her divinity vanishing, Moon God was snuggling in Ye Fan's arms like the young girl she was when she watched the sunset with him all those years ago.

I would give all the scheming, planning, fruits of cultivation, and even immortality up to be Suzumiya Eigetsu and belong to Ye Fan forever.

Two years of separation, culminating in laying in his arms again, caused Suzumiya Eigetsu to pour her heart out to the man who had consumed her thoughts every day of his absence.

Her yearning for him was so intense that Suzumiya Eigetsu was even able to regain control of her frail body from Tsukuyomi.

Hugging Ye Fan tightly, she turned her tear-stained face up at him as she beat his chest like an angry child.

King Folo and his party were dumbfounded.

King Folo rubbed his eyes vigorously. “Did Moon God throw herself into the arms of a mortal man and simpering over him like a little girl? Is this the symbol of Japan's martial artists?”

Bapei was similarly stunned. “This... this is too much.”

Out of the three, Haibu was affected the most.

“Did Moon God call him Master?” he exclaimed as his jaw fell open in shock, unable to comprehend the nature of their relationship. “What the hell happened?”

Ye Fan hesitated for a long time at the weeping woman in his arms before finally heaving a sigh.

“Eigetsu, you are already a goddess in every sense of the word. Your majesty and divinity transcend above all living beings. Who am I to occupy a spot in your heart to such an extent?”

Ye Fan had complicated emotions for the woman in his arms.

When they first met, Ye Fan did not take much notice of her besides allowing her to follow him out of pity.

Later, Eigetsu's situation changed when she became the God of Japan's martial artists. Her new identity made any future with Ye Fan impossible.

Instead of pursuing the foolhardy course, it was better for them both to forget each other.

It was the best course of action for Eigetsu as she would not be implicated in an unapproved union and bring disaster to her people and humiliation upon herself.

That was also why, before he killed Chu Sect, Ye Fan had returned the love knot bracelet and severed their relationship of master and servant. To him, it was the best closure he could provide for her.

From then on, she would be free to be Moon God in all her majesty and purity.

There would be no danger of damaging her prestige due to her servile relationship with Ye Fan.

However, the subsequent development greatly exceeded Ye Fan's expectations.

At that time, Ye Fan never would have thought that Eigetsu would join him in razing the Chu Sect, which had nearly culminated in bringing disaster to her people.

It was an outcome that Ye Fan did not wish for. Trouble upon his loved ones for his sake was the last thing he wanted.

"No! As I said, I will be your servant until the end of my days, Master. Even if you killed me, I would still serve you in my next life."

Suzumiya Eigetsu's eyes were set as she made her proclamation through gritted teeth.

The more determined Suzumiya Eigetsu was, the more indebted Ye Fan felt.

"Why do you do this to yourself, Eigetsu?" Ye Fan lamented, his words extremely heavy. "I, Chu Tianfan, should bear the burden of my sins alone as nobody in the world would tolerate me. You are setting fire to yourself and causing disaster to your country and people by being with me. Forget me, Eigetsu. There's nothing I can give you aside from a bad reputation."

Ye Fan was close to Junie and Noa because they had nothing. Being in a position of power, he can use his strength to give them all the power and status they would ever desire.

Eigetsu is different. She has already reached the top.

There's nothing more I can give her that she doesn't already have. I will also drag her down by placing her and her country in great peril. Cutting off ties with Eigetsu is the best for her.

That was why Ye Fan had never intended to seek her out in Japan over the past two years, as he thought his intentions to cease his involvement with her had been made clear. Eigetsu's reappearance in his life was the last thing he expected.

"I'm not afraid, Master!" Eigetsu said fiercely with chilling intent in her words. "Come with me. Even China won't have you, even if the Chu family wants you dead, and even if the world doesn't have a place for you, I will always do. I don't care if it's War God Castle or the Chu Sect. I will destroy whoever comes your way! I will never allow anyone to hurt you again!"

Ye Fan shook his head with a weak smile. "You should know that the Japanese martial artists do not take kindly to me, and it will only make things more difficult for you if I come with you."

"It doesn't matter. They will do as I say. No one dares to disobey my word. I will destroy the entire family of whoever dares show you disrespect!" Suzumiya Eigetsu seemed to have already anticipated every possible excuse Ye Fan would make.

If those words were uttered by anybody else, it would be construed as bragging.

As Eigetsu was Moon God, her words were merely a statement of fact.

Chapter 1993

Since his birth, Ye Fan had lived through the entire spectrum of worldly experiences.

In his youth, he had been abandoned and humiliated by his family.

For the first time during adulthood, he found some semblance of belonging by being the Qiu family's meek son-in-law.

By only thirty years old, Ye Fan had already endured almost all the suffering and malice the world had to offer.

Despite having witnessed the worst of humanity, Ye Fan had never let it diminish the love he had for the world. People like Eigetsu showed him that the world was still worth saving despite the menace that lay within.

The secular world did not fetter people like Eigetsu, nor were they swayed by power. In their infinite selflessness, they reminded Ye Fan of the capacity for human kindness by going out of their way to aid him during his greatest needs.

Despite Suzumiya Eigetsu's willingness to give everything up for Ye Fan, he would never allow it.

After a long silence, Ye Fan chuckled lightly and caressed her long hair.

"Hush now, silly girl. Aren't you a little too old to be crying like that?" he said affectionately to the beautiful woman in his arms with pity in his eyes. "You're not the little girl who watched the sunset with me anymore. Despite being the figurehead of a country, you still cry like the little girl I once knew."

He could not bring himself to utter the words he knew must be said.

Therefore, Ye Fan purposefully avoided Suzumiya Eigetsu's earlier offer.

Anyone who remotely knew Ye Fan would see that he was a proud man.

Even if he were ruined without any hope of rising again, the pride in his heart would never allow him to hide abroad in a woman's shelter.

Suzumiya Eigetsu was not satisfied. "You haven't answered me yet, Master. Do you have me in your heart?" she persisted, turning her head to show him the sparkle of determination in her eyes. "Do you still consider me your own? I only have you to rely on in this world, Master. I won't allow you to cast me aside again."

The despair in her voice made her sound like an abandoned child destined to trudge alone in the dark wasteland of the world, and Ye Fan was the only light that gave her warmth. She could not imagine what would become of her if the only light had left her.

What kind of loneliness would one lead for the rest of their life if there is no one left to live for? What, then, would be the meaning of life?

Suzumiya Eigetsu had been alone for twenty years until she met Ye Fan.

On the other hand, Moon God had only met Chu Tianfan after millennia of solitude.

Ye Fan would never have expected to be the source of yearning and sustenance for life for the woman in his arms.

Despite being moved by her gesture, he sighed again. "I really will hurt you, Eigetsu."

"I'm not afraid!" Suzumiya Eigetsu shouted stubbornly.

Realizing that she was not about to be dissuaded, Ye Fan was forced to nod. "I promise to go to Japan to seek your aid if ever there is a day that I, Chu Tianfan, have become truly desperate."

Like the lotus after a rain, Suzumiya Eigetsu's tearful face blossomed into a bright smile immediately upon obtaining his promise.

"I knew that you wouldn't abandon me, Master."

The Sword God of Japan, Mochizuki Kawa, would be shocked by the scene if he was here as Suzumiya Eigetsu had not smiled since the defeat of Ye Fan and Chu Sect.

However, Suzumiya Eigetsu smiled so easily in Ye Fan's presence. Her face lit up so beautifully that it was as if her period of self-induced misery had never occurred.

In her excitement, Suzumiya Eigetsu seemed to have forgotten her other identity and that a large group of stunned bystanders surrounded them.

To everybody's further shock, the mightiest god of Japan, whose very name made the world's fiercest warriors tremble, tiptoed to kiss Ye Fan's lips forcefully in full view of the crowd.

Her sudden assault caught him by surprise. His eyes widened in shock as his body lurched.

I'm done for if this spreads to Mucheng's ears. D*mn it, Eigetsu!

Ye Fan was so struck with horror that his wife might find out that he did not notice the reaction of the bystanders around them.

Every single member of the Elysian Mall and the Vias family was rooted to the spot in shock.

What the hell is going on? Wasn't she about to kill him?

"Is kissing somebody before you kill them the trend now? If that's the case, I would like to die by her hand, please!"

As shocked as they were, the bystanders were also full of envy.

What more could one want in life after being kissed by such an alluring woman?

However, their shock was nothing compared to King Folo and his companions.

When Moon God leaned in for the kiss, they nearly passed out from anger.

Moon God is the most powerful warrior in Japan and one of only two god-realm fighters in the world! Why is this symbol of purity and prestige kissing a mortal man like Ye Fan? What has the world become?

King Folo and the other two were beside themselves with indignation.

Shouldn't you cut Ye Fan down with your sword, Moon God? Don't you have a mortal feud with him? Are you trying to kill us by calling him “Master” and kissing him in front of people?

Having come all this way to witness a world-shattering battle, it was only until the kiss had occurred that they realized that the events were going off-script. We came to watch a fight, not a display of romance! Man, kids these days need to control their hormones!

Despite the panic experienced by most, Noa and Junie finally began to relax from their initial worry.

As the two of them were also women, they undoubtedly understood Suzumiya Eigetsu and could see how smitten she was with Ye Fan.

“It seems that we have misunderstood her, Junie,” Noa whispered, her mind spinning with emotions at the sight of the kiss. “She's not here to fight. She just wants to reunite with the man she loves.”

It is only natural for a man as capable as Ye Fan to attract girls like Suzumiya Eigetsu. Junie was already tough to compete with, and now there's another. Oh, how bleak my prospects seem!

Once, Noa felt that she was the brightest star in the night sky whose appearance in public was a highly anticipated affair.

Chapter 1993

It wasn't until she got to know Ye Fan that Noa realized she was just an ordinary star amongst thousands of brighter candidates.

On the other hand, Junie was already used to it as Ye Fan had always been flirty throughout their acquaintance.

He hasn't even sorted out the previous affair with Ms. Tang of the Chu Sect, and here he is toying with another woman's heart.

"How many women does he have to provoke before he stops!" Junie muttered as she wrinkled her nose angrily. "Wait until I return to Livingsfill. I'm going to tell your wife everything. If I can't control you, perhaps she would fare better!"

Rate the Translation to Get 2 Pearls.

Wait! I Have Something to Say!

Send a Gift to the Writer!

“B*stard! You're such a b*stard, Ye Fan!”

Before Junie could make her disgruntlement known, someone from behind her spoke up and revealed what Junie was thinking.

To be more accurate, that “someone” was not a person, but rather a calf.

After a few days of disappearing without a trace, Huangniu suddenly showed up at that place.

It poked out its head from among the crowds. At the sight of the two hugging and kissing, its eyes reddened in frustration.

“My poor Wan'er who taught you her knowledge, who took care of you, treated you with incredible medicine, who gave you the Order of Yanhuang, who's still waiting patiently for you to go back to her! With her huge bosom, long legs, and pretty face, she should be your greatest blessing!” Huangniu ranted.

“But you! You've only been out a few days. Is it not enough for you to go around hugging women that you have to kiss one too? Are you still human, Ye Fan?” the calf continued.

“How dare you play three women at the same time? I don't even have one! You're such a selfish monster! You can't even share one with me?”

Huangniu's sudden cry was like an uproar amidst the silence.

In the blink of an eye, everyone turned their attention toward Huangniu.

While most people marveled at the fact that a calf could speak, Noa and Junie were too busy getting furious at what they had just found out.

“Wan'er?” Junie gripped her fists tightly.

“You f*cking b*stard! There's another one?”

Junie was on the brink of losing her mind!

There she was thinking that Ye Fan was loyal and honorable.

As it turned out, Ye Fan was a jerk who stole hearts where ever he went.

Hmph! All men are indeed trash!

With great difficulty, Ye Fan pushed Eigetsu away from him.

He had had enough of it.

He had had enough of that calf running its mouth and ruining his reputation.

"You stupid cow! You're the monster!" Ye Fan hollered.

"It's time for you to meet your end!"

With a knife in his hand, Ye Fan charged toward the calf and chased it for quite some distance.

It was only when the man and the calf ran deep into the forest did Ye Fan kept his knife away and collapsed onto the grass, gasping heavily for air.

"Man, that woman is crazy! I am a hundred percent sure she would have choked me to death!" Ye Fan panted.

Of course, Ye Fan did not plan to actually slaughter Huangniu.

He was merely finding an excuse to get out of the situation.

If Ye Fan were to stay there a second longer, he had no doubt that Eightsu would have squeezed him dry.

"Wow! You really are a jerk. You achieved what you set out for, yet here you are still pretending to be obliging? If you don't want to, I'll kiss her on your behalf!"

Huangniu rolled its eyes at him.

“Don't you dare! I have yet to settle the score with you regarding the last time you harassed Eigetsu and the others!” Ye Fan tossed Huangniu a glare.

“You're blaming me? You're the one that was being the lousy friend and only caring for your own, leaving me—your dear friend—to fend for myself!” Huangniu huffed in dissatisfaction.

“Since when are we friends?” Ye Fan retorted. He had known Huangniu for quite a while now, and it was safe to say that the calf was incredibly cunning and scheming.

Whoever Huangniu considered a friend would very often be on the receiving end of his slyness.

“Whatever. I'm gonna get myself some ladies. Goodbye!” Huangniu had no intentions to continue the pointless argument with Ye Fan.

With the free time it had, Huangniu naturally wanted to live its life to the fullest.

However, Ye Fan would not let it go so easily. He grabbed the calf by its tail and yanked it back.

With that movement, Huangniu's wrath was unleashed. “You b*stard! Pull my tail again and I'll make sure you don't see the light of another day!”

Huangniu was furious.

Even Wan'er had never pulled on its tail.

Yet this poor excuse of a man dared to do so!

“Alright, alright, alright. I'll keep that in mind.” Ye Fan let go of its tail and raised his hand in surrender.

“But don't go yet. I have something to ask you,” continued Ye Fan.

“The Order of Yanhuang that you mentioned, are you referring to this?” As he was speaking, Ye Fan pulled out a quaint and ancient-looking token. “What's the purpose of this thing?”

The military token was given to him by Duanmu Wan'er before she left.

Ye Fan had spent a long time examining it. All he knew was that it was not an ordinary token, but he did not know how to use it, and he definitely had no clue about its function.

“You will know in the future. That token has its great use. When the end of the world approaches and all people under the heavens come to perish, then you'll know the use of the Order of Yanhuang,” stated Huangniu in a calm manner.

"D*mn it, you stupid cow! Are you pulling on my leg?" Annoyance surged through Ye Fan's veins.

"The end of the world? The world is fine, why would you suddenly bring that up? It'll probably take another hundreds of million years before the earth is destroyed!

Ye Fan could not help but disregard Huangniu's words as nonsense.

However, Huangniu just shook its head and sighed.

"It's up to you whether you want to believe it or not, but heed my advice: life is short, so have fun while you still can. All resentment, all power, and everything else in this world is mere vapor. When everything is destroyed during the end times, what use is fortune, status, or power? Everything will come crashing down in a matter of seconds. Only joy is eternal! Now that we still have time, we should live life to the fullest."

Ye Fan was rendered speechless.

"Troubled times are coming. Once the heavenly gates had been opened, the Supreme would cease to exist." That sentence was brought up again.

Still remaining silent, Ye Fan kept his eye on the calf.

“Everyone will die one day...”

As Huangniu spoke, it slowly walked away.

Only its voice lingered in the forest, echoing through the woods.

“Does this calf have mad cow disease? Saying all sorts of nonsense...” muttered Ye Fan as he rolled his eyes.

It was not the first time he had heard such sayings from Huangniu.

Back in the cave, such sayings were also inscribed on the wall.

Nevertheless, Ye Fan was not convinced by it.

At the moment, even though the Chu Sect was the strongest in the martial arts world, War God Castle of China, Folo Palace of India, and Order Of Kings of Western Epea had their fair share of powerful martial artists.

In general, their power could maintain the balance in the martial arts world.

Therefore, how could troubled times be coming in the current situation?

Chapter 1994

Furthermore, even if the Chu Sect suddenly turned ambitious and started taking over the martial arts world of the entire planet, only a few Supremes would lose their lives at most.

However, to say all the Supreme fighters would die was a stretch. It was obviously nonsense.

Thus, Ye Fan was not concerned by those sayings.

The top priority at the moment was to take care of the Chu Sect.

When Ye Fan returned to Elysian Hall once again, the crowd had dispersed.

Most of the injured people had been sent to the hospital.

As for King Folo and the rest, they had fled as far as it was possible, terrified that they would bump into Ye Fan.

However, Junie, Noa and Suzumiya Eigetsu did not leave.

In the huge castle, the three women were seated in their respective seats, not talking to each other. An awkward silence hung in the atmosphere within the castle.

The moment Ye Fan entered, he immediately felt the tension in the air. "Uh... are you three chatting? If so, do continue, I'll leave now to not disturb you."

In that situation, Ye Fan decided it was best to stay as far as possible. If not, he would land himself in hot water.

"Come back here!" Filled with wrath, Junie rose from her seat and thundered.

"Such insolence! How dare you yell at my Master?" Suzumiya Eigetsu shot up from her seat as well while snapping at Junie in anger.

"Hmph! Looks like the roles have been reversed! Ye Fan himself has not even spoken yet, but someone has gotten anxious!" Sarcasm laced Noa's words as she stated coolly. Her hostility against Suzumiya Eigetsu was tangible.

Not taking into consideration the fact that Suzumiya Eigetsu almost killed her earlier, the fact that Suzumiya Eigetsu was acting hostile toward Junie was enough of a reason for Noa to dislike her.

"Stay in your place! How dare a small fry like you who knows nothing about the martial arts world insult me?" Suzumiya Eigetsu's gaze turned cold as she released a stupendous force. The overwhelming force choked Noa, causing her to pale instantly.

“Noa!” Junie was shocked. She then quickly glared at Suzumiya Eigetsu. “If you hurt her, I will never let you off the hook!” hollered Junie in panic.

Seeing that the women were about to break into a fight, Ye Fan quickly ran inside to intervene.

“Eigetsu, enough. Control yourself. They are both my friends,” Ye Fan told Suzumiya Eigetsu.

Immediately, Suzumiya Eigetsu felt aggrieved. “Hmph, you're being unfair, Master. Why are you only scolding me?”

“I...” Ye Fan was at a loss for words.

Agony was written all over his face, but for the sake of fairness, he had no choice but to say something to Junie and Noa as well.

“It was all a misunderstanding back there. Eigetsu did not have any bad intentions. You know, as they say, some relationships start with a fight. Now that you are friends, all of you must get along with each other.” Having said that, Ye Fan laughed to lighten the mood.

It was the first time he had encountered such a situation. Not knowing how to comfort them, laughing was the only thing he could do.

However, Ye Fan was the only one laughing.

The awkwardness made Ye Fan want to dig a hole and bury himself in the ground.

“Get along? In your dreams!” bellowed Junie.

“Can't wait to see you explaining yourself to your wife when you go back!”

Junie tossed a fierce glare at Ye Fan before leaving with Noa.

How could Junie and Noa not be angry?

The Moon God had fought their disciples upon arrival without a care in the world.

Not to mention nearly killing Noa and Junie as well.

At first, they had thought Ye Fan could give them justice.

However, it seemed like he was as helpful as a puddle of mud.