

When His Eyes Opened Chapter 2206

Chapter 2206

After Maggie heard what her mother said, it was as if an electric current hit directly.

“Where is Eric?” Ian stared at the front of the stage, unable to see him at all.

“On the stage! The one who sang on the stage...that’s Eric Santos!” Maxine could not wait to fly from the screen to the scene.

“Mom, where is Eric on the stage! The one on the stage is Eric Santos, the big star!”

“Eric Santos is Eric, both names belong to one guy. My God! I said the last time I saw this guy, Why is he so familiar! It turns out that he is the big star Eric Santos!” After Maxine said this, her blood pressure rushed up, “No, no, no! I’m so dizzy...I Gotta lie down for a while...”

The video hung up.

Ian and Maggie looked at each other in shock.

Ian: “Sister, what’s going on?!”

“How do I know what’s going on! Isn’t it that guy you went to see?” Maggie also fainted.

“Yes! that guy I saw was the fat guy! I was playing games with him just now! It’s not Eric at all! If Eric Santos was Eric, would I not know?” Ian Having said that, the dynamic music on the stage stopped abruptly.

on the stage, after Eric Santos finished one song, another singer walked up to the stage and put his arm around his shoulder.

“I just found out that my good friend Eric Santos also came to the scene. So I specially invited him to sing this song for everyone! Are you happy?!” After the singer finished speaking, she raised the microphone and faced the audience.

“Happy!” Under the stage, the voices were full of people.

“Eric Santos, why didn’t you come over and tell me in advance? Who did you come with today?” The singer chatted with Eric in front of everyone.

“Uh...I came with my assistant.” Eric said suddenly, “But there are too many people here, and my assistant is gone.”

“Boss, I’m here!” Off the stage, Frank turned towards The stage waved violently.

Not far away, Ian was stunned. His little brother turned out to be Eric's assistant!

"Sister, Eric's assistant is the Frank I saw!" Ian took his sister's arm and spoke excitedly.

Maggie's cell phone rang again, and it was her mother's call.

Maggie picked up the phone.

"Maggie, I just called Eric's mother and asked Eric's full name... Eric's mother told me that Eric Santos is Eric! Ah, ah, ah! Maggie! Ahhh! I think I might be going crazy!" Maxine's cry made Maggie realize how absurd the whole thing was.

On the last blind date, she asked her brother to come forward, and Eric asked her assistant to come forward, so they never actually met.

"Sister, your blind date is Eric Santos?" Ian laughed when she heard what her mother said just now, "If I tell this story, others will think that I'm mad. How could our family be possible? Have something to do with a big star like Eric Santos?"

"Eric Santos, I can't be with him."

"I know. No matter how awesome Eric Santos is, it's no use if you don't like it."

"No... People don't look down on me at all." Maggie patted her brother's head awkwardly, "How could I not like Eric Santos? No one in this world would dislike him, right? Let's go home! Don't daydream "

Sister! Are you inferior?" Ian looked at the uncomfortable expression on his sister's face and teased, "I haven't seen you feel inferior before!"

Maggie: "You stinky boy! Stop making fun of me! If you let you Go on a blind date with Hepburn, do you feel inferior?"

Ian: "...I don't have low self-esteem! If what you said is true, I'd be happy to die!"

"Go back to sleep! There is everything in your dreams."

...

Eric got off the stage, and the assistant immediately took him away quickly.

“Boss, how can you be so headstrong? We didn’t bring bodyguards out!” Frank was scared to death.

Eric: “There are security guards at the scene to maintain order.”

Frank: “It’s not very safe! I saw Maggie...”

“What you saw is fake. Avery has seen the real Maggie, a very quiet girl, exactly as in the photo. She has a younger brother. Her whatsapp profile picture is the photo of her younger brother.” Eric has sorted out the matter, “What you saw should be her younger brother. I was forced to go out on a blind date by my family. I am also a victim.”

“What a victim, her blind date is you! If I were her, I would be too happy.” Frank drove out of the car and left Noisy seaside.

Eric: “Frank, not everyone thinks the same as you.”

Frank: “I don’t understand. But I don’t need to understand. You and her will not have any interaction in the future.”

Eric: “Yeah.”

Mike actually wanted to stay on the scene, but Avery and Hayden were leaving, and Chad was going back to Aryadelle with Avery tomorrow, so he was too embarrassed to stay up late tonight with Mike.

Chad was leaving, and Mike wouldn’t have much fun here alone, so he went with them.

“Avery, are you going back alone? Go back, and then what?” On the way back, Mike asked Avery. He wanted to know Avery’s plan after returning.

“That person told me that Margaret might be pretending to be a ghost.” Avery replied, “so I want to take out the device in Elliot’s brain and try it out.”

“Oh...playing a ghost! If that’s the case, that’s funny!” Mike wanted to laugh and got angry again, “This is a big scam! People all over the world have been deceived by her! What the March Medical Award...and that Travis...”

“How do you know that they don’t know it’s a scam?” Avery asked back, “It’s only us and ordinary people who have been deceived.”

Avery’s words were too heartbreaking, and Mike gritted his teeth: “Then you’re back home, take the things out of Elliot’s head. If Elliot is all right, I’ll be the first to let that old Travis go!”

"If Elliot is all right, you don't need to take action at all. Elliot will definitely take care of him."

"Avery, actually If this is the case, it is something to celebrate. Although we have been deceived during this time, we will never have to be threatened in the future. How wonderful!" Chad laughed, "Really, I heard the news. After that, my mood was the most relaxed and happiest moment of my time."

"Well, I'm actually in the same mood as you. If it wasn't too far away, I wish I could go home now."

"We can buy tonight. flight back home." Chad couldn't wait to go back.

Avery shook her head: "don't be so anxious. I called Wesley, Elliot is now living in the hospital, it's safe. We'll go back after a rest."

"Alright. I'll listen to your arrangement." Chad was in a good mood.

The car arrived home at 10:00 p.m.

The nanny had been waiting for them at home.

When Avery entered the house to change her shoes, the nanny said to her, "Avery, the package on the cabinet is your courier."

Avery changed her shoes and glanced at the shoe cabinet.

Chapter 2208

The package was small. She picked up the package, which was light.

She carefully looked at the information on the order number. The courier was sent from Aryadelle, and the sender was Wesley.

Wesley?

When she saw the word 'Wesley', her nerves tensed. All curiosity was mobilized.

She found the knife and cut the package open.

"What is it?" Mike stood beside her, leaning his head in front of the package.

Hayden stood on the other side of Avery, wanting to see what was in the package.

The stuff was packaged in a light blue box.

When Mike saw the blue box, he immediately took the package from Avery.

“Looking at you, you don’t seem to know what it is. Let me open it! What if there is danger?” Mike said, opening the blue box.

As soon as the box was opened, the expression on Mike’s face was startled.

–What is this?

–Can’t read.

–Shouldn’t this be dangerous?

“Show me.” Hayden was afraid of danger, so he took it from Mike before his mother took it.

Avery frowned, watching things go from Mike’s hand to Hayden’s.

She felt that this thing seemed a little familiar...

Soon, an ominous foreboding occurred in her heart!

She immediately found her mobile phone from her bag and called Wesley.

Wesley has been waiting for her call.

So after seeing her call, Wesley answered the phone immediately: “Avery, did you receive the package I sent you?”

“Well. What is that?” Avery asked calmly, holding back her heart that was about to jump out.

She already had the answer in her heart, and she felt that the truth must be what she guessed.

“That’s the device in Elliot’s brain. Three days ago, I hired a doctor and took it out for him.” Wesley confessed the matter, “Avery, I’m sorry. I’ve never dared to tell you. Because I-I promised Elliot that I can’t tell you before the operation. After the operation...”

“What happened after the operation? It’s been three days since the operation, how is he?” Avery exclaimed hysterically.

Mike and Hayden immediately walked to Avery’s side and listened to her phone.

Wesley was still in the hospital.

“Avery, Elliot’s still alive. It’s just that he hasn’t woken up yet.” Wesley replied, “I called several well-known neurosurgeons in Aryadelle. They said that the reason why Elliot was still awake was because of him. His brain underwent two operations in a short period of time, resulting in relatively large damage and weakness. The doctor said that his life may not be in danger. The premise is that if he can wake up.”

Avery’s heart tightened and relaxed.

“Avery, I’m sorry. Elliot’s attitude was very firm. He would rather die than be controlled by others. He also didn’t want you to be threatened, so he made this decision.” Wesley sincerely apologized.

“Why do you listen to him like this?” Avery felt a little sad. She believed in Wesley so much, so she let Wesley stare at Elliot.

In the end, Wesley concealed such an important matter from her.

“Brother Elliot’s looking for Shea. He asked Shea to find me.” Wesley said helplessly, “You know, Shea listens to him the most.”

“I see.” Avery raised her hand to wipe away the tears from the corner of her eyes, “It’s okay to do it. Originally, I planned to go back to Aryadelle and take out the device in his brain. I met Calvin tonight, and he told me that the device might be used to deceive people.”

“So if Elliot had the surgery a few days later, he would know this important information.” Wesley regretted, “If I had known it earlier, I would have waited a few days. I wouldn’t be so nervous.”
