

When His Eyes Opened Chapter 2309

Chapter 2309

Avery: "Is it so exaggerated? Would you like to find a psychiatrist for you?"

Elliot: "Avery, do you really not understand what I say?"

"I don't understand! I think you are quite normal, why do you call yourself a waste?"
Avery put her arms around his waist and suddenly woke up, "I see! Think about that!"

Elliot: "???"

Avery: "The injury to the brain is no trivial matter. You can't be negligent. You haven't reviewed it yet! Wait for the next time to check the results. Don't think about the mess for now. Take good care of your injury. When you recover from your injury, you can do whatever you want, and I will definitely not restrict you."

Elliot: "No... Didn't you say you came back to coax me yesterday morning?"

"Oh, I say this!" Avery didn't expect his memory to be so good, "I forgot if you didn't say it. Hahaha!"

Avery smiled, stood on tiptoe, and kissed him on the cheek.

"That's it?" Elliot reached out and touched his face, not satisfied.

"Okay, change it!" Avery said, wrapping her arms around his neck, her legs clinging to his waist, and hanging her body weight lightly on him.

The bodyguard on duty suddenly saw this scene on the surveillance screen and was stunned!

The public areas in the villa were all under surveillance, and under normal circumstances, there would not be such an explosive scene in the public areas.

"Do you think the boss will add another child?" The bodyguard chatted with another colleague on duty.

"Isn't our boss tied up?"

"I'm going! It's really sterilized? I still can't believe it!"

"When has the rumor about the boss in this family ever been faked? And the boss already has three children, so there is no problem with sterilization!"

“Have you become a mother? Our boss is worth such a sacrifice for a woman, right?!”

“Do you think our boss is a mother now? It’s just a ligation, not a cut, so I’m worried about you. Avery didn’t worry about it!”

...

In the morning, Robert woke up early this morning because he went to bed earlier last night.

After the little guy got up in the morning, he first drank milk and had breakfast, and then went to call his sister up.

Probably because he had a good time on the mountain yesterday, Robert still wanted to go out to play today.

“We only went to the mountain yesterday, let’s go next time! We can go to Uncle Wesley’s house to play with Maria and Lilly today!” Layla said.

“Okay, okay! Sister, let’s go!” Robert couldn’t wait to go out.

Mrs. Cooper couldn’t help laughing: “Robert, your parents haven’t woken up yet! Don’t you wait for them to wake up and tell them?”

“They sleep at home, and my sister and I go out to play.” Robert took his sister and went out.

Mrs. Cooper immediately brought him and Layla coats.

Not long after the two children left, Avery woke up.

After rubbing her eyes, she saw the photo album on the bedside table, so she picked it up and opened it.

Elliot said that the Haze he dreamed of was very similar to his childhood.

When Haze was first born, he was actually more like her and Layla. Could it be that the Haze looks more like Elliot?

Chapter 2310

While having breakfast, Elliot mentioned a dream he had at night.

“Avery, I think I should go to the mountain.” Elliot wanted to go to the mountain to confirm his dream.

“Elliot, I’ve seen all the children on the mountain. There’s no Haze there. I’m pretty sure. None of the children above are like me or you.” When Avery answered this question, she thought about those children’s face, “If you don’t believe it, when Layla comes home, you can ask her to show you the group photo on her phone.”

Elliot had seen the big group photo last night. However, he only looked at it roughly at the time, not very carefully.

“It may be that I didn’t take you to the mountain twice, and you have regrets in your heart. That’s why you had that dream.” Avery analyzed Elliot’s psychology, “I’ll show you when the weather is better next time. I’m afraid you’ll keep thinking about it if I don’t let you go.”

“Well. Maybe it’s what you said. If Haze was on that mountain, how could we have been looking for so long and couldn’t find it.” Elliot said here and decided to wait a minute and ask the people who sent it out to see if they have looked for it in G-Temple.

“Elliot, Aryadelle is too big. If you really want to hide someone, it’s easy to hide. The main reason is that Haze is relatively small. Even if the people we sent out went to the mountains to look for it, as long as we look for it, can’t she hide from the search?”

“Have breakfast!” This topic was too heavy. Talking more, Elliot was afraid that he would lose his appetite.

Avery picked up the milk cup and took a sip of milk: “Elliot, I took a look at your photo album this morning. You were really cute when you were young. It’s a pity that our children are all like me. Why do you think this is? “

Elliot: “How nice you are. You are so cute, so are our children.”

Avery: “But I think you were cute when you were young. You are cute and handsome.”

“Maybe your genes are stronger, so the children look like you.” Elliot never thought about this question before.

No matter who the child was like, as long as it was his and Avery’s child, he liked it.

“I said this because you dreamed that Haze was like you. I thought you cared about this!” Avery picked up the bun and took a bite.

Elliot: “I didn’t think about it. It was just a dream that suddenly occurred to me. And I have photos of Haze just born. I think Haze should look like you.”

“Just like you.” Avery sighed, “I don’t know if we can get this child back. If we can’t get her back, this may be the biggest regret in our lives.”

Avery: “It’s a long life. There must be Opportunity.”

.....

Brooks family.

The arrival of Layla and Robert made the family lively.

Lilly, Maria and Shea were slept together last night.

Although it was a bit crowded for four people to sleep in one bed, Lilly was very happy.

Maria was smaller than Lilly, and she especially liked Lilly, and had to hold Lilly all the time, which made Lilly feel that she was needed.

Lilly quickly entered the role of ‘sister’ and got along very well with Maria.

Because Lilly was very well-behaved, they didn’t need to be taken care of too much at all.

Wesley’s parents came to visit Lilly specially yesterday and liked her very much.

“This is the red envelope that grandpa gave me yesterday, and this is from grandma.” Lilly took out the red envelope given by Wesley’s parents and showed it to Layla and Robert, “They like me very much.”

“You are so cute, everyone likes you.” Layla said, “I will give you a piggy bank next time. You can put the red envelope you received in the piggy bank. Or you can give the money to Aunt Shea or Uncle Wesley, let them keep it for you.”

Chapter 2311

“Layla, then you can give her a piggy bank next time! Let her keep her money by herself. Buy whatever you want in the future.” Shea said spoiledly.

“Okay, Aunt Shea, I’ll bring it next weekend.” Layla said and asked curiously, “Aunt Shea, will you send Lilly to school?”

“We’ll take her to school on Monday. Check out the kindergarten. See if she wants to go to school. If she wants, then go to school with Maria. If she doesn’t want to go to school, then stay at home and I will take care of her.” Shea can accept anything.

As long as Lilly was healthy.

“I want to go to school with my little sister. But I’m a little afraid that I won’t know anything.” Lilly expressed her worries.

“I didn’t go to kindergarten well when I was young! My brother didn’t go to kindergarten either. My brother thinks kindergarten is too naive...Little Lilly, don’t worry you won’t! You can try first, if you go to kindergarten and you’re not happy, don’t go.” Layla cheered her on.

Lilly: “Yeah!”

After the four children played together for a while, Layla led Lilly and Maria into another room.

The three girls had more in common.

Robert was single.

Robert looked at the closed door and ran to find Aunt Shea with a look of grievance.

“Aunt Shea, they don’t play with me.” Robert hummed.

Shea picked Robert up and took him to get something delicious.

“Aunt Shea will play with you. We have new toys at home!”

“I want to play with my sister...but my sister doesn’t play with me...Maria ignores me...Lilly is willing to take care of me, but my sister takes Lilly Pulled away woo woo!” Robert pouted and refused Shea to bring him snacks, “Auntie, where is the new toy?”

“The new toy hasn’t been opened yet! I’ll take you to unpack it!” Shea lead Robert to find new toys.

In the room, Layla turned on her mobile phone and showed Maria and Lilly the dancing video she recorded.

Maria and Lilly looked at the video of Layla dancing on the mobile phone with admiration on their faces!

When the video was over, Layla put her phone back and said, “I can’t show you my phone anymore, you two are children, you can’t look at my phone.”

“Sister Layla, show us a little longer! I’m going to hold the door against...my mother won’t come in. Yes!” Maria said, and immediately took her own small bench and placed it against the door of the room.

Little Lilly has never played with a cell phone, so she stared at the cell phone in Layla's hand without blinking.

"Little Lilly, have you ever played with a cell phone? Let me play for you for a while? When you grow up to my age, I will give you a new cell phone. You are too young to use a cell phone now!" Layla opened the camera function casually, handed to Lilly.

"Thank you, Sister Layla." Lilly happily took the phone, and after taking a few selfies, she accidentally clicked on a special effect.

"This feature can see how you are getting older! It can also turn an adult's photo into a child's." Layla said, took her phone and clicked on a photo she had made before, "Look, This is the photo of my dad getting smaller. And the photo of my mom getting smaller."

"Huh..." Lilly exclaimed immediately after seeing the photo of Elliot getting smaller, "Sister Layla, Your dad is like a good friend of mine!"

Layla returned the photo to the one where her dad became smaller: "Lilly, did you mean Siena?"
