Chapter 2348

Avery thought about it and guessed: "Is it Ben?"

Tammy waved her finger: "You guess again."

Avery: "Gwen?"

Tammy: "No."

"Mike!" Avery thought it must be Mike.

"If it was Mike, I wouldn't ask you this question at all. You can guess the answer you might not have guessed." Tammy pretended to be mysterious.

Avery used her brain and began to guess: "Brother Wesley? Shea? Or... your husband? It's definitely not you, right? If it were you, I wouldn't be too surprised."

Tammy: "No...No...No, Keep guessing!"

Avery: "You give me a hint!"

"The person who pays is not an adult." Tammy gave a hint.

"Hayden!" After Avery got the prompt, she guessed right at once, "right?"

"If I didn't prompt, you would definitely not have guessed." Tammy said, "Hayden hated Elliot before! Now! What does it mean that he actually paid for a diamond ring for you? It means that he accepted Elliot! If Elliot knew this, he would be very happy."

"Yeah! I'll tell Elliot later." Avery's joy was beyond words. She didn't expect this wedding to be brought together by so many people. The significance was far greater than she imagined.

"I'm going to see Elliot." Tammy said, looking at the time, "I'm really afraid that Elliot is picky about this wedding, I have to settle him."

Avery: "You just tell Elliot that our wedding ring today is Hayden. He bought it, I guarantee he won't pick anything."

"Okay!" Tammy said and walked out.

As soon as Tammy came out, she ran into Layla who was standing in the living room in her pajamas.

Layla's face was not sober. After seeing Tammy, she immediately pulled her: "Auntie Tammy, my parents are getting married today?"

Tammy: "Yes! You are going to dress up beautifully today! Because there are many guests and your favorite Uncle Eric is also here."

"Ahhh!" Layla screamed, penetrating the entire villa.

In the room, Robert and Kara were awakened.

The two children opened their eyes, and when they saw each other, the expressions on their faces were stunned.

"Woooooo... Where's my mother?" Kara's hair was sleeping like a chicken coop. The unfamiliar environment made her feel insecure, so her eyes suddenly filled with crystal tears.

Robert wanted to cry too, but because this was an environment he was familiar with, he held back.

"Sister Kara, don't cry! I'll take you to find your mother!" Robert took the initiative to hug Kara, who was crying into tears.

After Kara sniffed, she wiped all the tears and snot on Robert's pajamas, and the crying gradually stopped.

Robert took Kara out of the bed, and then took Kara out of the room.

There were thumping footsteps from the stairs, and the two little guys stood there, waiting for someone to come up.

After a while, they saw that the person who came up was Layla, and immediately ran towards Layla.

"Sister! Where is Sister Kara's mother? She wants to see her mother!" Robert took her sister's hand and spoke anxiously.

Kara also grabbed Layla and said: "Sister Layla, I found out that I was sleeping with brother Robert, so I cried."

Layla looked at the pitiful Kara and immediately picked her up: "Your mother is down there! My parents are getting married today, and they are very busy. Come with me, and I will show you."

“Hey, but I’m so hungry!” Kara pursed her mouth and took a deep breath.

Layla immediately instructed Robert: “Brother, go to the kitchen and get something to eat for Sister Kara.”

Robert immediately went downstairs quickly.

Master bedroom.

Two cameras were shooting at Elliot.

And Elliot was wearing a nightgown, sitting in a chair, holding a mobile phone, watching the wedding process sent by Chad.

Elliot didn’t say a word, his expression looked a little serious, and the staff didn’t dare to shout.

After a while, Tammy came up to check the situation.

The door to the master bedroom was open. Tammy walked into the bedroom and saw Elliot sitting there looking at his phone like an uncle, and immediately joked: “What are you doing! Why don’t you go off and put on your makeup? Would you like a makeup artist to come and do it for you?”

Tammy quickly walked to Elliot’s side, staring at his phone.

“I’m watching the process! You don’t need to watch this stuff. Someone will remind you all the way.” Elliot had already roughly read the entire wedding process.

He was not very satisfied with the wedding and this was the version that Chad had changed according to his liking.

He didn’t know how bad the original process was.

The main point of his dissatisfaction was that everything was funny, and there was a bit of cheesy in the funny.

“She made a big mistake in leaving the wedding to her parents to prepare.” Elliot expressed his opinion.

“Do you think this wedding is not good? I think it’s pretty good! You have to make it look like that high-level, serious and dignified feeling. It’s boring. It’s better to be lively and lively when you get married.” Tammy retorted him, “Anyway, we are all satisfied, if you are not satisfied by yourself, then you bear it.”

Elliot: “...”

“Okay, don’t look at the process. I’ll call the makeup artist up to do the makeup for you!” Tammy said, “You ink for a while, and Avery will be finished. After you finish your makeup later, go outside first. When the time comes, Avery will finish her makeup, and you will pick it up.”

Of course, Elliot had to cooperate fully. After all, for today’s wedding, he didn’t make any contribution.

“By the way, I almost forgot to tell you. Hayden bought the wedding rings for the two of you at the ceremony today.” When Tammy walked to the door, she remembered this, and looked at Elliot’s face, said.

Hearing this, Elliot’s handsome face was instantly covered with a faint blush.

The emotion spread to all limbs, and all dissatisfaction with the wedding disappeared.

Not long after, Tammy led the makeup artist into the master bedroom to apply makeup to Elliot.

Downstairs, a car slowly drove into the hospital.

Ben and Gwen came over.

Ben was carrying a large bag of wedding candy in his left hand and a bag of red packets in his right hand.

Gwen took out two oversized suitcases from the trunk.

In the suitcase, there were today’s bride and groom’s dresses.

As soon as Ben got off the car, he started to give everyone happy candies and red envelopes.

Gwen entered the room with her suitcase, and quickly found the room where Avery put on makeup.

“Ben is giving people red envelopes and candy outside. He is so happy as if he is getting married today, hahaha!” Gwen laughed as she opened the suitcase and took out the dress and hung it in the closet next to her.

"If Ben gets married, he will definitely be happier." Avery said, "Gwen, thank you for giving us the wedding you have prepared. How are your Spring Festival wedding preparations?"

"Let Ben's parents make the preparations. I heard that they are almost ready. After all, his parents have already prepared the experience." Gwen didn't worry about the wedding at all, "You and my brother will marry in peace today, don't think about it!"

"Well. Are all the guests here?" Avery couldn't help but think.

"I watched the video posted by Mike and Chad in the group, and there are already quite a few guests!" Gwen said with a smile, taking out a skirt from a paper bag, "Avery, I am your bridesmaid today. "

"Who is the best man?" Avery asked this question subconsciously.

"Hahaha! The best man is Ben! You asked this question, are you still awake!" Tammy laughed.

Chapter 2350

Avery laughed along: "I did get up a little early this morning. Why do I have to get up so early for marriage? If only I could sleep until I woke up naturally."

"Avery, I also have this trouble. I also talk to Ben discussed this issue. Ben said that you can actually sleep until you wake up naturally, but in this case, the wedding ceremony will have to be postponed. But as long as you tell the guests the time in advance, it will be fine." Gwen said.

"Then you can postpone it a little bit. When the ceremony is held on the first day, postpone it a little bit, and then have a banquet on the next day." Avery said, "It's the first time for both of you to get married, so it can be more lively."

"At that time, we will do whatever his parents arrange. If other brides can get up early, but it happens to me, I can't get up. I'm so embarrassed. And on the wedding day, I should be very excited, right? It is estimated that even if no one calls me to get up early, I will suffer from insomnia." Gwen couldn't help laughing, "If we told you yesterday to get married today, I would guess that you would not be able to sleep last night."

Avery: "That's right. I'm not sleepy at the moment. It 's just a little nervous. It's too sudden."

"The surprise is of course sudden haha!" Gwen cheered, Ben walked in with a bag and gave the staff happy candy and red envelopes.

Avery stretched out her hand towards Ben, "I want to eat candy too."

"Haven't you eaten breakfast?" Ben grabbed a handful of candy for her, "It's still early for the luncheon! I'll go get you some breakfast."

"Get it for Elliot! I guess he didn't eat it either." Avery opened a candy and put it in her mouth, "I'll ask Gwen to get it for me."

Ben: "Okay."

Ben and Gwen came out of the room together and went to the kitchen to get breakfast.

As soon as They got to the kitchen, they smelled a scent,

"Mrs. Cooper, what kind of soup are you stewing? It's so fragrant." Gwen had breakfast in the morning, but not much.

Now she smelled the fragrance and felt hungry again.

"The stewed pork ribs and corn soup. It will be ready soon. Do you want a bowl?" Mrs. Cooper smiled and took the bowl from the cupboard.

Gwen: "Yes. I like pork ribs soup the most."

Ben reminded: "We are here to get breakfast for Elliot and Avery. Let's get them some first. They must be hungry."

Mrs. Cooper said, "You two Just eat here and I'll deliver it to them. I was about to deliver breakfast to them, but I was just waiting for the soup."

"Mrs. Cooper, you are so thoughtful." Gwen boasted, "No wonder my brother respects you so much. "

"Gwen, people are mutual. I can only work here for such a long time if you treat me well." Mrs. Cooper passed on her experience to Gwen, "It's the same when you get along with your elders. Well, the elders won't embarrass you."

"You mean me and my parents-in-law?" Gwen laughed out loud, "You must have never met my parents-in-law, they are quite old and they treat me very special. You can see Ben's age..."

"That's good for your in-laws. Mean people, no matter how old they are." Mrs. Cooper brought out two bowls of soup and gave them to both of them. "I haven't met your parents-in-law, but I'm very familiar with Ben. Ben is a good man. If Ben is not good, Mr. Foster won't let you marry him."

“Ben is okay! But I can’t compare to my second brother.” Gwen picked up the soup bowl and said eloquently.

Ben: “..”

“Of course, I can’t compare to Avery.” Gwen was afraid that Ben had an idea, and immediately added, “If I can find a husband like Ben, I must have saved the galaxy in my last life. “

Ben: “.....”

Gwen’s words gave Ben goosebumps.

Gwen was very rude to Ben in private. Basically, Ben didn’t say anything. Now, in front of outsiders, Ben actually knew that Gwen would save some face for him.

Ben was very relieved.

At 10 o’clock in the morning, Avery’s makeup was finished, and after the first dress was put on, the photographer took a set of photos of her and Elliot.
