

When His Eyes Opened Chapter 2164

Chapter 2164

“But I have a very strong premonition that I think he is a man.” Eric told her his feelings. He has no close friends, so this matter has been kept in his heart.

“Why?” Avery felt that his parents would not cheat him.

Eric: “The feeling I got from chatting with him.”

“If the two of you are still chatting, you can ask her directly next time. Such an important question must be clarified.” Avery suggested to him and asked at the same time, “Does she know your true identity?”

Eric hesitated for a moment, then replied, “Maybe I don’t know. My parents told the introducer that I was a small anchor.”

Avery said, “Auntie and uncle are still quite cautious, so they definitely won’t introduce you to a man.”

“My parents are sometimes rational and sometimes a little dizzy. Do you know how they introduced this girl to me?” Eric said and, he turned around and picked up a water glass from the small bar next to him and took a sip, “They think I like you so much because you are a doctor. The girl they introduced to me is also a medical student. And she is from a medical family. It is said that People’s grandparents, grandparents, parents, and mothers all studied medicine. So they think that me and that girl are a match made in heaven.”

Avery: “...”

Eric: “The two of them seem to be lowered their heads now. I have to let me take a vacation to find that girl.”

Avery: “How old is that girl?”

Eric: “It seems to be 21 years old. She is in her third year.”

Avery: “Eric, since my uncle and aunt are so fond of this girl, if you don’t hate this girl. If she meets with you, you can actually meet and chat.”

“I don’t even know her/her gender now. Although I chat occasionally, it’s really awkward. Especially every time I see his masculine head portrait, I doubt myself...” Eric sucked in pain. breathed.

Avery: “Then calm down first and wait for the changes.”

“Well. Am I annoying you? Compared with Elliot’s matter, it’s not a big deal for me at all.” Eric said, “How could that be? I’m not busy all day long. If I were you, I would definitely be in a difficult position. After all, my parents are old and can’t completely ignore their feelings.”

“This is the first time they have forced me.” This is where Eric is distressed. “Actually, they didn’t force me to marry that person. But they forced me to meet that person.”

“What’s that girl’s attitude toward you?” Avery asked.

Eric: “Neither cold nor hot. She sent me a message every now and then. She should be forced by her family like me.”

“If she doesn’t care about you, you don’t need to worry.” Avery said, stunned. After a moment, she said, “but if she knows your real identity is Eric, she will definitely fall in love with you.”

Eric: “I won’t let her know my real identity. Before I get rid of this strange feeling about her, I will...I won’t reveal my identity.”

Avery: “Well. It’s better to be cautious. After all, the aunt and uncle and the introducer have only known each other for a month.”

Eric: “This is the most ridiculous part. My parents would rather trust outsiders than me.”

“You send me the picture of that girl. I want to see why my uncle and aunt only saw the picture of that girl and liked her so much.” Avery asked curiously.

“The photos that the introducer gave to my parents are particularly heavy on the beauty marks. I don’t know how many layers of filters have been added on her face.” Eric said, “Why don’t I send you the girl’s photo!”

Avery: “Hahaha! Send it to me together!”

After hanging up, Eric sent the girl’s photo to Avery’s mobile phone.

Avery clicked on the girl’s photo and was immediately attracted. She understood why Eric’s parents liked this girl so much.

This girl stood in the sun with a very bright smile. She wears eyes, her facial features look very comfortable, and her smile is extraordinarily friendly, giving people a particularly well-behaved feeling.

Avery saw the photo and liked it very much.

Immediately after, Eric sent her whatsapp profile picture.

The avatar of this girl was a muscle photo taken by a macho guy in the gym.

Putting these two photos together, the visual impact was particularly strong.

Avery couldn't help laughing. It's no wonder that Eric doubts life. If it was her, she would doubt life too.

At 3:30 in the afternoon, Travis and Leland finished chatting and walked out of the private room.

Emilio immediately stepped forward and supported his father's arm.

"Emilio, don't take what I told you back then! I'm afraid you don't care about anything and can't help your father." Leland seemed to be in a good mood, so Emilio's attitude was particularly warmed.

"Uncle Sirois, it's fine, I didn't take it to heart." Emilio replied, "Are you going to play cards or go to rest? Do you want me to take you there?"

"No. You take your father to take a break, don't worry about me, I'll find someone to play by myself." Leland said with a smile, gestured to Travis and strode away.

Emilio sent his father to rest.

"It's too noisy here. Take me home." Travis said to Emilio, "You must be curious, I talked to him about something. I'll tell you on the way back."

Emilio: "Okay."

The father and son walked out of the hotel, got in the car and left.

On the way, Travis told his son about his plan to make money.

"Don't say it's 14 billion in the future, I can earn more money." Travis has already pulled Leland into the game. Leland is very rich.

Let Leland take out the money first, start the project, and then continue to use the concept of "reviving the dead" to circle more money.

At that time, there will be more capital entering the market, and this project will not be yellow no matter what. Because both the poor and the rich are full of fear of death.

Everyone wants to prolong their lives as much as possible, so those who are able will definitely pay for it.

After all, the brand name of this technology was developed by Margaret, the winner of the March Medical Award. Who would question its authenticity?

Leland was not a fool. If it is unprofitable, how can he be so happy and generous to give money to Travis?

“Dad, can the people in Margaret’s team really reproduce this technology? I always feel that Margaret will not let outsiders know the core content of this technology.” Emilio put forward his own opinion, “Dad, you don’t be deceived by those people.”

“Emilio, you are still too young. Leland said you, you should reflect on it.” The smile on Travis’s face withdrew a little, and his eyes looked far ahead, “I am sure I will die. Even if there is a way to live a few more years, my body is still declining every year. I can’t live to be a hundred and fifty years old, much less two hundred years old. When I die, How are you going to defend the country I made?”

“Dad, don’t you believe in resurrection?” Emilio wanted to know the truth behind this technique.

“Even if it’s true, its effect is limited. For example, a strong person like Elliot might be useful, but an old man like you might be useless.”

Chapter 2166

“Emilio, sometimes a concept can make a lot of money. I don’t necessarily need them to develop a complete set of technical achievements like Margaret. As long as they can develop a decent shell, It’s enough for us to make money.” Travis once again showed a triumphant smile on his face.

“How did you talk to the people on that team? How did they tell you?” Emilio’s heart was tightly clenched.

If the people in that team had mastered Margaret’s technology, then Travis would definitely threaten Avery and Elliot.

If the people in that team hadn’t fully grasped it, Travis would have no way to threaten them.

“Only one came today, and I only had a brief chat with him.” Travis leaned back in the chair and closed his eyes slightly, “He said that Margaret asked each of them to touch only a part of the content at that time, so they had to deal with the rest of the team. People are also found, and then there is drama.”

“I knew that Margaret couldn’t let other people know the core content.” Emilio breathed a sigh of relief in his heart.

At least for now, his father will not trouble Elliot and Avery.

Emilio didn’t want the Jones family to go bankrupt, nor did he want to see his father and Elliot and Avery as enemies.

No matter which side has the upper hand, they don’t want to see them fighting.

“Emilio, you’re not going to tell Avery about this, are you?” Travis suddenly opened his eyes and looked at his son in horror, “If you f*cking dare to reveal what I just told you, I will kill you directly, do you believe it?!”

Emilio blushed and shook his head violently: “Dad, I’ve already broken up with Avery. They cheated our family for 14 billion. From the beginning, I recognized it clearly, Avery and I are not the same.”

“If you can’t see clearly, you don’t deserve to be the heir of the Jones family.” Travis said solemnly, “Emilio, everything you have now is given to you by me! Don’t think that I will treat you as your eldest brother is abolished. Lifeblood! If you dare to confront me, I would rather kill you without an heir! The country I have fought for in my life is a symbol of my ability, and I don’t make money to pave the way for anyone! In other words, you guys I don’t care if I live or die! I don’t care what happens to the Jones family after I die, I just need to enjoy my life!”

Travis’s concept was different from that of most parents.

Emilio has long known that although he is the only heir of the Jones family, he is different from the only heir that everyone thinks. Because Travis treats him no different from before.

“Dad, I won’t be so confused.” Emilio also replied solemnly to his father, “I don’t want to live in poverty again.”

Travis: “Just be clear. If you leave me, leave Jones’s house, you are nothing. “

Emilio: “Well.”

“Since the father and son are of the same mind, then Emilio, you can learn from me how to make money in the future.” Travis experienced this high blood pressure hospitalization, and his thoughts have changed a little compared to before.

Margaret used to be by his side. Margaret gave him specially developed medicine every day, which made him full of energy every day, so he gave him the illusion that he could live for a long time. So much so that he never thought that he would rely on his son so soon.

From Margaret’s death to today, Travis obviously felt that his body was not as good as before.

“Okay. I will definitely work hard in the future. I will try not to embarrass you.” When Emilio said this, he suddenly thought of Norah, so he asked, “Did you send someone to find Norah?”

“She went to Aryadelle.” Of course Travis will not let Norah go. No matter where Norah goes to the ends of the earth, Travis will catch her back and take revenge for being cheated!

“Norah can’t get along in Bridgedale, and she can’t get along in Aryadelle.” Emilio couldn’t guess how Norah would go next.
