Chapter 3499

Harvey York walked up and patted Ai Kamino's face before he sighed.

"Even Joseph Bauer couldn't protect Mrs. Lee...

"Even Longmen couldn't keep Bowen Lee safe.

"Then, what makes you think Clyde Osborne can enable you to flaunt your strength here?

"I didn't want to deal with you anymore, but I'll indulge you if you insist on butting in."

Harvey then slowly tore the business card to pieces.

The beautiful women were heartbroken, as if Harvey had committed a heinous crime.

Ai's expression also frantically changed.

"How dare you tear Prince Osborne's card, you b*stard?!"

"You have a death wish or something?!"

Slap!

Harvey swung the back of his palm across Ai's face.

"I'm not so sure about that..."

"But I know that you're looking for yours right now.

"Come.

"Call the cops.

Harvey's word was enough to seal Ai's face.

"Ai Kamino tried to blackmail me for a hundred and fifty million dollars! Punish him according to the law!"

In just half an hour, Vivian Hall and her team took Ai and the others to the Flutwell

Police Station.

After investigating the situation, Ai had to be released since there was no solid evidence of him committing a crime.

That said, Ai was utterly embarrassed because of the incident.

He was the leader of the Capital Gang with support from Clyde...

And yet he had to endure such treatment!

This was utter humiliation for him!

More importantly, even though he was fine, Senior Miller and his fighters were all detained.

The reason for it was simple. The fighters all had criminal records that needed to be further investigated.

Senior Miller had to pay a huge amount of money before he could be bailed since he broke Xynthia Zimmer's so-called invaluable tea set.

Ai could not help but chuckle while facing the sky.

The moment he walked out of the police station, he immediately headed toward Flutwell's bustling downtown garden that was a hundred acres wide.

The garden was built during ancient times. The place was filled with bridges, flowing streams of water, manmade mountains, and pavilions. It was truly an elegant sight.

It was quite uncommon to see such historical buildings in Country H's southwest region.

Ai took a few deep breaths to calm himself down after stepping inside the garden.

Under the guidance of a few people and a dozen inspections, he finally came to an arena in the middle of the garden.

A young man in a tunic was seen fighting bare-handed against a dozen experts.

The

young man was not that nimble, but his hits were extremely steady.

The dozen experts seemed very strong, but they could not even get the upper hand against the young man.

Bam!

The experts were all sent flying when the final punch was dished out. Every single one of them was coughing up blood after crashing onto the ground.

Then, the young man stopped himself.

He then took a warm towel his subordinate brought before calmly wiping his hands with it.

His face could be seen clearly at that moment.

He was not good-looking, but an unspeakable dominance and aggression could be felt in him. Anyone would have the sudden urge to kneel as soon as they laid eyes on him.

The man was none other than Clyde Osborne himself.

Chapter 3500

Ai Kamino immediately trotted toward Clyde Osborne before respectfully bowing.

"Prince Osborne."

Clyde rinsed his mouth with the seventy– six thousand dollar Red Robe Tea before he said, "Do you think this is a scenic spot, Ai?"

Those calm words were enough to astound Ai.

He came here on the same morning, but then he showed up once again.

This could only mean that Ai did not deal with the arrogant young man he had previously talked about.

Not only that, but he also probably lost his reputation in the process.

If not, he would not have shown up that quickly.

Cold sweat was dripping down Ai's entire body.

"I'm sorry, Prince Osborne. I have tarnished your name. I couldn't carry out my job properly," he apologized quietly with his arms on the side.

"I wanted to reclaim your reputation for what happened before. That was why I asked for your business card.

"But that man tore the card apart and even sent all of us to jail.

Ai would not dare lie to Clyde about a single thing.

"Right. He managed to deal with Branch Leader Lee's wife with ease.

"It's said that even Joseph Bauer couldn't protect her."

"Even the Thirteenth Young Master couldn't deal with an outsider like him?"

A profound look was showing on Clyde's face.

He then walked under a pavilion and sat down.

"Looks like you bumped into someone interesting..."

"But that's fine.

"After all, Joseph has been worrying about Flutwell's new district recently. The elders of the Bauer family have been questioning his strength as well.

"It's only normal for him not to ask for more trouble in such a crucial moment.

"Besides, he's not the strongest of the three young masters anyway.

"Whether this was just a coincidence or Joseph actually fears this man, it doesn't actually mean that he's strong.

"There's no need to fear someone like that."

It was rare for Clyde to act this calm. After all, Ai was one of his lackeys. He did not want Ai to be permanently terrified after going against Harvey York.

Ai immediately understood what Clyde was trying to say.

"I understand! I understand!" exclaimed Ai while nodding his head.

Clyde nodded back.

"That said, you should always investigate the person behind him first."

"An outsider dared to ignore my authority and tear my card apart before everyone..."

"Either he knows no respect, or he has enough spunk to do such a thing."

Clyde was interested in Harvey.

"I've been the one disrespecting others for so many years, but I didn't think I'd get the same treatment this time.

"Looks like everyone forgot about my name at this point. It seems that I've secluded myself *f*or too long."

"Prince Osborne, it's all because of that ignorant b*stard! It seems like he has a death wish or something!

Ai took a deep breath.

"I already did an investigation on him! Other than his relationship with the Torres family, he seems to have a connection with the newly-appointed head of Longmen's Law Enforcement! He's the one with the Longmen's Law Enforcement Badge!

"If that weren't the case, I would've trampled all over him by now!

"I didn't choose to fight him because he has no right for us to do so. I was also showing my respect to the Torres family and Longmen's Law Enforcement..."

Chapter 3501

After hearing Ai Kamino's words, Clyde Osborne comfortably leaned on his seat while enjoying the service of two beautiful handmaidens.

"It's already pretty impressive having the Torres family backing him for this long.

"You may not know this, but the Wright family also has connections with the Torres family.

"Even the Bauer family might not go up against them!

"With the Torres family's support, he does have the right to flaunt his strength in Flutwell!"

"The Wright family?

Ai's facial expression changed slightly.

"The Big Boss's family?"

Clyde merely showed a faint smile.

"Flutwell might only seem like the borderland of the southwest region, but its waters are deeper than anyone can imagine.

"Harvey has been popping up everywhere, challenging everyone in his wake. I even received reports that he went against the Indians recently.

"I'm guessing he might be one of the Torres family's pawns!"

Ai could not look away when he showed envy toward Clyde being served by two goddesses.

"Price Osborne, you mean...?"

Clyde glanced playfully at Ai.

"Use your brain. What are pawns usually used for?"

Ai frowned.

"Based on my shallow knowledge, pawns are either used as sacrifices or to establish dominance...

"Judging from the current situation, Harvey is probably here for the latter, carrying both the Torres family and the Wright family's interests in Flutwell!

"But the waters are deep here. If the Torres family goes against someone they shouldn't, everything they did will immediately backfire!"

Ai was confused.

The Torres family has control over Flutwell's government, but the people there would always emphasize balance.

Balance over all things would be better for them to prosper.

But the Torres family was letting Harvey go on a rampage at the moment. What did this all mean?

Did they want the family to become the target of criticism?

"The Torres family isn't stupid," said Clyde as if he had seen through everything.

"The pawns are used for their benefit. They can establish their dominance that way...

"But when it's time to turn people to their side, all they need to do is cut off the pawn!

"People have been doing this since ancient times!

"Tell me, if the Torres family gets what they want...

"And through a series of moves, they become the top-rated family before dealing with the thorn in our side...

"What else can they do other than make peace with us?

"We're all experienced people, after all!

"We should be clever about things, right?

Clyde then patted the women beside him so they would change positions.

"I must admit, Ansel Torres and his family are pretty extraordinary!

"Even I couldn't think of something like that..."

Ai showed a look of realization.

"So, Harvey is just cannon fodder at this point...

"Right, Prince Osborne. There's something I need to inform you...

"Harvey's an eyesore, but his wife and sister-in-law are gorgeous women!"

Chapter 3502

"Oh? How beautiful are we talking about here?"

Clyde Osborne seemed to perk up after hearing Ai Kamino's words.

Ai already prepared a few pictures on his phone this morning to send to Clyde.

Clyde looked at his phone for a moment before he burst out laughing.

"One's a mature housewife, and the other's an innocent school beauty. Interesting. These two are really intriguing..."

"Since it's rare to get sisters like them, I'll have to take action myself."

Clyde then waved at the secretary not far from him.

"Call Commissioner Thompson."

While Clyde was making a phone call, Harvey York did not even care about the incident anymore.

After taking care of Xynthia Zimmer, he called a cab to the center of Flutwell while curiously looking through the contracts.

He came to an antique Budokan. It was as silent as the grave.

The Budokan has more than a decade's history. Bowen Lee inherited the place from his father. The name of the place was called the Martial Hall.

The name was very classy, fitting for such an environment.

"You're here, Sir York.

A tall and strong man was already waiting at the entrance for quite a while.

He quickly walked over as soon as he saw Harvey entering the place.

"I already know about the Budokan's transfer, Sir York," he said respectfully.

"My teacher told me to cooperate with your procedures.

"Here are the official seal, accounts, and real estate certificate, among other things. Please take a look."

Compared to before, Dillon Lee seemed more respectful after being taught a lesson.

Naturally, he knew that Bowen had lost his position as the branch leader of Longmen's Flutwell branch and also had to give up his Budokan.

Dillon understood that he could never surpass someone like Harvey.

After getting Bowen's orders, not only did Dillon not feel a single hint of resentment and anger, he was determined to cling to Harvey no matter what.

Harvey nodded lightly without saying a word.

The Martial Hall was a part of the bet anyway. Besides, it would be inappropriate for Harvey to stay in the Hatchet Gang's base camp for too long.

The Budokan was the same as having a place of stay in Flutwell for Harvey.

"Sir York, there are all sorts of Budokans gathered around here," explained Dillon.

"The Martial Hall isn't the biggest one out there, and it doesn't have the most students...

"But it's the most popular one.

"There are many people who come here to learn after hearing about us. Many of them belong to Flutwell's wealthy families as well.

"We'd be swimming in money every single year only by collecting student fees alone.

Dillon took Harvey around the Martial Hall while introducing the place to him.

"The Martial Hall is based on traditional buildings here in Country H. There are a total of three courtyards.

"The first courtyard is the living quarters and the place where we bring our guests over.

"The second one is where you can live with your family.

"The last one is where the garage is.

"We also have side halls for the workshop and the arena.

"The students would usually train around here."¹
