

Chapter 101

Zhou Qian was now full of arrogance and was very proud of herself.

Especially when she saw Cindy Jiang's dark face, she became more arrogant and said, 'Cindy, say I didn't warn you. How could you let Jason buy such a gift for grandpa? If you don't have money to buy gifts, just tell me. After all, I'm your sister.'

Then, Cecelia took out a LV wallet from her Gucci bag and took out a bank card. She handed it to Cindy and said, 'Hey, don't say that I never help you. There is tens thousand in this card. It's the rest of the money that Hudson gave me to buy a bag. Take it and buy a decent gift in the store later. You don't have to pay back the money. I don't need this money.'

Arrogant.

This was the expression Cecelia was showing at that moment.

In her eyes, Cindy looked like a joke.

'Thank you, Cecelia.' Before Cindy could speaking, Jason Smith took it and smiled faintly.

Cecelia snorted and shook her head. He was indeed a good for nothing and he was so shameless.

Cindy glared at Jason. Just as she was about to say something, Jason pressed her hand and said with a smile, 'It was goodwill from Cecelia. Take it. I'll send the money to her later.'

Jason did not want Cindy and Cecelia to have a falling out at this time.

Cindy did not say anything, which meant that she could not admit it, but her face was burning with panic.

She had always been competitive with Cecelia. Now that she had taken her money, she felt even more humiliated.

Cecelia sneered and said, 'Jason, you are really thick-skinned.'

After that, there was total silence in the car.

Jason had been holding Cindy's hand, playing with the brocade box in the other hand.

What a ridiculous world!

He had always been ridiculed and looked down upon. However, they did not know that the worth of contents of the small box in Jason's hand was more than the Yang family had, even if they added all their wealth up together.

After waiting for a while, Amanda Yang and Charles Jiang left.

They reluctantly got in the car and did not want to say a word to Jason.

As soon as she got in the car, Amanda began to look around. Sure enough, it was a good car, and it was comfortable to sit in.

'No, when I come back, I have to ask Cindy for the contact information of Miss Su. She only give me the car key last time, but I don't know where the car is.'

Amanda checked it out. It was Maserati, a luxury car, which was also worth a million!

If she go out in that car, she would definitely be honored!

If it did not work, she would buy a better car with the two million. It must be better than this car and must could suppress Josephine Yang's arrogance.

Soon, the car set off and went straight to

Yang's Village.

The Yang Family's courtyard was located on the side of the Eastern Mountain in the Yang Family Village, overlooking the mountains and the rivers. It was halfway up the mountain and was very suitable for retirement.

That was why Yang Kai had chosen to go back to Yang's Village.

Felix Yang, the leader of the Yang Family, had been living there since his retirement from working in the government. He grew flowers, planted grass, and played with his grandson.

Moreover, his four children were very competitive. Except for his third daughter who had married Charles and lived a normal life, several other children were in the government or in the business circle of Shang Jiang City.

The Yang Family could be considered a big family in Shang Jiang City, which was deeply rooted there. In particular, Felix had a large number of students. They were all over the business circles and political circles, and had a large network of connections in all areas.

So when Felix was still alive, the Yang Family would not fall, which meant that they were still flourishing.

At that time, Felix who was standing in the courtyard, looked at the mountain in the distance, waiting for his children to come back.

Over the past few years, he had taken too little care of his third daughter.

It was mainly because of his third daughter's son-in-law who made him embarrassed in front of the Yang Family.

Felix was an old-fashioned man. His granddaughter had married a good-for-nothing and had got pregnant even before she had got married. There was gossip about the Yang Family in the village, even in Shang Jiang City.

That was why Yang Kai had fallen out with his third daughter in a fit of anger. He had only seen her once a year since then.

Especially when he thought that his beloved Cindy had married such a good-for-nothing, Felix's face was full of rage.

He had heard from his second daughter,

Josephine, that the good-for-nothing would be coming to celebrate his birthday today as well.

Now, the Yang Family had been speaking a lot of gossip about that idiot. Many people were eager to see him and make fun of him.

Felix would not stop them at all. He also did not like Jason, so he had to teach him a lesson so that the good-for-nothing would take a good look at himself. The mansion of the Yang Family was not a place that anybody could simple acquire.

'Grandpa, don't know when aunt will arrive. You'd better go back and have a rest. I'll wait here.'

Next to him, Yang Tai, who was cold and arrogant, smiled and showed a very obedient look.

Felix nodded and looked at his grandson dotingly. He walked into the yard with his black cane inlaid which was with gold thread with Travis' help.

After helping Felix came in, he walked out again.

At this time, there were several young people standing at the door. They were all the younger generation of the Yang Family.

'Travis, what are we going to do later?'

It was a young man who spoke. His eyebrows showed a lot of arrogance and he was dressed in expensive clothes.

He was the youngest son of Jackson Yang. His name was Hammer Yang, who was same age as Travis. They had grown up as the best friends.

Therefore, their personalities were almost the same. They were all rich playboys who were supercilious.

Travis smiled coldly and said, 'Of course, let's give a welcome gift to Jason, a good-for-nothing, and also to humiliate Cindy.'

Hammer nodded in agreement, a gloomy sneer appeared in the corner of his mouth.

They were not happy with Cindy.

Because when she was a child, Cindy was the one who seemed most promising, all of them felt the pressure from her throughout their growth.

Therefore, they had to teach her a lesson today.

And Jason must be ambushed!

Only the cold-tempered woman next to him did not speak.

Her name was Gabrielle Yang, Jackson's second daughter. She was the same age as Cindy, but she was not married yet.

She disdained these younger brothers' tricks. She turned around and said coldly, 'I'll leave first.'

'Sister Gabrielle, don't. Is it not easy for you to come and watch the show?' Travis winked and said with a smile.

Gabrielle frowned slightly. After thinking for a while, she decided she would help Cindy if necessary.

After all, they were sisters.

To be honest, when Cindy had got married, Gabrielle was at the present. She had always had a bad feeling about Jason.

In her eyes, men were all the same, they were not enough for her to have any interest in.

After all, Gabrielle was a top student and had obtained a master's degree certificate from Massachusetts Institute of Technology. She was a real straight-A student.

Therefore, a man was not as interesting to her as a few books.

That was why she was still single.

At that moment, a black Lincoln Navigator drove to the gate of the courtyard.

Jason and Cindy got out of the car first, and then Amanda and Charles also got out.

Seeing Travis and others standing at the door, Cindy panicked. She slightly pulled Jason's hand and asked in a low voice, 'Jason, are you really all right? Or you go back first?'

Cindy was very worried that Jason would be humiliated and then later blamed.

Although she now knew that Jason's family owned North Pole Starry Sky restaurant. He still was not good enough in front of the Yang Family, a colossus.

Among the four children of the second generation of the Yang Family, except for Amanda, Jackson the eldest son, served as an official in his constitution. Moreover, he was also a high-level official, so he had great power.

Josephine, the second daughter, had married a middle-sized entrepreneur in Shang Jiang City. She was worth about three or four hundred million. She was engaged in a real estate business and had good relationships with a lot of people.

Jacques Yang, the fourth son, had successfully created his own business empire, and had expanded his business to Shang Jiang City. He established a branch office in eight major cities in the country, mainly engaged in trade, and it was an overseas trade. His assets were worth over one billion.

However, Jason squeezed Cindy's little hand and said with a smile, 'Cindy, trust me, it's okay.'

It was just the Yang Family, which was not worth Jason's attention at all.

Compared with him, this family had nothing. If they really dared to provoke him, Jason did not mind letting everyone know today.

He, Jason, was like an insurmountable chasm for the Yang Family!

It was a rule that could not be touched!

Because since the night he had come into contact with Juliette Yun, Jason had been preparing for the day when his identity to be exposed.

Cindy thought for a moment and nodded. If she really could not do it, she would tell everyone that Jason's family was very rich and was running the the North Pole Starry Sky restaurant.

If that was the case, they might see him in a new light.

Seeing her daughter and Jason still flirting with each other, Amanda was so angry that she snorted a few times.

At this time, Travis walked over with a smile on his face and started teasing. He sneered and said, 'Hey, aren't you my cousin's useless husband? You're here. That's great. I haven't seen you for a long time. You're a rare visitor.'

As soon as Jason looked up, he saw Travis's half-smiling face.

Travis really could not wait to humiliate Jason.

The Yang Family was bad all the way from the old to the younger generation.

The brothers and sisters around, as well as the elders who had run out to watch the scene after hearing the sounds, were also casting strange eyes, laughing, being indifferent, and rolling their eyes.

It was as if Jason was a clown.

There was no need to think about it. Jason certainly did not dare to say anything.

A good-for-nothing did not have the right to speak.

However, it was beyond everyone's expectation.

Jason smiled calmly and said, 'Yang Tai, don't look down on me with your dog eyes. I don't like being stared at by rotten dogs.'

Chapter 102

His words made everyone speechless!

How dare Jason Smith, a good-for-nothing, talk to Travis Yang like this?

It was incredible!

This good-for-nothing was going to turn against them!

This was the Yang Family's courtyard, which belonged to the Yang Family!

Did he not consider any consequences?

Travis's face immediately became gloomy, his eyebrows were cold, and his attitude was very arrogant. He said angrily, 'Jason, how dare you scold me? You are the good-for-nothing son-in-law of the Jiang family, how dare you talk to me like this? What's more, what right do you have to come to our Yang Family's birthday celebration? I won't allow you in! A good-for-nothing, still dares to play tricks on me!'

Travis was annoyed. He did not expect that such a good-for-nothing like Jason dared to scold him face to face.

It was an insult to him and an insult to the Yang Family!

Hammer Yang immediately echoed. He pointed at Jason with an arrogant attitude and scolded, 'Apologize to Travis immediately. Otherwise, you won't be allowed to enter the Yang Family courtyard today. Do you hear me? Loser!'

At the gate of the courtyard, many members of Yang Family and other relatives were also watching. At that moment, when they saw this scene, they all pointed at Jason, Cindy Jiang, and others and began to talk about them.

The strange gaze made Cindy felt uncomfortable.

Amanda Yang was even angrier. She had previously said that should not bring Jason there.

Oh my god. How dared he argue with Travis? Was he not trying to make trouble for them?

'Look, that's my third sister's son-in-law, Jason, a good-for-nothing. I heard that he only delivers takeout and earns a thousand a month. He is even in debt to people.'

Josephine Yang was mixed in the crowd. At that moment, she was talking and the corners of her eyes were moving, full of disdain.

What she now wanted was to keep teasing and show everyone that Amanda had a 'good-for-nothing son-in-law!'

'Hey, I've heard about Jason before. He's just a good-for-nothing who can't even support himself. Didn't he say he wanted to divorce Cindy? Why is he here today?'

'This kind of trash has come to celebrate the old master's birthday. He's really such a rotten rat. I think he should be driven out!'

'That's right. The old master doesn't like Jason at all. His presence will spoil everyone's mood.'

The group of people kept making sarcastic remarks, looking down upon him.

Amanda could not stand these ugly words. She immediately pulled Jason and scolded, 'Jason, what are you doing? How can I bring such a shameful thing here? Go back now, and never step into the gate of my family's household!'

Amanda was now like a powder keg, and she would ignite with just a spark.

She had long guessed that this group of people from her family would not miss the opportunity to tease Jason. Now they kept making fun of him. How could she sit with them and eat later?

Charles chose to be quiet at this time, but his face was also very pale.

After all, it was the family of Amanda, her family was very big, and he did not dare to say anything presumptuous.

Moreover, before he retired, he had been protected by the Yang Family.

So, he lowered his head and chose not to speak.

Cindy pulled Amanda's hand away, raised her eyebrows and said unhappily, 'Mom, it's Travis' fault. Why did he make fun of Jason? After all, Jason is your son-in-law. Why don't you defend him?'

Cindy was also very unhappy. As soon as she got out of the car, Travis began to tease Jason.

Was there anyone who took her seriously?

Did he not know anything about courtesy?

And her mother, why did she had to blame Jason?

'Cindy, you're not fit to talk about this. Just stay away!'

Amanda was so angry that she slapped Cindy in the face.

She had had enough. Recently, Cindy had always been playing against her. This time, it was she who had insisted on bringing Jason here. Now great, Jason had brought such a big humiliation to them.

She had lost all her face!

Seeing Cindy being beaten, Jason's heart was burning with anger. He pulled Cindy behind him, stared at Amanda angrily, and said in a low voice, 'Amanda Yang! Don't take yourself too seriously! In my eyes, you are far less important than Cindy! Don't make everyone unhappy before the end!'

Jason was so angry that he clenched his fists.

Behind him, Cindy quickly grabbed Jason and whispered, 'Jason, don't do that.'

Only then did Jason let go of his hand and let out a sigh.

However, his eyes were still cold, and there was a flicker of fire in them.

If anyone dared to beat Cindy or humiliate her, Jason would not mind making a mess of the Yang Family right there and then!

Amanda was panicked, especially when she saw Jason's angry eyes just then, she felt a little diffident.

This good-for-nothing had really changed a lot recently. He had quarreled with her several times.

Travis was happy to see this. He did not expect that the Jiang family would make trouble between themselves before he could even have a chance to.

It seemed that Cindy's aunt really did not like a good-for-nothing such as Jason. He could make use of this and do something.

Amanda glared at Jason angrily and then dragged Charles Jiang into the entrance of the courtyard.

Cecelia Zhou had already got in. She followed Josephine with her eyebrows twitching and a sneer at the corner of her mouth. She watched this farce coldly.

Cindy, ah, Cindy, you were so unfortunate to have married such a good-for-nothing.

After muttering a few words in her mind, Cecelia was ready to turn around and went in.

However, just as Cindy was about to lead Jason into the door, Travis stopped her again.

'Cindy, as I said just now, a good-for-nothing like Jason doesn't deserve to enter the Yang Family's door!' Travis's head was held high, and his expression was so arrogant.

In his eyes, Jason was a good-for-nothing, while the Yang Family would not welcome such a good-for-nothing.

Hammer also stood at the door, blocking it.

Cindy frowned and her face turned cold. She said, 'Travis, Hammer, I'm your cousin. Get out of my way!'

He was very angry.

Cindy was really angry.

She did not expect that Travis and Hammer were the kinds of people who would not take her as a cousin.

However, Travis and Hammer did not move at all. They looked at Jason provocatively and said, 'Jason, if you don't want my sister Cindy to be driven out of the Yang Family, go back by yourself. No one here is willing to welcome you.'

The corners of Jason's mouth curled up and he showed a cold smile. When he was about to speak, Gabrielle Yang, who had been watching him, came out at this time and pushed Travis and Hammer away directly. She said coldly, 'What are you going to do? Aren't you afraid that grandpa will scold you? The banquet is about to begin. Do you guys want to make the whole of the Yang Village know that the Yang Family treats their granddaughter and granddaughter-in-law like this?'

Travis and Hammer frowned and looked at Gabrielle. They stared at Jason angrily and smiled threateningly. 'Jason, let's wait and see. There will be a good show later. I hope you won't run away halfway through it.'

After that, the two turned around and entered. Cindy said with gratitude, 'Gabrielle, thank you.'

Gabrielle glanced at Cindy coldly, with her eyes especially lingering on Jason for a few seconds. She said coldly, 'Jason, if you don't want Cindy to lose face, I advise you to go in and say hello then leave.'

Then, Gabrielle turned around, swung her hair, twisted her plump hips, and left with a proud expression.

Jason was stunned. Originally, he wanted to say a few words of gratitude, but he did not expect that he was still looked down upon.

He and Cindy looked at each other, and the latter was very worried and said, 'Jason, is it really all right? I... I'm worried...'

Jason shook his head and said with a smile, 'Don't worry, Cindy. It's okay. Trust me.'

Then, the two of them entered the courtyard of the Yang Family.

In the courtyard of the Yang Family, there were already banquet tables being set up.

Of course, they were divided into different levels of status.

The VIP seats were naturally in the inner hall, situated close to Mr. Yang. Now the master's seat was still empty, and Mr. Yang had not arrived yet.

The inner court was full of the children of Mr. Yang. Only those so-called Yang's family members could enter the inner court.

Then there were four tables set up in the middle of the inner hall, all of which were for other relatives who had come to celebrate Mr. Yang's birthday.

The lowest class was naturally the outer hall. There were only six tables, they were just there to have a good meal.

'Wow, look, it's Xavier, Jackson's eldest son!'

He saw a handsome young man walking into the courtyard and towards the inner hall under everyone's envious gaze.

At this time, even the elders and the big shots who had already sat in the inner hall looked at the young man with jealousy in their eyes!

'Xavier, the most outstanding junior of Yang Family from this generation!'

In the whole yard, there were so many people sighing, and Jason's brow became slightly raised.

The Yang Family was considered a big family in Shang Jiang City. Especially Mr. Yang, who had a lot of connections.

As the eldest son of Jackson, Xavier naturally received a lot of love and attention.

Xavier did not let everyone down. He had already started his own company at such a young age and was successfully listed on the market. Now his value was also at two to three hundred million!

It could be said that Mr. Yang was very fond of Xavier and was even preparing to train him as the successor from the third generation.

Travis and Hammer drank a cup of tea with cold faces when they saw Xavier enter the inner hall step by step.

It was well known in the Yang Family that they were not on good terms with Xavier.

Travis felt uncomfortable. Looking at Jason, who was sitting next to the door in the outer courtyard, he came up with a plan in his mind and walked over with Hammer.

Chapter 103

Jason Smith was sitting next to Cindy Jiang. At this moment, he naturally noticed Travis Yang and Hammer Yang, who was walking over with a cunning look on their faces.

'Jason, why are you sitting in the outer courtyard? Some more it's near the door. This is the place where I feed the dog.'

Travis looked at Jason with a cold smile, his eyes full of sarcasm.

Cindy blushed and tried to stand up, but was stopped by a big hand.

Jason smiled calmly and said, 'The outer court and the inner court are the same. The main thing is to see who is the person and where they eat. What's more, I don't care about sitting in your inner court at all.'

Having endured for such a long time, Jason did not mind being arrogant once again.

The main reason for this was that Travis was so being hateful and had made trouble out of nothing.

'Haha, all right, you're boasting now. Such a good-for-nothing. You're blessed to be able to enter the Yang Family's door and have your meal at the table. Do you understand? Good-for-nothing!' Travis sneered.

At this time, Yang Guo also frowned. She could have been sitting in the inner court, but in order to take care of Cindy, she had chosen to sit in the outer courtyard.

'Well, Travis, can you stop talking? You simply want to make trouble with Jason, aren't you?'

Gabrielle frowned slightly and said.

Although she was very disdainful of Jason, she was Cindy's cousin after all. She could help them as long as she could.

Travis' face darkened. He glanced at Gabrielle. He did not dare to do anything to Gabrielle. After all, Gabrielle was the second daughter of his eldest uncle, and she was also a top student.

Moreover, many high-ranking officials and noble lords had come to the Yang family to propose marriage to her.

Therefore, Gabrielle's future was very bright.

'Haha, Jason, are you going to hide behind my Sister Gabrielle for the rest of the day as a coward?' Travis sneered.

'Travis, do you really look down on me like this?' Jason could not help sneering. 'If it weren't for Cindy's sake, I wouldn't have come here at all. Moreover, I advise you not to provoke me, let alone Cindy. Otherwise, I will make you kneel down and beg for mercy from me.'

'What? What did you say just now? Kneel down and beg for your mercy? Were you dropped on your f*cking head? How dare you say such things!'

Travis immediately burst into laughter, his eyes full of mockery.

Jason was really shameless.

How could he say such a thing? He had no idea where did he get the courage.

'Well, don't say anything else. Shut up!'

Gabrielle was angry. He glared at Travis and glared at Jason.

This guy clearly knew that Travis simply wanted to humiliate him, but he still wanted to argue with him. Wasn't he looking for trouble?

He was just the good-for-nothing son-in-law of the Jiang family. Could he not just sit here and had the meal, then leave after the dinner?

Why did he have to make a fool of himself?

With this, Gabrielle's eyes were full of anger towards Jason, she felt a little regret for sitting here.

'Jason is so arrogant that he said those kinds of shameless words.'

'That's right. I didn't expect him to be not only a good-for-nothing, but also a good-for-nothing who likes to brag.'

'Haha, I don't want to sit with him at the same table. Let's go to another table.'

Other people from the Yang Village, who had come to visit the Yang Family to celebrate the birthday and have dinner, looked at Jason as if he was a fool.

They also got up one after another and sat down on another table.

Soon, only Cindy and Gabrielle were left at Jason's table.

Travis was proud of himself and scolded loudly, 'Jason,, you know that I don't like you.'

You are really not qualified to sit here to eat. If you know what's good for you, get out of our house. Do you hear me?'

What the hell was he talking about? Who dared to make such a boastful remark?

Did he think that he was Xavier Yang?

Since Xavier had started his own company, he had his own capital, so people would believe whatever he said.

But him, Jason, were just a loser. How could he be so arrogant!

He even dared to look down upon the Yang Family. If the old master knew this, he would beat him out of the mansion in public!

At the thought of this, Travis gave Hammer a look. He immediately understood. He quietly walked away and then quickly ran into the reception room of the inner courtyard.

At this time, Yang Kai was chatting with his children and several good friends.

As soon as Hammer entered the door, he put on an angry face and shouted, 'Grandpa, go out and have a look. Jason is so rude that he doesn't even respect our Yang Family! He even threatened to beat Travis!'

As soon as he said that, the whole reception room was in an uproar.

Josephine Yang's eyes were full of joy, and she wished that she could run out and watch the whole bustling scene right away.

Great. It was good to start a fight.

In that case, Jason, the wimp, must be driven out. Then, her third sister must be very embarrassed.

Jackson Yang and Jacques Yang did not show any emotion because their father was still at the present and it was not their turn to speak.

As for Amanda Yang, at this moment, she wanted to kill Jason.

Jason could not just sit still and just could not stop making trouble for even one minute!

If they really got into a fight, Amanda would be driven out of the Yang Family!

At this time, Old Master Yang angrily knocked the black gold crutch on the floor tiles and said with a cold face, 'How dare he, Jason Smith!'

All of a sudden, the living room was filled with coldness.

Everyone knew that Old Master Yang was angry.

Amanda was even more nervous. She was sweating all over and her legs were shaking.

After that, Old Master Yang went out of the living room with the help of Hammer Yang and walked to the outer courtyard of the banquet.

A large group of people followed the Old Master Yang and flooded out.

In the outer courtyard, Travis was arguing with Jason in a hoarse voice, and even fought with him.

Jason was extremely angry at that moment. Travis poured the wine on Cindy and called her a bitch!

He was definitely courting death!

Clenching Travis' collar, Jason's face was covered with a layer of frost. He raised his fist and was about to hit Travis faces that was already bruised.

Suddenly!

'Stop!'

A loud shout rang out from the inner hall.

Everyone looked in the direction of the voice.

Old Master Yang's face was full of coldness, and his eyes were fixed on Jason, who was about to take action. He was angry and shouted, 'If you dare to hit him, get out of the Yang Family immediately!'

At that moment, the outer courtyard had been surrounded by a lot of people. They did not help after they had got up, and they did not even try to stop them. They just stood aside to watch the bustling scene.

When they saw Old Master Yang came out, they all stood aside with fear and lowered their heads silently.

It was the Yang Family's boss. Who dared to provoke him?

If Old Master Yang got angry with someone, that person would not be able to stay in Shang Jiang City anymore.

This time around, Jason was finished!

Under the awe of everyone, Old Master Yang came to the front with his black and gold crutch clanking as he walked. Full of anger, he raised his crutch and waved it down at Jason's raised hand!

Bang!

Jason felt so much pain that his entire right arm was numb!

'How dare you! How dare you attack Travis? Amanda, this is your good son-in-law?' Old Master Yang glared at Amanda behind him and shouted angrily.

Amanda was so scared that she was trembling all over. She did not dare to look directly at Old Master Yang.

No one could stand his anger!

She could not wait to tear Jason apart. It was too embarrassing!

Cindy stood up in a hurry and pulled Jason aside. Looking at his painful face, she could not help but burst into tears.

After Old Master Yang scolded Amanda, he turned his head and glared at Jason, shouting, 'Jason, you really look down on my Yang Family. You fought at my birthday party. Do you still have any respect?'

Felix was so furious. This good-for-nothing dared to hit his people.

What right did he have to hit his grandson?

What qualifications did he have to do so?

Jason grinned in pain, shook his arm, and said in a cold voice, 'Old Master Yang, I'm here to celebrate your birthday today, but Travis Yang has been looking trouble and insulting Cindy. Don't you think it's unfair for you to blame me without understanding the situation? Isn't Cindy your granddaughter?'

Felix was stunned. He glanced at Cindy, who was standing next to Jason. She was covered in wine and her eyes were red.

He looked at Travis, who was standing behind him. Travis had an evil smile on his face. When he saw Felix's gaze, he lowered his head immediately and behaved very well.

However, could he scold Travis in front of so many people?

No!

Amanda was his daughter who had been married to others.

Cindy was no longer a main member of the Yang Family, but a granddaughter with a different surname.

Felix snorted and said, 'Everybody disperse!'

The matter had come to an end.

Jason had been beaten by the crutch. He sat down, his entire right arm was still numb.

Travis on the other hand, cast him a provocative look from afar. He even showed him a middle finger.

At this time, Cindy was sitting next to Jason and massaging his hands. Tears fell down like broken threads, which made her look very sad.

'It's okay, Cindy. Don't cry.' Jason said with pity.

Cindy was still choked. She glared at Jason angrily and said, 'Can't you just bear it?'

Jason grinned and said, 'I can bear Travis' humiliation, but he can't bully you. I won't care about this small Yang Family. If he still doesn't know how to behave, I don't mind making the Yang Family disappear from the world today.'

Cindy glared at him with hatred and pinched the flesh on his waist. 'Stop boasting. Your parents are the ones who run the restaurant. My grandfather is also very powerful, and the

Yang Family is not a small family.'

Jason touched his nose and said nothing.

'Ahem!'

At this time, Gabrielle came over and coughed. She brought some Yunnan Baiyao powder for him. She looked at Jason coldly and said, 'Can't you just sit still? Do you have to make everyone unhappy? Now see, you even get beaten. You deserve it!'

Gabrielle heard the first half of the conversation between Jason and Cindy.

What did he mean by 'the small Yang family? And he even wanted the Yang family to disappear?

This guy was really good at boasting!

Could it be that Cindy had been tricked by him last time to get married?

It seemed that she had to find an opportunity to talk to Cindy.

Jason took the Yunnan white medicine, grinned, and said, 'Thank you, Sister Guo.'

Gabrielle did not pay attention to him at all. She took out a book from nowhere and sat down to read it with great interest.

The book was about the interview of Barrett.

The world's most powerful investor!

He was worth hundreds of billions!

He was the one the world looked up to!

However, in Jason's eyes, Barrett was just a little butler who could manage his finances.

Jason thought of an idea. He should let Barrett come to meet Gabrielle.

This was to thank Gabrielle for her help in the past two times.

'Well, Sister Gabrielle, do you want to meet Barrett?' Jason suddenly asked with a smile.

Chapter 104

Barrett?

Gabrielle Yang looked at Jason Smith suspiciously, and there was no joking expression on his face.

What did this guy mean?

Did he know Barrett?

He was the godly tier amongst people, a mythical figure!

He had hundreds of billions in assets, and he was one of the top on the Forbes list!

Such a big shot that everyone looked up to. Did he mean that they could just simply meet him?

'That's enough, Jason. Are you addicted to bragging?'

Therefore, Gabrielle only thought that Jason was joking. She glared at him with hatred and ignored him.

If Jason knew what Gabrielle was thinking at that moment, he would have laughed wildly.

Was Barrett really that good?

Barrett was just in charge of his, Jason's billions of assets.

Jason shook his head helplessly and smiled bitterly. He walked out of the yard silently and came to a remote place. He took out another mobile phone and searched on it for a while before he found the number of Barrett, and made a call.

Soon, an extremely excited and respectful voice came from the other end of the phone. He was sounded a bit old, and said in poor Chinese, 'Young Master Jason, is that you? I've been waiting for this call for so long. I didn't expect that the honorable Young Master Jason still remembers me.'

As he spoke, there was a faint sound of sobbing from the other end of the phone.

Jason looked embarrassed and said hurriedly, 'Barrett, where have you been making a fortune recently?'

'Don't make fun of me, Young Master Jason. Your assets have already been invested in the global industry. At present, it is worth one hundred and thirty billion. Would you like to come and have a look?'

At this moment, Barrett, who was in a luxurious European-style manor, looked respectful, and the dozens of maids around him were also surprised.

There was no one in the world who could make Mr. Barrett be so respectful to them.

Even the blonde haired and blue-eyed secretary beside him had a look of shock on her face.

'No, I have something to tell you. If you're free, come to my place. I have a friend who wants to meet you.' Jason said lightly.

'Young Master Jason, I will definitely meet your request. I will fly over tomorrow, please ask your friends to wait for me,' Barrett said excitedly.

Jason said in a hurry, 'It doesn't need to be so soon. Let's wait for a while. Well, I have something to do. I'll hang up now.'

This Barrett was really warm-hearted.

'Young Master Jason, what else can I do for you?'

At the other end of the phone, Barrett could not wait to help Jason.

Jason was the owner of all of his assets. Without Jason, there would be no Barrett.

'Nothing else, I'm going to attend my wife's grandpa's birthday party.' Jason said and then hung up the phone.

Soon after hanging up, Barrett began pacing back and forth in his splendid conference room.

'Alice, book a flight ticket to China for me immediately. I'm going to fly to China tomorrow. Also, help me find out who Mr. Jason's wife's grandfather is. If he has a business, let's invest in it.' Barrett was very excited and said, 'Let's invest one billion!'

The sexy and hot female secretary replied, 'Okay, boss, I'll do it right away.'

After that, she swayed her hips and turned to leave.

Back with Jason. He did not know that he had made something wrong by just making a phone call.

About half an hour later, the Yang Family's property was injected with an investment of one billion by a huge financial group!

But now, the Yang Family still did not know it.

Jason returned to the banquet and sat down beside Cindy.

'Where have you been?' Cindy asked.

'I went to the toilet,' Jason answered.

At the banquet, Old Master Yang was chatting with several children and friends who he had not seen for many years. He was so happy.

The crowd also came forward to congratulate Old Master Yang on his birthday.

'Happy birthday Grandpa Yang.' Travis Yang came forward to congratulate him by cupping one hand in the other before his chest and took his gift. He said triumphantly, 'Grandfather, I saw this in the jade market. It's a top-grade green jade, and I specially crafted it into The Black Tortoise.'

Felix Yang's face was full of a smile. He patted Travis on the shoulder and said with a smile, 'Okay, my good grandson. Come on, grandpa give this to you.'

Then, Felix took out a big red envelope and handed it to Travis.

Of course, there was a card in the red envelope, a gift of a million.

Travis happily took it. He had only spent a few hundred thousand on the jade Black Tortoise. This time, he had really earned a lot.

Jason looked at this scene and sneered in his heart. He muttered, 'The Black Tortoise? Isn't it a just a tortoise.'

Cindy immediately kicked Jason under the bottom of the table and rolled her eyes at him. 'Don't talk nonsense.'

Jason shrugged his shoulders and looked indifferent.

He was not interested in the Yang Family at all. There was only bad rotten smell with them.

Gabrielle's ears were sharp, so she heard it. She glared at Jason, which had a more worse impression on him.

This guy not only liked to brag, but also had no manners at all.

Next was Hammer Yang, who was going to give Felix a piece of calligraphy!

'Grandpa, this is a handwritten question written by Wang Kewei, the master of Chinese Studies. Look at these words, Prosperous and Happy.'

Mr. Yang liked the gift so much, that he just could not stop praising Hammer.

All of a sudden, Hammer showed his expression in front of everyone. He was very proud of himself, while Travis' expression slightly changed.

Of course, Hammer also took his red envelope and stood aside happily.

Jackson Yang, the Yang Family's eldest son, also slightly nodded. His little son, who was a good-for-nothing, was finally better than his fourth brother's son.

Jacques Yang secretly clenched his fists. He only had a son, ignorant and incompetent. It was all because he doted on him too much. It seemed that he had to teach him a lesson this time after they had gone back.

Otherwise, no matter how rich and how much property he had, it would not be enough for Travis to lose all of it.

It was Gabrielle's turn. She got up and took a look at Cindy and Jason, sighing.

'Grandpa, this is the acceptance letter from Harvard. I'm furthering my studies to become professor.' Gabrielle handed out a letter directly.

This was a straight-A student's gift. She was way too low-key!

It was low profile till all of sudden everyone at the present showed with shocked expressions.

It was Harvard!

The top university!

Felix's eyes narrowed with joy. Holding the letter in his hand, he could not help but praise, 'Good! My eldest son's daughter really did not let me down. Now our Yang family is going to have a female scholar.'

Hahaha!

A group of people began to flatter her.

Felix gave her a red envelope and Gabrielle kept it away.

Under everyone's expectant gaze, Xavier Yang slowly got up and walked up to Old Master Yang with empty hands. He said calmly, 'Grandpa, I came in a hurry and didn't bring any gifts.'

Hearing this, everyone was dumbfounded!

He did not bring a gift?

This was not Xavier's style at all.

Looking at Jackson, he sat calmly, drank a sip of tea, and looked as if he had known it in advance.

Hearing this, Travis and Hammer could not wait to jump out and lay some blame, 'Xavier, you didn't prepare a gift in advance for such an important birthday party. Don't you take grandpa seriously at all?'

Provocation.

Xavier raised his eyebrows, and in his placid eyes, there was a kind of look as if he was staring at idiots.

Felix smiled and said, 'It's okay, it's okay. Xavier's company is so busy. If he forget about it, it's okay.'

This was Felix's love for Xavier.

The crowd could not say anything more.

However, in the next second, Xavier said lightly, 'Grandpa, I have already won the oasis development project in the south of the city.'

With one sentence, all the people in the inner hall immediately turned their eyes to Xavier!

This young man was really so amazing!

This gift was damn precious!

He surpassed all the other people's presents!

The oasis development project in the south of the city was a project worth three hundred million!

If the Yang Family got it, their profits in the future would be at least five hundred million!

That was to say, Xavier alone would help the Yang Family to earn five hundred million!

It was unbelievable!

Until now, Jackson, who had been sitting still, smiled slightly.

Felix stood up excitedly. He stared at Xavier with wide eyes and asked, 'Did you really get it?'

Xavier nodded and said, 'Yes.'

'Good! Good! Good!'

The three good words were enough to show Felix's excitement at that moment.

Indeed my favorite grandson. The Yang Family now has a chance to be more success!' Felix could not help praising Xavier. He turned to look at Jackson and said, 'Jackson, leave the family's business to Xavier in the future. As long as he is here, I can rest assured.'

The crowd burst into an uproar!

He was handing over his power!

Old Master Yang had made up his mind to train Xavier to be his successor!

Jackson replied, 'Okay, dad.'

Xavier sat down next to Jackson and received this sentence from him, 'Well done. If you have any questions, call me. I'll help you with the formalities.'

Xavier nodded.

Now, the inner hall was bustling with people. The people who came to celebrate the birthday all raised their glasses to congratulate Yang Family for getting the south oasis development project in the city.

This time, the status of the Yang Family in Shang Jiang City was about to rise to a much higher level!

Jacques was the only unhappy one. He glared at Travis.

What a good-for-nothing!

Travis also knew that his father did not like him. As soon as he glanced at him, he noticed Jason, who was sitting together with Cindy in the outer courtyard, talking and laughing with Cindy.

At that time, he got up and sneered, 'Sister Cindy, why don't you come here to greet grandpa for his birthday? What gift have you brought? Let's have a look.'

His words made everyone look at the table near the door of the outer courtyard with curious expressions.

Those glances was full of complicated emotions, such as ridicule, contempt, disdain, and anger.

Of course, Amanda Yang had caused the anger.

Damn it, she knew she was going to embarrass herself!

Cindy was also very nervous. She glanced at Jason, who took out a small brocade box from his pocket and handed it to Cindy, saying, 'It's okay. Just bring it over.'

'Really?' Cindy took the small brocade box. She was very suspicious and nervous.

If they made a joke at a time like this, it would be a great shame.

Forget it. At the worst, she would leave with Jason after they finished the dinner.

Then, under the cold gaze of everyone, Cindy slowly got up and walked to the inner hall with the small brocade box which had been given to her by Jason.

be a great shame.

Forget it. At the worst, she would leave with Jason after they finished the dinner.

Then, under the cold gaze of everyone, Cindy slowly got up and walked to the inner hall with the small brocade box which had been given to her by Jason.

Chapter 105

Everyone at Yang Family's birthday party looked at Cindy Jiang with ridicule and contempt in their eyes.

There had already been valuable birthday gifts from Yang Tai and Yang Hua.

There was also Yang Xu's southern oasis development project.

He would earn five hundred million for the Yang Family!

Now it was Cindy's turn to give gifts. How could a family like her's give a decent gift?

Sitting on the seat, Amanda Yang was very anxious. She saw the brocade box in Cindy's hand that had been given to her by Jason Smith.

If this little thing was given to her father now, it would bring shame!

Was this not going to make everyone laugh at them?

Travis stared mockingly at Cindy, who was holding a small brocade box tightly in her hand. The smile on his face was very arrogant. He raised his eyebrows and said, 'Cousin, today is grandpa's 70th birthday. Don't tell that you will just give this small brocade box to him? What valuable thing in it?'

Travis sneered. He had seen it clearly from a distance. This thing had been given to her by Jason, the coward.

What kind of decent gift could a loser like him, who had no money and no power, possibly bought?

The smirk on Travis' face grew even wider as he thought this.

Now, they were waiting to see Cindy and Jason make fools of themselves.

Standing aside, Hammer Yang sneered in cooperation, 'Cousin, even if you don't have money, you should get a more decent gift. Such a small thing is too embarrassing for my aunt. Today, all the people at the present are important figures of the Yang family and grandpa's friends. Your gift is just too casual.'

This was undisguised sarcasm, which was intended to embarrass Cindy.

'Enough, both of you. Can you stop talking?' Yang Guo could not bear to watch any longer and glared at the two of them.

Travis and Hammer turned a blind eye to her. However, the disdain on their faces did not subside one bit.

Even Xavier who was sitting in the inner hall, raised his eyebrows and looked at Cindy, who was walking towards him. He also had a helpless look on his face.

He had a good time with Cindy when he was a child, but the more he grew up, the colder the relationship between him and Cindy was.

After all, she was no longer in Yang Family, so they would not need to have any contact with each other in the future.

This was life.

Under everyone's gaze, Cindy went to the inner hall, handed the small brocade box to Yang Kai, who was sitting on the main seat with a cold face, and said, 'Grandpa, Jason and I have bought this to you.'

Cindy was willing to believe in Jason. He would not simply give her anything on such an important occasion.

But she did not think it would be too expensive.

After all, Jason was running away from home, he did not have much money.

Felix just nodded coldly, but he did not pick it up.

Cindy was embarrassed. All the people at the table looked at her and the look in their eyes made Cindy uncomfortable.

She put down the small brocade box, turned around and was about to leave.

Felix did not even give her any red envelope, which was unfair.

However, just as Cindy was about to turn around and leave, Travis picked up the brocade box and shouted at the people of the inner hall, the central hall, and the outer court, 'Oh, I thought it was something rare and precious. It turns out to be a thumb ring. It looks like it's made from jade.'

His words were full of provocation.

Many people watched Travis took out the jade thumb ring from the brocade box and put it on his thumb. They all laughed out loud.

Hammer even interrupted and said, 'Don't call it jade. Would my cousin has enough money to buy this thing? I think it's a fake jade. Didn't you hear my cousin say that it had been bought by her and Jason?'

'Oh, yes.' Travis pretended to be suddenly understood. He took the jade thumb ring and shouted at Jason, who was at the table near the door of the outer courtyard, 'Jason, where did you pick up this jade thumb ring? It's so old. Did you pick it up from the garbage pile and give it to my grandpa?'

This phrase was heart-wrenching.

Many people looked at Jason gloatingly.

Obviously, Travis and Hammer did not intend to let Jason go so easily.

Jason did not pay attention to them. Instead, he calmly drank tea and ate a few mouthfuls of vegetables.

This group of stupid people did not know anything at all about expensive gifts.

If they knew the true value of the jade thumb ring, would they kneel on the ground and call him father?

'You're such a good-for-nothing! You only know how to eat! It's like you haven't eaten for a lifetime!

Seeing that Jason was ignoring him, Travis lost the motivation for provoking him. He put the jade thumb ring into the brocade box and threw the silk box aside as if it was rubbish.

Felix just glanced at him coldly and did not say a word.

To tell the truth, the happiest thing for him that day was that Xavier had won the oasis development project in the south of the city.

For the Yang Family, it was a big event worth celebrating.

Then, Jackson Yang, a government servant, stood up and raised his glass. He said respectfully, 'Dad, today we have had three pieces good news. I'm here to wish you a long life!'

Felix could not close his mouth because his smile was so wide. He held a crutch in one hand and raised his glass in the other. He said with a smile, 'Well, well, I'll drink up this glass of wine.'

At the beginning of the banquet, everyone chatted and laughed, eating happily.

Cindy returned to Jason and sat silently in a daze.

Today, she had really seen through the Yang Family. It was too bad. She did not like this group of people's behaviour.

If possible, she would not visit next time.

At this time, Jason sat aside and sent a text message to Joe Qiao, 'Joe, help me to research on Felix Yang.'

Soon after, Jason received a reply. 'Young Master, Felix Yang used to work in the government, but now he has retired and runs the Yang family's industry. More than half of it is related to the Smith family. Jackson Yang, the eldest son of the Yang family, is currently working with the government. He has some authority, but with an order from you he could be sacked immediately. Jacques Yang, the fourth son, owns 70% of the company's shares. Xavier Yang, the eldest son of Jackson Yang, has recently won the develop area of the south of the city. That project was approved by me...'

What the f*ck!

Jason did not expect that the Yang Family's internal and external businesses and projects had something to do with him.

This... this was a little awkward.

'Just follow the order of my text message. I don't like the Yang Family very much.' Jason replied to text message and put away his mobile phone.

Joe, who was at the CEO's office of the Sheng Ding Group, raised his eyebrows when he received this text message and immediately arranged for his secretary to give orders.

As long as Jason said the word, he was ready to bankrupt the Yang Family.

This group of ignorant people must had offended young master.

'Jason, what are you busy with?' Cindy noticed that Jason had been playing with his mobile phone just then, so she asked curiously.

'Oh, it's okay. Professor Tang told me that we can arrange the operation for Angela on Wednesday.' Jason replied.

'Really?' Cindy was so excited that she held Jason's hand tightly.

Angela was everything to her. No mother would like to see her child suffer.

'Yes.' Jason patted Cindy's hand affectionately.

'Hey, have guys heard that the oasis project in the south of the city was being developed by Joe, the richest man in Shang Jiang City? Now, Xavier can take over this project, which really gives the Yang Family lots of pride!'

'That's right. I've also heard that the boss behind this oasis project is one of the top rich second generations. He has a lot of money!'

'Xavier will be great in the future. Obviously, Felix is going to train him as the successor of the third generation. In the future, we will need to suck up to him more.'

The group of people chattered and talked, it was a hot discussion.

They could not wait to be like Xavier.

'Hey, tell me, what's wrong with that good-for-nothing? I heard that the Yang Family doesn't like him.'

Suddenly, someone changed the topic to Jason.

'You don't know this? Felix's granddaughter, Cindy was pregnant before marriage with that coward. You know, in this Yang's Village, it's very shameful. It's shameful to taint our family's name!'

'No wonder. According to what you said, Cindy is not a good woman. How could she do this? So shameless that she got pregnant before getting married.'

All of a sudden, several people's eyes focused on Jason, who frowned and looked coldly.

This group of people really had bad mouths.

Especially the aunts. The humiliation and ridicule in their words would make anyone extremely uncomfortable!

Cindy lowered her head as well!

Three years ago, because of this matter, she had become the shame of the Yang Family and was always pointed out by all the people in the Yang Family.

Today, these people were mentioning about it again, which was like stabbing a knife in her heart.

Jason's face turned cold. He pinched Cindy's little hand, then got up and walked to the aunt who was talking about her. He moved a chair and sat down. He said with a smile, 'Dear aunts, do you know which kind of people in the world die the most miserably?'

A group of aunts felt a little guilty when they saw Jason sitting down.

But they were not afraid. They rolled their eyes, raised their eyebrows and shook their heads, and showed their disdain.

They just saw Jason as a good-for-nothing.

'You good-for-nothing. What right do you have to sit down and talk to us?' One of the aunts said coldly.

Bang!

Jason directly picked up the bottle and threw it on the ground. He said angrily, 'I warn you, don't be f*cking rude! If it weren't for your old age, I'd beat you all today one by one!'

'Some meals can be eaten, but Some words can not be said. Be careful of your mouths, otherwise, don't blame me for being rude to you! Stupid b*tches!'

Jason's face was cold, his eyes were full of fire.

The whole table of aunties were scared by Jason's imposing manner. They closed their mouths diffidently and did not dare to say anything more.

However, behind their backs, they were gossiping about Jason and Cindy. They were so angry that they wanted to stab them!

He went back to his seat.

Cindy rolled her eyes at Jason and said, 'Why are you arguing with them? They don't know anything.'

Jason smiled lazily and said, 'That won't do. They just have bad mouths. You are my wife. If anyone dares to humiliate you, I will tear their mouth.'

Hearing Jason's words, although they were not very pleasant, Cindy felt warm in her heart.

Gabrielle who was sitting by the side, also glanced at Jason.

This man seemed to dote on his wife very much.

It was not so bad.

Then, she looked at the inner hall.

At that moment, they were all discussing the development project of the south oasis with great interest, and Xavier naturally had become the pride in everyone's eyes.

Old Master Felix Yang also drank a few more cups of wine.

At the next moment, a middle-aged man rushed into the hall from the outer courtyard, looking agitated and anxious.

'Old... Old Master, something big has happened!' The middle-aged man was Felix's secretary, responsible for all the external affairs of the Yang Family. He was responsible for informing the Yang Family about everything.

Felix frowned and said with a look of displeasure, 'What's the matter? Why are you in such a hurry? How can you behave like this?!

The middle-aged man had no time to wipe his sweat and said, 'One... one billion! The company has just received an investment of one billion!

The crowd burst into an uproar!

All of the people became silent!

18:57

No one could believe their ears.

A one billion investment?

Chapter 106

A billion investment!

The Yang Family's current assets were worth no more than seven or eight hundred million!

In addition to Felix Yang, Jacques Yang and Xavier Yang's companies, there were only more than a billion!

A new investment of one billion came out of nowhere!

How could anyone not be excited?

Felix stood up excitedly, opened his eyes wide, and asked in a hurry, 'What... what did you say just now? Say it again!'

'Master, we have received a new investment of a billion!' The middle-aged man wiped his sweat and said excitedly.

Suddenly, Felix's face was ruddy and he could not help laughing looking up to the sky, 'Good, good! Our Yang Family is finally going to be in the upper class! A billion dollar investment! Go and find out who is the one who invested. We must invite him to our Yang Family. We must treat him well!'

This kind of person must be a very rich man.

Must treated him seriously!

Felix was even ready to invite him personally.

The middle-aged man replied, 'I've contacted him. He is an angel investor from abroad. He just told us that he invested it on behalf of Mr. Smith. Master do you know any distinguished man whose surname is Smith?'

The middle-aged man was also very confused. He had been following Felix for more than ten years. He basically knew all the people that Felix knew, but none of them had the surname Smith.

Even in Shang Jiang City, there were only a few entrepreneurs and big shots with the surname of Smith.

Felix was stunned, his face could not hold back his joy, but he also frowned slightly.

He was an angel investor from a foreign country, Mr. Smith.

He really did not know any rich man with the surname Smith.

Therefore, Felix glanced at all the people present in the inner hall and asked, 'Who knows Mr. Smith? Don't hide it anymore. He is so generous. We, the Yang Family must visit him in person.'

As a result, he glanced around.

Everyone shook their heads in confusion.

'Dad, I don't know Mr. Smith.'

'I don't have any idea.'

All of a sudden, everyone was confused.

No one knew him, so who exactly was this Mr. Smith?

The people sitting in the middle of the hall saw what was happening in the inner hall clearly. Soon, this matter was spreading around the Yang Family's banquet.

'Oh my god! Did you hear that just now? A rich man surnamed Smith has invested a billion into the Yang Family!'

'What? A billion?'

'Who's Mr. Smith? He's so rich. I really want him as my father.'

All of a sudden, the whole central hall and the outer courtyard were all involved heated discussions.

This Mr. Smith's name instantly spread all over the Yang Family's courtyard like a gust of wind.

Almost everyone knew that there was a rich man surnamed Smith who had invested a billion into the Yang Family!

This was so generous!

Everyone was extremely shocked.

The Yang Family was really about to become famous today!

Some more good news for the family!

Jason Smith sat in his seat and frowned.

Why did this feel like it was something that had done by Barrett?

As he thought about it, he received a message from his other mobile phone. He clicked on it and saw that it had really been done by Barrett. He said, 'Dear Jason, I've done it. I've invested a billion in your wife's grandfather's estate. I hope you like it.'

Sure enough, it was Barrett!

What the hell had he done?

Jason felt helpless in his heart. 'This Barrett is too enthusiastic.'

After thinking about it, Jason replied, 'Okay.'

Since he had already invested, what else could he do? Anyway, he was not short of a billion, just took it as a gift.

After hearing this, Cindy Jiang's eyes were fixed on Jason.

Was it him?

Should not be.

Cindy quickly gave up on this idea. A billion investment. Even if Jason's parents ran the Polaris Western Restaurant, she did not think they would have so much money to invest.

Felix was so excited that he hurriedly followed the middle-aged man through the middle of the inner hall with his children, and then crossed the outer court, ready to see what kind of person this Mr. Smith was.

Travis Yang just passed by Jason and said sarcastically, 'Hey, grandpa, isn't there a Mr. Smith here? Is it him?'

It was obvious that Travis had said this on purpose.

For Jason, who was a good-for-nothing, it would be surprising if he could afford ten thousand.

A billion?

Dream on!

Hearing this, Hammer Yang immediately laughed contemptuously and said, 'Haha, Travis, this is not the same Mr. Smith. This just looks like a good-for-nothing.'

Hahahaha!

Upon hearing this, everyone also burst into laughter.

Amanda Yang followed them with a gloomy face. She did not want to say anything, she just did not want to care about any of them.

It was Jason's shame.

She did not want to meddle in this matter.

Even Xavier could not help but laugh when he heard Travis' sarcasm.

Felix glared coldly at Jason, who was sitting in his seat, and snorted, 'Who is he? He's just a good-for-nothing!'

With a snort, Felix held the black gold crutch and was about to take his men away.

However, who would obviously had thought this.

Jason, who had been holding back the whole time, was sitting in his seat indifferently. He took a sip of wine and said calmly, 'May be I'm that Mr. Smith.'

The crowd was stunned at first, and then burst into laughter.

Was Jason an idiot?

He even dared to say this.

'Holy sh*t! Jason, why don't you take a look at yourself? You don't look like a rich man, there's only your surname that same with the one.'

Travis was so angry that he laughed.

It was really funny to see such a shameless person.

Jason did not say anything. He knew that even if he told them, these people would not believe him.

Felix and others snorted a few times and then left through the door.

Soon, there were only a few people left in the courtyard.

Gabrielle Yang did not leave. He glanced at Jason and said coldly, 'Jason, I think there's something wrong with you. You're too fond of boasting. If that's the case, I would suggest Cindy divorce you.'

There was no longer a trace of good impression left on him.

Jason was speechless. He smiled politely in embarrassment, watching Gabrielle leave with her hips swaying.

Why did everyone not believe in what he said?

Soon, Felix returned to the scene with everyone. The smile on his face was something that had not been seen in decades.

A group of people kept congratulating Felix for his project.

All the people at the present were full of joy.

However, when they looked at Jason, they looked at him with the kind of glances that showed suspicion, which made him very uncomfortable.

'Good! Great! This time, the Yang Family is finally going to be successful in Shang Jiang City!' Felix was very excited.

'Dad, who is this Mr. Smith? Why did he choose to invest in our Yang Family?' Jacques frowned and asked. He really wanted to make friends with such a person.

He believed that the person who could invest $ billion must be worth more than hundred billion.

Such a person should at least be ranked on the domestic list. Could it be one of those few people?

But it did not seem to be a name they knew.

Felix shook his head and said, 'Forget it. Since he doesn't want to reveal his identity, we'll wait. We'll meet sooner or later. As for you guys, you must pay more attention. Once you find Mr. Smith, inform me immediately. Our Yang Family must visit him in person.'

The banquet continued.

It was also at this time that some news came out of the inner hall.

'Dad, the Royal Villa will hold a banquet next month. We have invited a lot of famous people, the Yang family has also been invited,' Jacques said with a smile.

It was absolutely a great honor to be invited to a banquet in the Royal Villa.

Royal Villa was a place of mystery.

Very mysterious.

It was rumored that the master of the manor was very resourceful. The forces and financial resources behind the manor were very great!

This was also the first time that the Royal Villa had held a banquet. All the celebrities in Shang Jiang City paid great attention to it.

Since they had been invited by the master of Royal Villa, it was proven that they must had a certain degree of strength and fame.

'Grandpa, what is this Royal Villa? Does it have a lot of power?' Travis asked doubtfully.

Xavier explained, and all the people in the inner hall were shocked again.

What kind of luck did the Yang Family have this year? There were so many good things happening one after another.

Felix was also very happy. Naturally, he was very looking forward to this banquet, but he was also very cautious.

'Well, when the time comes,

Jaskcon, Jacques, also Xavier, Travis, and Gabrielle go with me. We can bring six people to attend it.' Felix squinted and smiled.

Hearing that, Travis drifted away and drank a few more cups of wine. Then he found an opportunity to sneak to the outer courtyard and deliberately walked to Jason and Cindy.

'Jason, Cindy, I have something to tell you. I will go to the banquet at Royal Villa next month. How about it? Are you envious? I know that you are very envious. Only someone with a high status like me will be able to get into it.'

'Oh, by the way, I guess you don't even know where the Royal Villa is, do you? Hahaha!'

Travis was very proud. In addition, he had drunk a few more glasses of red wine. He had become very floaty, and his words were full of arrogance.

When Jason heard this at that time, he was a little stunned. 'Royal Villa?'

What was Yun Jing trying to do this time?

Although Cindy hated Travis' showing off like this on the surface, she was still quite envious in her heart.

She had heard of the Genting Manor House.

What an amazing place!

What's more, the owner of the villa had a very powerful background!

If she could meet that man, it would be good for her career!

Seeing Cindy like this, Jason suddenly came over and asked, 'Do you want to go? If you want to go, I'll take you there.'
