Chapter 3897

"Right! It's settled!"

"I hope you don't go back on your word."

Harvey calmly took out his phone before dialing a number.

"He's still trying to pretend? We'll see how long he can keep this act up!"

"He thinks he can deal with the problem with just a single call? Who does he think he is? The prince of the royal family, or the young master of the Blackburn City Martial Arts Alliance?"

"Country H has been extremely powerful recently, but he's still just an outsider! How dare he try to show off in our own country?"

"If he can actually solve our crisis with a single phone call, I'll kneel right in front of him!"

Everyone scoffed when they saw Harvey calmly dialing his phone.

Nobody expected Harvey to actually do anything.

Harvey made the call soon after.

Beep, beep, beep!

"Who's this?"

A young person's voice could be heard on the other side of the phone; it was Trey.

"It's me. Harvey," Harvey replied calmly

The top talent instantly shivered.

He was still being very respectful despite not standing in front of Harvey.

"Do you have any orders for me, Sir York?"

I heard the Blackburn City Martial Arts Alliance took away the Cobb family's supply rights, and I'm really unhappy about that."

"I understand!" Trey replied without hesitation.

Harvey then casually hung up his phone.

The Cobb family looked at each other.

Valery froze before laughing icily.

"That's it? At least put up a better show if you're going to do something like this!"

Eden showed a mocking expression as well.

"You said you're unhappy about this? You're talking as if you're their boss or something!"

"Stop pretending already!"

The others were glaring disdainfully at Harvey, thinking that he was just showing off for no reason.

"Are you trying to fool me?"

Grandma Cobb's face darkened, and she chuckled spitefully

"Come! Break his legs and make Katy sign the marriage contract!"

"What a waste of time!".

Everyone scoffed after hearing Grandma Cobb's words.

"What's the point of all this?"

"Does Harvey have a death wish?"

A few tall and strong security guards stepped out before cracking their necks, ready to cripple Harvey at a moment's notice.

"You'll have to get through me first!"

Katy's expression changed and she stood protectively in front of Harvey.

A fight was about to break out of the meeting hall at any moment.

Bzzt, bzzt, bzzt!

Suddenly, the phone of one of the family's butlers vibrated violently.

The butler picked up his phone. Then, his body trembled; he stood still as he exclaimed, "What?! We have our supply rights back?"

"They want the goods this afternoon!"

"They'll bring the check, too?"

Dozens of people froze in an instant.

"I-Impossible!"

Eden and Valery's expressions changed

They quickly took out their phones before making their calls.

The elders did the same as well; the entire meeting hall was in utter chaos.

"What's going on? What's going on here?"

Even Grandma Cobb couldn't keep her cool.

Chapter 3898

An elder desperately tried to control his emotions after making a phone call.

"Grandma Cobb, the Blackburn City Martial Arts Alliance made sure of it. We still have the supply rights, and they'll come to inspect the goods this afternoon."

The Cobb family trembled in excitement after hearing those words.

Not only would their trade be successful, they'd also be able to earn heaps of money; the entire family would be able to continue enjoying their glory and riches

"How did he do that in an instant?!"

"We only used half of the cost to get the supplies! We'll be rich if they actually buy them from us!"

The dividends alone could last us six whole months to spend on whatever we want!"

The entire family had odd expressions when they looked at Harvey.

The disdain in their eyes was completely replaced by shock and disbelief, followed by the excitement of them getting filthy rich.

Grandma Cobb resentfully dialed a number

After a moment, she immediately dropped her phone to the ground

She had mixed feelings about the situation, she felt happy, but she was also in utter disbelief.

She couldn't believe that Harvey was able to fix the situation with just a simple phone call.

Everyone's mouths kept twitching as they stared at Harvey.

If they didn't see and hear the entire situation for themselves, they wouldn't have believed such a thing.

"Got anything else to say, Eden?"

Harvey took a step forward with a cold glare.

"I've dealt with your family's problem."

"I sold your goods before the expiry dates as well. Is there something you'd like to tell everyone here?"

Eden and Valery's faces changed instantly.

They wanted to use this opportunity to kick Katy down so she'd never get the chance to rise to power...

Little did they know that things would turn out this way.

Katy looked at Harvey, bewildered.

'As expected from Sir York to create miracles like this...

'Not a lot of people in Blackburn City could pull this off."

"Grandma Cobb, you said that as long as I can deal with the situation..."

"You'll let Katy become the successor of the family."

Harvey narrowed his eyes as he looked at Grandma Cobb.

"While Elder Cobb is still unconscious, you're the master of the family. You have all the say here. You're not just going to deny everything you said now, are you?"

"You can't, Grandma Cobb!" Eden and Valery instinctively exclaimed, their faces a horrible expression.

"You can't! Don't let that b*stard become the family's successor!" a few elders exclaimed after taking a step forward.

"Right! She doesn't even care about the family in the first place! She has no right!"

"The head house had never contributed to the family's cause! We won't accept it if she becomes the successor!"

"Grandma Cobb! You can't be reckless about this!"

"The bet doesn't mean anything either! Harvey just got lucky!"

"Maybe the Blackburn City Martial Arts Alliance is just following through their contract for honor's sake!"

"Don't be fooled, Grandma Cobb!"

Grandma Cobb stood up before waving her hand.

"Alright! Enough!"

"The Cobb family has been looking for a lot of people to deal with the situation. You were just lucky! You took advantage of the opportunity to fight back and act as if you were the one who actually fixed the problem."

Chapter 3899

"How about this? Since the problem got solved after you pretended to make a phone call.

"I'll let you and Katy off the hook since you're so fortunate!"

"Katy can continue being the head of the head house"

"Nobody is allowed to speak about this anywhere else!"

"If not, I'll call the cops on whoever that does

Grandma Cobb was a little shocked before, but she immediately remembered.

Eden had already made a few phone calls to beg people to help in the situation.

The people on the other side of the phone kept skimping over the subject, but Grandma Cobb was hopeful

Naturally, she would think that Eden was the one who dealt with the situation.

Katy's expression changed, she didn't think Grandma Cobb would go back on her word

Without giving Harvey a chance to speak, Grandma Cobb glanced at Eden with a smile on her face.

"My dear boy! Why didn't you tell me you've already dealt with the situation in the first place? You made me worried sick here!"

Eden froze for a moment before coming back to his senses. He was quick to take advantage of the situation

"If I'm guessing correctly, Young Master Padlow must've been the one who helped us. The one who can fix the problem is the one who caused it in the first place, after all!"

"Senior Padlow only threatened to take away our supply rights because of his dear son. It's only natural that his son would be the only person who could stop him!"

"Young Master Padlow sure is making me look good!"

"Not bad! Not bad at all Grandma Cobb, expressing admiration.

"As expected from such a fine man!"

Grandma Cobb then glared disdainfully at Harvey

"He's just a clown who's trying to show off!

Does he think he could solve the situation all on his own? He clearly got lucky!

"Who does he think he is?"

At the same time, she glared at Katy in disappointment, she firmly believed that Katy was completely humiliating the entire family for bringing someone like Harvey home.

"Now that we know that this has nothing to do with you

Eden glared pridefully at Harvey.

"Should we proceed with breaking your legs then?"

Katy was worried sick.

Harvey gestured to Katy so she wouldn't worry, then took a step forward with a cold look.

"You keep saying you were the one who dealt with the situation..."

"If that's the case, then at least show some proof!"

"Proof? You're asking me for proof?"

Eden scoffed.

"Why do I need to show proof to some lowly man like you?"

"That said, I'll be generous just so you can finally admit to it yourself!"

"I'll show you what it means to have connections and influence. Here's your proof!"

Eden then took out his phone and proudly showed a phone number in front of everyone.

When everyone looked over, Gael's name could clearly be seen on the screen.

They all froze instantly.

Looks like Eden really does have a good relationship with Gael after all!

Gael was a disciple of the South Sea Martial Arts Alliance, and the son of the Blackburn City Martial Arts Alliance's vice leader, his authority was immensely high!

Chapter 3900

To flaunt his authority and relationship with Gael, Eden turned on the speakers before dialing the number

A cold and gloomy voice could be heard on the other side soon after

"What now?!"

Gael was infuriated; he just got word that Trey managed to give the Cobb family their supply rights back.

His father was the vice leader of the Blackburn City Martial Arts Alliance, but the top talent told him something that forced his father to give the supply rights back.

After getting Eden's call, Gael was boiling with anger.

That said, he didn't know what kind of connections the Cobb family had, so he didn't dare lash out fully

Eden put on a warm smile despite hearing Gael's not-so friendly tone.

"Young Master Padlow! I already know about the Blackburn City Martial Arts Alliance giving us our supply rights back"

I know you did your best to help us out to convince Senior Padlow."

"On behalf of Grandma Cobb and the family, we thank you!"

Gael froze, he didn't know what happened exactly, but he wouldn't mind putting up a show after everything that happened.

"It's nothing. We'll all look bad if we fought for such a trivial matter," Gael replied, as if he knew what happened.

"Say hello to Grandma Cobb for me."

Gael then hung up on the phone after that

Eden chuckled coldly and waved his phone around.

"You hear that? You hear that?"

"If it wasn't for Young Master Padlow, we wouldn't be able to deal with this problem!"

"You think you did this?"

"P*ss off!"

Harvey laughed coldly

"You think he's actually this nice? He's clearly pretending!"

"What are you saying? You think he's pretending?"

Valery shot him a disdainful look.

"Young Master Padlow is a disciple of the South Sea Martial Arts Alliance-he's the son of the Blackburn City Martial Arts Alliance's vice leader! He's an elite with high standards!"

"Only people like you would be this narrow-minded!"

"Do you think everyone is just as delusional as you? You think you have the power?"

"Let me tell you something! You don't even have the right to be the family's live-in son-in-law!"

"Yeah! Get out of here already! We're already nice enough to let you off the hook!"

"How dare you keep pretending when you're completely talentless?"

The people who came to their senses instantly screamed insults at Harvey.

They felt utterly humiliated after being scared off by Harvey's tricks.

They wanted to chase him away and then cling onto Gael, they believed this was their best course of action.

The meeting hall was filled with chaos.

Grandma Cobb waved her hand with a dignified look.

"Alright! We've dealt with the problem!"

"Young Master Padlow showed us a great deal of generosity! We need to live up to his expectations!"

"How about this?"

"Since Young Master Padlow is interested in Katy, we should just make her marry him!" s

Chapter 3901

"I know you've been looking for your one true love, Katy."

"But as the heiress of the family, you enjoy all the glory and riches that come with it as well as the responsibility of the family's fate!"

"I won't blame you for the things you did in the past anymore..

"Even after you're married, I can still guarantee your spot as the head of the head house!"

Grandma Cobb showed a prideful look on her face, as if she was a generous woman.

"As long as you marry Young Master Padlow, we'll have a strong ally on our side!"

"Do you actually think this man here truly loves you?"

"He's only clinging to you for the family's authority and riches!"

"I'll just give this man a hundred and fifty thousand dollars for him to run back to Country H."

"We'll settle everything just like this!"

"You don't have anything against my suggestion, do you?"

Katy's expression changed instantly.

Eden chuckled coldly and took a haughty step forward.

"Did you hear that, Katy?"

"Grandma Cobb's generous enough to bury the hatchet. She's not going to make it harder for your man, either!"

"She's just going to chase him away with some money."

"You should be thanking her!"

"Accept the deal already! You won't get another chance after this."

"At this point, we're all jealous of how good Grandma Cobb's treating you!"

Valery smiled, looking sinister and heinous

Exactly! Young Master Padlow's a little twisted. He likes to torture his women, and I heard that he has smallpox too...

"But he truly does love you from the bottom of his heart!"

"How can you bear to reject him?"

"For the sake of the family, you have to accept his love!"

Katy's face was horrible.

"You can't simply go back on your word like that!"

"Harvey was the one who fixed everything!"

"You have no proof that Gael did all this out of his own volition!"

"Have you thought about this for a second? How can a vengeful person like Gael be nice enough to do this for us?"

"At least look into the situation before making any baseless assumptions!"

"You can't believe his silver tongue without thinking!"

"You need to be fair about this whole situation, Grandma Cobb!"

Naturally, Katy was still hopeful that Grandma Cobb was just a little muddled and wouldn't actually be as biased as she appeared.

"Shut up!"

Grandma Cobb snarled, cutting off Katy's words instantly

You little wench!"

"How dare you try to lecture me?!"

"Enough of this! Who else do you want me to believe if not Gael?"

"Do you expect me to trust in this man here, who came out of nowhere?"

If someone like him can actually pull off something like this, why is he with you in the first place?"

"He wouldn't need you to stand up and provide for him!"

"Even if Gael wasn't the one who dealt with the problem, this man wouldn't have anything to do with it either!"

"Grow up already, Katy!"

"You want me to look into the situation?!"

"You want justice from me?! Ha!"

Grandma Cobb narrowed her eyes disdainfully and looked around her

"Ask everyone here. Who do they think did the most in the situation?"

"If even one person here points at this man, I'll acknowledge him right now!"

"Ask! See if anyone believes him!"

"Do it!"

Chapter 3902

Katy instinctively looked around her.

The members of the family were laughing coldly, their faces wretched and sinister.

"Enough looking already, Katy. Nobody's going to believe that filth..." Eden said slowly.

"Only someone as naive as you can believe that a useless kept man can do something like this," Valery exclaimed arrogantly

The elder with a goatee sighed.

"Wake up, Katy. That's enough dreaming"

Katy was utterly heartbroken. She had done her very best for her family for the longest time; yet nobody was standing by her side, nor did they believe Harvey's ability to do anything.

She stumbled back, her face pale

Harvey quickly held Katy before she fell and whispered worriedly. "You okay?"

"I'm fine."

Katy took a deep breath to steady herself. Then, she looked at Grandma Cobb with a bitter expression.

"Are you really not going to believe your own granddaughter, Grandma Cobb?"

Naturally, Katy still held hope for her family.

"How do you still not understand this?!"

Grandma Cobb scoffed, she slammed her cane to the ground, a fierce look on her face.

"Does it matter who did this?!"

"71 wouldn't be your man who solved the problem, anyway!"

"7 already gave you an out, didn't I?"

"As long as you marry Gael, I'll give your man the money and let you stay as the head of the head house."

"I won't pursue you about your mistakes in the past, either!"

Grandma Cobb waved her hand dismissively

"Sign the papers already!"

"You hear that, Katy? Grandma Cobb's giving you b*stards another chance!" Eden yelled.

"Sign the papers and marry Young Master Padlow! If you do, we'll overlook the fact that your man beat up everyone here today."

"If not, I'll make sure he stays behind bars for the rest of his life!"

Valery laughed cruelly, she thought Katy and Harvey were ignorant fools trying to act as gods.

"Bunch of idiots"

"You can't just force me like this, Grandma Cobb! I'm your granddaughter..."

Katy tried to get her grandmother's affection once more.

"Shut up!"

Grandma Cobb instantly cut Katy off; she couldn't be bothered to listen to Katy.

"I don't need you to lecture me on how to do things!"

"Stop spouting nonsense! I only have one demand: marry Gael so the family gets a powerful ally!"

"As for the truth, justice, and your feelings.

"Do you really think I care about all those things?"

"Do you really think they matter?"

"In any case, you're marrying Gael whether you like it or not!"

Grandma Cobb had a disdainful look on her face.

"Ask anyone here if they agree!"

"Yeah! The family raised you, so it's only natural for you to do something for us. It's not like we're asking you to kill yourself!"

"Grandma Cobb only arranged this for you because she respects you a lot. It's best that you agree to this!"

"Don't ruin your whole life for that man, Katy. We're doing this for your own good!"

If Grandma Cobb gets angry, your man will be thrown behind bars for the rest of his life! When that happens, even God won't be able to save him!"

Chapter 3903

The entire family spoke up instantly, they knew that the family would greatly benefit if Katy actually listened and married Gael.

Katy's feelings had absolutely nothing to do with them, anyway.

The family believed that as long as the Blackburn City Martial Arts Alliance sided with them, they would be in an extremely good position

Even without maintaining their position as one of the South Sea's great families, they'd still be able to live without worry for the next few years of their lives

At this moment, Katy's feelings meant nothing to them.

They didn't care how she would end up, either.

They were already prepared to send Katy right to Gael's bed after thinking about the benefits that they would get

Upon feeling everyone's hostility, Eden laughed haughtily.

The family thinks you should marry Young Master Padlow. What else can you say in front of the family who raised you?"

After seeing the family's wretched expressions, Katy was reminded of the time when she was forced into marriage at a young age

At this very moment, she could only laugh sadly

She realized the family was still the same as before

She had put too much hope on them.

"Well? Are you signing the papers or not?!"

Seeing Katy's horrible expression, Grandma Cobb thought that things were about to go her way.

Thus, she decided to pull out her ace in the hole

"I already told the butler to get the police here!"

"If you're still not signing by the time they arrive, don't blame me for what happens next!"

The family's cold voices echoed around Katy's ears, she couldn't help but smile bitterly.

Their decision made her understand that she was just merely a dispensable product for them,

Coming back to the South Sea to strengthen and lift her family up was just wishful thinking at this point.

Harvey sighed, and held Katy's soft hand.

"Powerful families are always relentless, but I didn't think that the Cobb family would even surpass that."

"They used your grandfather's life to threaten you. Then, they use mine to make you obey."

This family isn't worth your time."

"You'd be better off being the head of the South Sea Gang in Hong Kong and Las Vegas compared to this."

Sirens could be heard from outside.

"The police are here, Katy! If you keep acting so wishy-washy, your man's going to be thrown behind bars!"

Grandma Cobb coldly exclaimed.

"This is the last time I'll refer to you as my grandmother, Grandma Cobb!"

"You and the rest of the family really disappoint me!"

Katy took a deep breath to calm herself down. Then, she glared at all the Cobbs.

"From now on, I will not be a part of the Cobb family!"

"I'm done with you people!"

"You're wrong, Katy "

Harvey smiled faintly and glanced at the crowd.

"These filthy people should be the ones leaving the family."

"Grandma Cobb, Eden, Valery-every single one of them has no chance to stay here!"

"Only you have the right to be in the family, Katy. These people aren't worthy at all!"

Chapter 3904

"We're not worthy?!"

The crowd froze; a split second later, they burst out laughing.

They glared disdainfully at Harvey, thinking he was just an idiot for saying something like that.

Hundreds of people stood with the Cobb family, while Katy was all alone.

"He dares to call us unworthy when he's all alone?"

'Is he actually insane?"

Everyone looked at Harvey as if they were looking at an idiot, a sane person wouldn't say something like that, after all.

The ladies of the Cobb family narrowed their eyes as they glared at Harvey. Right after that, they burst out laughing while shaking their heads.

It was the first time in their lives seeing someone this ignorant.

In the family's eyes, Harvey was nothing more than a clown.

Katy froze and she looked at Harvey with a shocked expression, she didn't know what he meant at all.

Harvey only kept on smiling.

"Katy, a family's existence doesn't rely on numbers. It depends on how strong an individual is."

"Since nobody here has the right to bear the name Cobb, I'll let you build a family of your own here in Blackburn City,"

"Your family will be the only one under the name Cobb!"

Katy trembled, looking utterly confused.

"Elder Cobb would want this as well," Harvey added gently.

At that, Katy gritted her teeth in determination.

"Right! I'll do it!"

Soon after, a few inspectors showed up.

The Cobb family's butler entered, followed by armed inspectors. They stepped closer, and pulled out their firearms with a cold expression.

Grandma Cobb laughed coldly upon hearing Katy and Harvey's ridiculous conversation.

"Stop spouting nonsense! It's embarrassing!"

"The only family named Cobb?"

"You have no right to say that!"

"Katy! Since you're not going to cherish the chance I gave you..."

"I'll throw your man behind bars first! You can think about your actions after that!"

"We'll see if you'll oblige or not!"

"Do you think we're being soft for going easy on you?"

Grandma Cobb's face was fierce.

She believed Harvey was the main perpetrator responsible for coercing Katy to go against the entire family.

She was certain Katy would give up sooner or later if Harvey was in jail.

Eden placed his hand on his head when he saw the inspectors.

"That's right! I'm having a concussion right now because of this savage! He has to pay!"

Katy frowned when she saw the inspectors getting closer. Harvey would naturally be unable to fight back, since these people belonged to the government.

That said, she resented the thought that Harvey was going to be taken away without so much as a warning. She was very worried about Harvey's safety.

"It's fine. I'll be alright."

Harvey casually smiled.

"Today's the day of your family's rise after all. It's a day to remember!"

These shameless b'stards will finally break off from your family.

"Enough showing off already! This is too much to hear!"

A female inspector with a round face glared disdainfully at Harvey.

"You should tell us all about the people you've hurt when we get to the station!"

Chapter 3905

Harvey ignored the inspector and glanced calmly at Grandma Cobb.

"Just you wait, Grandma Cobb."

"This had nothing to do with me in the first place, but..."

"You forced my friend into marriage, tried to poison Elder Cobb, then got me to stay behind bars."

"I'll remember all this."

Harvey's face was grim.

"When I get out of the police station, I'll pay you back a hundredfold."

"I'll make sure your family dies, and I'll make you break Eden's legs as an apology!"

Harvey had no interest in dealing with filth like Eden on his own.

It would be best for Harvey to take his time taking revenge against a family like the Cobbs.

"You want Grandma Cobb to break my legs?! What the hell are you even saying right now?"

Eden scoffed, haughty.

"You should think of a way to get out of jail instead!"

"You'll finally understand the consequences of going against the Cobb family after that!"

Grandma Cobb sat calmly on her chair, and slammed her cane at the ground.

"You'll be kneeling in front of me soon enough, Katy, Harvey," she said, after scoffing coldly.

Harvey smiled without saying another word, he gestured to Katy to head back to the villa and let him handle the rest.

Katy had a gloomy look on her face; she knew she had no chance to reconcile with the family at this point.

That said, she was still no match against the Cobb family. She nodded calmly at Harvey, immediately after, she went out to gather more manpower and assets immediately.

She remembered Julian having connections with Harvey, and understood that he must've had people in the police station as well. Upon realizing this, she wasn't as worried about Harvey.

Half an hour later, inside the East Blackburn City Police Station

Harvey sat in the interrogation room with a curious look, he frowned disdainfully upon noticing that the coffee in front of him had an odd smell.

"I'm suing this place!"

"It's been three times since you gave me another cup! is this place actually this rundown?!"

"Enough!"

The round-faced inspector slammed her hand on the table, her face fierce.

"Harvey, right? Do you think you're here on a vacation? Do you think you're a customer here or something?!"

"I'm already being considerate enough to bring you coffee!"

"Why are you still complaining?"

"Answer the question already!"

"Why are you here?"

"You've beat up so many people! Every single one of them belongs to the Cobb family, too!"

"Do you know what'll happen after this?"

"If the charges are proven to be real, you'll have to sit behind bars for a few years at least!"

The bald inspector next to her looked at Harvey with displeasure.

"Don't think you have diplomatic immunity just because you're from Country H! Here, you have no right for that!"

"If you answer us honestly, we won't punish you as hard!"

Harvey glanced at the two inspectors curiously.

"I heard the police here only obey money rather than the law."

"Are you going to let me go as soon as I give you cash?"

"How dare you?!"

The round-faced inspector was boiling with anger, she felt utterly humiliated.

The bald inspector, however, froze. He then looked at Harvey with a serious expression.

"How much are you planning to give...?"

Chapter 3906

Harvey couldn't help but scoff after seeing the serious look on the bald inspector's face.

He finally understood that this place was completely lawless, he knew fairness and justice didn't apply here, either.

That said, he wouldn't feel any regret if he used some of his connections later.

"Are you toying with me?!"

The bald inspector felt humiliated after seeing Harvey's mocking look.

He slammed the table, furious.

"I'm warning you, b*stard! This place is all about being fair and just!"

"I'll sue you for slander if you keep running your mouth!"

Harvey smiled

"Fine. I've been waiting for those exact words anyway"

"If I told you that I only fought back after the Cobb family took action first, would you believe me?"

The inspectors looked at each other, then scoffed.

The Cobb family's one of the South Sea's great families. The family's filled with outstanding people!"

"Why would they throw hands against an outsider like you?"

"They did this to force Katy Cobb to marry Gael," Harvey replied calmly.

"She's being forced?"

The round-faced inspector showed disdain.

"Do you know who Gael is? He's a well-known young master in Blackburn City!"

"People wouldn't even dare dream of marrying someone like that!"

"Why would they need to force Katy?!"

"Besides, does this have anything to do with you?"

The round-faced inspector was getting more and more annoyed

"You should just confess already! I'll just lock you up and head home."

Harvey chuckled.

"Why not investigate the situation on your own first before jumping to conclusions?"

"Are you lecturing me?" the round-faced inspector screamed, her face icy.

Harvey couldn't be bothered to continue the conversation.

"Hand me my phone. I'm going to call someone."

Harvey didn't want to waste any more time talking with the inspectors.

The bald inspector's face darkened instantly

"Answer the questions properly! What do you need a phone for?!"

"Can't I just make a phone call to a friend?" Harvey asked calmly.

"Don't you get it?"

"Before I'm charged with a crime, I still have the right to contact anyone I want."

"Oh? You know the laws here, yet you're still committing them?"

The round-faced inspector sized up Harvey before throwing the phone to him

"Make the call! I'd like to see who your so-called friend is!" she exclaimed, scoffing coldly

"Nobody in Blackburn City can get you out of the situation! I'm sure of it!"

Harvey was planning to call Julian to get Inspector Failes, until...

"Huh? Why are you here, Harvey?"

A person walked by the door and took a few steps back after seeing Harvey's face. Soon after, a surprised voice could be heard.

A middle-aged woman and a younger woman could be seen when the door opened.

The inspectors instinctively stood up. "CEO Moreno! Ms. Moreno!"

Harvey looked over, Ellen was standing in front of the door.

He didn't know why she showed up here, but she still looked as gorgeous as always in her short Chanel dress

Chapter 3907

Ellen almost got taken advantage of by Jace after he forced her to get drunk, but Harvey saved her. Since then, the two had never met.

Even though Ellen was in a drunken state back then, she knew for sure that Harvey was her savior.

Ellen's gaze toward Harvey was completely different than before; she no longer looked down on him anymore

The woman beside her was clad in business attire and a pair of golden-framed glasses; she looked to be in her forties, but her slender body and exquisite face were still quite apparent.

That said, she appeared aloof and distant, ordinary men wouldn't even be able to raise their heads when facing her.

"Hello"

Ellen nodded at the two inspectors before walking toward Harvey with a confused expression.

"Why are you here, Harvey?"

"This is Harvey, Mother. He's the one who beat up everyone just to save me."

Ellen hadn't contacted Katy after being discharged, so she didn't know anything that happened in the Cobb family.

The round-faced inspector changed her expression slightly: judging from Ellen's tone, she realized that Harvey had done Ellen a huge favor

Ellen was the daughter of Noemi Moreno-the second lady of the Moreno family.

Even so, she was cast aside by her own family since she was an illegitimate child.

That said, she still belonged in one of the South Sea's great families. A mere inspector wouldn't be able to go against someone like her.

Before Harvey could speak up, the golden-framed woman looked at him with a judgmental gaze. She then said to Ellen, "The police are doing their job. Stop causing them trouble!"

The woman was none other than Noemi herself.

Because of her experiences of marrying a scoundrel at a young age, she didn't feel excited at all when she heard her daughter talk about her savior. Rather, she was a lot more cautious than usual.

Ellen frowned when she saw Harvey's hands cuffed on the table.

"What happened here?"

"Ms. Moreno!"

The round-faced inspector quickly explained the entire situation before Harvey could even say a single word.

"He hurt the Cobb family's young master. He's bad news!"

The bald inspector nodded in unison.

"That's right!"

Ellen had a fierce look, and chuckled coldly when she heard Eden's name.

"No need for further questions, Mother. Harvey's being wronged here! I'm bailing him out right now!"

Noemi frowned instantly.

"You're not even done dealing with your own problems yet, Ellen! Don't be reckless! You'll affect our family's reputation by causing the police more trouble."

"Harvey's a good man! I believe him!"

"The Cobb family are heinous! If Katy was his friend, he wouldn't be stuck here right now!"

Ellen looked completely infuriated, she was angry that her good friend didn't even try to bail Harvey out. Thus, she decided to break off from Katy without a second's hesitation.

After seeing her mother's frown, Ellen rolled her eyes and grabbed Harvey's hand with a smile.

"I forgot to tell you something, Mother."

"I want to stay with Harvey forever! He saved my life! He'll be my boyfriend from now on-no, my fiance!"

"I'm not leaving until you bail him out!"

Chapter 3908

'Boyfriend?

Fiance?

Harvey almost choked on his coffee after hearing those words.

The two high and mighty inspectors looked at Harvey, utterly shocked.

They kept sizing him up, but they couldn't see anything special in him.

They didn't think Harvey had the right to cling onto both the Cobb family and the Moreno family, either.

Noemi froze. A second later, a gloomy look settled on her face.

“I don’t care if he’s your man or your friend. You can’t just protect someone who’s being charged with a crime!”

Naturally, Noemi’s position within the family was quite awkward; she seemed high and mighty on the outside, but she was quite methodical with everything she did. She wouldn’t let other people from the family find anything to criticize her.

Ellen flashed her mother a resentful look. Then, she looked at Harvey.

“Harvey! Tell them that you’re being wronged! A good man like you wouldn’t just beat people up whenever you want.”

“Even if you did do that, I’m sure you have a reason for it!”

The round-faced inspector coughed awkwardly

“Ms Moreno, we’re also hoping that your friend or fiance here is actually innocent. However, there are just too many witnesses from the Cobb family that say otherwise!”

The bald inspector nodded.

“Right! Unless there’s solid proof of his innocence...”

“Nobody’s allowed to bail him out!”

The bald inspector puffed up his stomach and ran his mouth to flaunt his authority.

“Even Inspector Failes can’t do anything about this!”

Seeing the fierce looks on the inspectors’ faces, Ellen hesitated

“Did you really beat people up, Harvey?”

“Did you really do it on your own accord?”

Noemi looked at Harvey before tugging on Ellen’s hand.

“You can’t judge a book by its cover, Ellen. It’s true that he saved you, but we can’t just disregard the law just because of this,” she coldly exclaimed.

“Let the police handle this. I’ll get a well-known lawyer to keep an eye on him. He won’t be wronged!”

Noemi wanted to leave the place as soon as possible, as she didn’t want her daughter to have anything to do with some savage.

Harvey wanted to call Julian at first, but he didn’t want the young lady to be disappointed after seeing the expectant look on her face.

“I was wronged, Ellen,” Harvey said with a smile.

He then showed two footage on his phone and projected it on the TV screen.

“Ms. Cobb sent me these. They’re surveillance footage from the Cobb family’s villa. This clearly shows that the Cobb family made the first move.”

7 only fought back to save Ms. Cobb.”

“From a certain perspective, this should be considered self-defense!”

Ellen felt relieved after seeing the truth in front of her eyes. She held utter disdain toward Eden and the other Cobbs.

She was also extremely furious when she saw her good friend getting whipped and slapped around mercilessly.

“Eden’s a real b’stard, alright! Other than Katy, nobody in the family is any good!”

“You people need to catch and question every single one of them here!”

Noemi quickly comforted her daughter.

“Don’t rush things, Ellen! The police will certainly give you a proper statement about this.”

The round-faced inspector stared awkwardly at Harvey.

“Why didn’t you just show us the footage in the first place. ?”

Harvey looked calmly at the round-faced inspector.

"If the two ladies weren't here, could you have guaranteed nobody was going to destroy the evidence on the spot?"

The round-faced inspector froze. Right after that, she instinctively looked at the bald inspector.

The bald inspector glared furiously at Harvey, and hung his head low.

After Harvey showed solid proof of his innocence, and along with the Moreno family's support, the police could no longer detain him.

Half an hour later, Harvey left without a single scratch.

Harvey could've easily left the place without the mother and daughter's help, but he still showed the two a sincere look to thank them.

"Mrs. Cobb, Ellen, thank you."

"I'll remember your favor. I'll treat you to a meal when I have the time!"

Ellen flashed him a warm smile.

"I'll be your shield in Blackburn City from now on, Harvey!"

"My mother's the second lady of the Moreno family, one of the South Sea's great families. With her around, there's nothing that you can't handle!"

Noemi frowned after hearing those words. She had a deep look on her face as she studied Harvey. After a while, she said calmly. "Don't say such things, Ellen."

"Harvey only managed to get out because he didn't do anything wrong"

"No matter how powerful I am, I wouldn't be able to help if he really was a criminal."

"The family's power shouldn't be used this way, after all."

Harvey smiled calmly after understanding Noemi's subtle warning.

He never wanted to take advantage of Ellen in the first place.

"No matter the reason, I should thank you two properly," Harvey said with a smile.

"If you need my help next time, just say the word."

"If it's something within my power, I'll do my best for you."

Noemi raised an eyebrow upon hearing those words.

The Moreno family was one of the South Sea's great families. They recently started working together with the Sky Corporation as well.

With that kind of support, she could handle anything!

"What can he even do when he can't even bail himself out of the police station?"

Noemi was filled with disdain, but Ellen thought about Harvey differently.

After recalling Harvey's brilliance, her eyes lit up and she smirked.

"Your words, Harvey. You can't push me aside when I ask for your help, alright?"

"You have my word. I'll definitely lend you a hand whenever you need me," Harvey replied

Noemi had an odd look on her face after hearing her daughter and Harvey's promise, she looked deep into Harvey's eyes before smiling faintly.

"You're a decent human being, Harvey. At least you know how to repay the favor."

"You're a lot better compared to a lot of young masters here in the South Sea"

"However, Gael and the Cobb family won't stop after taking such a big hit from you."

"Katy has your back, but with only her as your support, you might not be able to win."

"If you need anything, just give me a call."

Noemi took out a name card, which exuded a faint aroma, and handed it to Harvey.

She wasn't interested in Harvey for saying all those things. Rather, she only wanted to keep an eye on her daughter in case she was being taken advantage of

Chapter 3910

Harvey could tell what Noemi was thinking, but he didn't mind it at all.

It was natural for a mother to protect her child, after all.

He took the name card and kept it in his pocket

At this moment, Noemi suddenly coughed.

Harvey instinctively looked at her chest.

Noemi got furious when she saw where Harvey was looking.

'How dare a child like him act this way? Who does he think I am?'

If Harvey didn't save her daughter, she would've slapped him in the face for his rudeness.

"Since you're being so kind to me, Mrs. Moreno, there's something I should say."

Harvey hesitated for a moment before he continued speaking.

"I don't know what kind of martial arts you're training, but there's a huge flaw in your practice."

"It's best if you stop training or let go of everything you trained for. You won't survive long if you don't."

"Harvey!"

Ellen froze, she was then reminded of his miraculous feat of saving Dean.

"Are you serious about this?"

"Harvey's really impressive, Mother! You need to listen to him!"

Noemi squinted, and finally let go of her formalities

"Is that so? I didn't think you'd have such a keen eye. It's true I've trained in martial arts for a few years to strengthen my body."

"Does this mean you're an expert as well?"

Harvey nodded.

"I wouldn't say that, but I'm probably on the same level as you."

"You hurt your lungs because of your training, so it's best that you stop once and for all."

"If not, there'll be no way for you to be cured if something does go wrong."

"You can do a scan at the hospital if you don't believe me."

Harvey was planning to figure out where exactly Noemi was hurting, but he stopped after seeing the cautious look on her face.

Ellen hesitated; she wanted Harvey to take a look at her mother's condition after hearing that her mother was in such a dire situation. However, for the longest time, Noemi had been completely fine. Ellen had no idea what to say at that moment.

"I know it's taboo to point out other people's flaws in their martial arts....."

Harvey took a deep breath.

"But I'm only telling you this because you're my friend. Plus, you two have done me a favor."

"I wouldn't get myself involved if it were anyone else."

"Heh, heh! I didn't think you'd be so kind!"

Noemi held her daughter back before smiling calmly.

"You said my lungs are injured, but I don't feel anything at all."

"I've been running 6 miles every single day. I'm doing shadow boxing to get myself stronger, too!"

"If you're talking about my coughs, that was the only time I coughed in the past month!"

"You're not going to tell me that you knew that my martial art was flawed because of that, right? Are you going to tell me you know what exactly is wrong with my body, and that you know how to fix it too?"

"If you're really that impressive, you would've been extremely well-known by now!"

"Why are you still so unpopular?"

Harvey chuckled bitterly,

"Mrs. Moreno, it'll be easy to fix your condition while it's still early. If you keep stalling, there won't be anything left to help you."

"Alright, enough! I appreciate your concern."

Noemi didn't give a straight answer, she merely thought that Harvey was being ridiculous. 1
