

Chapter 76

"Okay! I'll be waiting for you!"

Noah returned to his seat and looked at Isabella with a smile. "Eat, don't waste so much food".

How could she still eat?

She wiped her mouth with a tissue, "Are you really going to wait?"

"Who is the Jackson family?" It seemed that Noah didn't know of them at all.

All four of the families had a dark past.

The families had power that ran deep in Celestic Town. The Jackson family especially liked to work with people in the shadows of the city.

To put it bluntly, they were involved with the underworld.

The Jackson family was not like the Gray family. Although the Gray family's status was unparalleled in Celestic Town, they were not involved with the underworld, yet people were still scared of them.

That's because the Gray family had other forces and were in contact with other forces that other families did not have.

What's more, there were some strong ancient martial arts masters in the Gray family.

Ancient martial arts masters guaranteed a family's prosperity and success for a hundred years.

Hearing Isabella's question, Noah nodded. "It's okay. Let's eat slowly. Besides, if he asks someone to over, we can't hide."

Isabella agreed. If they left now, they would definitely be followed home by his men.

It was better to solve the problem here than leaving.

"Hey, why did he ridicule you as soon as he came? What's wrong?"

Noah asked her.

Isabella chuckled. "Oh, it's nothing, he and I were classmates. Later, he went abroad to treat his vitiligo. He couldn't cure it and came back again."

"I see. He was your admirer."

Noah was not stupid and guessed the general situation.

You say that a little man was ugly, but he does have his redeeming qualities.

The qualities of the four families of Celestic Town were that they were ugly, rich, influential and could still get the girls.

However, if he wanted to chase after Isabella, he had to be extremely confident.

Such an ugly person actually had the nerve to go after her.

Imagine how many times he had been rejected.

No wonder this guy always spoke sarcastically.

He also said that Isabella had downgraded her boyfriend to a loser.

Was he a loser?

Perhaps of the dinner with Lord Five last time, Isabella was not so worried about these gangsters anymore.

Lord Five and Noah had a good relationship. They were brothers. How many people in Celestic Town could say that?

She sat there calmly, waiting for what would happen next.

The man's surname was Jackson, William, Jenny's nephew.

William was actually very famous in Celestic

Town.

He was an arrogant show-off, but yet he liked to date beautiful girls.

Who knows how many girlfriends he's had over the years?

His wealth was the only thing attracting the girls. Nothing else was worth mentioning.

That was why he had the courage to chase Isabella.

He was regarded as the bravest person in the 21st century and the most ignorant person in school last time.

In Celestic Town, in addition to William, many rich and powerful people also liked Isabella.

Lucas Wyatt was one of them.

It was many years since William tried to chase Isabella.

After being rejected, this guy, like his aunt, was narrow-minded and full of hatred.

Every time he saw Isabella, he took the opportunity to tease her.

Sadly, he was lucky to meet Noah today.

Noah didn't care who you were. How dare you scold Isabella? Are you trying to ruin her image?

As a bodyguard, whoever dared to mess with his boss was looking for death.

Bodyguards were the kind of people who had to use their bodies to block bullets. Would he be afraid of you?

What's more, William was so ugly that he vomited and his appetite was affected.

Was the Jackson family scary?

Noah smiled confidently.

Isabella observed his expression. For some reason, she liked Noah's smile very much.

She remembered the scene at the company's gate last time. Ronald brought 200 people over to cause trouble. The security guards were trembling with fear. They did not dare to compete with these gangsters at all.

Noah held a pair of stone locks and roared, "I'm coming!"

He dealt with the ruffians quickly. None of them dared to say anything.

Isabella liked this kind of aggressiveness.

That's what a man should be like!

Beside the roadside guardrail, William, who was beaten up badly by Noah, was busy making a phone call. "Hey, call a dozen people for me!"

"I don't care what you are doing. I'll give you 15 minutes."

A dozen people should be enough to deal with him.

He had to vent his anger today.

Especially in front of Isabella, he had to beat this guy to the ground, force him to look for his teeth, just to vent his frustration.

Although William was close with Lucas Wyatt, it was impossible for Lucas Wyatt to spread his family's scandal everywhere. Therefore, few people in Celestic Town knew about Noah's bravery.

Soon, William's cronies arrived.

More than 30 gangsters, armed with iron sticks, rushed out of two mini buses.

The leader was Darren, with his signature big yellow teeth.

Darren had acquired a gold chain around his neck, as thick as a finger. It was gold and very eye-catching.

When he heard that William had been beaten,

Darren immediately came over. "William, who is brave enough to lay a finger on you? I will dispose them for you."

Several people helped William up, but he hadn't seen Noah yet.

When Noah saw Darren, he laughed.

He thought William was very capable and resourceful. Apparently Darren was the best he got.

Isabella was also happy.

Wasn't this the group of people who begged her to put in a good word for them to Noah at the company?

William must have never imagined that the person he called had already been beaten by Noah.

Seeing Darren coming with his men, William was filled with energy. He rolled up his sleeves and pointed, "Kill him!"

"Brothers, intercept..."

When the people in the stall saw that there was a fight, they quickly moved away.

When the boss saw William called so many people over, he whispered, "It's over, it's over. This business is failing again, many guests who didn't pay has run away."

Things were not as bad as expected. as soon as William shouted, something unexpected happened.

Darren was about to avenge him when he saw Noah. "Yo? Isn't that Brother Noah?"

"Brother Noah!"

Clang...

He threw the guy on the floor and took out a pack of cigarettes. "Why are you and Boss Charlotte having supper in such a place?"

Noah smiled, took Darren's cigarette, and lit it. He took a breath and said, "Today, I predicted that someone is going to have some bad luck, so I specifically came here."

"Darren, didn't someone ask you to teach me a lesson? Why aren't you doing it?"

"That's right!"

"Didn't I ask you to teach him a lesson?"

Why was he talking to him?

William was furious!

"Darren, why aren't you taking action?"

"Even if you know him, you can't disobey me."

William touched his swollen face. "I won't give face to anyone today."

Fight?

"Damn you!"

"That's my boss, do you understand?"

"He could easily pick up a two to three hundred kilogram stone to smash you."

Although the Jackson family were powerful, Darren made the wisest choice. He came over and kicked William. "Are you blind? This is Brother Noah! How dare you touch Brother Noah?"

"Brothers, get him."

"Oh!"

The 30 brothers brought by Darren all knew Noah. They were very obedient and immediately beat up William instead.

Crazy, crazy!

"These bastards are crazy!"

After a group brawl, William got even fatter.

Chapter 77

Being beaten up by the person he called over, William felt that there was no love in the whole world.

He didn't understand why would Darren listen to Noah.

It made no sense, he looked like a pug.

Who didn't know the famous Young Masters in Celestic Town?

He was sure he didn't recognize Noah's face, that is why he spoke rudely.

He originally wanted to find a few people to beat and trample Noah under his feet to show his strength.

What was the result?

He was trampled under his foot instead.

It was fine if he stepped on it once, but he stepped on it the second time.

He had never heard of the name Noah before in Celestic Town.

Moreover, he had never heard of any powerful character from Emma Corporation. Where did this guy come from?

Noah had defeated Ronald and Darren. Would they spread the news of them losing fights?

Would they say that they were beaten up?

Wouldn't that be a slap on their face?

No one would tell such a shameful thing,

Neither would Zac.

What about Derrick Wyatt and Lucas Wyatt?

Since they had suffered losses in Noah's hands, they would not show off for the sake of their reputation.

As for Lord Five, Noah was so powerful that he trashed all of his disciples and destroyed the name of Peace Villa. They became sworn brothers with Charlotte Olympia as Noah's disciple. Certainly, he would not tell others of such a scandal.

That was why William was unlucky.

He thought that he could be arrogant in front of Isabella and satirize this number one beauty of Celestic Town.

If he could step on her boyfriend, wouldn't that vent his anger?

"Who asked you to reject me from the beginning,

"I'll beat anyone I see."

Sadly, it was a tragedy.

William felt like dying after being beaten by Darren and his fellows. He was not happy with it.

He was very unhappy with it.

"I'm the Young Master of the Jackson family. How could I be beaten on the street like this?"

After Darren and his fellows stopped, William picked up his phone sadly and shouted while gnashing his teeth, "I was beaten by someone along the river. I'll give you two million dollars. Call a few hundred men to kill these bastards for me."

This was the first time William called someone this way.

Usually, he only needed five or six people to deal with a bastard. Who would have thought he had to plead for more help today?

He almost cried when he was on the phone.

Calling for help?

Noah laughed.

"It seems that I didn't teach him thoroughly?"

He glanced at Darren and his brothers. Darren smiled apologetically. "Brother Noah, this guy is from the Jackson family. He's usually quite arrogant."

"What? Are you scared?"

Noah gave him an angry look.

Darren shook his head vigorously. "With Brother Noah's protection, what am I afraid of? This kind of person, I will beat them up every time I see one."

Although Darren said so, he was quite guilty.

William knew a lot of people. He knew all kinds of people at all levels.

He was at best the lowest level among all the people he knew.

Betting on Noah has its risks.

If something really did happen, Emma Corporation's financial resources, could solve most of it, so he forced himself to gamble.

William asked hundreds of people to come over. They must be more powerful than him.

He was relieved to know that Noah did not care about the Jackson family at all.

Several buses drove over, completely breaking the traffic rules and directly sealing the intersection.

At least 300 people rushed down from the bus.

They all held weapons and looked fierce.

Mostly had tattoos, dyed hair, ragged shirts...

None of them looked proper.

The leader was a fat bald man with a mountain-splitting knife.

Like a king of a village, he roared, "Seal this place, no one is allowed to leave."

"Everyone, listen to me. Sit still and don't move!"

Hundreds of people quickly dispersed to surround the food stall.

More than two million dollars was good business, so of course he had to satisfy the customer. Otherwise, he would not be in Celestic Town any more.

At the sight of this scene, many people got up and prepared to leave, but the few hundred people ordered by the fatty had already sealed the place, no one could leave.

It was not uncommon for fights to occur in Celestic Town, but such a large scale of it like today scared the civilians.

When William saw that his men were here, he couldn't care less about the pain and burst out laughing.

He pointed at Darren's nose and scolded, "Bastard, I would be wasting my time on the streets if I don't kill you today."

"Who asked you to be blind? How dare you turn against me?"

Darren and his bros were a little flustered. Seeing this scene, they all secretly wiped their sweat.

Damn, this was going big.

The other party was actually from Ashkeep Club.

Ashkeep Club was a large group of Celestic Town. Darren's gang was not at the same level as him.

Even if Darren, Zac, and Ronald worked together, they were no match for him.

What's worse, the three of them had never been on good terms with the Ashkeep Club. They had tried to get rid of them several times.

After Zac's loss last time, they had planned to merge the three small organizations with Noah as the boss to deal with Ashkeep Club.

Seeing fatty, Darren's face darkened.

William laughed proudly, got up and waved to fatty. "I'm here!"

Fatty came with his mountain- splitting knife. Although he was not as tall as Darren, he was more murderous.

When he saw William like this, he almost couldn't recognize him.

Just now William said on the phone that he had been beaten, but he didn't expect him to be beaten so badly.

No wonder this guy was willing to pay two million dollars. It seemed that the money spent was necessary.

"Master Jackson, who dares to hurt you? I'll ask my brothers to silence them."

Before William spoke, he had noticed Darren and his fellows.

Darren and others were still holding their weapons, but were already shivering.

Although they fought often, fatty was ten times more powerful than him.

Fatty glanced around and did not notice Noah at all.

"Darren, are you itching for a beating? How dare you make trouble in my territory?"

The man's eyes widened, his weapon about to stab him any time.

Darren wiped his sweat. Would he survived the attack?

Noah knew that they couldn't withstand such a powerful hot from the weapon.

He said lightly, "I asked them to beat him."

William originally wanted to kill Darren first then settle accounts with Noah.

Unexpectedly, Noah took the initiative to stand out.

Fatty seemed to have just seen Noah and turned his head. Oh! There was also a beautiful woman.

Isn't that Isabella of Emma Corporation?

Fatty felt very strange and could not figure out the relationship between Isabella and Noah.

William was extremely exasperated. "Yes, and this brat, kill him!"

He was blind to only call of few people last time.

"This time, I called more than 300 people. Dare to fight with me now?"

Thinking of the humiliation he had just suffered, William's heart was in a mess.

12:37

Come on! Come and beat me now!

Chapter 78

Seeing these people brought by the fatty, William suddenly felt extremely proud.

"You think I've been on the streets for nothing? Humph!"

"I'll kill you guys one by one. How dare you hit me?"

Nowadays, whoever had money was the boss.

I'm willing to waste two million yuan to kill you bastards.

"Help me up."

William felt so much pain that he couldn't even walk, but he didn't want to give up this perfect opportunity to be pretentious.

He wanted revenge. He wanted to regain the face he had just lost.

Fatty's subordinates helped him up and brought him next to fatty. William suddenly became energetic again.

Especially when he saw that Darren and his fellows scared, William suddenly wanted to laugh out loud.

"Ah—"

Just as he laughed, he felt a sharp pain on both sides of his mouth.

There was no other way to express his happiness, so annoying!

His bean-sized eyes swept over Darren's group, then fixed on Noah, and looked at the quiet Isabella.

He swallowed hard.

"Beautiful women are dangerous."

If it weren't for Isabella, how could he have had this trouble today?

However, it was unrealistic to get Isabella now. Besides, even if Isabella could not resist, he could not move himself now.

With that in mind, he decided to kill the Noah guy first.

That's when he realized, why was Noah so calm?

Hey, I have called over 300 people. Can you be a little scared?

William couldn't control himself anymore. He wiped the blood from his mouth and shouted at

Noah.

"You brat, weren't you so arrogant just now?"

"Don't you know many people are there?"

"Don't you dare to fight with me now?"

"See? This is Brother Parker, Brother Parker of the Ashkeep Club."

"If Brother Parker wants to kill you, it's no different from killing an ant."

"Come on, hit me again if you have the guts!"

"Why don't you dare to say anything? Are you afraid?"

"Bastard, try to touch me again if you have the guts."

The more William said, the more excited he became. He pointed at Noah with saliva flying everywhere as he shouted.

"If you have the ability, slap me again?"

"Pa! Pa!"

Before he finished speaking, two clear slaps sounded on his face.

The sound was so loud that it shocked everyone.

The whole food stall was so silent that even the sound of a fallen needle could be heard.

Countless pairs of eyes looked over at the same time, and almost no one dared to believe the facts in front of them.

Originally, some people thought it was William who did it, but when they reacted, they found William covering his face.

His face was beaten again.

The hits were very heavy, and several bloody teeth were thrown out, some blood even splashed on fatty's face.

This time, not only William was stunned.

Everyone was stunned.

Fatty was even more puzzled.

How could this be possible?

William was beaten again, and in front of so many people too.

How dare this guy?

Wasn't he afraid of 300 people?

"You hit me?"

William finally reacted and covered his fat face. He couldn't believe it.

I've called so many people here, but he still dares to hit me?

Noah's two moves made him start to ponder about life.

"Yes, I hit you."

Noah answered very calmly and seriously.

Damn it!

He wanted to put on an act, but he didn't want to be beaten up again.

William was going crazy. He covered his face and shouted hysterically, "Brother Parker, kill him!"

Brother Parker was also ashamed. He had brought so many brothers to help him, but Noah still dared to attack.

"He looks down on me too much."

Brother Parker was angry and roared. "I'll kill you!"

A large knife was hacked at Noah, which scared the people at the food stall.

Some timid girls covered their eyes in panic, and their faces paled in fear.

"Stop!"

A girl in black squeezed in from the crowd.

She was about 18 years old, but her face was full of anger.

As she shouted loudly, the knife in Brother Parker's hand froze. He turned around and looked back.

Why did she come?

"Octavia—"

When Brother Parker was about to say hello, Octavia rushed up and slapped him in the face.

"How dare you!"

Eh?

A little girl so domineering that she slapped Brother Parker when she came up.

Who was this?

Someone was secretly puzzled.

Although Octavia was famous in the circle, but many ordinary citizens did not know her.

Brother Parker was not angry after being slapped by Octavia.

Octavia's eyes widened. "Are you blind? You think you can be arrogant just because you are from Ashkeep Club?"

"I dare not, Sister Octavia!"

"Dare not? Yet you are slashing at my master with a knife?"

"Huh?"

Hearing this, Brother Parker's face changed immediately. He looked at Noah in a daze. "Damn, he's the master of Sister Octavia?"

Clang!

The large knife fell to the ground, and Brother Parker secretly wiped his sweat.

He didn't expect the other party to have such a strong background.

Octavia's temper was very violent. "Don't think that Ashkeep Club is so amazing. Even lord five has to show him some respect. What do you want to do with so many people? Are you trying to rebel?"

"No way, Sister Octavia!"

How could a grown-up man be so obsequious and arrogant in front of a girl in her teens?

Everyone was surprised.

Noah looked at her with a smile. This disciple was not taken in for nothing, he did not have to take matters into his own hands thanks to her.

"Get out of my way!"

Octavia shouted angrily. Brother Parker picked up his knife on the ground and was ready to leave dejectedly.

"Come back!"

Octavia looked upset.

Brother Parker turned back and said, "Sister Octavia..."

Octavia pouted at Noah. Brother Parker understood. He came to Noah and said respectfully, "I'm sorry, we are blind. I didn't know that you're Sister Octavia's master. Sorry that we offended you."

Noah waved his hand.

Get lost!

For Octavia's sake, he would not argue with them.

Brother Parker bowed and hurriedly asked his brothers to leave.

"Whoa—"

Darren and the others finally breathed a sigh of relief. Their backs were completely cold from just a moment ago.

Everyone thought that they would die tonight, but they didn't expect that things to turn out like this.

Brother Noah was Octavia's master?

Oh, my god.

Octavia was young and extraordinary. She often scared many people with her flying knife.

It turned out that she was Brother Noah's disciple. No wonder.

After recovering from the shock, everyone was in a pleasant mood again.

Isabella had been sitting there calmly.

Even Noah had to admire her willpower.

Octavia beside him shouted, "Master, Madam."

Isabella was annoyed. Her face blushed. Why does everyone think she was Noah's girlfriend?

What kind of look was that?

However, she didn't explain.

Seeing Octavia dressed like this, Noah asked, "Why are you here? Does your butt not hurt anymore?"

Octavia was speechless.

Noah said casually, "I haven't had anyone to train with me for a long time. It's not easy to find people like him, but you scared them away. Why don't you practice with me?"

"No, Master, I have to go now. Goodbye, Madam!"

Octavia came and went so fast that she couldn't be seen in the blink of an eye.

After Brother Parker's group dispersed, the place returned to normal.

William felt like he had seen a play and fell off the roller coaster.

He was still on cloud nine just now, but fell to the ground again almost instantly.

He fell so heavily.

Where were they?

Where was his few hundred people?

"Oh my gosh, help!"

"I'll leave it to you!"

Noah stood up and said a few words to Darren, then got into the car with Isabella and left the food stall.

William looked at Darren and his fellows who were approaching him with killing intent. He screamed hysterically, "Help, help!"

Chapter 79

There was a lot of helplessness in the world.

This was also a kind of helplessness.

He just wanted to have a midnight snack with a beautiful woman quietly, but there were always some people who were not pleasing to the eye coming out to look for trouble.

Noah sighed. Was it so difficult to be gentle?

He thought of his original intention to come to Celestic Town, the last page of the Howard family Cultivation Technique.

Looking at the beautiful Isabella next to him, Noah gritted his teeth.

Isabella was very strange. "Why aren't you driving yet?"

Noah laughed and said, "You are so calm! We almost fought just now, are you not afraid at all?"

Isabella said disdainfully, "With a master like you, what am I afraid of?"

"Was the president praising me?"

Hehe...

Noah licked his lips. He missed the little girl who sold flowers so much!

It was already past two in the morning when he sent Isabella home.

Emma did not sleep and had been waiting for her daughter to come back.

Noah was not ready to enter the living room, but Emma shouted, "Noah, the room has been prepared for you."

Once again, she tried to persuade him to stay, which made Noah feel embarrassed.

Isabella did not say anything but only looked at him. "Mom, I'll go upstairs first."

"Alright!"

Anyway, it was only a few hours, so he decided to stay at their house.

Since they are not afraid of luring the wolf into their house, what was he afraid of?

As long as they don't come into his room when he is sleeping.

Noah quickly bathed and sat on the bed to practice.

The next morning, when the first ray of sunlight shone into the yard,

Noah slowly opened his eyes and let out a breath.

A few hours of practice was equivalent to a deep sleep.

Noah, who had been struggling until two or three o'clock in the morning, recovered in a twinkling of an eye and was full of energy.

the Howard family Cultivation Technique was indeed unique and profound.

Once Noah got into the boundless world, there was always a kind of shock as vast as the starry sky.

In that world, he felt that he was so very small.

Every time he finished training, there were endless benefits.

Every time he experienced it, he felt that he gained something.

His thinking, vision, and realm were leveled up.

However, it was a pity that Noah could not reach the other side. He was strangled in the sea of stars.

Noah knew that this was the result caused by the lack of the last page of the Howard family Cultivation Technique.

He needed it to reach the other side. Without this key point, he would lose his way.

Therefore, the last page of the Howard family Cultivation Technique was crucial.

Otherwise, he would only be able to wander in this sea of stars forever.

He came out to take in the morning breeze that felt refreshing.

Isabella was jogging around the yard. Every time she jogged, she sweats.

Today, Emma was doing yoga on the third floor balcony. A woman's beautiful body is cultivated at the cost of their hard work.

That's why some people claimed that there are no ugly women in the world, only lazy women.

However, Emilia, the lazy cat, was still sleeping soundly.

There were only a few days before the college entrance examination, Emilia was not worried at all.

She ate, drank and slept well every day.

Only a genius like her could still relaxed with such a major event around the corner.

Many people were so busy with the college entrance examination that their families also changed their schedules to accommodate them.

It was rare to see someone as relaxed as Emilia.

After breakfast at 6:30 a.m., Isabella and Emma were sent off to the company at 7 o'clock.

The clients were too tired from their dealings yesterday that they wanted to postpone the inspection.

They wanted a day off and did not want to be involved with anything related to Emma Corporation.

Sherry was a little worried, because the client's reaction was quite abnormal. Were they planning something?

Isabella analyzed and said, "Maybe they're waiting for the report from their headquarters. Since they wanted a day of, let them be!"

Since, Sherry was in-charge marketing, she worried that customers might have other ideas.

Emma said, "Director Bell, you have to keep an eye on this matter. Don't be off guard."

When Sherry came out, Noah was on the phone.

"Noah, are you going to rent this house or not? If not, I will rent it to someone else."

The landlady shouted on the phone.

"No, why would I not want it? I haven't even checked out yet."

"Other people always pay rent in advance, but you still owe me. I think you better not rent it."

"Hey, what do you mean? I just owe you three days of rent! Is that necessary?"

"Three days also cost a lot! Du du du du..."

The other party snapped and hung up the phone.

"What kind of attitude is this? Aren't you too greedy?" Noah muttered and was about to ask Isabella for leave when Sherry came over and gently patted his shoulder. "Which beauty are you flirting with?"

"Bah!"

When it came to the landlady, Noah felt a little disgusted.

She was an old woman in her fifties, who was very petite but fierce. She was absolutely a tigress and a double-tailed queen.

This woman usually smoked and played mahjong. She treated her husband like she was scolding her own son.

Beauty? Don't even use that word.

Noah didn't want to tell Sherry about this kind of thing, so he said something to her and left.

"Help me ask for a leave from the president."

"Eh!"

Sherry still wanted to ask him what happened, but Noah walked was fast and already entered the elevator.

The house that Noah rented was not too far from Emma Corporation, less than seven kilometers away.

It was a prosperous area with convenient transportation.

At that time, Noah had contacted the real-estate agency online to help him deal with all the procedures.

The room was not big, a small apartment not more than 40 square meters.

The deposit was three thousand dollars, and the rent was three thousand and six thousand dollars a month. Noah had only rented it for three months.

The landlady urged him as if her life depends on it.

By the time Noah arrived at the apartment building, it was already done.

His things had been thrown out by the landlady.

"Hey, what do you mean by this? Don't I still have a deposit? It's only three days of rent, are you scared that I would run away?" Noah tried to reason with the landlady.

The landlady, with a cigarette in her mouth, was wearing a floral shirt. "I'm sorry. One day of delay costs 1000 dollars of your deposit, you only paid for one month's rent. There's still utilities, property management, and a health care fees which adds to to another 800 dollars."

Noah ignored her and went upstairs.

"Hey, hey, you come back, come back."

The landlady saw that Noah was still going upstairs, so she hurriedly caught up with him and stopped him.

However, how could she compare with Noah in terms of strength?

Noah rushed to the sixth floor in a hurry.

He pushed open the door.

"Ah!"

There was a scream in the bathroom. Noah saw something fair in front of his eyes. A girl stood up with her pants in her hands and stared at the door with her blue eyes full of horror.

The other party probably had never dreamed that someone would break in when she was going to the toilet.

The door was locked.

How did he push it open?

The blue-eyed girl shouted angrily, holding up her pants.

"Who are you?"

"What's going on? Why is she in my room?"

Noah was also angry and questioned the landlady.

This landlady did not allow him to go upstairs. It turned out that she had rented the house to someone else.

The landlady looked embarrassed, "Ahem, she is a foreign girl, so I let her rent first. You don't have to pay the 800 dollars then."

Noah towered over the foreign girl. She had blond hair, blue eyes, surprisingly fair skin, and a height of more than 1.7 meters.

Her facial features were exotic and very especially her thin and straight nose made her look so cute.

If he was not mistaken, she was probably only in her early twenties, no older than 22!

Chapter 80

Noah had seen many foreign women, including celebrities, but they were uncomfortable to be with. Somehow, she was different.

Those celebrities were beautiful, but their makeup was always too heavy. Few people dared to go out without makeup.

The foreign girl in front of him did not have make up on. Her facial features were exquisite.

Her skin was tender and smooth.

Seeing this foreign girl, Noah could almost figure out the reason without thinking it carefully.

It must be that the evil landlady had rented the room at a high price to the other party, that's why the landlady was in such a hurry to drive him out.

"If you want to rent it out then just say it. I'm not preventing you from getting rich, but isn't it too evil to throw my things out?"

Isn't this bullying?

Noah did not want to tell her that he had just taught William Jackson a lesson last night.

Some time ago, he had abused Derrick Wyatt and his son.

If he told these to the landlady, she would wet her pants because she would be too scared.

Noah heard that the girl was speaking in French, so he replied to her in French, "You were cheated just like me. A patient just died in this room not long ago. I just moved out after I heard the news. I didn't expect that she would rent it to someone again."

"What? Die?" She said.

The foreign girl was in a bad mood.

Other things can be forgiven but who isn't afraid of this kind of thing?

Especially a girl as young as her, when she heard that a patient died in the room not long ago, she was so scared that she screamed.

She shouted at the landlady, "What's going on? I'm going to complain about you."

How could the landlady understand French?

Seeing her reaction after talking to Noah, the landlady was confused.

Originally, she didn't think Noah looked like a smart person, but when he spoke fluent French, her face changed dramatically.

"What did you say to her?" The landlady asked.

This female tenant was introduced by an acquaintance just now. The female tenant couldn't understand Danghae and only spoke French, so she couldn't understand at all.

Still, understanding the language was not a problem as long as she could pay.

The price she offered was twice as much of Noah. When the landlady saw the money, how could she refuse?

She quickly throw out Noah's things first.

He was just a outsider, what can he do to her?

Besides, this guy had delayed his payment for 3 days, she wouldn't be afraid if he brought it to court.

Moreover, no one would go to court for just two or three thousand dollars.

The cost of the lawsuit was not worthwhile too, so surely people would not accept such a trivial case.

Therefore, this kind of thing meant nothing.

Noah sneered, "She's going to complain about you."

Complain?

The landlord said angrily, "Young man, I advise you not to cause trouble. It wouldn't be good for you at all."

"Hehe..."

Noah ignored her and said, "Just wait to be complained. Oh, I forgot to tell you. It will be a lot of trouble if you lie to foreign guests."

Of course, the landlady knew that Danghae treats etiquette very seriously. She would be severely punished for deceiving guests, especially for overcharging guests.

What happened in Celestic Town not long ago was a clear example.

A few foreigners were eating barbecue in the food stall. The owner of the barbecue stall was blur for a moment and charged an extra sixty dollars.

As a result, several foreigners complained and went to the council. The owner was thus fined sixty thousand dollars.

He was also not allowed to do business in Celestic Town again.

There was another taxi driver who charged an extra twenty-two dollars for a foreigner which caused him thirty thousand dollars of fine and being suspended.

It was said that they almost suspended his license. It was a hot topic on the Internet.

The landlady heard that the foreign girl was going to complain about her, but the key to the problem was that she did not know what Noah had told her.

The angry foreign girl was already on the phone with someone.

After she finished the phone call, she came over and said a few words to Noah in French that the landlady did not understand. Noah replied "okay" a few times.

The landlady only understood the word "okay".

What on earth does this guy want?

When Noah saw that the landlady was so anxious, he smiled and said, "She said that she wants me to help her testify, and I have already agreed."

Noah talked to her for a while, then went to the stairwell together.

"Hey, come back, come back!"

Who knows if this guy was talking nonsense to the foreign girl?

The landlady hurriedly caught up and stopped in front of Noah. "I will refund your deposit, okay? Tell her not to complain about me."

"Really? I remember that I've paid 10,000 dollars as deposit." Noah said.

Poof—

The landlady was so angry that she vomited blood.

Murder!

It was 3600 originally, but now you changed it to 10,000.

The landlady gritted her teeth. "Five thousand!"

Noah turned around and left. There was nothing left to say.

"I owe you three days rent and you throw my luggage out. Why should I be polite to you?"

If it weren't for the fact that he wanted to keep a low profile, Noah would have beaten her up a long time ago.

He said to the foreign girl, "I can take you to find a comfortable and practical place. Don't live in such a place, it's not safe."

The foreign girl listened to Noah and nodded vigorously.

In fact, she could do nothing about it. After all, rarely anyone spoke French in these places.

What's worse, she was cheated by a broker.

She told the broker that she wanted to rent a high-end apartment like Victoria's. The heartless broker and heartless landlady played tricks and cheated her to come here at the same price as the high end apartments.

Since she was not familiar with the place, the foreign girl thought that this was the best they could offer in Danghae.

She didn't know that such a horrible thing had happened to the place that the landlady rented for her.

Since Noah was also a tenant, it was easier for them to stand on the same front.

Noah's luggage was piled outside the first floor, so she thought what he said was true.

Since she could not live here, she certainly wanted to check out.

How could the landlady let her slip away like that? Seeing that Noah was really going to bring her to complain, she bit her teeth and said,

"Okay, 10,000 dollars."

Noah stopped and said, "I also paid three months of rent."

Damn it!

The landlady was going crazy.

You paid the deposit of 3600 dollars, and you asked me to refund 10,000 dollars.

Now you want me to return to you the three months of rent?

Originally, she had planned that even if she had to refund ten thousand of Noah's rent, she would only lose 6,400 because Noah paid 3,600 of deposit. That was still reasonable for her.

In this way, she could still pay for the utilities fees.

Never did she expect this guy was even more malicious than herself. He wants back his three months of rent along with the 10,000 dollars?

She gave him an inch and now he wants a mile?

The landlady was done with it. "Young man, don't go too far. Be careful not to be too greedy."

Noah didn't care. Anyway, those stuff were worthless.

The landlady was too disgusting, so he took this opportunity to mess with her.

Seeing the landlord threatening him, Noah smiled.

"It's up to you whether to refund or not. It's just that the people from that department are coming. Don't cry for mercy later."

The landlady was so angry that her face could explode any second. "It seems that you want to go all out. Well, in this case, don't blame me for being rude. If you have the ability, just wait and see. Even if I am punished by the relevant department, I will not let you off easily."

She took out her mobile phone and made a phone call. "Son, someone is causing trouble at home. Call a few people over immediately."

Chapter 81

Calling for help?

I thought your son was a powerful person.

Seeing her calling for backup made Noah more excited.

He looked at the landlady playfully, wondering how the whole thing would end.

After the landlady finished her call, she snorted and said, "It's still not too late for you to leave now. When my son comes back, you'll be in big trouble."

Who was she threatening?

Who has he not yet seen before in this place?

Noah lit a cigarette and tried to persuade her kindly, "Don't let your son come back."

"What? Are you scared?" She sneered back.

"Get out of here if you're afraid. Don't create trouble for me."

"No, don't get me wrong. I'm afraid that you will be crying over spilled milk later, because I might cripple your son if we fight."

Noah advised her seriously, hoping the landlady would kindly back down.

Sadly, she thought the opposite. She did not believe Noah could disable his son.

Humph!

Was this guy's head smashed by the door?

Based on such character, if he was really that powerful, would he still need to rent a place?

Nowadays, such people would indulge themselves in luxurious cars, live in luxury mansions, and chase after famous girls.

Who would believe you? A person who has to worry about paying rent.

Since this fellow was pretending to be strong, it's better to let him suffer miserably later.

Soon, the landlady's son came back with his Land Rover.

He held his bag with one hand, looking at Noah arrogantly.

He had brought a few people over, all of them were young people who had connection in the society.

"Mom, what happened?"

The landlord's son got out of the car and was instantly attracted by the foreign beauty beside

Noah.

As for Noah, he directly ignored him after a glance.

The foreign girl saw the landlady calling for someone and asked nervously, "What do they want to do?"

Noah reassured her that everything was going to be fine, and that the landlady would refund her money.

As soon as he said a few words, the landlady pointed at Noah. "That's him. He didn't pay the rent he owed us, and even wanted to blackmail me."

"I don't know what the hell this guy did that made this foreign tenant want to complain."

The landlady's son looked at him with a cigarette in his mouth.

A man behind him offered, "Brother Tim, let me kill him."

The landlord's son waved his hand, "No need."

It was enough just to scare him off, it would be shameful to hurt to him.

The man gestured his finger at Noah, "Come here."

Noah ignored him. Why do I have to come?

So humiliating.

He stood there with the foreign girl. "How's it? Have you made up your mind? You should give us the money quickly. We need to rent a new place."

Huh?

This guy is quite arrogant isn't he?

His henchman couldn't stand it anymore and walked to Noah with his eyes wide open.

The landlady's son shouted behind him, "Don't do it, are you crazy? Don't scare them."

"Got it, Brother Tim."

He knew that it wouldn't be a good idea to make a move. After all, there were foreigners present. If he hit someone, it would be even more difficult to end the trouble if it was brought to council. Thus, he decided to just scare the kid.

With a fierce look on his face, his henchman said to Noah, "Are you looking for trouble? Do you know whose house this is? Go around Celestic Town and ask about who Brother Tim is."

"Whether it is Darren from Westmage Road, Zac from Silverrock Street, Ronald from Fayburn Area, or even Brother Parker from the Ashkeep Club, they are all familiar with Brother Tim. They are all sworn brothers."

"How dare you cause trouble here? Get out of here or I'll beat you up."

"Oh, so you are all the same?"

Noah smiled in his heart. Darren and the other two were too familiar with him, but they were enemies of the Ashkeep Club. Even a fool could tell that he was lying.

You want to frighten me with them, don't you?

Noah replied casually, "I've heard of them. Since you are acquaintances, you should give me the money as soon as possible. Otherwise, when they come, it wouldn't be so easy anymore."

Eh?

The guy was taken aback for a moment. "You know them too?"

The man looked at Noah up and down suspiciously, then returned to the landlady's son and whispered, "Brother Tim, he seems to know Ronald and the others."

The landlady's son looked disdainful, so what if they knew each other?

He was well connected in Celestic Town.

I even know the country's Secretary General just to add on! He thought.

But so what?

That did not mean anything.

The landlady's son threw a cigarette at him. "Boy, I warn you, don't cause trouble for me here."

The man pointed at Noah's luggage and shouted, "Take your stuff and get out of here!"

"What if I don't get out?"

The landlady came over and said, "Son, what are you talking to him about? Beat him up first, it doesn't matter if we get fined."

Seeing that Noah was stubborn, the landlady's son also wanted to take action.

At this time, Noah's mobile phone rang. It was the drunkard. "Noah, where are you? Come and save me."

Save you?

Noah cursed, "You call Zac and the rest to come here immediately..."

Noah told them the address, "There is an old acquaintance of theirs who wants to talk to them. Oh, by the way, don't bring too many people here, it will scare them."

Noah was too lazy to beat these nobodies.

Since they claimed Zac to be their sworn brother, then let them handle it!

The landlady's son was ready to call someone to beat him up, but when he heard Noah's call, his face suddenly changed and was at a little lost.

Does this guy really know Zac, Ronald and the others?

Especially when he saw Noah so calm that he didn't put his men in his eyes, he hesitated.

"Brother Tim, don't listen to this kid's nonsense. He mentioned not to bring too many men. If he has the ability, ask him to call his men over."

The several followers behind him couldn't help but think, what kind of background could a poor tenant like him have?

If he could call Zac and other people over with a phone call, did he still need to rent a broken house here?

The others rolled up their sleeves and were about to take action when several cars suddenly rushed into the street.

The lead car was Ronald's Porsche Cayenne, followed by Darren and Zac's car.

Creak—

Several cars stopped in front of the landlord's house. Ronald and the other two got out of the car with more than a dozen followers.

"Brother Noah! What happened?"

The group of people, including the landlady's son, saw him.

He gasped. Damn, he really knows Ronald and the others.

Seeing Ronald, Darren, and Zac, the landlady's son rushed over, took out a pack of cigarettes and handed it to him. "Brother Zac, Brother Ronald, Brother Darren."

Without looking at him, the three of them went straight to Noah.

"Brother Noah, what's wrong?"

Noah sighed, "You came just in time. This Big Boss named Tim Cook asked his men to beat me up. Please help me deal with it."

"What?"

Hearing this, the three of them became angry.

"He dare touch you?"

Ronald broke into curses. "Tim, you f*cking loan-shark. When did you become so arrogant? How dare you beat Brother Noah?"

Darren also witnessed Noah's prestige last night. Brother Noah was Octavia's master.

Even the Ashkeep Club had to show him respect, what would a loan-shark like you be so arrogant about?

As soon as he returned last night, he called the other two and told them about it. They admired Noah's background even more.

No wonder he was so arrogant and extraordinary. He turned out to be Octavia's master.

Octavia is Lord Five's goddaughter. Causing trouble for Noah, doesn't that mean causing trouble for Lord Five too?

Who would dare mess with them in the future?

When they received a call just now and heard that someone was going to beat Brother Noah, the three of them immediately rushed over.

The landlady's son did not expect that Noah really knew Ronald and the others. Seeing this scene, he immediately panicked.

She immediately ran over and smiled. "It's just a misunderstanding. Big brothers, please listen to me."

Chapter 82

The landlady saw that things were getting worse.

Even her son couldn't handle it. She was scared out of her wits.

Tim Cook offered them cigarettes but was knocked off by Darren with a wave of his hand.

"Cut the crap, smash the car first!"

"Hey, don't! Don't!"

Hearing that they were going to smash his car, the landlady's son panicked and hurried to stop him.

But how could he stop it?

More than a dozen people brought by Ronald rushed forward to smash the car.

The window, the engine, the tires... they smashed everything.

His henchmen were blocked by Darren's men. "Kneel down with your hands behind your head!"

How could they not obey in front of Ronald and the others?

They obediently did as ordered.

Tim Cook felt distressed when he saw his car was smashed.

Although the Land Rover was not very expensive, it was still at least hundreds of thousands of dollars.

The landlady dropped to the ground, devastated.

Noah had already advised her not to go too far, otherwise the matter would turn sour.

Sadly, she didn't believe it and insisted on calling her son back.

Now, her son's car was smashed.

That was a terrible loss on her end.

Zac moved a chair and said, "Brother Noah, please sit down."

Noah sat down and lit a cigarette, looking very relaxed.

When the foreign girl saw this scene, she opened her mouth in surprise but kept quiet.

This kind of thing also happened frequently in her country, but it was her first time meeting them in person.

This was her first time in Danghae. She wasn't familiar with the place and was even cheated by a cunning landlady. If it weren't for this tenant, she might still be in the unknown.

Therefore, she was secretly thankful.

Ronald asked Tim Cook, "Tell me, what should we do?"

"You and your family dare cheat Brother Noah huh."

Tim Cook understood. He knelt down in front of Noah, "Brother Noah, I'm sorry. It's my fault that I didn't recognize you. I was confused for a while. Please don't take it to heart."

Noah really didn't like this kind of person. If it was not him but someone else today, that person might have been trampled to death by Tim Cook and his men.

Taking a puff on the cigarette, Noah said slowly, "It's all your mother's fault. I told her not to call you back, but she didn't believe me."

The landlady panicked. Since her son was also part of a gang, she knew more or less what was going on.

However, she didn't expect that Noah, a poor tenant to be so powerful.

If she really knew, she wouldn't dare to do that.

If she knew Noah's identity, she would definitely not lie to him, but let him stay for free instead.

However, things were not so simple anymore.

Seeing Tim Cook staring at him, Noah shared a cruel fact.

"Oh, Brother Parker you mentioned was beaten by my disciple last night."

Boom...

This news was like a bolt out of the blue, making Tim Cook lose his last strain of confidence.

He even provoked the people of the Ashkeep Club?! Then, what was he in front of him?

He was sweating profusely.

Noah raised his hand to look at his watch and said, "Well, don't waste everyone's time. Let's settle the accounts."

"Landlady, do you still want to refund the money?"

"Refund, refund!"

The landlady did not dare to talk anymore. She stood up trembling and said, "I'll refund it right now."

She hurried back to the house and took out the money. "This... this is your 10,000 deposit and three months of rent."

Noah glanced at her and said, "This is not right!"

The landlady's heart trembled as she looked at him.

The landlady's son reacted and said, "I'll pay, I'll pay! Mom, refund Brother Noah and this beauty's money in double."

Double... The landlady was going to cry to death.

The price rose again?

She initially had to just pay the deposit that was raised from 3,600 to 10,000 with the three months rental fee. Now, she had to pay double the price!

Noah's cost alone was about forty to fifty thousand dollars, plus there was this foreign girl's rent too.

She paid a deposit of ten thousand dollars and six thousand dollars rental fee!"

Wouldn't doubling the price squeeze me dry?

The total cost of two people was about one hundred thousand, wasn't it?

The landlady's legs were shaking and her heart was bleeding, but when she saw her son urging her, she gritted her teeth to get the money from the house.

As she walked, her legs were so weak that she couldn't hold on much longer.

She took out 100,000 cash from the safe and handed it to Noah respectfully.

Without hesitation, Noah gave the sixty thousand dollars to the foreign beauty and said in French, "This is the rent she refunded in double. Now you can go and rent a better place. Don't get cheated again."

The foreign beauty only understood what he said. She took the money and hurried upstairs to pack up.

Noah handed the rest of the money to Darren and the other two. "Take it and go have some tea!"

Darren and others didn't dare to take it.

They hurriedly shook their hands, "No, no, no. Brother Noah, its okay."

Seeing that the three did not dare to take it, Noah did not force them. "In that case, you can leave now!"

Zac came over and said, "Brother Noah, do you want us to send you off?"

"No need!"

Noah took out the key and walked to the Land

"No need!"

Noah took out the key and walked to the Land

Rover parked on the roadside.

The landlady saw it and went crazy.

This guy drove a luxurious car worth millions of dollars and knew so many big brothers. Why would he rent such a shabby room at my place?

Could it be that he is rich master deliberately pretending to be poor?

Oh my god!

The landlady was crying profusely.

Not only did she refunded double the rent to them, but she also lost her son's car.

If she had known that things would turn out like this, she would not dare to cheat Noah.

The landlady leaned against the door. The more she thought about it, the angrier she became. She couldn't catch her breath and fainted out of anger.

"Mom, Mom..."

Tim Cook rushed to grab her as he called her.

Darren and the other two talked to Noah for a while. With the matter settled, they got on the car and left together.

Noah abandoned his luggage and was about to start the car when the foreign girl called out to him. "Hey, wait a minute."

She dragged her luggage over, "Didn't you say that you're going to help me find a place?"

"I have to stay in Danghae for a long time, but I don't have anyone I'm familiar with. Besides, many of them don't understand French."

Noah looked at her, "Sure! Get on!"

She smiled and opened the back door to get in.

In the car, she took the initiative to talk to Noah, "Hey, my name is Juno Raine. Nice to meet you."

"I can see that you are a warrior with a sense of justice."

Juno Raine laughed, her blue eyes were particularly beautiful.

The foreign girl was very outgoing. Noah smiled and shook her hand, "I'm Noah."

"Oh! I'll call you Wu from now on."

"Wu, will you take me to find a house now?"

Juno Raine was talkative and bright. She needed to find a place she liked as soon as possible. After all, she had to stay in Danghae for a long time.

Noah saw that it was still early. Since there was nothing to do in the company, he agreed with a

nod.  1

Besides, he also needed to find a place to live. Although the president wanted him to live with her, Noah felt that there was no freedom. As such, it might be a good idea to settle the accommodations today.

Chapter 83

It was easy to rent a place in such a huge area as Celestic Town.

Noah had no intention of renting a crowded place again. He wanted to find a relatively quiet and good residential area so that it would be convenient for him to practice every morning.

He also asked Juno regarding her requirements when renting a place.

Juno frowned and thought, "Quiet environment with a good community, unlike the previous one. It was so annoying."

Noah originally wanted to call the drunkard for help, but he did not want to get entangled with him in the future either.

Forget it, I'll find it myself.

According to Juno, it was better not to stay in high rise apartments, because it feels like being trapped in a cage.

In Europe, she lived in a small house.

"Do you like the small houses?"

This was a good idea.

Noah drove the car into Westmage Road.

There was a small house on the way to Westmage Road, but the price of it was twice as high as that of high rise apartments.

After entering a junction, they entered the area of small houses.

Noah parked the car to the side of the road. "I'm going to buy a pack of cigarettes."

On his way back, he saw a woman in her fifties looking for renters in front of the bulletin board at the bus station.

"Private residence with courtyard for rent, non-intermediary. The environment is elegant, the location is good, plus it's very quiet too."

Since the house owner emphasized quietness, Noah asked, "Auntie, is this your house?"

The other party saw that Noah was very pleasing to the eye and did not look like a hooligan, so she replied very enthusiastically, "Do you want to rent a place?"

"This is my own house. My daughter has already settled abroad with her family, so I decided to go over there to help take care of her child."

"Would you like to have a look? It doesn't matter whether you rent it or not."

Noah was tempted to view the place because of the underlined quiet environment the lady mentioned.

"Alright, let's go and have a look."

The auntie smiled happily and said, "It's not far ahead. I'll take you there."

When she saw Noah get into the Land Rover with a gorgeous beauty sitting in it, she was surprised.

It turned out to be the son of a rich family. This was better, such a mannered person would not ruin her house.

Noah followed the auntie's instruction and arrived at the place right after an intersection.

The courtyard of the auntie's house was designed by herself, not the typical small building usually seen.

The environment was indeed good, with Celestic Town University just up ahead and a park right opposite it.

There was a man-made lake and a square within the park. Many students would come to sketch in the park every day.

The auntie got out of the car and introduced them to the house. "This house has always been mine. Downstairs, there is a big living room and two bedrooms. Upstairs, there are four bedrooms with attached bathrooms and balconies. The third floor is basically empty. When you have nothing to do, you can climb to the top to sunbath, drink tea, or anything you like."

"The yard covers an area of more than 400 square meters, these flowers and plants are planted by myself. In fact, I prefer someone who understands these flowers and plants to watch over the yard for me. Of course, there is also the purpose of economic benefits. If you like, you can come in and have a look."

Before Noah spoke, Juno smiled happily and said, "Noah, I like here."

Noah also liked the place, but he saw several female undergarments hanging at the balcony on the second floor.

The auntie seemed to notice his uneasiness. "I forgot to tell you that the second floor has been rented by two girls, only the first floor is available. If you want to rent it, you can only live on the first floor."

"Ah, no..."

Noah understood that such a big house had to be rent out separately.

How many people in Celestic Town could afford such a big yard?

The auntie's way of doing was comprehensible.

However, Noah still had to confirm. "Who is staying upstairs?"

The auntie replied, "Don't worry, those who rent a place here are all people with good qualities. Frankly speaking, I would rather it be unoccupied than renting it, uncivilized people. They moved in yesterday. One is a university teacher and the other a senior white-collar worker."

"You can rest assured that there will be no problem."

The auntie looked at Juno. "Does she understand English?"

Noah shook his head and spoke to Juno in French, "Why don't you rent here?"

Juno was surprised. "What about you?"

"Don't you like this place?"

Seeing that Noah seemed unwilling to stay, she felt a little disappointed.

After all, it was not easy to find a congenial person who could speak French.

Even though they had just spent one to two hours together, she already had a good impression of this handsome Danghae guy.

Unexpectedly, the auntie spoke in French. "He's not your boyfriend?"

Noah was surprised.

"Auntie can speak French? No way!"

The auntie saw his shocked reaction and replied with a smile. "I used to be a French lecturer in a university, but I retired early."

"Oh!"

It suddenly dawned on them.

When Juno heard the auntie was going to Europe, she took the initiative to give her a phone number. "If you encounter any trouble over there, you can call this number."

The auntie did not take it. Of course, she did not believe that a person she just met would willingly help her.

She gave them a tour around the house. The two rooms downstairs were opposite each other, and the big living room was next to them.

The kitchen and toilet were left.

Juno asked for Noah's opinion again. "Rent it, Noah! It's very quiet here. No one will disturb you."

Noah knew that she still had some scruples due to what happened just now.

If there was a person such as himself with her, she would feel more secure.

Well, the condition was acceptable actually, so he agreed.

Juno was so excited and hugged him.

"Great! Thank you, Noah."

Noah was embarrassed, foreign girls were very open-minded.

The auntie did not find the scene awkward at all. Instead, she just smiled.

This was only a courtesy in the Western world, it did not mean anything else.

In large venues or grandiose events, many people kissed each other's faces as a greeting. Is that wrong?

Moreover, her daughter was abroad, so these situations were common for her.

Since there was no problem, then let's sign the rental agreement!

The aunt filled out the prices the agreement she had prepared a long time ago and let them sign.

Originally, the ground floor was 6,000 per month, but she only rented it to them for 5,000. As for how the rent would be split, it was up to both of them to decide.

No matter if they split it half or one of them pays it all, it was the same for her.

The four rooms on the second floor were connected in pairs, one as the living room and the other as the bedroom.

Their price was a little higher than that on the first floor, 4,000 a month.

In Celestic Town, such a price was not too expensive, considering the quiet environment.

Noah was a person who had no sense of the value of money.

Since he liked it, he signed it on the spot.

He transferred the funds of 40,000 dollars from his mobile phone to the auntie's account.

As for Juno, she had sixty thousand in cash and gave the auntie forty thousand directly. With that, both of them managed to settle their accommodations.

Chapter 84

After renting a place, they had to buy their daily necessities.

Noah had abandoned all his stuff at that old place, while Juno only brought clothes and some essentials.

They headed to the mall to buy new necessities.

As soon as he walked out of the door, he bumped into a woman.

The woman was moving things out of her car.

"Noah?"

"Why are you here?"

The woman looked at him in surprise, then at Juno who was beside him.

Seeing her eyes full of suspicion, Noah was also surprised. "Zoey, you are..."

He suddenly understood that the senior white-collar worker that the landlady just mentioned was Zoey?

Oh, my god!

What a small world.

How could it be Zoey?

Ah, wait.

Wasn't she married? Why did she move out alone?

As Noah was thinking about it, Zoey asked with curiosity, "Is this your girlfriend?"

This guy is good. He actually got a foreign girlfriend.

Sigh, this girl is a gem. She thought.

She was much better than those stars on TV, especially with her tender skin. Girls tend to pay more attention to other people's skin.

Zoey could see that Juno did not use any cosmetics at all, yet her skin was in top-notch condition.

When she saw a foreign girl, she suddenly remembered something.

Wasn't Noah together with Victoria?

Wow, this guy is having an affair.

Noah did not know that in the blink of an eye, Zoey had thought about so much.

"No, she is also a tenant here. We rented it at the same time."

"Why did you rent here too?"

Hearing that this foreign girl was just a tenant, Zoey certainly believed him.

She just came yesterday and didn't expect to meet Noah here so coincidentally.

Of course, Noah did not expect to meet Zoey here either. Zoey applied for a leave from work to settle her rent.

She rented it yesterday and was ready to move in today.

"We're going to the mall to buy some things. Shall we go together?"

Since they were all colleagues and would stay together in the future, Noah thought that it was a good suggestion.

Zoey carried the things in her hand. She bought daily necessities, a quilt, a rug, and a lot of things.

"Alright, I'll put these things into my room first."

"Let me help you!"

Noah told Juno about it, and she willingly helps out too.

When they arrived upstairs, he found that the second floor was indeed better than the first floor.

The light was shining in from both sides, the view was also more comfortable.

The four rooms upstairs were rented by Zoey and another university teacher.

Noah entered Zoey's room and found that it had been cleaned up. It was ready for staying after moving everything in.

He asked Zoey, "Why did you rent this place? Where is your husband?"

Zoey smiled, "I live alone because there's more freedom."

Since that was her only reply, Noah did not question further.

"Hey, who lives opposite you?"

Noah put down the things and saw that the door opposite was locked.

The landlady said the other tenant was a female university teacher. Wouldn't that mean he will be the only male tenant?

Zoey replied, "I'm not sure. I heard that she is a university teacher, but I've never seen her before."

Zoey quickly sorted out the stuff and fixed the hair on her forehead. "Alright, let's go to the mall now."

Zoey was not in working attire today. She was only in a short black dress with a short-sleeved round neck T-shirt.

This accentuates her mature figure more.

Due to the labor just now, their foreheads were covered in sweat.

Noah noticed Zoey's dark circles. He guessed that she had not slept well recently.

Since Noah was driving, Zoey parked her car in the yard.

The three of them arrived at the nearby shopping mall together. With the help of the two women, Noah almost did not need to think much about what he needed, because they would help him choose the color and style.

All he had to do was to push the cart around.

Fortunately, he was driving the Land Rover from the company today. The space was large enough to fit all their things.

They stuffed all the things into it and after shopping, they became hungry

Zoey made a suggestion. "Shall we eat something first?"

Noah translated for Juno and she nodded vigorously. She had been hungry for a long time but did not say anything.

"Then let's go to the restaurant upstairs!"

In consideration of Juno's taste, they chose something she would like.

As they walked to the restaurant, Zoey asked, "I didn't expect you to be so good at French. Even a foreign language major like myself is not as good as you are."

"Really?"

Noah smiled, "Actually, I think you are better than I am. Usually, I don't say this because of its a shame. Juno didn't bring an interpreter with her, so I had to make a fool of myself."

"Come on!" Zoey couldn't help but punch him lightly.

This was just a habit of women, it didn't mean anything.

However, she didn't expect someone misunderstood her.

Are they flirting?

Although Zoey was married, she is still one of the top ten beauties of Emma Corporation.

Those who could be selected into Emma Corporation were definitely of top quality.

Zoey's beauty was very recognizable in the crowd.

Married women had a more mature charm, which was called femininity.

The femininity of Zoey was very strong.

At this time, a man rushed over angrily. "Bitch, you said you didn't have an affair, but now I caught you. How dare you flirt with someone else in public? I'll beat you to death today."

Eh?

What was going on?

His shout alarmed many people.

Everyone stopped to watch the scene of bustle.

Someone suddenly realized, "Oh! It turns out that this woman is messing around with others behind her husband's back. No wonder she was so intimate with that guy just now."

Some people who saw Zoey's beauty could not help but get jealous.

Noah had been wronged for no reason. When she saw the other side pouncing on Zoey, he had to stop him.

No matter what relationship he had with Zoey, how could he let him hurt Zoey?

Noah stepped forward, pulled Zoey behind him, and pushed him away with one hand. "What are you doing?"

The other guy was really angry. Stopping him was like adding fuel to the flame.

With an angry face, he looked at Noah fiercely, "I thought who was the one playing tricks behind my back. It turns out that it's a shameless gigolo like you sneaking behind me."

"I really don't understand. Which part of you is better than me? She even divorced me for you."

Wait! What happened?

It turned out that Zoey came out to rent a place after divorcing her husband.

Noah looked at the man in front of him. He was in his thirties, wearing thick black-framed glasses and bulging eyes.

His hair was a little messy and his stubble came out. Why didn't he pay more attention to his image since he married such a beautiful wife like Zoey?

The guy was now in a very unreasonable state.

In public, he didn't care about right or wrong. If he wants to humiliate himself then let him be, why involve them too?

"If there's something just go home and talk about it. Why are you yelling in the mall?"

Zoey hid behind Noah, afraid of her crazy husband. He bites whoever he catches when he is in rage.

The people around pointed and talked about it. Noah was not embarrassed and explained, "Brother, don't misunderstand. Zoey and I are just colleagues, not what you think."

"Not what I think? Explain it clearly to me. Do you need me to catch you two in bed?" Zoey's husband was out of control. If he had not been pushed away by Noah, he might even start killing people.

"No wonder she has been wanting to divorce me during this period of time. It turns out that she has been having a good time with you for a long time. Now that I have caught you, what else do you have to say?"

"Ahem—" Noah was too embarrassed. In such a situation, he really couldn't beat Zoey's husband.

He could only try to persuade him, but how?

He absolutely could not persuade him like this.

“.....”

Noah still wanted to explain, but Zoey came out from behind and took Noah's hand. "You don't have to explain anything. Yes! We have been together for a long time. If you have the ability, go to the court to sue me. You're just worried about your wealth right? I won't get any of your money. Are you satisfied?"

Er...

Noah was innocent. Seeing Zoey trembling with anger and her face turning pale, he really couldn't bear to clarify anything.

Well, for the sake of her being his colleague, he would cooperate with her just once.

Chapter 85

"You—"

Zoey's husband was trembling in anger, especially when she held Noah's arm intimately.

His wife was holding someone else's hand.

Utterly outrageous!

What was more depressing was that she admitted it herself.

Ah, ah, ah—!

Her husband was going crazy.

Only a courageous woman can bluntly admit having an affair in public and not want a single cent from her previous marriage!

As a husband, he should be very clear whether his wife was having an affair or not.

He wanted blame the other party, to prove that it was all her fault just so he could keep all his fortune.

However, he did not expect it turned out to be true. He was really cuckolded.

At that moment, he felt like shit for his plan backfired.

"I won't let you succeed!"

"And you, you gigolo who ruins the happiness of other families!"

Zoey's husband's eyes turned red and was looking a little hysterical.

The other party was still desperately clinging on, but Zoey did not waver. Since they had already made such a scene, then she should completely let everything loose.

"Kelvin James! Do you want me to scream out all your scandals?"

Her words made him blush and speechless.

He was so aggressive just now, but now he seemed to be mute.

Such a big change made the onlookers puzzled.

Kelvin James gritted his teeth and glared at them with resentment. "You win this time, but it's not over yet!"

After that, he left in disgrace.

Eh?

No way?

How could such a hero suddenly become a dog just like that?

The onlookers all felt disappointed.

There was no show to watch. Let's go!

Some of them cast lustful glance on Zoey's sexy figure before leaving.

However thinking back on her affair, they had other thoughts of their own.

"Secretary Zoey, Secretary Zoey!"

Noah suddenly felt something amiss. Zoey's body softened and she lost her balance.

He quickly grab her by the waist to support her.

"Are you alright, Secretary Zoey?"

Juno helped her to a chair next to her and asked anxiously, "What's wrong?"

"I... I'm fine."

Zoey said weakly.

What happened just now affected her mental being. Moreover, they quarreled a lot recently, which further tire her out.

They waited for her to recover before going for dinner, but she did not say a word the whole time.

Noah asked out of concern, "If there is anything that we can help, just say it."

Her bitter smile reminded Noah of her expression before when he asked her why she wanted to rent a place.

"Sorry, Noah."

Zoey's voice was soft and depressed.

"What for?"

Noah was confused. Why did she say sorry?

Zoey glanced at him, "I shouldn't have dragged you into this, but..."

"Don't say that... we are colleagues after all. Even if we're not, being able to help such a beauty like you is my honor. I have no regrets if it becomes real too!"

" ... "

It was said that this guy liked to joke and make fun of others, but she did not expect him to be so ill-mouthed.

Zoey pretended to be serious. "If it's for real it would be your loss. I can already be your big sister."

"Having someone older would be nice! Nice and full!"

Noah glanced at her breasts, making her face completely red.

In terms of ridicule, no one was his opponent.

Juno came over and asked in French, "What are you guys talking about?"

She didn't understand, but saw Zoey blushing.

Noah said it was nothing and that a small kid should not mind adult business.

A kid? I'm already 20 years old!

Juno objected.

In her country, one would be considered an adult when they reach the age of 21. They were allowed to know everything.

They were more advanced in education, unlike in Danghae. Once, a PHD couple tried for a baby for 3 years with no luck. Thus, they went to the hospital for a check up.

The results showed that she was still a virgin.

Hearing Juno mention this, the three of them laughed.

Seeing Zoey mood brighten, Noah paid the bill and they head back home.

Perhaps the drama just now had bonded them better.

Back at the rented courtyard, Noah had nothing to do. Jobs like laying out the bed sheet, cleaning the room, and sorting out the room were all done by Zoey and Juno.

Noah went to the third floor, made a pot of good tea, lit a cigarette, and laid down leisurely to enjoy the beautiful atmosphere.

After Zoey finished everything, she went up and saw him lying on the chair. She glared at him irritatingly, "Aren't you being too comfortable? You think we're your servants?"

"Do you need help?"

Noah quickly got up and saw the sweat on her forehead. He pulled out a tissue and handed it to her.

"It's all over. Juno is resting downstairs."

Zoey sat opposite him. "This place is really good. It's really not easy to find such a quiet house downtown."

"Yes, that's why I intend to stay here from now on."

answered Noah.

"What about Victoria?"

Zoey fixed her eyes on him.

"What do you mean?"

"Aren't you guys together?"

"Ah?" Noah laughed in response.

To have Victoria, one must have a long-term plan.

Noah sighed heavily. Although she had such a sexy figure, she was more on the conservative side.

It was easy to defend but difficult to attack.

There was no other way. It was not her fault too, it was just that girls from the countryside knew how to protect themselves better.

Otherwise, how could such a beautiful flower be picked by him, Noah?

It would have long been crushed.

He took a sip of tea and asked, "What happened to you and your husband?"

Zoey's face darkened. She fixed her long hair and answered faintly, "Don't mention it anymore. This is the biggest mistake in my life."

"Ah..."

She shut her eyes, it was unbearable to recall the past.

Her faint voice was like a cry.

"He came from the countryside, but he was not only stingy, but also selfish. Although he usually looks very conceited, he can be very self-abased and sensitive."

Hearing her description, Noah had a general idea.

The description was in line with her husband's situation just now. It was no wonder he felt that they were not a match for each other at first sight.

It made him wonder why she chose such a man.

Zoey continued, "We were college classmates. Although we have been together for several years, we only got married last year. At that time, there were many boys chasing me. He was the only one who didn't dare."

"His grades were very good, he ranked first in the whole school every year. He's a real straight A student. He's always motivated and not flashy, my ideal type."

"It was an accidental opportunity we met each other. At that time, I particularly appreciated his self-improvement and diligence. He was very modest in life and never spent money lavishly."

"I gave him some of my money to cover his daily expenses and every time, he would look at me with gratitude and promised to compensate me in the future."

"I told him it didn't matter, that we were all friends. Why should we care about such things? Besides, money was not the most important thing in life, but it was love instead."

"Later, we became official. Our relationship was a hot topic in school. Some provoked him, while some beat him up till he bled."

"He wanted to give up, but under my insistence we finally got together."

Zoey sighed. "I thought it was the beginning of our happiness, but I didn't expect the endless pain waiting ahead."

"He was very honest. Although we were in love at that time, he never touched me until we got married."

"However as time passed, I couldn't stand his selfishness, petty, narrow-mindedness anymore."

"After I went to university, I supported all his tuition fees and daily expenses, helping him realize his dream of taking the postgraduate entrance examination. In order for him to take the postgraduate examination, I waited until I was 27 to get married with him."

"It was no big deal. It was my own choice. I loved him and was willing to pay for him, but the most unexpected thing was that when we were going to buy a house before getting married, he made such a request..."

Speaking of this, Zoey cried.

Chapter 86

Zoey's husband, Kelvin, finally passed the examination and achieved his dream after four years.

At that time, in order for the family to have someone they could be proud of, the others made sacrifices. His younger siblings stopped attending junior high school. In addition, his sister went out to work to earn enough money for him repeat his studies another three times.

Kelvin was actually four years older than Zoey was, but the four year gap did not mean anything. To her, it felt like she had someone to depend on.

Men should be several years older than women, right?

To her surprise, her boyfriend, whom she had supported for three years, made a shameless request when they were about to get married and buy a new house.

He wanted his parents' names on the property ownership certificate.

What did he mean?

Zoey got very angry.

He was very stingy person. Every time they went out to eat, shop or watch movies, it was she who paid.

Kelvin had made an oath that the money he saved was to purchase a house.

Zoey believed his words as she had long known that Kelvin was a very modest person.

Modesty was a traditional virtue in Danghae. She should support it, correct?

However, when it was time to buy the house, where was the money?

Kelvin told her that all the money was sent to his family.

His parents' house was in need of renovation, and the rest was kept for his brother to marry in the future.

Zoey also knew the situation of his family. Since he was filial, she did not argue over it.

Being filial was a good thing.

Zoey took out tens of thousands of dollars and gave it to Kelvin as aid to renovate the house for his younger brother's marriage.

After all, in order to support Kelvin to study, his younger brother and sister had to drop out of school and enter the working society early.

If the people from the countryside were poor, it would be difficult for them to get married.

As their future sister-in-law, she should support them.

When Zoey's parents saw their daughter getting married, they took out their life savings and bought a suite for them.

The living cost in Celestic Town was very pricey. A land of twenty to thirty thousand per meter square was about forty to fifty thousand dollars.

Her parents were both government employees and they only had one daughter, so of course they were willing to help her. After all, Zoey was their precious treasured daughter.

They were living peacefully, so to them nothing was more important than their daughter's happiness.

Zoey's parents were indeed very open-minded. They never cared about Kelvin's background. They valued the potential of a young man more.

Besides, their daughter had spent a lot on Kelvin. After so many years of relationship, how could they not support them as parents?

The two of them bought a suite for their daughter with more than two million dollars of their life savings.

The house was not big. It only had three rooms and two bedrooms, which was more than 100 square meters.

It was estimated that it would be enough for three people to live in the future.

Zoey worked in Emma Corporation and her salary was not bad. She had about 300,000 to 400,000 dollars savings.

She decided to spend her money on the renovation of the new house.

However, when they signed the contract, Kelvin made the ridiculous request that his parents' names should be written on the property ownership certificate. Zoey's parents were angry and drove him out.

What was that all about?

He did not spend a single cent when they went out together, and all the daily expenses were paid by Zoey. She even supported his three years of study. All of these were fine, but he had not pay a single penny for the house. Why should his parents' names be written on it?

For this matter, the two of them temporarily fell out.

Later, Kelvin made concessions. It was okay not to write his parents' names, but he had to write his and Zoey's names.

Zoey's parents meant to do that before, but they disagree this time and only wanted her name to be on the certificate.

Regarding that matter, Kelvin felt ashamed and often quarreled with her.

From this moment on, his selfishness and self-interest were getting out of hand.

Zoey sighed. Mentioning the matter only brought endless pain.

Noah could not understand. "You weren't married yet, so didn't you break up with him?"

"After so many years, I didn't want to give up just like this. I thought he would change, but unfortunately, I was wrong." She drank her tea with a bitter expression.

"This is not yet the worst nor the most disgusting."

After they got married, Kelvin had always thought that Zoey's parents looked down on him.

He said that he had to be self-reliant, work hard, and go all out.

However, she didn't expect him to use underhand tactics.

He was a sales person. In recent years, he made some achievements and became a manager.

He lost his dignity for the sake of his career.

Zoey was a witness herself as he and several middle-aged women in their forties or fifties did disgusting things in the hotel.

Till now, the unforgettable scene of his neck chained with a dog collar by his forty year old boss always made her want to vomit.

Noah was completely speechless. A man would do this for money?

He scratched his head. Fortunately, he was not that crazy about money.

"Did he deliberately find something on you for this? So that he could push all the blame on you?"

"Is he doing this just for the house?"

Noah was right. Zoey nodded and said, "He was afraid that I would divorce him and he would have nothing left after the divorce. That's why he had been like a madman, searching for evidence that I was having an affair. He wanted to prove that I was wrong first, so that the court would not make him leave his fortune."

"He knows very well that I'm clean." Zoey smiled bitterly again. "I didn't expect to get you involve today."

She heaved a long sigh and said, "That's good too. Let's just give him what he wants."

Noah licked his lips, "He got what he wanted but I haven't got mine yet."

Seeing Noah's sly look, Zoey was speechless.

It's so annoying. Do you have to?

She rolled her eyes at him. "Thank you for helping out today. I'll use this tea to toast to you and similarly apologize to you."

"You can make a toast, but you don't have to apologize."

"You know I am a very kind person."

Noah picked up the cup, clinked it with Zoey's and said, "Actually, I wanted to persuade you to calm down and talk it out since you guys are married. There's no need to make such a scene. However, seems like I was completely wrong."

"Thank you for your understanding!"

Zoey looked grateful.

Noah said seriously, "Do you need me to beat him for you? I don't have other skills but I'm good at beating people up."

"....."

Zoey frowned. "That's not necessary. Anyway, I don't want anything anymore. Just let him do whatever he wants!"

"Well, since you are so kind, I will hold back. Otherwise, I would have beaten that scum."

He paused and looked at Zoey. "If you need a shield in the future, call me. I promise that I will perform well and won't ruin it."

"Forget it. If Victoria finds out, I'll be dead meat."

"Am I such a good match with Victoria?"

Seeing her always mentioning Victoria, Noah asked curiously.

Zoey blinked. "Victoria is very good. Why don't you like her?"

"She's the one, not me. She's avoiding me like the plague. Hey, why don't you teach her a few moves you used on your husband."

Noah said playfully.

Zoey rolled her eyes at him again.

Chapter 87

A big house with 3 big beauties.

Noah thought to himself, "If either of them is in urgent need of help, should I help them?"

Or should I not?

What if someone tried to force him?

Noah realized that he was thinking weirdly.

If this continues, could he still concentrate in his kung fu practice?

There was one more tenant left. Who knows if she was a nearly endangered dinosaur?

"I hope that she won't be too disappointing," Noah thought.

As the old saying goes, there are many to choose from, but one should only pick one to care for.

Although he did not want all the beautiful women in the world, since they were living together, he can treat them as eye candy.

Noah was also able to comfort himself. He took a step back and thought that it did not matter if the university teacher was ugly.

play the piano too.

He liked all kinds of instruments except the flute.

When they came down from the roof, Juno was already in her beauty sleep.

She yawned, revealing a pair of long legs and only body-hugging singlet covering her upper body.

Her tall figure was undoubtedly revealed.

Noah hurriedly looked away.

Their room faced each other. When Noah entered her room, he saw that her bed was in a mess.

Laptop, mobile phone, all kinds of cables were on the bed.

Noah felt strange, this woman was the completely opposite of Zoey.

Zoey's room was clean, but Juno didn't seem to care much, even her underwear was thrown directly on the sofa.

They did not want to go out at night, so they ordered takeout directly.

Noah and Zoey had to work tomorrow, while Juno had her own business. They drank some tea on the third floor before sleeping at around 9 o'clock.

The university teacher never appeared and Noah gradually loss interest in her.

Early next morning, Zoey went straight to the company, Noah went to pick up the president, while Juno stayed in the yard to do some morning exercises.

When Emma saw him coming, she asked, "Where do you live now? Aren't you tired of running around? Why don't you move here?"

Noah was embarrassed. He just rented a place rented yesterday, this wouldn't be good!

Moreover, living with them made him uneasy.

He politely refused, saying that the contract hadn't expired, and he was used to it and did not want to move.

Emma looked at him with a strangely. He's an interesting guy, turning down her offer. If it were someone else, he would have already move over. However, she wasn't interested in someone else, so she tried to guess what Noah was worried about.

After sending Emma's mother to the company, Isabella spoke to Noah, "The guest will make the final bid today, you can help around the security department."

Isabella didn't want anything bad to happen today, so as not to cause trouble again.

Noah understood and went straight to the security department without going upstairs.

Normally, nothing would happen, but just to be sure, Isabella specially ordered Noah to help out.

Who knew if someone would make trouble on purpose?

The guests' requests were so picky that they would refuse to accept the goods for any reason or excuse. They might say that the environment was unsuitable, and that we could not ensure the quality of the goods. Who knows?

You really couldn't reason with them when you met such guests.

The customer's always right.

Damn it!

Sometimes, the more you worry about it, the more possible the things you fear may happen.

As soon as Noah arrived at the gate of the company, a man wearing sunglasses was quarreling in the guard room.

"I want to see your President!"

How could the security guard let him in?

He stopped him and asked, "Who are you?"

"The husband of your President's secretary."

"You're Secretary Zoey's husband? Wait, I'll make a call to verify."

When the security guard was about to call and ask, the other party rushed in.

"Hey, what, what are you doing?"

The security guard put down the phone to stop him, but the man was too angry. "Don't stop me. I'm going to settle some business with that bitch Zoey. She dare to have an affair behind my back."

"Let your President be the judge! Let's see how she manages her subordinates."

The situation was bad, so another two security guards rushed over and grabbed him tightly.

What did he mean?

Secretary Zoey was meeting someone outside?

His sexy little wife actually has seeing someone behind her husband's back... hehe!

The husband even came to the company, seems that it's true.

When the two security guards heard that Zoey had such an affair, their eyes suddenly lit up.

Hey!

Noah glared at them. "What's going on?"

"Brother Noah!"

When they saw Noah, they immediately became respectful.

"It's you?"

Kelvin pushed his thick glasses and realized that the arrogant guy in front of him was actually the man yesterday. He immediately became very angry.

A security guard reported, "Brother Noah, this guy said that his wife was having an affair and wanted to complain to the President."

Noah intentionally replied, "He's right. Secretary Zoey is with me."

"Huh?"

"Huh?"

Noah's words shattered countless glasses.

There was a burning sensation on Kelvin's face as if he had been slapped hard.

How can someone be so shameless to announce in front of everyone that he was having a relationship with his wife?

At this moment, several security guards looked at Noah with admiration.

Awesome!

He got Secretary Zoey so quickly.

Secretary Zoey was one of the top ten beauties in Emma Corporation. Wow!

Some people secretly swallowed their saliva, only Kelvin's face was in total rage.

He wished he could give himself a slap.

Why are you so despicable?

However, since things have already become like this, he could only go through with it.

He pushed his thick glasses and roared, "I'll beat you to death!"

Want to fight?

Fine!

"Let him go!"

After listening to Zoey's words yesterday, Noah's attitude towards him was not as polite as yesterday in the mall.

He was never soft-hearted when dealing with such a jerk.

You caused trouble at the mall yesterday, now you're causing trouble at the company?

Noah pulled his collar and asked, "You want to have a fight with me?"

The two security guards laughed crazily. Brother Noah, you are so funny.

With your strength, he's seeking death!

It would be better to hit yourself on the wall!

Sadly, someone didn't recognize death. Kelvin stared him with his thick glasses. "I'll fight with you!"

One slap from Noah and he instantly laid on the ground.

The two security guards burst into laughter.

The walkie-talkie over there rang.

"The security department, please pay attention, the client will be here soon. Please get ready."

Since the guests were coming, they could not make a fool of themselves at the gate.

Noah lifted Kelvin's collar and threw it to the ground. "Lock him up in the toilet."

Chapter 88

The company sent three cars to pick the guests up from the hotel.

The five foreigners got out of the car and looked up at the logo of Emma Corporation above the administrative building. The fat man said something and they entered.

Isabella led the elites from the Western Europe Group of the marketing department out to welcome them with Emma personally waiting at the entrance of the elevator.

Zoey followed closely behind the president. Someone secretly told her that Kelvin was causing trouble at the gate.

Zoey was anxious. If he scared away the clients today, he would be making enemies with the company.

After the president invited the clients to the reception room, Zoey hurried downstairs.

She was about to find out what happened when Noah came from the guard room with his hands clasped behind his back.

"Secretary Zoey, what are you looking for?"

Noah appeared just in time, it was like meeting a savior.

"Where's Kelvin? Is he here to cause trouble again?"

"Oh, I locked him up in the toilet."

Noah was indifferent which stunned Zoey.

"Secretary Zoey, it's okay. You go and do your work, I will handle this."

Zoey nodded and immediately went into the elevator.

Noah and the two security guards went into the bathroom, where Kelvin was detained under the pipes.

As he came in, Kelvin shouted, "I'm going to call the police. I'm going to sue you for illegally arresting me. I'll make you suffer."

"Okay! Let's see how you're going to make me suffer."

Noah called the security guards aside and whispered, "Go to the financial department and get a check of 200,000 dollars."

The security guard did not understand. "Brother Noah, why do we need to get the cheque?"

Noah glared at them and said, "Just go when I ask you to. Don't talk so much nonsense."

"Oh, okay!"

The security guard went out but immediately turned back. "No, Brother Noah. Even if I went there, they wouldn't give it to me."

Noah glared at him speechlessly and called Isabelle Charlotte on the phone. "President, please prepare a cheque of 200,000 dollars for me. It's urgent."

Isabella was talking to the clients. After receiving the call from Noah, she immediately ordered Wendy Alba to handle it.

The security guard quickly returned with the check and handed it to Noah.

The security guard looked at Noah with admiration, only he could make the president pay 200,000 dollars without hesitation. Who else would have such authority?

Noah asked someone to take Kelvin out of the toilet and brought him to the office of the Security Department.

After sending everyone away, Noah sat in front of Kelvin.

He looked at him said blandly, "Kelvin, you're a disgrace!"

"I've known everything about you and Zoey.

As a man, you can't be so shameless, you know that?

A man can have no money, but he can't be spineless.

If Zoey hadn't stopped me, I would have beaten you to death!"

Kelvin snorted and ignored him.

Playing this trick on me? It wouldn't work at all.

Since you have admitted that you had a thing with Zoey, that must be it.

In the past, he did not believe that she would do such a thing, but she said it herself yesterday. Today, this guy had also arrogantly admitted it. Could this matter be false?

Now that he has given me such a big cuckold, he wants to send me away with a few words?

This guy's arrogant, he locked me up just like that. When he saw that I was not afraid and would call the police, he probably became scared. So now he wants to negotiate with me?

Humph!

Noah saw his expression and basically knew what he was thinking.

He sat down and lit a cigarette, "Tell me, what do you want?"

Kelvin said arrogantly, "Ask that bitch Zoey to talk to me. I don't want to talk to you."

I gave you the easy way but you want the hard way.

Noah stood up and shouted to the door, "Give me the electric baton!"

"Hey, hey, what are you doing?" Kelvin panicked.

Seeing Noah with an electric baton, he was frightened.

He couldn't understand his strategy. A while ago, he was just about to beat him up, then he pretended to be sincere and wanted to negotiate.

Not even 3 sentences later, he was ready to go violent again.

Without saying a word, Noah switched on electric baton and directly stabbed Kelvin with it.

The thunderous sound of electric current scared Kelvin that he slopped down to the ground.

"Don't... don't... don't mess around. Let's talk."

"Didn't you say you don't want to talk to me?"

"I'll talk, I'll talk!"

Kelvin wiped his sweat. He promised himself that he would deal with this damn couple when he's out.

Noah threw the electric baton on the tea table and sat down again.

"Zoey doesn't want to be with you anymore. What do you think we should do?"

Kelvin gritted his teeth. "Divorce me then!"

"However, the house must be mine, or I won't do it."

What!

This is too cruel.

You didn't pay a penny when you bought a house, but now you want the property to be under your name solely?

How could a person be so shameless!

Hehe...

He was definitely not worthy of Zoey. How did she find such a scum?

It seemed that this guy just came for the property. Noah took out the check and said, "Don't dream about the property. That house was Zoey's property from her parents. You didn't pay a penny. What right do you have to claim the property?"

"Here is two hundred thousand dollars. Take it or not, just get out of here!"

Kelvin was disgusted. "That property's worth two to three million dollars, but he wants to send me away with only two hundred thousand dollars?"

To him, Noah was a scum since he snatched away Zoey.

This two hundred thousand dollars would be gone if he did not take it.

As for the property, he would think about it later. As long as he got the evidence that Zoey was having an affair, he was confident that the court would give it to him.

After making up his mind, he glanced at Noah, grabbed the check on the tea table and left.

Watching Kelvin leave, Noah lit a cigarette and smiled faintly.

Then he took out his mobile phone and made a call. "Call the police immediately. Someone stole a check of two hundred thousand dollars from the company."

The bodyguard who went to the finance department to get the check just now wiped his sweat. "What a strategy!"

Brother Noah was a genius. He fooled Kelvin into taking the money. With that, the game was over.

Sure enough, not long after Kelvin left Emma Corporation, several police cars suddenly came in front of him.

More than a dozen policemen jumped out of the car and yelled at him with guns, "Raise your hand!"

Kelvin could not comprehend the situation.

When he was taken to the interrogation room by the police, he realized that he had been set up.

"Hey, I didn't steal the check! I didn't steal it, they gave it to me!"

"The evidence is certain. You still want to deny it?"

The police officer sneered, "Why didn't anyone give me two hundred thousand dollars? Explain the process of the crime honestly."

"Hey, I didn't steal it. They gave it to me." Kelvin jumped up in a hurry. "They gave it to me. Ask them if you don't believe it!"

"That guy stole my wife. He gave me 200,000 to shut my mouth!"

Slap!

The police officer couldn't stand it any longer and slammed the table heavily. "Enough! Can you be more absurd? Emma Corporation was the one who reported the case. What else do you have to say?"

"Take him in!"

In the corridor, Kelvin shouted desperately, "I'm innocent, I'm innocent!"

Chapter 89

When Noah walked into the administrative building, Zoey hurriedly came over and asked, "How's it going?"

Noah told her that Kelvin James was sent to the detention center.

Zoey's eyes widened. "What?"

How did he end up in the detention center?

Would this become a big deal?

She was too kind, Noah thought. In dealing with such scoundrels, harsh methods must be used or else they won't learn from their mistakes.

If he was really convicted of the 200,000 dollar check, he would be sentenced to at least several years of jail!

Noah could not stand it anymore.

How could there be such shameless people in the world?

He should be killed.

Noah reassured Zoey, "You don't have to worry. Make him sign the divorce agreement then let him out. Otherwise, let him wait for punishment inside."

Zoey gratefully nodded to Noah, "Thank you!"

Noah waved his hand indifferently and said, "Don't, we're colleagues after all."

Finally, someone stood up for her and help her out of this sea of bitterness.

Zoey breathed a long sigh of relief as if she had been liberated, her ignorance before had caused her endless suffering.

Perhaps if a person was deeply blinded by love, it would be hard to pull themselves out.

Choosing a lover was similar as choosing goods.

When you choose the wrong good and it made you lose 10 percent of interest, you tend to wait a little longer, hoping that it would rebound and make up for the lose.

However after covering the loss, it did not rise as planned, but dropped another 10 percent.

You would think that since you have loss so much while investing equally much, the only possible way left was to persevere and continue to rush forward head-on.

This process would repeat again and again.

No matter how you add on to it, it only falls out of your expectations and it gradually swallows you whole.

Even after you no longer have the ability to add anymore, it still keeps falling.

Why did this happen?

There is no reason, it's just rotten stock.

If things do not go as you planned sometimes, you have to let go, reevaluate it and choose a better one, only then may your life change for the better.

It's the same for humans, decision making is very important.

Zoey was a good example, she didn't know how to let go.

When her giving became a habit, the other party took it for granted.

His Chinese name was befitting of his character, Song De Chun.

His parents had the power of foresight!

Give him an inch and he'll take a mile.

Noah explained the philosophy to Zoey as she stared at him incredulously with her beautiful eyes.

The metaphor was undeniably appropriate.

She did not expect Noah would know this philosophy.

For some reason, the former image of Noah was refreshed again.

What was left was endless surprise.

A female receptionist came out and called, "Secretary Zoey, the chairman wants to see you."

Zoey quickly said something to Noah and went over immediately.

This was the most luxurious conference room of Emma Corporation. Both parties were seated around an oval conference table.

Present were Emma, Isabella, Sherry and two important employees of the company.

The opposite side were the five European clients. They were led by the fat man, who was drinking the freshly brewed coffee.

There were flowers on the conference table, and everyone sat face to face.

The clients discussed among themselves for a while before the fat man spoke.

"Chairman Charlotte, after running some tests in your factory, it is confirmed that your company is completely qualified. There is no problem."

"We are very satisfied with the documents, the company system, the working staff and so on."

Everyone heaved a sigh of relief.

Emma and others smiled and replied in fluent French. "Thank you for your praise. You've worked hard."

The fat man and several colleagues also nodded and smiled.

They stood up and shook hands with Emma and others. "Congratulations for passing the assessment."

Emma was in a good mood. This was one of the major clients of Emma Corporation. Their number of orders every year were more than 100 million. With their approval, it would mean that there were no problems with the orders.

After putting in so much effort, there was finally a return. Everyone was secretly celebrating their victory .

After the two sides shook hands and took their seats again, the fat man said, "Actually, we didn't rest yesterday. We did a survey on the clothing market of Emma Corporation."

"We interviewed 2737 people randomly, and all of them praised Emma Corporation. This is no easy feat."

The other party applauded.

Emma and others were shocked. "He went to the streets to conduct an interview?"

Fortunately, Emma Corporation was not involve in any scandals as Emma had a clear conscience and had good leadership.

Even so, everyone was still shocked.

These people were professionals. They went directly to the key of the problem, which made it hard to defend.

If they did not have a solid foundation, in a situation like this, no matter how good the factory materials were and how perfect the surface was, all of the problems would be exposed after an investigation.

Everyone sighed in their hearts again. Foreigners always like doing things the professional way.

Seeing everyone's surprised faces, the fat man smiled and waved his hand. "Everything is in accordance to our requirements. Emma Corporation is one of the best company among our partners."

Everyone laughed.

The fat man exchanged looks with his colleagues and one of them, a blonde-haired woman, spoke.

"Chairman Charlotte, it's because your company is very good that we choose to cooperate with you. However, we have a request."

Emma nodded. "Go ahead!"

The other party proposed solemnly, "Our request is very simple, that is, the current batch of goods needs to be reworked."

"Huh?"

Sherry was the first to be anxious. It was obvious that there was no problem, so why did it have to be reworked?

Isabella's face darkened slightly, she gently touched Sherry with her toes.

"May I know how do you want it to be reworked?"

The blonde-haired woman replied, "The logo of Emma Corporation needs to be removed and replaced with our company's logo."

She handed over a document. "This contains the details about our company's requests on the product."

Sherry took a look at it, and her face changed drastically.

She handed it to Isabella. After reading it, Isabella handed it to Emma.

Emma read it for a long time and put down the document.

"No! We can't agree to this request."

If they replaced Emma Corporation's logo and and put on theirs, wouldn't it be their product?

Emma Corporation would then be degrading itself into a processing factory.

The brand value of Emma Corporation will be depreciated. As time goes by, the brand would disappear in the international market.

This is asking them to use the best quality to to assist others in win the market share.

This meant killing off their livelihood.

This was pillage!

This was a crime of robbery.

She would never agree on such terms.

Disagree?

The fat man stared at her, "If you don't agree, we will not accept this batch of goods. Your company will bear the corresponding compensation. Chairman, you don't have to answer immediately. We will give you two days to consider."

"No need!"

It was a matter of principle, Emma would not compromise.

She pushed the document back to them and said clearly, "Even if I, Emma, had to set up a road side stall, I will not remove the company's logo. If you want to sell the goods in the market, you must respect the brand of Emma Corporation, or else there's nothing to talk about."

The five people looked at each other in dismay. They did not expect Emma to be so determined. The fat man glanced at his colleagues and shook his head. "Let's go!"

Chapter 90

How infuriating! How could these people make such rude demands?

Emma Corporation was not a small company, so it was impossible to burden themselves for others' gain.

If Emma agreed to the request, the market share of Emma's brand would be weakened until it was completely replaced.

In addition, if the logo was replaced, they would be courting death themselves.

The product would then become someone else's and had no connection with Emma Corporation.

Only a second-tier enterprise would do such a thing.

In order to survive, they had to accept such terms.

However, in return, their market share and profits would be fully controlled by others.

A business without its own brand is just like a processing company.

As soon as the clients left, Emma immediately held an official meeting.

She announced the results of the meeting to everyone. "Although the other party has made such a request, we don't have to be afraid. It's nothing. Isn't it just loss? Emma Corporation will fight this lawsuit to the end."

"Everyone need not be discouraged. Losing a client is not going to end us. We have more difficult times before, so what's this little obstacle? We should cheer up and persevere, making ourselves better than before."

"I don't know if you have noticed, the reason why the other party made such a request is entirely because of the quality of our products. It means that our brand is very popular in Europe. Thus, its best we explore the European market ourselves."

She told Isabella, "We will come up with a plan and enter the market ourselves. As the saying goes, good wine needs no bush. Without them, we can still sell our products to the world."

Emma was a daring person after all, her words won the applause of the crowd.

Although the task was arduous, she was full of confidence.

Noah saw as the clients left in a hurry and heard

Emma's words. He couldn't help but admire her.

No wonder Emma was able to make a name for herself. It was entirely because she had a unique personal charm.

After a while, she called her daughter, Isabelle Charlotte, and Sherry to the office.

She shared with them her thoughts. "Isabella, I have decided to go to Europe to identify market opportunities, so I will leave the headquarters to you. You are now the president of the company. You have the final say while I'm absent."

"You have to help me stabilize the company, so that I have no worries when I fight on the front lines!"

When Isabella heard that she was going to Europe in person, she couldn't help but worry. "Mom! Let me go to Europe instead!"

Emma knew what she was thinking. She waved her hand and said, "This is a good opportunity. I want to take advantage of the time when the other party is out of stock to quickly take over the market. The business circle is like a battlefield, we have to grab firmly when an opportunity arise. Since they want to play these kind of tricks, we have to counterattack while they're off guard."

"I have to go on my own for this matter. I wouldn't be at ease if someone else goes there."

She turned to Sherry, "Get ready to go with me. At the same time, bring a few employees from the design department. We have to tailor a batch of high-end clothes for the Europe market. We will bring Emma Corporation into the international market!"

Sherry immediately replied, "Yes, I'll get ready immediately. Chairman, when are we going to leave?"

Emma pondered for a moment. "Is it enough if I give you three days?"

"It is!" Sherry was a diligent worker, she worked fast.

Since the chairman wanted to personally take charge, how dare she hold her back?

She decisively agreed.

Walking out of the Chairman's office, she saw Noah smoking in the corridor from afar.

Sherry stared with her beautiful eyes and walked over quietly with a smile.

She gently patted Noah on the shoulder and said, "Why are you in a daze alone?"

"Its nothing. I saw those foreign clients leaving angrily. Did the meeting go badly?" asked Noah.

"Yes it went badly. The Chairman is going to Europe in person to explore the market."

"Then, are you going too?" He asked again.

"Yes!" She replied.

Sherry nodded, "Will you come to my office for a while?"

At that time, Noah was thinking that if Emma went to Europe in person, then only he and Isabella would be left in the house.

It was not appropriate for a man and a woman to be alone like this right?

He went to the sales director's office with Sherry and she made him a cup of tea.

"I'll suggest to the Chairman to have you tag along too. What do you think?"

"Huh?"

Noah never thought that he would have to go so far.

Besides, he had something more important to do. He still had to find the last page of the cultivation method of the Howard family.

Would it benefit him if he went that far?

Sherry saw that he was surprised without any enthusiasm. She could not help but feel a little disappointed.

She glanced at Noah and frowned.

She puffed out her mouth and said, "I will go in a few days. You can help me move at night."

Noah did not think too much and replied casually, "Okay! Call me when it's time."

Just then, his phone rang.

Sherry looked at his back and stamped her feet. "He's really dense."

She went to the window, broke the branches of a fortune plant, and picked the leaves on the branches. "He likes Victoria! He likes me!"

"He likes Victoria, he likes me!"

"He likes Victoria, he likes me!"

"He likes Victoria....."

"No, again!"

Sherry was so angry that she threw away the leaves and plucked another one.

"Achoo! Achoo!"

Victoria, who was in her office sneezed out of the blue.

Victoria muttered to herself, "What's wrong today?"

She opened the drawer to get the tissue and saw the sanitary pads.

Victoria frowned speechlessly. She wanted to throw it away, but when she thought of her relatives coming to visit soon, she simply left it in the drawer just in case.

She didn't want to see it every time she took something, which reminded Victoria of the heartless guy.

Noah was the first one to buy this for her.

The phone call for Noah was from the police station. The other party was investigating the stolen check by Kelvin James and they needed his help.

Zoey also received the phone call. Kelvin James insisted that it was Noah who gave him the check.

Noah was having an affair with his wife and wanted to the 200,000 to cover his mouth.

Noah and Zoey came to the local police station for questioning.

Noah was surprised and said, "Me having a relationship with his wife? Hey sir, I am a good young man who has not yet get married. Does this guy need a beating?"

"What's more, even if I have a relationship with his wife, it's none of my business if he can't keep his wife. Why should I give 200,000 dollars to shut his mouth? It should be him using the money to shoo me away. This is unreasonable."

"Also, as you can see, I'm just a bodyguard. I don't even have enough money to eat, drink and play. Where would I get the money to give him?"

"This is clearly the check from the company's financial department. Don't blame me for it, or I will sue him for slandering me and disgracing my reputation." said Noah.

If the police went to ask Zoey, Zoey would certainly not admit these facts either.

The police were polite as they often dealt with Emma Corporation.

Seeing that both of their testimonies were somewhat similar yet different, he figured that they should not have discussed about it before. He explained to Noah, "We are just doing our job. Thank you for your cooperation. We will close the case as soon as possible and give Emma Corporation an explanation."

Noah gave him a cigarette and left after everything was clear on his end.

Kelvin James was crying in the detention room. He asked someone to tell Zoey that as long as she let him go, he was willing to divorce and not trouble with the house again.

All he hoped for was that Zoey would let him go, seeing as to they were husband and wife before.

Zoey's expression was complicated. She turned to Noah for his opinion.

Chapter 91

Noah could only help Zoey that much.

He could not made the decision for her. As a colleague, he did his best.

As long as she sent the divorce agreement to him, Kelvin James would sign it obediently.

Noah had said that he would beat a scum like this every time he saw one.

It was estimated that there was no one who was more of a scumbag than him.

After returning to the company, Noah had nothing else to do and went to the driver's lounge of the logistics department to enjoy his time.

As for Zoey, she was ready to contact the lawyer to end her painful marriage as soon as possible.

She was standing in front of the window of the office, drinking a cup of tea while looking at the bright blue sky.

As she was about to walk out of marriage, she suddenly longed to be the little bird flying freely in the blue sky.

She was finally released from her restraint and could live the way she wanted again.

"Thank you, Noah!"

Zoey said to herself with a smile on her face.

Noah stayed in the lounge of the logistics department for the rest of the day. When he was about to get off work, Sherry called again. "Remember to help me carry some things at night."

"Got it, rich woman."

Noah thought it was weird. Wasn't it just going out of the country? What was there to carry?

She wasn't moving house anyway.

However, the beautiful lady had called him several times. How could he not go?

After sending Isabelle Charlotte and Emma Charlotte back to the villa, Noah went over.

He received a message from Foxy Sherry in his WeChat.

There was a location on it, less than 400 meters away from Noah.

Eh?

What kind of game was this?

When he arrived at the second intersection,

Sherry's eye-catching red Audi was seen parked at the roadside

"Hey—"

Through the car window, Sherry's pretty face with sunglasses was seen. She was waving at Noah.

Noah stopped and looked at Foxy Sherry from afar with a smile.

Foxy Sherry's villa was a completely different direction from the president's house. Why did she come here?

"Hey, what are you waiting for? Hurry up and come over."

Noah got onto her car with a smile and put on his seat belt.

"Why do I smell something fishy here?"

He smelled the surroundings.

"Yes, something is indeed fishy here. Aren't you afraid that I'll eat you?"

Foxy Sherry smiled happily.

"I'll take a shower first, in case you don't like this smell."

Noah also joked, "Hey, what kind of filling do you like? I'll eat according to your request."

"You are so annoying!"

Sherry couldn't help laughing and reached out to hit him.

"Where are we going to have dinner?"

Sherry loosen her tight seat belt and turned her head to ask.

"Didn't you want me to help carry things?" asked Noah.

"True, but we have to eat first." Sherry thought for a moment. "Why don't we go to Moon Island?"

Noah knew that it was a restaurant for couples.

It was a place which provides couples a soothing yet simple atmosphere for them to spend their time together and deepen their bonds.

Foxy Sherry was strange tonight. Noah nodded and said, "Okay, whatever you like."

The music echoed throughout the car. With the open window, the wind blew her long hair backwards.

Sherry was wearing sunglasses, making her fair face more charming.

Noah looked over from the passenger seat and saw the beautiful view of the mountains.

Foxy Sherry was also in good shape, plus she was taller than Victoria.

Noah stared at the curve on her side with great interest. It looked good, but he didn't know how it felt like.

Soon, they arrived at Moon Island.

When they got off the car, Sherry said, "I will pay the bill today. You are not allowed to snatch it from me."

Last time, Noah had accompanied her to a classmate's place for a meal and burned a million dollars.

Many people still felt heartbroken about the incident.

When the gatekeeper saw them coming over, he immediately greeted them warmly. "Do you have a reservation?"

"Yes." Sherry showed him the VIP card.

The doorman immediately took the card and went to the front desk to verify, leaving Noah dumbfounded.

She even booked a table?

Why do I feel that the plot is getting more complicated now?

Can a girl really eat me?

While Noah was still in his own world, the gatekeeper had finished verifying and invited them to the reserved table on the second floor.

The decorations on the second floor were according to a romantic theme.

Especially on the stage in the middle of the hall, where there stood a foreign artist playing the saxophone.

Sherry picked up the pen and note, then quickly write a line of French. She attached it with 600 dollars and asked the waiter to send it to the artist.

The foreign artist on stage received the note and money. He smiled at them, bowed and said, "Thank you!"

The saxophone music covering "Romeo and Juliet" resonated gently around the entire floor.

The artist slowly walked down the stairs and towards them. He was a tall and thin bearded man in his forties, a handsome westerner.

His naturally curled blonde hair made him look both stunning and professional.

Noah listened to the music and said, "My beautiful Sherry, Romeo and Juliet is a sad love story."

Sherry smiled lightly. "Even though it's sad, it's still beautiful."

"Hey, Noah, if you are a moth, will you put out the fire?"

Noah looked at her strangely and said bluntly, "Yes, I will."

Sherry frowned. Sigh! He's really a tough man with no sense of romance.

Before long, Sherry's orders arrived.

There was steak, red wine, goose liver...

Noah sniffed, "Is today your birthday?"

"No? Why do you ask?"

She asked the waiter to open the wine, and raised her glass to Noah.

Noah was surprised. "If it's not your birthday, why did you ask me to come here? Is it..."

"I understand now!"

Noah stared at her beautiful face.

"Understand what?"

"You want to date me!"

"Pff—"

Sherry lost her cool and she wiped her mouth with a tissue.

"Your thinking is different from common people!"

"Are there many girls chasing after you?"

Noah thought about it seriously and suddenly looked serious.

There was a deep feeling between his eyebrows, as if his whole person suddenly became gloomy.

It looked like a kind of indescribable loneliness.

Even Sherry's heart was suddenly gripped by something. Did she touch something deep in his heart?

After a long time, Noah raised his head slightly and looked out of the window at an 45 degree angle.

His expression fell silent.

The sadness in his eyes made people worry.

Noah shook his head and said emotionally, "I used to have a true love, but I didn't cherish it. When I lost it only then did I regret. That's the most painful thing in the world. If God gave me another chance, I will say definitely say those three words, 'I love you' to her. If this love had an expiry date, I hope it could be... 10,000 years!"

Sherry couldn't help but glare at him, fascinated. She stretched out her hand and hit Noah a few times. "You are so bad!"

Then she smiled and said coyly, "That's so annoying."

What kind of person was he?

Can't you be more serious?

Chapter 92

Seriously?

Noah smiled sourly in his heart.

When it came to love, he did have some unspeakable pain in his heart.

If it was not because of love, not because of his family, not because of the Howard family Cultivation Techniques, would he still come to Celestic Town?

Love was something he had,
but it tasted bitter.

A love that even he himself is unsure of the result.

If he wanted to get this love, he had to overcome several mountains.

However, he could not imagine the time needed to overcome those mountains.

It may take a few years, a lifetime, or maybe forever...

Would she still wait for him in the mountains by then?

Everything he had was the song he sang.

Why must he be talented in martial arts? Why must he be in a dilemma of love and hate?

Even though he had extraordinary skills, he still had his concerns.

This was the pain no one could understand.

Sherry was still smiling, but suddenly she saw countless emotions flashing in his eyes. Those were definitely not fake.

There must be a story.

Her heart was trembling slightly, his heart was long taken.

"Come on, let's drink."

Sherry raised her glass.

It only then did Noah realize that he had inadvertently drifted away from reality.

His true feelings were revealed.

Alas!

He sighed in his heart.

They toasted to each other and drank.

They put down their glasses. Sherry raised her beautiful face and smiled gently.

"Noah, I think you are an interesting person, but I can't see what you're thinking. Do you want to share your story?"

"Huh?"

Noah was very embarrassed. "My story? There's nothing good about it."

"Why?"

She really wanted to know.

"That's because my story is too lengthy."

Sherry was speechless again. She did not believe it, but he was serious. "I'm telling the truth. My story will never end."

He picked up the glass, cheered to her, and took slow sips.

"Let's talk about you instead. Tell me! You're so beautiful, well-educated, and an elite worker too. Why don't you have a boyfriend yet?"

"I do. Who said I don't?"

She smiled strangely.

Noah was curious. "Oh, what kind of person is your boyfriend?"

"He..." Sherry pursed her lips. "I can't describe him, he's like a mystery."

"Hey, I have his photos. Would you like to have a look?"

"Well, let's see."

Noah wanted to have to see what was her taste like and at the same time give her some advice, so that hopefully she would not meet scums like Zoey did.

Sherry searched for the photo on her phone.

"Well, there he is. Please give me your opinion."

Noah took the phone.

In the photo, a guy was seen lifting a stone dumbSherry, defeating those gangsters with his great strength.

Domineering and fierce.

Noah noticed that Sherry was looking at him, so he joked, "He's handsome, but too fierce. Can you stand it?"

What a hooligan!

Sherry's face turned red and she hit him.

"You are so annoying!"

Is Foxy Sherry up to something again? He thought.

Noah took a deep breath.

This was not a normal hint, but an obvious one.

However, Sherry also liked to joke. Who knew whether she was being real or not?

A burst of cheers sounded from the other side.

Someone else had proposed to his girlfriend.

A man in a suit and tie, holding a flower and a ring, kneeling on one knee.

He took his girlfriend's hand and said affectionately, "Marry me, my dear."

Sherry was envious when looking at them.

Noah was embarrassed. "No way?"

Must he do something like that too?

It's okay to act, but it's too embarrassing to do it for real.

Sherry stood up and walked towards the stage.

What was she going to do?

Her slender and beautiful figure shown even more brightly under the light.

Sherry whispered something to the foreign pianist and she immediately got up and bowed to leave.

As the piano sounded, Noah gradually widened his eyes.

It turned out that what Foxy Sherry played was actually Shakespeare's "A Midsummer Night's Dream".

Wow! Splendid.

The melodious music intoxicated everyone, especially the lovely couple. They looked at the stage with surprise.

Although it was not part of the plan, they quietly enjoy the harmonization of the notes that were simply beautiful.

All the people in the western restaurant looked over.

They smiled as they saw Sherry playing so happily.

Her eyes always focused on Noah.

Compared with Romeo and Juliet just now, this was the perfect love story.

It told the story of a young couple who opposed their arranged marriage and eloped.

Although the process had its twists and turns, but the ending was perfect.

Noah did not expect that Sherry to be so talented.

A girl who was not only highly educated, but also gifted in calligraphy, painting, and piano. It made her seem like a mystery.

Noah looked at her with excitement. He raised his glass and smiled.

Sherry also smiled at him. They cooperated very well.

At such a wonderful moment, their feelings for each other rose to deepen.

Sweet and romantic.

In the corner of the restaurant, there was a cold-faced man in his early thirties, quietly watching everything unfold.

After playing, Sherry stood up and bowed to everyone.

Everyone gave her a standing ovation.

Noah grabbed a flower on the table and gave it to her. "You played so well! You are amazing."

Sherry took the flowers and smiled.

"Thank you!"

"I didn't expect you to be so versatile. How many surprises are you still hiding?" Noah pretended to worship her like a goddess.

Sherry frowned and said coyly, "Oh, you're pretending huh!"

She knew that Noah's secret was greater than hers.

This guy was like an abyss, no one knew anything about him.

Sherry was very happy tonight and drank a lot of wine.

Soon, her face became puffy red.

Noah saw that she was about to get drunk, so she covered her cup and did not allow her to drink again.

Sadly, he was a step too late. She was already drunk.

"Let's go. I'll send you back."

Noah put his arms around her waist to give her support as she walked.

After paying the bill, they went downstairs.

The cold-faced man in the corner had been on the lookout from the window until the red Audi left, which only then he paid his bill.

"Noah, I love you.

Would you be my boyfriend?"

The drunk Sherry began spouting nonsense. She waved her left hand from time to time and hit Noah on the thigh.

12:41

Noah did not answer. He only drove quickly back to her villa and help her out of the passenger seat.

"Noah, I love you.

Just be my boyfriend please?"

Sherry was still mumbling.

Noah locked the car and supported her to the door. When he was about to take out the key for the house, Sherry put her hands on his neck and kissed him with her hot lips.

Chapter 93

Hey, Foxy Sherry, this is not good! He thought.

They were there.

She was drunk.

Well, since she was at his mouth, he should have a taste.

So sweet!

Noah found that women's lips were sweet.

He finally managed to take out the key from her bag and opened the door. He took Sherry into the house and closed the door with his feet.

On the sofa, Sherry did not give up.

She held Noah tightly and refused to let go.

Noah was really worried. If he took advantage of her this time, would she kill him after she wakes up?

He soon found that she wouldn't, because Foxy Sherry was the one taking the initiative.

She was so aggressive that it made Noah passive.

He was getting pushed back!

Whatever, let's get on the ride first.

Noah made a common decision every normal guy would make.

He held Sherry's face and looked at her for a few seconds.

Although Sherry had drunk too much, she had not completely lost her ability to move and realized what was going on.

A pair of loving eyes looked at Noah affectionately.

Her eyes were inebriated.

Noah took a deep breath and kissed her.

A few seconds later, Sherry anxiously pushed him away.

"Wait a minute."

Then she quickly ran into the bathroom.

Eh? Wasn't Foxy Sherry drunk?

How could she run so fast?

Noah was a little confused.

She couldn't even walk steadily and talked nonsense just now.

Oh!

Perhaps she wanted to vomit, because she drank too much.

In the bathroom, Sherry, who was sitting on the toilet, looked puzzled and depressed.

She grabbed a pack of tissue and threw it away. Then, she covered her face with her hands and cried.

Noah waited in the living room for a long time. He heard faint noises from the bathroom and called out with concern.

"Crazy Sherry, Crazy Rich Sherry, are you okay?"

When Sherry wiped her tears and got up to wash it the water, the toilet was red in color.

After a long time, she came out of the bathroom.

"Why are you crying?"

Before Noah finished speaking, Sherry threw herself into his arms and cried.

As she cried, she kissed him.

Noah was ready to reach down when she grabbed his hand.

"Sorry, today's not the right time."

Sherry felt bad and hit Noah's chest. "It's all your fault!"

"Why do you blame me?" How could he understand? He could not control her menstruation.

Sherry said angrily, "It's all your fault. Didn't you say you were a poor monk from the West? How can you do this now?"

Noah understood,
but why was she crying?

If not today, then next time.

Women's hearts were like needles in the haystack. Noah couldn't figure it out.

Sherry stayed very close to Noah. She always held his neck and did not let go.

They couldn't do anything except kissing each other.

Later, Noah went upstairs with Sherry in her arms.

The two of them took a bath separately. Sherry pulled him to the bed and they fell asleep tightly in each other's arms.

Seeing Sherry fidgeting uneasily in his arms from time to time, Noah felt a little strange.

Tonight, she was too abnormal. It was puzzling that she was so aggressive.

Noah tried to speak, but Sherry stopped him.

The night slowly rise to dawn.

Early next morning, Sherry woke up and said, "You're taken by me. From now on, you only belong to me. You are not allowed to mess with other girls."

Noah smiled speechlessly and stretched himself. "Look who's talking, you caused me so much trouble last night."

How could a normal man survive such a romantic night?

Sherry put her face over and apologized. "I'm sorry. I didn't expect it to come so coincidentally."

"Wait for me, okay? Wait for me to come back from Europe."

Emma Charlotte only gave her three days, but three was not enough.

It usually took four to five days for her period to end.

Even if Sherry was willing, it was too late.

On the other hand, Noah wondered why she cried last night.

They ate breakfast and went to work together.

Sherry didn't sleep all night, but she was in good spirits.

Seeing her in good spirits, her colleagues were confused.

Director Sherry was very different today, but they couldn't tell what the difference was.

As usual, Noah took Isabella to the company.

Emma Charlotte was going to Europe in two days and had some other things to prepare, so she went to do her things.

When Isabella got off the car, she gave Noah a strange look again.

Noah felt guilty that Isabella somehow always knew what he was doing.

No, it should be the perfume from Sherry's body that made Isabella realized something.

If not, how could she know that he was with Sherry?

Noah thought that was the reason.

At noon, Noah was having lunch in the canteen.

Victoria was talking with several female employees in the office when someone shouted at Noah. "Noah, Director Russell is here."

Since they had already called his name, of course, Noah would feel bad if he pretended not to see them.

When he picked up the plate and walked over, a girl opposite Victoria quickly got up to give him the seat.

The two of them sat face to face. Victoria felt a little embarrassed, but she just glanced at Noah and said nothing.

Seeing this, the others next to him said, "We've finished eating. Take your time."

They left, leaving only Noah and Victoria.

"Well, are you free tonight?" Noah asked.

Noah found a topic to talk about. He had been tortured the whole night. He wouldn't be so unlucky too tonight right?

Of course, he didn't know that Victoria had also used the sanitary pads he bought before.

If he knew the truth, he would definitely cry in the toilet.

Damn, was he born to be a monk?

Victoria certainly knew that this guy wanted to find an excuse to have dinner with her, but she also had something to tell Noah.

While they were talking, Sherry and Zoey came in with a smile.

Seeing Noah and Victoria sitting together, Sherry's face suddenly became very unnatural.

She was eating with Zoey. Zoey also saw Noah and elbowed Sherry. "They are over there. Let's join them!"

Zoey also wanted to find Noah to tell him about her divorce.

Sherry took the lead in sitting down beside Noah. "Are you also eating here?"

Zoey sat down on Victoria's side. When Noah and Victoria saw them coming, they greeted them.

Zoey told Noah, "He signed the divorce agreement last night, the lawyer is helping me to complete the formalities. Noah, thank you very much for lending a hand."

"What? Zoey, you divorced?"

Sherry and Victoria were both surprised. Noah nodded solemnly and said, "That's good. If he dares to mess around again, he will not escape easily."

The two girls were curious and asked Zoey to explain.

Zoey also felt that there was nothing to hide, so she told them everything.

"Scumbag! Rubbish! Super disgusting."

The two girls expressed the same opinions.

Victoria said, "How could there be such a man? Zoey, you shouldn't have married him in the first place."

Sherry said, "Yes, he is a scum. Zoey, when we come back from Europe, we will go out of the city to celebrate for you."

Zoey promised that she would thank all of them, especially Noah for his help.

Noah smiled, "Don't mention it. We are colleagues. We should help each other. I don't know anything else but I can definitely fight."

Zoey asked, "Noah, when is your wedding with Director Russell?"

What an embarrassing question!

She asked about Victoria in front of Sherry.

Noah did not know how to answer. Sherry turned to look at him and gave him all the meat on her plate. "It's too fat, you can have it."

Chapter 94

Eh?

Sherry's action stunned everyone.

A girl giving a man her half eaten food?

What did this mean?

Victoria was already shy. When Zoey asked her about it, she didn't know how to answer.

It seems that they haven't talked about marriage, because they were not even in a relationship yet.

All she knew was Noah pressed her against the wall and kissed her last time. She didn't know what kind of relationship they were in.

However, Noah had a glib tongue and often teased her.

With his character, he would just tease anyone, right?

Didn't he tease Zoey too?

When Victoria was about to explain about the situation, Sherry's action made her heart skip a beat and suddenly sank to the bottom.

Not only Victoria but Zoey too.

Sherry liked Noah.

Her action seemed to announce to them that Noah was hers.

Fortunately, Noah did not let everyone stay awkward for too long. He smiled and said, "Okay, give it to me if you don't want. I'll eat it."

Then he looked at Sherry's ample bosoms. "I want more!"

Sherry looked down and frowned. "Miss Russell's are bigger!"

Victoria blushed.

A male and female hooligan.

How could she still continue her meal like that?

She picked up her bowl awkwardly and said, "I've finished. You guys can continue without me."

Zoey was laughing until her stomach hurt. "Hey Miss Russell, don't go. We're all adults. Why are you so shy?"

She was married before. Although she does not joke around normally, she always had a different tone when speaking to Sherry and Victoria.

Especially since she was already used to Noah's character.

However, she was indeed taken aback by Sherry's action just now. Although Noah's words relieved her, Zoey deliberately looked at Sherry again.

So its true that Director Sherry likes Noah.

This guy was lucky.

Director Sherry was braver than Victoria. Zoey knew her all too well.

If Noah's feelings for both of them were on the same level, then Victoria would definitely lose to Sherry.

In fact, after Sherry had realized that her actions just now were too awkward, so she said this deliberately to ease the atmosphere.

As expected, Victoria left in a hurry despite it was just a joke.

It wasn't anything, right?

They were all adults, plus Victoria's were obviously bigger which made her a little jealous.

While continuing their meal, Sherry had to go because of a phone call.

Zoey looked at Noah deeply and said, "Not bad, the two directors are pursuing you. Let's see how you're going to settle this."

Noah ate the steamed meat given by Sherry and smiled bitterly.

Zoey whispered, "Miss Russell is more reserved. Director Sherry is more unrestrained. Whether you can control her or not depends on your ability."

Noah pretended not to hear anything and lowered his head to eat.

Zoey suddenly remembered something. "Hey, why didn't you go back to sleep last night?"

She eyed Noah suspiciously.

Don't mention last night anymore. He had been badly hurt by Sherry. It was miserable.

If it weren't for his stable cultivation, he would have exploded and died.

Noah went out of the canteen with Zoey.

When they were about to enter the administrative department, six black luxurious cars stopped at the gate of the company.

The average value of those vehicles were more than three million dollars.

Even the worst car was a Mercedes-Benz class G AMG.

Several cars stopped at the gate, and a soldier-like man showed his badge.

Seeing this, the security guard at the door immediately directed the six cars into the parking lot and quickly called the secretary's office.

Zoey was not there. It was a clerk who answered the phone.

The security guard couldn't make it clear on the phone. He just said that there was a powerful figure who wanted to meet the Chairman.

However, Emma Charlotte was absent from work today. The security guard explained a few words to the soldier, who then ordered, "Ask your chairman to come right away. We'll wait for her for half an hour."

How could the security guard make such decisions?

He immediately called his superior to ask for instructions.

Finally, the call was transferred to Isabella's office. She was surprised when she heard that someone was looking for her mother.

When she saw the six cars through the window, her face became puzzled. "What's going on?"

She instructed Wendy Alba, "Invite them up."

More than a dozen people came out of the six cars.

One of them, a man in his thirties, was particularly eye-catching.

He had a square face and a pair of thick eyebrows. He was more than 1.8 meters tall. His face looked tough, his facial features were attracting.

He looked like he had no intention to hide his scary aura.

A cold-faced man followed closely behind him.

He was the exact same man at Moon Island last night.

There were exactly 18 people around the square face person.

All of them had short hair, a buzz cut and had the same facial expression.

Even their height and clothes were exactly the same.

The cold-faced man ordered, "You guys stay here."

The remaining 17 men stood next to the cars like pillars.

The square-faced man and the cold-faced man strode towards the administrative building.

Noah and Zoey saw them from afar. Zoey muttered, "Who are they?"

"Soldiers!"

Noah could tell at a glance. When both of them passed by, the cold-faced man turned to look at him.

His eyes were as sharp as blades, making people shudder.

When the two of them entered the elevator, Noah was still puzzled. He seemed to have seen this man before.

Especially those eyes, they were extremely sharp.

After they entered the elevator, Zoey and Noah followed them by entering the other elevator.

Soon, there was a sonorous sound of footsteps on the corridor outside the president's office.

When Wendy Alba saw them coming, she immediately reported to Isabella.

They were moving at high speed, without showing signs of stopping.

Before Isabella got up, both the men had arrived at the door.

"You two are?"

Isabella looked at them doubtfully, especially the arrogance on the square-faced man, which seemed unapproachable. Even Isabella was slightly shocked.

When he walked to the door, the cold-faced man instinctively stopped and stood guard for the square-faced man.

When the square faced man saw Isabella, it was obvious that he was both stunned and surprised.

"My name is Jake Bell. Sherry is my sister."

"I came here today to take her back."

The square-faced man's voice was loud and clear, his tone was imposing. Wendy Alba, who was beside him, was a little scared.

Sherry's brother?

Isabella looked at him for a while, then grabbed the phone on the table and dialed a number.

When the line was connected, she spoke. "Director Sherry, come to my office."

Sherry was in the midst of texting Noah. "Help me carry things again at night."

12:41

Again?

You want to suffocate me?

Noah looked wronged.

You girls would never understand how uncomfortable I was last night.

Sherry giggled. Hang on a little longer, I'll give it to you when I come back from Europe.

She was smiling sweetly when the phone on the desk rang. The president was calling for her.

Sherry closed her WeChat and rushed to the president's office. "Pres—"

Before she finished speaking, Sherry's face changed greatly when she saw the cold-faced man at the door and Jake Bell sitting inside. "Brother—"

Chapter 95

"Wait, isn't Sherry from Greylake?"

It was recorded in her file.

Wasn't she an only child? Never heard that she had a brother before.

Moreover, her brother looked imposing and arrogant. He should not be an ordinary person.

At this moment, Isabella found something strange. Noah was also very strong, so why didn't he have such great aura?

Both Lord Five

and Lord Gray had it, including the man in ragged clothes that worked under Lord Five too.

It was said that the more powerful the martial artist was, the more powerful his aura would be.

She couldn't figure out why Noah didn't have it.

Wasn't Noah powerful?

If he wasn't, he would not have been able to knock down Lord Five's henchman with just one move.

Even Lord Five had to accept him as a brother.

However, Noah looked no different from any ordinary citizen that people might mistaken as a young delinquent.

Jake didn't gave much time for Isabella to think her problems through. When he saw his sister, he immediately stood up.

"Sherry, the appointed time is up."

Sherry stomped her feet anxiously. "Bullshit, there's still three months left. How can you break your promise? Have you become shameless?"

Jake frowned. "I don't want to explain it to you. Go back and ask grandpa yourself."

A three month deadline?

What did he mean?

Isabella looked at the brother and sister in confusion.

Jake was indeed similar looking to Sherry.

Since Sherry called him brother as soon as she entered, this matter should be true.

I've known Sherry for so many years, but why have I not hear her mention anything about her family before?

Moreover, from Jake's presence, they were obviously not ordinary people.

Her curiosity made her ask Sherry, "Director Sherry, what's going on?"

Sherry bit her lip. "I'm sorry. I'll explain everything to you later."

Then she turned to Jake, "I won't go back. You can't simply break the original agreement."

Jake stood up and shouted angrily, "It's you who broke the rules and the agreement first. What else do you have to say? Do you want me to find out who was the brat with you last night? I think you should know the consequences if I find out who he is."

"You—"

Sherry was extremely angry.

Did brother know what happened last night?

"Isaac, take her away!"

Jake was ruthless and didn't care about her sister's feelings at all.

Isabella stopped him. "Mr. Bell, can I say a few words to Director Sherry? She holds an important position in our company. If she leaves suddenly, it will certainly bring great losses to Emma Corporation. Please allow us some leniency."

Jake shook his head. "Sorry, this is your own business. Sherry has to go back to Sky Capital with me now. We can't delay any longer, I can't afford to offend my grandpa."

Sherry was actually from the Bell family in Sky Capital?

What!

Oh my god.

She actually had such a strong background.

Isabella was shocked.

Celestic Town was just a small province. Even the four big and wealthy families here were no match for them.

They were the wealthiest family of all.

Emma Corporation, Wyatt's Group, Charlotte Family, Jackson Family, Lord Five...

All of them were nothing to the Bell family.

Isabella did not expect that her department director had such a background.

So of course she was shocked.

With Jake's temper, how could he allow his sister to mess around?

There were originally still three months left before Sherry's appointment with her family, but what happened last night infuriated Jake.

Isaac Lee was Jake's most loyal subordinate. It was he who brought up the matter between Sherry and Noah.

However, Jake was in a hurry last night and cut off all contact with the outside world.

It was not until early morning that he received Isaac Lee's report.

When he heard that his sister had a boyfriend in Celestic Town, he immediately rushed over.

He has yet to rest nor eaten since this morning.

His sister was engaged. If this news were to spread, the Bell family would lose face.

Since he had come, he must take her away.

Isaac Lee stopped Sherry. "Let's go, Young Miss! Please don't make things difficult for Young Master."

Sherry was angry. "Why should I listen to you? Can't I have my own choice?"

She rushed to the window. "If you must make me back, I will jump down from here!"

"Nonsense!"

Jake was extremely angry and his eyes were spitting fire.

He knew that his sister was stubborn and had opposed the marriage arranged by the family. That's why escaped to Celestic Town.

He thought that the life of ordinary people in recent years could calm her down, but he didn't expect that she was still so stubborn.

Since that was the case, it was not up to her to decide anymore.

Jake gave Issac Lee a wink to take action.

Isabella and Sherry did not even see it clearly. They only felt a black shadow suddenly passing them and appearing beside Sherry.

"Please do not refuse, Young Miss!"

Sherry gritted her teeth, she would rather die.

It was a pity that she was weak. How could she defeat a master like Isaac Lee?

Moreover, Isaac Lee was the head of the 18 generals of the Bell family.

If she had known it would be like this, she would have done everything last night, regardless of her period.

She was willing to give her all to Noah.

No one knew why Sherry cried last night.

She was depressed.

She was angry.

She was in a dilemma.

It was not easy for her to make such a decision, but she did not expect that the heavens would not meet her wishes.

It was annoying and hateful!

As they say, the planning lies with man, the outcome with Heaven.

God did not grant her wish.

She knew that there would be such a day, so she decided that even if she could not win against her family in this life, she would leave her best to the person she liked.

Unfortunately, it was too late.

The chance was gone.

If Noah was here, he should understand her feelings.

Fortunately, Noah did not disappoint her.

Just as Isaac Lee was about to take her away, Noah appeared.

"Let her go!"

Noah, who was usually cynical, stood at the door with a cold face, as if he was a completely different person.

Isabella fixed her eyes on him, his eyes fell firmly on Sherry.

When Isaac Lee saw Noah, he said without any emotion, "Young master, this was the guy with Young Miss last night!"

Jake was furious.

How dare you, shameless little bastard, touch the people of Bell family?

How dare you, a mere civilian, touch the daughter of Sky Capital's Bell family?

You're seriously sick of living!

Jack Bell was angry for no reason.

"Kill him!"

The president's office was full of murderous aura.

He had no choice. Perhaps only by killing Noah could he stop the news from spreading.

If the news of what happened last night were really leaked out, how could the Bell family face Sherry's fiance's family?

"Wait a minute, Mr. Bell!"

Isabella wanted to persuade him, but her words weren't effective at all.

"No..."

When Sherry saw Noah, there was not a trace of joy on her face, only sadness.

She was clearest about what kind of person her brother was.

Even among the many rich and powerful families in Sky Capital, no one was his opponent.

The eighteen men of the Bell family beside him were all extraordinary talented in martial arts. Noah might not be able to resist their strength.

If they made a move, Noah would definitely die.

Once she heard that Jake was going to kill him, she immediately rushed to him.

"No..."

Sherry bit her lip. "If you want to kill him, I will die in front of you immediately. If you are willing to let him go, I will go back with you immediately!"

Jake glared at Noah. It didn't matter. As long as she left Celestic Town, this guy would die sooner or later.

He nodded. "Okay! Deal!"

Chapter 96

Previously, Sherry left Sky Capital in order to resist her family's decision over her fate.

Now, in order not to hurt her beloved one, she resolutely agreed to go back.

She knew her brother's temper, he would not change his decision.

As a man, Noah was willing to help Zoey despite her circumstances, not to mention Sherry who was deeply in love with him.

Therefore, he would never let Jake take Sherry away unless she was willing to go back herself.

Noah coldly looked at the two arrogant men in front of him and said loudly, "I haven't agreed yet."

"How dare you!"

The cold-faced man seemed to have a prejudice against Noah.

However, Noah did not take him seriously at all. He stared at Jake.

Jake's sharp eyes were sharp like swords, tit for tat.

As their eyes met, it was as if a battle had begun.

Jake was powerful and had profound cultivation, it was rare for him to have an equally matched opponent among his generation.

Even in Sky Capital, few people dared to look at him straight in the eye.

This kid wasn't giving in at all?

Is he not afraid?

Looking at him carefully, he didn't look like a master at all. Was he see it wrongly?

How dare Sherry let Noah take the risk?

He was no match for her brother's strength.

If Noah was injured because of her brother, Sherry would regret it.

She quickly got rid of Isaac and said, "Noah, you can go now. I'll solve this problem myself."

Then, in front of everyone, Sherry held Noah's neck and kissed him hard.

"This..."

Everyone felt awkward, Isabella's face turned red.

It turned out that Sherry had already liked Noah since long ago.

This reminded her of the two nights when Noah and Sherry were together.

Perhaps they had already broken through the relationship of ordinary male and female friends.

Having known Sherry for many years, she knew her character.

It was either no love at all or head over heels.

The scene before her answered all her questions.

There was no expression on Isaac's face, and Jake couldn't bear it anymore. His sister was too capricious, she actually embarrassed herself in front of so many people. Fortunately, her fiance wasn't present, otherwise, even grandpa couldn't solve this matter.

Sherry hugged Noah and kissed him for three to four minutes before letting go. "I love you, Noah!"

"It's a pity that we're not destined to be together."

She looked at Noah affectionately with tears in her eyes. "Do you still remember why I picked the song 'Romeo and Juliet'?"

"Do you know why I was so aggressive last night?"

"Do you know why I cried so sadly?"

.....

"That's because I know that I won't have another chance. I know that this day will come sooner or later. I thought I could stay longer and complete my wish within these three months. I want to give myself to my loved one without reservation."

"It's a pity that God did not allow us to reach that level."

"Actually, marriage doesn't matter to me."

"As long as I still have expectations, as long as I loved you, as long as I still have memories of you in my heart, even if I finally reach that step, I have no regrets."

"Noah, I am very happy to have known you. Although we have done nothing, you are my eternal memory. Thank you for bringing me happiness during this period of time."

Sherry was full of tears. Perhaps her true feelings touched Jake because he unexpectedly made an exception and did not stop her.

Isabella was crying when she heard that.

She was touched and felt pity for her.

Unfortunately, she could do nothing.

In front of the powerful Bell Family, Emma Corporation was simply too small.

As long as he gently wave his hand, he could wipe out Emma Corporation.

In the face of power, she could only obediently submit.

Sherry's crystalline tears fell down. Noah gently hugged her and said, "It's okay. I won't let anyone take you away."

"No!"

Sherry shook her head. Noah didn't understand. He didn't know how powerful the Bell Family was.

She had never told anyone about this before.

She looked at Noah and said, "These are not important anymore. What matters is that my heart will always belong to you."

"Victoria is good too. I know you like girls with big breasts. I think she won't refuse you."

"....."

Noah was speechless. He really couldn't understand what Sherry was thinking.

Yesterday, she clearly said that he was hers and that he was not allowed to make any contact with other girls. Today, she asked him to find Victoria.

Noah said calmly, "Don't worry, let me talk to your brother."

"It's useless."

Sherry shook her head. What kind of temper does her brother have? How could she not know?

Hearing this, Jake looked disdainful.

If it weren't for his sister's face, this brat would have died long ago.

What right did he have to talk to him?

Although Jake despised him, Noah still said calmly, "Your name is Jake, right?"

"Although the Bell Family is a famous wealthy family in Sky Capital, so what?"

"The Buddha says that all living beings are equal and should have a heart of compassion. There is karma in life. Although you are her elder brother, how can you decide her fate?"

Jake was stunned. "Huh?"

This kid was actually lecturing him?

All living beings are equal?

That was an excuse to comfort ordinary people.
How can they be equal?

Some people were born to be noble and to look down upon the world.

Some people were born to be humble and will eventually become horses and cows. Do you want to pursue the equality of all living beings?

Jake suddenly wanted to laugh. The so-called equality of all living beings was only for low-living people like you who want to climb to the upper realm and pretend to be of noble blood.

Without power, how can equality be achieved?

Was it fair for a nobody like you to make friends with the daughter of a noble family?

Jake smiled coldly. "It seems that I have to show you what is equality to everyone today."

"Isaac, please teach him a lesson."

As soon as he gave the order, Isaac raised his eyebrows, and the murderous aura in the president's office suddenly rose sharply.

Jake said lightly, "Don't be too serious, otherwise he won't know what equality is even after he dies."

"Got it, Young Master."

When Isaac was about to take action, Isabella shouted in a hurry. "Wait a minute."

For some reason, Jake was exceptionally kind. His eyebrows quivered. "What can I do for you, Miss Charlotte?"

Isabella hurried over. "We can talk about anything. Please don't do this. Noah is the bodyguard of our company. If he offends Mr. Bell, I'm willing to apologize for him. Please don't take it to heart, Mr. Bell."

Oh?

This was just a little bodyguard. How could a mere bodyguard fall in love with his sister? Jake thought.

Hehe... When has the daughter of the Bell Family become so worthless?

Jake became more and more unhappy. He looked at Noah and thought that this guy should have some skills. He was so self-righteous that he wanted to fight with the Bell Family.

Since that was the case, he would let him experience that there was always someone better out there.

Jake said calmly, "Don't worry, Miss Charlotte. Isaac will know what to do. I'm sure that he will still be here. Standing or Lying however, depends on his ability."

"Brother—"

Sherry saw that her brother was going to fight, so she hurriedly stand in front of Noah.

"Get out of my way!"

When Jake had made up his mind, no one could stop him.

Isaac stared at Noah with his gloomy eyes, ready to attack at any time.

Jake sat there, unconcerned.

Chapter 97

Noah gently pushed Sherry away and quietly stood in the middle of the office.

In comparison to Isaac's arrogance, Noah was much more low-key.

He looked at Jake's determined look and kept quiet.

Seeing Sherry's anxious reaction, he smiled. "Am I that vulnerable to you?"

"Don't be stubborn, Noah!"

Even Isabella was anxious because she knew the fame and power of the Bell family in Sky Capital.

Even if Noah was lucky enough to win, it was impossible for him to go against the entire Bell family.

There was no chance of winning.

Isabella was not a martial artist, but she could feel the strong aura of Isaac and Jake. A person as such would not be just an ordinary master.

There was no sense of warrior aura from Noah. How could he fight against them?

Noah was the hero of her family. How could she bear to see something happen to him?

Noah decided to express his thoughts, seeing how the two beautiful ladies were so worried for him.

"I know both of you have good intentions. As the old saying goes, People are born to eventually experience death, and they could be great beings or lowly nothings in their lifetimes. Although I am not a son of a rich and noble family, I am still, however, a dignified man. How can I be afraid of death?"

"Hey, wait, why have you take another step forward?"

Jake twisted his head. he became one step ahead of him so quickly?

Noah sniggered and said, "Ooops, I added that foot in too."

Damn!

Jake cursed secretly, "Son of a bitch!"

Isabella and Sherry blushed from embarrassment. They looked at him worriedly. How can he still have the mood to joke around?

Isaac could not bear it any longer and decided to teach this reckless guy a lesson for his young master.

Seeing how Noah still had the guts to play around, he got angrier and aimed a punch Noah.

Take this!

A person like him should be easily defeated in one move.

"Wait a minute!"

Seeing Isaac's punch, Noah took a step back and shouted.

Jake's face darkened. "What else do you have to say?"

"This place is too small. Why don't we change location?"

What?

There was no need to do that, it was too troublesome to relocate.

Besides, he could destroy him in three moves. Was it necessary to find another place?

Some people thought that Noah was trying to stall time, he was probably afraid.

Sherry seemed to have understood something. She kept giving him hints with her eyes.

Find a chance and run away later, there is no way you could beat them.

Who knew Noah smiled and said, "Don't get me wrong. I want to relocate because there are too few audiences here. I'm just afraid that I would be wasting my energy if no one sees me take the win."

Damn!

Jake had never seen such a cocky person.

He was so furious that he stood up and left. "Isaac, let's go downstairs."

"Today, I must beat him to pieces. How dare he be so arrogant?"

Surely he hasn't seen the world, so how could a little bodyguard like him speak so arrogantly?

Isabella was getting more anxious. How can you still be bragging at times like this? Is it so difficult to just say something less provoking?

Seeing that Jake and Isaac turned and left, Sherry pulled Noah by his clothes. "You should leave now. You will die if you fight with them."

Noah gently patted her on the shoulder and said, "A man would rather die under a flower. Even if I am beaten to death by your brother today, it's better than being a coward."

"Do you think you want the person you like to be a coward?"

“.....”

Isabella was speechless and yelled, "Noah, you..."

Noah waved his hand, "Don't worry, President. I'm still waiting for you to be my matchmaker!"

When they saw Noah entered the elevator, their hearts sank.

Sherry regretted her decision. If she had known this would happen, she would not have gotten Noah involve. Now that he was in trouble because of her, she felt extremely sorry.

The point was, he won't gain anything. If he was hurt or injured by his brother, wouldn't all that be for nothing?

When they came downstairs feeling worried, there were a lot of onlookers by the window of the office.

The news of Sherry's brother coming to Emma Corporation had spread throughout the company.

Even Victoria was standing by the window in surprise.

The group arrived at the open space downstairs. Someone moved a chair for Jake to take a seat.

Jake lit a cigar. "Young man, I'm not trying to scare you. If you regret now, it's still not too late, because I don't want anyone to blame our Bell family."

He flicked the ash and said, "I know you have some skills, but you are not Isaac's opponent."

Jake pointed to the other 17 people behind him. "Isaac is the head of the 18 generals of the Bell family. If you have some common sense of what is going on in the world, I think you should have heard of how prestigious the 18 generals of the Bell family are. They lose control when it comes to fighting. If you are injured or hurt, Miss Bell would even have to take care of you for the rest of your life."

"You have to be conscientious when you work. You can't set up such a big trap for your boss just because of your arrogance."

Of course, Noah knew that they wanted to put pressure on him. He couldn't be bothered by such a cheap trick.

He glanced at Sherry and said seriously, "In that case, let's make a bet. If I win, Sherry will stay. Also, you're not allowed to threaten her with the family rules in the future."

"Win? You think you can win?"

Jake rolled his eyes, he had never seen such a reckless guy.

In order to confirm his guess, he looked at Noah a few more times, and soon he was disappointed.

He didn't see anything special from Noah.

"Don't talk nonsense, Isaac, go!"

Jake gave the order, and Isaac threw himself to Noah.

Whoosh...!

The iron fist caused a stir, everyone who was watching on the side started getting anxious.

As the saying goes, the experts watch the actions and movements whereas the amateurs watch it for the fun.

Even they who didn't know martial arts were frightened.

Isaac's punch was so fierce that it seemed that there was a stream of air revolving around him.

The fierce momentum suddenly enveloped Noah.

Director Charlotte, who was watching upstairs, cheered secretly!

Someone was finally giving this guy a lesson, thank god!

"No one will force me to wet my pants in the future."

But...but...

The scene of the domineering Isaac who fiercely attacked Noah soon passed.

Noah stood still on his spot and flashed his upper body to the side, causing Isaac to miss his punch.

Noah's feet had never left the spot.

Isaac roared in anger. He couldn't understand how he managed to avoid his punch.

Jake's arrogant face suddenly froze, even his cigarette's movements stood still.

This guy had used a unique technique that has long disappeared.

As an ancient martial arts practitioner, he realized something suddenly.

Isaac flew into a rage after failing to defeat him with that move. His iron fists were full of murderous intent.

His style of long-arm boxing was strong and powerful. In the end, it stirred up the surrounding wind.

A huge vortex appeared within the radius of a dozen meters.

However, Noah avoided his punches easily without leaving the spot.

Isaac was already sweating, but Noah was reacting as if nothing had happened. Isaac hadn't even managed to make a scratch on Noah's clothes.

What an embarrassment!

Isaac became more and more guilty. Jake, who was sitting there, was surprised to discover this. What the bloody hell?!

What was that unique ancient martial arts skill?

Wasn't that the most commonly seen Eighteen Wrestling Stance?

Before he could finish his thought, Noah took a light breath and with a teeny tiny push, Isaac's huge body fell out of the vortex.

Chapter 98

Everyone was stunned.

One crack from Jake and the chair broke.

He was well aware of Isaac's strength.

The head of the Bell family's 18 generals was actually beaten down by the most common Eighteen Wrestling Stance.

Ouch!

My face.

Jake felt that his face was burning hot, especially when Isabella and Zoey looked over at the same time, it felt as if someone had slapped him.

Didn't he just say that it depended on Noah's ability whether he would stand or fall?

The backlash he received from that was extremely harsh.

In particular, Jake felt that the other party had not used his full strength yet.

The Eighteen Wrestling Stance was a martial art that had a long history. It originated from a set wrestling technique from Shaolin Sleeping Buddha. The essence of it was to be small but strong.

What Noah demonstrated just now was the exact definition of being small but strong.

He exerted the essence of Eighteen Wrestling Stance to the extreme.

He finally understood why Noah began to lecture him about using peaceful means before resorting to force.

When Isaac was lying on the ground with sweat all over his head, Noah remained poised, as if nothing happened.

Isabella and others stared at Noah in awe.

In the past, they thought Noah was powerful, but what happened just now made them have a new perspective of him.

Lord Five was a powerful character in Celestic Town, but he was not as good as the Bell family in Sky Capital.

However, the head of the eighteen generals of Bell's family was easily defeated by Noah.

Isaac deliberately used his fiercest attack, but didn't expect such an outcome.

Isabella stared at Noah and thought, how many more secrets was this guy hiding?

He was not as ordinary as they thought he was.

All around, people were in a state of awe.

Sherry blinked excitedly as if she couldn't believe it.

"Noah actually won Isaac?"

As she thought of it, her heart sank. Although Isaac was ranked first among the eighteen generals, he was not the most powerful figure of Bell family.

If her brother stepped forward, can Noah still remain calmly stand there?

Sherry's excited yet contradicting mentality made her more nervous.

Sure enough, Jake got up from the broken chair. He frowned and the seventeen generals behind him all rushed at Noah together.

The leader is down, but you still have us!

"You've defeated Isaac but there are 17 more."

Do it again if you have the ability!

17 mighty air blasts that could sweep over the mountains and seas approached Noah from all angles. They weaved into a tight dragnet.

The murderous aura of the 17 masters were revealed.

A burst of indescribable tension erupted from the empty grounds of the Emma Corporation.

Many people who cared about Noah had their hearts in a turmoil.

Victoria, who was watching from afar through her office window, bit her thin lips and trembled anxiously.

Isabella's face was pale but focused.

Sherry's eyes were full of tears, uneasy.

Even Zoey who was aside grasped the corner of her clothes and looked at Noah nervously, murmuring in her heart in hopes he would succeed.

Jake frowned and stared at Noah with his pair of bright eyes filled with coldness and anger.

In the fighting ring, loud noises resonated.

With his fists and feet together, Noah responded calmly at a speed of 17 times.

The two sides were in a stalemate for more than ten minutes, with no clear sign of who was the winner.

How could Jake bear it any longer?

He shouted, "Let me do it!"

He was more than six feet tall. He was strong and his voice was as loud as a bell.

His voice hurt everyone's ears.

His movements were fast. He used his ultimate move, God's Hegemony of Chaos.

He didn't want to waste any more time embarrassing himself.

Since so many people couldn't defeat Noah, how could he still go easy on him?

He had said that he wanted to kill him just now.

He had lost his face after Isaac's defeat.

Now, even the seventeen generals failed to take down Noah after ten minutes.

With his proud and arrogant temperament, how could he hold it in?

Especially in front of Isabella, the number 1 beauty of Celestic Town, it would be a shame.

He released his earth-breaking skill, slicing through the air.

Bang!

He did not care what would happen,

as long as he could defeat Noah, his goal would be achieved.

As for whether Noah was dead or injured, it had

The whole place was dead silent, even the sound of a fallen needle could be heard.

In that moment, a trace of panic flashed through Jake's eyes.

"Brother—"

Sherry recovered from the shock and rushed to her brother's side.

Jake fell to the ground and looked at Noah blankly.

When Noah stopped, his blushing face quickly calmed down and beads of sweat appeared on his forehead.

After some time...

Jake shouted, "Ah! My waist."

"My ass—"

"Give me a hand."

"Young Master!"

All the generals of Bell family recovered from the shock and rushed to him one after another.

Jake waved his hand. "Help me up."

"Brother! Are you okay?"

After all, they were still brother and sister. Sherry was worried for her brother.

"It's okay. I'm only about to fall apart."

Jake glared and shouted at his sister. "Where did you find such a hooligan? Are you trying to kill me?"

Then he looked at Noah, "You brat, turns out you are hiding your strength. I guess my sister won't be coming along with me then."

Noah came over. "Your bones are broken. Do you want to go to the hospital?"

"Who said that my bones are broken? No." Jake was supported by two of his subordinates. He tried his best to deny it.

Noah could only smile and did not expose him.

"I'll find a place to rest first, then settle the rest with you later."

Jake was a reasonable man. He shouted at the eighteen generals beside him. "Why are you still standing here for? Help me get into the car."

They were flustered and rushed to help him into the car.

Jake poked his head out of the car, pointed at Noah and said, "Wait and see. I will deal with you later."

After that, he shouted at the driver, "Drive!"

"Young Master, are you alright?"

Isaac blamed himself for not being of use and asked with concern.

"Do you think I'm okay?" Jake glared at him. Just as the car drove out of the gate of Emma Corporation, he heard Jake shouting, "Oh, my bones."

He had to find a place to treat his injuries.

He didn't want to lose face in front of Noah, so he left quickly.

Sherry looked at Noah for a while and suddenly threw herself into his arms.

Everyone around looked at Noah, making him feel awkward.

Isabella finally breathed a sigh of relief. She looked at Noah with a strange look and turned back to the office.

The crowd gradually dispersed. Sherry reluctantly poked her head out. "Noah, you're awesome!"

"I thought you couldn't beat them, but you really beat them all."

"By the way, will my brother be okay?"

12:42

"It's okay. He only broke a few bones." Noah answered calmly.

Chapter 99

Ten minutes later, in Isabella's office.

Sherry sat awkwardly on the sofa, holding a cup of tea.

Noah also came. He and Isabella had been looking at Sherry with very strange eyes.

"Director Sherry, you have kept us in the dark. If this gets out, how can you continue to work in Emma Corporation?"

Sherry blushed and stammered, "I didn't have no choice."

She glanced at Noah and said sadly, "I agreed to return to my family after three months."

"However it seems that I can't stay here any longer."

Although Noah defeated her brother, he would still have to face the whole Bell family.

In front of the powerful Bell family, Noah's strength was undoubtedly incomparable.

Therefore, Sherry was not overjoyed, but rather worried that he would be retaliated by her family.

After all, this matter involved another family.

Thinking of the arranged marriage, Sherry could only sigh in her heart.

Her thoughts were still too simple. She thought that she could secretly get along with Noah. Even if she could not be with him in the end, as long as she loved him and submitted herself to him, at least she would have more memories in her future life.

She did not expect that her everything was fully under the control of her family.

If she delayed to go back even for a day, first her brother, tomorrow might be her father or even grandfather.

She couldn't imagine Noah continuing to fight all the way and make the Bell family surrender.

It was too unrealistic.

She did not want Noah to take this risk again.

Noah's performance today was enough.

Wasn't that what she pursued him for?

Her only regret was that she didn't completely give herself to Noah.

"President, I can't stay in Emma Corporation anymore."

Sherry stood up. "I'll go out and have a think. Don't worry about me."

Noah wanted to comfort her, but Sherry shook her head. "Leave me alone."

It was difficult for others to interfere in the matters of the rich and powerful families.

Noah watched as Sherry leave, his heart was somewhat complicated.

It seemed that he had to have a good talk with Jake.

Isabella sighed faintly, revealing a bitter smile. "Even I am surprised that Emma Corporation had a such a power house."

She turned to Noah and said softly, "And you, how long are you going to hide?"

"Me? I'm always honest. President, please don't wrong me."

Noah smiled slyly.

Isabella rolled her eyes at him, only the ghosts would believed it.

She acknowledged that Noah was powerful. He could fight and kill, but she didn't expect him to be that extraordinary.

Her impression of him was refreshed once again.

From the gangsters to Lord Five, then Jake. Isabella couldn't stand it anymore.

"Noah, have you ever liked Director Sherry?"

Isabella suddenly asked.

Noah was stunned. "I like her! She's so beautiful. Of course I like her."

"But you still fancy Victoria."

Isabella stared at him, she wanted to know the truth.

"Yes!"

Noah did not deny it.

Victoria was a sexy beauty. It would be abnormal if he didn't like her.

After Noah personally admitted it, Isabella was speechless. Although she knew that Sherry was the first to take action instead of Noah, she did not expect that this guy would answer so directly.

So shameless.

"Then who else do you like?"

"I like you."

Noah answered frankly.

Isabella blushed, but she found that Noah's answer was not as pretentious as the others.

He admitted without any hesitation.

This guy!

Just as she was about to say a few words to him, Noah spoke, "Sigh! In actual fact, you are the perfect one. Unfortunately, you are so high up. I am afraid that I'm no match for you!"

"....."

Isabella went silent.

Noah stood up and said, "I'll think of another way to deal with Sherry's problems."

"You should know that I am born with a mission. I can't stand beautiful women being tortured. Wherever there is trouble, there will be me. Don't you think that the only difference between me and Superman is a red underwear? I can't talk anymore, I have to save others."

Noah went to find Sherry, but she was not in the office.

She was at Victoria's office.

Closing the door, the two beautiful women whispered in the room.

"Miss Russell, I'm here to apologize to you."

Victoria had seen what happened just now. At that time, she was so anxious that her heart was almost broken.

Fortunately, there was no danger. Noah won.

After hearing about Sherry's background, Victoria knew that even the chairman could do nothing about it.

The Bell's family affairs could not be interfered by the rich and powerful families in Celestic Town.

Seeing Sherry apologize, she understood her situation.

Sherry said softly, "I know that Noah has always liked you. You know his virtue clearly. I just wanted to leave some unforgettable memories for myself before leaving Celestic Town. Thankfully, they have been engraved in my heart today."

Sherry gave a wry smile and took Victoria's hand. "We have been in the company for so many years, and we should be considered as very affectionate and loyal sisters. Promise me, don't refuse him again."

"I'll leave my unfinished mission to you."

"....."

What?

Victoria heard it. Sherry failed to give her first time to Noah.

What's the use of giving this kind of mission to me? You want me to do it for you? Victoria thought.

However, thinking of Noah's lustful look every time, Victoria felt a sense of shyness for no reason.

"Why are you worried about him? He is a playboy." Victoria interrupted Sherry. "What about the Chairman if you leave? You are her right hand man. Without you, her Europe trip might have to be cancelled."

Sherry was also helpless. "The marketing department is full of elites. The Chairman knows how to make good use of people. She'll think of a way."

Seeing Sherry's depressed face, Victoria couldn't help worrying about her. "What will happen when you go back?"

"Go back?" Sherry smiled bitterly.

Going back means that she accepts the arrangement of the family.

She must obediently get into the bridal sedan and get married into a wealthy family.

From then on, she would have to spend the rest of her life with someone she didn't like.

Victoria came from a remote village, plus her family would not make such a decision for her.

She could choose her own partner in her life. She had only seen such a situation as Sherry before on TV, but she didn't expect it to happen before her today.

What was shown on TV was only the tip of the iceberg of the inside story of the rich and powerful families. The real battle was deeper than the sea and higher than the mountains.

Listening quietly to Sherry's story, Victoria suddenly felt powerless and pale. All of these were too distant for her.

At the same time, she was glad that at least she could live her life the way she wanted.

Her family's requirements for her were not high. All she had to do was to find someone she liked and live a peaceful life with him.

After chatting for a long time, they came out to look for Noah. Where was he?

They didn't know where he went and could not contact him. Did he leave Emma Corporation without saying a word?

Chapter 100

In the presidential suite of the Grand Imperial Hotel, Jake was swearing.

"Fu*k, what the hell is his background? How did he beat me up like this."

"Ah! Be gentle."

Jake grinned, picked up a bottle of liquor and took a sip.

"Young master, the broken bones have been fixed."

At least four members of the Bell family's 18 generals were helping him to recover his bones. Jake gritted his teeth and put on his clothes.

This guy was also a ruthless person. He pretended to be fine.

Isaac asked for instructions. "Young master, do you want to find out more about this guy?"

"Nonsense!" When Jake returned to the hotel, he exposed his actual nature, he was actually a rough man.

"Even with more than a dozen people, we can't beat one of him! What's the use of investigating?"

He scolded, "Everyone listen to me. If anyone leaks the news today, I'll twist his head off and make him into a chamber pot."

"Don't worry, Young Master. The eighteen generals are all your confidants for many years. We won't leak anything."

answered Isaac.

"And anything about Sherry, shut your mouth."

"Got it!"

This matter was even more important. If the news were to be heard by Sherry's fiancé, he was afraid that something serious would happen.

The eighteen generals were Jake's confidants, so no one would spread this kind of thing.

Jake downed a few more swigs of liquor and stared at them. "Go and find that guy. I want to talk to him."

"Yes, Young Master!"

The two men left and went to look for Noah.

Jake got up from the bed and walked to the window. He held a bottle of liquor in his hand and looked at the scenery outside from a distance.

Isaac reminded him carefully, "Young master, you've injured your bones, so it's better for you not to move."

Jake said domineeringly, "It's just a few ribs, what are you afraid of?"

Isaac retreated.

He was well aware of the temper of the young master. How could an ordinary person persuade him?

In the tall Grand Imperial Hotel, with the presidential suite was at the top of the hotel, standing here, more than half of Celestic Town could be seen.

"I heard that this is the Gray family's territory. When should we visit Lord Gray?"

Jake took another sip of liquor and said through gritted teeth.

He was looking for Noah, and Noah was also looking for him.

He really couldn't let the matter of Sherry go just like that.

Noah was a hot-blooded person. He even helped Zoey, let alone Sherry.

If it weren't for the accident last night, Sherry should have been his woman.

Perhaps the relationship between them was not pure, but Noah could understand the pain in Sherry's heart.

It was painful that she could not control her own fate.

This reminded Noah that she was indeed the first woman in his life.

The obstacles between them was higher than the sky and deeper than the sea.

Even Noah himself did not know when she would be able to overcome these obstacles.

Therefore, he must help Sherry.

Unexpectedly, there was a coincidence that Jake was sending people to look for him everywhere.

When the two young men of the Bell family found Noah, Noah put his hands in his pockets. He was wondering if he should beat them up.

The men said, "Our young master has invited you over!"

Eh?

Why did he invite me over? Noah thought.

To fight?

Even a group of people was no match for me. What else does he want to do? Noah pondered.

But even if Jake didn't look for him, he would look for Jake.

Noah sized up the two young men and followed them to the Grand Imperial Hotel.

At this moment, it was already past four o'clock in the afternoon. Jake looked at his watch. "Why haven't they come yet? What are they doing?"

Just as he was about to swear, someone outside said, "Young master, he's already here."

"Let him in!"

Jake put down the bottle and strode towards the sofa.

He picked up another cigar, lit it, and took a few puffs.

Noah came in and couldn't help laughing when he saw Jake reclining so casually on the sofa.

He was forcing himself to hold on!

Noah had broken several of his bones, but Jake had to accept the punishment with dignity.

Noah sat down and said, "I'm here. If you want to fight, let's do it."

"What are you fighting for? I'm not in the mood today." Jake was also pretending.

He could not mention fighting anymore, his whole body was in pain. How could he fight?

Although ordinary people were no match for Jake, but he had met Noah!

Noah didn't expect that he was such a person, but he had a similar temperament to himself.

So he pointed to the cigar in front of Jake. "Give me a cigar!"

Huh?

The people around him were speechless. Who did he think he was? He even wants a cigar?

Jake gave Isaac a look. Isaac cut the cigar with a cigar knife and handed it to Noah.

Noah held the cigar and said, "Light it up! You don't even know how to be polite."

Isaac picked up the match and gave it to him reluctantly.

Noah gently blew twice before taking the first puff.

He calmly said to Jake, "Go back and tell your grandfather not to make things difficult for your sister. I will protect the Bell family in the future."

Pff—!

It was an incredulous request! The people around Jake almost vomited blood in response.

This guy must be the first one to dare to talk to the young master like this.

But what could they do?

In terms of skills, they were all no match for him.

And their young master was still injured.

Several people glared at Noah angrily, but Noah did not feel embarrassed at all. "Don't look at me like that. I'm serious."

Jake glared at Isaac and the others. "Back off!"

"Young master!"

Isaac and the others were obviously worried.

Jake shouted, "Back off!"

No one dared to disobey his order. They all left the room respectfully.

Jake took a puff of his cigar, looked at Noah with his eyes, and said, "I admit that you are a good opponent. But I tell you, my sister been engaged to marry into the Yeh Family. If the Yeh Family knows that you have touched her, you will die."

"I've checked. Your last name is Howard, but you're not part of the Howard family."

Noah smiled and picked up the cigar to take a puff.

"I don't think you want to talk nonsense with me today. Show me your trump card!"

Jake burst out laughing. "Good! Alright!"

"If we don't fight we won't know each other well. In that case, if you really like my sister, you should go back to Sky Capital with me."

Noah didn't say anything. It was definitely not so simple for him to go to Sky Capital.

Would the Bell family be willing to give their daughter to him just if he goes to Sky Capital?

After saying this, Jake had been paying attention to Noah's expression. "Of course, what I mean is for us to go three months later, you can go to the Bell family to ask for her personally."

"Don't fool me. Who knows what would happen in three months?" Noah exclaimed.

Noah stood up and said, "No!"

"I guess we have to fight again, if not, I want to speak to whoever decides in the Bell family!"

Jake's temper also flared up. He threw away his cigar and stood up suddenly. "Fight if you want to. Do you think I'm afraid of you?"

"Ouch! My waist."

The pain of the bone fracture forced him to sit down again.

Jake tried to look fearsome again. He stared at Noah and said, "Kid, you have guts!"

"But do you know that the more arrogant a person is, the more miserable his death will be. Not only will you kill yourself, but you will also get the entire Emma Corporation into trouble."

Noah stopped smoking and stared at Jake for a long time, then he put the remaining half of the cigar on the table.

He crushed it with force and said word by word, "If that's the case, then I have to root out the whole Bell family!"
