Chapter 3667

"I refuse," Harvey said firmly.

"What did you say?!"

The woman instantly raised her tone after hearing those words.

"What right do you have to refuse?!"

"Let me tell you something! You have no choice but to pay up, no matter what! There are people who'll come for you if you don't!"

The woman was boiling with anger after seeing Harvey disrespect her so blatantly

She then pointed furiously at Amber, Philip, and Albus, all the while coughing up blood.

"And you three!"

"Just admit you're weak already!"

"You think you can just start teaching people because you know a little bit about martial arts?!"

"In reality, You're nothing!"

"You're teaching the students a bunch of useless things. You're being so picky with them too!"

"Who do you think you are?!"

"If I were you, I'd slam my head on the ground and kill myself by now!"

"I'll report you to the Martial Arts Alliance when I'm out of here!"

"This is a scam! I'll make sure that your reputation plummets!"

The three young talents, who didn't have much experience in the outside world, were frozen solid.

It was their first time meeting such an unreasonable and harsh person.

"Come!"

"Get me a few chairs!"

"If we can't get what we want, nobody else will!"

"Remember! If I die here, report this to Young Master Bierstadt. Tell him who did this to me!"

"Tell him to bring his men here to take this place down!"

Naturally, the woman was dead set on causing trouble here.

"I'll get these b*stards to listen no matter what!"

Slap!

Rachel couldn't stand it any longer; she took a step forward and instantly slapped the woman across the face.

"Leave!" she snarled coldly.

"We don't welcome you here!"

"You..."

The woman covered her face while taking a few steps back; she was filled with utter disbelief.

Naturally, she had never been treated like this her entire life.

The people behind her were completely infuriated as well.

It was their first time seeing someone who dared to go against them.

Normally speaking, they would be the ones slapping people around!

"Well then! This is the first time that someone laid their hands on me after decades!"

The woman stood up straight with a cold smile.

"What? Do you think you're impressive just because you know martial arts?"

"You think you're invincible or something?"

Harvey frowned.

"That's enough. I'm asking you this one last time: are you leaving or not?"

"Do you have a death wish or something, you little b*stard?!"

The woman laughed coldly, and covered her face with a twisted expression.

"Let me tell you something, kid! Not only am I staying, I'll make every single one of you grovel in front of me as an apology! You'll pay me 1.5 million dollars, and those three will be sent to my house as instructors for free!"

"Do you think I'm an easy target because I don't go hard on you?!"

"Call Young Master Bierstadt right now!" the woman exclaimed.

The butler behind him chuckled wretchedly before making a phone call.

The woman's posse looked pridefully at Harvey and the others when the butler hung up.

Harvey stared at them calmly with narrowed eyes.

He wanted to see what kind of person was enabling the woman to act this way.

Chapter 3668

Vroom!

Ten minutes later, sounds of engines could be heard from outside. A row of SUVs were parked at the entrance.

A group of strong-looking men in golden robes hopped out of the cars.

They were all carrying swords on their waists and bore fierce expressions.

A rascally-looking young man walked out from the crowd.

He was about five feet seven; he had a head of dyed blonde hair and the flushed complexion of a drunkard.

He had a gloomy yet dignified expression.

The mean woman and the people behind her immediately swarmed the young man with simpering expressions.

"You're finally here, Young Master Bierstadt!"

"Those b*stards completely disrespected you! They didn't even care about Golden Palace!"

"You need to help us!"

"How many times have I told you to mention my name when you get in trouble?"

"Nobody in Flutwell dares to go against me, Koen Bierstadt!" 2

"What?! He's Koen Bierstadt?!"

After hearing the name, the crowd was immediately horrified.

Koen was only an outer disciple of the Golden Palace, but he had a big brother who was an actual disciple of the organization.

Because of that, he was extremely arrogant.

He knew he wouldn't be able to go far with his martial arts. Thus, he had been using the Golden Palace's name to show off and take advantage of others.

That said, the weight of Golden Palace was just too immense; there had been no problems at all when Koen used that name to fool the outsiders.

Everyone thought the mean woman was just faking her status, and that she was just a phony...

A shiver ran down their spines when they saw Koen walk out from the crowd.

One of the instructors, a woman who came from Golden Palace, Layne, had her eyes twitching frantically when she saw Koen.

She didn't run away, though; she quickly walked toward Harvey before saying quietly, "He's a big deal, Sir York. Let me handle this; don't do anything rash."

Before Harvey could even say a word, Layne instantly took a step forward.

"Hello, Young Master Bierstadt."

"Oh? Layne, my dear junior!"

"Why are you talking to me?"

"Do we know each other or something?"

Koen showed an evil gaze when he looked at Layne's slender body and beautiful face. He smiled.

"Not only did you disrespect my cousin here, but you even hit her in the face! What? Do you think you can just talk your way out of this?"

"Do you think I'd just let you trample on my pride like this?!"

"Huh?!"

Koen took a step forward before shattering a ceramic tile with a single stomp.

What a domineering move!

The young talents immediately took a step back after seeing what happened.

It wasn't because they were afraid of Koen; they were instinctively terrified since it was their first time seeing such a horrible person.

Harvey glanced at the three children without saying a word.

This was a lesson for the three; they finally realized that the outside world wasn't as easy as they thought.

Experience is the mother of wisdom, after all.

Layne felt her head go numb. She instinctively tried to mediate the situation.

"This was all a misunderstanding, Young Master Bierstadt."

"Your cousin..."

Chapter 3669

"Enough of this nonsense!"

"Do you think I care about stupid details like right or wrong?"

"Nothing is greater than my reputation!"

Koen was clearly annoyed.

"Since you're from Golden Palace as well, I'll give you a chance."

Koen was already informed of what had happened.

"Number one: give my cousin the money she wants!"

"Number two: get those three little b*stards to work for her for free! What's more, they have to do that for three whole years."

"Number three: make them kneel on the spot!"

"You'll come with me after that! I'll let it slide when all of the conditions are met!"

"If not, then don't blame me for what happens next."

"You're the ones in the wrong! You can't do this!" Layne exclaimed in a trembling voice.

"What? You're going to talk reason with me?!"

Koen instantly lashed out.

"You think I'm scared to go against you people?!"

"Even after I destroy this place and cripple the little b*stards, you'll still have to do everything as I say!"

"Golden Palace is everything here in Flutwell!"

"And I am the king!"

"Even the lord of the Golden Palace isn't as cocky as you," Harvey said calmly before Layne could reply.

"You people are so unreasonable! You come here hitting and humiliating others, and yet you think you're in the right?"

"I don't care who you are! Take your people and go while I'm still in a good mood."

"If not, don't blame me for what happens next."

Layne trembled and looked at Harvey with utter disbelief.

She didn't think that her boss would be this dominant even against the Golden Palace.

The three young talents were looking at Harvey with admiration as well.

In their minds, this was the right thing to do; an eye for an eye.

They had watched too many movies, so they didn't know that relationships matter in the outside world. They were still under the impression that people were still using their fists to talk.

Rachel secretly made a gesture, and the disciples of Longmen's Law Enforcement forced the crowd to go outside; it would be terrible if they got involved in a fight.

"What did you say?!"

"Say it again if you dare! I'll slap you till you die!"

"Do you know what this place is? Do you have a death wish or something? How dare you show off in front of us in a place like this?!"

Koen's followers were boiling with anger when they saw Harvey acting so high and mighty; they all took a step forward and started screaming at Harvey while pointing at his nose, prepared to take action at any moment.

"At least look at who you're going against, outsider!"

Koen stopped his followers from doing anything before showing a faint smile in front of Harvey.

"Do

you

know that I crush outsiders like you every single month here?"

"They all act the part in the beginning..."

"But they still grovel in front of me in the end!"

"Which boot are you going to lick next? My left or my right?"

Koen's words were extremely domineering!

Layne's eyes twitched frantically after hearing those words. The three young talents had gone pale as well.

The people in traditional clothing glared disdainfully at Harvey.

'There'll be dire consequences for getting Young Master Bierstadt mad!'

'Surely he'll die a horrible death for disrespecting us like that!'

Chapter 3670

"I'm not the same as you."

Harvey looked calmly at Koen.

"I stomp on countless young masters with malicious intent all the damn time. This is getting really annoying for me."

"That said, I wouldn't mind dealing with another if you have a death wish."

"Golden Palace can't help you here."

Harvey pointed at the mean woman, his face cold.

"Besides, I changed my mind."

"I want that woman to grovel in front of my friends as an apology. I want her to beg for their mercy."

"If she doesn't do that, I'll cripple her myself. You have my word!"

"Even God can't get her out of this!"

"Oh?"

Koen chuckled, filled with unbridled rage.

"You've got guts, young man!"

"You're saying that you'll go against me?!"

"I understand having a little bit of ego because of your accomplishments..."

"But there aren't a lot of people as cocky as you!"

"I can turn you into a damn porcupine if I want to! Don't believe me?!"

Koen waved his hand, and the people behind him fiercely pointed their crossbows at Harvey.

The crossbows were specially made from Golden Palace, designed to break through the defenses of martial arts experts.

Layne's eyes twitched frantically at this. She hurriedly took a step forward.

"Young Master Bierstadt, we can talk this out. There's no need to pull out your weapons."

"Layne..."

Koen flashed her a faint smile.

"You really think you have the right to even speak in front of me? You think you're actually a top talent just because you're being pursued by a few outer disciples?"

"Let me tell you something! I wouldn't mind going hard on you if you keep yapping!"

"For the sake of us being in the same organization, I'll let you off this time!"

"Get out of the way, or I'll deal with you too!"

"Young Master Bierstadt, Sir York doesn't want to go against you..." Layne said quickly.

"Heh! You really think you're something, don't you?"

Koen's face darkened in an instant.

"Move!"

He instantly swung his palm forward.

A perverted craze could be felt in his attack. After all, Layne was akin to a goddess many tried to pursue during her time in Golden Palace.

How refreshing would it feel to humiliate someone like her?

Slap!

That said, the slap didn't land on Layne's face; Harvey calmly reached out and blocked Koen's attack.

The expressions on Koen's followers changed upon seeing what had happened.

They all took a step forward and hurriedly aimed their crossbows right at Harvey's head. Naturally, they were already quite annoyed with Harvey's high and mighty attitude.

Slap!

Harvey casually swung the back of his palm forward.

The three followers were instantly sent flying; the crossbows in their hands all slipped out of their hands as they slammed to the ground. They had no strength to even climb back up.

After wiping his fingers with some tissues, Harvey looked calmly at Koen.

"Young Master Bierstadt, right?"

"Layne's now an instructor of the Martial Hall. It's only natural that I protect her."

"You're hitting one of my instructors in front of my face? Do you have a death wish or something?"

Layne froze; she wanted to say something, but she remained silent in the end.

This wasn't something she could handle with her identity alone. 5

Chapter 3671

"Interesting. Really interesting..."

Koen clapped, his face cold.

"Not bad. Not bad at all."

"It's my first time seeing someone insulting me and slapping my men away in Flutwell!"

"Impressive!"

"Enough yapping. Are you making her kneel or not?" Harvey said, not wasting a single second.

"Or would you rather me teach her how to do things instead?"

"What the f*ck?! I can't believe you're cockier than I am!"

Koen was cackling out of pure rage; his expression was completely twisted as he laughed out loud.

"Let me tell you something, kid! My people will not apologize!"

"On the contrary, you'll have to kneel in front of her house for three whole days!"

"If not, I'll make sure to come for you sooner or later!"

"You have no chance no matter how strong your support is!"

"I'm giving you thirty seconds to think about it. Kneel and crawl out of the entrance, then keep kneeling there!"

"If you don't, I'll break every single limb you have!"

"And if you resist, I'll kill you on the spot!"

The followers around Koen took a step forward and raised their crossbows at Harvey once more.

What a fierce sight!

The mean woman covered her face, completely ignoring the blood seeping out of her mouth while glaring coldly at Harvey.

'How dare this b*stard not respect me?! This is what he gets!"

The crowd was sighing when they saw what happened.

'Sir York's just too reckless..."

'Does he not know how powerful Golden Palace is?'

'That's a sacred martial arts training ground! Even Longmen wouldn't dare go against them!"

Harvey chuckled when he saw crossbows surrounding him completely.

"Are you

dead set on taking advantage of us, Young Master Bierstadt?"

"Are you coming at us with numbers now?'

"Taking advantage of you?"

Koen laughed without any restraint; a high and mighty attitude could be seen clearly on him.

"That's right! That's exactly what I'm doing!"

"What? You think I can't?!"

"I can deal with as many useless filths like you as I want!"

"How dare a bunch of nobodies go against me in this day and age! Do you have a death wish?!"

"Who do you think you are?!"

"Someone from Longmen or the Bauer family?!"

Harvey nodded.

"Since you want to play, I'll play with you."

Harvey completely ignored the crossbows around him and glanced at Amber and the others.

"Amber, call the head of the Dark Hall for me."

"Philip, call the head of the Longmen Warband."

"Albus, this'll be a little troublesome for you, but call the heads of all Five Outer Halls for me."

"Tell them that you came all this way to fight for your country..."

"Koen Bierstadt, right?"

"Tell them that he brought a group of disciples of Golden Palace to get in your way."

"Tell them that they demand you to kneel when they're the ones taking advantage of people!"

"Since Golden Palace wants a fight, there's no way Longmen will back down!"

"Tell the heads that we won't stop until we deal with the situation!"

Koen froze after hearing Harvey's words.

He instinctively looked at the young talents, and his eyes twitched.

"You're from Longmen?"

Chapter 3672

"They're the young talents who are challenging the Indians on behalf of Longmen?" Koen said with a parched mouth as if he realized something.

"What? They're going against the Indians?"

"These young masters are here on a mission?"

"Someone from Golden Palace is forcing these people to be private instructors for their own gain?"

The crowd started to show more doubt.

The disciples of Golden Palace felt extremely sluggish as they gripped their crossbows.

As the only sacred martial arts training ground in Flutwell, Golden Palace naturally knew that their Indians brought their own top talents to challenge Longmen.

They knew Longmen had three top talents out to fight back as well.

These were the children who were constantly pampered by the people around them!

They were tasked to fight the Indians on behalf of Longmen!

This was war!

If anyone dared to touch these children before that, not just the outer disciples of Golden Palace, even the lord would have to pay!

Koen trembled before he exclaimed instinctively, "Y-You're the champion Longmen's Flutwell branch has been supporting?!"

"So you do know something after all," Harvey replied.

Cold sweat drenched Koen's back after hearing those words.

He showed a deathly glare at Harvey, but his eyes were constantly twitching; he wouldn't dare lash out at all.

He knew what the four people in front of him represented at this crucial moment.

Simply put, the four were Longmen's precious treasures to fight the Indians.

Whoever went against them would die extremely horrible deaths.

The mean woman had turned completely sluggish as well.

She didn't expect that the people she provoked had such a powerful background.

Since she would only bully the weak, she wouldn't have acted so arrogantly in front of Harvey and the others if she knew.

"What? Aren't you coming for me?"

Harvey calmly walked forward and tapped Koen's face.

"Before, I didn't want to participate in the Longmen Summit...

"But people kept pestering me about it."

"They said that if I win the tournament, I'll become the next successor of Longmen-the next master."

"I'll be served by countless people."

"Last night, the higher-ups of Longmen convinced me to fight the Indians before telling me that I'd become the successor, no matter the outcome."

"I'm a discreet guy myself."

"But if you're going to play dirty..."

"I wouldn't mind bringing these out either."

"We can see just how impressive an outer disciple is right now!"

"Do you think you can handle the next successor of Longmen?"

"Of course, you may think that I'm just bluffing right now."

"Or maybe Longmen doesn't even matter to you in the first place."

"Maybe you don't need to pay Longmen any respect."

"But do you dare?"

Harvey's calm tone was filled with unspeakable dignity; Koen and the others felt extremely parched as soon as they heard those words.

Chapter 3673

Koen's eyes and mouth couldn't stop twitching.

He didn't know what to say in front of Harvey.

He'd be challenging Longmen's authority if he said that he didn't respect the organization in the first place; this was not something a mere outer disciple of Golden Palace could do.

That said, he would be disrespecting himself if he acknowledged Longmen and the identities of the people in front of him.

Thus, Koen wouldn't dare say a single word; he could only look down in silence, his face awful.

Many times, silence was also a form of agreement.

Koen's reaction shocked the entire crowd.

They didn't expect Harvey to completely dominate Koen by just showing his identity.

The other disciples of Golden Palace looked at each other with awkward glances; they were completely forced into a corner.

"Looks like Longmen still has some uses after all."

After seeing Koen remain silent, Harvey chuckled before looking back at the three young talents, who were in complete shock.

"Did you learn anything after what happened today?"

"Let me teach you your first lesson."

"Always treat people how you want them to treat you. The same applies the other way around."

"If someone tries to use their status, background, or strength to trample on us..."

"All we need to do is to fight back with the same thing."

"You got it?"

Amber had a surprised look in her eyes; she was utterly confused when she looked at Harvey's stalwart figure.

In her eyes, heroes were always trustworthy and strong people...

But Harvey's image was completely different from that.

That said, she felt that Harvey was right.

There were always some people who couldn't be respected.

Fighting back would always be necessary.

Albus and Philip, on the other hand, were looking at Harvey with admiration.

They thought that Harvey was just so cool, instantly silencing Koen with just a few words.

Koen had a horrible look on his face when he saw Harvey trample all over him while giving the three young talents a lesson.

If he were to give up there, he would turn into Flutwell's biggest joke from this day forth!

Koen moved the corner of his mouth before he exclaimed, "Don't you dare cross the line, Harvey!"

"You're neither the successor of Longmen nor are you the young master!"

"I'm giving my respect to Longmen! Not you!"

"You better get it straight!"

"Is that so?"

Harvey casually tapped Koen's face.

"Enough yapping already."

"Let me ask you something. With my status and identity right now..."

"Do you think I can go against you or not?"

"I'll tell my brother to report this to Longmen, Harvey! Your immoral attitude will cost you your right to fight for the country!" Koen exclaimed coldly.

"Is your brother that impressive?"

Harvey chuckled.

"Since you brought up your support, then that means my status has some use right now, right?"

Harvey swung the back of his palm across one of Koen's followers, slapping the latter.

"You b*stard! Do you think we're easy targets?!"

Another follower was infuriated, and immediately pointed his crossbow at Harvey's head.

Chapter 3674

"Oh?"

"You're threatening me?"

"Pull the trigger if you dare!"

"If I even blink, I'll lick your damn boots!" Harvey exclaimed.

The follower's eyes twitched frantically, and cold sweat dripped down his back.

He never imagined Harvey would be this headstrong.

He knew exactly what he would get himself into if he did pull the trigger.

Not only would he be cursed by the people, but Longmen and Golden Palace would most likely go to war because of this as well.

No matter how angry he was, he couldn't afford to pull the trigger.

"What? You can't?!"

"What a wuss!"

Harvey slapped the disciple away.

He stepped forward calmly before going at the rest of the followers.

Sounds of slapping could be heard all over the place.

In just a single moment, the arrogant and domineering disciples of Golden Palace were all slapped to the ground; they wouldn't even dare say a single word as they covered their faces.

If this was any other day, they wouldn't be afraid of Harvey's identity...

However, Harvey was the country's treasure before his battle against the Indians.

Whoever laid a single finger on him would die extremely horrible deaths!

Rachel laughed coldly before waving her hand; the disciples of Longmen's Law Enforcement instantly grabbed the crossbows off of the followers' hands.

Koen's expression worsened after seeing Harvey with reinforcements.

if he still had doubts before, now he could basically confirm Harvey's identity.

This b*stard wouldn't be protected by Longmen's Law Enforcement if Longmen didn't care about hir

After being completely humiliated and seeing Golden Palace suffer such losses, Koen glared at Harvey with a gloomy look

"Do you understand what you're doing right now?"

"You'll regret going against Golden Palace!"

"What goes around comes around, Harvey!"

"I have all the time in the world to take revenge!"

It was his first time facing such humiliation.

He wanted to crush Harvey badly...

However, he managed to hold his feelings back.

He knew that if he lashed out, he would be the one to suffer.

Slap!

Harvey turned around and slapped Koen to the ground before he even finished talking.¹

"What?"

"What goes around comes around?"

"Do you really think you can turn the tables?"

"Who do you think you are?"

"Do you even have the right?"

Harvey took a step forward before stepping on Koen's left arm, snapping it in half.

"Come! Why don't you talk back to me again?"

The crowd was dead silent.

Everyone was completely shocked; they couldn't even utter a single word.

Nobody would believe that Harvey dared to trample on Koen if they didn't see what happened in front of them.

Yet, Harvey snapped Koen's arm without hesitation.

This alone was enough to shock the crowd.

The people who came to cause trouble kept trembling uncontrollably; their faces had completely lost all color.

Surely they'd end up horribly if their support was crushed this way!

"What? You can't speak anymore?"

Harvey looked calmly at Koen, who was sweating profusely as he kneeled on the ground while holding his snapped arm.

Harvey then glanced at the mean woman and said coldly, "Are you people going to kneel yourselves? Or do you want me to help instead?"

Chapter 3675

Bam, bam, bam!

Before Harvey could say anything else, the arrogant people immediately slammed their knees to the ground.

Amber and the others straightened their backs at the sight; they felt extremely refreshed.

"B*stard! That goddamn b*stard!"

After a long while, the people who had been kneeling till their legs were giving out crawled back into their cars.

The mean woman sat in front of Koen with a twisted expression.

"We can't just let this go his way, Young Master Bierstadt!"

"Our reputation will be completely tarnished!"

"If we don't do anything to stop Harvey from becoming the master of Longmen, we won't have another chance to take revenge!"

Clearly, these people weren't grateful for Harvey's mercy; they didn't even care to reflect on themselves the slightest.

As soon as they left, they were already thinking about revenge.

Koen took a deep breath and spoke up after a long while.

"Don't worry. I won't let it end like this!"

"He thinks he can become the new master of Longmen with this battle? What wishful thinking!"

"I won't let him go his way!"

"If he does take the throne, he'll trample all over me whenever he wants!"

"Driver! We're going to the Bharata Business Council!"

After Layne and the others explained the situation, the crowd finally left the Martial Hall.

The three young talents came with Harvey to the backyard soon after, looking confused.

It was as if they were looking at a monster.

"Do you think that as the champion of the provincial qualifiers, I should be crushing them with my strength instead of talking nonsense with them?"

"I even used Longmen's reputation to do just that."

"I'm not the hero that you expect because of the fact that I take advantage of people like that, right?"

The three looked at each other. Amber flashed him a quirky smile.

"We know about the Golden Palace, sir. We know it's quite impressive."

"From a certain standpoint, us from Longmen are no match against them!"

"You taking advantage of Longmen's reputation means that you can't beat Koen, right?"

"After all, people from the underworld would use their fists to talk. They have no time to spout nonsense like you!"

"In the movies, men like you are pretty weak!"

"If you're not strong enough, you can take this pill here. You'll be extremely strong after you do!"

Amber pulled out a small blue pill with a bitter look.

Harvey's face darkened in an instant.

Albus froze before he asked, "Have you not learned the Iron Step yet, sir?"

"If you master that technique, you can knock anyone down with a single punch!"

"Why don't I tell you about my experiences of learning the move?"

"Thank you for helping us this time, sir. I have nothing to teach you right now."

"However, I can give you the armor my senior gave me. It'll keep you safe..."

Philip pulled out a small piece of armor.

Harvey almost coughed out blood at the sight.

Chapter 3676

"Who told you that I couldn't fight?!"

"I don't need to consume anything just to become stronger!"

Harvey York was utterly at a loss for words as he rubbed his temples.

"First of all, I didn't fight because there were too many people around me!"

"If enemies were hiding amongst the crowd, Longmen and the Golden Palace would actually be at war when they decide to provoke us!"

"Second of all, I'm trying to make you understand something!"

"It's not all about fighting! Relationships matter too!

"Before people start fighting in the movies, why do you think the main character would always ask for someone's name first?

"It's simple. They want to know if they can actually afford to go against their opponents!

"If the opponent has an immense background and support, it wouldn't matter if the main characters can win!

"Think about this. Main characters would always come from well-known organizations! They're all respected by everyone!

"We can't always use our fists to talk for us, right?

"That'd be exhausting!"

The three looked as if they had realized something, but they were still in disbelief when they looked at Harvey in the face.

Obviously, they still thought that Harvey was powerless.

'It's best that we don't expose him since he talked so much already...'

Harvey could clearly read what was on the minds of the three brats. That said, he could not be bothered to explain the situation any longer. He wanted to send the young talents out of the place as soon as possible.

While Harvey was brainwashing the three young talents.

Inside Freddy Garcia's manor in Flutwell, a dozen Indians gathered together to watch a video on the computer.

Amber Levine and the others were shown in the footage giving lessons to other students.

The Indians showed serious expressions on their faces when they kept jotting down notes.

Even Koen Bierstadt's embarrassing moment was clearly documented.

Naturally, they were gathering and digesting every single piece of information they could.

After half an hour, a few elderly people in cassocks walked out.

Their hairs were extremely well-kempt. An unspeakable aura could be felt exuding from them at that moment.

The leading elderly person showed a cold glare before shifting his gaze toward the dozen Indians in front of him.

"Everyone! The three we saw in the footage are none other than the top talents from Longmen's Eight Inner and Outer Halls!

"They will be our most formidable opponents yet!

"Amber Levine, Philip Steele, and Albus Robbins!

"Those three aren't just a little stronger compared to everyone else we fought before!

"According to our information, they're the greatest trump cards brought up by Longmen!

"If we win, we'll be able to crush Longmen!

"Country H will be under our feet!

"India will stand on top of this world!"

After encouraging the young fighters, the elderly person kept talking.

"All of you watched the footage today. Tell me, how confident are you in winning against those three?"

The elderly person was none other than Axel Garcia himself!

Chapter 3677

Axel Garcia was showing a deathly glare and a terrifying sense of dignity.

The Indians who were there instinctively lowered their heads. They would not even dare to lock eyes with him.

"Are none of you going to answer me?"

"Or are you saying that you're not confident at all?"

"This wasn't the case when you challenged those provincial champions," said Axel in a deep and dry tone.

"You said that Country H has nobody to compete against us, and India could crush their younger generation without our top talents doing anything."

"What? You're giving up now?"

The Indians all looked at each other before they stood up with their heads hanging low.

"We're just too weak, Master!"

Axel scoffed coldly.

"I don't need you people to tell me that.

"Did you not hear what I asked?"

"How confident are you in taking out the three young talents?!"

"Not at all!" replied a man with a gloomy look.

"But since this is war, we'll fight with everything we've got, even if we're no match against them! We'll do everything to protect our country's dignity!"

"We'll fight! We'll fight!" screamed the others in unison.

It was a little clamorous, but at least the spirit was there.

"Good! Very good! There's a saying, 'Bravery comes after shame!'

Axel lightly nodded.

"It's good that you know you're no match against the three young talents.

"After all, you can only win battles if you know yourselves and your enemies!

"If you can't even do something that simple, then you have no right to fight at all!"

The Indians were gradually gaining confidence after hearing Axel's comforting words...

But before they continued speaking, a distant voice echoed.

"I already told you, Master Garcia!

"These people aren't enough to bring us glory.

"Amber and the others are young talents of Longmen. The Eight Inner and Outer Halls used their blood, sweat, and tears to bring them out.

"They're considered the best even among Country H's younger generation.

"So what if useless filths like them have self-awareness? So what if they know their enemies well?

"They just can't win!

"Not only are Amber and the others gifted children, the people of Longmen fully trained them! They can learn whatever they want!

"At this point, those three have the knowledge to form their own style of martial arts!

"These people won't be able to go against them if all they have are books to learn from!

"But don't you worry!

"With me, Ryland Burlowe, and Zoe Garcia..."

"Us mighty Indians will surely destroy the lowly people of Country H in no time!

"To make this end quicker, I think we should just skip the arrangements!

"Let us fight Amber and the others immediately!

"We'll just cut them all down!"

Soon after, a man with traditional Indian clothing came along with another man and a woman.

These three were the three top talents of India's younger generation.

All of them came from families of Kshatriyas. Not only did they hold immense statuses, but they were also extremely skillful fighters!

Chapter 3678

After hearing Danny Burton's words, Ryland Burlowe spoke up beside him.

"Master Garcia, judging from the footage, Amber Levine and the others seem to be really knowledgeable at this point! They must be on par with a King of Arms as well...

"And not just a beginner King of Arms either. They're probably just one step away from becoming Gods of War.

"The people here are exceptional. They're in an entirely different league compared to the others of the same age, but they're only Kings of Arms at best!

"They have no chance of winning against Amber and the others!

"Even if the three young talents have no experience in the outside world, their skills alone are definitely enough to make up for that!

"The people here will surely lose if they go up against those three!"

Zoe Garcia showed a faint smile.

"Master Garcia, why force these people to embarrass themselves when they're apparently out- skilled?" said Zoe with an apathetic tone.

"What we need to show the world right now is our strength and dominance!

"We don't need to show them our disgrace!

"That thing is useless to us!"

Axel Garcia frowned while glaring at India's three top talents.

"I know you're strong. I also believe in your skills. After all, you were all brought up by the top ten experts in our country!

"That said, it's undesirable for you three to fight right now!

"This is war, after all. We need to be careful about this!

"If you lose, we'll have nothing else to rely on!

"The best move is to dispatch these people to go against Amber and the others first!

"Number one: we'll be able to gauge their strength.

"Number two: we can also drain their stamina this way.

"Number three: we'll make them underestimate us!

"That way, you'll be able to catch them off guard. You'll hit them the hardest after resting up! Let them know how strong we Indians are!

"After all, this is war. We can't afford to lose this fight!

"Being cautious is our best bet!"

"You're humiliating us and our martial arts for doing this, Master Garcia!" exclaimed Danny Burton with a cold tone.

"Is it really that important?"

Axel waved his hand and immediately cut off Danny.

"You should know that this fight isn't just about reclaiming our pride from what happened in Flutwell before. We have no choice but to win so we can bring glory to our country!"

"Our future in the far east is also involved in this fight!"

"This change will affect everything!"

"As long as we can secure the win, initial intentions don't matter! Pride and dignity aren't necessary either!"

"Only the outcome of the fight will decide everything! Nothing else!"

"If we don't take down Longmen, if we don't trample on Country H, how are we supposed to report back to the king of India?"

Danny and the others finally showed serious expressions on their faces after hearing that title.

The three looked at each other before Danny said, "I don't understand what you're saying, nor do I care enough to understand!"

"From what we learned, the purity of martial arts means everything! Knowing more will probably affect our skills anyway!"

"Of course, we'll follow your orders! Just tell us how to fight! It doesn't matter if it's fair or not!" 1

Chapter 3679

"That said, you mentioned this to us when we were summoned!"

"You told us that we came to take revenge for Cody Garcia!"

"Not only are we trying to reclaim our fame, but we're also going to crush the b*stard who tarnished our reputation and humiliated us!

"We'll force him to bear the shame for the rest of history!

"But you haven't even mentioned him once!

"Isn't he going to join the next fight?"

"I heard that he was calling us to the peak of Flutwell a week later. He claimed he was going to beat us all by himself, didn't he?"

Ryland Burlowe and Zoe Garcia were showing serious expressions on their faces after hearing about Harvey York.

After all, that was the man who managed to defeat one of the Three Demon Monks.

Even though people were spreading rumors, saying that Harvey won with underhanded tactics...

Those three top talents knew that a win was still a win. This alone was enough to prove Harvey's skill.

Compared to Amber Levine and the others, they were more cautious toward Harvey at that moment.

It was a shame that Axel Garcia never mentioned that name once.

"Harvey? He wants to fight us?"

A disdainful look was written all over Axel's face.

"What an arrogant man! He's a little too cocky!"

"We're not his only enemies, after all! He also has many people going against him in Flutwell!"

"Compared to us, there are a lot more who don't want him to win. There are many more who don't want him to ascend the throne!

"That was why I arranged something just for him!

"Even if he shows up for the fight, there'll be nothing that he can do!

"He'll admit defeat himself! I guarantee it!

After looking at Axel's confident look, Danny Burton and the others looked at each other, wondering where he got his courage from.

Judging from the look on Axel's face, he was probably telling the truth.

After all, this was war.

"Just treat Harvey as a lost cause. Just pretend he's already dead. There's no need to think about him.

Axel spared everyone the details and continued his speech.

"I'm worried about another thing. How can we guarantee that we'll secure a win against Amber and the others?"

Danny and the others looked at each other before they started analyzing the situation.

Time passed bit by bit. Before the trio came up with a suitable plan, an Indian guard jogged over before he spoke respectfully, "There are a few people from Country H who want to see you, Master Garcia!

"The person in front said they're from the Golden Palace!

"He said that there's something important he wanted to talk to you about!

"He wants you to give him a chance!

The guard then pointed at Koen Bierstadt on the screen.

"That's him."

Axel had no interest in the group of people whatsoever, but he suddenly let out a chuckle when he saw Koen, who had previously been slapped around by Harvey.

"Interesting!"

"How interesting!"

"I was wondering how I could deal with Amber and the others!"

"Surely this man has an idea!"

"Hurry and get them inside!"

"No! No! They're our important guests!"

"I have to welcome them myself!"

"With them, Longmen will fail! Country H will crumble!"

Danny and the others were slightly confused after seeing Axel happily walking outside.

Their pride would never allow them to scheme, but as Axel said, this was war.

Nothing mattered other than the outcome of the battle.

Chapter 3680

A couple of days had swiftly gone by.

Not only was Mandy Zimmer discharged from the hospital, but she was also back to work.

Harvey York wanted to visit, but Lilian Yates was completely infuriated after recovering from her injuries.

Harvey decided not to go after thinking that Lilian would definitely affect his mood.

After telling Kayden Balmer to take care of the Hearthstone Corporation's business, Harvey quietly waited inside the Martial Hall for his time to fight the Indians.

While this was happening, Amber Levine, Philip Steele, and Albus Robbins had been asking him all sorts of questions.

In their eyes, Harvey was just a rookie. They really believed they had no choice but to deal with the experts all on their own.

Harvey did not say a word to clarify the misunderstanding.

It would be good if the three young ones could deal with the Indians.

After all, there would only be new talents if the younger generation surpassed the older ones.

All of Flutwell was dead silent. It was as if everyone was quietly waiting for the fight to commence. Not a single incident happened for the next few days.

The following week, Rachel Hardy already brought over some ham and two eggs to Harvey as soon as he opened his eyes.

"Sir York, according to my family traditions, you'll be sure to get through everything if you have a nice breakfast!" said Rachel quietly.

Naturally, she was quite worried about the fight.

Harvey burst out in laughter. After finishing his breakfast, he lightly patted Rachel's shoulder and said, "Don't worry! It's just a few Indians I have to beat up. Maybe I don't even need to do anything!" Harvey called a cab and took Amber and the others to the Flutwell Gymnasium.

There were three floors. The top floor was the highest point in the entire city. That was why the floor was dubbed as Flutwell's Peak!

This was the place where Harvey chose to fight the Indians.

Because everyone was anticipating the fight, the entire place was filled with people at the moment.

Most of them were also Longmen's elites.

At the same time, people from Flutwell's Martial Arts Alliance were here too.

Other than them, representatives from the Far East, South Sea, and Europe Martial Arts Alliance also came to witness the fight.

The four alliances, along with Bryce Kennedy and Axel Garcia, were the juries of the very fight.

Countless infrared cameras and drones were circling in the air to ensure it would be a fair fight... At least on the surface.

Harvey saw Damian Steele, Fisher Benett, and the others greeting him from afar the moment he entered the place.

Even familiar faces from Longmen, like Justin Walker from Longmen's Mordu branch and Morgan Johnson from Hong Kong and Las Vegas' branch, had just arrived.

If Harvey did not stop them in advance, they would have greeted him as the head of Longmen's Law Enforcement by then..

Kait Walker, Irene Johnson, and the other women did not come forward, though.

All of them knew the importance of the fight. After greeting Harvey from afar, they all sat in their respective seats.

Chapter 3681

"Master York? I heard a lot of great things about you."

Right as Harvey York was walking to the east resting area where Country H's fighters were, he bumped into Axel Garcia, Danny Burton, and the others.

Axel showed a warm smile before he passionately reached his hand out.

"I heard your name so many times in India that my ears are about to burst at this point!"

"But truthfully speaking, this is still our first time meeting each other!"

"You're just like the rumors say you are. Not only are you a young and talented man, but you're also the pillar of your entire country and Longmen's pride!"

"Though there's a saying that I'm sure you know of, 'The bigger you are, the harder you fall!"

"Your reputation precedes you, but just like the well-known generals from ancient times, you probably won't be able to live long enough!"

"Ah! I shouldn't have said that in front of you..."

Axel showed a fake smile.

Danny and the others sized up Harvey. They read quite a lot of documents about the man before them, but they could not help but feel underwhelmed.

If they were unsure that Harvey was the one who ended Cody Garcia's life, they would have thought of him as an ordinary man.

"It's fine. No need to be so polite.

"A filthy mouth wouldn't be able to speak nicely anyway.

Harvey showed a faint smile.

"Honestly, I wanted to see you earlier!"

"Had we met a few days earlier, all this wouldn't have happened!"

"Am I right?"

"Though, none of that really matters. Some people think they can afford to dance on stage after thinking they're a little good.

"They wouldn't realize they're the clown if a big show wasn't prepared for them."

Harvey's words had a different meaning. If Axel had dared show off in front of him a few days ago, Harvey would have slapped him to death already.

"Ahahaha! I know that you're pretty strong! I also know how terrifying Amber Levine and the others are..."

"But I didn't know you have such a sharp tongue as well!

Axel showed a playful smile.

"There's a saying, 'Barking dogs don't bite!'

"I can't help but be excited to see your strength after hearing you bark this loud! "I do hope you won't disappoint us!"

"Yeah! What's the point of being so cocky?" said Zoe Garcia with an arrogant look.

"Don't forget. We already took down thirty-five of your so-called provincial champions.

"Top talents in your country are just too weak compared to us!"

Zoe seemed like she was in her twenties. She had an exotic look with an oval face and a small mouth. Her enchanting aura was exuding from her beautiful body.

She was wearing traditional clothing from India, revealing her slender waist with a diamond stuck on it. The men were already panting heavily after seeing her just standing there.

"Zoe Garcia?"

"The Maiden of India?"

Not only did Harvey not get angry, he even reached out for Zoe's hands with a smile.

"I've heard so much about you. Not only are you called the flower of India, but your skills are also quite impressive!

"It's a great honor meeting you here!"

Chapter 3682

"Maiden Garcia, to be honest, compared to so many top talents from India, I look up to you the most!

Harvey York did not even try to hide his admiration toward Zoe Garcia at that moment.

"Not only did the legends say that you're the most beautiful woman from India, but you're also the strongest!

"What an honor to finally meet you!

"I have dozens of chain Budokans under my name...

"Would you be interested in being one of the instructors?

"Don't worry! You can be a nominal instructor if you want!

"And if you do join, I'll also hand you thirty percent of the Budokans' shares! I'll pay you fifteen million dollars as your annual salary as well!

"I can even guarantee that the Indians won't be able to cause you any trouble for this!

"If you give me the sign, we can share all this happiness together!

"You can earn at least a hundred and fifty million a year with me! You can even have billions of dollars when the Budokans get listed on the market!"

Harvey showed a sincere look, as if he was really trying to get Zoe to his side.

Danny Burton and Ryland Burlowe instinctively looked at Zoe after hearing those words.

They were showing horrible looks when they saw her hands were still holding Harvey's.

After all, the top talents must have been quite envious of her being the most beautiful woman from India.

Their hearts were probably aching when they saw Harvey holding Zoe's hands at that time.

Zoe's eyes frantically twitched when she pulled back her hands with a faint smile.

"You're too kind, Master York. You flatter me!

"I can only do this much. I don't think I can even compete with the Martial Hall!"

Even then, Zoe was showing a weird expression when she stared at Harvey.

In Zoe's mind, Harvey was not as handsome as a celebrity, but an unspeakable aura could be felt manifesting around his reckless and dominant attitude.

Even though they're from opposite sides, Zoe could not help but feel impressed. It would be extremely rare for anyone to find someone as talented as Harvey.

"You're too kind, Maiden Garcia!

"Do you know? Excessive modesty turns into hypocrisy!

Harvey seemed as if he did not realize Zoe's awkwardness and continued caressing her hands.

"I'll be honest with you. No matter how great the sacred martial arts training grounds from India is, no matter how impressive the royal family of India is, I don't really care!

"I wouldn't even bat an eye if Brahmins actually show up here!

"But you're different!

"Not only are you the one I admire the most, but you're also the most terrifying to me!

"I wouldn't want to go against you if I had the choice!

"Is my sincerity not enough for you?"

"That's fine! I can take out forty-nine percent of the shares as long as you're willing to join the Martial Hall!

"We're on different sides right now, but I must admit...

"Other than you, the rest of your people are nothing!

Harvey showed admiration when he spoke about Zoe.

When they heard Harvey's words, Danny and the others showed horrible expressions on their faces.

"Thank you, but I have to decline!"

Zoe's face instantly darkened before she forcefully pulled her hands away and ran off to the western resting area. 1
