

Chapter 3706

Swoosh, swoosh, swoosh!

In just a single moment, a string of golden knives flew out in fierce succession.

A quick and ruthless attack!

Many disciples of Golden Palace fell, screaming in pain as they tumbled down, rolling on the ground while covering their wrists.

Harvey was impressed. It seemed like Layne had recovered quite a bit.

If that wasn't the case, she wouldn't be able to make such a spectacle.

“What?!”

The remaining disciples of Golden Palace were shocked.

They all knew who Layne was, but they never imagined that she was actually this terrifying!

Layne pulled out a long, thin golden sword.

She took a step forward and then jumped right past the disciples at lightning speed; the disciples all stumbled back and immediately held their wrists.

In just a single move, all of them succumbed to defeat!

The disciples all came from the same sacred martial arts training ground, but Layne was simply way out of their league!

She threw her sword away right after.

A disciple, who was about to pull out a firearm, got nailed to the ground in an instant.

Everything happened in only thirty seconds.

Layne then approached Harvey once again.

“How is this possible?”

The crowd was in an uproar; they finally remembered that Layne was the Martial Hall’s top instructor.

It was only natural for her to be capable of fighting.

They then glad at the disciples wailing in pain on the ground.

They didn't expect Koen's elites to fall in a blink of an eye.

Safe to say, Layne was simply too horrifying to go against.

Everyone gasped when they looked Layne in the eyes.

They wondered why such an expert of Golden Palace would protect someone like Harvey.

Why protect an outsider just to show off in a place like this?

City

Suddenly, they understood where Harvey's courage came from.

It seemed Layne was the source after all.

Koen and Emily's eyes twitched frantically. Their faces were grim.

Before, Koen suffered because Harvey had Longmen's support.

At present, he was suffering the same fate because of the strength of Harvey's subordinates.

"That damn traitor!"

"I'll report her to Longmen's Law Enforcement soon! I'll make sure she gets ripped to shreds!" Emily exclaimed in a fit of rage.

Not only was she jealous of Layne's skills, but she was also envious of Layne's beauty.

She was certain she would only be satisfied if Layne's face was torn to pieces.

While Koen and Emily were glaring furiously at the sight in front of them, Harvey calmly walked closer to the hall.

The pitch-black coffin was making everyone's eyes twitch.

"You took down dozens of Golden Palace's disciples!"

"Do you really think you're invincible, Layne?!"

"How dare you bring all these people here!"

"Do you have a death wish?!"

Koen came to his senses, and a horrible look settled on his face.

"Get them, Smoke!"

"What? Smoke? That's the servant of Bierstadt's eldest young master, right?"

"It's said his master was the one who arranged the servant by his side."

"Not only is he an experienced fighter, but he's terribly strong as well!"

"Why isn't he with Eldest Young Master Bierstadt? Why is he here now?"

"Right! He must've told Smoke to protect Young Master Bierstadt!"

The young m er that everyone was speaking about was none other than the disciple of Golden Palace, Adrian Bierstadt!
