

"I-I didn't see it!" Lin Chuchu wailed and burst into tears, no longer able to hold their flow from her eyes.

"You didn't see it?! You made a report against Mr. Tang Yin without seeing it?!" Pei Ruo turned around and icily reproached Lin Chuchu. "What you did was defamation, do you know that? I can bring you to court at any time to ensure that you apologize to Mr. Tang Yin. As a student, you slandered and attempted to frame another individual; do you think that you have the right to remain a student at this school?!"

"I...Chen Wei is the one who told me. His roommate—Chen Wei—is the one who told me!" Lin Chuchu hastily disclosed before spinning around to turn toward Zhang Ting. "Chen Wei told me everything!"

Zhang Ting gritted his teeth and glowered at Lin Chuchu before hollering, "If you didn't see it, why did you come to make the report?!"

Shocked silly, Lin Chuchu's strength drained from her and she slumped onto the ground where she burst into tears again. "I—I was instigated!" she cried out.

"Call Chen Wei here..." Chief Lin instructed softly.

Chen Yaozu jumped to his feet. "I'll go find him!"

The crowd watched Chen Yaozu leave with a wavering gleam in their eyes.

By now, everyone had figured out that the story wasn't as Lin Chuchu had portrayed earlier.

As both Pei Ruo and Pei He's boss, what reason could he have to steal a wallet? How much money could a wallet hold anyway? Could it hold the assets of Zhong Yin Group? Or even the entire Xihe Legal Consultancy?

A mere wallet wasn't worth Tang Yin getting his hands dirty.

Zhang Ting fully understood that he'd been manipulated and set up, yet he didn't dare to vent any of his anger.

"Mr. Tang Yin, I sincerely apologize about this incident. I will give you an explanation when I get to the bottom of this, and make sure that the people responsible for this apologize to you in front of the entire university!" Director Yang walked briskly up to Tang Yin and sm iled sunnily as he apologized.

Tang Yin smiled. "There's no need! I'm no longer a student of Wuhan University after all..."

Director Yang's face froze and his eyes turned to Zhang Ting, wishing that he could murder him right now.

Pei He walked up and smilingly announced, "Since Mr. Tang Yin is no longer a student at Wuhan University, then Zhong Yin group will be pulling out as sponsor for all our projects in Wuhan University over the next few days, and the construction of the No. 9 Academic Building will be halted indefinitely. As for the two research laboratories which we've been supporting over the last few years, we will also be withdrawing all financial support from them."

Instantly, Director Yang's face turned several shades paler.

Zhang Ting nearly crumpled to the ground at the announcement.

They were done for!

Zhong Yin Group sponsored Wuhan

University with more than one billion each year. The two research laboratories alone cost jaw-dropping sums to upkeep, yet they were the university's claim to fame.

"Also, Xihe Legal Consultancy and Zhong Yin Group will no longer be hiring students from Wuhan University. I hope that Director Yang will understand where we're coming from!" Pei Ruo added from the sidelines.

When he heard this, Director Yang felt a headache coming on and he glared at Zhang Ting with bloodshot eyes.

Zhang Ting finally crumpled; he held the wall with one hand and slid down against it.

"This is just a misunderstanding; of course, Mr. Tang Yin can continue his schooling at Wuhan University..." Director Yang squeezed out a smile. "We will do our best to improve Mr. Tang Yin's grades holistically, with the most sincere education we can provide."

"There's no need!" Tang Yin smiled and turned toward the entrance. "I've already been expelled, and I plan to go home and do a thorough revision of my studies and then maybe I'll make it into another university.”

Director Yang’s expression froze as the angry flames in his heart leapt and licked higher.

If Tang Yin entered a different university, then Zhong Yin Group’s sponsorship of Wuhan University would turn to dust. When that happened, the entire university’s construction would come to a halt and even the projects in the research laboratory would need to be abandoned; Wuhan University would plummet from its ranking as one of the best universities in the country to that of a second-rate university.

There was no way Director Yang could stand such a thing happening during his term as the Director of the Education Department!

Director Yang’s face flushed purple at the thought. If not for Zhang Ting, how could such a situation have arisen?! If not for Zhang Ting, Tang Yin wouldn’t have been wronged!

“Zhang Ting, get your things. You don’t need to come to work tomorrow! Your wrongdoings will be reported to the police station, so you should await the investigations!" Director Yang wore a forbidding face as he waved Zhang Ting away.

Chapter 21 That's Not What You Said Earlier

Zhang Ting paled instantly at the dismissal. "Director, you can't do that! I was also misled..."

"Go away!" Director Yang kicked Zhang Ting away.

Zhang Ting stumbled and fell to the floor, but he couldn't care less about any injury he may have sustained and grabbed onto Tang Yin's trouser leg instead. "Mr. Tang Yin, I'm sorry! I did you wrong in the matter! I didn't expel you; I'll tear that piece of paper up right away! I was misled too! Mr. Tang Yin, you need to believe me!"

Tang Yin pulled his foot away in disgust and took a couple of steps backward. "Director Zhang, that's not what you said earlier!"

"I..." Zhang Ting's face paled. "I was instigated by a snake! I really was!"

Li Ming and Lin Chuchu watched as Zhang Ting begged and pleaded like a dog, their expressions shifted unattractively.

"It's not that I don't want to stay, but Director Zhang, you expelled me so readily! Truly, I've endured so much malice and spite at this institution!" Tang Yin threw up both his hands and wiped the blood from the corner of his mouth. "After all, I can be pretty arrogant..."

"No, not at all! I'm the one who was arrogant!" Zhang Ting hastily refuted Tang Yin loudly and looked at him imploringly.

"As an accessory to the crime, Li Ming, you are relieved of your duty as Section Chief of Wuhan University's security team. After this, follow the officers from the police station to give your police statement!" Director Yang looked daggers at Li Ming.

Li Ming crumpled to the floor with a flump, no longer high-and-mighty as he had been. Seeing Zhang Ting still pleading to Tang Yin, he crawled in front of Tang Yin and gave himself a tight slap. "Mr. Tang Yin, I'm so sorry, it's my fault for not investigating properly! I beg you, please help me out with Director Yang..."

"Mr. Tang Yin, you're still a student of our university—Wuhan University—the most exceptional student we have..." Zhang Ting crawled closer to Tang Yin on his knees.

At the sight of their behavior, Director Yang grew beet-red with anger and so ashamed that he wished that he could bury himself in a crack in the ground.

These two were a lecturer of Wuhan University and its Section Chief of security?!

The college would be a laughingstock if the news of them groveling like that got out.

Both Zhang Ting and Li Ming knew that the minute Tang Yin walked out of the college, their positions would be forfeit and Zhang Ting might become subject to investigations while Li Ming would definitely have to search far and wide for another job.

"As a person involved in this crime, Lin Chuchu, you are expelled for falsely accusing your classmates! Go along to the police station later. We will bring you to court for this later, and we advise you to inform your family about the situation as soon as possible!" Director Yang glanced at Lin Chuchu and declared harshly.

By this point, Lin Chuchu's eyes had turned bleak and empty.

If that happened, wouldn't her life have been ruined?!

She was now expelled from university and facing the possibility of jail!

This wasn't what they'd planned! Weren't they supposed to have exposed Tang Yin and then curried favor with Miss Pei?! How was it that Miss Pei had suddenly become Tang Yin's underling, and that even Zhong Yin Group, whose name reverberated throughout Wuhan, was under Tang Yin's name?!

Lin Chuchu felt faint and on the verge of crumbling apart.

"Tang Yin, it's all my fault..." Lin Chuchu seemed to have finally understood what was going on and cried miserably as she clawed at Tang Yan's thigh. "I'm so sorry! I really didn't know! Please, on account of our friendship, let me off this one time?"

Tang Yin's expression was icy as he shoved her away. "Lin Chuchu, remember this well: we have never been friends."

Lin Chuchu burst out into tears. "I-I beg you! For the sake of my father, let me off just this once!"

Tang Yin's face was still hard, but he took a deep breath; he didn't have it in him when he thought of Lin Cheng's happy, smiling face. However, Lin Chuchu had repaid kindness with evil and gone too far this time, so there was no way Tang Yin would let her off easily.

"Chen Wei's run off!" Just then, Chen Yaozu rushed into the room with his brow covered in sweat.

When she heard, Lin Chuchu fell into a dead faint.

Chen Wei's escape meant that everything had been a ploy to frame Tang Yin, and that Tang Yin had been innocent from the start. As for the wallet, that was a complete and utter joke.

Tang Yin owned Xihe Legal Consultancy and the famous Zhong Yin Group; why would he steal a mere wallet?

Director Yang watched the scene unfold and snorted coldly. "Those are just rewards! Chief Lin, I'll leave the rest to you!"

Chief Lin nodded. With a wave of his hand, a few of his men came forward and pulled Lin Chuchu off the floor.

"Tang Yin, I'm so sorry! Please, save me!"
Li Ming blubbered.

Zhang Ting's face was pale as death when he looked toward Tang Yin. "Tang Yin, I really wasn't thinking about going against you..."

Tang Yin didn't spare him a single glance and just turned then walked into the Security Office.

Up till now, Director Yang had stood out and settled everything, but Tang Yin hadn't revealed his position on the matter yet as he hadn't yet decided whether or not he would stay in Wuhan University.

Director Yang had given Tang Yin full respect in the way he'd handled and presented all his findings regarding the matter to Tang Yin. He had been seeking the favor of Zhong Yin Group, but also trying to get on Tang Yin's good side

Naturally, Tang Yin understood Director Yang's motives, but he wouldn't show his position on the matter anytime soon. There were too many factors that would be implicated by his position, so he needed to consider it for a while.

Tang Yin stood rooted to the ground in shock when he pushed open the door to the next room in the Security Office.

Ji Youyou lay curled up in a ball on the sofa with a face as pale as ash. One of her hands hung limply onto the ground, still trickling blood.

There was more blood smeared on the leg of a chair as if she'd used it to cut her wrist.

A huge puddle of blood had formed on the floor of the security office within such a short period of time.

"Ji Youyou!!!" Tang Yan roared and swiftly charged into the room.

Ji Youyou struggled to open her eyes; she looked at Tang Yin weakly with tears sliding down her cheeks and her voice was laced with guilt as she apologized to him. "Tang Yin, I'm so sorry. It's all my fault that they're saying you stole the wallet. I'm so, so sorry!"

"How is that your fault?! Why are you so foolish?!" Tang Yan bellowed as he scooped Ji Youyou up in his arms, barely feeling the weight of the girl in his arms, perhaps because she was extraordinarily thin and frail due to longstanding malnutrition. However, he didn't have the time to consider all that at the moment. "Get out of my way, quickly! Go to the hospital!"

Tang Yin's bellow brought the people around him to their senses and they watched Tang Yin—more specifically, the girl in his arms—in shock.

Had she been trying to prove her innocence with her death?!

In that instant, every single person there was shaken up.

Had the girl chosen to kill herself out of the indignity of being falsely accused, or something else? If that was so, this incident would probably be on the news tomorrow, and on the headlines besides.

"Get into my car, quickly!" Pei Ruo cried out.

Tang Yin quickly nodded and got into her car, which then roared out of the campus.

"Wake up! Just hold on!" Tang Yin held Ji Youyou and shook her shoulders relentlessly.

"Tang Yin..." Ji Youyou struggled to open her eyes, which now looked slightly dim. "Tell the teacher that I never spent the budget for the class or the Student Association. I kept it in my bank account! I don't know how it happened, but the money just disappeared on its own. I had nothing to do with it..."

I know that you didn't spend it!" Tang Yin swallowed and wiped away the cold sweat on his brow. "Don't fall asleep! You need to explain all that to the teacher yourself! I'm sure that the school will give you a reasonable explanation! I've already reported this matter to the police; they'll find out the truth and clear your name!"

Ji Youyou smiled, somewhat bitterly. "I don't care anymore... In their eyes, I'm just a student from a poor family that won't be able to stop herself at the sight of so much money! It's not like that at all! I may be from a poor family, but I've always behaved, always studied hard, always kept myself from doing anything untoward!"

"I know! Hold on for a while. Hold on! As long as you hold on, I'll make sure that you're proven innocent!" Ji Youyou's words pulled at Tang Yin's heartstrings.

This girl may not be from a good family, and may have been a little poor, but she'd never been calculative or vain and had only concentrated on her studies without a stray thought.

Why had the world been so unfair to such a wonderful girl? Why had she kept coming across cunning and calculating classmates and people who were prejudiced against her?!

"Hurry!" Tang Yin urged when he saw that Ji Youyou was getting weaker and weaker as her face turned as pale as paper.

Pei Ruo floored the gas, and the car shot off toward the closest hospital with a roar.

When they approached the hospital entrance, Pei Ruo slammed down on the brakes and the car drifted into a parking spot.

Tang Yin flung open the car door and carried Ji Youyou as he ran into the hospital.

Chapter 22 Proving Her Innocence with Her Death

"Doctor! Doctor! Come quickly, save her!"

Tang Yin's voice echoed in the hospital and drew a lot of attention. Just then, however, Tang Yin clearly felt Ji Youyou's arms flop down.

Tang Yin paled. "Doctor! Come quickly!"

A few doctors in white robes ran out; each of their faces took on a sense of urgency at the sight of Ji Youyou who was lying in Tang Yin's arms.

"Send her to the emergency room!"

"Over here..."

Tang Yin followed behind the doctors and ran toward the emergency room with Ji Youyou in his arms.

A couple of minutes later, Tang Yin and Pei Ruo were stopped outside the operation theater while Ji Youyou was pushed into it.

"Relax, she'll be alright," Pei Ruo comforted Tang Yin.

Tang Yin's face was extraordinarily dark and forbidding, like a thundercloud that was about to burst. If Ji Youyou didn't survive this, he wouldn't let them off so easily.

Tang Yin was sure that Ji Youyou hadn't spent the money, yet it had gone missing; something wrong must have happened.

Even if he was a fool, he knew that there must have been much shady business involved.

"Wait here. I know the assistant director of the hospital; I'll get him to help!" Pei Ruo told him softly, then comforted him a little more before turning and walking down the corridor.

Tang Yin sat outside the operation theater with his face buried in his hands, feeling utterly helpless.

Tang Yin was sure that Ji Youyou was a decent girl—well-behaved, understanding, and kind; she had most of the characteristics that were praiseworthy in a girl and was a far better person than either Lin Chuchu or Ruan Qin, yet it was such a girl who had been burdened with so much. The unfairness of it all got under Tang Yan's skin.

Taking a deep breath, Tang Yin stood up and paced relentlessly.

"Is Ji Youyou's family here?"

The operation theater's doors flung open and a saucy looking nurse emerged. When she saw Tang Yan's disheveled state, she just informed him in a detached manner, "Hurry up and sign the form; the patient's condition is critical."

Tang Yin froze. "What happened to the patient?"

"Where is all your bullsh*t coming from? I just asked you to sign the form; why are you dillydallying?" Su Li, the nurse, studied Tang Yin and the clothes he was wearing before asking scornfully, "Are you trying to sting on the money?"

"No, I'm not her family..."

"And you call yourself a man? She's already so badly hurt, yet you're still saying that you're not her family?!" Su Li cast a look of disgust at Tang Yan.

Tang Yin was a little pissed; he wasn't Ji Youyou's family member, was he supposed to admit to being one? However, Tang Yin was aware that this wasn't the time to argue about it and could only take the pen and sign on the dotted line.

According to the medicolegal requirements, he didn't have the right to sign the waiver of liability form for Ji Youyou since they were just classmates, but he couldn't be a stickler for the rules when Ji Youyou was awaiting the surgery and there was no one else around!

After he signed his name, Tang Yin placed the waiver of liability Form in Su Li's hands.

"Go and pay the fees on the first floor, and hurry up!" Su Li looked sideways at Tang Yan.

Tang Yin nodded and ran toward the first floor.

When he came back after making the payment, he saw that the surgery was still ongoing.

His heart hung in his throat and he had no choice but to wait outside as he had no idea about what was going on inside the operation theater. Luckily, Pei Ruo soon returned and walked toward him with a man in his thirties in tow.

The man wore a white robe and had a rather fair, handsome face—which like Pei Ruo's face—was framed by a pair of gold-rimmed glasses. He threw a glance at Tang Yin and walked straight into the operation theater.

"Relax, nothing will happen," Pei Ruo comforted Tang Yan.

Tang Yin nodded, but still didn't reply.

Just then, a voice barked sharply inside the operation theater before it fell silent once again.

The operation theater's doors didn't open until a long time afterward.

The young doctor in his thirties who had last entered the door had already emerged from the operation theatre. He glanced at Tang Yin but turned to address Pei Ruo instead. "She's lucky, her vitals hadn't gone flat yet, but the girl's will to live doesn't seem strong. We'll transfer her to a VIP room for observation; if there are any problems, let me know immediately!"

"Thank you so much!" Pei Ruo thanked him with a smile.

"What are you saying? It's my honor to have been able to assist you, and do you really need to stand on such formalities with me?" Xu Gang smiled and shook Pei Ruo's hand, then changed the topic abruptly. "Girls nowadays are ridiculous, simply getting into relationships; they're the ones who get hurt in the end! It's completely irresponsible to commit suicide over such trivial matters."

Tang Yin's brows furrowed slightly in reflection of the aversion he felt upon hearing Xu Gang's remark.

"As long as she's alright!" Pei Ruo smiled thinly.

"Yes. I'm leaving now; I'll ask you for dinner another day!" Xu Gang smiled sunnily then turned into the corridor.

Pei Ruo couldn't help but shake her head as she watched Xu Gang leave, but she kept her peace.

"Is the patient's family out there? Send someone in to push the patient out!" Su Li's voice rang out from within the operation theatre.

Tang Yin pushed open the doors to the operation theatre hesitantly, only to see several nurses chatting—completely detached from their patient—and Ji Youyou, her face still pale, covered in blankets on one side.

Pei Ruo's brow wrinkled though she didn't criticize anything and just comforted Tang Yin instead. "As long as she's alright. Let's push her out first."

Tang Yin nodded and took another look at Ji Youyou before pushing the bed out of the operation theatre.

"Where are you going? Do you know what that place is?" Su Li instantly came forward with annoyance all over her face. "That's where the VIP rooms are; do you think that's where common folk go? Do you know how much it costs to stay there for one night?"

Tang Yin turned his head. "Excuse me, our room is over there!"

"You booked a room there? Did you find out how much it costs a day before you booked it? Hurry up and just go to a normal room!" Su Li pointed at Tang Yin.

Tang Yin was exasperated. Why shouldn't he be able to afford a VIP room even if he dressed a little shabbily?"

Pei Ruo snorted and burst out into laughter when she saw Tang Yin's expression. "She probably thinks that you resemble a beggar more than a second-generation rich kid. Do you want me to tell her off about it?"

Tang Yin was rendered momentarily speechless and he just shook his head. "Never mind!"

"Why are you still walking toward that direction?" Su Li fixed a glare on Pei Ruo and snapped, "Go ahead, then! A bunch of poor people staying in the VIP rooms... you'll get bankrupted by the fees sooner or later! The people in those rooms are all important figures; you won't get off easily if you rub them the wrong way!"

Tang Yin couldn't be bothered with her and just continued pushing Ji Youyou toward the VIP rooms with Pei Ruo's help.

The hospital had ample resources, and so the rooms were clean and tidy. There wasn't even a whiff of disinfectant in the room; instead, a light fragrance wafted in the air.

The two of them moved Ji Youyou onto the bed and both sighed in relief.

"Tang Yin, how do you want to handle matters at the university? Director Zhang from Academic Services and Li Ming from

Chapter 24 Xu Gang

Regarding the question about Lin Chuchu, Tang Yin felt a headache coming on just thinking about it. That girl was seriously too materialistic, and Tang Yin didn't like her one bit.

"We will talk about it later," Tang Yin whimpered.

Pei Ruo nodded before smiling brightly all of a sudden. "Did you know? You looked quite handsome when you were anxious just now!"

Tang Yin was startled, then he shook his head and smiled.

At the moment, he was really not in the mood to flirt with Pei Ruo; he could only focus all his attention on Ji Youyou.

"Think about it, do you want me to introduce a girlfriend to you?" Pei Ruo looked at Tang Yin with her winking eyes.

Tang Yin still shook his head. "Not for the time being..."

"Alright, I'm just teasing you! I have something to deal with in a while and I'll be back at night. Take care of yourself!" Pei Ruo stood up and waved at Tang Yin while smiling.

Tang Yin then escorted her out before heading back to the ward.

Inside the ward, Ji Youyou lay there extremely pale, with her eyelids twitching slightly at times. Clearly, she was still deep in a coma.

Tang Yin sighed and wondered, Where did this girl get the courage to commit suicide for two consecutive days?

At this time, there was the sound of footsteps outside the door, and the door of the ward was pushed open following that.

“Tang Yin, I beg you! Please have mercy! Please help Chuchu...” Lin Cheng came into the ward crying and fell onto his knees with a thud.

“Uncle Lin, why are you here?” Tang Yin was a little surprised. Why has Lin Cheng come all the way here?

“Tang Yin, I’m begging you! Please help me...” Lin Cheng cried as he took Tang Yin’s hand in his and looked up at him. “Tang Yin, taking into consideration all the times that I’ve helped you before, would you please have mercy on Chuchu?”

Chapter 24 Xu Gang

“Tang Yin, please have mercy on Chuchu!”
Wu Min also walked in, sobbing hard.

Tang Yin’s heart was filled with mixed emotions when he looked at this scene. He had always disliked Wu Min considering she had never been kind to him all this time, therefore even if she kneeled in front of him, Tang Yin would remain indifferent. But Lin Cheng was a different case. Back then, it was because of Lin Cheng that he was able to fend for himself.

“Uncle Lin, please get up first!” Tang Yin helped Lin Cheng up.

Lin Cheng said with a guilty expression, “Tang Yin, it’s all my fault! I didn’t educate Chuchu well and that resulted in her biting the hand that feeds her! If you let her off this time, I will definitely discipline her strictly and never let her cause any harm anymore! I beg you, please! Otherwise, her life will be over just like that...”

Tang Yin was speechless and hurriedly pulled Lin Cheng up. “Uncle Lin, let’s talk this over!”

Chapter 24 Xu Gang

“Tang Yin, I’ll even kowtow to you!” Lin Cheng cried and was about to kowtow.

Tang Yin said helplessly, “Uncle, please get up first. This matter is not as serious as you think! Right now, Chuchu needs someone to discipline her temper. I’ll just let her suffer a little bit, so that she will learn her lesson and not repeat it in the future. As for the matter of prosecuting her, I have no intention of doing that at all!”

“Really?” Lin Cheng felt touched.

Tang Yin nodded and smiled. “Uncle Lin, I’m not an ungrateful person after all. You were so kind to me before this, and I’ll always remember that. So how could I ever put you in a difficult situation?”

“That’s good! Good!” Lin Cheng nodded vigorously.

Wu Min, who was on the side, looked at Tang Yin timidly with tears lingering on her face.

If Wu Min hadn’t seen Lin Chuchu at the police station just now, she couldn’t have imagined that Tang Yin actually came from a very powerful family background. Not only did his family have some investments in Wuhan University, they also owned Xihe Legal Consultancy, and even the Zhong Yin Group was under them. Wu Min almost fainted due to shock when she heard the news from Lin Chuchu. Recalling how harsh she had been to Tang Yin during this period of time, she wanted to bang her head against the wall in the police station. If it weren't for Lin Chuchu telling her that Tang Yin was the only one who could save her, she would've hidden herself from Tang Yin for the rest of her life in hope to never run into him ever again.

Chapter 24 Xu Gang

"Lower your voice please! Don't you know that this is a hospital?" scolded Su Li, who was standing at the corridor.

Tang Yin glanced at her and gave an apologetic smile. He then pulled Lin Cheng and Wu Min into the ward.

Since Ji Youyou was still in a coma, Lin Cheng and Tang Yin naturally lowered their voices.

"Tang Yin, you wait here, I'll go back and make some soup for her. You know how my cooking skills are, I'm sure she'll like it!" Lin Cheng said to Tang Yin.

A smile broke out on Tang Yin's face.

Chapter 24 Xu Gang

“Thank you so much, Uncle Lin!”

“D-D-Don’t say that! It’s the least that we can do!” Wu Min said with an embarrassed expression.

Right after, Tang Yin walked the both of them out and turned around to return to the ward.

As a matter of fact, Tang Yin had no intentions of punishing Lin Chuchu at all, but as for Zhang Ting and Li Ming, he did not plan on letting them off that easily. If the two of them were allowed to go back to the university, God knew what other tricks they’d have up their sleeves.

Just then, the door of the ward was pushed open with a loud bang.

Tang Yin turned his head and glanced at the person with a frown, only to see Su Li walking in with a few infusion bags with her.

“This is a hospital, and this is a VIP ward! It’s not your house, so you can’t just bring anyone in here! If I see another beggar coming here tomorrow, please move out from the VIP ward to avoid disturbing others!” Su Li said with a disdainful look on her face.

Tang Yin frowned, a little unhappy when he realized that she was talking about Lin Cheng and his wife.

It's true that Lin Cheng usually doesn't care much about his image and attire, but how dare she refer to him as a beggar just because he was not well-dressed?

"Excuse me, since you know that this is a hospital and that there is a patient in this ward, why did you open the door so loudly then? Where is your professional ethics as well as your manners?"

"You..." Su Li was at a loss for words, a trace of anger flashed across her face.

Tang Yin stood up and pointed at the door coldly. "If you do not wish to perform the infusion, please leave immediately. Since I can afford the VIP ward, I obviously have the ability and money to find a better nurse!"

Flying into rage out of humiliation, Su Li threw away the infusion bags in her hand and said, "Fine, go find someone else then!"

Chapter 24 Xu Gang

“What is going on here?!” someone scolded from outside of the door.

Su Li turned around and saw Xu Gang walking in. Her arrogant manner dissipated at once and she said, “Deputy Dean Xu, this patient is not cooperating, I can’t perform the infusion at all!”

Tang Yin almost laughed out of anger. The wicked really does complain first! How dare she claim that I’m not cooperating with the infusion?

“Get out and get someone else in here!” Xu Gang ordered coldly. “If you can’t do the job, I suggest that you stop embarrassing yourself here and go home!” he added.

Su Li was taken aback, and with fear written all over her face, she ran out hurriedly; she never expected that Xu Gang would spit out such words to her.

Tang Yin curled his lips slightly. Then, he saw Xu Gang coming back into the room while looking at him with a meaningful look before setting his eyes on Ji Youyou.

“Her recovery is pretty good, so there shouldn’t be any problems.” Xu Gang stepped forward and opened Ji Youyou’s eyelids. After hesitating for a moment, he then added, "I understand that you and Pei Ruo have some relations, but that doesn't give you the right to be rampant here. Do you understand?"

Chapter 25 It's Very Expensive!

Tang Yin was stunned for a while before laughing lightly. "How would one have the right to be rampant then?"

Xu Gang frowned in annoyance. "Stop with this behavior, you're not on campus now! Also, I have a piece of advice for you. Not everyone is the same as this girl—who attempted suicide—to be so loyal and all over you, especially Pei Ruo, who is an excellent woman. So, I'm advising you to keep your hands off her! Besides, it is important for a man to have his own qualities, family background and working capability. You can't just toy with girls' feelings just because you're young and handsome!"

Tang Yin looked at Xu Gang with a puzzled gaze. What does he mean by that?

Judging from his words, is he warning me not to get involved with Pei Ruo?

From the very beginning, Tang Yin had felt the hostility radiating off Xu Gang. And now, it seemed to become more and more obvious.

"Dr. Xu, has there been any misunderstanding between us?" Tang Yin stared at him and asked.

Chapter 25 It's Very Expensive!

"No!" Xu Gang gave him an indifferent look and left the room.

Tang Yin's facial expression shifted slightly. I don't believe him that he doesn't have any opinions on me. However, since Xu Gang was unwilling to tell him, Tang Yin was too lazy to probe too.

This kind of thing seemed to be too childish to Tang Yin, at least that was what he had thought all this while.

The substitute medical staff who entered this time was much more attentive than Su Li. After helping Ji Youyou with the infusion, she immediately turned around and left the room.

Meanwhile, Tang Yi sat by the sides while looking after Ji Youyou. It was only during the evening when the latter finally regained consciousness.

Looking at the dim look in her eyes, Tang Yin chuckled and asked, "Once again, I've saved you from the jaws of death. You're feeling especially hateful toward me now, aren't you?"

Ji Youyou raised her eyes, looking slightly gloomy.

Chapter 25 It's Very Expensive!

Tang Yi smiled and asked, "What is it now? Do you hate me so much that you can't even scold me?"

"No," Ji Youyou whispered.

Tang Yi smiled and brought over the thermal flask. "Drink something first. This is the soup from the eatery where I work; my boss personally cooked this soup for you. I took a sip just now, and it tastes real good!"

Ji Youyou faltered and tears welled up in her eyes.

"What's the matter?" Tang Yi was startled.

"Nothing..." Ji Youyou said softly while her heart pounded.

Ever since her childhood, no one had treated her with so much kindness, hence why she was feeling uneasy now.

"Have a taste." Tang Yi picked up the spoon and fed her.

Ji Youyou obediently swallowed, then she hesitantly asked, "Tang Yin, this soup must be quite expensive, am I right?"

Chapter 25 It's Very Expensive!

"Yes, it's very expensive. It's made with ginseng, lingzhi, tuber fleeceflower as well as some noodles cooked together with pickles, not to mention that it took eighteen years to boil this soup! So of course it's expensive! The sip that you just drank cost almost a few thousands!" Tang Yin smirked.

"Is it that expensive?" Ji Youyou was taken aback, but immediately realized that Tang Yin was messing with her. "Who on earth would cook the soup like this? How can ginseng be mixed together with pickles?"

Tang Yi burst into laughter. This girl is quite interesting!

All the soup that Lin Cheng had brought was then fed to Ji Youyou. After seeing her complexion improved, only then did Tang Yi put away the thermos.

"I'm sorry, Tang Yin!" Ji Youyou looked at Tang Yin who was busy keeping the thermos and apologized with a disappointed expression.

Tang Yin turned his head and sighed. "The one who you should really apologize to is yourself! It is a very irresponsible act to look at your life more frivolously than anything else!"

"I-I-I just wanted to clear my name!" Ji Youyou explained anxiously.

Tang Yi smiled. "There are many ways in fact to prove your innocence, hence there's no need to resort to such extreme means! I have already called the police regarding this matter and they will give us an answer in the shortest time possible! Besides that, regarding the medical fees this time, you're gonna have to pay me back..."

"Okay," Ji Youyou lowered her head and replied in a low voice.

Tang Yi looked at her with a tilted head, curled his lips and said, "After you're discharged, you can't repeat this again. Plus, you owe me a lot of money now, and if something really happens to you, my money will be gone too..."

"I know," Ji Youyou agreed in a lowered voice.

Tang Yi put the quilt over her, then he pretended to be serious and said, "It cost 30,000 for the rescue, and this VIP ward costs 2,000 a day. After adding the miscellaneous expenses, the total would be around 60,000..."

"How is it so expensive?" Ji Youyou was anxious and almost shed her tears again.

Tang Yin grinned. "Don't worry, I'm not in a hurry, so you can just pay me back slowly!"

Ji Youyou pouted and said, "Then, I'll just stay in the general ward..."

"You can, but, if you stay in a general ward, it'll be quite uncomfortable for me there. So, let's just stay here!" Tang Yin said as he pulled out a small mattress from under Ji Youyou's bed.

It was probably specially prepared at the VIP wards for the convenience of the visitors in order to allow them to get a better rest.

Ji Youyou watched as Tang Yin casually went to bed with grievance on her face; her heart ached when she thought of the huge debt she owed him.

After turning the lights off, Tang Yin rolled to his side and prepared to rest.

Ji Youyou had no friends at school, let alone a close female girlfriend, and Tang Yin knew this very well. Otherwise, he would have called someone from the school to take care of her earlier in the afternoon. He was a guy after all; hanging around with Ji Youyou like this, it was inevitable that there would be some rumors going on.

Tang Yi felt that it would be inappropriate if he had asked a few girls from the university to come and take care of her. After all, if the matter of her attempted suicide was spread throughout the school, she might be criticized for the rest of her life.

After thinking about it for a long time, Tang Yin could only offer himself to hang around instead.

"Tang Yin..."

In the darkness, Ji Youyou's voice sounded again.

"Huh?" Tang Yin replied in daze as he was just about to doze off.

"Can I wait a little longer to pay you back? Maybe in another five years? Or ten?" Ji Youyou asked in a low voice.

"No way!" Tang Yin turned over. "I plan to get married someday, so you can't delay paying me!"

"Alright," she agreed, not knowing how to feel about it.

Tang Yin smiled before he turned over and fell asleep.

The next morning, after the infusion, Ji Youyou's complexion seemed to have gotten even better.

Pei Ruo called and reported the results of the incident at the university.

Zhang Ting and Li Ming were both expelled, while Lin Chuchu was still held at the police station. It seemed like she had to receive a few days of lectures. As for what would happen in the future, Pei Ruo did not say anything, and Tang Yin did not give any further orders as well.

Lin Chuchu must suffer a bit from this, or else she won't ever learn her lesson.

After hanging up the phone, Lin Cheng had arrived with some breakfast. Only after Tang Yin had eaten did he leave with a silly smile on his face.

Chapter 25 It's Very Expensive!

Toward noon, Ji Youyou was already able to walk. Although her paces were slow, she was recovering quite well. However, her body was still malnourished, hence why she was still weak.

Tang Yin then walked out of the hospital and made a phone call to ask Pei Ruo to prepare some supplements and deliver them to the hospital. Just when he had turned around and entered the hospital, he saw Su Li entering Ji Youyou's ward with resentment written all over her face, and his heart jumped.

"It's just an injection, what are you doing?"

Su Li's angry voice rang from inside the ward, causing the anger in Tang Yin's heart to burst out.

Chapter 26 The Angelic Face

Tang Yin kicked hard on the door and stared sternly at Su Li.

When Su Li raised her head and spotted Tang Yin, she was a little flustered. "I couldn't find your vein just now, so I'll inject one more time!"

On the other hand, Ji Youyou's brows were wrinkled with grievance all over her face.

Tang Yin walked over to them, his face turning darker by the second. He stared at Su Li like a hungry wolf looking at its prey, thoroughly exhibiting the innate predominate vibes from within him.

Su Li had no idea what came over her but she found herself not being able to look directly at Tang Yin after sensing his gaze on her.

This feeling made her uneasy and even more intimidated compared to the time when she met the dean of the hospital.

Tang Yin then stared fixedly at Su Li's movements. Seeing that she injected the needle into Ji Youyou's vein with her trembling hand, Tang Yin's expression eased a little.

Chapter 26 The Angelic Face

"Call me when the infusion's done..." Su Li lowered her head and walked toward the door quickly to leave the room.

Tang Ying glared at her retreating figure with a fierce look on his face.

What an evil woman. Tang Yin didn't believe that she couldn't locate the vein when inserting the needle for injection after being a nurse for so many years. She was probably doing it on purpose just to make Ji Youyou suffer!

"I'm fine..." Looking at Tang Yin's expression, Ji Youyou lowered her head and whispered.

Tang Ying shook his head helplessly and said in a much gentle voice, "Sometimes, you have to stand up for yourself. Just because you forbear it blindly, doesn't mean that you would always achieve the expected outcome. Doing this might even cause the other party to be more demanding at times."

"Okay." Ji Youyou nodded her head before secretly raising it to take a quick peek at Tang Yin.

Tang Yin felt exasperated but amused at the same time while looking at her reaction, at the same time wondering what experience she had gone through to make her become so timid.

"It's useless for you to agree without doing it. Bear in mind that you have to resist profusely whatever that is harmful to you!" Tang Yin lectured her, thinking that she should be instilled with the correct perspective.

"Alright!" Ji Youyou said again.

Feeling a little upset, Tang Yin tilted his head and said, "If you keep on being like this..."

"Tang Yin... I..." Ji Youyou suddenly looked up with her blushing face.

"Huh? What is it? Do you finally find that my words make sense?" Tang Yin pouted.

"I want to go to the bathroom..." Ji Youyou bowed her head, her face completely reddened.

"Ahem! Ahem!" Tang Yin almost choked on his saliva. He had thought that Ji Youyou finally understood his words; he didn't expect that she actually just wanted to go to the bathro om.

“Well... Could you give me a hand?” Still having her head down, Ji Youyou clawed the bed sheet tight with one of her hands, feeling shy as she spoke.

Tang Yin held the infusion bag with one hand, and another holding her wrist to help her get out from the bed.

In fact, Ji Youyou was so skinny that Tang Yin could barely feel her weight; her wrist was uncommonly bony. To his surprise, her skin was quite nice, being somewhat smooth and silky.

“I’ll wait outside...” With a slight hesitation, he pushed open the door of the bathroom.

Ji Youyou entered the bathroom carefully and gently shut the door.

Tang Yin turned around, unable to understand or even find the words to describe this girl at all. He could sense that she was keeping some secrets deep down and wasn’t willing to open up to him due to some certain reasons.

There was the sound of running water in the bathroom, and following that was the voice of Ji Youyou.

Tang Yin opened the door of the bathroom and stood still in astonishment as soon as he saw her.

Standing inside the bathroom was a girl with ivory cheeks who had a stunning look and clear skin with a pair of furry straight eyebrows. Her huge pair of eyes blinked, as if she was trying to avoid his gaze, while her entire face radiated a sense of refined temperament.

“Ji Youyou?” Tang Yin called out in hesitation. He knew that Ji Youyou was concealing her true appearance to look ugly all this time, but he hadn’t actually expected her to be so beautiful.

“Yes...” Ji Youyou replied in a demure way and bowed her head again.

Tang Yin chuckled and held the infusion bag high. “Why would you want to make yourself look ugly by sticking those fake pimples and scars on your face? Is this a hobby of yours?”

Ji Youyou blushed and said, “No...”

Tang Yin grinned and looked at her reddish face, and there was an inexplicable palpitation from the bottom of his heart.

"I..." She lay down on the bed and turned her back to Tang Yin, as if she was trying to avoid him. "I have to change the face mask every day; it's kind of inconvenient to do so in the hospital..."

"Oh!" Tang Yin beamed. "So, are you saying that I've just been given the privilege to see your real stunning looks?"

"Not stunning at all!" Ji Youyou replied softly.

Tang Yin stopped teasing her and hung the infusion bag back to its original place. He then lay down on the bed beside and started to play with his phone.

It was indeed boring to spend the day in the hospital.

As time went on, Tang Yin finally felt that he couldn't sit still anymore. Seeing that it was nearly noon, in addition that her infusion was already done, he suggested, "Let's go out for a walk."

"Am I allowed to do so?" she asked very softly.

Chapter 26 The Angelic Face

Tang Yin's eyes lit up bright. It seemed that she felt bored as well.

"Don't worry, I'll bring you out!" Tang Yin replied to her with a hand gesture.

"Will the doctor allow me to go out?" she asked again while looking outside of the door.

"We're not gonna let them catch us! Besides, you're almost recovered anyway. You just have to obtain sufficient nutrients, so I'm taking you out to replenish nutrients for your body!" Tang Yin grinned and opened the door. Seeing that there was no one outside, he quickly grabbed her hand and went into the elevator.

Two of them then lowered their heads in the elevator. After that, they exited the hospital along the crowd.

Quickly, they took a cab and went over to Cloud Plaza.

Cloud Plaza is the biggest shopping mall in Wuhan. It had all kinds of stores in the mall which provided both leisure and entertainment; almost all kinds of activities could be done there.

Chapter 26 The Angelic Face

It had been a long time since Tang Yin enjoyed his time being out. Him bringing Ji Youyou to the mall was just an excuse as he secretly yearned to spend some time outside.

Just when the both of them got out of the car in front of the Cloud Plaza, Ji Youyou showed a trace of worry and said, "Tang Yin, all the things here are expensive..."

"I don't think so. But, it's fine. We're just here to have a look anyway, it doesn't mean that we have to buy the things here!" Having a bright smile on his face, Tang Yin turned around and went into the mall.

Ji Youyou trotted hurriedly to catch up, following closely behind him. In fact, after taking off the mask with the acne and pimples, she was simply too gorgeous. Because of this, the two of them attracted countless gazes from the people around them.

Of course, Tang Yin was handsome too. Coupled with his own temperament, the two of them were really like the perfect match. However, when these people saw that the both of them were dressed shabbily, they shook their heads and sighed before turning away.

Chapter 26 The Angelic Face

It's nice to be young since one would have lots of energy, but at the same time, it would mean that they aren't financially stable yet.

"This store looks not bad..." Tang Yin stopped his steps and looked at a clothing store.

Standing beside him, Ji Youyou took a glance at the store and became nervous. "I heard that all the clothes of this brand here are expensive. Let's just go to the other stores to have a look..."

"We're just going to window-shop; it doesn't cost us a penny, does it?" Tang Yin sashayed into the store.

Ji Youyou looked somewhat hesitant but could only follow Tang Yin into the clothing store.

As soon as Tang Yin entered the store and took a glance around, his facial expression turned dark at once.

Ruan Qin is here with Zhang Qiang? Why do I have to run into them wherever I go?

"Huh... Tang Yin? Am I seeing things? Tang Yin, why are you here? How dare you come into this clothing store? You do know the price range of the clothes in this store, don't you?" Zhang Qiang turned around and pretended to be surprised while looking at Tang Yin.

Chapter 27 Arguing Over a Clothes Purchase

“How much do I need to spend?” Tang Yin laughed in a mocking manner, not even bothering to look at Ruan Qin and Zhang Qiang as he cast a look around him. However, he did not see any promoter coming out to greet him, and that made Tang Yin frown.

“Anyway, it’s not for a person of your status to enter this shop, so I advise you to get lost as soon as possible before you embarrass yourself here. Did you really think that you have become a millionaire after picking up a wallet?” Zhang Qiang smirked as he swaggered in and said mockingly, “Where are the promoters? How could they let any Tom, Dick and Harry enter here? Why don’t you guys take a look at his shabby clothes? How can a person like this afford the clothes in this shop? Aren’t you guys supposed to chase him out by now?”

Tang Yin smiled as he strutted into the shop. “If a shop is open for business, then anybody can enter. Since you can enter the shop, why can’t I?”

“Hey, promoter, this person is my ex-boyfriend. He doesn’t have a single penny on him as he is nothing but a swindler! I suggest you all chase him out quickly before he dirties the clothes with his grubby hands. Which one of you would be responsible for that when it happens?" said Ruan Qin with a pout.

Just then, two promoters approached them. When they looked at Tang Yin, they had a cold, unwelcoming look on their faces.

Tang Yin smiled. "Who says I don't have money?"

"Tang Yin..." whispered Ji Youyou as she tugged on his sleeves.

Tang Yin turned back to smile at her as he ignored her words. Then, he turned back toward the promoters and said with a smile, "So, are you guys really gonna chase me out?"

"Miss Chen, why don't you let me serve them? I promise I won't let him touch the clothes," a girl in her twenties walked out and said to the person next to her, who looked like a promoter as well.

Manager Chen frowned. "Fine. But, if they touch the clothes, you will be held responsible."

Chapter 27 Arguing Over a Clothes Purchase

Yu Jing nodded her head with a dark look on her face. "I understand..."

Tang Yin cocked his head to the side as he looked Manager Chen up and down. Then, he saw her turning away with a look of disdain when her gaze fell upon the clothes that he and Ji Youyou were wearing.

Tang Yin smiled and said, "So it really is true then. As the saying goes, 'A man who loses his position and influence will be subjected to much indignity.' I can't believe that this situation has befallen me today!"

"What did you say? Believe it or not, I'll chase you out of here immediately if you dare to utter another word," said Manager Chen as he looked at Tang Yin coldly.

Tang Yin shrugged his shoulders. "So violent!"

Manager Chen snorted coldly as he turned to Ruan Qin and put on a smile. "Miss Ruan, this dress looks really nice on you. If you like it, I can give you a 10 percent discount."

Ruan Qin was hesitant in the beginning, but after looking at Tang Yin, she harrumphed coldly and turned her head away.

Zhang Qiang smirked. “Tang Yin, if I were you, I would leave immediately! Did you really think that you can go anywhere as you please?”

“Tang Yin, why don’t we go to another shop to look around?” Ji Youyou tugged on Tang Yin’s wrists.

Tang Yin smiled. “Why should I? I like this shop. Moreover, Miss Yu is quite a friendly person. Let’s take a look around first...”

Yu Jing was a little bit crestfallen. That was because judging by what Tang Yin said to Ji Youyou just now, the hope that rose in her heart previously was dashed in that instant. Initially, she had only wanted to try her luck as she had a lackluster sales performance this month. However, when she heard Ji Youyou’s words, she knew that she had run out of luck today. Luckily, she did not mind it at all and continued to smile.

“If you want to take a look at the clothes, you may follow me...”

Tang Yin nodded his head before turning around and following behind Yu Jing as he dragged Ji Youyou along. All the while, his gaze fell upon the clothes in the store.

“You country bumpkin! What are you doing acting all high and mighty like that? I bet that you will sneak away later on, and by then, you’ll know that you’re nothing at all!” Zhang Qiang cursed with a cold look in his eyes. He was puzzled when he recalled the ideas that he gave to Lin Chuchu a few days ago.

If everything went as planned, Tang Yin should be at detention right now. How could he have the time to shop here?

Meanwhile, Tang Yin did not know what Zhang Qiang was thinking and could only concentrate on the clothes around him. After browsing around for some time, he finally had a notion in his mind as he turned around and pointed toward one of the dresses.

“Please take this down for me. I want her to try this on...”

Yu Jing was stunned, looking slightly hesitant.

Tang Yin cocked his head to a side and

Chapter 27 Arguing Over a Clothes Purchase

smiled. "Don't worry, I can still afford to buy one dress."

"But this dress is worth over 2,000..." Ji Youyou looked ill at ease as anxiousness crept across her face.

Tang Yin smiled and shook his head. "Why don't you try it on first?"

Yu Jing hesitated for a moment. Ultimately, she gritted her teeth and took down the dress for him.

"Sir, here you go, let her try it on then..." Yu Jing knew that if they did not buy something today, she would have to endure a scolding from her manager tonight. However, she didn't really care anymore since the manager had always been finding faults with her ever since she started working. If she got reprimanded again today, she would simply resign from her job.

"Is this alright?" Ji Youyou's hands were trembling.

"Listen to me, just try it on..." Tang Yin smiled as he tucked the clothes into her hands and pushed her into the changing room.

At the moment, Manager Chen was smiling at Zhang Qiang and Ruan Qin as she said, "This is a really nice dress. 20 percent is the maximum discount I can give you all. So if you guys really like it, you may purchase it at a 20 percent discount..."

"Zhang Qiang, I really like this outfit. Moreover, there's a 20 percent discount for it, so it will cost 16,000 in total, which it's not that expensive!" Ruan Qin looked almost as if she was pleading.

On the other hand, Zhang Qiang hesitated since he did not have much money on him. Besides, he felt that it wasn't worth it to spend over 10,000 on a woman.

Tang Yin smirked and turned his head. At this moment, Ji Youyou had just walked out of the changing room.

She was wearing a long white dress which happened to reach the back of her knees while the top half of the dress exposed her shoulders. All in all, the dress looked natural on her. Furthermore, her slender shoulders complimented her sharp features, making her look like a fairy who had just walked out of a painting.

Tang Yin's eyes gleamed as he gave Ji Youyou a thumbs up. "You're gorgeous!"

Ji Youyou lowered her head as she blushed.

"Who let them touch the clothes?" At the moment, Zhang Qiang, who was standing at a distance, yelled out suddenly as he ran over in a fit of rage and pointed at Tang Yin and Ji Youyou. "Do you know how poor they are? How could you simply allow them inside?! Plus, you even allowed them to touch the clothes! Did you allow some other poor losers to touch our dress as well?!"

Tang Yin watched the scene coldly, no longer able to suppress the disgust in his eyes.

"Yu Jing, what did you say just now? Didn't you promise that you wouldn't allow them to touch it?" Manager Chen turned around and her expression changed in that instant when she saw Ji Youyou in the dress.

Yu Jing looked grim as she glared at Manager Chen. "Well, am I supposed to stop the customers from trying on the clothes then?"

"Are they even customers? Look at their attire! How could they afford this dress?"

Manager Chen strode toward her and gave her a huge slap.

Smack! The sound of the slap reverberated throughout the entire store.

Chapter 28 Becoming a Millionaire

After receiving the slap, Yu Jing glared at Manager Chen with tears in her eyes.

“You can forget about your bonus for this month!” roared Manager Chen.

Yu Jing looked pale and just as she turned to leave, she was stopped by Tang Yin. “Why are you leaving? We are buying this dress.”

Yu Jing was stunned, looking somewhat aggrieved.

“You’re buying it? Don’t you know how much money you have in your pocket now?” asked Zhang Qiang in a mocking manner as he looked at Tang Yin.

Tang Yin smiled as he shrugged his shoulders. “Of course I do. Don’t tell me you know better! Don’t you think that it was quite a stupid question?”

“You—” Zhang Qiang was extremely pissed and turned to look at Manager Chen. “I asked you to chase them out just now, yet my words have fallen on deaf ears. Because of that, I’m not in the mood to shop around anymore. It is detrimental to my reputation for me to be in the same shop as this person, thus I’m not buying anything anymore!”

With that, Zhang Qiang grabbed Ruan Qin and threw the dress that Ruan Qin had in her hands onto the floor.

When Manager Chen heard this, she quickly jogged toward them. “I’m so sorry for the inconvenience, Mr. Zhang. I will give you a 30 percent discount! A 30 percent discount...”

“I won’t buy it even if you give me a 30 percent discount now.” Zhang Qiang snorted coldly as he turned to leave.

In fact, he wasn’t even planning to buy the dress in the first place as he thought it was too expensive. Putting aside the 30 percent discount, even if the manager gave him a 90 percent discount at the moment, he would not spend a single cent on it, especially if it was for Ruan Qin since he felt that she wasn’t worth spending that amount on.

“If you can’t afford it, then why are you pretending to be a Young Master here?” said Tang Yin in a mocking manner.

“Enough with your rubbish...” said Manager Chen as she turned and pointed at Ji Youyou. "Hurry up and take off that dress. Otherwise, you'll regret it!"

Ji Youyou was so frightened that she turned pale and she immediately tugged on Tang Yin's hands.

Tang Yin smiled coldly as he turned to look at Yu Jing. "I just realize that your manager is really a pig! What kind of future do you hope to have following a person like her around? How about this? I'll buy a few clothings so that you can earn some commission first. Then, in the future, I will get rid of her..."

"Who are you getting rid of?!" bellowed Manager Chen.

Tang Yin turned away and did not spare her a single glance. Then, he pointed at the clothes on the racks. "This one... This one... And that one. Oh, and the dress on the floor as well!"

"Tang Yin, what is the meaning of this?! I saw this dress first!" Ruan Qin's expression turned dark when she saw Tang Yin pointing at the dress on the floor.

Tang Yin smiled, not sparing her a glance as well. Instead, he turned to look at Yu

Jing and said, "Remember that, alright? I don't want all the clothes I pointed out just now. As for the remaining clothes, please pack them up for me..."

"Ok..." Yu Jing nodded her head but quickly did a double-take and stared at him with a horrified look in her eyes. "D-Did you say that you want me to pack up all the remaining clothes here?!"

"That's right!" Tang Yin smiled as he said, "These few clothes are just too ugly; I really don't like it! As for the dress on the floor, I feel that somebody has touched it as it's giving off a bad smell, and it's making it hard for me to breathe!"

"Tang Yin!" Ruan Qin roared in anger, "What are you trying to say here?!"

"That you are dirty!" Tang Yin smirked and turned to look at Yu Jing who was still lost in thought. "Well, hurry up and pack them for me. Are you waiting for me to do it myself? Oh, right, here is the money."

Yu Jing was still in shock while Manager Chen looked dumbfounded.

Just now, Tang Yin had pointed out five to six pieces of clothings. Other than these, there were over a dozen pieces of clothings left in the shop! Since the shop was selling premium, high-quality clothings, there weren't many apparels in this shop to begin with, only a few dozen pieces of clothings in total. However, these clothings were worth a considerable amount, with the cheapest piece going for 1,000, while the most expensive gem of this shop was worth over 50,000 a piece!

All these apparels amount up to at least 300,000 to 400,000. How could this youth have so much money on him?

"Hey! I said I am paying you the money!" Tang Yin stretched out his hands and waved it in front of Yu Jing's eyes.

Yu Jing quickly recovered from her shock and looked at Tang Yin excitedly. "Okay! Okay! I got you!"

At the moment, Yu Jing felt that a giant pie had fallen from the sky. Previously, she thought that there was no hope today. Moreover, she even planned to resign and leave this shop. Unexpectedly, she managed to procure such a huge amount of sales in the blink of an eye!

Tang Yin turned his head and glanced at the dress on the floor. "That's too bad. Initially, I thought that this dress looked good as well. However, I don't feel like buying it anymore as it has been touched by someone else..."

"Sir, I can clean it for you! Just wait for a moment, I'll help you clean it immediately..." Manager Chen came back to her senses and quickly picked up the dress from the floor. Then, she walked toward Tang Yin and said, "Please have a look again..."

"Get lost!" Tang Yin glared at her as he took two steps backward in disgust. "You emit the same stench as those two people over there, so who are you putting on a show for?"

Manager Chen looked dumbfounded as she stood stiffly in her original spot.

"Tang Yin, who are you to say that we smell?!" Ruan Qin was going crazy.

Zhang Qiang's expression turned dark as he gritted his teeth and looked at Tang Yin, wishing that he could tear the latter into half at the moment.

Tang Yin smirked as he turned and said

Chapter 28 Becoming a Millionaire

confidently, "In this day and age, many still don't have any self-awareness at all. How disgusting!"

"Tang Yin!" Zhang Qiang roared.

Tang Yin turned his head, looking indifferent as he cast a glance at Zhang Qiang. His gaze was so cold that it looked like he was shooting out daggers with his eyes.

The anger that rose in Zhang Qiang's heart earlier morphed into fear under the penetrating look that Tang Yin gave him.

Tang Yin then sneered as he turned, taking Ji Youyou's hands in his before walking toward the door.

"Sir, your total bill is 500,800. Here is your card..." At the moment, Yu Jing had already ran to his side.

Tang Yin took the card back. Then, he smiled and said, "After you have wrapped up the clothes, please send them to Wuhan Charity Hospital..."

"Okay! We will send it over as soon as possible!" Yu Jing smiled happily.

The price is over 500,000?!

Ruan Qin's expression changed abruptly as she looked at Tang Yin's retreating figure, feeling a sense of emptiness in her heart.

500,000? Where did Tang Yin get that kind of money?

Zhang Qiang's heart started to thump wildly as well, but he could only grit his teeth and look at Tang Yin.

Tang Yin turned his head, gave the both of them a look and smiled as he said, "By the way, I forgot to tell you guys that I got a million as a reward from the owner of the wallet after I picked it up for him. I'm slightly embarrassed to say this but I really did become a millionaire by picking up a wallet..."

Ruan Qin looked a little dazed as she pressed her lips together.

A million? If she had known earlier that Tang Yin had a million, she would not have broken up with him at all! She could have held onto Zhang Qiang while tricking Tang Yin into giving her the million. Then, she would break up with Tang Yin after she managed to obtain his money.

Chapter 28 Becoming a Millionaire

At the moment, Ruan Qin felt her heart shattering. Clenching her hands, she stared fixedly at the two people before her.

If she had been nice during their breakup in front of the university entrance back then, wouldn't all the clothes that he purchased here belonged to her today?

"1 million? Hah! Did you think that that is a lot?" Zhang Qiang finally couldn't hold in his anger anymore and glared at Tang Yin fiercely.

Tang Yin laughed in a mocking manner. "It's not much, but it's enough to buy clothes for others; unlike you, who can't even afford to buy an evening dress even after a 30 percent discount."

"Who says I can't afford it?" Zhang Qiang stepped forward as he gritted his teeth and looked at Tang Yin.

Tang Yin smirked as he pointed to the evening dress on the floor. "Then, why don't you fork the money out and buy it?"

Chapter 29 You May Leave Now

Zhang Qiang's face changed abruptly, looking somewhat uncertain.

In fact, he didn't have much cash on him when he walked out of his house today. He could use his mobile banking to transfer the funds, but that would mean that he had to spend nearly 20,000 to buy a dress for Ruan Qin, which would obviously be a total waste.

"Zhang Qiang, let's just buy it. Don't let him look down upon us!" Ruan Qin shook on Zhang Qiang's wrist as she spoke in a charming voice.

Tang Yin continued to smile, though what was hidden beneath that smile was disgust and revulsion.

Zhang Qiang inhaled deeply and said, "Look, I have some business to attend to today..."

"Zhang Qiang, how could you be like this?" Ruan Qin was clearly unhappy.

"Don't make a scene here!" Zhang Qiang scolded her coldly as he yanked the doors open and turned to walk out.

Tang Yin stood rooted to the spot and shrugged. Then, he turned to look at Yu Jing. "When you guys receive your customers, you must be vigilant at all times. Otherwise, anybody could enter this shop and refuse to buy the clothing after trying them on. And what would you do then? Are you gonna let your customers pay for this kind of service?"

"N-Noted, sir." Manager Chen quickly smiled as she promised, "We will be more vigilant next time. As long as Mr. Tang comes here again, I'll clap my hands to welcome you!"

"Why would I need your welcoming claps? Who do you think you are?" Tang Yin cocked his head to a side and looked at her as he smiled lightly. "I really don't understand how a person like you could become the manager of a shop! I think there's been a mistake here. Later on, I'll be giving your boss some feedback..."

"I-I-I only..." Manager Chen looked embarrassed, unable to explain herself.

Tang Yin sighed. "Though, I feel like Miss Yu here is pretty good at her job; she may be more suitable to be the shop manager than you are!"

Manager Chen's expression changed in that instant and she threw a vicious glare at Yu Jing.

On the other hand, Yu Jing merely gave him a forceful smile.

Tang Yin shrugged as he grabbed Ji Youyou and marched out of the shop.

Ji Youyou felt like she was dreaming, still unable to understand what was going on.

Did Tang Yin seriously buy that many clothes? How much did it cost? 500,000? How long would I even take to pay him back for everything?!

When she thought about this, she nearly cried. As of right now, she felt very uncomfortable wearing a dress that cost over 2,000. In fact, the price of this dress was enough for her to have her meals in the canteen for one whole semester, and now, it was spent to put a dress on her.

"Tang Yin, those clothes..." Ji Youyou couldn't help but blurt out.

Tang Yin looked at her and felt the sudden urge to laugh. "You'll need to pay me back for all these clothes. You heard the price right? It's 500,000 in total!"

"I..." Ji Youyou pouted and said, "How would I be able to pay you back?"

"It's no rush, you can slowly pay me back later. It's not like I'm short of money for now anyway. However, you do need to pay me the 60,000 for the hospital admission fees soon as I'm waiting to use that money to bring back a wife!" said Tang Yin in a joking manner as he turned and walked toward the Cloud Plaza.

Tang Yin knew that he had suffered some losses considering the amount of clothes he bought today. Even then, it was only 500,000—an amount that didn't even make him bat an eyelid. Plus, he did that to suppress Zhang Qiang and Ruan Qin's arrogance as well, hence he felt that the 500,000 was absolutely worth it!

500,000!

Tang Yin then fished out his mobile phone and dialed Pei Ruo's number. "The thing is... I bought some clothes in the Cloud Plaza just now, and I've spent around 500,000. Could you ask the person-in-charge of the Cloud Plaza to return the profit to me? I don't think it's appropriate to earn the money from my own family.”

Pei Ruo, who was on the other end of the line, nearly laughed until she was out of breath. “I say, Young Master Tang, are you asking for a rebate after spending 500,000 in your own shop?”

Tang Yin blushed. “Well, I just think that the shop manager is not really good at her job. Though, there is a promoter named Yu Jing working there, and she’s not bad at all!”

“Alright, I’ll arrange it immediately!” said Pei Ruo.

Tang Yin hung up the phone and looked at Ji Youyou beside him, who was still at a loss. Looking at her, he couldn’t help but find her reaction amusing.

“By the way, I’ve asked them earlier and they said that our items are just too expensive, so the transportation cost might be a little bit more costly; they are asking for 20,000 to deliver it to the hospital.”

“Huh? What kind of person demands such a high amount for such services? Why don’t we just take it back ourselves?” Ji Youyou was so shocked that her petite face turned completely pale.

“How are we supposed to do that? I mean, I probably could manage, but your body is still so weak! So, how do you plan to carry them?” Tang Yin smiled as he strutted in an unscrupulous manner into the Cloud Plaza.

Ji Youyou nearly cried out of anxiety.

This is too much! It's too expensive!

500,000? How long would I need to take to pay him back that amount?

On the other side, Pei Ruo made a call and gave out some simple orders to the person on the other end of the line. After she was done, she stretched lazily; her curvy figure became more alluring with her movements, as if her lazy movements carried a hint of charm in them.

In the office of the Cloud Plaza, two people were seen hurrying down the stairs as they made their way to the clothing shop of Cloud Plaza.

Meanwhile, inside the clothing shop, Yu Jing had her head down with a trace of anger on her face.

“Don’t think that you can act all high and mighty now just because you sold some clothes! Let me tell you this—I don’t hire idle people here. If you don’t want to work here anymore, then get lost as soon as possible! Besides, I’ve disliked you since a long time ago anyway!” bellowed Manager Chen.

Yu Jing pressed her lips together and clenched her fists tightly.

“You really are an imbecile!” Manager Chen sneered as she pointed to the dress on the floor. “Since you were on a roll just now, why didn’t you promote this dress as well? Look at your lack of skills! If I were you, I would have let that spendthrift take it away with him!”

Yu Jing lifted her head and said in a grim tone, “He’s not a spendthrift, he just wanted to buy more—”

“What do you know?!” Manager Chen glared at her in a vicious manner. “He just spent 500,000! What is he if not a spendthrift?”

Yu Jing was so angry that her body started to tremble, but she didn't know how to rebut her words.

"Is Manager Chen here?"

When the doors to the clothing shop opened, a man and a woman entered. The badges on their chest showed that they were from the office, and that they were the supervisors here.

"Director Yang, what brings you here today?" Manager Chen quickly put on a smile and said delightedly, "Come in here quick! A new batch of clothings has just arrived today, you may pick a few and try them on later."

Director Yang shook her head. "Forget it! This time round, I came here to let you know that you don't have to come to work starting from tomorrow. On the other hand, who is Yu Jing? From now on, you're the manager of this shop."

"What?" Yu Jing's eyes widened as she wore an expression of disbelief on her face.

Manager Chen was dumbfounded. "D-Director Yang, what is going on?"

Chapter 29 You May Leave Now

Director Yang lifted her head and looked at Manager Chen coldly. "Don't ask me what is going on, I'm just carrying out the orders from the top management. You may leave now!"

"Director Yang, I..." Manager Chen felt her body trembling as her face turned as pale as snow. "Director Yang, I carry out my duties cautiously and conscientiously for this shop, and I have never done anything that betrays my conscience. So, how could you drive me away? Director Yang, please give me another chance. I promise I won't disappoint you. Just now, we even closed 500,000 in sales, which is quite an impressive record! Can you please tell this to the top management? I will definitely work hard next month to bring the sales for this shop up to greater heights!"

"500,000 in sales? Were you the one who closed the deal?" Director Yang looked at her coldly. "Like I said, this is the decision of the top management. You better leave this place as soon as possible, or else we'll make a police report!"

"Director Yang..." Tears started to stream down Manager Chen's face. She wanted to grab hold of Director Yang's hands, but before she could do so, the director had already yanked the doors open and left.

Manager Chen collapsed onto the floor. "It's impossible, how did it turn out like this?"

Yu Jing stood at the corner as she inhaled deeply, her face betraying a hint of delight.

"Madam, please leave the shop immediately. Otherwise, I'll have to call the security guards."

"Yu Jing, you backstabber!" roared Manager Chen.

Yu Jing lifted her head up and said to her colleagues at the back, "Call the security guards and ask them to throw her out of the shop!"

“Okay!” Her colleagues nodded their heads. Although they were stunned, they knew that Yu Jing had been promoted to the manager of the shop. On the other hand, Manager Chen had nothing to do with them anymore.

Just then, several security guards entered the premises and dragged Manager Chen out through the door.

When Yu Jing saw this, she felt inexplicably better. She did not know the exact reason why, but it felt good and she was in an upbeat mood. As for the reason why she was promoted to manager, a figure flashed in her mind and she couldn't help but feel a little bit excited.

That person had complained that Manager Chen wasn't suited to be the manager of the shop, thereby causing her to be fired. Moreover, he had told everyone that Yu Jing was more suitable for that position, and she actually became one!

In her eyes, that guy named Tang Yin was her real benefactor.

Currently, Yu Jing's benefactor was sitting by the roadside eating an ice cream. Glancing at Ji Youyou who looked slightly upset now, he felt somewhat gratified deep down.

Once they were done with their ice cream, they continued browsing around for quite some time where Tang Yin ended up buying himself a new phone and another for Ji Youyou as well. As quoted by him, "Since you owe me so much money, owing me a little extra won't hurt. You'll get used to it! Besides, the money for the new mobile phone is nothing much anyway."

After catching a movie at the top floor's cinema, they slowly made their way downstairs.

When they returned to the hospital, Tang Yin noticed that their ward had become a hive of activity.

It was because the clothings that were worth over a few hundred thousand were piled up high in the ward. It was indeed a spectacular scene!

Many people in the corridor couldn't help but peek inside; curiosity was written all over their faces, yet they did not know what to say.

Meanwhile, Su Li stood at a distance. She then laughed coldly as she turned and went back to her work station.

“God knows where she got that pile of garbage! I bet that she’s planning to set up a street stall, and to think that she dares to use our hospital as her warehouse!”

“But Miss Su Li, I saw the brand just now. Those clothes are expensive; they cost over a few thousand per piece!”

“Are you for real?” somebody beside her asked.

“Who knows where she got those fake items from. I mean, how could they even afford to buy genuine ones?” Su Li snorted coldly and decided to ignore the situation. She then turned around and started retrieving the case notes.

On the other hand, Tang Yin packed up all of the clothes, allowing Ji Youyou to lay down. Then, he took out his new mobile phone and started to fiddle with it.

It wasn't an expensive phone to him. As a matter of fact, he only bought it as a temporary measure, thus he wasn't too particular about it.

Just after he had logged into his various accounts, his new phone started to vibrate.

Tang Yin unlocked his phone and saw the message on the screen. Instantly, a hint of mockery flashed across his face.

It was a WeChat message from Ruan Qin. There weren't many words in her message, but the content was shocking.

"Tang Yin, I have broken up with Zhang Qiang as I felt that we weren't suitable for each other..."

Tang Yin smirked as he entered an 'Oh'.

"Tang Yin, why are you being so cold? You didn't use to be like this. Shouldn't you at least be concerned about me?" replied Ruan Qin.

"How do you want me to do that?" Tang Yin was curious to see what tricks Ruan Qin had up her sleeves.

"Tang Yin, I really did not expect Zhang Qiang to be such a jerk! Because of that, I'm not happy to be with him at all. I'm feeling pretty down now, could you come out and accompany me? I won't take up much of your time, you just need to accompany me out for a walk!"

Tang Yin smiled crookedly. "Okay, where should I meet you?"

"I will wait for you at Crescent Lake, alright?"

"Sure, I'll go over immediately!" Tang Yin entered his reply before turning around and keeping his phone.

Crescent Lake was the place where they had bumped into each other for the first time. It used to leave a very deep impression in Tang Yin's mind as it contained one of his best memories. However, because of Ruan Qin's actions, all those memories had disappeared along with the wind.

The Crescent Lake of his memories had dried up in Tang Yin's mind since a long time ago.

Go?

Go to hell!

*There is no f*cking way I'm going there!*

Tang Yin smirked as he turned around and caught Ji Youyou staring at him.

At the moment, she looked quite beautiful as her long lashes fluttered gently; her face was almost flawless and fair, as if she had taken a milk bath not too long ago. As she stretched her neck out, one could see her well-defined collarbone, and while her silky hair hung loose—thereby covering half of her face—it brought about a sense of obscure beauty.

Tang Yin was stunned for a moment as he did not expect her to be that beautiful after taking off her mask. Seeing Ji Youyou turning away, Tang Yin immediately put on a solemn expression as he said, “Come, let’s calculate your debts! You have spent a huge amount of money to watch a movie, eat an ice cream and even bought yourself a huge amount of clothes, all of which was supposed to be my bride price[1]. If we were to go Dutch, you have to fork out half of it!”

“I already noted them down,” said Ji Youyou as she lowered her head.

Tang Yin smiled. “That’s good, as long as you remember. Just don’t commit suicide, or else I would lose a lot of my bride price..."

Ji Youyou did not say anything and only pouted. God knows what was going through that mind of hers.

Initially, Tang Yin wanted to tease her for a little while longer, but he was interrupted by the vibration of his phone. Quickly, he fished out his phone and took a look at it, only to see that it was a message from Pei Ruo.

"Pei He wants to meet you."

Tang Yin hesitated for awhile before replying, "Okay, ask him to come to the hospital, but keep a low profile."

"Ok!" Pei Ruo sent over a smiling emoji.

Tang Yin kept his mobile phone while looking a little despondent. In fact, he wasn't close to Pei He at all because the latter wasn't at the level where he could interact with him yet. If it wasn't for the fact that he was currently in Wuhan now, Pei He would only be able to meet him at the Tang Family's dinner banquet. However, in order to attend that, one had to meet a set of stringent criteria, and judging by his capabilities right now, Pei

He still had a long way to go.

Tang Yin then turned around and entered the washroom.

At the moment, at the entrance of the Wuhan Charity Hospital, Pei He finally broke into a delighted smile when he saw the message on his phone.

No doubt that he was a famous person in Wuhan, but he was still nothing but a small root in front of the towering tree—the Tang Family. In fact, he might not even consider himself a root at all.

Nobody knew how many businesses the Tang Family owned globally, but the one thing they knew was that the might and power of the Tang Family was akin to that of a God. As such, people couldn't help but respect them.

When Pei He saw his own appearance, he quickly turned around and went back to his car. Quickly, he bought some cheap clothes at a roadside stall and went into his car to change straight away.

If people knew that Wuhan's most outstanding young entrepreneur was anxious to meet a young man, wouldn't that be a bit ridiculous?

A helpless smile flashed across Pei He's stern face as he turned around and went upstairs. When he passed the nurse station, he tried his best to control his emotions.

"May I know which ward is Mr. Tang Yin in?"

Su Li lifted her head to look at Pei He. She was momentarily attracted by his looks, but she quickly faltered when she saw his tattered clothing. "How could any Tom, Dick and Harry enter here? Why are you looking for Tang Yin?"

Pei He frowned as he did not expect to receive that kind of response. "I'm here to visit a patient."

"What kind of place do you think this is? How dare you come and go as you wish?!" Su Li was displeased and she said coldly, "There isn't anyone here by the name of Tang Yin, so please leave immediately!"
