Chapter 229 Bianca wanted Anne to disappear from her life! Anne woke up near noon the next day with a frail body. After she opened her eyes, it took her a long time to get back to her senses, and it seemed like she had just returned from hell to reality.

Anne could not believe she slept with Anthony again. After all, he already had Bianca, and she should be more than enough!

The thing that she thought would not happen again, happened.

Anne felt like she was Anthony's pet, being under his control with no autonomy.

Later, Anne got up with great difficulty, put on her clothes, and walked out of the bedroom.

The cell phone in her bag on the living room floor was ringing. Anne wanted to squat down to pick it up, but she immediately fell on her back due to fatigue as soon as she tried to do that.

Anne took her phone, noticed it was an unknown number, and picked up the call. "Hello, who is this?"

Her voice was hoarse.

"Anne, why didn't you come to work?"

Anne was stunned. Xander?

"You should've let me know if you're taking a leave."

When Anne thought about the reason for her absence, she became angry. "Ask Anthony! Why are you asking me?!"

After that, she immediately hung up the call.

Xander was shocked.

Well...consider it as a paid leave!

Anne was physically and mentally exhausted, but she was not afraid of getting fired. After all, she was telling the truth, and she could not get out of bed at all under those circumstances.

Anthony was simply a terrifying beast!

Anne became worried at the thought of Sarah, so she called her.

The call was only connected after a while, and Anna asked, "Are you okay?"

"I'm fine."

"Really?" Anna asked again, as she did not believe it. Sarah's miserable scream did not appear to be fake.

"I only have a few bruises, so don't worry about it. How about you? Did Anthony do anything to you?" Sarah asked concernedly. "He did n't do anything to me...I'll visit you later." Anne did not say more and did not want Sarah to ask more, so she directly hung up the call.

Then, she scrolled through the missed calls and found Lucas' name, making her teary again.

She could not be delusional...

Someone like her was no match for Lucas.

She was with Lucas for one second and possessed by Anthony the next...

Who was she humiliating...

Anne laughed, but tears welled in her eyes.

After calming herself down, she called Lucas. They did not say much, but he asked about her situation as she did not visit in the morning, to which Anne could only say that she overslept.

Anne did not dare to reveal what Anthony did.

After a few words, they ended the call mainly because Anne was eager to hang up. She felt that everything would be exposed if she talked to him longer.

Anne did not go to the company that day, nor did she go to Lucas's place.

Chapter 230 Anne called the school and let the children take the school bus to her neighborhood. Lucas could not help but call her and ask, "What happened?"

Anne knew she needed a reason to bring the children back, and Lucas would surely be suspicious, so she replied, "Anthony found out that I went to your place. He was investigating me, and I'm afraid he might find the child."

“... Did he do anything to you?”

“Not to me, but my mom...he punished my mom for the things I did. But thankfully, she’s alright, so don’t worry.”

“What a lunatic!” The well-mannered Lucas could not help but curse.

Anne completely agreed with him. Anthony was a through-and-through lunatic!

“I’ll let Nancy go with the children. It’s easier to confuse him if she stays in the same building,” Lucas said.

Anne was touched and became teary. “You don’t have to treat me so well...” “I’m used to having the children living with me, and I’ll surely find it odd when they’re not around. But thankfully, I’m their principal, and I can still see them during the day,” Lucas said.

Anne was really grateful, but she could not say anything. “I still believe that if you can’t leave Luton, you should directly face Anthony. After all, they’re his children, so he won’t do anything to them.”

“I—I’ll think about it...” Anne said.

After hanging up the call, Anne sat there in a daze.

Should she tell Anthony?

She never rushed to think about such issues or the consequences.

She knew exactly what kind of devil Anthony was.

No matter how vicious a person was, Anne believed they would not harm their own children. However, she had also heard that if the father did not like the mother.

Anne was more worried that Anthony would take the children away and never let them near her again. She had been taking care of the children since they were born. Asking her to give them up would undoubtedly feel like cutting off the flesh from her body piece by piece.

Why... Why could she not be on good terms with Anthony?

Why did the grievances of the previous generation affect her...

Anne could not even bring herself to hate her own mother...

When Anne returned to the company, Xander acted as if nothing had happened. He did not know how to face her, but he still smiled brightly at her.

Anne ignored him.

She would definitely need to bring the children back. Fortunately, there was a rental house just above, and the rent in this area was relatively cheap. She first contacted the landlord and rented the house. Then, she thought of going to visit Sarah before bringing the children back. Even if Sarah was not seriously injured, she still had to see her. After all, she did swear on Sarah's life, and she felt guilty. Anne called Sarah. "What? You're at the hospital?"

Anne found the hospital ward and saw Sarah half-leaning on the bed. Her body seemed fine, and the bruises on her face had lightened. However, it was obvious how seriously Sarah had been wounded before.

"I'm fine. But... my ribs are cracked, and other soft tissues are damaged. I'm much better now. The doctor said that I could be discharged in a week." Anne's anger was followed by intense helplessness and agony. Anthony was ruthless! Then again, even Gregory suffered horrible consequences. There was nothing Anthony could not do...

Chapter 229 Bianca wanted Anne to disappear from her life! Anne woke up near noon the next day with a frail body. After she opened her eyes, it took her a long time to get back to her senses, and it seemed like she had just returned from hell to reality.

Anne could not believe she slept with Anthony again. After all, he already had Bianca, and she should be more than enough!

The thing that she thought would not happen again, happened.

Anne felt like she was Anthony’s pet, being under his control with no autonomy.

Later, Anne got up with great difficulty, put on her clothes, and walked out of the bedroom.

The cell phone in her bag on the living room floor was ringing. Anne wanted to squat down to pick it up, but she immediately fell on her back due to fatigue as soon as she tried to do that.

Anne took her phone, noticed it was an unknown number, and picked up the call. “Hello, who is this?”

Her voice was hoarse.

“Anne, why didn’t you come to work?”

Anne was stunned. Xander?

“You should’ve let me know if you’re taking a leave.”

When Anne thought about the reason for her absence, she became angry. “Ask Anthony! Why are you asking me?!”

After that, she immediately hung up the call.

Xander was shocked.

Well...consider it as a paid leave!

Anne was physically and mentally exhausted, but she was not afraid of getting fired. After all, she was telling the truth, and she could not get out of bed at all under those circumstances.

Anthony was simply a terrifying beast!

Anne became worried at the thought of Sarah, so she called her.

The call was only connected after a while, and Anna asked, “Are you okay?”

“I’m fine.”

“Really?” Anna asked again, as she did not believe it. Sarah’s miserable scream did not appear to be fake.

“I only have a few bruises, so don’t worry about it. How about you? Did Anthony do anything to you?” Sarah asked concernedly. “He didn’t do anything to me...I’ll visit you later.” Anne did not say more and did not want Sarah to ask more, so she directly hung up the call.

Then, she scrolled through the missed calls and found Lucas’ name, making her teary again.

She could not be delusional...

Someone like her was no match for Lucas.

She was with Lucas for one second and possessed by Anthony the next...

Who was she humiliating...

Anne laughed, but tears welled in her eyes.

After calming herself down, she called Lucas. They did not say much, but he asked about her situation as she did not visit in the morning, to which Anne could only say that she overslept.

Anne did not dare to reveal what Anthony did.

After a few words, they ended the call mainly because Anne was eager to hang up. She felt that everything would be exposed if she talked to him longer.

Anne did not go to the company that day, nor did she go to Lucas's place.

Powerful Papa with Triplet Babies Chapter 230

Chapter 230 Anne called the school and let the children take the school bus to her neighborhood. Lucas could not help but call her and ask, "What happened?"

Anne knew she needed a reason to bring the children back, and Lucas would surely be suspicious, so she replied, "Anthony found out that I went to your place. He was investigating me, and I'm afraid he might find the child."

"... Did he do anything to you?"

"Not to me, but my mom...he punished my mom for the things I did. But thankfully, she's alright, so don't worry."

"What a lunatic!" The well-mannered Lucas could not help but curse.

Anne completely agreed with him. Anthony was a through-and-through lunatic!

"I'll let Nancy go with the children. It's easier to confuse him if she stays in the same building," Lucas said.

Anne was touched and became teary. "You don't have to treat me so well..." "I'm used to having the children living with me, and I'll surely find it odd when they're not around. But thankfully, I'm their principal, and I can still see them during the day," Lucas said.

Anne was really grateful, but she could not say anything. "I still believe that if you can't leave Luton, you should directly face Anthony. After all, they're his children, so he won't do anything to them."

"I-I'll think about it..." Anne said.

After hanging up the call, Anne sat there in a daze.

Should she tell Anthony?

She never rushed to think about such issues or the consequences.

She knew exactly what kind of devil Anthony was.

No matter how vicious a person was, Anne believed they would not harm their own children. However, she had also heard that if the father did not like the mother.

Anne was more worried that Anthony would take the children away and never let them near her again. She had been taking care of the children since they were born. Asking her to give them up would undoubtedly feel like cutting off the flesh from her body piece by piece.

Why... Why could she not be on good terms with Anthony?

Why did the grievances of the previous generation affect her...

Anne could not even bring herself to hate her own mother...

When Anne returned to the company, Xander acted as if nothing had happened. He did not know how to face her, but he still smiled brightly at her.

Anne ignored him.

She would definitely need to bring the children back. Fortunately, there was a rental house just above, and the rent in this area was relatively cheap. She first contacted the landlord and rented the house. Then, she thought of going to visit Sarah before bringing the children back. Even if Sarah was not seriously injured, she still had to see her. After all, she did swear on Sarah's life, and she felt guilty. Anne called Sarah. "What? You're at the hospital?"

Anne found the hospital ward and saw Sarah half-leaning on the bed. Her body seemed fine, and the bruises on her face had lightened. However, it was obvious how seriously Sarah had been wounded before.

"I'm fine. But... my ribs are cracked, and other soft tissues are damaged. I'm much better now. The doctor said that I could be discharged in a week." Anne's anger was followed by intense helplessness and agony. Anthony was ruthless! Then again, even Gregory suffered horrible consequences. There was nothing Anthony could not do...
