

The voice was particularly loud in the empty corridor.

Several people from the security department of the hospital had already arrived. These people were wearing light blue uniforms with peaked caps on their heads and batons in their hands.

Pei He's face darkened.

Xu Gang hadn't walked into the ward yet, so he glanced back at the people from the security department. His expression looked morose. "What are you doing?"

"Oh, isn't this Deputy Dean Xu?" Chief Zhao walked out of the crowd and gave Xu Gang the once-over before peering at Pei He and Pei Ruo behind him. "Shouldn't you be on leave today? Why are you involved with a bunch of gangsters?"

"Deputy Dean Xu is here to treat the gangster." Although Du Jianwei looked distressed, he immediately recognized the situation. Indeed, Xu Gang was very popular in the hospital and had a high status, but it wasn't like he didn't have people backing him up. The most important thing was that Chief Zhao didn't like Xu Gang very much even though he was related to the dean.

Chapter 131 Take Him Away

The two were arguing now, and Du Jianwei was not going to let go of this opportunity, so he hurriedly made use of every opportunity.

“Chief Zhao, I’m just saving lives, and I hope you won’t interfere with me,” Xu Gang said with a cold voice and raised his eyebrows. “If something bad happens, a small security chief like you will not be able to shoulder the responsibility.”

“Pfft.” Chief Zhao touched his peaked cap with his baton. “Deputy Dean Xu, are you talking to me? I don’t f*cking believe that I can’t shoulder the responsibility. Men, take away the man inside. The police will arrive soon. Let’s see who dares to stop us.”

Xu Gang looked a little angry.

With a cold face, Pei He glanced at Chief Zhao. “Are you sure that you want to take him away?”

“Why not? I’ll take him away today. Let’s see who can stop me.” Chief Zhao raised the baton and pointed at Pei He.

Du Jianwei also nodded. “Yes, these people should be taken away too. When the police arrive, they will be handed over to them, and even Deputy Dean Xu can't escape too. Let's see how arrogant they can be by then."

Chapter 131 Take Him Away

"Take him away!" Chief Zhao pointed at Tang Yin who was in the ward.

Pei Ruo was pissed off. "What right do you have to take him away?"

"You want to talk about rights with me? Who the f*ck do you think you are? Quick, take him away!" Chief Zhao glanced at Xu Gang with a smirk on his face. "If you f*cking talk again, I'll f*cking take you all away. I'll beat you all up first to make you obey me."

Pei Ruo stared at this scene angrily, and her body was shaking.

"What's wrong? Are you dissatisfied? Just bear with it then." Chief Zhao smiled coldly. "Don't you know who is in charge in this hospital? How dare you collude with the gangsters and still act so bold here? Take him away."

"I hope you won't regret taking him away," Pei He said coldly.

Chapter 131 Take Him Away

“Regret’? I have no regrets,” Chief Zhao sneered.

Pei Ruo’s face turned red with anger, whereas Pei He narrowed his eyes as a murderous glint appeared in his eyes.

At that moment, Pei He exuded a murderous aura.

“Take him away.” Chief Zhao pursed his lips as he glanced at the group of people. He really hoped that these people would rush forward to attack him now, so he would have a reason to arrest all these guys and lock them up in the small dark room of the security department to teach a lesson.

He didn’t believe that anyone dared to confront him in this hospital. If someone dared to challenge him, he could only be accused of causing medical disturbance and just had to sit at the station for a while.

A fee security guards had rushed in and pushed Tang Yin’s hospital bed out.

“Wait a minute.” Pei Ruo stepped forward after watching Tang Yin being pushed away.

Chapter 131 Take Him Away

“Yeah, what’s the matter? Do you want to fight? You little bastards are still thinking about fighting us, huh? However, I f*cking know that you are just a bunch of cowards. I will destroy you if you dare to fight us,” Chief Zhao sneered arrogantly.

Pei Ruo trembled with anger and pointed a finger at Du Jianwei. “Since you are a member of the security department, are you not going to take action when the people in your hospital harass the patient’s family members?”

“Don’t slander me.” Du Weijian got a little angry.

Chief Zhao sized Pei Ruo up. “Hey, are you trying to accuse us of something that is false? Do you really think you’re that capable? Don’t try to exact revenge in the name of public interests when it’s actually personal, and stop putting up an act in front of me. Let’s go!”

Seeing this scene, Pei Ruo almost exploded with anger.

Pei He patted her on the shoulder and shook his head gently at her. Since these people took Tang Yin away openly and publicly, they didn’t have a better solution.

Chapter 131 Take Him Away

The only thing they could do now was to keep Tang Yin out of harm's way and keep an eye on this group of people.

"Look into the background of Chief Zhao," Pei He said with a cold face after seeing them leave.

"Okay," Scorpio hurriedly answered, turned around, and made a few calls.

Meanwhile, there was a cold expression on Pei Ruo's face as she stared at the direction where they had left and clenched her fists.

"Follow them." Pei He squinted his eyes that glinted murderously and began to trail behind some of the security guards.

Pei Ruo followed angrily, and her pretty face looked frosty.

When encountering such situations, Pei Ruo would never give in so easily and didn't care whether it was Chief Zhao or Du Jianwei.

"Mr. Pei, I found out that Chief Zhao used to be under Yu Chengguang. Later, he was transferred here because his brother-in-law is the dean," Scorpio whispered to Pei He.

Chapter 131 Take Him Away

“Tell Yu Chengguang to come here,” Pei He said coldly, his voice becoming more and more indifferent.

“Got it.” Scorpio nodded, turning around to make a call.

Meanwhile, Chief Zhao had brought Tang Yin to the security department.

Du Jianwei was following behind, attempting to ingratiate himself with Chief Zhao.

Chief Zhao slumped into the chair, threw his peaked cap onto the table, and said with a smile, “Doctor Du, you’ve done a meritorious deed. I have already reported to the police. Superintendent Xue will be here in a while. When the police arrive, I promise to give credit to you, and you’ll get an award banner.”

“Look, I just did it to keep our society safe.” Du Jianwei gave a hollow laugh, but he felt wonderful deep down. The thought of the woman named Pei Ruo caused Du Jianwei to feel resentful. So many years had passed, and he had never failed once. However, he never expected that he would get his fingers burned by Pei Ruo.

Chapter 131 Take Him Away

How could Du Jianwei tolerate this matter?

Sending him to the security department was already considered a minor problem. In fact, he should not be treated just now and should be sent directly to the police station to avoid any more problems.

Du Jianwei sneered, and when he turned his head, he saw Pei He and Pei Ruo standing at the door, and he burst with pride.

Did you come to see your boyfriend? I'm going to send your boyfriend away. Let's see if you still dare to talk about your boyfriend in front of me. In the end, I bet a little gangster like you would just give in.

"Mr. Pei, Yu Chengguang is here with his men." Scorpio walked over.

Nodding, Pei He stared at Du Jianwei and Chief Zhao inside like he was looking at two corpses.

"Mr. Pei, forgive me. It's all my fault." At that moment, Yu Chengguang's cries were heard from the depths of the corridor. He slapped his own mouth while walking, and the sound was echoing down the corridor.

Chapter 131 Take Him Away

In the room, Chief Zhao was taken aback. The voice was quite familiar, but he actually couldn't even remember where he heard it.

Rate the Translation to Get 2 Pearls.

Wait! I Have Something to Say!

Send a Gift to the Writer!

Chapter 132 Refusing to Admit

"Mr. Pei , I am really sorry!" Yu Chengguang, along with forty to fifty of his men, hurriedly walked to the entrance of the security department, thereafter he knelt down with a thump and said, "Mr. Pei, I have nothing to do with Zhao anymore; he really isn't one of my men..."

At this time, Chief Zhao spotted Yu Chengguang as well, and his expression immediately changed; he stared wide-eyed at the scene before him, a hint of fear lingering in his eyes.

Yu Chengguang!

Back when he was still a gangster, Yu Chengguang had been his big boss, and he was very popular in Wuhan. So, why did he suddenly come here and kneel down before Pei He?

Having a bad premonition about this, Chief Zhao stood up abruptly while his facial expressions went through a series of changes.

"Mr. Pei, he really has nothing to do with me. Zhao was only under me for half a month, and he really has nothing to do with me now..." Yu Chengguang hugged onto Pei Ruo's thigh and cried bitterly.

Then he turned his head and stared at Chief Zhao fiercely. "You over there! Don't drag me down with you just because you have a death wish..."

Chief Zhao's face turned pale with fright and his body shivered all over as he looked at Yu Chengguang. "Mr. Yu..."

"F*ck off, I don't have a subordinate like you!" Yu Chengguang roared.

On the sidelines, Du Jianwei's face was dark as he tried to process the whole situation. He had no idea who Yu Chengguang was at all, hence he didn't understand what was going on at the moment.

Overwhelmed by anxiety, Chief Zhao gulped. "Mr. Yu..."

Judging from Yu Chengguang's actions, Chief Zhao knew that he was in big trouble today. It seems that this Mr. Pei is no ordinary person; his identity and social status are definitely something beyond my imagination!

On the other hand, Yu Chengguang didn't even look at Chief Zhao and relentlessly groveled at Pei He's feet.

Chapter 132 Refusing to Admit

Pei He frowned. "If you have nothing to do with this matter, then stand up..."

"Ok! Ok!" Yu Chengguang felt like he was being redeemed.

Chief Zhao stood up in difficulty and forced a smile on his face. "Well... Mr. Yu..."

"Mr. Pei... I've called all my men. Just give us the order and we'll hit anyone you want. All five hundred men of mine have arrived..." Yu Chengguang hurriedly said to Pei He in a pleasing manner.

Pei He gently nodded and said nothing further, though he kept his eye on Chief Zhao, who was inside of the security room.

Finally, Chief Zhao couldn't sit still anymore, feeling completely frightened in his heart.

500 men!

Chief Zhao would never doubt Yu Chengguang's words as he knew full well that the latter had the ability.

At this moment, the footsteps outside the door became heavier and heavier, gradually reaching the room.

Chapter 132 Refusing to Admit

Just then, more than 500 men arrived at the door of the security room, and they were all staring at Chief Zhao who was standing inside.

500 men!

The weight of being surrounded by 500 men was not something Chief Zhao could handle. Moreover, judging from Yu Chengguang's words, it seemed that he wouldn't be able to get out of there at all.

At this time, sweat began to drip from Du Jianwei's forehead as he came to realize what was going on.

He is definitely not just a little goon; he must be a big boss!

I harassed that woman, and now I have been targeted! Would I even be able to leave here alive?

At this moment, the sound of sirens blared outside the hospital.

There was a trace of delight on Du Jianwei's face. "The police are here! Now that the police have come, let's see if you gangsters dare to cause any trouble here!"

Chapter 132 Refusing to Admit

Chief Zhao also realized that the police had arrived, and there was a glimmer of hope in his heart.

At this time, Superintendent Xue came walking in, followed by a dozen police officers.

“Superintendent Xue! I’m here... Superintendent Xue, please help me!” After seeing Superintendent Xue, Chief Zhao’s face beamed with joy and he shouted frantically at him.

Meanwhile, Pei He stared at the scene with eyes as cold as ice.

Superintendent Xue passed through the crowd with a cold expression on his face, but he was taken back when he saw that the leader of those men was Pei He.

“Superintendent Xue, you’re finally here...” Chief Zhao hurried up to him with a flattering look on his face. “Superintendent Xue, these men are all gangsters, and they are disrupting the order here in the hospital. All of them should be arrested! Especially this person, he is the leader! I think you should torture him during the interrogation...”

Chapter 132 Refusing to Admit

“Yes! Yes! Yes! He is their leader! I can testify to it... Superintendent Xue, please arrest him immediately!” Du Jianwei also walked up hurriedly.

Their fingers were pointing at exactly where Pei He stood.

With a gloomy expression, Superintendent Xue turned to Pei He and asked, “Mr. Pei, what’s going on here?”

Pei He walked over with a cold expression. “Superintendent Xue, I’m sure that you know about Tang Yin’s assassination tonight right? I was just sending Tang Yin to the hospital, but I was somehow taken here by the security department...”

“Tang Yin?” Superintendent Xue froze for a moment and his expression immediately stiffened.

The attempted assassination of Tang Yin had caused an uproar within the police station; this incident could be considered as the worst incident in Wuhan in the recent years.

All the police officers in Wuhan City were busy because of this matter.

Chapter 132 Refusing to Admit

Did something happen again when Tang Yin was in the hospital?

“What happened?” Superintendent Xue’s expression turned completely cold, with his gaze fixed on both Chief Zhao and Du Jianwei.

“Well...” Shivering all over, Chief Zhao hurriedly stepped forward. “Superintendent Xue, we suspected that someone was planning a brawl, so we decided to bring them here...”

“They didn’t get a satisfactory answer after threatening and harassing the patient’s family. So, they began to retaliate privately...” Pei Ruo said coldly.

“Don’t talk nonsense! How could we harass and threaten the families of the patients?” Chief Zhao panicked and said hurriedly, “Superintendent Xue, you have to trust us! It wasn’t like that! We saw someone being wounded by a knife and that’s why we have brought them here!”

“Superintendent Xue, it really wasn’t like that! Don’t listen to her nonsense...” Du Jianwei yelled loudly, his voice breaking. “It’s them! They were the ones causing trouble for the medical staff; they began bullying the doctors because they were outnumbered...”

Chapter 132 Refusing to Admit

Pei Ruo looked at him with disdain.
“Causing trouble? I was only reporting to the chief of your security department that the doctors here had harassed and threatened the patient’s family. But, you guys did not seem to take it seriously...”

“I didn’t harass anyone...” Du Jianwei wailed. “Superintendent Xue, I didn’t do it! Don’t listen to them! They are just slinging mud at me...”

Superintendent Xue looked at the scene before him with a grimace on his face.

Pei Ruo smiled arrogantly and turned to Superintendent Xue. “Superintendent Xue, you should bring him back for investigation!”

“I can swear to God that I have not harassed or threatened anyone’s family members!” Du Jianwei hurriedly screamed.

Superintendent Xue frowned and looked at this scene, unable to tell who was at fault. Hence, he could only wave his hands and said, “Take him away first. We’ll investigate the rest of the matter later... Anyway,

Chapter 132 Refusing to Admit

Deputy Mayor Wang is on his way here now; I believe that he'll know how to deal with this matter!"

As soon as he said this, the entire security department went silent.

Deputy Mayor Wang!

When Du Jianwei heard this, he was immediately dumbfounded and felt like he could pass out any time.

Rate the Translation to Get 2 Pearls.

Wait! I Have Something to Say!

Send a Gift to the Writer!

Chapter 133 The Broadcast

Du Jianwei's facial expression went through a series of changes. It was only now that he realized that the person he had offended wasn't a goon but an important person with a status beyond anyone's imagination.

I even harassed his woman! If this gets out, I'd be a huge joke to everyone!

After all, who else in Wuhan could make Deputy Mayor Wang interfere with this issue?

Meanwhile, Chief Zhao was frightened out of his wits. Seeing that even Superintendent Xue was submissive toward Pei Ruo, he knew that the former wouldn't be able to outtalk her. As soon as he heard that Deputy Mayor Wang was coming, Chief Zhao was so scared that he went limp right away. If Pei Ruo's words did end up being true, no one could back him up by then, not even his brother-in-law!

Isn't he only a goon? Why is the Deputy Mayor coming as well?

"You vile pr*ck!"

At this time, a loud cry could be heard from the corridor, thereafter a man in his

Chapter 133 The Broadcast

fifties dashed into the room and gave a harsh kick to Chief Zhao's body instantly. It was the hospital dean, Cui Kai! He then pointed at Chief Zhao with his trembling finger. "Who allowed you to bring them here? What the hell were you trying to do?"

Just as the sentence ended, Chief Zhao received a round of heavy kicks and blows from Cui Kai.

Cui Kai understood that he could not bear the consequences of offending Deputy Mayor Wang regardless of what had happened tonight. He wouldn't be able to go against this group of people even if they really caused trouble to the medical staff. Considering that they were even able to involve the Deputy Mayor to solve this matter, naturally they wouldn't be afraid of bearing the consequences of making a fuss in the hospital.

It was the very first time Chief Zhao saw his brother-in-law throwing such a tantrum. Covering his head with both of his arms, Chief Zhao moved his trembling lips and said in horror, "I-I-It's him—Du Jianwei! He asked me to bring them here!"

Du Jianwei trembled and the color drained from his face. "Dean..."

“Du Jianwei!” Cui Kai roared in fury and gave Du Jianwei a hard slap on his face. “If you don’t wish to continue your job, then get out of here now!”

“Dean, it’s not like that! They threatened me to treat the brat and even commented badly on our hospital’s services. I never harassed or threatened the patient’s family. You have to trust me!” Du Jianwei was about to burst into tears.

Cui Kai pointed at Du Jianwei with his trembling finger and stomped his foot furiously.

If that was really the case, it would be easier to explain their way out of this. Even if Deputy Mayor Wang were to question him about this matter, he would come up with excuses in order to save the reputation of the hospital.

Looking at how Du Jianwei denied his actions, Pei Ruo smirked callously and signaled Xu Gang over.

After a slight hesitation, Xu Gang took a few steps forward.

Pei Ruo then whispered a few things into his ear before fishing out her mobile phone

Chapter 133 The Broadcast

to send him some files.

A gleam flashed in Xu Gang's eyes and he turned to go upstairs.

Superintendent Xue sighed softly and ordered some of the police officers to bring Tang Yin out.

At this time, a fleet of cars stopped in front of the hospital's main entrance.

Deputy Mayor Wang opened the car door and fixed his eyes on the hospital before letting out a sigh. He then got out of the car and walked toward the hospital entrance.

Meanwhile, at the door of the security department, Cui Kai's stomach dropped as soon as he heard the arrival of Deputy Mayor Wang.

"Keep your eyes on Chief Zhao and Dr. Du..." With an icy-cold voice, Pei He whispered his order to Scorpio's ear before turning and walking toward the patient's ward with Pei Ruo.

Scorpio nodded his head and glanced at Yu Chengguang, secretly giving the signal.

Chapter 133 The Broadcast

In the security department, Chief Zhao was driven to despair when he saw Yu Chengguang entering the room.

Having able to gain a firm foothold in Wuhan for so many years, it was clear that Yu Chengguang was no ordinary person.

He knew how to react to every situation—as to when to be tolerable and when to be merciless.

By now, Deputy Mayor Wang had gone upstairs and as soon as he reached the security department, he glared at Cui Kai, whose face was as pale as a sheet, with hatred within his eyes.

“Deputy Mayor Wang, for your information, it was the family of the patients who...” Cui Kai was at a loss for words. After hesitating for a moment, he started to stomp his foot and said, “Our hospital only followed the rules and regulations of the procedures. After all, we didn’t know what kind of person he was when he was sent to us. Since he had a knife wound, it was a must for us to send him to the security department first!”

“Then why did I hear that it was the medical staff who threatened the patient’s family?" Deputy Mayor Wang looked indifferently at Cui Kai.

"No! That would never happen! How could I let such things happen when I have been in the hospital for so many years? You can rest assured that such problems would not arise as long as I'm holding the position of the dean in this hospital..." Cui Kai explained hurriedly.

"Oh?" Deputy Mayor Wang's brows knitted.

Just then, a broadcast was played through the hospital's speaker system, and the content of the broadcast was jaw-dropping.

"To be honest, I don't think that your boyfriend is that great... How about dating me instead?"

"B*tch, do you know who you're talking to? I'm your savior. Is this how you should talk to your savior? Clearly, you don't know what's good for you! You should count yourself lucky that I've taken a fancy to you..."

"Hmph! Stay here as you like then! We'll just wait and see whether he'd regain his consciousness..."

Chapter 133 The Broadcast

Du Jianwei's voice was broadcasted throughout the hospital; tens of thousands of doctors and patients in the whole hospital could hear it clearly.

Cui Kai was still trying hard to explain, but as soon as he heard the broadcast, his face turned pale at once and he stuttered, "T-T-This..."

"Is this one of your doctors?" Deputy Mayor Wang's facial expression turned sullen immediately.

"Deputy Mayor Wang, t-t-this is impossible! You've got to listen to me... Listen to me..." Cui Kai quickly went forward and grabbed Deputy Mayor Wang's hand, nearly kneeling down before him.

I didn't expect it to be actually true! Since when did our hospital have such a doctor who threatens and harasses the patient's family? Du Jianwei, this bastard...

Cui Kai was about to cry in despair. Just a moment ago, he had promised that such a thing would never happen in the hospital. Yet, it was proved otherwise as soon as he gave his assurance.

"Go back and write a reflection report! In addition, you shall step down from your position as the dean for the time being...” Deputy Mayor Wang glared at Cui Kai fiercely with an icy-cold expression.

Chapter 133 The Broadcast

Cui Kai shuddered. I’m doomed!

In the security department, as soon as Chief Zhao heard the broadcast, his face turned pale and he stumbled onto the ground. With a terrible expression on his face, he grabbed Yu Chengguang’s hand and begged for forgiveness. “Mr. Yu, please give me another chance... It’s my fault!”

“Is this what you mean by the rules and regulations? Is this the standard operating procedure that you have mentioned earlier?” Yu Chengguang lifted his gaze and looked at him.

Shivering in fear, Chief Zhao was at a loss for words.

Du Jianwei was completely dumbfounded. Listening to the content of the broadcast, his mind went blank and his stomach dropped.

*Sh*t! Sh*t! I’m dead!*

Chapter 133 The Broadcast

By now, everyone in the hospital had heard the voice. Since most of the people in the hospital knew him, they could definitely recognize his voice.

This caused a huge stir in the hospital all of a sudden.

Everyone knew that Du Jianwei was going to be dead meat!

Meanwhile, Du Jianwei stared blankly into space amidst the commotion, knowing that no one could save him out of this trouble at this moment.

Rate the Translation to Get 2 Pearls.

Wait! I Have Something to Say!

Send a Gift to the Writer!

Chapter 134 Questioning Tong Junyou Part One

Initially, Du Jianwei hadn't thought that it'd be a big deal even if this matter was exposed. With the connections he had with the Department of Health, he would still be able to brush it off. However, it was different now, considering that way too many people had gotten to know about the matter.

As soon as the broadcast came out, almost everyone in the hospital knew about his wrongdoings. This issue would bring on a wave of public opinion, in which the immense pressure from it would be too much for him to take.

How evil of her!

I never expect that woman to be so evil!

Chief Zhao immediately turned his head and stared at Du Jianwei with a pair of red eyes. "Du Jianwei, look what you've done..."

"Chief Zhao, you can't blame me! That woman was the one who seduced me first!" Du Jianwei panicked.

"I'm going to kill you!" Chief Zhao had already pounced on Du Jianwei and tried to strangle his neck.

Chapter 134 Questioning Tong Junyou Part One

“No!” Du Jianwei yelled frantically.

But why should Chief Zhao listen to him? His entire frame was already atop Du Jianwei’s body as he viciously strangled him with both hands; his heart was already filled with a tremendous amount of hatred for this guy.

Deep down, he had come to terms that it was because of his relationship with Du Jianwei that brought him to this day.

“I’m going to kill you!”

Several security guards in the hospital quickly held back Chief Zhao, who was blinded by rage, and pushed Du Jianwei away.

With an extremely pale face, Chief Zhao instantly turned his head and knelt in front of Yu Chengguang, then he cried bitterly and said, “Mr. Yu, please let me go this time! I beg you to show me mercy just this time!”

“Feeling regretful?” Yu Chengguang looked at him with a sneer on his face. “I heard that you claimed that you would never regret your actions once you leave with your men...”

Chapter 134 Questioning Tong Junyou Part One

"I regret doing that! I really do! I won't ever dare to do that again!" Chief Zhao cried loudly.

"Well, too bad! It's too late for you to regret it!" Yu Chengguang made a gesture with his hand.

Completely pale, Du Jianwei shrank into a corner, thereafter a stream of yellow liquid flowed out from his pants, making him look absolutely pitiful.

"Take them away! It's not appropriate to teach them a lesson here..." said Yu Chengguang with a ferocious look on his face.

Du Jianwei was then dragged out like a piece of dead meat.

On the other hand, Chief Zhao kept on wailing, "Mr. Yu! Mr. Yu, please forgive me..."

Yu Chengguang raised his foot and sent a kick to Chief Zhao's face, causing his mouth to bleed and several of his teeth to fall.

"Take them away!" Yu Chengguang waved his hand.

Chapter 134 Questioning Tong Junyou Part One

All of his men came forward and dragged Chief Zhao out of the hospital.

Yu Chengguang then squatted down in front of Du Jianwei and gave him a thumbs-up. "You're quite impressive! I really didn't expect that you would dare to mess around with Mr. Pei's sister!"

Du Jianwei came to his senses and said hurriedly, "No! Let me go! I know someone from the Department of Health..."

Yu Chengguang grasped his hair brutally and banged his head to the door frame at once, causing him to bleed and feel lightheaded. "I don't f*cking care if you know someone from the Department of Health; that doesn't mean that you can mess around with the family of the patient as you please!"

"I..." Du Jianwei shivered all over.

Yu Chengguang grabbed his hair again and violently banged his head to the door frame for more than ten times in a row, thereafter causing Du Jianwei to pass out from the assault.

Still grabbing his hair, Yu Chengguang dragged him out of the security department.

It was clear that Du Jianwei wouldn't have a happy ending today; he would either lose his life or become disabled permanently, and no one was able to save him from that.

The scene that happened in the security department was blocked by hundreds of people, hence outsiders could not see what happened inside at all.

Meanwhile, Deputy Mayor Wang, who was in the meeting room, rubbed his temple and let out a soft sigh.

Miao Bai was on his way here, and he knew that it would be hard to deal with this issue by then. After all, Deputy Mayor Wang and Miao Bai were once comrades at war, having come out of the same trench back then. Hence, Deputy Mayor Wang understood Miao Bai very well. This old fart is capable of doing just about anything! If he blows a fuse, he wouldn't hesitate to blow up the house of his opponents.

This is giving me such a headache! Deputy Mayor Wang shook his head and looked at his secretary who was standing far away from him. "Where is the old fart n ow?"

Chapter 134 Questioning Tong Junyou Part One

"He has just departed from the airport, which means he would be arriving soon," his secretary replied.

Deputy Mayor Wang nodded with a glum look on his face.

Meanwhile, Miao Bai had just departed from the airport, and he didn't look too happy as well.

No one in the car dared to talk loudly as they were afraid of being scalped by Miao Bai if he were to blow a fuse at this moment.

"Give a call to Tong Junyou now..." Miao Bai made a gesture with a trace of annoyance on his face.

His secretary hesitated for a while before dialing the number as Miao Bai instructed.

Toot... Toot... Toot...

"General Manager Miao..." Tong Junyou's weary voice sounded from the phone.

"Tong Junyou, you're quite the brilliant one now, aren't you?" Miao Bai sneered. With a flicker in his eyes, he said, "Is there anything that you want to tell me?"

"I..." Tong Junyou became silent at once. He knew that there were only two situations which would make Miao Bai guffaw—either something made him feel exhilarated, or something got under his skin.

Obviously, it wasn't a happy laugh; it was the calm before a storm!

"Tong Junyou, do you think that the Elder Master of the Tang Family would be able to protect you?!" Miao Bai roared like a flame that was fanned.

Tong Junyou kept silent, knowing that he had been caught in the act. Let alone his amateur take on his actions, there were people who were caught red-handed even after they had committed the perfect crime.

"You think that no one would be a threat to you since the family members of the Tang Family have started taking sides two years ago, don't you?" Miao Bai continued his words in a cold tone with a somber expression. "Indeed, there is such a rule whereby the representatives of the respective areas couldn't simply be replaced by others before the round of taking sides commence, nor could anyone put pressure on you guys. However, don't forget that there will be another round of shuffling after the new line-up is formed!"

"I understand that, General Manager Miao!" Tong Junyou suppressed the overwhelming emotions in his heart.

Miao Bai said coldly, "I was the one who trained you up; I never expected that you'd be the first to get into trouble! Tong Junyou, you better listen carefully: I don't care if you're together with Tang Wei, but if Tang Yin were to encounter such a situation again, the second master of the Tang Family and I would crush you into pieces even if the main family interferes with this matter! Believe me, you and your family will never be safe as long as you're still on this planet..."

"General Manager Miao, I couldn't have done anything when Tang Yin got into trouble here! Besides that, do you think there's anyone who's still alive in my family other than me after that incident several years ago?" Tong Junyou said. He then took a deep breath, thinking that he might as well throw away all the fear he had within him. “Tang Yin has been too arrogant during his stay in Wuhan, causing many people to be angry and resentful! He had threatened his own safety, so why should I be blamed for that then?”

Miao Bai squinted his eyes, a formidable aura radiating off him.

“General Manager Miao, I admit that I’m in a relationship with Tang Wei, but I can assure you that I’ve never done anything to the Young Master!” Tong Junyou regained his composure and said in a steady tone, “The reason that I’ve chosen Tang Wei is because I have lost all confidence in Tang Yin! Can’t you see what he has been doing all these years? Playing with women and living an aimless life in university! We can’t live like he does; people like us who are the subordinates of the family are seeking for peace in the future. In fact, I don’t feel sorry for him at all to see that he was almost killed in an assassination attempt; I think he deserves it for what he has done... Seeing how he’s not capable at all, wouldn’t it be better if he wasn’t born in the Tang Family? He would only bring disgrace to the family as well as putting the people around him in danger. Anyway, you should ask him to take good care of himself and stop being too arrogant! Perhaps then, he would have a slim chance to live longer!”

Chapter 134 Questioning Tong Junyou Part One

Rate the Translation to Get 2 Pearls.

Wait! I Have Something to Say!

Send a Gift to the Writer!

“You really are something! Tong Junyou, I promoted you back then because I admired your boldness, but never did I expect your boldness to surprise me once again,” said Miao Bai through gritted teeth as he narrowed his eyes; a gleam of murderous intent flashed across his face.

“General Manager Miao, I don’t care whether you believe me or not, but I swear that I did not harm the Young Master.” Tong Junyou then stayed silent for quite some time before he smiled and said, “I chose Tang Wei as it is my freedom to do so, and this decision was made after careful consideration.”

“Aren’t you afraid that if Tang Wei fails, you will die along with her?” asked Miao Bai coldly.

“I’m not afraid!” Tong Junyou continued, “It is better to choose a more capable person than a hopeless one like Tang Yin. General Manager Miao, you have more options in choosing your side, but I don’t. Moreover, you know you can’t force me to choose just whoever, right? Tang Wei is my choice and I will not change my mind. As for Tang Yin... If he can drag me down from my position as the head of the district, then I will acknowledge his capabilities. But if he can't, I'll consider sparing his life in the future."

Chapter 135 Questioning Tong Junyou Part Two

"Fine..." Miao Bai gritted his teeth as he nodded his head furiously. "You've really outdone yourself!"

"This is nothing! Based on the circumstances, I had no choice. Besides, I believe in my own judgement, and in my opinion, Tang Wei is much more capable than Tang Yin..." Tong Junyou continued, "Tang Yin can't even hold a candle to Tang Wei..."

"Alright then. You better remember what you said today!" Miao Bai inhaled deeply.

Tong Junyou was one of his men, but now that he had betrayed him in such a blatant way, how could Miao Bai, with his arrogant attitude, tolerate it? Judging by his personality, it was strange that he hadn't barged into Tong Junyou's house and slaughtered every single person there yet!

It was too bad since the Tang Family had their own rules.

During the period of choosing sides, the head of the district could not be changed at will, nor should any problem arise. Once a problem occurred, not only would it bring immeasurable consequences to Miao Bai, it might even cause the second master of the Tang Family, who was currently in Africa, some problems.

Chapter 135 Questioning Tong Junyou Part Two

With that, Miao Bai hung up the phone.

When his secretary saw this, she quickly put the phone in Miao Bai's hands aside.

Miao Bai was extremely pissed right now. Anybody could see it, but they did not dare to advise him. After all, this matter wasn't something that subordinates like them could handle.

Half an hour later, Miao Bai arrived at the hospital, thereupon he lifted his eyes to look at the building before turning around and entering it.

At the same moment, Tang Yin, who was in the ward, opened his eyes.

When Pei Ruo saw that he was awake, a trace of delight took over her face. "Tang Yin, how are you feeling?"

"I am fine." Tang Yin nodded his head but as he inhaled deeply, he felt a stabbing pain in his shoulders and knees. "How is Ji Youyou and Meng Wan?”

“Both of their conditions are stable, so it shouldn’t be a problem! Do you want to go see them now?” asked Pei Ruo softly, with eyes filled with distress.

When Tang Yin saw this, he was moved. “No need, let them rest for tonight. I will visit them tomorrow morning.”

“Ok! By the way, General Manager Miao is here,” said Pei Ruo softly.

Tang Yin nodded his head. However, he wasn’t in the mood to bother about this now, hence he closed his eyes and continued to rest.

Miao Bai had indeed arrived at the hospital, and not long after his arrival, the Meng Family had arrived as well.

Nobody knew what went on in the conference room of the hospital, but the loud sound of things smashing in the room could be heard.

After Miao Bai left, Deputy Mayor Wang massaged his temples and cursed under his breath for the mess they had made, thereafter he let out a sigh.

Meanwhile, the Meng Family had arrived and made their way into the conference room.

Meng Cuiping!

Meng Cuiping was Meng Wan's aunt, and she was currently sitting opposite Deputy Mayor Wang with a cold look on her face.

Deputy Mayor Wang's face looked grim. He knew that Meng Cuiping held the title of 'The Cold Face Demon' in the business world, but at the same time, she was a loving person who adored her niece to pieces.

That night, Deputy Mayor Wang did not sleep a wink. He finally walked out of the hospital at dawn after repeated negotiations between Miao Bai and Meng Cuiping.

At dawn, Tang Yin woke up once again. However, instead of seeing Pei Ruo, he was greeted by a woman in her forties sitting in front of him.

Her expression was stern, and a pair of golden spectacles rested upon the bridge of her nose. Not only that, it was almost impossible to see any signs of aging on her face due to years of proper maintenance.

Meng Cuiping!

Almost half of the Meng Family's businesses were in her hands; she was indeed the iron lady of the family.

As soon as he saw her, Tang Yin sucked in a cold breath and quickly shut his eyes.

She wasn't an easy person to deal with after all.

"Open your eyes now!" Meng Cuiping's voice was similar to that of a demon.

The corners of Tang Yin's mouth started to twitch as he opened his eyes innocently and looked her in the eye. "Madam Meng, why are you here?"

"How could I not be here?! You nearly killed a person!" Meng Cuiping fixed her gaze upon Tang Yin, a storm brewing behind her eyes.

Tang Yin forced out a smile. "Erm... Actually, I really miss you too!"

"Enough of your nonsense!" Meng Cuiping glared at him coldly with a gaze as sharp as a knife. "Do you know why Meng Wan came to Wuhan? Do you know why she did it?"

"I do," said Tang Yin quickly.

"Do you?! I don't think you understand at all!" Meng Cuiping's voice went up a notch, obviously enraged. "What were you thinking?! Aren't you aware of Meng Wan's feelings for you?!"

Her voice reverberated around the ward.

Tang Yin's expression stiffened, not knowing what to say.

In the depths of the corridor at the moment, a nurse was seen pushing Ji Youyou's bed toward the floor where Tang Yin's ward was located.

Initially, the nurse had no intentions of coming here, but due to Ji Youyou's pestering and begging, she finally relented. Besides, Ji Youyou did not have any other thoughts other than checking in on Tang Yin's condition.

In fact, Ji Youyou, who was half lying in bed, did not look too well; she was still quite weak due to her broken ribs. Even so, she wanted to check in on Tang Yin's condition.

Chapter 135 Questioning Tong Junyou Part Two

Just when they reached the entrance of the ward, Meng Cuiping's enraged voice could be heard from inside.

"Tang Yin, you need to give the Meng Family an explanation! Back then, the Tang Family was the one who proposed the marriage contract, and now they are the ones who want to cancel it. Does your family take our Meng Family as a bunch of fools? Do you think that Meng Wan cannot find a better person to marry? Let me make this clear: you either marry Meng Wan after you've been discharged, or I will kill you here on the spot!"

Ji Youyou, who was just outside the door, trembled and her face paled in that instant.

Tang Yin and Meng Wan had a marriage contract?

Ji Youyou never knew that Meng Wan and Tang Yin had a marriage contract between them; she had thought that they were just childhood friends who grew up together.

In that instant, she finally realized why Meng Wan would occasionally throw her an envious look. It seemed that Meng Wan wasn't envious of love, she was envious of her! Feeling terrible, Ji Youyou gently lowered her head.

It seemed that Tang Yin might not belong to her after all...

"Madam Meng, I am sorry for I have fallen in love with someone else."

"You have somebody you love?! Do you think that just because you are part of the Tang Family, I wouldn't hurt you?! I'll cripple you now!" bellowed Meng Cuiping.

"Don't!" At this moment, Ji Youyou's voice rang out from behind the doors.

Tang Yin lifted his head and his expression changed abruptly when he saw Ji Youyou who was lying on the hospital bed by the entrance.

Meng Cuiping towered over them as she

Chapter 136 A Video Call From Tang Wei

cast her gaze toward the duo. "Is this her?"

When Tang Yin saw Meng Cuiping's demeanor, his face turned cold. "Madam Meng, you have watched me grow into the man I am now, and thus I respect you from the bottom of my heart. However, should you interfere in my affairs, I would not just stand by and watch!"

Meng Cuiping was stunned, her eyes burning with rage.

"I mean it!" said Tang Yin with a dark look on his face.

"Fine!" Meng Cuiping gritted her teeth and after taking one last look at Tang Yin, she turned around and left.

Tang Yin finally heaved a sigh of relief as he watched her leave. Although he knew that he had completely offended her, he felt as if a burden had been lifted from his heart.

Tang Yin was afraid of only two women in this world: the first was Meng Cuiping from the Meng Family, and the other was none other than his mother, who was currently in Paris now. Their strong-wills were carved into their bones and they were prideful by nature; no obstacles could stand in their way.

Many people respected them because of this. However, Tang Yin had more respect for them compared to other people.

Meng Cuiping came and left like the typhoon, leaving behind Tang Yin and Ji Youyou by themselves.

Ji Youyou lifted her head, not looking too happy at the moment.

Tang Yin smiled as he forced himself to get up. "How are you? Are you feeling any better?"

With a grim expression, Ji Youyou kept silent.

Tang Yin smiled as he turned around and walked toward her. He then patted her head and asked, "What's wrong? We have already kissed and hugged each other, and now you choose to ignore me? Are you thinking of abandoning me after toying with my feelings?"

Ji Youyou blushed but still remained silent.

Tang Yin then waved his hand, signaling

Chapter 136 A Video Call From Tang Wei

the nurse to leave. Then, he pushed Ji Youyou into his ward and leaned against her bed.

Ji Youyou panicked. "Tang Yin..."

Tang Yin leaned forward and kissed her lips forcefully, making it hard for her to catch her breath.

After quite some time, Tang Yin finally raised his head and looked at Ji Youyou who was blushing furiously. Then, he said in a domineering manner, "I don't care what you think, but remember this: don't ever think of leaving my side for the rest of your life. I won't allow even the slightest thought of it. Remember this, not even the slightest thought!"

Ji Youyou's emotions were in a turmoil, her heart still thumping madly from the kiss just now. Hence, she was quite tense at the moment.

Tang Yin looked at her fiercely before lying back on his bed.

Since both of their beds were next to each other, it was as if they were lying on a huge single bed.

"It feels like we are sharing the same bed now. You can't run away even if you wanted to..." Tang Yin muttered to himself.

Ji Youyou bit her lips and when she turned to look at him, she was on the verge of crying as tears began to well up in her eyes.

What is Tang Yin doing?

Is he putting up a continuous fight because of me?

"Wait here for me," said Tang Yin as he turned around and left the ward.

Ji Youyou was in a daze as she watched Tang Yin leave. Having recalled Meng Cuiping's words, she took out her phone hesitantly and opened the chatbox between her and Meng Wan. After hesitating for a long time, she decided not to say anything.

On the other hand, Tang Yin's phone suddenly rang the moment he left the ward.

Tang Yin fished out his mobile phone and his eyes suddenly gleamed.

Tang Wei!

He answered the video call and a cacophony of voices could be heard. It seemed that she was at a ball.

Tang Yin continued to watch the video. Finally, Tang Wei's face appeared, thereupon the corners of his mouth curled into a smile, though he secretly hated her deep down.

"Tang Yin, I heard that somebody tried to assassinate you. I've been worried sick about you..." Tang Wei giggled as she rocked back and forth; the ribbon in front of her chest nearly came loose, revealing a slight cleavage.

Tang Yin smiled. "Forgive me for my bad eyesight, I can't seem to see any worry in your eyes."

"How could you not see it? I drank quite a lot just now because I was too worried about you," said Tang Wei as she giggled, looking very happy. Then, she said with a charming voice, "Tang Yin, how long has it been since we last saw each other? Three years? Or was it five? I really miss you... You better stay alive. Don't die before you get to see my face..."

Chapter 136 A Video Call From Tang Wei

"My luck has always been good," Tang Yin said with a smile as he sat down in the corridor of the hospital.

"Ah, I see. You may be lucky, but that doesn't mean that you have the capabilities." Tang Wei licked the corners of her mouth as she looked at Tang Yin with a sultry gaze. "I haven't seen you in a few years, but my oh my, how you've grown! If I wasn't your sister, I'd really like to press you down on a bed and see how you would react..."

With that, Tang Wei grabbed a handsome foreigner and pressed his face onto her neck; she looked as if she was enjoying it.

"I think I'd hurl easily the next time I see you." Tang Yin's gaze turned cold.

Tang Wei giggled before laughing dissolutely. "Are you sure that you'd have the opportunity to meet me again?"

"Well, if you die early, I think we might not get the chance at all!" Tang Yin smiled as he shook his head.

"You don't have that kind of ability yet..." Tang Wei's voice grew cold as she pushed away the handsome foreigner beside her.

Chapter 136 A Video Call From Tang Wei

Then, she glared at him with a dark expression. "Why don't you continue to cower in fear in your university? I feel that the ivory tower is a good place for people like you, since society can devour a person. If you were devoured, the people around you might be dead meat..."

She was threatening him!

Tang Yin lowered his voice and whispered into the phone, "Well, I think that'd be difficult, considering that I have been a grudgeful person since I was young. So, you better watch out!"

"Do you think that you can kill me?" Tang Wei pretended to panic as she patted her chest. "Ooh! You are so terrifying, but I am not scared at all... After all, you are the easiest to deal with amongst our six cousins, and you are the least courageous amongst them. You better take care of yourself as I haven't gotten serious with you just yet. Don't die in the next moment... Hahaha!"

Tang Yin hung up the phone, his expression turning grim at the moment.

Tang Wei was openly provoking him.

Chapter 136 A Video Call From Tang Wei

Tang Yin clenched his fists tightly and took a deep breath. Feeling a stabbing pain from his knees, the hatred in his heart grew even more.

He had just stood up and was about to walk away when he saw an elderly man in his sixties standing at the far end of the corridor.

This elderly man had snow-white hair and a beard. Though he was hunched over, his gaze was as sharp as an eagle.

Tang Yin fixed his gaze upon this elderly man and had a bad feeling deep down. The next thing he knew, the elderly man's steps were akin to that of a ghost. In the blink of an eye, he had come right in front of Tang Yin and struck out with his fist.

Rate the Translation to Get 2 Pearls.

Wait! I Have Something to Say!

Send a Gift to the Writer!

Tang Yin's mouth was wide open. That was because the elderly man's fist had appeared right in front of his face in the blink of an eye.

The elderly man looked at Tang Yin's surprised expression and frowned slightly before letting out a sigh. "Your reaction is too slow..."

Tang Yin took in a deep breath as he leaned back, his entire body covering in sweat. He was certain that this elderly man did not mean any harm, otherwise he would have been either dead or injured at this point.

"That brat, Miao Bai, is calling for you. Come with me..." The elderly man shook his head and placed his hands behind his back. Then, he turned around and walked toward the corridor.

Tang Yin stood up with lingering fear in his heart and dragged his legs downstairs. Then, he saw Miao Bai in one of the quieter rooms, standing in there with his back toward him. Meanwhile, the elderly man remained outside, and there was a trace of disappointment in his eyes when he looked at Tang Yin.

Chapter 137 There Is No Human in the Tang Family Anymore

“Uncle Miao...”

Miao Bai turned his head, a trace of unbearable pain filling his eyes as he smiled gently.

“Of the two international assassins, one of them has been captured. The police are still investigating this matter, but I am afraid that it will be a futile attempt; the other one was killed by a bodyguard of the Meng Family, hence there won’t be any clues or people left behind...” Miao Bai hesitated for awhile before he whispered, “The ones who could hire these people aren’t ordinary folks like Xue Bai or Geng Jian. I believe that you are clear about this.”

“Yes.” The corners of Tang Yin’s mouth curled into a smile.

“Do you have any plans so far?” Miao Bai looked at Tang Yin.

“The right to the Tang Family’s inheritance is not important to me, right?” Tang Yin raised his head and his eyes were filled with a playful expression. “The most important thing for me now is to stay alive, right?”

Miao Bai was stunned. Then, he pressed his lips into a smile. "Ok, I understand."

"I want Tong Junyou to pay..."

"I am afraid that it won't be that easy."
Miao Bai was silent for a moment before he sighed. "If the Tang Family did not take sides, I would be able to chase him out with a single command. However, since the Tang Family has already shown signs that they are taking sides, I am afraid that it's gonna be tough."

"I admit that it isn't easy, but don't we have other options?" Tang Yin pressed his lips into a smile and spread his hands as he said, "For example... A major investment mistake?"

Miao Bai remained silent, with no inclination to speak.

Tang Yin then stood up and smiled warmly. "Uncle Miao, we cannot just leave things as it is! I know what Tang Wei is capable of. As the saying goes, an eye for an eye; if Tong Junyou plans to stir up trouble here, he will have to face my wrath!"

Miao Bai watched Tang Yin's retreating figure and the corners of his mouth curled up into a smile. "Master Hu Song here is a master in the art of 'Form-Intention Fist', and he is a well-known martial arts fighter in the world. He'll be by your side from now on, so don't let me down..."

Tang Yin pursed his lips when he recalled the elderly man just now. Then, he turned around and walked out of the room.

Miao Bai watched Tang Yin leave and sighed. Then, he fished out his phone and dialed an encrypted number.

After the dialing tone rang for the umpteenth time, a hoarse voice was finally heard from the other end of the line.

"Master, Tang Yin is alright," said Miao Bai in a respectful manner.

"That's good to hear," answered the second master of the Tang Family.

After a pause, Miao Bai then said, "Tang Yin is planning to take sides now, and I plan to support him."

The second master of the Tang Family stayed silent for a while before asking calmly, "Is there any hope that he will win?"

"I'm not sure!" answered Miao Bai.

Again, the second master of the Tang Family remained silent for a while before saying, "I knew that he had planted somebody beside the Old Master a long time ago. Tang Yin has got skills, but his chances of winning are very slim. Although he has a radical personality, he has always been calm and steady when it comes to handling things. I don't understand why you think so highly of him; you're even more optimistic about him than I am!"

Miao Bai lifted his head and gazed at the blue sky outside the window. Then, he said through the phone, "That is because Tang Yin acts more like a human. A living, breathing human being! Having served the Tang Family for many years, I have witnessed many things within the family. I know how the Tang Family lives and how they handle their matters, and I feel that there are no more human beings left in the Tang Family anymore. Either they are lunatics, who have lost their minds, such as Tang Wei, or they are cold and cruel machines like the third Master of the Tang Family. Either way, they have lost all their humanity. They only have greed and their own interest at heart. Moreover, they are willing to trade in everything they have for the sake of those things. As such, they are not humans anymore!”

Chapter 137 There Is No Human in the Tang Family Anymore

“Tang Wei? The third master of the Tang Family?” The second master of the Tang Family went silent for a while before asking in a hoarse voice, “Even I’m not considered human anymore?”

“That’s right!” said Miao Bai honestly. “Tang Yin is the only person in the Tang Family that is still considered a human being. He has emotions and enthusiasm in his heart; he’d get happy over a minor thing, and angry when his friends are being bullied. So, even if he has zero chances of winning, I am willing to stand by his side.”

The second master of the Tang Family fell silent once more, and this time, he was silent for a long while.

Miao Bai held the phone for a good five minutes before he heard the second master’s dreary voice from the other end of the line. “Since when did I become an emotionless person with only my self-interest at heart?”

Miao Bai did not answer him and soon heard the sound of the call being ended. Then, he set down his mobile phone gently.

The Tang Family did not have any humanity left in them anymore. In other words, they were completely devoid of human emotions, hence they weren't human beings in Miao Bai's eyes at all.

When Tang Yin stepped out of the door, Hu Song was still standing at the entrance with his eyes closed. Even after Tang Yin had walked out, he did not open his eyes.

Tang Yin smiled helplessly before leaving for Meng Wan's ward.

Meng Wan was his savior as she was able to make it in time on such a short notice. If it wasn't for Meng Wan and Madam Yun, Tang Yin and Ji Youyou would have bitten the dust.

Tang Yin knocked on Meng Wan's door before entering, only to see Meng Cuiping standing inside the room, and her expression did not look too welcoming at the moment.

On the other hand, Meng Wan blushed when she saw Tang Yin. There was a cervical collar around her neck, and she looked to be in quite bad shape.

When Meng Cuiping saw Tang Yin entering, she snorted coldly before turning away to walk outside. Before she left, she even gave him a vicious glare.

Tang Yin just gave her an embarrassed smile as he made way for her to pass. Then, he dragged his legs and sat beside Meng Wan.

As her long eyelashes fluttered, Meng Wan looked absolutely beautiful. Growing up, she rarely stayed in the same room as another man, especially in this kind of situation where Tang Yin continuously stared at her. As such, she was so flustered that her cheeks turned red.

“Thank you!” Tang Yin smiled as he stood up and patted her head.

Meng Wan was stunned as Tang Yin’s gesture took her back to their childhood where Tang Yin used to pat her head. However, the Tang Yin from back then had always been by her side whereas the current Tang Yin was not the same person anymore.

When Meng Wan thought of this, she was slightly depressed and the expression on her face darkened.

“Why don’t you come over to my house next time?” asked Tang Yin suddenly.

“Ok!” Meng Wan was delighted.

Tang Yin smiled and turned to leave the ward.

Standing outside the door, Meng Cuiping scrutinized the scene with narrowed eyes and couldn’t help but snort coldly.

Tang Yin then went back to his ward.

In the afternoon, he received a call from Mr. Steve.

Mr. Steve, who was from the American Medical Association, had already arrived in Wuhan and was waiting for Tang Yin to pick him up from the airport.

Tang Yin endured the pain in his body and dialed Yuan Zhian’s number, asking her to drive over to the hospital to pick him up as well as to bring Mr. Shen along.

Yuan Zhian couldn’t say no to his request, and she agreed to it readily.

In the afternoon, a car was seen stopping in front of the hospital entrance.

Yuan Zhian got down the car, and she was seen in a sexy-looking outfit. She wore a pair of denim hot pants, revealing her slender looking legs; she also wore a red colored T-shirt with a plunging neckline and a pair of sunglasses. Plus, her short hair added to her charms as she rocked a casual look.

Yuan Zhian was indeed a gorgeous young woman and only needed to dress up slightly to bring out her best look.

Though, Tang Yin didn't pay much attention to her looks at all.

"Mr. Shen is researching the product that you brought for him at home. Let's go and pick up Mr. Steve first and drop him off at his home on our way back," said Yuan Zhian while she grabbed onto Tang Yin's arms. Obviously, those movements of hers were skilled.

"Get lost!" Tang Yin pushed her away in disgust.

Far from being angry, Yuan Zhian blushed as she pulled Tang Yin into the car in a shy manner.

They drove all the way to the airport, thereafter they stood outside and waited. Soon, Mr. Steve was seen walking toward them with his entourage.

Steve came with his party of three; the two people beside him looked like they were his students. In fact, he was very enthusiastic when he saw Tang Yin and took the initiative to wave his hands at him. "Tang..."

Tang Yin smiled as he opened his arms and gave Steve a hug.

"How have you been?" asked Steve as he patted Tang Yin's shoulders.

Tang Yin smiled. "I've been alright."

"Let me introduce you to two of my students. This here is Jenny, while the other is Frank. They are the crème de la crème of my students," said Steve with a smile as he pointed to the two people behind him.

"Nice to meet you, my name is Jenny," said the blonde beauty as she extended her right hand with a huge smile on her face. She had well-defined features in addition to her blonde, wavy hair which gave her a poised, dignified aura that would make anyone in the room envious.

Tang Yin extended his right hand and sized her up, smirking deep down.

Jenny was young, but she was an arrogant person through and through. Although she was shaking hands with Tang Yin, she had a look of contempt on her face.

“My name is Frank.” A handsome foreigner with brown hair extended his right hand as well. He seemed to have taken note of Tang Yin’s action of looking Jenny up and down, and so he smiled. “Mr. Tang Yin, I hope you can consider our trip as an ordinary house call; you should not have any improper thoughts.”

Tang Yin frowned as he cast his gaze at the young foreigner in front of him. “I don’t understand what you mean by improper thoughts.”

Frank retracted his right hand. “You might have a good relationship with Mr. Steve, but I still need to remind you to know your place. Jenny is indeed an extraordinary woman, and I don’t want her to get close to other men, especially the men from your country as they are not worthy of her...”

When Tang Yin heard what he said, his face turned dark. "What do you mean?"

"I meant what I said," said Frank as he shrugged his shoulders. "I think you've clearly heard what I said, haven't you? Although I'm not a strong believer of racism, Jenny is still a white woman of noble status after all. You understand what I mean, don't you?"

Tang Yin had a cold expression on his face and his eyes glinted.

"Okay, Frank! If you continue to be like this, I want you out of my team right now!" said Mr. Steve who was clearly unhappy.

Tang Yin turned his cold gaze around to look at Jenny. Then, he turned to walk out of the airport.

Mr. Steve turned his head to glare at Frank as he hurriedly followed Tang Yin.

Yuan Zhian was looking at everything that happened from one side. She coldly glanced at Mr. Steve and the rest of the group before leaving the airport too.

It was not until they were in the car that Tang Yin briefly described the condition of Mr. Shen's granddaughter to Mr. Steve.

Mr. Steve pondered for a little while before gently nodding his head. Jenny smiled as she said, "Tang Yin, rest assured, our team is one of the best in the world in the research of polio. If we are unsuccessful in treating her, then there will be no one else out there who will be able to treat her!"

Tang Yin shifted to look at Jenny. He sensed a surge of confidence radiating from this seventeen or eighteen-year-old girl.

"Yes, that's right! A problem such as this one is child's play to us!" Frank said with a smile on his face.

However, Mr. Steve was frowning and he softly asked, "Which stage of polio is the child in right now?"

"I'm not very sure about the details!" explained Tang Yin as he shook his head.

"It doesn't matter which stage she is in. It wouldn't be too much of a problem for us, right?" said Frank with a confident smile.

Nevertheless, Mr. Steve shook his head and hesitantly said, "In fact, your country,

Chapter 138 The Arrogant American Student

China, is already capable enough to tackle polio since the last decade and you guys were even able to achieve zero polio status. However, the fact that this little girl still managed to get polio proves that the case is not as simple as it looks! "

"Really? You mean China's medical services? Were they really able to achieve zero polio status?" Frank shook his head without commenting any further, but there was a look of contempt on his face.

Tang Yin looked at Frank, annoyed. If Mr. Steve was not present, he would be more than willing to beat the guy up until he bled and teach him a lesson.

Under the lead of Yuan Zhian, the car drove into Wuhan City Center and stopped at Lakeside Residences.

Tang Yin was the first to get out of the car. He felt a slight pain in his knee and had to grit his teeth and bear the pain to be able to stand upright.

Mr. Shen was informed of their arrival beforehand and was already waiting at the entrance of the neighborhood. He was looking extremely grateful when he saw Tang Yin and the people whom he had brought along with him.

Chapter 138 The Arrogant American Student

"This is Mr. Shen..." introduced Tang Yin to Mr. Steve as he pointed at Mr. Shen.

"Hello, Mr. Shen! " Steve greeted politely.

"Hello! Pleased to meet you!" Mr. Shen had waited for a long long time to get an opportunity like this. He almost cried, extremely touched to finally meet an expert in the polio field.

"Let's not stand outside any longer! Why don't we continue talking inside instead?" suggested Tang Yin.

"Yes yes yes! Let us all go inside first..." said Mr. Shen with an excited look on his face as he hurriedly led the way in front. He looked nothing like the hot-tempered person that he used to be with the tears on his ageing face.

The few of them walked past the residential area before entering one of the villas.

In the villa, they saw Mrs. Shen with a little girl who looked to be about six years old, both of them sitting on the sofa.

Chapter 138 The Arrogant American Student

After entering the house, Steve looked around a little before putting down his luggage.

"This is my granddaughter, Shen Xin. Why don't you doctors have a look at her? If you are able to completely heal our baby, we'll never ever forget the great kindness that you've shown us!" said Mr. Shen, his voice a little emotional.

Tang Yin looked at Mr. Shen from the side as he softly let out a sigh.

On the other hand, Frank was pouting as though he did not care while Steve and Jenny were staring at Shen Xin. Both their eyes showed signs of surprise.

"How is she?" asked Tang Yin.

"We can't say for now. I've brought a machine with me to carry out the examination, but it would probably take quite some time!" explained Mr. Steve.

Tang Yin nodded as he saw Mr. Steve taking two delicate-looking miniature equipment out of his suitcase. The equipment was not very big in size but looked extremely complicated to use.

Chapter 138 The Arrogant American Student

Tang Yin could not understand what they were doing. All he saw was that Frank was taking a very long time to connect all the wires.

When all the wires were completely connected, green lights flashed all over the equipment; they seemed to be successfully switched on.

Frank lifted his head to see Tang Yin's curious look on his face. Hence, he smirked and said, "There's nothing like this in your country, is there?"

Upon hearing that, Tang Yin frowned, his eyes a little cold and steely.

"I bet there isn't! Otherwise, you won't be calling us over!" Frank shook his head and smiled to himself. After switching on the equipment, he continued to explain, "They are very valuable and it would be better to not touch them as you please because a normal person would not be able to afford paying for them if he or she broke them."

"Oh really? I've never ever seen anything that I cannot afford paying for," smirked Tang Yin coldly.

Frank was momentarily stunned, but he

Chapter 138 The Arrogant American Student

then shook his head and said, "I'm just casting pearls before swine. It's useless explaining this to you guys because all of you wouldn't understand what I'm talking about. Advanced equipment like this is not just any clothes or shoes; it is not some poor quality product with 'made in China' printed on them..."

"Frank!" Jenny was frowning really hard as she thought that Frank had gone overboard with his comments.

On the other hand, Steve's face darkened as he looked at Frank with dissatisfaction.

Frank shrugged his shoulders. "I'm just opening their eyes. After all, from where they belong, they may only get one chance to see some things in life!"

"Shut up!" chided Jenny as she flipped her hair.

Frank smiled and replied, "Don't worry! I'll not disturb you guys, but I do hope you guys can hurry up with the examination so we can leave this place earlier and head to Maldives for our holiday..."

Both Steve and Jenny couldn't be bothered with what Frank was saying anymore. Both of them had their eyes on Shen Xin.

Chapter 138 The Arrogant American Student

Shen Xin studied the two of them with curiosity. She looked pretty uncertain about what was going on.

When he saw Steve and Jenny ignoring him, Frank turned to smile at Tang Yin and said, "Don't worry! Once our equipment is put to use, we'll definitely find out everything about her illness. By then, her problem will be solved with just a couple of medicines. This is our medical standard and this is how advanced we are..."

Tang Yin held in the impulsive urge to give Frank a punch on his face, instead turning his gaze to Shen Xin once again.

Steve had attached some wires to Shen Xin's body. Then, he turned to nod at Frank.

Frank gave a wide grin and said, "This is the moment! We'll show you how advanced our technology is..."

As soon as he said that, Frank turned on the switch.

Just then, Shen Xin's body started trembling suddenly. Her face was contorted in pain as she gagged and started frothing at the mouth.

Chapter 138 The Arrogant American Student

"Stop it! Quick! Stop the machine!" roared Steve loudly.

Rate the Translation to Get 2 Pearls.

Wait! I Have Something to Say!

Send a Gift to the Writer!

"Stop it!" Jenny followed as she shouted too.

Frank froze on the spot as he looked at what happened in shock.

The equipment had been used for a long time and had undergone countless clinical trials without causing any problems. What in the world was going on with it today?

At that crucial moment, Tang Yin took a step forward and he almost fell to the ground when he felt a stabbing pain in his knee. However, he was agile enough to successfully turn off the switch and stop the equipment.

Shen Xin's skinny body lay on the sofa, unconscious.

Both Mr. and Mrs. Shen were frightened out of their wits as they hurriedly hugged Shen Xin. Their eyes were glistening with tears as they asked, "W—What just happened?"

Mr. Steve looked extremely unhappy. He felt Shen Xin's forehead right away, confusion in his eyes.

"Are you guys really doctors?" asked the

Chapter 139 Are You Treating Her Or Killing Her?

unhappy Mrs. Shen. Then, she stood up and demanded, "He was just telling us about how reliable the equipment was and that there wouldn't be any problem using it. Moreover, he was boasting about how advanced the technology in your country was. Why did it turn out like this then?"

The look on Frank's face changed and he was rendered speechless.

"Madam, I do hope that you'll be able to forgive us. There must be something wrong somewhere!" Steve tried to explain as he continued saying, "I'm from the American Medical Association and I have a long track record of experience in the research of polio. This is proof of my qualifications to show you that we're not fraudsters!"

Mrs. Shen snatched the documents over and took a look at them, but she still looked a little doubtful.

Jenny had been staring at Shen Xin for the whole time, feeling a little helpless as she looked at the state Shen Xin was in. She took out the tissues that she had always brought along with her and gently wiped off the white foam that Shen Xin had spat out.

Chapter 139 Are You Treating Her Or Killing Her?

"Do let us have another go!" persuaded Mr. Steve.

"Will my granddaughter still be able to live if I let you guys try it again? Take your lousy equipment away and stop pretending how great a technology that is! What you guys were doing was no treatment; it was murder!" said Mrs. Shen unhappily.

"We were just doing you a good deed and now that there is a problem with the equipment, you are blaming us?" said Frank, who was a little furious.

"You guys were the ones who said that you would be showing us a piece of advanced technology, but what are you saying now? There's a problem with the equipment? Was this the advanced medical standard that you were boasting about?"

Frank's face turned all red, unable to refute what Tang Yin just said.

"Tang Yin, I'm so sorry... However, if we give up trying the equipment, there'll be no other way but to just monitor her daily condition. Besides that, I'll like to apologize for what Frank said to you earlier..."

Chapter 139 Are You Treating Her Or Killing Her?

"Let's just monitor her condition in the meantime then!" said Tang Yin as he coldly glanced at Frank. He was worried about these bunch of people causing trouble again. Although Steve had a very good attitude and great medical skills, he was feeling a little uncertain as to whether they should continue Shen Xin's treatment as Shen Xin's condition was very bizarre.

"Okay then!" agreed Steve as he shrugged his shoulders.

"Well, why don't you guys stay here for the night?" Mr. Shen had clearly not given up hope yet as he drily smiled and asked, "Where are you guys staying?"

"I have a house here in Lakeside Residences. You guys can stay there first for the night!" Yuan Zhian quickly stepped out and offered, trying hard to impress them.

"Sure then!" Steve nodded in agreement.

Tang Yin took a look at Mr. Shen and he nodded slightly. "Let us ask Steve to monitor her for a bit longer and if there're no further problems, he'll definitely treat your granddaughter! You must have faith! Dr. Steve is a world-famous expert in the field of polio!"

Chapter 139 Are You Treating Her Or Killing Her?

"Okay! Very well then!" Mr. Shen nodded without saying anything more.

On the other hand, both Frank and Jenny were feeling a little uncomfortable. After all, they had talked big and bragged too much earlier. Now that the situation had turned out this way, they were feeling a little discouraged.

Yuan Zhian led them out of the room and walked toward her own house.

"Tang Yin... The girl's case seemed to be a little challenging and I'll need to monitor for a while longer!" said Steve with a little hesitation. "Besides, studying this case will also be very beneficial for my research of polio in the future and I believe that you'll trust me on this!"

"That's good then, or else I'll have to reconsider if I'm to continue investing my money to finance your laboratory!" said Tang Yin as he nodded, feeling a little dissatisfied inside.

"No problem! You be rest assured about that!" said Steve with a smile on his face.

Yuan Zhian's house in Lakeside Residences was bigger than Mr. Shen's house. As she rarely came over to stay, the house felt empty and quiet.

Tang Yin came in to take a look and was satisfied.

"Tang Yin, is your leg injured?" asked Jenny after she put down her luggages as she looked at Tang Yin with a guilty look on her face. The incident earlier had likely affected the female foreigner's feelings greatly.

"I had an accident a few days ago, but there's no problem at all!" explained Tang Yin with a smile.

"Well, I was also in the surgical department in America and I think I can help you take a look, only if you don't mind..." said Jenny with a confident look on her face.

Tang Yin was slightly taken by surprise as he did not expect the female foreigner to be so enthusiastic.

The woman was quite good-looking and she looked to be around eighteen or nineteen years old. It was when a woman looked the most youthful and beautiful in their life. Besides, her body was also more developed than other women of her age and her figure was no less sexy than Yuan Zhian's. If anything, she was more slender-looking.

Chapter 139 Are You Treating Her Or Killing Her?

"Well, okay!" agreed Tang Yin, who was nodding his head. He thought to himself that there should be no problem with her medical skills as she was Steve's student. Hence, he rolled up the leg of his trousers and sat on the sofa.

Jenny squatted in front of him and inched herself toward Tang Yin's knee. With an exaggerated expression on her face, she shouted, "Oh my god! What happened?"

"Is it very serious?" asked Tang Yin after he was stunned momentarily.

"It is very serious!" said Jenny as she used her hand to pinch Tang Yin's knee. Then, she looked up at Tang Yin and asked, "How are you feeling?"

Tang Yin lowered his head and just happened to catch a glimpse of her bosom from under her collar. He was just thinking to himself that they looked pretty big when he felt a stabbing pain coming from his knee.

Chapter 139 Are You Treating Her Or Killing Her?

“Ouch!” shouted Tang Yin in pain as he drew a deep breath.

“Tang Yin, your knee is looking pretty serious and if you do not get a timely treatment, I’m afraid you’ll be left with some after effects and your body may end up to be severely disabled!” Jenny stood up to look at Tang Yin in disbelief.

Tang Yin froze for a moment and his heart dropped. His leg was accidentally injured when he was fighting Yin Ang back then, but he did expect the injury to be this serious.

“Trust me! Even though I minored in surgical medicine, I was just as outstanding in it!” Jenny tried to convince Tang Yin as she nodded her head.

Tang Yin nodded in return and slowly stood up.

At the same time, Yuan Zhian came down from upstairs.

“Why don’t you go back first?” said Tang Yin.

“Tang Yin, if you are still willing to believe in us, I’ll help you to assess your condition by tonight and come up with a treatment plan for you tomorrow!” promised Jenny earnestly as she looked at Tang Yin.

“Okay!” said Tang Yin as he returned her with a smile.

Yuan Zhian did not know what was happening. She only knew that Tang Yin was injured, but she did not know exactly how bad his injury was.

“Let’s go!”

“Oh, okay!” Yuan Zhian hurriedly walked over to hold Tang Yin’s arm, cuddling up to him.

However, Tang Yin pushed her away in annoyance and left the house by himself.

Yuan Zhian’s cheeks turned red, but she followed behind him and brazenly stuck herself to Tang Yin.

Tang Yin shifted his head as he took a deep breath and said, “What a lunatic...”

Yuan Zhian’s face flushed with embarrassment and she did not dare to pester him anymore as she saw Tang Yin off in a car.

Chapter 139 Are You Treating Her Or Killing Her?

It was already dark when Tang Yin got back to the hospital.

He went upstairs and just as he pushed open the door to his ward, he was caught by surprise.

Rate the Translation to Get 2 Pearls.

Wait! I Have Something to Say!

Send a Gift to the Writer!

Chapter 140 The Bet

There were two hospital beds in his ward, with both of the beds placed next to one another.

This arrangement was Tang Yin's doing. He had intentionally placed Ji Youyou's hospital bed beside his bed earlier today and he had been stopping her from leaving the ward. However, to his surprise, there were two people lying on the hospital bed now.

One of the two people was Ji Youyou and the other was Meng Wan, who looked flushed.

When both of them saw Tang Yin returning to the ward, they just looked at him blankly. Then, Meng Wan hurriedly covered her head, her face red.

"Well... You should rest in Meng Wan's ward tonight," suggested Ji Youyou with a soft voice that lacked confidence.

Tang Yin was rendered speechless for a moment and after grudgingly taking a look at Ji Youyou, he turned to walk toward Meng Wan's ward at the far end.

Chapter 140 The Bet

Did the two of them just chase me out of my ward?

Tang Yin was completely speechless, but it was useless. There was not even a single person around for him to vent his frustrations to.

In the ward, Ji Youyou was advised to not turn her body over. Hence, she could only space out and stare at the ceiling as she laid flat on her bed.

Meng Wan lifted the blanket off her and was trying with much difficulty to look at Ji Youyou as she was wearing a brace on her neck. "Youyou, I really didn't intend to lie to you! Tang Yin and I did get engaged, but there was no love between the two of us..."

Before she could finish her sentence, the look on Meng Wan's face turned a little gloomy.

2

Chapter 140 The Bet

“Okay!” agreed Ji Youyou softly as she lowered her head. This was a decision that she had made after thinking long and hard about it; she wanted to have a chat with Meng Wan tonight.

Honestly speaking, with her personality, Ji Youyou would not have the courage to do this. She did not understand why, but she badly wanted to talk to Meng Wan.

“Youyou, I will not disturb you and Tang Yin and by the end of this semester, I can transfer to another university... I can always try applying to some universities overseas!” said Meng Wan as she was smiling and she gave Ji Youyou an encouraging look.

Ji Youyou’s eyes were turning red slightly as she lowered her head. She was the one who desperately wanted to leave, but she had no money nor any right to do that now.

3

 Like Comment

Chapter 140 The Bet

“Youyou, please don’t be like this... To be honest, I really think that you and Tang Yin look really good together and I sincerely give both of you my blessing!” Meng Wan hurriedly said in a soft voice when she saw Ji Youyou had remained silent.

Ji Youyou did what she had learned from Tang Yin and intentionally tilted her head as she timidly said, “Actually... you’re the person who would be the most helpful to Tang Yin, aren’t you?”

Meng Wan’s mind went blank as she stared at Ji Youyou’s tiny face and she kept quiet.

“Don’t worry! We’ll still be friends! Besides, I still need to thank you, or else Tang Yin and I would be in big trouble right now!” said Ji Youyou with her head lowered. Then, she softly continued saying, “Meng Wan, what if...”

“What if what?” Meng Wan felt her heart aching a little when she saw Ji Youyou

4

Chapter 140 The Bet

looking so dejected.

“What if we make a bet?” said Ji Youyou softly and with little confidence. “Whoever helps Tang Yin the most after one year will be allowed to stay, will that be okay?”

Meng Wan was stunned and she felt as though she had just known Ji Youyou for the very first time.

I can't believe that a timid and cowardly girl like her had the courage to meet me and on top of that, suggest the idea to make a bet. However, the content of the bet was not advantageous at all to Ji Youyou.

What Meng Wan did not know was that deep down inside, Ji Youyou was only hoping to accompany Tang Yin for another year, that she would be using this one year to complete her studies. Once she managed to graduate from the university, she would be able to leave and the memories of that one year would then be engraved in her life forever.

5

 Like Comment

Chapter 140 The Bet

At first, Ji Youyou had high hopes for her relationship with Tang Yin. However, she had to cut off her unrealistic expectations now that she had found out about his engagement with Meng Wan. All she wanted to do now was to capture memories of him in the best time of her life.

"Please promise me!" Ji Youyou pouted her lips, her eyes a little watery as she spoke, putting on a determined face.

"Alright!" Meng Wan could not hold in her tears when she saw the look on Ji Youyou's face.

Ji Youyou forced a smile as she was also holding in the tears in her eyes as she gently closed her eyes shut.

The promise between the two of them sounded like a joke. However, neither one of them took it as a joke. Ji Youyou felt that she was being greedy as she planned to use this one year to accompany Tang

6

 Like Comment

Chapter 140 The Bet

Yin through his hardship. On the other hand, for the sake of the boy in her childhood memories, Meng Wan was planning to stay for another year to live the best time of her life with no regrets. Then, after one year, she would leave Wuhan for good.

Both of the girls wanted to leave the guy in their hearts to the other person.

Tang Yin knew nothing about these and it would be impossible for him to know what they were thinking. When he arrived at Meng Wan's ward, he saw a silhouette with hunched shoulders standing by the window.

Old Man Hu Song had a pair of eagle-like eyes and they were staring at him; there was no friendliness in those eyes.

"I'm one of the men protecting the second master..." Then, Hu Song thought about it and said, "He has given me the order to come back a few days ago!"

7

Chapter 140 The Bet

"Oh?" Tang Yin frowned slightly, but then he smiled again.

Since Hu Song said so, it showed that his old man had seen through Tang Wei's little tricks. It was to be expected though as his old man was managing the whole Tang Family scene after all and it went without saying that he would be able to see through certain things.

"If there's anything you need me to do, you can just tell me! It'll be okay for you to even order me to beat up someone..." said Hu Song as he nodded his head.

Tang Yin smiled and replied, "There's no need for that! There's no need to use other people's hands to get even when I have been beaten. I'm only considered to be truly capable if I beat them up myself!"

Hu Song was stunned for a moment before he gently nodded his head and said, "You're not bad!"

8

 Like Comment

Chapter 140 The Bet

Tang Yin shook his head and turned to head toward the bed. Although he managed to pick up Steve and his team this afternoon in the airport, he had been feeling an unbearable pain in his knee the whole time. It would be a good thing for him to be able to lie down on the bed right now.

After taking off his trousers, he frowned when he saw his knee.

Just as Jenny had told him, his leg may be left with some problems in the future and that would be bad for Tang Yin.

"Is there something wrong with your leg?" Hu Song took a look before gently frowning as he said, "If you want to completely heal it, it wouldn't be too much of a problem, but can you bear it though?"

Tang Yin looked at him blankly and asked, "Do you know how to treat illnesses too?"

"I know a little!" said Hu Song with a smile

9

 Like Comment

Chapter 140 The Bet

on his face.

Tang Yin was a little doubtful. The old man probably knew more than just a little as even Jenny needed to pinch him on the knee, but Hu Song only needed to take a look to find out what was happening to it. This was definitely more than just knowing a little.

"Can you cure it?" asked Tang Yin hesitantly.

"If you can bear the treatment, then I can cure it!" said Hu Song as he nodded with a smile on his face.

Tang Yin hesitated a little before gently nodding his head.

Hu Song was his father's man and there was no reason for Tang Yin to not believe him.

Hu Song smiled and took out a few silver needles. Tang Yin did not know where he got the silver needles from, but what he did know was that the moment the silver needle punctured his skin, his whole body trembled instantly.

10

 Like Comment

Chapter 140 The Bet

"Aargh..." cried Tang Yin as he gritted his teeth and his vision went black.

Rate the Translation to Get 2 Pearls.

Wait! I Have Something to Say!

Send a Gift to the Writer!

11

 Like

 Comment

