

Chapter 291

"Pasate? Do you think it's a piece of cake?"

Duane shook his head with a smile.

The car that Duane was driving cost nearly two million yuan, but Liu Yan thought it was a Passat worth more than one hundred and twenty thousand yuan, and thought it was rented?

Catherine must feel a little uncomfortable when she saw Duane was looked down upon by his aunts and cousins.

If she had known it would be like this, she would have asked Duane to drive the Porsche 918.

Twenty minutes later, the four came to a business square.

"Hey, why is this restaurant closed?" Aunt Catherine stared at a store that closed its doors.

"Mom, since it's closed, let's switch to a new shop." Liu Yan said.

"Let me give you a suggestion. This French restaurant next to you is pretty good. This is the top French restaurant in Yedu." Duane pointed to a French restaurant next to him and said.

The last time Duane met his cousin, Lin Qing, was in this law restaurant next to them.

"It sounds like you're going to have a meal." Aunt Catherine sneered disdainfully.

Duane didn't answer and didn't want to argue with her.

"Alright, let's go to this law restaurant," said Liu Yan, her aunt and daughter.

Then, the group of four people entered the Magical restaurant.

After taking a seat, the waiter served the menu.

"Let me have a look!"

Catherine took over the menu.

However, when Catherine saw that the menu was full of French, she suddenly felt dizzy.

Then, she picked up another menu, which was an English menu.

"Four people, would you like me to introduce you to each other?" The waiter said with a smile.

This was a top western restaurant. In order to show its uniqueness and authenticity, the menu was French and English. When they met strangers, waiters would take the initiative to introduce them.

"You don't need to introduce. My daughter came back from studying in France. How can't these foreign languages be understood?" Aunt Catherine said with a proud face.

Following that, Aunt Catherine handed the French menu over to Catherine.

"Catherine, order first. What do you like to eat? I'll treat you today."

Catherine took the menu and saw the French on it. She was also dizzy. She didn't know French.

Seeing this, Duane frowned slightly.

In Duane's view, Catherine's aunt deliberately did not hand over the English menu to Catherine, but only gave Catherine the French menu. She just wanted to embarrass Catherine so that she could order the French daughter's meal later.

She knew that Catherine knew a little about English, but she didn't know anything about French.

Catherine wanted to use this method to denigrate Catherine, and then show off how powerful her daughter was.

She boasted that her daughter was powerful and Duane had no objection, but why did she have to go at the expense of stepping on others? This made Duane uncomfortable.

"Catherine, let me help you order."

Duane said as he took the French menu.

Obviously, Duane didn't want Catherine to be belittled. He didn't want Catherine's self-esteem to suffer a blow.

"Yo, you little bumpkin, how do you know French?"

Catherine's aunt coldly saw Duane take the menu, and she showed a disdainful smile.

"Can't we order food when we don't know each other?" Duane sneered.

Then, Duane turned to the waiter and said, "From beginning to end, the dishes on this menu will be served one by one. No less, no less!"

"Sir, are... are you sure you want them all? Can the four of you finish so many dishes?"

The waiter was extremely surprised. He had never encountered such a situation before.

"I'm sure. I'll order if I can't eat anything. I'm rich and willful." Duane said indifferently.

"Sir, you are really generous. I will go to the kitchen now." The waiter nodded and turned to leave.

Upon hearing Duane's words, Catherine's face turned green. After all, she was the one who was treating today!

Although she couldn't understand French, when she looked at the menu just now, she still understood the prices. After all, the price was an Arabian figure.

Those prices were hundreds, thousands of yuan!

If she had all the money, she would have spent tens of thousands of dollars today. At the thought of it, she felt distressed. Although she had some money in her family, it was not enough to be built in this way.

"Wait a minute! Wait a minute!"

Catherine's aunt quickly stopped the waiter.

Then, Catherine's aunt stared at Duane and scolded, "Kid, what are you pretending to be here? Do you still have the money to act willfully? It's me who paid the bill, okay?"

Duane sneered and said, "You asked Catherine to order casually. What? Can't you pay for it? If you can't pay for it, just say it directly. I'll pay for it."

"You're paying the bill? Do you have money? Also, my family is so rich, how can't I afford the bill? It's just that I feel that it's too wasteful to order so much," Catherine said, stammering.

Catherine loved her face, so of course she wouldn't say that she couldn't afford it.

Duane shook his head with a smile, then turned to the waiter and said, "Go ahead, do as I said just now, and give me a bottle of 1995-year-old Lafite."

"Okay, sir."

After the waiter responded, he turned around and left.

Upon hearing that Duane had ordered another 1995 Lafite, Catherine's expression turned even uglier. However, for the sake of her face, she had to restrain herself from doing so.

After ordering the meal.

"Catherine, do you like reading?" His aunt's daughter, Liu Yan, asked.

"It's still okay, isn't it?" Catherine nodded.

"Really? I also like to read books, especially the famous works of every country. Su Country's writer Tatta community has carefully read "The Punishment and the Punishment" of "Y'Y'Y'Y'Y'Y'Y" . Liu Yan asked.

"I haven't seen it." Catherine shook her head.

"No way? You haven't even read this book? Then what are you doing in college every day? Are you dating every day? Isn't it a waste for your mom to spend money on you to go to university?" Liu Yan said in a lofty manner.

Catherine's face is even full of smiles because she feels that her own daughter is very formidable.

"This... I... I don't dare to compare with you, cousin. I haven't read many famous works." Catherine lowered her head, looking a little self-abased.

Seeing this, Duane said, "I also like to read famous literature. I've recently read a classic 'Rain of the Night'. Liu Yan, have you read it? This is a very classic book."

"Of course I've read it!" Liu Yan put on a confident look.

"Really? Then tell me, who was the author?" Duane asked with a smile on his face.

"I... I've been reading it for a long time. I don't remember the author of this book anymore." Liu Yan stuttered.

"Ha-ha!" Duane burst out laughing.

"Hey, what are you laughing at?" Liu Yan frowned.

Catherine also looked at Duane in confusion, not knowing why Duane suddenly laughed.

"Cousin Liu Yan, I have no choice but to admire you. You're pretty awesome. The 'Rain of the Night' I mentioned was just a name that I randomly made up. I just made it up. You actually read it before? You're really something!" Duane said with a smile.

After hearing these words, Liu Yan's face instantly became ugly.

Her mother's face also turned pale, and she felt very embarrassed.

"It's made up? Pfft!"

On the other hand, Catherine couldn't help laughing with her hands covering her mouth. The gloom that Liu Yan had just looked down on her was instantly swept away.

"Boy, you... you actually dug a hole for me?" Liu Yan stared at Duane with a blue face, as if she was going to eat Duane.

"I did dig the hole, but you jumped into it by yourself. If you said you haven't seen it, I naturally can't do it to you. Who asked you to pretend to be fat?" Duane laughed.

"Kid, don't you feel ashamed to say that I am a fat guy? Can you be shameless? A poor guy said that he had a luxury car, he also said that he had a few billion deposits, and he also said that he was the first grandson of a rich family. Don't you know how much you are pretending to be?" Liu Yan's tone was sharp.

"Sorry, these are the facts. I am not boasting." Duane said indifferently.

"Well, now you're shamelessly denying it. But you don't know that you're just a clown in my eyes!" Liu Yan looked at Duane with eyes full of contempt.

"Okay, what do you think? What do you think?" Duane spread out his hands calmly.

Duane had explained enough. And Duane knew that no matter how he explained, they all thought he was bragging.

At this time, the waiter began to serve the dishes.

"Puff! Catherine, French tableware is not arranged like you do, used like that." Liu Yan covered her mouth and laughed.

After hearing this, Catherine's face turned red.

She had only eaten western food twice in total, and it was all taken by Duane to eat. When she was eating with Duane, she was not so particular about eating western food, so she certainly did not understand the way to pay visits and use the tableware.

"Catherine, look at how I'm using my cousin. Learn from her and don't let others laugh at you and make a fool of yourself, do you understand?" Liu Yan said haughtily.

Although Liu Yan seemed to be kind, there was a sense of superiority in her words, intentionally or unintentionally, as if she was showing off to Catherine how great she was.

Chapter 292

Oh." Catherine could only nod.

Liu Yan looked at Duane again and whispered with a sneer, "What a hillbilly. You actually used chopsticks to eat Western food. Aren't you afraid that people will laugh at you? It's a shame to sit with such a person."

Duane smiled and said, "Is it shameful to eat with chopsticks?"

"We are Chinese people. We have Chinese people's dining habits, and French people have French's dining habits. I respect their dining habits, but I am the most Chinese people, and I have my own dining habits. Why do I have to learn from them? Just to show that I am high-end?" Duane said indifferently.

"A hillbillies are a hillbillies. You don't know how to use Western tableware, but you're still forcing yourself here. People like you, that's all." Liu Yan laughed coldly.

He finished his meal in a hurry.

Because Duane ordered all the dishes, when he paid the bill, Catherine's aunt naturally bled a lot.

However, Aunt Catherine still pretended that she didn't care about it, which made her seem very generous.

However, in her heart, she hated Duane, because it was Duane who made her bleed.

After they went out of the restaurant.

"Daughter, didn't you say that there was no car to drive when you returned to China? Let's go. Mom will take you to see the car." Aunt said heroically.

"Look at the car? Great, great!" Liu Yan nodded happily.

Just like that, the four of them arrived at the BMW 4S shop.

After walking around the 4S shop.

"Mom, I want this BMW Z4." Liu Yan pointed to a white BMW Z4

As a convertible sports car, the BMW Z4 was cheap at the entrance, costing more than 600,000 yuan. It was well-loved by Liu Yan. Its family was rich, but it was not as popular as the rich second generations.

"Okay, okay, okay. As long as you like it, I'll tell your dad later that I'll come and get the car in a few days." Aunt said chicly.

Then, Catherine's aunt turned her head to look at Catherine and said, "Catherine, you certainly haven't taken such a good car like BMW Z4 right? If you really follow this kid in the future, I'm afraid you won't be able to take this kind of car for the rest of your life. Aunt advises you to quickly change him."

Even though Duane was standing right here, Catherine wasn't trying to avoid him at all.

"Aunt, I..."

Catherine didn't know what to say. Yesterday, she just sat in Duane's Porsche 918, which was a luxury car of tens of millions yuan. It was many times better than this BMW Z4 .

Duane shook his head and said with a smile, "It's a shabby BMW Z4! How dare you play it here?"

"Well, if it weren't for Catherine, people like you wouldn't be qualified to come with us!" Liu Yan sneered with his arms crossed.

"Why should I buy this kind of low-end sports car? I think it's too cheap to drive it out." Duane said indifferently.

"Ha, a poor man who only knows how to boast." Liu Yan sneered.

Aunt tugged at Liu Yan and said, "Catherine, don't pay attention to this kind of person. If he doesn't, it will only lower our value. I don't know which one of Catherine is blind and will take a fancy to this kind of person!"

"Mom, you're right!" Liu Yan nodded with a smile.

"Aunt, you... you can't say that to him. He really isn't what you think he is!" Catherine stamped her feet angrily.

Watching Duane being belittled and ridiculed like this, Catherine was naturally very angry.

"Catherine, are you still speaking up for him? He's just an outsider, we're relatives! You're really so confused." Catherine shook her head and sighed.

"Mom, there is a Ferrari 4S shop next to us. Let's go in and have a look." Catherine pointed to the Ferrari 4S shop next to them.

"Sure, no matter what, we've already reached this place." Catherine's aunt nodded.

Although they couldn't afford a Ferrari, they could have a look.

Hence, a group of four people entered the Ferrari 4S shop.

Looking at the Ferrari supercar in the store, they were dazzled.

Although Catherine's aunt was rich, she could only buy BMW Z4 and could not afford a Ferrari.

After walking around, they stopped in front of a Ferrari 488.

"Wow, this car is really good-looking." Catherine cannot help exclaiming.

After hearing this, Liu Yan turned to look at Duane and sneered, "Boy, didn't you say that you are the son of the richest man in the world? Didn't you say that you have a few billion deposits? Catherine likes this Ferrari 488. You can buy one if you want."

"No, no, no, I'm just saying it's good-looking." Catherine hurriedly waved her hand.

Catherine knew that Duane was rich, but she didn't want Duane to spend his money because of her words.

"If you can't afford it, then you can't afford it. No matter how you pretend to be a hillbilly, you're still a hillbilly," Aunt said sarcastically.

Liu Yan also said in a strange tone, "Kid, I just let you have the ability to buy a BMW Z4. You said that Z4 is too low, but now you can't say that this Ferrari 488 is too low, it doesn't deserve your status, right?"

"In my opinion, Ferrari 488 is indeed cheap." Duane shrugged his shoulders.

Duane was currently driving a Porsche 918, a global limited edition supercar. Ferrari 488 was nothing compared to Porsche 918.

"What? Ferrari 488 low-end? Pfft!" Liu Yan sniggered, covering her mouth with her hand.

Catherine also laughed and said, "Haha, such a good car, you dare to talk so shamelessly? If you can't afford it, then just say it!"

After hearing Duane's words, even the few salesmen next to him also covered their mouths and laughed secretly.

In their eyes, Ferrari 488 was already a very amazing supercar. Someone actually said that this car was low-end? Wasn't it too pretentious?

Duane saw them laughing and ignored them. He said to himself, "Although Ferrari 488 is a little low-end, it looks good. Since Catherine likes it, I'll just buy a few for fun," Duane said calmly.

Then, Duane turned to look at the sales and asked, "This Ferrari 488, what color do you have here? How much is it worthy of?"

"Sir, here are four hundred and eighty thousand gold coins, red, black, white and yellow." The sales agent answered.

"Okay, the top-graded edition of these four colors, please give me one of them, pack them up and send them to the lakeside luxury mansion, swipe your card."

Duane said as he took out a bank card and handed it to the sales girl.

"This... "

The sales girl was stunned. She had never met such a customer before. She just wanted to buy it without asking about the price or asking about the price.

Moreover, was it a car of the same color?

"Sir, are you kidding me? This is Ferrari whose price is more than 4 million dollars. Are you buying it or a car of different colors? You don't need to think about it carefully, do you?" The sales girl said in surprise.

"Let me ask you, if you see a small toy with a few yuan on the side of the road and you like it, will you consider it carefully?" Duane retorted.

"No... I won't. Anyway, how much will it cost?"

The sales girl replied.

"That's all right. Anyway, it's several million dollars. You don't need to think about it carefully." Duane said indifferently.

After hearing this, the sales lady couldn't help but swallow her saliva. Wasn't his tone too extravagant? Buying a luxury car worth millions of yuan was just like buying a toy?

She understood that the reason why this person could talk like this was either because he was a really rich second generation, or he was a pretentious man.

"Beauty, why are you still in a daze? Pay the card quickly." Duane shook the bank card in his hand.

"I... I'm on my way!"

The sales lady nodded quickly, then took the bank card, turned and ran to swipe the card.

Even though the salesgirl found it hard to believe.

However, since Duane had handed over his card, she had to try it. If she really paid the card successfully, she could make a lot of money by commission. If she failed to pay the card, it would be another result.

After the salesgirl left.

Catherine's aunt and her cousin Liu Yan were all a little surprised. They didn't expect that Duane would actually pretend to buy it.

"Hey, you're really wearing it. Do you really want to buy it? You still want to buy a car of the same color. Do you think you're buying clothes?" Aunt Catherine sneered and made sarcastic remarks in a strange way.

Liu Yan chimed in. "He definitely won't let us lose face. He wants to put on an act with us since there's green on a pig's nose."

"I think it will be sold later. It is said that when the bank card has no money, how could he be so shameless." The aunt held her arms and showed a look as if she was watching a good show.

"Mom, I guess when I fail to pay with my card later, he will definitely say that I forgot to use the other card. I've seen too many people who don't have money and still want to show off!" Liu Yan said with a sneer.

"Liu Yan, you think I'm pretending, don't you? What if I pay with my card successfully?" Duane looked at her with a faint smile.

"If you can clear the card successfully, I'll do a live broadcast and eat shit!" Liu Yan said disdainfully.

Catherine also laughed and said, "Boy, if you can buy four Ferraris, I will jump to the River Jindu!"

"Really? I've remembered what you said." The smile on Duane's mouth was getting bigger and bigger.

Chapter 293

Catherine also covered her mouth and secretly laughed, because she knew that Duane would definitely be able to pay with his card.

At this time, the sales girl and the manager of the store ran here in a hurry with a bright smile on their faces.

"Sir, I've swiped the card successfully. This is a small banknote for the money couple."

The sales girl respectfully handed the card to Duane.

"What's wrong with you?"

When Catherine's aunt and Liu Yan heard this, the smiles on their faces instantly froze, replaced by intense shock.

"He successfully paid with his card? How is that possible! He is just a poor boy. How can he afford a Ferrari? There are still four of them! Are you kidding me? Are you kidding me?"

Liu Yan asked the salesgirl with a face of disbelief. Her voice became extremely sharp because of the horror in her heart.

"Miss, our 4S shop is not a joke. There are a total of 1672 million yuan. The small ticket to pay the card is in this gentleman's hand," the sales lady said.

"6772 million, he... he actually bought it?"

Liu Yan's face turned pale and almost fainted.

Hearing the news that Duane had successfully swiped the card, Catherine's aunt was so scared that she directly sat down on the ground.

"God, did Duane really spend money buying four Ferraris?"

They didn't dare to imagine where Duane got so much money from.

"Is what Duane said before true?"

At this time, the manager came forward respectfully and said, "Mr. Lin, may I ask you a question?"

"Go ahead." Duane nodded.

"Why did you choose it? Buying four Ferrari 488s of different colors at a time? It's so extravagant!" The manager said.

Duane smiled calmly and said, "In fact, it's nothing. Buy a few more colors. When you go out, you should buy different colors with different clothes. This is the same reason for buying shoes with different colors and matching different clothes."

"Coo! Coo! Goo!"

When the manager and the sales girl heard Duane's answer, they couldn't help but swallow their saliva.

"Oh, my god. Buying more Ferraris of different colors is just for going out and putting on clothes? It's so unrecognizable!"

Even if many rich people bought a car worth 4 million yuan, it was also very luxurious. However, Duane didn't seem to take these cars seriously at all...

"Four cars can be sent directly. I will get it from the lakeside mansion by the lake." Duane said calmly.

"The mansion by the lake in Dianfang?" The manager was shocked.

Immediately, the manager quickly said, "That is a top mansion with excellent Fengshui, worth 778 billion yuan. I heard that it is the richest man, Zehi. How does it end up in reality? Who are you, sir?"

"Zehi is my grandfather." Duane said calmly.

"It turns out that Mr. Lin is the grandson of the richest man in the village. I wondered why he was so generous." The manager suddenly realized.

After learning Duane's identity, the manager became more respectful.

Duane turned to look at Catherine's aunt and her daughter Liu Yan.

"You two, I said I have a mansion, a luxury car, and billions of deposits. I said I am the grandson of the richest man. I don't know whether you believe it or not now?" Duane said with a faint smile.

"We... we..."

The two's faces turned from green to red, as ugly as they could be.

If Duane had spent more than 10 million to buy a car, how would they dare to question him?

The two of them remembered how they had treated their grandson, the richest man, with all kinds of mocking, demeaning, and despising. They were so ashamed that they wanted to find a hole in the ground and hide themselves in it.

"Liu Yan, if I remember correctly, you just said that if I paid the card successfully, you would eat shit in live broadcast, wouldn't you?"

"I don't know which platform are you going to live on? I'll give you a present, which will definitely make half of the audience come to see you eat shit in the live broadcast!" Duane said with a smile.

"I... I..." Liu Yan lowered her head and blushed.

Duane stopped smiling and continued to ask in a cold tone, "What's the big deal of studying abroad? What's the big deal that you have money? How dare you pretend to be superior in front of me and Catherine? Who do you think you are?"

Liu Yan still kept her head down, too ashamed to say a word.

Duane turned to look at Catherine.

"Aunt, if I remember correctly, you just said that if I brush the card successfully, you will jump into the River of Jindu, right? I will drive you to the Bridge of Jindu in a while. What do you think?" Duane squinted and said.

"Eldest nephew, I... I'm just joking. You see, I'm Catherine's aunt, so please forgive us." Aunt Catherine forced an ugly smile.

Duane sneered, "Oh, now you know to mention the relationship between relatives? Since you are relatives, you continue to belittle Catherine and raise your daughter. What kind of relatives are you? When Catherine's mother died of an important illness, your family didn't even lend her 100,000 yuan. Now you know to mention a relative?"

"I... I..." Aunt Catherine's face turned red.

"By the way, isn't your husband opening a factory? Which factory is it? Tell me the name, and I promise that your husband's factory will close down in three days!" Duane's voice was not loud, but full of aggressiveness.

"Ah!" Her aunt was so frightened that her expression changed drastically.

"Catherine, you must help aunt. You can't let uncle's factory collapse! I'll kneel down and beg you! Help aunt to beg for your boyfriend's forgiveness."

Aunt rushed to the front of Catherine, knelt down and begged Catherine.

Her aunt was clear that it was too easy for Duane, the first rich man's grandson, to destroy her husband's factory!

Although Catherine also had some hatred for her aunt in her heart, she just vented her anger.

"Duane, she's my aunt after all. Forget it." Said Catherine.

Duane nodded, then turned to look at his aunt and Liu Yan, and said coldly, "To tell you the truth, if it wasn't for Catherine's sake, you ridiculed me like that before, I would have long turned against you. Can I still stay here with you?"

"Catherine, let's go!"

After Duane finished speaking, he directly pulled Catherine and walked out.

They went out of the 4S shop.

"Duane, I'm feeling much better now." Catherine displayed a happy smile.

Previously, Catherine and Duane had always been looked down upon, which made Catherine feel quite angry in her heart.

If she was looked down upon, she could still bear it. But when she saw that Duane was looked down upon by her aunts and cousins, as well as all kinds of taunts, she felt really bad.

Duane smiled slightly and then said, "Catherine, this kind of relative, you'd better stay away from him."

"Yes!" Catherine nodded hard.

...

On the other side.

In the manor of the Ye family.

"What is it?"

Upon hearing Bradley's words, Bradley's face suddenly changed greatly.

Just now, Bradley told his father everything that happened at the banquet today.

All the things, including what happened between him and the cleaner, and how he was photographed, were all said out.

The Ye Family Master, that is, the chairman of the Ye Group, was in charge of all the affairs of the Ye Family.

Of course, he was supported by Mr. Ye, who was the biggest backer of the Ye Family.

However, Tutor Ye loved martial arts very much. As a retired Tutor Ye, he wouldn't easily show up to inquire about any big events if nothing went wrong.

"Dad, I have sent someone to delete the video and destroy those media reporters, but... But Duane also has the video in his hand. If he sends it out, my reputation will be ruined." Bradley's face was pale.

He didn't dare to imagine how notorious he would be once the video was uploaded.

That was why he sought help from his grandfather.

"Dragon, Dragon, Dragon! How can you be so stupid!" The Ye Family Lord's face was gloomy.

"Dad, I'm also a victim. Who knew that the medicine given by Zhou Jun, the idiot, was so powerful! And the most hateful one is Duane!" Bradley gnashed his teeth.

Bradley felt angry at the thought of what had happened today. He had always thought that he was outstanding and that he was a God's favored one. However, he was defeated in the battle of wits and courage with Duane at the banquet today.

"This Duane, why did you underestimate him? As for the video, I will personally meet him and help you negotiate. Let's see if you can pay for it and buy the video from him." The Ye Family Lord said.

"Dad, Duane and the old good-for-nothing Zehi, we must find a way to destroy them!" Bradley gnashed his teeth and said.

"Don't worry, your grandfather and I have been secretly operating all the time to destroy Zehi and the Gorgeous tripod enterprise Group." The Ye Family Head said.

Then, the Ye Family Lord looked up at Bradley and asked, "In addition, what do you think about the marriage with the youngest daughter of the Murong Family? As long as the marriage is successful, it will be of great help to our Ye Family. It will definitely be able to destroy Zehi and dominate the whole Nanan area. You can think about it again."

"Okay! I... I agree!" Bradley gritted his teeth and finally agreed.

Bradley was actually very conflicted in his heart.

Because the youngest daughter of the Murong family was fat and ugly, she felt sick even looking at her. He had always refused her.

But this time, he was greatly humiliated at the wine party. In order to kill Duane as soon as possible and destroy Zehi and Gorgeous tripod enterprise Group, he had to agree!

Chapter 294

On the other side.

Because Catherine came here on the weekend and had classes tomorrow, Duane drove her all the way back to Qingyang City.

It was eight o'clock in the evening when they arrived at Qingyang City.

After sending Catherine home, Duane drove directly to the secretary Natasha's house.

At present, Duane mainly worked in Jindu, so it was a waste for Natasha to stay in Qingyang City.

Duane decided to take her to the capital. Since he was in the capital, he didn't need to find a secretary.

At the door of Natasha's house.

After Duane knocked on the door, it was quickly opened.

However, what caught her eye was not Natasha, but his younger sister An Jie.

Although Anchun did not put on any makeup, she looked much more beautiful than before. After all, she was the kind of cute little sister who lived next door.

Probably because she was at home, An 'nian only wore a small vest, which could be vaguely seen by two small red dots.

"It's you, Master Lin. I miss you so much!"

When An Mei saw Duane, she happily threw herself into Duane's arms.

Duane only felt the soft and warm fragrance of jade.

"Anchun, you... don't do this, it's not good to let your sister see it." Duane's face was a little red.

"My sister is not at home. Master Lin, come in first."

An Mei said as she pulled Duane closer to the room and closed the door.

"Is your sister at home? Where is she?" Duane asked.

"My sister went on a date." An Mei said with a smile.

"A date? Did your sister have a boyfriend?" Duane looked a little surprised.

"My sister is having a boyfriend. Why are you so surprised, Master Lin? Don't tell me... Master Lin, you like my sister, don't you?" An Mei said.

Duane glared at her and said, "Nonsense, your sister and I have a relationship of a superior and a subordinate. That's all. And, you should hurry to find a reliable boyfriend, so as not to keep thinking nonsense."

"Hee hee, in fact, I am just teasing you. My sister went out to buy something." An Meichun said with a smile.

After a pause, Anchun continued, "And Mr. Lin, I won't find a boyfriend. I, Anchun, will recognize you in my life!"

An Mei said as she came up and hooked her arms around Duane's neck.

Anchun's faint scent could be smelled clearly by Duane.

"A-Miao, you're messing around! Didn't I tell you already? I already have a girlfriend."

As Duane spoke, he untied An Mengmeng's hand.

However, An Mei did not intend to give up.

"Master Lin, it's normal for a big shot like you to have three or four wives. Since you have a girlfriend, I'll be your lover!"

After saying that, An Mei directly flew to Duane.

Peng!

An Mengmeng threw Duane directly onto the sofa.

"Duane, if you don't promise me, I will make love with you!"

An Mei said as she kissed Duane.

"Here I come again!"

Duane was speechless. Duane remembered the last time he kissed Duane in An Mengmeng's bedroom.

At that time, Duane tried his best to resist and almost couldn't help it.

As a man, being forced by a little beauty like this, to tell the truth, Duane himself was very shameful...

Moreover, he had to refuse!

"An Mei, don't be like this." Duane kept resisting.

"Master Lin, you... can't it be that you can't do that?" Anchun pouted and said.

"How is this possible!"

As a man, he couldn't be laughed at by a woman. This was definitely the biggest shame!

Moreover, as a hot-blooded man who was full of energy, An Mengmeng's behavior just now made Duane feel a little responsive.

Now provoked by Anchun's words, Duane's mind went blank, and he really couldn't stand it anymore.

Just then, the sound of the key opening the door suddenly rang.

"My sister is back!"

An Mei was so scared that she quickly stood up and sat straight. Duane quickly sat up from the sofa.

After all, they were in the living room.

At this time, the door was opened and Natasha came in.

"Huuuuuuuuuuuuuuu"

Duane let out a long sigh of relief. Fortunately, he had just held it back, so his clothes were neatly dressed.

If he really failed to control himself and was caught by the returning Natasha, Duane really didn't know what to say about what he had done with his sister.

"Chairman Lin, you're going back to Qingyang City!"

Natasha saw Duane in the house and immediately showed a happy smile on her face.

"Uh, yes, I just came back today." Duane nodded with some embarrassment.

Thinking of what had happened just now and seeing An Mei's sister, Natasha, Duane always felt that there was a sense of guilt in his heart.

"Chairman Lin, how long are you going to stay in Qingdu this time?" Natasha said while walking over with a smile on her face.

"Jindu has a lot of things to do. Tomorrow morning, we will return to Jindu," Duane said.

Duane had conquered the whole Qingyang City, and the business on the side of Qingyang City was completely formal. He didn't need Duane to spend much effort.

Therefore, Duane was now ready to put his energy and focus on the Golden Capital.

Of course, as Duane's hometown, Qingyang City must have a special relationship with him. Duane would definitely come back often to see him.

"Ah, we are leaving tomorrow morning."

Natasha's eyes flashed with a hint of disappointment when she heard the news.

"Natasha, I want to take you to Jindu. You can continue to be my secretary in Jindu and help me with my work. Would you like to come?" Duane asked.

"Yes! Yes! Of course I'd like to!"

Natasha nodded her head again and again showed an excited smile on her face.

"Okay, then you pack up tonight. I'll drive to your house to pick you up tomorrow morning," Duane said.

"Yes, yes!" Natasha nodded vigorously.

"Wow, I envy you so much. I also want to go to the capital." An Mei looked envious.

"I'm going to work, not play. You have to study hard, okay? I'm not in Qingyang City, so you have to learn to take care of yourself," Natasha said.

"Since I have already informed you of the matter, I will leave first." Duane stood up and was ready to leave.

Duane felt that if he continued to stay there, he would be more embarrassed.

"Chairman Lin, I'll walk you out," Natasha said.

"Sister, let me see Master Lin off." An Mengmeng quickly stood up.

Naturally, Natasha would not compete with her younger sister. She only reminded them to be polite to Chairman Lin.

Therefore, Anchun sent Duane all the way downstairs.

Downstairs.

"Master Lin, take me to Jindu, please!" An Mei took Duane's arm and acted like a spoiled child.

"Anchun, you still have to go to school. You are in your third year in high school now. If you want to go to Jindu, you should try hard to get into the university in the college entrance examination," Duane said seriously.

The University of Jindu was the top university in Xichuan Province. It had a definite reputation across the country.

"Yes, yes! I will!" An Mei nodded hard, and there was a determined look in her eyes.

"Here's ten thousand yuan. It's used to make pocket money. You can eat something good at ordinary times and buy some favorite clothes. Don't spend it randomly." Duane took out a stack of money.

Although Duane could give her millions of yuan casually.

However, Duane thought about it. She was still in her senior year of high school. It was not appropriate for her to have too much pocket money. After all, her current focus was still on study.

"I don't want it! I want to be with you, not for your money," Anchun pouted and said.

"You little girl, don't think about it all the time. I give you pocket money because I see you as a friend. That's all."

Duane said as he put Qian Ying into her hands.

Then, Duane turned to get in the car and drove away.

An Jia looked at the ten thousand yuan in her hand and felt warm in her heart.

Although An Mei didn't do it for money, in her opinion, Duane could give her pocket money, which meant that Duane still cared about her!

An Mei stared at the taillights of Duane's car and muttered, "Master Lin, I just want to be your woman!"

...

After leaving the house of Natasha, Duane directly called the fat man and asked him to come out for a drink.

After all, Duane had not returned to Qingyang City for a period of time. How could he not see his good friend and fat boy when he came back?

No matter how busy he was, good brothers should never forget him!

In the phone.

"What? Duane, you're going back to Qingyang City. Okay, okay, okay. I'll be right there. We can't get drunk tonight!" Sean said happily.

At the entrance of a bar in Qing City.

"Duane, I miss you so much."

When the fat man saw Duane, he rushed up and gave Duane a big hug.

"Don't make it so corny. Others may think that we are bent." Duane said with a smile.

"Haha." The fatty laughed.

Then, the two climbed on each other's shoulders and walked into the bar together. They went to a separate stage and took their seats. At the same time, they ordered several bottles of wine.

"Duane, let's fight!"

The two poured some wine and drank a few cups in a row.

Chapter 295

After three rounds of wine.

"Fatty, how are you doing recently? Is everything going well?" Duane asked.

"Not bad, my dad just left the hospital. The money you gave us last time, we bought a house. After moving, my dad is going to open a big supermarket with the money you gave him." Sean said.

"That's good." Duane nodded.

Seeing that his brother was having a good time now, Duane was also very happy.

"Hey hey, I have to thank you, Duane. If it weren't for you, my father and I would probably be salted fish all my life, and I would never be able to drive a Porsche. Come on, I respect you, Duane!"

Sean raised his glass.

Sean thanked Duane from the bottom of his heart.

Duane also picked up his glass and clinked it with the fat man's.

After putting down the wine glass, Duane smiled and asked, "How about the Porsche?"

Duane gave the Porsche he got from Frank last time to the fat man.

"The Porsche is driving with great energy, hehe!" Sean showed a happy smile.

"Ha ha, let's toast."

The two clinked their glasses again.

"By the way, how is your relationship with your girlfriend going?" Duane continued to ask.

The last time Duane saw the fat man's girlfriend, he felt that the girl was not bad, and let the fat man cherish her.

"Duane, we have a good relationship." Sean said with a smile.

"That's good. Come on, let's continue drinking."

Duane continued to clink with the fat man.

Peng.

All of a sudden, Duane's back was hit hard.

Duane turned his head and saw a man in white, who was drunk and flirting with a bar girl.

He sat on the Floating Platform next to Duane and bumped into Duane when he was being intimate with him.

After taking a look at it, Duane did not say anything but continued to drink with the fat man.

Peng!

As a result, when Duane was just about to clink with the fat man, Duane was hit by him again. Sean poured all the wine in Duane's cup.

Seeing this, Duane turned his head and reminded him, "Dude, please be careful. You hit me."

After hearing Duane's words, the white-robed man immediately stood up and looked at Duane with a bad look.

"Boy, what did you say just now? Say it again if you have the guts." The white-clothed man's tone was arrogant.

Duane looked him up and down. The man in white was wearing a Jiansz watch worth tens of thousands yuan. He should be rich at home, so he had the capital to be arrogant.

"I said please be careful, and you ran into me." Duane said indifferently.

"Then how can you do that to me?" The man in white raised his head with an arrogant look on his face.

"Ha- ha, you're so arrogant." Duane smiled coldly.

"Grandpa's name is Jia Zhang. He's so arrogant. How can he be so arrogant?" The man in white shouted.

"Is that so? Then I'll put an end to your arrogance!"

Duane narrowed his eyes and grabbed the wine bottle on the table at the same time.

The next moment.

Duane directly stood up and violently threw a bottle at the head of the white-clothed man.

Peng!

The bottle of wine directly exploded on the head of the white-robed man, and blood instantly flowed down from his head.

It was supposed to be a good day for Duane to drink with the fat man today. He didn't want anything to affect his mood.

Duane reminded him twice in a row that if he knew he should stop hitting Duane, he would be fine. But he didn't take the chance given by Duane.

"Ah ah!"

After the man in white was hit in the head, he covered his head and screamed.

At the same time, the guests on the stage all turned to look at them.

"Isn't that Young Master Jia? Sh*t, someone even blasted Young Master Jia's head."

"I'm afraid that boy is going to suffer."

...

The guests began to whisper among themselves.

The bar girl next to the man in white even screamed at Duane, "Boy, how dare you attack Childe Jia? You are finished!"

"Really? I'm done?" Duane showed a playful smile.

Although Duane didn't know Mr. Jia.

However, in Qingyang City, Duane was the absolute dominator. Who could shake Duane at all?

Not at all!

At this time, the big brother who was guarding the bar, a bald man, had already run over with his men.

"Who dares to beat people in the security company of our Xudong!" The bald man came over and scolded.

"Ninth Brother, it was me who was beaten. Please take revenge for me!"

The beaten man in white rushed to the bald man with his head in his hands, asking him for help.

"Isn't... isn't it Childe Jia? Who beat you?" The bald man asked in a hurry.

"That's him! That's him!"

The man in white followed his hand and pointed to Duane.

"Who the fuck is this..."

The bald man berated as he raised his head to look.

When the bald man saw Duane, the words he had just said stopped abruptly, and his face was filled with shock.

Then, the bald man rushed to Duane.

"Nice to meet you, Mr. Lin." The bald man bowed and said in a very loud voice!

The underlings behind the bald man also reacted in an instant, and then they bowed to Duane and said, "Greetings, Master Lin!"

The crowd's momentum was sky-high.

This scene caused everyone around them to be completely stunned, including that white clothed man.

"You recognize me?" Duane looked at the bald man.

"Master Lin, I am a senior general of the Xudong Security Company. I participated in the attack on Matias and Frank in Qingguang City. I also made contributions, so I was promoted to the company's captain. Of course, I know Master Lin." The bald man said with a smile.

"I see." Duane nodded.

At this time, the white-robed man rushed up.

"9th brother, he's the one who beat me." The white-clad man says urgently to the bald man.

The bald man grabbed his collar and said fiercely, "F*ck, you're still shouting. Do you fucking know who this is? This is the chairman of the Xudong Group, the chairman of the Qing Yang Branch of Gorgeous tripod enterprise Group, and the next president of the Chamber of Commerce of Qingyang City—Master Lin! Master Lin's words make your whole family f*cking doomed. Do you understand?"

"What? He... he's that Master Lin?"

The man in white was so frightened that he collapsed to the ground.

The bar girl by the white-robed man's side had been scared silly as well.

"This is Master Lin?"

Master Lin's name was very well-known in Qingyang City. They had all heard of it!

"Little Jiu, which family is this young master from?" Duane asked.

"Master Lin, the son of the owner of the Guangli Commercial Bank." The bald man said.

"Help me pass on a message to him, ask him to educate his son well. If I hear that his son does anything bad in the future, I will make him close down in Guangli Commercial Bank." Duane said in an understatement.

"Okay, Mr. Lin, I'll send the message later." The bald man answered.

"Well, I don't want to see this fool anymore. Throw him out of the bar and help me sober him up. I want to drink with my brothers. Don't disturb me." Duane waved his hand calmly.

"Yes, yes, yes!"

After the bald man agreed, he ordered his subordinates to lift the white-clothed man up and drag him out of the bar. After which, he gave the white-clothed man a good beating.

As for the surrounding onlookers, their eyes were full of awe when they looked at Duane.

"Oh my god, this is the legendary Master Lin!"

At the table.

"Duane, you are domineering!" Sean gave a thumbs-up with a smile on his face.

"I wanted to keep a low profile, but dogs always come to bite me. There is no other way. Come on, let's continue drinking," Duane said with a smile.

Duane and the fat man were drunk until they left the bar under the protection of the bald man.

Because he drank too much yesterday, it was already noon when Duane woke up the next day.

Duane drove to Natasha's house, picked up Natasha, and drove to Jindu.

After arriving at Jindu, Duane directly drove the car to the lakeside mansion.

Duane was going to let Natasha live in his lakeside mansion for the time being.

After all, the mansion was very big. There were many empty rooms, and Duane lived in such a big mansion alone. It was weird that there was no one in the mansion. Wherever Duane lived temporarily, it would not be so lonely.

Duane also asked her. She was happy to hear that she lived with Duane and agreed happily. She also said that she could cook for Duane.

After entering the mansion.

"Wow, this house is too big and too luxurious. Chairman Lin, I have never seen such a luxurious house, and I never thought that I can live in such a place." Natasha covered her mouth and exclaimed.

Duane smiled slightly and said, "In the future, you can take it as your own home. Don't be restrained. I am a very casual person. You should know."

At this time, Duane's mobile phone rang.

Duane took out his mobile phone and saw a strange number.

Chapter 296

"Hello." Duane picked up the phone.

"Are you Duane? Let me introduce myself. My name is Ye Guangde, the chairman of the Ye Group, the head of the Ye Family, and the father of Bradley." A slightly hoarse voice came out from the phone.

"It turned out to be the Ye Family Lord. I don't know why you called me." Duane said calmly.

"I want to meet you and talk about something. How about we find a coffee shop and make an appointment, okay?" Ye Family Lord said.

"It can't be because of Bradley's video, can it?" Duane said with a smile.

Since the end of the party yesterday, Duane had been paying attention to the video, but no media had exposed the video of Bradley at the party.

Duane knew that the media that he took yesterday must have been sealed by the Ye Family.

However, there was a copy in Duane's hand, and as long as Duane wanted to send it, he could send it online at any time.

"Duane, you're really smart. You're right. That's right, it's for the video."

"The businessmen seek profit. There are no permanent friends or enemies in the business, only permanent interests. As for that video, I think we can talk about it face to face." Ye Family Head said.

"If you want to talk to me, you can talk to me in Gorgeous tripod enterprise Building!" Duane said calmly.

"Gorgeous tripod enterprise Building? Isn't it a little inappropriate? Let's find a coffee shop. It's good for everyone." Ye Family Head said.

"Sorry, now you want to talk to me. You are not qualified to talk to me. If you don't want to come, then you don't have to talk. I will post the video online." Duane said indifferently.

After Duane finished speaking, he hung up the phone directly.

...

In the manor of the Ye family.

"Bastard! How dare you hang up on me!"

Seeing that Duane hung up the phone, the Ye Family Head's face instantly became gloomy.

"Dad, what did he say? Does he want to meet you?" Bradley asked.

"He asked me to go to the Gorgeous tripod enterprise Building to talk about it," the Ye Family Master said in a cold voice.

"What?" Bradley's expression changed.

Gorgeous tripod enterprise Building was the headquarters of Gorgeous tripod enterprise Group. It was obviously risky to go there.

"What should we do now?" Bradley asked.

"I can only go and meet him. Although it's a little risky to go to the Gorgeous tripod enterprise headquarter, given the current situation, Gorgeous tripod enterprise would definitely not dare to do anything to me. If I don't go, I'm afraid that he'll really think that I'm afraid." The Ye Family Head squinted his eyes and said.

...

On the other side, Natasha put the stuff in the lakeside mansion. Then Duane pulled her into Gorgeous tripod enterprise Building and arranged the job for her.

Not long after, Duane received the news that the Ye Family Head had arrived at Gorgeous tripod enterprise Mansion.

Duane couldn't help but sigh that the Ye Family Head was a little bold, he actually came.

Duane asked the security guard to take him to his office, but Duane did not. He was in a hurry to see him.

In Duane's office.

The Ye Family Master looked gloomy because he had been sitting here for 20 minutes.

"When will Duane come?" The Ye family asked their secretary Natasha with a sullen face.

"Chairman Ye, our President Lin is busy. He said that he will rush here as soon as he finishes his work," Natasha said.

"Humph, I think he did it on purpose," the Ye Family Master said in a cold voice.

On the top floor of Gorgeous tripod enterprise Building, in the office of his grandfather Zehi.

"Duane, when are you going to see him?" Zehi asked with a smile.

"Let's leave him hanging for half an hour first." Duane said leisurely while drinking tea.

"Haha, Ye Guangde has always been arrogant. He must be extremely angry to be ignored by you." Zehi laughed.

"It's because he has a favor to ask of me now." Duane said with a smile.

After waiting for another ten minutes, Duane got up and walked to the office.

In Duane's office.

Duane pushed the door and hurried into the office.

"Master Ye, I'm really sorry. I'm so busy at work that I have kept you waiting for a long time," Duane said as he walked.

"Duane, are you busy? I don't know if it's real or not." The Ye Family Lord snorted coldly.

While speaking, Duane had walked to the opposite side of the Ye Family Master and sat down.

Duane looked him up and down. The Ye Family Master had a beard and short shaved hair. He looked dignified without being angry, like a superior.

"Master Ye, how is Gorgeous tripod enterprise's coffee taste compared to your Ye's Group?" Duane said with a smile.

"Duane, let's get down to business. You can make a price for the video of my son and sell it to me." The Ye Family Head leaned back in his chair and said slowly.

"Your son lost the bet to me for three billion yuan at the party yesterday. He hasn't given it to me yet. The contract is here. Let's put this matter aside first."

Duane said as he took out the contract and put it on the table.

"Three billion yuan, I will transfer the money to you now," the Ye Family Head said.

After all, there was a contract. Even if there was no video, the Ye Family had to pay the money. Otherwise, not only would they have to pay the money, but the reputation of the Ye Family would be damaged.

For the Ye Family Master, this was also a huge expense. But what if his son lost yesterday?

Soon, the Ye Family Head finished the deposit through the transferphone.

Duane received a message notification on his mobile phone. He took out his mobile phone and looked at it. It was payment of three billion yuan, and the balance rose to six billion yuan.

When Gorgeous tripod enterprise was suppressed, Duane gave two billion yuan to Gorgeous tripod enterprise, so Duane only had three billion yuan left.

"Well, this contract is yours."

After receiving the transfer notice, Duane immediately threw the contract to the Ye Family Head.

The Ye Family Master took the contract and continued, "Now, you can tell me how much you are willing to sell the video to me."

"Ten billion."

Duane gave a thumbs-up.

If this video could sell for 10 billion yuan, Duane would definitely sell it.

Ten billion yuan for a video was simply a double profit. Establishing a company and earning ten billion yuan depended on investment. It definitely took a lot of time and energy, and he might not be able to make so much money.

Peng!

"10 billion? Are you robbing me?"

The Ye Family Head pounded the table and stood up, his face full of anger.

Although the Ye Family was powerful, their business was not as good as Zehi's and Ye Group's market value was not as good as Gorgeous tripod enterprise's.

They had just taken three billion yuan, which had already made the Ye Family Master pay a lot of money. If they took ten billion yuan, the whole Ye Group would be seriously injured and even had to sell some estates.

"One billion at most! This is the limit of what I can bear! It's just a video, which can make you make one billion. You can be happy secretly," the Ye Family Lord said in a cold voice.

"So there is no need to talk about it? Then you can go. I'm going to do my own work."

After saying that, Duane stood up and left directly.

When Duane walked to the door.

"Wait a minute! Two billion yuan! This is really the limit!" The Ye Family Lord said through gritted teeth.

"Nine billion! This is also the lowest I can accept." Duane said indifferently.

"Nine billion yuan? Are you kidding?"

"Well, I'll bid one final price. Three billion yuan. I absolutely can't go any higher. Otherwise, you can send the video. At the worst, I'll ask the group of public relations to make up for it!" The Ye Family Head said, gritting his teeth.

Duane smiled coldly and said, "Since you can ask the team to help you with public relations, can't I ask the team to help you against public relations? Nine billion yuan, I can't be too low!"

The Ye Family leader took a deep breath and then said, "Huh... you are ruthless, 4 billion! This is definitely my limit, and I can't afford it anymore. With the financing of our Ye Family, this is the maximum number!"

"Since it's impossible to get any higher, then there's no need to talk about it anymore. Goodbye, I won't see you off!" Su Mo said with a smile.

"Bang!" "Bang!"

Duane directly closed the door of the office and walked out of the office.

"Damn it!"

When the Ye Family Head saw that Duane had really left, his face turned pale.

After thinking about it, the Ye Family Head still got up and chased after him.

Who didn't want the video to leak out? Otherwise, his son's reputation would be ruined, and he would be infamous for the rest of his life!

Outside the office.

"Duane, 5 billion! This is the limit!" The Ye Family Head shouted at Duane's back.

"9 billion!" Duane said calmly.

"I've been raising the price again. You... Can't you lower the price?" The Ye Family Head said fiercely.

"Okay, then I'll pay you a little less, 8 billion yuan." Duane said.

Pu!

When the Ye Family Master heard Duane's words, he was so angry that he almost spat out a mouthful of blood. How could Duane lose a hundred million yuan?

"You are asking for an exorbitant price, so there is no need to talk about it anymore, let's go!"

The Ye Family Master immediately turned around and left angrily with his attendant.

"Master Ye, I'll make way for you, 8 billion." Duane turned his head and said.

The Ye Family Master, who was leaving, stopped.

"6 billion yuan. This is the last time I raise the price. If I raise the price one more cent today, I will write the name of Ye Guangde upside down!"

After finishing his words, the Ye Family Master continued to walk away.

Chapter 297

"Master of the Ye family, I, Duane, also offered the final price of seven billion yuan. If I, Duane, lose another penny today, my name will be written upside down!" Duane said loudly.

The Ye Family Master, who was striding away, paused his footsteps.

"Well, I'll give you seven billion yuan!" The Ye Family Master agreed, gritting his teeth.

Although this price was so high that the Ye Family Head felt distressed.

But he knew that once the video spread out, it would not only greatly negative impact on his son's future, but also affect his son's future and the Ye Group.

Even caused the stock price of the Ye Group to drop sharply.

Some time ago, the stock price of a wealthy businessman in China dropped by tens of billions because of a foreign scandal. This was an example!

Therefore, even if it was seven billion yuan, he had to buy it!

The Ye Family Head was very clear about the severe relationship between the two.

"Master Ye, didn't you just say that if you raise the price by 6 billion, your name will be upside down?" Duane looked at him with a faint smile.

"Yes, I said that if I raise the price again, the name would be upside down, but seven billion yuan is your price, not mine. It's reasonable and reasonable," the Ye Family Lord said.

"Well, since the price has been agreed, I will ask the secretary to make a contract." Duane said.

Duane knew that the threatening words he just said were just means to put pressure on the opponent during negotiations.

As for the price of seven billion yuan, it had exceeded Duane's expectations.

Only a fool would not sell it if it could earn seven billion yuan by selling it.

Gorgeous tripod enterprise had put in a lot of effort to manage the business for a year. Although the water was big, and all the cost and expenses were removed, the final pure profit was only 300 or 400 million yuan. And it was only because of the recent relationship.

Seven billion yuan was equivalent to two years of pure profit from Gorgeous tripod enterprise. It was easy for him to get it.

Duane's gold mine could only earn hundreds of millions of yuan a year, so he had to spend a lot of time and energy.

Compared with sending out the video to disgust Bradley, Duane felt that it was more worthwhile to take this seven billion yuan. Anyway, Bradley would have more opportunities to fight in the future.

"No, it's okay. I've got the contract ready."

The Ye Family Master took the contract from his hand and handed it to Duane.

Duane took the Ye Family Master back to his office and read the contract again.

According to the content of the contract, Duane would have to delete the video immediately and not spread it. If he had a backup and publicized it, Duane would have to pay 10 times the penalty of the liquidated damages, which meant that he had to pay 70 billion yuan.

The contract was signed in a copy. After Duane checked the contract and made sure that it was correct, he signed the contract.

"Master Ye, I'll delete the video now."

While speaking, Duane took out his mobile phone and deleted the video in front of Ye Guangde.

"I deleted the video. Pay the money." Duane put down his mobile phone and looked at Ye Guangde.

"Seven billion yuan is not a small sum of money. I just gave you three billion yuan today. If you want to take another seven billion yuan, I have to raise it for a period of time. According to the contract's time, I will connect the money to your account within three days."

After finishing his words, Ye Guangde stood up and left.

After Ye Guangde walked out of the Gorgeous tripod enterprise Building, he looked back, then gritted his teeth and said fiercely, "Just wait. Our Ye family lost 10 billion today. Next time, I will let the whole Gorgeous tripod enterprise Group pay back!"

Ye Guangde asked himself that he and the Ye Family had been in the Jin City for so many years, but they had never suffered such a big loss.

...

In the next few days, all parties of the Ye's Group gathered and funded, and even sold a subsidiary that was worth 1.5 billion yuan under the group's leadership.

Three days later.

Ye Guangde finally transferred the cash of seven billion yuan to Duane's bank account.

In this way, Duane had more than 12 billion in his account. Of course, 10 billion was contributed by the Ye Family.

In these three days, there was another matter. That was, Zhu Jing's mother had been discharged from the courtyard.

According to the original agreement, after Zhu Jing's mother left the hospital, Zhu Jing would come to Gorgeous tripod enterprise to serve.

Zhu Jing also fulfilled her promise that after her mother was discharged from the hospital, she would come to Gorgeous tripod enterprise Group, take the president of Gorgeous tripod enterprise Group's executive, and be responsible for the daily work.

In the morning, in the conference room of Gorgeous tripod enterprise Building.

Zehi stood in front.

"Everyone, now the Ye Family has completely stopped. They are suppressing me, Gorgeous tripod enterprise's discount. The disturbance this time has completely passed." Zehi said.

Then, Zehi changed the subject and said, "For this incident, the first-class hero is Duane. Everyone applaud for him!"

As soon as Zehi finished his words, the audience burst into thunderous applause.

Many of the executives present nodded their heads in agreement.

Duane first asked the Zhao family to stop suppressing them, and then made a bet through the wine party to let the Ye Family stop suppressing them. He even made a total of 10 billion yuan of the Ye Family.

This news had been spread in the company for a long time.

After these few incidents, Duane's reputation in Gorgeous tripod enterprise Group became very famous, and everyone saw how powerful Duane was.

No one dared to question Duane's ability again!

Nowadays, more and more executives took the initiative to lean toward Duane.

Of course, Liu Heng's faction was an exception.

At this time, Duane stood up.

"Grandpa, I have a proposal." Duane said calmly.

"Go ahead." Zehi nodded with a smile.

"As far as I know, after 10 billion yuan was lost to the Ye's Group, the current Ye's Group has financial difficulties and economic difficulties. We can seize this opportunity to take advantage of it and kill!" Duane said.

"What do you mean? Retaliating the Ye's Group?" Zehi was stunned.

Duane nodded with a smile and said, "Yes, we are now doing activities to lower the price and give a discount. The extent of the discount must be unprecedentedly large. Attract all the customers and make them lose a lot of their clients!"

"The Ye Group is short of funds now, so it is in financial difficulties. There is no extra money at all. If we use it to fight with us, the Ye Group will definitely lose its capital chain after a large loss of customers!"

Everyone present couldn't help but nod. For a large enterprise, what did training of the capital chain mean?

Once the capital chain was trained, the whole group would run out of operation and end up breaking down.

"As long as we seize this opportunity and beat them hard this time, we will definitely have a great chance to destroy Ye's Group!" Duane said in a loud and clear tone.

"This is indeed an opportunity to destroy Ye Group!" The executives present nodded one after another.

Mr. Liu also nodded. He had been fighting with the Ye Group for many years. This was definitely the best opportunity to defeat the Ye Group.

"I object!"

The financial manager, Liu Heng, stood up.

"According to Gorgeous tripod enterprise's current financial condition, we have just conducted a large-scale expansion and acquisition. At present, the group's financial situation is also not good. Before that, the Ye Family almost took this opportunity to suppress our Gorgeous tripod enterprise."

"Gorgeous tripod enterprise can't afford too much money now. He's going to deal with the Ye Group," Liu Heng shouted.

Another executive of the Liu's family also stood up and said, "Yes, a lot of money must be needed to completely destroy Ye's Group. Gorgeous tripod enterprise can't pull out so much money now."

Many of the executives present nodded in succession.

Although the Ye's Group was in a financial shortage this time.

However, the Ye Group was after all very big. If he wanted to break his capital chain completely, Gorgeous tripod enterprise had to spend a lot of money to get enough customers.

"Grandpa, how much money can you transfer?" Duane asked.

"I think I can get about 3 billion yuan if I think of a way." Grandpa said.

His grandfather, Zehi, also knew that this was a great opportunity to destroy the Ye Group. If he let go of this opportunity, he would not have such a chance in the future.

Therefore, Zehi had to find a way to raise money.

"Well, I'll add another 4 billion yuan to add seven billion yuan. The discount of our discount must be large enough. This time, we must destroy Ye's Group!" Duane's eyes were determined.

"Duane, I let you spend money again, this..." Zehi revealed a bitter smile.

"Grandpa, I got the money from the Ye family, and I don't feel sorry for it." Duane said with a smile.

"Haha, you are using the Ye Group's money to smash the Ye Group. If the chairman of the Ye Family finds out, he will vomit blood with anger!" Zehi said with a smile.

The four billion yuan that Duane gave him was taken out from the ten billion yuan that the Ye Family Master gave him.

Duane was going to use the money of Ye's Group to smash Ye's Group. Just thinking about it made Duane excited.

As for his heartache?

That didn't exist. As long as he could destroy Ye's Group, Duane would be willing to spend all his money!

Chapter 298

Moreover, Duane would be Gorgeous tripod enterprise's heir in the future. He would spend money on Gorgeous tripod enterprise's behalf, on Ye's Group, and on his own behalf in the future.

Once the Ye Group was really defeated, Gorgeous tripod enterprise would be able to continue to expand and become the overlord of the capital!

Most of the executives present seemed to be very excited, because this was really a good opportunity.

Only Liu Heng and the others looked unhappy. However, he did not stand up to oppose it again. Previously, his reason for opposition was that the group had no money. Now, he could not find any reason to oppose it.

At this time, the general manager Li Zongdi also stood up and said, "I suggest that we talk with the Zhao family again and let the Zhao family ally with us to lower the price to suppress the Ye Group. In this way, the chances of destroying the Ye Group will be greater."

"However, this matter is not easy to negotiate.

If the Zhao Family really does this, they will completely offend the Ye Family. According to the Zhao Family's consistent style, I am afraid it will be extremely difficult for them to agree." Zehi muttered.

"Grandfather, let me deal with the affairs of the Zhao Family." Duane said.

"Well, you have a good relationship with Zhao Ling. You are indeed the best candidate." Grandpa nodded with a smile.

"Grandpa, don't worry. I will try my best to negotiate!" Duane said seriously.

Duane knew the importance of letting the Zhao family join in.

Zehi nodded and then continued to say, "In the next period of time, I'm afraid everyone will be very busy, and the workload will increase. If you work hard, the bonus will not be low at the end of the year!"

After all, they had to suppress Ye's Group next. A large-scale discount would attract a lot of customers, and everyone's workload would naturally increase a lot.

"Ahem, one more thing." Zehi cleared his throat.

The managers present looked up at Zehi.

"I announce that Duane has been promoted to the vice president of Gorgeous tripod enterprise Group," Zehi said.

"What? The vice president?"

Zehi's words caused an uproar in the conference room.

Everyone knew very well that the position of vice president was the top decision-making department of the group. Once Duane was promoted to vice president.

Duane's status and power in Gorgeous tripod enterprise had risen to a new height.

Everyone was very surprised. After all, Duane had just entered the company. He now became the vice president from the deputy general manager to the vice president.

The face of the CFO Liu Heng, as well as his people, also became extremely ugly.

"Chairman, I object! He's too young and inexperienced. He's not suited to be the vice president of the Gorgeous tripod enterprise Guild at all! Chairman, please be careful!"

One of the Liu's family members stood up and opposed.

"That's right, Chairman. Be careful!"

Several executives from Liu Heng's faction stood up in opposition.

Liu Heng also stood up and said urgently, "Chairman, the appointment of the vice president is such a big thing. You must get the approval of the board of directors. You can't be so careless!"

Zehi, who was standing in front of them, looked gloomy.

Peng!

Zehi slapped the table and shouted, "I am giving orders now, not negotiating with you! If you have any opinions, I will tear them apart and swallow them. As for the board of directors, who dares to deny my decisions?"

Zehi looked dignified and his voice resounded through the conference room.

In an instant, the whole meeting room fell into silence, so silent that one could clearly hear a pin drop on the ground.

Zehi's sudden anger made everyone tremble a little. Everyone had not felt that Zehi was angry for a long time.

Liu Heng and the others were so scared that their faces turned pale.

"I don't like to be angry now, but it doesn't mean that I, Zehi, don't have the majesty I used to have. Some people better restrain themselves. If they dare to continue to do evil things in the group, I will definitely not spare them!"

"Let's call it a day!"

After Zehi finished speaking, he strode away from the conference room.

Duane stood up and walked toward Liu Heng.

"Chairman Lin."

"Chairman Lin."

Wherever Duane passed, the executives saluted him one after another.

After all, Duane's current identity was the vice president of the group. Naturally, his title had changed.

Soon, Duane walked up to Liu Heng, and stood in front of the senior executives with him.

They all lowered their heads.

"Wu Kang, Liu Weiguang, Li Wei, when you see me, don't you know how to say hello?" Duane frowned and asked.

"Chairman Lin."

These people could only open their mouths to greet him.

Duane then looked at the financial director, Liu Heng, and asked with a sneer, "What about you, Liu Heng? What are you waiting for? Do you want me to teach you?"

The corner of Liu Heng's eyes twitched slightly, and his expression turned even uglier.

"Chairman... Chairman Lin."

Liu Heng gritted his teeth, but he still said the word with his head lowered.

"Liu Heng, I know you're working with Liu Yuanhai. Since I'm now the vice president of Gorgeous tripod enterprise, I promise that your good days will come to an end soon." Duane squinted his eyes and said.

After hearing this, Liu Heng's facial muscles twitched again, but he could not refute it.

After Duane finished his words, he turned around and left the office directly.

After returning to his office, Duane received a phone call. Duane saw that it was from Zhao Ling.

"Hello, Zhao Ling." Duane answered the phone.

"Duane, last time I persuaded my grandfather for you. You promised to invite me to dinner. It's been a few days. You won't forget it, will you?" Zhao Ling's voice came from the phone.

"How can I forget? Are you free today? I'll treat you to dinner tonight, okay?" Duane said.

Originally, Duane was ready to call Zhao Ling. After all, he wanted the Zhao family to cooperate with Gorgeous tripod enterprise to suppress the Ye Family. Duane might still need Zhao Ling's help.

"Of course I have time." Zhao Ling's affirmative voice came from the other side of the phone.

"Well, five o'clock in the afternoon, I'll pick you up downstairs from Zhao Group," Duane said.

As soon as she hung up the phone, Zhu Jing pushed the door and came in.

"Chairman Lin, congratulations on your promotion to the vice president," Zhu Jing said as she walked in.

Duane smiled and said, "Zhu Jing, don't call me Chairman Lin. You don't need to regard me as a stranger. You can call me Duane."

Zhu Jing smiled and nodded.

"Zhu Jing, the company will be very busy for the next period of time. As the president of the executive company, you must be very busy. Thank you for your hard work." Duane said.

"This is my duty. Of course, I will do my best," Zhu Jing said with a smile.

"By the way, Zhu Jing, I have something to hand it over to you. Please help me investigate the financial director, Liu Heng, to see if he has any dark materials in the company," Duane said.

Liu Heng was in cahoots with Liu Yuanhai and had gone against Duane time and time again. It was time for Duane to deal with him.

"No problem." Zhu Jing nodded seriously.

"By the way, Duane, your cousin Lin Qing hasn't been in a good condition recently. You can visit her when you have time." Zhu Jing said.

"Is it her company's business?" Duane asked in surprise.

"That's right, she doesn't have much money. Currently, the first round of promotion has been completed, but the effect is very bad. The company has been losing money for a long time. The fund has recently been suddenly withdrawn, and we no longer help her carry out two rounds and three rounds of investment promotion." Zhu Jing said.

"Okay, I know." Duane nodded.

...

After leaving the company, Duane went straight to Lin Qing's company, ready to meet Lin Qing.

In the most difficult time of Duane, when he didn't have money to pay the tuition fees, it was Duane, who was secretly helped by Lin Qing. Duane would never forget this favor.

Now that Lin Qing was in trouble, Duane would not stand by and do nothing.

When Duane went to see Lin Qing, the whole Gorgeous tripod enterprise Group was busy. They began to offer a substantial discount to suppress the Ye Group.

Under the efforts of general manager Li Zongdi, executive president Zhu Jing, and other executives, the mature plan was taken out in just an hour.

In just two hours, the plan had reached various departments and subsidiaries, and then began to carry out.

...

On the other side, in the manor of the Ye Family.

Bradley was dragged into the living room by a fat girl.

Although the fat girl was fashionable in fashion and wore a pearl necklace around her neck, she looked noble, but she was very ugly and fat, weighing at least 180 pounds, which was comparable to a female pig.

She was Murong Mei, the youngest daughter of the head of the Murong Family, in the Murong Family.

When the Ye Family Head saw the two of them coming back, he quickly smiled and asked, "Beautiful. Rulong, are you having a good time today?"

"I'm very happy," Murong Mei said as she ate the pizza in her hand.

"Meimei, are you satisfied with my family?" The Ye Family Lord asked with a smile.

"Of course, I'm satisfied. I like Matthew." Murong Mei was very happy.

Then Murong Mei looked at Bradley and asked happily, "Brother Rulong, are you satisfied with me? Do you like me?"

Chapter 299

Bradley only felt that when Murong Mei spoke to her, there was a mouthful of stinky air coming from her mouth, which was very stinky.

"Ugh!" she retched.

After inhaling a mouthful of stinky odor, Bradley couldn't help but retch.

"Matthew, do you feel uncomfortable?" Murong Mei said as she got closer.

That stinking smell made Bradley's appetite even worse.

"No... nothing, I like Meimei very much." Bradley said with a forced smile.

Thinking of the benefits of marriage with the Murong Family and that he could take advantage of the Murong Family to deal with Duane and Gorgeous tripod enterprise, Bradley had to restrain himself.

"Since you like me, then kiss me!"

Murong Mei pouted.

Bradley swallowed a mouthful of saliva. This was more difficult than going to the battlefield.

"Like a dragon!"

The Ye Family Master gave Bradley a look.

Bradley could only force himself to kiss Murong Mei, and he had to pretend to be enjoying it.

At this moment, Bradley's cell phone rang. He took a look and saw that it was Liu Heng, the financial director of Gorgeous tripod enterprise, who had called him.

"What did you say?"

Hearing what she said on the phone, Bradley's face turned pale.

After hanging up the phone.

"Rulong, what happened?" the Ye Family Lord asked.

"Liu Heng said that Gorgeous tripod enterprise would take advantage of the limited capital of our Ye Group to invest seven billion as a conference and a discount to rob our business and break the capital chain of our Ye Group!" Bradley said through gritted teeth.

"What!?"

The Ye Family Master suddenly stood up, and his face instantly turned livid.

The Ye Family Master was very clear that the total of 10 billion yuan last time was given to Duane, which made the Ye Group very nervous. It would take at least half a year for the tense situation of the group's capital chain to gradually recover.

And at this time, if Hua Dingzhen really invested money to rob their business and broke their capital chain, that would be the end!

"He acquired the treasure tripod before, and he was short of funds, wasn't he? Where did he get so much money from?" The Lord of the Ye family was unwilling to believe it.

"I heard that most of the money was taken out by Duane." Bradley said.

"What? The money Duane took out! He... he is using the money I gave him to transfer it to me?"

The Ye Family Master's face turned livid with rage.

At this time, the general manager of Ye's Group rushed in.

"Chairman Ye, Young Master Ye, something bad has happened. All the industries in Gorgeous tripod enterprise have competed with us, and they are all descending rapidly. The price is unprecedented. A lot of our customers have gone to Gorgeous tripod enterprise!" The general manager said urgently.

Upon hearing this, the Ye Family Master's face became even gloomier.

"What do you think we should do?" The Ye Family Head looked at the general manager.

"Chairman Ye, in this situation, if we want to get our customers back to maintain our market, we must do some activities with them."

"But doing this kind of activity is burning money. Now the available fund of the group is less than one billion yuan. It's only enough for daily expenses. I can't afford it at all," the general manager said anxiously.

"What will happen if we don't do any exercise?" Ye Family Lord asked.

"Then... no one will buy our newly-built buildings. The stock of goods can't be sold out, and we can't pay back the cost. We don't have enough money to pay off the debt, and the capital chain will collapse completely. Under the effect of Domano's bone plate, the group will go bankrupt directly!" The general manager's face turned pale.

Peng!

"Damn it! Damn it! It must be Duane who came up with this idea!"

The Ye Family Master slammed his fist on the sofa, and his face became more and more ugly.

The Ye Family Lord knew in his heart that if he couldn't handle it this time, his Ye's Group would really go bankrupt.

"Master Ye, the only way now is to take out a large amount of money to enter into Gorgeous tripod enterprise's activity, and don't let the clients escape!" The general manager said.

"In this situation, how is it possible for me to get seven or eight billion dollars immediately?" The Ye Family Head said fiercely.

"Chairman Ye, I suggest that we sell the company's unimportant industries first, and then you can think of ways to raise money." The general manager said.

The Ye Family Master shook his head. "Now we are in a hurry to sell our industry, so we can't sell it at a high price at all. What's more, if we sell our industry, we will cut off our own flesh!"

After a pause, the Ye Family Head continued, "You can leave first. How much money is there in the group's account now? All of them are used to lower prices for activities. If there is a lack of funds, I will find another way."

The general manager nodded and then left.

"Dad, it's almost impossible to raise another seven or eight billion." Bradley was clearly very anxious as well.

"It's none of your business. Go according to your plan and set out with your grandfather today. Go to the Murong Family to pay a formal visit to the head of the Murong Family. It's best to make an engagement this time."

"As long as the marriage with Master Murong is successful and with the Murong Family's help, there's no need to fear Gorgeous tripod enterprise!" said the Ye Family Master.

"Gorgeous tripod enterprise Group? In the eyes of the head of Murong Family, it's nothing!" Murong Meijiao said proudly.

...

Although Gorgeous tripod enterprise Group was very busy now, Duane was not responsible for any specific projects, so Duane was not busy. Duane just needed to follow his grandfather to control the overall situation.

As for suppressing the Ye Family, it was not something that could be achieved in a day or two. Such a thing needed time.

Duane drove to his cousin Lin Qing's company.

The software of Lin Qing's development was called 'Youngest Prince', and her company was called 'Qingtian International Company'.

In Lin Qing's office.

"Duane, have a taste of the coffee that I prepared for you."

Smiling, Lin Qing placed a cup of coffee in front of Duane.

"Thank you, Sister Qing." Duane smiled and took a sip of the coffee.

"Duane, you are busy. How do you think of my company?" Lin Qing asked with a smile.

"Sister Qing, Zhu Jing has told me about your company's situation." Duane said.

"Alas... I didn't let her tell you. She said it." Lin Qing sighed, and the smile on his face disappeared.

Obviously, when she just smiled, she forced a smile because she didn't want Duane to worry about her.

"Why didn't you tell me? I'm your brother!" Duane looked serious.

After a pause, Duane continued to ask, "Sister Qing, what's your plan now?"

"My plan is to continue investing, but my plan doesn't work well. I've run a lot of companies to return money recently, but no one is willing to make a large-scale investment now."

Lin Qing shook his head helplessly and continued to say, "The promotion of this project is not very effective. Maybe I was too naive at the beginning. Maybe this project really doesn't work."

At this time, the front desk of the company knocked on the door and then entered the office.

"President Lin, Wu Tiangao, the young master of Sky Entertainment Group, is talking about investing with you outside." The receptionist said.

"Really? Please come in," Lin Qing said hurriedly.

Soon, the front desk lady walked into the office with a young man.

"Hello, Shon! Hello!"

Lin Qing got up to greet him and then shook hands with him.

The investors, that is, the rich man, became the daddy of the rich man in the industry. It could be seen that the investor and the investors had a kind of relationship. The ones who were the investors would be sons and grandsons.

However, Wu Tiangao did not stop after he shook hands with Lin Qing. Instead, he placed the other hand on the back of Lin Qing's hand and caressed it gently. With a lustful look on his face, he said, "Boss Lin's hand is so delicate."

"Shon, you... you're flattering me!"

Lin Qing let out a dry laugh as he quickly pulled back his hand.

Wu Tiangao turned around and sat down on the sofa. He crossed his legs and said, "Lin Qing, last time you came to our company to talk about investment. I heard that our Sky Entertainment Company can invest for you, but... it's not for free."

"Of course, it's not for free. If our project succeeds, the return of your investment will be very generous." Lin Qing said with a smile.

"No, that's not what I'm talking about. I have other requests."

After Wu Tiangao finished speaking, he raised his head and stared at Lin Qing with a lecherous look on his face. Then, he let go of his greed without hesitation.

"Mr. Wu, what do you mean?" Lin Qing looked at her.

"Then I'll get to the point. For Sky Entertainment Company's investment of 200 million, in addition to the successful returns of the contract, you have to sleep with me for 30 times. If you are willing to accept more people, I will give you another 100 million more investment." Wu Tiangao said with a smile.

Lin Qing naturally didn't look so good after hearing this.

Just as Lin Qing was about to refuse, Duane, who was next to him, suddenly stood up, with anger in his eyes.

He was not here to talk about investment! He just wanted to sleep with Lin Qing!

"Shon, right? Get out at once! Get out of here as far as you can!" Duane pointed at him and roared.

Wu Tian Gao's face instantly darkened after he heard Duane's scolding.

"Hey, where did this idiot come from? How dare he shout in front of me?" Wu Tian raised his head and looked up at Duane.

Then, Wu Tiangao turned to Lin Qing with an unhappy look on his face and said, "Lin Qing, is this your employee? How dare you shout at me?

You don't want to talk about investment anymore,
do you?"

Chapter 300

"I'm talking to your mother!"

Duane, who was furious, punched Wu Tiangao and knocked him down on the sofa.

Seeing his cousin being molested, Duane was so angry!

The dragon had reverse scales. If you touched it, you would die!

To Duane, his loved ones, close friends, and loved ones were Duane's bottom line. He would definitely not allow anyone to lay a finger on him!

Wu Tianda, who was beaten, touched the blood at the corner of his mouth, and then roared, "Kid, you... You dare to hit me, you are finished! And Lin Qing, you and your company are also finished!"

"How dare you call me that!"

Duane fixed his eyes, and at the same time, he waved his fist again.

"Duane, calm down." Lin Qing stopped Duane.

Then, Lin Qing turned to Wu Tiangao and said, "Dinesh, he is not an employee of our company. His name is Duane, and he is Zehi's grandson."

"He... He's Duane?" Wu Tiangao was shocked.

Wu Tiangao's father took part in a charity party a few days ago. After his father came back, he told Wu Tiangao about Duane.

"Yes, I am Duane." Duane slightly narrowed his eyes.

After Wu Tiangao heard this, a smile immediately appeared on his face.

"I... I'm sorry, Elder Duane. I didn't know it was you just now. I'm sorry to have offended you." Wu Tiangao stood up with a hollow smile.

Although Wu Tiangao's Sky Entertainment Group had a market value of billions of yuan, it was obviously much worse than the colossus Gorgeous tripod enterprise.

"Do you know who Lin Qing is?" Duane squinted and said coldly.

"Don't tell me... you're brother and sister?" Wu Tiangao was taken aback.

He thought about it and realized that both of their surnames were Lin.

"Congratulations, you're right. The reward is to get out of here. Don't harass my cousin again in the future, otherwise... you will have to bear the consequences!" Duane's tone was cold.

"Yes, yes, yes. I'm going to get out right now!"

Wu Tiangao nodded his head at once.

Wu Tiangao was very clear about this. With Duane's status and background, he definitely could not afford to offend him. Although he was a rich second generation, he knew who he could afford to offend and who he could not.

As for the punch he had just received, he naturally didn't dare to take it back. He could only take it as a lesson.

After Wu Tiangao finished speaking, he immediately got out of the way.

After this person left.

"Sister Qing!"

Duane walked to Lin Qing with a serious face and said, "Sister Qing, are you going to pull in investment and suffer this kind of treatment?"

Duane could imagine that Lin Qing District's investment had definitely suffered a lot.

If Duane had known this long ago, he would not have let her go, even if he was beaten to death, if she tried to invest in the company.

"How... how could this happen? It's the first time I've encountered such a situation."

Lin Qing forced a smile.

It could be seen that Lin Qing didn't want Duane to worry about her.

"You're still lying to me! You are such a fool! Do you know that I will feel distressed if you do this? Why didn't you tell me earlier? It's just a matter of money. I can help you!" Duane said distressedly.

"Duane, I'm sorry. It's... it's my fault that I concealed it from you. Don't be angry." Lin Qing smiled and shook Duane's arm.

Duane looked at Lin Qing up close and said seriously, "I can't invest anymore! As for the money, it's all up to me to invest. Do you hear me?"

"But..." Lin Qing still wanted to say something.

"There is no 'but!'" Duane interrupted her.

"Well, how much money do you need? Let's sit down and talk!"

Duane said as he took Lin Qing's hand and sat down on the sofa next to him.

After they sat down.

"Sister Qing, what's the situation in the company now? Tell me." Duane opened his mouth and asked.

"At present, the company is financially short of money, and the salary of employees is almost out of hand. Because the effect of the promotion is poor, we can't earn money. We are in urgent need of funds to enter the company. One is to maintain the company's operation, the other is to continue the promotion." Lin Qing bowed his head and said.

"How much do you need?" Duane asked.

"We need 200 to 300 million yuan to promote it. After all, it's expensive to promote it," Lin Qing said.

"Two hundred to three hundred million yuan? Then I'll give you three billion yuan. Let's have a fever first. If it's not enough, I'll add it," Duane said.

"Thirty... three billion yuan!" Lin Qing covered his small mouth and was scared to death.

In Lin Qing's opinion, it was enough for her to earn two or three hundred million yuan. Three hundred million yuan was beyond her imagination.

"Since we're going to promote it, it's no fun to do it. We'll spend money to ask stars to endorse, and we'll buy all the advertisements for popular TV series and variety of variety. There're also the banners for every software application shop, and we'll buy all of them!" Duane said.

Duane continued, "In addition, offline advertisements are also rampant. In short, in all places that can be exposed, you have to spend money to get it, and then you can use the money as a discount. You must have a real discount."

After hearing Duane's words, Lin Qing was stunned.

Such a large-scale promotion was something she had never dared to imagine before. The previous round of promotion mainly spent a lot of money on the application of the shop. However, because this shopping app was not very famous, there were not many people downloading it to use.

"Duane, three billion yuan is not a small amount, and the effect of one round of promotion is not very good. If three billion yuan is not enough to be sold, then... the 300 million yuan is very likely to be lost. The risk factor is very high." Lin Qing said seriously.

Why Lin Karlee had not been involved in investing during this period of time? It was because the effect of the promotion was not good, causing the investment company to think that Lin Qing's project was unworthy of investment.

"Let it be. As long as it can make you realize your dream, it's worth it!" Duane said seriously.

Upon hearing Duane's words, Lin Qing was so moved that she burst into tears and burst into tears.

These days, she had suffered all kinds of cold eyes and ridicule, and her mood had already been suppressed to the extreme. However, as a strong woman, she had been holding back her feelings all the time.

Duane saw Lin Qing crying, so he came forward to comfort her and put his shoulder to her.

Lin Qing cried and said, "Duane, thank you!"

When Lin Qing was in the most helpless state, Duane saved her, and she really wanted to thank Duane in her heart.

"Sister Qing, I know that I have been wronged. Cry out. It's good to cry out." Duane said seriously.

Lin Qing lay on Duane's shoulder and cried.

After about a few weeks, Lin Qing, who had been crying so hard, finally calmed down.

"Duane, there are still 70% shares in the company in my hand. The remaining 30% is your and your grandfather's 10%. And Junwu is Zhu Jing's. The last 5% is another investor."

"You invest three billion now, and I'll give you all the 70% of the company shares in my hand. The company will be yours in the future," Lin Qing said.

Last time when he was in the Lin family, Duane took 100 million yuan to buy the Lin family's old city renovation project. The one hundred million yuan grandfather gave it to Lin Qing. In return, Lin Qing gave it to his grandfather and Duane, and each of them held 10 percent of the company shares.

Duane shook his head and said, "How can I do that? You can give me a total of 10% of the shares. The company was founded by you, and the project is your work. How can I take it?"

"If it weren't for your three billion yuan, the company would have closed down. Even if it succeeds in the future, it will be your three billion yuan. If you don't take the shares, I won't take your money, not a penny!" Lin Qing said, pouting.

Duane knew Lin Qing's character. Since she had said so, he must have changed his mind.

"How about this, Sister Qing, you give me 40%, plus 10% of my original 10%, I will have 50%. You save 30% of the shares to be the second largest shareholder. What do you think?" Duane said.

After a pause, Duane said seriously, "If you don't agree to this request, I'll be angry."

"Well... All right then." After thinking for a while, Lin Qing nodded and agreed.

As a result, Duane became the first shareholder of Lin Qing's company with 50% of the shares. Lin Qing became the second largest shareholder of the company with 30% shares.

"Although I have become the first shareholder of the company, I will not intervene in any management and decisions of the company. Sister Qing, you are still the highest director of the company," Duane said.

"Yes!" Lin Qing nodded.

After the matter was settled, Duane immediately collected 3 billion into the account of the Blue Sky Internet Company.

In this way, the balance on Duane's card also changed from 36 billion to 66 billion.

In order to deal with the Ye Family, Duane paid 4 billion yuan to help Lin Qing. He also spent 3 billion yuan on it. However, Duane didn't feel distressed. Wasn't money used?

And if the app that invested in Lin Qing's company was really set on fire, Duane would also make a lot of money!
