

Chapter 1017

As he spoke, Darryl raised his hand, and the White Lily Cold Flame leapt over and floated toward the direction of Lindsay's face.

All the women in the world cared most about their beauty—especially beautiful ladies. It was as if their face was more important than their life.

As expected, Lindsay panicked as the White Lily Cold Flame approached her. Her body shook, and she quickly said, "I will tell you! It's the one in the white bottle."

When she said that, Lindsay's face was full of fear; she no longer showed her arrogant self.

Darryl quickly poured the antidote into the white medicine bottle and fed them to Debra and the others.

Soon, they felt the weakness and numbness on their body had all but disappeared.

Slap!

When he recovered his internal energy, Dax immediately stood up and slapped Lindsay's face as he scolded her fiercely. "B*tch! I will kill you!"

Dax held the axe tightly; he was about to kill Lindsay.

"Dax!" Chester quickly stopped him. "Spare this woman; she might be useful later."

Chester turned and looked at Darryl, "Let's get to the Carter family immediately. Let's go now; it will be too late if we delay any further!"

"Yes!" Darryl did not say anything else; he nodded his head. He leapt and jumped onto the back of the snow eagle and headed toward the Carter family hurriedly.

Meanwhile, at the Carter family's mansion.

Donoghue and the Six Fairies used their internal energy in a battle in mid-air!

They had fought for a few hundred rounds. Donoghue managed to identify a loophole in their formation and had destroyed it. Then, he took the opportunity to attack them with his internal energy.

Donoghue had the Sky Breaking Axe that would continuously replenish his internal energy; there was no way for the six fairies to win the battle. However, none of them showed any sign that they would give up soon!

"Break!"

Donoghue roared; the air turned! The Six Fairies' faces were pale as they dropped from the sky! All of them held their hands to their chests; it was apparent that none of them had any energy left.

Donoghue was laughing insanely; his eyes glanced at the Carter family. "These six women had no energy left. Let's see who else can save your Carter family!"

Donoghue swung the axe and hit Daniel, who was closest to him!

"You are a terrible person! You have killed Auntie, and now you want to harm Uncle! Mister will never let you off easily!" At that moment, a girl ran forward and stood in front of Daniel. It was Jewel!

"Little girl, go away! Leave quickly! Leave me!" Daniel shouted as loud as he could.

Even though Daniel had not spent much time with Jewel, he had liked her. He felt warm when he saw Jewel tried to block the attack for him.

Jewel's was furious as she continued to cry. She spread her arms in front of Daniel; she would not leave! She knew that Darryl would be devastated if anything were to happen to his father. 'I will use my life to protect Uncle and will not allow him to be harmed further! As long as I am still breathing, I will stand right in front of him!'

Jewel's eyes were red as she looked at Donoghue and shouted, "I will not let you harm him. I will not let you! Wait till Mister returns; he will not let you off so easily! He will not let you off!"

"Will not let me off?!" Donoghue stared coldly at Jewel; his vision was deviant. "When I hacked Dax 36 times, Darryl had cut me 360 times in return! Each cut was not even meant to be life-threatening! When I see him today, I will repay it ten times more! I will slice him a hundred thousand times! Let me kill you first, and then I shall look for Darryl! None of you can escape!"

Donoghue lifted the Sky Breaking Axe and charged toward Jewel!

At that moment, no one in the Carter family had any energy to battle anymore!

The axe carried incredible power!

Jewel stood there; she did not show any sign that she would retreat! However, she closed her eyes; she knew that she would have nowhere to go even if she wanted to hide.

As the axe approached closer, Jewel's tears streamed down her cheeks uncontrollably. She felt utterly hopeless!

'Mister, where are you? This bad man had killed Auntie. He is also bullying me. Mister, where are you now? Do you know that I may not see you again?'

"Donoghue, you bastard!"

At that moment, a loud roar was heard from afar; the voice shook heaven and earth.

A giant white eagle flew mid-air!

It was Darryl on the back of the snow eagle, and he held the Blood Drinking Sword in his hand! His anger boiled, and his eyes were blood-red!

Chapter 1018

When Darryl saw the beautiful and grand Carter residence, it had been turned into a piece of wasteland. The Carter family's disciples were either dead or seriously injured!

As he reached the mansion, he saw Donoghue's axe about to hit Jewel's body!

"Argh!" Darryl screamed crazily as he charged forward with his Blood Drinking Sword and hit Donoghue's giant axe!

Bang!

A frightful loud crash made everyone tremble! Donoghue took a few steps backward as he locked his eyes onto Darryl!

"Jewel!" Darryl's eyes were red as he hugged Jewel's waist and pulled her into his arms.

"Mister!" Jewel stomped her feet; tears rushed out as she felt that everything was unfair.

Darryl!

He had finally arrived.

At that moment, the six fairies felt incredibly delighted!

Little Fairy was particularly thrilled as her eyes shone brightly; she could not hide her happiness!

"Darryl!" Donoghue held the Sky Breaking Axe tightly as the muscles on his arm tightened!

The killing aura emerged when the enemies met!

Donoghue looked coldly at Darryl. 'This is the person that destroyed the Dixon family! Because of this person, I have not had a good night's sleep for the past two years. I can only think of revenge every time I shut my eyes!'

Donoghue even dreamt of killing Darryl! At that moment, he wondered, 'Why is Darryl here? Shouldn't he be at Wishing Star Tower?'

'I have not destroyed the Carter family yet. How did he get here so fast? What is Lindsay doing? Was she not able to stop him?'

Darryl ignored him. He looked around, and his body shook terribly!

He saw his father, Daniel, on the floor; he held a bloodied Luna in his arms.

As for Luna, her eyes shut tightly, and her face was pale; there was no longer any breath in her.

"Mother!"

Darryl shouted as tears blurred his vision!

The feelings of heartache, sadness, and uncontrollable anger rushed into his mind. It was as if he would break down at any moment!

Darryl had not spent much time with his parents since he was young. He had not treated his parents well too! He thought that once he became the Alliance Master, he could spend more time with them.

He had never thought that his mother would leave him before he could do that!

His anger boiled!

Darryl stared at Donoghue with reddened eyes!

Donoghue was pleased to see the suffering on Darryl's face. He smiled coldly. "You are heart-broken, aren't you? When you destroyed my Dixon family, have you thought about the consequences? Don't worry; I will send you and everyone here to hell together."

"Sh*t! You b*stard!" Darryl shouted crazily as he raised both his arms!

Bang!

The air around them started to spin, followed by the nine golden dragons that surrounded Darryl!

"Kill!"

One could hear the dragon's bright and clear roars. All the nine golden dragons looked extremely powerful as they charged toward Donoghue!

Donoghue sighed coldly when he saw those dragons went after him.

Bang!

Then, Donoghue raised his hand and swung the axe—a bright golden light shone from the Sky Breaking Axe before it sliced the sky and earth and charged forward!

Bang! Bang! Bang!

Donoghue's golden light clashed against the dragons. A strong and shocking aura exploded before it crashed into the dragons and turned them into a ray of golden shadow that disappeared mid-air!

What?

Everyone was in shock; they were terrified.

How astonishingly powerful was the Sky Breaking Axe?!

Darryl's nine golden dragons were terrifying too, but the Sky Breaking Axe had defeated them with just one hit.

Darryl, who was still in mid-air, was furious. At the same time, he was stunned as well!

That was the Grand Weapon's power?

It was too powerful!

Donoghue laughed before he smiled wickedly as he teased Darryl. "You claim that you are the Alliance Master, and this is all that you've got?"

"Darryl, we are here to help you!"

At that moment, Dax, Chester and Debra appeared and charged toward Donoghue!

Bang!

Chapter 1019

Darryl's three companion's internal energy exploded; its intimidating power was directed at Donoghue!

However, Donoghue smiled arrogantly and said, "You have overestimated yourselves!"

Donoghue swung the Sky Breaking Axe, and three golden rays charged toward Dax and the rest.

Bang! Bang! Bang!

All three of them tried to avoid the attack, but they were a little too late! The three of them shouted and fell onto the ground after the golden rays hit them.

Once they landed on the ground, Chester vomited a mouthful of fresh blood!

Dax's face was pale, as well; it was apparent that he was injured.

Debra was fine, though; she was a Level Three Martial Emperor and the Artemis Sect's Sect Master, so her power was top-notch! However, the attack shocked Debra. Donoghue had really strong power!

"Darryl!"

Donoghue clenched his fist as his body floated mid-air. He stared firmly at Darryl and said, "No one can save you today; accept your death!"

Donoghue held the Sky Breaking Axe tightly as he charged toward Darryl!

"I'll die with you if that's what it takes!" Darryl screamed; his eyes were all red. As he spoke, a ball of white flame appeared on Darryl's palm. It leapt and immediately appeared in front of Donoghue!

What?!

What was that?!

Donoghue did not know that enchanted flames existed in the world.

However, Donoghue was stunned when he felt the heat from the White Lily Cold Flame. He quickly put the Sky Breaking Axe in front of his body to block the flame!

Bang!

The White Lily Cold Flame struck on the Sky Breaking Axe. Not only it did not burn, but the flame went out as well.

The White Lily Cold Flame would have burned any other weapon! However, the Sky Breaking Axe was utterly unharmed! Even though the White Lily Cold Flame was the top enchanted flame in the world, and it could burn all items, it was not undefeatable. Donoghue had a grand weapon in his hand!

How did that happen?

Darryl's face turned pale; he was utterly stunned.

Donoghue was delighted as he smiled coldly. "That's all you've got?" He charged forward again!

Darryl held his fist tightly. With the Blood Drinking Sword in his hand, he charged ahead too!

Bang!

The next second, a loud bang was heard as the Blood Drinking Sword, and the Sky Breaking Axe met. The impact threw Darryl more than a hundred feet away. He spouted fresh blood, and at the same time, the Blood Drinking Sword was broken into two!

Darryl had killed many enemies with that sword when he faced the Westington army. The Blood Drinking Sword had achieved violet level, yet it could not defend against the Sky Breaking Axe!

Sigh...

At that moment, Darryl was surprised and furious! Everyone on the ground gasped quietly too!

The Sky Breaking Axe in Donoghue's hand was too powerful—even Darryl's weapon had been destroyed. How could he continue with that battle?

"Watch out, Darryl!"

Little Fairy, who sat with her legs crossed at the side, tried to revive her internal energy as she observed Darryl's situation. She could not help but shout at the man.

The rest of the people there were worried about Darryl as well.

Cindy and the rest wanted to help Darryl, but most of them had already exhausted their internal energy. If they were to rush forward, they would be killed as well. They needed to restore their internal energy first.

Donoghue laughed and smiled at the sky; he was extremely delighted. "What else do you have, Darryl? Show it all to me! I want you to suffer a complete defeat today! I want you to die!"

Bang!

Donoghue lifted his hand again, and an intense killing aura exploded from the Sky Breaking Axe! It hit out at Darryl!

Wow! The axe looked like it had broken the sky into two!

At that moment, everyone was anxious about Darryl!

Darryl was in shock too! He had never imagined the Sky Breaking Axe had such terrifying power!

At a critical moment, Darryl used his mind to release the Exquisite Pagoda. A group of figures immediately appeared in front of Darryl's eyes.

All of those figures carried strong auras; they were the 500 warriors trapped at the bottom-most level of that Exquisite Pagoda. They had been in a battle with the Westrington army, so almost all of them were injured.

However, all 500 of them joined forces to form a protective shield in front of Darryl.

Bang!

The Sky Breaking Axe hit the protective shield and created a loud bang that could shatter the earth!

Even though the 500 warriors had defended the hit, it was still the Sky Breaking Axe—their faces immediately paled.

Chapter 1020

What?

Donoghue furrowed his brows when he saw that.

What had happened?

How did 500 people suddenly appear?

"Kill him!" Darryl shouted coldly.

At an instant, the 500 warriors rose and charged toward Donoghue like a rising tide.

Darryl, at the same time, raised his internal energy as he trailed behind them.

However, although there were 500 warriors, all of them were injured. It was difficult for them to change the tide when they faced Donoghue's Sky Breaking Axe!

In just five minutes, Donoghue had defeated half of the 500 warriors!

Red Eye Warrior and Blazing Snake Queen were not seriously injured, but they could barely hang on.

As for Darryl, his body was covered with blood!

The Sky Breaking Axe's remaining energy had managed to hit him, and his shoulders bled. If he did not avoid the hit, he would have lost his whole arm.

So powerful!

The Sky Breaking Axe was too powerful!

Darryl was furious and worried when Donoghue defeated his warriors from the Exquisite Pagoda one by one—their numbers eventually dwindled.

"Die!"

Donoghue roared loudly. In the blink of an eye, he broke through the warriors' attack. With the Sky Breaking Axe in his hand, he hacked toward Darryl!

It was Donoghue's strongest hit—even if Darryl were a Martial Emperor, he would definitely be killed if he could not avoid it!

The Six Fairies, Jewel, and Debra sweated profusely as they observed the situation from the ground. They bit their lips; they were distraught!

Darryl's eyes narrowed when he saw the axe approached him. He had completely lost hope! There was no way he could avoid that!

'That's it... I am afraid I will have to die here today...'

Darryl felt a pain in his chest; he looked at the ground.

He saw Daniel hug his wife as he cried lungs out!

'Father, Mother, I have let you down. I can't take care of you anymore.'

Darryl's tears streamed down his cheeks uncontrollably as he shut his eyes.

Everyone's heart clenched! The Sky Breaking Axe was only less than three feet away from Darryl!

The crowd on the ground also shut their eyes; they dared not watch further!

However, at that moment, Darryl felt a shiver run through his body. Suddenly, his eyes opened wide!

Darryl had a sudden realization!

"Donoghue, you killed my mother! I want you to repay that with your blood!"

Finally, Darryl roared with madness.

Bang!

Darryl lifted his hands, and the internal energy in his abdomen exploded.

After that moment, Darryl no longer had any internal energy in his abdomen—he was like an average person.

"What is he doing?"

"Darryl, what are you doing?"

Everyone's expression changed; they were astonished.

How could he continue the battle with Donoghue after he released all his internal energy? Did that mean he wanted to die?

However, Darryl did not listen to them. He floated mid-air with his eyes shut tightly! Finally, a cold voice echoed from Darryl's mouth, and the loudness shook the world!

"Grand Destruction Art, Mountainous River Art!"

Then, Darryl opened his eyes, and at the same time, his right finger pointed toward the sky!

When he said the last word, the sky and earth immediately changed their colors! The sky was covered with dark clouds, and at the same time, the flowers, grass and trees on the ground within a few hundred miles around then immediately froze—all the plants wilted and turned yellow!

Bang!

A loud noise followed that. The ground under Darryl's feet started to break into pieces. Underground lava oozed upward like fire dragons as they circled Darryl's body!

The Grand Destruction Art had three levels!

The first level was the Single Finger Wonder.

The second level was the Mountainous River Art.

The third level, which was the highest level, was the Celestial Rotation!

Darryl had only learned the technique for the first level—the Single Finger Wonder. When Yvonne was about to marry Jeremy, Darryl had used that skill when he crashed their wedding.

Chapter 1021

As for the level two technique, the Mountainous River Art, Darryl had not been able to complete it.

However, when he saw his mother killed and his father had cried his lungs out, Darryl felt a door opened in his mind. He was desperate, and thus, he had managed to complete the level two technique—the Mountainous River Art. The skill that he performed was the Mountainous River Art!

The Mountainous River Art technique could absorb all the energy within an area of a few hundred miles!

The flowers, grass and trees in the few hundred miles around that area had been grown quite healthily. However, the moment Darryl used the Mountainous River Art, all of them had wilted! The energy from the lava and the plants had all gathered into Darryl's hands to form a fireball! The fireball had a diameter of a few thousand feet! It was as powerful as the sun!

Everyone on the ground was stunned when they felt the fireball's terrifying power! However, they were excited beyond description, as well!

"Donoghue, I want you to die!"

Darryl roared crazily; the giant fireball immediately bounced toward Donoghue!

The sky and the earth twisted wherever the fireball passed by the area. It was as if it was the end of the world!

What?

Donoghue was shocked; he quickly lifted the Sky Breaking Axe to block the fireball!

Bang!

The fireball clashed with the Sky Breaking Axe—scary energy exploded, and its brightness could be seen from as far as a few hundred miles away!

Wow!

Donoghue vomited a mouthful of fresh blood as his body flew backward!

Even though he had the Sky Breaking Axe, he could not defend against the Mountainous River Art! After a continuous battle, Donoghue had exhausted almost all of his internal energy.

He required massive internal energy to activate the Sky Breaking Axe!

After he bounced a few hundred feet backward, Donoghue tried to stabilize his body. He vomited a few more mouthfuls of fresh blood!

Darryl, on the other end, became extremely weak after he performed the Mountainous River Art technique.

The Grand Destruction Art was a way to destroy the sky and earth. It was out of anyone's expectation that Darryl could even activate the Mountainous River Art technique.

After he performed the Mountainous River Art, he would need to rest for at least a month!

Wow!

Everyone was stunned; their eyes and mouth were open wide. They could not even gather their thoughts for quite some time.

Did that mean Darryl had won the battle?

Darryl had performed an incredible technique.

"Good. That's great! Darryl, you do have skills! No matter what, I must kill you today!"

Donoghue tried hard to hold on to his weak body. He held the Sky Breaking Axe tightly and charged toward Darryl again! He did not have much energy left, but he knew that if he did not kill Darryl that day, it would pose a greater danger for himself in the future! Hence, Donoghue must use all his might to kill Darryl.

When Darryl saw Donoghue charged toward him again, he clenched his fists. He wanted to avoid the attack, but his body was too weak; there was no way for him to dodge it.

"Darryl!"

At that moment, Debra leapt toward him and activated a protective shield to defend Darryl from the attack.

At that same time, Cindy and the rest had almost recovered their internal energy. The Six Fairies and Debra went forward to fight Donoghue!

Bang!

As Little Fairy whipped her leather belt, a loud and clear sound was heard—Donoghue had screamed.

The belt had struck him until his flesh was pulverized!

"Sh*t!"

Donoghue clenched his teeth as he swore. He had no energy left; he did not want to continue with the battle. He had used all his might to swing the axe to force the ladies to step backward as he turned around to escape! ❶

"Sisters, go after him!" Cindy shouted. She led a few fairies and Debra as they went after Donoghue.

Donoghue had killed so many people from the Carter family, and he had even killed Darryl's mother; they could not let him escape!

Donoghue tried his best to leave, but he saw the Six Fairies and Debra chased after himself as he turned around. He smiled wickedly and increased the speed of his footsteps.

On the other end, at the Carter family, Darryl's eyes were blood-red. His body was too weak—he sat paralyzed on the floor.

"Mister!"

Jewel screamed and ran over to him quickly.

Yvonne's face was icy as she trailed behind her.

At that time, no one noticed that Yvonne held a short blade tightly in her hands.

Once she reached Darryl, Jewel held Darryl as she spoke worriedly, "Mister, are you alright?"

Jewel almost cried. She realized that Darryl was remarkably weak, and his face extremely pale.

Darryl shook his head. "I am fine."

Bang!

Before he could continue to speak, Darryl felt a chill on his chest. Then, he saw a blade had pierced through his chest as fresh blood immediately oozed from the wound!

Darryl felt his vision turned dark; he tried his best to turn his head. He saw Yvonne held a blade cover in her hand as she stood expressionless in front of him.

"Yvonne, you—"

Darryl was stunned. He had only said a few words when his vision turned black, and he fell onto the floor.

Chapter 1022

Even as his consciousness had started to blur, Darryl felt devastated.

He never imagined that his beloved Yvonne would stab him with a blade!

"Mister!"

Jewel's body shivered; she was utterly stunned. She immediately hugged Darryl tightly and cried, "Mister, Mister, please be alright..."

Jewel tried to press on Darryl's wound clumsily. However, the blade pierced through Darryl's chest, and he continued to bleed. There was no way to stop it.

Even though she had only spent a year with Darryl, she had thought of him as her closest friend in the world. When Jewel saw Darryl in the pool of blood, she was so devastated that she almost fainted.

"Yvonne!"

Jewel's face was covered in tears. Her eyes were red as she glared at Yvonne. "Mister has been so kind to you. He missed you day and night while both of you were apart. How can you be so cruel? You've already harmed me. Why do you need to harm him as well? Why?! I was wrong about you! You do not deserve to be with Mister!"

Jewel was so angry that her body started to shake.

'When Yvonne harmed me, I should have told Mister about it when I regained consciousness. But I was too soft-hearted. I believed that she had her reasons. Now, she can even kill Mister! Does she need any reason to do that?!

Yvonne's exquisite face showed no emotion at all when she faced Jewel. Her eyes were cold. "Since you care for Darryl so much, you should go to hell with him."

Even though Lindsay had been captured, her control over Yvonne was still effective.

Yvonne held the long blade and aimed it at Jewel.

Even though Yvonne was only a Master General, Jewel was simply an ordinary person; she could not avoid it at all.

"Fine!"

Jewel's face was bitter and sad. "Kill me then. Mister is not here anymore. There is no meaning for me to stay alive."

Jewel looked determined. She shut her eyes and had no intention to hide!

"Stop it!"

Suddenly, a voice shouted as a slim figure dashed toward them to block Yvonne's blade.

It was Little Fairy.

Little Fairy had followed Debra and her other five sisters to go after Donoghue. However, they were too fast for her, so Little Fairy could not catch up with them.

At that moment, Little Fairy stood in front of Jewel and said, "Are you crazy! Why would you harm this girl?!"

As she spoke, Little Fairy looked at Darryl. Her body immediately shivered!

Darryl looked like he had lost a lot of blood; she was not sure if he was still alive!

"Darryl, are you okay? Please don't scare me..." Little Fairy's eyes were red as she hugged Darryl.

'Darryl!'

Zoran, who sat nearby, looked pale as he asked Jewel worriedly, "Jewel, how is Darryl?"

"Uncle Carter, Mister's condition is very critical. It looks like he will not be able to survive this..." Jewel replied. Then, she started to wail.

What?

When he heard that, Zoran's vision turned dark, and he almost fainted.

"Hurry..."

Chapter 1023

The next second, Zoran shouted at his disciples around him. "Bring Debra back here quickly!"

"Yes!"

Zoran was anxious.

He had exhausted his internal energy during the fierce battle with Donoghue. He did not even have the strength to stand up at that moment.

Little Fairy's tears continued to fall. She looked at Yvonne and said, "You have a poisonous heart like the snake and scorpions. You've harmed Darryl! Don't you dare run away!"

Little Fairy extended her fingers and sealed Yvonne's acupoint.

She was a Martial Saint, so Yvonne could not defend against that at all. Yvonne immediately froze; she could not move a single muscle.

At that moment, a few figures dashed downward from mid-air.

"Darryl!"

Debra's tears fell like the rain as she dashed toward them. She saw the man's pale face—he was unconscious, and his breathing was extremely weak.

"Darryl..." Debra's eyes were red as she shouted at Jewel, "What happened?! How did this happen?! Who?! Who did that to Darryl?!"

When she left to go after Donoghue, Darryl was still fine. In the blink of an eye, however...

Jewel was distraught; she could barely speak.

"Jewel!" Debra bit her lips and said, "Was it Yvonne who harmed Darryl?"

Jewel sobbed as she nodded. "Yes, it was Yvonne. She stabbed Mister from the back when he was not on his guard. Sister Debra, I regretted it. I regret that I did not tell Mister about Yvonne harming me."

"Yvonne!" Debra held the sword in her hand tightly. "You and Darryl have been through so much; why would you harm him? Tell me!"

Debra wanted to kill her with her blade!

However, at that moment, Debra saw Yvonne had a crystal ball in her hands.

As the Artemis Sect's Sect Master, how could Debra not recognize the crystal ball? It could send one's voice to thousands of miles away!

Debra's body shivered; there were doubts in her heart. Why did Yvonne have a crystal ball in her hand? Was she under someone else's control? Debra looked around her. "Everyone! Turn around now!"

As she spoke, Debra walked toward Yvonne and lifted her long dress.

Debra was very knowledgeable. She had read about a dark charm from an ancient book; that charm could control others, but it had been lost for generations. One only needed to draw the charm on another person's waist, and he would be able to control that person.

All the men turned around. Debra lifted Yvonne's long dress and saw a green-colored charm painted on her waist!

Debra's face was cold. She told a servant to bring a pail of water so that she could wash the charm off Yvonne's waist.

The charm was drawn with special paint, so it was extremely difficult to wash away. After more than ten minutes, the skin on Yvonne's waist was red, but the charm was finally removed.

The moment the charm dropped, Yvonne's body trembled.

"Where am I? Why is my head so dizzy?" Yvonne's face looked confused.

She had regained her mind completely. Yvonne remembered when the New World Emperor had sent her to marry Donoghue, but Lindsay had tied her up and drew a charm on her waist.

She could not remember anything after that.

Yvonne looked around blankly; she knew she was at the Carter residence. When Leroy Henderson absorbed her spirit energy, and she had only one day left to live, she had married Darryl at the Carter residence.

How did the Carter residence turn into a wasteland?
