

Hades nodded. "You're right! He's such an arrogant young man!"

"A young man like him shouldn't have gotten full of himself!"

"Forget about Evan! Franky is, after all, the descendant of the Forrest Family. Zeke can't possibly go against the Forrest Family on his own, right?"

"Zeke might have been able to get rid of T-Rex, but he might not be a match for the Forrest Family."

"After all, T-Rex's influence was limited to the underworld. On the other hand, the Forrest Family's influence reigns over the upper echelon and the underworld."

"Sigh... It seems like I've overestimated Zeke's capability."

Eclipse lost himself in his thoughts for quite some time before he told Hades, "If Zeke is cornered by the Forrest Family, are you going to save him?"

Hades shook his head. "If he can't handle the Forrest Family, he doesn't qualify as a prodigy, right?"

"If that's the case, he's not worthy of our time either. Let's forget about him."

Eclipse lowered his head and took a sip of tea quietly.

...

In the meantime, at Oakheart City's hospital.

Finally, Franky had been saved at the eleventh hour after a series of operations.

The hefty co-developer along with other co-developers of the Love in a Fallen City project had spent a night at the hospital while waiting for his operations to end.

After all, they had to depend on Franky to get rid of the trouble in store for them.

If Franky refused to help them, they wouldn't be able to collect their receivables. Instead, they might have to bear the consequences of their actions as Zeke would be coming after them through legal means.

Everyone rushed into Franky's ward after he regained consciousness. They were trying to flatter him and win him over.

“Mr. Forrest, you're finally awake!”

“We've been by your side the entire night!”

“Don't worry, Mr. Forrest! We've gotten the best doctor in Oakheart City to carry out the operation for you! We're certain there won't be any sequelae.”

“W-Water...”

The hefty co-developer immediately helped Franky up and handed him a glass of water.

However, Franky felt an excruciating sensation coming from his ass the moment he tried to move.

Consequently, he shrieked at the pain he felt. Franky was on the verge of losing his cool.

*F***! This is so embarrassing! Of all the places in my body, my ass just had to be the one to get hurt.*

He asked angrily, “Did you guys get in touch with my sister and my brother-in-law?”

“That damned Zeke! I want my sister and my brother-in-law to torment him in return!”

The hefty co-developer replied, “We've already received a call from Mrs. Schneider! She will be here soon!”

“I think she'll show up anytime soon!”

Someone walked into the ward the moment the hefty co-developer finished his sentence.

An ostentatious looking and wealthy woman made her way into the ward.

She was none other than Franky's sister and Evan's wife, Florence Forrest.

Although Florence was in her mid-forties, she still looked like a charming woman in her mid-thirties. She did a great job in maintaining her look and dolling herself up.

She shouted anxiously the moment she entered the ward, "Franky! How are you? I'm here to visit you!"

Everyone immediately made way for Florence.

The woman rushed over to Franky's side and saw how miserable he was. Florence could barely keep her cool and asked, "Franky! What happened to you?"

"Who's the one behind this? Tell me! I'll definitely avenge you today!"

Franky replied in a weak tone, "I-It... was... Zeke and Lacey!"

"I... I had merely taken their seat, yet they decided to beat me up instead."

"Florence, they were the ones who rushed me to the hospital. If it weren't because of them, I'm afraid you wouldn't have gotten to see me anymore."

Franky shed a few drops of tears as he finished his sentence.

Florence was even more heartbroken because of Franky's tears. "Zeke! Lacey! Those insolent fools!"

"Don't worry, Franky! I'll return them the favour a hundred times harsher!"

It soon turned into a witch hunt session targeted at Zeke.

"Hmph! Zeke had gotten too full of himself back then! He actually beat Mr. Forrest up because of a minor conflict they had."

"We warned him! We told him Mr. Forrest's your brother, but Zeke ignored our words. He didn't bother to hold back at all! It seemed like he had no intention to respect you, Mrs. Schneider."

“Zeke actually tried to expel us from Love in a Fallen City project because we had taken Mr. Forrest's side and stood up for him. He even tried to frame us for white-collar crimes.”

“Mrs. Schneider, you have to stand up to him on our behalf.”

Florence grew infuriated all of a sudden. “What? Seriously? Zeke made a move against Franky, although he knew that Franky's my brother?”

“He's but a slave to the Schneider family! How dare he defy his employer's orders! Damn it!”

“Evan must have been blind! How could he have handed over the project to such impudent fools like them!”

“Let's go! I'll avenge each and every one of you today!”

“Alright!”

Everyone was delighted as they followed Florence to the construction site of Love in a Fallen City.

They reached the designated location in a short amount of time.

Florence shouted angrily the moment she got out of the car. “Terminate those affiliated with Lacey!”

“Detain the equipment that belongs to her! I want her to leave everything behind today!”

No one had expected such a gorgeous woman like Florence to be such an arrogant woman deep down.

The bunch of co-developer carried out her instructions immediately. They rushed Lacey's men away and detained all her equipment as instructed.

It was a chaotic scene.

Florence rushed over to the headquarters of the project right after she had dealt with those at the construction site.

Bam!

She barged into the office right away, kicking the door open.

“Zeke! Lacey! Get on your knees in front of me right now!”

Lacey and Dawn were the only ones in the headquarters when Florence barged in.

They shuddered as the intimidating bunch had taken them by surprise.

Lacey rushed over to welcome Florence the moment she saw her, “Mrs. Schneider, what brings you...”

Thump!

Florence slapped Lacey in the face without any hesitation before the woman could finish her sentence. “F***! You must be the b**** who bullied my brother, right?”

Lacey felt a strong buzz in her mind as Florence slapped her with all her might. Consequently, a clear slap mark could be seen on her swollen face almost instantly.

She covered her face as she tried her best to hold back her tears. “ Mrs. Schneider, don't you think it's too much of you to jump to a conclusion without figuring out what had actually happened?”

“F***! You're but a slave to the Schneider Family! I get to slap you whenever I feel like it...” Florence raised her hand and was about to slap Lacey again.

Thankfully, Dawn got in Florence's way and stopped her in the nick of time. “You old hag! Who the hell do you think you are? Why did you slap Lacey?”

“I'll get Zeke over to beat you up as well!”

“W-What did you just say?” Florence looked at Dawn in disbelief.

“Hmph! You damned old hag!” Dawn repeated herself.

Florence could barely keep her cool anymore.

She had been extremely particular about her age all along. Florence disliked others teasing her about her age; it was a sensitive topic.

However, the young woman in front of her had addressed her in such a humiliating manner.

Florence suddenly went berserk and kicked Dawn in her abdomen area.

Dawn held on to her abdomen and groaned in pain as she fell to the ground.

However, Florence had yet to fully vent her anger. She reached for the cup of boiling tea on the table and poured it all over Dawn.

Dawn wailed the moment she felt the scorching sensation.

“Dawnie! Are you okay?” Lacey was terrified and tried to protect Dawn with her body immediately.

Dawn urged Lacey, “Hurry up! Get Zeke to come over immediately!”

“Okay!” Lacey reached for her phone.

However, Florence kicked Lacey's phone away before she could make the call.

“Stop shouting! Pack your stuff and get out! Don't you dare step into this office again, or I'll get rid of you once and for all!"

Lacey refused to give in to Florence's demand and held her ground. "Mr. Schneider was the one who signed the agreement with us! Even if we have to leave, he has to be the one who delivers the order!"

"Cut that crap! I'm Evan's wife! I believe I have the right to chase you out as well! In fact, no one else apart from me has the right to deliver such an order!" shouted Florence.

"Go ransack everything available in the office! It infuriates me whenever I see their things!"
