“Of course not!” Nathan shook his head and said.

Noah continued, “Hence, you have to take charge of the manufacturing, marketing, and the sales of the vaccine, Sir. I can’t trust anyone else.”

“Furthermore, you have invested billions into this project. I will never let you get the short end of the stick. You have to recoup your investments.”

Nathan nodded slightly, “Fine. I will get my wife to set up a pharmaceutical company which will focus on the sales and marketing of the vaccine then.”

Noah smiled and replied, “That works. After all, we can’t rush this. Now is the right time for Mrs. Cross to set up a company and come up with a plan to market this vaccine.”

The two continued to converse for a while and decided to meet in person sometime next month on the details before ending the call.

Nathan walked out of the balcony and back into the living room, only to see Kylie making a call in the living room.

There was a special button in her hands and she took a picture for her friend as she said, “William, you are a famous tailor and know a lot about buttons. Please help me find out what kind of shirt would have such buttons.”

“Yes, this is an extremely important item to me. It was left by a heroic man who saved me earlier.”

“Unfortunately, I didn’t manage to see what he looks like. But, I am hoping to find him using this button.”

Nathan quickly walked into the bathroom upon hearing Kylie’s words.

He changed out of the shirt which had the button ripped off and hid it.

After finishing her call, she looked at Nathan’s figure and muttered to herself, “Hmm, this man runs whenever he sees me. Is he afraid that I will call him a loser?”

At night, she made the excuse of wanting to catch up with Penny and insisted on sleeping in the same bed as her.

She kicked Nathan out of the master bedroom and asked him to go to the study for the night.

While Nathan was rather helpless, he kept his thoughts to himself and did not object.

It was the weekend the next day. Kylie received a call in the morning and left the house in the hurry as though she had an emergency.

Penny did not have to work today. It happened that her BMW M760 Li xDrive needed servicing and she went to the workshop with Nathan.

Mia, who was then just an intern, had already been promoted to a manager.

She owed this to Penny and Nathan. Hence, she welcomed both of them personally and arranged for their car to do the service first so that it could be done within the shortest possible time.

With a smile on her face, she said to Nathan and Penny, “Mr. and Mrs. Cross, the servicing will take about forty minutes. Would you like to have some refreshments in the pantry, or should I drive you two around the place?”

“There’s no need for such trouble. We will just wait here,” Penny told her as Nathan remained quiet.

Mia replied, “Well then, the pantry is over there. There’s a car exhibition on the left. Please make yourselves comfortable. You can contact me anytime if you have any queries.”

As she introduced the different areas of the place, Nathan and Penny noticed a familiar figure. It was Kylie Tonkins.

Penny was surprised and exclaimed, “It seems like Kylie is with a man. Is that her boyfriend?”

Nathan noticed the man beside Kylie was in his forties, rather plump and even balding.

He was not a good match for Kylie with that look and his age.

“Shall we go over and take a look?” Nathan said calmly.

Penny knew that her cousin sister was very prideful and had a high expectation; hence, she had never been in a relationship with any man.

But now, she was with an average-looking man in a car showroom. What was going on?

As such, she walked over to the car exhibition area with Nathan.

Kylie and her companion were looking at a BMW X7 which was worth close to a million. She said to the man, "Francis, this SUV looks very classy. It's suited for a larger man like you."

So this middle-aged man was Francis.

Ever since Kylie was saved yesterday, she had been searching for the heroic man who risked his life to save her despite the dangerous surroundings.

Unfortunately, the aphrodisiac took its effects on her and she was drowsy last night. Thus, she could not make out who the man was.

The only clue she had was the button she ripped off from the man's shirt when she held onto him.

The button was an extremely special one with a unique symbol on it.

Kylie thought that perhaps the button originated from a famous brand or it could even be a limited edition.

Hence, she found a famous tailor she knew and showed him the button.

She even told him why she was so desperate to look for the owner of this button so that her friend would use his knowledge and connections to find the man for her.

Just this morning, her tailor friend called her unexpectedly and told her that he had found the owner of the button! Needless to say, she was beyond surprise.

The tailor told her that the button originated from a limited edition Armani shirt and there were only ten pieces available in the world. One of the owners was Francis Baker who won it in a lucky draw.

Kylie immediately got Francis' contact from her tailor friend.

She contacted her heroic savior excitedly just to realize that he was a forty-year-old, balding and plump man.

However, Francis was still single and looked like an honest man. This reignited the hope in Kylie.

According to Francis, he liked her too but felt inferior so he left quietly without waiting for her to regain consciousness yesterday.

Furthermore, he claimed that he threw the shirt away because he ripped it while fighting and one of the buttons even came off.

Kylie was touched by Francis' words and felt that he was a genuine, kind-hearted man. She also felt that she shouldn't judge him by his appearance.

When she found out that Francis did not even have a car for transport, she brought him here without any hesitation and offered to buy a car for him.

Francis' eyes lit up briefly when Kylie introduced the BMW X7 to him. However, he kept his pretense and put up an act, "Kylie, this car is too expensive. I only earn a few thousand per month, there is no way I can't afford this..."

Kylie immediately stopped him and said, "What are you talking about? You risked your life to save me yesterday. I brought you here so I will definitely be the one buying the car for you."

Francis insisted on rejecting her offer, but Kylie continued to persuade him, "Francis, I know that you are a prideful man, but I am alive because of you. What's mine will be yours next time. I am only getting you a car."

Upon hearing Kylie's words, Francis's heart palpitated with excitement and a hint of slyness flashed through the corners of his eyes.

However, when he lifted his gaze, he acted as an honest man again and asked gently, "Really?"

"Of course!" Kylie nodded.

She dared not make eye contact with him as she herself was in disbelief at her response.

She had always believed that the best thing in the world was to devote her life to the hero who saved her from distress.

After waking up in the hospital yesterday, she frantically started to find the hero who saved her.

Nonetheless, apart from being happy, she felt that something was amiss when she met Francis.

So she changed the topic quickly, she pointed to the BMW X7 next to her and said to him, “Francis, do you like this car? If you do, I will get it for you.”

He was about to play hard-to-get when suddenly, a teasing voice could be heard from behind, “Kylie, are you here to buy a car?”

Kylie and Francis were both shocked and turned their head in unison to see Nathan and Penny approaching them.

The person who spoke was Nathan.

The duo walked towards them quietly earlier and had overheard their conversation.

Immediately, Nathan knew that Kylie had mistaken a scoundrel for a good man. This balding man was not her savior.

Last night, when Penny and Kylie slept in the same room, she told her about what happened at the Indigo Club.

Penny observed the man standing beside Kylie and concluded that there was no way this man could be the savior Kylie was referring to. He did not look like a man who could fight a dozen of gangsters and defeat them so easily.

As such, Penny asked in a worried manner, “Kylie, is this the man you told me yesterday? I mean the one who saved you?”

Kylie’s face turned red in embarrassment immediately. She nodded and admitted softly, “Yes, it was Francis who fought those gangsters and saved me.”

Francis felt a little guilty upon hearing this but he kept his nose high and stood straight, as though he was indeed an adept fighter.

Nathan’s lips twisted into a wry smile and commented, “This fat man? He pants even after walking a few steps. Do you really think he can fight those gangsters and Kylie widened her eyes and shot a stare at him as she scoffed, “Are you laughing at him just because you are a loser yourself? Francis is much better than you. I’m sure he can defeat a hundred losers like to you.”

Meanwhile, Francis hated Nathan for spoiling his plans.

So, he seized the opportunity and stepped forward to flash his flabby arms as he threatened, “Young chap, I don’t care who you are but now that you have slandered me; I will make sure that you are beaten up so badly that you can’t walk after that. Do you dare to fight me?”

Even though he was not a master at fighting, he felt that he would be able to defeat Nathan easily as he was much bigger in size.

Hence, he did not hold back on his threat since he was confident of winning this battle.

"Yes, is there a problem?" Kylie lifted her chin as she responded.

Kylie thought Nathan was being unreasonable and was about to reprimand him for being a busybody.

However, Penny held onto her and whispered, “Kylie, Nathan and I are just worried that you would be conned. I think that this man is too plump to be good at fighting. It’s better for Nathan to test him out.”

While Kylie disliked Nathan, she was still objective to what Penny had to say.

She scoffed as she shot a stern glare at Nathan, “Fine then. Why don’t the two of you challenge each other since you want to test him out? But, don’t regret it if Francis beats you up and injures you badly!”

“Alright!” Nathan replied confidently.

Francis saw this and knew that Kylie would doubt him too if he did not fight Nathan today, or if he could not defeat him.

They looked at each other blankly before turning to Nathan in shock.

On the other hand, Francis got up after some struggle and yelled in an infuriated and shameless manner, “You punk, how dare you trip me. You are going to die today!”

As he said that, he mustered up all his strength and clenched his fists then attacked Nathan again.

There was a loud crack and Francis’ leg was broken. He screamed in painful agony, “Ahhh!”

Nathan continued nonchalantly, “You’d better stop playing games with me now. I will ask you one more time; how did you manage to trick my cousin sister?”

Francis finally came to realization that the man in front of him was a ruthless and vicious one. If he did not tell the truth, he might end up in the hospital with all of his bones broken!

Francis begged her with a guilty tone, "Kylie..."

"Stop calling me that! You have no right to call me by that name! I can't believe that William asked you to lie to me. How disgusting!"

"I will leave on my own..." Francis told him with a quivering voice.

After which, he trudged out of the place with his injured leg.

Nathan walked to the pantry to see Penny and Kylie seated on the sofa.

Her eyes went wide instantly and a shocked expression crept onto her face.

Apart from the button which Leah had just sewn on, the rest of the buttons were identical to the one she kept!

Recollecting herself, she tried to ask curiously, “Aunt Leah, whose shirt are you sewing?”

With a kind smile, Leah told her, “It’s your brother-in-law, Nathan’s. He’s always so clumsy and left this in some corner of the house. I found it when I was cleaning the place. Look, there’s even a button missing, so I decided to help him sew on one.”

Nathan had his daughter in his arms and they watched cartoon together.

Kylie's eyes darted around before she sat down next to Nathan quietly and stared at him.

The latter still looked calm, but he was already laughing bitterly in his mind. He knew that Kylie had started to suspect him.

Acting puzzled, he turned and asked Kylie, "Why are you looking at me like that?"

After blinking a few times, she lowered her voice and asked curiously, "Nathan, tell me the truth. Were you the one who saved me yesterday?"

She continued, "After all, you knew that I went to Indigo Club yesterday and I realized that you are rather good at fighting at the showroom earlier..."

Chapter 216 Why Should I Leave Without Saying Goodbye

“I am sure you don’t think that I was the man who was brave enough to save you yesterday?” Nathan asked.

Kylie scoffed, “Just tell me honestly. Was that you?”

Nathan replied with a smile, “Kylie, if I were the one who saved you, why would I leave without saying goodbye then?”

“Isn’t it better for you to be indebted to me? That way, you won’t look down on me anymore!”

Kylie was stunned as she heard his words.

Yes, if it was Nathan who saved me, why would he just leave like that? We are relatives after all!

Hence, Kylie’s earlier thoughts started to think again.

Her face was full of doubts as she could not determine whether Nathan was indeed the man who saved her yesterday.

Chapter 216 Why Should I Leave Without Saying Goodbye

At this moment, Penny set the table with the dishes and called everyone, "Time to eat!"

Nathan carried his daughter and walked to the dining table immediately as he said, "Great. I'm so hungry!"

Kylie looked at Nathan and muttered to herself, "I will find out if it's you!"

During dinner, Nathan announced his plans to change Cross Corporation to Cross Group and his intention to set up another pharmaceutical company.

The problems of Cross Corporation were resolved and they had even got a billion-dollar investment from the richest man in Channing recently. Furthermore, taking the company public also meant more cash flow. Hence, the company was also loaded with cash now.

Penny had made plans to expand the operations of the company. Therefore, she was very excited when she heard Nathan's suggestion.

However, she also mentioned that it was hard to dominate the medical industry if there were no good products.

Nathan assured her with a smile, “Don’t worry, leave that to me. I will be in charge of bringing in pharmaceutical production projects. Maybe we can obtain the distributive rights of the liver cancer vaccine which was produced by the research institute that Kylie works at. We will be rich then!”

Penny and her family looked at him in surprise while Kylie threw a blow at him, “Don’t be ridiculous. Cross Corporation is not big enough to get the manufacturing rights for the vaccine.”

Everyone else thought that Nathan was stretching it too far. They all knew how valuable the vaccine for liver cancer would be.

Cross Corporation was just an insignificant player in the local market, let alone the global market

Kylie came out from behind the tree and rolled her eyes as she said in an infuriated manner, "Who said I was hiding? Don't be such a prick."

Nathan just let out a small laugh.

He knew that Kylie suspected him and wanted to follow him to see if she could find out more about him.

However, he had decided not to expose her and told her with a smile, "Come on, I have something I need to ask of you."

She asked doubtfully, “What is it? If you want me to help you to contact Professor Jenson to obtain the rights to manufacture the vaccine for liver cancer, I can’t help you with that.”

Nathan replied as he drove out of the compound, “Don’t worry, I will handle the vaccine. I need your help with something else. In fact, any female can help me with this.”

He realized that his words were rather flirtatious and could easily cause others to misunderstand him.

Sure enough, Kylie immediately looked alert and she asked, “What are you asking me to help you with?”

“It’s Penny’s birthday in a few days so I want to get her a necklace as a birthday present. Just help me pick one,” Nathan said.

Kylie immediately agreed when she heard this.

Chapter 217 Can You Afford This

She even pretended to be enthusiastic, “Oh, so a necklace as a birthday present! Well, that’s simple. I have a friend who runs a jewelry store in Channing. You can get a discount if you go to his shop. Would you like to pay him a visit?”

Nathan guessed that Kylie wanted to prank him as he spotted the sly look on her face.

Nonetheless, he remained unfazed and asked for the name of the shop.

“Perpetual Love, it’s on Channing Avenue 3,” Kylie said.

Nathan nodded and drove in the direction of the shop. Obviously, he intended to visit the shop which she recommended.

On the other hand, Kylie looked at him in shock. There was another reason why she recommended him the shop, apart from the fact that she knew the son of the owner of Perpetual Love.

It was because all of the jewelry there was extremely expensive and not everyone could afford it.

Chapter 217 Can You Afford This

Kylie always thought that Nathan was a bum and did not have much money in his name.

Hence, she encouraged him to visit the shop so that she could make fun of him. It would surely be awkward if he could not afford it in the end.

However, she did not expect Nathan to agree with her suggestion. Did he not know the price of the jewelry at Perpetual Love?

They arrived at the shop very soon.

The shop was decorated with all sorts of gold, silver, and other jewelry, just like a palace.

Seeing that they drove a rather old Polo, nobody welcomed them at the door when they arrived. After some time, a salesperson called Leah Holden approached them unwillingly and asked what they were interested in.

Kylie’s eyes darted across the glass display and noticed that they were all rather old designs and quickly stopped Leah, “Hang on. Do you have better ones?”

Leah thought that they were a poor couple upon seeing their old Polo car.

She did not even want to attend to them and hoped that they would just spend some time looking around and leave. Thus, she did not expect Kylie to ask if whether there were any better ones!

Instantly, her face clouded over as she brought the duo to the shop’s most valuable item. Pointing to a pink diamond necklace, she told them sarcastically, “Look at this, it’s one hundred million. Can you afford it?”

As Kylie saw this man, she quickly complained to him in displeasure, "Kennedy Chamberlain, you came at the right time. Look at your staff's attitude. Surely you can't keep her as a salesperson any longer."

Frantically, she explained herself, “Mr. Chamberlain, this couple is here to choose a necklace. I recommended the cheapest necklaces to them, but they don’t like them. Now that I recommended the best in the shop, they said that my attitude is bad just because they can’t afford it.”

At the same time, he started to look at Kylie with disdain too.

He always felt that it was a pity that he never managed to sleep with Kylie.

It was ridiculous that Kylie came to flaunt her boyfriend at his shop.

Meanwhile, Kylie was oblivious to his complicated emotions. She brought Nathan here to play a prank on him so she did not expect the salesperson to look down on her.

“Kennedy, just look at her attitude. How can she say that we can’t afford it?” Kylie burst out in anger at Kennedy.

However, Kennedy lost all his enthusiasm and told her nonchalantly, “I feel that it’s just an objective assessment when she said that. It’s not about her attitude.”

As he said that, Nathan’s frowned deeply and Kylie stood stunned.

Even Leah herself widened her eyes in shock.

Kennedy looked at the duo and scoffed, "I'm just stating the truth. You guys really can't afford this Evermore pink diamond necklace. I feel that Leah was telling the truth too. So, I don't see anything wrong with that."

Kylie's face flushed red as she said, "Kennedy Chamberlain, you --"

On the other hand, Nathan remained unfazed and asked calmly, "How much is it?"

"Huh?" Kennedy blurted as he heard Nathan's words.

The latter continued casually, "This necklace looks okay to me. It can pass as my wife's birthday gift. How much is it?"

This necklace looks okay?

It can pass as a birthday gift?

Everyone gasped as they heard his words.

They were more impressed with his shameless boasting more than anything else.

Kennedy was the first to recollect himself as he laughed, "Haha, you are speaking as if you can afford it."

Kylie also felt that the situation was getting out of control.

She brought Nathan here so she could laugh at him later thinking that he cannot afford the expensive jewelry.

However, not only was she looked down upon, Nathan and Kennedy were on the verge of a fight.

She felt that there was no way Nathan could afford a hundred million. Even her cousin sister may not be able to pay for the necklace.

It would only make things look even more awkward if this continued.

Tugging at his sleeves, she suggested in a low voice, "Nathan, forget it. Let's not stoop to their level. Let's find someplace else."

"Why should we go somewhere else? We can afford this. I think this necklace is nice, we can buy it for Penny as a birthday present," Nathan told her calmly.

Kennedy and the rest looked at Nathan and mocked, "This necklace is worth a hundred million. I will give you one chance to pay up now. If you can do that, I will sell this pink diamond necklace to you at a ninety percent discount."

Chapter 219 | Will Buy Your Store In Ten Minutes

All of the salespersons, managers and customers were astonished when they heard Kennedy's words.

Everyone looked at Nathan with envy. He could buy the necklace at ten million as long as he could show that he had a hundred million. It was such a rare opportunity!

However, they might envy him but nobody really thought that he could fork out the money that easily.

If they could not do it, it would be impossible for this man who came in an old Polo to come up with that amount of money then.

They were sure that Kennedy was so daring to propose such a condition because he was confident that Nathan was a poor man.

Kylie stood there helpless too. She might be able to afford three million, but ten million was too much for her!

It would be such a good investment if she could buy the necklace for him!

Kennedy fixed his gaze on Nathan and continued to mock, "I thought you wanted to buy this necklace? Show me the money then."

"Don't tell me you can't even afford ten million?"

"What a poor ass. I have given you a chance. It's a pity that you are so incapable!"

Kennedy did not hold back on his jeer since he was sure that Nathan did not have that much money on him.

Nathan merely let out a faint smile and fished out his Centurion Card as he said, "I wanted to spend a hundred million to buy this necklace, but since you offered it at ten million, I will accept the offer then."

This was the global-entry, infinite, invite-only American Express Centurion Card!

Kennedy and the crowd were stunned.

Leah's eyes widened too as she looked at the Centurion Card in Nathan's hands. Then, she asked Kennedy, "Mr. Chamberlain, are you going to sell Evermore to him?"

Kennedy immediately went back on his words once he realized that he shot himself in the foot. Seething with anger, he said, "Dream on! Buying this necklace with ten million? I will not even sell it to him at a hundred million. Kick them out now! I don't want them in my store!"

Kylie saw that he was such a shameless man who reneged on his offer. She pointed at him and remarked angrily, "Kennedy Chamberlain, you are the general manager of Perpetual Love. How can you renege your words in front of so many people?"

Kennedy was boiling with anger too. He spat at her, "Kylie, you bitch. I tried to court you for such a long time and you never wanted to be with me. Now that you are with a rich man, you come here just to flaunt your wealth.”

“Buying my necklace at ten million? Well, unless you sleep with me for a night. I might consider it then.”

Kylie burst out in anger, “What a shameless rogue!”

Then, Nathan spoke coldly, “Kennedy Chamberlain, you repel me. I will give you one last chance to sell the necklace to me at the price you named earlier. let you go. Or else..’

“Or else what?” Kennedy scoffed.

Nathan fished out his phone and dialed Colin Dunne, “I want you to bring a contract to buy over Perpetual Love within ten minutes.”

Buy over Perpetual Love in ten minutes?

Kennedy, the salespersons, and the managers burst out in waves of laughter.

As a group of security wanted to come and

Chapter 220 Nathan Is Amazing

The clock ticked and ten minutes passed quickly.

Suddenly, a group of people barged into the jewelry store just as Kennedy was about to announce the end of the ten minutes when Colin Dunne, who was dressed in a black suit, appeared. He entered with eight more men who were dressed identically with a contract to buy over Perpetual Love.

Due to his sturdy figure, the suit looked more like a vest on him.

He strode to Nathan and said in deep voice, "Sir, this is the contract to buy over Perpetual Love. River Chamberlain already signed the papers. Please sign here, and the store will be yours."

Everyone there was stupefied.

Kylie's jaws dropped too as she looked at Nathan in disbelief. How much does he need to buy this place? How did he do it?

Kennedy felt that his world had collapsed. He was both surprised and angry as he bellowed in disbelief, “This can’t be! This store belongs to us! It’s our money-making machine! How can my dad sell off the store!”

“He even signed the papers in ten minutes. Who do you think you guys as?”

Just as he was venting his frustrations, his phone rang.

It was his father, River Chamberlain. Kennedy picked up the call in doubt.

River’s trembling voice could be heard from the other end of the call, “My son, who did you offend this time? Our family is destroyed by you! Perpetual Love was bought over by someone earlier!”

“You little rascal, I’m going to break your legs...”

Kennedy’s face turned pale as he looked at Nathan in fear. He finally realized that Nathan really bought over the store within ten minutes.

Right now, Colin had just asked Nathan to sign on the contract.

However, Nathan suggested calmly, “Me? No, let my sister-in-law sign on it.”

Before she could recover her senses, she had already signed the papers under Nathan’s orders.

She only realized what happened after she placed her signatures on the papers.

Nathan was already congratulating with a smile, “Congratulations. You are the boss of Perpetual Love from now on.”

“This is Kennedy Chamberlain, the General Manager and that’s Leah Holden, the salesperson. These are all your staff!”

All of them were still in shock. Within a split second, Kylie Tonkins became their boss because their store had been bought over.

Kylie had finally collected herself and calmed down as she looked at Kennedy Chamberlain and Leah Holden.

She spoke immediately, "I will now make my first announcement as the boss of Perpetual Love. The General Manager, Kennedy Chamberlain, and Leah Holden are both fired due to their bad attitude to the customers. This is very bad for the store so please leave now."

Kennedy and Leah looked extremely dejected as they turned to leave.

However, Colin raised his hand and stopped the two as he reminded them with a stoic expression, "Miss Tonkins asked you to leave, but she did not say that you can walk out."

Both their facial expressions changed drastically. Kennedy looked at Nathan and Penny in shock as he yelled, "You can't humiliate me like this!"

Nathan told him casually, "Those who humiliate others will end up getting humiliated too. Didn't you think of the consequences when you shamed us earlier?"

Kennedy cringed instantly, . He thought that he was someone of power and stature. Everyone at the store knew him, from the managers to the salespersons and security to the customers. He would rather die than crawl out of this place!

Colin Dunne huffed coldly, "Seems like they didn't understand what I said. Boys, help them out!"

Just as he finished giving the order, two men emerged from the Elite Eight.

One of them gave two tight slaps to Kennedy and gave him a strong kick which sent him flying out of the store.

The other one picked up Leah and tossed her out like trash.

Kylie finally felt relieved and satisfied after seeing Kennedy and Leah reaping what they sowed.
