The Book of Celestial Cloud talked about many things. One of the topics inside included records of people with special physical characteristics.

For example, there were some who were naturally born with herculean strength and could break rocks and stones from a very young age without any training.

There were also some who had a body filled with yin energy, so they had a lot of coldness within their bodies.

These Blue Beam of Golden Flower Eyes were also one special physical characteristic mentioned in the book.

The book had records of many different types of special physical characteristics, but the number of people out of the billions who lived in the world were really extremely few.

Ye Fan thought that such people were only recorded in history.

He never thought that he would see it in real life one day, and he never thought he would see something as magical as the Blue Beam of Golden Flower Eyes.

This special characteristic wasn't able to give Angie herself any additional strength, but she could use it to control animals and make them work for her.

Essentially, Angie could amass a large number of loyal 'fighters' for herself at any one time. That was the most useful thing about this characteristic. Any animal who met her eyes when she used it would become her most loyal and devoted followers.

After she had met with the bear's eyes and successfully tamed it to her will, she waved the bear over, then got onto the bear's back so that it could carry her instead.

And of course, she got the bear to carry her heavy bag as well.

"Fan, why don't you hop on too? Blackie's shoulders are very comfortable to sit on." She had just taken this animal in as her own, but she had already given it a name.

But Ye Fan was still in a daze.

"Fan, what's wrong? Why aren't you saying anything? Are you...are you like everyone else too? Are you going to dislike me because you also think that I'm a freak?"

The smile on Angie's face suddenly fell when she noticed Ye Fan's strange reaction. Her eyes reddened as she spoke and tears started to well up in her eyes as she lowered her head sadly.

The sun shone on her and cast speckled shadows on her through the tree leaves.

Ye Fan was a little stunned to hear this. "A freak? Angie, what are you talking about? I'm so envious that you have such an ability, so why would I dislike you? I don't think you're a freak at all." Ye Fan didn't understand why Angie was suddenly saying such things.

"Fan, are you serious? You really don't think I'm a freak?" Angie looked up at Ye Fan with her large watery eyes.

Ye Fan could see a deep loneliness and her poor self-esteem in those eyes. He could see that she longed for others to acknowledge and accept her.

He could hardly imagine what someone as young as Angie must have gone through in order to feel such deep loneliness.

It turned out that Angie had found out about this ability of hers from a very young age. All these ferocious animals would become obedient and gentle after looking at her, and she enjoyed their company as playmates. In fact, Angie even felt a mysterious connection to these animals.

But after some time, her peers in both her family and Chu Sect began to see her as a freak of nature.

Everyone ostracized her and made her an outcast because they felt that she was a freak. They called her a beast in human form.

Because of this, Angie became more and more antisocial and refused to mix with anybody else. The number of humans she interacted with kept decreasing, and she kept mixing with only animals.

This situation worried Angie's father and brother greatly.

In order to help Angie to integrate properly into normal society, they decided to lock Angie up in the house. They killed off any animals that came within proximity of the house and forbade her from getting into contact with any animals and only allowed her to mix with the people at home.

Angie ended up getting locked up in her own house for ten whole years. During these ten years, Angie had nearly forgotten that she had this ability.

After she had run away from home and entered the rainforest, these cells that had been dormant for ten years suddenly awoke from their slumber.

But at the same time, the bad memories from her childhood flooded her mind as well when she noticed Ye Fan's reaction to her ability.

"When I was a child, Daddy would hit me and my brother would scold me whenever I spoke to the animals. Everyone would also look at me like I was an alien. Fan, am I really a freak? Why did all of them dislike me?"

"When I went to school, nobody wanted to sit at the same table as me. When we ate, nobody wanted to share the table with me either. If they saw me anywhere, they would all avoid me. I wanted to be accepted by them, play and have fun together with them, and I wanted to have lots of friends too.”

“But nobody cared about me and nobody wanted to play with me. I had no choice but to play with the ants, listen to the conversation of crickets and talk to the birds. I had one friend, but he disappeared mysteriously one day too. I think he must have found out that I was a freak, so he ran away in fear,” recounted Angie sadly in a quiet voice.

She used to tell only the birds and insects about her feelings. She didn't know why she wanted to tell Ye Fan about them too.

Perhaps it was because Ye Fan gave her a very familiar feeling.

From the first time she saw Ye Fan, Angie felt a strange sense of closeness to him. She felt like she had been reunited with a friend she knew many years ago.

Her eyes were red and tears welled up in her eyes as she sniffled and told him her story.

Chapter 1250 Angie's Loneliness

Ye Fan felt many emotions go through his heart when he heard her talk about these things.

Perhaps there was a sad and lonely child in every person's heart.

Angie had one, and so did Ye Fan.

Back then, everyone in the Chu family had ostracized him this way too. He would never forget the disdain in the way everyone looked at him. They looked at him with such despise in their eyes, as if he was a monster.

Ye Fan initially thought that he wasn't good enough and worked very hard to become accepted by them, but to no avail.

Finally, Ye Fan realized that he wasn't the one in the wrong. It was them!

There was no need for him to be accepted or acknowledge by anybody at all.

So after hearing what Angie told him, Ye Fan smiled quietly and reached out to gently wipe away the tears in Angie's eyes. He comforted her in a warm voice, "Angie, remember, your life belongs to you, so you don't have to yearn for anybody to accept you, and you don't have to be bothered by how others look at you."

"Besides, since you have such a magical ability, that means that you've been blessed by the heavens. One day, all those people who used to laugh at you will realize how blind they've been all this time."

Chapter 1251 Ye Fan's Instructions

Ye Fan's words in the dense forest was like a beam of light that lit up the young lady's heart instantly.

Everyone around her had treated her as a freak and a monster after they realized she talked to animals.

But not only did this young man not avoid her, he was also the only person in the world who consoled her and said that she had been blessed by the heavens.

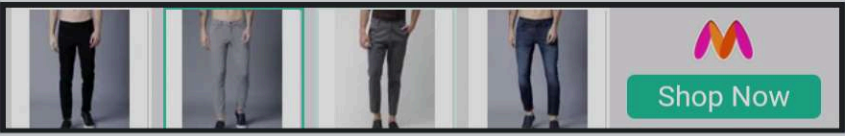

The feeling of being affirmed and accepted nearly brought her to tears.

Angie smiled with tears in her eyes and nodded at Ye Fan. "Fan, I'll remember that."

After they had sorted all of this out, the road ahead became a lot smoother. Angie happily sat on the black bear's shoulders as she hummed and led the way into the forest.

Ye Fan just remained by her side and they went deeper and deeper into the forest.

"Fan, is this Blue Beam of Golden Flowers Eyes ability really that amazing?" The two of them had talked about her ability while walking in.

Ye Fan nodded. "Of course. No matter how ferocious or aggressive the animal might be, it would be easily tamed by these eyes of yours. You could make millions of animals bow to you and recognize you as their master. You just need to give the command and millions of animals would gather. One passing of thought of yours could destroy a city with thousands of people in it. You'd be able to defeat a million soldiers by yourself."

"That's probably as powerful as a supreme grandmaster, right? So many people train so hard all their lives but never reach supreme grandmaster level, while you're born with an ability that makes you equivalent to one. If you're not considered blessed by the heavens, then who is? If those people who laughed at you understood how amazing this ability of yours really is, they'd definitely envy you," said Ye Fan slowly as he explained to Angie how powerful this ability could really be.

The more Angie listened to him, the happier she became. Her heart was suddenly flooded with happiness as an indescribable joy took over her.

Chapter 1251 Ye Fan's Instructions

She had always treated this ability as a burden and an unwanted thing, but Ye Fan had made it sound so amazing.

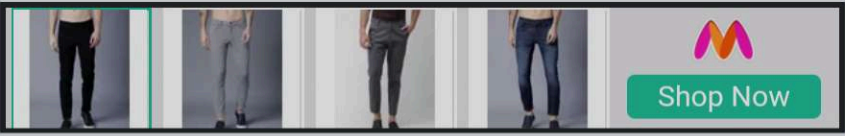

“Is that true? Fan, am I really that formidable? Doesn't that mean that my father and brother are all no match for me at all?” asked Angie excitedly as her eyes gleamed.

Angie had lived her entire life in loneliness and poor self-esteem.

Now that she had discovered how incredible she really was, she simply couldn't hide the happiness in her heart and she suddenly felt this strange sense of achievement.

Ye Fan smiled and nodded. “That's right. But you probably aren't at that stage yet. You've probably awoken this ability of yours again not too long ago, so its powers are still limited. I would think you wouldn't be able to control more than two or three beasts right now. But after some time, your ability will be fully activated as you learn to control it with ease. Then you would be able to use your ability to its maximum potential.”

Everything that Ye Fan said earlier wasn't just a way of consoling Angie. The Book of Celestial Cloud had records of how the Blue Beam of Golden Flowers Eyes were really an extremely powerful but rare special physical characteristic.

One person could really possibly control millions of wild animals and make them work solely for himself. Thinking about it sounded nature defying already.

Also, as far as Ye Fan knew, animals that were more powerful than grandmasters and even animals at the same level as supreme grandmasters had appeared on Earth before.

Once Angie was able to tame an animal at that level, then it would be as good as having one or even more than one supreme grandmaster as her very own personal fighter.

Such an ability even made Ye Fan envious.

But of course, Angie wasn't able to use this ability to its maximum potential yet, but it was something she was already able to display a little of.

Chapter 1251 Ye Fan's Instructions

This little bit was already enough to attract a lot of attention.

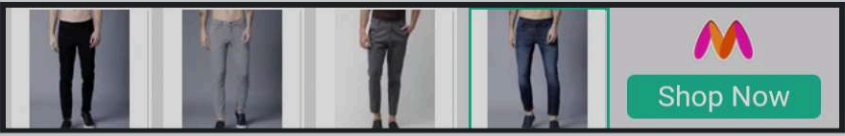

“Angie, who else knows that you have this ability?” Ye Fan suddenly turned to ask Angie very seriously when he thought of something.

Angie thought about it, then shook her head. “I don’t think anyone knows. My father and the rest just think that I’m antisocial and afraid of talking to humans, and think that’s why I like to play with animals. If you didn’t tell me about this Blue Beam of Golden Flowers Eyes, I wouldn’t have known myself.”

Ye Fan nodded. “That’s good. Angie, remember, don’t tell anybody about this ability of yours, including your parents and family. Don’t use this ability in front of other people as well, otherwise I’m worried that your life might be in danger.”

There were so many powerful martial artists in Chu Sect, so he was certain that many of them would have quite a bit of knowledge about such things.

Ye Fan had learnt about the potential of this ability from the Book of Celestial Cloud, but there were probably other records of such things elsewhere as well.

Sometimes, having a gifting wasn't always a good thing. If Angie's ability were made known, she would definitely attract the attention of some people with ill intentions.

That would definitely spell trouble for Angie.

Angie paled when she saw Ye Fan speak to her so seriously all of a sudden. "Fan, I can't even tell my family about it?"

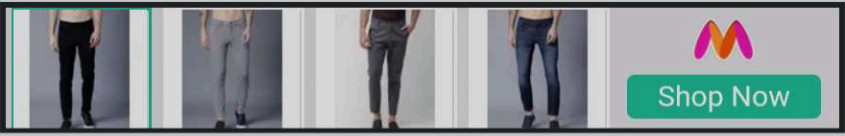

Ye Fan nodded again. "That's right. The fewer people know the better. If more people find out, the chances of you being in danger will increase as well."

"Alright, Fan. I'll remember that."

Angie didn't understand many things of this world, but since Ye Fan told her to do so, she was willing to listen to him.

She had barely known Ye Fan for more than a day, but for some reason, she trusted him a lot.

The two of them continued to soldier on into the rainforest. The way in was very quiet, and they hadn't run into anybody even until nightfall. They finally reached an empty space and got ready to eat and take a rest.

But shortly after Ye Fan and Angie had put everything down, a group happened to walk by and were surprised to see these two youngsters.

"My goodness, where did these two children come from? Don't tell me they're here for the spirit energy fruit too?"

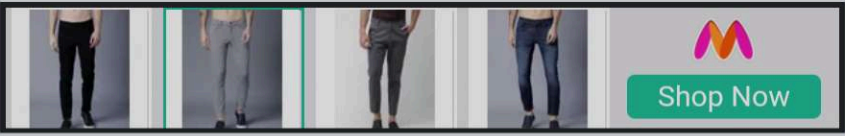

"They're just kids! How could they fight for the fruit with us?"

These men looked like Europeans. They were very tall and had a large build, plus they also had very high nose bridges.

They intended to rest for the night here, but didn't expect to see two young ones here too.

"But that girl's quite pretty."

"She's quite young but she does look rather exquisite."

Chapter 1251 Ye Fan's Instructions

They started calling out to Angie and flirted with her.

“Hey little girl, what’s your name?”

“How old are you this year?”

“Do you have a boyfriend?”

“If you don’t, why don’t you consider me?”

“The night is still young, so why don’t you spend a night with me?”

The men looked leered at Angie without holding back.

It was hard for a pretty woman to avoid attention.

Angie was young, but she was already around 16 or 17, which was a time where her youthful and fresh looking face could be really mesmerizing.
