

“Alright!” Lei Lie agreed and nodded.

“Mister Bai, we’ve made up our mind. The two of us will go in as a pair! Please open the gates for us!” Chen Hao informed Mister Bai after deciding.

Mister Bai didn’t say anything. Instead, he started making his way toward the biggest stone pillar among the stonehenge.

Retrieving a small blade from his pocket, Mister Bai gave himself a small cut before pressing his blood on a ghost eye pattern on the pillar.

Immediately, the stone pillar started trembling as the surrounding pillars lit up with dim blue lights.

Within the next second, a dimmed blue tunnel appeared in front of Chen Hao and the others.

“This is the entrance to Extreme Yin Land. You guys can now enter. But remember, you must come back within six days, or you’ll never be able to leave anymore!” Mister Bai couldn’t help but remind Chen Hao and Lei Lie again.

“Don’t worry, Mister Bai. We’ll be sure to get back before time runs out. I’ll leave the two of them under your care now. Thank you!” Chen Hao nodded with determination before speaking to Mister Bai.

“No problem!” Mister Bai nodded in assurance.

Then, Chen Hao entered the tunnel along with Lei Lie.

NH

After they entered the tunnel, it immediately disappeared. The stonehedge returned back to its original state as if nothing had ever happened.

Zhen Ji and Yu Xin were in disbelief as they witnessed the magical scene.

Meanwhile, Chen Hao and Lei Lie continued their journey to Extreme Yin Land. The journey was as if they were walking in a tunnel.

Lei Lie kept close to Chen Hao, with both his hands grabbing onto the latter's shirt.

"You have to protect me, Master Chen!" Lei Lie whispered into Chen Hao's ear.

"Didn't you say that you aren't afraid of ghosts?" Chen Hao mocked him.

"Erm... Those were horror movies. It's different now; no one knows what would happen here!" Lei Lie explained cowardly.

After all, what happened on screen was different from reality.

Chen Hao didn't say anything because he, too, understood how Lei Lie felt. After all, it was customary for anyone to act this way during their first time, and they just had to get used to it.

They finally got out of the tunnel after walking for around ten minutes.

The both of them stood in front of a massive stele after getting out of the tunnel.

A few words were engraved on the stone stele.

“Extreme Yin Land!”

There was a road behind the stele that led to the heart of Extreme Yin Land where all kinds of spirits gathered.

“Prepare yourself, Lei Lie. We are going to start our journey for real now. I want you to make some mental preparation, and remember to not scream no matter what!” Chen Hao reminded Lei Lie seriously before they continued their journey.

He didn’t want Lei Lie to disturb the spirits in Extreme Yin Land since they didn’t need any more trouble.

“I’m ready now, Master Chen!” Lei Lie took a deep breath before informing Chen Hao.

Chen Hao nodded before walking to the center of Extreme Yin Land along with Lei Lie.

The eerily gloomy surrounding filled with dense Yin energy made the atmosphere threatening. Chen Hao and Lei Lie felt as if the cold air was attempting to pierce through their bodies.

This was one of the reasons why no one could enter Extreme Yin Land alone.

Once a person entered Extreme Yin Land, they would be corrupted by Yin energy until their death. Furthermore, their spirit would remain in Extreme Yin Land forever.

In a short time, they crossed a bridge and saw a city-like place in front of them.

This was Extreme Yin Land's 'City of Spirits'.

The 'City of Spirits' was a place where all sorts of spirits gathered, just like a market back in the days.

There were many businessmen and vendors in this place.

In short, Extreme Yin Land was the world of the dead.

Just when Chen Hao and Lei Lie reached the entrance of the town, they were blocked by a man in a black robe.

The man in the black robe was pale and had ice blue eyes.

"The both of you do not belong here. Please leave immediately!" the man in the black robe announced while glaring at them.

"Who are you?" Chen Hao asked the man in a black robe.

"I'm Specter, the messenger for Extreme Yin Land!" the man in the black robe introduced himself.

Chen Hao and Lei Lie were stunned when they heard him. They'd never expected that the messenger of Yin actually existed. After all, they only saw those in the movies and were always sceptical about their presence.

“Mr. Messenger, we are just passing by Extreme Yin Land, and I hope that you can help us out!” Chen Hao tried to negotiate politely with Specter.

After all, they were in another person’s territory, so they needed to be polite.

If they were somewhere else, Chen Hao wouldn’t have wasted his time explaining himself, and he would have already attacked.

“You need a permit to go through this place. I can’t let you pass if you don’t have a permit!” Specter denied them coldly.

“A permit? Where can I get a permit?” Chen Hao wondered.

Specter pointed toward a tower that was illuminated with dull blue light.

“There. If you guys can pass the trials, you can get a permit!” Specter briefed them.

Chen Hao and Lei Lie caught on immediately. It seemed like getting into Extreme Yin Land wasn’t as easy as they thought it would be.

“Alright, thank you!” Chen Hao thanked Specter.

Then, he started heading toward the tower along with Lei Lie.

Since they needed a permit, the only choice was for them to obtain it by passing the trials. If not, then they wouldn't be able to enter Extreme Yin Land at all.

Chen Hao didn't want to offend anyone here. After all, he just wanted to pass through Extreme Yin Land. It would be a hassle if they got into trouble here.

A wise man once said, "The less problem, the better." If it was something that could be solved without using force, it was better not to use it at all.

When they reached the tower, they found out that the door to the tower was locked shut. However, dim blue light was still coming out from the inside of the tower.

Chen Hao walked forward and was about to knock on the door when it automatically opened up.

"Come on in!" A cold voice could be heard from the inside of the tower.

Chen Hao entered the tower immediately upon hearing the man.

However, before Lei Lie could even take a step forward, the door slammed shut, locking him out from entering the tower.

"H-Hey, Master Chen! W-What's going on?!" Lei Lie yelled in a panic.

"Only one can enter at a time!" The cold voice from the inside of the tower could be heard again.

Upon hearing that, Lei Lie and Chen Hao finally understood the current situation.

As such, Lei Lie had no choice but to sit on the staircase outside of the tower to wait for Chen Hao.

Rate the Translation to Get 2 Pearls.

Wait! I Have Something to Say!

Send a Gift to the Writer!