

Chapter 1521 Heroes Bow To Him

The well-built man with eyes gleaming like stars was Eurasia's God of War, Nathan Cross.

Everyone was awe-struck.

Immediately after the revelation, the African warlord Mohamed ran over to Nathan and dropped his knees onto the ground.

With a pale expression and a trembling voice, he pleaded, "I apologize for being blind and not recognizing Eurasia's God of War himself. Please forgive my impudence."

Following Mohamed, McKevin too dropped to his knees. With a terrified voice, he begged, "I too didn't realize you were Eurasia's God of War. Please forgive my insolence."

The crowd looked at each other in utter disbelief.

The Japanese God of War, Do Honjun.

Chapter 1521 Heroes Bow To Him

The African warlord, Mohamed.

The leader of the largest mercenary army in the world, McKevin.

All three of them were powerful figures in their own rights, and yet they all knelt down in front of Nathan.

Everyone in the crowd wished that they could enjoy a similarly glorious moment for once in their lifetime.

Meanwhile, July and his fellow arms dealers were filled with excitement. Fiddling their hands in glee, they exclaimed, "Unbelievable! Nathan is just awesome to have so many powerful men bow and submit to him!"

It was now obvious why Do Honjun respected Nathan so much.

Three years ago when Nathan single-handedly slaughtered the Coalition Army, he had become the nightmare of powerful men everywhere.

The Leaderboard of Battle gods used to have more than a hundred people. However, during the war three years ago, half of them died by Nathan's sword.

Do Honjun himself was so terrified that he had peed in his pants and fled the battlefield.

How could he not fear Nathan?

Although Mohamed didn't participate in the war three years ago, the African warlord who preceded him was killed by Nathan's men half a year ago.

How could he not be afraid of Nathan too?

Meanwhile, McKevin was quaking in his boots after knowing Nathan's identity. He instantly regretted picking on Nathan earlier.

Nathan turned his cold gaze towards McKevin. "Didn't you just say that you wanted to teach me a lesson? Why don't I need to break my own hands and plead for forgiveness anymore?"

Chapter 1521 Heroes Bow To Him

McKevin was almost in tears. “It was a misunderstanding...”

Nathan turned his attention to Mohamed next. “Do you still dare to take advantage of me just because I’m new? Are you still claiming that my nation’s products are substandard just because you want a lower price?”

Mohamed replied in fear, “I’m sorry, I won’t dare to repeat my mistakes again.”

Nathan continued, “With regards to the goods you wanted, I’ll have my men send them to you as previously agreed. I’ll let you decide on the price. “

Sprawling on the floor, Mohamed answered quickly, “Yes, yes. I will pay you the highest possible market value for them and I promise no monkey business.”

Nathan replied, “Very well!”

“I want you to send the payment to the United Nations’ Peacekeepers in the name of my nation, and also to the Red Cross Society.”

“Will there be a problem?”

Mohamed was stunned. Two billion was a massive amount of money to be donated to the United Nations and the Red Cross. Nathan is really rich!

Nevertheless, he didn't have any objections and readily agreed. “No problem.”

They weren't aware that Nathan had seized the goods from Spencer so it didn't cost him anything.

The Peacekeepers helped to maintain world peace, while the Red Cross provided medical treatment to the poor. Hence, donating to these two organizations was the most appropriate thing to do.

Looking at the crowd, Nathan smiled. “I'm sorry to have interrupted your business. So long, everyone!”

With that, Nathan held Penny's hand and Shika Club, Kyoto.

Spencer had confirmed that his two billion worth of goods was hijacked by Nathan's Dragonfury Special Forces.

Not only did Nathan resell his goods to the African warlord Mohamed, but he also donated the proceeds away.

The international media reported that Eurasia had donated two billion to the United Nations' Peacekeepers and the Red Cross to help maintain world peace.

When Spencer saw the news, he threw his beer bottle against the television, smashing it in the process.

Standing up angrily, he exclaimed, "Damn that Nathan for seizing my goods and donating my money away."

"Damn him for using my money to prop up his country's reputation. Those were the money I have saved for all these years!"

Spencer had planned to close a massive

Chapter 1522 I Want Nathan Cross Dead

arms deal during the Feast of the Gods.

However, he didn't expect that all the wealth he had accumulated would be gone just like that.

Meanwhile, his subordinates came to help support him and advised, "Boss, don't agitate yourself..."

Pushing them away forcefully, Spencer scowled, "Go away! How can I not be angry when Nathan destroyed everything I have painstakingly built?"

"I won't let him go unpunished!"

"I will have my revenge! I want him dead!"

"Find me the best assassin now. I want Nathan killed!"

Exchanging puzzled expressions, they wondered where could they find any assassins in Japan.

Besides, Nathan was Eurasia's God of War. Although an assassin could try and launch a covert attack, they would still need an exceptionally skilled one to even have any chance of success.

At such short notice, where could they find a top assassin?

Suddenly, one of his subordinate's eyes sparkled bright as an idea popped into his mind. He suggested enthusiastically, "Boss, I remember something."

"I coincidentally overheard that the world's top assassin, codenamed S1 and also known as the King of Killers, is in Japan. It seems that she's here to watch the snowfall at Mountain Fuji."

S1, the best and only female Assassin in the top ten killers in the world.

She was also known as the King of Killers.

Rumor had it that in the three years after she debuted as an assassin, she had completed hundreds of missions without any record of failure.

Chapter 1522 I Want Nathan Cross Dead

When Spencer heard that the infamous S1 was in Japan, he was filled with enthusiasm. He ordered, "Get in contact with her and arrange a meeting. I'll pay any price for her to kill Nathan for me."

Deep in the night at the top of Mountain Fuji!

A lady dressed in a cloak was sitting cross-legged in the snow. Her whole body was covered in snow to the extent that she had blended into the sea of white.

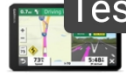

Her eyelashes had frost building on them but she remained motionless. Just like an old meditating monk or a patient fisherman, she quietly stared into the horizon.

She was the King of Killers, S1.

She had been up in the mountain for one day and one night. Her objective was to catch an arctic fox that was seen to roam Mountain Fuji.

However, the foxes were cunning and they moved as fast as lightning.

To be able to catch one unharmed was an impossible task.

S1 had been sitting in the snow for almost twenty-four hours. In fact, she hadn't even batted an eyelid- even the best ninja in Japan would be impressed.

At that moment, a beautiful snow-white arctic fox appeared from afar.

S1's eyes sparkled. However, the distance of fifty meters was still too far for her.

She was waiting for it to come within thirty meters where she was confident enough to catch the beautiful fox.

Forty meters.

Thirty-five meters.

Just when the fox entered the thirty-meter range and S1 was about to spring to action, she suddenly heard a sound from behind her.

The artic fox was alerted and it disappeared in a flash.

Meanwhile, a murderous expression flashed across S1's eyes.

Standing up slowly, the snow that had accumulated on her shattered onto the ground.

Then, she turned to see who it was.

It was Spencer and his followers.

Spencer shouted, "I am Spencer Tucker. I'm in need of your skills to kill someone."

Chapter 1523 King Of Killers

S1 gazed coldly at Spencer and his men, just like a butcher looking at a pig about to be slaughtered.

When Spencer's eyes met her frosty killer-like gaze, he couldn't help but feel a chill down his spine.

Realizing the murderous intent that S1 was emitting, Spencer's bodyguard, Xyon, quickly added, "We're here to offer you a contract!"

"As we couldn't contact you via the Darkweb, we personally traveled all the way here to seek out your services."

"But don't worry, we are prepared to pay double of what you ask for."

Hearing that, S1's murderous intent eased a little. However, her voice was still ice cold. "I'm sure you're not aware that I have just retired."

"Furthermore, I don't like it when others disrupt my life."

Chapter 1523 King Of Killers

By then, Spencer had regained his senses.

Smirking, he bellowed, "One billion!"

S1 frowned. "What?"

Raising his chin, Spencer declared haughtily, "I'm offering you one billion to kill someone. This bounty is ten times higher than what you received for your most high-profiled mission."

S1's lips let out an unnoticeable smirk.

Not many people could afford one billion, even fewer would be willing to pay so much for an assassination.

She couldn't help but take another look at Spencer and inquired, "Who are you? And who do you want dead?"

Spencer replied with a smile, "Haha, it appears that you have forgotten about protocol, that is to never ask who is hiring and never know the background of your target."

Chapter 1523 King Of Killers

“I’ll pay and you’ll kill. After that, we go on our separate ways. It’s that simple.”

Frowning, S1 replied in a solemn tone, “Since you’re talking about protocol, you should know then that my ground rules are that I neither kill the leaders of a country nor the commanding officers of an army.”

“Reason is I don’t want to be hunted down by every single army in the world when I retire.”

“The man you want dead isn’t from either of those categories, I presume?”

An unnoticeable smirk flashed across Spencer’s face.

Nathan was Eurasia’s God of War, the commanding officer of the army.

However, he replied with a cunning smile, “Of course, he is just an arms dealer.”

S1 nodded, “Alright, I’ll take the job.”

Clapping his hands in glee, Spencer added,

Chapter 1523 King Of Killers

“I’m glad to hear that. My men will send the details to you and also half of your payment.”

“I’m an impatient man and I like my revenge to be swift.”

“Therefore it has to be done tonight!”

S1 frowned when she heard this.

As a top assassin, she would only act once she had carefully formulated a plan.

Just when she was about to object, Spencer was one step ahead of her. “You are the King of Killers, I’m sure there are no issues with my request?”

“Given the bounty of one billion, the job is obviously going to be difficult. Or else, I wouldn’t have needed to spend so much to hire you.”

S1 replied coldly, “I relish the challenge. It will be done tonight as you request.”

Satisfied, Spencer roared, “That’s the spirit!”

In less than ten minutes, Spencer had his men send five hundred million into S1’s designated Swiss bank account.

In addition, he forwarded Nathan’s hotel address and room number to her.

With that, S1 left.

After she was out of sight, Spencer burst into diabolical laughter.

Pursing his lips, he snorted, “Hmph! For someone who does not kill leaders or commanding officers, what makes her think she deserves to be paid so much?”

After speaking, he waved for Xyon who was standing with the other bodyguards to come forward.

Xyon respectfully inquired, “Boss, what do you need?”

Squinting his eyes, Spencer muttered coldly, “Nathan is the God of War, while S1 is the King of Killers.”

“When two giants clash, one will fall while the other will be badly injured.”

“Find me another assassin. Once S1 kills Nathan, get him to finish S1.”

Xyon’s eyes sparkled when he heard Spencer’s idea. “Boss, that’s brilliant!”

“By killing S1, we can prevent ourselves from being exposed while saving five hundred million. This way, we can kill two birds with one stone.”

Spencer laughed in glee and ordered, “Now go and get it done!”

Xyon replied, “Yes, boss!”

Chapter 1524 Is She The Assassin

3 a.m.

In the presidential suite of Kyoto Grand Hotel.

Inside the room, Nathan and Penny were sleeping.

Nathan, who was sound asleep, opened his eyes when he heard a faint, almost unnoticeable sound of a footstep. It sounded like a cat had landed on the floor.

The room was enclosed in darkness except for a ray of moonlight that shone through the windows.

The curtains billowed slightly with the cool morning breeze.

Nathan squinted his eyes when he realized the windows which that had been closed were now open.

Someone had snuck in!

At that very moment, a shadow flashed across his eyes. Then, a black dagger headed straight for his heart, just like a snake striking its prey.

Chapter 1524 Is She The Assassin

As Nathan's gaze turned cold, he grabbed his pillow by reflex to block the deadly thrust of the dagger.

Poof!

S1's dagger pierced through Nathan's pillow.

She was shocked that she failed despite her speed and with the element of surprise.

With a slice of the dagger, the pillow was forcefully cut open and the goose feathers inside burst out like a pinata.

With a wave of his hand, Nathan turned all the feathers into arrows and shot them towards S1.

Gasping in shock, S1 jumped back. She then brandished her dagger around to shield herself from the arrow-like feathers.

By the time she managed to block all of them, Nathan had gotten out of bed. In fact, he had put on his pants and shoes, and was in the midst of wearing his white shirt.

Under the dim moonlight, S1 could vaguely make out his swimmer-like figure and the multiple scars on his chest.

She was shocked when she realized the target of her hastily-accepted mission was someone terrifyingly strong, despite the ridiculously high bounty that came with it.

He was not only able to notice and foil her assassination attempt, but he also had time to put on his clothes casually. Furthermore, he did all that without waking his wife who was still fast asleep.

Just when S1 was stunned by Nathan's skills, Nathan stared back at her in surprise when he realized the assassin was a woman.

Whoosh!

Chapter 1524 Is She The Assassin

S1 dashed towards Nathan again in lightning speed as she thrust her dagger towards his heart.

Raising his hand, Nathan grabbed her wrist.

But S1's reflexes were lightning quick and she smashed her knee towards his abdomen.

However, Nathan raised his own knee to block.

When their shins clash, a muffled bang was heard.

As his shin was strong enough to break anything, anyone who kicked against it would have their leg broken.

However, he was surprised that the female assassin was able to endure the impact.

Despite his surprise, his movements didn't slow down at all as he hurled a right hook towards his opponent.

Raising her left hand, S1 caught Nathan's wrist.

Both their left hands were caught by each other's right hand at the very moment.

As S1 grunted, she channeled all her strength into a devastating shoulder strike at Nathan.

Meanwhile, Nathan intercepted her shoulder with a shoulder strike of his own.

Boom!

As their shoulders clashed, the tiles on the ground cracked while everything else in the room shattered from the impact of the shockwaves.

After the clash, Nathan stood steadily where he was while S1 flew off like a kite.

At that moment, Nathan could see her face clearly under the moonlight. He couldn't help but widen his eyes and gasp, "Ava Quinn!"

When S1 heard Nathan call out her name, she too was stunned. “You... are the General!”

She was one of the two captains of Nathan’s personal guards.

Three years ago, when Nathan was under attack by the Coalition Army, Ava, who was responsible for guarding Nathan, had disappeared just before the attack.

Nathan had had to vanquish his enemies all by himself then.

After that, the North Army confirmed that Ava had leaked Nathan’s intel to the enemy, which resulted in him being ambushed by the Coalition Army.

However, Nathan felt that there was more to the matter than what met the eye. He had personally groomed Ava and she was fiercely loyal, hence unlikely to betray him.

However, Ava seemed to have vanished into thin air. Despite expending massive resources to search for her, all he got was a dead end.

It had been three years since then and Nathan had never expected to reunite with her under such circumstances.

He too was shocked.

When Ava realized her target was Nathan, she was first shocked before her emotions turned into one of anguish and regret. Bearing with the pain of her injuries, she fled out the window.

Just when Nathan was about to give chase, he heard Penny's voice. "Hubby, that's an assassin, how did she get in..."

Turning his head, he realized that Penny had awoken during his fight with Ava.

He replied with a wry smile, "She used to be my subordinate but vanished a long time ago. I didn't expect to see her again as an assassin sent to kill me."

Chapter 1525 I Will Finish Her

At that moment, Colin and Frida arrived.

Both of them yelled anxiously, "Boss, Ms. Smith, are you both alright?"

Nathan replied, "There was an assassin but it's over now."

"Get the hotel to change our rooms."

"At once, sir!"

Immediately, the hotel moved Nathan and Penny to another suite.

After instructing Frida to protect Penny, Nathan and Colin went to the balcony.

Colin said, "General, I have informed the authorities in Japan about this and they will be investigating it."

Lighting up a cigarette and taking a puff, Nathan muttered, "Do you remember Ava?"

Colin was stunned when he heard the name. The next moment, his expression turned into one of anger as he replied, "I remember. She and I were both trained by you. She was the captain of your personal guards while I was the deputy.”

“But she betrayed you by leaking intel to the enemy, causing you to be ambushed by the Coalition Army.”

“Luckily, you were invincible and vanquished the enemy in the end.”

“Ava that traitor! If I find out where she is, I will finish her!”

When Colin finished speaking, he suddenly realized something.

Staring at Nathan in surprise, he exclaimed, “General, why did you bring her up all of a sudden? Unless...”

Nathan nodded. “That’s right. The assassin who infiltrated the hotel room was her.”

What?

Colin was both shocked and furious.

Chapter 1525 I Will Finish Her

Nathan replied calmly, “But when she realized her target is me, she seemed to also be surprised as if she didn’t know at first.”

Puzzled, Colin inquired, “General, what do you mean?”

Nathan continued, “I have the feeling that when she betrayed me three years ago, there was more to it than we know. Perhaps, she was in some kind of trouble of her own.”

Colin questioned, “If that was the case, why did she disappear after the incident? Or why didn’t she apologize to you just now?”

Nathan replied, “That’s what confuses me too!”

“Since she has appeared here, we can follow her tracks.”

“Use all our networks to find out where she is. I want her to personally explain to me what happened.”

Chapter 1525 I Will Finish Her

Colin acknowledged, “Yes, sir!”

At that moment, Ava had managed to drag her injured self some distance away.

It was four in the morning when the night was still at its darkest. She returned to a dilapidated house which served as her temporary base.

Suddenly, she stopped in her tracks as she saw a dark figure from afar. “Who is it?”

The next moment, a tall burly man emerged from the darkness. It was Spencer’s bodyguard, Xyon.

Xyon squinted his eyes and responded, “It’s me!”

When Ava saw Xyon, she frowned. “The mission failed. Tell your boss that I will return the five hundred million to his account.”

Xyon nodded. “Alright!”

With that, he turned to leave and picked up his pace as he went.

Watching Xyon's back, Ava frowned slightly.

As Xyon was walking away, he spoke into a hidden mic attached to his collar, "Bulldog, go ahead and kill her now!"

In a blink of an eye, gunshots filled the air.

A barrage of bullets were sent in Ava's direction.

As Ava suspected that something was amiss given how hasty Xyon had left, she managed to act in time and sought cover behind a tree.

The bullets hit the spot where she had just been and splashed up the mud from the ground.

The tree where she was hiding behind was also covered with bullet holes.

Several intimidating men carrying UZI submachine guns were spraying bullets at her as they approached.

The man leading them was called Bulldog. Gesturing for his men to stop, he narrowed his eyes and said, "I wonder if she's dead yet?"

As they spread out and flanked the tree, they realized that there was no one behind it.

Where is she?

Dico quickly raised his head and looked at the top of the tree.

But the moment the few of them raised their heads, a dark shadow fell from the sky like a cheetah as she swung a dagger in her hand at lightning speed...

The gleam from the blade faded away fleetingly.

Before Dico and the others could react, gushes of blood were already spurting from their necks.

Each of them had had their throats slid open, and blood was gushing out like a fountain.

They couldn't even let out a scream as they had all placed their hands over their throats in horror. They fell dead to the ground with their eyes wide open.

With a pale face, Ava quickly chased after Xyon.

At Shika.

Chapter 1526 | Command You To Stop Immediately

In a VIP room, Spencer was already drunk, whereas the few Japanese actresses who had drunk with him were also getting tipsy.

At that moment, the door of the room was suddenly opened.

Spencer looked towards the door and saw his right-hand man, Xyon, walking in.

He flashed him a smile. "You're back. I've been waiting for you all night. Is the ba****d, Nathan Cross, as well as the S1 dead?"

Xyon said nothing in reply.

Only then did Spencer and the women around him suddenly realize that there was another person behind Xyon. It was Ava Quinn, who was pointing a pistol at the back of his head.

With a shocked expression on his face, Spencer exclaimed, "You're still alive!"

Chapter 1527 Dark Emperor

The next day, Nathan and Penny were having breakfast together while Colin stood by the side making a report to Nathan in a respectful manner.

Colin said in a solemn voice, "General, something big happened again last night!"

"What was it about?" Nathan asked curiously.

"Spencer Tucker, the son of Boris Tucker, and his subordinates were killed last night," reported Colin.

Nathan was stunned. "Who did it?"

"The King of Killers who has gained fame in recent years, code-named S1. Her name's actually Ava Quinn."

Nathan, Penny, and Frida, who was next to him, were all struck dumb.

Nathan frowned and asked, "What went on?"

"Spencer hired Ava to assassinate you.

Chapter 1527 Dark Emperor

However, Ave has a rule that she follows. She refuses to kill any head of state or commanding officer. She felt that she had been set up by Spencer and soon found out that he had wanted to kill her afterwards. Infuriated, she went directly to Spencer and killed him,” Colin explained.

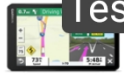

Shocked, Nathan asked in a serious tone, “How did Ava become the King of Killers? What has she been doing during her disappearance these three years?”

“I’ve looked into it,” Colin answered. “Ava and her family, including her mom and her siblings had been living in Europe. Three years ago, the Dark Temple held her family hostage and threatened her to work for them. If she didn’t, they would kill her family. In desperation, she disclosed a lot of confidential information to the Dark Temple, including your schedule.”

Nathan finally knew that it was the Dark Temple who had threatened Ava with her family to find out his whereabouts and planned the assassination in partnership with eighteen countries three years ago.

“I think Ava didn’t expect that disclosure of your whereabouts would lead to such a serious consequence. She is very regretful and dares not to see you again. Besides, as her family’s lives are under the control of the Dark Temple, she can only be forced to do things for the Dark Temple to save her family’s lives.”

Nathan snorted coldly. “One can’t be loyal and filial piety at the same time, but is her blind devotion to her family really a good thing? Is she going to allow herself to be the sword of the Dark Temple, controlled and used by others for the rest of her life? Where is she now? Get her to see me now!”

“She killed Spencer, so the master of Dark Temple is furious. He has ordered her to return to Europe to be punished,” replied Colin in a low voice.

At this, the look on Nathan’s face turned colder.

Boris had always wanted to remove him from the position of General of the North. He wanted to get King of the North, Lucifer Leeroy, to take over.

It would not be surprising if the incident had something to do with Boris three years ago.

Seeing that Nathan said nothing, Colin didn’t dare continue talking.

days.”

“Hubby, will you be in danger?” Penny asked with a worried look on her face.

“Of course not. Dark Temple is nothing in front of me. Don’t you believe in my abilities?” Nathan comforted her with a smile tugging at his lips.

Looking into Nathan’s resolute and tenacious eyes, Penny couldn’t help but say, “Of course I believe in you.”

“That’s it then!” Nathan replied, smiling. “Don’t worry. I’ll be back in a few days. I also want to take advantage of my remaining vacation to make another baby with you, preferably a son.”

When Penny heard his words, she blushed instantly.

The blush spread down her neck as she snapped jokingly, “Hey!”

Like an old monk in meditation, both Colin and Frida stared straight ahead, acting as

Chapter 1528 I Have Long Wanted You

Penny and Frida soon took a flight back to their country.

At the same time, the Elite Eight had received their orders and rushed to Japan to meet Nathan and Colin.

That night, Nathan and his men boarded a flight to Europe.

The Spear, located in the most bustling part of the city in Mastruania, Europe, was the headquarters of the well-known Dark Temple.

In the meeting hall of the Dark Temple headquarters on both sides of a long conference table sat the elders and high-level members of the Dark Temple.

A heavily-built, blond, middle-aged man with a strong presence sat at the head of the table.

He was the master of Dark Temple, Levis Leon, also known as Dark Emperor.

He looked at his subordinates seated on both sides of the long table—the Four Devils, Nine Angels, and eighteen elders were all present.

In the meeting hall, there were many elite men dressed in black suits standing around the place. They were all staring blankly straight ahead.

In front of the meeting table stood a slender Eurasian woman in an upright posture.

It was Ava Quinn!

Levis looked at her coldly. “S1, you’ve killed the son of our old friend, Boris Tucker. Are you aware of your offence?”

“You can do whatever you want to me. I made a mistake for the sake of my family three years ago. I betrayed the General, and have long wanted to die. Besides, I’m just being threatened by you, not a member of the Dark Temple. So, you don’t need to interrogate me like I’m one of your men. Just kill me if you want to.”

“How insolent!” the obese Devil of Greed, Amon, one of the Four Devils, yelled. “Ava, how dare you talk to Master with such an attitude! Master has said that he appreciates your ability. He doesn’t want to kill you. If you want to truly join us and become a Fallen Angel, he will gladly agree to it.”

A Fallen Angel!

Ava’s face changed drastically upon hearing his words.

The Dark Temple’s method of nurturing Fallen Angels was by making women sleep with the male members.

Being glorified as the cleansing of women’s dishonor made the female members fall into angels, so that they would serve the Dark Temple wholeheartedly.

Ava scowled angrily, “I would rather die!”

“Heh. I’d turn you into a Fallen Angel regardless of what you want,” Levis stated with a smile. “You have two options now. You can commit suicide while I will cut your brother to death and sell your mother and sister to the shabbiest brothel. Your family will suffer for you. The other option is for you to obediently dedicate yourself to everyone and become our new Fallen Angel.”

Ava trembled wildly, her face pale. “You’re all demons!”

The obese Devil of Greed, Amon, grinned wickedly and said, “Choose quickly, or I’ll help you choose. I have long wanted you, beautiful. Hahaha!”

Just as everyone in the meeting hall was laughing and shooting glances at Ava, a man’s cold voice was suddenly heard. “I will help her choose the third option. That’s to kill all of you bastards.”

Everyone in the meeting hall was taken aback.

They hurriedly looked at the door to see Nathan walking in with a calm face

Chapter 1529 Still As Bold As Ever

Levis widened his eyes when he saw Nathan and his party came in.

The Four Devils, Nine Angels, and eighteen elders on both sides of the conference table were all shocked.

Hundreds of elite men in black suits in the conference room grew more alert and kept their guards up.

Nathan cast his gaze on Ava and said coldly, "It's not easy for the North Army to train a talent like you. I worked so hard to train you. Are you going to die just like this?"

"General!" Upon looking at Nathan, Ava's voice was choked with emotion; she felt ashamed and guilty.

The Dark Temple had threatened her with the life of her entire family back then. Thus, she had no choice but to leak secret information about the North Army, including the schedule of the General.

But she had not expected that it would lead to the assassination attempt that the Dark Temple had planned by joining forces with the eighteen nations and forming a Coalition Army.

Although the assassination attempt targeting Nathan alone, it allowed the world to know how powerful the God of War was. That was why Ava regretted it deep down and was ashamed to face Nathan.

Coupled with the fact that her family was under the control of the Dark Temple, she had been forced to become a killer for the Dark Temple. She had helped the Dark Temple do a lot of dirty, underhanded things.

She thought she would not survive as she didn't expect Nathan to show up to save her at this juncture.

Therefore, she was now sobbing uncontrollably.

Nathan looked at Ava in front of him, feeling sad yet angry.

Chapter 1529 Still As Bold As Ever

At that moment, Levis had finally recovered from the shock.

He squinted at Nathan, saying coldly, "Nathan Cross, the God of War. Why did you come all the way here to die for a woman instead of simply staying in your country?"

Levis had come from the world's top consortium after being sent to the Siberian Assassin Training Camp for training when he was a child.

The Siberian Assassin Training Camp was the largest assassin training base in the world. A term lasted for five years, and there were a total of 100,000 trainees in each term.

Usually, after five years, only ten of the best trainees survived in the end. They all often ended up as the world's top assassins when they debuted.

Levis had been the top student that year.

He was born noble and talented, so he became the master of the Dark Temple at a young age and was revered as Dark Emperor.

Although he did not participate in the battle that had targeted Nathan three years ago, he had heard of Nathan's many accomplishments.

Of course, as the golden boy, he refused to acknowledge Nathan's ability as the God of War.

He had thought of meeting Nathan more than once, but he hadn't expected that they would meet under such a circumstance.

Nathan shifted his gaze away from Ava to Levis, and said indifferently, "I've come here to die? Do you think that you all—a bunch of gutter rats that only dare to pull some tricks in the dark—can kill me?"

As soon as Nathan spoke, angry expressions appeared on the faces of everyone in the Dark Temple.

As the world's largest assassin organization, it was the first time someone had the audacity to take them so lightly.

Ava couldn't help but secretly cheer for Nathan.

He's so intimidating and domineering!

The General is still as bold as ever!

These people in the Dark Temple had always thought that they ran everything, that they were superior. So when they were called the gutter rats by Nathan, Ava couldn't help but feel happy and inwardly pleased.

With a pale face, Levis announced in a stern voice, "Who wants to show him the consequence of offending us by killing him?"

"I'll go!" Amon, the Devil of Greed of Four Devils, volunteered in a thunderous voice.

He stood up directly, raising his hand and pushing the chair away before he walked towards Nathan with heavy footsteps like

Chapter 1530 Powerful

With a wicked grin, he sneered, "Boy, I'm going to blow your head off."

After speaking, he squatted down slightly. The ground under his feet cracked with a slight rumble as he launched himself into the air, throwing a punch at Nathan.

The Devil of Greed was using his killer move that was filled with strong murderous intent.

Ava couldn't help but call out, "Be careful, General!"

However, Nathan had already made his counter move before Ava finished her sentence. He stood on one leg and snapped his other leg out in a powerful kick!

Thud!

The sound of the explosion of Devil of Greed's head was heard right after he was hit hard by the black leather shoe.

Blood splattered everywhere.

Chapter 1530 Powerful

The sturdy body of Devil of Greed, which was like a mountain of flesh, was then seen flying backwards through the air.

Boom!

When the Devil of Greed landed hard on the ground in front of Levis and the others, he was already dead.

What?

Amon, one of the Four Devils, was actually killed by Nathan with one single kick.

A trace of shock flashed across Levis's eyes as his expression turned solemn. He began to take Nathan seriously for the first time.

The remaining three Devils, Nine Angels, eighteen elders, and hundreds of elite men on the scene gasped, looking at Nathan in disbelief.

They had heard all about the legend of Nathan.

Chapter 1530 Powerful

However, they had thought that the legend had exaggerated Nathan's ability.

But now, it seemed that the legend had been overly conservative about his ability instead of exaggerating his ability.

Such a single kick from Nathan alone could intimidate many powerful people in the world!

Wee woo... Wee woo...

The siren of the Dark Temple building blared while a large number of heavily armed Dark Temple assassins rushed to the door of the meeting hall.

Unfortunately, the door of the meeting hall was being closed by Colin and the Elite Eight from inside.

This meeting hall was very well-defended; the assassins outside did not dare to force their way in.

Upon hearing the siren and the sound of his men securing the perimeter outside,

Levis sneered at Nathan. “You’re already surrounded by our people. If you surrender now, maybe I will consider sparing your lives.”

With a faint smile, Nathan sat down on the empty seat belonging to the Devil of Greed at the long conference table.

He then took out a white handkerchief and slowly wiped the blood off his black leather shoes.

-> Then, he threw the blood-stained handkerchief on the long conference table, and said with a chuckle, “Don’t worry, your men don’t dare to force the way in. I promise you that I will send you all to hell before they break in.”

Levis flew into a rage after hearing this.

Infuriated, he ordered in a solemn voice, “Kill this insolent fool.”

“Yes, Sir!”

The remaining three devils, named Venom,

Evil, and Green Goblin, charged at Nathan in a blur of motion.

Nathan snorted coldly. “How dare clowns like you mess with me.”

At that, with a flick of his right hand, a thin and sharp dagger slipped into his hand from the cuff of his suit.

A white gleam from the blade whizzed through the air.

Snow-sphere!

The white gleam then faded away fleetingly as blood spattered everywhere.

The remaining three of the Four Devils all had their throats slid open while crimson blood spurted from their wounds. They fell to the ground with their hands over their throats...

Upon seeing that Nathan had used his unique combat skills to kill the three devils, Ava, Colin, and the Elite Eight were filled with excitement and ecstasy.
