“No...no one is allowed to enter.”

His deep husky voice quietly reverberated throughout the valley as the sun set.

Perhaps owing to the severity of his injuries or how weak he was, his voice sounded soft.

It sounded like a candle in the wind and was about to go out anytime.

Despite how weak his voice was, it loudly echoed when everyone heard it.

Everyone stared in shock as they watched the badly beaten up young man stand up from the rubble once again.

A determined smile appeared on his bloody profile.

His tiny silhouette felt as strong as a mountain.

In an instant, everyone stood petrified as they looked at the youth in disbelief.

“Huh? How can he still be alive? He was attacked by two supreme grandmasters and was struck by lightning. How could he have Shit!

Heavens!

That's seriously incredible!

Everyone was overwhelmed in shock.

They stared fixedly as though Ye Fan was some monster as he stood with his head held high in the rubble.

It didn't dawn on them that Ye Fan was a great fighter and equally good at withstanding blows.

He had surprisingly survived.

Even the Indra and the Persian King, who were both supreme grandmasters, were dumbstruck by the sight.

"How is this possible? He was struck by a sword and even suffered my lightning attack. Even if he were made of steel, he would have died. How could he stand up?"

However, Brahma quickly composed himself.

Although it was unbelievable that he didn't die, Brahma had to accept the facts here.

He looked at Ye Fan and suddenly laughed, "So, your name is Ye Fan? I will remember you even after you die today. You don't have to feel surprised by such honor. I'm just trying to show respect to a powerful opponent. Honestly, you have shocked me deeply despite your young age. If this didn't happen, perhaps I will be no match for you in ten years. Sadly, you won't live to see the day. It ends now!"

Brahma had lost all patience. The moment he finished his words, he attacked Ye Fan on the chest angrily.

BAM!

As his internal energy radiated, Brahma slammed Ye Fan onto the ground.

Brahma had no intention of halting after his initial blow, and his sword continued charging towards Ye Fan.

He plunged his sword into Ye Fan, and blood sprayed everywhere.

Brahma attacked Ye Fan from behind before he pulled the sword out mercilessly.

Blood instantly stained the back of Ye Fan's shirt.

Even if Ye Fan could survive this lethal blow, he would be completely spent and incapable of withstanding Brahma's attacks.

“This time, you are going to die, right?”

Brahma pulled out his sword and sinisterly laughed before he smiled in relief.

Brahma lowered his head and looked coldly at the corpse lying in the pool of blood. He sneered before sheathing his sword and heading towards the cave.

This time, Brahma felt it was impossible for Ye Fan to survive.

After all, he was already on the verge of death when he stood up.

Now that he had attacked him critically two more times, even if he were a supreme grandmaster, he was bound to die.

Brahma was not alone. Even Mike Jones and the others felt the same way.

“I’m not sure if he was stupid or stubborn. Couldn’t he just lie there and pretend he was dead? Did he have to get up? It was completely foolish of him to court his own death,” said Mike Jones softly as he shook his head and felt sad for Ye Fan’s predicament.

If not for the fact that they were on opposing sides, actually Mike Jones didn't mind making friends with Ye Fan.

Since he was a prodigy, plenty of people would want to be acquainted with him.

Angie Jones choked with tears. Her initial joy instantly transformed into sadness.

In the end, there was nothing for her to be happy about.

"He should be done for this time, right?"

Brahma and Gaia waited for a while in front of the cave. After they were certain that Ye Fan was dead, they could finally set their hearts at ease.

All these years, Brahma had never felt this anxious.

Before they fought, Brahma thought he could deal Ye Fan with a swift overwhelming defeat.

However, he ended up fighting so hard.

Even with Gaia's help, both these supreme

“He was a tough one to crack, but I think fighting the God of War would feel more satisfying than this,” sighed Brahma.

He inhaled deeply to calm himself before he called for Gaia and headed to the cave.

“Let’s go, Gaia. He can’t stop us now,” said Brahma as he laughed. After taking care of a major problem, Brahma’s spirits lifted.

“Sure.” Gaia nodded.

Brahma and Gaia dragged their severely injured bodies towards the cave.

As they walked past the rubble, something spine-tingling happened again.

A bloody hand reached out from the rubble and grabbed Gaia and Brahma by their ankles firmly.

“What the fuck?!”

“Is he some demon?”

“Why does he refuse to die?”

Brahma was on the brink of tears while Gaia's face looked livid.

They didn't expect Ye Fan to be still alive.

What kind of strength did it take to survive such a battle?

“Is he some cockroach that refuses to die?”

“How could he have survived such blows?”

“Damn it! That’s enough. I have enough of fighting you!” Gaia was on the brink of tears.

Previously, he merely thought Ye Fan was a lunatic.

From the looks of it now, he wasn't a lunatic. Instead, he was an unstoppable and impenetrable demon.

If this went on, he wasn't so sure which one of them would end up dying.

Gaia didn't want to fight Ye Fan anymore and suggested that all three of them enter the cave together in the search for treasure and keep whatever they were capable of finding.

On condition that they stopped fighting each other.

“Each of us will stand a fair chance to obtain the treasure. Is that okay?” asked Gaia in an almost imploring tone.

It seemed Gaia was genuinely terrified of Ye Fan.

But how could Ye Fan agree to that?

Yu Yun was still cultivating inside. She was in the final crucial stages and couldn't be disturbed.

Hence, Ye Fan rejected Gaia's suggestion.

"I-I said. As long as I'm here, no one is to enter the cave."

His deep husky voice sounded particularly determined.

"Damn it! How can you have the cheek to turn down the offer and try to stop us? What right do you have to stop us?"

Brahma immediately exploded in anger.

Brahma and Gaia had scoured the rainforest for months for the treasure.

They had spent so much effort hunting for treasure in the rainforest.

And now, Ye Fan thought he could stop them with mere words?

It was sheer wishful thinking!

Brahma clearly wanted to take out Ye Fan.

He simply couldn't believe what was happening. Was Ye Fan immortal or something?

The moment he finished his words, Brahma wasted no time.

He charged over and punched Ye Fan repeatedly.

This time he did not use his sword.

Instead, he simply fought Ye Fan in hand-to-hand combat and unleashed all power on Ye Fan.

"Palm of Destruction!"

"Spiked Cudgel Fist Technique!"

"Indian Burst!"

Brahma repeatedly attacked Ye Fan like a rabid dog.

He was vicious!

Brahma was simply merciless.

Brahma showed no pity towards the powerless young man.

Each and every blow he made was lethal and met their targets.

Ye Fan's body shot out like a cannon with almost every blow. Blood mixed with flesh sprayed into the air as he landed on the ground hard.

Amid his angry roar, Brahma punched Ye Fan 18 times in a row.

His punches were immensely powerful as they came crashing down on Ye Fan's chest.

Everyone in the cave was stunned by the sight.

Perhaps they were infected by Ye Fan's stubbornness, so they started to admire him more and feel increasingly sorry for him.

Even Mike Jones stood in shock.

He wondered how stubborn or determined a man had to be to keep standing up and falling down repeatedly like Ye Fan.

As everyone felt moved by Ye Fan's determination, they couldn't wrap their minds around his actions. Wasn't it just treasure?

Did he have to go all out?

However, no one had any clue what Ye Fan was defending.

It was his promise to a woman.

This time, no one would disturb her.

Ye Fan always kept his word. Since he made a promise, how could he break his word?

Moreover, if it weren't for him, Yu Yun would already have succeeded in cultivation.

To a certain degree, Ye Fan was the one who put Yu Yun in such danger.

It was only right for him to stop them.

Brahma felt deeply satisfied when Ye Fan seemed to be breathing his last breath.

Chapter 1323 An Elegant Woman

Inside the cave, everything was in chaos.

Brahma brandished his sword at Ye Fan and hacked at him like a lunatic.

His sword shone brightly while coming at Ye Fan from all directions.

Ye Fan stood on the brink of death.

This time, there was no doubt that Ye Fan would die.

After all, Ye Fan was bound to lose his head this time.

Regardless of how determined Ye Fan was, the moment his head fell, the only result was death.

They were not alone in their opinion.

Even Ye Fan himself instantly lost all hope when he saw the swords flying towards him.

He was keenly aware that he was in no condition to withstand Brahma's attack.

Even though he practiced Dragon God Body and Invoke the Celestial Cloud, there was a limit to what they could do.

Ye Fan was undoubtedly at his limit now.

Brahma could probably kill Ye Fan easily.

Moreover, Brahma had just attacked him with countless swords.

“In the past, I thought that even if I died, it would be at the hand of a Chu Sect martial artist right in front of their doors. I’ve ended up unexpectedly dying because of these vile creatures. This is fate! It’s destiny! Does god want me to die because I want to fight?”

In the last moment of his life, Ye Fan raised his head and laughed loudly.

He laughed tragically like a hero filled with regret after his days are numbered.

Or perhaps, he was sad that he had yet to attack Chu family for the humiliation they made him suffer.

“I’m sorry, Mum. I am probably unable to seek justice for you.”

Ye Fan had already closed his eyes.

Chapter 1323 An Elegant Woman

He looked like a criminal hopelessly waiting for the guillotine to fall.

Before he died, countless images flashed through Ye Fan's mind.

He recalled the joy of playing with his parents.

He also recalled the humiliation and suffering he experienced when he was driven out of the Chu family.

There were also images of him walking Qiu Mu-Cheng down the aisle when they got married.

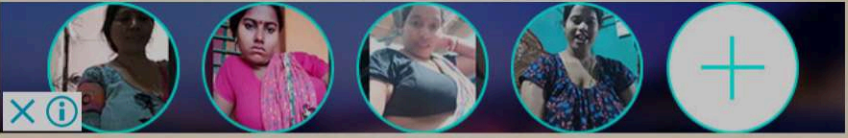

He thought of Xu Lei...

He thought of Han...

He thought about Yu Yun as she cultivated inside the cave.

“To think I would end up breaking my promise in my final moments after a life of keeping my word. Yu Yun, I'm sorry. I ended up failing you.”

Ye Fan looked towards the cave one final time as he softly spoke before he opened his arms to welcome his fate.

However, the moment Brahma was about to strike him, a chilling voice quietly came out of the cave.

“Indra, if you touch him, I will wipe out your entire clan and destroy India!”

Her imposing words exploded in the air.

It made the wind rage in all directions.

Amid everyone’s shock, a purple beam of sword energy came flying from the depths of the cave.

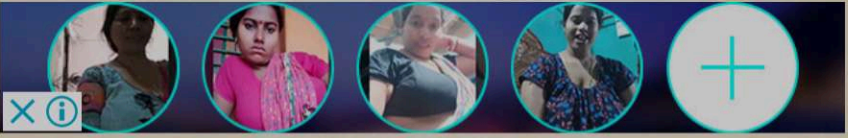

It was unstoppable as it struck Brahma while he attacked Ye Fan.

BOOM!

The moment the sword energy met its target, the wind swept wildly.

A thunderous sound reverberated throughout the island.

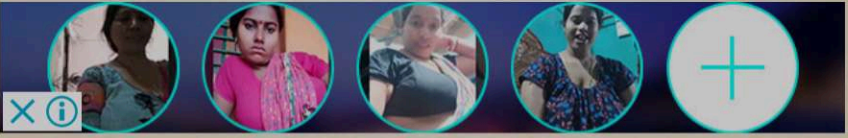

Even the earth beneath their feet split open.

A huge crack spread out swiftly in all directions with a boom.

The remaining energy of the blow even caused a nearby hilltop to collapse.

However, the deadlock didn't last.

A purple sword glow quickly vanquished Brahma's attack completely.

"What? How is this possible?"

Brahma was at a complete loss when he realized that his sword moves were useless against her.

He hurriedly retreated.

But no matter how swift he was, he couldn't compare to a sword.

The purple sword glow didn't slow down after overcoming Brahma's attack. Instead, it charged towards Brahma at top speed.

A purple glow flashed as the sword energy plunged into his body.

Brahma instantly moaned before coughing blood.

He was also forced backward by at least a hundred meters.

“Who are you? How dare you sneak up on me? Show yourself!”

Brahma raised his head and looked around as he shouted angrily.

The moment Brahma finished his sentence, a stunning silhouette quietly appeared.

Her hair fluttered as she stood.

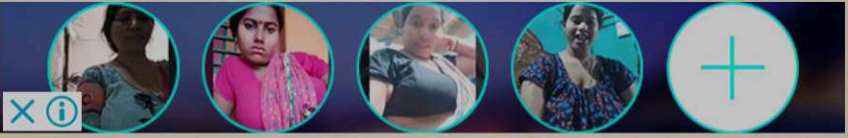

She had a flawless complexion and looked elegant.

Now that she had recovered all her strength, she was like a queen looking down on her lands.

She was an incomparable beauty!

In an instant, the entire world seemed to freeze.

Nothing moved as everyone stood dumbstruck as they looked at her.

Everyone's eyes were filled with awe.

What kind of woman was she?

Despite the veil on her face, she was unable to conceal her beauty.

Even the clothes she was wearing were incapable of hiding her imposing aura.

She gave off the most elegant aura just by standing there alone.

She was so beautiful and elegant that she put everyone else to shame.

Some people even had the impulse to kneel before her.

Many of them couldn't help sighing. Any man who could win her over would become the most enviable man on earth.

Even though she could make everyone in the world kneel before her, but she would kneel only before one person at night.

Sometimes, it wasn't that gratifying to make the world submit. Instead, it was even more satisfying to make the queen of the world surrender to you.

But besides feeling shocked, the same question ran through everyone's heads.

“Who...who is this woman? Is she a supreme grandmaster too?” asked someone from the crowd with his voice trembling.

Everyone witnessed first-hand how this woman managed to destroy Brahma's killing move and made him move back by a hundred meters.

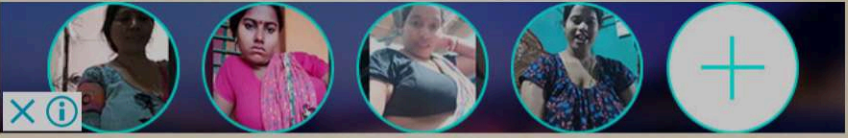

Even though it was just one move, everyone realized what she was made of.

Everyone could sense from her attack that she could probably rival both the Indra and the Persian King.

In that case, wouldn't it mean a total of four supreme grandmasters had showed up today?

“Heavens!”

Chapter 1323 An Elegant Woman

“Why did so many masters turn up?”

Many people were so startled that they almost cried and felt their scalps go numb.

Mike Jones only looked somewhat surprised even though everyone around him was losing it.

He couldn't help finding the woman with a veil covering her face a little familiar.

“Is that...our sect leader?”

Mike Jones secretly mulled.

However, it was just his guess.

After all, the Chu Sect leader always acted alone, so no one knew of her whereabouts.

All these years, Mike Jones had only laid eyes on her twice.

The first time he saw her was the day she ascended to the position. The next time he saw her was a few days ago, very briefly.

Since he wasn't that close to the Chu Sect leader, he was unsure about the identity of the veiled woman. Could this woman really be the leader of the most powerful sect in the martial arts circle and number one on the Sky Ranking?

He needed to corroborate this.

He overlooked everyone's shock and watched as the elegant woman stood before Ye Fan instantly after crushing Brahma's attack with a single blow.

"Y-you finally came out, you stupid woman. I-I kept my word, right? I didn't let anyone in."

Ye Fan laughed softly in a weak tone with his voice trembling.

No one knew of the excruciating pain Ye Fan was suffering from at this moment.

However, he smiled when Yu Yun came out of cultivation.

He gave a bright warm smile with a look of liberation and relief!

Ye Fan was gravely injured and beaten to a pulp.

The two penetrating wounds on his back almost injured his lungs.

Yu Yun couldn't imagine how this young man managed to keep everyone out for so long despite his injuries.

Also, he managed to calmly smile when he saw her come out of the cave.

In that instant, even though Yu Yun had a cold personality, she couldn't help looking touched.

“Why did you do it? We are completely

Even though Yu Yun sounded cold, she was doing her utmost to remain composed as she spoke.

Ye Fan smiled. “No reason. Since I made you a promise, I should keep it, right? Moreover, you gave me the ice spirit fruit even though we are unrelated. I don’t like owing people anything.”

Ye Fan’s weak voice echoed in the air.

This time, the poised Yu Yun was incapable of controlling herself.

She looked at Ye Fan who was on the brink of death. Perhaps out of guilt or pity, her eyes eventually became red as tears glistened in her eyes.

She parted her lips and wanted to speak.

However, it was probably out of her personality to show concern for others.

Hence, those words of concern didn’t come out in the end.

Ye Fan didn't know whether to cry or to laugh. "I'll do it myself. If you go on helping me, I will probably end up dying."

Yu Yun felt so angry that her nose almost became contorted.

Chapter 1325 Brahma's Regret

Yu Yun's frosty words swept in all directions like a cold wind.

Her garments flapped in the wind as her hair fluttered.

Internal energy surged from her body.

"Let's talk. We don't have to fight."

Brahma was instantly terrified, so he humbled himself as he tried to convince Yu Yun otherwise.

A smart man knew what to do at the right time.

After so many battles, even if Brahma had any strength in him, he was no longer in his best condition.

In reality, he had used up most of his energy to fight Ye Fan.

Since he was not at his best, he naturally did his best to avoid conflict.

He was more inclined to resolve the problem verbally in an effort to avoid fighting her.

Chapter 1325 Brahma's Regret

However, Yu Yun turned a deaf ear to Brahma's words.

Before Brahma finished his sentence, Yu Yun attacked him.

SWISH SWISH SWISH!

Yu Yun raised her sword and hacked Brahma angrily with her dress and hair fluttering in the wind.

She was so swift that she was like a bolt of lightning.

Everyone had just seen Yu Yun execute a move, but her sword glow had already spread as far as their eyes could see.

Her intense internal energy came down like a river of swords.

Brahma was nothing but some small fry in the middle of the river.

"Friend, let's talk!! There's no need for us to fight! Why don't we just split the treasure in the cave evenly between us?"

The wind swept fiercely as sword energy surged wildly through the air.

Even now, Brahma was still trying his utmost to salvage the situation.

However, Brahma did not pull back his attack while he pretended to make peace.

The moment Yu Yun executed her attack, Brahma was ready.

Brahma finally lost his cool and sternly cursed when he realized a fight was unavoidable, "Shameless bitch! Do you think I can't fight you because of these injuries? You are just a weak woman who will end up at under some man tonight, so how dare you speak so rudely to me? Today, I will beat you until you become ashes so that you will be incapable of even having a death anniversary in peace!"

Brahma had lost all his composure.

He was the leader of the Indian martial arts circle and made it to the Sky Ranking. Asking to make peace was already the most humble offer he could muster.

He didn't expect the woman to refuse to accept his suggestion.

She even ignored him and attacked!

Any ordinary man would have gotten mad, let alone Brahma, who was a leader in the Indian martial arts circle.

He had already decided to slaughter the woman, even if it meant getting injured gravely.

There was no way he would take a mere woman seriously!

Even if he was hurt, he had to see if this woman was truly that powerful.

Brahma jumped into the air angrily as energy swelled wildly in his sword.

Wind raged in all directions.

In a matter of seconds, Brahma hacked his sword several times.

Sword gleam radiated in all directions like a dancing dragon before it clashed with Yu Yun's attack violently.

CLANG!

Before long, the swords made contact.

The sound of metal clanging echoed throughout the atmosphere swiftly.

As far as the eye could see, the effect of their blows became visible.

Sword energy extended outwards in all directions like a typhoon.

The earth beneath their feet cracked completely as the entire island shook.

Countless trees fell as they exchanged blows. It was so powerful that huge waves even swelled in the lake in the distance.

"Heavens!"

"Is this the power of a supreme grandmaster?"

"Is this the true prowess of those at the pinnacle of the martial arts world?"

"They are capable of causing an earthquake with even the slightest movement."

Chapter 1325 Brahma's Regret

"No wonder people say that supreme grandmasters hold such tactical importance for their countries."

"They sure are scary."

Mike Jones and the others watched from a distance with shock and admiration in their eyes as the battle of the century ensued.

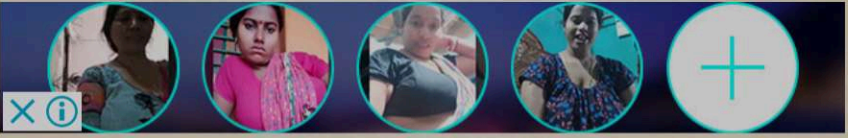

After all, most martial artists were incapable of encountering a single supreme grandmaster in their lives, let alone see them engage in battle.

However, such fights kept breaking out before them now. They merely happened to be here, but even they couldn't help exclaiming how thrilling it was to watch to their heart's content.

Surprisingly, this battle between two supreme grandmasters did not stay in deadlock for long.

After some brief exchanges, Brahma swiftly lost.

Yu Yun destroyed Brahma's powerful attacks with a single blow. In the end, she kicked him hard on the chest with a thud.

Brahma coughed blood and flew out like a broken kite.

However, Brahma was a supreme grandmaster.

After he took on the force of Yu Yun's kick, Brahma swiftly steadied himself the moment he landed on the ground. He was forced back a hundred steps and destroyed countless rocks and flora in the process until he finally stabilized himself.

PFFFTT!

He coughed blood yet again.

"Damn it. How can this woman be so strong?"

Brahma seemed annoyed that Yu Yun had injured him. He looked at Yu Yun as he spoke angrily with his face completely livid.

Brahma couldn't help feeling even more curious about Ye Fan amid his shock towards this woman's prowess.

Chapter 1325 Brahma's Regret

“Who on earth is he? He has incredible moves and also possesses such a rare physical technique. Now, a female supreme grandmaster even threw a fit because of him. Even the God of War probably can't compare to him in terms of background.”

Brahma frowned as he felt even more curious and wary of Ye Fan.

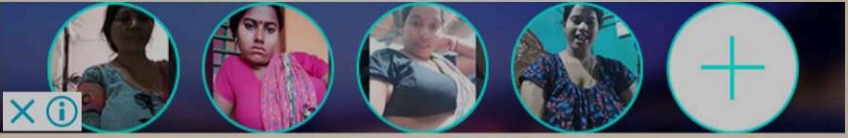

Although Brahma never fought Ye Qing-Tian before, he had been around for years, so everyone in the martial arts circle knew what he was capable of.

However, Brahma knew that even Ye Qing-Tian didn't possess such incredible moves, physical martial arts technique, or dated a supreme grandmaster, so he felt that Ye Qing-Tian couldn't compare to Ye Fan's background.

Brahma couldn't help suddenly regretting his actions a little.

Perhaps Brahma should never have offended Ye Fan since he had no idea who he was.

“Now that things have come to this, it's too late to regret. I should focus on getting out of this sticky situation instead," thought Brahma in his head.

However, it was impossible for him to fight Yu Yun on his own.

Hence, he turned to look at Gaia, the Persian King.

"Gaia, how long are you going to stand and watch from the sidelines? Are you waiting for the woman to defeat us all?"

“Aren’t you going to fight? Where has the motivation you had when you stabbed the young man gone?” shouted Brahma sternly.

His bright and clear voice resonated loudly.

Brahma seemed to have loudly shouted so that everyone could hear him.

Including, the stunning young woman as she stood before him with a sword in hand.

“Damn you! What the fuck? How could you sabotage me like this?!”

Gaia instantly looked angry when he heard what Brahma suggested.

Gaia’s eyes twitched, and he was dying to kick Brahma to death even.

He had stayed out of the fight in the hope of not getting involved.

After all, Gaia could sense how remarkably strong this woman was the moment she turned up.

Gaia would probably do everything to avoid fighting her even when he was at the peak of his strength, let alone after Ye Fan had kicked him until he was half-dead.

His condition was no better than Brahma's.

As the saying went, wise men would always minimize risks.

Since Gaia was incapable of surpassing the woman, he decided to hide and avoid fighting her at all costs.

That way, he could steer clear of danger.

Hence, he couldn't help cursing Brahma for his actions of dragging him under when Brahma was in trouble.

Judging from how intimate Yu Yun and Ye Fan were, anyone with brains could see that they were lovers.

This woman had lost her mind after her boyfriend was almost beaten to death.

Yu Yun wanted to kill Brahma as she thought Brahma was responsible for Ye Fan's injuries.

With a word, Brahma had instantly pushed

Gaia to the teeth of the storm by exposing how he participated in stabbing Ye Fan from behind.

Sure enough, a pair of cold, expressionless eyes looked over as Gaia cursed Brahma.

“It seems you took part in hurting him too.”

Her calm voice was filled with so much fury that it left everyone cold.

Gaia was instantly startled. He hurriedly explained, “It’s a mistake. This is all a misunderstanding. Don’t believe what Brahma says. He is deliberately framing me to manipulate you into taking care of me. I am innocent. Since I have no vendetta against your boyfriend, why should I stab him? I’m just a passerby. Don’t let me interrupt you. I will be out of your hair in no time.”

If anyone should die at her blade, it should be Brahma.

Gaia dissociated himself from Brahma completely in order to save himself.

He pushed all the blame on Brahma.

The moment Gaia finished his words, he dragged his injured body and turned to leave quickly.

SWISH!

Sword glow suddenly flashed before Gaia as he left.

Sword energy swiftly swept past Gaia and struck the ground beneath him.

Gaia heard the ground shattering with a boom.

If not for his fear of Yu Yun’s abilities, Gaia would probably fight her by now for such actions.

However, Yu Yun didn’t buy Gaia’s feeble explanation at all and just ignored everything Gaia said.

The only reply he received was the menacing glow of Yu Yun’s sword and her intense desire to kill him.

“Oh god! Are you insane? Are you a dog or something? Do you have to bite everyone who crosses your path?”

After continuously avoiding Yu Yun’s sword energy, Gaia’s patience finally wore thin.

Also, I am certain that we can take care of her just like we dealt with the young man if we execute well-coordinated moves.”

Brahma laughed as he gloated when he witnessed Gaia’s predicament.

After all, it was good news for him if the woman wanted to attack Gaia too.

In that case, he wouldn't have to fight alone.

“Shut your gap! What are you standing around for? Get over here and help me.”

After all, it was hard to accept the fact that he became a supreme grandmaster in his 20s.

To begin with, the youngest supreme grandmaster only made it when he was 30 years old.

Ye Fan had broken the record by ten years.

It felt as though the 100 meter world record of slightly over nine seconds was suddenly broken one day and became five seconds.

Would anyone believe it?

No way!

People would probably suspect that the watch was broken, or that the athlete had used technology to achieve this number, or that someone was lying about the timing.

In any case, no one would believe that someone was capable of breaking the record overwhelmingly with his talent.

Just like how everyone suspected Ye Fan practiced dark arts in order to make his ability soar quickly for a short time.

Out of the countless martial arts techniques out there, many of them were demonic techniques.

These demonic techniques were typically extremely powerful. They were capable of making its practitioner be far stronger than their true ability.

However, using them came with huge consequences.

Hence, such techniques were usually banned among the martial arts circles.

could defeat him and Gaia easily, so she must be top ten in the ranking. Most likely top three or five. Since our sect leader is the only woman who made it to top five, I think that woman earlier was probably the sect leader. What do you think? Do you think that makes sense?"

The man chuckled in the hope that Mike Jones would commend him.

The moment he finished his sentence, Mike Jones slapped his face angrily.

"Nonsense! Our sect leader is noble and dignified, while Ye Fan is a nobody. Does someone as insignificant as him deserve her help? Also, the sect leader is single, pure, and refined, so no man in the world is good enough for her. If she were the sect leader, would she have lowered herself and disregard everything and be so friendly to a man? You might think you're smart, but you are showing disrespect to the sect leader and insulting her in reality. If the elders caught wind of this, you would die a terrible death," scolded Mike Jones sternly as his cold words echoed nonstop.

His subordinate was so terrified that his

He immediately knelt on the ground and kowtowed as he apologized in panic, “Y-young Master, I-I was wrong. I shouldn't have said that. I will never speak of that again. Please forgive me...”

The man kept kowtowing, and tears even trickled from his eyes, perhaps out of fear.

“Enough. This is a lesson for you. Remember this well from now on and watch what you say.”

Mike Jones didn't punish him. Instead, he told his subordinate to leave after scolding him.

Mike Jones and the others left as well.

However, Angie simply refused to budge and kept demanding that they look for Ye Fan.

“Angie, stop being willful. So what if you manage to find him? Considering how weak you are, how can you help? Other than being a burden, you are absolutely useless. If you really want to do him good, then come home with me,” said Mike Jones sternly.

Angie was instantly stunned to hear this.

She stood where she was in shock quietly for a long time.

Her eyes were filled with sadness.

Her older brother was right. Even if she managed to find Ye Fan, there was nothing she could do for him.

She neither had medical or martial arts skills.

When Ye Fan’s life was hanging by a thread, she could only cry powerlessly.

“Angie, are you okay? I was just spouting my mouth off and didn't mean to hurt you,” comforted Mike Jones. He couldn't bear to see his little sister lowering her head and looking sad.

“Mike, you are right. Considering my abilities, there is nothing I can do even if we managed to find Fan. Let's go back.”

The young girl lowered her eyes. Her words were filled with sadness and disappointment.

She hated feeling powerless.

She felt emotional when she witnessed a woman turn the tables, save Ye Fan, and even taught Brahma and Gaia a lesson.

At that moment, a notion crossed Angie's mind.

She really wanted to be able to stand up for Ye Fan one day, just like the woman in the veil.

However, she was incapable of doing it now.

In the end, Angie didn't insist on searching for Ye Fan and went home with her older brother.

Before she left, Angie looked in the direction where Ye Fan was taken.

She turned to say to Mike Jones, “Mike, let’s go. I want to go home and learn martial arts. I want to learn how to kill.”

The young girl spoke with her words burning and a determined look in her eyes.

Her family used to protect her like a delicate flower.

However, she now had someone to protect.

Angie didn't want to be a burden anymore. She didn't want to powerlessly stand by and watch when the people she cared about met with danger.

Mike Jones was surprised to hear what his little sister said.

He couldn't believe the words that just came out of her mouth.

Mike Jones knew that his little sister hated martial arts.

All these years, he and his father often tried to make Angie learn martial arts.

However, she stubbornly refused to learn.

Mike Jones recalled that many years ago, his father hit her after she had driven away a grandmaster who had come to teach her martial arts.

He wanted to use brute force to make Angie do as he said.

Even after his father broke Angie's leg, she gritted her teeth and stubbornly refused to learn.

It was the first time his father ever hit Angie, and it was also the last time.

From then on, they stopped talking about getting Angie to practice martial arts.

Mike Jones was surprised to hear his little sister wanting to learn martial arts despite her disdain for it.

He didn't know whether he ought to be happy or worried.

Although it was a good thing for Angie to learn how to defend herself, was it a good idea for an innocent girl to get involved in the brutal martial arts world?

However, this was not the time to think about this.

The important thing was to leave the rainforest and meet up with Chu Qi-Tian and the others and report this to the sect.

Even a fool could tell something was going on when three supreme grandmasters had engaged in battle like that on the island.

However, Mike Jones was incapable of learning the truth for himself.

He would leave these matters to the sect elders instead.

Very quickly, Mike Jones and the others left.

The island reverted to peace.

Only the rubble and gullies in the earth made it clear that a major battle had erupted here.

silhouettes quietly appeared on the other end.

One of them looked so elegant and dignified that even the beauty of the sun and the moon couldn't compare to her.

However, the stunning woman's eyes were filled with sadness and worry.

She was none other than Yu Yun, who had just engaged in battle.

She was carrying Ye Fan in her arms as he breathed weakly.

Yu Yun didn't leave the island.

Instead, she took off with Ye Fan and found a good spot to hide.

After all, the island was surrounded by water and it made a good natural barrier.

Hence, it was the perfect place, be it for cultivation or recuperation.

After locating a cave, Yu Yun cautiously laid Ye Fan on the ground.

Yu Yun checked Ye Fan's injuries and finally discovered the gravity of his wounds.

He suffered from two penetrating injuries that almost hit his lungs.

Also, Brahma's electric attack had caused Ye Fan to suffer grave internal injuries.

Ye Fan's injuries were considered ghastly.

"In the past, I wanted to kill you. Is it worth suffering such serious injuries for the sake of someone as heartless as me?"

Yu Yun muttered to herself as her eyes unknowingly became red.

After parting ways outside the Chu residence, Yu Yun thought she would never see Ye Fan again.

She told herself to never let her heart be swayed by anybody ever again.

But fate always had a way of toying with humans.

Fate made her and Ye Fan cross paths once more in this manner.

All along, she had used all her energy only on martial arts.

But this young man had repeatedly crushed her defenses.

Yu Yun remembered her master telling her that if she ever encountered anyone who made her heart waver, she should kill him.

She had to sever her love!

If she wanted to achieve anything in martial arts, she had to stay focused and have no desire.

Or else, this person would end up becoming her greatest obstacle in martial arts.

The perfect opportunity to kill Ye Fan now presented itself to Yu Yun.

She didn't have to do a thing. All she had to

All these years, she had the power to kill and felt everyone was nothing but ants.

She had even killed a grandmaster in the Sky Ranking before.

However, she was incapable of killing the young man before her.

She only felt guilty and deeply touched by his actions.

In the end, Yu Yun stayed behind to tend to Ye Fan's injuries.

Yu Yun tore a few strips of cloth from her skirt hem and ran to the lake to dip them in water before she started treating him. When she came back, she carefully wiped all the

The voice sounded soft and faint and was almost inaudible.

However, Yu Yun was very close to Ye Fan, so she was able to hear it clearly.

Yu Yun ran towards the lake and fetched Ye Fan some water.

But when she reached the lake, Yu Yun realized that she didn't have any vessel to fill the water with.

Yu Yun had no choice but to use her hands to carry water to Ye Fan.

Unfortunately, all the water had seeped through her hands by the time she arrived back at the cave. She could only manage to give Ye Fan a few drops of water.

“Oh no. This place is so far from the lake. It's impossible for me to bring any water with my hands.”

Yu Yun was somewhat annoyed and anxious.

Ye Fan's weak voice could be heard.

This time, Ye Fan's voice became slightly softer, and there was an agonizing look on his face.

Yu Yun gently touched Ye Fan's forehead and found it burning hot. He seemed to be having a fever.

Although Yu Yun hadn't fallen ill in a long time, she had common sense.

She knew that people who had fever needed lots of water.

“Oh no! What should I do now? Should I bring you to the lake? But can you withstand all the traveling in your condition?”

"No, I can't do that."

Yu Yun shook her head as she muttered with an unusual blush on her face.

Her concern for Ye Fan overwhelmed her rationality in the end.

"Forget it. Let me be willful just this once. No one's around anyway."

After being in a dilemma for a few moments, Yu Yun gritted her teeth and left the cave swiftly.

However, she continued to feel shy and awkward.

She felt like a pure innocent young woman secretly kissing the man she loved.

"Sigh. Just do it. It's not like he can see what I'm doing anyway."

Yu Yun shyly closed her eyes and mustered her courage.

Even after Yu Yun was done giving Ye Fan water, her face remained red.

Perhaps out of panic or shyness, her chest couldn't help heaving.

Heavens!

Yu Yun found it unbelievable that she had just fed Ye Fan water with her mouth.

Fortunately, no one was around to see it. Otherwise, Yu Yun's reputation would be done for.

“Impossible. Don't even think about it,” said Yu Yun furiously as she gritted her teeth.

"Yu Yun, I-I'm sorry...I ended up breaking my promise."

Perhaps he was really becoming delirious from the fever. Ye Fan had started spouting nonsense.

The battle had already ended, but he seemed mentally tortured by it.

Chapter 1333 Yu Yun's Anger

For some reason, Ye Fan's tongue suddenly moved just as Yu Yun felt thankful that he was unconscious.

Amid Yu Yun's shocked stares, his tongue intertwined with hers.

The moment Ye Fan's tongue touched Yu Yun's, her mind exploded. She was completely stunned, and her mind kept ringing.

Meanwhile, Yu Yun froze stiffly as the tingling sensation coursed through her body.

Her face was crimson while her chest palpitated.

Her beautiful face was filled with shock and shyness.

All these years, she stood at the pinnacle of power and was the subject of everyone's admiration and reverence. She was a renowned martial artist internationally.

However, Yu Yun had zero experience with the opposite sex, so she was no different from a young, innocent schoolgirl when it came to this sort of thing.

Chapter 1333 Yu Yun's Anger

And that was why Ye Fan's instinctive tonguing made Yu Yun panic and feel shy.

But while she was feeling frantic, she inexplicably felt somewhat thrilled and happy at the same time.

This was strange to Yu Yun.

Since she enjoyed a high status, very few things in the world could trigger any emotion in her.

Yu Yun recalled that the last time she felt happy was many years ago when she first became a supreme grandmaster.

So why was she suddenly feeling this way?

Was it because of him?

After going into a brief daze, Yu Yun swiftly composed herself.

Yu Yun immediately got up from Ye Fan. She even ran out of the cave in the hope of calming herself and didn't want to be close to Ye Fan.

A few minutes later, she came back out of concern for him.

She wasted no more time and started to treat Ye Fan's injuries.

Yu Yun never practiced medicine before, so all she could do was give Ye Fan her internal energy.

As for Ye Fan's physical wounds, she would have to wait for them to heal on their own.

She could only help this way.

Time passed gradually.

Two silhouettes sat quietly in the cave.

The soft glow of the moon scattered down from above and reflected off Yu Yun and Ye Fan.

It was already late at night.

Yu Yun was done treating Ye Fan.

She had given Ye Fan some internal energy. All that was left was for Ye Fan to regain consciousness.

Chapter 1333 Yu Yun's Anger

Ye Fan was still unconscious.

However, Ye Fan wasn't as weak as before, thanks to Yu Yun's internal energy. Now there was some color on Ye Fan's face, and his breathing sounded more stable.

But he was fast asleep.

His long eyelashes swayed in the wind.

Yu Yun sat next to him, just like how Ye Fan stood guard over her in the cave before this.

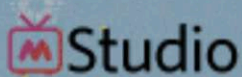

Now their roles were reversed, and she had to take care of him.

Yu Yun wanted to spend the time cultivating, but she couldn't stop herself from turning to look at the young man.

It was the first time Yu Yun scrutinized Ye Fan in such detail. She discovered how long his eyelashes were. They were even longer and better looking than a woman's.

moon, Yu Yun sat on the ground in her long dress with her hair scattered over her shoulders as she looked at Ye Fan and muttered to herself.

Outside, the weather was perfect, and the moon was lovely.

It was very quiet outside. It was so quiet that even the sound of birds and insects was audible.

Even Ye Fan's breathing could be heard.

Yu Yun didn't know why she adored this feeling.

The quiet atmosphere felt serene, and the serenity felt warm to her.

It wasn't Yu Yun's first time spending the night outside, but why didn't she feel so tranquil in the past?

Yu Yun couldn't wrap her mind around it, so she didn't waste time thinking about it.

She only wanted to quietly enjoy this peaceful night.

Chapter 1333 Yu Yun's Anger

She was keenly aware that she would never get to experience this again.

Yu Yun suddenly recalled how Ye Fan turned her down when she offered to let him join Chu Sect.

From the sound of it, Ye Fan seemed very hostile about Chu Sect.

“Perhaps he has some vendetta against Chu Sect.”

Yu Yun contemplated in her heart briefly before she shook her head.

“Probably not. Old Madam Chu treated him so well when he stayed at the old Chu residence. From the looks of it, he is probably close to the Chu family. Also, the Chu clan is one of the families that control Chu Sect and is Chu Sect’s founding family. Since he is close to them, he probably doesn't have any vendetta against them. So why was he unwilling to take up such a fantastic offer to join Chu Sect?”

Yu Yun frowned slightly. She couldn't wrap her mind around it.

Chapter 1333 Yu Yun's Anger

She decided to ask Ye Fan about it when he woke up.

Time gradually slipped by like water running through fingers.

Yu Yun kept watch over Ye Fan for a long time until she ended up falling asleep.

By the time she woke up, the sun was out.

“Ye Fan!”

The moment Yu Yun woke up, she shouted for Ye Fan anxiously.

She seemed worried that some accident might befall Ye Fan in her sleep.

The moment Yu Yun got up, a jacket slid to her feet.

She looked down and discovered it was Ye Fan's jacket.

“Has he woken up?”

Yu Yun was instantly shocked. She looked around, but he was nowhere in sight.

“Ye Fan! Ye Fan!”

Yu Yun couldn't help feeling worried and startled.

She seemed worried that Ye Fan would just leave.

“Stop shouting. I'm right here.”

Ye Fan's calm laughter rang by her ear.

Outside the cave, he was sitting next to the fire topless as he grilled the fish he had just caught from the river.

“Come over and have some.”

The fragrant, enticing scent of grilled fish wafted over as Ye Fan spoke.

Before they entered the rainforest, Angie had bought a whole pile of things.

Among them were some condiments used for cooking food.

Now they could finally be put to use.

Chapter 1333 Yu Yun's Anger

“What are you doing? How can you move about with such injuries? Don't you want to recover faster?” shouted Yu Yun as she glared at Ye Fan angrily.

Instead of feeling touched, Yu Yun couldn't help feeling furious when she caught Ye Fan fishing and cooking when he should have rested.

Ye Fan acted as though he hadn't heard anything and continued grilling fish despite how angry Yu Yun was. He even picked up one of the fish and started to eat it.

Yu Yun was so annoyed by Ye Fan's actions that her nose almost became contorted.

"I'm talking to you here! Didn't you hear me? Aren't you going to answer me?" shouted Yu Yun furiously to Ye Fan.

Ye Fan ate the fish as he smiled with satisfaction, "Wow, it tastes great. This island is truly a wonderful place. Ice spirit fruit can grow here, and even the fish in the lake are delicious. In the entire world, only the red-tailed carp with gold scales from the Yellow River in my hometown can compare to it."

Ye Fan sighed with satisfaction and purposely spoke loudly as he ate the fish exaggeratedly like he was eating some delicacy, all in an effort to entice Yu Yun.

Ye Fan picked up another grilled fish and started to eat it as he spoke.

But before he managed to take a bite, a sweet scent wafted in the air. When Ye Fan looked up, the fish was now in Yu Yun's hands.

Ye Fan instantly shook his head and smiled.

He just knew that Yu Yun couldn't say no to good food.

Yu Yun seemed to detect Ye Fan's look. Out of pride, she sneered and said, "I saved your life, so it's only fair that you give me the fish."

"Sure, of course, it's all yours. I didn't say you can't have it, you didn't have to snatch it. Moreover, you have to fill your stomach before you continue treating my injuries, right?" Ye Fan smiled as he replied.

“But my cooking can't compare to my mother's. If you have the chance, you should go to Fenghai to try my mother's cooking. I promise that you will remember the taste for life.”

Yu Yun felt indignant.

Didn't Ye Fan understand why she wanted him to join Chu Sect?

She was doing it for the sake of his future in the martial arts world.

After all, Chu Sect was the most powerful martial arts sect in the world.

Also, they were capable of standing on their own two feet.

Back in the day, Chu Sect single-handedly defeated all the other martial artists in the world.

Chu Sect wasn't powerful solely because they had the most number of supreme grandmasters. They also possessed the best system for cultivating talent, plenty of techniques, and the best teachers in the industry.

Ye Fan seemed to detect his loss of control. After calming himself down, he apologized to Yu Yun, "My bad, Yu Yun. I shouldn't have lost my temper. I have nothing against you. I just have a problem with Chu Sect."

"Chu Sect?" Yu Yun was instantly stunned. "What feud do you have with Chu Sect?"

Ye Fan shook his head.

"Strictly speaking, I have a vendetta with the Chu family and not Chu Sect. However, they are all on the same side. To a certain degree, aren't the Chu family's gains as good as Chu Sect's? If you offend any of the three families behind Chu Sect, it is as good as offending all of them. Don't ask me to join Chu Sect again. I know you are suggesting it for my own good, but even if I agree to do it, the Chu family won't allow it." Ye Fan spoke slowly in a calm and deep tone as though he was talking about something mundane.

Yu Yun was incapable of staying calm after hearing about this.

She even felt confused and puzzled.

"Are you saying that you had a conflict with Chu family in the past?" Yu Yun looked at Ye Fan as she continued asking, "But if you have a vendetta with Chu clan, why would Old Madam Chu take such good care of you?"

"Stop asking. This has nothing to do with you." Ye Fan suddenly stood up and turned his head, and refused to continue with this subject.

Yu Yun refused to give up and kept asking, "How could it have nothing to do with me? Ye Fan, you have to tell me what happened. What happened between you and Chu family? Maybe I can help mediate."

"Mediate? How are you going to mediate? The Chu family thinks it is better than the rest because they are the self-proclaimed de facto leader of Chu Sect. They can't be bothered with you even if you are someone who made it into the Sky Ranking. Stay out of it. I don't need your help."

Ye Fan sounded stiff and refused to discuss this.

Yu Yun continued to insist and say, "Who says I have no power? I'm the...I know someone who is a high ranking member of Chu Sect. If you can explain what happened, someone will help you. If the Chu family was in the wrong, I will get them to apologize to you. If you don't tell me anything, I can't help even if I wanted to.”

Yu Yun spoke very anxiously. She clearly cared a lot about this matter.

“Make them apologize?” Ye Fan instantly burst out laughing.

His laughter was filled with self-deprecation as though he had heard the funniest joke on earth.

“That's wishful thinking. I know them only too well. Nothing matters in their eyes except one's background. Moreover, outsiders might not understand. This is my grudge, so I have to settle it on my own. It is unnecessary for anyone else to help, and it's not like they can even if they wanted.”

Ye Fan laughed coldly. His words sounded intimidating and angry.

family conflict.

Regardless of how powerful Yu Yun was, Ye Fan's grudge was with Chu family, so it was for the Chu family to settle. How could an outsider like Yu Yun help in any way?

Back in the day, not even Old Madam Chu was capable of changing things, let alone Yu Yun.

"Do you really intend on making an enemy of the Chu family and Chu Sect?" Yu Yun looked at Ye Fan worriedly.

Ye Fan replied expressionlessly in a deep tone, "The Chu family did me injustice, so I must get back at them. It is up to Chu Sect to decide which side to take. If they remain neutral when I visit Chu family, then nothing will happen to them. If Chu Sect decides to help them, I won't be afraid of them either. Since the Chu family humiliated me, I will destroy them. If Chu Sect dares to provoke me, the same fate will befall them! I'm not afraid of anyone."

His deep resounding voice reverberated through the atmosphere.

“You...”

Yu Yun immediately felt her anxiety levels rise after hearing these words. She felt that Ye Fan was genuinely being too rash and was overestimating himself. Was it any different from him digging his own grave by challenging the Chu family and Chu Sect on his own?

“Ye Fan, you are such an idiot! What's the point of being so rash? You can't even beat me. What makes you think you can destroy Chu family and Chu Sect?” asked Yu Yun rhetorically in a fit.

Ye Fan trembled. His blood suddenly surged, and he coughed blood out.

He had clearly aggravated his wounds because he was too emotional.

Although Ye Fan had just recovered a little, his condition quickly took a turn for the worse.

Yu Yun's anger towards Ye Fan instantly disappeared when she saw the state he was in. She quickly walked up in front of him and made him sit down. She transferred internal energy to help protect his heart and stabilize his condition.

“You keep pushing yourself too far. Don't you know how to take care of yourself? I think even a wolf can finish you off now, never mind the Chu family. Let's go back to the cave now. Also, take this. After you finish absorbing it, you will probably recover completely.”

Yu Yun spoke as she retrieved an exquisite wooden box.

A warm, bright red spirit fruit came into Ye Fan's view when he opened the box.

“Hmm? Is this...” asked Ye Fan in shock as his face trembled the moment he sensed the intense spirit energy flowing from the box.

He felt that this fruit resembled the ice spirit fruit Yu Yun had consumed earlier.

The only physical difference was its color. The ice spirit fruit was blue, while this one was fiery red. Also, the previous spirit fruit contained the element of ice. Ye Fan clearly detected that this fruit had the element of fire instead.

“You managed to identify an ice spirit fruit. Why can’t you identify this?” Yu Yun glanced at Ye Fan angrily.

If Ye Fan hadn’t stood guard over her while she cultivated and ended up becoming severely injured, Yu Yun wouldn’t have offered the fruit.

Ye Fan trembled when he heard what Yu Yun said. He exclaimed, “Don’t tell me this is a fire spirit fruit?”

In reality, Ye Fan thought it was a fire spirit fruit the moment he saw it.

A fire spirit fruit was just like an ice spirit fruit. Both of them became such precious treasures after absorbing all the positive energies of the earth.

Both of them were equally precious.

They were in fact the same kind of spirit fruit.

The only difference between them was their elemental properties.

One of them had the element of ice, while the other had the element of fire.

However, both of them contained the same pure energy.

But the notion had crossed Ye Fan's mind only briefly.

After all, such millenary spirit fruit was simply too rare.

Ye Fan felt it was already quite a miracle for an ice spirit fruit to turn up, so it didn't dawn on him that the equally rare fire spirit fruit would appear too.

Judging from Yu Yun's reaction, Ye Fan was even more certain that the spirit fruit lying in Yu Yun's wooden box was none other than a millenary spirit fruit, also known as fire spirit fruit.

Yu Yun nodded to confirm his speculation.

Yu Yun had to admit that she was impressed by Ye Fan's knowledge.

To begin with, Yu Yun didn't even know about the existence of such fruits before she came for the expedition, let alone identify it right away like Ye Fan did.

She only found out about them after she returned to the sect and was informed by a respectable elder.

She personally came to the Amazon rainforest in the hunt for this fruit.

She had already absorbed one of them and used it to cultivate.

As for the other one, she planned on handing it over to the elders after she returned to the sect.

After all, the expedition had been organized by the elders.

It was the same elders who had told her where to find these fruits too.

So she had to bring something valuable back to keep them happy.

Secondly, considering how rare fire spirit fruit was, they could keep it as a sect treasure.

Sadly, it was too late for that.

Ye Fan had become gravely injured when he tried to protect her.

Also, he seemed to need it more.

In any case, Yu Yun decided to give this last fire spirit fruit to Ye Fan after much consideration so that she could repay him for standing guard over her outside the cave.

“These two spirit fruits were twins. Although they grew side by side, they ended up having completely polar properties. I only managed to find them thanks to my sect’s elders. Since I have already consumed the ice spirit fruit, you can have this," said Yu Yun expressionlessly as she handed the wooden box to Ye Fan.

"I can't believe they were twins. That's simply too rare. Even just one of them would be hard enough to find, but you ended up finding both of them."

Ye Fan was somewhat excited, and his face was filled with surprise.

He took the box from her before he looked down at the fruit.

The fruit was roughly the size of an egg, and a red glow radiated from it. Ye Fan could clearly sense a warm sensation surging from it right away.

"Haha! Good stuff! This is such good stuff!" Ye Fan was so excited that he forgot about his injury and simply couldn't stop laughing.

Ye Fan's cultivation had been stuck at a bottleneck for a long time. Now that he had this fire spirit fruit, he would definitely be able to make a breakthrough.

However, Ye Fan's joy didn't last long.

Instead, he handed the fire spirit fruit back to Yu Yun after he had composed himself.

“This is too precious for me to take. You should save it for yourself. That way, you have something to offer the sect after going back. Or else, the elders will question you for going back empty-handed.”

Ye Fan was always meticulous.

Although he needed it badly, the fire spirit fruit belonged to Yu Yun.

He couldn't let Yu Yun end up getting reprimanded by the sect elders because of him.

“It's fine. They will just complain a little and won't do anything to me. Anyway, they can't do much to me. Just take it. Don't worry about these things,” said Yu Yun coldly as she mimicked Ye Fan's tone.

She spoke in a stiff tone and didn't allow Ye Fan to turn her down.

Ye Fan stopped trying to refuse the fruit.

Ye Fan happily accepted the fire spirit fruit with a smile and said, “Thanks. I owe you one. I will try to return the favor.”

Ye Fan went back into the cave and sat cross-legged on the ground.

He didn't immediately consume the fire spirit fruit. Instead, he wanted to wait a few days and take the fire spirit fruit after he had recovered more.

After all, it wasn't easy to absorb a fire spirit fruit.

Danger and good fortune came hand in hand.

Even though Ye Fan's abilities would soar after taking the fruit, the process of absorbing it was dangerous.

The spirit fruit contained a high concentration of the element of fire, so Ye Fan had to suppress it and prevent it from erupting. He had to control the energy within the fruit and make it release the energy slowly before absorbing it.

Even though it sounded simple enough in theory, it was hard to execute.

Considering Ye Fan's physical condition, he was in no shape to do that.

Ye Fan continued to activate Invoke the Celestial Cloud to help condition his body for a few days.

Invoke the Celestial Cloud was the most powerful technique in Chu family. It was excellent at absorbing energy from one's natural surroundings and aided in self-recovery.

Ye Fan's internal injury gradually recovered as he used Invoke the Celestial Cloud.

Yu Yun could keenly sense the young man recovering at an alarming speed.

Even Yu Yun couldn't help feeling shocked by Ye Fan's shocking speed of recovery.

"What secrets does he have? He's definitely not just some youngster from the countryside."

Yu Yun couldn't help going into deep thought as she watched Ye Fan focus on cultivation.

He was a prodigy and had already mastered the Yang Dragon God Body, but even his cultivation technique was remarkable.

Yu Yun realized that the more she learned about Ye Fan, the less she could see through the man.

Yu Yun felt Ye Fan was filled with mystery, and she couldn't help wanting to go close to him and unravel them.

"He's pretty intriguing," Yu Yun contemplated as she shook her head and smiled.

A few people quietly appeared on the island while Ye Fan was recovering.

After they arrived on the island, they headed straight for the spot where Ye Fan and Brahma fought.

“God of War, this is the place where Ye Fan fought the Indra, Brahma.”

The man speaking was none other than Kong Ming, who had come to South America with Ye Fan.

Out of fear that they would get implicated by Ye Fan, the three of them ran off the moment Ye Fan’s battle with Brahma commenced. They reached out to War God Castle for help.

Kong Ming, Lv Hua, and Li Yan-Xi were caught by surprise when Ye Qing-Tian got involved because of Ye Fan.

Ye Qing-Tian looked them up after he arrived and headed straight to the place where the incident took place.

However, the battle had already ended by the time they reached.

All that was left was chaos and dried bloodstains.

For as far as their eyes could see, there was nothing but rubble within a one kilometer radius.

Even a segment of the hill had been shaved off from the battle.

Needless to say, a violent battle had just taken place here.

“God of War, it seems we are too late. The battle is already over, and Ye Fan is probably dead,” sighed Kong Ming pitifully as he spoke to Ye Qing-Tian.

But Ye Qing-Tian shook his head, “Let's look around first. Ye Fan is a powerful martial artist, so he won't die so easily. Also, even if he's dead, we have to find his corpse.”

Ye Qing-Tian's face looked moody. He couldn't accept Ye Fan's death.

After all, they had recently lost a prodigy back in Japan, so if Ye Fan perished as well, there would really be no hope for the future of Chinese martial arts.

The moment Lu Yan-Xi heard what Lv Hua said, she rolled her eyes before she looked at him in contempt.

She could tell that Lv Hua was just pretending to be sad in front of the God of War.

She reckoned Lv Hua would be beside himself with joy if Ye Fan had genuinely died.

However, Ye Qing-Tian disregarded him and said coldly, "Search the place carefully! Ye Fan couldn't have died so easily."

Ye Qing-Tian refused to give up.

He told Kong Ming and the others to search the vicinity carefully.

Even if the chances were slim, Ye Qing-Tian refused to believe that Ye Fan was gone.

“Brahma, you had better pray that Ye Fan is still alive. Or else, I, Ye Qing-Tian, will make you pay with your life even if it means destroying the Indian martial arts circles!”

Inside the rainforest, Ye Qing-Tian clenched his fists tightly with a cold, menacing look radiating from his eyes.

30 years ago, several Chinese martial arts talents perished at the hand of Brahma.

The tragedy caused the progress of Chinese martial arts to stagnate for ten years, so Ye Qing-Tian was delighted to discover Ye Fan.

Ye Qing-Tian had high hopes for Ye Fan and wanted to groom Ye Fan as his successor.

Hence, Ye Qing-Tian would certainly be furious if Ye Fan had been killed by Brahma.

On the other end of the island, Yu Yun watched over Ye Fan just like he did for her at the cave.

A gentle breeze suddenly swept in from outside the cave.

The damp scent of the lake from a distance could be detected in the breeze.

Yu Yun straightened her stray hair. Her inadvertent actions made her look mesmerizing.

Sadly, no one was here to admire this beauty since Ye Fan was cultivating with his eyes closed.

Even though Ye Fan couldn't see her, Yu Yun kept her eyes on him the entire time.

A gentle breeze made Ye Fan's fringe flutter slightly.

Yu Yun could vaguely see the Blue Spirit Jade hanging from Ye Fan's neck through his clothing.

"What's that?"

Yu Yun was stunned to see the jade.

This jade had given her protection and was an important thing to her.

She had given the jade to Ye Fan before they parted ways at the old Chu residence.

Yu Yun assumed that a frivolous man like Ye Fan would have lost it in no time.

It never crossed her mind that he had been wearing it all this time.

Yu Yun didn't know why she felt a sense of joy coursing through her when she found out Ye Fan had been wearing her jade all this time.

She unknowingly broke into a smile.

However, Ye Fan happened to come out of cultivation while Yu Yun was in a daze.

Ye Fan laughed shamelessly.

After cultivating for a few days, Ye Fan's injuries had become much better.

Although he couldn't overexert himself, he could speak and move freely.

Otherwise, he wouldn't have enough energy to tease the girl.

Yu Yun surprisingly didn't get angry when she heard the shameless things he said.

She kept looking at Ye Fan as she asked gently, "Have you been wearing that all this time?"

“Oh, you're talking about this?”

He smiled before he raised his head and looked at Yu Yun's chest a little strangely as he said, “Aren't you wearing what I gave you too?”

Yu Yun instantly knew what Ye Fan was talking about.

Ye Fan's lewd stare left Yu Yun's face instantly flushed.

The pleasant surprise she felt earlier disappeared into thin air. All that remained was embarrassment.

She really wanted to slap Ye Fan to death now.

The more Yu Yun thought about it, the harder she blushed.

She ended up stomping her feet as she scolded Ye Fan angrily.

Ye Fan chuckled. He disregarded Yu Yun's awkwardness and kept that shameless smile on his face.

She continued to sneer coldly, “Stop thinking so highly of yourself. I already threw out the stuff you gave me ages ago.”

“Oh, really?” Ye Fan smiled even more brightly.

After that, Ye Fan stopped teasing Yu Yun.

He stood up and stretched himself as he said, “I'm much better now. I can consume and refine the fire spirit fruit this afternoon. I'll have to trouble you to stand guard. Don't worry. I will make it worth your efforts. Once I make a breakthrough successfully, I will buy you a new set of underwear.”

“How dare you continue this topic!! Just die!!!”

Outside the cave, the two of them kept bickering.

Since Yu Yun wasn't good at expressing herself, she just kept threatening to kill Ye Fan.

Ye Fan was definitely the winner when it came to verbal arguments.

Of course, Yu Yun didn't really want to kill Ye Fan. She just wanted to let off some steam for the embarrassment she was suffering. Since she could not outtalk that creep, she could only threaten him with her actions.

Since he had a favor to ask, Ye Fan had to give her a treat.

Hence, he wanted to use food to buy her over.

"Slow down. It's all for you. You can eat this while you're watching over me. I won't get in your way."

Ye Fan laughed flatteringly.

Ye Fan headed back to the cave and started working on the fire spirit fruit.

If Ye Fan caught sight of her like this, he would probably make fun of her again.

Ye Fan started to refine and consume the fire spirit fruit over the next few days.

Yu Yun quietly guarded Ye Fan this time.

She initially thought everyone ought to have left the island after the last battle.

Yu Yun wasn't concerned with her safety. Instead, she was worried about Ye Fan.

Considering Yu Yun’s abilities, she had nothing to fear even if Brahma managed to gather all the supreme grandmasters in India to fight her.

However, she couldn't guarantee Ye Fan peace while he cultivated.

“I can't fight them now. It seems I have to find some way to make them leave.”

After Yu Yun came to a decision, she put on her veil and went out.

Even if he was dead, they had to see his corpse with their own eyes.

If he was reduced to dust from the lightning attack, they had to find his ashes.

Unless he saw it with his own eyes, Ye Qing-Tian refused to believe that Brahma had defeated Ye Fan.

“Even if Ye Fan is less experienced, he is still a supreme grandmaster, so even though Brahma might be able to defeat him, he won’t be able to kill him easily. Keep looking! They had spent so much time together, from China to South America, from Jianghai all the way to the Amazon rainforest. Kong Ming had plenty of opportunities to seek his advice, but he ended up passing all of them up.

Kong Ming utterly regretted his actions now.

“My greatest dream had been staring at me to my face all this time. It was all my fault for being blind. Now I have passed up the opportunity to talk to him.”

The more Kong Ming thought about it, the sadder he felt. In the end, he couldn't help slapping himself.

The three of them finally realized exactly who the young man was after despising him for so long.

After feeling guilty for a long time, Kong Ming raised his head and looked at Ye Qing-Tian, "God of War, you are right. If Ye Fan is a supreme grandmaster, Brahma probably can't kill him on his own. Grandmaster Ye is probably still alive, so we should keep looking for him."

Gaia had yet to show up when Kong Ming and the others fled, so they didn't know Ye Fan had actually fought not one but two supreme grandmasters.

"I agree. Let's keep searching," said Lu Yan-Xi as well.

However, just as they were about to continue their search on the island, a silhouette flashed by.

The silhouette moved so quickly that Kong Ming and the others were incapable of detecting it.

But Ye Qing-Tian certainly detected its presence and instantly frowned as he shouted, "Hmm? Who's there? Stop right there!”

Ye Qing-Tian jumped into the air and went chasing after the silhouette.

Very quickly, he disappeared out of sight.

“Elder Kong, what's going on?”

“Was someone here?”

Lv Hua and the others were stunned and clueless about what happened.

Kong Ming said deeply, “Someone probably was. Otherwise, why would God of War react so strongly? Come on. Let's go over and check it out.”

The three of them went chasing after them.

The chase went on for almost an entire day.

By the time Kong Ming and the others caught up with Ye Qing-Tian, they were already very far from the island.

“God of War, how did it go? Did you manage to catch up to him?” Kong Ming and the others were exhausted from the chase and gaped as they spoke.

Ye Qing-Tian shook his head, "He escaped."

"Huh?"

"He must be dreadfully powerful if he managed to escape you."

"Do you think it was Brahma?"

Kong Ming and the others were shocked by the news and asked worriedly.

Ye Qing-Tian went quiet with a sullen look in his eyes. No one knew what he was contemplating.

"God of War, what should we do now? Are you going to keep looking for Grandmaster Ye?" Kong Ming and the others asked after a brief silence.

Kong Ming and the others spoke about Ye Fan in a more respectful tone after they realized who he was.

“I think even if Ye Fan didn’t die, he probably isn’t on the island anymore. If it were me, I would leave right away as far as I can to avoid getting captured by Brahma and would try to go home,” interrupted Lv Hua suddenly.

Kong Ming nodded and felt that Lv Hua made sense.

But Ye Qing-Tian remained silent.

“Hey! Isn’t that Elder Kong? Didn’t you run off already? What are you still doing here?” A voice suddenly came laughing from behind.

Kong Ming turned to see a few foreign martial artists walking up towards them.

They were on their way to leave the island and head home.

Kong Ming was delighted to see them. He hurriedly went over and asked, “Perfect. I have a question for you. What happened in the end? Who won? Was it Brahma or the kid from China? Do you happen to know where he went? Did he get out alive?"

Kong Ming asked several questions in one go.

They candidly told them about the events that transpired that day.

"What? The Persian King, Gaia, came here too? And you say they attacked Ye Fan together? One of them even made a sneak attack?!"

Ye Qing-Tian was initially happy to hear that Ye Fan had the edge over Brahma.

However, Ye Qing-Tian's face became increasingly dark as the story went on.

Ye Qing-Tian's face turned ghastly pale when he heard about Gaia sneaking up on Ye Fan to attack him from behind.

He started to panic a little.

Previously, he was certain that Ye Fan had survived because he felt Brahma couldn't kill a grandmaster single-handedly.

But things had changed completely since Ye

Fan had to fend himself against two supreme grandmasters and not one.

Also, one of them even launched a sneak attack on Ye Fan.

In other words, Ye Fan was in dire straits.

Ye Qing-Tian could almost foresee his end.

“Uh huh. Brahma and Gaia were clearly in cahoots. One of them attacked him from the front while the other took Ye Fan from behind. I feel so bad for Ye Fan. He was such great talent but ended up getting maimed. Although a woman turned up at the last minute to take him away, I reckon he won't survive those injuries. He was surrounded by two masters and ended getting hit by a lightning attack and suffered two penetrating injuries. He ended up being in really bad shape. It's a tragedy, but don't be too sad, take it easy.”

The martial artists sighed as they talked about Ye Fan and felt sorry for the Chinese martial arts circles' loss.

make a name for himself.

Anyone who heard about what happened would feel sorry for their loss.

After consoling Kong Ming and the others, they shook their heads before they went on their way.

The Amazon rainforest was the biggest primeval forest on earth, so even if these martial artists wanted to walk out, it would probably take days.

Since they were dying to go home, they didn't want to waste any time. They had to hurry back to their countries and report back about the trip to South America.

Ye Qing-Tian was incapable of finding peace after they left.

His face had become as white as a sheet.

“Could Ye Fan really be dead?” murmured Ye Qing-Tian deeply in a solemn tone.

Kong Ming and the others stood quietly and didn't dare to say a word.

Ye Qing-Tian trembled. He inhaled deeply before he eventually said, "Let's go back home."

"God of War, are we giving up?" Lu Yan-Xi couldn't help feeling puzzled.

Where had all his determination gone?

Perhaps he thought there was no way Ye Fan could have survived.

"There's no need to go on searching. If Ye Fan was taken away by a supreme grandmaster, it is impossible to find them. After all, we don't even know who she is or where she could have taken him. The only thing we know is that she knows Ye Fan, so she was probably trying to save him. If he can survive the disaster, he will come home on his own. Let's go home and wait for him," Ye Qing-Tian spoke expressionlessly in a deep tone before he turned to leave quietly.

All that he left for Kong Ming and the others was his strong and solitary silhouette.

After some time, Kong Ming couldn't help letting out a sigh when he saw Ye Qing-Tian looking so sad and tired.

“For years, God of War has been the backbone of Chinese martial arts, so it must be tiring for him. He must be hoping that Ye Fan can one day work with him to help advance Chinese martial arts.”

In that instant, Kong Ming suddenly understood why Ye Qing-Tian wanted to search for Ye Fan so badly.

Only someone who truly cared about their country would be so saddened by the death of a prodigy.

“Let's go back too,” said Kong Ming.

In the end, Lv Hua and the others headed back to China too.

There were four of them when they arrived, but now only the three of them were leaving.

Meanwhile, Yu Yun had come back to the cave.

She went in to see Ye Fan the moment she came back.

After she was certain that everything was going smoothly for Ye Fan, Yu Yun finally felt relieved.

She was worried that some mishap might befall Ye Fan while she was out, but luckily everything went smoothly.

As for those intruders of the island, she had managed to lead them elsewhere.

Yu Yun could finally heave a sigh of relief and sat down close to Ye Fan.

Now, she just had to quietly wait for Ye Fan to finish refining and consuming the fruit.

“I hope he finishes quickly,” Yu Yun pondered in her heart.

She had been here for quite some time.

If she didn't go back, the sect was bound to send someone in search of her out of concern.

She certainly didn't want anyone to find out that she had helped watch over Ye Fan.

But that would be a story for some other time.

In any case, the people at the sect were probably not overly anxious yet.

“I wonder what grudge Ye Fan has against the Chu family. Why does he hate them so much that he is willing to be at odds with Chu Sect as well?”

Yu Yun recalled her conversation with Ye Fan about Chu Sect and a look of worry immediately surfaced on her face.

“After I leave the island, I should investigate this.”

Inside the cave, Ye Fan sat cross-legged on the ground.

He sat expressionlessly with energy surrounding him.

The energy slowly coursed into Ye Fan's body as he breathed, making his energy levels rise gradually.

Everything looked utterly peaceful, and no one would have known better about the torture Ye Fan was experiencing.

The same thing happened to Yu Yun when she consumed the ice spirit fruit. Fire spirit fruit contained almost the same amount of pure energy as ice spirit fruit, or maybe even more.

After all, the properties of fire tended to be more violent than ice, so fire energy was harder to tame.

It was like a wild horse. If anyone was able to tame one, your might would get redoubled. However, if you failed, you might end up dying under its hooves.

usually went hand in hand.

Despite the great risks involved, Ye Fan chose to consume the fire spirit fruit without any hesitation.

After all, if he wanted to make a breakthrough, he had to take risks!

Since Ye Fan had chosen this path, he had to accept the risks.

Of course, it wasn't that Ye Fan didn't have any confidence at all.

Ye Fan had used a method found in Book of Celestial Cloud to control the ice energy for Yu Yun, so he was confident of doing the same for the fire energy in his spirit fruit.

Moreover, Ye Fan would have a much better success rate after trying it out on Yu Yun.

Ye Fan felt rather confident about absorbing the fire spirit fruit.

Yu Yun was worried that Ye Fan was unable to consume the fire spirit fruit in his condition and might end up aggravating his injuries.

However, Yu Yun swiftly changed her mind. Since Ye Fan was such a prodigy, she shouldn't consider this from the perspective of normal cultivation.

He was capable of finding a way to let her safely absorb the ice spirit fruit, so it made sense that he could do the same for his fire spirit fruit.

That was why Yu Yun decided to give Ye Fan the fire spirit fruit and let him consume it immediately.

But in life, things often went against us.

On the third day, Yu Yun noticed that Ye Fan was in pain.

On the fourth day, his agony only intensified.

Ye Fan's steady breathing also started to sound haggard.

By the fifth day, things became even worse.

Perhaps out of pain, Ye Fan's face had shockingly started to contort.

His face was bright red and looked like he was on fire as beads of sweat trickled down him.

However, the sweat evaporated into thin air before they even landed.

Yu Yun started to panic.

At first, Yu Yun didn't look too worried about this pain Ye Fan was in. She thought it was normal.

After all, she had experienced the same thing when she refined the ice spirit fruit.

Yu Yun eventually noticed something amiss.

She couldn't help feeling worried, looking at the state Ye Fan was in.

“What is going on? Is something wrong?”

Yu Yun frowned. However, there was nothing she could do other than worry.

After all, Ye Fan was in the middle of cultivation, so Yu Yun didn't dare to disturb him.

Yu Yun felt frantic as his condition worsened.

She could only pray in her heart and hope that Ye Fan would safely survive this and quickly gain control of the fire energy.

Ye Fan might have been in great pain, but it was an even greater ordeal for Yu Yun.

“What now? What on earth should I do? Why didn't he tell me how I could help if something went wrong?”

Yu Yun had lost her cool and was frantic.

This was the first time Yu Yun had ever run into such a situation.

Before she came, she had read some relevant books in the sect library and learnt how to refine such spirit fruit.

All of them involved refining the energy from outside the body. Yu Yun had never heard about consuming the fruit first and refining it right away inside the martial artist's body.

Yu Yun thought she was going to die when Ye Fan told her to take the ice spirit fruit.

Fortunately, Ye Fan knew of a way to refine the fruit inside the body.

She ended up successfully refining the ice spirit fruit with Ye Fan's help.

Since Ye Fan was capable of helping her absorb her spirit fruit, he should have no problem doing the same for himself.

She didn't expect this to happen.

"This won't do. Even if he doesn't spiral into madness, he might die of thirst."

Yu Yun anxiously watched as steam rose from the young man.

All the fluid in Ye Fan's body was turning into vapor because of the fire spirit fruit.

If Ye Fan didn't stop to replenish his fluids, he might end up being a dry corpse.

Yu Yun ripped a strip of cloth from her clothing and went to the lakeside and dipped it into the water. After she went back to the cave, she wiped Ye Fan's burning hot crimson forehead with the damp cloth.

She did this firstly to help lower Ye Fan's temperature, secondly, to help replenish his fluid levels.

"This isn't working. The energy from the fire spirit fruit is simply too powerful. This is too inefficient and unable to solve the problem. I have to do something else to help him deal with the effects of the fire energy."

After going to the lake repeatedly, Yu Yun realized this was completely ineffective.

She decided to give up and come up with something else.

"The fire spirit fruit contains the element of fire while the ice spirit fruit contains the element of ice. That means that my internal energy should be able to help suppress fire energy."

Very quickly, a notion crossed Yu Yun's mind. She instantly considered using her internal energy to help Ye Fan control the fire inside him.

"If I channeled internal energy right into Ye Fan, would it clash with his? Would it make him spiral into madness?"

Yu Yun was in a dilemma.

It was taboo to disturb a martial artist during cultivation.

Yu Yun was genuinely concerned that she might end up doing Ye Fan more harm than good.

She spent an entire night worrying about this.

On the sixth day, Ye Fan continued to deteriorate.

His skin was like hot iron and almost as red as blood.

Also, the hot violent energy was coursing through his body wildly.

Ye Fan's breathing became even more rapid and seemed like he was on the brink of collapse.

Ye Fan's condition became so critical that Yu Yun brushed aside her previous concern.

She ran over and placed both palms on Ye Fan's back.

She channeled internal energy from her core into Ye Fan without hesitation.

As time progressed, it became clear that her previous concerns were redundant.

The internal energy she channeled into Ye Fan was devoured by the immense energy from the fire spirit fruit before it even reached his core.

Since Yu Yun had absorbed ice spirit fruit, her internal energy now contained the element of ice, so she was able to suppress the damage the fire spirit fruit was doing.

After a long time, Yu Yun successfully suppressed the violent fire energy within Ye Fan.

Everything had returned to normal.

However, Ye Fan didn't wake up. Even though she had suppressed the fire energy, he was unable to absorb it.

Ye Fan still had to carry on with his cultivation process.

Under such circumstances, Yu Yun didn't dare to stop channeling internal energy into him.

She had to keep doing this to suppress the violent fire energy within him.

It was like using water to put out flames. She couldn't stop pouring water unless the fire stopped.

Yu Yun had to use the iciness inside her to control the fire within Ye Fan to a certain degree.

Ye Fan's energy levels gradually increased as he refined the fire spirit fruit.

In comparison, Yu Yun's energy level was significantly decreased after using so much internal energy on Ye Fan.

Even though she was a supreme grandmaster, there was a limit to her power.

On the ninth day, Yu Yun was finally sapped, but the fire energy inside Ye Fan remained as strong as ever.

From the looks of it, Yu Yun couldn't go on helping Ye Fan.

"I have to come up with some other way to fix this."

Her face was pale because she was completely sapped, and her forehead was covered with cold sweat while her sight was blurry.

She was clearly at her limit, and there was already no more internal energy left inside her.

She knew that if she didn't come up with something good, the same thing would happen to Ye Fan after she stopped channeling energy into him. In the end, he would burn to death.

“Oh wait, I can use the Yin Dragon God Body. It is capable of suppressing fire as well. if I activate it, energy will be released from my body, and I can use it to deal with the fiery energies in the spirit fruit.”

The moment Yu Yun came up with the plan, she wasted no time.

She swiftly undressed and used whatever internal energy she had left to activate Yin Dragon God Body.

Dragon God Body was a Joint Cultivation Technique, so Yin and Yang had to come together.

The Yang Dragon God Body that Ye Fan mastered used Yang energy.

The Yin Dragon God Body that Yu Yun mastered used Yin energy.

Since it was a physical martial arts technique, physical contact was needed for Yin and Yang to blend.

The larger the surface area of contact, the greater the effect. That way, she could help suppress the fire within Ye Fan.

In that instant, Yu Yun started to panic.

“Oh no! This is bad!”

She finally realized it was stupid of her to activate her Yin Dragon God Body because it would trigger his Yang Dragon God Body.

Chapter 1344 Encountering an Old Friend

Ye Fan finally stopped thinking about it.

He turned to look at the cave behind him and the place where they ate grilled fish. He seemed to recall every moment he spent with Yu Yun here and couldn't help laughing.

“Although she always looks cold, she is actually very cute.”

Ye Fan composed himself and stood up to head towards the next unknown ‘regret’ in his life.

But before he could leave the island, he suddenly stopped in his footsteps.

He stood in front of the lake.

There was a light breeze, and the lake was rippling gently.

The bright sunlight left the lake glimmering like precious stones.

There was luxuriant foliage behind it.

The cold wind left the trees rustling.

The atmosphere was serene.

Only a young man stood with his hands behind him.

A solitary figure was reflected in the cold water.

Ye Fan stood by the lake for a long time.

His striking face became solemn.

His dark eyes looked into the distance.

Finally, Ye Fan's voice broke the silence first.

"My friend, why don't you show yourself since you are here?"

His deep voice swept in all directions like a gentle breeze and echoed throughout the forest and lake.

But after a second had passed...

Two seconds...

Ten seconds passed, but everything remained quiet.

No one appeared.

Chapter 1344 Encountering an Old Friend

If Li Er was around, he would have felt that Ye Fan must have been mistaken.

They were in the wilderness in the middle of a lake and segregated from the rest of the world. All the treasures had already been taken, so no one else was going to come here.

However, Ye Fan continued to stand quietly.

His lean silhouette continued standing there like an erect spear.

He parted his lips and said deeply, "If you don't show yourself, I will leave."

HUUU!

The moment Ye Fan finished his sentence, raging wind swept through the air.

The cold wind sounded like the cries of warhorses as it swept in all directions.

The lake surged wildly.

Behind Ye Fan, the vast forest trembled madly in the raging wind.

A few silhouettes finally appeared quietly amid the wind.

They initially looked tiny and vague.

In a matter of moments, they swiftly approached Ye Fan and came into view.

In the end, five people dressed in black leapt out from the forest like ghosts and landed in front of Ye Fan.

The moment they appeared, they encircled Ye Fan in a crescent-shaped formation.

Threatening energies locked in on Ye Fan.

Their cold murderous aura came crashing down on Ye Fan like a mountain.

Indeed, the five of them were all as powerful as mountains.

Their energies surged like wild dragons!

Every single one of them was a grandmaster.

Five grandmasters surrounded Ye Fan now.

It was as good as having half the grandmasters of China attacking Ye Fan.

Ye Fan was unperturbed by their appearance.

He didn't even bother to look at them.

His deep eyes looked threatening and cold.

He stood looking ahead until the last figure finally came to Ye Fan's view.

It was a handsome young man.

In terms of both his aura and image, the young man was like a rockstar.

Ye Fan was certain that if he joined the entertainment industry, he would transform into a popular idol overnight with legions of female fans behind him.

However, Ye Fan didn't look at all surprised to see him.

Ye Fan continued to stand with his hands behind him with a calm smile on his face.

“My dear cousin, I didn't think we would end up meeting like this after parting ways all those years ago.” The young man laughed gently as his calm voice quietly rang.

No one knew what emotion filled those words.

“Qi-Tian, I believe that's the first time you ever regarded me as your cousin,” replied Ye Fan calmly as he laughed and looked at the young man dressed smartly in a suit.

The young man was none other Chu Qi-Tian, who spent years trying to assassinate Ye Fan.

For ten years and almost 4,000 days.

The two of them finally met once more.

Ye Fan initially thought he would feel furious and murderous after seeing the man who brought him so much suffering for ten years.

Ye Fan realized that he felt surprisingly calm when the moment finally arrived.

It felt as though the man standing before him wasn't his mortal enemy but an old friend.

Chu Qi-Tian shook his head. "Uh huh. All these years, that was the first time I called you my cousin, but that doesn't mean a bastard son of a farmer woman is fit to be my cousin. Today, I am acknowledging that fact out of pity. I want you to have a proud moment before you die. Even if you die today, you should have no regret."

"Honestly, you've surprised me. You are the toughest opponent I've ever met. For ten years, I kept sending people to kill you. You were a tiny ant that could be crushed by anyone, but you shockingly ended up being so powerful. You single-handedly destroyed the Japanese martial arts circle and even escaped my father's plot. Chu Tian-Fan, oh Chu Tian-Fan, I wonder why you end up so lucky all the time?"

"But it ends now! I won't give you the chance to escape today!"

Chu Qi-Tian's expression turned icy cold as he thought through the past and clenched his fists tightly.

He looked at Ye Fan menacingly.

Chapter 1345 It Ends Now

It had been too long. Ye Fan had been making trouble for him for too long.

Now it was time for this to end.

“It ends now?” Ye Fan softly laughed as he looked up at his cousin with his calm words ringing in the air.

“Qi-Tian, those are the same words I have for you. It’s been so many years, so it is indeed time for us to settle this feud. I thought this would only happen when I storm the Chu family, but there’s no point in waiting now. Since you have already come to me on your own, it would save me the trouble of going to the Chu house. I will cut off your head today in the name of all the things I suffered for ten years and settle this score once and for all!”

No one could understand how Ye Fan felt now.

For ten years, the man before him tried to kill him.

Ye Fan had been repeatedly cornered and almost died in the process.

No one knew how Ye Fan managed to survive the relentless persecution.

No one knew about the price Ye Fan had to pay to survive this onslaught.

Ye Fan couldn't forget that rainy night when his mother held a knife with both hands to protect him from an assassin.

Ye Fan couldn't forget the night in the villa when Tong Shan suffered 72 fatal injuries.

He had gone through so much.

Ye Fan had already lost count of his suffering and pain all these years.

The so-called cousin of his was to blame for everything!

Chu Qi-Tian instantly burst out laughing.

He laughed arrogantly with nothing but contempt for Ye Fan.

“Chu Tian-Fan, now that things have come to this, why are you acting so foolishly still? You still want to kill me? Chop my head off? How are you going to do that? How could you possibly do that while you are gravely injured?” asked Chu Qi-Tian rhetorically in an arrogant tone.

Then again, you should count yourself lucky that a supreme grandmaster was around to save you once. Why would she help you a second time? Prepare to die! You are badly injured. How can you survive the attack of five grandmasters now?"

Chu Qi-Tian smiled smugly and looked at Ye Fan like he was already a dead body.

After Elder Keith died at Ye Fan's hands, Chu Qi-Tian promptly got in touch with the Chu Sect elders to send martial artists to annihilate Ye Fan.

Chu Qi-Tian claimed that he wanted these men to seek revenge for Elder Keith.

After all, Ye Fan was capable of challenging the Japanese martial arts circles singlehandedly. Unless Chu Qi-Tian wanted to court death, he would never send such a team to attack Ye Fan.

But later on, Mike Jones came back from the island to tell Chu Qi-Tian that two supreme grandmasters critically injured Ye Fan.

To begin with, even when they pitted themselves against a supreme grandmaster in the past, they didn't feel as powerless as they did now.

In other words, the young man before them was far superior compared to a supreme grandmaster in terms of defense.

“Fight! Hurry up and fight! What are you standing around for? He is critically injured and completely spent, so you have nothing to fear. I order you to keep fighting! Kill him with one fell swoop!” Chu Qi-Tian rushed them anxiously from behind while the five highly skilled Chu Sect martial artists reeled in shock.

“Why wait? Go on and kill him! He can't keep fighting you much longer. This is just his last ditch attempt!” shouted Chu Qi-Tian.

However, the Chu Sect martial artists were no idiots.

They keenly sensed that Ye Fan was neither gravely injured nor spent, so this time, they completely ignored Chu Qi-Tian's orders.

The leader looked angry and scolded Chu Qi-Tian, "Kill him? Kill my ass! He was standing still, and even then, we couldn't do anything about him. How can we beat him? Do you want us to die?"

The leader told his peers behind him, "Something is up with this kid. Let's back off for now and regroup later."

"Sure!"

"We can regroup when we're ready."

The other four fighters quickly chimed in.

Since they had failed to hurt Ye Fan, the Chu Sect fighters wanted to retreat, so they quickly took off.

"Don't you think it's too late for you to leave?" Ye Fan's cold laughter quietly echoed through the air like a death knell.

Everyone quickly turned to look at him.

He was standing a hundred meters away from them just moments ago, but was now in front of them without them realizing it at all.

Gold light radiated from him amid a dragon's roar.

Ye Fan curled his fingers, and energy gathered wildly on his hand.

He was now like a fully drawn back bow and ready to attack with all the energy surging towards his palm.

Internal energy instantly surged towards them as Ye Fan punched them brutally.

“Let me warm up a little. Let's start with you,” his calm voice quietly rang in the air.

It sounded as though Ye Fan was speaking right into his ear, so Ye Fan must be standing very close to him.

The instant he heard Ye Fan's voice, the man almost pissed in his pants.

Ye Fan's fist landed before he could finish shouting.

His steel-like fist came crashing down with unstoppable force on the Black Guardian.

The sound of ribs snapping came with one blow as Ye Fan's fist pierced right through his chest.

Vibrantly colored blood and broken bones scattered through the air as the man died instantly.

His grievously injured body fell from the sky like a falling leaf.

He convulsed a few times before he went completely quiet.

"You asshole! How dare you kill him? I'm going to bloody kill you!"

Since they knew it was too late to escape, they decided to stop running.

One of them instantly turned around and cursed Ye Fan as he attacked him.

"Flying Wolf Kick!"

The man yelled before he swiftly executed a whip kick in midair.

Its unstoppable force caused a raging wind to sweep in all directions.

The wind was so strong it sent leaves twirling in the air.

"Do you want to use leg technique now? Sure, why not?"

Ye Fan shook his head as he smiled before he too, sent a whip kick in his opponent's direction.

However, the force of his kick was far stronger thanks to Dragon God Body.

His leg was shattered from the waist down.

Blood trickled down his leg as his agonizing screams echoed through the atmosphere.

The man came crashing down on the ground and hugged his right leg as he rolled around and howled.

He looked so cold and distant that it felt as though these people weren't grandmasters but ants.

"The third one."

Ye Fan's deep voice echoed before he jumped into the air.

Gold light radiated from Ye Fan as a gold dragon glowed on his back.

His Dragon God Body was in full force as Ye Fan threw a punch.

Ye Fan's speed was incredibly quick. The other party didn't have time to react at all. Before he knew it, Ye Fan's palm had already hit the Chu Sect fighter on the face.

A low blast filled the air.

It was soon followed by a terrible howl of pain.

Half the man's face sank in before everyone's eyes.

Fresh blood and teeth sprayed everywhere.

His entire head had been crushed on one side from the impact of this palm attack.

After that, he crashed heavily to the ground.

Ye Fan's vicious methods had truly shocked everyone.

But when the last two saw the tragedy that befell their brothers, any rational thought remaining was swallowed up by fury and hatred in an instant.

"The fourth one!" His low words sounded like the call of the grim reaper as they rang out next to the ears of Ye Fan's next victim.

Chu Qi-Tian watched as the highly skilled Chu Sect martial artist buckled immediately after Ye Fan's leg struck him.

He burst like a balloon upon impact.

“How...how...how is this possible?” Chu Qi-Tian was too stunned for words when he saw this happen.

His eyes widened as he looked at the scene in front of him with disbelief.

These five men were all grandmasters.

Everyone in the martial arts circle knew that while it might be easy to defeat a grandmaster, it was almost impossible to kill one.

Even a supreme grandmaster might not be able to kill off a grandmaster this easily.

But to Chu Qi-Tian's horror, this rule that had stood fast all these years didn't seem to hold any water when it came to Ye Fan.

In just a few seconds, four grandmasters were either dead or as good as dead.

None of them managed to survive even one move from Ye Fan.

The fourth one had even exploded into bits

It was as though Ye Fan wasn't faced with grandmasters who could lord it over thousands of others. These supposedly powerful grandmasters seemed more like a bunch of ceramic bowls and plates.

This was no fight. This was just a one sided massacre.

Ye Fan had defeated his opponents so easily and so powerfully.

"This...this is not possible! How is he...how is he still so strong? Wasn't he severely injured and on the brink of death? Wasn't he about to die just a few days ago? He couldn't have recovered this quickly. That's impossible, that's impossible!" roared Chu Qi-Tian in disbelief as he shook his head. His eyes were all red from watching the Chu Sect martial artists he brought fall one after another.

Qi-Tian's face.

Ye Fan wasn't injured and wasn't on the verge of dying at all.

He was still as powerful as he was before being injured and his strength hadn't been affected at all.

Chu Qi-Tian simply couldn't understand how Ye Fan's injuries could heal completely in such a short period of time.

It didn't make sense at all.

But of course, Chu Qi-Tian had no idea that Ye Fan's consumption and refining of the fire spirit fruit not only healed Ye Fan's injuries, but also advanced Ye Fan's level of martial arts.

Five grandmasters was nothing. Even if five supreme grandmasters were here, they might not be able to kill Ye Fan either.

So the men that Chu Qi-Tian had pinned all his hopes on were nothing but a pile of useless fellows to him.

They were destined to die horribly from the

But Ye Fan's killing spree wasn't done yet. After kicking the fourth man and causing him to explode, Ye Fan gathered his energy again and his aura became overwhelming once more.

His feet barely hit the floor as his skinny silhouette came close to the last man standing as quickly as an apparition.

After watching how his four companions ended up, this last one was really terrified now.

The thought of resisting didn't cross his mind at all. Terror filled his eyes as he quickly turned and ran.

But he knew that he wouldn't be able to escape Ye Fan.

Just as he had expected, Ye Fan appeared right in front of him within seconds.

Nobody could have understood how much this last Black Guardian hated Chu Qi-Tian.

They had all been fooled. That bloody Chu Qi-Tian had fooled them all.

"Chu Qi-Tian, you're a bastard!!" he roared hatefully and indignantly as he flew more than a hundred meters out after Ye Fan punched him.

His battered body finally landed in the lake below.

Rocks flew into the air and the waters struck the lakeside as a flurry of snow was stirred up from the impact.

Five highly skilled Chu Sect martial artists had been soundly defeated by Ye Fan.

Once the fifth man had gone down, the entire place fell silent.

Only the cold winds blew and the fallen leaves flew.

The waters in the lake undulated along with the wind.

A young man stood proudly with his hands folded behind his back as he stood in the rushing wind.

The water below him gushed and the clouds behind him kept changing its shape.

Aren’t you afraid of ruining the reputation of Chu Sect?” said Brahma to Chu Tian-Fan in a deep voice. He did not fight Ye Fan immediately. Instead, he looked around at the bloodied scene in front of him.

Chu Qi-Tian smiled awkwardly. “I was a little too careless this time, it’s really embarrassing on my part. But thankfully, I have the two of you to count on, so this was just an unfortunate accident, but nothing to worry about. Don’t worry, gentlemen. Chu Qi-Tian's plans had failed to take Ye Fan down.

So this time, Chu Qi-Tian drew up a better plan to fight Ye Fan. He decided to do a two-step approach.

His first step was to lead the five grandmasters from Chu Sect to surround and attack the heavily injured Ye Fan.

His second step was to get Brahma and Gaia to kill off Ye Fan when necessary in exchange for some treasures.

Initially, Chu Qi-Tian didn't think Ye Fan would be difficult to defeat since he was so badly injured. Five grandmasters should have been more than enough to finish Ye Fan off. He didn't think he would need to reach the second step in his plan at all.

But now, Chu Qi-Tian was so relieved that he had put this second step in place. Otherwise, he was really going to die here at Ye Fan's hands.

Even though Yu Yun had severed one of his arms, he was still as arrogant and complacent as before.

The fight hadn't even begun, but he made it sound like Ye Fan was already dead.

"But of course," replied Chu Qi-Tian with a smile.

He was right after all. Even though Chu Qi-Tian had powerful backers, he wouldn't dare to cheat a supreme grandmaster.

The Chu family was definitely more powerful than a supreme grandmaster, but if a supreme grandmaster was really angry enough to attack them, then even a highly skilled martial arts family like the Chu family was still going to suffer terribly.

"Good." Brahma was relieved to hear Chu Qi-Tian's reassurance. He then turned around to look back at Ye Fan again.

"Punk, I didn't expect you to survive. You took so many stabs of my sword and Gaia pierced through your internal organs. You didn't just survive, but you're actually able to hop around so freely now. Even I am envious of your ability to heal so quickly," said Brahma with a mirthless smile. He was gritting his teeth as he said these words.

That threatening and hateful expression made him look like he couldn't wait to tear Ye Fan to pieces.

His arm had gone missing because of this fellow after all.

Then again, it had only been around two weeks since they last fought.

Ye Fan had been able to full recover in such a short time because of the magical powers the fire spirit fruit had.

Brahma didn’t have such a precious treasure on hand, so there was no way he would recover as quickly.

But compared to Ye Fan, Brahma’s injuries weren’t that severe either. The worst one was getting his arm cut off, and the rest were just superficial wounds. So even though he wasn’t at peak performance now, he was still at 70% of his usual strength.

hoping to reap the reward for this fight without putting in any effort.

But Gaia didn't seem to have heard any of Brahma's angry yelling.

He stood where he was, as immovable as a mountain!

"Shit! Is he deaf?!" Brahma was even angrier now.

But Brahma was instantly rooted to the spot when he watched how the energy levels within Gaia were slowly but surely rising.

"Wait, no. His energy levels are rising, and he's gathering all the natural energy from around him as well. Is this fellow accumulating all this for a major move?" Brahma immediately started smiling. "This old fellow is finally going to stop holding it in. He's finally going to unleash his best move."

Brahma smiled widely and his mood lifted.

He had fought several battles with Gaia and knew that Gaia possessed an extremely powerful martial arts technique that he hadn't displayed yet.

Brahma had been attacked by that technique before.

Even though he had been at his peak, this powerful move from Gaia made him run for his life.

That was how incredible this secret technique was.

But the more powerful the technique, the more energy it needed, and the more time it required to prepare. And because of that, Gaia seldom unleashed this particular move.

When he was being hunted down by Yu Yun, Gaia thought of using this ultimate move he had.

But Yu Yun was too strong for him, so there was no time for Gaia to prepare himself to unleash the move at all.

Gaia had no choice but to be chased and beaten down by Yu Yun without any chance of fighting back.

But this fight with Ye Fan was different.

Brahma had helped to stall for time when he fought Ye Fan, and that gave Gaia enough time to gather his energy.

The energies from the natural surroundings were also sucked in by Gaia, as if they had been commanded to do so, filling Gaia up with a tremendous amount of energy.

Gaia's presence seemed to soar into the sky.

The pressure he emanated was like a mountain that weighed a ton and was as deep as an abyss.

"Huh? This stance..." Ye Fan had noticed the change in Gaia as well.

But for some reason, he felt a strange sense of familiarity when he watched the way Gaia gathered his energy.

Gaia finally finished amassing all the energy he needed and his palms turned into tight fists. In that instant, an explosive power surged out from Gaia's fists and soared into the surroundings.

The gigantic shadow of a fist started to form below Gaia's fists.

Ye Fan was stunned when he saw this sight.

He looked rather surprised.

But he soon shook his head and smiled. Ye Fan finally understood why he felt that sense of familiarity earlier when he watched Gaia gather his energies together.

“Punk, you’re about to die but you still dare to smile? But I suppose you could die happily since I’m going to use my best technique to smite you. I learnt this technique from a great master, and after studying it for years, I have finally grasped 70% of it.”

“I would have reserved this move only for the top ten of the Sky Ranking, but I’ll have to use it on you today to test how powerful it really is!” cackled Gaia arrogantly as he stood beneath the blue skies.

His heavy body seemed to rise like the mountain peaks.

His aura sent the waters around him shaking.

The forest trembled and the lake undulated.

He hadn't even thrown a punch yet, but it already looked like a storm was brewing.

One could only imagine how impossibly powerful Gaia's ultimate move was going to be.

Even Chu Qi-Tian, who stood a few hundred meters away, couldn't help but take a few dozen steps backwards from the fear and trepidation he felt in his heart because of this overpowering aura. He was afraid that he might be implicated.

But Ye Fan didn't look fearful at all, and even had a strange smile on his face. "Is that so? I would like to see if you've truly reached 70% mastery of the technique," snorted Ye Fan.

"As you wish!"

Gaia sent an enormous amount of strength into the air with his fists.

His entire body flew up into the sky.

The fist that contained an unquantifiable amount of strength came crashing down towards Ye Fan.

“Mountain! Breaking! Landslide!!”

Chu Qi-Tian watched as a gigantic fist was so big that it blotted out the sun.

It came crashing down from the sky in one straight motion as it seemed completely unstoppable and indestructible.

When the fist came crashing down, it felt as though a huge rock had plummeted into the ground, causing the water to boil furiously.

The clouds tumbled by as the earth split.

More than a thousand tons of water rose from the impact and flooded the banks with a mighty roar.

“Oh my god! That’s incredible! That’s seriously incredible!” Chu Qi-Tian was over the moon when he saw that Gaia’s punch was able to cause such massive destruction.

But just when Chu Qi-Tian and the others were certain that Ye Fan would not be able to escape this attack, they were surprised to hear a loud blasting sound come from the young man.

It was just as hefty, just as pressurizing, and blotted the sun out as well.

“What the...how does this punk know the same technique?” Brahma’s eyes nearly fell out of their sockets when he saw the second shadow that looked almost the same as Gaia’s.

But Brahma soon discovered the difference between the two.

“No, they aren’t the same. The Chinese boy’s fists packs a much heavier punch. This should also be a very powerful boxing technique. I wonder how it’ll hold up against Gaia’s,” murmured Brahma softly to himself as his gaze darkened.

At the same time, Brahma quickly started gathering his energy together as well. He was going to make a surprise attack when necessary, just like what he did to Ye Fan the last time. He was going to catch Ye Fan off guard.

Meanwhile, Ye Fan’s attack had already collided into Gaia’s.

But the defeat that Gaia was waiting to see did not happen.

The energy from the attack sounded like Mars colliding with Earth.

A sudden wind blew wildly through the air after the two fists smashed into each other.

The earth split, the mountain rocks came rolling down, and the surface of the water was nearly overturned.

But this standstill didn't last long.

As Ye Fan's lips curled upwards slightly, the balance was broken.

That gigantic fist in the air that Gaia had been so proud of shattered into many pieces, like a vase falling to the floor.

Ye Fan's attack, on the other hand, did not lose its momentum at all.

It continued on its way to head straight for where Gaia was.

It took him a hundred meters to finally exhaust the energy that had come for him.

PFFT! After he had barely regained his balance, Gaia shuddered and threw up an entire mouthful of blood.

But Gaia wasn't in the mood to care about his injuries now.

After he spat out the blood in his mouth, he looked up with a start and stared at Ye Fan with shock in his eyes.

"Who are you? Who on earth are you? Why do you know Mountain Breaking Landslide as well? Tell me! Who are you?! Where did you secretly learn this technique from?!" roared Gaia at Ye Fan fiercely as he glared threateningly at the young man.

Even Brahma wouldn't have dared to fight him if he unleashed this move.

But to Gaia's shock and horror, the secret technique he had relied on to become world famous had just been displayed by someone else.

On top of that, the other party's Mountain Breaking Landslide had been perfected to a higher degree, and was more powerful than his own.

This was very difficult for Gaia to accept.

He felt like something that had belonged to him for many years had suddenly been snatched away.

on?" Brahma was also bewildered now.

It was impossible for two people to know the same technique unless they actually shared the same master.

Could Ye Fan and Gaia have possibly shared the same master?

While everyone was still trying to figure out what was happening, Ye Fan scoffed coldly. He looked at Gaia with his arms folded behind him.

"Who am I? I am someone you cannot afford to offend!"

When Gaia heard Ye Fan continue to say such boastful and pretentious words, he clenched his teeth and cursed angrily, "You little bastard, are you tired of living or what?!"

"You're the one who's tired of living!" roared Ye Fan in reply as he glared at Gaia coldly.

Ye Fan then pulled out a piece of jade and flung it at Gaia.

"This jade...could it be...No, no it can't be. It can't be him. It's impossible. You're just a young punk, how could you be him? You must have stolen this piece of jade from him! You must have!"

A thought seemed to have struck Gaia as his eyes were suddenly filled with horror and disbelief.

But he soon threw that thought out of his mind.

Ye Fan's reply was cold and angry. "If not? Who else would have the Dragon God Jade, and who else would know Mountain Breaking Landslide?" Ye Fan's angry and sinister voice rumbled like thunder.

Gaia was now in a panic.

A young man stood beneath the sky with an authoritative aura around him.

The dead bodies of grandmasters were strewn around him, and a supreme grandmaster was kneeling before him.

His body was bent over and his knees were in the ground.

The earth had split open when the Persian King, Gaia, had fallen to his knees. Spiderweb looking crack lines spread in all directions from his knees.

At the same time, the loud and ominous thud of his knees hitting the ground resonated loudly, sending tremors through everyone's hearts.

Chu Qi-Tian was flabbergasted at this scene. His eyes widened and he stared at all this in disbelief.

"P-Persian King! What are you doing? You're a supreme grandmaster and a martial artist on the Sky Ranking! Why are you kneeling to this lowly young fellow from the village? Are you nuts?!" Chu Qi-Tian yelled uncontrollably.

But there was no way Gaia could hear anything Brahma and Chu Qi-Tian were saying.

The only person he could see now was Ye Fan.

He no longer looked upon Ye Fan murderously or with disdain. He now looked at Ye Fan with reverence and fear.

Gaia had finally accepted the fact that Ye Fan was indeed that man.

There would have been no way he would have become a supreme grandmaster or entered the Sky Ranking.

That man had not only saved him, but also groomed him for greater things.

That was why that man had taken such an important position in Gaia's heart all these years.

He was grateful to this benefactor, but also believed, worshipped and followed him like his god and teacher.

But that was also why Gaia had been so surprised and disbelieving when he found out that the person he had revered so greatly turned out to be a young man who was so much younger than himself.

Thereafter, all communication went through Han.

Even his learning and training of Mountain Breaking Landslide was taught by Ye Fan remotely. The two never met physically again after that first time.

Besides, Ye Fan had so many people working for him, so even if they had seen each other once or twice, Ye Fan couldn't remember them all.

If Gaia had not displayed Mountain Breaking Landslide, Ye Fan wouldn't have recognized him.

This was a result of delegating the work to everyone else all the time.

Besides the few who came into frequent contact with Ye Fan, he wasn't able to recognize most of the people he had groomed over the past ten years even if they stood right in front of him.

"Dragon Master, I...I..." Gaia was frightened to pieces after finding out who Ye Fan really was and even his voice was trembling as he knelt with a terrified expression on his face.

Gaia yelled furiously at Brahma. He was ready to even kill him right now.

If not for Brahma, he wouldn't have offended Ye Fan. In fact, he wouldn't have appeared in this place at all.

Gaia had no intention to fight for any treasures within South America at all.

Brahma had been goading him into doing this from the beginning, and it was also Brahma's plan to surround and kill Ye Fan.

Basically, Gaia had Brahma to thank for his current predicament.

The more Gaia thought about it, the angrier he became. He pleaded with Ye Fan, "Dragon Master, you can punish me any way you want, and I will not complain. But I only ask that before you kill me, please let me finish off Brahma first! He's the asshole who made us end up trying to kill one another. And now, he's still not going to give up and still wants you dead."

"Dragon Master, please grant me permission to wipe out this evil man from India! Once I've beheaded him, I will use my own sword to end my life as an apology to you!”

Gaia fell prostrate on the ground again as he cupped his hands respectfully. His reverent words were filled with earnestness.

Perhaps it was guilt, or perhaps it was fear. This once powerful and mighty man had tears welling up in his bloodshot eyes.

When Ye Fan saw this, his angry and frosty expression became gentler.

He ended up just waving his hands and said coldly, “Never mind. Since you’re so sincere in repenting, I won’t pursue the matter of how you injured me before this. Go ahead and kill him, but you don’t have to kill yourself after that. Once you kill him, I will take it that you have made amends for your past mistakes.”

Gaia was so grateful for these words that he started to kowtow continuously.

“Thank you, Dragon Master, for your mercifulness! I don’t have anything else to offer besides my undying loyalty to you!” said Gaia in an emotional voice as tears nearly flowed down his cheeks.

Chapter 1357 A Terrifying Stare from Hell

Gaia wasn't being dramatic. He had really gotten in huge trouble this time.

In the last battle, he had ambushed Ye Fan at the most critical moment in his fight against Brahma, and stabbed a knife into Ye Fan's body.

In other words, he had very nearly killed his benefactor and teacher.

And today, Gaia had even tried to use the very technique that Ye Fan had painstakingly taught him to try to kill him.

This was truly an act of ungratefulness towards the person who had taught him and groomed him.

Nobody would have forgiven him for doing such a thing.

Gaia had already mentally prepared himself to die for these wicked deeds.

Regardless of whether Ye Fan was going to kill him quickly or skin him alive slowly, Gaia wasn't going to protest. He deserved to be treated this way.

Chapter 1357 A Terrifying Stare from Hell

He never thought that after getting reprimanded, Ye Fan would actually decide to let him off.

Ye Fan was a young man, but the magnanimity and chivalry he possessed was something that most people didn't have regardless of how old they were.

The respect that Gaia had for Ye Fan had increased tremendously.

At the same time, his desire to kill Brahma had increased by the same amount.

Gaia kowtowed several times to Ye Fan in gratitude.

After that, he got up with a start and flew into the air as he dashed towards Brahma.

"Brahma, I'm going to fuck you over today! You're going to die right here!" bellowed Gaia as he swung his mighty fists towards Brahma.

A fearsome punch howled loudly as it brushed right past Brahma.

The punch struck the earth and it split with a

A terrifying hole appeared in front of Brahma.

Brahma was so glad that he had dodged in time. If this punch had landed on himself, he would definitely be half dead by now.

“Shit! Gaia, are you nuts?! You’re serious about killing me?!” Brahma yelled furiously and glared ferociously at Gaia.

He thought that Gaia was pretending to surrender to Ye Fan and make a sneak attack when Ye Fan’s guard was down.

After so many years, Brahma knew how crafty this man could really be.

Gaia was a man who would stop at nothing to achieve what he wanted.

But now, Brahma realized that Gaia wasn’t pulling any stunt this time. He was really on Ye Fan’s side and had turned around to kill him instead.

“Shut up and die!” Gaia couldn’t be bothered to talk to Brahma. After the first attack failed, he unleashed his second attack.

Chapter 1357 A Terrifying Stare from Hell

This time, Brahma didn't dodge, but met Gaia's punch head on.

BOOM!

The impact from the punch shook the forest.

All the rocks and trees within a hundred meter radius came raining down from the impact of this punch and fell like snow.

These two supreme grandmasters were on the same team just minutes ago, but now, they were at each other's throats.

Their fists did not meet for too long and they quickly moved away from one another.

They had both been forced backwards from the sheer force of each other's strike and it took them a few hundred meters before they could steady themselves again.

But the second Gaia steadied himself, he charged at Brahma again. His feet practically flew across the forest ground and his aura rose like an imminent storm as he made a mad dash for Brahma once more.

Chapter 1357 A Terrifying Stare from Hell

“What the hell?! Gaia, why are you attacking me?! What’s going on? We’re in the same team, and that young punk is the enemy! Why are you coming at me? “How dare you! How dare you insult the Dragon Master! I’m going to hack you to pieces today!” Gaia ignored everything Brahma said and started attacking even more fiercely than before instead.

Brahma had no choice but to fight him head on.

But he simply couldn’t understand how things had become like this.

They were supposed to be attacking Ye Fan together, but now they were fighting each other to the death.

“Seriously, what on earth is going on?” Brahma had a bitter expression on his face and he looked like he was about to cry.

At the same time, Gaia’s attacks forced him

“Trash! All of you are trash! I got so many people to come here but none of you can handle a lowly brat from the countryside!”

Chu Qi-Tian was both angry and anxious, and he looked furious.

Chapter 1358 It's Over?

Chu Qi-Tian felt death creep closer to him with each step that Ye Fan took.

"I'm...I'm warning you, don't come any closer. I'm now the heir to the Chu family, with the 'Tian' generation character in my name, while my father is the head of the Chu family now. You can't kill me, you can't kill me! If you try anything, my father will lead all the best martial artists of the family to China and make sure that both you and your family burn in hell!"

Chu Qi-Tian was really panicking this time.

His face was pale as he continued to yell at Ye Fan while retreating in fear.

Eventually, he couldn't even keep his balance. His legs gave way and he plonked down on the ground.

But even after he landed on the ground, he continued to push against the ground and kept moving away from Ye Fan.

His eyes were wide and his voice was trembling. Terror and despair filled his gaze.

Chu Qi-Tian was now even more pathetic than a dying dog. The authoritativeness and charisma he once possessed was gone.

He never thought that he would lose so tragically.

He had actually made additional preparations this time round and thought that his plan was perfect.

But he still failed.

The five Chu Sect grandmasters were either dead or maimed.

Even the two supreme grandmasters that he viewed as his biggest trump card failed. One of them suddenly turned around and pledged his allegiance to Ye Fan instead.

Chu Qi-Tian still couldn't understand why things had turned out like this.

He was the heir to the Chu family. How did he end up as such a failure in front of this lowly village born youth?

But while Chu Qi-Tian was still in despair, Ye Fan continued to approach him. A strange smile slowly overtook his face.

“Chu Qi-Tian, keep your arrogance aside. You have no idea that all the things you are so proud of are not even worth mentioning to me. You have no idea what sort of person the child that the Chu family once chased out has become right now.” Ye Fan stood with his hands behind his back and a cold smile on his face

He looked down at Chu Qi-Tian at his feet, and his eyes were filled with an authority that could bore holes through anything.

A cold wind sent fallen leaves flying, and made Ye Fan's clothes flap loudly.

Ye Fan looked as powerful as a deity as he stood in the midst of the forest.

He finally raised an arm.

The forces of nature seemed to gather around Ye Fan's hand, as if he had commanded them to come to him.

It was as if he was pulling a bow back to its maximum, as the energy continued to accumulate.

“It's been ten years. Chu Qi-Tian, the feud between us cousins shall end here. As for your father, don't worry, he won't need to go all the way to China to look for me. Once I've finished you off, I'll head to the Chu house and settle my score with the Chu family!"

Immediately after Ye Fan finished saying these words, Ye Fan's raised palm came crashing down.

It resembled a butcher's knife coming down from the sky.

"No!! We're brothers! Don't kill me! Noooo!" came Chu Qi-Tian's despairing and terrified shriek.

He was even trying to bank on familial ties.

But it was useless.

Ye Fan's feud with the Chu family was going to be a bitter fight to the death right from the start.

But just when Chu Qi-Tian had given up all hope, a swooshing sound suddenly cut through the air from afar.

Ye Fan watched as several streaks of sword energy sliced through the sky and came towards him like lightning.

The sword energy looked as weak and small as sparks initially, but it soon grew large enough to create a hole in the ground.

The gleam of the sword energy streaks aimed at vital spots on Ye Fan's body.

The streaks came at an astounding speed and were poised at a fatal angle.

Also, they carried a tremendous amount of power.

Ye Fan actually felt threatened by this sudden attack from nowhere.

He frowned deeply and no longer cared about Chu Qi-Tian for the moment. He had to put in his full effort in dealing with this immense amount of sword energy.

But these streaks of sword energy had appeared too suddenly. Ye Fan wasn't in time to dodge them.

He had no choice but to hold up his arms to block them.

Almost at the same time, the sword energy slammed fiercely onto Ye Fan's arms.

"What?" Ye Fan's calm expression changed dramatically after the sword energy hit him.

The next thing he knew, he had become like a missile and flew right out from the impact of the sword energy.

But Ye Fan soon expelled the sword energy and steadied himself.

He quickly lifted his head with a serious and wary look in his eyes.

After he had refined the fire spirit fruit, his martial arts level had already reached its peak.

Even among the fighters on the Sky Ranking, there were very few who could pose a threat to him.

One could say that even if Ye Qing-Tian were here, he wouldn't be able to push Ye Fan back with just a casual thrust of the sword.

But now, this sword energy that had suddenly appeared was unexpectedly able to send him flying.

In other words, the person who sent this sword energy out was extremely powerful.

"Who could it be? Are the Purple Guardians of Chu Sect here?" Ye Fan frowned. He looked like he was going to face a mighty enemy.

On the other hand, the previously despairing Chu Qi-Tian became overjoyed when he realized that someone had managed to fight Ye Fan off.

He looked a drowning man who had finally found something to help him float.

He immediately turned to look at where the sword energy had come from with a delighted heart.

A beautiful silhouette appeared on the horizon.

Chapter 1359 The Most Powerful Woman

The woman with a veil over her face was there. Her purple dress flew gently in the wind and her hair cascaded down elegantly.

She held a long sword in her hands and flew towards Chu Qi-Tian.

Her extraordinary aura and incomparable poise made her look like a fairy descending from the heavens.

Her elegance and authoritativeness made one feel like kneeling and surrendering to her even though she was still so far away.

“Who is this?” Brahma wondered as he continued to fight Gaia from afar. His eyes had suddenly narrowed when that beautiful silhouette had appeared.

A crazy thought appeared in his heart.

But while everyone was still wondering who had come, Chu Qi-Tian recognized her first.

“Teacher! It’s my teacher! HAHA! Chu Tian-Fan, my teacher is here, so you’re finished! You’re doomed! Heaven is on my side after all! MUAHAHA!” Chu Qi-Tian was so happy and relieved that he started laughing maniacally as if he had gone mad.

Brahma and Gaia were both shaken by this revelation.

“Teacher? Chu Qi-Tian’s Teacher? You mean that woman is really here?” Gaia’s face paled and his eyes were filled with great worry and seriousness.

“Crap! Dragon Master might really be in danger now,” thought Gaia worriedly to himself. Things looked like they were going out of their control.

“Haha! Gaia, that woman is here. This time, you and that Dragon Master of yours isn’t going to survive. Looks like this deserted island will become your resting place after all!” Unlike Gaia, Brahma was excited about the person who had just come.

He smiled gloatingly at Gaia’s impending misfortune with a smug look in his eyes.

After all, Brahma had been asked by Chu Qi-Tian to come and kill Ye Fan, so he was on the same side as Chu Sect.

Now that someone capable of rescuing Chu

Qi-Tian was here, it meant that he was no longer in danger.

Just a few minutes ago, Brahma was getting chased down by Gaia like a dog, but now the situation had turned 180 degrees around in his favor.

Now that Brahma had gone from crisis to safety, he was feeling a lot more relaxed.

“Nonsense! Nobody knows how things will end yet,” replied Gaia fiercely with a livid face.

But it was apparent that he wasn't really that confident.

The woman who had come had a terrifying prowess and reputation.

Everybody in the martial arts world knew who she was and was afraid of her.

This beautiful woman was the most powerful person in the martial arts world.

There was nobody else more powerful than her!

Chapter 1359 The Most Powerful Woman

“Oh my, you’re still boasting at this time? Do you really think that young punk and yourself could possibly hold up against her? She’s the sect leader of Chu Sect and ranked number one on the Sky Ranking! You two can dream on! Even if all six pillars of China were added to the team, you might not be able to do anything about Tang Yun!” snorted Brahma with a laugh. His laughter was filled with disdain and mocking towards Gaia and Ye Fan.

The woman who had come was Chu Qi-Tian’s teacher, the martial artist who ranked first on the Sky Ranking and the leader of Chu Sect – Tang Yun!

It was no wonder that Gaia had immediately become rattled and worried when she appeared.

Tang Yun had long become synonymous with power and strength.

Her name were two simple words, but they weighed a ton by themselves.

Under normal circumstances, Gaia would have scooted off by now. But now, Ye Fan was still here, so even if Gaia wanted to run, he wouldn't dare to abandon Ye Fan here.

He had no choice but to just try his best to hang in there.

But of course, Gaia wasn't going to just sit around and do nothing. Even if he couldn't defeat the sect leader of Chu Sect, he could at least defeat this half crippled Brahma first.

"Perhaps you're right. But before that, I'm going to kill you off first, you stupid old dog!"

Gaia and Brahma restarted their fight.

But while fighting, Gaia kept pushing the fight further and further out. In any case, he was going to make sure they stayed far, far away from Ye Fan and Tang Yun.

That way, Gaia would be able to escape if things really went awry.

"Dragon Master, it's not that I'm a coward, but all of you are such highly skilled martial artists, and lowly folks like us really have no place to be here. The only thing I can do is to make sure that when you need to run, I won't drag you down and I'd follow you closely," said Gaia to himself while fighting Brahma. He was both trying to console himself as well as justify the growing guilt in his heart.

As the two men fought further and further away, Ye Fan stood by himself in the depths of the forest.

He stared coldly ahead with no expression on his face.

The two of them continued to look at one another like this.

A cold wind blew across the lake.

Her purple dress flew gently in the breeze and so did her smooth, black hair.

Her gaze as frosty, but it carried an authoritativeness above all else.

A veil covered her face, but it couldn't cover the incomparably gorgeous features she possessed.
