

Chapter 519 Speculation

Tang Yin looked at Yuan Zhian with a meaningful smile and mumbled, “Your answer is quite logical!”

Yuan Zhian was silent. I know the new vaccine that Mr. Steve mentioned would definitely earn a profit in the medical industry. The Tang Family is business-oriented, so why is such a profitable business recommended to others?

“In terms of the size of the Americas, do you think it is appropriate for the Tang Family to set up only two regional managers?” Tang Yin asked.

Yuan Zhian was stunned. “Are you saying...”

Tang Yin laughed. “Uncle Miao and I talked about this matter before.

Although the Tang Family has businesses worldwide, there are many businesses that the Tang Family has not been involved in. On the surface, finance and investment are the most profitable, followed by health care and new energy... But don't forget that there is always an industry in the world that is leading all the other industries!"

Yuan Zhian asked softly, "Banking?"

Tang Yin nodded. "That's right, banking! Over the years, the Tang Family has never set foot in the banking industry, and the family has gradually retired from some medical industry! And it's certainly not because these industries don't make money, but the Tang Family is withdrawing themselves purposely..."

“Which means?” Yuan Zhian seemed to realize something.

“Which means that the Tang Family may be doing business in the light and in the dark at the same time...” Tang Yin smiled, but his eyes were gradually filled with anger. “My father has always managed the Tang Family’s business, and this is also what the Tang Family wants to show to the outsiders! As for the Tang Family’s private businesses that are ongoing in the dark, such as banking, medical treatment, and even munitions... My father does not manage all these!”

“They are managed by the Old Master!” Yuan Zhian exclaimed.

Tang Yin nodded. “That’s right! At least that's my speculation! There are three regional managers in Greater China, and there are many businesses beyond the reach of these three regional managers! Not to mention the fact that the Americas take up such a huge area, and there are only two regional managers here. I'm sure they've left out a lot more businesses..."

Yuan Zhian was petrified. According to Tang Yin, there are two networks in the Tang Family. One is in the hands of Tang Lijiang, while the other is in the hands of the Old Master. I know the Old Master of the Tang Family must have his own secret weapon after so many years. But, who knew that he would have such an ace up his sleeves?! If he really has a secret network in his hand, which involves banking and medical business, this means that his power is much stronger than Tang Lijiang's.

“Perhaps... The money for war is also one of the factors!” Tang Yin added. “After all, Hades appeared on the Tang Family’s list a few days ago. Maybe Hades is one of the members of the secret network...”

“What about Cade? Is he also one of the Tang Family’s men from the underground network?” Yuan Zhian asked.

“I suppose so...” Tang Yin took a deep breath. “Mr. Steve and I will meet him tomorrow... By the way, Mr. Steve is going to treat Tang Lishan recently. Do you have any thoughts on that?”

“Tang Lishan should be occupied with Tang E's matters now, so she may not have time to accept any treatment for the time being. The effect of the Love Magic may still linger in her body, but at least Mr. Steve may not be able to detect anything!" Yuan Zhian replied.

Tang Yin nodded. "That's good! Since Tang Lishan has appeared, it's better to find someone to keep an eye on her because we might get some secrets out of her. Even if we can't find the traces of the secret network, as long as we can find Tang Wei, it will be of great benefit to us!"

"Alright! What about Mojade?" Yuan Zhian asked softly.

"Just leave it as it is. I've requested Mr. Steve to provide me with a fake medical certificate, saying that I can't pay attention to Mojade's affairs because of my health! Also, inform Pei He and Ji Yueshan that they will both register a new pharmaceutical company, respectively..." Tang Yin smiled and walked toward the second floor. "Let's bait-and-switch... Let Pedesi's people stay in Mojade while Pe He will take over the business from Mojade and restructure the company... As for those employees of Mojade, I don't want to keep any of them! Let them be gone together with Mojade!"

Yuan Zhian nodded and passed the message on to Pei He.

The actions taken by Tang Yin's were dazzling. If they were to really follow his orders, Mojade Company would only be left with an empty shell. Obviously, the people in Mojade would never be fine once the company went bankrupt sooner or later!

Tang Yin went back to his room and had a rest. In the evening, he received a call from Edward, the State assemblyman.

Tang Yin told Edward that because of his health, he couldn't do anything. However, what surprised him was that Edward had told him that there would be a California entrepreneurs conference happening in the State Assembly Office three days from now.

From what Tang Yin could gather from Edward's words, it meant that the government had given Mojade great tolerance, hoping that it could return to the right track. However, Tang Yin knew that there might be something behind this decision.

Mojade must go bankrupt! Those who follow Mojade Company have to be punished!

This night, the estate was not as quiet as usual. They followed Tang Yin's orders and had let out a dozen dogs in the yard. The barking sound of these dogs almost filled the entire yard.

Meanwhile, Ohashi Miki was tied to a pillar in the basement. The ropes further emphasized her perfect figure, especially her breasts. Even Yuan Zhian, who was sitting in front of her, couldn't help but admire them. An innocent face paired with gigantic breasts!

“We have released the news in the assassin circle that we will feed you to the vicious dogs in three days...” Yuan Zhian sighed and shook her head. “With your appearance, I think it would be such a waste to feed you to the vicious dogs...”

Ohashi Miki gritted her teeth. “I will never give in even if you’re gonna kill me!”

Yuan Zhian laughed like a devil. “Of course I know that. Therefore, I don’t have any intention to make you surrender! I heard that the Japanese love to make movies. So, I plan to use you to the fullest before you die.”

“What do you mean?” Ohashi Miki was stunned; she had a bad feeling about this.

Yuan Zhian smirked before she stood up and clapped. “Oh, I think you know what I mean...” With that, the basement door was opened.

Around seven men from different age groups entered the basement. Some of them were teenagers who were 15 or 16 years old; some of them were adult men around 27 or 28 years old with tanned skin; the rest of them were very old, and they should be at least in their 60s.

Their eyes were immediately fixed on Ohashi Miki’s body as soon as they came in. They were staring at her with lust-filled eyes.
