

Chapter 503 A Setup

Tang Yin's face became nonchalant hearing Pei He's words, apparently seeing through their predecessor's motive. It seemed like the employees in Mojade Company were deliberately messing around with them, trying to put Pei He in a tight spot, or even get rid of him. The situation caught Tang Yin by surprise, and he suspected it was Anderson's doing to set them up after leaving.

"The only way to solve this problem is to lay them off, but the termination cost is simply too high. Therefore, I'm afraid it might be too steep a price for us to pay!" Pei He lightly said.

Tang Yin stood up and went upstairs. "Take me to Mojade Company tomorrow. I'd like to meet the union chairman and the company's senior management.”

“Sure!” Pei He had no idea what Tang Yin was up to, but he nodded in agreement in the end.

Yuan Zhian followed Tang Yin upstairs, only to see him worn out. At the sight of that, she couldn't help but feel sympathetic with his struggle. Therefore, she made Tang Yin a pot of tea and put it on the table before quietly exiting the room.

After waking up the next morning, Pei He quickly approached Tang Yin just when he finished his breakfast. “There are people from two of our company's factories who join the strike. Even the senior management is showing their support for the movement. However, our main concern is the press. I've got wind that some white-collar workers have been feeding the press with stories about our company's bleak future. Therefore, the senators are now after me... and the media won't stop smearing Mojade Company's reputation by raising questions about Anderson's replacement!"

Tang Yin nodded and pushed the breakfast aside. He then turned around and walked out the door. "I'll take care of the senators while you handle the press. So, all you need to tell them is that Mojade Company is doing well. Also, announce our plan that we'll be working on a huge project soon!"

"Noted!" Pei He nodded while following behind Tang Yin.

Yuan Zhian, who was already on a standby with the car, opened the car door for them. Then, Tang Yin got in the car before they headed straight for Mojade Company.

At this time, Mojade Company was surrounded by hundreds of its employees. All of them were seen holding banners and signboards up high in the air while protesting against the senior management's incapability that had led to the partnership cancelation and possibly their loss of jobs.

As Tang Yin's ride passed by, he was booed by the huge crowd, who seemingly didn't want him here at all.

Yuan Zhian, who was sitting in the car, gazed coldly at the commotion.

The car soon pulled up at the entrance of Mojade Company. Tang Yin then got off while casting his eyes on the crowd from afar. As he stepped out of the car, hundreds of people shouted, “Step down, you hick!”

“Mojade Company will be reduced to ashes in your hands...”

“That’s right. Step down!”

“Young Master Tang, do you need me to chase these people away?” Ji Yueshan asked.

Tang Yin shook his head. “No! They’re not the root of the cause. They’d still regroup even if you chase them away now! Come with me now. We'll talk to the higher management of these companies!"

"Alright!"

Tang Yin turned around and entered Mojade Company. Upon entering the building, Tang Yin was greeted by the lackadaisical faces of the employees. Not even a single one of them was willing to receive him. Fortunately, Tang Yin was not a man of formalities. Therefore, he didn't mind even though he wasn't received. However, when he arrived at the elevator, Tang Yin couldn't help but raise his eyebrow. Is the elevator out of service?

"The other two elevators have a maintenance sign on them as well!” Yuan Zhian came over with an indifferent expression. “It seems like this is personal. They’re trying to give us a hard time!”

“Well, it worked, didn’t it?” Tang Yin appeared indifferent, thereafter he turned around and walked out the door.

“Young Master, are you...” Pei He said as he quickly followed behind.

Tang Yin said with a smile, “Inform the senior management upstairs that I’d like to speak to the workers on strike outside. I want them here in a minute, or there will be punishment!”

Pei He paused. “But they might rise against you.”

“No, that won’t happen!” Tang Yin already took big strides through the entrance of Mojade Company before he gazed at the crowd. “I’m the new person in charge of Mojade Company!”

As soon as he announced his position, the crowd burst into an uproar.

“So, you’re that imbecile? Get lost...”

“How dare you still come here? Do you know our company lost all its partners right after you came? How do you expect us to feed ourselves now?”

“That’s right. You’re trying to starve us to death...”

Soon, murmurs of complaints and resentment began coming from the crowd. The expression on the protestors' faces appeared angry as they all cast an evil eye on Tang Yin.

Tang Yin smiled and said, "Who said our partners bailed on us?"

"It's in the paper. Don't you know that?"

"Exactly. You surely know what's going on. So, stop lying to us and get the hell out of here!"

Tang Yin's face slowly took on an indifferent expression.

"Mr. Tang Yin, I'm the union chairman. My name is Modric..." A skinny middle-aged Caucasian emerged from the crowd and demanded, "You need to give us all an explanation..."

Tang Yin glimpsed at Modric and smilingly reached out his right hand. "I'm so sorry! I didn't know it'd lead to such a big mess this time..."

"Mr. Tang Yin, you have no need to apologize... I just want to ensure the benefit of the employees, so that they won't be taken advantage of!" Modric calmly responded.

Tang Yin smiled and announced to everyone around him loudly, "I understand that you've heard that many of our partners withdrew from our deals, but what you don't know is that we've just found ourselves quite a few partners who just signed a contract with us last night! Therefore, I sincerely apologize on behalf of the senior management for not letting you all know about this news any sooner!”

“Don’t listen to his crap. We don’t have a new partner working with us.”

“That’s right. Stop making up stories just because you want to calm us down!”

Tang Yin responded with a smile, “I know all of you here are worried about your jobs, but I promise that your interests will always be our priority! Furthermore, it was because of the senior management that everyone else didn’t learn about the latest news of our company. Therefore, I will use part of the senior management’s annual bonus to improve the quality of our employees’ accommodation from now on!”

“Who gave you the authority to do that?”
At this moment in Mojade Company, a middle-aged woman who looked skinny and shriveled, swiftly came out of nowhere. “Mr. Tang, I don’t know who gave you the authority to do that, let alone saying those words...”

Tang Yin looked back and coldly stared at this female executive. “Who gave me the authority? I have absolute authority in this matter!”

“How can you do that? Who are you to do that?” Pedesi appeared agitated while pointing at Tang Yin and yelling, “Let me tell you. Your proposition will not work, and neither will the board of directors listen to you! So, if I were you, I’d just turn around and leave in shame. Otherwise, we’ll just wait and see! You ruined all the company's big plans, and now you're still trying to exploit us? Is this how you run the company? It seems to me you're just a piece of crap. So, get lost now!"
