

Chapter 518 An Old Friend

Pei He nodded and repeated Tang Yin's orders. He then hung up the phone. "Mr. Edward said that Mr. Steve of the American Medical Association is here, so he'll ask him to contact you as soon as possible!"

Mr. Steve! Tang Yin was slightly stunned. Who knew I would be able to meet an old friend here?

"Alright!"

Pei He nodded. The car continued its drive to the estate.

Suddenly, Tang Yin's mobile phone rang. As expected, it was a call from Mr. Steve.

He answered the phone with a smile.

However, Jenny's voice came from the other side. "Tang... Teacher Steve just received a call from the State assemblyman, asking him to treat your wound! I can't believe you're in America! Why didn't you contact us when you arrived? Do you even see us as your friends?"

Tang Yin chuckled. "I have some other business here, so I've been quite occupied..."

"Where are you now? I heard that you are badly injured. Stay strong... I'll be there with Mr. Steve in a while!" Jenny said excitedly.

Tang Yin hung up the phone after he told them the address. He was indeed injured, but it wasn't anything serious.

Chapter 518 An Old Friend

After they had reached the estate, Yuan Zhian had left with Ohashi Miki while Tang Yin went into the living room by himself.

After ten minutes, Mr. Steve and Jenny had arrived. Jenny was wearing a pair of hot pants, revealing her beautiful legs. She was shocked when she entered the estate. "Tang! I heard from Mr. Steve that you came from a good background, but I never expected that you could afford to live in such a big estate... Oh My God! Isn't it beautiful?"

Tang Yin laughed. Looking at this lively foreign girl who was looking at her surroundings with admiration, he found her quite amusing.

Mr. Steve walked toward Tang Yin and asked, “Tang, how did you hurt yourself?”

Tang Yin stood up and showed his right arm. “I was almost assassinated by two women on the beach!”

“Oh, dear God! How could there an assassination?” Jenny said with a trace of fear on her face. “Tang! Are you injured elsewhere besides your arm? I really can’t imagine how something like this could happen! The safety in America is getting worse and worse now...”

“Nope, I’m fine!” Tang Yin smiled and signaled Mr. Steve and Jenny to sit down. Jenny opened the emergency kit and started treating Tang Yin’s wounds. Tang Yin then shifted his eyes to Mr.

Steve. “Why are you in California, Mr. Steve?”

“It’s a long story...” Mr. Steve paused and sighed before he continued, “To be exact, this matter is somehow related to the Tang Family!”

“The Tang Family?” Tang Yin was slightly stunned.

“That’s right! It’s your Tang Family!” Mr. Steve sighed and said, “I’ve invented a new vaccine with Jenny that can effectively reduce the risk of cerebral palsy in children... I’ve been looking for a company to collaborate with to produce this new drug. As such, the Tang Family introduced a person named Cade to me. I’ve met him several times, and I felt that Cade wanted to interfere excessively in the price and raw materials of the new vaccine...”

“Cade?” Tang Yin’s eyes narrowed, and he pondered for a moment. He was quite sure that the Tang Family had never associated with anyone named Cade. Besides, with Mr. Steve’s fame, if this type of vaccine were to be introduced to the world, it would certainly be sought after. This is a very profitable business, so why would the Tang Family recommend it to Cade instead?

“Teacher Steve and I have been negotiating with Mr. Cade these days, but the outcome was not very great. It turns out Mr. Cade has been leading us on... But anyway, we went and visited an interesting patient this morning... Tang, you wouldn't believe how amazing this patient's situation is! The patient said that she had been hit by black magic from the East. There are some insects in her body, which would control her desire..." Jenny put her hands around Tang Yin's wrist and sighed. "I always thought that this kind of thing would never happen, but according to the patient's state, I think she is telling the truth!"

"Is the patient's name Tang Lishan?"
Tang Yin grinned.

"God! How did you know? Are you a fortune-teller?" Jenny's eyes were beaming with admiration.

Tang Yin laughed and didn't say much before he looked at Mr. Steve. "In that case, is Cade recommended by Tang Lishan?”

“That’s right!” Mr. Steve answered.

Tang Yin touched his jaw and asked, “Does Cade have a pharmaceutical company?”

“Yes, and it is a huge company. It is said that they have worked with the Frances Family. This company is compelling in the Americas since most of the drugs come from this company...” said Jenny.

“What’s the name of this company?” Tang Yin asked.

Tang Yin took a deep breath and felt a jolt in his mind because Angel Medical Company was famous in the Americas. It was so famous that even he had heard of it. This company produced many special effects drugs, and their products were sold worldwide through the Americas. Tang Lishan actually introduced this kind of big-shot company?

“Tang, are you familiar with the people who own the company?” Jenny had finished dressing his injuries, and she was looking at Tang Yin excitedly. “If you are, could you ask them to reduce the price of the vaccine? My teacher and I have very different opinions in this aspect...”

“I don’t really know them...” Tang Yin hesitated and sighed softly. “However, I need to know, do you really have to collaborate with this company for your new vaccine?”

“As you know, most of my research funding comes from the Tang Family...” Mr. Steve said in embarrassment.

Tang Yin took a deep breath and smiled. “It doesn’t matter. I can go with you to your next meeting with the Angel Medical Company! It would be great if we could agree. If not, I will consider helping you in another way!”

“Really?” Jenny was excited.

Tang Yin nodded. “Why don’t you both stay here for the night, and I’ll accompany you to meet Mr. Cade tomorrow?”

“Alright!” Mr. Steve hesitated for a while and then nodded.

Tang Yin asked Yuan Zhian to take them upstairs and showed them their respective rooms. He then sat in the living room alone with a gloomy face. After a while, Yuan Zhian came down from the stairs and stood beside Tang Yin.

“Tell me... why do you think the Tang Family purposely introduced Mr. Steve’s new vaccine to Mr. Cade from Angel Medical Company?”

Yuan Zhian pondered for a while and asked cautiously, “Because the Tang Family owns Angel Medical Company?”
