Chapter 698 A Battle of Wits and Courage

Tang Wei's gaze swept around the place as she walked in slowly.

Seeing this, perplexity flashed across Tao Qingfan's secretary's face. With a grimace, she said, "Miss Tang, you're in our company and not the Mojade Company. I hope that you'll at least observe common courtesy in your actions!"

Tang Wei glanced at her before walking toward the office desk and sweeping her gaze under the table.

There's no one there!

Other than the desk, the only place capable of hiding someone in this office was that office cabinet beside the wall.

Tao Qingfan's secretary glared at Tang Wei and quickly stopped her, saying, "Miss Tang, this is our company. If you still act rudely like this, I'll call the cops..."

"Stop her!" Tang Wei sneered and pushed the secretary aside, then strode toward the cabinet.

Anderson hurriedly came up and held the female secretary tightly. He mocked, "You'd better not struggle!"

"What are you people doing? Do you know what kind of behavior you're presenting? Robbers! Thieves! I will call the cops right now!" the female secretary shouted loudly.

Tang Wei ignored her and placed her hand on the office cabinet handle, then pulled it open violently.

Thump! The documents and folders inside it all fell out from the impact. However, there was no one hiding inside.

“You people have to pay the price for your errant actions!”

Tang Wei was astonished at the sight. I thought there would be someone hiding in there!

She regained her composure and turned to walk out of the office. Furrowing her brows, she started to laugh at herself for being too paranoid.

It had taken all her wits and courage to go against Tang Yin. The consequence was that she had developed a distrustful and cynical personality.

Upon leaving the company building, Tang Wei drew in a deep breath. Anderson, who was following her, grimaced and said, “Miss Tang, we’ve gone overboard with our actions just now. I’m afraid that they’ll sue us!”

“It’s alright. I can handle this kind of pesky matter!” Tang Wei answered. She strode toward her car without another word.

At this time, Tao Qingfan’s secretary had actually called the cops because she truly felt humiliated by Tang Wei’s actions. How can two representatives from a partnered company barge into our company and even search around the director’s office at will? I can’t tolerate this brazen act of theirs!

After calling the cops, she opened the door to Tao Qingfan's office. When she saw the still empty interior, she too felt strange. Where has that young woman, Miss Yang, gone?

Outside the window, Tao Qingfan's face was pale with fright as she and Ohashi Miki grabbed on the railing, the latter's arm wrapped around her waist. Occasionally, a gust of wind would blow past them, causing their bodies to sway from it.

"Quick... Let's go back in quickly!" Tao Qingfan lowered her head. When she saw the black dots of people passing by all the way down there, her entire body shook with fear. We're on the 80th floor!

If we fall from this height, we'll die even if our bodies are made of steel!

Ohashi Miki gritted her teeth as her arm swayed slightly. Then, with great effort, she managed to heave the two of them back onto the windowsill.

Tao Qingfan grabbed the window frantically, her heart beating at her throat. Then, with Ohashi Miki's help, she hurriedly flipped over and jumped back into the office, then slumped onto a chair.

Tang Wei's sudden appearance had messed her up and almost caused her death right here!

Ring!

Suddenly, Tao Qingfan's phone rang. It was a call from Pei He.

"Tell your secretary to inform Mojade Company that all the collaboration deals are off!"

"The deals are off?" Tao Qingfan was startled. "But why? We've just begun working together. If we call it off now, won't everything be wasted?"

"Just tell your secretary to inform them about it!" replied Pei He.

Tao Qingfan complied and called her secretary. "Cancel all the collaborative deals with Mojade Company. Also, pull out of Angel Medical Company's investments."

“Alright, Miss Yang,” answered the secretary softly. Then, she explained, “They were too rude just now. I too agree that we should just cancel the collaboration with them!”

“Right, I’ll leave it to you!” Tao Qingfan hung up without another word. Only then did she realize why Pei He wanted her to do so. Any ordinary company would be extremely upset at such disrespectful actions by the other party. If Tao Qingfan’s side did not show even the slightest annoyance at that, Tang Wei would surely become even more suspicious of them.

The secretary called Anderson and coldly informed him that all the deals were off now.

“What should we do?” Anderson looked at Tang Wei in dismay. He didn’t know what to say. After all, everything, no matter big or small, was up to Tang Wei’s discretion. Besides, she was the one who decided to come all the way here to check on this company.

“Continue working with them. Let them have a share of the profits!” Tang Wei pinched her temple in tiredness, but a smile played at the corner of her lips. “Anderson, I’m sure you know that no matter what, as long as your partners are honorable and trustworthy, it doesn’t matter even if you lose part of your profits!”

Anderson fell silent. He understood what she meant.

This particular battle of wits and courage did not cause any disturbance in Los Angeles.

At Los Angeles Airport, a bright and cheerful girl with large sunglasses covering her eyes came out from the exit.

She raised her head and looked at the blinding sunlight in the sky. Shaking her head, she muttered, "I still don't like the sun..."

A car came to a slow stop beside her.

Shan Xuezhu pulled open the car door and said lightly, "To the estate!"

The driver nodded and started the car, then drove slowly away.

Chapter 698 A Battle of Wits and Courage

A moment later, the flight from China's Snow Mountain of Nine Dragons slowly landed at Los Angeles Airport.

Tang Yin walked out of the airport quickly with Pei Ruo and Yuan Zhian, then got into a car and rushed toward the estate.

At the same prearranged time and place, several inconspicuous individuals had gathered at the Tang Family's estate in Los Angeles.

This time, most of the people gathered there had never met each other. However, all of them knew their duty and purpose, that was, to serve an organization called the Kingdom of Darkness.
