

Chapter 697 Alert

“What kind of great idea?” asked Patriarch Li.

Duanmu Yang said coldly, “Some time ago, when Duanmu Xiong came back to the mountain, do you know to what extent Tang Yin was savage?”

“To what extent?”

“In order to kill my grandson, he was willing to kill his own aunt!” Duanmu Yang sneered. “As long as we broadcast this around, Tang Yin would surely be killed by all with morals!”

“Is he that cold-blooded?” Patriarch Li was so shocked that his eyes almost popped out. “If this is so, then I’ll have to serve justice by killing this unfilial b*stard!”

Chapter 697 Alert

“That’s right!” Duanmu Yang scoffed. “This kind of person shouldn’t be allowed to live on this earth! We need to let his savagery be known to all so that everyone will cast him aside, and then we’ll uplift the prestige of the Eight Great Families in one fell swoop!”

“Alright! In that case, I’ll tolerate him for a few more days. During this time, you must broadcast his acts around at all costs!” Patriarch Li huffed and turned to enter the mourning hall of his granddaughter.

At this time, Tang Yin was still unsure of Duanmu Yang’s plans. But he came to the cave when night fell and quickly filled his two barrels with the stalactite water. Then, he left the cave.

Chapter 697 Alert

After thinking for a second, Tang Yin decided to head down the mountain.

Suddenly, Tang Yin spotted several dark shadows moving across the snowy slopes from afar. After a slight pause, he dashed toward the shadows.

“Who’s there?”

Tang Yin didn’t say a word as he reached out and snapped one of their necks in half. The other two men stared at him in terror as if they had seen a ghost.

Mu Slaves! These three people are the Mu Slaves from the Duanmu Family!

“Tang Yin, don’t you dare be arrogant! The Duanmu Family has raised the Golden Bell General Meeting, and you'll be dead very soon!"

Tang Yin gripped the man's neck tightly and was going to ask something when blood started dripping from a corner of the man's mouth. It was obvious that he had swallowed poison and committed suicide on the spot.

The other man followed suit and swallowed poison too when he saw his companion dead.

Tang Yin frowned and gazed in the direction where the Duanmu Residence lay with hesitation. He felt rather worried about it. Although he wasn't afraid of them, it didn't mean that the people around him wouldn't be frightened.

Chapter 697 Alert

Tang Yin had no idea how powerful the Eight Great Families were, and this Golden Bell General Meeting sounded a little strange too.

He no longer hesitated but headed down the mountain quickly and rushed back to the town.

In the morning, Pei Ruo drank some of the thousand-year-old stalactite water and felt that her body had regained some of its youth instantly. Her limbs were energetic, while her mind was crystal clear. This feeling made her very excited indeed.

Whoosh! Tang Yin landed on her windowsill and said, "Go now. Go to Los Angeles first!"

Chapter 697 Alert

“Now?” Pei Ruo was astonished.

The three of them quickly settled the matters here and immediately headed toward Los Angeles. As for this town, Tang Yin had arranged for many of his men to stay here and keep watch. Before he left, he warned them not to get into conflicts with those from the Duanmu Family. If someone came down from the mountain, they were to simply inform him and not meddle further.

As the three of them left the Snow Mountain of Nine Dragons and headed toward Los Angeles, something was brewing in Los Angeles too.

Tang Wei's brows puckered as she watched Anderson walk into her office.

"Are you saying that the representative from the other side doesn't have time today and wants to delay the meeting to the day after tomorrow?" Her eyes glinted in confusion.

"That's right. They said that there's an emergency that they have to handle immediately, so they can only meet with us the day after tomorrow," replied Anderson.

Tang Wei stood up and paced around her office. Wariness grew in her heart as she thought about it. After all, she was already suspicious of their motives of working with her companies. Now the actual representative of the company was trying to delay this meeting.

This kind of situation could only mean bad news.

“Miss Tang, what do you intend to do?” Anderson asked softly.

“Do you know the location of that company?” Tang Wei suddenly asked.

“I do. It’s right here in Los Angeles. As I’ve collaborated with them before, I’ve gone there twice,” answered Anderson.

“Come, let’s go over there now.” Tang Wei picked up her bag and turned to leave.

“Now?” Anderson was shocked.

Chapter 697 Alert

“Now!” Tang Wei didn’t speak further and walked out of her office, then headed downstairs.

She was a very cautious person. At this critical moment, she didn’t want anything bad to happen just because of her carelessness. Since this company wanted to collaborate with them and the sum involved was massive, she definitely wanted to check it out herself personally.

She went downstairs, got into her car, and started narrowing her eyes.

The car headed toward Tao Qingfan’s company. At this time, Tao Qingfan was still playing spider solitaire on her computer.

Chapter 697 Alert

Her secretary entered, took a look at her face, and said politely, “Miss Yang, do you really have an emergency tonight?”

“That’s right!” Tao Qingfan waved a hand impatiently.

The secretary looked at her and sighed, then turned to leave. However, at this very moment, Tao Qingfan’s phone rang.

“Qingfan, Tang Wei is here...” Ohashi Miki’s voice came from the other end of the call.

“Huh?” Tao Qingfan jumped out of her seat in shock. She was extremely flustered by the sudden news. “S-She is here? Why is she here?”

“I’m not sure. But you should find a place to hide. I'll come up to get you!" answered Ohashi Miki.

Tao Qingfan went pale with fright and quickly hung up before looking around frantically. There's no place to hide in here!

At this moment, Tang Wei had entered Tao Qingfan's company building.

After she expressed her intentions, the receptionist was stunned. "You..."

"There's no need to panic. I'm just here for a surprise visit. I'll check it out myself!" answered Tang Wei. She pushed the receptionist aside and strode into the company with Anderson.

When Tao Qingfan's secretary was alerted about Tang Wei's arrival, she immediately came out and said to the latter, "Are you Miss Tang? Miss Yang has already informed you that she has no time to meet with you tonight. She apologizes in advance for any inconvenience..."

"Get out of my way!" Tang Wei pushed Tao Qingfan's secretary aside and entered with a scowl. Led by Anderson, she quickly reached Tao Qingfan's office.

Bang! Tao Qingfan's office door was kicked open by Tang Wei.
