

Chapter 284

When Henry and Milan walked into the club, they attracted a lot of attention.

Since Milan was living abroad, very few people knew about the princess of Xiao's family.

The appearance of Milan attracted a lot of people to take the initiative to give their business cards. After all, no matter where the beauty was, she was more popular.

Henry didn't like this kind of gathering. He took the opportunity to slip away, leaving Milan to chat with others.

"Haha, isn't he a big hero?" Henry heard a chuckle.

Henry turned his head and saw Tyler walking towards him.

"What's wrong, hero? What status do you have come here? I remember that no one invited you to this party, right?" Tyler walked up to Henry.

In the last incident, under the pressure of Sofia, Tyler did not make things difficult for Henry. This time, Tyler would not miss a chance to humiliate him.

"Master Shan, do you know this person?" Another voice sounded.

He saw Cody walking over, and his right hand was wrapped with a circle of gauze.

This time, Cody had received Josh's task to specially come to this party to embarrass Xiao's family.

Xiao's ownership of the patent was bound to find investors. What Yongfeng Industry wanted to do now was to stir up the trouble.

In Hangshi, Yongfeng Industry had a solid foundation. It was a company that had been rooted in Hangshi for decades. In terms of connections, it could not be compared with Xiao's company.

"What? Brother Yang also knows him?" Tyler asked.

"Yes, of course, I do." Cody looked at Henry up and down with a fierce look in his eyes. "I can't wait to pull out this man's tendons and bones!"

Cody raised his right hand. If it was not him at that time, how could he let go of the three bodyguards? If the three bodyguards were here, he wouldn't have lost his finger.

At the moment, Cody had put all the blame on Henry.

Hearing Cody's words, Tyler laughed and said, "Brother Yang, we are really thinking the same thing. I also want to pull out this kid's tendons and bones!"

Tyler and Cody said these in front of Henry without any scruple.

For these two people, when Sylvia was on-site, Henry chose to control himself, fearing that something would involve Sylvia. But now, She had returned to Yinzhou. There was no excuse for Henry to endure.

Henry walked up to Cody and grabbed his hand wrapped in gauze. "Gee, Master Yang, did you lose your finger?"

Cody snorted. Just as he was about to pull his hand back, he felt a strong force coming from Henry's hand, which squeezed the wound on his palm.

Henry smiled and said, "Master Yang, this feeling is not bad, isn't it?"

It could be seen that Cody's face had become distorted. Henry kept pressing the wound on Cody's hand. The wound, which had just healed, opened again because of Henry's movement. Blood gushed out and dyed the gauze on Cody's hand red.

Cody gritted his teeth and took a deep breath. "Let... let go! Let go of me!"

"Haha." Henry chuckled and let go of Cody's hand.

At the moment when Henry loosened his grip, Cody took a few steps back and looked at his right hand with a painful face. A burst of heart-wrenching pain came from his palm.

Henry's move was beyond even Tyler's expectation.

Henry continued to grin. "Master Yang, if you want to endure hardships, continue. I don't mind letting you enjoy it more."

Cody had a malicious look on his face, but he did not dare to say anything. In his heart, he just wanted to cut Henry into pieces!

"You also here?" A slightly surprised female voice sounded behind Henry.

Henry turned his head and saw a tall, long-haired beauty walking toward him. It was Sofia Jing.

When Sofia came over, she fixed her eyes directly on Tyler and warned him, "Tyler, don't let me see you doing something despicable. Do you understand?"

Tyler smiled and said, "I'm just here to attend a party. I don't think of doing anything shady."

"I hope so." Sofia nodded to Tyler with a warning in her eyes, and then said to Henry, "Would you like to have a drink nearby?"

Henry nodded and said, "Okay."

After preparing a lot of wine at this gathering, Sofia took two glasses of red wine from the waiter and handed one to Henry.

"I haven't introduced myself yet. My name is Sofia Jing."

"Henry Zhang." Henry took the glass and clinked it with Sofia, making a "ding" sound.

Both of them took a sip of the wine almost at the same time.

Sofia looked Henry up and asked, "Where did you learn your kung fu?"

Henry smiled and said, "I study by myself."

"I don't believe you." Sofia shook her head. "It's fine if you don't want to say it, but I want to try it myself."

"How do you want to try?" Henry asked curiously.

"It's very simple." Sofia put the wine glass aside. "There is a special ring in this club. Let's have a fight."

Henry carefully observed the woman in front of him. In terms of temperament, this woman was more like a scholar. If he didn't know this woman, he couldn't see that she was a violent woman.

Henry shook his head. "I don't like to fight with women."

"But I want to fight with you!" As soon as Sofia finished her words, she kicked Henry.

In the face of Sofia's sudden kick, Henry easily blocked it with one side of his hand. His hand just blocked Sofia's leg.

Her long legs were white and full of energy.

Sofia didn't stop. She threw another punch at Henry's face, which was also blocked by Henry's move. He reached out his hand to hit the crook of Sofia's arm so that her punch couldn't exert any power.

Sofia wanted to attack again, but Henry held her fists in advance. This time, she didn't even have a chance to wave her fists.

From the beginning to the end, Henry had been holding the glass of red wine in his hand, and there was not even a single drop out of it. Henry himself was also standing there, without moving his feet.

Henry chuckled and said, "Beauty, let's stop fighting. If you continue to fight, I will take advantage of you."

When Henry spoke, he also gently hooked her pink fist in his hand with his finger.

Sofia's face turned red, and she pulled her hand out of Henry's hand. "You are completely bullying people!"

"Please, beautiful lady, don't talk about your conscience. It was you who started it first." Henry raised his glass to Sofia and strode to the other side.

Sofia stared at Henry's back with extraordinary splendour in her beautiful eyes.

"He is a master." A middle-aged man walked behind Sofia and sighed.

Chapter 285

"Teacher." Sofia turned around and called the middle-aged man.

The middle-aged man waved his hand. "I saw you two fight just now. To tell you the truth, his speed and strength are exactly the same as yours, which shows that this man has reached the peak of control of his muscles. He also has a fighting consciousness. He saw through your three moves and hit you in the weakest place. If it was a life-and-death fight, you would have been defeated the moment you made the first kick."

Sofia opened her mouth wide and could not believe it. Although she knew that she was not as strong as Henry, she should have thought that Henry was faster and more powerful than her. However, she heard from her teacher that Henry used the same power and speed as her.

"Little girl, what I can teach you, I've already taught you. This person is really powerful. Even if I fight with him, I wouldn't be able to beat him." The middle-aged man patted Sofia on the shoulder. "How about that? Do you want to consider taking this young man down?"

"Master, what are you talking about? I'm just curious about his skills!" Sofia blushed.

"Haha." The middle-aged man laughed. "Girl, it's better if it is only that. This person is not simple."

Staring at Henry's back, the middle-aged man was lost in thoughts.

Henry walked around the club and saw Milan surrounded by three young men.

It could be seen that there was a trace of impatience on Milan's face.

The moment she saw Henry, as if she had seen a saviour, she said that her boyfriend had come. Then she strode to Henry's side and held his arm generously.

The three young men, who had been chatting with Milan, all glared at Henry with hatred.

Henry shook his head helplessly and asked Milan, "How's the talk going? Can we go?"

"Not very good." Milan shook her head and sighed. "The people of Yongfeng Industry have inserted a few people in the middle. I can't see the successor of the Y&Y Venture Capital Company right now. His assistant has already rejected me."

"It's impossible?" Henry was a little surprised. "Y&Y venture capital company won't refuse this project as long as they have some brain."

"But the heir has no brains!" Milan was quite helpless. "That guy, Frank Shang, doesn't care about business at all. He only knows how to fight with others and doesn't care about investing in these things at all."

Henry and Milan were still talking when they heard several young people beside them making a noise of impatience.

"They're fighting! They're fighting again!"

"Let's go and have a look!"

"Master Shang is very powerful. They've summoned so many training partners, they're no match for him."

Hearing the voice, Henry was also interested. "Come on, let's go and have a look."

In a private room of the club, there was a special arena prepared.

Frank Shang was standing in the ring with a bored look on his face, looking at the opponents in front of him. These so-called champions were far from Frank's level.

The continuous victory made Frank not proud at all. He even had some more awe for the organization in his heart.

In the past, Frank only knew how to eat, drink and flirt with girls. His body had already been exhausted. Not to mention to these masters, even for those stronger ordinary people, Frank Shang was no match for them.

But in just a year and a half after Frank had met his master, he had grown so much. And Frank was very clear that he was not one-third of his master's level now. He still had a long way to go. In this way, he was able to defeat these champions. What about his master? And above that, how powerful the people, who had to be treated seriously by his master, were!

Another person who claimed to be the champion in the province was defeated by Frank's fist.

Frank shook his head in boredom.

"It's boring. I don't want to fight anymore. Let's go." After saying that, Frank was ready to walk out of the ring.

"I'll fight with you!" An unfamiliar face jumped into the ring and looked at Frank.

This young man was the one who had appeared at the entrance of the lab last night and killed ten fake Reapers.

"You?" Frank glanced at him. "Interesting. What did you learn?"

The young man looked at Frank with disdain. "You don't deserve to know."

This sentence provoked Frank. He clenched his fist and said, "When I beat you to the ground, I will let you know whether I deserve it or not!"

When Henry and Milan came to this room, there were already a lot of people standing in the guest room, all of whom were here to watch the competition.

When Milan saw the young man in the ring, she frowned and muttered to herself, "Why is he on the stage?"

"Do you know him?" Henry asked curiously.

Milan nodded and said, "He's been to my house several times. The one who fought with him is Frank Shang."

At first sight of the ring, Henry recognized the people on the ring. One of them was the young man from last night, representing a mysterious force, and the other was the new heir of the Hangshi Office.

Henry was interested in their duel.

On the other side, Sofia and her master also looked at the arena.

The match between the two of them in the ring didn't waste any more time on nonsense, and the two of them began to fight.

The confrontation between these two people was like a martial arts film. Seeing each other's movements, it was pleasing to the eye. The young people under the ring were even more excited.

Henry looked back and forth between the two of them. After a few moves, he shook his head. "This Frank is simply an idiot! He has used such a good move like this. He is bound to lose!"

Henry's words were like a business boss's criticism of his employees, but it was not the case in other people's ears.

"Who do you think you are to say that about our Master Shang?" A beautiful woman in enchanting clothes squinted at Henry.

"Brother, you're so bold that you even dare to talk about Young Master Shang."

"Ha-ha, this brother surnamed Zhang has always liked to talk big." Tyler came from the side.

"My friend, I think you should be careful." Frank's assistant also came over.

Most of the people who came to this gathering today wanted to please Frank. Henry's criticism could be said to have caused a great stir. At once, many people expressed their dissatisfaction to Henry and showed their dissatisfaction in front of Frank's assistant.

"What's wrong? There's something wrong with him. Did I say something about you?" Henry asked.

"Of course it's related. You have to apologize to Master Shang!" The enchanting beauty was very angry.

Chapter 286

The status of Frank in this group of people could be said to be very high. Almost everyone was thinking about how to please him. Some women even tried their best to make Young Master Shang look at them more.

"Yes, apologize!"

"Apologize to Master Shang!"

"You must apologize!"

People echoed one after another, and all of them were shouting at Henry.

In the face of these voices, Henry laughed, "If I am wrong, I will apologize. If I am beaten, I will stand upright. This guy is a good-for-nothing, why should I apologize to him?"

"Do you dare to call Young Master Shang like this? Where is the security guard? Get him out of here!" One of them directly waved his arm and shouted the security guard.

"Who has the power to kick him out?" Hearing the noise here, Sofia came over.

Although Sofia was not a businessman, in Hanshi, she was neither big nor small. There were only a few people who were well-known in the upper class. Who didn't know Sofia, the only daughter of the Secretary's family? All of the people who were shouting just now shut up immediately.

They wanted to ingratiate themselves with Frank, and they couldn't afford to offend this big miss.

Sofia stood beside Henry, crossed her arms over her chest, looked at the arena, and said to Henry, "What do you think of these two people on the stage?"

Henry shook his head. "There's a common weakness in both of them. Their fighting consciousness is too weak. When they make moves, their movements are too big. If they encountered a real battle, they would be killed in three moves at most. Especially that Frank, he's a good-for-nothing. He's good at fighting, but he's using such a good move in such a bad way!"

The moves Frank had learned and used were all developed by Henry together with several other kings on the Island. It could be said that Henry was the founder of this set of martial arts.

For the martial arts he created, Henry was very clear about the lethality of this set of martial arts. Although it had not been practiced yet, it should not be so weak. It seemed that Frank was at a disadvantage in the ring.

Henry's evaluation of the two people on the stage made Sofia speechless.

In Sofia's opinion, these two people on the stage were already rare masters of the same age. But she didn't expect that in this man's words, they were worthless. They were even described as waste.

One man was really dissatisfied with Henry's words. He glanced at Henry and whispered, "Everyone can talk big. If you are really capable, go up and fight with him!"

"Oh, everyone, don't look down on Henry. He is not a person who only knows how to speak and will not fight." A voice sounded, which sounded like he was defending Henry. But what he said later made everyone laugh. "Look at my hand. I was just seriously injured. I just chatted with Henry and accidentally said something that Henry didn't like to hear. Henry attacked me, it looks like Henry has real ability."

The person who said this was Cody. His hand was wrapped in gauze, and every word he said could be said to be mocking Henry.

When the people around heard this, they immediately burst into laughter. "It seems that Henry still has selected targets."

"That's right. When he saw that Master Yang's hand was injured, he attacked Master Yang. In my opinion, isn't it better for him to find a primary school student to collect protection fees? Who dares to provoke him?"

"A King with a strong tongue, he is really a King with a strong tongue!" A burst of sarcasm came, causing a burst of laughter.

In the arena.

The battle between Frank and the young man had reached the most critical point. Under the young man's punch and foot, Frank only had time to dodge.

"He's really a good-for-nothing. The so-called masters are just a bunch of trash!" The young man said disdainfully.

Frank gritted his teeth and did not make a sound. His opponent's strength was beyond his imagination and also inspired his fighting spirit.

Frank was a person who was unwilling to admit defeat easily. Otherwise, he would not have let go of his young master and start this battle easily.

Waving his fist, Frank exerted all his strength to hit the young man three times in a row, but the young man easily dodged his three punches.

Once the other side gained the upper hand in the battle, the following battle might turn from a sticky one to a frenzied one.

This was the situation now. The two of them had been fighting back and forth, but now, it was the young man who had completely pressed down on Frank.

After the young man dodged the three punches from Frank, he twisted his body and pulled out a whip kick, which was very rapid and smooth. He used his waist to drive all his strength and kicked heavily on the outside of Frank's thigh.

Frank was kicked back a few steps by this kick. He only felt that his whole leg was numb and he couldn't exert his strength.

Taking advantage of the situation, the young man did not give up. He attacked again, forcing Frank to retreat one step after another. In the end, he was hit in the abdomen by the young man's fist, got to the ground with his waist bent, and his face was red.

This result caused the onlookers to exclaim in surprise.

"Master Shang!"

"How are you, Young Master Shang?"

"Who are you? Don't beat our Young Master Shang." A woman screamed.

The young man stepped forward, stepped on the back of Frank's hand, and spit a mouthful of saliva. "Bah, garbage! Do you know that your moves are just like a monkey's moves? Rough and disgusting!"

"Bullshit!" Frank growled in a low voice. "You're a monkey. I was just careless for a moment!"

"Hehe, if it wasn't in the arena, would you still be able to talk to me if you were careless?" The young man looked at Frank with disdain. On the young man's face, there was a lot of pride. "I've told you a long time ago that you barbarians would think you're great if you're forbearing. In fact, in our eyes, you're a bunch of rubbish!"

"Let me get me up. Let's fight again!" Frank wanted to pull his hand out from under the young man's feet, but the young man trampled him so hard that he couldn't do it at all.

"Fight again? Why?" The young man looked at Frank as if he was looking at an idiot. "Do you think I'm playing games with you here?"

"Let Young Master Shang go and fight again!"

"Yes!"

"I think you were lucky. Otherwise, why don't you dare to do it again?"

Under the stage, there was a burst of voices.

Frank glared at the young man. "Do you dare to do it again? If I hadn't been careless just now, you wouldn't have..."

Before he finished his words, he was interrupted by a loud shout from the audience.

"Enough! Do you think you're not ashamed enough? A life-and-death struggle is a matter of life and death. When it comes to a life-and-death battle, will your opponent give you another chance?"

This shout caused the entire room to fall into silence.

Everyone looked at the speaker and wanted to know who was so ignorant that dared to reprimand Frank in front of so many people.

Chapter 287

At the same time, the two people in the arena also subconsciously looked at the speaker.

Henry pushed away the crowd in front of him and walked toward the arena.

At the moment when he saw Henry, Frank's pupil suddenly dilated. He clearly remembered Henry. This was... His Excellency!

In the eyes of Frank, there was deep respect, but others did not notice this.

The young man looked at Henry with disdain and said, "What's wrong? Another good-for-nothing?"

"Haha." Henry chuckled. "Would you like to try and see whether I am good-for-nothing?"

Henry stood in front of the arena and also looked at the young man provocatively.

Just now, Henry thought about it again and again and made a decision. He planned to test this so-called mysterious force himself. By the way, he also wanted to know what the so-called mysterious force was.

What the young man said last night was also transmitted to Henry's ears by his people.

Whether it was scorn for the Reapers or a joke to describe Radiant Island, it could show the young man's confidence was pretty high. His words "When the cat is not at home, mice dance on the table" made Henry think a lot.

Sofia was interested in Henry when she saw that he wanted to take action. She opened her beautiful eyes wide and looked at the stage.

"Hey, Henry, who are you scolding? Apologize to Young

Master Shang!"

"F*ck, don't you know what you are? Watch your tone when you talk to Young Master Shang!"

Some people who wanted to show their kindness to Frank came to their senses as soon as possible. While the scene was a little silent, they shouted to make Frank remember them.

Cody sneered and thought, "Henry, you're really arrogant. Well, I don't have to deal with you anymore. Someone will teach you how to behave!"

In the circle of Hangshi, what would happen if anyone offended Frank? They knew the result without even thinking about it. Then they would definitely not be able to survive in Hangshi.

Cody was overjoyed in his heart. Just like this, would the Xiao Family still want to cooperate with Y&Y Venture? Of course not!

Tyler also looked at the arena with satisfaction. Henry's behaviour really made him feel very comfortable. Others really couldn't stop him from courting death!

Henry's behaviour made Milan frown. Although she was also very dissatisfied with this Frank, she did not care about the company's affairs and only handed it over to her assistant, she was not happy. It was not good to say it directly.

Some people who saw Henry was unhappy secretly laughed in their hearts. If they offended Frank openly, they would see how he would deal with them. In the future, they would not even be able to stay in Hangshi!

Those who showed their kindness to Frank all scrambled to shout at Henry and showed their kindness in front of Frank.

At first, Frank was surprised by Henry's appearance, but when he heard the reproach around him, his face became more and more ugly.

This was His Excellency, a bigwig that even his teacher had to respect when he saw him. It was his good fortune that he reprimanded and taught him. But now, he was reprimanded instead?

What made him angry was that how could these people shout at His Excellency obtrusively!

"Enough!" Frank shouted. As soon as he made a sound, no one else dared to make another sound in the whole living room.

Everyone guessed that Young Master Shang was angry. It was time for that guy surnamed Zhang to get into trouble!

Both Tyler and Cody were watching the scene of bustle, waiting to see Henry scolded.

Frank got up from the ground, glanced around, and finally fixed his eyes on Henry.

Those present looked at Henry with sarcasm in their eyes. They even thought about what to say after they hit him.

Some people speculated that Frank should have made the guy surnamed Zhang get out of here.

Some people also thought that Frank would teach this man a good lesson and let him understand that trouble came from the mouth.

However, the attitude of Frank was beyond everyone's expectation. He looked at Henry without any anger on his face. Instead, he was respectful and respectful. "Sir, you're right, I'm trash."

Just now, Henry's behaviour in front of so many people caused everyone to fall into silence.

At this moment, Frank's attitude towards Henry once again caused everyone to fall into silence.

Who was Frank Shang? The Prince of the Y&Y! Even his father, the richest man in Hangshi, might not be able to make him speak so politely, but the man with the surname Zhang in front of him could do it!

Nobody would believe that Frank didn't know Henry.

What was the identity of a person who had earned the respect of the prince of the Y&Y?

Those who sneered at Henry just now had a particularly wonderful expression on their faces at this time. Did they offend someone with a higher status in order to please a big shot?

What kind of role did this person have?

Some people didn't even dare to think about it.

Cody and Tyler were the representatives. In this place, they had the deepest conflict with Henry. As a result, they found that they seemed to have underestimated Henry all the time!

Cody and Tyler were somewhat flustered.

There was a strange look in Milan's beautiful eyes, and she re-examined Henry.

"All right, you can come down." Henry waved to Frank.

Frank nodded repeatedly and walked down from the ring. If you looked at him carefully, you would find that his eyes on Henry were full of admiration and yearning.

Stepping onto the arena, Henry looked at the young man, and so did the young man.

Henry observed that there was a jade pendant hanging around the young man's neck. It had the character "Chen" written on it. The jade pendant was shaped like a tiger's head, carved in a vivid way.

The young man's face was full of pride. He stared at Henry and said, "Boy, in fact, I've long been unhappy with you. Today, you're looking for death. Then, I'll help you."

"What a coincidence." Henry smiled slightly. "I was unhappy with you for a long time."

Frank stood under the ring and looked at the ring with excitement. This was done by His Excellency. He didn't have the chance to see it in daily life!

Henry looked down the stage and said to Frank, "Watch and learn. There are some things that I only do once. How much you can learn depends on you."

Frank nodded repeatedly.

"Kid, you're so arrogant!" The young man stared at Henry and said, "But what I want to tell you is that your arrogance is not worth mentioning in front of me."

"Really?" Henry raised his eyebrows to the young man and said, "I also want to say that your pride is not worth mentioning in front of me!"

"You're courting death!" The young man's face suddenly changed, and he rushed toward Henry.
