

Chapter 721 Six Votes Left

There were forty votes in total from both the overground network and the underground network actually. Due to the conflicts in America, Miao Bai and Pei He couldn't show up yet so there were eight votes missing from the overground network—the votes from Anderson's Company and Adler Company. However, there were still a lot of representatives from the underground network who hadn't casted their votes yet.

“I vote for Master Tang Yin!” At this time, the last representative from the underground network cast his vote and the result was no longer a tie!

18 votes for Tang Yin while Tang Wei only had 17 votes!

Chapter 721 Six Votes Left

In this case, with the 13 votes from the overground network and the 18 votes from the underground network, Tang Yin had gained a total of 31 votes. As for Tang Wei, with the 13 votes from the overground network, and 17 votes from the underground network, she only had a total of 30 votes!

“31 votes!” After a moment of silence, Tao Huaisheng suddenly roared.

Laughing, Tao Huaisheng stood up. “Old Master, I believe Master Tang Yin has won a total of 31 votes! Shouldn’t you announce that Master Tang Yin is the next patriarch of the Tang Family?”

All the regional managers behind Tang Yin had an excited look on their faces. With 31 votes, Tang Yin was obviously the winner, with an extra vote more than Tang Wei.

In this way, Tang Yin was definitely the next patriarch of the Tang Family. As for the crowd behind Tang Wei, they became uneasy, especially Han Qi.

Staring mindlessly at the number of votes, Han Siyu's eyes were immediately welled up.

We lose?

Did we really lose?

Han Qi's expression was very dark. She was going to pass out.

If Tang Wei really loses, what would happen to the Han Family?

Chapter 721 Six Votes Left

That underground network's representative who had just voted smiled at Tang Yin before he went down the stage.

Stepping forward, Tao Huaisheng said to Tang Yuanbo, "Old Master, please announce Master Tang Yin as the next patriarch of the Tang Family!"

"Silence! Do you have the rights to speak here?" Tang Ke suddenly stood up, flustered while he looked at Tang Yuanbo. "Grandfather, this result is not valid..."

"Not valid? Why is it not valid?" Yuan Zhian stared at Tang Ke coldly.

"T-T-Tang Yin...He..." Tang Ke looked at Yuan Zhian angrily. However, he couldn't make up any good reasons. The results were based on votes, and it was also the rule of the Tang Family. If the results were not valid, what Tang Yuanbo said just now would be bullshit.

“Of course it’s not valid if we still don’t know the winner!”

Raising her head, Tang Wei coldly glanced at Yuan Zhian. After suppressing her agitation, she stood up. “Grandfather, as I know, the Tang Family still has six votes from America! As the country with the largest economic circle in the world, we must not ignore these 6 votes!”

Tang Yuanbo suddenly realized that the 6 votes from America were not here yet.

Chapter 721 Six Votes Left

If we have these 6 votes, then maybe many problems can be solved quickly.

“Do we really have to wait for the 6 votes from America?” Tao Huaisheng sneered.

“Why not?” At this time, Tang Yuanbo suddenly said. “Since it’s also the property of the Tang family, they are qualified to vote too. Now, although Tang Yin has slightly won by one vote, it still can’t prove that he is the next patriarch of the Tang Family!”

“Old man, is that how it works? If that’s the case, the 5 votes from Mr. Miao still hasn't arrived yet. Are you trying to give Mr. Miao room to cast his 5 votes?” Tao Huaisheng asked coldly.

Tang Yuanbo felt humiliated. “This is the Tang Family’s rule, so I had the final say!”

With these words, the people’s expressions sank.

Tang Yuanbo had the final say!

Does that mean that even if Master Tang Yin has gained a higher vote, he could be easily denied by Tang Yuanbo?

“Go and ask how long would it take for the representatives from America to arrive...” Tang Yuanbo ordered as he waved his hand to signal the old housekeeper.

The old butler nodded and hurriedly excused himself.

Chapter 721 Six Votes Left

With a cold face, Tang Yin was disappointed with Tang Yuanbo. Miao Bai is disqualified by Tang Yuanbo because he didn't turn up at the annual meeting. So now, seeing that Tang Wei is going to lose, he decided to wait for that 6 votes from America?

Yuan Zhian was very angry. Just when she was about to get up, Tang Yin held her down in her place again.

“Believe in Pei He!” Tang Yin coldly ordered.

Yuan Zhian clenched her fists.

At this time, Tang Wei was not in a good mood. Although the representatives from America had 6 votes, she didn't know the situation there. She only knew that Anderson would come here as fast as possible after he had solved the problem in America. Yet, she didn't know how long it would take.

Yuan Zhian was uneasy too. After taking a few steps backward, she took out her photo to call Pei Ruo.

Toot... toot.... Although the phone call had been ringing for a long time, nobody picked it up.

Yuan Zhian's expression paled. Instantly, she turned to call Pei He. However, she still couldn't get through. In addition to that, Yuan Zhian also couldn't reach Tao Qingfan.

At this moment, Yuan Zhian looked at Tang Yin in panic. "Something's not right!” she whispered.

Raising an eyebrow, Tang Yin felt a little nervous.

At this time, the old butler came out from behind. “A plane is about to land. It is said that it came from Los Angeles. Yet, we couldn’t confirm who it belonged to...” he announced to the crowd.

“Oh?” Tang Yuanbo raised his head, smirking. “No matter who they are, they are qualified to cast that 6 votes!”

“Yes, sir!” The old housekeeper nodded without another word.

Hearing these words, the people who were present immediately looked at the direction of the airport.

Since it is from Los Angeles, these people must have come from America. Then, this plane must be carrying the 6 votes from America? Currently, Tang Yin has one more vote than Tang Wei. If these 6 votes are added to Tang Wei, she might still have a chance to win!

“Aunt...” Han Siyu whispered nervously as she pulled Han Qi's sleeve. Her eyes were filled with worry.

“Don't worry, I'm sure the plan that is landing must be Tang Wei's supporters!” Han Qi said softly.

Actually, Tang Wei too had no confidence at all at this time. She had also asked someone to call those who were in America, but no one picked up the phone.

Anderson didn't answer; Alicia didn't answer, not even Bruce.

Of course Tang Wei was tense too.

The sound of the helicopter sounded over the sky in Tang Island's airport. Then, a private plane landed on Tang Island.

All the people present were focusing their attention on this private plane. They were very nervous because the successor to the next patriarch of the Tang Family greatly affects everyone who had made their choice. .

They knew that if Pei He was the one who showed up, this meant that Tang Yin would win. If Anderson was the one who comes, Tang Wei would be the winner.

A moment later, a motorcade came from the airport in the distance. Everyone was in a tense and alarmed state.

After driving all the way to the meeting square, the motorcade stopped slowly.
