

Chapter 715 An Unexpected Obtruder

Tao Huaisheng felt a little relieved upon hearing Tang Yin's affirmative reassurance. Particularly at this critical moment, Tang Yin, as the biggest supporter of these subordinates, must stand firm so that they wouldn't panic.

Although Tang Yin's current performance was quite good, he had yet to be on a par with Tang Lijiang. Moreover, Tang Yin only had a little achievement in the business field. If the Tang Family wanted to take care of their future development in the long term, Tang Lijiang and Jiang Hui were still needed to handle the family business.

The atmosphere in Tang Island was gloomy as the sky was fully filled with dark clouds.

Tang Wei took the lead, with Han Qi following at her side and a few European regional managers following behind her.

In terms of the supporters, Tang Wei and Tang Yin seemed to be nip and tuck. As for Tang Ke, his supporters were the least compared to them.

Three of the Tang siblings remained silent as they walked toward the meeting square.

Sitting on the Patriarch's seat, Tang Yuanbo appeared as cold as an attic as he fixed his gaze on his grandsons and granddaughter.

Three of them were the third generation of the Tang Family who were capable enough to take part in the annual meeting today.

Tang Wei, leading at the front, slightly bowed at Tang Yuanbo to show her respect before she went to the seat of the main family. Then, as Tang Yin walked toward his seat, he briefly glanced through Tang Yuanbo and heard the latter's sneer.

Tang Yin didn't care about it at all. Slowly, he walked to the seat of the Second Family alone before he sat down. Yuan Zhian, who was following behind him, took the next seat slightly behind him. As for Tao Huaisheng and the other supporters, they directly sat behind Tang Yin.

Tang Ke went forward and took a bow at Tang Yuanbo before walking toward his seat. His sullen eyes kept glancing up and down at Tang Yin, while Ayero, who was at his side, was focusing on Tang Yin with a pair of squinting eyes.

Both Tang Ke and Ayero had been looking for a way to break the amulet on Tang Yin since yesterday night. However, they couldn't find the solution after the whole night.

“Since everyone is here, Tang E should join us too!”

Tang Yuanbo looked around with his eyes filled with apathy and said, “No one should be left out from the Tang Family Annual Meeting!”

As soon as he said that, everyone at the scene shifted their eyes in confusion at Tang Yuanbo.

What does he mean? No one should be left out?

The incident of Tang Lishan being killed by Tang Yin was already the talk of the town. If Tang Yuanbo made such a statement on this occasion, it was self-evident that he was taking a shot at Tang Yin.

Tang Yin raised his head with an unsettled feeling in his heart, for he didn't expect Tang Yuanbo to save Tang E from the trouble. That incident in Los Angeles had created a huge stir among the public back then. Tang E was directly involved in the death of Mr. Henley, yet the Henley Family were actually willing to let him go? How much has Tang Yuanbo sacrificed in order to save Tang E from the trouble?

After a moment, Tang E came out from behind with a dark expression on his face. There weren't many supporters behind him. Nonetheless, his eyes were full of resentment as he stared at Tang Yin.

Tang Yin remained an indifferent expression. It seemed that he wasn't affected by any of them.

Even after taking his seat, Tang E was still glaring at Tang Yin while gritting his teeth with resentment. Tang E naturally knew what happened back then. His mother, Tang Lishan, was killed by Tang Yin before he could resolve the enmity between them.

How would Tang E be fine with it?

“Since everyone is here now, let’s begin our meeting!” Tang Yuanbo raised his hand and said nonchalantly.

The old butler nodded his head before he took two steps forward. Looking at the attendees of the meetings, he announced gently, “The Tang Family Annual Meeting begins now. The first agenda is to declare the collaboration of the Four Great Families with the Tang Family.”

The collaboration was just to know which side each of the Four Great Families took.

The same thing was done in the last annual meeting. They just wanted every representative from the Four Great Families to voice out their stands once again to state the side which they took, which was actually an obvious fact that everyone knew.

“On behalf of the Meng Family, I support Tang Yin!” Meng Sizhi took the initiative to start the agenda by making the statement. He then looked at Tang Yuanbo and said while saluting him with folded hands, “Old Master Tang, you should have known that we are always on Tang Yin’s side. There won’t be any changes on this both now and in the future!”

Tang Yuanbo’s face was slightly filled with darkness.

“We, the Ouyang Family, support Tang

Yin!” Ouyang Yan stood out to state this simple statement before she went back to her seat again.

The sky above the Tang Island seemed to be darker after these two representatives of the Great Families made themselves clear with their sides. Two of the Great Families had declared to stand with Tang Yin now, therefore how could the others go against him?

Nodding his head, Tang Yuanbo said softly, “The Tang Family has always been in a good relationship with the Four Great Families all these years. However, regardless of that, we have our own style to rule our own family. Even though you may have your own choice candidate, it doesn’t represent the final decision of the Tang Family.”

Chapter 715 An Unexpected Obtruder

His words were obviously taking a shot at Tang Yin. Basically, Tang Yuanbo had made himself clear that he wouldn't acknowledge the Four Great Families' support to Tang Yin.

Tang Yin felt the bitterness in his heart. No matter how much effort he had put in, his grandfather would never recognize him.

“The Shen Family supports Tang Wei!” Shen Feng raised his hand among the attendees. Although he was the only representative from the Shen Family, he had the absolute right to speak.

“The Ruan Family supports Tang Ke!” someone from the Ruan Family stood up and raised his hand while saying that.

Tang Yuanbo only nodded his head without saying a word.

The old butler took a glance at everyone who was in the annual meeting. Looking toward everyone, he announced, “Currently, two of the Four Great Families are on Tang Yin’s side...”

“Grandpa!” Tang E suddenly stood up with his teary eyes filled with resentment. “I know that you have just said that the Four Great Families have no right to interfere with the internal decision of the Tang Family as we have our own style to rule our family, but still, I want to remind you to be aware of Tang Yin! He is a greedy and cruel person with wild ambition! You shall never let him take over the Tang Family!”

Chapter 715 An Unexpected Obtruder

A commotion began among all the attendees.

Is Tang E here to create trouble?

Tang Yin only glared at Tang E from the side in silence. Why did Tang Yuanbo make a huge sacrifice to save someone foolish like him?

Still remained in silence, Tang Yin only took a deep breath without replying to her.

“Grandpa, I have no idea why two of the Four Great Families chose to stand at Tang Yin’s side, but I believe that you’re wise enough to tell that he is just a petty person...” Tang E became emotional as he spoke. He actually took a step forward and knelt on his knees.

“Get up!” Looking at that, Tang Yuanbo showed a delightful and praiseful expression on his face. “You don’t have to do this! Although I’m old now, I still have the ability to tell what is right and what is wrong...”

“Grandpa...” After making a hard kowtow at Tang Yuanbo, Tang E pointed his finger at Tang Yin with his face full of tears. “People have been talking about the death of my mom, Tang Lishan. She was killed by Tang Yin! Hereby, I beg you to get rid of Tang Yin, that beast, in order to save the reputation of the Tang Family!”
