

Chapter 553

Amity's mother was a kind person, and she couldn't hide anything in her heart. Otherwise, Amity's aunt would not be able to take almost one million yuan from them so easily.

Now, when Amity's mother heard that Kelly and her husband were playing tricks on them, she couldn't help but shout out directly.

Those who were going to sign and those who had already signed looked over here.

"Second sister, what are you talking about? The fraud?" The middle-aged woman said as she was preparing to sign.

Amity's mother shook her head vigorously and said, "Listen to me. The compensation money they gave is not right. They are giving us at least a few thousand less. Please don't sign it!"

"A few thousand?" Toby laughed and said, "You are so funny. This time, Kelly has managed to get tens of thousands of yuan for each of us. How can she give us a few thousand yuan less?"

"That's right. Besides, we don't care about the few thousand yuan since we have hundreds of thousands of yuan. Let it be a reward for Kelly," one of them said.

"Kelly was very helpful in getting us this much money."

"Second sister, I thought it was a big deal. It's just a few thousand yuan. It's okay." The middle-aged woman waved her hand indifferently.

"No, no." Amity's mother looked anxious. "Not from the total price. But thousands of yuan has been taken for every square meter!"

"What!"

As soon as the words of Amity's mother came out, it immediately attracted a burst of exclamation. Thousands per square meter?

Kelly and the middle-aged man's faces changed, and they looked at Toby.

Toby's face also darkened at this moment. He shouted, "Don't talk nonsense. Thousands per each square meter? Are you the one who arranged this money?"

"Bi*ch, don't talk nonsense!" The middle-aged man beside Kelly directly rolled up his sleeves and walked toward Amity's mother with an unkind look. "You really need someone to teach you a lesson. You are shameless!"

The middle-aged man walked to the front of Amity's mother, raised his hand and about to slap her.

"Bang!" A crisp sound was heard, but it was not the sound made by the middle-aged man.

Instead, Henry's palm fell on the middle-aged man's face.

The middle-aged man was stunned by Henry's slap.

"What are you doing? How dare you beat people?!" Kelly screamed and ran over.

Amity's mother was just shocked by the middle-aged man's attempt to slap her and closed her eyes subconsciously. It was not until Henry slapped the middle-aged man that she reacted and opened her eyes.

Henry shook his hand and said with a smile, "From the legal perspective, what I did just now could be regarded as a kind of self-defence. When he attacked me, I hit him completely within the scope of the law's permission. Excuse me, why wouldn't I dare to beat him?"

Henry's words stunned Kelly. She didn't expect that Henry would say such a thing and she didn't know how to answer.

"Law? Fu*k the law!" The middle-aged man roared. "How dare you to hit me? Do you know who I am? Toby, is this still your place?!"

Toby was standing at the side, he also did not expect that Henry would hit people. He thought that the person who was beaten was Amity's mother. After the middle-aged man's shout, he quickly ran over and scolded, "Amity, what are you doing? Who let him hit people!?"

"He started the fight first!" Amity frowned. Although she was kind, she would not allow others to bully her.

"Fight? Who started?" Toby shouted, "I only saw that the person you brought started the fight. Apologize!"

After Toby finished the word, he quickly smiled at Kelly and said, "Kelly, let your husband calm down. I will deal with this matter."

"Toby Guo, I'm telling you, if you can't solve it, I will deal with you!" Kelly glared at Toby, and then quickly reached out to stroke the middle-aged man's side face and said in a delicate voice, "Honey, are you okay?"

"Quickly, apologize!" Toby shouted at Amity.

"Nope!" Amity puffed out her cheeks and said firmly.

"No? If you don't apologize, get out of the village. We don't welcome you here!" Toby stretched out his hand and pointed in the direction of the village entrance. "The old house of your family in the village is compensation for Kelly!"

"Why? What right do you have to do that?" Amity was furious.

"Just because I'm the son of the village chief, and you're nothing. You're just an outsider. Get out of here!" Toby directly said without shameless.

Hearing these words, Amity and her mother trembled with anger.

Toby looked at them shaking the body with anger. He was very proud. He hoped the two of them would leave immediately. In this way, he could sell her old house. The regular compensation price for one square metre was nine thousand yuan. The old house was nearly 100 square meters, and he could get hundreds of thousands!

"Toby, don't think that I don't know what you're doing. Give up. The house is under my mother's name. Even if we leave, you will not get the compensation!" Amity gritted her teeth. After so many things, Amity was not as simple and easy to bully as before. She could see Toby's plan at a glance.

Toby sneered and said, "What do you mean? Your boyfriend hit Kelly's husband. Don't you have to pay the medical fees? That house is just enough for medical expenses! I'm telling you, Amity, don't play rogue here. If this matter is ruined because your family has offended Kelly and her husband, you will need to give an explanation to all these people. So much money is involved here, do you want to give it to them?"

While speaking, Toby deliberately mentioned everyone in order to suppress Amity.

Sure enough, after Toby said this, many people looked at Amity and her mother with hostile eyes.

"Amity, if you have nothing to do, you can leave first. If you don't want to sign it, don't delay us." A woman in her fifties said discontentedly.

After the woman spoke, many people spoke again.

"Yes, we want to sign the contract. If you don't want to sign it, you can leave."

"Don't ruin our future!"

"Go! You're not welcome!"

A lot of voices were heard. All of a sudden, so many people asked Amity and her mother to leave. The scene was unbelievable.

Henry sighed. Most of these people were distant relatives. Temptation could destroy people's relationship. Not to mention distant relatives, Amity's aunt and her mother were siblings but still ended up the relationship because of the money.

Chapter 554

A group of people continued to urge them to leave quickly.

"Get out of here. Do you still need us to beat the gongs and drums to see you off?" Toby said with a sneer, crossing his arms over his chest.

Amity's mother was willing to say those words just now just because she didn't want them to be cheated. In the end, she actually became a bad person.

Henry sighed and patted the shoulder of her. "Auntie, sometimes you have to learn not to be so kind. You can just tell some things to some people once. Whether they can come to sense or not is their own business. No matter what you say to them, it's all meaningless."

"Alas." Amity's mother nodded. The last incident and the matter this time had taught her a lesson.

"Mom, let's go!" Amity held her mother's hand.

"Don't worry, go to the house and take the real estate certificates. Although it's not worth a lot of money, don't let them take advantage of you." Henry reminded them.

"Yes!" Amity nodded vigorously, pulled her mother, and walked toward the old house.

Toby clearly heard what they said. He didn't care about what they would do. This was the village of the Guo family. His father was the village chief, and it was not hard for him to have the final say.

Henry accompanied Amity and her mother to the old house.

Kelly and the middle-aged man stared at Henry's back, and their eyes were full of anger. The middle-aged man clenched his fists.

"Honey, don't be angry. We'll deal with him after we earn all the money here!" Kelly persuaded in a low voice.

"Don't worry, I know." The middle-aged man took a deep breath. Compared with revenge, making money was more important. As long as it was done today, at least hundreds of millions would be in his pocket. He would live carefree for the rest of his life.

The middle-aged man calmed down and said, "Well, if you want to sign it, come and sign it."

Toby also helped to shout, "Sign it quickly. There is only one chance. How big is your house? How much can you earn? You know it clearly!"

Under Toby's encouragement, everyone rushed to sign the contract.

At this moment, a Rolls-Royce slowly drove into the entrance of the village. As soon as the luxury car appeared, it immediately attracted a lot of attention.

"Wow, look what kind of car that is!"

"That is Rolls-Royce. This car is worth millions."

"Millions? My God, who is this? I don't remember that there are people in our village who have so much money."

Everyone looked at the Rolls-Royce and exclaimed.

Kelly's husband immediately let go of the business and rushed to the Rolls-Royce as soon as he saw the car.

The Rolls-Royce stopped in front of everyone. As the door opened, a middle-aged man got out of the car.

"President Fong, you are here." Kelly's husband nodded and bowed to the middle-aged man who got out of the car and greeted him.

This middle-aged man was Raymond Fong, who had gathered all the major associations in Mountain City last time.

As soon as Raymond got out of the car, he asked Kelly's husband, "How is it going?"

"President Fong, don't worry. Things are going good." Kelly's husband answered repeatedly.

"Okay, I came to have a look. You'd better take this thing seriously." When Raymond spoke, he looked at the crowd on purpose. The reason why he came here was not just to have a look, but because he was following Samuel's instructions.

As a matter of fact, this time, the Lighting Industry had several choices, but it chose Guo Village because Samuel had heard that it was the hometown of Amity's mother. In order to leave a good impression on Henry, Samuel had come up with a way to give some money to Amity's family. He had specially told Raymond to satisfy Amity in whatever ways.

The purpose of Raymond's visit this time was to see what the reaction of Amity was about the compensation. However, he couldn't find her.

Raymond took a look at them, got in the car, and was ready to leave.

As soon as Raymond sat in the car, he heard a shout.

"Get out of here. Don't get in my way."

This shout made Raymond subconsciously look out of the car.

Kelly's husband quickly explained, "President Fong, don't worry. Those are just some people who don't know what's good for them."

Raymond nodded and took a look. Suddenly, he saw Amity. Not only was there Amity, but also the man who Samuel called Big Brother was also there.

And it was three of them who got scolded.

Raymond was shocked. "What's going on?"

"Leave. You're not welcome here!"

"Get out!" Toby shouted.

Amity was too lazy to look at these so-called distant relatives. She pulled her mother and strode toward the parking place.

Amity's mother listened to the voices around her. She felt bitter and speechless. Her intention was to protect everybody.

Henry was calm. He had been in this society for so long, and he had seen all kinds of scenes. Even his own brothers could cut off each other's head for a piece of meat.

When Henry and the other two passed by Kelly and her husband, he said fiercely, "Boy, I'll remember your slap. Just wait!"

Henry acted as if he hadn't heard his words and didn't care at all.

"Zhang... Boss Zhang..." Raymond quickly got out of the car and greeted Henry.

"You are..." Henry looked at Raymond with some doubts. He thought that this person looked familiar, but he couldn't remember who he was.

When Raymond gathered many gang clubs that day, Henry didn't pay attention to him at all. It was normal that he couldn't remember him after such a long time.

"Brother Henry, he is Raymond Fong. He was called by Samuel that day." Amity remembered Raymond and reminded Henry.

"Yes, Boss Zhang. I met you when you were with Master Wu last time. It's understandable if you don't remember me." Raymond spoke again, half bowing.

Raymond's attitude towards Henry made Kelly and her husband, who were standing on the side, widen their eyes. They couldn't believe it. "This is President Fong! He can decide our faith with only one word. Now he is so respectful to this guy. Who is this guy?"

Thinking of this, Kelly and her husband took a deep breath and felt that their legs were a little weak and thought, "Did they make trouble for themselves this time?"

Besides, Master Wu was the son of the richest man in Mountain City. How could Amity call him Samuel? And how could she shout it so casually?

Such a scene made Kelly and her husband feel cold in their hearts.

Chapter 555

Henry looked at Raymond, thought for a moment, and asked, "Is your company doing the demolition here?"

"Yes." Raymond nodded repeatedly.

"How much is the compensation?" Henry deliberately asked. Although he didn't care about what these people from Guo Village talked about him, he still wanted to clarify this misunderstanding.

When Kelly and her husband heard Henry's question, their faces suddenly changed, and even Toby's face turned extremely ugly.

Raymond smiled and said, "Boss Zhang, the compensation for our demolition has always been calculated according to the downtown area and the average price of the houses in Mountain City. The compensation is 9800 yuan per square metre."

9800 yuan!

Raymond's words shocked everyone in Guo Village.

The corners of Henry's mouth curled up. Sure enough, it was as he guessed. Kelly and her husband were so cruel that they offered the price of 2000 yuan per square metre!

"9800 yuan per square metre? Kelly, why did you tell us that it was 2000?" The middle-aged woman who was the first to scold Amity's mother was the first to ask.

Kelly cut nearly 8,000 yuan from each square metre. Most of the people present owned 200- square-metres houses. In this case, they would compensate 1.6 million yuan less to each family!

There were hundreds of people!

Kelly's back was suddenly covered with sweat.

A group of villagers all looked at Kelly and her husband.

"Kelly, you two are so vicious! That's how you tricked us!"

"How could you do that?"

"You're so shameless!"

The scolding sounds rang out.

Hearing the voice, Amity couldn't help but smile.

"Second sister, I was really wrong about you." The middle-aged woman who came with Henry before quickly said, "If you hadn't warned me, I would have signed it. I didn't expect Kelly to be so heartless and steal money from her own relatives!"

"That's right, Second Sister. Thank you. Otherwise, we would have been tricked by this beast!"

The people, who had shouted at Amity and her mother moments ago, all spoke out one after another.

Amity and her mother did not speak. Just now, they had seen the real faces of everyone, so there was nothing else to say.

Hearing the villagers' words, Raymond glared at Kelly's husband and scolded, "What are you doing? Who told you to lower the price?"

Raymond's heart was filled with fear at the same time. Fortunately, he met Boss Zhang today, and he asked the question. He really didn't know that the compensation price had been reduced. If the deal was really closed, these villagers would find out and make trouble in the future. If Amity were dissatisfied with him, he would be destroyed by Master Wu!

Thinking of Master Wu's way of torture, Raymond kept breaking out in cold sweat all over his back. He was almost tricked by others!

Thinking of this, Raymond was even angrier. He stared at Kelly's husband and said, "You dare to steal our money. Think about the consequences yourself!"

Kelly and her husband's face turned extremely pale at this time. Now it was not only these villagers who cursed fiercely, but even President Fong had to investigate. Once the Lighting Industry investigated this matter, they would be in big trouble. Would they be able to survive?

"President Fong! I'm sorry, President Fong. I was blinded by money. Please forgive me this time, forgive me!" Kelly's husband knelt on the ground with a bump and pulled Kelly at the same time.

Kelly did not dare to hesitate and quickly knelt in front of Raymond.

Raymond snorted. "Forgive you? Let's see if everyone can forgive you!"

Kelly's eyes were fixed on the villagers, who were all angry.

"You heartless b*stards! Bah!"

"Get out of here!"

The villagers cursed.

Kelly's face turned pale when she heard them!

Kelly's brother held a stick in his hand and glared at Kelly with hatred. Then he turned around and was about to leave.

"Brother! Brother! Please help me, please! Please help me!" Kelly quickly got up and ran two steps, kneeling in front of her brother. Kelly knew very well that if President Fong was really angry about this, she would have no future!

"Help you?" Kelly's brother sneered and said, "What can I do for you? Help you to cheat everyone?"

"No, no." Kelly shook her head vigorously and said in a tearful tone, "Brother, it's not me who come up this idea. It was Toby who took the initiative to contact me and said that he would share the money with me equally. I never thought of cheating people!"

Kelly's words surprised everyone again, and they looked at Toby.

"Kelly, don't talk nonsense!" Toby's face suddenly changed.

"It is not nonsense!" Kelly took out her mobile phone from the bag in a fluster and played a video. In the video, Toby told Kelly they would share the compensation.

After seeing this video, all the villagers realized why Toby took the lead in signing. It was no wonder that he had been urging everyone to sign the contract quickly. No wonder when Amity's mother stopped everyone from signing, Toby had such a big reaction. In the end, this thing was caused by him.

Everyone now understood that they had utterly misunderstood Amity and her mother.

They looked at the place where they had just stood and found they were no longer there. A BMW slowly drove out of the village.

"Toby, you're a beast!"

A villager excitedly picked up a wooden stick and rushed to Toby.

All of a sudden, the village was in a mess.

In the car, Henry saw that Amity's mother was still in a bad mood. He comforted her, "Auntie, everyone in this world lives for themselves. There is no exception. Sometimes, unnecessary relationships should end. That is not a bad thing."

Sitting in the back seat, Amity took her mother's hands and said, "Mom, Brother Henry is right. We were bullied too much before."

Henry sighed when he saw through the rearview mirror that Amity's mother was still silent.

Many people would get very emotional when they get older, especially regarding their hometown. It was normal for them to be unable to recover in a short time when things suddenly turn out like this.

Initially, they wanted to celebrate an elder's birthday, but because of this incident, it did not happen. The three of them ate something casually. Henry let the Amity take her mother back to rest first. He went to take the crystal from Future and then met with Teresa and her brother.

When Henry arrived, a Buick commercial car just stopped in front of the front door of Uriah's company.

Chapter 556

The clans were more mysterious than the ancient kungfu families. The ancient kungfu families were mostly hidden in the city. After getting familiar with these families, one would find that there were ancient kungfu families in many places, both in the official or the business field. For example, the Su Family had many companies in Yanjing, and the place they lived was not far away from the city. Besides, people like Victor also had some power in the government.

But the clans were different. It could be said that the clans were entirely out of the everyday life circle and could not be seen at all.

They sat in the Buick commercial car and drove out of the city.

There were a lot of mountains around the city. Even the city was built in the mountains.

The destination of this car was a mountain.

Henry saw that there were no other cars on the steep mountain road, and there were many trees on both sides. There were no specific roads in some places. It could be said that this car had been travelling through the mountains and forests.

Uriah told Henry that many clans had an agreement with the authorities. If the clan did not come out in public, the officials would try their best to ensure that the clan would not be disturbed, so that the clan could live a peaceful life. As for why the two sides had reached such an agreement, Uriah himself was not clear.

The road they were driving on was not developed at all, and it was also a forbidden place for anyone to travel.

The mountain road stretched upwards. Ten minutes later, Henry looked out of the window. Obviously, they were already halfway up the mountain. The path was very difficult to drive, and there was obvious turbulence in the car.

Uriah said to Henry, "Brother Zhang, you are also a member of the clan, so you should know how long the clan has existed. Now there are many records in ancient books, which are not fictional. Our Tang family was called the Tang Sect for a period of time. There have been many generals and soldiers of the Tang Sect since ancient times, and there were many cunning and despicable people. In the most glorious time of the Tang Sect, there used to be such a saying that people would rather meet the king of hell than offend the Tang Sect."

When Uriah said the last sentence, there was a deep longing in his eyes. Unfortunately, the glory of the Tang Sect was no longer there.

When Uriah spoke, Henry didn't interrupt and just listened quietly. He needed to learn about them now. He knew too little about the clans.

Uriah continued, "We are different from the huge clan like the Li family of Longxi. The Li family has a lot of branches. Even now, the members of the Li family are all over the country. Our Tang family, even in our best of times, we were living in seclusion. Now even more. Only when we train the next generation will we let our young people go out to live for a few years."

Henry was surprised. "Many people in the ancient kungfu families have arranged marriages. Don't you want to arrange a marriage for them? Do you still want your clansmen to go out?"

Uriah gave a wry smile and said, "Brother Zhang, you don't know that although the Tang Sect used to be well-known, we only live in our own world because of our lack of understanding for the right and wrong in the kungfu world. We are not willing to be friends with noble sects and schools, but we also don't want to be in league with the evil spirits. Therefore, we do not have many friends. Until now, everyone has been trying their best to keep the family alive. Who will do such a thing by arranged marriage? An arranged marriage is equal to self-destruction."

Hearing this, Henry nodded his head. Indeed, if the number of people declined, the one who got in an arranged marriage was indeed self-destructing.

Watching the car heading up the mountain, Henry asked curiously, "Does your Tang family live in the mountain?"

"Yes." Uriah nodded. "Our Tang family mainly relies on mechanical hidden weapons. The reason why we are still alive is that there are mountains, as well as countless mechanical hidden weapons around us. How many kinds of traps are set up around here? Even we don't know. Only the old patriarch can fully control it. Otherwise, our Tang family would have declined long ago."

As Uriah spoke, he began to sigh.

Henry saw that the car he was driving into a cave. This cave was well-hidden. There was a bunch of vines on the mountain wall that blocked the entrance. One would not be able to remove all that vine even if he wanted to. Even if he wanted to drive in, he had to break through it. But if he didn't know what was inside, he would not only go in casually.

The car was driving fast in the dim cave for five minutes. Henry calculated the time and speed, and he concluded that at this moment, the car had absolutely reached the centre of the mountain.

The darkness lasted for a long time, and suddenly a white light lit up in front of him, which made Henry very uncomfortable.

The driver was well prepared. He drove the car toward the light.

Uriah was sitting next to Henry, took a deep breath and said, "Brother Zhang, welcome to... Tang family citadel!"

The car stopped. Facing the light, Henry saw a village completely built inside the mountain. The top of the mountain was not sealed, and the sun shone down along some of the gorges.

The village in front of them was built of wood and stone. The clothes worn by these people seemed to be incompatible with the outside world. They were all old-fashioned clothes. The houses were also built on the mountain walls. It was quaint. If some traditional clothes lover came here, they would definitely be ecstatic.

Henry went out of the car. Uriah and his sister also got out of the vehicle one after another.

At the moment when he saw Uriah, a man whistled hard on the opposite side of the mountain wall. The whistle was hovering in the valley. The people in the valley all looked at Uriah at the same time and finally focused on Henry.

Three ropes were thrown to Henry's feet. The rope hung on the mountain wall. If Henry wanted to completely enter the valley, he had to rely on the rope to slide down. This was also a threshold in the clan. Without any strength, it was impossible for someone to step into the clan's village.

Henry looked at the platform where he was standing. It was more than 20 meters above the ground. Ordinary people would tremble just by looking at their feet.

"Brother Zhang, let's go." Uriah smiled, pulled up the rope, jumped and slid down.

Teresa also pulled up a rope, and her body was as light as a wild goose.

Henry glanced around. In the valley, he felt a sense of crisis. This was Henry's instinct he got during all those life and death battles. Henry was sure that there must be a lot of traps hidden in the seemingly ordinary mountain walls around him.

Henry didn't take the rope at all. He walked to the edge of the platform and jumped down directly.

Chapter 557

Henry could tell that the reason why they threw the three ropes here was just to show off their power. Henry also wanted to show off his ability to the clan now. He was not sure what would happen. Maybe Uriah, who smiled at him the last second, would wield the butcher's knife toward him. After all, Henry had experienced so many things like this before.

Therefore, there had to be some necessary force to deter them. The reason why Henry came here was not to cause trouble but to cooperate with someone sincerely. Now that he had learned about the mysterious clan, the strength of Radiant Island had to be improved urgently.

Henry landed after jumping from 20 metres above the ground. When he stepped on the ground, he didn't even bend his knees, and he stood straight.

Those disciples of the Tang Clan, who had been watching Henry, couldn't help but shrink their pupils at the moment.

"Haha, Henry Zhang, young friend, I've heard a lot about you. Today, I see that you're really a great ambitious person." The laughter was heard not far away from Henry.

Henry looked up and saw an old figure in a cyan robe walking toward him. Uriah and Teresa were beside him.

"Brother Zhang, allow me to introduce you. This is the patriarch of the Tang Clan." Uriah said. When he mentioned the word "patriarch", Uriah unconsciously showed a hint of respect on his face, which showed the prestige of the patriarch in the clan.

Henry looked at the old man and nodded slightly. "Greetings, Patriarch."

"Haha, Henry, I've heard from Uriah before that you're good at kungfu. Not everyone can make that leap." While speaking, the patriarch looked up at the top of the stone platform.

Henry smiled slightly and said, "I'm flattered."

The patriarch chuckled and made a gesture of invitation. "Henry, it's the first time for you to come to our Tang Clan. Please forgive me if there is something we did wrong. Please!"

Henry looked at the direction in front of him. The place where the patriarch pointed to was a valley with no end in sight. Residential houses were everywhere on both sides of the mountain wall. There were also giant arrows. The arrow carriages were four meters wide and one meter long. Even an elephant could be pierced through by one arrow. Except for it, there were many killing traps. Beside these traps stood several people of the Tang Clan. All of them were looking at Henry.

Henry smiled slightly and said, "Thank you, Patriarch."

After that, Henry stepped forward.

The patriarch looked at Henry's movements with a hint of praise in his eyes. Which clan members could be as fearless as the young man in front of him?

The patriarch thought to himself that if Henry had been in a clan, he would not have dared to take such big strides forward.

What the patriarch didn't know was that Henry had faced so many more dangers than he was now. Sometimes, Henry would be fearless even if countless sniper rifles targeted him. These arrow carriages seemed to be powerful, but they were much weaker than the sniper rifles.

While Henry was moving forward, he was also looking around the entire Tang family Citadel.

Speaking of the Tang family Citadel, Henry thought that it was reasonable to call it Tang family Canyon. The Tang clan lived in the centre of a mountain, and the mountain walls on both sides stretched upward. At the end of the mountain wall, there should be a canyon. The people standing near the canyon absolutely did not expect that there was a different world deep inside this canyon.

People from Tang's clan planted vegetables and raised livestock. There was a river stretched along the mountain.

Of course, there were some traces of technology here, such as electric lights and so on.

Henry observed that no matter men or women, young or old, they all had a kind of fierceness on their faces, which was caused by years of kungfu practice.

Henry roughly calculated that there were 1,761 houses in the Tang family Citadel. Judging from the wooden structure and the current state, it could be speculated that most of the homes had one person, and few of them had many people inside. The men's houses were all on the east side of the mountain wall, and women's houses were all on the west side.

In the Tang clan, the number of male members was 1.2 times higher than the number of female members, so it could be said that there was a balance.

Passing through a valley which was 1,500 meters long, Henry came to a wide area, which was round. Except for the place where he came, there were mountain walls all around. This was the end of the Tang family Citadel.

In the Tang family Citadel, there was a vast circular area where Henry came, and then a valley led to another round area.

The circular area where Henry was located was twice as big as the entrance he just came in. Here, there was a magnificent hall. On the plaque of the hall, there were three big golden words: Tang Family Citadel!

Henry observed that there were several regions here, and a huge stage occupied nearly a quarter of the place. On the stage, hundreds of young men and women were waving their fists and shouting.

Henry's arrival made those young men and women on the stage subconsciously look at him. Henry's casual clothes seemed out of tune with the whole Tang family Citadel.

Henry saw that many middle-aged men and women were standing in front of the gate of Tang family Citadel. They all looked at him, and he thought that these people were giving off a powerful momentum.

If Henry had come here before he mastered the Qi, he would have been affected by the power of these people. But now, these people couldn't affect Henry at all.

After mastering the Qi, Henry's strength had a qualitative leap compared to before. In the past, Henry knew his limit, but now, even Henry himself did not know how strong he could be if he were to use all his strength.

At the same time, Henry was also sighing about the power of the clan. Even if the clan was declining, the few people who came out could be comparable to Sea God and Wade. If there was a fight, these people from the Tang clan could now be on the same level with some of the top forces from the island. Not to mention the Li family of Longxi, which even the Tang clan had to look up to.

This made Henry more eager to make Radiant Island stronger.

"Young man, I heard that you are the only one left in the Zhang clan. I don't know who your ancestors were. Maybe they were on good terms with the Tang clan." The patriarch of the Tang clan said.

Henry shook his head. "We are just a very small clan. It can be said that we usually only have one descendent per generation. Generally speaking, we don't have any contact with the outside world. The place where our family is located is on the far west, so there could be no connection between us."

Hearing this, the patriarch's face showed a sense of loss. "Young man, is your clan ranked on the clan's ranking list?"