

Chapter 548

When Darren saw his dad, he felt as if he was seeing a saviour. "Dad, you can't let this person go! Look at my face."

Seeing his son's black and swollen face, Dennis was furious. He pushed the crowd away and strode toward Henry, who was surrounded by the security guards. "Boy, do you dare to hit my son?"

Henry shrugged his shoulders and said, "Obviously, I already did."

"You f*cking want to die!" Dennis glared at Henry angrily. In this Mountain City, no one dared to be so arrogant in front of him.

Ellis, who came down from the elevator with Dennis, saw that Darren had been beaten up in the hotel. He quickly came forward. No matter how he fought with Dennis secretly, he had to say something about this matter.

As soon as Ellis took a step forward, he found himself being pulled by someone. Looking back, he saw his son holding his arm and shaking his head at him.

"Dad, we can't afford to mess with this person," Samuel said to Ellis in a low voice.

"We can't?" Ellis's face was full of doubts. He even doubted if he had heard it wrong. Ellis knew clearly about his son's character. Samuel didn't even listen to him, but now he took the initiative to say that he should not offend this guy.

"Dad, let him go. Darren offended this person, let him deal with consequences!" Samuel said with absolute certainty.

Although Darren's family was powerful, it couldn't be compared with Boss Bai. This man was Boss Bai's big brother.

Samuel was not surprised that Henry was here. In his heart, Amity was Henry's woman, so it was normal for him to come and see her.

Ellis heard his son's words and stopped. He did not move forward, but he was still confused. This young man was dressed in ordinary clothes. How could Dennis not afford to offend him?

Seeing his father coming, Darren was more confident. "Boy, weren't you very arrogant just now? Let me see if you will be arrogant now!"

Standing behind Henry, Amity's mother pulled Henry's sleeve and whispered, "Henry, this is Dennis. He is the most powerful person in Mountain City. We can't offend him."

"Everything is fine," Henry reassured her with a smile.

"Fine? If you mess with me, none of you can escape!" Darren roared and said to the security guards around him, "What the f*ck are you doing? Get this man for me!"

The security guards heard him and were about to attack Henry.

"Stop, let's see who dares to move!" Samuel's voice came from outside the crowd.

Darren saw Samuel pushing through the crowd and walking toward him.

Darren frowned. "Samuel, what do you mean?"

Darren was also a young master in Mountain City, so he was not afraid of Samuel.

Samuel smiled at Darren and said, "Darren, I advise you not to ask for trouble. Today, if I am not wrong, you are the one who caused trouble first."

After Samuel finished speaking, he nodded and greeted Henry.

Darren was surprised to see that Samuel was willing to help Henry. But this did not mean that he would leave this matter away. If he just admitted defeat, how could he stay in Mountain City in the future? If they left it like this, his father Dennis could not be called the Emperor of Mountain City.

In this city, even the leader did not dare to offend Dennis!

"Ellis, look at your son!" Dennis, who was standing outside the crowd, said.

"Sh*t up!" As soon as Dennis's voice fell, Samuel came back and said, "You're making noise here. Don't you care about our Wu family? Let's see who can hurt Brother Zhang today!"

Dennis was stunned by Samuel's words. He didn't expect that Ellis' son would say such things to him. Usually, when he saw Dennis, Samuel would be polite to him.

Dennis's face suddenly darkened. "Ellis Wu, are you really going to go against us?"

Ellis was also a little surprised at his son's behaviour. If he could choose, he would not get into this argument. He would only wait. But now that things had developed to this point, he could not stay out of this matter. He could only go on according to his son's words. "Dennis, do me a favour. Let's forget about this matter, shall we?"

"Oh!" Dennis chuckled, "I should do you a favour, then who the f*ck will do me a favour? Ellis, do you really want to go against me?!"

Ellis glanced at his son subconsciously.

Samuel nodded firmly to Ellis.

Ellis made up his mind and said to Dennis, "Dennis, don't say that I'm against you. It's you who are making trouble in my place now. If you dare to make trouble, I, Dennis Wu, will dare to react to it!"

"Good! Very good!" Dennis nodded. Instead of getting angry, he smiled and said, "Dennis Wu, you are really beyond my expectation. Well, since you want to go against me because this nobody, let's have a good time. We will see who will win!"

As he spoke, Dennis picked up the phone.

"Hey? Boss, why are you here?" At this moment, a puzzled voice came from outside the crowd.

The moment they heard the voice, Ellis and Dennis were both shocked. Although they could not remember immediately whose voice it was, they felt like they had heard that voice before.

Felix squeezed into the crowd and looked at Henry.

"Why are you here?" When Henry saw Felix, he was a little curious. "Didn't I ask you to investigate those things?"

"I'm busy with the task you assigned to me, boss," Felix replied.

Dennis looked at what happened in front of him, and his pupils suddenly shrank. He kept the posture of holding the phone and froze. "Did I hear it wrong? Mr. Felix, called this guy his boss? And this guy also gave Mr. Felix a task?"

Ellis was also shocked and looked at Henry with surprise. No wonder his son said that the Wu family couldn't afford to provoke this young man. What kind of person could make Mr. Felix call him boss! Ellis realized that he might have made the most crucial choice in his life today. If his son hadn't stopped him just now, he would definitely offend this big shot like Dennis. If so, Ellis couldn't imagine what the consequences would be!

Compared with Ellis's sigh, Dennis felt a chill in his heart at the moment. Had he just scolded Mr. Felix's boss? He had said so many harsh things! If Mr. Felix really blamed him, what should he do? What was the Emperor of Mountain City in Mr. Felix's eyes? Nothing!

Dennis glared at his son with hatred. This matter was entirely caused by him!

Chapter 549

"Boss, what's going on?" Felix looked at Dennis curiously.

"Nothing. Someone wants to kill me. I want to see how he is planning to do it." Henry said indifferently, "You go and do your work. We'll talk later."

"Okay." Felix nodded and didn't say anything more. He didn't think that such a small scene would have any effect on Henry.

Felix waved his hand to Henry and then looked at Dennis. "I think you even don't know how to spell the word "death". Be ready. My funds will be withdrawn in ten minutes."

After Felix said that, he looked at Ellis and nodded. "You've done a good job today. I'll invest in the project you mentioned last time. Send the document directly to my personal email. That's all."

After Felix finished speaking, he went out of the crowd without waiting for Dennis and Ellis to say anything.

Felix's words to Ellis were totally opposite from his words to Dennis.

For Ellis, it was undoubtedly a pleasant surprise. But Dennis was completely thrown into the abyss. If Felix withdrew his money, it was equivalent to taking out all the vital parts of his company!

"Dad, who is this guy? What's wrong with him?" Darren didn't know Felix, so he said unhappily on the spot.

"Clap!"

Dennis's slap was the response to Darren's question. "B*stard, do you know what you've done?"

Dennis shouted loudly.

Darren touched his face and looked at Dennis in disbelief. "Dad, I..."

"B*stard!" Dennis was furious. He kicked Darren's belly so heavily that Darren couldn't get up.

After finishing all this, Dennis quickly looked at Henry with an apologetic look on his face. "I'm sorry, I'm sorry, it's my poor discipline, I..."

"Dennis, take your son away. You are not welcome here!" Samuel directly interrupted Dennis's words. Waving his hand, he ordered the security guards, "Throw them out!"

Ellis looked at his son's behaviour with satisfaction, although his son was a bit foolish, compared with Darren, he was much more assertive when dealing with important things. Samuel's decisive action was really heart-wrenching.

Hearing Samuel's order, those security guards no longer hesitated. They grabbed Darren and his father and took them to the side.

Samuel came to Henry with a flattering smile on his face. "Brother Zhang, I'm really sorry for causing you trouble. I won't let two of them get away with this."

Henry smiled and patted Samuel on the shoulder. "Good job."

Henry's simple words made Samuel ecstatic. Ellis on the side was also happy in his heart. This man in front of him was Mr. Felix's boss. If Mr. Felix heard that his boss praised Samuel, his family would be wealthy!

Samuel looked at Amity with great interest and said, "Well, Amity, you've been doing well during this period and haven't had a good rest. Take a day off today. Auntie, I heard that you have problems with your waist these days. You should also take a break today."

After Samuel finished speaking, he did not wait for them to say anything. He quickly said goodbye to Henry and went downstairs with his father.

Before leaving, Ellis gave Henry a smile of goodwill.

Henry looked at Amity and shrugged his shoulders. "It seems that you can't say no to having a day off. Do you want to have lunch together?"

"Yes." Amity nodded.

Amity's mother was still in a daze on the side. Dennis, who was known as the Emperor of Mountain City, was actually scared in front of Henry!

At this moment, Amity's mother could no longer treat Henry as an ordinary person. Thinking of Henry's identity, which could make the Emperor bow, Amity's mother felt a little uncomfortable.

She didn't like to trouble others or owe favours. Now, she always felt that she owed Henry something.

And Amity intended to treat Henry to lunch in the World Hotel, but Henry refused.

Amity also knew that Henry didn't want her to spend money, so she didn't insist and walked out of the hotel.

As soon as they walked out of the hotel and was about to go to the parking lot to pick up the car, they saw a woman standing in front of Amity's BMW.

This BMW was the one that Henry had asked Amity's aunt to give it to her.

It was a middle-aged woman. She looked ordinary and wore ordinary clothes. When she saw Amity's mother, she said, "Second sister, why didn't you answer my call?"

Standing next to Henry, Amity whispered to Henry that her mother's hometown was Mountain City, and this middle-aged woman was her mother's distant relative, and their relationship was not bad.

"What's wrong? What's the matter?" Amity's mother asked curiously.

The middle-aged woman covered her forehead. "Second sister, have you forgotten that today is aunt's 80th birthday?"

"Ah!" When Amity's mother heard this, she was shocked. She took out her mobile phone and looked at the date with a look of self-blame, "Oh, how could I forget this matter!"

"It's okay, Second Sister." The middle-aged woman comforted her. "It's still early. I was afraid that you would forget it since you were so busy."

"Okay, okay, let's go now." Amity's mother opened the car door in a hurry. "Amity, drive your aunt and me there. Henry, you can go with us."

"Mom, I'm afraid Brother Henry, he..." Amity was a little hesitant. There were too many rules for attending the birthday banquet. It would be too troublesome for Henry to go there.

"It doesn't matter." Henry waved his hand indifferently. "Let's go together."

It was also good for Henry to walk around.

Amity was driving, Henry was sitting in the passenger seat, and another two were sitting in the back.

"Second sister, who is this?" The middle-aged woman looked at Henry and asked curiously.

"This is Amity's boyfriend, Henry." Amity's mother introduced him.

Henry turned his head and greeted the middle-aged woman, "Auntie."

"You're Henry." The middle-aged woman looked at Henry in surprise. "I heard my second sister mention you. You're the one who found the jobs for my second sister and Amity, right? You're really something."

After finishing her words, the middle-aged woman looked at Amity's mother with an envious look. In this hotel, the treatment and benefits were quite good. If Amity became a manager at such a young age, her future would be bright.

"Second sister, ask Henry to help me as well. Let my daughter go to work at the World Hotel," said the middle-aged woman.

"This..." Amity's mother looked embarrassed. She felt very embarrassed to talk about their jobs which they got because of Henry. How could she ask Henry to help someone else?

Chapter 550

"Okay, auntie, I'll ask about it later." Henry said and agreed.

Amity's mother gave Henry a grateful look.

The roads of Mountain City were well-known around the whole country for being complicated. If someone were not familiar with them, they would definitely get a headache while driving here.

It had been a long time since Amity came to Mountain City, and she was familiar with all the roads here.

At nearly twelve o'clock in the afternoon, Amity drove to the place. It was in the countryside.

Now in many places, the environment in the countryside was much better than in the city. Not only the air was fresh, but also the houses were big. People would spend two or three hundred thousand yuan on building a two-floor house. The only downside was living a bit far from the city centre.

As soon as they arrived at the entrance of the village, they heard the firecrackers roaring. The red flowers made of red silk hung hundreds of meters from the entrance of the village, which made the atmosphere even more festive.

Almost everyone in this village was related. This time, they were celebrating somebody's 80th birthday, so it was an exceptional occasion.

Henry really hadn't experienced this kind of atmosphere before. Sitting in the car, he looked back and forth curiously. Listening to the sound of beating gongs and drums. He was also in a good mood.

Amity stopped the car. As soon as her mother got out of the vehicle, many people came to greet her.

Many people were envious of the BMW driven by Amity. The fact that Amity was now working as a manager in the World Hotel made some young people in her hometown jealous.

"Ah, Sister Amity, who is this handsome guy?"

"That's right. I've never seen him before."

When some young people saw Henry, they immediately asked

Amity with ambiguous eyes.

The face of Amity was red with shame. "This is Brother Henry, my..."

When she was about to say "my friend", the middle-aged woman, who came with the three people, opened her mouth first. "This is Henry, Amity's boyfriend. He helped Amity and her mother get the job. He is mighty."

Henry had just promised the middle-aged woman that he would help her daughter get a job, which made the middle-aged woman very happy. Now when she met someone, she would tell them that Henry was good.

When those young people heard this, they immediately turned their eyes to Henry.

"Wow, Sister Amity, your boyfriend is so handsome. Can you help us get a job at the World Hotel?"

"Yeah. I heard that the treatment is very good, and they offer food."

"I want to work there, too."

A group of young people gathered around Henry and Amity.

Amity looked at Henry with embarrassment and didn't know what to do.

Henry smiled and said, "Well, the World Hotel has been recruiting people recently. They will come here to recruit people in advance. Anyone who fits them can start working for them. But what kind of job you will get and how you will improve there depends on your efforts."

Henry's words made these young people ecstatic. There were endless praises like "Brother Henry, you are so handsome, you are so awesome".

Henry looked at these young people. They were so simple and pure, even a very ordinary job in the World Hotel could make them so happy.

"Ouch, who is this? What is so sensational?" A strange voice came from the side, and a long-legged woman with a height of 1.75 meters, wearing a cashmere coat, came from the side.

Her cashmere coat was too much for this chilly weather. But it had to be said that this woman's figure was perfect. She was absolutely a beauty just like some social media model who could attract a lot of people.

However, Henry was not interested in this kind of influencers. He had been to the country which is famous for plastic surgery, and almost all the women there looked like this.

"Amity, this is your boyfriend? Doesn't he look a bit shabby?" The woman looked Henry up and down and noticed his cheap clothes, which made the young woman very disdainful.

"Kelly, this is your distant cousin." A middle-aged man walked out from behind the woman. The middle-aged man had a big belly and wore a golden necklace around his neck. The golden watch on his wrist was sparkling, and the key to the Benz was hanging on his waist. He had the attitude of a local tyrant.

The middle-aged man reached out his hand to hold the woman's thin waist.

The woman looked at the man and said in a timid voice, "You're annoying. There are so many people."

"Haha, does it matter?" The middle-aged man laughed without scruple. "It is normal for a husband to hold his wife, who cares?"

Henry clearly saw that the woman's eyes flashed a trace of disgust when she looked at the middle-aged man, but she still let the man hold her with a fake smile.

"Kelly, get out of here. Who let you come back?" A man's rough voice sounded.

A man, who looked to be in his thirties, ran over with a wooden stick in his hand. When he looked at the woman, his eyes were red.

Kelly panicked when he saw the man and quickly hid behind the middle-aged man.

The man with the wooden stick was also stopped. "Brother Guo, calm down."

Standing next to Henry, Amity explained to him in a low voice, "Brother Henry, Kelly has found this middle-aged man to be her husband. Her father was so angry that he had to hospitalized because of the heart attack. The man is Kelly's brother."

Hearing this, Henry nodded.

Henry could fully understand that a young woman relied on a rich sugar daddy. In this society, this kind of thing was not rare at all. Similarly, Henry could understand the behaviour of Kelly's brother. In his hometown, many people were very respectful. Kelly's affair would definitely cause a lot of gossips. The older generation valued this very much.

The middle-aged man glared at Kelly's brother and shouted, "A group of unruly people, how dare you? I'd like to see who will dare to make a scene today. Let me tell you. I make a fortune every minute. If you dare to do it, you won't get any compensation even if I tear down your village!"

With the middle-aged man's support, Kelly was much more confident.

"Get out! You are not welcomed here!" Kelly's brother clenched the wooden stick in his hand and said with hatred.

"Yes, get out!"

"We don't welcome you!"

Shouts were heard one after another.

"Oh, I come here to give you benefits!" The middle-aged man looked at everyone around with disdain. "My boss likes your land. Here is the housing demolition and relocation document. As long as you sign it, each family will get compensation according to the size of your house. Two thousand yuan per square metre. The old house you bought for two hundred thousand yuan can get you the compensation of up to seven hundred thousand yuan!"

The middle-aged man said as he took out a document from his pocket.

Upon hearing this, the villagers suddenly quieted down and looked back and forth. If it was true, it seemed that they were really going to get some benefits.

Chapter 551

The middle-aged man looked at these villagers proudly but with disdain in his heart and thought, "Only hundreds of thousands of yuan could make these people behave like this."

Kelly crossed her arms over her chest and snorted, "Let me tell you, I asked my husband to come here for the sake of all of you, my relatives. Otherwise, the benefits would not be this good!"

The middle-aged man grinned and grabbed Kelly's body, which made Kelly scream. She punched the middle-aged man with her fist and said, "I hate you."

The middle-aged man smiled, narrowed his eyes, and looked toward the place where Amity stood.

"Little girl, I think you are pretty. Do you want to work at our company?" The middle-aged man couldn't help licking his lips as he spoke.

Amity was well-behaved, and her beautiful eyes could attract a lot of people.

"Humph, our sister Amity is not going to accept that. She is the manager of the World Hotel!" A young girl said.

When the middle-aged man heard this, he was slightly stunned, and then laughed out loud, "Hahahaha, a manager in World Hotel? Is it funny? How much is the salary? Eight thousand or ten thousand a month? Come to my company. I promise you that you will earn more than one hundred thousand yuan a month!"

The words of the middle-aged man made the people around him gasp. What kind of job was it to earn that much money in just a month? Wasn't it too much?

"What do you think? Beauty, are you interested?" The middle-aged man kept looking at Amity.

"Sorry, my Amity is not interested." Amity's mother came from the side, blocking the way between Amity and the middle-aged man.

The middle-aged man glared at her mother fiercely and said rudely, "No wonder you have been poor your whole life!"

Kelly came over and held the middle-aged man's arm. She said in a delicate voice, "Honey, you don't have to say anything to such kind of people. They will be poor for the rest of their lives!"

The middle-aged man turned his head and no longer looked at Amity. Although he really wanted to get this woman, that was clearly not the most important thing. The most important thing to do for now was to make the villagers sign the contract, and he would become extremely wealthy!

The middle-aged man raised the document in his hand and shouted, "I'll repeat it. Our boss likes your land and wants to pay you two thousand yuan for one square metre. You should know how big your house is. How much you can earn depends on you!"

As soon as the middle-aged man's words came out, many people began to talk with each other again with unbelievable eyes.

"Is this true?"

"That's right. Don't bully us. We don't understand anything."

"Who would give money in vain like this?"

Some people questioned him.

"Oh?" The middle-aged man chuckled. "Speaking of your ignorance, you really think too highly of you. This document is on the table. All the people who know how to read know what it is. The official seal of our company is on it. Do you see it clearly? The World Hotel you are talking about is under the name of Lighting Industry. Do you think such a big company would lie to you?"

Everyone looked at the document in the middle-aged man's hand and saw the words "Lighting Industry".

Everyone had heard of the Lighting Industry. It was the most significant enterprise in Mountain City, with a market value of hundreds of billions.

Some people who didn't believe it before believed it at this moment. If they signed this document, they would get at least two hundred thousand yuan this time.

"Daughter, I also have an old house. It's more than one hundred square meters, and we have left it for a long time. Let's sign the contract." At this moment, Amity's mother was very excited. She also believed in this story.

Henry was standing aside, shook his head and said, "Auntie, you'd better not sign this."

Upon hearing Henry's words, many people who were standing close to him all looked at him.

"Don't sign it?"

"Brother Henry, why do you say that?"

"Yeah! Why?"

Several young people couldn't help but ask.

When Amity heard Henry say no, she was sure that there must be something tricky going on. She trusted Henry very much. She knew very well that Henry's social experience was way better than hers. Even if she were to be around this kind of people for ten more years, she still would not be as experienced as Henry.

Hearing Henry's words, the middle-aged man's face changed. He shouted at Henry, "Boy, what's the matter with you? Do you have a house here?"

Henry smiled and said to the middle-aged man, "The compensation you mentioned, was it per square metre of the land or square metre of the house?"

As soon as Henry asked this question, the middle-aged man's face suddenly became ugly.

However, those villagers were shocked. Yes, he just said that he would compensate two thousand per square meter, but he didn't say exactly. If it was just the land, it would not be enough money for villagers even to build another house!

"Yes! Are you talking about the land or the house?"

"If you want to compensate us by land, we won't sign it."

"That's right. Where do we live after signing the contract? That's such a small compensation."

After Henry's reminder, the villagers asked questions one after another.

It could be seen that the middle-aged man's head was covered with cold sweat. He wiped the sweat from his forehead, put the document in his hand into his pocket, cleared his throat, and shouted, "Of course, we'll compensate you according to your house. How can I compensate you according to the land? Look, isn't it clearly written on the paper?"

The middle-aged man took out a document from his pocket. This document was exactly the same as the one he had just taken out. The only difference was that the previous document was about the compensation according to the land area, and this one was according to the house area.

The middle-aged man deliberately pointed out the compensation according to the house size. When everyone saw this, they were relieved.

Kelly glared at Henry with hatred. How could she not know what the previous document was? One question from this outsider that made her loss so much money! If the villagers signed the previous contract, they would make a profit of twenty million at least!!

Kelly was angry, but there was nothing she could do since things had developed like this. After all, there were nearly a hundred million yuan in the profit. She had to do a good job.

Kelly crossed her arms over her chest and snorted coldly. "Some people measure the stature of great men by the yardstick of small men. Do you think we are here to cheat all of you? Do you know how many people would want to sign this document if they were offered in another place?"

"Yes! Kelly was thinking for the sake of us." As soon as Kelly's voice fell, there was a voice in the crowd.

A man in his thirties strode out of the crowd.

"Brother Henry, this is Toby Guo, the son of the village chief." Amity whispered to Henry.

Chapter 552

Toby came out of the crowd. As soon as he spoke, everyone looked at him. As the son of the village chief, Toby was well-respected in the village.

Toby glanced around and said, "Everyone, Kelly had talked to me in advance before coming here. This deal is good for us all. Now we are developing, and the children in our families are growing up. After a period of time, the middle school will be moved. If we continue to live here, it will be a problem for the children to go to school. As far as I know, the compensation in other places is one thousand eight hundred yuan per square metre. Now, Kelly and her husband have managed to get such big benefits for our village!"

As soon as Toby finished his words, Kelly immediately put on an arrogant look.

Even Kelly's brother was stunned.

"Sister Kelly, is this true?" A young man asked.

"Of course it's true. Do I need to lie to you?" Kelly rolled her eyes. "I just said that you people would rather believe in an outsider than me. When did she get back? And her boyfriend, I don't even know who he is? Is it amazing to find a job in the World Hotel? If I want to be a manager, I just need to talk to my husband!"

"That's right." Toby said, "Kelly is also a family member. We don't need to believe in an outsider's words. We don't know who he is and what he is up to!"

Toby looked at Henry unkindly as he spoke.

Henry shook his head helplessly and did not continue to talk. He had said what he had to say in order to warn others. Whether others believe it or not was none of his business. He did not care.

"No, no." Henry didn't care, but Amity couldn't watch Henry being misunderstood. She quickly said, "Brother Henry means the best for us."

"Ha." Toby chuckled and said, "Amity, you're too young. It's understandable that have bad judgment. You'd better come to your senses in time. I guess some people are interested in our village."

After Toby finished speaking, he stood there and said nothing.

At this moment, these villagers looked at Henry with a hint of defence in their eyes. Compared with Henry, they certainly believed in Toby more. After all, they were all on the same root.

"Well, I don't care." The middle-aged man said loudly, "Anyway, things are just like this. If you want to sell it, come and sign the contract. If you don't want to sell it, I won't force you!"

"That's right. There is a change for you to make money. I don't want to be humiliated for doing a good thing." Kelly said in a bad mood.

People saw Kelly was a little ashamed. They thought it was what they had done before that made Kelly angry. She was kind enough to help them seize the opportunity. As a result, she was treated like this. If it happened to anyone, they would be in a bad mood.

"I'll sign it first!" Toby shouted. He was the first to step forward and sign his name on the document.

Seeing that Toby had signed the contract, some people who had been eager to sign their names also hurried up and signed their names.

"Kelly, thank you."

"Kelly, I've told you long ago that you're a good girl. You've become rich, but you still remember the people in our village."

The villagers who signed also spoke with a smile on their faces.

"Amity, should we sign it?" Amity's mother asked tentatively. When she spoke, she deliberately glanced at Henry, which made her feel very embarrassed. Henry had helped her so much, but Henry just said that they should not sign it. If she was to sign the contract now, it might offend Henry.

But these hundreds of thousands of yuan were definitely not a small amount for her. Even rich people would insist on getting the money for free.

Henry knew what Amity's mother was thinking, and he understood her actions. He didn't care if others would get cheated or not, but he really didn't want to see her fall into the trap again.

"Auntie, that's still a no." Henry shook his head.

"Ah? Why?" Amity's mother asked in confusion.

Henry looked at Kelly and the middle-aged man and explained, "As far as I know, the official auction for a piece of land was limited to some large enterprises. At that time, the land area was similar to this village and was not far from here. The auction price was 650 million yuan, and the Lighting Industry bought it. If the Lighting Industry wanted to take this piece of land, the preparation cost would be almost the same. With compensation, it was absolutely impossible to prepare less than 650 million yuan. But how much they are offering now? If they compensate according to the house size, that's up to 300 million in total. Someone will definitely get caught in the future."

Hearing this, her mother felt confused. She asked, "Henry, do you mean that the Lighting Industry deliberately offered less money?"

"No." Henry shook his head. "The Lighting Industry has the ability to do big business, so it will certainly not let others get hold of this kind of thing. Otherwise, everyone will find out about this matter and will start making trouble together. Not to mention anything else, the impact on the stock of Lighting Industry would be more than a billion. In this case, there is someone else making money in the middle!"

Amity's mother didn't understand. She hadn't come into contact with the stock impact. What she could understand was that the compensation was less.

"Henry, tell me, how much they should compensate? A thousand more per square metre?" asked Amity's mother.

Henry shook his head. "Auntie, many houses here are newly built. According to the standard, the compensation price for each square metre is calculated according to the average price of the current house price in the city. You can calculate how much it is."

"Ah!" Henry's words shocked Amity's mother. The average price of the house in the city!

Although Mountain City was not as expensive as Du Hai, the average price was ten thousand yuan.

Amity's mother looked at Kelly. At this moment, Kelly and the middle-aged were smiling. If Henry was right, it was evident that they cheated everyone's money. They could earn 8 thousand yuan for each square metre! Shame on them! If everyone knew, they would be furious.

"Everybody, don't sign it, don't sign it!" Amity's mother couldn't help shouting, "This is a fraud!"

The words of Amity's mother surprised everyone, and everyone looked over at her.
