

Chapter 301

"Okay, no problem." Henry agreed without thinking. He was very good at investment. The investment of one million dollars was very simple in Henry's eyes, and the analysis of pros and cons was also very easy.

Hearing Henry's answer, the Amity squinted and smiled. "Brother Henry, thank you. My second uncle and the others will arrive today. Maybe they will talk about it at dinner time. You can go with me then."

Henry made an OK gesture to the Amity.

Henry was walking with the Amity toward the hotel when he received a phone call from President Ma.

As soon as the phone was picked up, the anxious voice of President Ma sounded on the phone. "Little master, come to the hospital quickly. We're in trouble."

"Trouble?" Hearing this, Henry felt that this matter had something to do with the middle-aged woman in the morning.

"Okay, I'll come now."

"Thank you, little master."

After hanging up the phone, Henry told Amity that they would get in touch for dinner, and then he went to the hospital.

When he arrived at the hospital, the father and daughter who Henry had treated in the morning had already left. The other side left a business card and asked President Ma to give it to Henry. At the same time, they asked President Ma to tell Henry that if he needed help, he could contact them.

Those who traded antiques like them usually had a solid background, so they must have had a few hundred million yuan in their bank account.

However, Henry just accepted the business card casually without paying attention to the name. If Henry really had to find someone to help him, it would mean that the whole world would be in trouble.

Under the guidance of President Ma, Henry came to the ward.

As soon as he pushed open the door of the ward, the scene in the room shocked Henry.

The whole ward was full of people in black. They were all strong men in suits, and there was even one person in casual clothes, who was constantly yelling at the doctors in the ward with a sense of official prestige.

The doctors all lowered their heads and didn't dare to say a word.

When the door of the ward was opened by Henry, all the people in the room focused their eyes on Henry at this moment.

President Ma immediately made an introduction. "Come on, little master, let me introduce them to you. This is Director Fan of the Yinzhou City Sanity Bureau. Director Fan, this is Dr. Zhang, the highly-skilled doctor. Even Master Lewis Yan thinks his medical skills are inferior to his. He is absolutely the best of the younger generation."

"Oh." Henry nodded indifferently.

Director Fan looked Henry up and down from head to toe with a scrutinizing look, and then said, "I heard that you can save people?"

Director Fan's gaze and attitude made Henry very unhappy. He asked back, "Does it have anything to do with you?"

Director Fan snorted and said, "Boy, do you know who you are talking to? Believe it or not, I'll cancel your Physician's Qualification Certificate!"

"I know." Henry nodded. "You are an official, but I'm sorry. I don't have a Physician's Qualification Certificate."

"You provoke me?" Director Fan narrowed his eyes, feeling that he was not angry but powerful. The doctors standing next to him did not dare to look at him.

"Well, when you talk to the doctor, be careful with your tone." At this time, a voice sounded on the side of the bed.

As soon as the middle-aged man opened his mouth, Director Fan immediately closed his mouth and greeted respectfully, "President Zhao."

President Zhao, who was sitting on the side of the bed, stood up at this moment and walked toward Henry. "Young doctor, although I don't know medical skills, I also know the truth in the doctor's heart. Now the patient is lying in front of you, and you can cure him. Why don't you treat him?"

"Ha." Henry chuckled. "Somebody said I can't cure him."

President Zhao smiled slightly. "It turns out that the young doctor is angry. Well, let me make the person who disrespected you apologize."

After President Zhao said that, he turned to look at the middle-aged woman.

The middle-aged woman looked a little embarrassed. "Second brother, why should I apologize to him? There are so many capable people in this world."

"There are many capable people, but how long do you think the third brother can survive?" President Zhao played with the thumb ring on his left hand and said, "Apologize."

"I..." There was a struggle on the middle-aged woman's face.

"Quickly, apologize," President Zhao said again.

"Second brother, I..." The middle-aged woman was unwilling to say those words in the morning. Now she had to apologize to a junior in front of so many people. What a shame!

"Apologize!" President Zhao, who had always been calm, suddenly shouted and raised his voice.

This sound scared the middle-aged woman and she didn't dare to say anything more. She walked to Henry and whispered, "I'm sorry."

"What?" Henry used his right thumb to clean his ears. "There must be something in my ear. I didn't hear you."

President Zhao stood aside, and his voice calmed down again. "Speak louder."

"I'm sorry!" The middle-aged woman shouted, and her face was full of embarrassment.

"Apologize to who? What do you mean?" Henry asked with a playful look.

The middle-aged woman frowned. "Don't go too far!"

"Oh." Henry nodded, turned his head and was about to leave.

President Zhao spoke again, "Be more sincere."

The middle-aged woman glanced around subconsciously and took a deep breath. "Young doctor, I'm sorry. I was rude in the morning. I shouldn't have said that."

"Well, that's not bad." Henry nodded with satisfaction.

After the middle-aged woman finished her words, she immediately went into the crowd. Such an apology made her feel very embarrassed.

President Zhao took a few steps forward and said, "Young doctor, are you satisfied now? Can you help me to save my third brother?"

"It's still a little difficult." Henry frowned slightly. "President Zhao, right? You know, I don't have a Physician's Qualification Certificate. Now Director Fan is here. I'm afraid that it's not in line with the rules for me to practice medicine in front of him."

President Zhao looked at Director Fan.

Director Fan quickly waved his hand. "There are no rules. You can rest assured that you can treat the patient."

"Okay." Henry walked to the bedside and looked at the middle-aged man lying on the bed. He was completely in a coma now, with an oxygen mask on his face.

Henry sighed, shook his head, and walked to the side.

Henry's action made President Zhao's heart sink. He quickly asked, "Young doctor, how is my third younger brother now?"

As for the patient's condition, the hospital had already given a report that the toxin was spreading in his body and could not be cured, so President Zhao and others were so anxious.

The corners of Henry's mouth curled up.

"He's in good condition. As long as he can be detoxified, he will wake up."

Hearing Henry's words, President Zhao's face showed a hint of joy. "Then, please save him, young doctor."

"Save him? Who said I'm going to treat him?" Henry asked with a puzzled look.

Chapter 302

Henry's words made President Zhao's face completely darkened.

The middle-aged woman who had just apologized to Henry scolded on the spot, "Kid, are you f**king kidding me?"

Henry smiled at the middle-aged woman and asked, "Isn't my performance obvious enough?"

"You!" The middle-aged woman stretched out her hand and pointed at Henry. At the same time, those strong men in suits also surrounded Henry.

Looking at these strong men who were full of murderous intent, Henry looked relaxed.

President Zhao's expression changed one after another. He then waved his hand, indicating for the big men to leave.

"Young doctor, it seems that I still look down on the misunderstanding between you and my sister-in-law. To tell you the truth, I am a businessman. I believe that there are no eternal enemies in this world. The two sides are enemies, because the interests are not united. So, how about you save my third brother and we pay the corresponding reward?"

President Zhao extended a finger.

"As long as you can save my third brother, I'll give you one million yuan."

As soon as President Zhao finished speaking, the middle-aged woman was the first to show her displeasure. "Second brother, look at this kid's poor appearance. His clothes are less than a thousand yuan in total. How is he worth one million yuan? Giving him ten thousand yuan is a bargain for him!"

Henry hook his head. "President Zhao, right? I really agree with what you said. There is no eternal enemy. As long as the interests are united, anyone can become a friend."

President Zhao nodded with satisfaction. "It seems that the young doctor is a smart person. I like to deal with smart people the most."

The middle-aged woman stood next to him, and her face was as ugly as constipation. One million, how could he give one million to this guy? According to her mood now, she would tear this money apart and burned it, but she didn't want to give them to Henry.

"Young doctor, tell me your account, and I will transfer the money to you now. What do you think?" President Zhao waved his hand, and a big man took a mobile phone.

"No need to hurry." Henry reached out his hand to stop President Zhao's action. "I think your third brother's life should be more than one million yuan, and the price of my one move is more than one million yuan. This price is far from enough."

"Boy, don't go too far!" The middle-aged woman scolded again. "One million is enough for a man like you to live a lifetime. Why are you not happy?"

"Don't say much." President Zhao glared at the middle-aged woman with dissatisfaction. Then he smiled at Henry and said, "Young doctor, according to your opinion, how much do you think is suitable."

Henry held his chin, thought for a moment, and said, "In my opinion, your third brother's life is worth at least 10 million yuan, but I'm not a man who asks for a high price. I'll be happy with 5 million yuan."

President Zhao nodded with a smile and said, "It's reasonable. Then, young doctor, how much is enough for you to make a second move?"

Henry extended a finger.

"Ten million?" President Zhao was a little surprised, and then he smiled and said, "Young doctor is worth ten million yuan because his ability."

"No, it's more than ten million." Henry shook his head.

"100 million?" President frowned.

Even though President Zhao had just scolded her, the middle-aged woman couldn't help saying, "100 million! You are such a poor man. You don't understand what 100 million means! You really dare to say it!"

Henry smiled and said softly, "One billion."

One billion!

Henry's number made the middle-aged woman suddenly stunned, and she didn't know how to refute for a moment.

"Hahahaha!" President Zhao laughed a few times. "One billion, young doctor, you're really good at joking. Do you know what one billion means?"

President Zhao asked this question. Without waiting for Henry's answer, his face suddenly became gloomy. His eyes were like an eagle's eyes, staring at Henry. "One billion yuan is enough to buy your family members' lives!"

"Wow!" Henry showed a horrified look. "What do you mean? Do you want to kill people? This is a law-ruling society! There is an official next to you. Are you threatening me like this?"

"Little brother, I admire capable people, so I call you magical doctor. If you don't have this medical skill, you are just a nonentity in my eyes." President Zhao threw the mobile phone he had just taken away. "This world is not a world of anger, nor is it a world of reason. It is a world of money and power. One billion yuan? Do you know what a person like you is in the eyes of a person who has one billion yuan?"

President Zhao's eyes were full of contempt for life when he looked at Henry.

Henry asked curiously, "What do you mean?"

"Nothing! I'll give you one last chance, ten million. You save my brother, and I'll pretend that nothing has happened! Otherwise, you'll have to consider the consequences. I'll give you three seconds to think about it, three!"

"I don't have to think about it." Henry directly interrupted President Zhao's words. "A person like me, loves the consequences the most. President Ma, I'll go first."

Henry waved to President Ma, and then walked out of the ward without looking at President Zhao and others.

President Zhao obviously did not expect Henry to make such a choice.

The moment Henry left, Director Fan was anxious to show his identity. He asked President Ma, "President Ma, what is the identity of the person you found?"

President Ma laughed dryly twice. "Director Fan, this young doctor is the husband of President Lin of Lins Group..."

President Ma also heard about the incident of Lin's fire last time. He knew about the relationship between Henry and Sylvia. He was not surprised at all, and he even had a feeling that he should be like this. Only President Lin of Lin's family could be worthy of such an excellent man.

When Director Fan, President Zhao and others heard President Ma's words, they were all stunned.

The Lin's reputation was well-known in the Yinzhou. Everyone had heard of it, and no one could compare with the Old Master's position. Now the Lins Group was entirely handed over to the girl surnamed Lin. She would be the leader of the Lin's in Future.

The middle-aged woman opened her mouth and didn't know what to say for a long time.

A boss of a group with a market value of ten billion yuan was called a poor boy. She even said that 10,000 yuan was a great incense for a person. If it was spread out, she would be laughed at by others.

Director Fan's face was a little pale. Just now, in order to please President Zhao, he talked a lot. In the end, he offended the husband of the president of the Family Lin.

This...

Director Fan was very clear about how influential the Lins Group was. If the other party slightly targeted him, he, as the director, would not be comfortable.

As for President Zhao, he frowned and said, "Lins Group... interesting. It seems that there is another layer of conflict between us."

Chapter 303

Fifteen minutes after Henry left the hospital, the information about President Zhao and others had been sent to his mobile phone.

Zhao's Group, a company that rose up in Yinzhou within a month, had a business field that covered more than a dozen areas. It was full of funds and had conflicts with Lin's on several projects.

"Zhao's Group, interesting." Henry grinned. "I'll have fun with you after I've solved the problem with Yanjing people. Now, I'll let you have fun for two days."

Henry had already decided to go to Yanjing after dealing with Fiona Wong this time. He would completely find out the person behind this and deal with them. Then he would no longer need to hide his identity. It would be much more convenient for him to do everything.

When Henry returned to the company, it was almost time to get off work. He still remembered that he was going to help Amity about the investment tonight. He greeted Sylvia and said that he would not go back for dinner.

After work, Henry and Amity went out of the company together. They didn't take a taxi but walked to the destination.

Amity said that the place for dinner had been booked. At Glory Hotel, her uncle's family and her father had already been seated.

When Henry and Amity arrived at the parking lot of Glory Hotel, they heard a woman's voice.

"Hey, Amity, you are here. I was going to call you!"

Henry and Amity looked in the direction of the sound and saw a young woman who looked like Amity. She was walking down from a Benz-Benz whose price was at least three million dollars. She was carrying a Chanel handbag in her hand.

Compared with Amity, this woman was a bit more charming, less simple, and her appearance was almost as good as Amity's.

At the same time, a young man got off from the driver seat of the Benz G. The young man looked ordinary, he closed the door and took the initiative to ask, "Snow Qiu, is this your cousin?"

"Yeah, dear." Snow held the man's arm intimately. "Amity, this is your future brother-in-law, Levi Sun."

"Hello." Amity smiled at Levi.

"Hello, I often hear Snow mention you and say that you are a beautiful woman. Today, I see that Snow really didn't lie to me." Levi took the initiative to reach out to the Amity to show his gentlemanliness. Then he looked at Henry and said, "This is..."

"This is Henry Zhang." Amity introduced.

After greeting each other, they went to the hotel together.

In a small private room, the father of Amity, the second uncle and his wife, as well as the third aunt and her husband, were sitting at the table and chatting.

When the door of the private room opened, the two sisters, Amity and Snow, walked into the room.

"Amity, I haven't seen you for so many years. You're so beautiful now." The second uncle of Amity said with a smile.

"Yes, not only is she beautiful, but she is also capable. I don't know who will have this kind of luck to get our Amity to love him." The third aunt of Amity also spoke.

Before she could talk, Amity's face was red and she was very shy.

At this time, several people in the room also noticed Henry who came with Amity.

"This gentleman is..." The second uncle of Amity looked at Henry with a puzzled look.

Father of Amity had a deep impression of Henry. If it weren't for Henry at that time, he would have been completely cheated, and he wouldn't even be able to walk out of the casino.

"This is Henry." Before she could speak, her father introduced Henry to Second Uncle and Third Aunt. "Henry's help last time saved us."

Henry greeted people in a way of greeting his elders.

"Okay, take a seat. Come on, order."

Henry sat at the table and listened to the family members of Amity talking about their daily life. He found that he had done all these things all day long.

"The business in the past two years hasn't been very prosperous. There was at more than 200 million yuan in each year's profits. Now it will be good if we can get one hundred million yuan." While drinking wine, the uncle of the Amity sighed. He patted Levi Sun on the shoulder and said, "Thanks to the help of Sun's family, otherwise, we wouldn't even save one hundred million yuan."

Levi smiled and said, "Uncle Qiu, you are treating me like an outsider."

The third aunt of Amity ate a mouthful of vegetables and said, "Second Brother, didn't you say that the coal mine business has been back to normal in the past two years? How about the profit of more than 300 million yuan you collected yuan last time?"

"Not bad. Judging from the current sales volume, we'll be able to make a profit in a year," Second Uncle replied.

There was a hint of joy on the face of the third aunt of Amity, "Well, Second Brother, I said I would add 30 million more at that time, don't refuse."

"Of course not." The second uncle of Amity waved his hand. "We're family. That's all for us."

"Haha, Second Brother, I propose a toast to you." The third aunt raised her glass.

"Dad!" Snow sat aside and said in a coquettish voice, "You let Levi Sun also put some money. Not too much, only 30 million, how about that?"

"Ah, Snow." Levi Sun pulled Snow's sleeve.

"Love is love. Business is business. How can I take advantage of your family?"

The Second Uncle let out a loud laugh. "Little Sun, we're family. Let's not talk about the two families. You can invest 30 million yuan."

Levi's face was full of joy, and he quickly raised his glass. "Thank you so much, uncle."

The father and Amity listened to the conversation of their family and felt a little bitter in their hearts. They hadn't contacted each other for some time, but they didn't expect that their family had developed like this. Looking at themselves, if it weren't for the fact that they were lucky a few days ago and had a car, they wouldn't even know how to pay the debt now.

Amity's father was anxious to hear this, so he couldn't help asking, "Second Brother, what was a small business that you mentioned before?"

"Oh, yes." The second uncle ate a mouthful of food. "There is a small business, but the fund of one million is not enough. It's at least about 1.2 million yuan."

"Ah?" Hearing this, Amity's father's face darkened. "1.2 million... this... this... this is too much."

"Uncle, you really don't know how to do business." Snow said, "Now when you do business, everyone should take out cash. They all make money with the money from the bank. Didn't you say last time that Amity has one million? You can mortgage your shop to the bank and borrow 200,000 yuan. Business men use the money to earn money. Look at those big entrepreneurs, they all have tens of billions of yuan, don't they?"

"That's right." The third aunt nodded. "Big brother, your idea is too pedantic. Look at me, I'm driving a car worth millions of yuan, but still owe the bank more than 200 million. What's the result? I've earned even more!"

"This..." A look of embarrassment appeared on father's face. He was both a poor and fearful man. Now that he had heard the loan, he felt that there was nothing he could do about it.

Amity repeated his father's question. "Second Uncle, what kind of business are you talking about?"

"There are a few projects that you can choose. You can choose from the three-dimensional parking lot, training, education, medical treatment..."

As soon as the second uncle finished his words, he heard a voice.

"No way."

Chapter 304

Everyone's eyes were fixed on the person who retorted. It was Henry, who had been sitting there without saying anything.

Snow frowned and asked, "Amity, your friend?"

"Cousin, Brother Zhang is good at investment. I asked him to analyze it for me." Amity explained. Then she looked at Henry and waited for him to continue.

Henry said, "In terms of the current situation in Yinzhou, the three-dimensional parking lot is obviously not practical. The cost is high. One million yuan is only enough to buy the land in the early stage. Later, the interest of the bank loan can reach 4.9% a year. The interest in this type of parking is unknown. Regarding agriculture, it is not suitable for Yinzhou.

Now the most attractive one in Yinzhou is wild purple mushrooms, which can be sold at a high price of five hundred yuan per 500 grams. However, there is no way to plant it. The risk is too high. Education and medical care have been done by Family Lin. Unless you are doing some small types of training."

Henry analyzed the investment that the second uncle had mentioned one by one.

"Amity, what does your friend do? Which investment company does he belong to?" Snow asked.

Henry replied himself, "I am her colleague, a salesperson in Lins Group."

"A salesperson?" A hint of contempt appeared in Snow's eyes. "Since when do you know how to invest by doing sales? Based on your analysis just now, I thought you were a boss with tens of millions of dollars."

"Ha-ha." Henry chuckled. "I understand a little bit."

"Do you understand or do we understand?" The third aunt looked at Henry with dissatisfaction. "We can invest hundreds of millions of yuan as we please. Don't you understand one million yuan is a small investment?"

"Yes." The second aunt also said, "My husband carefully selected all these investments. Do you think that my husband can't even understand this and deliberately wants to fool Amity for money?"

"Brother, your eyes are too short-sighted. With your thoughts, it's very difficult to earn money." Levi also said.

Henry's words could be said to have caused dissatisfaction among the people at the table.

"Second Uncle, Brother Zhang is also very kind. He is doing it for my good." Amity quickly opened her mouth and spoke for Henry.

"For your own good? For your own good, that's why you will never earn money?" Snow said, "Amity, you just came out of school, and you don't understand the sinister nature of people. Some people, on the surface, look like dogs, but in fact, their motives are sinister. Don't trust others easily, they can cheat."

The second uncle said to Henry, "Young man, this is our family gathering. This girl doesn't know how to behave. We don't blame her for bringing you here. It's just that we're talking about family matters. You'd better not interrupt us."

When Amity's father saw that the second uncle was a little angry, he quickly said, "Second brother, Henry did do us a lot of favours. He is still young, so don't take some things to heart."

"Ah, young people are young. At home, some people can spoil him, but in society, no one will spoil him. Young man, you have to understand that trouble comes from the mouth." The second uncle warned Henry with a bad look. He took out a Chinese cigarette and put it in his mouth, burning it for himself.

As Amity's father tried to ease the situation, he motioned her to stop talking and said to her Second Uncle, "Second Brother, I actually think that the parking lot you mentioned is really good. Although I don't drive a car, I can see that parking lots are not enough now. If we make a new parking space, we will definitely make money."

The uncle took a deep drag on his cigarette and said, "This is obvious. If it weren't for my family, I wouldn't have told you. Now I have a piece of land in my hand, which is in the centre of the city. If you want it, I'll take 1.2 million yuan as compensation. This piece of land is normally valued between two million and three million yuan. You can go to the bank and borrow the money. Although it's not big and only covering an area of one thousand square meters, it's more than enough to build a three-dimensional parking lot."

"One thousand square meters." The second aunt continued, "Big brother, this is obviously the welfare that Second Brother has given you. You can build a three-dimensional parking lot with several floors, you can start with three floors first. One parking space, about eight to nine square meters, one floor is equivalent to one hundred parking spaces, three floors, three hundred parking spaces. Now the parking space in the city centre is charging five yuan per hour, you can add two yuan more. According to the daily lowest income, one parking space can bring you 51 yuan, and three hundred parking spaces are equivalent 15,003 yuan!"

After she said that, she took out her mobile phone and showed Amity's father the location of that piece of land. It was indeed in the downtown area, where there were a lot of cars every day. There was no place to park around it!

There was a strong emotion in the eyes of Amity's father.

If he could earn 15,000 yuan a day, his loan would be paid off within this year. He would make money in the first half of next year, and he would earn more than 5 million yuan in the second half of the year!

"This is a good thing. It's a good thing. Second brother, you are really my lucky star! This piece of land for one million yuan. It's not expensive, not expensive!" Amity father was very excited.

"Ha, ha." The uncle chuckled. "If you want to take it, just give me 1.2 million yuan. I can help you with the loan."

Snow also said, "Yes, uncle, why do you want to open a small shop now? You are still busy every day. If you want to have that parking lot, you can go shopping every day. The net income will be more than 10,000 yuan a day. You don't know how many people want to take that piece of land from my dad. My dad doesn't want to sell it at all."

"Big Brother, I think this is good business. It suits you well," said the third uncle-in-law of Amity.

"Yes, that's right!" Amity's father nodded repeatedly. "But Second Brother, I'll give you the bottom line. Right now, our family has only 900 thousand in total. Why don't we give that small shop to you?"

"It doesn't matter." The uncle waved his hand. "That land, I bought it for 1.2 million yuan at that time. Now I'll give it to you at the same price. I don't want to make money off you. Even if it's a small shop, I will count it as 300,000 yuan."

"Okay, okay!" Amity's father looked very excited.

"Big Brother, since Second Brother has said so, let's drink a glass of wine and sign the contract. That piece of land will belong to you today. You should cover it up soon and open the parking faster." The third Aunt of the Amity continued.

Amity glanced at Henry who was sitting next to her.

Henry ate a mouthful of food slowly. "Signing the contract. Is it a little urgent?"

After Henry finished speaking, he looked at Amity's father and said, "Uncle, one million dollars. It's not a small number. Don't be fooled by some fancy words!"

"What do you mean?" the second uncle slapped on the table and glared at Henry.

Chapter 305

"What you are saying?" The third aunt of Amity was also very dissatisfied. "What does it have to do with you if we talk to each other? What do you mean by saying fancy words? What do you mean by being blind? You have made it clear to me today!"

Snow's face darkened. "Uncle, if you don't want this land, there will be a lot of people who want it. My dad left this good thing to you for because we are family! Not because nobody wants to buy it!"

Amity's father looked at Henry with some embarrassment. "Henry, this is our family's business. Don't get involved, okay?"

Henry ignored their words and said to himself, "A parking space is only eight to nine square meters, but this is just a pure parking lot. But you need to add ramp, lanes, load bearing. The average area of each parking space is between 35 to 50 square meters. If you want to have 100 parking lots on one floor, you have to have at least 3,500 to 5,000 square meters of land. Moreover, the annual maintenance fee is very high. You have to consider these things."

Henry's words shocked Amity's father. "A parking space of 35 square meters? That's 1,000 square meters, which means there can only be 30 parking spaces. The profit of a year has been reduced several times!"

"And I'm just talking about basic expenses." Henry reminded him.

"Amity, what does your friend mean? Does he know better than us, he is just a saleswoman?" Snow stood up directly. Obviously, she was on the verge of getting angry.

"Brother, you have never done business, so there are some things that you don't understand. I don't blame you, but if you don't know, then don't pretend." Levi said, "We have a couple of parking spaces. During calculation, some base surface can be stolen during construction. Of course, I will tell you how to steal if you don't understand."

"You really doesn't know your own status. We don't welcome you. You can go now!" the third aunt said.

"Yes, I don't welcome you. Please leave!" Snow also shouted.

Amity's uncle gave her a reproachful look. "Amity, I'm not talking about you. You should be careful when you make friends. Don't make friends with everyone. Look at you, what kind of people do you consider friends?"

Facing the members of Amity's family,

Henry remained unmoved and still sat there. "What I just said is just the distribution of the foundation of the parking lot. And also, if I remember correctly, the land should belong to the Chows'. How did it become Mr. Qiu's?"

Henry looked at the second uncle with a look of inquiry.

"The land of Chows'?" Amity's father was also shocked. He was very clear about the Chows'. Last time, he almost died in the Chows' place. Thanks to Henry, he was safe and sound.

The expression of the second uncle changed slightly. "I am working with them."

"Oh." Henry nodded, took out his mobile phone, sent a message, and then asked, "I don't know what kind of cooperation is there between Mr. Qiu and the Chow's?"

"Do you understand what I said?" Snow asked discontentedly, "As a salesman, you're in charge of a lot of things. Is this what you should ask?"

"Okay, I'll ask you a question." Henry looked at Levi Sun. "The Benz G just now cost more than three million yuan. Is it yours?"

"Of course it's mine." Levi's face showed a sense of pride.

Henry's face was full of doubt. "No, I just saw the car. Why did I see the words 'Yingze car shop'?"

Henry's words made Levi's face suddenly change, and he didn't know how to answer for a moment.

Snow's neck was stiff. "What about the car shop? That 'Yingze car shop' is owned by Levi Sun's family!"

"Yes." Levi nodded fiercely. "It was opened by my family."

"Really?" Henry licked his fingernails and said, "Amity, do you know who is the owner of the 'Yingze car shop'? I remember that you have participated in the commercial design before."

Amity nodded and said hesitantly, "It's... it's our company, it's Lin's company."

"Mr Sun, you said that the Yingze Car Shop is owned by your family, so you have something to do with our boss?" Henry asked.

"Nonsense!" Before Levi answered, Snow shouted first, "My Levi Sun is the sworn brother of President Lin of Lins Group. You are just an ordinary salesman, how could you know so much!"

"Uh." Henry touched his nose and looked awkwardly at Amity.

There was also a kind of unspeakable taste in the eyes of Amity.

"What's wrong? Can't you say anything? Ask your President Lin if you know Levi Sun!" Snow crossed her arms over her chest and looked arrogant.

Henry nodded and said, "Well, I'll ask."

With this, Henry took out the phone and dialled Sylvia Lin's number. "Hello, wife, do you know a man named Levi Sun? He said he was your sworn brother. Okay, I got it."

After Henry said a few words, he hung up the phone and made an expression of regret to Snow. "Sorry, our President Lin doesn't know Levi Sun."

"What a joke!" Snow sneered, "You just made a phone call to President Lin? You call her wife. Is President Lin of Lins Group the wife of a saleswoman like you?"

"Boy, I think you're deliberately here to provoke our relationship!" The third aunt of Amity also said coldly.

At this moment, someone knocked on the door of the box. Outside the box came a respectful voice. "Mr Zhang, can I come in?"

"Come in." Henry responded.

The door of the room was pushed open from the outside, and Danny Chow was standing respectfully at the door of the room.

At a glance, Amity's father recognized that the man standing at the door was the young master of Chows'.

Danny looked at Henry respectfully. He had just received the news that this gentleman was looking for him, and he had rushed over immediately.

Henry pouted his lips at the second uncle and said to Danny, "Look, he said he was your business partner. If you want to sell your land in the city centre, you can confirm it."

Danny looked at the second uncle curiously and then shook his head at Henry. "Henry, I don't know him. Our Chow's family never planned on selling this land in the downtown area. I want to build a private villa there. If Henry wants it, I will give it to you immediately."

"No, I just wanted you to confirm it. You can go now." Henry waved his hand.

Danny nodded. Henry Zhang was looking for him only for this matter. He was not dissatisfied at all and turned to leave.

Chapter 306

Henry said, "The one just now was the current leader of the Chows'. He knows all the land of the Chows'. It seems that doesn't know you, Mr. Qiu."

Henry's eyes were indifferent.

The uncle's face was full of doubts. "Who says that he is the leader of the Chows'? I have been working with the Chows' for a long time. Don't you think I would know him?"

Henry shook his head. "It doesn't matter whether you believe it or not. All I need to do is to make one person believe it."

After saying this, Henry glanced at Amity's father.

At this moment, the eyes of Amity's father were full of complexity. Of course, he knew that the young man just now was the leader of the Chows.

"Okay." Henry snapped his fingers. "Let's talk about the next problem. You, Levi Sun, what is the relationship between you and Lins Group? You know the truth best in your heart. Of course, in order to make you give up, we need to do something. Let Amity tell you what kind of relationship I have with Sylvia Lin, the president of Lins Group."

"Brother Zhang, he..." Amity looked at his cousin. "Brother Zhang is President Lin's husband, and everyone in the company knows about it."

"What!"

Snow and Levi's eyes widened.

"You don't have to be shocked. There is no need to explain too much. Now pay attention to my hand." Henry took out his mobile phone and pressed three keys. "I have already dialled the police. Now, you can choose to stay here and let the police deal with a case of fraud or leave immediately. I will give you three seconds to choose. If you don't choose, I will help you choose."

Henry glanced at the relatives of Amity, and said softly, "One!"

When Henry counted, Levi was the first to rush out of the room without saying anything. Snow took a look and followed him.

"Two." Henry said again.

The third aunty and her husband looked at each other, lowered their heads, and walked out of the room without saying a word.

The second uncle and his wife saw that they didn't dare to stay here any longer and rushed out of the door.

In the blink of an eye, Aity, her father and Henry were the only ones left in the room.

Looking at the empty room, Amity's father's face was full of dullness.

And Amity was also red-rimmed.

How could they not understand what was going on? It was hard for Amity's father to accept such a thing.

The ones sitting there just now were all his blood relatives. They came out of a mother's womb with a blood relationship and grew up playing with mud!

"Uncle, I know that you feel very uncomfortable, but I still have something to say. Don't be blinded by the so-called family affection. Sometimes, you think they are your closest friends, but in fact, it's not like that." Henry shook his head and sighed, "You and the girl, Amity Qiu, just stay alone for a while. There are some things that you have to think through yourself."

After Henry finished his words, he patted the shoulder of Amity and said, "Girl, try to comfort your father."

Henry got up, left the room, and closed the door for them. At the moment when Henry closed the door, a cry of an adult man came out of the room.

Henry sighed, walked to the front desk of the hotel, paid the bill for Amity and her father, and left here.

He strolled home. By the time he got home, it was already past eight o'clock in the evening.

As usual, Sylvia sat on the sofa and watched TV. As soon as Henry entered the door, he could see the back of the woman.

"You're back. Why did you suddenly call me to ask that question?" Sylvia sat on the sofa with her long and white legs crossed in front of her.

Henry told Sylvia what had just happened in the hotel.

In this regard, Sylvia could only sigh. She was also the same when she met such a relative. At that time, Richard Wong wanted to destroy the Family Lin for his own selfish desires.

"This girl has done a good job in the company recently. She is willing to study hard and is diligent. Do you think I should promote her to a higher position?" Sylvia asked.

Henry shook his head. "No need. She's too young to be promoted directly. There would be a lot of gossips. It's not good for her. It's better to let her suffer more and temper herself."

Sylvia nodded and said, "As you say."

Neither of the two people in the conversation had noticed that Sylvia had subconsciously let Henry make the decision on some matters.

Henry poured himself a cup of tea and filled Sylvia's cup. He sat on the sofa and watched TV with Sylvia.

Sylvia kept looking at Henry from the corner of her eyes, and then said tentatively, "Dear, today you told Amity that I listen to you at home. Do you want such a life?"

"Uh." Henry suddenly looked embarrassed. On his way back, he was still worried that Sylvia would ask him this question. Alas, it was only because he was too arrogant in the morning and did not carefully observe the surrounding environment.

"Honey, do you want it?" Sylvia asked again.

"No, I don't want it at all." Henry waved his hand repeatedly. "I like our current state. Let me do everything, let me spoil you. That's it. Don't listen to me!"

Sylvia blushed after hearing Henry's words. She rolled her eyes at Henry and said, "By the way, tomorrow noon, let's go to my grandpa's house for lunch."

Henry had already prepared for the thing what Fiona planned to do tomorrow. He nodded and said, "Okay."

It was a silent night. The next morning, Henry got up and thought about making breakfast. When he opened the refrigerator, the empty scene made Henry silently walk out of the house and go to the vegetable market.

At ten o'clock in the morning, Sylvia didn't need to go to the company today, so she slept longer on purpose. When she got up and found that Henry was not at home, she didn't care too much.

Just as he was about to go to the bathroom to wash up, Sylvia's phone rang. It was from Secretary Lee.

Sylvia picked up the phone. Before she could speak, the anxious voice of Secretary Lee rang on the phone. "President Lin, bad news, Henry hit Prince!"

"Prince!" Sylvia was shocked. "Which country's?"

Henry was too bold to beat a prince, a member of the royal family of another country. What happened to him?

The secretary was silent for five seconds on the phone before she said again, "President Lin, Prince is a celebrity. In China, he is the most popular celebrity!"

Now Henry is already at the police station. The other party is going to sue our company and the lawyer is at the police station. It's already a mess. You should go and have a look."

Sylvia didn't have time to wash up at the moment. She chewed a piece of chewing gum and wore a casual suit. Then she went to the police station.

Chapter 307

At this moment, the police station in Yinzhou was already crowded with people.

The media and reporters from all walks of life had already blocked the entrance of the police station. The fans of Prince also held their sign and blocked the entrance of the police station. Dozens of police officers pulled up the cordon at the entrance of the police station and maintained order!

"Punish him severely! Punish him severely!"

"How dare he hit our Prince!"

"Our Prince is so handsome. Who will be responsible for him if he is hurt?"

A group of female fans screamed excitedly.

In the police station, more than a dozen lawyers were pleading about what had happened this morning.

Director Wei of the Yinzhou police station was now sweating profusely. This matter was not a trivial matter. The one who hit the person was so powerful that he didn't dare to think about it. And the one who was beaten was the most popular celebrity. His every move was watched. If he couldn't handle it well, his career would come to an end.

At a corner of the police station, two young men in women's clothes were sitting there. The two young men stayed here silently without saying a word.

Henry sat in the interrogation room. Instead of being handcuffed, he even made a cup of good tea for himself. The police locked him up in the interrogation room just to avoid those reporters and crazy fans.

A middle-aged woman wearing black-framed glasses, with a face full of anger, scolded to Director Wei, "I really overestimated the public security environment in your Yinzhou. Someone just fought and made trouble casually. Do you, the police, care about the safety of the citizens? I'm going to complain about you! I'm going to make all of Prince's fans complain about you!"

"Ms. Wu, calm down, calm down. I believe there must be a reason for this." Director Wei tried to comfort her. The woman in front of him was Prince's manager, and she had a great influence.

"Calm down? How can you let me calm down? Don't you know that what happened today will affect our Prince's future career!" The Prince's manager's eyes turned red.

When Sylvia arrived at the police station, she was also shocked by the scene in front of her. In front of the whole police station, there were at least 500 people, who shouted for Prince and said that they would punish the attacker severely.

Secretary Lee was waiting for Sylvia outside. The moment she saw Sylvia's car, she walked up quickly.

"President Lin, you're here. The media has made a big deal out of it." The secretary's face was full of anxiety.

"What's going on?" Sylvia frowned and asked as soon as she got out of the car.

Secretary Lee shook her head. "I don't know the specific situation. I went to the market in the morning to buy vegetables. On my way home, I saw Henry hit someone. At that time, Prince had a lot of bodyguards and agents who said they would sue Henry. I was in a hurry and said that our Lins Group would take charge of this matter and protected Henry first. But I didn't know how to deal with it later."

"You did a good job." Sylvia gave Cathy Lee a look of approval. She tried to calm down and asked, "Who on earth is this Prince? How popular is he?"

"Very popular!" Cathy did not think about it at all. She nodded vigorously. "Every major video website has a star ranking, and Prince is ranked first everywhere. There are all kinds of fan club support. After this incident, in just half an hour, the biggest social platform on the Internet would soon be destroyed by Prince's fan club! If this matter is not handled well, just public opinion alone is enough to destroy our Family Lin!"

Sylvia didn't make a careful analysis. Just thinking about it, she realized the importance of the matter.

"Where's Henry?" Sylvia asked.

"He has been taken away by the police," Cathy said, pointing at the police station.

"Let's go, let's ask Henry what happened!" Sylvia strode toward the police station.

Now at the entrance of the police station, a warning line was pulled up and no one was allowed to enter.

When Sylvia and Cathy came over, they were naturally stopped.

"Madam, you can't go in."

"I'm the wife of the party involved." Sylvia explained her identity to the police.

As soon as Sylvia finished speaking, there was a burst of abuse behind her. A fifteen or sixteen-year-old girl shouted, "B*tch, it's your husband who hit our Prince, b*tch!"

"How dare you show up? Kill her to avenge our prince!"

"Beat her!"

A group of crazy fans rushed toward Sylvia, waving their arms non-stop. If the police hadn't stopped them, they wouldn't have doubted what crazy things they could have done, judging from the state of these fans.

Sylvia frowned even more tightly. She saw that these fans were almost all childish little girls, and they had already fallen into a state of enthusiasm for Prince.

A slender arm crossed the defence line of the police and hit toward Sylvia's face.

"Watch out, President Lin!" At the crucial moment, Cathy gave Sylvia a push, only to be slapped in the face.

There was a crisp sound, and a red five-fingered print appeared on Cathy's face.

It was a girl in her sixteen who hit Cathy. Her eyes were full of hatred, and she wanted to tear Sylvia apart. She cursed, "B*tch, I'm going to beat you to death and avenge our Prince!"

Such a scene completely stunned Sylvia.

"President Lin, let's go in. We can't stay here." Cathy quickly grabbed Sylvia's arm and rushed to the police station.

"Wait." Sylvia shook off Cathy's hand and took a deep breath. She turned a blind eye to the scoldings in front of her. She looked at the girl who hit Cathy and said to the police officer in front of her, "Officer, please arrest this person. She just hit my friend."

As for the slap just now, the police officers also saw it clearly. Without saying anything, they immediately arrested the girl.

Sylvia watched the girl being arrested with her own eyes, and then she stepped in the police station.

Inside the police station was also a mess.

When Director Wei saw Sylvia, he immediately recognized the president of the Lins Group and quickly came over.

"President Lin, you're here. This time, there's something wrong with your staff. Our police are also trying to solve the problem. Don't worry." Director Wei comforted her.

"Where is Henry Zhang? I want to see him." There was anger in Sylvia's beautiful eyes.

"This..." There was a hint of embarrassment on Director Wei's face. "I'm afraid it's not in line with the rules. Now only direct relatives and lawyer can see Henry."

"He is my husband!"

When Director Wei heard this, he quickly closed his mouth and personally took Sylvia to the interrogation room.

Sylvia had thought that Henry would be thrown into the interrogation room, which made her worried on the way here. But when she saw Henry sitting there and tasting a cup of tea, she could no longer suppress her anger. The scene of Cathy being slapped just now was still vivid in her mind.

"Henry Zhang! What did you do? Don't you know what mess you caused?"

Chapter 308

Henry took a sip of tea and said slowly, "Honey, you are here. Don't worry."

"Don't worry! How can I not worry? What's the matter? Why do you have to hit people? Can't you be more mature?" Sylvia's face was full of anger and a trace of disappointment.

"I am very mature, otherwise, I would definitely kill him on the spot!" Henry suddenly gave out a sense of hostility, which made Director Wei, who was standing on the side, panic for no reason.

Even Sylvia, who was in a state of anger, was also stunned. She had never seen Henry behave like this. When he spoke just now, he made her feel... afraid?

Cathy tugged at Sylvia's sleeve and said, "Don't worry, President Lin. Henry is not an impulsive person. He must have done something too excessive to make Henry so angry. You should listen to Henry first."

Sylvia took a deep breath and nodded. "Well, Henry Zhang, tell me why you hit him. You have to give me a reason!"

Henry's expression returned to calm. "The reason is very simple. That person can't control his own mouth. His fans can't control their mouth either. I just hit him. I didn't kill him. I've already shown mercy for them!"

Director Wei, who was standing at the side, was extremely embarrassed. He was the police chief at least, and this big shot had been talking about who he wanted to kill in front of him, so what else could he say?

Sylvia was amused by Henry's explanation. "Do you mean that he started to swear at people and you decided to hit him?"

"Yes." Henry nodded.

"Childish!" Sylvia shouted. "You're an adult now. Why did you do it because of this little thing?"

Henry shook his head. "Honey, you don't understand."

"What's there that I don't understand? Tell me!" Sylvia stared at Henry and wanted an explanation.

Henry looked at Sylvia and sighed. "Well, come with me."

Henry got up and took the lead in walking out of the interrogation room.

Director Wei was in a mess. This big shot really did not rest assured about this matter. He went out the interrogation room.

Sylvia followed Henry and wanted to know how Henry would explain.

When Henry walked to the lobby of the police station, his appearance immediately attracted the attention of Prince's manager.

"Police! What do you policemen do? Who let him come out! And the two men dressed as women, they are also accomplices!" Prince's manager shouted while pointing to the two young men in women's clothing sitting in the corner.

When Henry, who had been calm before, heard the words of Prince's agent, his eyes instantly became full of the evil spirit. He strode toward Prince's manager.

The evil spirit and momentum in Henry's eyes seemed to have lowered the temperature of the surrounding air a lot. His beast-like eyes made people fear at first glance.

Prince's manager looked at Henry walking toward her and suddenly panicked. "You...

you... what do you want to do? I'm warning you..."

"Warn me what!?" Henry clenched his fist. Ignoring where he was, he rushed to Prince's manager and punched her in the belly.

After this punch, Prince's manager seemed different. It could be seen that her face was twisting, her body subconsciously arched up, and her face was red at this moment.

"Henry Zhang, what are you doing?" Sylvia rushed up and grabbed Henry. "This is the police station! The police station!"

"Henry, don't be impulsive. Don't be impulsive." Director Wei also rushed up and stood between Henry and Prince's manager.

After half a minute, she gritted her teeth and squeezed out a sentence, "I'm going to sue him, I want him to be locked up in jail for the rest of his life!" The manager was in so much pain that she couldn't even speak a word.

Sylvia was extremely anxious. In the police station, what kind of behaviour was it to beat people in front of the police? Even with the influence of Lins Group, it was impossible to just let it go. Moreover, Henry hit the manager of a popular star. The lawyer of the other side, who was also present and saw this scene.

"Have you done enough? Ah! Have you done enough?" Looking at Henry's face, Sylvia screamed.

Henry shook his head. "Honey, you don't understand."

"If I don't understand, then you can help me understand!" Sylvia was so anxious that she burst into tears. If the other party really looked into this matter, Henry would spend a long time in prison!

Henry took a deep breath and nodded. He pointed at Prince's manager and said to Director Wei, "Director Wei, right? Look at her now. If she keeps talking, I can't guarantee that I will do something that you dare not imagine."

When he finished, Henry suddenly punched the desk next to him. The solid wood desk collapsed under Henry's punch.

Prince's manager, who was about to say something malicious, swallowed back what she was about to say.

Director Wei's back was also sweating with cold sweat. This big shot's martial art was so strong, and his background was so frightening. If he really did something, he really had no way to deal with it. At that time, he would be the one in trouble.

Sylvia was also shocked by Henry's action.

She really couldn't figure out what kind of language made Henry so angry.

"Honey, come with me. I'll introduce two old friends to you." Just a second ago, Henry, who was full of anger, shouted out the word "honey", and his eyes were full of tenderness.

Sylvia nodded subconsciously.

Henry took Sylvia to the corner of the police station. The two young men in women's clothing looked very ordinary.

"Dear, let me introduce them to you. This is Hardy Yu and this is Harley Yu. They are cousins."

"Brother Henry, sister-in-law." The two young men sitting at the corner looked at Henry gratefully and greeted Sylvia.

"Hello." Sylvia nodded to the two of them and then looked at Henry with a puzzled look.

Henry said to Hardy and Harley, "Come on, take off your clothes."

Hearing Henry's words, Sylvia's eyes were full of doubts. She didn't understand what Henry was going to do.

Hardy and Harly looked at each other and slowly took off their clothes.

When they took off their clothes, Sylvia's beautiful eyes gradually widened. The policemen in the police station, as well as Director Wei, all looked at them in shock.

On their bodies, there were dense scars. Some scars, like centipedes, were crisscrossing on their bodies.

Chapter 309

Director Wei slowly walked to the front of Yu brothers and carefully looked at the scars on their bodies. He slowly reached out his hand and put his index finger on the right chest of Hardy as if he was touching a treasure.

"Are they... gunshot wounds?"

There was a trace of loneliness in Hardy's eyes, and he nodded.

Director Wei looked at them and fell silent. How could an ordinary person have so many scars on his body? What's more, those were gunshot wounds!

"He's covered with wounds. It's obvious that he's a criminal!" The manager of Prince said, pursing her lips.

Henry turned his head and glared at the manager. He sneered and said, "A criminal? Hardy Yu, Harley Yu, tell everyone loudly, where did you get this wound?"

"Yes... yes..." Hardy answered in a low voice, "Battle..."

Henry shouted, "Speak louder! This is something you should be proud of! Tell everyone loudly, where did you get it from!"

Hardy's legs closed subconsciously. He puffed out his chest and shouted, "In the battle! The wound on my chest was caused four years ago when I fought with a mercenary team in the Peace Guard. It was left behind when I was hit by the automatic rifle. The wound on my shoulder was caused by the grenade fragments. The wound on my abdomen was cut open by the Cobra Army. The wound on my forearm was caused by the grenade explosion fragments when I was carrying out a rescue mission!"

Henry nodded and looked at Harley. "It's your turn. Tell me! How did you get hurt?"

"Also during the war!"

"How old were you at that time?"

Harley's answer made policemen in the police station gasp.

Nineteen years old! Nineteen years old had participated in such a cruel battle! On the contrary, what were they doing when they were nineteen years old?

Henry shouted, "I'll ask you two one more question, why do you wear women's clothing today!"

"Worship the Eldest Brother!" Hardy and Harley answered almost at the same time.

Henry nodded, turned his head and said to the police officers, "Four years ago, when I was 20 years old, I met the three brothers abroad. At that time, in order to save the Chinese citizens, there was only a small team of less than 30 people. They rushed and fought with hundreds of mercenaries who were loaded with guns and bullets. And I happened to be the one who was rescued."

Henry didn't say a word. At that time, he was hiding among those hostages.

Hearing Henry's words, these police officers were a little absent-minded. There were less than 30 people fighting against hundreds of armed mercenaries. This was not a child's play, but a real desperate fight!

At this moment, these policemen looked at Hardy and Harley with admiration.

Henry paused for a moment and continued, "After the rescue mission, there were only 13 survivors in the team. That night, we drank and chatted happily. They were originally three brothers, and there was the eldest brother called Harvey Yu. Because we were all from Yinzhou, we had many common topics and we talked a lot. The three brothers agreed that if someone died in a battle, the other two people would put on women's clothing and dance in front of the largest shopping mall in Yinzhou every year. If two of them died, the third brother would dance alone. If they all died, they would dance in the afterlife. That is why they were dressed like this today."

The eyes of Hardy and Harley were already red.

Henry smiled. "In the morning, I saw them. That man named Prince and his fans also saw them. I don't think I have to say what happened next. Everyone here knows what happened. 'He's a sissy. He's neither a man nor a woman.' The word 'Demon' came out of these people's mouth to attack people's heroes? As I said before, I didn't kill that Prince on the spot. I was already very kind!"

Henry almost shouted out the last sentence.

"Although I'm not a good person, I can't bear to watch him. He's a fool! He's a clown! Worry about fans! He's an actor with bodyguards! He's insulting the national heroes!"

Henry pointed at Hardy and his brother, whose arms were shaking. "They're three brothers. They joined the army at the age of eighteen and stood at the front line at the age of nineteen. Did their best! I'm just asking you. Those who insult them should be beaten, shouldn't they? Ah!"

Henry was roaring. When his roar fell, the whole police station was silent.

After a long silence, a voice came from Henry's side. "Should."

It was Sylvia who spoke. Now, Sylvia was no longer angry with Henry. What she had was anger in her heart. She even wanted to applaud for Henry's behaviour!

At the same time, Sylvia's heart was full of apologies. She was so angry with Henry just now.

Henry took a deep breath and calmed himself down. He said loudly, "Now, I'm going to walk out of the police station. If you want to arrest me, arrest me! If you want to sue me, just do it. But I'll tell you. If anyone dares to offend them verbally, I won't let him go easily. Do you understand?"

Henry's eyes were closely locked on Prince's manager.

Under Henry's gaze, Prince's manager didn't say a word and didn't dare to say anything.

After glancing around, Henry took Sylvia's little hand and strode out of the police station.

Those policemen, look at each other, let Henry out of the police station, no one moved. Could they arrest Henry Zhang? The answer is yes, no matter what, Henry hit people, they have the power to arrest him, but do they want to? No one wants, no one is willing to arrest him. If possible, they want to take off their uniform now, change into the casual clothes, and beat Prince.

Director Wei calmed down, walked to Prince's manager and said, "Ms. Wu, according to the 246th rule of our country, what you have done counts as an insult. I have to arrest you and then hand you over to the court for trial. You can keep silent, but every word you say will become the evidence."

As soon as he finished speaking, Director Wei took out a pair of handcuffs and handcuffed them on Prince's manager's wrist.

Then, Director Wei turned around and looked at the Yu brothers. He said loudly, "All of you, stand straight!"

At this moment, the police officers all stood straight with their legs closed.

Director Wei took a deep breath and shouted, "Salute!"

At the same time, everyone bowed to the two brothers.

The Yu brothers, who were dressed in women's clothing, stood there with red eyes. They also stood straight, raised their heads, and returned a military salute.

Chapter 310

Henry and Sylvia went out of the police station.

Seeing Henry's appearance, Prince's fans in front of the police station once again rushed to this side, and said harsh words.

Sylvia frowned.

Cathy ran out of the crowd at once and drove her car over.

Henry and Sylvia got into the car and left.

In the car, Sylvia looked at Henry apologetically. "Honey, are you angry with me?"

"Angry? What's wrong with you?" Henry asked with a puzzled face.

After hearing Henry's words, Sylvia was relieved. She was afraid that Henry was dissatisfied with her performance just now. After all, when she knew the cause and effect of the matter, Sylvia could also feel the anger. It was really annoying for an actor to insult the national heroes in public.

Just as Sylvia was about to answer Henry, the phone rang. It was from her father, Nelson Lin.

"Sylvia, where are you and Henry? The elders are all here, and you two are the only ones who haven't come."

Sylvia said on the phone that she would arrive soon and told Cathy to go to Glory Hotel.

Yinzhou was not big, and there were only a few famous hotels. If it was a banquet, there were only a few places.

In an intensive care unit of the People's Hospital of Yinzhou, a young man who looked to be in his early twenties was lying on the bed. He was drawing eyeliner and his face was smeared with powder. If he wanted to leave long hair, he would definitely be more beautiful than a woman.

In the ward, there were ten bodyguards. Outside the ward, a group of young girls looked worried, afraid that something would happen to their idol.

The young man lying in the ward was the actor who was beaten by Henry today. One of the most popular people at the moment.

A beautiful woman was sitting by the bed. She was Prince's assistant.

Prince touched the bruises on his face, grinned, and asked his assistant indignantly, "How's the matter going? I haven't been so angry since I grew up!"

Prince's assistant answered, "Sister Wu has gone to deal with this matter, and we have also made some changes. Many people are now asking for the attackers, and they will definitely be solved in the shortest time. During this period, you should not show up first. We should try our best to get as much compensation as possible, and by the way, we can stir up the heat."

"Okay." Prince nodded with satisfaction. He got off the bed and walked to the window of the ward. Through the window, he saw the scene at the entrance of the hospital. At this moment, a large group of people was surrounding the entrance of the hospital, holding up their hands. They encourage Prince to be strong. They, his fans, would always love people him.

Prince smiled and said, "Thanks to so many crazy fans who help me. How about this, in my personal name, I write a post-Life is not easy, and we all have to be strong. By the way, take a picture of my face, and it will be more obvious, otherwise, I will recover in two days."

"Okay."

The assistant took out her mobile phone, took a photo according to Prince's request, and sent a message on social media. In the short span of a minute, there were nearly a thousand replies.

"Oh my god, how could he hurt our Prince like this?"

"Does he know how hard our Prince is working? He did this because he was jealous of our Prince."

"Our Prince has won glory for our country. His records have been spread abroad. He is a hero of the people. If he hurt our people, he will be sentenced to death at least!"

One after another, strange comments appeared on social media.

And the popularity of Prince himself also increased rapidly, and soon it was on the headlines of major websites.

Just as the assistant was still thinking about how to do marketing, the door of the ward was kicked open.

The ten bodyguards in the room all focused their eyes on the door of the ward in an instant.

In the ward, there was a team of fully armed policemen led by Director Wei.

"They insulted our heroes, arrest all of them!"

With Director Wei's order, the group of policemen did not hesitate at all. They locked up Prince, his assistant, and the ten bodyguards.

"Take him away!" Director Wei waved his hand and looked at Prince with a very unhappy face.

As a law enforcer, Director Wei knew that in this society, there were many things that ordinary people couldn't know. The cruelty of war was also beyond many people's imagination.

There had never been any quiet time before. It was just that there was someone who was carrying a burden and moving forward.

However, those silent people were insulted by others. All the Chinese citizens would feel angry about this kind of thing, let alone Director Wei, who was the law enforcer.

The two policemen seized Prince, and Prince struggled to get rid of them. But how could he be a match for the policemen with his thin arms and legs? He was just doing nothing.

Prince roared, "Do you know who I am? How dare you arrest me!"

"Of course I know. I'm arresting you. Take him away!" Director Wei shouted and walked out of the ward first.

The fans outside the ward looked shocked when they saw Prince was actually cuffed by the police.

"What right do you have to arrest our Prince?"

"Our Prince is a national hero. You're not qualified to arrest him!"

In the face of such words, Director Wei turned a deaf ear to it. He took Prince to the police car and took him back to the police station.

In the police station, the girl who had slapped Cathy earlier was making a statement.

The girl's parents were also called to the police station. When they knew that their daughter had hit someone in front of the police station, the girl's parents turned pale with fright.

The police told the girl's parents that their daughter had violated the law of public security and deliberately caused trouble. If the other party wanted to blame her, she had to be detained.

Hearing this, the girl's parents were all panicked. While scolding their children, they pleaded with the police.

"We told you not to look up to those celebrities! What's the use of those stars! Now you hit people! You hit people, can the star you like help you! Ah!" The girl's parents were so anxious that they burst into tears. No one could watch their child being detained and not be moved, let alone a girl who was only sixteen!

At the entrance of the police station, there was also a riot.

Pince with eyeliner was taken in by a group of policemen with a delicate appearance.

"It's Prince! Prince!" The girl looked at the door of the police station with excitement. Regardless of taking notes, she strode towards Prince and said with excitement in her eyes, "Prince, that's great. I finally see you. I'm so lucky. I hit people for you and they're going to detain me. Can you save me?"

Director Wei's face changed, and he said to Prince in a stern voice, "You are also suspected of instigating others to cause trouble!"

Prince frowned, shook his head, and looked at the girl with disgust. "I don't know her. Her actions are her actions. It has nothing to do with me."

There was no relationship at all. The girl was stunned by what he said. Looking at Prince's back, the girl began to regret. "Is this my idol? Is this my favourite celebrity?"

Chapter 311

The news that the police had taken Prince away soon spread on social media.

Countless Prince's fans began to @ the official account of the Yinzhou City police station. Some netizens who didn't know the truth also began to pay attention to this matter. Soon, this matter was a hot topic.

There were even a large number of fans of Prince, who not only used their social account but also established countless alt account to pressure the government of Yinzhou through the Internet.

They questioned the police of Yinzhou why they didn't arrest the ones who hit Prince, but Prince instead.

In this case, Director Wei's phone exploded from the calls made by his superior, asking him how to deal with it.

Facing these questions, Director Wei replied that he would give everyone a reasonable explanation.

When this matter reached its climax, the local government of Yinzhou finally made a post on social media. They only sent two photos. One was a picture of Prince, pouting, and taking selfies with fists. The other was a photo of Hardy Yu and Harley Yu standing in front of the mall in women's clothing.

As soon as these photos came out, the following comments were immediately posted.

"I think that the police of Yinzhou must be out of their mind. Who are these two people? How could they put them and our Prince together, do they deserve to be together?!"

"Our Prince is sexy and beautiful. They're wearing women's clothing. It's disgusting."

"I really want to see our Prince wear women's clothing. He must be very beautiful. I don't know when he will have such welfare."

"Prince is so handsome, and the other two are so disgusting!"

"Demons, d*mn perv*rts, disgusting, disgusting! Prince's handsome!"

"Prince handsome? A man keeps pouting like a woman every day. Bruce Lee proved with his strength that we're not sick man of East Asia. Now we're all destroyed by this kind of pouting and cute guys." One of the netizens couldn't stand it anymore and spoke out.

As soon as this comment was made, there were more than a hundred praises immediately. Of course, there were also people who replied to him.

"I don't know who Bruce Lee is. Prince is the best!"

"Our Prince is good at martial arts!"

When there was about to be a scolding battle on the Internet, the police of Yinzhou posted two photos again.

The first one was of Prince, but the upper part of the body was naked and the upper part of the body was so thin that the ribs could be seen clearly. The skin was very white and tender.

"Wow! Our Prince's skin is so smooth. I'm so envious. I really want to know how Prince maintains his skin."

The other one was a photo of Yu brothers. They were also naked. Unlike Prince, who had fair skin, they had dark skin and looked rough. There were scars all over their bodies.

"These two ugly guys are so disgusting. They have potholes on their bodies.

Together with the photos of our Prince, they are simply an insult to our Prince!"

"That's right. Too ugly."

"Full of injuries. It's so ugly."

A bunch of sarcastic comments made netizens couldn't stand it anymore.

"You don't understand anything. A man's scar is the most attractive thing."

Five minutes later, the Yinzhou police once again sent out a dynamic message. This time, it was not a picture, but a line of words.

Answer: About Prince's secret maintenance method, SKII Fairy Water with SKII skincare essence milk, including a set of face's essence oil, which can make skin whiter and smoother.

Answer: About the secrets of the other two injured men: They served in the army at the age of 18, attended the crisis team at the age of 19, and carried out tasks in the most dangerous places in the world. They only needed to pick up their knives and fight with the criminals when Prince used the fairy water to maintain himself. They only needed to rush on the front line when Prince used the skin cream essence to cover his face. They only needed to soak their whole body with sweat and defend their dignity with their blood. They needed to protect the country with their lives!

As soon as the news was released, the original attention-seeking trend fell into a strange silence in a minute without any comments.

A minute later, under the post of the police of Yinzhou, there were words of admiration and respect.

"It's ridiculous. There's no war now! Don't talk nonsense, okay?" Prince's fan commented.

"It's true that there's no war. Who's fighting? Stop lying!"

"You don't know about war, but it doesn't mean there's no one!"

"Yes, you live in China and live in a country with the most stable public security around the world. Of course, you won't feel it."

"Yes, I have lived abroad before, and public security is not as good as that in China. I have also seen some wars. The people of the Peace Squad are all heroes!"

"I want to know, what happened? Prince was beaten and caught. What is the connection between him and these two heroes?" Someone asked.

A few minutes later, the Yinzhou police once again issued a statement. This time, it was a long one. Why did the brothers appear at the door of the shopping mall in women's clothing, how Prince said that the two were neither men nor women, and he was making fun of them all the time.

When the netizens saw that the Yu brothers did this in order to worship their big brother, but were regarded in such a bad way by Prince, they were angry.

As for Henry's name, Yinzhou police did not announce it, but only mentioned his surname. "Mr Zhang, the warmhearted citizen, couldn't stand such an open insult, and he was angry. Now the police concluded that Prince, along with his assistant and manager, is guilty of insult and will be handed over to the court. As for Mr Zhang, we think justice is fair and spreads positive energy, and will not be punished."

As soon as the post came out, there was a burst of applause immediately.

"This Mr. Zhang did a good job. I support

"Brilliant!"

"That's right. This is to maintain the reputation of our people's heroes. If he was to be punished, we couldn't bear it anymore!"

"Good job, Mr Zhang!"

The fans of Prince knew that he was going to be transferred to court, and they all showed an unacceptable attitude.

"Why? Everybody has a mouth. What do we want to say, it is none of your business! Why do you want to arrest our Prince?"

Yinzhou police, who had sent out several posts in a row, returned to silence again. This matter had been resolved completely. Even if Prince had a great influence, how could he surpass those heroes who were silent? Only a few people were chasing after the stars, and most of other people were very reasonable.

Henry, who was sitting in the car and going to Glory Hotel, didn't know that he had been praised online. He didn't care much about this kind of things.

As for Cathy, when she was waiting for the traffic lights, she took out her phone to have a look. When she saw the cheers on the Internet, Cathy said excitedly to Sylvia, "President Lin, look at social media. Henry is famous!"

Cathy handed her cell phone to Sylvia.

Sylvia looked at the comments on the screen. Those words of praise for Henry made her smile. Her husband was praised like this, which made her feel comfortable.

Chapter 312

Outside the largest private room of Glory Hotel, the manager of the hotel stood at the door as a waiter. The teapot in the room was always filled with water, just because in this room sat the most influential person in the business district of Yinzhou, Old Master Lin.

The hotel manager knew that even his boss had to be polite when he saw Master Lin.

"Old Master, it's my son who doesn't know the rules. I propose a toast to you. Instead of my disappointing son, I apologize to you." Fiona stood at the dinner table and raised the glass in his hand.

At the dinner table, there were not only Old Master Lin and Nelson Lin, but also some other older entrepreneurs. These entrepreneurs were specially invited by Fiona. Now although everyone had already withdrawn from the business circle, their influence was still there. It was not difficult to see the status of the Zheng Family in the business district of Yinzhou.

At that time, the Old Master of Zheng Family and the Old Master of Lin Family were best friends. But now the Old Master of the Family Lin was still alive, and the elder of the Family Zheng was no longer there.

Master Lin raised his glass and said with a smile, "It's inevitable that young people are very angry. We are old friends. If you have anything to say, just tell me."

"Haha, Old Lin, you're getting older and more generous." A senior man said.

"When we were young, everyone messed up with each other in the business field. Yinzhou is small. When we are old, we are still sitting at the same table and having a drink."

"Yes, in the end, we are all friends. It's a misunderstanding. Just let it go. According to Fiona, Old Lin is not a stingy person. When your son comes out later, you can buy a gift and go to the Family Lin to apologize. Then this matter will be over."

Some people of the older generation spoke, and the meaning of their words was also very obvious. When Fiona invited them here, she also told them the specific situation. These people apparently received benefits by helping Fiona.

Master Lin took a sip of the wine in his glass and said to Nelson Lin, "Nelson, wait for the girl, Sylvia, to come and tell her. We have watched Sam Zheng grow up. It's just a small misunderstanding. It's just a fight between young people. Just let it go."

Nelson nodded and said, "Got it, dad."

While they were talking, the door of the private room opened. Holding Henry's arm, Sylvia walked into the private room.

"Sylvia, this girl is really getting more and more beautiful. It's no wonder that Fiona's son is crazy for her. If I were dozens of years younger, maybe I would do something stupid." A grey-haired old man laughed.

"Sylvia, I heard that you and the son of the Zheng Family had some misunderstanding. Fiona personally called us here to show her apology. Let's forget about it."

Sylvia looked around and saw that they were all elders of the older generation. In fact, when she heard that Fiona invited grandpa for dinner yesterday, she also thought of today's matter.

Nelson said, "Sylvia, your grandfather has said that it's all a misunderstanding. Just let it go."

Sylvia smiled slightly and said, "Since the elders have spoken, I have to listen to them."

"Sylvia, I apologize to you on behalf of Sam and propose a toast to you." Fiona walked aside, picked up a glass of red wine and handed it to Sylvia.

Nelson's face changed and he said, "Sylvia, you can't deny it. After all, Fiona is your elder."

"Yes. Fiona, the matter of young people will be settled by young people. When your Sam comes out today, let him make an apology to Sylvia." An old man said.

Fiona shook her head with a smile on her face. "Dear uncles, my child has not been educated well and has a direct relationship with me as a mother. I have to propose this toast to Sylvia."

"Fiona, you are really a good mother."

"That's right, Sylvia. In that case, take the wine and drink it first."

Seeing so many elders talking, Sylvia had nothing to say. She took the glass and said, "Auntie Wong, our families are old friends. I'll drink this glass of wine first, and all the misunderstandings have been cleared."

As she said that, Sylvia put the glass in her mouth.

Looking at Sylvia's action, Fiona showed a cold smile unnaturally. As long as Sylvia drank this glass of wine, even though her son was fine, this Lins family would become hers in the future. Let's see whether this Lin Family wanted money or her life!

Just as Sylvia's red lips were about to touch the rim of the cup...

"Wait!" Henry suddenly said, which made

Sylvia subconsciously pause.

Henry gently stopped Sylvia, so that the glass was a little farther away from Sylvia's mouth.

Fiona's expression changed subtly, and then a smile appeared on her face. "Do you still think that I'm not sincere enough?"

"This is Sylvia's husband, isn't he? He has a good appearance."

"However, Fiona is still your elder and she apologized to you. It's not appropriate for you to do this." An old man looked at Henry discontentedly.

"Old Lin, your grandson-in-law should be taught well. In China, we value etiquette the most. The decision made by the elders can't be changed by a junior."

"Yes, my grandson-in-law absolutely wouldn't dare to interrupt me!"

Before they came here, they had heard from Fiona that the person the Family Lin found was just a son-in-law. As a result, these people were not polite to him.

"Honey, Grandpa has spoken. I'll drink this glass of wine." Sylvia said and raised her glass again. She winked at Henry repeatedly, meaning that Henry should not make grandpa angry.

What Sylvia didn't know was that, Old Master Lin, even if he was angry with anyone, it was impossible for him to be angry with Henry. At every stage, people would compare. When they were children, they competed with lucky money, young people competed with clothes and mobile phones. When they graduated, they competed with jobs. When they had children, they competed with their children.

At Master Lin's age, people usually talked not about their own life, but their own younger generation's life. The better their younger generation's life was, the brighter their faces would be.

Master Lin had praised their grandson-in-law more than once, such as returnee, doctor, educated and talented. He didn't envy them because he knew that no matter how excellent these people were, they couldn't compare with his grandson-in-law, because he was known as The Conqueror!

In the past, Master Lin's old friend, Dan Song, had told him what kind of status this The Conqueror had in the upper society. Someone paid a billion to ask The Conqueror to help him. The Conqueror didn't even look at him. If he didn't say he would save him, he wouldn't!

Henry shook his head with a smile and took the glass from Sylvia's hand. "Well, Auntie Wong, right? Everyone has said that you are an elder. It's impossible for you to propose a toast to us. How about this..."

As he spoke, Henry Zhang handed the glass of wine to Fiona Wong. "This toast is for you. Honey, fill another glass for me."

Chapter 313

Fiona looked at the wine glass handed by Henry in front of her, and her face kept changing. There was a maggot in this cup!

"No, it's better for me to toast to you. I'll pour another glass for myself." Fiona pushed away the glass handed by Henry.

"Why?" Henry said with a smile, "Aunt Wong, you don't drink there is something in this glass of wine?"

Henry's words made Fiona's heart tighten subconsciously. She forced a smile and said, "How could it be? What can be in the wine?"

"Well, I thought there would be something like worms in it." Henry deliberately said, "Since there are no worms, Auntie Wong, don't refuse. Honey, please give me my wine. This time this misunderstanding is too big, I have to give Auntie Wang a good toast."

Henry took the glass handed over by Sylvia and then squeezed the glass of wine into Fiona's hand.

Fiona held the cup of wine with maggot hidden in it, and her face was full of embarrassment. She leaned over and winked at an old man.

"Young man! It's a little too much for you to do this. The wine was given to you by Fiona. It's not appropriate for you to return it. Sylvia, you should take the glass of wine in Auntie Wong's hand and drink it." The old man said.

Henry suddenly turned his head and looked at the person who spoke. "Old thing, shut your mouth!"

Henry's sudden attitude stunned all the people in the room. No one expected that Henry would suddenly say such a thing.

"Honey!" Sylvia pulled Henry's clothes.

"Henry, you've gone too far," Nelson said with a look of blame. Even though Henry might not like him, he had to be polite and call him uncle. As a result, he was called 'old thing' by Henry.

The rest of the people who were the same age as Master Lin also reproached him.

"Old Lin, your grandson-in-law doesn't know the etiquette."

"You have to educate him more. He's just a son-in-law. Don't give him too much face."

The old man, who was scolded by Henry, showed anger on his face. "Junior, do you know who you are talking to?"

"Ha." Henry smiled contemptuously. "I don't know who you are and I'm not interested in knowing. I just want to know how many benefits Fiona Wong has promised you if you help!"

Fiona's face changed again. "Henry, I don't know what you're talking about."

"You don't know?" Henry raised his eyebrows and struck out like lightning, directly sticking Fiona's throat. "If you don't know, give me the glass of wine in your hand!"

Fiona's neck was stuck by Henry, so she couldn't get rid of him. She glanced at the glass in her hand and wanted to smash it to the ground. Even if the maggot couldn't be put in Sylvia, she wouldn't drink it herself.

As soon as Fiona raised her hand, she found nothing in her hand. The wine glass in her hand returned to Henry's hand.

Henry let go of Fiona, took the wine glass containing the maggot, and walked to the old man who had just spoken for Fiona. "If she doesn't drink, why don't you drink?"

The old man looked at the glass in Henry's hand, and there was a trace of fear in his eyes for no reason. He knew what was in the glass.

"I... I don't drink." The old man waved his hand.

Henry sneered and said, "Old thing, you don't even dare to drink anything. But you make my wife drink it?"

Nelson frowned. "Henry, what's going on here? Is there anything wrong with this glass of wine?"

"Of course." Henry nodded. He raised his glass and tilted the rim of the cup. The wine in the glass slowly flowed out of the glass and splashed on the ground.

As the red wine slowly poured out, a red maggot appeared in the cup. The wriggling appearance of the maggot disgusted everyone.

Fiona's face became extremely ugly. She couldn't understand how Henry knew about this!

The old man's face darkened as well.

Henry pulled the maggot out of the cup and shouted, "Do you think that Fiona thinks that she is wrong? I don't think anyone will want to try and see what happens to the worm in his stomach."

After the initial shock, Nelson slammed his hand on the table, stood up, and shouted angrily, "Fiona, what the hell did you plan to do?"

Master Lin's face also completely darkened. He didn't expect that Fiona would play such a trick with him to poison his granddaughter. This move of hers could make the Family Lin destroyed!

The other elders invited by Fiona also looked at each other, speechless.

Fiona's face was a little pale. "Henry, I don't understand what you are doing. I have never seen this bug before."

"Really?" Henry grinned. He walked to Fiona's seat, took her bag, opened it, and poured out all the things inside.

A palm-sized drum was popped out of Fiona's bag. Henry picked up the drum and patted it gently. The red maggot oozed a pile of black liquid in front of everyone.

"Fiona, don't you know anything about this drum?" Henry looked at Fiona playfully.

Now, everyone could see that the maggot must have something to do with Fiona.

"I... I..." Fiona shook her head, looked in the direction of the door of the box, took a deep breath, turned around and ran to the door of the room.

Henry knew her actions immediately. He didn't hold back at all. He kicked Fiona to the ground, cutting off the idea of Fiona's escape.

Henry held the bug and walked to the old man who cooperated with Fiona. "Tell me, what benefits Fiona Wong has promised you! Otherwise, I will verify the effect of this maggot on the spot."

The old man was so scared that his face turned pale. He said with a trembling voice, "Fiona told me that as long as this was placed in Sylvia's body, she could control her. She said... she said that the Family Lin had only one descendant in the generation of Sylvia. As long as she was controlled, the Family Lin could get controlled easily. At that time, she would give me one-third of the shares of the Family Lin."

"One-third?" Henry raised his eyebrows and looked at Fiona. "Fiona, Fiona. You are quite generous, but you reminded me that you can use this maggot to control people. In that case..."

Henry strode up to Fiona, pushed Fiona's mouth open, and put the maggot into her mouth. As soon as the maggot entered her mouth, they went into Fiona's stomach. Fiona's eyes were as grey as ash.

Chapter 314

Henry shook his hand, walked to the side, picked up the drum and patted it gently.

The second after Henry clapped the drum, Fiona let out a cry of pain. Her face twisted and her hands covered her abdomen. She rolled on the ground in pain.

"Eh? It's quite interesting?" Henry showed great interest on his face and patted the drum again.

"Ah!" Fiona once again let out a painful roar, and her voice became hoarse. It could be seen that her forehead was already covered with dense beads of sweat, and the blue veins on her arms stood out. She was in great pain.

The people in the room saw Fiona's look, and their faces showed some fear.

Master Lin and Nelson were a little scared, but they were extremely angry. This kind of thing could make people feel pain. If it was put in Sylvia, then the Family Lin would be destroyed by Fiona Wong!

"Please...please...please, don't knock again..." Fiona's hair was wet with sweat, and wisps of hair were scattered on her forehead. Her face was pale and her breath was weak, and her eyes were full of pleading.

The sharp pain from the viscera made her want to dig out her stomach, cut it off, and throw it away.

Henry asked with a smile, "Fiona Wong, I heard that you're going to give me all your shares of Zheng Group, aren't you?"

"I..." Fiona opened her mouth with hesitation in his eyes. She had 20% of the Zheng Group's shares in her hand, which was more than a billion yuan! How could she give it to him?

Henry beat the drum three times in a row. Fiona screamed again in pain.

One minute later, Fiona, who was rolling on the ground, stopped. She was panting, and her face was pale. She looked particularly haggard.

"Don't... don't knock on it. I... I agree." Fiona waved her hand feebly.

"Tomorrow afternoon, I want to see your transfer contract. I'll put away the drum first." Henry raised the drum in his hand.

Fiona nodded repeatedly. The pain was indescribable as if someone had squeezed all her viscera together.

The people in the room looked at each other. They looked at each other, and then at Fiona with sadness in their eyes. She wanted to harm others, but in the end, she hurt herself.

The old man, who had joined hands with Fiona to harm Sylvia, couldn't say a word at this time.

Fiona got up from the ground and stood aside in fear, not daring to say a word.

"Why are you standing there? Are you waiting for me to invite you to leave?" Henry looked at Fiona curiously.

Hearing this, Fiona ran out of the box without saying a word.

This apology banquet was not a happy one. Those invited by Fiona all left with apologies. In a blink of an eye, only Sylvia's family was left in the room.

"Henry, thanks to you this time. I didn't expect that the daughter-in-law of the Family Zheng was so vicious. If it weren't for you, Sylvia would be in danger this time." Master Lin sighed.

Nelson also said, "Henry, dad apologizes to you for what he said just now."

"Dad, we're family. You're too kind. Sylvia is my wife. I won't let anyone hurt her." Henry held Sylvia's little hand, his eyes were full of love.

Sylvia blushed after hearing Henry's words. Her little hand was about to break free from Henry's palm, but it was caught tightly by Henry.

Master Lin laughed loudly and said, "Haha, we old men don't know much about you young people. Now I just want to have a great-grandson. Those old guys already have their great-grandsons, so I envy them very much. Sylvia, you should take the initiative. I can't wait for much longer."

Sylvia's pretty face was even redder. She subconsciously looked at Henry and found that Henry was constantly winking at her.

"Rascal!" Sylvia snorted and rolled her eyes at Henry, not looking at him.

Outside Glory Hotel, the first time Fiona went out of the hotel, she called the old man from that night.

"Mr Han, if you eat the maggot, how can you take it out?"

"You can't take it out. This kind of maggot will lurk in the human body for more than two to three months. When time is right, it will be corroded by gastric juice. It is impossible to take it out, so you can rest assured." Mr Han said confidently on the phone.

Hearing this, Fiona's heart suddenly sank. After hanging up Mr Han's call, she contacted the hospital for the operation. If she really had to give more than one billion yuan to Henry Zhang, how could she not be distressed? But to suffer that pain at all times, she could not bear it.

On the other side, the old man who worked with Fiona to hurt Sylvia was taken away by a car without plates as soon as they got out of the hotel. The old man looked at the people in the car with ghost-faced masks in horror.

"Who... who are you?"

"A dead man doesn't need to know too much."

Buick commercial car drove all the way to the suburbs.

In the Glory Hotel, Henry and Sylvia appeared at the entrance of the hotel.

"By the way, have are busy these days?" Sylvia looked at Henry and asked.

"No, why?" Henry asked curiously.

Sylvia nodded. "Okay. In the next two days, Ning province's human resources will have a large-scale job fair and send a lot of talents to the public enterprises in Ning province. Didn't you have a high score in the talent centre last time? This time, you can recruit some people for me. Many people recruited by the personnel department are only educated and incompetent. Please help me to check them."

"No problem." Henry made an OK gesture.

With Henry participating in the recruitment, Sylvia was relieved. Henry, who got high evaluation price, would have no problems helping HR.

The recruitment would start yesterday. After Henry agreed, he didn't waste much time. After asking the location of the recruitment fair, he rushed there.

Sylvia called Cathy and asked her to inform the HR department that everyone should cooperate with Henry's work as much as possible.

In the Yinzhou Convention Center, some large-scale exhibitions in Yinzhou usually would be held here, such as an electric exhibition, a house exhibition, an art exhibition, and so on. This time, the whole large-scale job fair of Ning province would also be held here.

In the past two years, there had been a great development in Yinzhou. It had also taken a lot of effort to prepare for this job fair.

The whole exhibition centre was divided into several pavilions. There were more than 200 companies covering all fields. Among them, there were two most popular companies, one was the leading enterprise of Yinzhou, Lins Group.

The other one was the Zhao family, a big enterprise that had risen up in Yinzhou recently.

As soon as Zhao's Group appeared, it claimed that it had a market value of ten billion yuan and surpassed Chows' in an instant, becoming the biggest competitor of Lins Group.

Chapter 315

In the past half a month, there had been a lot of open and secret strife between the Zhao's Group and Lins Group.

The appearance of Zhao's Group was beyond many people's expectation. The capital of this group had reached 8 billion yuan. With the support of a mysterious consortium, hundreds of elites were transferred from other places to maintain the operation of the company on the first day of its establishment. Moreover, many orders were obtained.

Originally, Lins market occupied a total of 48% in Yinzhou. With the appearance of Zhao's Group, Lin's share decreased by 13% at once, and only 35% was still in their hand.

Meanwhile, the current shares of Yinzhou market of the Zhao's Group had reached 25%, only ten percent lower than that of the Lins Group.

One must know that this was the result of the Zhao's Group, which had only appeared for half a month.

In the usual business negotiations, Lins Group would argue with Zhao's Group.

In the bidding competition, Zhao's was also the most powerful opponent of Lins Group.

In this recruitment, Lins and Zhao's were also competing for talents.

Lins and Zhao's were separated into one exhibition hall. There were more than a dozen exhibition pavilions in each exhibition hall. Some small companies would gather in groups on a small exhibition stand. After all, the price of this exhibition stands alone was up to 800,000 yuan. Small enterprises couldn't afford to pay for it. All the companies would unite to pay it together. If they could find useful talents, the money they spent was worth it. If they couldn't find it, they would consider it a loss.

Meanwhile, Lins Group and Zhao's Group owned a whole exhibition stand. The name of their own enterprise was hanging on it with the big word "HOT". The exhibition stand was full of business proposals and in the need for talents.

On the stand, the HR department of Lins Group was in a hurry at the moment.

"What do you think? Have you signed all the most promising ones this time?"

"Not yet. The offer proposed by the Zhao family is at least one level higher than ours. This is deliberate against us."

"They're trying to mess with us!"

While a group of people from the business department were discussing fiercely, Manager Chen of the HR department came over.

"Well, you should talk slowly first. I just received a message that Henry, President Lin's husband, is coming and will be responsible for the recruitment. All of us can assist him." Manager Chen said to everyone.

The staff of the HR department was shocked by Manager Chen's words.

"What? President Lin's husband is coming?"

"What is he doing here? Does he know how to recruit?"

"Please, Manager Chen. We are in a mess. Please don't make trouble for us."

A burst of complaints arose everywhere. Who didn't know how many of these people who entered the company by wearing a dress were really capable? Previously, Richard Wong, sitting in such an important position in the company, only ate, drank and played every day, but also added chaos to others.

Although they had never come into contact with Henry before, they could think of something just by thinking about him.

Manager Chen also knew what everyone was thinking. He had met Henry before. On the first day of work, he asked for a security position, but he was stunned by President Lin's aunt. From this point, it could be seen that he was absolutely an arrogant and unbridled person. If he came here, even if he didn't care about anything, everyone would have to listen to him.

This matter was arranged by President Lin. Even if Manager Chen had any opinion, he did not dare to say it out loud. Now he only hoped that Henry was a reasonable person.

"But Henry, last time when the building was on fire, he saved President Lin desperately. He won't go too far, right?"

"Haha, if my wife is the boss of a company with a market value of ten billion yuan, I wouldn't want to save her. Today, if he comes here and he does nothing, it will be our fault!"

"That's right. If he wants me to play with my life, I'll play with my life. He can see that every day we play with our lives and make money for him. We could make ten billion yuan. Everyone could play!"

The staff of the HR department all showed an angry expression.

"All right, cut the crap. He'll come soon. Maybe he'll leave very fast." Manager Chen comforted them.

"When he leaves, it will be too late. Now there are only a few remaining talents. If we can't recruit them, they might deduct our salaries. We still have family to feed!"

"Yes!"

"You are all stupid. Now you leave. When he comes, just say that everyone is busy. It is impossible for him to call you back! Go, go, go out." Manager Chen waved his hand.

Hearing that, the employees didn't hesitate.

"Let's go, let's go."

"Let's go."

A group of people left the stage in pairs. Soon, there was no one else in the recruitment seats of the Lins, except for a few people who worked with documents.

At half-past two in the afternoon, Henry strolled slowly to the exhibition centre.

It could be said that inside and outside the exhibition centre, there was a sea of people. At present, everyone was under a lot of pressure. Among the five people, one had no job. Among the remaining four, only one had a good offer, and the remaining three were uncertain.

In this fair, not only did jobless people come to take chances but some working personnel also specially asked for leave to see if they could find a job with better benefits.

Henry came to the exhibition centre. He took a look at the slightly shrunk picture and found the exhibition hall of Lins Group.

By the time he arrived at the exhibition stage of Lins Group, the stage was already crowded with candidates. Everyone handed over their resume. Whoever passed the resume would be able to take part in the next interview.

For most of the candidates, it was the Lins Group that chose them. Only a few elites would be able choose the Lins Group themselves.

Now, the Lins Group lacked such elites.

Manager Chen had been waiting in front of the stand for a long time. When she saw Henry, Manager Chen immediately came up to him.

"Mr Zhang, here you are." Manager Chen looked at Henry. He and Henry had seen met before. Looking at Henry's cheap casual clothes, he was stunned. This was President Lin's husband, a husband of a boss with ten billion yuan in her bank account.

Henry nodded, looked at the stage, frowned and asked, "There are too many candidates here. If I remember correctly, this time twenty-three people from the personnel department came to help with fair, so how come the efficiency is so low?"

Manager Chen smiled awkwardly. Usually, there wouldn't be so many people. But just now, he knew that Henry was coming and they had been sent out, so naturally, the efficiency of doing things was reduced.

"Well, Mr Zhang, this time, we have several good goals, but we haven't got the talents yet, so everyone went out to search for talents." Manager Chen explained.

"Went out? Call them back. They have to handle things here properly first. Why are they running around?" Henry blamed him.

Manager Chen was a little embarrassed. "But those high-quality talents..."

Henry glanced at Manager Chen and said blandly, "I give orders here."

Chapter 316

At 2:45 p.m., all the employees who had been sent out returned to the stand, but everyone had a look of anger on their faces. They really didn't want to come back, but manager Chen told them that if anyone was not back within 15 minutes, he or she would have to hand in his or her resignation letter.

All the employees of the Lins were forced to come back, and everyone's heart was full of resentment.

Henry sat in the resting room behind the stage. Through the huge glass window, he could see what was going outside. He made a cup of tea and drank leisurely.

The personnel staff next to him shook their heads in disappointment when they saw him like this. He was indeed a person who came to make trouble.

Soon, the people who came up to the stand to look for a job slowly dispersed. Everyone's introduction was taken in and they were waiting for the next notice.

Henry looked at a long-legged and thin-waist girl from head to toe. This girl was particularly conspicuous in the crowd, just because of her beautiful appearance and temperament that others could not compare with.

"Call her in." Henry pointed at the girl and said to Manager Chen.

The staff of the personnel department of the Lins Group also noticed this girl. She was really beautiful, but her education was too low. She just graduated from college and had no work experience. Instead, she started her business for a few years and lost money in the end.

Hearing that Henry wanted to call the young lady over, everyone showed a look of disdain. He was the same as Richard Wong. Without any ability, he could do anything to harm the young lady. They really didn't know what President Lin thought of such a man.

Soon, Manager Chen called the beautiful girl over.

Those who were looking for a job with a girl also showed a look that they had expected this. Now the hidden rules were put in the open. Beautiful women always enjoyed the attention.

At the same time, the girl's resume was placed in front of Henry.

On a table, Henry was sitting in front of the table, drinking tea and looking at the girl's resume. The girl was standing in front of Henry, wearing a long red dress.

"Cici Rui? This surname is quite rare. At the age of twenty-six, you graduated from college and started your own business for eight years. Please introduce yourself." Henry put the resume on the table and looked at Cici.

Cici smiled slightly and said, "Hello, interviewer. My name is Cici Rui. I'm..."

"Stop." Henry made a prohibited gesture. "I forgot to tell you how I want you to introduce yourself. I don't want to listen to your prepared speech. You just need to tell me three points. First, your advantages. Second, your disadvantages, Third, your opinion on the Lins Group."

Cici was slightly stunned, and then muttered, "Sorry, I can't make such a self-introduction."

Henry smiled slightly and seemed to have expected that Cici would answer in this way. He asked, "Why?"

"The first thing I can say is my opinion on Lins Group, the second is my disadvantage, and my advantage should be put at the end." Cici gave such an answer.

In other people's eyes, this way of answering was stupid. It was just three points, and the order you answered didn't make any difference.

But in Henry's eyes, it was completely different.

"Very well, you are accepted." Henry took out his mobile phone and looked at the time. "At 5:30 a.m., you can come here. I will talk to you about the salary."

Henry's words made Cici's eyes lit up. If one looked carefully, he would find that there was a kind of approval in Cici's eyes. Yes, it was an unusual thing for her, a college education candidate, to look at the interviewer of the Lin's with a look of approval.

Cici stretched out her hand to Henry Zhang and said, "You are very special. I hope that we can cooperate happily."

In the phrase of delight in cooperation, Cici expressed a more different meaning.

"I also hope so." Henry smiled and gently shook Cici's soft hand.

The people next to him looked at him. Henry told her that she had been admitted so easily. How could he recruit an employee? Obviously, he wanted to recruit a mistress for himself!

"I knew that this kind of person would only make trouble for us. When he finishes playing later, he will leave and leave the mess for us."

"Yes."

"Alas, it's all because of the great power of his family."

The staff of the HR department whispered.

Seeing that it was so easy for Cici to apply for the job, a beautiful woman, Linda Mao introduced herself and winked at Henry. "Hello, interviewer. My name is Linda. I graduated from college and also want to find a job."

When Linda spoke, she deliberately opened her mouth more, which was really enchanting.

Henry glanced at Linda and said, "Follow the procedure of finding a job."

Linda heard this and saw Henry's cold attitude. She rolled her eyes, turned around and left. At the same time, she made a sound, "Don't pretend to be so important!"

Linda's resume had just been rejected by Lins Group.

Linda's words were unanimously approved by the staff of the HR department. They also thought that Henry was putting on an act. He had just easily employed a beautiful woman, and now he was pretending to be a gentleman.

After a while, a young man in a suit came to the stand of Lins Group with a briefcase in his hand.

The appearance of this young man immediately attracted the attention of many HR department employees. They still remembered that this person was one of the few high-quality talents.

Several people immediately ran to the stand to take the young man to the lounge.

As soon as the young man entered the lounge, he shouted, "I won't beat around the bush with you. The Zhao Family offered me an annual salary of 300,000 yuan. My intention is to get a salary of 350,000 yuan per year. Now whoever can give me my ideal number, I will work for them."

As soon as the young man finished his words, the staff of Lins Group looked at each other. Finally, they looked at Manager Chen and asked him to make the decision.

"Three hundred and fifty thousand..." Manager Chen thought for a moment, then took out a pen and paper, wrote for a long time, and finally gritted his teeth. "350,000 yuan! OK! If there is no problem, we can sign the contract now!"

This young man was the key target of the personnel department of the Lins Group, and they wanted to sign him very much.

There was a trace of arrogance on the young man's face. "Then let's sign the contract."

Looking at the arrogance on the young man's face, the staff of the Lin's showed no dissatisfaction. If the young man really took up the job, he might become their boss in no time.

Henry sat next to them, frowned and said, "Manager Chen, what kind of talent is he? How can he directly ask for an annual salary of 350,000 yuan?"

"Henry, this is Pang Guang, twenty-three years old. He has already got a master's degree at Capital University. When he was at school, he got four scholarships. At the same time, his major is also in line with the two most important projects we have now." Manager Chen said as he handed a resume to Henry.

Henry only glanced at it and said, "We don't need him."

Chapter 317

"Don't want?"

Henry's words made the employees of the HR department open their eyes wide. This kind of talent, he actually didn't want it!

"Henry, I can't refuse this." Manager Chen whispered in Henry's ear, "This is a rare talent."

Henry took a sip of tea, shook his head and said, "If I say no, then we don't want him. Pang Guang, right? You can go now."

Henry threw Pang's resume on the table and then did not look at Pang again.

A hint of anger appeared on Pang's face. "Fine! If you don't want me here, there's another place that does!"

Pang stepped forward, grabbed his resume, slammed the door and left.

The staff of the HR department, including Manager Chen, looked at Pang's departure in a daze. They could not recover from the shock.

"Is he really gone? He's such a high-quality talent!"

At the moment, they had unspeakable bitterness in their hearts. Henry's arrival was not as simple as just adding trouble to people. He was a total troublemaker.

Manager Chen's face was full of bitterness. If it was a regular leader, he would dare to say something. But it turned out that he was President Lin's husband!

Manager Chen watched Pang walk to the booth of Zhao Enterprise next door, and was received by Zhao Enterprise's people.

Henry sat in the lounge behind the stage. Every time a person applied for Lins Group,

10:04 ■

Henry had to look at that person's resume, and sometimes asked them to introduce themselves. Some people who were supposed to sign the contract were rejected by Henry. However, some people who didn't even have a resume, Henry would accept.

After two hours, Henry Zhang hired about ten people and rejected the seven people who were going to sign the contract. His behaviour made the HR department staff unwilling to complain. The job fair, which had made everyone full of confidence, was completely ruined because of Henry's presence.

5:25 p.m.

There were fewer people at the fair than before.

Cici Rui, who was wearing a long red dress, came to the exhibition stand of Lins Group and talked with Henry about the salary.

In Yinzhou, the salary was divided into several grades.

Three thousand to five thousand, five thousand to eight thousand, eight thousand to ten thousand, and then the year-end bonus. Kind of a person with an annual salary of more than 250,000 yuan was a top talent in Yinzhou, such as Pang Guang. He had a master's degree from Capital University and an annual salary of 350,000 yuan. If he went out of the province, he would definitely be a successful person in the eyes of the people in Yinzhou.

They didn't know how Henry talked about the salary with Cici, but when Manager Chen printed the contract, Manager Chen and others saw Henry Zhang's salary and even suspected that they had added one more zero by mistake.

An annual salary of one million yuan!

In Yinzhou, there was not a company that had such a high salary for its employees!

If Manager Chen heard other people's asking for this salary, he would let them go to other companies immediately. One million! The genius with a master's degree from Capital University only wanted three hundred and fifty thousand yuan, but the graduate with this major got one million yuan?

"He is indeed a rich man. In order to play with this woman, he is spending a lot of money!"

"This woman's annual salary is one million yuan. In the future, she will have to stick her tail and walk in the company!"

"I've been working in Lins Group for almost ten years. Now I only have 8,000 yuan a month. This major's graduate directly gets one million yuan per year?"

The staff of the HR department expressed their dissatisfaction in private.

While they were talking, they saw a group of people walking to the stand of Lins Group.

All the employees in the HR department of the Lins Group knew these people. They were from the Zhao family next door.

The HR manager of Zhao's company took the initiative to bring people to the stand of Lins Group. Beside him, Pang Guang, who had been rejected by Henry before, was also there.

When the manager of the HR department of Zhao's company saw Manager Chen, his face was full of gratitude. He shouted, "Oh, Manager Chen, thank you very much. Such a good talent and you don't want him. You really gave advantage to our Zhao's company. We got this double-master's talent for an annual salary of 300,000 yuan. By the way, some things may have been forgotten by Pang Guang. However, we still checked it. Pang Guang once held a lecture in major schools because of his excellent grade. He earned 210,000 in a year."

The words of the Zhao's manager made the people from Lins' HR department look very unhappy. The other party signed the contract for 300,000 yuan and Lins wanted to give him 350,000 yuan. Moreover, Pang Guang was even more excellent than they had imagined. He started his business in college and earned 210,000 yuan a year. How many people could do this now? He was definitely a businessman!

Manager Chen did not speak and ignored the HR manager of Zhao's Group, but the HR manager of Zhao Enterprise did not intend to end this easily. Everyone had been fighting openly and secretly these days, and they all held back their breath. Today was the last day of the recruitment meeting. It was about to end, so they had to come over and put a good fight. He glanced at the contract in Manager Chen's hand. "Wow, Manager Chen, an annual salary of one million yuan? Who is this talent? Cici Rui? I am a little familiar with this name. Oh, I remember, a vase with a BA from a professional school!"

Manager Chen's face became even darker. If this matter was spread out, it would definitely make the HR department of Lins Group a laughing stock in the industry. A talent review department is known for being strict and professional, with an annual salary of one million dollars for an ordinary graduate, just because the other party was beautiful?

"Haha." Henry's chuckle sounded aside, "The so-called vase refers to the appearance without any personality. I don't know if this vase refers to your people or my people?"

Henry looked at the HR manager of Zhao's company.

"Of course everybody knows who I'm talking about. It is a known rule that BA graduates should have a monthly salary of three thousand yuan. I think it's too high!" The manager of the HR department of Zhao's company crossed his arms over his chest.

Henry glanced at Pang and said, "Actually, I think that the talent you signed should have an annual salary of 100,000. You overestimated him."

"What a joke!" Pang laughed out loud. "When I started my own business, I could earn more than 200,000 yuan a year. 100,000 yuan? Dream on!"

"Really?" Henry smiled and said, "You earned 200,000 yuan a year, and then? Does it prove that you are capable? The money he made is all virtual. Only when the money is in your hands can you prove that you earned it. Excuse me, have you got the money?"

"Bullsh*t!" Pang snorted with disdain. Of course, he could not get any money from the operation of the virtual model.

Henry looked at Manager Chen and asked, "Do you think he can survive under my control for a few days with his character? 10 million yuan a year would not enough for him to pay for the medicine!"

When Manager Chen heard this, he smiled awkwardly. He had seen Henry's temper when he encountered President Lin's aunt. She had fainted so easily. He was definitely not a good person.

Henry looked at Pang again and said, "The ability is made for yourself, and you shouldn't show off. In the company, what you have to do is to contribute to the company, not to show your own value. The so-called company's output can be divided into two categories. The first kind is to create profits for the company, the second kind, to bring profits to everyone."

Chapter 318

Henry stretched out two fingers and said, "I won't consider the company's interest for the time being. Let's talk about personal interests first. If you show me respect, it will affect my mood. In my opinion, a good mood is also a symbol of benefits. So, you have already affected my personal interests, including in the company, and you will also affect other colleagues' feelings. So, I will fire you immediately."

"It's ridiculous. Who do you think you are? I'm capable. Any company will do everything to hire me!" Pang said arrogantly.

Pang's arrogance came from the bottom of his heart. From the bottom of his heart, he thought that he was a top student who graduated from Capital University and had a double master's degree. When he came to this small city of Yinzhou, no matter which company he went to, someone would fight for him and he was superior to others.

Henry shrugged his shoulders. "Whatever you think, if you want to tell me about your ability, I have to ask you, what ability do you have to get the annual salary of 350,000 yuan? Is it the school education that represents your ability?"

"Of course!" Pang raised his head.

Henry waved his hand and said, "Cici Rui, tell me, what did you do during the eight years since you started your business?"

Cici replied, "Internet sale."

"Internet sale?" Hearing this, the HR manager of Zhao's company was stunned at first, then laughed a few times and said disdainfully, "It's really interesting. Does that count? Internet sale is only a hobby. Who doesn't know that the so-called internet sale is just one or two thousand yuan for the agent fee and to do some things on social media!"

Cici explained, "I sold IP domains for eight years."

After Cici said the name of the domain, the faces of the HR manager of Zhao Enterprise, Manager Chen, and Pang all showed a trace of doubt.

Henry said, "The so-called IP domain is the website selling from many years ago, but now it is in another form. I checked just now. The most expensive website in China, and the official website of the security guard 361, costs 100 million yuan to buy it. Cici, tell me, how much money did you make in eight years?"

Cici nodded and continued, "In the past eight years, I spent more time on hype and sales of foreign IP domains. I didn't make any profit at all. At the best time, the annual profit reached 47 million dollars."

"Pretending!" Pang smirked. "47 million dollars? You really made so much money, do you still need to come to this small city to work?"

Cici gave a hand indifferently. "It's just that I've lost all my money."

"Haha, everybody could say that." Pang's face was full of disbelief.

"I don't know if she is telling the truth or not." Henry shook his head. "But I can still believe the financial magazine in those days."

Henry opened a website on his mobile phone. It was an American financial magazine four years ago. On the cover of the magazine was Cici who was standing in front of them at the moment.

There was only one short sentence on the magazine's cover about Cici.

A cross-generations businesswoman.

Henry smiled and said, "You can see the website clearly. Whether it's real or not, whether it's a photoshop or not, you can figure it out by yourself. Do you think that such a person is a vase? The vase is signed by you. This so-called double master, without any achievements, a high-calibre student who is arrogant. Is he a vase?"

Listening to Henry's words, the face of the HR manager of Zhao's company was a little ugly. As a person who was on the cover of the American Weekly, Cici must be very valuable.

This Cici could suffer a loss in business. You could only say that she was unlucky. She couldn't catch up with time, but you couldn't deny her ability. If she could find a suitable platform, the benefits she brought would be huge!

Henry looked at Pang and shook his head. "School education doesn't mean your ability. When you really can turn your school education into ability, you are qualified to show your arrogance. But now, to be honest, you are just a newcomer who knows nothing."

After Henry finished speaking, he turned around and walked into the lounge.

Pang stood there with a terrible look on his face. He couldn't imagine that a person who was only a BA student could be on the cover of the economic newspaper in the United States!

Manager Chen took out his mobile phone. On the website Henry just opened, he really saw the introduction of Cici Rui. Moreover, in this magazine, there was a very high evaluation of Cici. There were even some financial barons who made a special speech and praised her.

Manager Chen put away his mobile phone. When he looked at Cici again, his eyes were full of excitement. She was absolutely a talent, a super talent! If they signed such a person with an annual salary of one million dollars, it would be absolutely a big profit for the company! As long as she could be given a platform, the value she could show would be unimaginable! She could even surpass President Lin! You know, President Lin was such an excellent woman, and she had never been on the cover of the financial newspaper.

The value of the financial newspaper was known by all the people in the industry.

This Cici was ten times more powerful than Pang!

Manager Chen's gloomy mood was swept away. In the two-day job fair, no matter how many talents others had recruited, it would not be enough to beat him.

Manager Chen thought for a moment. If he had signed Pang for 350,000 yuan, and Zhao's signed Cici for one million, he would definitely be depressed and sleep bad for a few days after knowing Cici's ability. People like Cici Rui were the real top talents!

The HR manager of Zhao's company was no longer as proud as he was just now. He knew that he had lost to Lins Group in this confrontation.

"Manager Chen! Oh my god, it's amazing!" An employee of the HR department of the Lins Group ran out of the lounge with excitement.

"Well, you know?" Manager Chen asked curiously. The reason why these people were so excited was probably that they knew about Cici's ability.

"What do you mean?" The employee, who ran out excitedly, showed a hint of doubt.

"Then why are you so happy?" Manager Chen asked.

"Manager Chen! Just now! The person Henry recruited is a man in his forties. He has no education background. He is actually the judge of the investment in the Dragon Investment Company!" The staff shouted.

"What!" Manager Chen's face was shocked, and then he became overjoyed.

People in Yinzhou had heard of the Dragon Investment Company. It was a very small company. There were only two people at that time, and the starting capital in their hands was less than one million. In a short period of a year, it was made into a company worth more than ten million dollars. Such a development speed was inseparable from the judges of the Dragon Investment Company. His eyes were very sharp. Even Sylvia Lin, who had offered a high price of five million yuan at that time, wanted to sign that man but was refused by the other party.

Now, this person was actually recruited by Henry?

Chapter 319

"How much for his salary?" Manager Chen asked excitedly.

"Manager, you won't believe it even if I say it. The annual salary is 100,000 yuan, and the commission is 1% of the service." The employee's face was full of disbelief.

"An annual salary of 100,000 yuan! Small commission?" Manager Chen was somewhat unbelievable. At that time, President Lin intended to hire him for five million yuan, but now he was signed by Henry?

The staff member of the HR department looked back at Henry, who was sitting in the lounge, and there was no longer that kind of dissatisfaction in his eyes.

Henry signed this talent at this price. If President Lin knew that, the whole HR department would be praised. According to President Lin's character, there must be a lot of rewards. This kind of talent was much better than those top students who only had a degree.

At that time, the legal person of the Dragon Investment Company took the money and ran away. So many people wanted to recruit the investment judge who invested in the Dragon Investment Company, but there was no way. The other party also disappeared for several years.

Before the shock of Manager Chen was over, another female employee ran out of the lounge. "Manager Chen, good news. Good news. The lady that you rejected, was called back by Henry. It turned out to be responsible for the development of the project for Qinxin Heart Courtyard. Just a few years ago, it was popular and reported to borrow money everywhere. Finally, the project was taken by others and earned more than a billion yuan."

"She?" Manager Chen frowned slightly. "Isn't there a criminal report in her resume?"

"Yes. At that time, her capital chain was broken and the loan was not paid. She was sentenced for financial fraud. She just came out of prison. She couldn't find a job because of the previous record. I didn't expect that she was called by Henry. It was said that this big sister was set up by someone. Otherwise, she would have been the boss of hundreds of millions of yuan long ago!"

As soon as the female employee finished speaking, another excited voice came from the lounge.

"Manager Chen! You may not believe it..."

The HR manager of the Zhao Family stood aside and listened to the good news discussed by the employees of the Lins Group. His face was so gloomy. The top talent, who had just graduated, was signed by the Lin's at such a low price, and all of them were on a commission system. According to these people's abilities, as long as one of them could bring profit to the company, his benefits would be unimaginable. Looking at Pang, the HR manager of the Zhao's group, he had an impulse to slap him. He was just graduated, but he actually gave him 300 thousand annual salary. In contrast, he was simply a fool!

Manager Chen stood on the stand and looked at Henry, who was slowly sipping tea in the lounge. The contempt in his heart had long been gone, but there was only deep admiration! Henry, as expected, was not as simple as he looked on the surface. His way of dealing with things was really profound.

At six o'clock in the afternoon, the exhibition centre was closed. The large-scale job fair this time was completely over. Every company had a lot of gains, but the biggest harvest was from Lins Group.

Just half an hour after the contract was signed, the HR department staff of the Lins Group found that almost all the people signed by Henry were talents, and these talents were ignored by them before.

"Henry, we're very curious. How did you do it? There are a lot of things that haven't been written on the resume of those talents." Manager Chen couldn't help but ask.

After Manager Chen asked this question, the employees of the personnel department also looked at Henry with a curious look. This was the question they also wanted to know.

Henry smiled and said, "In fact, it's very simple. Manager Chen, if I ask you to apply for a job with an annual salary of one million dollars now, will you apply for it?"

Manager Chen shook her head. "No."

"Why?" Henry asked.

"I know I don't have this ability." Manager Chen answered honestly.

Henry snapped his fingers. "That's right. After thinking about it, a person's CV is very difficult to read. One doesn't have an education background or many awards, but he dares to apply for an important position. You have to learn to interview such a person, not directly refuse because of his resume. The way you ask is very simple. I only used one method. First, let the other party talk about their own advantages, then disadvantages. Finally, you can ask the other party's opinion on Lins."

"What's the difference?" Manager Chen asked doubtfully.

"Of course." Henry Zhang nodded. "A company's construction is equivalent to a building. Your HR department is equivalent to the material approval of this building. For example, if a brick falls from a wall, will you choose the most suitable one to buy or buy a sum of bricks of all sizes, and finally choose the nearest one to the size?"

Manager Chen answered without thinking, "Of course, I choose the most suitable one to buy it."

Henry nodded. "By the way, there is a 90% chance that a capable person will put his opinion on Lins Group first, because he knows his position very well and knows what he can do when he comes to the company. Even on the first day of work, he will take the initiative to do some work without the arrangement of his superiors.

Others, on the first day of work, will sit in front of their desk and wait for their superiors to assign some work that they don't understand."

Listening to Henry's words, all the employees of Lins had a sudden understanding of Henry and they were full of admiration for Henry in their hearts.

"Henry, we really learned something this time!" Manager Chen gave him a thumbs-up and said sincerely.

At this moment, these staff members of the HR department of the Lins Group were ashamed of their previous thoughts.

Originally, they thought that the president's husband came here to make trouble. In the end, the other party's means were much higher than theirs. After this incident, they could understand why they were only employees. Henry, who could be the boss, was obviously confined in the limitations of thinking, and it was difficult for him to develop better.

Manager Chen called and reported today's "victories" to Sylvia. At the same time, he also told her that Henry had found a lot of high-quality talents.

After hearing this, Sylvia was not surprised at all. After spending so much time together, Henry had become an excellent man in Sylvia's heart.

On the top floor of Lin's building, Sylvia was sitting in her office. She cocked her head and thought for a while. Then she took out her mobile phone and dialed Henry's number. Before the phone was connected, the woman said to herself, "Well... this is as a reward for your victory today. I'll treat you to a big meal."

Henry's phone was busy.

Sylvia waited for five minutes before calling Henry, but it was obvious that no one answered.

Chapter 320

At the same time when Sylvia called Henry, Henry stopped a taxi outside the exhibition centre with an anxious look. "Hurry up! People's Hospital!"

Five minutes ago, Henry received a phone call from Amity. This girl was crying on the phone. Her father had drunk the poison...

When Henry arrived at the hospital, Amity's father had already entered the emergency room. Amity sat alone on the chair outside the emergency room, holding her legs and burying her head in her arms. The dim light shone on the corridor, pulling the shadow of Amity, which made her look particularly lonely.

Henry looked at the red light in the emergency room and slowly walked to the front of Amity. He gently put his hand on her shoulder and said, "Girl..."

Hearing Henry's voice, Amity slowly lifted her head. Her eyes were red and swollen, and she whimpered, "Brother Zhang... Brother Zhang."

Henry looked at the appearance of Amity and did not know how to comfort her for a moment. Henry probably could figure out why the father of Amity took the poison.

What happened in their family would disturb any person.

In the early years of Amity, her father was addicted to gambling. His wife ran away with someone else, and his remaining relatives, except his own daughter, were all his siblings. But now, his brother, who came out from the same mother's womb, made a family lie to him. Such a thing would make anyone feel desperate.

Henry sighed. He opened his mouth for a long time and could only say one sentence, "Uncle will be fine."

The moment he finished his words, Henry felt a soft force throw into his arms. The mood of Amity, which had just been adjusted, broke out again because of the appearance of Henry.

Her cry echoed in the corridor, and her tears wetted Henry's clothes on his chest.

"Just cry. It's much better to cry." Henry reached out and patted her back.

Henry's arrival might be the last harbour for Amity. She hid in Henry's arms and kept sobbing.

When the door of the emergency room was opened, President Ma, who was wearing a surgical uniform, came out and saw Henry at a glance.

"Henry, are you here too?"

"How is it going?" Henry pointed to the emergency room and asked.

There was a touch of loneliness on President Ma's face. "The patient is no longer in danger of life, but..."

"But what?" President Ma's expression made Henry have a bad feeling.

"But the poison has eroded the brain and the patient is in a coma. We can't guarantee when he will wake up." President Ma shook his head helplessly. "Henry, is the patient your friend?"

"Yeah." Henry nodded. "An elder."

"Alas." President Ma sighed. "Henry, please take the patient's daughter in to see her father."

Amity wiped the tears on her face and followed Henry into the operating room.

When the doctors in the operating room saw Henry, they all said hello.

Henry saw that Amity's father was lying quietly on the operating table. There were two water pipes in his abdomen, which should mean that his stomach had just been washed.

As soon as she saw her father like this, Amity couldn't stop. She bent over to the operating table and looked at the man lying there with tears in her eyes.

Henry walked to the side of the instrument and picked up the instrument to observe. Just as President Ma said, the brain nerves of her father had been completely destroyed by the poison. It was difficult to expel such a spread. It could only depend on the patient's immune system to eliminate these poisons.

For this kind of coma, it was generally called a vegetative coma in medicine. The cells in the body were active, but the brain cells were necrotic.

"Dad... why are you so stupid? Why? Those people lied to you, and they don't treat you as their family. Why did you do such a stupid thing?" The sound of weeping was heard, and tears kept falling from Amity's face.

Henry stood aside and looked at the pitiful look of Amity, his eyes full of distress.

"Girl, let the doctor transport uncle to the ward first." Henry patted the shoulder of Amity.

Due to Henry, her father was sent to an independent ward.

Amity and Henry sat by the bed. Henry tried to comfort them and said, "Don't worry too much. Uncle is no longer in danger of life. His immune system is very strong. The virus will disappear sooner or later. It's just a matter of time for uncle to wake up."

"Yes." Amity nodded and looked at his father with worry in his eyes.

Someone knocked on the door of the ward, and President Ma's voice sounded outside the ward. "Henry, I have something to tell you in private."

"Okay." Henry responded in the ward, "Little girl, sit down first. I'll talk to President Ma."

Walking out of the ward, Henry saw President Ma standing here with a test report.

"Henry, take a look at this. It's about the patient." President Ma handed the test report to Henry.

Henry looked at the things given by President Ma and frowned closer and closer. "His immune system is this weak?"

"Yes." President Ma nodded. "The patient has been drinking all year round, so the damage to his liver is very serious. According to the current conclusion, the poison in the patient's brain is almost impossible to remove."

Henry took a deep breath and tore off the report in his hand. "Don't tell her about this. I'll think of a way."

President Ma nodded. "Okay."

Henry returned to the ward with a smile on his face. "Little girl, it's good news."

"Good news!" Hearing this, a hopeful look suddenly appeared on Amity's face. "Is it about my father?"

"Yeah." Henry responded, "Let's go. It's time to go. Let's go out and find a place first. Let's talk while eating."

Henry left the hospital with Amity.

"I've been longing to eat a piece of spicy chicken for a long time. Come with me to that restaurant." Henry deliberately made such a request that he took Amity away from the hospital.

Of course, Amity would not refuse Henry, so she nodded her head.

The two of them walked on the road.

In Lins Group.

Sylvia came to the company's hall and called Henry all the time. From the beginning, no one answered, and then the phone was turned off.

"President Lin, the demolition has been approved. We can go to see those old houses today." Cathy also appeared in the hall of Lins company and handed a document to Sylvia.

Sylvia looked at the documents and put away her mobile phone. "Okay, contact the person in charge of the office over there. Let's settle the matter today."

The piece of land in the document in Sylvia's hand was the dilapidated building where Amity lived.

In a restaurant not far from the house of Amity, Henry and Amity were sitting.

As soon as they sat down, Amity couldn't help asking, "Brother Zhang, what's the good news you just heard?"

Chapter 321

"Oh, President Ma said that he found a way to treat father, but our medical level is still not high enough. After the meal, you go home and pack up your things. He will contact a new hospital for you. Then you can take your father to the hospital for treatment," Henry said.

This was the best excuse Henry could find now.

According to her father's current state, it was almost impossible for him to have any improvement if he stayed in the hospital in Yinzhou. If he told her the truth, she might not be able to bear it. Henry could only lie to her.

As for where to go, Henry had also thought about it.

France!

After considering going there, Henry also thought of a few points. First of all, it was about the cost of the treatment for Amity's father. Homer had a good impression of Amity. Henry also asked Homer to arrange a suitable job for her. He would not give her money for free, nor would she let this girl hit the wall.

Second, the technical problem, in France, Henry could rest assured that Future would provide some technical treatment. However, in China, it would be very difficult to do this. If Future did some technical treatment, it would attract the attention of the Chinese government, and it would also easily expose Henry himself.

On the third point, Henry also wanted to let Amity go outside. If she was in Yinzhou, she might meet her relatives one day. At that time, whether this girl could control her emotions or not, Henry could not guarantee.

Amity was overjoyed when she heard that her father could wake up.

"Brother Zhang, thank you so much. I don't know how to repay you."

Henry smiled and said, "Well, take good care of yourself. That is enough for me. I will go to help you pack up. You can get your passports tomorrow and try to take your father as soon as possible."

"A passport? Are we going abroad?" Amity's big eyes were full of doubts.

Henry nodded. "Yeah, you will go to Homer. During uncle's treatment, Homer will provide you with a job and a place to live. When uncle wakes up, you can stay there for a period of time. I don't think the uncle wants to come back to this city."

Henry did not see, but after he said this, the eyes of Amity were full of loneliness.

After dinner, Henry and Amity walked toward the old house together.

Accompanied by Cathy, Sylvia came to the demolition area. The person in charge of the street hall was excitedly accompanying her. He had a house here. Once the house was demolished, his good days would come. The president of Lins Group in front of him was his God of Wealth!

Sylvia looked at the old house area and made some plans in her mind.

Suddenly, a familiar figure came into Sylvia's sight. It was Henry.

Sylvia was just about to say something but, she saw Henry walking side by side with Amity. He turned around in front of a building and walked in...

Such a scene made Sylvia feel pain in her heart. She took out her mobile phone and called Henry again, but the phone was turned off.

Hearing the reminder from the phone, Sylvia's face became dull.

"President Lin, are you alright?" Cathy noticed that something was wrong with Sylvia and asked worriedly.

"Everything's okay." Sylvia forced a smile. "Go on."

After saying this, Sylvia looked at the unit that Henry just walked into. He must have accompanied someone to take something. After a while, he would come out, and she would ask him out for a meal or a movie or something.

Sylvia's idea was still vivid in her mind after Cathy explained everything about this area, but half an hour had passed.

"President Lin, what do you think? Can this be settled?" After Cathy said that, she asked Sylvia for her opinion.

"I'll think about it." Sylvia looked at the unit door, no one appeared, and an indescribable feeling rose from her heart. She turned around and said, "Let's go."

The sudden change in Sylvia's mood confused Cathy a little. She drove the car and took Sylvia away from the old district.

In the car, Sylvia looked out of the window. The scene of Henry and Amity walking into the unit side by side kept coming to her mind, and her eyes gradually turned red.

"Why?" Sylvia asked herself in her heart. "Is it because I didn't give it to him, so he went to find someone else?"

In the home of Amity.

Henry looked at the large and small bags in the living room and was speechless. "Little girl, you don't have to take so many things, do you?"

Amity was a little embarrassed. "Brother Zhang, I'm afraid that I'll have to buy more if I go there."

Henry patted his head and said, "Don't you want to pay for transportation fees? Don't take the bedding and other things. Take your clothes. You can get everything else over there."

"All right." Amity naughtily stuck out her small tongue. After knowing that her father could be saved, her mood was much more cheerful.

Finally, when the selection was completed, Amity only brought a suitcase. After the water and electricity in the house were cut off, they were ready to go out.

"Brother Zhang, many people go out of the country and don't want to come back. Why?" Amity asked curiously.

Henry touched her nose and said, "They get used to living abroad. People are this kind of creature. They're used to living in one place. Unless they're forced by the situation, they don't want to move. If they live in a place for a long time, they'll make a home there."

Amity pursed her lips, pulled Henry's clothes, and cried, "Brother Zhang..."

"Hmm?" Henry turned around and looked at Amity. He always felt that there was something wrong with this girl.

Amity looked up at Henry's face, and there was a blush on her pretty face. She stood on tiptoe and wrapped her arms around Henry's neck. Her small cherry mouth was printed on Henry's big mouth.

The movements of Amity were very stiff, but it could be seen that her eyes were full of hurry. She was very strong and held Henry tightly.

Henry was stunned subconsciously. When he came to his senses, a fragrant, moist and sweet fragrance came into his mouth.

With a red face, Amity loosened Henry's neck and looked at Henry. "Brother Zhang, if you want me, I... I am afraid that I will get used to living there and will not come back. I want to let my heart stay here. I want a person who is the most important person for me to stay here. So that I can miss him over there."

The face of Amity was red, but it was firm.

There was still the fragrance of Amity lingering at the corner of Henry's mouth. When Henry was about to speak, t Amity came up again. She was hotter and more active than just now.

The girl's breath spread all over Henry's body. Her seductive and lovely appearance was like a deadly poison that hit people's brain nerves.

Her bright red skin was enough to make people's blood flow.

Amity blurred her eyes. The appearance of being picked by the emperor would make people crazy, and she would take the initiative to ask for it.

"Brother Zhang, take me..."

Chapter 322

A sense of irrationalness filled Henry's heart, and a pair of big hands stretched out toward the tender girl.

Just as he was about to touch the secret place, Henry's movement suddenly stopped, and his slightly red eyes regained clarity.

"No, no, no, no, no, no, no." Looking at the delicate girl in front of him, Henry shook his head hard. He quickly got up, rushed into the bathroom, and woke himself up with only a little water in the water pipe.

Henry raised his head and looked at himself in the mirror. "What's wrong? Why can't I stand any temptation?"

Taking a deep breath and walking out of the bathroom, Henry saw that Amity had put on her clothes again and sat on the sofa with unnatural eyes.

Both of them were too impulsive at that moment.

Seeing Henry coming out, Amity said in a stuttering tone, "Brother Zhang, let's... let's go."

The two of them didn't mention anything about what had just happened, but the atmosphere between them was obviously much more awkward. On the way back to the hospital, they didn't even talk much.

Henry took Amity to the downstairs of the hospital.

"Brother Zhang, you can go back. I can go up by myself." Standing in front of the hospital gate, Amity waved to Henry.

"Okay." Henry nodded and did not insist. After seeing Amity enter the hospital, he turned and left.

Amity walked into the hospital gate. More than ten seconds later, she reappeared at the hospital entrance. Looking at Henry's back, she slightly opened her mouth and did not make a sound, but through her mouth shape, one could understand the words she was saying- "thank you".

When Henry returned home, he saw Sylvia sitting on the sofa as soon as he entered the door. For some reason, Henry felt that the room was filled with a strange atmosphere.

Hearing the sound of the door, Sylvia, who was sitting on the sofa, said without looking back, "Why is your phone turned off?"

"It's out of power." Henry took out his mobile phone from his pocket and gave a wry smile. Amity paid for the meal they just had.

"No power?" Sylvia sneered. Obviously, she did not believe Henry. She asked again, "What did you do after you left the job fair?"

Henry replied, "Went to the hospital."

Sylvia asked, "Why did you go to the hospital?"

"Just went to see a friend." Henry shook his head. He thought that it was better not to tell Sylvia about Amity father. This woman was cold on the outside but warm on the inside. He knew that, but in her heart, she was only worried about him.

Hearing Henry's answer, Sylvia's heart was full of disappointment.

She turned around and looked at Henry. On this man, Sylvia saw unprecedented complexity. What he had done before and what he had shown was all fake. If he said that he was good to me, it would be a lie!

Henry was stared at by Sylvia. At this moment, a panic filled Henry's heart. He had a bad feeling. "Honey, what's wrong with you?"

"I'm fine." Sylvia shook her head and showed a self-deprecating smile. "I'm going to rest."

Sylvia put on her slippers and didn't look at Henry anymore. Then she got up and went upstairs.

Henry looked at Sylvia's back. At this moment, he felt that there seemed to be something important, but he couldn't catch it.

Sylvia went back to her bedroom. She opened the curtain and looked at the dark sky outside the window. A drop of crystal tears slipped down her face. She thought she had found someone she could rely on, but found that everything was just a bubble illusion, and now everything turned into nothingness.

Sylvia took out her phone and dialed Cathy's number. "Get me a divorce contract and send it to me tomorrow morning. By the way, book me a flight to Du Hai."

Hanging up the phone, Sylvia threw it away and lay on the bed as if she had lost all her strength.

At the same time, Henry also lay on his bed in his room, turned on his cell phone, and countless text messages and missed calls flooded in. All of them were from Sylvia, and the latest missed message.

"Honey, where are you? In order to reward you, how about I treat you to a big meal today?"

Henry looked at the message and felt a burst of self-reproach in his heart. The scene happened in the house of Amity today emerged in his mind. Could the matter between him and Amity be explained?

Although he was sober at the critical moment, he still felt sorry for Sylvia in any way. There was no external factor, and he could not control it.

Shaking his head and putting aside those useless thoughts, he called Homer and told him what had happened to Amity, and Homer immediately agreed to help.

"This girl has a strong sense of self-esteem. Don't give her too much help. If it's not necessary, let her work hard herself." Henry said to Homer.

Lying on the bed, Henry looked up at the ceiling and couldn't help sighing with emotion.

A few minutes later, the phone that Henry had just hung up rang, and the caller was President Ma.

Henry picked up the phone and asked,

"President Ma, what's wrong?"

When Henry heard the news, he jumped out of bed and ran directly to the hospital.

Ten minutes later, Henry stood in the monitoring room of the hospital.

On the monitor, Henry clearly saw that the young body of Amity carried her father who was unconscious and got into a taxi. The suitcase Amity packed earlier today was still in the ward.

Henry came to the ward. Under the pillow of the hospital bed, Henry saw a piece of paper with delicate handwriting on it. It was left by Amity.

"Brother Zhang, I know a little about my father's situation. I've heard what you said while chatting with President Ma. Thank you for your kind lie and your care. During this period of time, I've bothered you too much and also asked you for too much. I'm very happy to meet you. You're the only person I will miss after leaving this city. I wish you happiness, my Brother Zhang."

Henry pinched the note in his hand. There were still a few dried tears on the top of the note. Henry could even think of the scene. She was wiping her tears and writing the note at the same time.

He still remembered the first time he saw Amity. He was the captain of the security team and she was at the front desk. When she was slightly teased, the girl's face turned red and she didn't even dare to raise her head.

Such a scene seemed to belong to a different world.

Henry carefully folded the note in his hand and put it in his pocket.

"President Ma, please finish the discharge procedure. She won't come back."

On a taxi that had left Yinzhou, Amity cleaned her cell phone card and registered a new social account. She looked at her father, who was lying in a coma, and tears kept falling from her face.

The wallpaper on her phone was a photo of her together with Henry.

Chapter 323

The next morning, Henry got up from the bed and looked at the time. At half-past six in the morning, it was already dawn.

Henry sighed. During this period of time, he was a little lazy. In the past, he would have already finished his boxing. He stretched himself and walked out of the room. Unexpectedly, he found that Sylvia was sitting in the living room.

"Dear, you got up so early?" Henry asked in surprise. Sylvia picked up the hot tea cup on the table and said, "I have something to tell you."

"Well, tell me." Henry sat opposite Sylvia.

Sylvia calmly took out a divorce contract from behind her. "You have to sign this. At that time, we had an agreement that as the son-in-law of our Family Lin, I can propose a divorce at any time, and you have no right to refuse. I will compensate you with one million yuan."

"Divorce... divorce?" Henry looked at the divorce papers put on the table by Sylvia and couldn't react at all.

"Is there any problem?" Sylvia looked at Henry and said, "This is within the agreement. You just do what you said."

"This..." Henry picked up the divorce agreement and threw it aside. "Dear, is there something wrong? Why do you want to divorce?"

"Nothing happened. It's just that I want to, okay?" Sylvia stood up and glanced at Henry. "I will go out for a few days. You have to sign the agreement. When I come back from, I will go through the formalities. In these days, you need to move out."

After Sylvia finished speaking, she walked to the door of the house and opened it.

Accompanied by the roar of the motor, Sylvia drove her red GT and left.

In the car, Sylvia glanced at the front passenger seat from time to time. Not long ago, there was a man sitting in the front passenger seat. Future, this man would have nothing to do with her.

An unspeakable upset spread to Sylvia's heart. She didn't shed tears anymore. Last night, she had already had enough of crying.

Henry sat on the sofa, confused. Seeing Anna Jiang passing by and walking out of the house, he hurriedly called Anna to stop.

"Anna, do you know what happened to Sylvia?"

Anna shook her head. "I don't know, but there was something wrong with President Lin since she came back from the old district yesterday."

"Old district? Which old district?" Henry was confused. Did something happen to Sylvia?

Anna thought for a moment and answered, "It's not far from the Glory Hotel's hotel."

"That one!" Henry immediately realized that it was the place where Amity lived. "What time did you go there?"

Anna estimated and said, "About seven o'clock in the afternoon."

"About seven o'clock..." Henry murmured at this time, which was exactly the time when he accompanied Amity to pack things. Oh no, could it be a misunderstanding?

Henry quickly took out his mobile phone and called Sylvia, but no one answered. He sent a message to Sylvia on social media, but there was a red sign meaning he had been blocked by the other party.

"Henry, I'm going out first." Anna said goodbye to Henry and drove to the airport. She knew that Sylvia was going to Du Hai today.

Henry was pacing back and forth alone in the house. He was sure that Sylvia must have seen him when he accompanied Amity home yesterday. She must have misunderstood something.

"No, I have to explain it clearly!" Henry quickly put on his clothes. As soon as he opened the door, his anxious face suddenly changed.

Henry had the sixth sense for danger. This was the experience he had gotten from living between life and death. In that instant, Henry suddenly rolled forward.

With two clanging sounds, two gun holes appeared where Henry had just stood.

The word "killer" instantly appeared in Henry's mind.

He didn't even need to distinguish the direction. He knew where the bullet came from. He looked up. Outside the villa area, there was a residential building. At this moment, the eighth floor was Henry's target.

The room was covered by a curtain, so he couldn't see what was going on inside.

"Go get them!" Henry was already in a bad mood, so he was easily irritated by the killer.

On the third minute after Henry finished his arrest, a man in black, wearing a ghost mask, appeared in front of Henry carrying a strong man.

It could be seen that the four limbs of the strong man had been destroyed, and blood was constantly flowing from the corners of his mouth.

The man looked at Henry with a resigned look in his eyes. "Ha, ha, ha, I've heard that the woman has a master to protect her, but in the end, I underestimated you."

Henry stepped forward and kicked the man heavily in the stomach. The man's face suddenly turned red. Henry's kick completely smashed the man's internal organs.

After the kick, Henry seemed to be relieved a lot. He looked at the strong man with no expression and said, "Find a place to bury him."

The figure in black, wearing a ghost mask, nodded, lifted the waist of the strong man with one hand, and left quickly.

Henry stood at the gate of the courtyard and called Wade White. "Now I want to know the specific situation of the Su Family in Yanjing."

"Boss, are you going to deal with them?"

"Yes, book me the earliest flight." Henry said in a firm tone.

"Boss, I think you'd better not fly." Wade suggested on the phone, "According to the news, those people have noticed your existence, but they still don't know your true identity. If you want to go there directly, you won't find anything. Take action secretly. The flight control in China is very strict. It's not easy to do anything. I'll arrange it."

"Okay, I'll wait for your news." Henry took Wade's suggestion very well. He was not a person who acted alone.

The reason why Radiant Island was powerful was not because of one person's strength, but because of the strength of a team. It was a small matter to operate through a team, and the effect it achieved was completely different.

What Wade arranged for Henry was to leave Ning province by bus and then take the train from An shi.

Now Henry's every move was watched by others. Wade knew that, but he couldn't do anything. Once they were found out, they would alert the enemy.

Henry's departure was scheduled to be held in the evening.

After confirming this matter, Henry rushed to Lins Group immediately and wanted to explain to Sylvia about what had happened yesterday. As a result, he learned that Sylvia had already taken a flight to Du Hai. Cathy was not sure when she would come back.

Henry, who had heard the news, stood in front of the company's door feebly, looking very disappointed.

In the afternoon, Fiona took the initiative to come to Lins Group, found Henry Zhang and gave him a contract stating that all the shares in her name were now his for free.

Chapter 324

Henry saw Fiona and saw her pale face. He knew that this woman definitely tried to remove the maggot surgically.

If one asked Fiona to hand over her shares, she would definitely not give in unless she was driven into a corner.

With this contract, Henry could control the life and death of the Family Zheng. As long as he was willing to withdraw the 20% of the shares that originally belonged to Fiona at any time, the Zheng Family would naturally collapse.

Fiona gave this contract in exchange for the little drum. It could be said that this time, she deeply understood what was called self-bind.

As soon as she got the drum, Fiona was ready to send someone to take it to Hengyuan as a threat to Jenny. She would ask Jenny to withdraw her complaint and release Sam.

"Oh, by the way, there's something I have to tell you." Before Fiona left, Henry Zhang said, "I also found out the maggot you asked someone to put in President Qin."

Henry's words were like a basin of cold water pouring on Fiona's head, leaving her stunned on the spot.

Henry grinned, revealing his white teeth. He left Lins Group. The car that Wade had found for him was already in place.

At the same time in Du Hai.

Sylvia arrived here at noon. This time, she didn't come to Du Hai just to hide from Henry. More importantly, she wanted to reach the corporation with someone.

Although Zhao's Group only appeared for half a month, the threat to Lins Group was Hengyuan as a threat to Jenny. She would ask Jenny to withdraw her complaint and release Sam.

"Oh, by the way, there's something I have to tell you." Before Fiona left, Henry Zhang said, "I also found out the maggot you asked someone to put in President Qin."

Henry's words were like a basin of cold water pouring on Fiona's head, leaving her stunned on the spot.

Henry grinned, revealing his white teeth. He left Lins Group. The car that Wade had found for him was already in place.

At the same time in Du Hai.

Sylvia arrived here at noon. This time, she didn't come to Du Hai just to hide from Henry. More importantly, she wanted to reach the corporation with someone.

Although Zhao's Group only appeared for half a month, the threat to Lins Group was obvious in the public. As president of Lins Group, Sylvia could feel that Lins Group had lost more than 10% of the market share in just half a month. Until now, this situation was still brewing. If Zhao's Group continued to suppress Lins Group, Lins Group would likely be in danger.

The appearance of the Zhao's was really weird. No one knew who was the backer of the Zhao family. Someone invested at least 8 billion yuan. Even the Family Lin couldn't do that. The total assets of the Family Lin were just over 10 billion yuan.

On the first day of the establishment of the Zhao's Group, they had a stock war with the Lins Group. In that stock war, the Zhao's Group and the Lins Group each lost about 300 million yuan. When the Lins Group thought that the Zhao's Group was only here to occupy the top of the mountain, the Zhao's Group broke down several projects with a huge amount of funds, not even considering whether they would make money or not.

Secondly, some companies that cooperated with the Lins Group had been dug out by the Zhao's Group. In terms of benefits distribution, they were at least 10% higher than the Lins Group.

The price of the entire land in Yinzhou had reached its peak due to the appearance of the Zhao family. Originally, the land that the Family Lin was about to buy for 3,000 yuan per square meters had risen to 5,000 yuan because of the emergence of the Zhao family, which made the Family Lin invest hundreds of millions of yuan more.

In the construction, the introduction of goods and the trade channels, Lins Group was more or less affected.

Sylvia didn't know how rich Zhao's family was, and neither did she know who was behind Zhao's family. She only knew that Lin's family didn't have any trump card. When encountering such a powerful opponent, they either chose to die or burst out. According to Sylvia's character, she naturally wouldn't choose the former. She wanted to break out and fight to the end.

If she wanted to fight against such a mysterious consortium, Lins Group couldn't do it in its old way. It couldn't fight steadily and surely, so it had to make a breakthrough.

In fact, Sylvia's best choice was Hangshi. If she could cooperate with Chris Xiao, it would definitely be a good thing for Sylvia, but Sylvia still wanted to rely on herself. She was such a strong character.

Sylvia had an old classmate in Du Hai, whose development was fairly good. This time, she came here hoping that the old classmate could introduce some entrepreneurs to her so that she could have the opportunity to talk and cooperate with others.

The international metropolis was crowded with people.

Sylvia stood in front of a five-star hotel and called, "Nancy, I'm here."

"You are here? Wait a minute, I'll pick you up right away." A female voice full of surprise sounded from Sylvia's phone.

A few minutes later, an avant-garde beauty appeared at the door of the hotel and waved to Sylvia. "Sylvia!"

"Nancy." Sylvia smiled and walked up to the beautiful woman. "I haven't seen you for so many years. You are still the most beautiful one."

Sylvia looked at the woman who only wore a bra on her upper body and couldn't help but admire her. She didn't have such courage. Or in other words, her family education made Sylvia think that she was a very conservative woman.

"You're the most beautiful one." Nancy Cai took Sylvia's hand and said, "Let's go. I've already made an appointment today. There are a lot of masters available. With your charm, it's just a matter of time to find someone to invest for you."

"It's not an investment, it's cooperation." Sylvia corrected her on purpose.

"Oh, it's almost the same." Nancy waved her hand and said, "Anyway, it has something to do with money."

Holding Sylvia's hand, Nancy walked towards a banquet hall.

Before they arrived at the banquet hall, Sylvia could hear the music coming from there.

Nancy pushed open the door of the banquet hall. The luxurious decoration came into Sylvia's sight. Even the most upscale Glory Hotel in Yinzhou was not one-third of this hotel. It gave people a sense of magnificence as if it could not be piled up by decoration. There were two weight-bearing pillars next to the banquet hall engraved with a phoenix with wings-spreading elements and a whole layer of gold, which was magnificent.

"Yo, Nancy, this is your friend, a beautiful woman!" A young man dressed in branded clothes came over and looked at Sylvia curiously. "Hello, beautiful woman, my name is Luke Ban."

"Hello." Sylvia shook hands with him. When she found that Luke wanted to grab her hand hard, Sylvia took a step forward and pulled out her little hand.

"Tsk, tsk, it's a woman with personality." Luke felt Sylvia's small movement, so he smacked his mouth.

"What's the use of having a personality? In this era, there are many women with personality." On the side, a beautiful girl with a red face walked over slowly. "Those people from the countryside who have just entered the city and always like to show their personality. In the end, as long as the money is in place, I promise that they will be more obedient than anyone else."

Hearing this, Luke just smiled and did not refute. He also agreed with the statement of this celebrity-looking woman. He had seen too many women with personality. In the end, when faced with money, the so-called personality no longer existed.

"Ah! Where did this beauty come from? I haven't seen her before." Another young man came from the side. The young man's clothes were worth more than 500,000.

Although there were a lot of beautiful women in the banquet hall, Sylvia was definitely the most eye-catching one. Without makeup, her delicate facial features were not inferior to anyone in the banquet hall. Her unique temperament made her look like a crane standing among chickens.

Chapter 325

A woman who could be specifically noticed by men on the scene would definitely become the public enemy of all the women on the scene. This was an eternal principle.

Sylvia's arrival made more than 80% of the women present feel jealous.

This was a banquet full of money. Men's capital lay in the enterprise in their hands, while women's capital was their beauty.

Sylvia was undoubtedly the most talented woman in the banquet hall.

"Who is this? Isn't it the one Nancy just mentioned who came to ask for money?" A beautiful woman walked over with a cat's stride, and her voice was very loud.

"What do you mean by asking for money? She's just looking for someone to invest!"

The beauty with a celebrity-looking face said in a strange voice.

"Oh? Invest? I didn't say anything wrong. She just came to ask for money, haha."

The two women said one by one. When they looked at Sylvia Lin, their eyes were full of provocation.

"In my opinion, one should not have too much personality if she came to ask for food. How much do you want? One hundred thousand or two hundred thousand? As long as you don't eat with the class, I'll give you a reward!"

Sylvia stood there. When she heard such words, her first feeling was to turn her head and leave, but her brain told her that she could not do that.

"I'm here to find someone to cooperate with me. This is my business card." Sylvia took out her handbag and took out a few business cards from it.

Standing around Sylvia and watching Sylvia's action, no one came forward to take her business card. Instead, they looked at each other.

The celebrity-looking beauty was the first to laugh. "A business card? I say, are you here to make fun of us? Who wants to see your business card here?"

"It's really interesting. Who do you think you are? Do you want us to take your business card?"

"Are you qualified to hand over a business card?"

Voices rang one after another, mixed with sarcasm. For Sylvia, an outsider, and this woman who overwhelmed all of them in appearance, all the women present hoped that she could leave as soon as possible.

Nancy stood aside embarrassingly.

"Alright, alright. Let's stop talking, everyone. Sylvia is my good friend. She's here to talk about a good project. She wants to find a partner. That's enough. Let's get acquainted with each other first. Come, Sylvia, this is Myra Xin."

Nancy introduced the celebrity-looking beauty to Sylvia.

Myra gave a cold snort and didn't even look at Sylvia, which made Nancy even more embarrassed.

Although this celebrity-looking woman did not have any influence, it was hard to tell the relationship between her and several young masters in the circle. No one was willing to offend her. Otherwise, the consequences might be very big.

Nancy gave a dry laugh and introduced the next person to Sylvia Lin. "Sylvia, this is..."

"All right, don't introduce." The woman who satirized Sylvia just now waved her hand impatiently. "What's there to introduce? Who doesn't know? If you came to ask for money, you should be aware of it. I'll make the decision for you. You treat Luke as your boyfriend. He can pay you between 100,000 and 500,000 yuan. It's up to you."

Luke smiled and said to Sylvia, "Beauty, although she has made a decision for you, I think it's not bad. What do you think? Think about it. Follow me for a while. If you want money, I can invest it for you."

"Haha, this little girl is really lucky. Now that you're chosen by the class boy, you don't have to struggle for the rest of your life." Although a woman laughed loudly, there was still some envy in her eyes.

In this circle, Luke Ban was a famous young master. With nearly 20 billion yuan in his family, he was absolutely arrogant.

Sylvia smiled and said in a cold tone, "Sorry, I'm married."

"Married?" Luke looked at Sylvia and said, "It doesn't matter. I don't care. Who said that you can't be my girlfriend even if you are married?"

"Haha, that's right. Beauty, it's a loss for you if you are married. It seems that your husband is also a loser. He let such a beautiful woman come out to help him get some money." Another young master came up and hooked his hand on Sylvia's chin while talking.

Sylvia gave him a cold look and slapped his hand away. "Stay away from me."

"Yo! You have a bad temper?" The master, who had been slapped by Sylvia, looked at her with a playful look.

"That's to say, she hasn't been whipped!" Another person deliberately bit the words heavily, causing a burst of laughter.

Everyone present knew what this so-called whipped meant.

Sylvia looked at these people present. At this moment, she suddenly thought that if Henry was with her, what would happen at this time? He would not hesitate to teach all these people a lesson!

Sylvia shook her head and tried her best to forget Henry's figure from her mind.

"Why should I think about that playboy! If he's willing to be with someone else, I'll let him go!"

"Haha, if I were her husband, she would bring me hundreds of thousands of yuan after the first whip. I would be happy," Myra, celebrity-looking woman, said.

"Who wouldn't? Why did you pretend to be a wolf when you came here? Do you want to sell yourself at a high price?"

"Her husband is a good-for-nothing."

The sarcasm sounded again. Even if Sylvia could bear it, she couldn't stay here any longer.

"Nancy, I'll go first. I'll be in Du Hai for the next few days. I'll make an appointment to have dinner together," Sylvia said to Nancy. Then, she turned around and was about to leave.

"Go? Where are you going?" The master, who had just been slapped by Sylvia, stopped her. "You just hit me, and now you want to go? How could it make sense?"

"That's right. Do you want to leave after hitting someone?" Myra crossed her arms over her chest and looked at Sylvia from the corner of her eyes.

The onlookers also burst into laughter. For them, Sylvia was an outsider. Seeing Sylvia suffer a setback, they all thought she was quite interesting.

In the innermost part of the banquet hall, there was a small private room. Although the private room was not big, it could be seen by a knowledgeable person that this private room was not accessible to ordinary people.

Not to mention the bullet-proof glass used in the window of the guest room, but the wall was made of a high priced material. The carpet on the floor of the guest room was extremely expensive. The price on the previous auction reached 3.5 million dollars. Ordinary people would feel scared if they stepped on it.

In the other room, there was a tea table.

Several middle-aged men were sitting on the table, but they were only sitting on the guest seats. On the main seat sat a middle-aged man with a western face.

"Mr. Felix, it's a great honour for us to see you here." President Ban of Y&X Company smiled ingratiatingly. He was Luke Ban's father.

Chapter 326

In the guest room, Felix sat on the main seat and said in fluent Chinese, "Don't worry too much. I just want to walk around. You can do whatever you want."

Although Felix was saying so, none of the entrepreneurs present dared to take it lightly. To put it bluntly, their enterprise was now relying on this person to fund. As long as the other party was a little unhappy and wanted to withdraw the money, everyone would be destroyed.

"Well, relax a little. You can just hand in the report of this season. There's no need to show it to me now. I don't have time." Felix stood up and straightened his clothes.

Luke's father rushed to the door of the guest room and bent down to open the door for Felix.

Although they were successful in front of others, they were quite self-aware in front of Felix. They knew very clearly that all their assets were nothing but a drop in the bucket for Mr Felix.

The door of the living room opened, and Felix heard the noise.

The word "loser" and "b*tch" made Felix feel very harsh.

"What's going on?" Felix frowned and looked at Luke's father.

Luke's father quickly showed a flattering smile and said, "Mr Felix, I'll deal with it right away."

After giving a fawning laugh, Luke's father quickly shouted to the younger generation in the banquet hall, "What are you arguing about? Luke, come here!"

Hearing his father's voice, Luke, who was standing at the entrance of the banquet hall, ran over in a hurry.

At the same time, because of the words of Luke's father, the noise in the banquet hall was also reduced a lot.

"What's going on? Why are you yelling? What are you talking about?" Luke's father scolded.

Luke quickly lowered his head and explained, "Dad, a woman came over and asked everyone to invest in her, and she was particularly arrogant, so..."

Luke didn't dare to tell the truth.

"Investment? What investment?" Felix asked curiously, " Mr Ban, I remember that your company is doing investment."

"Yes, yes." Luke's father nodded quickly, and then said to Luke with a look of blame, "What's the other party's cooperation plan? Have you asked?"

Luke lowered his head and stole a glance at Felix. Then he quickly looked away and said in a low voice, "Not yet."

"Then go and ask!" Luke's father scolded, and then said to Felix with a smile, "Mr Felix, this way please."

As soon as he nodded his head, Felix heard a burst of sound.

"Alright, get out of here. You're lucky today!"

"You're from the village. Don't act like you're a queen!"

"Go back and do ideological work for your good-for-nothing husband. I would give you hundreds of thousands of yuan for one time. It's possible, hahaha!"

A burst of laughter rang out.

Sylvia's face changed a few times. In fact, before she came here, she had inquired about who was at this banquet. She also had a few goals to cooperate with. Luke's Y&X company was a good partner.

Unfortunately, what had happened was not what Sylvia had in mind.

The door of the banquet hall opened and Sylvia walked out.

After Sylvia left, there was a reproach in the dining hall. Myra, the celebrity-looking woman, said, "Nancy, your friend from Yinzhou is not very sensible."

"Yes."

"If she wanted to get money, you should have shown a good attitude."

Voices rang out one after another.

Nancy shook her head and explained, "You're wrong. Sylvia is really here to cooperate with someone. She is the person in charge of the Lins Group in Yinzhou."

"What Lins Group? I've never heard of it." Myra sneered. "And Yinzhou you mentioned, is a small city in the northwest, right? Is it even on the map? Hahaha!"

The voices of Myra and Nancy came to Felix's ears.

When Felix heard the name of Yinzhou, he was more concerned. His eldest brother was also in that city. And the name of Lins Group and Sylvia, which Nancy mentioned, made Felix's heart beat faster. "Is this... sister-in-law?"

Felix's face suddenly changed. "My sister-in-law is here. She has been humiliated!" He pushed away the person in front of him, walked directly to Nancy, and said, "Miss, the person you just mentioned is from the Lins Group of Yinzhou. Is it Sylvia Lin?"

Seeing Mr. Felix talking to her, Nancy suddenly had a feeling of being at a loss. She quickly nodded and said, "Yes, it's her.

Mr. Felix, do you know each other?"

"Not only do we know each other! That's my sister-in-law!" Felix replied with an angry face.

Hearing Felix's words, all the people in the banquet hall felt their hearts skip a beat. They felt that something bad was going to happen.

Felix turned to look at Luke's father and said, "You're really brave. You even dare to humiliate my sister-in-law. I'll settle this with you!"

After saying that, Felix ignored the people in the banquet hall. He immediately ran out of the banquet hall and chased after Sylvia.

Looking at Felix's anxious look, the people in the banquet hall were a little stunned.

"What's going on? Mr Felix's sister-in-law?"

The body of Luke's father trembled slightly. He looked at his son, breathing heavily. "What did you do? What did you do? Ah!"

"I... I..." Luke was lost. "Dad, I didn't know!"

"You didn't know? What a fool! You don't understand what the consequences of offending Mr Felix will be! You guys are really brainless! If this matter can't be solved, all of you will be involved!" Luke's father glanced at everyone in the banquet hall, his eyes full of anger.

Similarly, those entrepreneurs of the same generation as Luke were also angry at this moment. In this banquet hall, there were also their juniors. If Mr Felix really wanted to investigate this matter, no one would have a good result!

Felix chased out of the banquet hall and saw Sylvia walking at the end of the corridor.

"Sister-in-law! Sister-in-law!" Felix shouted as he ran.

When Sylvia heard the word "sister-in-law", she didn't realize that someone was calling her at all. Fortunately, the elevator hadn't arrived, otherwise, Felix would not have been able to catch up with her.

"Sister-in-law, I didn't expect to see you here!" Felix rushed to Sylvia.

"Ah, Felix." Although Sylvia only had a meal with Felix, she recognized him immediately.

"Haha, sister-in-law, you still remember me." Felix scratched his head. "I was just in the banquet hall. When I heard that you were here, I rushed out."

Sylvia laughed at herself and said, "What you've heard is not good."

Felix waved his hand. "It's all a bunch of stupid people. Sister-in-law, don't worry. I heard that you're here to find someone to invest in you? What's wrong? Is there any problem with the company?"

10:02 ■

Chapter 327

Sylvia shook her head. "It's nothing. My company needs development. We are looking for a person to cooperate with."

Hearing that, Felix said, "Sister-in-law, don't go. Go back with me. I'll ask those people to apologize to you."

"Forget it." Sylvia shook her head. When she came out, she had already thought that she was laughed at. If she went back now, wouldn't it cause more trouble for Felix?

"How can we forget it!" Felix said angrily, "Let's go, sister-in-law."

"It's really not necessary." Sylvia waved her hand vigorously. "Also, don't call me sister-in-law. Henry and I are... we're going to divorce soon..."

When it came to divorce, Sylvia's eyes were full of loneliness.

"Divorce?" Felix stared at her. "Sister-in-law, are there any misunderstandings between you and Boss? Boss loves you so much. Why, why are you going to divorce?"

"Does he love me?" Sylvia smiled, and the scene she saw yesterday afternoon came to her mind again. If he really loved me, how could he do these things behind my back?

"He loves you! He absolutely loves you!" Felix nodded without hesitation. "Sister-in-law, I've never seen Boss treat anyone the same way he treats you. If there's any misunderstanding between you two, you must talk over it. If you really divorce, I promise, Boss will go crazy!"

"Misunderstanding?" Sylvia murmured. She also hoped that it was a misunderstanding, but it was not. He didn't even tell her the truth.

The door of the banquet hall opened, and a group of young people ran out of the banquet hall. Myra Xin, who had been arrogant just now, ran in front of Sylvia at this time.

"I'm sorry! I'm sorry, President Lin. I'm not sensible. Please forgive me!" Myra's cheeks were red and swollen. It was obvious that she had just been beaten. Now she ran to Sylvia. Myra apologized while waving her hand and slapping her face hard.

Sylvia was stunned by the change in front of her.

In the banquet hall just now, Myra's attitude could be said to be the most arrogant one.

"President Lin, I'm sorry. I was wrong.

Please forgive me." The master who blocked Sylvia's way just now also lowered his head and stood in front of Sylvia.

"President Lin, I'm sorry for what I did just now." Luke also lowered his head and stood in front of Sylvia.

Sylvia looked at these people in front of her. She didn't know what they were doing. They had humiliated her for hundreds of times just now, and now they were apologizing to her.

"How dare you to stand up? Who said rude things to President Lin just now? Kneel down!" Luke's father shouted.

Luke's legs went limp and he knelt down on the spot. His knees fell to the ground and he let out a "plop".

Including the young master, Myra, and the beautiful woman who said that Sylvia was coming for money, all of them were kneeling in front of Sylvia.

Luke's father smiled at Felix with a flattering face and said, "Mr Felix, look, these juniors are not sensible. They have just offended your sister-in-law. Now, please punish them as you please."

"It's too late!" Felix snorted. "I've already sent people to withdraw the funds. All of you, wait to face the responsibility of the bank. How long you can hold on is up to you!"

Hearing what Felix said, the expression of Luke's father and the people who were sitting in the small hall together suddenly changed. If Felix really withdrew the money, the bank's huge loan would make them unable to turn the tide for the rest of their lives.

"Mr. Felix, you are a kind man. Please forgive us! It's true that children don't know how to behave."

"Yes, Mr Felix."

"Forgive you?" Felix sneered, "I've already spared you. You should be glad that my big brother is not here. Otherwise, you would not see the sun tomorrow!"

Sylvia looked at what was happening in front of her and could not come back to her senses.

Felix, last time in the hotel, he talked and laughed with everyone, called her sister-in-law, and even acted cute. Now, in just one sentence, these businessmen who are worth tens of billions of yuan begged for mercy?"

"Hey hey, sister-in-law." Felix smiled at Sylvia. "Sister-in-law, Boss absolutely loves you in his heart. Don't be impulsive and talk with him more. He always likes to hide his feelings. So, let's have a meal together and solve the investment problem. You can go home later and give Boss a chance."

Felix's attitude towards Sylvia made the father of Luke and others realize how serious this matter was.

A person who could make Mr Felix speak in a flattering tone was actually offended by their juniors!

Sylvia nodded and followed Felix back into the banquet hall.

During the meal, Felix made a phone call in front of Sylvia and asked the people on the phone to send out the message that his sister-in-law was looking for someone to talk about cooperation. If they had any intentions, they should immediately come to the hotel.

After Felix called, Sylvia saw groups of people rushing into the banquet hall before she finished her meal.

These people first went to the front of Felix, respectfully addressed him, and then handed out their business cards to Sylvia. "Hello, Mrs Lin. I'm very interested in your cooperation plan. I hope that I can cooperate with you."

Sylvia looked at the business card handed over by the other party in a daze. She didn't even say what her cooperation plan was from the beginning to the end!

She glanced at the other party's business card. It was HH Tech Company, a company with a market value of billions!

"Hello, Mrs Lin. I'm Mark Kang, the director of the production of the G&C Manufacturing Company." An advertising company that was well-known all over the country. In the G&C Manufacturing Company, the advertising fee alone was more than 3 billion.

"Hello, Ms Lin. I'm Mike Sun from Richpower Trade Company. I hope to

Felix, respectfully addressed him, and then handed out their business cards to Sylvia. "Hello, Mrs Lin. I'm very interested in your cooperation plan. I hope that I can cooperate with you."

Sylvia looked at the business card handed over by the other party in a daze. She didn't even say what her cooperation plan was from the beginning to the end!

She glanced at the other party's business card. It was HH Tech Company, a company with a market value of billions!

"Hello, Mrs Lin. I'm Mark Kang, the director of the production of the G&C Manufacturing Company." An advertising company that was well-known all over the country. In the G&C Manufacturing Company, the advertising fee alone was more than 3 billion.

cooperate with you."

Sylvia looked at the business cards in front of her. On these business cards, the business companies with the smallest scale were all with a market value of 80 billion yuan. Every one of them was a well-known big enterprise.

From these companies, if Sylvia could cooperate with any of them, it would be a great thing for Lins Group.

But now, there were more than ten people asking her to cooperate with them. And their attitude was very respectful and sincere.

Sylvia looked at Felix in front of her. She was shocked by his identity.

Nancy walked to Sylvia's side and pulled her sleeve. "Sylvia, you're really modest. You know Mr Felix, but you asked me to introduce the cooperation partner to you."

"Is Felix very famous?" Sylvia asked in confusion. She also wanted to know who Felix was to let so many people in charge of large enterprises take the initiative to cooperate with her.

Chapter 328

"Famous?" Nancy looked at Sylvia with a ghost-like look. "Sylvia, you can only ask me this question. If you asked someone else, you would be laughed at. Although no one knows about the financial group behind Mr Felix, what we know now is that there are many large enterprises in Du Hai with Mr Felix's investment. Even Luke Ban and people like him rely on Mr Felix. Once Mr Felix withdrew the money, they were all destroyed! Sylvia, what kind of husband you have found? Even Mr Felix has to call him big brother!"

"This..." Sylvia looked at Felix. If it weren't for what she saw today, she would never have thought that the person who was so playful in the private room of Glory Hotel that day had such great power.

Nancy guessed, "Could it be a prince from a foreign country? Mr Felix has close relations with many other royal families."

"Prince?" Sylvia shook her head and couldn't help thinking of Henry's figure. He, who was running around in beach pants, could not be a prince.

"Then he must be the successor of one of the biggest financial groups!" said Nancy, making another guess.

"No." Sylvia continued to shake her head.

"Who is he then?" Nancy Cai a little discouraged. In her eyes, only the heirs of the financial groups, or the princes of the royal family could be called brothers and sisters by Felix. As for the little figures, in the eyes of these rich people, they were just playboys.

"He is..." Sylvia bit her red lip. "An ordinary person."

"Ordinary?" It was obvious that Nancy did not believe it. "Who are you lying to?"

At eight o'clock in the evening.

A bus was driving on the highway between Yinzhou and Anshi.

Henry sat in the bus, closing his eyes and taking a nap.

Wade White told Henry that the man in the dark who attacked Sylvia was keeping a close eye on them for some time. If he wanted to go to Yanjing quietly, he had to pay attention to his whereabouts. The bus was undoubtedly a good way.

Henry looked at the time. They would arrive in Anshi in about one hour. The bus arrived at the train station in Anshi. Then he would take the train to Yanjing. Although it took a long time, it would not expose his whereabouts.

The people on the bus were very quiet, and this kind of long distance would make people look very tired.

In the car, a beautiful girl with big eyes with a ponytail attracted Henry's attention.

This beautiful girl sat in the front row of Henry's side, wearing a black dress with a skirt to her knees. A pair of black tights and a pair of black leather shoes made her look very naughty and lovely.

"Lila Zhu... this girl, why would she appear here?"

Henry muttered with confusion in his eyes. The little girl sitting on his side was a granddaughter of one of his good friends.

Henry took out his mobile phone and logged into a special website. This was something similar to a social media platform. If someone saw it, he would be shocked.

The reward for finding an A-grade fugitive was five million yuan.

The price for 150-year-old wild ginseng was up for negotiation.

In the underground world, there were a group of people who were called bounty hunters. They could do anything as long as the money was involved.

This website was specially set up for bounty hunters. If you want to enter this website, you must have someone to introduce it to you. You must go through rounds of review, and your own strength must reach a certain standard.

Henry turned over a few pages. On a bounty mission, when he saw the news he was looking for, he smiled and thought, "Sure enough."

The Zhu family's master offered a reward of ten million yuan to find his granddaughter.

Henry looked at Lila, who was playing with her mobile phone happily and smiled in his heart. "Master Zhu is probably very worried now. If she was here, she must have sneaked out."

Henry held the back of his head with both hands, lay on the seat, and stared at Lila with some interest. He found that this girl was playing a gun war game and kept talking with her teammates in the game through voice.

"Come on, quickly. Give me 98 K. Little brother, can you give it to me..."

Henry shook his head. He felt that he was really out of touch. Now that everyone liked to play games, he was not interested in them at all.

At nine o'clock in the evening, the bus stopped at Anshi railway station.

Henry walked to the ticket machine and entered the certificate number that Wade had given him. Henry saw that Lila was also asking for the ticket. He glanced at it and found that the place where the other party was going was exactly the same as his- Yanjing.

The train was at 10:30 p.m. Henry had to wait for at least half an hour in the waiting room before the train would reach the station.

After finding a seat, Henry sat up and thought about what to do next.

It would take two days and two nights to travel from Anshi to Yanjing. The news about the Su Family in Yanjing had been sent to Henry by Wade. The Su Family was a big family in Yanjing, and their family power was quite strong.

Through all kinds of channels, Henry found out that the Su's had some relationship with the underground world.

In the underworld, the Su's had the same status as Sharp Knife.

After knowing this, Henry was even more confused.

For a long time, few forces in China had participated in the fights in the underground world. Why would they attack Sylvia?

Henry planned that he would not be in a hurry to attack the Su Family this time. He had to figure everything out. As long as it involved Sylvia, Henry had to find out clearly what was going on.

Henry was thinking about what he should do when he heard a noise.

"Uncle, this must be fake. How can one soda can be worth 50,000 yuan? Don't be fooled!"

"Go, go, go, go. Little girl, what do you know? If you don't want to make a fortune, don't stop others from making a fortune. If you don't buy it, give it to me. I say, old brother, you give it to me, and I'll buy it. 5,000 yuan for 50,000 yuan. Only a fool won't do it."

"Let me do it! Let me do it!"

"I want it!"

Henry turned his head and saw that there were a lot of people around him. One lady dressed simply and carrying a big parcel was standing there, and a group of people were surrounding her.

Henry glanced at it and roughly understood what was going on.

The lady drank cola. As a result, as soon as she opened the can, the pull-tab of the can showed that she won 50,000 yuan. Everyone didn't know what was going on, so they asked someone. The person said that the lady won the prize- 50,000 yuan.

She could only redeem in the local area with local ID card.

The lady said that she didn't have a local ID card, if somebody wanted to pay 2,000 yuan for the can, she would sell it.

A middle-aged man on the side looked at her with red eyes and said that he was willing to pay 5,000 yuan in cash.

Upon hearing this, the lady agreed to sell the can to the man.

As a result, Lila, who had been watching the scene of bustle, couldn't stand it anymore, so she warned the man.

Henry couldn't help laughing. This could be said to be a trick left from ancient times. Why was there still someone who was going to use it now?

Chapter 329

"Little girl, don't make trouble. Get out of here!" The first person who asked the lady to buy a can ring glared at Lila.

The lady in plain clothes also gave Lila a ferocious look, her eyes full of threats.

Lila put her hands on her hips and said, "So what if I don't get out? You liars, the money that others have worked so hard to earn has been taken away by you. Aren't you afraid that you will be hit by a car when you go out?"

"Get the hell out of here, little girl."

Behind Lila, two middle-aged men appeared and reached out their hands to grab Lila.

Generally speaking, this kind of deception was organized by a gang of criminals, and there were a lot of people.

Just as the two middle-aged men's hands were about to touch Lila's shoulder, Henry suddenly squeezed over and pushed them aside.

"Uncle, you can't buy it. If you don't believe me, you can check on the Internet with your mobile phone. This kind of cheating is everywhere." Lila did not realize that someone had already tried to attack her. She was still standing there, persuading the middle-aged man who was going to take out money.

Originally, the middle-aged man was about to pay, but Lila persuaded him to put the money back. He said to the woman, "Sister, I won't buy it. This little brother also wants it. You can sell it to him." The middle-aged man pointed to the man beside him.

"No, big brother." The woman shook her head. "I just said that I'll sell you. I don't have a local ID card, so I can't get the money."

"Oh, forget it, forget it, I won't buy it." The middle-aged man also realized that something was wrong. He waved his hand and walked out of the crowd.

"Big brother, don't go, big brother." The middle-aged woman tried to stop him for a long time, but she couldn't.

Seeing the duck flying away, the middle-aged woman and other groups stared at Lila with anger.

As if she didn't realize what had happened, Lila hopped aside, took out her mobile phone and started to play the game happily.

Henry smiled helplessly. She was really a girl who had just joined the society.

In any case, Henry had a good relationship with Lila's grandfather. He couldn't watch his old friend's granddaughter get hurt, so Henry sat down not far from Lila.

As Henry expected, a few minutes later, the middle-aged woman just now, as well as the young man who was the first to say that he wanted to buy the soda can, as well as the two middle-aged men who wanted to hurt Lila surrounded her.

"Little girl, you like to meddle in others' business, don't you?" The four people stood in front of Lila and surrounded her.

Those who had been sitting a little closer to Lila at this moment all moved to the side, for fear that the matter here would affect them.

Lila looked up at the people in front of her with disdain in her big eyes. "You liars, you only know how to cheat honest people. You could see that uncle wasn't wealthy, but you still wanted to cheat him for money!"

"Does it have anything to do with you?"
The young man sneered and clenched his fists.

"Little girl, take good care of yourself, follow me!" A middle-aged man strode up, grabbed Lila's arm, and his eyes showed a nasty look, "You look good, and I can also sell you at a good price."

"What are you doing?" Lila shook off the hand of the middle-aged man and said, "If you touch me again, I will call the police!"

"Call the police?"

Hearing Lila's words, the four people couldn't help but smile.

The middle-aged woman said, "You want to call the police, then let's do it! Little D, I remember that your brother-in-law is a captain here, right?"

"That's for sure. In this area, I'm the law!" The young man held his head high, showing a proud look, and then made a phone call out.

Soon, a man in his thirties, wearing a police uniform, came over with a walkie-talkie in his hand. Looking very majestic, he asked the young man, "Little D, what's the matter? Who is making trouble here?"

"Brother-in-law, it's her." The young man reached out and pointed at Lila.

The captain of the police team looked displeased and said, "Little girl, I suspect that there are illegal items in your bag, let's check it!"

As the captain of the police team spoke, he picked up the small bag on Lila's back.

"I don't have anything illegal. I have just passed the security check. You are in cahoots with these swindlers!" Lila stood up and said loudly.

"Don't talk nonsense, follow me!" The police captain grabbed Lila's collar and pushed her toward the police room.

The people around looked at him, but none of them dared to make a sound, for fear that they would be implicated.

"Sir, my sister's bag is so small. Can't you check it now on spot?" Henry's voice sounded behind them.

The captain of the police team turned his head and looked at Henry, who was standing behind him. He frowned and asked, "Who are you?"

"I'm her brother." Henry pointed at Lila and said, "If you want to check it, just check it out now."

"I asked her to go to the police office. Didn't you hear me?" The captain of the police station shouted.

Such a roar scared Lila, who was standing next to her.

Henry pulled out his ears and eyes. "Why are you yelling? If you want to check it, do it now."

"Ha-ha." The captain of the police station sneered. "Boy, you're so arrogant. You're insulting the police officer, aren't you? Just wait!"

After the captain of the police station finished speaking, he picked up the walkie-talkie and said that someone was making trouble.

Soon, a team of police officers came over.

"Take them to the police room. I suspect that they have something on them. If they dare to resist, just hit them directly! By the way, that woman, she hid the things in her clothes. We have to take them off later and check her carefully!" The captain of the police team shouted.

The policemen who came here looked at Lila's cute face as if they knew what the captain was talking about.

"Big brothers, you need to look into it carefully. Tonight I'll book a room and drink with you after work." The young man who cheated said.

Some of the policemen obviously had a good relationship with this young man.

"Okay, Little D, don't worry."

"How's the business going these days?"

The young man chuckled and said, "Thanks for carrying about me."

Henry looked at all this indifferently.

In a super-big city, such a place as the railway station in Anshi had always been mixed with all kinds of people. It was not surprising that there was such a phenomenon. After all, there were some things that did not seem to be a big deal. The benefits brought by it were tremendous.

A group of policemen looked at Henry. "Bro, let's go to the police room. Don't force us to push you."

The word "push" was bitten very hard.

Henry smiled indifferently and patted Lila's shoulder. "Let's go."

Lila shook her head. "I don't want to go. They are obviously on the same team."

"Then what should we do?" Henry asked with a smile, "They said that you are loaded with illegal stuff."

"I want to call my uncle!" Lila took out her mobile phone and dialed a number.

Chapter 330

The captain of the police team saw that Lila wanted to make a phone call, so he immediately rushed up and wanted to grab Lila's mobile phone, but Henry grabbed his wrist.

"What are you doing? Robbing?" Henry raised his eyebrows.

"Resisting the arrest! We can detain you. Let him go!" The police team shouted.

Henry turned his head and saw that Lila had already made a phone call and was talking on the phone. Then Henry let go of the police captain's wrist and walked to Lila and asked, "What did your uncle say?"

Lila replied, "He told me to stand there and don't move. Someone will deal with it."

As soon as Lila finished her words, she heard a loud shout not far away.

"Make way! Make way, all of you!"

Then, a middle-aged man in casual clothes rushed over with an anxious look.

At the sight of the middle-aged man, the arrogant captain of the police station and others quickly put on a respectful look and stood upright. "Hello, our captain."

The middle-aged man didn't even look at the police captain and the others. He looked around and asked loudly, "Which one is Lila Zhu, Miss Zhu?"

"Yes, I am." Lila stretched out her small hand.

"Miss Zhu, nice to meet you. Mr Zhu asked me to come here. Do you have any trouble here?" The middle-aged man asked Lila politely.

When the police captain saw the middle-aged man's attitude, his face suddenly changed and became a little pale.

"These people." Lila stretched out her hand and pointed to the police captain and the others. "They colluded with the liars and cheated others' money. When I exposed them, they said I have some illegal items with me."

"Outrageous!" The middle-aged man shouted and turned his head to stare at the police captain and others. "Cheat? Accuse? How dare you! I see that your clothes are in vain! All of you go to the police office and wait to be fired!"

The police captain and others were so scared that they trembled all over and dared not breathe heavily. How could they have thought that the little girl in front of them would call the captain to come and make him so respectful?

After scolding, the middle-aged man looked at Lila with a smile. "Miss Zhu, let's see how to deal with these people."

Lila waved her hand indifferently. "Oh, I don't care. Anyway, you can't let them continue to hurt people. I'm leaving."

Lila carried her bag on her back and hopped to the entrance of the station.

Henry couldn't help laughing. The Zhu family's power was still very strong.

For Henry and Lila, what had just happened was just an episode, but for the police captain and others, their lives would end up like this. According to the Zhu family's order, the captain could easily fire these people.

When Henry came to the platform, the train had arrived at the station. After checking the ticket, Henry walked toward his carriage. Wade booked a private cabin for him so not many people would see him.

It could also hide his whereabouts better.

As soon as Henry entered the cabin, he saw a little girl sitting on the other bed.

"Hey? Brother, are you also in this cabin?" Lila saw Henry and asked curiously.

"Yes, I am going to Yanjing." Henry nodded and deliberately asked, "What about you?"

Hearing this, Lila showed an excited expression and said, "Wow, so do I. What a coincidence."

Henry nodded with a smile. "Yes, it's a coincidence."

Henry knew Lila, but Lila didn't know Henry. If she knew that this person in front of her had a good relationship with her grandfather, she would have sneaked away immediately. She hadn't had enough fun this time, and she didn't want to be taken back by her grandfather so soon.

"Brother, you just helped me. I'll treat you to dinner later." Lila squinted and smiled.

Henry nodded and did not say anything. He lay down on the bed and closed his eyes to rest.

At about ten o'clock in the evening, the sky was completely dark.

Henry was lying on the bed, listening to Lila's pleasant voice. He felt that this trip was not bad, not as boring as he imagined.

In a daze, Henry gradually fell asleep.

It was getting late in the night.

The train made a sound of "spine running". There was dead silence in the train. Lila was tired of playing. She put her legs and lay on the bed, with crystal saliva flowing from the corner of her mouth.

Henry, who was sleeping soundly, suddenly opened his eyes at this moment.

He quickly jumped up from the bed, and then walked to the door of the cabin and listened carefully.

The years of life-and-death battles had made Henry particularly sensitive. Even if he was sleeping soundly, as long as there was a little danger, he would immediately wake up from the sleep.

Henry heard two light footsteps outside the cabin, and they were coming toward the cabin he was in.

Henry took a deep breath. When the other party took the next step, he violently opened the door of the cabin and stretched out one of his hands.

The two people standing in front of the cabin apparently didn't realize that such a sudden change would happen. One of them couldn't respond in time and was directly grabbed by Henry's hand. The other one quickly retreated to keep a distance.

In the dark, Henry glanced at the two people outside the door. Each of them held a dagger in their hands. If they could take the dagger to the train, it was obvious that they had been prepared.

He looked again and saw that the two men had thick legs and old calluses in their palms. They were definitely not ordinary thieves.

"Who are you?" Henry shouted in a low voice.

The man whose throat was stuck by Henry's hand blushed. He tried hard to break free from Henry's hand, but he couldn't do it at all.

Another man said, "Boy, our target is the girl inside. It has nothing to do with you. Don't make trouble for yourself!"

"I'm sorry, I just like to make trouble."

Henry grinned and suddenly punched at the stomach of the man who was held by him.

Henry's punch landed on his opponent's body, making it difficult for him to even make a scream. He could not even breathe.

Seeing this, the other person rushed to Henry with a dagger in his hand. Henry kicked him in the chest and sent him flying backwards.

It could be said that Henry killed the two killers almost in an instant.

Henry did not show any mercy to these two people. He looked out of the window, because the train was running fast, and the scenery outside the window was also passing quickly. Henry waved two hand knives, cutting on their necks respectively, and then threw them into the bathroom. The two daggers were also placed on the two people. When the police saw them the next morning, they would naturally take them away.

Henry thought about it when he was doing these things. If Red Hair was here, he would directly tear the two people apart and throw them out of the train.

The Zhu family was not a financial group on the surface, but an Ancient kungfu family with a long history. Compared with the Zhu family, those who could attack the Zhu family were also from Ancient kungfu families. The casualties of these people would not alarm the society.

In the private room, Lila was sleeping soundly. She knew nothing about what had happened outside.

Chapter 331

The two-day journey was neither too long nor too short, and time just passed by.

In the past two days, Henry had been calling Sylvia, but he found that Sylvia seemed to have put his number on the blacklist. Her phone was turned off all the time. On social media, Henry also sent many friend requests, but they weren't approved.

Henry sighed and turned off his mobile phone. His phone number could not be used when he arrived in Yanjing. It was easy to be found out.

For those big families, even the smallest clues are detectable. Although Henry was powerful, his opponent was not a fool. If Henry used Yinzhou's telephone number again, at this time, his opponent would find him out easily.

At seven o'clock in the afternoon, the train arrived at Yanjing station.

During the past two days, Lila chatted with Henry every day and got along quite well with him.

"Brother, let's go. I'll treat you to a good meal and introduce a beautiful girl to you by the way. I'm very loyal." Lila patted her small chest and made a heroic expression.

"Okay." Henry nodded.

After meeting the killers on the train, Henry wanted to contact the people of the Zhu family and let them protect the little princess. Henry didn't know the identity of the killers. He couldn't watch his old friend's granddaughter be in danger.

Lila skipped in front of Henry, went out of the train station, and got a taxi.

"Let's go to 3rd Avenue."

3rd Avenue?

When Henry heard the address, he could figure out who the sister Lila wanted to introduced to him was.

Yetta Nangong!

She was the eldest daughter of the Nangong Family.

When Lila came to Yanjing, Yetta was the only one she could find.

Different from the third-tier small cities like Yinzhou, places like Yanjing could be said to have hidden talents. Whether it was the Su Family or the Nangong family, they all had the background of ancient kungfu family.

3rd Avenue was located in the centre of Yanjing, and the taxi stopped in front of a residential quarter called Yu Cheng.

Henry glanced at the door of this community, and the word "generous" came out of the bottom of his heart unconsciously.

The stone-arch gate could accommodate ten people to walk in side by side. On both sides of the gate stood a stone lion, which looked almost alive.

The mansion was in a well-known community in the entire Yanjing. The average price of the house here was about 95,000 yuan per square meter, which was daunting. The people who lived here were either rich or noble.

Lila carried her bag on her back and waited in front of the gate of the community.

After a while, a tall beauty appeared in Henry's sight.

Her black hair hung on the back of her head. As she walked, her hair jumped gently. She wore a long white dress with a silver jade hairpin in her hair. This style would definitely attract a lot of attention from others. However, it did not make people feel awkward about her. Instead, they felt that such a woman should dress like this. The temperament she wore made people feel like she was an immortal.

The woman walked up to Lila and spoke softly. Her voice was as clear as the orchid in the valley and as clear as water. "Little Lila, did you run from home without telling your grandfather?"

The woman's clear and bright pupils were as bright as the stars. She smiled and her eyes were narrowed into the shape of the crescent moon, as if the spirit of the moon had been revealed.

Lila pouted cutely, and her face was full of grievances. "The old man doesn't allow me to go out and explore the world, so I had to sneak out. Sister Yetta, you can't tell my grandpa."

"You." Yetta stretched out her jade-like finger and gently tapped on Lila's forehead. "When will you stop making your grandfather worry about you?"

Lila wittily stuck out her small tongue. "By the way, Sister Yetta, this is Henry Zhang."

Yetta stretched out his hand to Henry. "Hello, I'm Yetta Nangong."

"Hello." Henry gently held Yetta's pair of soft hands. Looking at her impeccable face, he thought that he had not seen her in almost three years.

Henry could still clearly remember the last time he saw Yetta. She didn't look like Miss Nangong at all. She wanted to remove his mask and even threatened her own life. In the end, Henry didn't take off his mask and asked her if she knew that anyone who had seen the real face of the Reaper had to die.

Henry could even recall the scared expression on Yetta's face at that time.

"Brother Henry, what are you laughing at?" Lila tilted her head and looked at Henry curiously.

"Am I?" Henry quickly stopped smiling. When he thought about what had happened in the past, he couldn't help laughing.

"Of course, your smile is obvious. Are you fascinated by Sister Yetta? Tell you, Sister Yetta doesn't have a boyfriend yet." Lila kept giving Henry a wink.

Yetta stretched out her hand and patted Lila's forehead. "Little girl, you like my food. Tell me, which big meal do you want to eat?"

Lila shook her head like a rattle-drum. "I don't want to eat. I'm going to watch a fight."

Hearing this, Yetta sighed helplessly. "Girl, if you don't eat it, your friend will have to eat it. After dinner, we can let your friend go to rest early and we will go to watch the fight again. How about that?"

Lila looked at Henry and was about to say yes, but Henry said first, "It's okay. I'm not hungry. Let's go to watch the fight first. We can eat after that."

When Henry finished his words, he could clearly see that Yetta's face became a little ugly.

The meaning of Yetta's words was that she didn't want to take Henry with them to watch the fight.

The stuff of the Ancient kungfu family was not known to ordinary people, and the people of the Ancient kungfu family would not bring ordinary people to participate in it.

If Henry hadn't met the two killers before, he wouldn't have wanted to watch the fight with the two girls. The disciples of the ancient kungfu families fought fiercely, but in Henry's eyes, they were just like children playing around the house.

But now that he knew Lila was in danger, Henry naturally could not leave her alone casually. When the people of Zhu family came, he would leave.

Lila looked at Yetta with some embarrassment. "Sister Yetta, why don't we go together?"

"Sigh." Yetta sighed. "I really admire you. Let's go."

Lila said that the fighting place was not a secret place, but a fighting club.

The members of the fighting club were almost all disciples of the ancient kungfu families.

Like a normal financial group, it all depended on the business wisdom and political wisdom of the younger generation whether the younger generation was promising or not. However, the strength of the ancient kungfu family determined everything. The biggest goal for every disciple of the ancient kungfu family was to make themselves stronger.

Chapter 332

Yetta parked a Maserati in front of the club. A Benz G and all kinds of supercars were parked in front of the club. Yetta was the first daughter of the Nangong Family, so it could be said that she was low-key even though she was driving a Maserati.

Yetta was particularly well-known in the circle. Her outstanding temperament, beautiful appearance, and the identity of Miss Nangong made her a target of countless pursuers. However, no matter how many pursuers there were, Yetta did not fancy any of them.

As soon as Lila arrived at the fight club, she seemed very excited. In the club, some people were practising their fists in front of the sandbag, some were holding some fitness equipment, and some were holding a one-on-one duel in the ring. There were also two against two, and fewer against many kinds of battles.

Lila ran excitedly to the arena and looked at the people in the arena. She kept shouting 'Beat him, beat him', and so on. Her big eyes were full of excitement.

On the other hand, Yetta was not in the mood at all.

So was Henry. He picked a sofa and sat on it.

Lila looked at them for a while and found that the two people who came with her together were not excited. She suddenly felt a little bored. She ran to Yetta and said, "Sister Yetta, why are you not interested at all?"

Yetta looked at the arena and smiled. "They're too weak."

"Weak?" Lila followed Yetta's gaze and looked at them. Yetta said that the one who was too weak was not at a disadvantage at all in the ring.

Lila smiled bitterly and said, "Sister Yetta, it's not that they are too weak, but your expectation is too high. You always compare others with that person. If everyone was as strong as him, there would not be only one Lord of Radiant Island in the world."

"He..." Yetta said with a faint look in her eyes, "Do you think he still remembers me?"

"I don't know." Lila shook her head. "Sister Yetta, he is the owner of Radiant Island, known as the strongest man in the world. There must be countless beautiful women around him. My grandfather said that he has been missing for months. So many people are looking for him, but now there is no news about him. It's too difficult to meet him. You can't always think about that kind of person."

Yetta looked at Lila and asked, "Girl, are you still excited about the ordinary rivers after seeing the vastness of the sea?"

Lila's big eyes showed a look of confusion. "Sister Yetta, what do you mean?"

"You're still young." Yetta smiled and rubbed Lila's head. "Go and watch. After that, let's go for dinner."

"Nangong? You are here! When did you come?" A surprised voice came from the arena where Yetta had watched just now.

The young man, who had just defeated three people, jumped out of the ring and walked toward Yetta.

"Came with this girl." Yetta pointed at Lila.

"Hey, isn't this the Zhu family's pearl? Why did you sneak out to?" The young man looked at Lila.

Lila glanced at her mouth and said, "Seb Su, keep your mouth shut and don't talk nonsense!"

"Haha." Seb Su laughed indifferently. He looked at Yetta again and asked, "Nangong, what do you think of my fight just now?"

"Not bad." Yetta said.

In the past, Yetta had seen the world's top-level battles. Compared with such battles, Seb's fighting in the ring was like a joke.

Seb glanced around casually and saw Henry sitting on the sofa next to Yetta. "Brother, it seems that I haven't seen you before."

"No, it's my first time here with them." Henry nodded and looked at Seb. He was from the Su Family, which was the reason why he came here.

Hearing that Henry came with Yetta, Seb's eyes were full of hostility. "This is the first time you come here? Not everyone can come to this club, right?"

Seb's words were mainly for Yetta.

Henry also understood the meaning of Seb's words, but he still deliberately said, "What do you mean? I can't come and have a look at this place?"

"Ho ho, have a look? Do you understand fighting? Or only pretend to understand?" Seb looked at Henry disdainfully and deliberately tried to find fault with him, just because Henry and Yetta came together.

"I can understand it after practising for a period of time." Henry smiled. "Your skill is... so so."

Henry looked at Seb provocatively.

After hearing Henry's words, Yetta, who was sitting next to him, couldn't help but look at him for a few more times.

Seb's face showed anger, and he stared at Henry, "Kid, what did you say?"

"I said your skill is quite ordinary. It was just like a child playing around the house. Is there any problem?" Henry raised his eyebrows.

"You're so arrogant!" Seb shouted, "If you say I'm ordinary, why don't you give it a try?"

"Okay." Henry smiled slightly. "How do you want to fight?"

"Simple." Seb sneered and clenched his fists. "Until somebody falls to the ground."

"Okay." Henry responded and gritted his teeth. Then he punched toward Seb's face.

At the moment when Seb spoke to Henry, Henry thought of his next plan. Instead of letting him take the initiative to contact the Su Family, it was better to let the Su Family come to him.

It was the fastest way to fight against their member. Besides, if they fought here, they would not attract their opponent's attention.

Henry's punch was so fast that Seb could only dodge it.

This was the result of Henry's hiding his strength. Otherwise, Seb would have been beaten to the ground with only one strike.

Seb dodged Henry's punch. Just as he was about to fight back, Henry kicked him again and hit right in the chest.

Seb was not surprised to be kicked over by Henry.

Such a scene had attracted the attention of the rest of the club.

Just now in the arena, Seb was able to defeat three people himself. His strength was one of the best among these people, but now he was kicked by someone, which naturally attracted a lot of attention.

Being kicked in the chest by a stranger in front of so many people made Seb ashamed. He stood up from the ground and attacked Henry.

Henry even sat on the sofa from beginning to end.

"You're too slow." Henry said softly. When Seb rushed in front of him, he kicked Seb's knee again.

Seb, who was rushing forward, was kneeling in front of Henry.

Such a scene made all the people in the fighting arena widen their eyes.

Seb felt a sense of humiliation in his heart. In front of so many people and the woman he liked, he did such a thing!

Seb roared and was about to get up.

"You're too weak." Henry smiled disdainfully, and Seb heard his voice clearly. Then, Henry stood up and put his knee on Seb's jaw.

Chapter 333

Although Henry had reserved a lot of strength, he did not show any mercy in his movements. Every time he attacked, he attacked the vital parts of his body.

When he lifted his knee, Seb, who had been kneeling there before, leaned backwards in the air and then fell heavily on the ground.

If this knee kick hit an ordinary person, it was estimated that he would faint directly.

After all, Seb had practised martial arts before. He lay on the ground with his hands struggling to get up.

After Henry got up, he flicked the dust from his sleeves, then walked to Seb and kicked on his side rib heavily.

Seb, who was struggling to get up, was kicked by Henry and moved a few meters away. He could not get up at all.

Henry's series of actions, in the eyes of others, made several words jump out of their minds.

Decisive, powerful, and ruthless!

Yetta looked at Henry standing there with a strange expression in his eyes. At that moment, Yetta overlapped the person in front of her with the figure in her memory.

They were equally decisive. In the process of fighting, they did not leave any chance for their opponents. They were equally strong. At the very least, Henry now was outclassing Seb.

Of course, this feeling was only for a moment. Of course, Yetta would not believe that the person in front of her could be compared with the lord of Radiant Island.

The scene of Henry defeating Seb was undoubtedly shocking. Seb was completely outclassed.

Henry chuckled and said, "It seems that I won."

"Wow!" Lila's eyes lit up and she shouted, "Brother, you are so awesome."

Henry shook his head. "He's too weak."

Henry's words made the rest of the people in the fighting arena feel ashamed. They were all disciples of the ancient kungfu families. In their hearts, they had a sense of superiority. But now, one of the best of them was easily defeated by an unknown outsider. More importantly, this person was not in the ancient martial arts circle. At least, they had never heard of such a person.

"What should we do? Seb seems to be seriously injured." One of them looked at the place where Seb was. At this moment, Seb was lying on the ground, motionless. If he hadn't made a low and painful sound, everyone might have thought that he was dead. After all, Henry's moves had hit the vital parts of his body.

"Call the Su Family. Since Seb has been beaten this time, they won't let it go easily."

After talking with each other for a while, they took out their mobile phones to inform the Su family.

Yetta got up and asked Lila, "Little girl, do you still want to watch? If you don't want to, we can leave."

"Don't want to watch, it's boring." Lila shook her head repeatedly. She had seen Henry's way of fighting just now, and when she looked at the arena fights, she really felt that their fists were soft.

Yetta nodded. "Let's go."

As he spoke, Yetta took the lead and walked toward the door of the club.

"Wait." One of them reached out and stopped Yetta.

"What's wrong?" Yetta smiled.

"Miss Nangong, you can go, but he can't." The person who stopped Yetta looked at Henry and said, "He hit the person of the Su Family. If he leaves like this, I believe that you will also be implicated."

Yetta frowned slightly and looked puzzled. "Wasn't it a normal duel?"

"It was a normal duel," the man nodded and said, "but we can't touch the Su's!"

After the man finished speaking, a few more people came out and blocked the door of the club. The meaning was very obvious that they would not let Henry go.

"You're so unreasonable!" Lila puffed out her cheeks and said, "It was a normal duel. Why don't you let him go?"

"There's no other way." The man who spoke also revealed a helpless expression. "Who asked him to hit Seb Su?"

Lila shook her shoulder and was about to speak again, but Henry stopped her.

Henry patted Lila on the shoulder and said to those people at the door with a smile, "Do you think you can stop me?"

"This..."

Henry's words stunned those people who were standing at the door.

"That's right. Can we stop him? Seb's skills were high and this man had defeated him so easily."

"If you leave, you have to consider your own consequences." The first person who spoke could only use the Su Family to pressure Henry. "I don't know who you are, but I know, no matter what identity you have, you don't want to stay in Yanjing if you offend the Su Family."

"Well, okay." Henry sighed and nodded. "Then I won't leave."

Seeing that Henry had admitted defeat, those people who were blocking the door showed joy on their faces.

Yetta shook her head disappointedly. Although this person was very similar to the shadow in her heart and many moves were very similar, she still couldn't believe that they are the same person.

Just as Yetta came up with an idea, Henry's voice rang out again.

"Since you won't let me go, I'll beat him again."

Henry's voice startled the people in the fighting club, and they all looked at Henry.

What did he mean? Did he want to fight against the Sus?

Henry clenched his fist and walked to the front of Seb who was still lying on the ground. He grabbed Seb's collar and picked him up effortlessly as if he were lifting a chicken.

It could be seen that Seb was very weak now, and he couldn't use his strength at all. If Henry released his collar now, he would lie on the ground immediately.

Henry grabbed Seb's collar and said, "You're Seb Su, right? I'll explain it to you first. It's not that I want to beat you, but someone doesn't want to let me leave. Since he said he wanted to inform your family to come over, I think your family can't come here in vain, can't they? If I don't beat you up, your family will come here in vain."

As soon as Henry finished his words, he grabbed Seb's hair and slammed Seb's head against the wall.

A "dong" sound seemed to be heard in the hearts of everyone. The people in the fighting club couldn't help but shiver. This man was really going to fight with the Su Family to the end.

Yetta looked at Henry with her beautiful eyes and muttered, "They are, they are so similar."

As Seb's head hit the wall fiercely, a touch of bright red liquid flowed down from Seb's head.

Seb himself had no ability to resist at all. Just now, his ribs were broken by Henry.

Henry threw Seb on the ground as if he was throwing rubbish. He clapped his hands and looked at the door again. "Can I go now?"

"You... you..." The man who spoke before looked at Henry and stuttered, "You are playing with fire!"

"Still don't want to let me go?" Henry said. Then he picked up Seb again and walked to the table beside him.

Everyone subconsciously looked at the table in front of Henry, and their eyes were fixed on the sharp corner of the table.

Chapter 334

Although Henry had not done anything yet, everyone could guess what this person was going to do based on his ruthlessness just now.

In just a few minutes, Henry had formed an image of himself. If he did take action, it would be like a rumble of thunder and lightning.

Looking at the sharp corner of the table, Henry grabbed Seb's hair, aimed his head at the sharpest place and slammed it down.

"No!" A timid girl couldn't help screaming at this moment.

Some of them closed their eyes and shivered with fear.

Seeing that Seb's head was about to touch the sharp corner of the table, some people even thought of Seb's head bleeding.

At this critical moment, a loud shout was heard.

"Junior, stop!"

When Seb's head was less than a centimetre away from the corner of the table, it stopped, which made many people let out a sigh of relief.

Henry turned his head and saw a middle-aged man in a black suit, glaring at him with anger.

Henry looked at him with a puzzled look. "Who are you?"

Henry's words shocked all the people in the fighting arena. "How dare he talk to Watt Su like this? Watt Su is not a good-tempered person. This guy is over."

Some people were already taking pleasure in Henry's misfortune, waiting to see Watt make his move.

Watt looked at Henry with a look of displeasure. "Which family are you from?"

"Which family?" Henry had a strange look on his face.

One of them walked to Watt and whispered something in his ear. Watt nodded and said to Henry, "No wonder you are so bold. It turns out to be a young lad who doesn't know the immensity of heaven and earth. How dare you fight with the Su's?"

Henry sneered, "Interesting, it's this man who shouted that he would fight with me for a few moves. Do you want me to stand there and let him fight?"

Watt nodded. "Of course, it's always our Su clan's fault for beating others. No one dares to do anything to our Su Family!"

"How domineering." Henry grinned.

"However, your family can only say it, but your kung fu is not very good."

"Arrogant!" Watt shouted. He moved his feet and rushed toward Henry.

Henry's current position was less than ten meters away from the fighting ring's entrance. Within two seconds, Watt had already rushed in front of Henry and punched toward his face.

Facing Watt's punch, Henry threw Seb aside casually, and he stepped back. He wanted to see Watt's approach clearly, which was also Henry's habit. Every time he met a new enemy, he must understand the opponent's boxing tricks. On the one hand, he needed to prepare for future enemies. On the other hand, it was also Henry's experience of slowly becoming stronger.

Watt's fists and feet moved at a very fast speed and hit toward all parts of Henry's body.

Henry quickly dodged. In other people's eyes, Henry was beaten so badly that he had no power to fight back.

"Just now, he was so arrogant. I thought he was very powerful, but in the end, he was just like that."

"That's right. Does he really think he's the boss of the world? It's obvious that he's never seen much of the world and he's practised some of his own skills. Does he really think he's invincible?"

"There are a lot of people who want to educate him!"

A burst of sarcasm sounded from the crowd.

Watt was also fighting more and more bravely, and his speed was getting faster and faster. Every move was aimed at the weakest part of Henry's body.

"Come on! Brother Henry!" Lila clenched her fists and cheered Henry up.

Yetta looked at Henry curiously. She wanted to know if this young man had the strength to compete with the older generation of the Su clan. Although Watt was not the strongest among his peers, he was somewhat representative.

Henry was forced to a corner by Watt, and there was no way back.

"He's in the corner. Let's see how he can resist now."

"Do you know how we call this?"

"How?"

"Shut the door and beat the dog!"

"Haha!"

A burst of laughter rang out. The pressure Henry gave them just now was too great. A nobody from the same generation, not even from the ancient kungfu family, could suppress the children of these families, which made them feel extremely depressed. Now when they saw that Henry had been beaten, they had an indescribable joy in their hearts.

"Junior, this punch, will make you understand that there is always someone better than you!" Watt shouted and punched hard. He was sure that Henry had no way back, so he used all his strength in this punch. He wanted to destroy Henry's ability to move with one punch.

Henry stopped at this moment. He had figured out Watt's way and smiled at him. "You're too weak."

The smile on Henry's face made Watt have a bad feeling, but he could do nothing but punch out with his full strength.

"Clap!"

A light sound was heard.

The crowd saw that Henry held Watt's full fist with only one hand, and no matter how hard Watt tried, his fist could not move forward.

Henry shook his head and said, "The speed is too slow and the strength is too weak. The fist should not be like this. Come on, I'll teach you."

As soon as the word "you" fell, Henry slapped Watt's fist away. Then he clenched his fist and stepped back slightly. With the strength of his belt, he punched out heavily. This punch was so powerful that even the spectators could hear a wind-breaking sound.

Henry's fist hit Watt's chest and sent him flying three meters away, causing him to fall to the ground.

Such a scene made the onlookers stunned, and they couldn't believe it.

"What's going on? Watt Su was defeated by one punch?"

"Good!" Lila let out a happy cry.

Yetta smiled. A person like him should win like this.

Henry swung his hand and said to Watt, "This is the real fist. Do you understand?"

Watt covered his chest and got up from the ground with a terrible look. He stared at Henry and asked, "Who are you?"

"Who am I?" Henry's face was full of curiosity. "Shouldn't you guys have to find out the truth before you fight?"

Watt snorted. "It doesn't matter if you don't want to say it. In Yanjing, there is nothing that the Su Family can't find out."

After Watt finished speaking, he glared at the person at the door and shouted, "Let him go!"

Those people blocked the door, looked at each other, looked at each other for a few times, and did not speak.

Henry's strength had already exceeded their expectations. Even the elders of the Su Family were no match for him.

With a happy face, Lila jumped up to Watt. "Are you ashamed? Seb couldn't beat him so they called you, but looks like you can't do it either. Alas."

"All right, little girl, let's go." Yetta took Lila's arm and motioned her not to say anything more.

Lila stuck out her tongue and said, "Brother Henry, let's go to have a big meal."

Chapter 335

Henry and the other two left the fighting club.

Watt looked at Seb, who was lying on the ground and was already in a coma, and said to the people beside him, "Take him to the hospital!"

After Watt finished speaking, he waved his hand and left the fighting club.

Out of the office, Watt got into a Benz S600.

"How's it going?" An old man with grey hair sat in the back row of the Benz.

"Dad, I don't know where that kid came from. He's very strong. I haven't fought him before," Watt said with shame on his face.

"Hehe." The old man stroked his beard and laughed. "There are talented people coming from generation after generation, and the waves behind the Yangtze River push the waves from the past. It doesn't matter that you were defeated by a junior. There are many powerful people in this world. Don't forget that there is also a master beside the girl in Yinzhou."

Watt's eyes were a little gloomy as he said, "Then what should we do now? I just saw that the girl from the Zhu family is also inside."

"She's also here?" The old man frowned. "The person you sent failed again?"

"Yes." Watt nodded.

The old man didn't speak and thought for a while. "The boy just now, we don't know where he came from. During this period, don't provoke him first. It's not easy to deal with him if any other families are involved."

How about we send another group of people to fight with the girl surnamed Zhu in the evening. By the way, tell the old man of the Zhu family that we can push this matter to that guy from today. Let's go."

After that, the old man patted the driver's seat and the Benz S600 started.

Henry and the other two were sitting in a restaurant with an elegant environment. They didn't eat much, three people ordered four dishes.

"Brother Henry, you are so powerful. I didn't see anyone like you." Lila looked at Henry in high spirits. Her face was full of excitement. She hadn't recovered from the previous fight, and her mind was still thinking about the previous scene.

Yetta ate a mouthful of food and asked curiously, "Where did you learn your kung fu?"

"I used to fight when I was a child. When I grew up, I learned to fight freely." Henry explained. In fact, what he said was not a lie, but the fighting he talked about was different from what normal people could understand.

"Really?" Yetta put the tip of her chopsticks on her lips and looked at Henry suspiciously. "Why don't I believe it?"

Henry was speechless and rolled his eyes. "Why do you need to believe it?"

Henry's words made Yetta speechless. It was the first time for her to see such a person. No, it was the second time. Before that, there was a person who would choke and say nothing when he spoke.

Similar, they were so similar.

Yetta looked at Henry. The person in front of her matched with the figure in her memory again. The same style of doing things, equally fearless, and even the way of speaking was so similar!

Yetta took her chopsticks and said again, "Did you come here for travelling?"

"Yes." Henry nodded. "Came to have some fun here."

"I'm very familiar with Yanjing. Why don't I take you around?" Yetta said.

Yetta's words stunned Henry. "Is she taking me around?"

Henry was delighted. Originally, he was thinking about how to make excuses to stay with Lila and even stay with Yetta, so that the Su Family could find him as soon as possible. Now, this opportunity came.

"Thank you very much. I'm not familiar with Yanjing. It's my honour to be accompanied by such a beautiful woman like you." Henry chuckled and nodded his head in agreement.

After dinner, Henry found a hotel close to the mansion to rest. Lila went home with Yetta. The three of them had an appointment to see each other tomorrow morning.

It was late at night.

At the Yinzhou airport, Sylvia got off the plane and drove home.

Along the way, Sylvia felt a little nervous. Did he sign the divorce papers?

When the car entered the community, it obviously slowed down a lot. When they arrived at the villa area, Sylvia saw that the house, which should have been bright, was dark this time.

Sylvia sighed and said to herself, "He probably has already left."

When she parked the car and opened the door of the house, a cold feeling came into her mind. Looking at the empty room, Sylvia felt a faint sense of loss.

One night passed quietly.

Early the next morning, Sylvia went to the company. The secretary, Cathy Lee, came to Sylvia's office to report to her about her work in the past two days.

"President Lin, during the days when you left, the Zhao family put pressure on us in almost all aspects. Originally, we had a firm relationship with the land, but now the price is increased by 30% because of the Zhao family's interference. If we agree to this price, there will be little profit. And the last trade channel, the Zhao family offered five times more than the other party. The other party has already refused our cooperation."

Sylvia listened to Cathy's report. These were problems that had troubled her before, but now, it was no longer a problem.

"Take these business cards and let the business department see which company is closest to our project and contact them." Sylvia took out a stack of business cards and put them on the table.

Cathy nodded. She took the business card and glanced at it casually. However, she was a little taken aback. "President Lin, this..."

"What's wrong?" Sylvia asked while turning on the computer.

"These companies... are all willing to work with us?" Cathy looked at the business card in her hand and couldn't believe it. Although Lins Group was a leading enterprise in Yinzhou, it was limited only to Yinzhou. Compared with the big companies in Du Hai, the gap between them was huge. But now, these business cards in her hand were all large companies with a market value of billions of yuan?

"Yes, let the business department pick them." Sylvia nodded.

Cathy took a deep breath and calmed down. "Understood."

When Cathy just walked to the door of the office, she was stopped by Sylvia. "By the way, Henry Zhang... Have you seen him recently?"

"Mr Zhang left on the day you went to Du Hai. I don't know where he went," Cathy replied, shaking her head.

"Okay, I see. You can go to do your work." Sylvia waved her hand.

After Cathy left, Sylvia took out her mobile phone and looked at Henry's phone number. She didn't make a sound for a long time.

In Yanjing.

At nine o'clock in the morning.

Yetta drove Henry and Lila to some tourist spots.

They said that they were going to take Henry around, but in fact, they were going to accompany Lila wherever she went.

"Sister Yetta, do you want Henry to help you with that matter?" Lila blinked her big eyes.

Yetta's pretty face turned red for no reason, and then she said helplessly, "What should we do? Do you want to see your sister Yetta marry such an annoying person?"

"Hey hey, I don't know whether that person is annoying or not. Anyway, my brother Henry isn't annoying."

"Him?" Yetta glanced at Henry, who was walking behind her. "He is also very annoying!"

What Yetta said didn't mean Henry, but the 12:45 ■

one she was thinking about because of him.

Chapter 336

In Yanjing, actually, there were not many places where one could have fun. Most of them were scenic places with historic significance.

Along the way, Lila kept talking and walking with Yetta. The two completely different women attracted a lot of attention. One of them was cute and lovely, while the other was like an immortal.

Henry was quiet all the way, but he was also very interested in the places he went.

Henry had gone to many places over the years. It could be said that he had visited many places all over the world. He had stayed in the most prosperous and enjoyable places. He had also stayed in the most miserable places, but he had never enjoyed the scenery well.

It was almost noon, and Yetta's cell phone rang constantly.

Although Henry couldn't hear what Yetta said, he could see that her eyes were full of impatience when she was on the phone. After hanging up the phone, Yetta simply turned off her mobile phone.

After doing all this, Yetta looked at Henry and licked her red lips.

"Beauty, do you have something to ask me?" Henry took the initiative to ask.

Yetta was slightly stunned and then nodded.

"It's just a small favour. Could you please be my... Yetta hesitated for a moment, "boyfriend?"

"Sorry." Henry shook his head. "I'm married."

Yetta waved her hand and explained, "I'm not asking you to really be my boyfriend. Just to pretend in front of my father. My family values martial arts. My father wants me to marry a man who is good at fighting, but I don't like him. Can you help me?"

Yetta also didn't know how to explain the ancient martial arts family to Henry, so she could only give a comprehensive explanation with a sentence that advocated martial arts.

Henry secretly laughed in his heart. They had not seen each other for three years, but Yetta's father was still the same. He hoped that his lady would find a young man who was good at martial arts. Previously, her father still took Yetta's photo and went to Radiant Island to find a husband. In the end, he was taken back by several older generation members of the Nangong family. It was said that he had meditated for a month on the wall. It seemed that he had not changed yet.

Henry deliberately asked, "He's going to introduce you to someone who is good at fighting? Has he ever won any prize?"

"A prize..." Yetta felt that he couldn't explain it to Henry. The disciples of the ancient martial arts aristocratic families didn't allow them to participate in any competition. "No prize, but his whole family practices martial arts."

"Oh, okay, no problem." Henry made a gesture of OK. Anyway, she was a girl who had cried behind his back in the past. He had to help her.

Seeing Henry agree, Yetta was also happy, so she turned her phone on and dialled a number. "You wait at home, I will take him back now!"

After Yetta finished the call, they didn't go to the scenic area. She drove Lila and Henry to the suburbs.

When Lila thought of such an interesting thing that was about to happen, she was also very excited.

Henry still remembered that the Nangong family's house was located in the suburbs of the city. There was a manor, and some ancient kungfu family with large branches still had the tradition of staying in a manor. The younger generations of the family lived in the city, and the elders would live in the manor. They planted their own food, which also meant that the ancient martial arts would continue to be carried forward.

Yetta drove to the gate of the manor, and the gate of the manor was locked tightly.

She pressed the horn several times, but the door did not open.

"I guess there's something wrong with the system again. Let's go," Yetta said as she opened the door and got out of the car.

Beside the gate of Nangong Family, there was a small door that allowed people to enter.

Henry had been to this manor before. Looking at it now, it was almost the same as before. It was a field where chilli was planted together with tomatoes. The whole manor gave people a feeling of quaint beauty.

Yetta walked in the manor with some doubts in her eyes. "It's strange. Why is there no one here?"

Normally, there were more than a dozen people in Nangong Family Manor, including the nanny, the cook, Yetta's parents, and some elders. But now, it seemed that the whole manor was very empty.

Yetta walked to one of the rooms and was about to open the door.

"Watch out!" Henry suddenly shouted and pulled Yetta with force. She threw herself into Henry's arms, and Henry stepped back slightly.

The next second, at the place where Yetta had just stood, the door was kicked open from the inside, and a bright dagger appeared.

"Boy, your reaction is quite quick!" A hoarse voice sounded, and a man in black with a mask walked out of the room.

"It just happens that the eldest daughter of the Nangong family has returned on her own. We don't have to search for her. Let's kill her!"

Not far behind Yetta, another few figures walked out. They were all holding sharp knives, machetes, sticks and so on.

"Accept your fate, Miss Nangong." A sharp laugh rang out.

A total of more than a dozen people formed a circle around Henry and the other two people. All of them were covered with a mask, and their appearance could not be seen clearly.

Yetta stood up from Henry's chest with a reddish face. She glanced at these people as if she suddenly thought of something. Her nervous expression changed, and she shook her head at one of them.

When the man saw Yetta's action, he deliberately twisted his head and shouted at Henry, "Kid, we just want this girl in front of us, it has nothing to do with you. Now get out of here, it's still not too late!"

"Er..." Henry glanced at them and asked curiously, "Are you here to rob them?"

"We're here to kill her!" One of them took a machete and took a step forward.

"Alas." Henry sighed. "I won't get out of here. You traitors don't have the power to make me leave."

"Traitors?" When the man with the knife heard Henry's words, he was very angry. He immediately waved the knife in his hand and slashed at Henry.

When the man drew out his sword, the man standing behind him reminded him in a very low voice, "Be careful, don't hurt anyone."

Henry saw that the man was coming to him with a knife, so instead of retreating, he stepped forward and then kicked him. Before the man waved the knife down, he was kicked by Henry.

It was not until the man with the knife fell to the ground that the remaining ten men in black reacted.

"Haha, he's a tough guy. Let's go together!"

More than a dozen men in black looked at each other and attacked Henry together.

Lila looked at them anxiously and said, "Sister Yetta, what's going on? Uncle Nangong and others, did something happen to them? How can Henry defeat so many people?"

Yetta rolled her eyes. "Don't worry, your Uncle Nangong is fighting with your brother Henry."

"Ah?" Lila didn't know what to say. She looked at those men in black and said, "Sister Yetta, do you mean these people are Uncle Nangong and others?"

Yetta sighed and nodded her head as if she had resigned herself to fate. Sometimes, it was really annoying to have such a family that loved to play.

Chapter 337

The Nangong Family was considered a big family in the ancient Kungfu family.

Yetta gave people the impression of being a lady from a rich and well-educated family. She also gave people a sense of seriousness.

However, in fact, the Nangong family's solemnity was made up by Yetta, the first daughter of the Nangong family. People who really knew the Nangong family would find that the Nangong family was playful.

Yetta's father, the master of the Nangong Family, not to mention how powerful his ancient martial arts were, he was an old boss with tens of billions of assets in his hands. How could such a big president go out to recruit a husband with a picture of his daughter?

Moreover, the Nangong family enjoyed playing alone. In fact, except for Yetta, the whole family liked to play. Yetta often felt that she was incompatible with the family.

Looking at the family members dressed in black who pretended to be robbers in front of her, Yetta covered her forehead with her hands. She really had nothing to say.

"Boy, you're good!"

"Eat my punch!"

When they were about to attack Henry, Henry punched them in the face again and again.

In the beginning, these people were still holding back their strength for fear of hurting Henry. However, when they hit him, they found that this young man was much more powerful than the peer of the ancient kungfu family. They gradually let go and did not hold back.

But when they didn't hold back, they found that they still couldn't beat him...

More than a dozen people besieged a young man and didn't hit him with a punch. Looking at his side, there were already three or four people who couldn't stand on the ground.

Janbo Nangong became more and more frightened as he fought, and at the same time, he was happier and happier in his heart. He hoped that his daughter could find a good fighting master. He knew his daughter very well. She didn't like ancient martial arts, but she loved Qin, chess, calligraphy, and painting. However, the ancient kungfu family didn't accept what the ancient martial arts not being used. Janbo Nangong put his daughter's hope on his future son-in-law.

Now Henry's skills made Janbo quite satisfied. He didn't care that he was not a match for a junior. The more powerful his future son-in-law was, the happier he was.

Janbo was still thinking happily when he felt a sharp pain on his face.

"Hey, don't take your mind off when you rob." Henry reminded him.

"Good boy, it's your turn to educate me. Watch my fist!" Janbo shouted and hit Henry again.

A dozen people fighting one person, no matter how they looked at it, it was all Henry's disadvantage, but only the parties involved were clear about it.

"Elder brother, what should we do? We are no match for him at all. My son's eyes are blue. Are we still going to fight?" Yetta's Second Uncle's voice was filled with a kind of inexpressible bitterness.

"Fight! Of course, we have to fight. We will be defeated by a junior. If we talk about it in the future, it will be a shame!" Janbo gritted his teeth and struggled to hold on.

"Big brother, Third Sister fell down again. Didn't you ask about Yetta? What's the background of this kid? No family's younger generation has said that he is so good at fighting, has they?"

Janbo suddenly shook his head and said, "I don't know. I'll ask him after I press him to the ground!"

Yetta's Second Uncle sighed. "Hey, who's the one who's going to press him?"

Yetta, who was standing by the side, watched the scene and covered her eyes with her hands.

Lila's expression was a little excited. "Sister Yetta, Uncle Nangong and the others were all beaten!"

Henry grabbed one person and suddenly waved his fist. Seeing that the fist was about to hit one person in the face, the person quickly said, "Stop, stop!"

Henry's fist really stopped.

The man took off the headgear on his face. It was a young man with a purple face and a swollen left side. He shouted to his back, "Uncle, it's just a test for a son-in-law. If we continue to fight with him, the whole family will be ruined!"

The person who spoke was Yetta's cousin.

"No, I won't fight. I said that I would go on a date tonight. Now, how can I go on a date? My God, no matter how thick my makeup is, it can't cover this up!" A woman said and also took off her head. Her face was also blue and purple. She was Yetta's cousin.

One person took the lead, and the rest of the people gradually took off their head. No one was safe and sound.

Just now, it seemed that more than a dozen of them beat Henry. In fact, it was Henry who beat more than a dozen of them by himself. Everyone in the Nangong family was injured. On the contrary, Henry was safe and sound.

"Ah, hahaha, hahaha!" Janbo laughed awkwardly. He turned his head, revealing two panda eyes. "Oh, young people nowadays are really powerful. I didn't expect that one-tenth of my strength is not your opponent. Good, good."

"Puff!" Yetta's Second Uncle couldn't help laughing out loud and covered his mouth in a hurry.

Yetta said gloomily, "Dad, if you guys have had enough fun, let's prepare for dinner."

"You little girl." Janbo looked at her with reproach. "How can this be called playing? This is a test. Let's see if you are responsible for this boyfriend. I'm still satisfied with his performance."

Henry held back the smile in his heart. When these people appeared just now, he felt that something was wrong. Whether it was the blade attack that attacked Yetta from the room or those people surrounded him, Henry did not feel any killing intent at all. Now it was clear that they were not real robbers.

Among all the ancient kungfu families in China, only the Nangong family could do this kind of thing, right?

Janbo and others had never seen Henry before.

Or in other words, in the ancient kungfu families, their generation was not qualified to see Henry, the owner of Radiant Island. Only the people of the generation of Janbo Nangong's father were lucky enough to see Henry's true face.

"This... Yetta, come, introduce your boyfriend to us." Janbo waved his big hand.

"Hello uncle, my name is Henry Zhang." Henry took the initiative to reach out his hand.

"Henry Zhang? Well, not bad!" Janbo walked up to Henry and patted him on the shoulder. "You're good, young man. I'm very satisfied with you. But your fighting skills are not good enough. You should practice more. Otherwise, when I use 20% of my strength, I'm afraid you won't even be able to withstand one punch."

"Yes, yes." Henry nodded repeatedly.

The Nangong family members aside were so embarrassed that they couldn't bear to listen to it.

"Okay, let's have dinner!" Janbo waved his big hand.

A few minutes later, Henry and the other two people, as well as a dozen of the Nangong family members with bloody noses and swollen faces, sat on a round table. The dishes on the table were not some expensive dishes. They were all planted by the Nangong family themselves.

Janbo took out a bottle of wine and said, "Henry Zhang, it's the family's habit to eat something we planted by ourselves. Hope you don't mind."

"How come? This kind of natural food can't be eaten anywhere else." Henry waved his hand. "There's just one problem."

Chapter 338

Janbo opened the bottle and said, "What's the problem? Tell me."

"Uncle Nangong, isn't your test over yet?" Henry asked curiously.

"What test?" Henry's question stunned Janbo. He looked at the others on the table, and the others shook their heads.

"Really?" Henry made a sound again to confirm it.

"There's no test." Janbo shook his head hard. "Henry, why do you ask this? Come on, let's drink, drink."

"Since there isn't..." Henry Zhang grinned. The next second, he rushed out of the seat like an arrow and rushed to a folding screen in the room.

The screen was carved from marble, with a thickness of 70 centimetres and a height of two meters. It was carved with dragons and phoenixes. It had been in the Nangong Family for more than ten years.

Henry rushed to the screen and punched it heavily.

The marble screen, which had been placed in the Nangong family's manor for more than ten years, cracked from the surface under Henry's punch.

"This..." Everyone in the Nangong Family looked at Henry in surprise. They did not understand what he was doing.

But in the next second, everyone understood.

A figure rushed out from the nearly broken screen and headed for the door.

This screen was 70 centimetres thick. When the interior was hollowed out, it could hold one person in the middle to hide. No one in the Nangong family had expected that there was a person behind the screen.

"Stop him! Don't let him run away!" Janbo shouted.

"He can't run away," Henry said confidently.

The screen was broken, and Henry grabbed a piece of gravel, which was only the size of his thumb. He flicked it hard and the gravel shot toward the figure's direction, precisely hitting the corner of the opponent's leg.

The figure, who was running away, leaned forward and staggered a few steps.

Just as he was staggering, Henry stepped forward and grabbed his collar.

Only then did the people of the Nangong Family see clearly what he looked like. This was a young man they had never seen before.

Henry groped around the man's waist with his palm and then threw a black 54 pistol to the ground.

"Gun!"

Looking at the things found by Henry, the Nangong family took a deep breath.

He hid behind the screen with a gun. What he wanted to do was self-evident.

"Uncle Nangong, do you really not know this person?" Henry grabbed his collar and asked again.

Janbo shook his head. "No."

"If you don't know him, then..." Henry sneered, reached out his hand to grab his arm and twisted it hard.

Henry's action made the juniors of the Nangong family close their eyes subconsciously. When they opened their eyes, Henry had completely twisted off the killer's arms.

The killer's cry of pain rang through the hall of the Nangong Family.

Looking at Henry's decisive and ruthless look, the members of the Nangong Family couldn't help but shiver. If they were to be beaten like this in the fight, it wouldn't be a good thing.

Henry handed the killer whose arms had been broken to Janbo. "Uncle Nangong, since you don't know him, you have to interrogate him."

Nangong's face was a little gloomy. "Second brother, take him to the cellar first!"

"Okay." Yetta's Second Uncle nodded. He grabbed the killer's collar and pulled him out of the room.

Looking at the killer and the gun on the ground, all the members of the Nangong family were a little scared. None of them had noticed the person behind the screen. If it weren't for Henry, no one could say what would happen today. They admired Henry's perception.

"Henry, thanks for today." Janbo patted Henry on the shoulder and said sincerely. He was not in the mood to brag about such a big thing just now.

Yetta's beautiful eyes were full of colourful light. Every performance of Henry was beyond her expectation. Since she first saw Henry yesterday, she only regarded him as an ordinary person. Until now, every performance of Henry had made Yetta look at him with new eyes.

Janbo, who was going to have a good drink with Henry, ran to the cellar without eating a few mouthfuls of rice because he was in a hurry to interrogate the killer.

Henry could understand him well. It was impossible for anyone to be indifferent to such a thing that happened to anyone in the family.

After the meal in the Nangong family, Henry asked Yetta for an anonymous phone card and then called Wade White.

Wade's phone rang. Before he could say anything, Wade's voice rang on the phone. "Boss, are you in the Nangong family?"

"You've known about it?"

"How can I not know?" Wade rolled his eyes on the other side of the phone. "The disciple of the Su Family was beaten violently in the fighting club, and Watt was also defeated by a young man. Who else could it be but you? By the way, are you with the girl of the Zhu family? This girl is a troublemaker. I heard that the old man of the Zhu family is extremely worried."

"We met on the way, so we were together. By the way, tell the old man of the Zhu family that someone wants to kill his granddaughter and let him investigate this matter. Also, ask someone to spread the news in Yanjing that Yetta Nangong has found a poor boy with an unknown identity. Maybe they will get engaged soon." Henry told Wade.

"Boss, are you going to let the Su Family take the initiative to come for you?" Wade was a little confused. "In this way, isn't it beneficial for you to investigate the person who wants to hurt your sister-in-law?"

Henry shook his head subconsciously. "I have no choice. I don't have any clue now. The Su Family is so big. If they really want to attack Sylvia, I don't have to be overcautious to find a killer. It must be some person who wants to hurt Sylvia. I can only find a way to contact the Su Family first and then slowly find out the person hidden in the dark."

"Okay, I'll ask someone to release the news now. But Boss, in this way, there will be a lot of trouble."

Henry smiled and asked, "Do I look like a person who is afraid of trouble?"

After the call with Wade, Henry looked at the phone screen and subconsciously inserted Sylvia's phone number. After waiting for a few seconds, he deleted the phone number and turned it off.

Obviously, it was not the time to contact Sylvia.

In Yanjing, there were two ancient kungfu family, one was the Nangong family and the other was the Su Family.

The two families, located in the two opposite directions of Yanjing, had a manor. On the outside, each of the two groups had a large group. Almost all of them were family members.

There were many branches in this kind of ancient martial arts families. These branches would be accepted to work in the group. The Nangong family and the Su Family's group could be said to be a veritable family business. From the company's front desk to the department manager, everyone was a part of the family.

In the manor of the Su family.

Watt sat in the yard, tasting a cup of tea and looking at the photo on his mobile phone with cold eyes.

Chapter 339

On Watt's screen, there was Henry's photo.

"Did you find out?" An old man with grey hair slowly walked behind Watt with a crutch.

"Dad." Watt stood up and gave the old man a seat.

"Sit down." The old man put his hand on Watt's shoulder and pressed it hard. "I don't know how long I will be able to walk, so I want to stand as long as I can."

Watt threw his mobile phone on the wooden table in front of him and shook his head. "I didn't find anything. I don't know where this kid came from. I can't even find him through the official channels."

Henry's news was officially confidential.

Except for a few people at the top, no one else could find him.

The old man sighed. "You have to know that there are countless capable people in China. Although our ancient kungfu family is big, there are still many high-ranking experts that we can't get in touch with. This young man is probably the disciple of a high-ranking expert. If you can let go of his business, you should let it go first. It's not too late to deal with him after we finish dealing with the matter in Yinzhou. I told you to send someone to Yinzhou. Have you sent anyone?"

"We've already sent people." Watt nodded. "But there's a mysterious master by Lin's side. This time, we don't even know what the mysterious master looks like. If we do it directly, we will be exposed and it'll be difficult to explain it to the head of the family?"

"Explain?" The old man snorted. "Why do I have to give anyone an explanation for what I did? We were sorry for that woman, but it doesn't mean that we have to repay it with the whole Su Family! The world is big, and there is still a long way for us to go. We can't stop because of some girl. Remember, if we kill one person, we are killers, if we kill ten thousand people, we are kings! If we want to stand at the top of the world, we need these bones to pave the way."

Watt, who was hesitating, nodded after hearing the old man's words. "Got it, dad."

As soon as the conversation between Watt and the old man was over, a young man ran over, panting. "Second Master, Second Master, we have some clue. We've found out who that kid is!"

The old man looked up at the sky and said blandly, "Tell me."

"Now there is news everywhere that Yetta has taken a man home and is about to get engaged. That person is the one who injured Seb in the fighting club yesterday."

Hearing this, the old man did not say anything, but one could see that his hand, which was holding the crutch, was much more powerful.

"This kid is challenging our Su Family!" Watt slammed the stone table and shouted angrily, "Everyone knows that my son Liam Su is pursuing the girl of the Nangong family. Now he is trying to humiliate our Su Family."

The messenger stood aside with his head down, not daring to speak.

Watt looked at the old man and said, "Dad, we can't tolerate this! If we tolerate this, not only the reputation of our Su Family will be lost, but also many people will think of something."

Watt's words meant something. Many people knew his way of doing things, and he was a person who didn't suffer losses. If he was provoked like this now and didn't say a word, everyone would find that something was wrong with him.

The old man looked up at the sky, thought for a few seconds, and then said, "Take someone to the Nangong family."

Liam Su was quite famous in the circle of Yanjing. He had a high education background, a good family background, a handsome face, and a high level of ancient martial arts.

Since Liam started to pursue Yetta, many people had regarded them as a family in private. They were really a perfect match.

Liam was a very narrow-minded person, especially when it came to Yetta.

At that time, a childe from Yanjing openly pursued Yetta, but his legs were broken by Liam and he did not dare to show up. When this thing happened, many people who were interested in Yetta all put away their thoughts.

Now, there was a rumour that in just a few hours, it was spread everywhere in the circle of Yanjing. A nobody went to Yetta's house, and it was very likely that he would be engaged to Yetta?

Yetta naturally heard about this news.

"The Sus are here to make trouble. Let's go!" Yetta stood in the manor and was about to leave.

Yetta had just finished speaking when he saw a whole row of Audi A6 parked in front of the gate of the Nangong family manor.

Seeing these cars, Yetta's face darkened. "How did they come so fast?"

The door of the first Audi A6 opened. A handsome young man, who was 1.8 meters tall and dressed in a black suit, walked out from the back seat. The young man had a kind of momentum that no one dared to look directly at. He was like a God's favoured son, looking at the gate of the Nangong Family's manor with a scrutinizing look.

Then, the whole row of Audi doors were opened, and all the black-clad men went out and stood on both sides of the gate of the Nangong family.

The gate of the Nangong Family slowly opened, and the first young man slowly walked into the Nangong family manor with his hands behind his back.

"Sister Yetta, why is this person here?" Lila stood next to Yetta. "Isn't this Liam Su, the person you hate the most?"

"I hate him very much." Yetta looked at the young man who was slowly walking towards him and nodded.

In other people's eyes, Liam was excellent in all aspects, but only one thing was that he was too arrogant.

In people's eyes, it was normal for Liam to be arrogant, but for Yetta, he did not have the capital to be proud. Yetta still remembered that the owner of Radiant Island was not as arrogant as Liam in his style of handling matters.

Liam walked up to Yetta, swept his eyes over Yetta's whole body, and then said, "Yetta, I heard that you played a childish game and took a man home?"

"What does it have to do with you?" Yetta glanced at Liam.

"Ha ha." Liam chuckled. He looked away and fixed his eyes on Henry, who was standing next to Yetta. He asked in a low voice, "Are you the person brought back by Yetta? What benefits have you promised you? Do you deserve her? What do you think you are doing?"

Although Liam's voice was not loud, his tone and expression were full of threats.

"Liam Su, what kind of boyfriend I am looking for has nothing to do with you. Please leave now!" Yetta warned.

"What am I doing?" Henry smiled. "I'm just a fortune teller."

"Oh? So?" Liam sneered.

"So I want to ask you, you are standing in front of me, please tell me, who are you?" Henry still maintained a smile on his face.

Liam's expression suddenly changed. "Boy, are you provoking me?"

"Of course not." Henry shook his head. "I just look down on you."

Chapter 340

Henry's words made the tense atmosphere between him and Liam rise to the extreme.

Liam subconsciously clenched his fist and stared at Henry. A few seconds later, Liam loosened his fist and laughed, "Haha, you look down on me. Why don't we compete?"

Henry nodded. "Okay, how do you want to compete? I remember that there was also a young master of the Su Family who said that yesterday. I don't know if he was discharged today."

"Haha." Liam Su chuckled twice. "There are too many people who can beat trash like Seb Su. Today I'll fight with you."

"Okay, let's talk about the rules."

"It's very simple. As the old rule goes, whoever can't get up is a loser." Liam gritted his teeth.

In the cellar of the Nangong family, Janbo was still interrogating the killer. He heard that Liam of the Su Family was coming and was going to fight with Henry.

"Fight with him? Is Liam looking for death?" Janbo blurted out subconsciously.

Janbo also understood how powerful Henry was. As the members of an ancient kungfu family, there was nobody weak in the Nangong family. But just now, more than a dozen of his family members were crushed by Henry. How could Liam, a junior of the Su Family, have the courage to fight with Henry?

"Second Brother, you interrogate him first. I'll go up and take a look. We can't let Henry hurt Liam." Janbo told Second Uncle Yetta and left the cellar.

In the manor of the Nangong Family, Liam brought a group of people to form a circle.

Liam and Henry stood in the circle, looking at each other.

Liam stretched out his hand and clenched his fist. "Boy, do you know how many people there are? The so-called city champion, and the provincial champion, they all think they are extraordinary. In the end, they still kneel in front of me and beg for mercy."

Henry smiled and shook his head. "I don't know."

"Arrogant!" Liam shouted.

Liam had heard that Henry defeated Seb and Watt in the Fighting Club yesterday. Even so, he would still be so confident. It could be seen that his strength had surpassed that of the older generation of the Su Family. Such a person had great pride in his heart. It could be said that he was invincible among his peers.

As soon as Janbo came out of the cellar, he saw the people brought by the Su Family in a circle. He speeded up and said loudly, "Liam Su, my dear, when did you come? Why didn't you tell your uncle?"

Janbo pushed away the people brought by the Su Family and walked into the circle.

Liam was slightly stunned when he saw the dark circles in Janbo's eyes. Then he said, "Uncle Nangong, I came here in a hurry, so I didn't want to bother you. Today, I mainly come here to guard against some thieves and rascals."

Janbo waved his hand repeatedly. "Liam, don't listen to any gossip. Let the flood wash the temple. Come on, I have some good tea. Since you're here this time, I'll send some to your father."

Janbo said that and wanted to take Liam away. He really didn't want Liam to fight with Henry. If Henry was to hit Liam a little harder, Liam would get totally broken. It would be hard for him to explain it to the Su Family.

Janbo thought so, but Liam didn't know what Janbo was thinking. Liam said, "Uncle, this is my business with him. You don't have to worry about it. It won't be long before it ends."

"Don't fight anymore, Brother Su. What's the point of fighting?" Another voice sounded. Yetta's cousin, with a bag of ice on his face, came over. He didn't want to see Liam being beaten. It was not because he felt sorry for him, but because he had been beaten in the Nangong family. There would be so many things to deal with later.

"Yes, I don't think it's interesting to fight. Let's have some political battles." Yetta's cousin also came over, with an ice bag on her face. She looked at Henry with fear in her eyes. She really didn't understand how such a young man could have such good skills.

All the members of the Nangong Family were trying to dissuade Liam, in order to prevent Liam from being humiliated.

Liam looked at the three of them and said, "Everyone, our generation has always advocated martial arts. Moreover, everyone knows that I, Liam Su, love Yetta. Now, it's not just a fight to the death. This has nothing to do with the Nangong family. It's just a personal grudge between me and this guy. You'd better not intervene."

"Alas." Janbo sighed. "Since Liam has said so, I have no other way."

"Brother Liam, I really don't want to see you fight." Yetta's cousin said very seriously.

"Don't worry, this matter will be over soon," Liam said confidently.

Yetta's cousin nodded. "According to Liam's strength, it will indeed end soon."

The meaning of Yetta's words was that Liam was too weak. Compared with Henry, Liam was as powerful as a tree. But Liam didn't understand it this way.

Liam nodded. "Yes, it will be over soon."

Since the persuasion was unsuccessful, the Nangong family did not intend to talk anymore. They had done what they could do. It was Liam who wanted to humiliate himself, and the Su Family could not blame them.

Liam stared at Henry and sneered, "Kid, do you want to choose a way to die, or do you want me to choose for you?"

Henry shrugged. "Whatever."

"In that case, I'll choose for you!" Liam shouted and then rushed to Henry.

In other people's eyes, Liam's actions were extremely fast, but in Henry's eyes, there were flaws everywhere.

As for the Su Family, Henry would not hold back. Because of Sylvia, anyone who had something to do with the Su Family had to bear Henry's anger.

When Liam rushed to the front of Henry, Henry, who had been standing there without any movement, suddenly lifted his knee. Liam could not react to Henry's action at all.

A sharp pain came from Liam's abdomen. Liam's face showed a painful look, and his eyes were full of shock. He didn't see how Henry made his move.

Then, Henry cut Liam's neck with a hand knife, which made Liam's vision go black and he almost fainted. Henry grabbed Liam's hair and hit his face with his elbow. As blood gradually came out, a few teeth flew out of Liam's mouth and fell to the ground.

Merciless! Really merciless!

At this moment, Henry showed the few people of the Nangong Family a vividly violent beauty. A few simple moves were full of a sense of blow. If they hadn't seen it with their own eyes, the Nangong family would even think that this was a movie show.

Liam, who was very confident a second ago, who was so arrogant that he wanted to choose a way to kill Henry, couldn't even say a word when he was beaten.

When the members of the Nangong Family thought that Henry would let the matter go like this, Henry grabbed Liam's hair and hit Liam's face with his knee several times in a row.

Yetta saw with her own eyes that Liam's tall nose was completely deformed by Henry's knee, which made people feel a burst of pain just by looking at it.

Chapter 341

Henry's actions were as smooth as floating clouds and flowing water. It was done in one breath, which made people couldn't help but cry out in joy.

As soon as the people brought by Liam saw that the young master had been beaten, they naturally couldn't stand still and were going to rush to Henry.

"What are you doing? What do you think this place is! It's not your turn to act wildly!" Janbo shouted.

The people brought by Liam stood there in unison and did not dare to move.

"Master Nangong, Young Master Su..." A strong man in a suit said in awe.

"What's wrong? He chose to fight this guy! If he's not as good as Henry, he shouldn't have started. Take your young master away!" Janbo waved his hand, indicating them to leave.

The people brought by Liam did not dare to be disrespectful to Janbo. They lifted up the unconscious Liam who was lying on the ground and left quickly.

After the Su Family left, Yetta's cousin gave Henry a thumbs-up. "Brother Zhang, you are really fierce. But you just beat Liam. I'm afraid the Su Family will make trouble for you."

"What trouble? Henry is a member of the Nangong Family. Are we afraid of the Su Family's trouble?" Janbo waved his hand and said, "Henry, you can live here these days. Let me see who dares to make trouble for you!"

Janbo spoke with his panda eyes in a funny way, but the imposing manner in his words still made people feel domineering.

The Su Family's procession came in a mighty manner, but when they left, people only wanted to laugh at them.

The news that Liam was beaten up was deliberately spread in the circle in just fifteen minutes by Henry.

In the special care unit of Yanjing People's Hospital.

Watt looked at the person lying on the bed and could not suppress the anger in his heart. Although Seb was beaten badly yesterday, he was not his son. But today, this one was his own flesh and blood. The hospital's result showed that his facial bones were broken. Even if it was fixed, it was very likely that his face would be deformed.

Watt clenched his fists tightly. "I want this guy to die!"

Standing in the ward, Watt took out his mobile phone and dialled a number. "Have you finished what I asked you to do?"

A reply came from the other end of the phone. "I've already sent a message to the Zhu family's old master. He'll be here tonight."

"Okay." Watt nodded. "Let's do it tonight. Let that guy suffer the anger of the Zhu family first. After I finish my work, I will teach him a lesson!"

Although Liam's fight happened in the afternoon, it didn't affect Lila's mood for fun.

At eight o'clock in the evening, Lila and Yetta walked into the mall, carrying a lot of bags.

Henry, on the other hand, crossed his arms behind his head and leisurely followed the two girls.

"Brother Henry, you are not a gentleman at all. Do you want us two girls to carry so many things?" Lila raised all kinds of bags in her hand.

"Hey hey." Henry grinned and said, "You don't understand. I'm a married man. I can't help other women. Otherwise, my wife will be angry."

"I can't believe that you're still a henpecker." Yetta said.

Henry shook his head. "It's not because my wife is strict with me. It's because of love. You don't understand."

Two women walked into a famous brand store, and Henry simply sat outside.

The reason why Henry followed Yetta was that he was waiting for the Su Family to make contact with him again. He had seriously injured the Su Family twice. This time, the Su Family would come to make contact with him on another level.

Henry had no idea how to find out who from the Su Family wanted to kill Sylvia. He had to figure out what the relationship between the Su Family and Sylvia was.

Henry was lying on a massage chair. As he was about to take a break, he heard a scream, which was from the brand store where Lila and Yetta had entered.

"Killers! Killers!"

"Help!"

A burst of screams rang out.

Henry got up and saw a few masked men running away quickly from the door of the store.

"Henry! Hurry up! Hurry up!" Yetta rushed out of the store with an anxious look. "Lila was taken away by someone. Hurry up!"

"They are here again!" Henry's face changed, and he chased after those people who were running away.

Henry chased after them out of the mall. He saw the other party get into a car without a license plate and leave quickly.

"Where are they?" Yetta ran behind Henry, panting, and her face was full of anxiety.

"Give me your car key, hurry up!" Henry shouted.

Yetta subconsciously took out her car key.

Yetta's car was parked in the parking lot on the side of the road. Without saying a word, Henry picked up the car key and rushed into the car. The Maserati roared and chased out quickly.

Yetta looked at Henry who had left and quickly called her father.

Henry's driving skills, even in the crowded streets of Yanjing, were like a sharp arrow, and soon caught up with the car without a license.

In the car, Lila had been drugged by others, and the remaining three were all wearing headgear.

"Pay attention to the Maserati in the back. It's that guy who is driving!"

"Humph, I'm just afraid that he won't come. If we didn't come, how could this plan be carried out normally?"

At Yanjing airport.

A private jet landed.

The door of the plane opened, and an old man in a Tang suit walked down from the plane!

"Master Zhu, you are here." A man had been waiting at the airport for a long time. When he saw the old man, he said respectfully.

"Lila, how is she?" The old man was very excited.

"She has always..." Before the old man finished his words, he heard an anxious voice from the walkie-talkie in his hand.

"Hey! Hey, I've received some news. Something happened to Miss Lila Zhu. It was the kid who followed her. When Master Zhu comes, don't tell him this news first. We'll send someone to save Miss Lila Zhu now."

The voice in the walkie-talkie clearly reached the old man's ears.

The old man's expression changed, and he took the walkie-talkie directly from the other party's hand. "I am Wilbur Zhu, how is my granddaughter now?"

"Master Zhu..." The voice in the walkie-talkie was a little stammered. "When... when did you come?"

"I asked you, how is my granddaughter?"

"Old Master Zhu, don't worry. Someone wants to hurt Miss Lila Zhu. We, the Su Family, have already caught up with him."

"Tell me the location!" Wilbur's eyes were full of anger.

Looking at Wilbur's appearance, the person who was responsible for picking him up, showed a hint of success in his eyes.

On the other side, Henry drove the car and followed the kidnappers all the way to the suburbs. This was the road to the airport.

The car had stopped on the side of the road. At this time, this place was deserted.

Henry stopped the car and slowly walked forward.

Chapter 342

Henry looked at the unlicensed car parked on the side of the road, and he had a lot of doubts in his heart.

All of a sudden, a loud shout came from behind Henry.

"Well, who are you? It turns out that you are scheming against Miss Zhu!"

"He pretended to be a saint, but in fact, he is a sinister person!"

"Fortunately, our Su Family has kept an eye on him. Otherwise, she would have been killed by someone like you. Maybe Miss Zhu has thought that she had a new friend!"

Henry turned his head and saw three Audi cars parked neatly behind him. The people who spoke all got out of the cars.

At the same time, the door of the car without plate parked on the side of the road opened. Three people wearing headgear got out of the car and said to Henry in a loud voice, "Brother, the person you asked us to catch is already in the car. Can you give us the money?"

Henry noticed that while the three masked kidnapers were talking, the people of the Su Family were recording this scene with their mobile phones.

Henry looked back and forth at the two groups of people, and the doubts in his heart were all solved. He was just wondering why these kidnapers would attack Lila in such a crowded place like the shopping mall. And previously on the train, the people who came were obviously going to kill Lila, but now they just kidnapped her. At this moment, Henry understood everything.

The Su's wanted to use this opportunity to kill him!

Henry and Wilbur knew each other. Henry knew very well how much this old guy loved his granddaughter. Once Wilbur knew that someone wanted to kill Lila, this old guy would probably use the power of the whole Zhu family to seek revenge.

"The Su Family really likes to play..." Henry smiled and murmured, "According to the current situation, Wilbur Zhu, that old thing, should be here soon."

As soon as Henry finished talking to himself, he felt a ray of light coming from his back. Henry turned around and squinted, and then two Audi A6 stopped.

As soon as the car stopped, the door of the last Audi A6 was opened in a hurry. Wilbur rushed out of the car and shouted, "Where is my granddaughter?"

"Don't worry, Master Zhu. He has been caught." Those from the Su family, who arrived first, said to Wilbur.

The three masked kidnappers immediately said, "Brother, transfer the money to our account!"

After saying that, the masked kidnapper dragged the unconscious Lila out of the car, threw her to the side of the road, and got into the car to leave.

Watching the three masked kidnappers running away, Henry did not pay attention to them at all. In front, someone was waiting for them!

What Henry was going to do now was to deal with the Su Family's affairs. The kidnappers were just pretending to be from the Su Family.

"Old Master Zhu, it's him who hid around Miss Lila and plotted against her. If our Su Family hadn't discovered that something was wrong with him, we might not have been able to stop him this time!" The Su Family members who had arrived first said. At the same time, they took out their mobile phones and showed the video they had just recorded to Wilbur.

Wilbur looked at the video, and the anger in his eyes was getting deeper and deeper. He looked at Henry. At the moment when he saw Henry, the anger in his eyes all disappeared. Instead, it turned into a surprise and a kind of disbelief.

Henry chuckled and said to Wilbur, "If I say that Lila was not kidnapped by me, it was all done by the people of the Su Family. Would you believe it?"

Before Wilbur could say anything, the Su's shouted, "Stop putting on an act! How dare you slander our Su's?"

"The Su Family and the Zhu family have been on good terms for several generations. How can you, a treacherous person, provoke us?"

"Old Master Zhu, it's him. It's strange that he appeared at that time, but now we finally understood!"

When the Sus finished their words, they all looked at Henry with a sneer. It was obvious that he was still too young to fight with them.

Henry shrugged his shoulders and did not reply. He looked at Wilbur.

Wilbur also smiled and said to Henry, "Why are you here?"

"Someone wants to kill my wife. I want to find out whom it is." Henry held his hand.

"You're married?" Wilbur's eyes were full of surprise. "And someone is going to kill your wife. Doesn't he want to live?"

Henry nodded. "When I find out, he won't be able to live."

When those from the Su Family saw the master Zhu talking to Henry like an old friend, they didn't know what was going on. What was going on? Did they know each other?

One of the Zhu family members said in a hurry, "Master Zhu, you know this kind of treacherous person. Be careful. Such people are not pure-minded."

"That's right, Master Zhu. Don't be fooled by such a person's appearance. He wants to do something bad to Miss Zhu!"

Wilbur shook his head with a helpless look on his face. "Alas, when did the Su Family learn to play such a trick?"

When the Su Family heard this, they were all shocked and had a bad feeling in their hearts. "Master Zhu, do you not believe what we said?"

"I really don't believe it." Wilbur glanced around at the people of the Su Family. "This time, what you did is indeed based on my psychology. If it were someone else standing in front of me now, I'm afraid he would have become a dead man before he could explain himself. But you chose the wrong target, do you know who is standing in front of you?"

Wilbur asked, and the Su Family looked back and forth, not saying a word.

Wilbur smiled and said, "This is the Lord of Radiant Island, the leader of Reapers, the king of the underground world called The Conqueror. If he really wanted to hurt my granddaughter, would it be so obvious?"

Wilbur's words were like a clap of thunder, exploding in the hearts of the Sus.

The owner of Radiant Island!

The leader of Reapers!

The Conqueror!

As a member of the Ancient kungfu family, the Su Family certainly understood what these three names represented! They represented the person who stood at the top of the world, represented invincibility, and represented a kind of belief.

Was this young man in front of them the legendary lord of Radiant Island?

In the eyes of the Su Family, there was an unbelievable shock! They were going to deal with the owner of Radiant Island!

Henry smiled and said, "Well, Master Zhu, do you want to fight or should I?"

Wilbur shook his head and said, "Go ahead. You know, I'm washing my hands in a golden basin."

"Ha." Henry glanced at his mouth and said,

"As usual."

Wilbur nodded and got into a car without saying a word. He closed the door and did not look out of the car at all.

A minute later, someone knocked on the window.

Wilbur shook down the window. "Have you finished killing?"

Henry pouted his lips to the side.

Wilbur saw the flames soaring to the sky, and the several Audi A6 were all on fire. As for those from the Su Family, they were all lying in the cars.

"Let's go. Take your precious granddaughter with us. Let's go back first and see what kind of trick the Su Family is going to play."

Chapter 343

Nangong Family.

Yetta, Janbo, and Watt Su of the Su Family were guarding the gate of the Nangong Family.

"Brother Nangong, I'm not blaming you. That person named Henry, you didn't even get to the bottom of it. If it weren't for the Su Family's following, I'm afraid he would be really dangerous. Fortunately, we stopped him this time, otherwise, the consequences would be unimaginable!"

Janbo's face was gloomy.

Yetta also frowned and said nothing.

As soon as Watt arrived, he showed them a video, which was recorded by the three kidnappers when they were talking to Henry.

"But you don't have to worry too much. Master Zhu should have solved this matter. You need to be more careful in the future." Watt said with an educated tone.

On the other side.

Henry drove Wilbur and his granddaughter to the downtown area. Lila was still unconscious, lying in her grandpa's arms.

Henry said to Wilbur, "If I'm not mistaken, someone from the Su Family should have arrived at Nangong Family by now, so I won't go back. You can just find an excuse and cover it up. Don't expose me."

"Yes." Wilbur nodded. "Then what are you going to do?"

"Investigate first. I have already spread the net. By the way, old man, have you been in Yanjing all the time? You came so fast today?" Henry asked curiously. Wilbur arrived soon after Lila was kidnapped.

"I left this morning." Wilbur recalled for a moment. "Last night, the Su Family told me that someone had attacked my granddaughter. It seems that they have made up their mind to deal with today's matter."

"Last night..." Henry hesitated for a moment. "Old man, I'm afraid what they said last night is not the same as what happened today. I asked someone to warn you, have you received my message?"

"Did you ask someone to send a message to me?" Wilbur asked with a puzzled look.

"It seems that there is something wrong with your Zhu family. Before, someone wanted to kill your granddaughter on the train, but I stopped them. I have already sent someone to tell you. It seems that the words haven't been told to you." Henry looked at Wilbur through the rearview mirror. "How did the Su Family know that Lila will be attacked?"

Wilbur didn't answer and fell into silence.

After arriving at the downtown area, Wilbur got out of the car, held Lila in his arms, and took a taxi to the Nangong family.

As for Henry, he temporarily borrowed the Maserati.

In the manor of the Nangong Family, Janbo and Watt had been waiting at the entrance of the manor. When they saw a taxi stop, they were a little nervous.

The door opened, and Wilbur appeared in front of them with Lila in his arms.

When Watt saw that Henry was not there, there was a happy look in his eyes.

"Old Master Zhu, it's all my fault. It's my fault." Janbo strode up and asked for Master Zhu's forgiveness.

"You rascal." Wilbur looked at Janbo. "Just like when you were a child, you always take the blame on yourself. This has nothing to do with you."

"Master Zhu, luckily, Miss Lila is fine. Congratulations." Watt also quickly came up and said.

Master Zhu nodded, glanced at Watt and did not speak.

Seeing that there were only Wilbur and Lila, Yetta asked, "Grandpa Zhu, where is Henry?"

"He was injured when chasing the kidnappers and has gone for treatment." Wilbur found an excuse. These words were totally different in the ears of the three people.

Yetta and Janbo watched the video just now. In the video, it showed that Henry was the mastermind behind the scenes.

Now Wilbur said that Henry was seriously injured and was going to recuperate. His meaning was very obvious.

Yetta looked gloomy. "Grandpa Zhu, is there any misunderstanding?"

"What misunderstanding?" Wilbur looked at Yetta.

"Yetta, you are still too naive. You don't understand the sinisterness of people!" Watt said, "Some people couldn't know what kind of person one is just by looking at his appearance."

"Yes." Wilbur nodded and said as if he was referring to something, "You know his face, but you don't know his heart."

Henry drove the car to the hotel and made a phone call with the anonymous card offered by Yetta.

"Boss, he has been settled. He must be from the Su Family." Wade's voice sounded on the phone.

"They were the ones who attacked Lila on the train last time, weren't they?" Henry asked.

"Yes," Wade answered, "We took over the two people last time and checked them out. The Su's sent them. Boss, there is one more thing that I just found out. Sister-in-law's mother is connected to the Su's. I'll send you the details."

"Okay." Henry nodded and hung up the phone.

As soon as the phone was hung up, the message from Wade came.

Henry glanced at it and his face gradually darkened.

Sylvia's mother's surname was also Su and was the direct descendant of the Su's. She was also the former Master of the Su's and Old Master Su's biological daughter.

However, for some reason at that time, the Su Family did not admit Sylvia's mother's identity and kicked her out of the house. After Old Master Su passed away, he wrote down in his last letter that he would take Sylvia's mother back to the Su Family and she would inherit the Su Family. If she was not willing to do so, he would give half of the Su Family's property as compensation.

Henry looked at the message from Wade and was somewhat clear in his heart. No wonder the Su Family wanted to hurt Sylvia. But who was involved? The current Master of the Su Family? Who was it?

Henry looked at the information. At the very least, at the moment, he could figure out why the Su Family wanted to attack Sylvia. To put it bluntly, it was a matter of benefits.

Henry lay on the bed, turned off his mobile phone, and thought about these problems.

If Sylvia really came to the Su Family, who would suffer the biggest impact on their interests? There were definitely supporters of the Su Family, otherwise, the will of the Su Family would not be remembered by others. These things needed time to be connected.

Henry closed his eyes and felt that there was a mass of glue in his head.

Just as Henry was still thinking about these things, the lights in the room suddenly went out.

The lights in front suddenly went dark, and people would have an illusion that they were blind in an instant. At the same time, people's attention would be distracted. For a professional killer, this was an opportunity to strike.

A breeze came from the window, accompanied by a gust of wind-breaking sound, and a silver light flashed in the dark.

Then, a few soft sounds came from the darkness.

A few seconds later, the lights that had been extinguished lit up again.

Henry looked at the person in front of him, and the other party was also looking at Henry. However, the eyes of the two people were completely different.

There was a kind of indifference in Henry's eyes, while there was horror in the other party's eyes.

Chapter 344

There was a woman standing in Henry's room. She was a beautiful woman with white skin. She was wearing a beige dress. No one would think she was a killer.

At this moment, the woman's eyes were full of fear. Her white and tender arms hung weakly on both sides of her body.

Henry noticed that there was a tattoo on the woman's neck.

"Anye's..." Henry smiled. He was really sleepy. Just when he thought who from the Su Family wanted to kill Sylvia, the person behind the scene appeared.

At that time, someone hired a killer from Anye to kill Sylvia, and now the same person asked a killer from Anye to kill him.

There was a conflict between the Su family and him, who else could it be?

Henry looked at the lady and said, "You didn't learn a lesson when your brother failed in Yinzhou last time."

Upon hearing this, the woman's eyes turned cold. "It was you who killed my second brother in Yinzhou!"

"Haha." Henry chuckled. "I told him last time that I would not kill his brothers and sisters. Tell me, who asked you to kill me, I'll let you go."

"You let me go? Do you think I need your permission?" The woman retorted with a question.

"There are two people standing outside the room, and the person next door is also one of your people, right? The sniper on the opposite side of the 13th floor, you can let him put his gun away. Believe me, he won't hurt me." Henry said with a relaxed face.

After Henry's words, woman's face became a little ugly, because Henry's words were all correct!

"Who the hell are you!" The woman's words were not as confident as before.

Henry took out a ring from his trouser pocket and flicked it gently.

The ring fell in front of the woman. At the moment she saw the ring, the woman's pupils suddenly dilated.

"The Holy Ring!"

"Tell me, who is your employer? Is it the one I guessed?" Henry sat down on the bed.

The woman swallowed hard. After a long time, she recovered from the shock. "I didn't expect to see the Holy Ring one day!"

Henry did not speak, waiting for the woman's answer.

The woman's eyes were fixed on the holy ring and said, "It's Watt Su from the Su Family."

"Sure enough." The corner of Henry's mouth curled into a sneer. "In this way, things are clear."

The woman lowered her head and said nothing.

"You can go." Henry waved his hand. "Remember, don't mention me to anyone, including your brothers."

"Understood, The Conqueror..." The woman nodded and left in a hurry.

The appearance of the killer in the dark night solved all the doubts that bothered Henry.

Watt Su, the person who wanted to kill Sylvia, was Watt Su.

Henry stood by the window and looked at the night view of Yanjing outside the window. He murmured, "The Su Family, if you don't give me a reasonable explanation, there is no reason for you to exist."

Henry tidied up his clothes, left the hotel, and went to Yanjing's office.

One night passed quietly.

That night, Watt was extremely happy. Henry was finally removed from their lives. Last night, he specially asked someone to take a look at the place where he lived to ensure that there was no accident.

Henry's presence made Watt feel as if something was stuck in his throat. Now, he took a long sigh of relief. The person he sent to Yinzhou would soon bring back news. If he could solve the problem of that woman, it could be said that double happiness was coming.

Although Wilbur told Watt that the people sent by the Su Family yesterday were all killed by Henry, Watt had no pressure at all, and he did not care about the lives of those people.

Watt Su, who was in a good mood, did not know, because what he had done had caused a dark cloud to spread toward the Su's, and it could cover the whole Su's at any time.

At dawn the next day.

Lila opened her eyes in a daze and found herself lying on a big bed.

"My baby, you finally woke up." Wilbur sat by the bed.

Lila, who was still in a daze, immediately jumped up as soon as she saw Wilbur.

"Grandpa, why are you here?"

"What's wrong?" Wilbur pretended to be a little angry. "How long do you want to stay outside? This time, you'd better go back to the Zhu family with me."

"No, I won't go back!" Lila shook her head hard. "I haven't had enough fun yet, and I have a new friend."

"Dear Lila, the friend you mentioned is unreliable." Watt stood behind Wilbur and said, "This time, it was Henry who hired someone to kidnap you. If we didn't stop him at the critical time and drag him to Master Zhu, you would be in danger."

"You mean Henry kidnapped me? It's impossible! It's absolutely impossible!" Lila shook her head hard and did not believe Watt's words.

"Lila, all the people sent by our Su Family were killed by Henry last night. Master Zhu saw it with his own eyes. You should be careful when you make friends in the future." Watt sighed and made a regretful expression.

"Grandpa, is what he said true?" Lila looked at her grandfather.

Wilbur nodded and said honestly, "Indeed, the people who were sent by the Su Family last night were killed by Henry."

"This..." Lila's lovely and smart big eyes became a little dull. "It's impossible. Henry is not such a person!"

"Lila, we have different hearts. We can't trust others so easily in the future. Today, you come to our Su's manor for a welcome meal." Watt patted his chest and said.

10 o'clock in the morning.

Henry left the hotel, and some diners who were originally sitting on the first floor of the hotel, almost at this time, walked out of the hotel.

Last night, a strange thing happened in the whole Yanjing. In the middle of the night, the hotel in Yanjing was suddenly full, and the cars on the street had increased a lot.

As soon as Henry walked out of the hotel, the phone rang.

"Boss, you're making a big move! I didn't expect that you're so ungrateful that you didn't call me!" On the phone, Wade's voice was full of excitement and resentment.

Henry smiled slightly and said, "It's just the Su Family, there's no need to call you over."

"But I also want to participate. I heard that three teams from Radiant Island went there this time. All the Reapers near Yanjing arrived in Yanjing last night. Boss, you are going to destroy the Su Family!" Wade's voice was very excited. It was the first time since the last battle with The King Region that a big move was going to take place.

"Whether I will destroy them depends on the Su Family's performance. Please take care of Yinzhou for me." Henry's tone was flat. Destroying the Su Family was as easy as killing an ant.

"Boss, don't worry. There are a few people from the Su Family who arrived in Yinzhou early this morning."

"Everything is under control, including the spies of the Su Family in Yinzhou. Now, let's start."

"Understood!"

Chapter 345

In the courtyard of the Su Family in Yanjing.

At 11 o'clock in the afternoon, Watt arranged a meal to welcome Old Master Zhu, including Janbo Nangong and others.

Watt's father was of the same generation as Wilbur, but Watt's father was very cautious, for fear of offending Wilbur.

In terms of the status of the Ancient kungfu family, the Zhu family was more important than the Su family.

Wilbur had a very high status in the Zhu family. As for Watt's father, he was just a senior in the Su Family.

Henry drove the Maserati that belonged to Yetta. The soft music in the car slowly drifted toward the manor of the Su Family.

Once in the underground world, someone had asked such a question. How powerful was the power of Radiant Island?

At that time, there was a tycoon who answered in this way. If someone offended the people of Radiant Island, under the situation that you temporarily had the ability to protect yourself, you must move and hide within twelve hours. Otherwise, you would face the anger of Radiant Island. That kind of result, even the authorities couldn't bear it easily.

Now, the anger of the island had quietly risen.

Whether it was in the Ancient Martial Arts World or in any other aspect, including the business of the Su's, they all suffered a severe suppression this morning.

In the manor of the Su family.

Lila pouted and held Yetta's hand.

"Sister Yetta, do you think Henry is that kind of person? He helped me before." Lila's big eyes were full of worry.

Yetta shook her head. In fact, she also did not believe it. "Who is right about this matter? You little girl, don't run around in the future, and don't let your grandfather worry about you."

"Humph, I don't want to stay with him. Sister Yetta, shall we go to find Henry? I secretly asked grandpa. Grandfather said that he didn't catch the little brother and he ran away with a serious injury. Let's ask him to see if he did it to me. I feel that he was wronged." Lila's big eyes were full of emotions.

"Looking for him?" Hearing Lila's words, Yetta was a little moved. "How do you want to look for him?"

"I don't know." Lila shook her head and looked gloomy. She looked at the gate of the manor of the Su's and said, "Hey? Sister Yetta, isn't that your car?"

Yetta saw that a Maserati was driving to the gate of the Su's manor. It was his car. Her car was driven by Henry.

Yetta and Lila watched helplessly as the Maserati stopped at the gate of the Su Family manor. Then, the door opened, and Henry walked out of the car and appeared in front of them.

"Henry Zhang!" Yetta's face changed. "What's he doing here?"

"Henry Zhang, my brother!" Lila strode to the gate of the Su Family manor.

Henry closed the door and looked at Lila with a smile. "You girl, are you awake?"

"I woke up, haha, I heard that you asked someone to kidnap me, didn't you?" Lila opened her eyes wide, tilted her head, and looked at Henry cutely.

Henry rubbed Lila's head and said, "You silly girl. If I wanted to kidnap you, I would have done a long time ago."

"Haha!" Lila laughed and said, "Sister Yetta, I told you. Brother Henry is definitely not such a person."

Yetta came over with her brows slightly wrinkled. "So, the video that Watt Su showed us yesterday was fake? You really didn't kidnap her."

Henry rolled his eyes. "Aren't you talking nonsense? Why would I come back if it was me? What happened yesterday was all directed and acted by the Su Family. Today, I am here to settle accounts with the Su Family."

"Don't be silly." Hearing Henry's words, Yetta quickly dissuaded him. "I admit that you are powerful and no one can beat you. But you can't deal with the Su Family with bare fists and kicks. You have provoked too many people of the Su Family these days, so it's inevitable that you will get into trouble. You'd better endure it first."

"I can't stand it." Henry shook his head. Ignoring Yetta's dissuasion, he strode into the manor gate of the Su Family.

"Well, it turns out that the Su Family kidnapped me!" Lila's big eyes flashed with anger. "They are still pretending to be good people and slander my brother Henry. I also want to get even with them! Let's go, brother Henry, let's go together!"

"Lila Zhu! Don't make trouble!" Yetta ran up to them and reached out her hands to grab Henry and Lila. "Henry Zhang, I can understand that Lila is making trouble, but you can't do it with her. Do you have evidence that the Su Family did what happened yesterday? Can you prove it? And even if you prove it, what can you do? Maybe you have vented your anger today.

Can you bear the anger of the Su Family?"

"The Su Family? Are they very powerful?" Henry asked curiously, "What kind of anger can make me unable to bear it?"

Hearing Henry's words, Yetta was very angry. "You really don't listen to others' persuasion. You are too confident! The power of the Su Family is not what you can imagine at all. The so-called fairness doesn't exist in the Su Family at all. Leave now!"

"No." Henry shook his head. "I must ask the Su Family to give me a reasonable explanation today."

"What explanation do you want? What explanation do you want the Su Family to give you? Henry Zhang, you are no longer a child. Don't be so angry, okay? The Su Family is not someone you can provoke!" Yetta roared in a hurry.

"Oh, no, don't be so excited. I'm just here to seek justice. " Henry shrugged.

Henry's indifferent look made Yetta very angry. "Well, you want justice, don't you? Go and ask for it. Since you don't listen to me, don't regret it!"

"Brother Henry, don't worry. I'm here. I'll definitely make the Su Family give you justice." Lila patted her little chest.

Yetta looked at the two people in front of her and quickly took out her mobile phone to send a message to her father.

Lila followed Henry and pulled his sleeve. "Brother Henry, my grandfather is also here. Tell him everything later. He will definitely make the decision for you. But you should pay attention to my grandfather. He is very fierce and hard to deal with."

"Is he fierce?" Henry was confused. He never thought Wilbur was fierce.

"Fierce, so fierce. Except for me, everyone in our family is particularly afraid of my grandfather. My grandfather often scolds my father." Lila stuck out her small tongue.

Henry couldn't help laughing.

Yetta stood at the main gate of the Sus, watching Henry getting closer and closer to the hall. She stamped her feet hard and ran up.

Although they only knew each other for two days, Yetta's impression of Henry was not bad. She really couldn't bear to see Henry destroyed just like that.

How could a large family like the Su family be easily defeated by one person?

Chapter 346

"Master Zhu, I, Watt Su, would like to propose a toast to you." In the hall, Watt raised his glass and drank the wine.

"It seems that you are in a good mood." A frivolous voice came from the gate of the hall of the Su's.

As soon as the voice was heard, everyone in the hall looked in the direction of the door.

Henry stood in front of the door and looked at Watt and his son.

"It's you!" Watt's eyes contracted and he looked at Henry. "You're not dead!"

"Disappointed?" Henry grinned. "Did someone from Anye tell you that I'm dead?"

Watt's eyes were a little gloomy. The people from Anye did tell him that Henry was dead.

"Yesterday, I let you escape by luck. Today, you even dare to take the initiative to come to our Su Family. It just so happens that we'll settle the new and old grudges together!" The wine glass in the hands of Watt was thrown on the ground.

"What a coincidence." Henry chuckled, "I also have a new hatred and old hatred. First, you slandered that I kidnapped Lila; second, you sent people to assassinate my wife. These matters will be settled together today."

"Your wife?" Watt was confused subconsciously.

Henry spat out, "Sylvia Lin from Yinzhou."

"That b*tch is your wife! You are the one protecting her!" Watt's face suddenly changed. They had been looking for the expert hiding beside Sylvia for a long time, but they didn't expect he would find them first.

Lila ran to Wilbur and pulled his arm. "Grandpa, it was not Henry who kidnapped me yesterday. Henry has told me everything!"

"Niece Lila, don't listen to such a thief." Watt said.

Janbo waved his hand to Yetta, and she walked to Janbo in small steps.

"What's going on?" Janbo frowned. He was confused. When Watt found him yesterday and told him that Henry was the real culprit behind Lila's kidnapping, he was full of doubts.

Yetta told Janbo what Henry had just said in a low voice.

Janbo frowned. "Even if what he said is true and these things are planned by the Su Family, how can he seek justice today? I like Henry very much. Call your second uncle and ask him to bring some people here now. No matter what happens today, we can't watch him get into trouble." He said to Yetta.

Yetta nodded and secretly sent a message to her Second Uncle.

Wilbur touched his granddaughter's head and said, "Well. Grandpa will handle this matter."

"Grandpa, you must believe what I said. Brother Henry is definitely not a bad guy." Lila was still worried and spoke again.

Watt sneered and looked at Henry. "I don't know what method you used to confuse little Lila. Your confidence is really at a high level today, I have to say that I really think too highly of you. This is my Su Family, not a place for someone like you!"

After Watt spoke, he took out his phone and sending out a voice message, "Let everyone come to the hall."

About ten seconds after, he heard a series of intensive footsteps and saw more than 30 figures in front of the hall of the Su's.

The Sus were different from the Nangong Family. Because of Old Master Su's early death, the Su's family was divided into two factions, so there were a large number of people in the family. For example, Liam would bring a large number of people when he was going out.

Watt sneered and said to Henry, "Kid, I know you're good at fighting. If you're capable, why don't you give it a shot?"

As soon as Watt finished his words, he heard a loud noise outside the door.

"What? What are you doing?"

"Who let you in?"

"Get out! Don't you know that you have violated the law?"

Hearing the noise, Henry raised his eyebrows and said, "It seems not only you could call some people."

A servant of the Sus rushed into the hall and said anxiously, "Master Su, something bad has happened. Hundreds of people have entered the hall!"

"Hundreds of people!" Watt's face suddenly changed and he rushed out of the hall.

Janbo looked at Henry with a strange look. "Is his daughter's boyfriend some kind of gangster?"

Wilbur's eyes were full of shock when he heard that hundreds of people were here.

Hundreds of people? One Reaper from Radiant Island could frighten people, not only because of their unique identity but also because of the high strength. Anyone who could become a Reaper must have gone through hell-like training.

Hundreds of Reapers came out at the same time. That grand scene Wilbur could think of would probably make anyone's legs go numb.

A burst of laughter was heard outside the hall. It was from Watt.

"Hahaha! What is this? Hahaha! Kid, are you here to joke with me? Ah?"

At first, Watt was a little flustered when he heard the intrusion of hundreds of people in the manor. But now, he was not panic at all, he only felt funny in his heart.

He glanced at these hundreds of people, one by one. There were men and women, old and young. The oldest man's hair was white, and he felt that he couldn't even walk smoothly. The younger one, who was only 1.6 meters tall, looked thin like firewood. There were not many strong men, let alone women. Some of them were even nurses in the hospital. They even came in the nurse uniforms.

In Watt's eyes, such a group of people could only be described in two words.

A ragtag group!

"What are these? Are they figurants? Kid, did you invite these people to show off to our Su Family?"

Watt's laughter kept ringing out.

Janbo and Yetta were also ready to go out to see who Henry had called.

"Sit down. Don't go out." Wilbur said and stopped them.

"Master Zhu, what are you..." Janbo was a little confused.

"Sit down and listen to me." Master Zhu said calmly, but there was a kind of irresistible meaning in his tone.

Two of them looked at each other and sat in their seats. They didn't leave the hall, with doubts in their eyes.

Wilbur looked at Watt sadly. He knew that no matter what, he could not survive today.

"A doctor? A nurse? A student? Kid, are you a brainless, or do you think our Su Family is a brainless one?" Watt sneered.

"You should feel honoured," Henry said softly.

"Honoured? Boy, are you kidding me?" Watt's eyes were full of sarcasm.

Henry walked out of the hall slowly and sighed softly. "It has been a long time. No one was worthy of my attention. In the past, the Su Family was not qualified enough."

Henry stood in front of the Su's hall and waved his hand.

Under his move, the hundreds of ragtag in Watt's eyes reached their hands to their backs, and then slowly took out a ghost-face mask with fangs and put them on.

Chapter 347

Hundreds of people stood there, and there was no extra sound except for the sound of clothes rubbing against each other.

Watt, who had been sarcastic before looked dull at this moment.

He knew very well what the ghost-face mask represented.

Watt subconsciously turned his head and looked at Henry next to him.

Under Watt's gaze, Henry also took out a ghost face mask from the back of his waist, and then slowly put it on. Henry put a dark gold ring on his finger, took out a black card, and gently threw it out.

A breeze blew, and the black card slowly landed under Watt's feet.

Just at the moment when the card fell to the ground, Watt who used to be arrogant, kneeled down in front of Henry. His eyes fell on the ring on Henry's finger, and his whole body was shaking.

"The Conqueror..."

The people in the hall also became dull. Although they couldn't see the hundreds of people called by Henry, they could clearly see Henry standing in front of the hall. When he took out the mask and put on the ring, everyone was in disbelief.

"It's him... It's him..." Yetta's red lips quivered slightly. No wonder he looked so similar. His temper, character, and even the way he spoke were so similar. It was a person, it was him!

Janbo looked at Henry who was wearing a mask. He reached out and pinched his thigh. He asked in disbelief, "Girl, when did you take down the owner of Radiant Island?"

Lila opened her mouth wide than an egg could be stuffed inside.

As for Watt's father, his face was pale.

Henry turned around and looked at the hall.

This glance made everyone in the hall, including Wilbur, feel as if their hair was going to stand on end.

Henry reached out and closed the door of the hall.

At the moment when the door was closed, the people in the room saw a touch of bright red spray through the gap.

Wilbur count silently in his heart.

19 seconds later, the door was opened from the outside. Watt and the people called by him were all gone, and there was no trace of blood at the door.

Only Henry stood in front of the door alone, took off the ring and took off the mask. The others seemed to have never appeared before.

The sweat wet Watt's father's face. He could already imagine how his son was doing now.

At this moment, Janbo's phone rang. He picked up the phone carefully and heard his brother voice on the phone.

"Brother, what's going on? I asked the nearest person to the Su Family to rush over first, but all the people within five kilometres of the Su Family were put under curfew. They said that there was a fire in the Su Family manor and no one survived."

On the phone, the words were heard by everyone in the room.

Janbo took a deep breath and looked at Henry with awe in his eyes. He had planned to destroy the Su Family by doing this!

What happened in the Su's soon attracted the attention of the master of the Su's.

Su Enterprise had been suppressed by all parties. The current leader of the Su Family, Victor Su, was 50 years old. He did not stay in the manor but was busy in the company. At this moment, he was worried about the company's affairs when he heard that the Su Family manor was on fire, and no one is survived.

This made Victor return to the manor immediately. When he saw the manor was intact, he knew that the Su's had provoked a big shot this time.

When Victor returned to the manor, the whole manor was very deserted. The air was filled with a faint smell of blood, which made Victor have a bad feeling.

A burst of crying came from the hall.

Victor rushed into the hall and saw Wilbur, Janbo, and others sitting on the seat. His Second Uncle was kneeling there, and his legs had been broken.

Victor glanced around and saw a young man in the main seat. He had some impression of this young man. In the past two days, there was a lot of fighting among the younger generation in the Su Family. Victor also knew that Seb and Liam were injured by the young man in front of him.

Now, the young man sat on the main seat, and even the Zhu family could only sit on the side. It could be seen that this young man was not an ordinary junior.

"Are you the current Master of the Su Family?" Henry looked at Victor and asked in a questioning tone.

Victor frowned. "Who are you?"

"Victor Su!" Wilbur was sitting by the side, shouted, "If you don't want to ruin your Su family, answer his questions. Otherwise, no one can save you!"

Victor's heart sank when he heard this. Even the Zhu family's master said this. It seemed that this young man's identity was something he could not afford to offend.

Victor nodded. "Yes, I am the Master of the Su's."

Henry asked again, "Do you know that there is a woman surnamed Lin in Yinzhou, Sylvia Lin?"

Victor's expression darkened slightly. He nodded and said, "I know. That's my niece."

"What a good niece." Henry sneered and suddenly shouted, "Your niece, are you going to kill her?"

Henry's shout was like a thunder, forcing

Victor to take two steps back unconsciously. "I don't understand what you're talking about?"

"You don't understand?" Henry sneered. "Let me ask you, how much do you know about sending someone to Yinzhou to kill Sylvia?"

"Kill Sylvia?" Victor's expression changed greatly. "Who dares to kill Sylvia?"

Henry got up and slowly walked up to Victor. He waved his hand and slapped him in the face.

Victor fell to the ground. Two of his teeth had fallen off.

Victor was shocked. He did not even have the time to react to his opponent's slap. Moreover, his strength was so powerful that it was terrifying.

"As the Master of the Su Family, you don't even know that someone was trying to kill your niece?" Henry looked at Victor Su sarcastically and then fixed his eyes on Watt's father.

Victor suddenly understood what was going on and glared at Watt's father. "Second Uncle, what did you do?"

Watt's father knelt there, with blood all over his face, and he did not say a word.

"Don't ask him, he can't speak anymore." Henry's voice sounded faint.

Victor glanced at his Second Uncle and subconsciously shifted his gaze to Wilbur and the others.

Wilbur and Janbo looked at Victor sadly. The Su Family also had a place in Yanjing, but if they provoked the people who should not be provoked, they would no longer exist.

Henry's voice rang in Victor's ears again.

"You Su Family owe something to her and her mother. I don't want to see such a thing happen again. Otherwise, there is no need for the Su Family to exist. Do you understand what I said?" Henry took out a black card and threw it in front of Victor.

Victor looked at the black card in front of him and could not calm down.

"Reaper... Radiant Island..."

Chapter 348

The power of Radiant Island enveloped every corner of the world.

Everyone was afraid of the power of Radiant Island.

When Victor saw the black card, he fully understood that this man did have the ability to destroy the Su Family.

Radiant Island was a place with a strict hierarchy. If it weren't for the fact that someone had real power in the island, even if he is Reaper, he wouldn't have made such a big move. Every Reaper knew what their duty was.

Victor looked at Henry in front of him. He didn't understand why his niece had a connection with Radiant Island.

"Remember, you have to make it up to her." Henry took a deep look at Victor and left the hall.

As Henry walked out the door, Victor took a long breath and got up.

Wilbur sighed, "Don't think he is joking. Don't let Su's family's business be ruined by your generation."

After Wilbur finished speaking, he patted Victor on the shoulder and walked out of the hall.

Janbo looked at Victor and did not speak. At the same time when something happened to the Su Family, he also felt a little sad.

The Nangong family and the Su Family were both two ancient kungfu aristocratic families in Yanjing. The Su Family was so vulnerable in front of Radiant Island. How good could the Nangong family be? Maybe in the eyes of others, the Nangong family was a colossus, but in the eyes of such a force as Radiant Island, it was nothing but a nonentity.

The group of people left the Su Family.

The curfew surrounding the Su Family had been canceled, and it announced that it was an exercise to improve people's safety.

But Wilbur and the others knew that if there was anything wrong with Victor's attitude just now, this time, it would not be as simple as claiming to the public that was a simple exercise.

Lila who used to be lively and liked to pull Henry's arm and call him brother, was following Henry at this moment. She looked at him with fear in her eyes.

Henry was walking in the front, suddenly turned around and looked at Lila. "Girl."

"Ah?" Lila was shocked.

Henry looked at her and smiled helplessly. "What, am I so scary?"

Lila nodded subconsciously and then shook her head in a hurry. "No, no, no, you're not scary at all."

Henry patted her head and looked at Wilbur. "Old man, are you always scaring your granddaughter with my name?"

Wilbur smiled awkwardly.

From Wilbur's smile, Henry also understood that he must have used his name to scare people. Henry had already been used to this matter. Many underground forces would use the name of The Conqueror to frighten their own children. Over time, the name of The Conqueror, in many people's eyes, was like a devil who ate people.

However, everyone on the island knew very well that The Conqueror was not what the outside world said. On the island, Henry was very admirable.

Henry looked at Yetta again and laughed. "Sluggo, I haven't seen you for a few years. You've grown up to be a big girl."

Yetta blushed and said in a flirtish voice, "You're slug!"

Janbo stood aside with some doubts. He whispered in Yetta, "Daughter, what's wrong with you? Is The Conqueror not your boyfriend?"

"Father, I didn't know his identity before. I asked him to go back and lie to you." Yetta rolled her eyes.

"Ah?" Janbo was a little confused. He murmured in a voice that could only be heard by himself, "I thought our Nangong family had turned over..."

"Well, I'll leave first. Lila, Sluggo, Uncle Nangong, thank you for your hospitality in the past two days. If there is a chance, come to Yinzhou. My wife and I will treat you well." Henry said hello to them and waved goodbye.

"Are you really married?" Yetta couldn't believe it. As the king of the underground world, if he was married, there would definitely be a big celebration, but nobody had heard anything about it.

"Yes." Henry nodded. "Bye."

Yetta could not hide the disappointment in her eyes.

Wilbur stepped forward and said to Henry in a low voice, "Wait, I have something to tell you."

Henry looked at Wilbur in confusion and nodded.

After saying goodbye to each other, Henry gradually walked away in the disappointed eyes of Yetta and Janbo.

Lila looked at her grandfather with her big eyes and said: "Granpa, you were lying to me. Henry is not scary at all!"

"Not scary?" Wilbur had a strange look on his face. "You said he wasn't scary, but you didn't see him in full action."

At eight o'clock in the evening, in a small tavern in Yanjing.

It was dark.

Henry and Wilbur sat on a small table.

The whole tavern was antique, and all the tables were made of wood.

Wilbur sighed. "The era has changed so fast. In our time, there were small taverns like this everywhere. Now, there are high buildings. When I was your age, I never imagined that there would be so many high buildings in the future."

Henry smiled and said, "People need the imagination to live. I think, in the future, there will be a lot of unexpected things, such as extending life expectancy and restoring body function."

Wilbur smiled and said, "Are you researching these things on Radiant Island?"

"It seems that there is indeed a problem." Henry picked up a small wine glass and took a sip from his mouth. "All the research on the island should not be known to the outside world. Now, a lot of news about the island has spread all over the world. You deliberately told me these to give me a hint?"

"Not only is there something wrong with our Zhu family, but also on your Radiant Island..." Wilbur stared at Henry. "At that time, you went to The King Region. After the war, you disappeared. I tried to look for you many times. Did someone tell you?"

Henry thought for a while and shook his head. "No."

"Have you ever participated in the affairs of the underground world during this period?" Wilbur asked again.

"No." Henry continued to shake his head.

"The underground world has been in chaos, and the European side has become a mess. There are big families and the Sharp Knife in China, so it is still harmonious. A new force has been rising up. Although I don't want to admit it, in fact, some people in our Zhu family have changed their minds. Even our Zhu family has problems, and the rest of the ancient kungfu families have problems."

Wilbur sighed and said, "At that time, you rose up in just a few years to stand at the top of the world. For us, you are a young generation, but for the later generation, you are already a predecessor. You can't be invincible all the time. Someone should replace you on Radiant Island."

Chapter 349

Wilbur's words made Henry silent for a long time.

After more than ten minutes, Henry said, "I have never thought of turning Radiant Island into a force that everyone is afraid of. I hope that Radiant Island is a place that can bring light to people. The king of the underground world is just conferred by others. If someone is willing to replace me, let him be. The world is big, and there are too many things worth pursuing."

Wilbur smiled and said, "Do you know the difference between ancient kungfu and ordinary kungfu?"

Henry shook his glass and said, "I know one thing. The so-called ancient kungfu has declined, hasn't it?"

"Not all of them are declining. If you have time, come to the Zhu family. I have something to show you." Wilbur reached out to knock on the table, and then stood up. "Now you all pay with mobile phones. I'm an old man. I don't have this function on my old machine. This wine is on you."

With a burst of laughter, Wilbur left the tavern.

Henry sat alone in the tavern, thinking about what Wilbur just said. The scene of the meeting with The King Region in Europe gradually came to Henry's mind.

"The Conqueror, the fight between you and me is just a game in some people's eyes. Whether it's The King Region or Radiant Island, it's just that someone wants us to exist, so we can exist. If they don't want to see us, we won't exist in this world."

"You may not believe what I said. You are young and powerful. You stand at the top of the world and look down on the world, but you forgot to look out of the box."

"The limit of a person's body is not as simple as you and I think. You are from the East, and you are from the closest sacred area. Today, I don't want to fight with you. I just want to prove one thing, a thing that you have to believe..."

When the scene in the past came to his mind, Henry shook his wrist and let out a long breath. "Is there a pure land where people can think about nothing and live the life they want?"

Henry drank up the wine in his glass and shook his head. Then he paid and left the tavern.

After the battle with The King Region, Henry visited many places, including various historical sites in China, as well as the legendary Kunlun Mountain.

In ancient times, the soldiers marched hundreds of miles in a hurry. The armour that was found had a weight of 42 kilograms, not including weapon or a helmet. If all of them were added, each soldier carried 60 kilograms of the equipment. With such a weight, they could march hundreds of miles. It could be seen how strong the soldiers were. And there were a lot of soldiers at that time.

How many people in modern times could do that?

Henry thought of Wilbur's words just now. In their time, they had not thought of all kinds of things. They had not thought of the development, high buildings or technology. Now people had gradually forgotten their own strength.

It was just like telling ordinary people that Henry could easily break the steel bars as thick as a thumb. Not many people would believe it, but this kind of thing could be done easily by Henry.

There were some things that people believed they would not happen, and it was just that they didn't know.

In the past, Henry would have a respectful attitude when he heard the old generation's discussion about ancient kungfu, but he would not take it too seriously. When he came out of The King Region, he changed his mind completely.

Henry returned to the hotel, lying on the bed with a dull head. After dawn, he went to the airport and returned to Yinzhou.

At this time, a plane that took off from Yanjing landed at the Yinzhou Airport. A man and a woman came out of the plane.

"Brother, why did the master ask us to find the woman surnamed Lin?" The young woman wore a long dress and looked around with pride. "Look at the airport in this small city. It's very simple and crude."

The young man shook his head. "I don't know. It's better if we don't ask more questions about a direct descendant."

"Ha." The woman smiled scornfully. "If we are of the collateral relative, then what is the woman surnamed Lin? To put it bluntly, she is not even counted as the family. The old master left a will to divide the property of the family into half and give it to that stranger. Why?"

"That's right." The young man sighed. "You still need to be polite to Sylvia Lin, ah."

"Be polite to her?" The woman showed an exaggerated expression. "She should be clear who she is. Is she worth to make us be polite to her? Just wait and see. Let's find a place to rest tonight and go to the Lins Group tomorrow to see what kind of person she is."

The next morning.

Sylvia got up as usual. Looking at the empty home, she was a little absent-minded.

In the past, Henry would prepare breakfast and greet her that it was good to have breakfast. But now, she hadn't seen him for several days.

Sylvia stamped her foot. "Henry, stinky Henry Zhang, if there is a misunderstanding, why don't you explain it to me? If you like to leave without saying a word, I'll let you go! You'd better not come back!"

Sylvia pouted and walked into the bathroom. After washing up, she went to the company.

Time passed slowly.

At noon, Cathy knocked on the door of Sylvia's office. "President Lin, it's time for lunch."

"You go first," Sylvia said. She rubbed her eyebrows and got up to go to the canteen.

"Hello, I want a bottle of cola." In the canteen, an employee took a bottle of cola, took a sip happily and burped.

Seeing this scene, Sylvia couldn't help but think of Henry again.

Sylvia took out her mobile phone and looked at the number on it. After hesitating for a while, she gritted her teeth and dialed the number.

"It's not that I miss you. I just want to ask you whether you want to divorce or not." She thought.

When Sylvia dialled the number, she was thinking about what to say when she heard the first sentence.

"I'm sorry, the phone you dialled has been turned off..." The voice from the phone made Sylvia stunned. "Henry, it's you who has done something wrong to me, but you still have a bad temper, haven't you?"

Sylvia threw her mobile phone on the table with hatred and started to eat.

In the canteen, several people sat together and looked at Sylvia's appearance. They whispered and talked quickly as if they had found a new world.

"Hey, hey, hey, look, President Lin seems to be jealous."

"It seems to be so. Oh my god, I didn't expect President Lin to have such feelings."

"Fuc*, you men don't know anything. No matter how strong a woman is, she also wants a man to take care of her. Why can't president Lin have those feelings?"

"But this is the first time."

Sylvia sat there and ate the food on the plate, cursing Henry in her heart.

Sylvia bit the food in her mouth as if it was Henry.

Chapter 350

"Sylvia, I know you can hear it. Sylvia, I want to tell the whole world that I love you, Sylvia!"

A burst of noisy sound rang in Lin's canteen through a megaphone.

The staff of Lins Group were having lunch, but suddenly all of them heard the noise.

The voice came from the window.

Sylvia frowned slightly. When she walked to the window, she saw that the door of Lins Group was covered with rose petals. The roses were spread into a heart. A young man was standing in the middle of the petals, holding a megaphone. The voice came from him.

"President Lin, how are we going to deal with them?" Cathy came over at this time.

"I asked the security guards to drive them away, but he doesn't want to leave at all. It's said that..."

"I'll go." Sylvia helplessly waved her hand and walked out of the canteen. She knew this young man, so she knew that with the help of Lin's security guards, there was no way to drive him away.

As soon as she went out of the canteen, the staff of Lins Group squeezed into the window with gossip on their faces.

At the same time, some people who were still sitting in the office also poked their heads out of the window.

Sylvia took the elevator to the first floor.

"President Lin." The security guard of Lin's mansion hurried over. "He said he must see you. He is outside our security area, and we can't push him away."

"Go ahead with your own business." Sylvia made the arrangements and walked to the company's door.

At this time, a lot of people were gathering in front of the gate of the Lins Group. They were watching the scene of bustle.

The young man, who was standing among the rose petals, was holding a microphone. When he saw Sylvia, he looked surprised. "Sylvia, you're finally willing to see me."

"Bing Ke, I have already made it clear to you that I am married. Please don't harass me again, or I will call the police." Sylvia said very rudely.

Bing smiled at Sylvia with a flattering face and said, "Sylvia, don't be so ruthless. You know my feelings for you. I also know that Lins Group has been in danger recently. If you are willing to marry me, I will ask my father to invest in you."

Sylvia frowned and said, "Don't you understand what I said? I'm married."

"You're married, but a few days ago, you applied for a divorce in the Civil Affairs Bureau. I've investigated your ex-husband, Henry Zhang. I know very well what kind of person he is. He's good-for-nothing. How can such a person be worthy of you? Be with me. It's the best choice for us to work together." Bing said with a megaphone in his hand. His voice made everyone around him, including the employees of the Family Lin, hear it clearly.

Divorce?

The employees stared at him with wide eyes.

Before, Henry climbed up the 18th floor with his bare hands to save Sylvia. Now he was still popular. Many women said that if he could find a man who was as good as Henry, their life would be worth it.

Before Henry had negotiated about the major projects of a few hospitals, and his performance in the career fair had also spread all over the company. This man who was full of talent and courage, how could President Lin want to divorce?

Sylvia wasn't surprised that Bing would find out about her application for divorce. With his identity, he could do it easily.

Sylvia said in a displeased tone, "Whether I divorced or not, it's my own business. It has nothing to do with you. Please leave now, or don't blame me for being heartless."

"Sylvia, I don't understand. Why can't you accept me if you could marry a good-for-nothing? How can he deserve you?" Bing's tone was full of doubts.

"You?" Sylvia smiled disdainfully, and Henry's figure appeared in her mind again. "You are still far from him."

"I don't accept it!" Bing held a megaphone in his hand and shouted, "I don't believe that I am not as good as a good-for-nothing. Sylvia, you should belong to me. I love you. For you, I am willing to do anything!"

After Bing finished speaking, he waved his hand behind him.

One of them immediately ran up to Bing and handed him a bunch of roses.

Bing held the roses in one hand and the loudspeaker in the other. He strode towards Sylvia. "Sylvia, I love you. As long as you marry me, I can give you anything you want."

Sylvia frowned and looked at the person in front of her. She was sure that if Henry was here, he would definitely have thrown Bing elsewhere at once. But where was he?

"Marry him!"

"Marry him!"

For a moment, the words came from the crowd. These were the people who were arranged by Bing in advance to light up the atmosphere.

As they shouted, the onlookers, who didn't know the real situation, also shouted.

At this time, the people who worked on the seventeenth floor of the Lins Group could clearly hear the words.

"Quiet!" All of a sudden, a loud voice was heard. It was a voice that came out of someone's mouth. It was so loud that it even pressed down the people shouting.

"Be quiet!" The voice rang out again.

Those who had shouted subconsciously looked behind them. The shout also came from the crowd.

The crowd parted into two paths.

Sylvia's heart missed a beat when she heard the word quiet. She knew too well who it was.

Following the path that the crowd got out of the way, Sylvia saw Henry's dusty figure appear in her sight.

Henry looked at the roses on the ground with a disgusted look and said, "Who are you? You're so rude. Do you want to leave this garbage for others to clean?"

As he spoke, Henry stepped forward and kicked at the heart-shaped rose petal.

The delicate heart-shaped rose petals made a blank long path in the middle of Henry's kick. From the view above, it was Henry who split a heart into two.

"You!" Bing looked at Henry. He had investigated this was Sylvia's husband through the Civil Affairs Bureau.

"What are you talking about?" Henry glared at Bing, then turned to the crowd and said, "These roses are too eye-catching. Who can help me pack them up can to Lin's financial department to get ten thousand yuan!"

After Henry finished his words, the crowd fell into silence. "To clean up the roses on the ground for ten thousand yuan. Who is he lying to?"

A four or five-year-old child poked his head out of the crowd, wearing dirty clothes. "Uncle, are you serious? Would you really give me money if I clean?"

"He's telling the truth. If he doesn't give it to you, I will," Sylvia suddenly said.

The impact of Sylvia's words was completely different from the effect of what Henry had said just now.

"Yeah, that's great!" The little boy cheered, rushed out of the crowd and grabbed the rose on the ground.

The onlookers looked at him. They were really impulsive to push the little boy away, but they couldn't. After all, there were so many people watching him.
