

Chapter 456

"That's right. Sister, eat quickly. I'm telling you. Boss and this idiot are not gentlemen at all. They never care about us girls." Future also picked up a bowl of boiled meat and wolfed down like Henry.

Hearing this, Wade smirked and said, "Which kind of girl do you think you are?"

Future glare at Wade.

Wade quickly shrank his neck and did not dare to speak.

Henry chuckled and said, "Wade, if your cowardice was known by your ancestors, they might be extremely furious."

"Boss, as I said, she is not a girl!" Wade said with certainty.

Looking at these people bickering with each other, Amity covered her mouth and smiled, and her strangeness faded away.

Soon, the clothes Future arranged were delivered. Amity quickly went to the bathroom to change into new clothes.

This dress was bought according to Amity's figure, and it was a perfect fit.

"Well, very beautiful. Not like the messy cat just now." Henry took a sip of water. "Come on, girl, tell me what's going on. You left quite decisively at that time. You deleted social media and changed the phone number."

"I'm sorry, Brother Henry, I... I just didn't want to make trouble for you." Amity said with embarrassment.

Henry waved his hand and said, "Well, I forgive you for deleting me. Tell me, are you in any trouble?"

Amity sat there, lowered her head and said, "I found my mother."

Henry still remembered what she had said before. Because her father was so addicted to gambling, her mother had left a few years ago.

"My mom has been away for so many years. When she heard that my dad had an accident, she was also very worried. So she asked me to bring my dad to Shan City. She also found a doctor for my dad. For so many years, my mom had a bad life. As a result, the doctor she found was a cheater. The doctor made us spend all the money. My mom had no other way. The daily medical expenses for my dad are huge. I could only get some money doing part-time."

Although Henry didn't know what it was like for Amity to be cheated by others, he probably could imagine that it was like destroying all the hope of a person. It was not easy for a girl to survive.

"What about today? What happened today?" Henry asked.

"I found a housekeeping company to do some part-time work. Today, I went to clean. They said that they would pay 800 yuan for cleaning. I went there, but I didn't expect that I was not going to do the cleaning at all, but..."

Before she could finish her words, Henry could probably figure out what was going on.

"They didn't hurt you, did they?" Henry looked at Amity, afraid that the girl would suffer any grievance and that she might do something stupid.

"No." Amity shook her head vigorously. "It's just that the housekeeping company just called me and asked me to go back quickly. Otherwise, they won't return the deposit of 1,000 yuan to me."

"Okay, let's eat first. After dinner, let's go to the housekeeping company." Henry patted the back of Amity.

Amity shook her head. "Brother Henry, don't go. That company seems to have some mafia support. We can't afford to mess with them."

Hearing this, Wade sniggered and said, "Beauty, don't worry. The mafia is nothing compared to our boss."

"Hmph!" Future crossed her arms. "I thought Boss is a good man."

"All right, let's eat. After dinner, we will go and have a look."

The few of them happily ate the hotpot. Originally, Henry was going to return to Yinzhou today, but since he met Amity, he had to solve her problem first.

Henry took a look at his mobile phone. He had been sending Sylvia messages every day, but Sylvia did not reply to any of them.

After the meal, they left the restaurant and looked for the housekeeping company that Amity was talking about.

During the meal, Amity's phone kept ringing. The calls were from the housekeeping company, urging her to go back.

"Wade, have you found all the people you should find?" Henry asked.

"Yes. I've sent people to inform all the gangs in Shan City, big or small. They'll be there soon." Wade nodded.

"Okay." Henry's mouth curved into a smile. "How come a housekeeping company like that can survive in Shan City?"

Amity told Henry that the housekeeping company was not far from where she lived.

Henry looked around and found that the place where Amity stayed was no different from where she lived in Yinzhou. It was a poor area. The place where Amity stayed made Henry remember the life back in the 70s.

The old house from the 1970s had not been demolished until now because there was really no development around. The rent here was cheap and there was no property fee. Those who lived here were all people who had a hard life.

"Brother Henry, that's it."

Amity stretched out her hand and pointed out.

Henry saw that a separate two-floor building was built in front of this old area, with the words "Youth Housekeeping Company" written on it.

"Boss, to be honest, it is obvious that this housekeeping company is just pretending to be the real one."

On the housekeeping company, there were words like floor cleaning, engine cleaning, and so on. But they saw only middle-aged men inside the housekeeping company.

Henry shook his head. Such a place was especially used to cheat girls with little social experience. Moreover, the reason they had set up the company here was that the people living here didn't have any type of support or strong background, so they could do whatever they wanted.

In front of the door of the housekeeping company stood two strong men. As soon as they saw Amity, they immediately ran to her.

"Bi*ch, you're finally back. Come, come with me!" A strong man stretched out his hand and grabbed towards Amity.

Henry stepped forward and stood in front of her. He pushed away from the hand of the strong man and said, "What's the matter? Tell me."

The strong man squinted at Henry. "Who are you, boy?"

"This is my sister." Henry patted Amity's shoulder.

"Oh, your sister?" The strong man looked Henry up and down. "Let's put it this way. Today, your sister went to work, and she hurt the employer. Tell me, how do we settle the bill?"

"That's not true." Amity shook her head in a hurry. "He wanted to force me. When I ran, he fell down the stairs."

"Oh!" The strong man sneered. "He fell down the stairs? We appointed you to go to work, not to make the employer uncomfortable!"

As soon as the strong man finished speaking, they heard someone shouting in front of the door of the housekeeping company.

"Where is the little bi*ch? Where is she? Bring her here!"

Henry and the others looked at the place where the voice came from. They saw a middle-aged man in his forties, with a big belly, walking toward them with several strong men supporting him.

Chapter 457

Henry looked at the middle-aged man, turned around and asked Amity, "Is it him?"

"Yes." Amity nodded weakly. "Brother Henry, he really ran down the stairs and fell down."

"It doesn't matter." Henry shrugged his shoulders. "Even if he didn't fall, he will suffer later anyway."

Hearing this, Amity still didn't understand his meaning, but Wade and Future next to her were very clear what he was referring to.

It could be seen that the middle-aged man could not walk properly. His thigh was injured. With the help of two strong men, the middle-aged man came over and said, "Bi*ch, you hurt me and stood me up. Did you just change your clothes?"

"Watch your mouth!" Future frowned and said.

"Yo!" When the middle-aged man saw Future, his eyes lit up. "There is one more beautiful sister. Good, very good."

The middle-aged man looked at the one of the man and shouted, "Call your manager out!"

"Boss Wang! You don't need to call me. I am already here." The middle-aged man's voice had just faded when he saw a woman in her thirties running over with a flattering smile.

Boss Wang snorted and said, "I gave you three thousand yuan, and that's how you dealt with the business?"

"Boss Wang, I'm really sorry. It's our fault. I'll deal with it immediately." The manager of the housekeeping company smiled at Boss Wang and then stared at Amity with her eyes full of hatred. "What's wrong with you? Do you still want the deposit or not?"

The manager of the housekeeping company was sure that the people living nearby had no money, so when she threatened Amity with 1,000 yuan, she was full of confidence.

"No, Manager." Amity shook her head repeatedly. "He didn't want me to clean up. He wanted me to..."

"Shut up!" The manager glanced at her impatiently. "Who would offer to pay 800 yuan for cleaning only? Tell me where are you going to find such a good deal. Are you pretending to be stupid?"

Wade was standing aside, laughed and said, "He gave you 3,000 yuan, but you only gave Amity 800 yuan. Isn't your profit a bit too high?"

The manager looked at Henry and Wade with an indifferent attitude. "Two handsome men, what are you doing here? Do you want to help your friend?"

"If you return my sister's 1,000 yuan deposit to her, we'll leave. This has nothing to do with you." Henry glanced at the manager.

"Return?" The manager sneered. "She hurt our boss Wang, and we think she's pitiful. We didn't ask her for medical expenses, now you even want us to return the deposit to her. You think we are doing charity here?"

"I don't want the deposit either. As long as these two girls play with me, I'll give 5,000 yuan each!" Boss Wang said proudly.

"Fk, Future, are you so valuable?" Wade opened his mouth wide and looked at Future in surprise.

"Do you want to die?!" Future stepped on Wade's foot.

Wade grimaced in pain.

The manager looked at Henry and said, "Boy, I've been working for so many years. I've seen many people like you. They just want to make some money. Ah, is this enough for you?"

The manager directly threw out 500 yuan.

Boss Wang's eyes kept glancing at the body of Amity and Future, and some dirty images had appeared in his mind.

Henry didn't even look at the 500 yuan. "I just want you to return my sister's deposit. As for the medical expenses, if he fell down on his own, do you still want us to pay the medical costs?"

"It's so funny!" The manager put her hands on her hips and said, "If she didn't run away, this would not even happen!"

"You're so shameless!" Future puffed out her cheeks.

"Shameless? Little girl, I'll let you see what shameless means later. Hehe." Looking at Future, Boss Wang let out a wretched laugh.

Henry took a deep breath and said, "I'll give you one last chance. Will you give back the money or not?"

"Hey, are you threatening me?" The manager smiled disdainfully. She took out the walkie-talkie and said something.

As soon as the manager put down the walkie-talkie, more than a dozen strong men rushed out of the agency with sticks and other things in their hands. They came this way and surrounded Henry and others in a blink of an eye.

The manager looked at Henry and said, "If I don't return it, what can you do to me?"

Henry shook his head and stopped talking to the manager. Instead, he said to Wade, "This store needs to be shut down. Get rid of all those who have something to do with it."

As soon as Henry's voice fell, the manager immediately burst into sharp laughter. "What big words! No one in Shan City dares to close our shop!"

Future gave Boss Wang a look of disgust. "Idiot, cripple him too. He is disgusting!"

"You want to cripple me?" Boss Wang seemed to have heard the biggest joke in his life. "Do you scums want to do anything to me? Do you know I'm working with Brother Dove!"

As soon as Boss Wang finished speaking, a voice came from the side.

"What's going on? Is Dove this arrogant? Since when did his people become so arrogant?"

They all heard the voice.

Boss Wang and the manager of the housekeeping company looked at the one who spoke.

At the moment when they saw the man, Boss Wang and the manager were shocked and, at the same time, they immediately showed an expression of kindness.

"Brother Jim, what kind of thing brought you here?" Boss Wang quickly pushed away from the two strong men who were supporting him and walked over quickly.

He was very clear that Brother Jim was Brother Dove's boss.

The man called Brother Jim was a man in his thirties. He glanced at Boss Wang and ignored him. Instead, he shouted, "Who is Frey Ran, Mr. Ran?"

Henry looked at Wade with doubts. He thought that Brother Jim was called here by Wade.

Wade shook his head. He didn't know anybody named Frey Ran.

As soon as Brother Jim's voice fell, another voice came to their ears. "Excuse me, Mr. Ran, is Mr. Ran here?"

Boss Wang and the manager looked at the newcomer again.

"This is... the boss of the Black Tiger Gang?"

Boss Wang and the manager couldn't help shivering, and the manager hurriedly motioned for her people to put away the things in their hands. The Big Brother from the Black Tiger Gang was on the same level as Brother Jim.

After seeing Big Brother of the Black Tiger Gang, Brother Jim nodded to him.

Five Audis rushed over and stopped there. The door opened and five strong men in black came out from each car. They all held machetes in their hands. The leader shouted, "Where is Mr. Frey Ran? Our boss asked me to bring some people here. Who has offended Mr. Ran?"

When Boss Wang and the manager saw these five people, they quickly shrank their necks. "This is Boss Xie's men!"

Chapter 458

The several groups of people who came here were all talking about Mr. Ran, which puzzled Boss Wang and the manager. What kind of big shot was this Frey Ran, who could make so many big shots stand up for him?

Even Boss Xie's men were here. He was an infamous local villain.

Boss Wang and the manager were shocked. And yet another five black Benzs arrived. Each of them was worth more than a million yuan.

The people who just arrived in the Audi squinted at several Benzs. "What's the matter here? Is it related to Boss Song? Is it that they want to deal with Mr. Ran?"

Several Benzs stopped, the door opened, and a group of strong men walked out.

"Who dares to offend Mr. Ran?"

Frey Ran again?

Boss Wang and the manager looked at each other, wondering who on earth Frey Ran was. They had never heard of this name in this area, especially this time, so many big shots were gathered in front of this housekeeping company.

As soon as a few Benzs stopped, they heard another whistle blow.

"People in the front, get out of the way, what the h*ll are you doing here?"

More than a dozen Land-Rovers drove over.

"What the f*ck are you talking about? Lower your voice when talking to me!" The Benz driver scolded.

"Lower the voice? In this Shan city, no one can let me, Yan Qi, to lower my voice!" A voice like this came from the Land Rover.

"Yan Qi? Boss Qi? The largest gang in the north of the city!" The person in the Benz was shocked and said, "Boss Qi, I'm sorry, I'm a subordinate of Boss Song. I'm here to do something. I'll make the way for you."

Several Benzs quickly cleared the way. These people thought that the Land Rover was just passing by. But the Land Rover also stopped here. The door opened and a group of people got out of the car.

"May I ask who Mr. Ran is? Our boss asked me to help him solve some problem." After getting out of the car, Boss Qi said very politely.

Frey Ran again?

Hearing Boss Qi's words, all the people present were stunned. Originally, there were just two leaders of some smaller gangs, but later, more and more people came. Even the local tyrants came. Until now, the head of the gang from the north of Shan City had personally brought people here. According to Boss Qi's words, Mr. Ran knew Boss Qi's big brother!

What kind of person was Boss Qi's big brother? He was the one who could shake the entire Shan City just by stamping his feet.

After the Land Rover came, another large number of cars arrived. They all came in succession and stopped here.

"Mr. Ran?"

"Mr. Ran, I'm with Brother Cripple from the south of the city."

"Mr. Ran."

"Hello, Mr. Ran..."

Boss Wang and the manager, who had been arrogant just now, dared not say a word when they saw these big shots coming. They stood aside trembling. In such a short time, there were hundreds of people gathered here, and the number of people was still increasing. Everyone who came was looking for Mr. Ran.

And it should be noted that these hundreds of people were not the underlings of ordinary gangs. Every time they went out, they would be at the same level as a leader in the small gangs. In this housekeeping company, any one of them would be treated seriously and respectfully by the manager and Boss Wang would welcome him with a smile.

The influence of these gangs was almost all over Shan City. Mr. Ran was able to find all Big Brothers of Shan City!

In front of the door of the housekeeping company, there were hundreds of people, no one did not dare to walk here casually, not even dare to look at them.

"Come on, make a way, make a way." A voice sounded in the dark crowd.

A young man in his twenties pushed the crowd away and walked over. He searched around the crowd and finally looked at Wade White. He shouted, "Boss White, Boss White."

The young man rushed to Wade.

Wade frowned and shouted, "Keep your voice down."

The young man quickly nodded and did not dare to make a sound.

Wade pointed at Henry and said to the young man, "This is my boss. You can call him Brother Zhang."

"Hello, Brother Zhang." The young man quickly greeted Henry.

"Boss, this boy is the only child of the richest man in Shan City. What... what..." Wade showed a thoughtful look and couldn't think of anything.

"Just call me Samuel." The young man put on a smile and was not angry at all because Wade didn't remember his name.

If people who were familiar with Samuel saw him like this, they would be shocked.

As the only child of the richest man in Shan City, Samuel was always surrounded wherever he went. In Shan City, no one had ever dared to offend him. But now, he was like a henchman.

Henry nodded and said, "Well, nice to meet you."

Henry didn't pay much attention to people like Samuel. In Henry's eyes, the richest man in Shan City was just so-so.

Wade looked at Samuel with dissatisfaction. "Where are the people I asked you to call?"

"These are all the people I called." Samuel stretched out his hand and pointed around.

Boss and the manager of the housekeeping centre stood very close to Henry and others. As soon as they heard Samuel's words, they directly laughed out loud.

Boss Wang said, "Boy, you're living in a dream, aren't you? Did you call these Big Brothers here?"

Samuel frowned and looked at Boss Wang. "Who are you? How dare you talk to me like this?"

Samuel was respectful in front of Wade, but particularly arrogant in front of others. In Boss Wong's eyes, these gang leaders were unattainable. But for Samuel, they were just a group of people who worked for money.

Brother Jim, who arrived first, heard Samuel's words and asked in a hurry, "Excuse me, are you Mr. Frey Ran?"

"Frey Ran? Who is Frey Ran?" Samuel looked puzzled.

Hearing Samuel's denial, Brother Jim shook his head with regret.

Boss Wang burst out laughing and said, "Kid, let me tell you, these Big Brothers were all called by Mr. Ran. You said you were the one who called them, but you don't even know who Mr. Ran is. What are you pretending to be?"

Wade looked at Samuel with dissatisfaction. "What did you do?"

Wade and Henry had a good relationship. They were brothers who had gone through thick and thin together. However, the tasks Henry gave to Wade had always been done beautifully. It had never been as messy as today.

When Samuel saw Wade was a little angry, he quickly said, "Boss White, don't be angry. I don't have much contact with these people. I arranged the secretary to deal with this. I'll call him now."

As soon as Samuel took out his mobile phone, he heard a dull car horn.

A Rolls-Royce with 88888 license plate drove into the crowd.

When these big brothers saw the Rolls-Royce, they all put away their arrogance. They knew that they could not afford to offend those who had such a license plate.

Samuel, who was going to make a phone call, also put away his mobile phone. This car was his. He asked his secretary to drive it.
