

Chapter 644

Teddy's bold way of ordering dishes was a sharp contrast to Henry's method of only ordering three vegetarian dishes.

Teddy directly handed over a bank card to the waiter and said, "There is no password. You can swipe it directly."

One of the men beside Teddy took the opportunity to speak to Jenny, "Beauty, what kind of husband do you think you're married to? Why is he so stingy when ordering food? Look at our class leader. Why don't you come over and eat at our table? We have all kinds of seafood and meat!"

"No need." Jenny shook her head. "I'm not used to eating with people like you."

"People like us? What's wrong with people like us?" Teddy raised his head. "People like us can only make you... ah!"

"My child is here. Be careful when you talk!" Henry glared at Teddy.

"Careful?" Teddy looked puzzled. "Henry, are you threatening me? What can you do if I'm not careful?"

"Yes!" The man next to Teddy said, "Henry, who do you think Teddy is? Are you threatening him? Do you know that our class leader is now working for the largest family in Yinzhou, the Lins? Do you want to go against them? Are you tired of living?"

"Family Lin?"

Henry put on a playful smile at the corner of his mouth.

When Jenny heard these words, she couldn't hold back her laughter.

Henry's smile made Teddy feel that he had been despised. He shouted at Henry, "What are you smiling at? Do you think it's funny? Henry! Don't you believe that I have something to do with the Lins Group?"

"Nothing, nothing." Henry waved his hand.

A sound of footsteps came from the side.

"Oh oh, class leader, look, there's another beautiful woman!" One of Teddy's men looked at the direction of the footsteps with an exaggerated expression. There were also a few males who were looking over there in a daze.

This was a woman with a lot of temperament and appearance. Just looking at her gave people a sense of nobility that could not be profaned.

Teddy looked over. The moment he saw the woman, he immediately put on a respectful look, pushed away the people around him, and trotted towards the woman.

"Hello, President Lin!"

Teddy's family relied on the Lins Group's support. Naturally, he knew the current president of the Lins Group.

Sylvia looked at Teddy with a puzzled expression, "Who are you?"

"Hello, President Lin. My name is Teddy Gao, and Logan Gao is my father. It's my great honor to meet you here. I didn't expect to meet you here." Teddy's face was full of flattery.

Upon hearing this, Sylvia nodded her head. "Oh, I know Logan." She looked in the direction of Teddy and said, "Is this a classmate gathering?"

"Yes, yes, yes." Teddy nodded quickly. "It's a gathering for my junior high school classmates."

"Alright, then I won't disturb you any further. I'll leave you to your own business." Sylvia made a random excuse to send Teddy off.

Teddy nodded repeatedly and walked to the table aside. He was very proud of himself for being able to talk to the president of the Lins Group.

Teddy had just sat down when he heard a melodious voice beside his ear. The speaker of the voice was none other than Sylvia.

"Honey, have you ordered the dishes?"

What she said shocked Teddy. He turned his head and saw that Sylvia was sitting opposite Henry.

"Yes." Henry nodded and said, "I've ordered three vegetarian dishes randomly. Honey, do you think it's okay?"

"Yes," Sylvia replied. "It's too late. It's best to eat less."

Henry's way of addressing Sylvia and Sylvia's smooth answer made Teddy and others at the table next to him widen their eyes. Did Henry call the president of Lins Group 'honey'? Wasn't his wife the other one? What was going on? Were they kidding? Nobody had ever heard that President Lin was joking like this.

In Teddy's mind, Sylvia had always been the ice queen.

"Mother Sylvia, hug me!" When Lisa saw Sylvia coming, she took the initiative to rush into her arms.

During the time when Henry went to Meng Province, Sylvia played with Lisa every day. She had long been on good terms with her. This time, when Henry came back, Lisa took initiative to call Sylvia her mother.

When Sylvia heard how Lisa had called her, she smiled brightly and took her from Henry's arms.

The man next to Teddy rubbed his eyes hard, looking incredulous. He asked Lisa, "Little girl, is this lady your mother?"

"Yes, it's my mother, Sylvia." Lisa nodded.

"What about that one?" The man pointed at Jenny and asked.

"This is also my mother, Jenny." Lisa smiled sweetly and stretched out her little hands to grab Jenny's finger.

The man who asked this question swallowed his saliva unconsciously. He knew about Henry's situation. Originally, he was very poor. His mother worked as a cleaner at school. In the end, she jumped off a building. Henry then became an orphan. How could he have anything to do with these two beautiful women?

The person who asked the question was still a little shocked. How could Henry, who came from such a background, be in this position? He asked again unwillingly, "Is Henry your father? Where do you live?"

Lisa nodded hard. "Yes, I and my two mothers live together with my father Henry."

After hearing Lisa's answer, Teddy and the people at his table were in a mess. "Are these two beautiful ladies living together with Henry and having children? And it seems that they get along well with each other. This is definitely the king-like life every man dreams of!"

More importantly, one of the women was President Lin.

Everyone in Yinzhou knew that the Lins Group was a big enterprise worth ten billion yuan!

Teddy was a little stunned. Thinking of the scene of him mocking Henry just now and his harsh words to Henry, he couldn't help but shiver. Henry was the husband of the president of Lins Group. It would be so easy for Henry to destroy him.

At the thought of this, Teddy's heart was full of remorse. At this time, he no longer cared about his pride and other things. He took the initiative to lift the glass and walked to Henry's table. "Henry, we are old friends. I've offended you when I spoke just now. Don't take it to heart. I propose a toast to you."

Facing Teddy, who came over to apologize and toast, Henry did not even look at him. He said to Sylvia, "Tell people in the company to cut off any connection with this family."

As soon as Sylvia heard this, she knew who Henry was talking about. Without even asking why, she nodded and said, "Okay, I'll inform Secretary Lee now."

As she spoke, Sylvia took out her phone and dialed the secretary's number.

As a secretary, Cathy would answer the phone at any time.

"President Lin." Secretary Lee's voice came from the phone.

"I want to cut off all the connections with the Gao family, including the public funds that are related to their current company. Freeze them all!" Sylvia said.

"I understand." The answer of the secretary was straightforward and quick.

Chapter 645

Teddy stood aside and listened to Sylvia's words. His face suddenly turned pale. Before he could beg for mercy, a waiter came over, who was holding the card that Teddy had just given him.

"Hello, mister. There is not enough money on this card. Could you please change the card?"

Teddy looked at the card handed over by the waiter. This card was the one that was tied up to his father. He didn't expect that Lin's company would react so fast. As soon as Sylvia called them to withdraw the money, the money in the card was gone.

The Lin family was not joking!

Teddy took out another card and said, "Use this card."

The waiter had a POS machine in his hand and swiped the card on the spot. "I'm sorry, sir. It shows that this card is frozen."

"Frozen?" Teddy's heart sank as he took out another card.

"Sir, this one is also frozen."

"This..." Teddy was a little confused. The two cards he took out one after another were issued according to the credit cards connected to his father's company. At this time, Lin's company withdrew funds, and the company's funds were stopped, so the credit cards were naturally frozen.

Teddy only had these three cards. There was some money on his mobile phone, but it was not enough to pay for this bill.

Teddy laid his eyes on the few people who were eating at his table and said, "Whoever has money, help me pay first, and I'll give it back to you later."

"Oh, I didn't bring my card and my phone is out of power. Just now my wife urged me to go home, so I have to go now." The man who had been supporting Teddy moments ago got up and left first. Anyone with eyes could see that Teddy had offended Henry and Lins Group, so his funds were frozen. If they were to borrow him money now, they would never get it back.

With the first person taking the lead, the rest of the people also spoke out, looking for an excuse to leave. No one was willing to lend money to Teddy. These people who had just been flattering Teddy did not want to have anything to do with Teddy at the moment.

"Sir, how do you want to pay?" The waiter looked at the scene in front of him, took out the walkie-talkie and was ready to report to the manager.

Henry sat aside. At this time, the dishes he ordered had been served on the table, and he was enjoying his meal.

Teddy's heart was filled with regret. The situation in front of him had been caused by him.

Henry and the others didn't look at Teddy again.

"By the way, this is for you." Sylvia took out a document and put it on the table. "President Qin just brought Lisa up first, and I went to take this."

"This is..." Henry opened the document handed over by Sylvia. It was a property transfer agreement, and Sylvia had signed it.

Sylvia said, "Anna sent me a message at noon today. She said that you are going to set up a security company. The company has an empty building, so you can use it."

Henry smiled gently. The two people who were compatible with each other were like this. There were some things that the other party did not need to ask, and the other person would take the initiative to do it, but Henry did not accept the contract.

"My dear wife, I don't intend to make a big deal out of this security company. Forget about the building. Do you have any smaller business rooms?"

"Business rooms?" Sylvia thought for a moment and said, "There are a few empty. Where do you probably want?"

Henry did not think much and replied, "The closer to the company, the better. It's best to be between the company and the house."

What Henry had to do this time was to set up his men in Yinzhou openly to protect Sylvia and the rest of the people he cared about. He had always had this thought. This time, the incident with Cody had even reminded Henry. Luckily, nothing had happened to Sylvia, otherwise, Henry would definitely not forgive him.

"Okay, let's go to the company tomorrow morning. I'll ask Secretary Lee to check it out for you."

After having late dinner in a pleasant environment, Henry found that Sylvia and Jenny had more and more topics to talk about, and they were more familiar with each other. Sometimes, when they called each other, they would directly call each other names, they no longer called each other President Lin and President Qin.

Henry, of course, was happy to see this.

Early the next morning, Henry took on the role of a driver and took the three women to the company.

What made Henry a little strange was that Sylvia would sit in the back seat with Jenny and Lisa, and the front seat next to him was empty.

Secretary Lee had received Sylvia's phone call early. When Henry arrived at the company, the secretary had already prepared some files about a few empty business rooms between the Lins Group and their house.

Henry glanced at the files and finally decided to take a business room of about three hundred square meters. This business room had two floors. They should only change the position of the door. It would be mainly used to show to the government. Unlike Collier Security Company, there would not a place to train staff.

The people who were recruited by Henry were all trained like devils. Each of them was definitely the top figure in the bodyguard circle.

The secretary took a look at the business room that Henry chose and said, "Mr. Zhang, I remember there is a security company next to this business room. You may have a business conflict. I suggest changing it."

"It's all right." Henry waved his hand. He would not provide any services to other people. Even if the whole street were full of security companies, it would have no influence on him.

"Okay, Mr. Zhang, if you need anything, just contact me." Secretary Lee said to Henry and left Sylvia's office.

Sylvia stopped typing and looked at Henry curiously, "Why do you suddenly want to open a security company?"

Henry said with a wry smile, "Recently, the situation in the underground world is turbulent, and many forces are ready to take action. I have to ensure your safety."

Sylvia felt apologetic when she heard that. If she wasn't too weak and had the ability to protect herself, she wouldn't have made Henry worry about her like that. If only she could be like Cesia. Both her family and the Su Family couldn't compare with Henry's Radiant Island. The family who dared to go against Henry naturally wouldn't care about the Su Family.

Henry noticed that there was something wrong with Sylvia. He walked behind Sylvia and massaged her shoulders. "Honey, what's wrong with you?"

"Nothing." Sylvia shook her head, with a smile on her face, "I'm just thinking if you directly arrange for people to come in, won't they attract the authorities?"

"Don't worry." Henry smiled confidently. "There are some things that everyone knows well."

While they were chatting, the phone on Sylvia's desk suddenly rang.

Sylvia glanced at it, showing the front desk's number.

She pressed the answer button. After about a second, the receptionist's crisp voice sounded, "President Lin, someone is looking for Mr. Zhang, the identity of the person..."

The receptionist didn't finish her words. Obviously, the other side's identity was unusual.
