“Alright. No problem!” Maria replied hurriedly.

George nodded and hung up before rubbing his palms together and stared at everyone around him. “Gentlemen! Why don’t we celebrate with a bottle of champagne after making a breakthrough like this?!”

Everyone broke into laughter. However, they all had a heated look on their faces.

Life prolongation!

This was definitely the largest breakthrough in the human’s existence and was what Freemasonry had been striving to work toward all these years.

“Firstly, we found the gene for life prolongation on Tang Yuanbo and now we found the effect of increased activity in Ji Youyou’s cells...” George raised his wine glasses before chuckling and exclaimed, “This is a remarkable finding to us... As long as we can get our hands on these things, we will be able to prolong our lives and gather more wealth!”

“That’s great!”

“George, you’re very right about this!”

Everyone laughed around with glistening eyes. It was as if all of them had seen hope.

“What we need to do now is to make Tang Yin give us his methods... No matter where or how this method originated from, it should be a shared knowledge between us humans!” George roared in laughter.

Everyone nodded along. They agreed with what George was saying.

At the same time, Tang Yin who had just returned to the Meng Family from Beijing didn't know that he had just become part of human's shared property.

Right when Tang Yin landed, he spotted Meng Wan carrying Meng Nianyin as they stood a distance away and stared at Tang Yin.

Tang Yin grinned as he went forward to carry the child before they both headed into the Meng Family's living room.

“Old Man Hu Song's condition recently has been great, but he still doesn't show any signs of waking yet...” Meng Wan shook her head and lamented.

Tang Yin nodded. He wasn't really in a good mood.

Meng Nianyin, who was in Tang Yin's embrace, was giggling as she stared at Tang Yin with her large eyes while holding onto a milk bottle. Due to Meng Nianyin and Tang Yin's blood relation, it made them more intimate when they interacted with each other.

Meng Wan snatched the milk bottle that Meng Nianyin was holding away from her, causing her to pout and curl up pitifully in Tang Yin's embrace.

"Yuan Zhian and Pei Ruo had been making preparations for Southeast Asia..." It seemed like Meng Wan couldn't find any topics to talk about as she suggested gently, "Youyou had already gone to Switzerland. If you need to talk to her, I can contact her for you!"

"It's fine!" Tang Yin waved her off. After settling everything, he took the Tianshan snow lotus out.

Tang Yin snatched this Tianshan snow lotus from the Eight Great Families although he still didn't know the exact function of this item. However, Tang Yin was confident that the Tianshan snow lotus would be able to get Hu Song to wake up.

“I want you to keep this for me. I’ll figure out a way to use this to heal Master!” Tang Yin passed the Tianshan snow lotus onto Meng Wan’s hand.

“Sure!” Meng Wan nodded.

“Also...” Tang Yin trailed off before retrieving the Eight Great Families’ secret techniques books and placing them on the table. “These are all secret techniques! You can try now to cultivate them after ingesting the stalactite! After entering the Fundamental Level, you can start cultivating The God Record.”

“Alright!” Meng Wan nodded again. However, her cheeks were flushed lightly. She felt like she had become a housekeeper that helped Tang Yin to keep all his stuff.

“I’ll carry the child. Please contact Tao Qingfan and ask her to come over. She will be following me lately...” Tang Yin thought for a moment before instructing.

“Alright!” Meng Wan grabbed the books before turning around and headed outside.

Tang Yin was facing Meng Nianyin as he carried her. Staring at the little girl’s giggling face, Tang Yin placed his hand on her tiny wrist before the Inner Energy from his body started surging into Meng Nianyin’s body.

Meng Nianyin was stunned for a moment. She felt her body itching slightly as she wriggled around.

Chapter 780 Refusing to Leave It Alone

Tang Yin's face looked weird the moment his Inner Energy entered Meng Nianyin's body. There was actually very powerful energy residing in this child's body! Tang Yin would've not realized it if he didn't try to check. It seemed that they couldn't constantly consume the stalactite. If not, accidents might happen easily.

Tang Yin fell into silence before he tried to transfer the secret technique of Heart Sutra of Nine-Yins into Meng Nianyin's body.

Giggles...

Meng Nianyin's eyes widened in curiosity when she felt a warm surge in her body as she stared at Tang Yin and let out a silver bell of laughter. What bewildered Tang Yin the most was that the energy in the little girl's body started moving on its own after he ran it for a week.

Tang Yin stared at his daughter in shock as if he was staring at a baby monster. He tried to loosen up his grip on Meng Nianyin's wrist. However, he could still feel the little girl's Inner Energy moving on its own.

She could cultivate Inner Energy on her own?

Tang Yin was shocked. He didn't know if the reason why Meng Nianyin's body had so much power and started working on its own after his guidance was that she had been drinking too much stalactite during this period.

Chapter 780 Refusing to Leave It Alone

This was unbelievable!

Tang Yin's lips twitched slightly. If this continued on, Meng Nianyin would be able to reach Fundamental Level in less than a few years!

A five years old reaching Fundamental Level?

This was literally out of anyone's imagination!

While Tang Yin was still in shock, Ji Youyou was in shock as well.

After waking up in the morning, Ji Youyou opened the door to her house to see Louis standing at the entrance with a gentle smile on his face while holding another bouquet of flowers.

“I accidentally overheard yesterday that you actually stay very near to me so I came over here today to pick you up for work!” Louis smiled lightly before he casually placed the bouquet of flowers that he was holding in Ji Youyou’s hands.

Ji Youyou fell into silence at that. Then, she shook her head and rejected him. “I’m sorry but I won’t accept your flowers!”

“Why’s that so?” Louis stared at Ji Youyou in confusion before he grinned again. “Don’t be worried. I just really felt like gifting you a bunch of flowers...”

Ji Youyou shook her head and stared heading to her car. Ohashi Miki, who was walking behind her, looked like she was ready to fight.

“Why are you still driving? Since I'm already here, just let me fetch you there...” Louis grinned and suggested before reaching out to grab Ji Youyou’s wrist.

“Let go of her!” Ohashi Miki’s eyebrows were in a deep frown.

Ji Youyou instinctively retracted her hand. She looked upset now. “Mr. Louis, I hope you understand that we are just colleagues...”

“Of course! However, we can go to work and clock out together as colleagues too! I can come over to fetch you...”

“That's not necessary!” Ji Youyou shook her head before opening her car door.

“Won't you at least give me a chance to send you to work? I feel like I have fallen in love with you since the moment I saw you...” Louis anxiously tried to block the car door.

However, Ohashi Miki had already gone forward and slammed her feet onto Louis' abdomen without any warning. She then directly kicked him three meters away.
