“There are submarines beneath the ocean...”

“There are submarines! Get the anti-submarine warfare helicopters to lift off!”

“Hurry up. Act now...”

Without the commander, the soldiers of the fleet lost their backbone as they growled. They seemed to have descended into disorder, so all they could do was to yell aimlessly.

After the submarines beneath the ocean launched the first round of torpedoes, they soon launched the second round.

Countless explosions blasted on the ocean again like fireworks.

Chapter 814

George turned pale upon seeing that. The old butler and he had gotten onto a speedboat and fled the scene in embarrassment.

It was a total failure!

The fleets of more than sixty battleships only managed to launch two missiles at Tang Island after they reached their destination.

The effect of the missiles was minimal. However, the loss of the fleets was unbearable for George. Facing such a problem, even Freemasonry had to explain themselves to the Congress.

“Tang Yin...” George snarled as the veins on his forehead protruded. At that moment, no one could understand his resentment.

Chapter 814

The old butler heaved a sigh and accelerated the speed of the speedboat to flee the scene. He didn't know how long the petrol of the boat could last. They might not even be able to get help after the petrol was exhausted.

Meanwhile, Tang Yin and Ouyang Xiang were heading for Tang Island on another speedboat.

Tang Yin managed to win the war with minimum effort.

Even Freemasonry couldn't bear the loss of more than sixty battleships, which was good news to the Tang Family. If they could be the ultimate winner in their war against

Chapter 814

Freemasonry, then the reputation of the Tang Family would be strengthened.

Tens of meters away, a few battleships were moving slowly. The booming sounds in the distance made Tang Ke excited.

“Looks like the war has started.”

Tang Ke’s lips curved into a mocking smile. Like a playboy on vacation, he was seated in a chair on the deck and gazed at the rising sun.

“I think so!” Patriarch Ruan said.

“Patriarch Ruan, how many rounds of gunfire do you think Tang Lijiang could take?” In a pleasant mood, Tang Ke crossed his legs and commented after a laugh, “It would be embarrassing of him if he couldn’t even take one round of gunfire!”

Chapter 814

“I don’t think so.” Patriarch Ruan gave it a thought and replied gently, “Judging from the sounds we’ve heard so far, it should be the second round now. As soon as the fleets of Freemasonry reach Tang Island, the war will be over!”

“Hahaha...” Tang Ke guffawed and curled his lips. “It’s a pity that I can’t witness the death of Tang Lijiang. Otherwise, I’d be able to spend the rest of my life in joy!”

“You’re right!” Patriarch Ruan smiled and gave it a thought before saying, “I’ve just received the news that the commotion of the gangs in Man City has caused a huge problem for us!”

“Ignore them!” Tang Ke swung his hand. “After Tang Lijiang and Tang Yin die, I won’t be afraid of anyone else.”

Patriarch Ruan thought about it and found him reasonable. After the demise of the Tang Family, Tang Ke would be free from any threats. He would be able to deal with those gangs by then.

“Sir, we’ve found a speedboat approaching our fleet...”

“He’s coming!” Overjoyed, Tang Ke stood straight up and walked up to the deck. Gazing at the dark spot in the distance, he guffawed. “Tang Lijiang, do you want to flee with a speedboat? What a shame! I’m already in your way!”

Chapter 814

“That’s right!” Patriarch Ruan said.

“Get the cannons ready and aim at that speedboat!” Tang Ke raised his hand and flung it. “Open fire!”

With that, the cannons of the fleet shifted direction and aimed at the approaching speedboat before opening fire.

Boom, boom, boom...

Bombs were soon launched at the boat.

Seated in the speedboat, George’s expression changed when he saw the fleet firing bombs at him. “Tang Ke, you’re a dumbass. How dare you open fire at me?”

Chapter 814

Tang Ke couldn't hear his voice. After the bombs were launched, he laughed on the bow of the ship.

"Run!" The old butler hugged George and jumped into the ocean.

Boom...

The speedboat was blown up and turned into flames.

"Sir, they have jumped into the ocean."

"Have they? Do they think they would be alright in the ocean? Put our speedboat on the ocean, I want to kill Tang Lijiang with my own gun..." Tang Ke guffawed and reached for the speedboat.

Patriarch Ruan followed him. After all, their opponent was Tang Lijiang. He wanted to see for himself how Tang Ke was going to kill Tang Lijiang.

Chapter 814

After the speedboat was released to the ocean, they brought along seven more people and headed for the location where George jumped off the boat.

Meanwhile, Tang Yin and Ouyang Xiang were approaching Tang Island.

Standing on the cliff, Tang Lijiang and Jiang Hui gazed at the sinking battleships in the distance with complicated expressions. They thought it was going to be a hard battle, but it turned out to be an easy one.

They were astounded at the appearance of Tang Yin.

Chapter 814

Tang Lijiang looked at Jiang Hui and remarked after a sigh, "Our son has grown up!"

"Pfft!" Jiang Hui snorted. After Tang Yin landed on the shore, she hurriedly walked over.

Everyone on Tang Island started cheering.

The warriors of the Dragon Camp were not fools. When they saw the fleets in the distance descending into chaos, they knew that the Tang Family had won the war.

As a triumphant warrior, Tang Yin appeared at the dock of the Tang Island. He was then greeted by the excited cheer from the Dragon Camp's warriors.

Jiang Hui walked over and looked at her son with a smile. The boy who initially needed her protection had finally turned into a man who could defend the Tang Family, which made Jiang Hui feel delighted.

Standing on the cliff, Tang Lijiang looked at Tang Yin and frowned before saying to the old butler beside him, “Make sure the news isn’t spread...”

The old butler was startled for a moment and came to his senses. “You want to—”

“Yes!” Tang Lijiang nodded and stopped the old butler from finishing his words. Gazing at the ocean, he took a deep breath and continued, “The Tang Family needs a shake-up!”

Chapter 815

Meanwhile, Tang Ke was driving the speedboat toward the boat that had been blown up.

“Kill him! Kill him!” Tang Ke stood at the front of the speedboat with a machine gun in his hands and laughed. “Tang Lijiang, go to hell!”

Pop, pop, pop...

Tang Ke opened fire with his machine gun, which caused the water to splash messily.

“Aren’t you very powerful? Aren’t you invincible? My good uncle... You have been the Patriarch of the Tang Family for years. I’m sure it never crossed your mind that you’d die in my hands one day.” Tang Ke went mad and growled as he charged forward and kept shooting the machine gun. "The Tang Family? It has fallen under your management. This means that you're just a dumbass. If the Tang Family were in my hands, it would have reached a higher level..."

Chapter 815

The engine of the speedboat kept roaring.

Just then, an explosion blasted on the ocean. Like a ferocious giant, a huge figure appeared in the ocean and launched itself at Tang Ke's boat.

Tang Ke was stunned upon seeing that as his pupils contracted. It never crossed his mind that such a thing would appear in the ocean out of nowhere.

Chapter 815

Is that a human at all? It's a monster!

“Open fire!” When the old butler’s body was falling, Tang Ke regained senses and growled in shock as he fired gunshots.

Pop, pop, pop...

The people around Tang Ke started taking action and opened fire at the old butler’s body.

The old butler’s body seemed to have animalized. His clothes had split up, his muscles had swollen significantly, his facial features had deepened, and his eyes had turned red.

This kind of transformation was horrifying.

Chapter 815

The bullets they fired at the old butler could only blow up his muscles and cause him to bleed, but they could never incur any fatal damage to him.

Thud. The old butler landed on the boat and slapped one person away before he grabbed another person and lifted him.

Crack.

Before the person could react, the old butler had twisted his neck.

Seeing that, Tang Ke staggered backward in fright and fell on his bottom. "What is going on? What kind of monster are you?"

The old butler killed all the people on the speedboat in a short time and gazed at Tang Ke.

Chapter 815

Tang Ke gulped and turned pale. “W-
What are you trying to do?”

“Dumbass!” Just then, George surfaced on the ocean and swam toward them. “Tang Ke, you’re a dumbass! You almost killed me...”

“Mr. George?” Tang Ke turned a shade paler. “I-I...”

The old butler looked meaningfully at Tang Ke and jumped into the ocean before he hugged George and jumped back onto the boat.

“Dumbass!” George raised his hand and gave Tang Ke a forceful slap. “Can’t you differentiate friends from foes? Didn’t you see it was me? Why would I be on the same boat with a dumbass like you?”

Chapter 815

“I-I...” Tang Ke directly fell on his knees.
“Mr. George...”

George turned pale in anger and grabbed Tang Ke’s hair. “Do you think you’re powerful enough to kill me now? Do you want your businesses in Southeast Asia to collapse?”

“I-I didn’t recognize you. Sorry!” Tang Ke was flustered and begged.

George sneered and pushed him away before shifting his attention to Tang Island. “Pass on my order. Launch all the missiles on your six battleships at Tang Island...”

Chapter 815

“I...” Tang Ke was on the brink of bursting into tears. “My battleships aren’t equipped with missiles!”

“Then shoot the cannons!” George turned around and growled at him.

“Okay! Okay!” Tang Ke nodded and fished out his interphone. “Shoot the cannons at Tang Island! Shoot the cannons at Tang Island! Hurry up! Right now!”

With that, all the cannons on the six battleships aimed at Tang Island.

When the order was given, tens of cannons launched the bombs at the island.

“Run!” With a dark expression, George

Chapter 815

ordered, "Go back to the ship and leave this ocean!"

"Run?" Tang Ke's expression changed and he hurriedly said, "Mr. George, our firepower is strong enough to take control of Tang Island. I know the firepower of Tang Island very well. I'm sure I can kill all the people on the island with my firearms!"

"Leave now if you don't want to die!" George said gloomily and told the old butler to start the engine before they headed for Tang Ke's battleship.

Meantime, tens of bombs were dropped onto Tang Island.

Booming sounds were heard everywhere.

Chapter 815

Tang Yin directly hugged Jiang Hui and Ouyang Xiang before tumbling down. Meanwhile, the Dragon Camp's warriors, who were still cheering, couldn't react in time. After the dozen bombs exploded, more than ten of them lost their lives.

"Lie down!"

"Look for bunkers now!"

Tang Lijiang's eyes reddened when he saw that from the cliff.

Tang Yin raised his head and looked at the people in the distance before rushing forward.

"Where are you going?" Jiang Hui yelled.

Without answering her question, Tang

Chapter 815

Yin got into a speedboat and started the engine before rushing to the location where the bombs were launched.

Just then, Tang Ke and the others had just returned to their battleship.

“Leave now! Leave now!” George growled.

“Leave the ocean and go back now!” Tang Ke didn’t know what was going on, but he had to obey George’s order.

The battleship started moving and formed waves behind it.

The six battleships started returning to where they came from at the same time, which was an exhilarating sight. However, George didn’t care about the sight at all. He just wanted to leave the place as soon as possible.

Chapter 815

“Mr. George, we don’t have to be in a rush... With your more than sixty battleships over there, why should we be afraid of Tang Family people?” Tang Ke tried to console.

George turned around and clenched Tang Ke’s neck. “What is your motive for saying this?”

“W-What motive?” Tang Ke was shocked, for he didn’t understand what George was trying to say.

“Sir...” Just then, the normalized old butler scurried over and reported, “Tang Yin... is coming!”

Chapter 816

“What did you say?” George’s expression changed drastically.

“Tang Yin... He’s coming!” the old butler said nervously.

“Mr. George, what is there to be afraid of even if Tang Yin is coming? There are about a thousand people on my six battleships, so we don’t have to be afraid of him.” Tang Ke came forward and said after patting his chest, “Leave him to me. I’ll kill him for you now!”

“Dumba*s!” George snarled.

Tang Ke was startled, not understanding what George meant.

“Since he’s coming...” George gritted his teeth.

Chapter 816

“Mr. George, leave it to me... I’ll turn him into a corpse!” Tang Ke was unbelievably confident.

“Okay!” George said coldly.

Overjoyed, Tang Ke walked to the deck and saw a speedboat approaching from the distance. “Get all the cannons ready. Aim at Tang Yin and kill him...” Tang Ke laughed and waved his hand at the people behind him. Upon command, the cannons shifted direction and aimed at Tang Yin’s boat.

“Let’s send Tang Yin to meet his Maker now!” Tang Ke guffawed and swung his hand. “Open fire!”

Boom, boom, boom... More than ten bombs were launched in the direction of Tang Yin. The bom bs, which were fuming with flames, fell upon Tang Yin.

Chapter 816

Seeing this, Tang Yin controlled the steering wheel with one hand and swiftly made a turn before accelerating. More than ten bombs landed beside him and blasted on the ocean, which almost made the boat flip over.

Tang Ke's expression changed, for he could not believe that Tang Yin managed to dexterously dodge more than ten bombs. "Open fire!" he growled with reddened eyes.

Just then, George came forward with a pale face. Tang Yin is so powerful! More than ten bombs were launched again and blasted on the ocean, yet Tang Yin once again managed to dodge the bombs perfectly and escaped unscathed.

Chapter 816

“Open fire!” Tang Ke snarled. He could not believe that Tang Yin could pull off such a feat. How did he manage to take control and dodge more than ten bombs? How skillful must he be to achieve that?

Gripped by a feeling of fear, George turned gloomy. More than sixty battleships had been destroyed by Tang Yin, so could Tang Ke’s six battleships withstand it? That was impossible!

“Open fire!” Tang Ke went mad, for he had no way to stop Tang Yin’s boat from approaching. Moreover, he could feel that Tang Yin’s expression was filled with murderous intent. “How is that possible?” When the last bombs were launched, Tang Ke felt cold all over his body. Tang Yin was just a hundred meters apart from his battleship. If Tang Yin could sidestep the bombs at such a distance, what else couldn't he do?

“Run! Run!” Tang Ke finally understood why George wanted him to speed off right after the latter stepped on the boat, for Tang Yin was no different from an indestructible demon.

“Run...” Tang Ke turned around and growled as cold sweat dripped from his forehead. “Open fire! Where are the machine guns? Stop him...”

Just then, Tang Yin made a leap and launched himself at the battleship like a cannonball. Tang Ke was so shocked that he staggered backward and fell on his bottom. With a dark expression, George turned to his butler and demanded, "Hurry up! Stop him!"

Chapter 816

Chapter 816

The old butler drew a deep breath and clenched his fists as his body animalized. His muscles swelled and tore apart his clothes. Whoosh! Upon George's urge, the old butler charged forward and pounced on Tang Yin.

Seeing the old butler, Tang Yin's heart sank as he understood the power of Drug No. 4. He also knew that the drug was developed using the genes extracted from Tang Yuanbo's body and then injected into the old butler's body. It was a shortcut to increase a person's power significantly in a short time.

Chapter 816

Thud! Their fists touched and caused the water to shoot up more than ten meters. Tang Yin was pushed backward from the impact and fell on the surface of the ocean. Then, he mustered his inner energy and stamped on the ocean before flying back to the battleship.

“Argh!” George’s old butler summoned all his energy. His eyes were so red that they almost bled. Tang Yin’s punch forced him to move tens meters backward; the former’s inner energy also lingered on his body and almost made his muscles explode.

Thud! They clashed again. Tang Yin raised his arm and tried to hit the old butler’s neck with the side of his palm.

“Shoot his speedboat! Blow up his boat!” George suddenly growled. Tang Yin was in a combat with the old butler, therefore the boat was left empty. George decided that he had to destroy Tang Yin’s boat first.

Chapter 816

“Shoot his boat!” Tang Ke came to his senses and snarled, “Now!”

Pop, pop, pop... His subordinates hurriedly fired gunshots at Tang Yin’s speedboat. The vacant speedboat was blown up after a short while. Meanwhile, Tang Yin managed to strike the old butler’s neck with the side of his palm. With a crack, the old butler’s neck was broken. Despite that, the animalized old butler managed to punch Tang Yin’s chest twice.

Tang Yin successfully protected his body from any harm with his inner energy, but the punches pushed him into the ocean. The old butler's eyes bled, and his neck was twisted. As he was falling into the ocean, he opened his mouth wide and tried to bite Tang Yin's neck.

Chapter 816

Tang Yin landed a punch on his chest and destroyed all his organs. However, the old butler was resilient as he grabbed Tang Yin's arms.

"Go to hell!" Tang Yin summoned his inner energy and formed a swirl before he sent the old butler into the air. Then, he leaped into the air and stamped forcefully on the old butler's spine, which caused him to plunge into the ocean.

Chapter 816

The seawater splashed as the bubbles popped on the surface. Standing from afar, Tang Yin glared coldy at the fleeing George and the others before charging forward.

Chapter 817

“Open fire! Open fire!” After Tang Yin killed the old butler, George turned pale and growled at Tang Ke.

“Open fire! What are you waiting for? Open fire!” Tang Ke regained senses and shouted at the people around him, “What are you waiting for? Open fire!”

Pop, pop, pop...

Countless bullets were shot at Tang Yin.

Tang Yin formed a blast before him, which seemed to have twisted the space.

Although the bullets didn't harm Tang Yin, they managed to slow him down. The bullets exploded when they reached the blast and turned into little swirls.

Chapter 817

Tang Yin decided to halt his steps. His legs were submerged in the ocean, and he would soon sink into it.

Although Tang Yin had abundant inner energy, there was nowhere on the ocean for him to exert his force, therefore he couldn't walk on water for a long time. Moreover, his opponents had plentiful firearms, hence it wasn't easy to get onto the ship.

After Tang Ke's battleship fled the scene, Tang Yin shot an impassive look at it and turned around before reaching for Tang Island.

Right then, George and Tang Ke fell on the deck, still reeling from shock. If Tang Yin managed to get on the ship, all of them would have died in the most miserable way.

“What happened?” Tang Ke regained senses and turned to George. He knew that Tang Yin was powerful, but the latter’s power had exceeded his imagination.

With a dark expression, George turned around and walked into the cabin. “Go to the shore. I’m going back by plane!”

“Go to the shore? We need at least three days to reach the nearest dock. I’m afraid...” Tang Ke explained.

“Then accelerate!” George snarled. He couldn’t imagine what kind of setback Freemasonry would suffer after the operation failed.

Chapter 817

Freemasonry had never suffered such a massive loss before. The managers of Freemasonry were all merciless people who made money off wars. After suffering such a huge setback, there would certainly be a shake-up within the organization.

George couldn't imagine what situation he would find himself in after he returned. He didn't want to think about it for now, because he just wanted to go back as soon as possible so that he could suppress the opposing voices.

Tang Ke didn't dare confront George, hence he could only tell his subordinates to reach the nearest shore as quickly as possible.

He was afraid of Tang Yin's power. He also wanted to return to Southeast Asia hurriedly so that he could strengthen his own defenses.

Chapter 817

Southeast Asia was his den. He believed that after he returned, he would have the power to deal with Tang Yin. If Tang Yin wanted to go to Southeast Asia, he had better be prepared to lose his life there.

Meantime, Tang Ke's den in Southeast Asia was going through some changes.

Man City was one of the largest cities in Southeast Asia which was densely populated and economically vibrant. After years of development, the city had developed its own unique culture and custom. That was why many foreigners had flocked into the city.

Chapter 817

A series of loud footsteps were heard inside a wooden house in the southwest of Man City. Tens of muscular men flocked into the wooden house before gunshots were heard in an instant.

After the yelling subsided, the wooden house fell into silence.

The entire incident took only three minutes, but it had caught the attention of nearby residents. The muscular men who had entered the house were jumping out from the windows.

A boat was slowly approaching on a river not far away from the wooden house.

Seated on the wooden boat, Yuan Zhian gazed at the wooden house through her sunglasses and curled her lips.

“Madam, Chacai is dead...” Behind Yuan Zhian’s boat, another boat came near as a man in his forties moved forward. With his head hung low, he told Yuan Zhian, “Of the three major gangs in Man City, only Yuenan Gang and us are left...”

Yuan Zhian nodded and asked, “How many of our people are dead?”

“About twenty five people... Since we decided to go against Chacai, we’ve lost twenty five men!” Jin Zhanwen said in a low voice.

Yuan Zhian nodded and picked up a glass of wine before she took a sip and questioned, “Have you investigated Yuenan Gang’s background?”

Chapter 817

“Yes, I have! Yuenan Gang is just the lackey of the Ruan Family. They’re basically working for them. If we want to destroy Yuenan Gang, we may offend the Ruan Family in the process!” Jin Zhanwen answered.

Yuan Zhian nodded and said gently, “You don’t have to worry about it. Your main task now is to find out all the members of Yuenan Gang and kill them...”

“Kill them?” Jin Zhanwen stammered in shock, “T-This...”

“What? Are you afraid?” Yuan Zhian smiled and put down the glass of wine before gazing at the mountain in the distance. “Stop worrying. Instead of showing your fear to me, you should execute my order!”

“Yes!” Jin Zhanwen nodded and bent over before moving backward. Then, he went to his own boat and left the place.

Yuan Zhian picked up the glass of wine again and took a sip. Just when she wanted to put it down, two speedboats suddenly appeared in front of her.

A few young policemen were seated in the boats.

Their leader stared at Yuan Zhian through his sunglasses. When the speedboats neared Yuan Zhian’s boat, he waved his hand at the people behind him so that their speedboats would slow down as they approached Yuan Zhian’s boat.

“Miss Yuan?”

Yuan Zhian raised her head and looked disdainfully at him. “Mr. Bassong? What a coincidence. Are you here to have a stroll?”

“Sorry, I’m on duty!” Bassong smiled with a playful look on his tanned face. “Miss Yuan, did you hear the gunshots not far from here?”

“Gunshots?” Yuan Zhian feigned surprise. “Were there gunshots? Why did I not hear it?”

“Maybe you’re too focused on the view around here.” Bassong grinned and jumped onto Yuan Zhian’s boat before saying with a smile, “Miss Yuan, it’s not safe around here. I hope that you’ll follow me to the police station so that I can ensure your safety. What do you think?”

Chapter 817

“What if I say I don’t need your protection?” Yuan Zhian raised her head and stared coldly at Bassong.

Chapter 818

“Miss Yuan, your safety is our responsibility. I’m sure you know that the police of Man City have always been brilliant. With our protection, you will be alright!” Bassong assured with a smile.

“Why will I be in danger?” Yuan Zhian raised an eyebrow. “Are you suspicious of me?”

“I hope that you’ll cooperate with us!” Bassong extended his hand, making a ‘please’ gesture.

Yuan Zhian sneered and stood straight up. “Are you sure you want to arrest me? If you do that, you’ll have a hard time making me leave!”

“This is not an arrest. I’m just trying to ensure your safety.” Bassong kept his smile.

“Alright!” Without speaking further, Yuan Zhian walked over to Bassong’s speedboat.

Bassong turned around with a weird gaze and waved his hand at his subordinates before the boats moved along the river and headed for the police station.

On their way there, Yuan Zhian kept the smile on her face, but her heart had sunk.

Since coming to Man City, she had always been careful with her every move. However, three days ago, this man called Bassong found her and claimed that she had something to do with the clash of the gangs.

Chapter 818

Yuan Zhian was shocked, for she didn't know how she was exposed. Therefore, she had become more careful with her every move for the past few days, but Bassong still managed to get to her.

The boats moved past the waterfront and stopped at the shore.

Yuan Zhian and Bassong landed on the shore and got into a car that brought them to the police station.

"Miss Yuan, in the light of your identity, you'll have to stay in the interrogation room... We will contact you whenever it's needed." Bassong stood aside and opened the door of the interrogation room with a smile on his face.

Chapter 818

Yuan Zhian nodded smilingly and walked into the room. Frowning, she could feel that the atmosphere in the room was creepy as though someone was watching her.

This was an uncomfortable feeling for her, so she summoned her inner energy to make herself warm.

After sending Yuan Zhian into the interrogation room, Bassong turned around and went to the room at the end of the corridor.

Nearing the room, Bassong became humble and adjusted his clothes before knocking on the door gently.

“Come in!” A hoarse voice was heard in the room, as though the speaker was trying to keep her voice low.

Chapter 818

Bassong pushed the door open and tried to get used to the darkness in the room. Soon, he made out the view inside.

An old lady in her seventies was seated in the center of the room. She was surrounded by three earthen jars that were half a meter in height. Nobody knew what were inside the jars, which were engraved with ghostly patterns.

A scarf was draped around the old lady's head as she looked down at the floor. When she saw Bassong walking in, she slowly raised her gaze.

In that instant, Bassong could feel that he was surrounded by an atmosphere of relentless creepiness.

“Aunty, I’ve arrested Yuan Zhian!”
Bassong hurriedly reported.

“That’s great!” Magu nodded. Her wrinkles were as coarse as the tree bark. When she smiled, her wrinkles creased together. “Do you see how unusual she is?”

“No!” Bassong shook his head.

Magu’s grin widened. “There’s some unusual energy in her!”

“What kind of energy?”

“That’s the inner energy that was recorded in ancient Chinese books! Do you know what my kids love to eat the most? It's inner energy!" Magu laughed cruelly and stroked the earthen jars in front of her.

Chapter 818

Some growling sounds were then heard from the jars, which sounded like hungry stomachs.

Bassong's expression changed when he heard those sounds, for he once saw for himself how horrifying those creatures inside the jars were. When he was a kid, he was almost pulled into the jars.

"Aunty... She's just a suspect. Are we really going to take action?" Bassong asked gently.

"What do you know?" With an ecstatic gaze, Magu snarled, "She's just a suspect? That's more than enough.

Chapter 818

What else do we need? Aren't you curious why she has inner energy? You have to understand that inner energy exists only in legends... If we could make use of her inner energy, it would be hugely beneficial to us! By then, I may be as powerful as my senior, Master Ayero. Spread the news that the recent clash between the gangs in Man City might have something to do with her, so the police have to detain her for the time being!"

"Yes!" Bassong nodded and slowly moved backward.

"Wait a minute..." Magu said as her gaze beamed with a ruthless glint. "After you leave this room, chase the people outside the interrogation room away. I may make some noises later!"

Chapter 818

“Okay!” Frightened, Bassong nodded and moved backward before he closed the door gently.

Upon leaving the room, he heaved a sigh of relief. Although the person inside was his aunt, he had always been afraid of her since young. Whenever he had to meet her, his legs would tremble uncontrollably.

“Tell everyone on this floor to leave. We need no one here...” Bassong walked along the corridor and said to the people at the end of the corridor before going downstairs.

The policemen nodded and left the place.

Magu laughed wickedly inside the room and stroked the jars in front of her as she said smilingly, “My kids... some delicious food is waiting for you... Do you know that there’s your favorite food in the adjacent room?”

Chapter 818

Growl...

The three jars became restless and swayed around while making some strange sounds.

“There’s no rush... There’s no rush... All of you will have enough food!” Magu giggled and touched the edge of the jar before she lifted the cap and said with a weird smile, “Go. Eat as you please...”

With that, an infant’s arm appeared at the edge of the jar. The arm was bloodied and terrifying.

Chapter 818

“Grr...” A strange voice was heard from the jar. Then, a head as big as a fist surfaced from the jar and looked at Magu.

Chapter 819

“My kids...” Magu laughed madly as her face flushed with blood. “Go eat your food. You deserve it...”

Squeak...

The monster opened its mouth and showed its sharp teeth.

“Alright... The two of them are going as well!” Magu smiled and extended her hand to lift the caps of the other two earthen jars. Two identical monsters climbed out of the jars.

“Go, eat her flesh and drink her blood...” Magu said with a laugh.

The three monsters climbed through the hole on the wall and disappeared from the room. Meanwhile, Yuan Zhian had just composed herself and made a call to Pei Ruo to tell her about the situation she was in.

Chapter 819

Just then, she could feel a cold wind gushing from behind.

Shocked, she turned around and shrieked in fright.

A head as big as a fist appeared at the corner of the interrogation room as it stared fixedly at Yuan Zhian with its bloodshot eyes.

Yuan Zhian had never seen such a thing before. Although she was a ferocious person, she was a woman after all. When she saw such a monster, she was frightened and immediately jumped onto the desk.

Chapter 819

The monster squeaked and climbed across the hole. Following that, two more monsters appeared from the hole. When all three monsters were there, Yuan Zhian trembled in fright and hurriedly called Tang Yin.

Squeak...

Seeing Yuan Zhian's terrified look, the monsters opened their mouths and pounced on her.

"Ah!" Yuan Zhian screamed and kicked one of them with her inner energy.

Thud. The first monster which threw itself at Yuan Zhian was kicked away. The second one reached Yuan Zhian's side and tried to bite her ankle.

Chapter 819

“Go away!” Yuan Zhian yelled and kicked the monster away. Then, the third monster opened its mouth and bit her wrist.

“What is going on?” Tang Yin asked over the phone.

“Save me...” Yuan Zhian became mad and quickly asked for help. Just then, the monster that had been kicked away pounced on her again and clawed at her waist.

Yuan Zhian couldn't dodge it as her waist was slit open and bled.

The monster's gaze beamed with a red glint while it licked its fingers to taste the blood.

Chapter 819

“Tang Yin, save me...” Yuan Zhian grunted.

“What is going on? Your inner energy...” Tang Yin shouted.

Right then, the three monsters launched themselves at Yuan Zhian and bit her fingers. Yuan Zhian felt a sharp pain in her fingers, which felt like they would soon be bitten off.

Then, she hurriedly flung her hands to cast them away. After that, the monsters charged forward again.

When Magu in the adjacent room heard Yuan Zhian’s scream, she giggled.

Inner energy!

Chapter 819

It was the best tonic for her three monsters. Having eaten her flesh which contained inner energy, the monsters' power would increase significantly.

Meantime, Pei Ruo had walked out of her company.

Since coming to Man City, she had been very generous, for she had the support of the Tang Family in terms of power and finance. Therefore, she had sponsored a few business partners in an attempt to deal with Tang Ke.

No one had expected that such a thing would happen to Yuan Zhian at this point.

“Go to the police station...” Pei Ruo ordered coldly upon getting into the car, feeling anxious.

Tang Yin had just called her to ask about Yuan Zhian's condition. She only knew that Yuan Zhian had been arrested and knew nothing else.

The car moved along the streets at full speed and rushed toward the police station.

Since their arrival at Man City, everything had been going well according to their plan and they were never exposed. Moreover, Tang Ke wasn't in Southeast Asia during this period of time, so Pei Ruo was perplexed as to the culprit behind this.

When they reached the police station, Pei Ruo left the car in a hurry and rushed into the station with her people.

Meanwhile, Bassong was making a speech at a press conference.

“We have found the culprit behind the clashes between the gangs! The police will punish her accordingly based on the severity of the matter. I hereby urge the public to rest assured that the police will give everyone an explanation...”

After Bassong finished his words, he hinted at his subordinates.

The crowd started making an applause as though Bassong was some kind of hero.

“Go ask him...” Pei Ruo’s heart sank when she heard that. She then told her subordinates to ask the police about it.

Chapter 819

After asking around, it was certain that Yuan Zhian had been arrested.

“Miss Pei, they said that we can’t bail her out because she has to be detained secretly.”

“Detained secretly? She’s not been prosecuted. How could she be detained secretly as a suspect?” The veins on Pei Ruo’s head protruded as she headed for the office. “Tell our lawyer to rush over. I have to see Yuan Zhian right now...”

“Sorry, you can’t see her...” Bassong walked over and stared at Pei Ruo before saying coldly, “Miss Yuan Zhian is involved in the clashes between the gangs, so we have to interrogate her...”

“Interrogate her? Why can’t she be accompanied by a lawyer?" Pei Ruo snarled.

Chapter 819

"No..." Bassong replied glacially.

Resentful, Pei Ruo took a few steps back. "Alright, if that were the case—"

Before she could finish her words, Pei Ruo tensed up and felt a chill moving down her spine, which caused all her joints to stiffen.

She turned around and saw someone walking downstairs with three earthen jars. Meanwhile, an old lady with a headscarf tottered down the stairs and stared fixedly at her.

"Miss Pei, you may leave now if you have nothing else." Bassong waved his hand disdainfully and tried to brush her off.

Chapter 819

Pei Ruo was oblivious to what Bassong said, for she could feel that the old lady's cold gaze was like daggers that caused a sharp pain on her skin and made her shudder.

Chapter 820

“Bassong, this young lady is beautiful...”
Magu said.

Pei Ruo tottered backward. She felt that her body became warm again after staying further away from Magu. “If we can't see her, I'll take my leave now!”

“Wait a minute!” Magu suddenly said with a weird smile, “Young lady, do you want to see Yuan Zhian?”

“I have something else to do!” Pei Ruo hung her head low and turned to leave.

After Pei Ruo left, Bassong looked doubtfully at Magu.

“Follow her! She has inner energy as well, so we can't let her escape!” Magu laughed coldly.

Chapter 820

“She has inner energy as well?”
Bassong was startled.

Overjoyed, Magu nodded lightly. She had never expected that two people with inner energy would appear at the door in one day. If both of them fell into her hands, she was certainly going to be more powerful than her senior, Master Ayero.

Just then, Pei Ruo walked out of the police station and got into her car before calling Tang Yin. She felt that something was wrong with the station, especially the woman who spoke to her.

Having been a businesswoman for years, how could she not sense that kind of malicious gaze?

Ring, ring, ring...

“Yes. How’s Yuan Zhian?” Tang Yin questioned anxiously.

“I’m not sure about it. After I walked into the police station, they wouldn’t even let me see her. Moreover, I felt that something was amiss in that place...”
Pei Ruo briefly explained what she saw.

“Get a place to hide. I’m going over...”
Tang Yin took a deep breath and hung up the call.

“Leave now!” Pei Ruo hurriedly ordered her driver. She felt that something was wrong with this place. Even if there were no problem, she wouldn’t want to stay there.

Chapter 820

She would still shudder when she recalled Magu's gaze a moment ago.

After their car sped off, Bassong got into his car and gazed at Pei Ruo's figure before curling his lips.

"Race after her. I suspect that she has something to do with the clashes as well! Why would she want to see Yuan Zhian when no one else did that?"

"Yes, sir!"

His subordinate started the engine and chased after Pei Ruo's car.

Ten minutes later, Pei Ruo noticed that they were being stalked.

"Move around the city!"

“Okay!”

These drivers came to this place with Pei Ruo from China, hence there was no problem with their loyalty and driving skill.

“Get ready to kill all the people who follow us!” Pei Ruo turned cold and regained composure from Magu’s stare. After some analysis, she felt that the matter was so creepy to the extent where she couldn’t understand it.

She had total confidence in Yuan Zhian’s capabilities. Other people might expose themselves accidentally, but Yuan Zhian wouldn’t allow that to happen to herself. It told of the matter’s severity if she was taken to the police station with such secrecy.

Chapter 820

Scrape... The car turned right in a hurry and moved into another road.

Pei Ruo turned around and realized that they never managed to leave their stalker far behind.

“Our people are coming...” the driver said gently as he could hear from the interphone that their helpers would arrive shortly.

“Ram into it!” Pei Ruo ordered without hesitation.

Bang...

A loud noise was heard behind her as a car crashed into Bassong’s car from the side.

Chapter 820

Both the cars were destroyed in the crash. Seated in the passenger's seat, Bassong held the handle and stabilized himself before growling, "F*ck!"

The other policemen were less agile as they hit the interior of the car and injured themselves.

"Get out of the car and race after them!" Enraged, Bassong yelled and kicked the door open. He realized that Pei Ruo was unpredictable and difficult to deal with.

"Arrest these people and report to the headquarters that we've found another suspect! The others will follow me!" Bassong snarled and fished out his gun.

Just then, guns appeared from the car which hit them a moment ago.

Chapter 820

“Lie down!” Bassong was shocked as he never had the time to open fire and lay on the ground immediately.

Pop, pop, pop...

unshots were heard instantly. The policemen who remained in the car were immediately injured.

The passersby shrieked as a few men in black suits got out of the car and aimed their guns at Bassong.

Frightened, Bassong rushed into one of the shops and took out his interphone to ask for help. “I need help! I need help! Get some people to help me now...”

Without saying a word, the men in black started firing gunshots at the shop where Bassong was in.

Chapter 820

Bassong immediately fled into the stairwell and screamed. Meanwhile, the passersby yelled and fled the scene.

Seeing that the situation was getting out of control, the men in black hurled two grenades into the shop and turned to leave.

Boom... The shop was blown up.

Bassong held his head and hid below the stairs. After he endured the impact of the explosion, his ears started bleeding.

“I need help! I need help!” Bassong slowly got up and yelled at his interphone, “I need more people to come over now. Speak no further...”

Chapter 820

With that, he threw away his interphone and rushed out of the demolished shop.

Sirens of police cars were heard outside the shop.

Bassong stopped one police car and growled, “Go! She’s just fled! Tell some people to get the surveillance footage. I have to get to that car and that woman...”

The car sped off and chased after Pei Ruo’s car.

At that moment, Pei Ruo clenched her phone with a dark expression.

“They may reach us soon...” the driver

Chapter 820

suddenly said. He knew that surveillance cameras were everywhere in Man City, thus it wasn't easy to escape.

“Look for a place with no surveillance cameras and stop the car.” Pei Ruo raised her head with a furious gaze.

“Stop the car?” The driver was startled as his expression changed. “Pei Ruo, what do you want to do?”

“Stop the car and let me out! You will move around the city with those people behind us. I have to go to the police station...” Upon finishing her words, Pei Ruo opened the door.

Chapter 821

I have to go to the police station!

Pei Ruo was set on paying the police station another visit.

Since she had been targeted by the police, she would let her driver lead the police around Man City. She had to check on Yuan Zhian's condition immediately.

They came to Man City together. If something happened to Yuan Zhian, Pei Ruo would blame herself.

When the driver heard that, he remained silent for a while and sped off.

Meanwhile, another car pulled up beside Pei Ruo.

Chapter 821

She opened the door and got into the car before watching countless police cars race after the car in front.

“Gather as many people as possible and rush to the police station!” Pei Ruo ordered with a gloomy expression and gazed out the window.

The driver stepped on the gas and reached for the police station.

As she gave out the orders, it was as though a net had fallen upon Man City.

Ten minutes later, Pei Ruo could see the police station from afar.

“Take action!” Things had come to such a point where she couldn’t hesitate anymore, hence she immediately gave an order on her interphone.

Chapter 821

Boom...

Just then, a huge missile appeared from somewhere and headed for the police station's entrance, whereupon it exploded and turned the place into flames. A huge pit was formed in the ground.

"Go!" Pei Ruo pushed the door open and picked up a machine gun from the car before she fired gunshots at the police station's windows.

Rat-tat-tat...

The bullets were launched from her machine gun. When the puzzled policemen stuck their heads out to have a look, they were immediately killed.

Chapter 821

“Team One, go... Team Two, follow along... Team Three, support us from afar. Team Four, get ready!”

As orders were given over the interphone, Team One with more than ten people rushed in and opened fire.

The police of Man City had always been reckless, therefore it never crossed their minds that people with such powerful firearms would storm into their place one day.

The policemen were put under control right after Pei Ruo's subordinates rushed in. Even with the guns in their hands, they could only make some futile counterattack.

Chapter 821

The counterattack was pointless to Pei Ruo's people. When any policeman tried to open fire, he would be killed immediately.

After the people of Team One stormed in, they slaughtered everyone on the first floor. Meanwhile, Team Two had moved to the second floor.

Holding a machine gun, Pei Ruo walked in with a cold expression and directly went upstairs.

After the first floor was cleared, the people of Team One directly went to the third floor.

Pei Ruo moved forward without anyone blocking her way.

Chapter 821

Someone broke the interrogation room's door open and waved his hand at Pei Ruo before calling out, "Pei Ruo..."

Pei Ruo walked over and took a look before tensing up. There was no one inside the interrogation room, but there was blood on the floor.

Just like a badly-drawn painting, blood was splashed everywhere in an uneven manner.

"We can't find Miss Yuan on the second floor..."

"She's not on the third floor..."

"She's not on the fourth floor..."

After the people from every floor reported their findings, it dawned on Pei Ruo that Yuan Zhian wasn't in this building.

Chapter 821

“Blow this police station up!” Pei Ruo ordered and went downstairs. All of her people retreated and left the station in just thirty seconds.

Boom...

The entire police station exploded and collapsed to the ground.

With dust gushing in the air, Pei Ruo got up and left the place.

Bassong and his people returned to the police station ten minutes later. When he saw that the station had turned into debris, he was so flabbergasted that he couldn't utter a word.

"How did this happen?"

All the police turned pale, for it was beyond their imagination that such an incident would happen to them. To put it bluntly, it was no different from a terrorist attack.

"Sir, should we call the headquarters?"

"Do you think they're unaware of it by now?" Enraged, Bassong turned around and growled, "Investigate who did it!"

"Okay! Okay!"

The policemen nodded in a daze and got into their cars as they started the investigation and tried to hunt down the culprit.

Standing outside the police station, Bassong felt cold all over his body. It was the first time he felt that things had gotten out of his control.

The incident was no different from a declaration of war.

Thinking of that, Bassong shuddered and couldn't imagine what would have happened to him if he stayed inside the station. Perhaps his corpse would have been buried beneath the debris.

"Aunty..." After giving it a thought, Bassong turned around and walked to somewhere else before he fished out his phone and called Magu. "Our police station has been blown up. I suspect that it's the people of Pei Ruo and Yuan Zhian who did it... Aunty, I think we're in trouble!"

"We're in trouble?" Magu sneered, "Bassong, when did you become so timid? Even if they're powerful, they can't make a fuss in Man City. This is our territory. No matter who is coming here, the person has to kneel before us! You don't have to be afraid when I'm with you. Moreover, I can feel that my power is reaching the level of Master Ayero. After I become as powerful as he was, no one in this world can afford to offend us."

"Master Ayero..." Bassong couldn't help saying, "Aunty, you also know that Master Ayero died in the hands of Tang Family people, so he was far from invincible!”

“Shut up!” Magu seemed to be reminded of a painful memory as she growled, “The Tang Family? How many Tang Families are there in the world? We don’t have to be afraid even if our opponent is the Tang Family! I suspect that Master Ayero was tricked by them rather than killed in a fair manner...”

“Alright!” Bassong nodded hurriedly.

“Instead of fretting, you should bring your people and catch Pei Ruo immediately!” Magu snarled, “What I have to do now is to increase my power!”

“Okay, I’m going now...” Bassong nodded quickly as his forehead was beaded with cold sweat.

Chapter 822

The explosion at the police station caused a commotion in Man City.

A curfew was put in place thirty minutes later, and every passing car had to be inspected strictly. The police in Man City went all out and knocked on every door to investigate the case.

At that time, the entire city came to a standstill.

Sirens of police cars and the yelling of people could be heard everywhere, while the policemen were seen questioning every passerby.

Pei Ruo had returned to the base she bought with Yuan Zhian right after they arrived in Man City. The hundreds of mansions around them were all properties of rich people, hence it would take the police some time to come here for investigation.

Chapter 822

“The entire city has descended into chaos...” Scorpio stood on the side and wiped off the cold sweat on his forehead. “Not only are the police trying to hunt us down, but Tang Liyu has also been alarmed...”

Pei Ruo nodded and heaved a sigh, knowing that what happened was inevitable. Tang Liyu was a distrustful man, therefore it was understandable that he would be concerned about the situation in Man City. Moreover, the identities of Yuan Zhian and Pei Ruo had been exposed in this incident, thus Tang Liyu was bound to take action.

Chapter 822

“Pei Ruo, what should we do?” Scorpio looked at her.

“Wait for Tang Yin to come over!” Pei Ruo waved her hand, not knowing what to do. She could only wait for Tang Yin’s arrival and let him handle it.

“Alright.” Scorpio nodded and turned to leave.

Seated on the couch, Pei Ruo closed her eyes and pinched her forehead in anxiety. If Yuan Zhian and she were not exposed, they could take over many of Tang Liyu’s properties secretly. Unfortunately, they had been brought to light, so their previous efforts would go down the drain.

Tap, tap, tap...

Chapter 822

Just then, Scorpio, who had just left the place, returned in a hurry and said with a shocked expression, "Pei Ruo, it's bad. The police are coming!"

"So fast?" Startled, Pei Ruo stood straight up and paced around. "We didn't leave any trace behind when we came back. How did they manage to find us in such a short time?"

"I have no idea..." Scorpio urged anxiously, "You'll go first. I'll stay here to deal with them!"

"Leave together!" Pei Ruo raised an eyebrow and turned around before reaching for the backyard. Sirens could be heard from the front door, hence the police must be just around the corner.

Chapter 822

Scorpio hesitated for a moment and followed her. It was not that he didn't want to stay here. He just felt that he should keep her company and protect her.

Upon leaving the backyard, they got into a car and sped off.

One minute after they left, the entire residential area was cordoned off.

Pei Ruo turned gloomy and turned around to look at the sealed residential area. Taking a deep breath, she felt that something was amiss.

She shook her head to stop thinking about it and ordered, "Go to the bay..."

Scorpio turned the steering wheel and headed for the bay. After they moved for a few hundred meters, they saw a roadblock set up by the police in the distance.

Chapter 822

Scorpio's heart sank as he turned around to look at Pei Ruo and asked, "Pei Ruo, what should we do?"

"Get off the car and circumvent them!" Pei Ruo pushed the door open and put on a headscarf before walking into the alley with Scorpio.

Scorpio followed her and kept looking back. Right after they stepped into the alley, he turned around and saw a dozen police cars following them from afar, which caused him to turn pale in fright.

"Pei Ruo, the police are behind us!"

Chapter 822

“How is that possible?” Pei Ruo’s expression changed. Turning around, she saw more than ten police cars approaching them. “Hurry up and move along the alley. There’s a shopping mall in front!”

“Alright!” Scorpio nodded and moved past Pei Ruo without saying a word to lead the way for her.

After they came out of the alley, there was indeed a shopping mall, which was huge and full of people. Upon leading Pei Ruo into the mall, Scorpio heaved a sigh of relief.

“Buy some clothes and leave!” Pei Ruo said and lowered her head before walking into a female clothing store.

Chapter 822

Scorpio understood that they had to change into different looks in this special situation. Upon rushing into a male clothing store, he didn't ask about the prices and walked out with new clothes on his body in the shortest time.

Meantime, Pei Ruo had put on new clothes and covered her face with a scarf.

Right after they met up, police sirens were heard outside the shopping mall.

“What is going on?” Pei Ruo's heart sank as she felt that something was wrong. She and Scorpio had made a detour and moved past countless people before walking into the mall.

How could these policemen find them so quickly?

“Move to the sides and stay there!”

“This mall has been placed under a lockdown. We’re the police!”

“Move to the sides. We’re sealing this mall off now!”

More than ten policemen got out of their cars and shouted at the people around them. Then, they tried to disperse the people who visited the mall.

“Go!” Pei Ruo whispered and hung her head low before going upstairs.

Scorpio’s expression turned ferocious. Although he was nervous moments ago,

Chapter 822

he was a ruthless person deep within.
“Pei Ruo, if the police find us later, I’ll protect you as you leave!”

“Don’t make any rash move for now!”
Feeling that something was amiss, Pei Ruo hurriedly chided, “Follow me and don’t move out of my sight!”

“Okay!” Scorpio nodded and looked at the scene downstairs resentfully.

Meanwhile, the police had entered the mall.

Bassong walked at the front and stood in the main hall of the first floor. Then, he shot a look upstairs and sneered.

Shocked, Scorpio anxiously said in a low voice, “Pei Ruo, look!”

Chapter 822

Pei Ruo took a look and immediately felt numb in her head, for some of the policemen carrying an earthen jar were walking into the mall.

The jar was black with horrifying patterns engraved on it.

Pei Ruo felt cold upon seeing the jar, and she had a similar feeling when she first saw the jar at the police station.

The earthen jar seemed to have sensed Pei Ruo's stare as it reacted by swaying around.

"Up there!" Bassong swung his hand.

Standing on the fourth floor, Pei Ruo's heart sank as she turned around and said to Scorpio, "Something is wrong with the jar!”

Chapter 822

Chapter 823

“What is wrong with the jar?” Scorpio questioned.

“Go!” Pei Ruo turned around and scurried upstairs. She was absolutely sure that there was a problem with the jar. She and Scorpio had made a detour, but they were still found by the police quickly. This meant that the police should possess a tracking device, which Pei Ruo believed was non-existent. The only thing that could track her was that earthen jar.

“Block all the floors!” Standing in the main hall of the first floor, Bassong shouted at the people upstairs, “Whoever dares go upstairs or downstairs without permission, you’ll be arrested immediately!”

Chapter 823

In that instant, all the people in the mall started making noises.

Then, an announcement similar to what Bassong said was made through the broadcast, telling everyone to stay put.

“Pei Ruo, what should we do?” Scorpio gnashed his teeth together and asked, “Why don’t I kill them directly? What do you think?”

“No!” Pei Ruo halted her steps and took a deep breath. “We have to break that jar!”

“That jar?” Scorpio was startled.

“Yes. If we don’t break the jar, we may not escape at all.” Pei Ruo turned around to look away from the jar and

Chapter 823

inquired, "Do you think you can shoot the jar in one try?"

"I'll try!" Scorpio said through gritted teeth and turned around to look at the first floor.

The staircases in the mall were unenclosed, therefore they could take in the first floor from the fourth floor, which were only four meters apart. It was possible that he could shoot the jar from there.

"Hurry up!" Pei Ruo urged.

Scorpio fished out his pistol and aimed at the jar below.

"Argh! He has a gun! He has a gun!" The people on the fourth floor saw Scorpio's move and screamed, which led to a ruckus.

Chapter 823

“Now!” Pei Ruo demanded through gritted teeth.

Rat-a-tat...

Meantime, Bassong and the people below heard the gunshots.

“Lie down...”

Scorpio missed the target and shot three bullets on the ground instead.

“Shoot the police!” Anxious, Pei Ruo yelled, “Shoot those carrying the jar!”

Scorpio came to his senses and fired three bullets at the two policemen holding the earthen jar.

“Argh...” Yelling was heard on the first floor as one of the jar-carrying policemen was shot. It was easier to shoot a person than a relatively small jar.

Crack. The jar dropped on the ground and broke into pieces, whereupon the liquid flowed out and exuded a stinking smell.

“Argh... What is that?”

“Argh!”

Screaming was heard on the first floor as everyone retreated hurriedly. After the jar broke into pieces, a monster was exposed.

Chapter 823

Like a twisted infant, the monster was horrifyingly thin. As it looked around with its red eyes, blood dripped incessantly from its body.

“What is that?”

“A monster...”

The crowd shrieked and fled the mall. When Bassong, who was nearest to the monster, saw it, he was gripped by a feeling of chill.

Pei Ruo gasped when she saw the monster from the fourth floor.

What on earth is that?

“Squeak...” The monster opened its mouth and growled at the surroundings before shifting its attention to Pei Ruo.

Chapter 823

“Leave!” Pei Ruo felt that they were in danger and hurriedly turned around to go upstairs. The monster’s cold gaze seemed to linger on her, which caused all her goosebumps to rise.

Scorpio was flabbergasted. He wouldn’t be afraid if he were confronted by more than ten men, but he was terrified by the monster that climbed out of the jar.

The people in the mall tensed up and screamed as they fled the scene.

The monster opened its mouth and squeaked before going upstairs. His move was so swift that before anyone could react, it had reached the second floor.

Chapter 823

The people who were going down from the second floor were horrified and hurriedly moved backward. Amidst the chaos, shoes were stepped on, and countless people pissed their pants.

Upon seeing that, Bassong turned pale and took a few steps back quickly before calling Magu. “Aunty, that thing has come out. What should we do?”

“How did it come out?” Magu was startled for a while and bellowed, “Do you know that it will die under sunlight after ten minutes?”

“T-Then what should I do?” Bassong was at a loss.

“Wait there. I’m going over!” Magu hung up the call upon finishing her words.

Chapter 823

Bassong was appalled, for he knew what that thing was. It was an evil thing made from a dead baby using a secret technique. If it were released, it was going to harm countless people.

Just then, Pei Ruo had rushed to the sixth floor. Looking at the approaching monster, she gnashed her teeth together and stormed into the elevator.

If they managed to get into the elevator and go up, the monster might not be able to get to them.

“Quick!” Flustered, she trotted toward the elevator and clicked the doors open. Unfortunately, the monster was right around the corner.

“Pei Ruo, go first!” Scorpio yelled.

Chapter 823

“Come here!” Pei Ruo shouted. The monster was just meters away and about to launch itself at Scorpio.

Scorpio extended his leg and landed a kick on the monster. However, the monster was so agile that it had clawed at Scorpio’s pants and left some blood marks on his calf.

“Come in!” Pei Ruo was trying to close the doors.

Scorpio rushed over and managed to get in before the doors closed. The monster crashed into the doors and made them creak.

Meanwhile, the elevator with Pei Ruo in it was moving down swiftly. The monster on the sixth floor growled and clawed the doors open.

Chapter 823

After some creaking sounds were heard, it managed to open the elevator doors and jumped down.

Thud.

When the elevator shook a little, Pei Ruo felt that they were in danger.

“Stop the elevator!”

Scorpio clicked the button to the second floor and waited for the doors to open in anxiety.

Ding...

Right after the doors opened, Pei Ruo and Scorpio stormed out. Right then, the monster tore apart the steel on top of the elevator and stuck out its head, which was as big as a fist.

Chapter 823
