

Chapter 888

“Retreat!” Wang Jin roared as well. It was his first time seeing these aboriginals getting so enraged after being here for so long.

Instead of trying to drive them away like yesterday, they were fighting with their lives this time.

Wang Jin didn't know what Tang Yin had done here last night. Tang Yin did make the aboriginals mistaken him as their God and knelt down before him for a long time.

Even if these aboriginals weren't that smart, they would still hold grudges.

“Yang! Yang!”

Someone shouted through the walkie

Chapter 888

talkie, “I saw a car coming and identified three women in the car!”

Wang Yang’s facial expression immediately changed as he stared at Wang Jin.

Wang Jin took a deep breath as he looked over to Tang Yin’s direction with a worried gaze.

“Retreat!”

This wasn’t the time to hesitate. If he hesitated any longer, something bad might happen to them.

By the time the crowd of aboriginals rushed toward them, Wang Jin and the others had already gotten into their car and were speeding away.

Chapter 888

Right then, Tao Qingfan passed by in his car. Her facial expression changed slightly when she saw people running around from the hills a distance away.

“Master, this is...”

“Charge forward!” Zhao Yu instructed coldly without any hesitation.

Tao Qingfan immediately slammed on the pedal and accelerated toward the hills. Soon after that, the car that Wang Jin and the others’ were in quickly drove past Tao Qingfan’s car. However, it did not gain any reaction from Zhao Yu.

That was because Zhao Yu could sense Tang Yin’s energy and knew that he wasn’t in the car.

Chapter 888

Bang!

A loud crash caused Tao Qingfan to tighten her grip on the steering wheel as she lowered her head in fear. She just wanted to drive toward that place instead of running over other people with her car.

It was the aboriginals who ran toward her car the moment she accelerated.

Surprisingly, these aboriginals continued howling even after getting knocked over about seven to eight meters away. After getting up, they howled and raised their spears which were then thrown toward Tao Qingfan's car.

“How dare these people attack us!”

Chapter 888

Zhao Yu was furious as she kicked the car door open and got out.

She used her bare hand to catch all the spears aiming at them before sending them flying back to their throwers.

The moment around ten of those spears were thrown, they immediately pierced through the bodies of those aboriginals, some of which were even sent flying away.

This stunned the aboriginals around them.

These people were strong enough to withstand bullets, but Zhao Yu managed to kill more than ten of them in one go.

“Woo! Woo! Woo!”

Chapter 888

The leader of the aboriginals was furious as he raised his skull shaft and roared toward Zhao Yu's direction.

Immediately, more than a thousand aboriginals pounced on them.

“Get out of the car and kill them!”

Zhao Yu rushed forward after saying that. She was strong enough to kill all these aboriginals with just one hit. At the same time, Zhuge Pei fought with a longsword in one of her hands. Her elegant movement suggested that the battle was no challenge for her at all, for she managed to kill one aboriginal with every attack.

Tao Qingfan seemed like the only person having a hard time as she wasn't that powerful yet. Besides, she was also a coward who had never killed anyone before.

However, the moment spears were thrown at her, she grabbed them and shrieked louder than the leader of the aboriginals.

Meanwhile, Tang Yin was still diving under the lake. He knew that the monster was in the middle of the lake, so he didn't dare to get too close to it. Instead, he could only paddle carefully around the side of the lake.

In spite of that, Tang Yin had already collected more than ten pieces of Yuan jade.

Carrying the Yuan jade that was releasing its energy, he could not help but feel slightly overwhelmed. With his power now, although he couldn't reach the transformation stage yet, he was definitely at the peak of the God Within Level.

Chapter 888

However, even his power now wasn't enough to control and suppress the energy of a few stones. One could thus imagine how strong the energy actually was.

Right then, a roar pierced through the silence. As a strong torrent suddenly formed in the lake, a hostile howl was heard from under the water.

The monster sensed his presence!

Tang Yin started swimming upward

Chapter 888

without hesitation and managed to reach the surface in the blink of an eye.

He still wasn't clear about how powerful the monster beneath the lake was, but he knew that he wasn't able to handle it.

Just then, he was astounded by a groundbreaking roar echoed through the oasis. The rage within the howl was so intense that it paled any attempt to describe his fear at that moment.

Seeing that, all of the aboriginals who were still fighting with Zhao Yu were stunned. They all turned around to look at the direction to their tribe as their eyes turned reddish.

It was their God's calling!

Chapter 888

“Woo! Woo! Woo!”

The leader of the aboriginals started howling as he led his people to charge toward the lake.

“Follow them!” Zhao Yu yelled as her facial expression changed. She could recognize this roar as well as its energy fluctuation. This energy was almost identical to the energy at the back mountain of Mount Wang.

Swoosh!Swoosh!Swoosh!

The three of them followed quickly without any hesitation. They might have even gotten a tad bit faster than the aboriginals.

“Tang Yin...”

Chapter 888

Right after she got up to the hills, Zhao Yu noticed the figure a distance and clenched her fists. “You thief! Don’t you think of getting out of this!”

Upon saying that, Zhao Yu charged toward. Even if there was a lake between them, she dived into the lake without any hesitation.

At that moment, Zhao Yu wanted nothing but to cut Tang Yin into pieces and torture him to death.

Zhao Yu still couldn’t forget what happened at Mount Wang as well as those ‘special’ gifts that he got her after they landed.

“I’m going to kill you!”

Chapter 888

As if she was a ray of light, Zhao Yu swarmed across the lake at a shocking speed. However, a roar suddenly rang out from the middle of the lake. Then, a bloody mouth rose up from the lake before it pounced toward Zhao Yu.

“You bast*rd!” Zhao Yu roared before she slammed her hand onto the monster.

Bang!

However, Zhao Yu was actually knocked back after they clashed together. The monster got even more furious at that as it opened its mouth and tried to pounce on Zhao Yu again.

At this time, Tang Yin had already jumped back to the shore. Turning around to take a look, he quickly moved toward his target.

Chapter 888

“Follow him! Catch him!” Zhao Yu roared while Zhuge Pei had already crossed the lake and was right behind Tang Yin. Tao Qingfan did not hesitate to move faster as she traveled past Zhao Yu and the monster and was hot behind Zhuge Pei’s heels.

Nonetheless, Tang Yin started slowing down as his Inner Energy got slightly out of control due to his attempt to subdue the Yuan jade.

Right then, Zhuge Pei descended from the sky and landed before him whilst welding a sword in one hand.

Pointing the sword at Tang Yin, her eyes

Chapter 888

reddened out of her wrath.

Chapter 889

As Zhuge Pei's old and recent grudges flashed past her mind, her hand that was wielding the sword could not help but shake slightly.

Tang Yin fell into silence. He didn't know how to face the lady in front of her. It wasn't just about standing on different sides, but the past grudges between the two of them.

He was the one who decapitated one of Zhuge Pei's arms, and he was also the one responsible for the bulge on her stomach.

It was all of past grudges that led to the confrontation now, which rendered Tang Yin helpless.

"I'm going to kill you!" After a while,

Chapter 889

Zhuge Pei forced those words out of her mouth. Anger was evident in her glacial expression.

The sword shivered faintly in the air before it flew to Tang Yin's front.

However, he dodged it and immediately escaped.

“Stand right there!”

Zhuge Pei was enraged as she charged toward him with her sword again.

However, he knew that he wasn't her match right now. Even if he could somehow subdue Zhuge Pei, he wouldn't be able to handle Zhao Yu.

This pair of master and disciple both wanted him to die!

Chapter 889

Zhuge Pei managed to catch up to Tang Yin after chasing after him for about hundreds of meters. However, cold sweat had already started forming on Tang Yin's forehead. Due to the Yuan jade with fluctuating energy, Tang Yin couldn't keep up with him anymore. When Zhuge Pei charged forward again, Tang Yin was not far away from her, and she used her sword to pierce through Tang Yin's shoulder, causing him to stagger as he tried to go faster.

The two of them were caught up in chasing and escaping that they had completely gone off their original track.

They had returned to the endless desert after leaving the oasis.

Tang Yin slowed down again as Zhuge

Chapter 889

Pei increased her speed and caught up to Tang Yin again.

“I’ll kill you right now if you take another step forward!” Zhuge Pei gritted her teeth although her face was very pale. Chasing after Tang Yin had caused her severe dehydration. Although she was powerful, her body had been worn out from her pregnancy.

Tang Yin stopped and turned around as he stared at Zhuge Pei. Both of them were separated by a sword, and the glint on the blade seemed to embody the inexpressible emotions that bound them together.

“Go to hell!”

The moment Tang Yin turned around,

Chapter 889

Zhuge Pei stabbed him with the sword.

Tang Yin took a deep breath and closed his eyes, allowing the long sword to pierce into his shoulder.

Blood started seeping out with a loud splatter.

“Is that enough?”

Tang Yin opened his eyes and stared at Zhuge Pei. “If stabbing me can release your grudge, then just do it...”

“Of course I’ll do that! I’ll stab you to your death!” Zhuge Pei gritted her teeth and yelled. She could feel her eyes tearing up out of all the pent-up anger as she raised her sword and slashed at him again.

Chapter 889

Right then, Tao Qingfan pounced on Zhuge Pei's back and grabbed her shoulder. "What are you doing? You're trying to murder your child's father!"

"Shut up!" Zhuge Pei got even more furious when she heard that as she brought her sword down on Tang Yin again.

In that instant, Tao Qingfan pulled her shoulder and stopped her. "Don't you know that your child will lose their father if you kill him?"

"Shut up!"

Zhuce Pei was so furious that she might explode. She would not want to have anything to do with this man in front of her, but Tao Qingfan kept adding salt into her wound.

Chapter 889

The brief moment gave Tang Yin the opportunity to charge forward and grab Zhuge Pei's wrist so that he could snatch away her sword.

Tang Yin might have already killed Zhuge Pei with the sword in the past. However, he felt he owed the woman in front of him after all that they had gone through. Moreover, he'd found out that Zhuge Pei was pregnant with his child according to Cen Xia's report two days ago.

"What are you doing?!" Zhuge Pei was enraged. "Tao Qingfan, why are you not helping me to kill him? The Master will kill you when he's here!"

Chapter 889

Tao Qingfan turned around to look at her surroundings in fear when she heard 'the Master'. However, she immediately turned back and wrapped her arms around Zhuge Pei like an octopus when she realized that what was behind her was just an endless desert.

Tang Yin sighed after he took the sword from Zhuge Pei and quickly kept it away. With one hand under Zhuge Pei's legs and another under her arms, Tang Yin quickly lifted her up and started sprinting forward.

"What are you doing? Let go of me!" Zhuge Pei's ears turned red from anger and embarrassment. She was initially a noble fairy, but Tang Yin kept taking advantage of her.

Chapter 889

How could Zhuge Pei tolerate something like this?

“I’m going to kill you... I’m going to kill you!” Zhuge Pei shrieked as she clenched her fists and started landing punches on him. She’d even opened her mouth and tried to attack Tang Yin’s neck.

However, Tang Yin just gritted his teeth and silently used his inner Energy to defend himself from Zhuge Pei’s punches so that she could not get away from him.

Suddenly, Tang Yin’s secret technique started working, causing his vision to turn black as he almost fell down.

“Tang Yin!”

Chapter 889

Tao Qingfan was taken aback and she hurriedly went to support Tang Yin by grabbing onto his arms. She could feel his body heating up as energy waves swirled around his body.

“Ouch!”

Tao Qingfan shrieked as the energy wave on Tang Yin’s body repelled her, causing her to bounce off as she fell down a distance away.

“Quick, find a place for us to hide. I don’t think I can hold on any longer...”

Tang Yin gritted his teeth as the corners of his lips kept twitching. There were side effects to his body of nine-Yangs, which was a well-known fact. Although these side effects rarely had outbreaks after he had managed to get to the God Within Level, it seemed the energy in his body could no longer be suppressed well today!

Chapter 889

Tao Qingfan was terrified as she looked around anxiously. "This way..."

Tang Yin gave her a look and rushed over with Zhuge Pei still in his embrace. At the same time, Zhuge Pei was starting to look different as well. Her face was entirely flushed red as her body kept convulsing.

Tang Yin gritted his teeth and almost fainted when he looked down. He could feel that a part of the Yuan jade stolen had disappeared, which must have turned into some sort of strong energy that rushed into his body. In fact, most of the energy had been transferred into Zhuge Pei's body.

This energy swirled around Zhuge Pei's body before settling down at her lower abdomen. Instead of getting absorbed around the solar plexus region, the energy converged on the child in Zhuge Pei's stomach.

That much amount of vitality had been absorbed by all three of them!

However, Tang Yin and Zhuge Pei did not absorb much of them. Instead, the child in Zhuge Pei's stomach was the one who absorbed the most vitality. Mainly because of that, the side effects from the body of nine-Yangs did not cause Tang Yin to run amok.

Chapter 889

“Ah!” Zhuge Pei’s head was held high as she yelled. Drops of sweat starting dripping from her forehead.

Tang Yin felt his heart skip a beat as he quickened his pace and shifted to the bottom of a desert cliff as it was shielded by the fiery sun.

Tang Yin’s eyes shone with astonishment when he placed Zhuge Pei down gently. It seemed like Zhuge Pei was about to give birth!

Chapter 890

“Tang Yin, are you okay?”

Tao Qingfan rushed forward anxiously. However, she was repelled the moment she went closer to Tang Yin as she fell down to the ground.

It seemed that a white energy barrier was formed around Tang Yin and Zhuge Pei, protecting them like a whirlwind.

Tao Qingfan couldn't see their situation clearly even when she got up. She could only manage to see that both of them looked like they were in pain.

It seemed that more of ten pieces of Yuan jade had transformed into waves of energy, which seeped into their bodies.

Chapter 890

Tang Yin had already stopped cultivating. However, his secret technique was still operating on its own. If it wasn't for Zhuge Pei who absorbed most of the energy, his body would have exploded and he would have already died.

Despite that, Tang Yin was still in a bad shape, and the Inner Energy coursing within him caused him pain as it hit his meridians.

"Ugh!"

Because of the agony, Tang Yin couldn't help but roar as his eyes turned reddish. However, Zhuge Pei was in a worse condition. Her stomach was bloated as cold sweat covered her entire face; she was obviously in an excruciating pain.

Chapter 890

Tang Yin took a deep breath before he rushed forward and unbuckled Zhuge Pei's belt.

"W-What are you trying to do?!"

Zhuce Pei got furious as raged filled her eyes. "Stop it!"

Nevertheless, Tang Yin ignored her. He could feel his heart racing after removing her belt. He had never delivered a baby and didn't know what to say to calm Zhuge Pei down. Therefore, he could only grab her and try to persuade her, "I know you despise me, but it's not the time to do so! Let me deliver your baby and we can talk about this later!"

"Get away from me!" Zhuge Pei shrieked

with exasperation before she howled in pain.

Tang Yin forced himself to calm down before stabilizing his mind.

“Ugh!” Zhuge Pei roared again. She was sweating profusely before her eyes completely lost their focus.

“Wah!”

Right then, a loud cry rang out between them.

The baby had been born!

Tang Yin looked over anxiously before using his Inner Energy to form a knife, which he used to cut off the umbilical cord before he carried the baby up

Chapter 890

shakily.

The baby was a chubby little boy, and there were still wrinkles on his face as he was just born. However, Tang Yin could sense a difference from his cries.

This baby boy had a special physique!

Tang Yin immediately noticed that this boy didn't only have a special physique, there also seemed to be Inner Energy within his body due to the amount of Yuan jade that Zhuge Pei had absorbed.

He was born with the power of the Fundamental Level!

Tang Yin's mind was buzzing. He'd never expected something like this.

Chapter 890

This was terrifying!

That much amount of Yuan jade did not let Tang Yin gain the upperhand. Instead, it pushed the baby boy to the Fundamental Level.

Tang Yin felt like laughing at that moment. After making so much effort to steal the Yuan jades, it was his son who managed to get all the benefits.

At the same time, it seemed that the Yuan jades had lost a huge part of its vitality as the energy wave around them got thinner.

“Tang Yin!”

Tao Qingfan immediately rushed forward when she noticed that the barrier was gone. However, she was dumbfounded when she saw the baby boy that Tang Yin was carrying.

Chapter 890

So fast?

“Tang Yin, quick! Let me carry him!” Tao Qingfan shrieked in excitement.

“Give him back to me!” Zhuge Pei struggled to support her body as she tried to reach out to grab her child.

Tang Yin immediately blocked her. “Your body is still weak. You need to rest first...”

“Give him back to me!” Zhuge Pei got pissed off. The Inner Energy within her body exploded at that moment as she reached out to slap Tang Yin.

Chapter 890

However, her attack was blocked by Tang Yin again and he was starting to get pissed off.

“Tang Yin, there’s blood!”

Tao Qingfan suddenly cried out as her face turned pale. “Something’s wrong with Zhuge Pei!”

Tang Yin took a look at Zhuge Pei and his mind went blank. He did not expect Zhuge Pei’s anger as well as her sudden burst of Inner Energy would cause her to show symptoms of heavy blood loss.

“Stop moving!”

“Give him back to me!” Zhuge Pei’s eyes were filled with hatred as she glared at Tang Yin in anger. She looked like she was about to fight him.

“Your body is in a bad condition and we need to leave now!” Tang Yin tore a piece of cloth from Zhuge Pei’s sleeve, which he used to wrap up the baby in his embrace.

“I said give him back to me!” Zhuge Pei’s body started trembling from agitation.

Tang Yin was furious. Placing the baby in her arms, he carried Zhuge Pei with both hands and started sprinting.

“Tang Yin, let me carry her!” Tao Qingfan wasn’t satisfied with his action. However, she still followed after him quickly.

Chapter 890

However, Tang Yin did not have the time to bother about Tao Qingfan at all as he kept increasing his speed while carrying Zhuge Pei. He knew that her condition right now was very unstable and something bad might really happen if he couldn't get her to the hospital in time.

Zhuce Pei could barely sustain her consciousness right now. She knew that she had just given birth to a child, and the child's father was Tang Yin who was carrying her right now. Zhuge Pei initially harbored hatred and wanted to kill the child herself after she gave birth to the baby to vent her anger. However, she fell into a dilemma the moment she saw and held her baby.

Never had Zhuge Pei seen a baby that looked like this. The affection that she felt for her baby the moment she gave birth was also something that she had never experienced in her entire life.

The child was undeniably a part of her body. No matter how cruel she was, she just couldn't seem to murder the baby.

Although her consciousness got blurrier, Zhuge Pei could still feel Tang Yin continuously transferring his Inner Energy to her body. It seemed that he was trying to maintain her consciousness as well as prevent her injuries from deteriorating.

“Tang Yin, I can't run any longer...” Tao Qingfan was sweaty as she gasped for air.

“Go to the city! I'll wait for you there!”

Chapter 890

Tang Yin couldn't care any longer as Zhuge Pei was about to fall into a coma. Zhuge Pei definitely couldn't die here because of Tao Qingfan.

He ditched Tao Qingfan and continued sprinting.

However, Tang Yin's facial expression became darker and darker as he could feel that Zhuge Pei's life was slowly slipping away.

"Open your eyes!" Tang Yin called out anxiously as a glint of anger flashed past his eyes. "Don't you want to kill me? How are you going to do that if you die? What will happen to the kid if you die? What about the Zhuge Family?"

Zhuce Pei tried her best to open her eyes to look at the baby in her embrace as tears started falling from the corner of her eyes.

“You must survive!” Tang Yin roared as he tightened his embrace. “You can’t die. If you die, I’ll bury you in the Tang Family’s grave. I won’t let you leave the Tang Family even after you die...”

Upon hearing that, Zhuge Pei gritted her teeth as more tears started falling.

Tang Yin couldn’t help but soften up. “You still have a baby... Look at him! He looks just like you!”

Tang Yin’s voice continued ringing next to Zhuge Pei’s ears. However, she could feel his voice getting further and further away until it completely vanished from her consciousness.

Chapter 890

Chapter 890

“Argh!”

Tang Yin roared in anger as his eyes turned red, and he continued moving in a craze. He could feel his Inner Energy boiling in his body as they started bursting out from his acupoints.

“Zhuge Pei, you can’t die!” Tang Yin roared in anger as charged about hundreds of meters further, leaving a trace of shadow at where he initially stood.

At that moment, Tang Yin’s body became as light as a feather, and the steps that he took were about ten meters away from one another.

A huge wave of vitality suddenly entered Tang Yin’s body from all angles as it moisturized his body and nourished all of his meridians.

Chapter 891

At the moment, Tang Yin was really pissed off. For this reason, he managed to surpass his body's limit and squeeze out every ounce of Inner Energy within his body.

Compelled by the tough situation, Tang Yin had surprisingly made a breakthrough in his power!

He had reached the transformation stage!

Right then, a weird vision appeared in the sky as a huge amount of vitality rushed into Tang Yin's body, as well as the bodies of Zhuge Pei and her baby.

Chapter 891

Zhuge Pei, who was unconscious and was about to fall into a coma, suddenly fluttered her eyelashes and opened her eyes. She saw Tang Yin's red eyes as he continued dashing forward. It seemed that he was fighting with fate because of her.

Zhuge Pei teared up again. She was feeling conflicted about it as she used one hand to hug the baby in her arms and leaned closer to gently kiss the baby on his forehead.

"Hehe..." The baby giggled softly before his dark gazes turned to Zhuge Pei as if he was trying to please her.

Even a person with a heart made of steel would have been moved by this child's giggles and gaze, not to mention that this was Zhuge Pei's own flesh and blood.

Chapter 891

Just then, Zhuge Pei felt something warm on her cheeks as she heard a soft splat. When she looked up anxiously, she noticed that blood was oozing from Tang Yin's seven orifices as he was exerting himself while running forward.

Zhuge Pei was stunned. The shackles that bound her heart seemed to shatter at that moment.

"Argh!" Tang Yin looked up and roared as he continued dashing. He had actually managed to use less than half an hour to reach the outskirts of Africa's city when it'd normally take about half a day.

Chapter 891

After rushing into the city and finding a hospital, Tang Yin immediately brought the already unconscious Zhuge Pei into the hospital.

The doctors were all terrified when they saw Tang Yin, who was drenched in blood. Fortunately, they all remained calm as they were used to it because riots often happened in Africa.

About ten medical personnels pushed the cart that Zhuge Pei was on into the emergency room.

Tang Yin's legs gave up on him as he fell down to the ground and heaved for air. He looked terrifying at that moment as his body was on the verge of falling apart, not to mention that all seven of his orifices were bleeding.

Chapter 891

However, Tang Yin knew that this was because he had overused his Inner Energy.

A large amount of vitality was needed to be promoted to another level but most of the vitality that Tang Yin had miraculously gotten had been transferred into Zhuge Pei's body.

Thus, this resulted in the deficiency of vitality within Tang Yin's body. Coupled with his strenuous movements, it was natural for his body to end up like this.

Sealing off three pressure points of his body in one go, Tang Yin took a deep breath before rushing to the washroom to freshen up.

After getting out of the washroom, Tang

Chapter 891

Yin noticed that the baby was now in an incubator from afar. According to the length of her pregnancy, the baby was by right a premature baby. However, the baby didn't look weak like other premature babies. Instead, he was staring at Tang Yin curiously as he kept giggling.

Tang Yin pursed his lips and couldn't help but take a liking to this child.

Maybe this feeling was due to the blood relation between them.

While Tang Yin was playing with his son, Tao Qingfan, who was still in the desert, was tired and heaving for air. She couldn't help but feel frustrated as she didn't even see any signs of Tang Yin throughout her journey.

Chapter 891

Right when Tao Qingfan was about to find a place to rest after running about a few hundred meters further, she heard a cold voice ringing out with accusation from her back.

“Where are that b*stard and your sister ?”

Tao Qingfan couldn't help but shudder when she heard this voice. It was as if the sweat that formed due to the heat of the desert had suddenly dried up and she was thrown into a world of snow and ice.

“Master...”

“I'm asking you a question!” Zhao Yu glared at Tao Qingfan coldly.

Chapter 891

Tao Qingfan's neck shrank slightly as she turned around and saw Zhao Yu's pitiful appearance. Zhao Yu right then had already lost her calm composure. Although her white hair was still drifting in the air, it had been stained with blood. The black gown that she usually wore also had a slit up until her abdomen, which revealed the flesh beneath.

"T-They were running in this direction but I couldn't catch up to them!" Tao Qingfan muttered.

Zhao Yu snorted coldly at that before she lifted Tao Qingfan up and started dashing to the city.

"Master, I'm afraid of heights!" Tao Qingfan shrieked in fear.

Chapter 891

“I’ll throw you down if you continue messing around!” Zhao Yu’s voice was cold and filled with rage. She’d initially come to hunt Tang Yin down but didn’t expect to be tricked by him. Zhao Yu didn’t even gain any benefit from battling with that monster under the lake for a long time.

This caused the raging fire within Zhao Yu to burn fiercely.

Tao Qingfan immediately shut up and closed her eyes in fear after getting threatened by Zhao Yu. She knew that if it weren’t for the fact that she was still of use to Zhao Yu, she would’ve been murdered a long while ago. Why else would Zhao Yu keep her alive until now?

The two of them rushed toward the outskirts of the city. However, right when they landed, they were met with a large number of police cars on the road, and all the policemen were aiming their guns at Zhao Yu.

The policemen were already alerted when Zhao Yu murdered someone in the city. Although a large number of policemen had been dispatched, they still couldn't track Zhao Yu down. However, they didn't expect Zhao Yu to miraculously show up after locking down the entire city.

“Master...” Tao Qingfan's face didn't look good as she wasn't in the right condition to endure anymore bullets.

Zhao Yu's face was dark as she charged forward.

“Fire!”

It seemed like these police knew how serious this was and chose to fire first hand.

Inner Energy started seeping out of Zhao Yu’s body as she charged into the crowd like a tornado.

Pleas and cries continued ringing out as Zhao Yu started murdering everyone in cold blood like a human meat grinder. At this moment, she had killed about ten men and was shifting around like a ghost while killing ten more people.

Zhao Yu finally stopped within a minute. Although her finger was still dripping with blood, among the hundreds of police, none of them survived.

Chapter 891

Tao Qingfan's face pale from shock. She didn't even dare to gasp for breath.

Zhao Yu turned around to give her a cold glare at that and continued heading toward the city.

Chapter 891

In the small town, all police sirens had been triggered. Numerous police officers arrived at the scene and almost put the entire street on lockdown.

Zhao Yu continued to walk on with a gloomy face, showing no intention of stopping. To her, the police was nothing but an army of ants. Their deaths would not be significant.

“Step back!”

“This is a warning: Step back!”

“I’m warning you to put your hands on your head! Or I’ll shoot you to death now!”

Furious orders from the police officers were heard over the loudspeakers, but they realized that Zhao Yu still ignored them and acted willfully. To be honest, even if Zhao Yu was willing to listen, she had to understand their language.

An astonishing scene unfolded on the street: Facing hundreds of police officers alone, Zhao Yu marched forward, causing them to feel uneasy. Every time they shouted a warning, they would take a step backward.

When Zhao Yu finally stepped foot in the hospital, everyone else felt suffocated by the tension.

Tang Yin observed the scene from upstairs and fell silent. He turned around to take a look at the baby, who was nicely wrapped in cloth, and headed toward the operating room. The lights of the operating room were still on as Zhuge Pei lay motionlessly on the operating table.

After some hesitation, Tang Yin took a final glance at his child before heading toward the window.

Tang Yin was not worried to leave the baby here. After all, Zhuge Pei was Zhao Yu's disciple and the baby's mother. No matter what, they would not hurt the baby. The priority at the moment was to temporarily leave the hospital.

When Zhao Yu walked through the hospital entrance and looked up, she happened to see Tang Yin waving at her from the window upstairs.

In that instant, Zhao Yu fumed and dashed up the stairs. Her figure was as deft as a lizard and with one step, she had scaled a height of three to four floors.

Chapter 892

Feeling numb on his head, Tang Yin smashed the window and leaped down. Zhao Yu had reached the window as well and she immediately chased after him.

“You thief! I will take your life here today!” Zhao Yu roared in a chilling tone as she rushed up to him and attempted to slap him on the head. However, Tang Yin had kicked on the floor and lifted his body out of the window at lightning speed.

When Zhao Yu’s attack missed, her expression slightly changed because she could sense that Tang Yin's speed had increased compared to before.

Transformation stage!

The noun abruptly flashed across her mind, sending a chill down her spine.

How old was Tang Yin? He was only in his twenties!

A man in his twenties entering the transformation stage was a tale unheard of. However, she witnessed it with her own eyes and could not deny it.

“Shoot!” At the same time, a loud roar echoed through the streets.

Rat-a-tat... A round of firing was instantly heard as bullets rained on Zhao Yu.

Chapter 892

The order was however not given out by any police officer. Instead, it was intentionally shouted out by Tang Yin. When he saw the police lifting their guns, he knew that they were tensed up. As long as he could take advantage of the situation and fake his identity, he could easily achieve the same effect.

“You’re courting death!” Zhao Yu was engulfed in flames of fury. Since Tang Yin’s capability had increased, he could move around speedily. On top of that, she was blocked by the police in the chase, so it was easy for Tang Yin to escape from her.

The moment she yelled, she had come to the decision to kill. With a high leap, she landed in the crowds and lifted her hand to randomly deliver a slam. After the attack, unruly winds rose and caused ten officers to be flung onto the ground. As for the ones who were standing close to her, their chest had been ruptured by the force.

Chapter 892

“Shoot!” This time, the orders came from some police officer. How could they allow her to leave with ease after she had killed multiple officers?

哒哒哒.....

Rat-a-tat... Another torrent of bullets landed on her. Within seconds, she was completely surrounded by bullets.

Pale from rage, she dished out an attack after another. She left a shadow on the ground as she dashed into the crowds. A transformation stage master heading into the crowds was akin to a predator in a herd of sheep, ready to pounce and kill. It did not take long before numerous police officers among the hundreds fell to the ground.

At the same time, Tang Yin had rushed to the border of the small town and ran furiously toward the desert.

“You’re looking for death!” Zhao Yu was enraged to see him escaping once more. Her delicate figure was like a missile that whittled off toward the outskirts of the small town.

Tang Yin tried to increase his speed but was still slightly slower than Zhao Yu. Even though he had reached the transformation stage, the three pressure points in his body were sealed off by himself and therefore the force of vitality could not move around.

“I’ll kill you today!” Zhao Yu bellowed as she swept her palm at him. Energy blasted in his body when the three pressure points opened up. Once again, he was overcome by the fatigue from the lack of Internal Energy and vitality.

Even so, he continued to accelerate and covered a few hundred meters of distance in a blink of an eye.

Seeing that, Zhao Yu’s hatred grew and she could only catch up to him once more. One after another, they entered the desert again.

Chapter 892

On the other hand, Tao Qingfan was conflicted in the hospital when this should be the best time for her escape. If she did not escape, she might fall into Zhao Yu's hands again. However, she felt reluctant to leave when facing the baby, who was the offspring of Zhuge Pei and Tang Yin. He was blinking his round eyes at Tao Qingfan as he giggled.

Trembling, she instantly had an idea. Upon taking a furtive glance around her, she picked up the baby with a joyful smile on her face.

When the medical staff was not paying attention, Tao Qingfan held the baby in her arms and slid down toward the first floor.

Chapter 892

Get home! The one thing she had in mind now was to get home as soon as possible!

She took the baby and therefore the Qingfan Association would have an heir. Not only that, she had also escaped from Zhao Yu's control. What a perfect solution!

At the first floor, she scanned her surroundings and made her way across the crowds, heading straight to the airport.

At the same time, Zhuge Pei's surgery was completed. The team of doctors successfully saved her life. Although the process was tiring, they felt proud for saving a life.

Chapter 892

After she woke up from the medically induced coma, she flailed her arms around in panic. “The baby! Where’s my baby? Where is the baby?”

Some nurses ran in and started talking to each other but she could not understand a thing.

“Where’s my baby?” Zhuge Pei shrieked frantically and gestured wildly at the nurses around her.

Chapter 893

The nurses looked scared and hesitated to speak.

Zhuge Pei's body went limp. After she forcefully moved her Internal Energy, she felt that the effect of the anesthetic had gradually gone away. Next, she hurriedly stumbled to get up, put on her clothes and walked over to the next door.

"Miss..."

"Madam, your body is in a critical condition..."

A few medical staff rushed up to stop her but were blocked by her. When her gaze landed on the empty cot, her entire body trembled in fear. Although she had been hating the baby in her womb since the beginning, she was now full of maternal love. She even felt that she could never be separated from the baby anymore. However, she now faced the disappearance of her baby, which was hard to take in.

Chapter 893

"Where's my baby?" She roared and turned around to rush toward the first floor.

"Miss!"

"Madam!"

The medical staff looked horrified because they could never imagine a patient fresh out of surgery could jump down the table without help and ran all the way out.

Chapter 893

"My baby! My baby!" Zhuge Pei felt a lump in the throat. When she left the hospital, she saw the carnage around which finally clicked in her.

"Where are the people from just now?" Zhuge Pei grabbed a few passersby and questioned them but none understood her. She finally found one who spoke Chinese and was told that Tang Yin and Zhao Yu had entered the desert. Due to the barrier of communication, Zhuge Pei only knew that the two had entered the desert but was not told that the baby was not with Tang Yin. Therefore, she single-mindedly rushed into the desert.

At the same time, Tao Qingfan had arrived at the airport. On her way, she felt extremely giddy as she played with the baby.

Chapter 893

When she entered the airport, Wang Jin suddenly turned up in front of her and stared at the baby in perplexity. "Whose baby is this?"

"He's the baby of Zhuge Pei and Tang Yin! Why are you here though?" Tao Qingfan was shocked because she did not expect to see him.

"The baby of the Young Master and Zhuge Pei?" Wang Jin was taken aback and his usually emotionless face displayed a rare hint of warmth. "Why is he in your hands?"

"Why not?" She pouted. "If I don't bring the baby away, Zhao Yu will use him to blackmail Tang Yin! Why are you here? Take me away from here now..."

Chapter 893

"Okay..." He fell into a silence and led her further into the airport.

She could finally let out a sigh of relief when she knew that she was probably safe. The few days she spent with Zhao Yu was harrowing and precarious. Even when she was sleeping, she could not be at ease. As for stealing the baby, she had done so out of personal reasons. On the one hand, she loved kids and would like to play with the baby for a few days. On the other hand, she was also afraid that the baby would be in trouble if he was left in Zhuge Pei and Zhao Yu's care.

Right then, the baby in her arms started crying loudly, tears streaming down his face. "Why? What's the matter?" Tao Qingfan was clueless and panicking.

Chapter 893

"He must be hungry!" Wang Yang chimed in.

"Hungry? What do I do then? Does he want milk? But I don't have any!" She was close to tears.

"Wait for me. I will find some milk powder in the airport if there's any." Wang Jin stood up and wandered over to the stores.

"What do I do? How about we go to Zurich since Meng Wan is lactating? I don't have breast milk for you." Tao Qingfan stomped her feet and almost cried out of frustration. She really liked the baby. Otherwise, she would not have stolen him from Zhuge Pei.

The people around her observed the situation with an odd expression, not knowing what to make of it.

At that point, Tang Yin had long entered the desert. He accelerated his pace but his body had also been experiencing issues from a lack of Qi. After half an hour of running away, he started to bleed from his orifices; his skin from head to toe was soaked in blood-red sweat. His sweat clung onto his clothes and condensed into blood water that trickled onto the ground.

“Go to hell!” Zhao Yu closed in and reached out to give him a slap at the back of his head.

Tang Yin swiftly turned around and his palm met hers. The raging Internal Energy of Zhao Yu flowed into his body, causing him to vomit a mouthful of blood. With the new energy, he quickly shifted backward and turned around to escape once again.

Chapter 893

“Thief! We shall see how long you can last!” Zhao Yu was beyond angry because her attacks had been blocked by Tang Yin with the same method multiple times. Since entering the desert, Tang Yin had repeated the same move until now. She did not think that he could maintain this for long. Sooner or later, he would die under her palm.

“I can hang on until I reach the lake...” He gritted his teeth and lifted his head while laughing. Then, he quickly dashed away because he could see an oasis not far away, where a lake was located.

Chapter 893

Her expression changed and she accelerated her movements as well. "You're asking for death!" She could tell that his body condition was a result of a lack of vitality after entering the transformation stage. If he had vitality, he would have turned around to face off with her for at least three hundred rounds.

The lake in front contained an unimaginable vitality. As long as he dived in, he could quickly replenish the vitality he needed. The thought of it made her fume in hatred. She had been chasing after him all the way from China, and not only did she fail to kill him, she might actually see his power increase now. To her, it was a huge setback.

Chapter 893

“D*mn!” She was infuriated, and an endless force of vitality rushed out from her body, propelling her to go after him with a high speed. She lifted her hand to deliver a slap toward him.

Clenching his teeth, he turned around and reached out to shove her away with both hands.

*Boom...*A loud sound was heard. Tang Yin felt like he was flung out the same way he did in his childhood as he fell hard into the lake water, causing a huge splash on the surface.

A whirring sound was heard when the lake water suddenly moved in a spiral. Just then, the monster living underneath the lake roared and emerged while charging at Zhao Yu.

Chapter 894

“You evil thing!” Zhao Yu was pale from anger and slammed at the monster from the lake.

The last time she was here, she got tangled up with the monster as they went into a fight. There was no victor at the end, but that did not mean that the monster was afraid of her. Instead, its cruel and brutal nature had been awakened, and it also registered the smell of her body.

Therefore, when Tang Yin fell into the lake this time, he closed off all pressure points on his body and held his breath.

Even though the monster was familiar with Tang Yin’s smell, it was more furious at Zhao Yu. It thus chose to lash out at Zhao Yu in the first place. Their last fight ended with a draw but both were invested and vengeful.

Chapter 894

This time, it would be a heated encounter between two enemies.

A loud humming sound was heard from the surface of the lake. When Zhao Yu gave the monster a slap, she quickly took some steps backward in order to prepare for her next attack. The water monster had fallen back into the lake before leaping up and charged at her once more.

During their intense battle, Tang Yin took the chance to reopen his pressure points under the water and he felt like he was gently cradled by the water. The feeling was unexpectedly comfortable and fuzzy, making him grunt in satisfaction.

Endless vitality had found their release as they flowed into his body. The body that was deprived from the ascendance to the transformation stage appeared to be energized and recharged.

The sounds of water whirring was heard around him. The vitality flowed around and stirred the lake water into a whirlpool.

Deep in the lake, the sparkling Yuan Jade looked like stars in the sky. In a hidden corner, the vitality forces from the jade accumulated in the water and rushed into his body.

Fully nourished from the jade, Tang Yin felt more energized. Even after he sustained severe injuries from Zhao Yu, he could quickly suppress the pain and improve his condition through moving his vitality around the body.

“Evil thing. If you keep stopping me, he is going to take all vitality from your Yuan Jade!” Zhao Yu noticed the movements on the surface of the lake and instantly knew what Tang Yin was up to. However, the water monster in front of her seemed to be quite dense because it continued to fight her. If this continued, Tang Yin’s capability would definitely increase and her victory against him might not be guaranteed.

The water monster lifted its head and roared at her. It opened its bloody mouth and gave her a bite.

Chapter 894

“You evil thing!” Zhao Yu’s body trembled in anger. Her petite form flipped in the air and landed on the ground viciously.

Boom...

The two of them clashed with a loud bang and each took a few steps backward.

Furious, she attempted to slap on the water monster. It did not back down and instead wiped at Zhao Yu with its tail.

“You idiot!” Zhao Yu barked when she was swept off her feet, but she took the opportunity to rush toward Tang Yin’s location in the lake. After she fell into the water, the monster quickly rushed toward her.

Chapter 894

The water monster had obviously been at a disadvantage when it fought Tang Yin in the air in the past. Now that it was back in its aquatic home ground, it moved around with greater speed and better agility.

Bubbles appeared from below the water. Zhao Yu swam to Tang Yin and lifted her hand to slap him. In response, he raised his head and gave her a slap to counter the attack.

Boom...

Just then, air billows disturbed the lake surface, and its waves rose as high as four to five meters in the air.

The aboriginals living beside the lake fell to their knees to bow and pray, horrified by what they had witnessed. Clueless of the situation, they only knew that two figures had appeared in the vicinity and fell into the lake to battle their water god.

Chapter 894

A dull chanting sound was heard by the lake. Another loud boom was again heard from the lake when Tang Yin leaped out with tens of Yuan Jade in his arms.

After entering the lake, he did not waste any spare time at all. While the vitality was circulating in his body, he took the time to collect the Yuan Jade.

“D*mn!” Zhao Yu emerged from the lake and swept at him. He turned around and gave her a hard slap, causing air billows to appear around both of them. Another loud explosion was then heard from the fight.

Chapter 894

Boom... Tang Yin was flung out and he vomited a mouthful of blood, looking ghastly at this point.

Meanwhile, the water monster had followed them out of the lake. This time, it not only aimed at Zhao Yu but charged at both of them.

Suppressing the nausea in his chest, Tang Yin gave it a slap but was swept at his feet by the monster's tail. His body took a huge hit and was flung to the lakeside as he lost his energy.

At this moment, he decided not to linger around, so he swiftly clambered up and ran out of the oasis.

Chapter 894

Seeing that, Zhao Yu chased after him but was blocked by the water monster that had once again charged at her.

Zhao Yu was completely mad. She felt that everything on earth seemed to be working against her to prevent her from attacking Tang Yin. The monster in front had blocked her multiple times, barring her from moving forward.

Boom...

This time, she was truly enraged. In the middle of countless air billows, she delivered another slap to the monster. It was furious as well and went up against her. The clash resulted in a loud bang that shook heavens and earth.

Feeling a surge of nausea in her chest,

Chapter 894

she vomited a few mouthfuls of blood and lost a little of her energy. Thankfully, she had landed on the lakeside and shifted her attention from the monster to Tang Yin.

Stumbling out of the oasis, Tang Yin vomited a few more mouthfuls of blood but forced himself to hang on as he fled into the distance.

The leap to the transformation stage grew his capability. With the help of vitality from the Yuan Jade, he could grow his ability even when he was seriously injured.

As he was a few kilometers away, he turned around and saw that Zhao Yu was tailing him from far but did not charge at him, which was a relief for him.

As long as Zhao Yu did not charge at him, he would be safe. Even if she did, he had the capability to free himself from her. The priority at this time was to find a shelter and absorb the vitality from Yuan Jades to solidify his newly acquired ability at the transformation stage.

Once that was done, he would have the confidence to face off Zhao Yu.

Strong winds were howling incessantly around him. After traveling for another 10 kilometers, Tang Yin was astonished by a sight. He noticed that not far away, a weak figure was stumbling toward him from the highway.

Chapter 894

Zhuge Pei finally plopped onto the ground and did not climb up anymore.

Chapter 895

Tang Yin's expression changed. After a short silence, he returned to the side of Zhuge Pei and placed his fingertips on her nerves. He noticed that she was in an extremely weak state.

Behind them, Zhao Yu was still pursuing relentlessly. After some hesitation, Tang Yin still carried Zhuge Pei on his back. Perhaps Zhao Yu would save Zhuge Pei if he left her here, but it was not something he wanted to bet on. If Zhao Yu was blinded by her urge to kill him and abandoned Zhuge Pei, then they would lose a human life at the end of the day.

"The baby..." Zhuge Pei was still mumbling with a feeble voice.

"The baby?" Tang Yin was shocked.

Chapter 895

“What happened to him? Where’s the baby?”

“Is the baby... with you...” Zhuge Pei asked weakly, though a sense of resentment could be seen on her face. “Give me back my baby!”

Tang Yin’s body trembled and he had a bad premonition. Back then, he left the baby at the hospital, for did not think that Zhuge Pei would follow after him for the baby. Without further ado, he took out his satellite phone and called Wang Jin.

The caller ringtone went on for some time before a busy tone was heard.

Tang Yin fell silent for a while and ended the call. Then, he carried Zhuge

Chapter 895

Pei on his back and speedily ran in a circle, planning to think of his next step when he reached the small town.

“The baby...” Zhuge Pei continued to mumble in a weak state. It was hard to picture her as the stunning fairy from before.

“I’ll bring you to look for the baby now! You should sleep!” Tang Yin took a deep breath and gently comforted her. With his eyes on the small town faraway, he started working on a technique.

When he was using the techniques from The God Record, he transferred part of his vitality to Zhuge Pei’s body in order to reinforce her stamina. They continued their journey but the sight was jarring in Zhao Yu’s eyes.

Chapter 895

Tao Qingfan was originally from Tang Yin's side. But now, even Zhuge Pei ended up in Tang Yin's hands. Zhao Yu could not accept it at all. The dignity of the Zhao Family and her own dignity were crushed by Tang Yin.

“Tang Yin! I will kill you!” Zhao Yu roared from behind but the vitality in her body was dissipating at an alarming rate. For the entire day, she had no time to stop and rest. She had been either involved in intensive fights or speed-chasing.

At least Tang Yin had the Yuan Jade on him to reinforce his energy. On the other hand, Zhao Yu had nothing and her speed was clearly decreasing.

They traveled all the way to the small town, where Tang Yin rushed to the hospital without another word. At the hospital, he called the medical staff over and started to interrogate them.

Chapter 895

When the medical staff saw Zhuge Pei's return, they appeared to be concerned about her condition. However, only Tang Yin knew that Zhuge Pei was recovering. She was still unconscious, though not in a critical condition.

Boom... At that time, a loud explosion was heard at the hospital entrance upon Zhao Yu's arrival.

Tang Yin's expression instantly changed. He brought Zhuge Pei to leap out of the window and headed toward the outskirts of the small town once more. He decided that they could not remain at the hospital or else the entire building would be in trouble.

After Tang Yin escaped out of the small town, he maintained his speed and dashed into the distance.

Behind him, Zhao Yu showed no signs of slowing down. The two ran for almost half a day and had deviated from the original path into the African desert.

On the other side of the world, Tao Qingfan brought the baby with her and arrived at the Meng Residence in Zurich. When she entered the residence, she looked pompous and merry. Under the gaze of the Meng Family members, she strutted with her head held high to Meng Wan's room.

Chapter 895

Tao Qingfan purposely coughed for attention. “Well, I have Tang Yin’s child with me. Help feed him. I don’t have breast milk for him!”

“Tang Yin’s child?” Meng Wan was taken aback and blushed. “Who’s the mother? Is it Youyou?”

“Sigh... That’s not important. The child is hungry now. Get the nanny over and share some of Tang Nianyin’s stuff with me...” Tao Qingfan walked over and carefully placed the baby down, not forgetting to give him a kiss on the forehead.

Meng Wan and her mother stared at the new baby in shock, especially Meng Nianyin who was close to a year old had been fed with a lot of stalactite waterinfused milk. For this reason, her body developed very well. Compared to kids of the same age, she was half a head taller and could even crawl with speed.

Chapter 895

After Tao Qingfan placed the baby down, Meng Nianyin crawled over and sat down in front of him, staring at the new creature with dark and curious eyes.

The baby giggled innocently, prompting Meng Nianyin to laugh as well. She then lifted her head to look at Tao Qingfan before reaching out to the baby.

A loud slap was heard when the baby lifted his hand and waved away Meng Nianyin's wrist. His darkened gaze resembled Zhuge Pei's angry look.

Chapter 895

Meng Nianyin turned around to look at his mother and laughed. After drinking a lot of stalactite water-infused milk, her body was stronger than the average child.

“Quick, get the stalactite!” Tao Qingfan waved and ordered. Meng Wan then stood up and made a breast milk concoction with stalactite water before passing the milk bottle to Tao Qingfan. “Is this really Tang Yin’s child?”

“Of course!” Tao Qingfan replied with pride as she stuffed the bottle teat into the baby’s mouth. His eyes seemed to light up as he greedily took in the substance. Apparently, he gripped the bottle so tightly that he refused to let go.

Chapter 895

“Qingfan, is this your baby with Tang Yin?” Meng Wan insisted on knowing.

“No! But he’s now mine!” Tao Qingfan waved and lifted the baby. She chuckled as she continued, “Look at him! How cute! Let me tell you: I have a playtoy too! And he’s as good as yours!”

Meng Wan listened to her words and let out a soft sigh, feeling an emptiness in her heart. When she saw Tao Qingfan still hugging the baby in her arms, she lifted Meng Nianyin and left the room. After giving it some thought, she dialed Yuan Zhian’s number.

The question had been carefully thought out before she asked Yuan Zhian. She figured that it was best to keep this matter from Ji Youyou to prevent unexpected trouble.

When Meng Wan informed Yuan Zhian about the baby, Yuan Zhian fell into silence before saying, "That must be her baby with Tang Yin..."

"Who's the mother?" That was Meng Wan's only concern.

"She's someone who hates Tang Yin..."
At a loss for words, Yuan Zhian ordered softly, "Have Tao Qingfan stay put. I will contact Madam now and we will head over!"

Chapter 896

"Okay!" Meng Wan hung up and let out a gentle sigh as she returned to her room.

Tao Qingfan was still in the room, rummaging for something while muttering, "Where's that thing? You only gave him a bottle; it's not enough!"

"He finished it?" Meng Wan was shocked because even Meng Nianyin only drank a bottle a day. This baby didn't even take long to finish an entire bottle.

"Yes, he finished drinking. Get that stalactite!" Tao Qingfan was still searching around.

"Leave it to me!" Meng Wan walked up and started making the stalactite milk concoction with Meng Nianyin in one arm.

Tao Qingfan looked on until Meng Wan finished preparing the milk and grabbed the bottle over to feed it to the baby in the cot.

The baby giggled as he hugged the bottle and gulped down the milk.

Meng Wan was startled because she sensed that the baby was taking in the substance too fast. The speed was beyond her imagination and a few times faster than Meng Nianyin.

"Did he finish it again?" Meng Wan stared blankly at the scene with shock. She did not expect the baby to be drinking it this fast.

Chapter 896

"He must be hungry!" Tao Qingfan decided. "Quick, another bottle here!"

"How could he drink so much?" Meng Wan shook her head. "It's not good for the baby!"

"I'll pay!" Tao Qingfan shot back.

"It's not about money. The baby is still young. If we feed him too much, he might have indigestion!" Meng Wan explained.

"Oh, I see..." Tao Qingfan was a little troubled. She knew the reasoning, but it was hard for her to resist the baby's puppy eyes.

"Just make him sleep!" Meng Wan suggested.

Chapter 896

“Oh yeah... Make him sleep!” Tao Qingfan nodded as she came to a realization. She immediately turned to the baby and said, “Hey, go to sleep. I’ll need to rest later too!”

Meng Wan was shocked because she never thought that Tao Qingfan would be so direct. Was she coaxing the baby or ordering him?

“Meng Wan, how should I name him?” Tao Qingfan rubbed her chin and paced in the room. “How about ‘Tao Nianyin’?”

Meng Wan was stunned and immediately blushed. When she was naming Meng Nianyin, she chose the characters to convey her longing for Tang Yin. What was the logic behind Tao Qingfan’s suggestion then?

Chapter 896

“No... How about ‘Qingfan Nianyin’? After all, he’s the heir to the Qingfan Association...” Tao Qingfan continued thinking deeply. Meng Wan could not help but laugh and shake her head, leaving the room with Meng Nianyin in her arms and ignoring Tao Qingfan’s daydreaming.

At the same time, Yuan Zhian was sighing on Tang Island and staring at Ji Youyou who was reading on the sofa not far away. She was clueless on how to explain herself.

Back when she had an issue with Tang Yin, she manipulated Tang Yin and Zhuge Pei to develop an intimate relationship out of vengeance. Who would have thought that Zhuge Pei got pregnant after that intimacy?

Chapter 896

The baby was born now. How could she explain the tricky situation to Ji Youyou?

Nearing afternoon, Yuan Zhian took a flight to Zurich without confessing to Ji Youyou.

On the other side of the world, Tang Yin and Zhuge Pei had entered the largest desert in Africa. From day to night, he had been carrying her on his back while traversing the desert at the greatest speed possible. The huge and scorching sun shone on top of them and baked everything in the desert like a huge oven.

Tang Yin carried Zhuge Pei and stumbled into an area beneath a sand cliff to shield themselves from the sun.

Chapter 896

Zhuge Pei was in a bad state and had been in a half-conscious mode. After being under the hot sun for a long time, she looked even more dehydrated and feeble.

He placed her on the ground and took out a Yuan Jade, which he pressed against her abdomen. The power from the Yuan Jade would sustain Zhuge Pei's life. If she was left in her current condition, she would be teetering on the brink of death soon.

After pressing on the Yuan Jade, he turned around to check the way from which they came. Zhao Yu was still nowhere to be seen by now and probably would not catch up for quite some time.

Chapter 896

At the thought of it, he fumbled around his waist and opened a mineral water bottle. He then lifted Zhuge Pei's chin and fed her a little water.

Before entering the desert, he had predicted what would happen to him. Therefore, he grabbed a few bottles of water with him. Unfortunately, the two bottles almost ran out of water in two days' time.

Since she was in a bad condition, she had gulped down most of the water. When the last sip of water was consumed now, the bottles became empty.

He threw away the empty bottles and buried them with sand. Then, he looked down at Zhuge Pei's face. Her lips were still cracked which was probably due to dehydration.

Chapter 896

For average people, traveling with two bottles of water in a huge desert for two days would take their lives. However, the two of them were both strong and therefore lucky to be holding out, except that Zhuge Pei's condition was deteriorating. If they could not leave the desert soon, she might be in grave trouble.

Sighing, Tang Yin stared at her dry lips in silence before cutting the skin on his wrist and held it near her lips.

Fresh blood trickled down from his wrist and dyed her lips red.

As if she had telepathy, she slowly opened her eyes and felt the warmth on her lips. When she realized what he was doing, she felt shocked to the core.

Chapter 896

Tang Yin did not seem to notice that. When her breathing calmed down, he retracted his wrist and stopped the bleeding. Next, he tapped on a few pressure points on her body and transferred his vitality bit by bit into her.

The jade on her abdomen released countless air billows that seeped into her body. Under the guidance of Tang Yin's vitality and his exercise of the techniques in The God Record, the air from the jade traveled across her body.

Zhuge Pei could clearly feel that she was recovering from her injuries. Even though the effect was not satisfactory, at least she was on her way to recovery.

Chapter 896

After she had absorbed all the vitality from a Yuan Jade, Tang Yin took out another one and pressed it against her abdomen.

The power of the Yuan Jade was far beyond anyone's imagination. Back then, Lin Cangqiu took a huge risk to steal the jades. Even Zhao Qing could only manage to steal two of the jades from the back of Mount Wang.

Within a short time, Tang Yin had used up two pieces of jade for Zhuge Pei. Her mind was blown and she felt a lump in her throat as a teardrop rolled down her cheek.

Chapter 897

Tang Yin continued his actions without any intention of stopping. When the second Yuan Jade was used up by Zhuge Pei, he took a deep breath and decided to take out a third one.

The sun gradually went down. By that time, Tang Yin had used up the fourth jade before Zhuge Pei's breathing finally stabilized.

Noticing that it was dusk, Tang Yin could also sense the drop in temperature, so he carried Zhuge Pei on his back again and continued their journey.

It was normal for the temperature in the desert to swiftly decrease when night fell. Therefore, Tang Yin continued his travel at night in order to save his stamina.

On his back, Zhuge Pei felt conflicted, for could feel his care toward her, though it was something she was not acclimated to.

She had been warning herself to hate the man in front of her, but she started hating herself for the feelings she had developed for him.

Three hours after their departure, a figure leaped down onto the spot they had taken shelter at. Zhao Yu looked rather disheveled as she had been injured when she was fighting the monster in the aboriginal village. On top of that, she had sustained more injuries from her battle with Tang Yin.

Chapter 897

Right now, the grey hair on her head turned ashen and the black dress on her looked a little torn. The lack of water for an extended period made her lips pale.

The two days of chasing infuriated her. She had not expected that she would fail to catch Tang Yin.

Under the sand cliff, she observed for quite some time and with her delicate toe, she kicked off a mound of sand on the ground, revealing a water bottle buried within.

She looked up with a cold smile and swiftly dashed across the desert once more. Under the moonlight, the movements of her figure made a tiny arc across the sky.

Chapter 897

Stars moved and the sun rose again on the east. When the sun shone on land once again, Tang Yin found another sand cliff and went underneath with Zhuge Pei.

The location was quite decent and could potentially shield them from the sun for the entire day. Placing Zhuge Pei down, Tang Yin started to dig at the sand, making a hole big enough to bury half of her body in.

He cut his wrist and it started bleeding. Then, he used another Yuan Jade to transfer its vitality into Zhuge Pei's body, after which he was rather fatigued and lay down by her. He put his arm under her head and drifted into a deep sleep.

Zhuce Pei slowly opened her eyes and saw his tired look. Complicated emotions rose within her as she took another glance at his wrist. Two lines of tears then rolled down from her eyes.

The frosty fairy who had always acted high and mighty never once revealed her emotions but that did not mean she felt nothing. True, she hated Tang Yin and the baby, but the encounters over these two days seemed to have changed her mind.

Pursing her lips, she slowly closed her eyes again. With her head leaning on Tang Yin's arm, she went into deep sleep.

While Tang Yin and Zhao Yu were playing cat and mouse, the situation in Beijing started to change.

Chapter 897

Huang Ting hurriedly opened the door to Elder Wang's office and walked to the table. He whispered, "We've received news from abroad that Tang Yin and Zhao Yu both went into the desert three days ago and haven't been heard of since. I'm afraid t-that it's going to be bad news!"

Elder Wang paused for a while before sighing softly. "Is the news accurate?"

"Yes!" Huang Ting answered.

Elder Wang nodded and stood up to pace around the office. Tang Yin and Zhao Yu's disappearance was good news to him, but everyone knew very well that one could not judge the two as if they were average people.

Chapter 897

"Elder Wang, do you think we could release Tang Lijiang and Xu Wei?" Huang Ting asked tentatively. "Madam Tang is injured and resting in Beijing. If she can't meet up with Tang Lijiang, I fear that the Tang Family will be troubled!"

Elder Wang nodded gently. When he first arrested the two, he did so because he wanted to stop them from vicious fighting. After all, the ultimate victory would depend on Tang Yin and Zhao Yu's fight at the end of the day.

If Tang Lijiang and Xu Wei were kept under captivity for too long, rumors might start to spread in Beijing.

"Go ahead and order for them to be released..." Elder Wang waved his hand but soon hesitated. "No, I will personally release them!"

Huang Ting nodded and took a step backward in preparation to leave. Elder Wang stood up and headed all the way down to the first floor and took a car to the location where the two were held captive.

The location mentioned before was not a harsh place at all. Instead, it could be described as lavish. Not only could Tang Lijiang and Xu Wei contact the outer world from their cells, they were allowed visitors as well. Daily necessities were well-stocked for their convenience.

The only frustration was the lack of freedom of movement. None could walk out of the manor. If they attempted to, they'd be greeted by guns.

When Elder Wang's car was parked outside the manor, Tang Lijiang stood up to greet his captor.

"There's no news on Young Master. I've sent some men to Africa and they've started a search at the borders of the desert. Two teams even headed into the desert! Once I have an update, I'll immediately inform you!" Miao Bai reported via video call.

Tang Lijiang nodded at him. "Okay. Send some men over as soon as possible. If we could capture that witch Zhao Yu, we'll get rid of her!"

"Sure!" Miao Bai nodded.

Chapter 897

Tang Lijiang ended the call and went downstairs to see Elder Wang walking into the house. He immediately went up and greeted Elder Wang with a wide smile. "Elder Wang, why are you here? Have I served my full sentence?"

Elder Wang snorted coldly and felt disgusted by Tang Lijiang's fawning look.

"Why? Are you unhappy staying at my place for a few days?"

"No, it's not that! Jiang Hui is injured and I can't visit her. As you know, with her bad temper..." Tang Lijiang flashed an embarrassed smile.

"Why? Is she going to kill me with that bad temper of hers?" Elder Wang lifted a brow in disdain.

Jiang Hui? What could she do? He did not believe that she could harm him in Beijing.

"Well, not to that extent..." Tang Lijiang smiled awkwardly and swiftly changed the topic with a meaningful tone. "From what I heard, Jiang Hui specially visited you last night and brought you a lot of gifts! Yesterday, she was also the one who fetched your granddaughter back from school..."

"What are you talking about?" Elder Wang's expression immediately changed as he pointed at Tang Lijiang shakily. "Tang Lijiang, you and your wife are equally shameless! My granddaughter is only twelve years old.

Chapter 898

“I’m just visiting anyway! Why are you being so angry?” Tang Lijiang chuckled. “We are family friends after all. Isn’t it normal to visit each other?”

“What do you mean by ‘family friends’?” Elder Wang was enraged as he pushed Tang Lijiang away before sitting down on his couch with a huff. “Don’t think that I don’t know what you guys are plotting. It’s impossible! A marriage? Our family never had any ideas to get more connections through marriage! You’d better keep that in your mind!”

“Come on, Elder Wang! It’s not like the Tang Family wants to forge connections through marriage!” Tang Lijiang was upset now. Sitting down next to Elder Wang, he complained, “My son got his own wife and lover as well. Why would he even take a liking to your granddaughter?”

“Tang Lijiang!” Elder Wang was furious now.

“Don’t be angry! Don’t be angry!” Tang Lijiang grinned. “I’m merely stating the truth!”

“I haven’t even got back to you for doing those things using my name! If you dare to take advantage of my granddaughter again, I’ll chop off your hands!” Elder Wang was still pissed off.

“I swear! We are not trying to take advantage of your granddaughter!” Tang Lijiang raised his hand and swore.

“Get out! Seeing you here pisses me off!” Elder Wang sneered before getting up and left.

Tang Lijiang couldn't help but pouted when the elder left. After going upstairs to pack his stuff, he turned around and left the manor.

When Elder Wang left Tang Lijiang's yard, he went into another yard.

Xu Wei was reading his book in the yard while Zhao Rui sat next to him and was watching a chess record. She had gotten more calmed down now.

The both of them immediately stood up when they saw Elder Wang entering.

“Xu Wei, I'm giving you a chance by letting you stay here to reflect on yourself! Don't blame me for being ruthless if you don't appreciate the opportunity given to you!" Elder Wang harrumphed coldly as he fumed.

Chapter 898

Xu Wei was overwhelmed by complicated emotions. He couldn't figure out what Elder Wang was thinking about as this was his first time seeing Elder Wang so angry.

"Go pack your stuff and return to the Xu Family!" Elder Wang turned around and left.

Huang Ting sighed lightly as he followed behind Elder Wang, who had really miscalculated this time around. Walking behind Elder Huang, Huang Ting could sense the changes in His tone of voice.

Chapter 898

Elder Wang still sounded warm and gentle when he met Tang Lijiang, although his attitude took a complete change when he spoke to Xu Wei. In fact, Elder Wang had been triggered by Tang Lijiang instead of doing it on purpose.

It was possible that Elder Wang accidentally brought his emotions toward Xu Wei due to the residual anger toward Tang Lijiang.

Tang Lijiang... What a manipulative man!

Although many might not be able to see through these emotions, Huang Ting could notice the somber look through Xu Wei's expression.

Huang Ting helped Elder Wang to get back into the car after leaving the manor.

Chapter 898

When the car engine started revving, Elder Wang coldly asked, “Why did you let Jiang Hui pick my granddaughter up after her class yesterday? Don’t you guys know how scary she could get when she’s in a craze? Even I’m terrified of her!”

Huang Ting quietened down before he explained softly, “Old Madam Wang said that we shouldn’t tell you about it!”

“What? Is she trying to go against me? What is she trying to do?” Anger was evident on Elder Wang’s face.

“During these days, although Jiang Hui was injured, she had never stopped!

Chapter 898

Apparently, after meeting with the Old Madam yesterday, they had already decided on that matter! Jiang Hui shall be your granddaughter's godmother!" Huang Ting didn't know if he should laugh or cry upon hearing that. "Old Madam Wang was saying that you don't have to be informed about trivial family matters like this!"

"Family matter? Is this even a family matter? Won't Jiang Hui feel any hint of embarrassment as she keeps leeching onto me like this? What is she plotting?" Elder Wang was so pissed off that his breath started hitching.

At that moment, Huang Ting felt awkward and didn't dare to say anything.

What is Jiang Hui trying to do?

Of course she's trying to use you to gain the upper hand from the fight with the Xu Family! Of course she's trying to use your name to allow the Tang Family to develop better in the country!

These tactics were commonly used by normal businessmen, which was despised by Elder Wang. Who knew that the couple from the Tang Family would go all out and pull something like this as well?

“Let's go back. Jiang Hui shall not be Yinyin's godmother without my permissions!” Elder Wang snorted coldly.

Huang Ting looked like he was in a predicament as he tried to persuade Elder Wang, “Why don’t you just let this go? Old Madam Wang had said that she’ll take Jiang Hui in as her goddaughter if you don’t agree. She’ll still be related to you either ways...”

Chapter 898

“That’s ridiculous!” Elder Wang was so furious that green veins started popping up on his forehead.

Huang Ting stopped speaking at that. He knew that whatever he said probably wouldn’t work. However, Huang Ting knew that Elder Wang was a loving and respectful husband toward the Old Madam.

So, whatever the Old Madam had decided on, Elder Wang would probably have to go along with it!

Chapter 898

“Go back to the company...” Elder Wang was so pissed off that he could only get the driver to reroute and head back to the company.

Huang Ting grinned when he heard that as his respect toward Tang Lijiang grew even more. This man’s understanding toward Elder Wang’s thoughts and behavior was too good that it was terrifying.

At the same time, Tang Lijiang just rushed into the manor.

In the manor, Jiang Hui was dressed in all black as she sat down and caressed her stomach with one hand. Staring at the sand table in front of her, Jiang Hui nodded lightly before declaring, “If we bury explosives here, it would cause a landslide on the mountain and burying the entire village... No matter how many people are in the village, all of them will die there!”

Chapter 898

“Madam, if we bury the explosives here, it will surely be figured out by others! Moreover, we’d already done our investigations for the past few days. All of the people in the village are martial arts fighters. The probability of us succeeding after planting explosives here would be zero!”

Jiang Hui frowned at that. “Zero probability? I don’t think so. What if we can manage to hold some of them back and give you guys time to plant the explosives? How much time do you need to bury the explosives?”

Hades' mouth twitched slightly. "I might need about a day with these much explosives!"

"One day is impossible. I'll give you three hours at most!" Jiang Hui's face was dark as she waved him off. "We shall make our moves here. Bring more people with you. I'll bait them and hold them off for about three hours for you. Can you succeed on the mission?"

Hades was stunned. He didn't expect the Madam in front of him to have completely lost her sanity. This wasn't murdering just one person, but was genocide against the entire village!

"You just need to tell me whether you can do it!" Jiang Hui's voice turned cold after noticing that Hades was quiet.

Chapter 898

Hades was silent for a long time, and he was able to feel that Jiang hui's eyes had never left him. If he ever dared to say that he did not have the guts to do, Jiang Hui would shoot him dead the next moment.

At this moment, Tang Lijiang walked in from outside.

“Get out!”

Jiang Hui frowned and reproached coldly.

Tang Lijiang smiled awkwardly and took a few steps forward, as he looked at the sand table that was placed on the table. “Looks good! When are we going to strike?”

Chapter 899

“After 3 days!” Jiang Hui answered coldly. She had done the calculation, and her injury would be mostly recovered after three days. It wouldn’t be too big of a deal to bomb Mount Wang by then.

“Got it!” Tang Lijiang nodded. “I’ve received news that Tao Qingfan has brought a child home...”

“I know it!” Jiang Hui raised her brows and turned to walk toward the door. “That’s my grandson! Since now you’ve returned, you shall figure out the rest on your own. I must blow up this mountain in three days and make this village not be able to live a peaceful life! I want to rush to meet my grandson, so stop being in my way!”

Chapter 899

Tang Lijiang smiled as he stroked his chin while looking at the topographic map.

“Patriarch... I’m afraid I really can’t do what Madam asked me to!” Hades was on the verge of crying, and he only dared to speak when he saw that Jiang Hui left.

Tang Lijiang gave a pat on Hades' shoulder. “If you are not capable of doing it, then think of a solution. I believe you can do it!”

“Patriarch!” Hades wanted to cry on Tang Lijiang’s shoulder.

Smiling at him, Tang Lijiang turned to leave the manor too.

Chapter 899

As Tang Lijiang entered the yard, he looked at the sky in the distance, and the smile on his face slowly faded. In fact, Tang Lijiang knew better than anyone that it was not the best time to bomb Mount Wang. The best time would actually be when Zhao Yu died in Africa and after Tang Yin returned alone.

Tang Lijiang was afraid that at that moment, he might not even need to get involved, for Mr. Wang would be able to do it himself and chop everyone from Mount Wang into pieces.

It was just that Tang Lijiang didn't dare to place his bet, because he was afraid that the person who returned from Africa would be Zhao Yu instead of Tang Yin. If that was the case, the Tang

Chapter 899

Family would inevitably be the one who suffered the greatest impact. They might even lose the entire China market and would have to withdraw from the stage of domestic businesses.

It was normal that Jiang Hui wanted to vent her anger after what Mount Wang did. The Tang Family wanted to give Mount Wang a taste of revenge while Tang Yin and Zhao Yu were still competing against each other. In this case, even if something really happened to Tang Yin, the Tang Family would not face too much of a loss too.

“You b*stard... You’d better return!”

Tang Lijiang murmured and sighed softly as he turned to walk toward the study. This was the first time Tang

Chapter 899

Lijiang felt so weak in so many years.

As morning arose in Africa, the temperature gradually increased from low to high.

Tang Yin dug up the sand and placed Zhuge Pei's body into the sand. After that, he put the back of his hand under Zhuge Pei's neck, as he closed his eyes and leaned against the sandstone.

It has been five days!

It has been five days since Tang Yin entered this desert.

In these five days, Tang Yin had no idea how far he had traveled. He only knew he was a little exhausted.

Chapter 899

Chapter 899

During this period, he had not eaten or drunk anything, and he had to occasionally bleed himself to help Zhuge Pei, which had completely brought him to the point of death. When Tang Yin carried Zhuge Pei all the way here on his back last night, he felt that it was a little too much to bear.

Although he had reached the transformation stage, he was not an immortal after all, and it was impossible for him to be strong enough to defy everything.

After Tang Yin closed his eyes for a moment, Tang Yin fell into a deep sleep.

When Zhuge Pei opened her eyes to look at Tang Yin's face, she remained silent. In the past few days, Zhuge Pei discovered that Tang Yin had never spoken to her, and he had never communicated with her too. Tang Yin did most of the things on his own and had never requested for anything in return.

Chapter 899

Zhuge Pei felt a little weird with their way of getting along with each other. Especially in the past few days, after she digested so many pieces of Yuan jade, one after another, she felt that her own injuries had recovered a bit, and she had also regained her strength.

She was a huge step closer to the transformation stage. It was just that she didn't say a word about it, and Tang Yin didn't seem to ask anything, as the two of them continued their journey in the desert in that way.

Chapter 899

The sun in the distance gradually rose, and it was nicely blocked by the sandstone behind them.

The spot that the two of them were located at was a rare shadow in the desert, so they didn't have to worry about the temperature during the day being too high, which would cause them unable to fall asleep.

Tilting her head, Zhuge Pei lay on Tang yin's arm comfortably as she closed her eyes. She felt that after these days, she had become familiar with this arm, and she even got used to it.

The two of them had slept for around five hours when they heard a rustling sound from a distance.

Chapter 899

Awakened by the sound, Tang Yin immediately opened his eyes, with his gaze fixed at the distance.

Zhao Yu was standing on the sand dune as she looked at Tang Yin and Zhuge Pei coldly. The expression on her face seemed to be exploding soon.

“Shameless!”

Tang Yin slowly got up and stood under the shadow. “Do you even know what shamelessness is?”

“You guys are doing such intimate things under broad daylight! That’s absolutely shameless!” Zhao Yu flung her arm and clenched her fist.

“Us being intimate is considered shameless? The Zhao Family had misused its power and strength to collude with secular forces and forcefully killed innocent people. Isn't that shameless? Isn't it also shameless for the Zhao Family to forcibly rob civilian girls on the street?" Tang Yin sneered and raised his arm. "Zhao Yu, fight me if you want and stop spouting nonsense!"

Chapter 899

Zhao Yu's face was sullen, and her entire body's Qi Energy was surging before a crackling noise was heard.

The noise sounded extremely terrifying.

At the back of Zhao Yu, an invisible air wave had already risen, as if it were about to form a tornado.

“Zhuge Pei!” Zhao Yu berated sternly. “If you were to take action today and help me defeat Tang Yin, I will not blame you for having sexual relations with him! If you were to stand by him, I will make sure that you die along with him today!”

Zhuce Pei stared at Zhao Yu, and her face turned ghastly pale.

Kill Tang Yin?

If Zhao Yu were to ask her this question a few days ago, Zhuge Pei wouldn't even hesitate about killing Tang Yin. However, her mind had changed by now.

“Quit the nonsense!” Tang Yin rushed forward vigorously as he raised his hand and gave Zhao Yu a punch. Now that Zhao Yu had caught up with him,

Chapter 899

Tang Yin had no intention of avoiding the battle. He knew that they were bound to have a battle among the two of them.

Tang Yin didn't want this battle of death to come so soon, but he didn't expect Zhao Yu to catch up with him so quickly.

With the roar of a punch, Tang Yin's body was already on the sand dune. Zhao Yu then raised his arm and grabbed Tang Yin's wrist, as he used the back of his palm and slammed onto Tang Yin's lower rib.

That slam produced sounds as though winds were whistling by. If the slam was violent enough, Tang Yin would definitely die in this desert.

Chapter 899

At this critical moment, Tang Yin turned his body around and grabbed Zhao Yu's palm. The swift action caused the vitality within him to suddenly explode.

The air currents thus clashed between the two of them.

Tang Yin quickly backed away as he felt his chest churning. For the past few days, Tang Yin had been in dismay, and although his level was still stable, the vitality in his body had mostly been depleted.

Taking a step forward, Zhao Yu reached out her palm and hit on Tang Yin's forehead.

However, Tang Yin raised his palm to block Zhao Yu's palm. He then turned his body over and gave Zhao Yu a kick.

Chapter 900

Boom—

The two of them backed off one after another. Tang Yin spat out a mouthful of blood, but Zhao Yu's body only trembled slightly.

“You must die today!”

The strength in Zhao Yu's body burst out, and she was able to confirm that Tang Yin had already entered his transformation stage. Although currently Tang Yin had lost some of his strength, Zhao Yu felt that she would definitely lose the chance to kill him once he recovered.

Therefore, the current moment was the best chance, or perhaps the last chance, for her.

Zhao Yu stepped forward as she gathered her whole body's strength. Her little and dainty figure seemed to contain supreme power.

Boom—

Zhao Yu gave a strong punch, which Tang Yin blocked with both his hands on his chest before he rolled toward the bottom of the sand dune.

The force from the punch was too strong for Tang Yin to bear. It was already unbearable even when Tang Yin had advanced to his transformation stage, and if it wasn't for his transformation stage, the punch would've caused Tang Yin to die on the spot.

Chapter 900

Zhao Yu was overjoyed when she saw the scene. She immediately moved to Tang Yin's front as she was ready to make another move. The sound of the wind on her fist was whizzing as she was going to punch at Tang Yin.

Nevertheless, Tang Yin suddenly turned his body and kicked at Zhao Yu's chest.

Puff—

It was a hidden trick that made Tang Yin regain control of the whole situation. Zhao Yu was about to win, but Tang Yin suddenly gave his last shot of strength by kicking her from the most tricky angle.

Chapter 900

With a bang, Zhao Yu instantly spat a whole mouthful of blood and backed off with her face turning pale.

In fact, Tang Yin was nowhere better than Zhao Yu. After he gave her a kick, his body was almost buried under the sand, and the attacking leg had also been fractured.

“You’re despicable!”

Zhao Yu yelled as she struggled to get up, and she suddenly sat on the ground in vain. It wasn’t because Tang Yin’s kick was too strong, but because the force that Zhao Yu had when she collided with the kick was so hard that she was unable to get up.

Tang Yin, who had fractured his leg, and was struggling to crawl out of the sand, was also unable to stand up.

Chapter 900

Tang Yin knew that both ends would suffer a loss, but it was his only method.

“Zhuge Pei!”

Zhao Yu yelled at Zhuge Pei. She had already lost the ability to get up, so she could only turn to look at Zhuge Pei. “Come over, kill him... All you need to do is strangle his neck and suffocate him!”

Zhuge Pei’s body trembled and her face became extremely pale. Zhuge Pei had been watching the fight between the two of them, but now that she was told to deal with Tang Yin, she felt a little anxious.

Chapter 900

“What are you doing? What are you waiting for?” Zhao Yu screamed loudly, her gaze exceptionally gloomy. “Are you going to betray me and all the Hidden Families too?”

Zhuge Pei’s expression kept changing.

“Get up and kill that b*stard, and I will make sure you achieve the transformation stage within three years, and you will be the first person in my Hidden Families!” Zhao Yu howled, as her gaze was fixated on Zhuge Pei. “Get up and kill him! Or else, don’t even think that I will let the Zhuge Family survive!”

“Hahaha...”

At this moment, Tang Yin suddenly raised his head to the sky and laughed.

Chapter 900

“Zhao Yu, is this how your Zhao Family do things? Exterminating everyone in the family if they ever dare to disobey you? What right do you have to exterminate everyone from the family? Who are you to decide whether a family should survive or not?”

“It’s because we are the living Gods... And my words are oracular words!”
Zhao Yu smirked.

Tang Yin stared at Zhao Yu. “I didn’t see any oracular words, I only saw a poop-spitting mouth that has been spitting poop continuously! Living Gods? Are you even worthy of that?”

“You’re seeking death!” Zhao Yu was furious. She tried to get up again, but she staggeredly blew up a wave of air billow, which swept directly toward Tang Yin.

Chapter 900

Tang Yin was trying to support his body, and because of his fractured leg and seriously injured body, he could only watch the air billow rolled over to him, and silently endure it as he was blown out by it.

“Kill him!”

Zhao Yu looked at Tang Yin’s figure, which fell next to Zhuge Pei, and immediately ordered her, “Kill him! Didn’t you hate him bitterly? Kill him right now. As long as you kill him, I will give you anything you want!”

Zhuce Pei lowered her head, as she felt her nose twist, and tears flowed from her eye socket.

Chapter 900

“Kill him!” Zhao Yu raged and roared.

Tang Yin was already unable to get up, and his mouth was full of blood. However, there was still a mocking smile on his face.

“Zhuge Pei! Are you trying to disobey my orders? I want you to kill him! Kill him immediately!” Zhao Yu roared again.

Zhuge Pei’s body trembled as she slowly lifted her head and slowly raised one of her hands. Among the three of them, Zhuge Pei was the only one who was capable of moving around.

Looking at Zhuge Pei’s actions, Zhao Yu’s eyes glowed with excitement. “Hit him! Hit him now!”

Chapter 900

Glancing at Zhuge Pei, Tang Yin slowly closed his eyes, for he knew Zhuge Pei hated him very much. If she decided to kill him at this moment, he would definitely die.

“Zhuge Pei!”

At this moment, Zhao Yu’s furious roar came from afar.

Tang Yin opened his eyes, and felt that his body was lifted by someone. When he took a closer look, he realized that Zhuge Pei was the one that was carrying him.

“Master, expel me then!” Zhuge Pei turned her head, as tears streamed down her face, she looked at Zhao Yu and slowly shook her head. “I don’t want to take advantage of his perilous state, so I shall take him away!”

“Zhuge Pei, what are you trying to do?” Zhao Yu yelled, her eyes filled with anger and disbelief. She always thought her Zhao Family was like an emperor among the Hidden Families, so no matter what the Zhao Family said, the members of the Hidden Family were expected to obey it. However, how could Zhuge Pei disobey her orders now?

Tao Qingfan and Zhuge Pei’s betrayal that happened one after another was unquestionably a great blow to Zhao Yu.

“You betrayed your master...”

Zhuce Pei closed her eyes and wept in pain. Turning around, she carried Tang

Chapter 900

Yin on her back and walked away.

“Since you betrayed the Hidden Families and your master, you will face the wrath of heaven!” Zhao Yu howled loudly like a crazy woman. She staggered to get up, but fell to the ground again after a few steps.

As Zhuge Pei carried Tang Yin on her back, she struggled to walk forward, leaving a series of footprints in the desert.

The wind and sand rolled over and instantly buried those footprints until they disappeared.
